QUEEN CITY CURLERS HONORED.

Secretary R. B. Rice and Mr. H. J. Gray Presented With Addresses and Gifts.

With Mr. J. W. Corcoran in the chair, an informal dinner was held at the Granite Club on Tuesday evening by the Queen City Curling Club to do honor to the winners of the Walker gold vase. About 70 members sat down and enjoyed the cuisine. During the evening the prizes won by members in the various club competitions thru the winter were presented. The Flavelle Cup winners were Messrs. H. A. Haisley (skip), J. G. Langton, S. Harris and H. W. Maw. A handsome pair of flower stands, donated by Mr. J. P. Rogers, were won by R. B. Rice and W. Philip in the doubles. Mr. F. G. Hayward captured the singles, a pair of red hone stones, given by Mr. J. C. Scott, the president, and Mr. W. Philip was placed in charge of the Eastwood Trophy for the year, he having won the points game.

The presentations were interspersed with witty speeches, and humorous remarks, and a thoroly enjoyable evening was spent. Mr. C. A. B. Brown and Mr. G. S. Lyon contributed to the enjoyment in singing some capital songs, and a humorous recitation by Mr. Horace Pease was uproariously received. Mr. Blakeley presided at the piano with his usual grace, and fine selections from the phonograph completed the musical array of talent. Mr. W. J. Bickell fairly brought down the house by a composition of his own on some of the principal curling events of the season.

Shortly before dispersing a most pleasing incident took place. This was the presentation from the members of the club of an illuminated address and a silver tea service to Mr. R. B. Rice, the popular and energetic secretary-treasurer. This gentleman has voluntarily given his services to the club since its formation, and by his zeal, tact and untiring energy has been largely instrumental in bringing the club to its present high standard of excellence. To Mr. H. J. Gray, also, who has, by his utter self-sacrificing spirit, done more than anyone else in the club to encourage and stimulate new members, always ready to give up his own play to insure the new men having a game, was presented, with an address and a handsome case of silver spoons, forks and dessert set. These two gentlemen, who were entirely taken by surprise, were well deserving of the handsome gifts, as it is to gentlemen like these that the building up and welfare of a club are mainly responsible, and the Queen City Curling Club is fully alive to the fact that it is fortunate in possessing two such valuable officers.

Towards the close an impromptu presentation of four leather medals was made by Mr. W. S. Ziller, on behalf of the "tenderfeet," to the rink of "baldheads," as a stimulus for them to improve their curling another season. Thus ended a most enjoyable evening, and all left for home with the intention that the Queen City Curling Club will be very much heard from next winter.

TO-NIGHT'S BOXING PROGRAM.

McClelland Arrived Early Yesterday Morning Ready for His 20-Round Battle With Ole Olson.

The Pittsburg boxing party arrived on scheduled time yesterday morning, and were soon the centre of an admiring throng at the Globe Hotel. McClelland is in the pink of condition, and, as is his custom, at weight. Manager Corcoran laughs at the idea of losing. Since his man smothered Joe Leonard last fall McClelland has had six battles, all victories. His next contest after to-night is with Eddie Gardner, also this month.

Billy Corcoran surveyed the ring and seating in the rink, and pronounced it an ideal boxing resort.

Gilmore and Olson were a happy pair after the day's work. The Swede was obliged to train carefully and on scales at 125½ yesterday seemed to think his task about complete.

As predicted the betting veered towards McClelland's side, and there were perhaps more of his followers in evidence than those anxious to wager on Harry Gilmore's protege. The men will weigh in at Mr. Scholes' Athlete Hotel at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

"Who'll win the main prelim?" is a ticklish question generally. Both Smith and his lightweight opponent have friends galore, and the winning side will cash a lot of tickets.

The first on the card, Wildey and Billy Smith, have trained none the less faithfully, and the early patrons will see a vigorous five rounds, if it goes that far.

The Crescent A.C. has everything correct at the Rink. Not a speck of ice remains, and the fine weather promised will ensure the comfort of all the patrons. The first bout starts at 8.15. The reserved seat plan will remain at Wilson's, 35 West King-street, until noon, when it will be removed to the rink. The program reads as follows:

8.15—Ed Wildey v. Billy Smith, both of Toronto, 5 rounds at 135 lbs.

9—Jack Roach v. Jimmy Smith, both of Toronto, 10 rounds at catch weights.

10—Ole Olson, Chicago, v. Jack McClelland, Pittsburg, 20 rounds at 126 lbs.

Referee—John R. Bennett.

C.W.A. MEETING THIS MORNING.

Reports to Be Presented Will Show a Flourishing Condition in the Organization.

The annual meeting of the Canadian Wheelmen's Association will be held this morning at 10 o'clock. This year there will be no meet to fight for, and the congress will be purely a business affair. The financial statement to be presented by Treasurer Donly is a good one, while Secretary Howson's report is equally as rosy. This shows that the C.W.A. has done good work for its large number of members. The offices as published here some time ago will nearly all go by acclamation, whilst it is almost an assured fact that the majority of the amendments will carry.

