rogation a violation of the rights of Parliament.

The members of the Government are well satisfied with the way matters went yesterday. The failure of the Opposition to make trouble, and the weakening of their cause by needlessly insulting Lord Dufferin, have rendered timid friends of the Government firm.

The Royal Commission will be issued to-day, and the investigation will begin immediately. Public opinion strongly condemns the disposition shown by Huntington to sneak away from the Commission.

LONDON, Aug. 13.

POLITICAL RUMORS.

It is rumored that the Count de Chambord has partially withdrawn from his position in regard to the white flag, and will come to France to take up his residence about the 16th proximo; also that Metz will be restored to France through the influence of Russia.

THE CIVIL WAR IN SPAIN.

A British steamer landed at Fontarabia to-day a lot of supplies for the Carlists, and was afterwards captured by a Spanish man-of-war.

The Carlists have captured the town of Vergara and claim that this success is the most important of the campaign.

NEW YORK, Aug. 14.

ARRIVAL OF AN OVERDUE STEAMER.

The German steamer Ernst Moritz Arndt has arrived at New York.

A VIOLENT STORM

is raging along the coast of the Middle States and extending inland. In some places railroad tracks have been overflowed and washed away, bridges destroyed and much damage done in other ways. The storm has not abated, and further reports of serious disasters may be expected.

YELLOW JACK CAPTURES A GUNBOAT.

Seventy of the crew of the gunboat Canandaigua are sick with yellow fever at Kingston, Jamaica.

SCHOONER CAPSIZED.

A schooner, supposed to be the Nathan H. Dixon of Block Island, was seen capsized near Point Judith yesterday afternoon. It is probable that all on board were lost.

Merchants' Exchange.

The following despatches were received at the Exchange to-day:

Montreal, Aug. 13.—Liverpool breadstuffs market quiet.
Flour 28s. a 29s.
Red wheat 11s. 2d. a 11s. 10d.

NOTICE TO SMOKERS.—We would direct attention to the fine assortment of beautiful Meerschaum Pipes now on exhibition at F. B. Marter's drug store, 81 King street. Some of them are the finest we have ever seen imported for sale in this city.

City Police Court.

Proceedings were dull this morning, there being only three prisoners in the dock.

Chas. Johnston was arrested in Water street drunk, and was fined $4.

Michael Conland was found in the same condition in Prince Wm. street, and $4 was also imposed on him.

Robt. Larcq was found drunk, shouting and otherwise creating a disturbance in Sheffield street. The mere fact of being drunk in that street is sufficient to secure for the offender a heavier penalty, so that making a noise and disturbing the quiet of the locality is entirely unnecessary. The fine of $6 always imposed on any one found in the street drunk, will have to be paid before Larcq is set at liberty.

J. Lenahan was reported for allowing a goat to run at large. The charge was proved and he was fined $3 and costs. As a matter of economy it is not profitable to allow goats to run loose on the streets. The fine of $3 would secure good pasturage or fodder for the goat for some time.

Michael Mansfield was arrested and stands charged with committing an aggravated assault on Patrick Kearney, and also assaulting Mary Kearney, who makes information. The assault was committed on the 20th ult., and the police have been looking for Mansfield. Yesterday they arrested him and had a rough customer to deal with. He also stands charged with violently resisting the police in the discharge of their duty. His trial will come off on Saturday at 11 o'clock.

THE DAILY TRIBUNE advertises on liberal terms and gives the largest city circulation.

Portland Police Court.

James Boyce, charged with assaulting Thomas Hazlewood, was allowed to go on payment of costs.

Ellen Melanson pleaded not guilty to the charge of abusing Agnes Melanson. The case was dismissed.

James and Francis McManus were charged with using abusive, insulting and threatening language to Samuel Orr. The matter was settled among the parties.

Angelina Brown is the name of a young Englishwoman who saw in the newspapers the advertisement of a well-known firm of hair-dyers. Her own locks were dark brown, and she ardently desired them to be golden. She applied to the transmutationists, who, for 5s. 6d., sold her the magic fluid, which they said would change the tint of her tresses as she wished. This she applied with scrupulous regularity for a week, and the consequence was that her hair came out to such an extent that she was threatened with the calamity of baldness. Moreover, her head (which must have been slightly soft to begin with), became so tender that she could not touch it. She applied to the Clerkenwell Police Court for advice, and was told that she had better consult a respectable solicitor.
