DENTISTRY. - Dr. M. C. Clarke has returned from Richibucto and can be found at his rooms over Noonan's Store as usual.

R. J. S. AND R. B. S.—The controversy between the above-named parties, being a personal one and not at all of public interest, we must decline to give any further publicity to it.

FIRST SHIPMENT OF SALMON.—The first shipments of Salmon from the Chatham Railway Station was made on Friday last by Messrs. J. & W. Anderson. The fish were consigned to Boston.

FOR THE HOT WEATHER.—Mr. Keary has imported a large lot of Cincinnati Lager Beer. It is said to be an excellent temperate beverage for the hot weather which we are soon to have.

DERELICT VESSEL. — The master of the barque Henrick Dirkes reported to Pilot M. Martin a few days ago that he passed in the Gulf a vessel bottom up, coppered, but he could not tell whether she was a barque or a ship.

MAIL SERVICE.—Two mails a week, instead of one, as heretofore, are now to go to Littleton and all intermediate offices on the Northwest. The extra service has been secured through the efforts of James Somers, Esq., Councillor.

SAILOR DROWNED—Yesterday morning, early, as the barque Mina, from Liverpool was being towed up the River by the Sultan, when above Black Brook, a lad of 16, named Carl Olsen, one of the crew, fell from the royal yard arm into the River. The vessel was immediately cast off by the Sultan and a boat was launched, but before it could reach the spot the unfortunate lad had sunk for the last time in life.

SHIPWRECK.—The Norwegian bark Niord arrived at Newcastle on Monday last, bringing the crew of the brig Barbara from Limerick for Miramichi, which was wrecked on St. Paul's Island the 5th inst., during a dense fog. On the 6th the vessel went to pieces. The crew remained on the rocks six days, and were cared for by Mr. Campbell, Superintendent of the Island. They were taken off on the 14th.

SHOCKING DEATH:—A man was found dead in a bear trap on the Bathurst Road last week. Correspondence which has passed between Chief of Police Stapleton and Coroner McLaughlan of Bathurst, indicates that the name of deceased was Hans Jorgen, who ran away from his ship at this port. He, probably, mistook the trap for the entrance to a camp and, on creeping in, sprung the fatal drop.

PICKED UP.—We omitted to mention the following in our last issue:—Two men named Joseph Colen and Henry Blanchard who, while absent from their vessel in a dory on the Banks off St. Peter's, on the 30th ult., became separated from her through fog, and after being five days and five nights without food, were picked up by the Norwegian barque Industrie and brought to this port. They were sent to Halifax by J. B. Snowball, Esq., French Consul, on arrival here.

MIRAMICHI CRICKET CLUB.—On Monday evening a meeting of the members of the Miramichi Cricket Club was held at the office of Dr. J. B. Benson, Major Morris, Captain, occupying the chair.

The Secretary-Treas. stated he had made enquiries as to the prices of Cricket stock as directed, and read price lists, from which it appeared that those of Messrs. Della Torre of St. John were the most reasonable.

The Secretary then read the names of eleven new members who were proposed including that of R. E. McKee, Esq., as honorary member. These were duly elected.

The committee on bye laws reported that they had framed the rules on the basis of those of the Fredericton Club.

The by-laws were then read by the Secretary and adopted.

The election of officers was completed. They are as follows:—

President—I. B. Oakes, Esq.
Captain—Major Morris.
Secty-Treas.—R. Fairey.

Executive Committee—H. McCully, Dr. M. C. Clarke, Dr. J. B. Benson and H. A. Allison.

On Motion, the Secretary was instructed to order a quantity of bats, balls, gloves, etc.

The evenings appointed for regular practice were those of Monday and Thursday, at 7 o'clock.

The bats wickets etc., were ordered to be left in charge of Mr. H. Patterson.

A motion was made and carried unanimously that the members present pay their subscriptions, which was done accordingly.

The meeting then adjourned. The Club now numbers 19 members.

DRAMATIC ENTERTAINMENT.—On Thursday evening the members of the Campbellton Reform Club gave a dramatic entertainment in the Masonic Hall under the auspices of the Dutcher Reformers of this town. The piece selected was the well known play, "Ten nights in a Bar Room".