Hamilton, April 4.—(Special.)—At a meeting of young men in the Board of Trade rooms to-night it was decided to form the Hamilton Rowing and Canoe Club. A committee was appointed to draft a constitution and name officers. Another meeting will be held next Thursday night to complete organization.

LACROSSE DELEGATES HERE

Candidates and Club Representatives Ready for the Annual C.L.A. Convention.

SOME IMPORTANT AMENDMENTS.

Banquet at McConkey's at 6 This Evening—Notes of the National Game.

Many of the lacrosse delegates arrived in town yesterday and made themselves known on the street. There was handshaking galore with their numerous Toronto friends.

Each delegate, or rather candidate, had especially the glad hand ready for all the lacrosse men.

The fight for the office of president will be straight between Peter McMillan of Beaverton and C. R. McKeown of Orangeville. Both gentlemen are in town, and the battle started yesterday in earnest. The meeting to-day commences at 9.30 in the Temple Building, and should be a record one for the C.L.A. Many amendments are to come up, the principal ones being: That there be a residence rule dating from the first of April each year; that the C.L.A. recognize any suspension by another amateur body.

F. W. Thompson asks for an amendment giving the Executive power to expel any player on suspicion. The following are the nominees and those elected by acclamation:

Honorary President—H. B. Clemes, Port Perry (acclamation).

President—Peter McMillan, Beaverton; C. R. McKeown, Orangeville.

First Vice-President—Francis Nelson, Toronto (acclamation).

Second Vice-President—John F. Lennox, Stouffville (acclamation).

Secretary-Treasurer—W. H. Hall, Toronto (acclamation).

And there is a big batch of likely runners after Council honors.

The annual dinner at McConkey's was set for 6 o'clock this evening, to allow the delegates to take in the theatres or the boxing show in the rink afterwards, as they may chose.

Willis; vice-president, W. H. Baker; secretary-treasurer, J. L. Killorann; manager, H. M. Jackson; committee, P. Oughton, W. Finlayson, D. McLeod, L. Murray, J. L. Hogg, T. J. Stephens, L. McDonald.

FORTY MEN WITH STRAIGHT SCORES.

Big Guns Shooting in the Grand American Handicap—Bates Scored a Miss.

New York, April 4.—The shoot for the Grand American Handicap, which was postponed from yesterday, began this morning and was continued up to dusk this evening. With the exception of a brief interval in the middle of the day, shooting at live birds was kept up without any interruption, and nearly 5000 birds were trapped. The weather conditions were anything but conducive to the comfort of the gunners, two hundred and one of whom tried conclusions for championship honors. During the entire shoot rain fell continuously, and this made what would otherwise have been fast flyers very slow birds. All told, there were 222 entries for the event, ten of which were post entries. Twenty-one men failed to toe their marks when their turns came, and these absentees forfeited $10 each, which went to swell the purse. The entire amount of money which will be distributed among the 54 high guns when the event is concluded to-morrow, is $5355. When the shooting was discontinued this evening, there were forty men with straight scores of twenty kills each and fifteen with 19 each. During the day several fell by the wayside and were forced out of the contest, after having five misses scored against them. Of the leaders, the work of Ansley H. Fox of Baltimore was by far the most creditable. Fox's work with the gun is well known all over the country. He now holds the world's record for shooting doubles at inanimate targets, his score of 98 out of a possible 100 at this style of shooting having never been equalled. Up to the end of the fifteenth round to-day, W. R. Crosby of O'Fallon, Ill., and H. D. Bates of Ridgetown, Ont., the winner of last year's Grand American, had killed the same number of birds in competition during the tournament as Fox and but both of these missed their fourteenth bird, and consequently left Fox to enjoy the individual honors. By a peculiar coincidence, Phil Daly, jr., whose number was 13 on the order of shooting, killed all his birds in the handicap until he came to the thirteenth, which he missed with both barrels. He killed straight after this, winding up with a total of 19 kills. Among the other prominent shooters who missed one bird out of the twenty trapped for them were: J R Elliott, B W Claridge, S M Van Allen, Harold Money, Capt. Money, C E Mink, Sim Glover, W W Hassinger, F W Cooper, L E Parker, John Parker, C R Stevens, J R Malone, E D Fulford, Tom Marshall and Col. Tom Markham.

