DEPUTE TES HIS LIBERALISM

Mr. Tarte's Paper Accuses Mayor Prefontaine of Campaigning Against Him.

'MR. MAYOR, NOT THE GRAND TRUNK'

Another Stage in the Ardent Controversy That Has Stirred Up a Montreal Hornets' Nest.

Montreal, Oct. 7.—Mayor Prefontaine's reply and challenge to Mr. Tarte created no end of comment to-day.

On top of this comes Mr. Jamieson's emphatic denial of the charge of alleged bribery suggested by the Minister.

At to-day's meeting of the Harbor Board a resolution calling upon Mr. Tarte to give the source of his information was proposed. This motion, if carried, would have been practically a vote of censure, but when put to a vote all the members, who owe their position to the government, with the exception of the Mayor and Mr. Robert Bickerdike, M.P., voted against it. The vote was a tie, and the chairman, Senator MacKay, gave his casting vote against the motion. The matter then dropped.

After Prefontaine.

Mr. Tarte is still after Mayor Prefontaine with an unsheathed knife, as the following leading article in to-night's La Patrie shows: "An old rouge—Our Mayor" —In a petulant interview with Le Pionnier, Mr. Prefontaine exclaims. "We the old Liberals." Old rouge, he, but during fifteen years he was constantly allied with the Conservatives at the City Hall, playing his trumps against our own political friends, often even at the expense of our own party. "Old rouge," he, but how is it he one day went to Nicolet to hatch a Conservative candidate? Was it in the interest of the Laurier government? "Old rouge," he, but there never was a perfect solidity between our Mayor and the Liberal party. He did not always pull true in the collar. Come now, when Mr. Laurier and his lieutenants preached the lowering of tariffs, asked for a greater commercial freedom, Mr. Prefontaine came forward as a protectionist, and everybody remembers that in 1896, especially his speeches at Maisonneuve, were used by Conservative orators against Laurier. Mr. Prefontaine plays the old rouge to-day in words, but look at his actions of yesterday. He went arm in arm with his opponents when that served his own interests and not the interests of the party. "An old rouge," Mr. Mayor. Is he a man who acts with the enemy, who deals with him? "We always thought an old rouge had a clearer and higher ideal." Our article on Saturday in reference to Mayor Prefontaine was but a legitimate move on the defensive. For weeks, months, years, even, Mr. Prefontaine had carried on against Mr. Tarte an underhand and disloyal campaign, a campaign inspired by a sentiment other than that of party or public interest.

Mayor's Insidious Tongue.

In political matters, in affairs of the port, in all things and everywhere our Mayor has used and abused his acknowledgedly insidious tongue to endeavor to destroy the popularity and the reputation of the Minister of Public Works, popularity and reputation acquired by stubborn labor, by an enlightened zeal, by a sincere devotion to the interests of the Liberal party.

That has lasted long enough. Our article on Saturday was a notice to Mr. Prefontaine that he would have to cease these dishonest tactics—this persistent provocation.

We believed we must speak frankly and clearly. It was our right. It was our duty.

After all, Mr. Mayor is not the Grand Trunk.

TARTE TO RUN FOR MAYOR.

Montreal, Que., Oct. 7.—Rumor to-night says that Tarte will either present himself or bring out a strong candidate against Mayor Prefontaine for the Mayoralty at the next civic elections in February. Color is given to the statement in the Liberal organs that the place to judge the latter is in the whole City of Montreal.

Senator Dandurand is also mentioned in this connection.

RECEIVED AN OVATION.

Montreal, Oct. 7.—At a meeting of the Insurance Institute, held under the presidency of Lord Strathcona, Mayor Prefontaine read a paper on the government of Canada. Mayor Prefontaine, who is the object of a great deal of popular sympathy since Mr. Tarte's attack upon him, received an ovation from the large audience.

TIME EXTENDED.

London, Oct. 8.—It is reported from Sofia, says a despatch from Vienna to The Daily Express, that United States Consul Dickinson and an envoy of the missionary society arrived there Saturday intending to follow up Miss Stone, the abducted missionary, and to deposit a portion of the ransom. The brigands have extended the time for payment one month.

FUND FOR RANSOM.

Boston, Oct. 7.—With receipts coming in from many quarters the fund for the ransom of Miss Ellen M. Stone, the American missionary captured by brigands in Turkey, at 11 o'clock to-day had reached $27,000.

At noon the fund had grown to $43,959.