The play was fairly put on considering the difficulties attending the use of portable scenery, and the amateurs seemed perfectly at home in their parts. Some of the scenes were very effective and the audience were much pleased and agreeably surprised with the play. The entertainment concluded with the farce "My Turn Next." Teraxicum Twitters, a nervous apothecary on the eve of marrying a widow, discovers that she has had four husbands, whom it is hinted she has made away with by administering mushroom catsup to them. He is unable to resist his fate, however, though he concludes it is "his turn next" and during a dinner scene passes his food to his man Tim Bolus who soon exhibits symptoms of poisoning, which confirm his master's suspicions. The matter finally clears up by the maid confessing that she has put cayenne pepper on the apothecary's plate, the widow stating that she has only had one husband with four names, and that the will which she was supposed to have got the apothecary to sign, was a cheque for £50 of her money to save him from arrest. The part of "Teraxicum Twitters" was amusingly sustained by Mr. W. Price, who was well supported, by the subordinate characters. The house was a fair one, but as theatrical entertainments are somewhat of a novelty in Chatham, a more numerous audience might have been anticipated. On Friday night the amateurs played the same pieces at Newcastle under the auspices of the Dutcher Reformers, and that being the evening of their usual weekly entertainment, there was a better audience.

Holiday.

The Queen's Birthday is proclaimed a public Holiday by His Honor, the Lieutenant Governor. There is excellent trout fishing in several of our local streams, which will, no doubt, attract those who are fond of piscatory sport. We presume also that the Cricket and Base Ball clubs will endeavor to have some practice. Those who are fond of railway excursions have opportunity indulgence on the Intercolonial at Holiday fares. There is no lack of the means of enjoyment and it is probable that employers will not be backward in affording to employees the chance of making the most out of one of our seasonable Holidays.

St. Andrew's Church.

At a meeting of the Presbytery of Miramichi held in St. Andrew's Church last Tuesday afternoon, the resignation of the Rev. Wm. Wilson, the esteemed and popular pastor of that Church, was considered. The Hon. Wm. Muirhead, L. J. Tweedie Esq., M. P. P., and W. S. Loggie Esq., appeared as Commissioners for the interests of the congregation. They represented the deep regret of the congregation on account of Mr. Wilson's resignation and their desire for the continuance of his pastorate amongst them. The members of the Presbytery also expressed their deep sorrow at parting with a brother so beloved, so popular a preacher and pastor, and so active and efficient a co-presbyter as Mr. Wilson, one member, in speaking of the fact that during a ministry of ten ten years in St. Andrew's Church Mr. Wilson's acceptability as a preacher, did not wane, said that this was a proof of a good head and a noble heart. He held that sooner or later preachers and people found that the most effective sermons must be permeated by the heart as well as the brains of the preacher. The good preacher must have a good, tender, sympathetic heart.

Mr. Wilson however, while thanking with deep emotion, the Commissioners and Presbytery for their kind words, urged the acceptance of his resignation. With great reluctance the following motion was made by Rev. J. Anderson seconded by Rev. S. Houston and adopted:—

"That this Presbytery, yielding to Mr. Wilson's adherence to his demission, receive it with deep regret and express their sense of the loss which his departure will be to the congregation, to the Presbytery, and to the Church generally—that the usual certificates be granted to him, that a committee consisting of the mover and seconder, and Moderator, the seconder to be Convener, to draw out a minute regarding Mr. Wilson,—and that his resignation take effect on the 1st of July next."

We are quite sure that the regret of the Presbytery and congregation are shared by the community generally.

Entertainment of the Dutcher Reformers.

On Tuesday evening the Dutcher Reformers held their weekly entertainment in the Masonic Hall. The chair was occupied by Vice-President, John Shirreff, Esq., and there was a good attendance. The meeting was opened with prayer by the Rev. Mr. McBain.

It was also announced that the meeting for the appointment of Directors would be held at the close of the entertainment. Members were also requested to wear their badges at Tuesday evening meetings.

MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS.

At the close of the entertainment, Vice-President, John Shirreff, Esq., was called to the chair and Mr. I. B. Oakes appointed Secretary.

The Chairman then read the Act of Incorporation of the Chatham Dutcher Temperance Reformers' Temple Company," formed for the purpose of erecting a Hall, capital stock $5000 with power to increase to $8000 in $5.00 shares.

On motion of Mr. William Johnston, seconded by Mr. James McKay it was ordered that nine directors be appointed.

