Wedded at St. Peter's.

Mr. W. J. Mohan and Miss Agnes Brown United.

A very pretty ceremony in which much interest was manifested took place at St. Peter's Cathedral this morning. The event was the nuptial mass of William Henry, sixth son of the late Francis Mohan, of St. James' Park, and Miss Agnes Cecelia, daughter of the late William Brown. The young people are very popular, and when 8 o'clock, the hour of the ceremony arrived the church was comfortably filled. Rev. M. J. Tiernan officiated. Miss Brown was given away by her uncle, Mr. Thomas Coffey. Miss Minnie Payne, of Buffalo, N. Y., cousin of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, and Mr. Fred. Spittal, of this city, was groomsman.

The bride looked charming, and was attired in white organdie, over white silk, with white tulle hat trimmed with white lilacs. The bridesmaid wore a dress of pink organdie over white silk, and a white leghorn hat, beautifully trimmed with apple blossoms. As the bridal party entered and left the church Mendelssohn's wedding march was expressively played by Mrs. Cruickshank. At the offertory Mrs. R. M. Burns sang very sweetly the beautiful hymn, "My Child, Give Me Thy Heart." Mrs. Burns also sang the hymn after communion. After mass the newly-wedded couple and their relatives repaired to the residence of Mr. Thomas Coffey where a wedding breakfast was partaken of. Later Mr. and Mrs. Mohan left at 11 a.m. on their honeymoon trip. A large number of friends gathered at the station to express their good wishes for the happy couple.

There is a great deal of speculation in Ottawa going on regarding jubilee honors. The Free Press of that city has "a little bird" that is responsible for the following statements, which may be taken with a grain of salt:

"If jubilee honors are conferred on Mr. Laurier, he may return home with the 'blushing ribbon,' as he will be made a K. C. B. Such a thing is probable on the face of it."

The Globe correspondent says:

"There is good reason to believe that whatever jubilee honors are distributed among the public men of Canada, Sir Richard Cartwright is one of those who will not be passed over. He will be created a G. C. M. G., a rank which is only held by three men in Canada, including the Governor-General, Sir Charles Tupper and Sir Donald Smith. In addition, Sir Richard will probably be accorded the rank of imperial privy councilor."

A London correspondent points out that a cable dispatch referring to the passing of an address to the Queen by the Canadian Parliament suffered in an amusing way. The last paragraph reads as follows: "We earnestly pray that He, who is the Supreme King of Kings, may endow your Majesty with every blessing in what remains to you of this life, and with everlasting festivity in the life to come." It is obvious that "festivity" should have read "felicity."

A Week of Joy.

How London Will Celebrate the Queen's Jubilee.

Sons of England Open It With Services at the Rink.

Grand Military Demonstration on Tuesday.

2,000 Men to Take Part—Springbank Day on Wednesday—Soldiers' Reception on Thursday—Bicycle Parade on Friday.

The official programme for the jubilee celebrations on Tuesday and Wednesday, June 22 and 23, has been issued. It will be a week of rejoicing.

SUNDAY, JUNE 20.

The demonstration will open on Sunday, with a jubilee service under Sons of England auspices.

The members will assemble on the market at 2:30 p.m., in their regalia, and march in procession to the Princess Rink, headed by the full band of the Seventh Fusiliers.

The district deputy, upon arrival at the rink, will deliver the lodge flag to the officiating minister, Rev. G. B. Sage, B.A., of St. George's Church.

The opening hymn will be the well-known "All people that on earth do dwell."

At 4:26 p.m. sharp the National Anthem will be rendered, London taking up the chorus that will roll around the world.

The music will be furnished by the jubilee orchestra, and the singing led by the jubilee chorus, under the direction of Mr. Roselle Pococke.

All societies in the city are invited to participate in this service. The municipal authorities have been asked to be present.

The collection will be devoted to the Jubilee Hospital fund.

TUESDAY, JUNE 22.