SENATE PO

Col. Strathy, who had been a p[illegible] figure in Montreal for many years, was the son of the late J. B. Strathy, formerly collector of customs at London, Ont., and was born in July, 1857. When quite a boy he came to Montreal and entered the stock broking office of his brother, Mr. Gordon Strathy, and in 1883 he began business as a stock broker in partnership with his brother, Mr. Edward Strathy. He became a member of the Montreal Stock Exchange in 1880, and retired in 1896 to assume the management of the Montreal Trust and Deposit Company. Col. Strathy also took a prominent part in the hunt, and was the owner of some of the best hunters and steeplechasers in Canada, such as George Frederick, Slick Away and Tom Flynn. The deceased left a widow and children, as well as several brothers and sisters, one of whom is Miss F. M. Strathy of Toronto.

SHIPPERS SHORT OF CARS

Board of Trade Takes Notice of Some Complaints Against Canadian Pacific.

RAILWAY'S POSITION DEFENDED

Many Call for More Than They Need, Resulting in Shortage Elsewhere.

Winnipeg, Man., Oct. 7.—The question of cattle shippers' alleged grievances against the C.P.R. was considered by a special committee of the Board of Trade here to-day. J. T. Gordon, M.L.A., and H. A. Mullins, M.L.A., were the chief witnesses, and testified to extreme shortage of cars and delay in transit experienced by the dealers entailing great suffering on the stock and damage to the trade.

Freight Manager Lanigan defended the company. He was not sparing in his denunciation of the method employed by the stockmen and the Winnipeg Board of Trade in getting redress for whatever grievances they have against the company.

"I have never had a complaint to me," said Mr. L. Lanigan. "No, not one. A meeting of the Board of Trade is called, and not being a member of the Council I am not allowed to attend. I have received at no time an invitation to state the company's side of the case. I heard of the meeting thru accident, and had to go and ask to be permitted to hear what is being brought against us. Is that fair treatment? I don't think it is. They have their letters and files all prepared and bring out what looks like very damaging evidence. In the brief time given us how can we get together our facts, which, if they were known, would show that exaggeration exists in large quantities?

"As for the way we handle cars, there is this to say. In many cases we are called on to supply 25 cars at a certain point. This we do, and there are ten or fifteen taken, and the others left on the track, while another man, wanting ten cars, is clamoring for them. I can cite instances of many such cases, and other evidence to show that there is more than one side to this uproar."

The Board has notified Mr. Shaughnessy of the matter and awaits a reply.

MAJOR VICTOR DOMO.

Some of His Ideas re the Famous $3.50 Shoes for Men.

"Dere used to be a time," said the Major Domo, standing back to catch his reflection in the extra superfine special polish he had promised gratis for my new pair of Victor Shoes, "when I thought that a gen'leman who didn't pay at least five dollars for his sandals didn't run in the 2.40 class. His mannahs was represponsible. But dem days is past and gone."

He breathed his breath round behind my off heel, and whipped the rag back and forth like a band saw.

"Yeas, sur, dis Victor Shoe has made a great referentiation in gen'lemen's boots, and dat's a fact. But dat don't upset my principles any."

He stopped to put a little more polish on his thumb and show me the whites of his "shiney eye."

"Dey's a five-dollar shoe. Yeas, dey's a gen'leman's shoe all right. But Simpson's sell 'em for $3.50, dat's all. An' of course, dat don' alter the regulations of as to what besuits a gen'leman any."

The Victor Major Domo is a Victor enthusiast. His expression may be a trifle mixed, but his sentiments are sound. The Victor is a gentleman's $5 boot, as he says it is, and the Robert Simpson Co. sell it for $3.50, as he says they do.

EIGHTY PERSONS KILLED.

London, Oct. 8.—In Pavlouka, a town of 4000 inhabitants, 120 miles from Kharkoff, says a despatch to The Standard from Moscow, a quarrel between students and Orthodox Church people led to a free fight. The Russian church was wrecked. Eighty people were killed. The police were powerless and troops were sent from Kharkoff to restore order. The Russian priests escaped with the more valuable sacred images and altar vessels.

DUKE BAGS FIFTY TWO DUCKS

Royal Shooting Party Early Astir Yesterday Morning, and After Five Hours Tally 200.

DELIGHTFUL SPORT, SPLENDID LUCK

Duchess Takes a Ride on a Hand Car and Has an Amusing Picture Snapped.