The following gentlemen were then elected directors.—Mr. Sinclair, Wm. Murray, John Shirreff, W. Johnston, I. B. Oakes, L. J. Tweedie, B. Stapledon, D. Davidson, E. A. Strang.

After some discussion—

It was resolved that the drafting of the By-laws of the Company be left to the directors.

It was also resolved that the directors report with reference to By-laws at the meeting to be held on the second Tuesday in June.

In answer to questions about the site and amount of stock taken, Mr. W. Murray stated that the stock subscribed amounted to $1,400, and that there were many eligible sites available, but that the Committee appointed for that purpose had not yet reported.

Correspondence.

The Threadbare Subject.

MIRAMICHI May 11, 187 .

To the Editor of the Miramichi Advance.

SIR:—In the last issue of your paper I see a communication over the name of "Observer" in answer to a letter written by the Rev. Mr. McKeown. It is plainly to be seen by the tenor of the communication the source from whence it came, and I ask a short space in your paper to answer a few of the points brought up by "Observer". It is not my intention to take up the low and ungentlemanly attack made on the Rev. Mr. McKeown by "Observer", for if that gentleman sees fit he is quite able to defend himself.

I am not aware who "Observer" is but rumor says he is one of the Rev. gentlemen appointed on that committee to investigate the Escuminac Church affair, but surely it cannot be the case; if so I am sure "Observer" needs the prayers and sympathy of all good men. I will just take up a few of the points "Observer" has tried to make and then leave it to the public to decide if he is right or wrong. The first point "Observer" has tried to make seems to be the key of all the trouble in connection with the Escuminac Church, it is simply this, that the Methodist Conference saw fit to send a young minister to Escuminac without asking the Miramichi Presbytery for their consent to do so. This, Mr. Editor, seems to be where the shoe pinches a certain body of so-called Christians. Let me ask "Observer" what special claim the Presbyterian body has on that section of the County. Have they got a life lease of it from Government or do they claim it as a heditary right, handed down from past generations?

They claim the Methodists trespassing on the field of other denominations. It was too long, Mr. Editor, the people of Escuminac were under other denominations, and thus they seized the first opportunity that offered of bettering their spiritual condition. If "Observer" claims that Escuminac is under their special care and that it is their special ground, I think he should, as one of the committee that was down to Escuminac, when he arrived home, have locked himself up in some room and got down on his bended knees and with hands extended to heaven shed bitter tears of repentance and asked the Lord to forgive them for the way they neglected that special part of the county that was under their care. The next point Mr. Editor that this charitable and christian "Observer" tries to make is that considerable sums were subscribed by the people of Escuminac and elsewhere for the purpose of enacting a bona fide Union Church. No doubt such was the case, but the people of Escuminac knew too well how they had been neglected in the past, and feeling confident they had nothing else to expect in the future from the other denominations, after careful consideration concluded to deed it to the Methodist Conference, and, I might just here say, if that Revd. Committee had stated the facts connected with their mission to Escuminac, instead of the glaring mistatements they did publish, I am sure there would have been no more need of a newspaper correspondence. When said committee asked the question at the meeting they called at Escuminac, if the people had the same business to do over again would they do the same thing, and the committee know the answer they received unanimously from all present, that they would drive home the nail they struck so well on the head before. Now I really consider that answer should be sufficient to convince these Revd. gentlemen, that the people were satisfied and did not thank them for their interference.

Again, Mr. Editor, in sec. 6 of that wonderful article of "Observer" he displays all the ugliness and all the spleen his puny mind is capable of showing, and very little of that christian charity that should emanate from a well wisher of the peace of a mixed community, but directly charges a large intelligent, christian body with dishonesty. Now, Mr. Editor, I consider this is carrying the thing too far it is an old adage and a true one that people who live in glass houses should not throw stones. What about that Union Church at Douglastown? Was it not generally understood that it was to be a union church? Did not all Protestant denominations subscribe more or less towards it with that understanding? But who claims it and monopolises it? Surely the Presbyterians—and then talk of glaring dishonest! Poor "Observer"! The people of Escuminac must have treated him very cool otherwise he would not be so wrathy, and now, in conclusion, I would just tell "Observer" that the people of Escuminac intend holding special prayers for that committee to ask the Lord to forgive them for the mistatements and falsehoods they publish as facts, and also ask him before he writes again to make himself better acquainted with the people in that section of the county. Then he will be better able to write in a more impartial manner. Thanking you kindly for the space you have allowed me I remain Mr. Editor

Yours truly, ONE WHO KNOWS.

