LEAGUERS FOR TORONTO.

Buffalo Was Filled With Them Last Night and More Are Due This Morning.

Buffalo, N. Y., July 14.—The city is full of Epworth Leaguers to-day, en route to the great international convention which begins in Toronto to-morrow. The Missouri delegation arrived about 10 o'clock this morning. The party numbered 700 young men and women from Kansas City, St. Louis, Sedalia and Moberly, and other western towns.

Messrs. F. C. Wheeler and V. D. Waltermire were in charge of the Kansas City delegation.

Other large delegations are expected to arrive during the next twelve hours. The New Jersey contingent will arrive to-night about 8 o'clock and stay over night at the Falls. Parties from Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington will also join the Jerseyites here, and all will proceed together to Toronto. The New York and Brooklyn delegation will come to Buffalo by the West Shore route, to-morrow morning.

A large party, known as "The Wyoming Conference," came in over the Lackawanna road this afternoon. There were about 250 in this party. The Nebraska delegation will reach here to-morrow morning. The coaches in which they will come will be elaborately decorated. The Texas delegation, numbering 400, are due to-night.

THE PYTHIAN KNIGHTS.

Irene sides, London; Grand Vice-Chancellor, Bro. Murtch, St. Thomas; Grand Prelate, Rev. R. Vonperch, Berlin; Grand Keeper of Records and Seals, Bro. After Grand Lodge adjourned the amplified degree was exemplified by the Rathbone Lodge of St. Thomas, in the Oddfellows' Hall, after which the members were entertained by Victoria Lodge of Berlin.

A FIGHT ALL ROUND.

Both Parties Have Put Up Candidates in All the Constituencies.

Charlottetown, P. E. I., July 14.—Nominations took place to-day for the Prince Edward Island elections, and both Liberal and Conservative parties put up two candidates in each district. There is also one Patron in the field. Large rallies were held to-night and each side expresses itself as confident of victory. Premier Peters was nominated in both Fort Augustus and Georgetown.

The Big Four is running an excursion to Niagara Falls on the 20th of July, via the steamers Chippewa, Corona and Chicora, leaving at 7, 9, 11 a.m. and 2 p.m., connecting with the far-famed Niagara Falls Park & River Railway at Queenston. The scenes along this route are grand, and, passing around the whirlpool, a splendid view of the rapids can be had from a point where the cars stop a few minutes to allow passengers to have full view of the wonders of the great gorge. The committee have been over and arranged for special rates for all side trips and hotel rates, and have spared no pains to make this popular excursion a success. Don't forget the date, 20th July.

IS HE THE RIGHT MAN?

J. B. Hamilton, Who Is Under Arrest at Pembroke, is Supposed to Be Rev. Frederick Herman.

Pembroke, Ont., July 14.—The lay reader, J. B. Hamilton, from Scotch Bush, Ont., arrested charged with the murder of a young lady named Walling at Salt Lake City, Utah, in September, 1895, is said to be Frederick Herman, who was pastor of the Scandinavian Methodist Church at the time of the mysterious disappearance of the Walling girl. Shortly after this he resigned his charge and left the city. The authorities had the church cleaned after his departure, and in the furnace found some human bones. A reward of $500 was offered for Herman's arrest. The description of the missing man tallies with Hamilton. The circular claims Herman was born in England, while Hamilton says he was born in Stratford, Ont. Authorities from Salt Lake City are expected here to-night or to-morrow.

KNOWN IN STRATFORD.

And the People There Think the Wrong Man Has Been Arrested.

Stratford, Ont., July 14.—The Evening Beacon, referring to the arrest of a man in Pembroke supposed to be Francis Herman, who is alleged to have committed murder in Salt Lake City in 1895, but who claims to be James P. Hamilton, a native of Stratford, says: "There was a James R. Hamilton answering to the description given, who was born in the Township of North Easthope. He attended High school here and studied divinity at Knox College, Toronto. After graduating therefrom he had charge of the Presbyterian Church at Keady, Grey county. Some difficulty arose there and Hamilton left the district. He visited his home in the winter of 1894, and spent the whole summer of 1895 here. He left again in the fall to enter Harvard University. When his mother died in March, 1896, in New York, he accompanied the body here. He stayed about a week, when he returned to Harvard till the end of the term. He was next heard from as a lay reader in Renfrew county. One of his brothers is Rev. E. B. Hamilton, New York, and Mrs. Robert Murray of this city is a sister. Another brother is Dr. J. R. Hamilton, now of Port Dover. If the facts are as stated there seems to be no doubt the Pembroke authorities have arrested the wrong man. Dozens of witnesses can be got to prove that Hamilton spent the fall of 1895 here, and therefore could not be the man Herman. The Hamilton family have a large connection here, and are highly respected. Mr. Hamilton is described as a quiet, inoffensive and religious man, and would be the last man to commit such a crime."

The British Association.

The British Association Committee have received word that Dr. W. T. Blandford, F.R.S., whose reputation as a geologist stands so high, is coming to Toronto in August. He presided over the geological section at the British Association meeting at Montreal in 1884, and his presence at the Toronto meeting will be greatly appreciated. Sir John Swinburne, Bart., M.P., a distinguished naval officer, is also to be here. Sir John, who is a cousin of Swinburne, the poet, served in Burmah, China and the Baltic.

BOY BEHEADED BY A TRAIN.

He Fell With His Neck Across the Rail and the Wheels Severed It Completely From the Body.

Niagara Falls, Ont., July 14.—(Special.)—On the Niagara branch of the Michigan Central to-night the 6-year-old son of John Harrington was walking up the track, with his aunt, Mrs. Nicholl, and when just east of the Welland-avenue crossing the train overtook them. Mrs. Nicholl jumped to one side and told the boy to do likewise. In attempting it he fell with his neck across the track. A young boy named Jepson made an heroic attempt to drag him off, but it was unsuccessful. The wheels completely severed the head from the trunk. Several witnesses saw the accident and claim the engineer did all in his power to stop the engine. The undertaker took charge of the remains without the presence of the coroner and an inquest will not be held. The railroad along that portion of the town is almost a public highway and there are many narrow escapes.