York Lodge, Lake Manitoba, via Poplar Point, Oct. 7.—Yesterday and to-day were probably the most informal spent by His Royal Highness the Duke of Cornwall and party since they began their tour thru Canada. After arrival at the lodge last evening the party partook of a splendid dinner served in banquet style in a marquee erected for the purpose immediately adjoining the cottage occupied by His Royal Highness. The arrangements made by Senator Kirchhoffer for entertainment of his guests were perfect in every detail.

Early Astir.

At a very early hour this morning the camp was astir, and the canoes carrying the distinguished sportsmen were under way to the haunts of the wild duck. There were in all seven canoes, and each chose a different route, a capable guide or veteran duck hunter taking charge of each boat. The well-known hunter and trapper, John Atkinson, handled the paddle of the canoe carrying the Duke and his valet. The morning was an ideal one for duck shooting, the sky being slightly clouded and a light breeze blowing, and the party took every advantage of the morning flight. For five hours the sound of the guns could be heard from every part of the big marsh, and shortly after 10 o'clock the canoes arrived at the lodge.

Delighted With Luck.

The first to land was the Duke, and altho there were no cheering crowds to greet his arrival, this did not appear to depress his spirits, for the excellent morning's sport and splendid luck had thoroly delighted him. Lord Minto, Sir Charles Cust, Prince Alexander of Teck, Major Maude and Senator Kirchhoffer arrived in quick succession, and the duck-laden canoes were landed. As a result of the morning sport nearly 200 ducks, which number included all varieties known to Manitoba hunters, were brought in, and in addition to this number numerous birds were shot but could not be secured because of the impassable marshes.

Duke Bagged 52.

His Royal Highness proved himself an excellent shot, bagging 52 birds, and of the adventurous ducks coming within range of his unerring aim few indeed escaped. He expressed great pleasure and was enthusiastic over the outing.

Early this afternoon the party started out again to remain until sundown. The guests are thoroly delighted with the sport here, and will embark for the east to-morrow with feelings of regret.

At Another Lodge.

Lord Crichton and Commander Godfrey Fawcett are guests of Messrs. Galt of Winnipeg at the shooting lodge three miles east. To-morrow morning the guests will again go after the ducks and immediately after luncheon on their return the party will leave for the train. It is the intention to afford them an opportunity to witness a threshing scene near Poplar Point to-morrow before the departure of the train.

Royal Standard Flies.

As the Duke of York landed here yesterday, the royal standard of Britain was flung to the breeze from the flagpole of the Lodge Cottage, and it remains hoisted until his departure. Accompanying the party is Col. Sherwood of Ottawa, who is here in charge of the guard, and Captain Young of Souris, who is in charge of the camp. Several Winnipeggers are also assisting in the arrangements, looking to the comfort and pleasure of the guests.

DUCHESS ON A HAND CAR.

Regina, N.W.T., Oct. 7.—The royal special, carrying the Duchess of Cornwall from Banff to Poplar point, passed here at 7 o'clock this evening, having completed 565 of the 872 miles lying between the two towns. The royal special was run in two sections, 30 minutes apart, the first carrying the Countess of Minto and part of the suite. The snow of 10 days ago had disappeared from the plains, and fair weather made the day's ride an enjoyable one.

The Duchess was given a ride on a hand-car at Parkberg. She was accompanied by Lady Mary Lygon and Mrs. Derik Keppel, and the car was manned by the following distinguished crew: Sir Arthur Bigge, Sir John Anderson, Major S. Edison, Dr. A. Manby, W. R. Baker, Superintendent Milestone of the C.P.R. and F. P. Dug. The party rode for a mile and a half, and, after posing for an amusing photograph, returned to the town.

At Regina the first section of the royal special was stopped for 30 minutes, and Lady Minto formally opened Victoria Memorial Cottage Hospital, built from a fund founded by her. The Duchess' train is due at Poplar Point at 10 o'clock to-morrow morning, and will be met by the Duke and the other members of the royal party. There is to be an exhibition of wheat-threshing at a Poplar Point ranch, at the conclusion of which the eastward journey will be resumed. At Winnipeg Sir Wilfrid Laurier will rejoin the ducal party.

WOMAN BADLY BURNED.

London, Ont., Oct. 7.—The explosion of a hanging lamp in the parlor of Mrs. Donald Taylor's house caused a small fire last evening shortly after 11. Mrs. Donald Taylor and a Mrs. Nicholson, who heard the explosion, hastened to the room, and found the carpet in flames. By endeavoring to extinguish the blaze, their clothing took fire, and they were badly burned about the face and neck. The loss by the fire was about $100.