[As intimated last week, the above letter is the last we shall publish in reference to Escuminac Church, unless under the real names of the writers.—EDITOR.

sand where the tide was low. I did not see if the wagon had turned or not. I did not see if it went along the bank or not.—It had backed down to the water. It was about 4 p. m. when I went there. That's the only time I was there. I know Harry was around the river at the railway bridge on the Sunday after I was at the river. I don't know of John Osborne being up there. I heard nothing said of it in the family.—(Hatchet produced in court.) The handle was longer but not so big. The hatchet is about the same size as the one Harry used. I saw a hatchet there before. There was a V shaped incision in the blade like on this one. After I left the Osbornes I went to Moncton and lived with Jim Blair a few days. I lived at M'Carthy's a while. During court I was at Marshal Steadman's, and from there to Hampton jail, from which place I have come to give evidence.

CROSS EXAMINATION.

In cross examination on Saturday Annie Parker said this was the fourth time she had given evidence concerning the murder. She never told at Hampton she would not tell all she knew. She went to live with Mrs. McCarthy before she knew McCarthy's hat had been found in the Scaduac. She looked at the clock when McCarthy entered, and it was then nine. When he departed it was ten o'clock. She was scrubbing the dining-room, and listened to the conversation in adjoining room at the same time. The folding doors between the apartments were open about a foot. McCarthy was dancing around and talking to Eliza. He certainly was dancing. McCarthy was sitting about half a yard from the doors and between them and the fireplace. She could see through an aperture in the doors what McCarthy had in his hand. At 10 o'clock he departed.

The first declaration she made was before the Sheriff and she was not careful what she said. She did not understand at this time the full nature of an oath, and Wortman did not explain it to her. She never said in evidence before Wortman she hadn't seen McCarthy after ten o'clock on the night of the tragedy. She certainly saw McCarthy after ten o'clock that night, and if she told Wortman to the contrary it was an untruth. She certainly wiped the dining room dry and finished scrubbing thoroughly as she listened to the conversation between McCarthy and Osbornes in the bar and sitting room. The floor always had a brown and grey appearance and perhaps was wet. She did not think it could have been set fire to with a match. The solemn declaration made in January was as binding on her conscience as her oath. Only one lamp was lit on the night of Oct. 12th. It was in the bar room. When she came down stairs the mother, daughter and Harry were in the hall.

The door was locked when we went to take the body out. Saw no person lock it. A man entered and went out about twelve o'clock. She couldn't recognize him. The Osbornes drank four glasses each, but they seemed unaffected by the liquor. She never invited people to the house. Fraser came of his own accord, and had a team. She saw him that afternoon about three o'clock, and promised to meet him that night. He was no lover of her's. She never saw Fraser after that afternoon. The Whites kept the Kirk hotel then. She was in the hotel but once. Every time McCarthy drank the Osbornes drank, and he did all the treating, It was the fourth drink that McCarthy got the drug in, which affected him in ten minutes after. The two drinks witness took with the drug in it did not affect her, as the drug was not stirred. It was her opinion that the Osbornes wanted to poison her. She had to take drinks with the others to save her life. She was too frightened to make alarm. She would have been prevented had she attempted to make a disturbance. Witness described the knot around the stone as a slip-knot and the knot around the neck as firm. The stone laid on McCarthy's breast, and did not fall off while the body was being carried to the waggon. She did not know if the stone fell off when the body was being lifted into the waggon. The body appeared to be dead and limpy. McCarthy was a large-framed, broad-chested man. Mrs. Osborne and Eliza lifted the body on the waggon and Harry shoved it in. Mrs. Osborne got in the waggon and pulled the body in. The waggon-box was about six inches high and appeared to be black. Never saw Mrs. Osborne count the money. She offered me half the package of money, which was in bulk. She took an oath before Harry that she would not talk about murder any more. The Osbornes got money out of only one pocket. She was standing in front door while Harry was absent with body. She went up stairs after Harry came back and cried. Witness said she would not contradict what she stated. She remained at Osbornes seven weeks after the murder, and was sick six days of that time. She was never told she must go away because being sick. She had never spoken to Mr. Osborne. [The supposed drug was exhibited, but witness could not identify as a sample of the drug. The drug presented looked like washing soda in small lumps.]