The jubilation resumes on Tuesday morning, with an imposing street parade, in which 2,000 militiamen, Lieut.-Col. Smith in command, will be in line. The corps are:

First Hussars, Lieut.-Col. Gartshore.
Sixth Field Battery of Artillery, Lieut. Wilson.
Guelph Field Battery of Artillery.
Royal Canadian Regiment of Infantry.
Seventh Fusiliers, Lieut-Col. Lindsay.
Twenty-sixth Battalion of Infantry, Lieut.-Col. Irwin.
Twenty-seventh Battalion of Infantry, Lieut.-Col. Ellis.
Twenty-eighth Battalion of Infantry, Lieut.-Col. McKnight.

The military events will take place in front of the grand stands at Queen's Park, the programme to commence at 9 a.m.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON.

Tuesday afternoon will be marked by a monster society procession.

Societies will muster in Victoria Park at 2 o'clock, and march to Queen's Park, thence around the ring in front of the grand stand, when a fancy drill exhibition will be given by the famous Robin Hood Drill Corps, of Court Forest City, A. O. F. Voluntary contributions from processionists will be received at the gate.

A programme of sport will be carried out on the track, including a butcher boys' race, military steeplechase, farmers' race, run with the hounds, exhibition of high jumping, tug-of-war, tent pegging, musical ride, grocers' race, and a grand bicycle parade, with prizes for the largest club turnout, and the best decorated bicycle and neatest costume, lady's or gentleman's. The military will take part. The officers of the day will be:

Judges of Military Events—Major Wadmore and Capt. Carpenter.
Judges in Ring—Ald. R. Carrothers and H. Dreaney, Messrs. J. R. Minhinnick, James H. Brown, Col. F. B. Leys and Thomas Gillean.
Starter—Mr. J. H. Brown.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 23.

Wednesday will be Jubilee Day at Springbank, and the scene of festivities will be transferred to London's popular and beautiful river resort.

In order to add variety to the enjoyment of the week of pleasure, the committee having charge of the celebration decided to make Wednesday Springbank Day, and there will be absolutely no attractions whatever in the city. In anticipation of a big day's business down the river, the street railway company will provide a continuous service both ways.

One of the attractions will be a baseball match between the city council and school trustees, in which the former will try to avenge their defeat of last year. The teams will in all probability line up as follows:

ALDERMEN.	POSITIONS.	TRUSTEES.
Carrothers	Catcher	Johnston
Dreaney, Cooper, Parnell	Pitcher	Burdick, Macpherson, Gillean
Johnston	First base	Bridle
Douglass	Second base	Logan
Nutkins	Third base	Stephenson
Stevely	Shortstop	Wilkins
Hunt	Right field	Murphy
McCallum	Center field	Strong
O'Meara, Taylor, Gerry	Substitutes	English, Greenlees, Teasdall

If this year's game is but half as funny as last year's, it will be well worth the trip if there were no other attractions.

The official programme includes in the attractions the Park Theater, as a portion of the receipts of the week will be donated to Victoria Jubilee Hospital fund.

A promenade band concert will be given in the evening by the celebrated Twenty-sixth Battalion Band, and the evening's enjoyment will be concluded by a grand pyrotechnical display, by Prof. Hand, of Hamilton, whose fireworks have been a feature of the Western Fair for many years. The designs will include a fixed piece of her Majesty Queen Victoria, and many unique and original ideas based on the event we celebrate.

Four ordinary tickets will carry anyone from any portion of the city and return, or 15 cents will purchase a round trip ticket.

THURSDAY, JUNE 24.

The jubilee festivities will be in the evening only, when a reception will be tendered the volunteers in camp, in return for their kindness in joining in the Jubilee Day celebration.

The soldiers in camp will form in procession on Carling's Heights and march to Queen's Park, where they will be given a reception by the mayor and city council.

The bands of the different battalions will furnish music during the evening.

A pleasant evening's entertainment is promised all those who attend.

The park will be specially illuminated.

FRIDAY, JUNE 25.

As on Thursday, the Friday jubilee celebration will be in the evening. It will take the form of a grand bicycle parade.