PASSING OF THE AMEER.

Abdurrahamn Khan Died on Thursday Last, After Brief Illness.

London, Oct. 7.—A news agency this evening publishes the following despatch from Simla, dated to-day:

"Habib Oulah Khan, eldest son of the Ameer of Afghanistan, has reported to the British agent at Cabul that the Ameer died last Thursday, after a brief illness."

A despatch to the Associated Press from Simla says the Ameer was taken seriously ill Sept. 28. Habib Oulah Kahn, Oct. 2, asked in Durbar that public prayers be offered for the Ameer. In the morning of Oct. 3, Habib Oulah Khan announced that his father had expired at 3 o'clock that morning. That is the only news so far received. Nothing is known of the state of affairs at Cabul.

Abdurrahman Khan was the eldest son of Mohammed Afzul Khan and was born 1830. In the civil war of 1864 he took sides against his uncle, was defeated in 1868 and forced to flee to Russia for protection. There he was given a pension and housed at Samarcand. In July, 1880, he returned to the Cabul frontier and was acknowledged Ameer by the British government.

CLAYTON-BULWER PACT DEAD

Great Britain Has Agreed to Treaty Making Proposed Canal an All-American Enterprise.

UNITED STATES WILL CONTROL IT

New Agreement Will Be Presented to the Senate at the Coming Session.

Chicago, Oct. 7.—Walter Wellman wires The Record-Herald from Washington: The United States and Great Britain have reached an agreement concerning the Isthmian Canal question, and the new treaty will be presented to the Senate for its ratification early in the coming session. I am now able to give the substance of this treaty. It provides:

1. For abrogation of the old Clayton-Bulwer treaty in toto.

2. For a neutral Isthmian canal, in case one be constructed by the United States, open in time of peace to the ships of all nations, upon equal terms.

3. This neutrality is guaranteed by the United States alone, and other maritime powers are not invited to participate in such guarantee. Great Britain is inferentially one of the guarantors, because she is a party to this treaty.

4. In case of war, the United States reserves the right to take such steps for its own protection as it may deem proper.

It will be seen that the new treaty meets the principal objections which were offered to the old Hay-Pauncefote convention, and which led to its rejection by the Senate.

While the principle of neutrality is asserted, the United States alone guarantees that neutrality, and no European powers are invited to give their assent to it.

It was this feature, more than any other, which led to the defeat of the former treaty. Many Senators were willing to join with Great Britain in a guarantee of the neutrality of the proposed new waterway, because England already enjoyed certain treaty rights upon the Isthmus. But they were decidedly unwilling to invite other European nations to give their assent.

Those nations had no standing in the case, and it was deemed most unwise to invite them to participate in a purely American affair with which they had no direct concern.

By the terms of the new treaty, the United States may, in time of war, deal with the canal as it deems best for its own interests. It may close the canal to the ships of its enemies, and could, if it were thought advisable (which no one believes it ever will be) fortify the channel or its terminal.

In the broad sense, the Isthmian waterway is to be "all-American." The United States is to build it and to have complete control of it, unhampered by onerous restrictions.

ENGLISHMEN WILL BE STARTLED.

London, Oct. 8.—The Washington correspondent of The Daily Chronicle gives the alleged substance of a provisional canal treaty, abrogating the Clayton-Bulwer treaty.

Commenting editorially upon the advices, The Daily Chronicle says:

"Englishmen will be startled to learn that we have abandoned our rights under the Clayton-Bulwer treaty, and surrendered every disputed point without any compensation. The new treaty is apparently another instance of Lord Salisbury's placid indifference and Lord Lansdowne's impulsive generosity."

TWO OTTAWA TRAGEDIES.

Ottawa, Oct. 7.—Isadore Bureau, 97 Cathcart-street, an old man, was to-day found lying dead in the hallway of his own house. On his breast was a Fenian raid medal, and his clothes and boots were covered with mud. His latch-key was in his hand. People in the house say they heard two men put Bureau into the house last night. He had about $30 on Saturday, but only a few cents were found in his pocket by the coroner. An inquest will be held.

Harry Turcotte, 7 years old, son of Charles Turcotte of the city fire alarm department, was drowned in Patterson's Creek yesterday, while playing in a boat.

ROCKEFELLER NOT PLEASED

Alleged Socialistic Utterances of Dr. Eaton Responsible for Lack of Sympathy.