To Mr. Tuck—Witness said she heard Eliza read a letter dunning for money due on a piano, and said $40 was sent in payment. A rope, size of a bed-cord was shown by Mr. Tuck. Annie identified it as about the size.

Dr. Tuck said that though the rope had no slip knot on it now, it had when found as he could bring a witness to prove.

At this point the evidence was read over to the witness. Annie listened attentively to the reading of her testimony and made no objection of any note.

The inquest adjourned until Tuesday.

A stone, supposed to be the one attached to McCarthy's neck, was taken from the Scadouc River on Saturday night. It is said to minutely resemble the stone described by Annie Parker, who went to Hampton, and is confined in jail there, to await further developments.

Damien White found the stone. It is queer that this man should find the rope, the body and the stone.

The Coroner and Jury visited the Scadouc and vicinity on Saturday afternoon, but could find no traces, though a sharp lookout was kept by the Jury, of wagon tracks in Atkinson's field. The idea seems silly, as seven months has passed by since the wagon with the body was taken through the field.

BY TELEGRAPH.

(Special to the Miramichi Advance.)

SHEDIAC, 22nd May.

On resuming inquest yesterday Stephen Sturgis and O. R. Merrick, American Nursery Agents, testified to having been in the Waverly (Osborne) House on 12th Oct. They came on the 11th, left on the 16th; produced a dairy showing where they were at different times.

They drew a registered letter at the Post Office here on the 15th. They were very positive as to their being here from the eleventh to the sixteenth.

They slept at the Osbornes the night of the twelfth, Merrick having a sore leg being restless. In fact he says he never slept soundly and would have heard the noise of a body falling and being carried through the hall to the front door.

The hotel was orderly. They never noticed any of Osbornes under the influence of liquor. The table was attended by Mrs. and Miss Osborne and they never saw Annie Parker outside of the kitchen.

Nothing was done this morning on account of the severe illness of one juror.

The inquest was adjourned until to-morrow morning when the Riley girls will be called on the stand. Deputy Sheriff Sweeney went over to P. E. Island after some suspicious character who is said to have been intimate with Annie Parker and was here at the time of the murder.

The Sheriff and Coroner are determind to sift the mystery to the bottom and it is hoped we shall have some more developements before the affair is over.

CHEAP BREAD.—Eli Perkins states in the New York Sun that the greatest wheat crops ever seen in the United States will be that of the present harvest.

PRETENDED RUSSIAN EMIGRANTS.—It is stated that many pretended Russian emigrants are passing through Germany, who are seamen in disguise, going to America to man Russian Cruisers.

THE HANLAN-PLAISTED RACE. — On Wednesday the 15th inst. the much talked of international race between Hanlan and Plaisted took place at Toronto 6.05 p. m., the waters of the bay, being fortunately, smooth at that hour. There were large crowds gathered to see the race, The men took water together. After a hundred yards, a dozen strokes placed Hanlan ahead, and an interesting half mile struggle ensued, Plaisted at last getting level, then Hanlan went to the front and finally came in about 3½ lengths ahead. The race was rowed from east to west against a slight breeze, and was admitted to be fairly won, the only dispute being as to the time, which members of the Hanlan Club place at from 14 m. to 14 m. 40 sec., while other authorities put it at 13.40.

His Fame Abroad.

The Philadelphia Presbyterian places the following in its wit and humor column:—

"Who, said Mr. Peter Mitchell, a member of the Canadian House of Commons, to the members who were trying by interruption to choke him off, who brayed there?"

"It was an echo! retorted a member amid a yell of delight."

1st Cor. XV. 52.

When the grave's long sleep is ended,
When we ope' our death-sealed eyes,
How shall dust like ours be quickened?
With what body shall we rise?

We have borne the earthly image,
And the heavenly we shall bear;
Not as yet appeared the likeness
That the risen flesh shall wear.

Like to His most glorious body
Our vile bodies shall be made,
In eternal strength and beauty
His redeemed shall be arrayed.