Following are the names and handicaps of those who are credited with twenty straight kills so far in the big handicap: N D Stevens, Guilford, Conn., 26 yards; G H Piercy, Jersey City, 28 yards; G C Naumann, San Francisco, 28; Dr. J G Knowlton, New York, 29; A H Fox, Baltimore, 30; Jim Jones, New York, 27; R L Pierce, Wytheville, Va., 29; Dr. E Duncan, Louisville, 26; Fred Gilbert, Spirit Lake, Ia., 32; R B Bond, Jessups, Md., 27; J S Ross, New York, 27; E Emers, Royersford, Pa., 27; J L D Morrison, St. Paul, Minn., 29; C Von Longerke, Chicago, Ill., 27; W D Townsend, Omaha, Neb., 27; R Rahm, Pittsburg, 27; Edward Banks, New York City, 27; Henry, Newark, 28; Chris Gottlieb, Kansas City, 29; F E McKay, Minneapolis, 27; W F Quimby, Newark, N.J., 27; J L Alabaster, Chicago, 27; R J Merrill, Milwaukee, 29; H Schommell, Easton, Pa., 27; E S Johnson, Atlantic City, 28; J W Hoffman, New Germantown, N.J., 27; J B Barlow, Chicago, 28; G A Comstock, Racine, Wis., 27; F S Parmelee, Omaha, Neb., 30; F D Altire, Woodlyn, Ohio, 28; E C Fort, Fosteria, Ohio, 28; C W Felgenspan, Newark, N.J., 30; William Wagner, Washington, D.C., 27; C A Lockwood, Jamaica, N.Y., 26; H Trunbauer, Royersford, Pa., 28; G E Greiff, New York, 28; C E Gekler, Philadelphia 26; J Vontongerke, Orange, N.J., 27; E Hickman, Kansas City, 28.

Many who have died of consumption dated their troubles from exposure, followed by a cold, which settled on their lungs, and in a short time they were beyond the skill of the best physician. Had they used Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup, before it was too late, their lives would have been spared. This medicine has no equal for curing coughs, colds and all affections of the throat and lungs.

A NIGHT WITH THE G.G.B.G.

Sergeants' Dinner of This Corps at Webb's Last Night a Gratifying Success.

At Webb's last night the annual dinner of the sergeants of the Governor-General's Body Guards was held, and passed off very successfully. Sergt-Major Stretton sat at the head of the table, and the following were present as guests: Col G T Denison, honorary colonel G G B G; Col C A K Denison, Col Mason, R O; Mayor Howland, Sergt-Major Widgery, R C D; Drill Sergt Legg, R C R I; Quartermaster-Sergt Brum, 9th F B; Sergt-Major McCarthy, 14th F B; Col. Sergt Middleton, Q O R; Q M S Warren, A M C; Q M S Ewart, 10th; Sergt Rutherford, 13th; Hospital Sergt Dakers, 19th; Col-Sergt Friend, Dufferin Rifles; Col-Sergt Kirkness, 48th. Letters of regret were read from Lieut-Col Delamere, Q O R; Lieut-Col Lessard, R C D; Lieut-Col Bruce, R G; Lieut-Col Macdonald, 48th; Lieut-Col Young, R C R I; Major Myles, 5th F B; Major Merritt, G G B G; Sergt-Major Grasett, Canon Welch, Mr Alex Muir, B A.

After the King had been duly honored, the toast, "The Commanding Officer and Staff," was drunk, the replies being given by Col. C. A. Denison, Capt. Thompson, Capt. Campbell and Lieut. Cameron.

Mayor Howland made a felicitous rely on behalf of the Corporation, after the company drained their glasses in its honor. The Mayor said, within the past week he had fears that it would be necessary to call out the Body Guards and have them advance on the Queen's Park to defend the city from the invading hordes who threatened to possess our streets, but, happily, that danger was temporarily averted. Referring to that honored veteran, Col. G. T. Denison, he related that the gallant colonel, discussing some years ago the question of annexation, said: "When the time comes to discuss the question of the future of Canada, I will discuss it on horseback with a sword in my hand." The Mayor said there was no fear for the future of Canada. He promised that the city would continue to urge upon the Government to fulfil their contract in respect to new quarters for the cavalry and artillery, but he thought the prospects of the addition being built were not very good.

Col. G. T. Denison replied to the toast to "Canada," and Col. Mason to "The Canadian Militia." Other toasts were: "Our Brother Non-Coms," responded to by representatives of different corps; "Our Guests," by Major Peters and Sergt.-Major McCarthy of the 14th F. B.; "The Ladies," Lieut. Smith.

The regimental orchestra was on hand and supplied a program of music. Songs were given by C. McRoth, C. Burch, Harvey Lloyd and E Carrol, and recitations by Neil Burton and Harold Scott.

"C" Co., Q.O.R., Dine.

A merry time was spent by the 75 soldiers who attended the complimentary dinner given by Capt. A. G. Peuchen of C Company in the Grand Union Hotel last night. The guests, after doing justice to a delightful repast, listened to a number of interesting addresses and a musical program. Pte. Purse, a South African veteran, was presented with a well-filled purse of gold from his comrades in C Company. The toasts were responded to by Capt. Peuchen, Capt Barker, Sergt T Moon, Mr Pearson and Mr Kidner.