The bicyclists of the city are invited to participate in the display, and endeavor to make it the finest ever witnessed in the city. The procession will form on Market Square at 7 p.m., proceed up Talbot street to Dundas; thence to Richmond; up Richmond to Central avenue; down through Victoria Park past the band stand (where the judges will be stationed) to Wellington; up Dufferin avenue to Waterloo; down Waterloo to King; east on King to Queen's Park. Along the street and at the park there will be grand fireworks displays.

Prizes will be offered for the best decorated and illuminated bicycles. The judges for the bicycle events will be: Mesdames (Dr.) Moorhouse, A. Screaton, A. E. Stutt, H. Meek; Ald. Douglass and Taylor; Messrs. Harry Craig, Chas. Bayly and Chas. Graham.

During all events at Queen's Park throughout the week, refreshments will be served at the W. C. T. U. booth.

A Shake-Up.

London Baseball Team to Be Reorganized.

Three New Men to Wear London Uniforms Today.

Manager Holman, of the London Baseball Club, has decided to take heroic measures. London must have a first-class baseball club, and have it right away. The management can afford to experiment no longer, and the team will be reorganized this week.

The process has already begun. Since Saturday Capt. Pierre Ward has been on a still hunt for good players. The first man he landed was Joseph Keenan, of Auburn, N. Y. who will play third base today for London at Hamilton. Keenan arrived at London at 3 a.m. today, and left with the team for Hamilton. He has an A1 record.

The report that Thorpe, who was released by Guelph, had been signed by London is untrue. Thorpe was here yesterday looking for a job, but a player not good enough to suit Guelph will not do for London.

Ward has also seen other players abroad, and in all probability two new outfielders will wear London uniforms today. One of them is Meara, and the other's name is yet unknown.

Strowger, of Toronto, wants to sign with London, and wired today for advance money. This looks as if Toronto had dropped out. If so, Strowger will play with London today. If not, Toronto's collapse is thought to be a matter of a short time, and then Strowger will come here.

While away, Ward also saw Kron, at Buffalo. Kron said he had secured a contract for city work, and could not possibly keep his promise to join the team.

Today is the half-monthly pay day of the London men. It is pretty well assured that Connolly, Seifert and Carney will be given their walking tickets.

In tomorrow's game in this city, at least three new faces, possibly four, will be seen on the home team. The opposing players will be:

Hamilton.	Positions.	London.
Cochrane	Pitcher	Kershaw
Henley	"	Johnston
Roberts	Catcher	Snyder
Laur	First base	Gunther
Dean	Second base	Sippl
McDade	Third base	Keenan

THE PARK THEATER.

Manager Carr Says the Street Railway Company Has No Interest in It.

To the Editor of The Advertiser:

Kindly permit me, through the medium of your paper, to contradict a rumor that the street railway company has an interest in the theater at Springbank. The company does not own it, nor has it any voice in its management. The theater is on private ground, outside the park, and is surrounded by high-board fence. I understand no one can see the performance without paying a fee of admission. The company is not interested directly or indirectly, beyond the point of public carriers, and as we are indebted to the public for our revenue, we cannot discriminate against any class or sect of people. Yours truly,

C. E. A. CARR.

JUNE SESSIONS.

TUESDAY MORNING.

At 10 o'clock the June sessions were opened again before Judge Wm. Elliot. The court was of short duration, however. Mr. Geo. C. Gibbons, Q.C., counsel for Francis Butler, against whom the grand jury returned a true bill on the charge of keeping a common gaming house, asked that the case be laid over until the next assizes, as he wished to procure some evidence from Buffalo. The request was granted and the case laid over.

Thos. Hyslop, of London township, charged with obstructing and assaulting a bailiff in the discharge of his duty, was acquitted on each of the two charges—no evidence—and the court adjourned.

Where It Went To.

The City's Expenses in the Last Ten Years.

The Increase Largely in Schools—Advance of Population, Assessment, Street Mileage, Etc.