Rest in hope, then, stricken body,
In the grave thou shalt not lie;
In the flesh thou shalt behold Him,—
Thou shalt see Him eye to eye.

CARD.

To the Electors of the County of Northumberland,

GENTLEMEN:—

Writs having been issued for a General Election, I am now a Candidate for your suffrages to represent your interest during the next four years in the Local Assembly of the Province.

From a long residence amongst you, and a close intimacy with the requirements of the County, if elected I shall devote my best abilities towards furthering your interests.

I shall advocate a better system of collecting, and a reduction of the Stumpage, the building of the Miramichi Valley Railway, and the formation of a pure, prudent and economical Government to administer the affairs of this Province.

Soliciting your support,
I have the honor to be, gentlemen,
Your Obedient servant,
THOS. F. GILLESPIE.

Chatham, May 21, 1878.

CARD.

TO THE ELECTORS OF THE COUNTY OF NORTHUMBERLAND.

GENTLEMEN:—

I beg to inform you that I will be a candidate for your suffrages at the approaching Election for the Local Assembly.

In the small compass of an Election Card it is impossible to give one's views on the political questions which have been before the Assembly for the past four years, or which will probably arise during the next terms. Therefore, I will only say that as your Representative for the past term, I have pursued an independant course, and one which was calculated to benefit this County.

At the public meetings which will be held in the different Parishes of the County before Polling day, I will take the opportunity of giving my views at length on these questions.

Meantime I have the honor to be your
Ob't. Serv't,
L. J. TWEEDIE.

CARD.

TO THE ELECTORS OF THE COUNTY OF NORTHUMBERLAND.

GENTLEMEN:—

At the request of a large majority of the Electors residing on the South West River I have consented to offer as a Candidate at the coming Election for the Local Assembly of this Province.

If elected I will deal fairly with all measures affecting this County, opposing all measures which place us at the mercy of the Southern portion of this Province.

Your Obedient Servant,
ROBERT SWIM.

ELECTION CARD!

To the Electors of the County of Northumberland.

GENTLEMEN:—I shall be a Candidate at the approaching Election of Members for the Provincial Legislature, Should you honor me with your support I shall faithfully endeavor to advance the interests of the Province, and of this County in particular.

I am, gentlemen,
Your ob't serv't,
E. HUTCHISON.

TO THE ELECTORS

OF THE COUNTY OF NORTHUMBERLAND:

GENTLEMEN:—I offer my services again as one of your Representatives in the General Assembly, and respectfully solicit your support. If you do me the honor to re-elect me I will do my best endeavors to serve and protect your interests.

I am,
Your ob't serv't,
ALLAN A. DAVIDSON.

Newcastle, 15th May, '78.

TO THE ELECTORS

Of the County of Northumberland.

GENTLEMEN,—

The term of the Local Legislature having expired you will be called upon to select four Representatives.

I again offer as a Candidate and should I be elected it will be my aim to diligently apply myself to protect the varied interests of the County.

My intention is to visit the different parishes and hold public meetings.

Soliciting your support,
I am, your obdt. Servant,
MICHAEL ADAMS.

Newcastle,
13th May, 1878.

CARD.

TO THE ELECTORS OF THE COUNTY OF NORTHUMBERLAND.

GENTLEMEN:—You are to be called upon within a few weeks to elect four representatives in the New Brunswick Assembly and, in response to the expressed wishes of a large number of your body, I have determined to again offer for the seat which I now hold.

It is commendable that leading and experienced citizens should aspire to legislative positions, but think you will agree with me that it is not alone in the large towns or in the ranks of but one profession that we should expect to find those qualifications which fit men to represent the varied interests of so important a County as Northumberland

Having been one of your representatives during the past four years my record is before you, and while making no invidious comparisons I feel that I can claim to have acted consistently and in such a manner that while conserving the interests of the Province, I have also assisted in securing for my County her full share of consideration in the distribution of public patronage.

It has so happened that I have, in the main, supported the Government of the day. I did so because I considered that course the best in the interests of the Province, as well as of Northumberland, and also because I had no desire to aid in effecting changes of administration, simply for the sake of change, and without the prospect of thereby securing either local or general advantages.

Before the elections come off I hope to visit very many of you, and while I am desirous of seeing and consulting with my friends, I am equally anxious to meet those who may be opposed to me and to answer personally any who may call in question my political course.
