Mr. H. G. Harris, editor of this paper, was in town on Saturday.

Mr. Richard Harris and wife of Kentville, were in town on Sunday.

Mrs. Smith of Berwick, has been visiting Mrs E E. Dickie of Upper Canard

We noticed quite a number of our townsfolk among the large crowd at the Presbyterian services, Upper Canard on Sunday morning. The church was holding its Anniversary Services. Rev. McKinnon of Park Street church, Halifax, preached a very pleasing sermon. He also gave an excellent lecture on Monday evening.

The members of the Canning Brass Band are to give a concert at the Canning Rink building Friday evening, May 24th. At this concert the Rev W. G Lane will be present and will lecture on South Africa. This last feature in itself would draw a crowd and a large number will probably be present. The tickets will be as before:—Reserved seats 35c, general admission 25c, children 15 cents.

Mrs. Starr, with daughter and son of Montreal, are visiting at Mr. E. M. Beckwith's.

Mr. Edwin Dickie, medical student of Dalhousie, is at his home in Upper Canard for the holidays.

Mr. Laurice Borden of Borden St., is also home from Dalhousie and is accompanied by his friend, Mr. Will Farquarson of Halifax.

Mrs. Wallace has returned from a short trip to Halifax.

We noticed the Rev. W. F. Gaetz of Kentville, in town recently.

Mr. Robert North and family have moved into the house lately purchased by him from Mr. Samuel Bigelow. The family of the latter have moved into the house of the late Captain Joseph Wood at Habitant, which residence Mr. Bigelow has purchased.

The members of the B. Y. P. U., have been invited to hold a social at the house of Mrs. Johnathan Rand on Monday evening next. A pleasant evening may be expected.

Mr. J. R. Forbes and family of Windsor, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Tibbetts on Sunday and Monday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith and son of Windsor, visited their daughter, Mrs. Charles Hensley on Sunday.

The country is looking very fine now. The trees are just bursting into bloom and the dykes and fields everywhere are resplendent in their dress of green, dotted here and there by myriads of violets and dandelions. Farmers are very busy at present. May 22, '01.

Last Friday Mr. Illsley son of Deacon Illeley of Prospect while at work plowing on the farm of Mr. Huggins on Beech Hill road, lost his valuable grey worth $150. The animal was taken sick with acute indigestion and died about 9.30 that evening.

Sir Charles Tupper was on the ocean when Northern Pacific stock was soaring skyward. He owned some of this stock bought at $47. Had he been ashore and sold out when the stock was selling at $1,000 per share he would have received some $300,000.

Last Monday a resolution was moved in the House to increase the sessional indemnity of members of Parliament and Senators from $1000 to $1500. The Premier outlined the reasons and was supported by the Opposition leader on the same lines as the Premier.

Monday Judge Gregory heard counsel in the York election case in reference to the petition of the member elect Mr. Gibson, to have Rev. Dr. McLeod, the defeated candidate, give particulars on which he charges bribery and corruption. The Judge granted an order calling on Dr. McLeod to give the names of electors who, it is alleged, bribed the time when and the place where the alleged bribery took place. The Judge would not order that the amount and extent of the alleged bribes be particularized.

Halifax is determined to have the Royal party land in that city instead of Quebec. The council met recently and it was resolved that the Mayor be instructed to cable the proper authorities, urging that the party land in Canada at Halifax, and at the dockyard, where a tablet marks the place of the landing of the Prince of Wales, now Edward VII.