At last night's council meeting a statement, prepared by City Auditor Jewell, was presented to the members and unanimously ordered to be printed in the minutes.

The statement shows the expenditure of the city of London for every year from 1887 to 1897, and is highly interesting.

The expenditure over which the city council has no control, which includes debt charges, waterworks interest, waterworks sinking fund, waterworks capital expenditure, schools, police justice, hospital, board of health, Free Library, has increased in ten years from $237,321 to $279,802.

The controllable expenditure of the council has increased in ten years from $102,942 to $132,888.

The increase in uncontrollable expenditure is chiefly for schools. The board of education's expenditure has increased from $42,750 in 1887 to $100,130 in 1897.

The following recapitulation of the total expenditure is made:

	1887.	1897.
No. 1 committee	$ 24,812	$ 28,608
No. 2 committee	39,013	40,900
No. 3 committee	32,382	57,210
Uncontrollable	237,321	279,802
Sundries	5,735	6,170
Total	$340,263	$412,690

THE CITY'S GROWTH.

	1887.	1897.

STATISTICAL COMPARISONS.

Every 100 of population in 1887 is represented in 1897 by about 132½.

Every $100 of assessment in 1887 is represented in 1897 by about $120.

Every $100 of total expenditure in 1887 is represented in 1897 by about $121 25.

Every $100 of total expenditure (excluding school rates) in 1887 is represented in 1897 by about $105.

Every $100 of school expenditure in 1887 is represented in 1897 by about $234.

The figures for 1897 are of course based on the estimates.

Today at the Capital.

Parliament's Beautiful Tribute to the Queen.

Lively Times in Committee Over Western Railway Bills.

Special to The Advertiser.

Ottawa, June 15.—At noon today a beautiful album containing the address to her Majesty the Queen from the commons and senate was shipped to the colonial office. It was inclosed in a casket made of birdseye maple, mounted with gold and lined with purple silk velvet. The whole cost was about $1,000.

At a meeting of the railway committee today the Pacific bill, which is for a road from the coast through the Yellow Head Pass, and is supported by C. N. Armstrong, was withdrawn at the request of Mr. Blair, who said he had no time to look into it at this late period of the session.

A fight then took place over the Columbia and Western Railway, which is an extension of what will be the western terminus of the Crow's Nest Pass from Robson to Penticton.

Mr. Bostock, who was in charge of the bill, said that while the company did not intend building further west than Penticton, they would in future carry the road along the Fraser Valley to the coast.

Charles S. Hyman, of London, was asked as to the financial standing of the company. He said that the company had already built eleven miles of spur from Rossland to Trail. The men now connected with the company were of good financial standing.

Mr. McInnes asked if Mr. Hyman had ever heard of an attempt to finance the scheme before.

Mr. Hyman—I did not.

Mr. McInnes—You may not, because you have not been very long connected with the company.

In reply to Mr. Lount, Mr. Hyman said there was an implied understanding between his company and the Canadian Pacific.

Mr. McLean wanted to hear from the minister of railways.

Mr. Cameron (Huron) did not want to hear the minister. Mr. Hyman admitted there was an implied arrangement with the C. P. R.

Mr. McInnes wanted to put questions to Heinze and Warfield, who were not present.

Mr. Maxwell approved this course.

The bill was discussed till the committee rose.

The bicycle bill was before the senate committee. An attempt is being made today to get the railways and the wheelmen to reach an agreement.

Earthquake Echoes.

Heavy Rains Add to the Damage Already Done

By the Seismic Disturbances in India—Thousands of People Homeless.

Calcutta, June 15.—Telegrams with earthquake news, the echoes of the subterranean disturbance of Saturday last, are pouring in from every section north of Madras.

The postoffice at Chittagong has been swallowed up. The heavy rains of the past two days are increasing the damage done. Some of the streets here are closed to traffic, and it is believed that the firing of the jubilee salute in honor of Queen Victoria must be abandoned, as the firing even of the time gun is dangerous, shaking the damaged buildings.