THE RICH PARISHIONER MAY RETIRE

Cleveland Baptists Afraid Oil Capitalist Will Decide to Worship at Another Church.

New York, Oct. 7.—The Herald prints the following despatch from Cleveland: Baptists of this city are greatly disturbed at the prospect that the Old Euclid-avenue Baptist Church may lose its member and co-founder, John D. Rockefeller.

Mr. Rockefeller has not only brought to the city a pastor of his own choosing for the East End Baptist Church, but he seems to have taken the young pastor in as almost a member of his own family, the new pastor having lived in the home of the multi-millionaire ever since he came to the city. In fact, he is still living there.

He is the Rev. E. A. Hanley of the University of Chicago. He has not yet been ordained a minister, but he has been appointed pastor of the struggling little East End Baptist Church, and will receive a salary that has warranted his planning a tour of Europe for next summer. He probably receives the highest pastoral salary ever paid a divinity student not yet ordained a minister. His formal ordination is to occur soon in the church of which he is pastor.

Due to Lack of Sympathy.

Lack of sympathy between the new pastor of the Euclid-avenue Baptist Church, the Rev. Charles A. Eaton, D.D., and Mr. Rockefeller, is responsible for the present condition of affairs. Dr. Eaton has preached several sermons that seem to some to be of a Socialistic nature. In some of them he has made remarks concerning wealthy men which appear to be somewhat pointed.

Mr. Rockefeller has not only guaranteed the comparatively large salary that is to be paid young Mr. Hanley, but he has also arranged to build him a new church. The East End Church is much nearer Forest Hill, the Rockefeller home, than the old church, and it is feared by many Baptists that if Mr. Rockefeller does not transfer his membership to the East End Church when he returns to the city he will, at least, worship there under the young minister he has chosen.

Members of the old church recall several speeches by Dr. Eaton, which are supposed to have incensed Mr. Rockefeller. At the recognition services held in June Dr. Eaton outlined his policy in these words:

Indifferent to Wealth.

"I don't care how rich a man is or how poor he may be. I don't care how ignorant or how wise he is thought to be. It makes no difference with me whether a man has 10 cents or $1,000,000. When I enter this pulpit I enter it as an expert in morals, and I see not the personality of the people who sit before me, but the souls to be saved.

"In my career I have seen the distinguished and wealthy members of my congregations put on their rubbers at least three times during one sermon, because they did not like the way I treated some of the practices in society and in politics. But that did not worry me then and it would not now. I am a messenger of what I know to be the truth."

Rev. Charles A. Eaton, D.D., is well known in Toronto, having left his charge on Bloor-street for Cleveland less than a year ago.

A PUBLIC SUICIDE.

Victoria, B. C., Oct. 7.—The steamer Duke of Fife, from Yokohama, brings a strange story of the public suicide of a Chinese woman at Foo-Chow. She resolved on the deed after the death of her husband, and informed the public of her intention. The Tao-Tai endeavored to prevent her doing so, and, on account of typhoon and floods, the suicide was twice postponed, but all efforts failed to divert the woman from her purpose, and, bedecked in her finest clothes, she publicly hanged herself on a platform, before which stood several hundred spectators.

M.H.O. ASKED TO RESIGN.

Smallpox Situation in Ottawa Has Taken a Decidedly Bad Turn.

Ottawa, Oct. 7.—The smallpox situation took on a decidedly bad face to-night, when it was reported that seven new cases had been found in different parts of the city. All of the new cases are mild forms of the disease, but they have been found several places thruout the city, and the general impression is that compulsory vaccination will be enforced in the city. To-day eight cases of the disease were found, and two suspected cases are being watched.

A surprising case is reported in The Journal. A 15-year-old girl says she had the disease and was discharged by the Medical Health Officer, but the doctor says he never treated the girl. Meanwhile the disease has broken out all over her face, and no precautions are being taken to quarantine the girl.

The City Council to-night decided to ask for the resignation of the Medical Health Officer, Dr. Robillard, who has held office for years.

CLARKE WALLACE DYING.

Hon. N. Clarke Wallace was very much weaker last night. During the day he was visited by Mr. James Armstrong of Toronto and Mr. W. F. Maclean, M.P. Dr. McPhedran and Dr. Temple held a consultation at his bedside last night at 11 o'clock, having been summoned from the city after 8 o'clock. They met Dr. King, the local physician. After a careful examination the decision arrived at was that Mr. Wallace's case was hopeless, and that his end was only a matter of a few hours, perhaps a day at the most. His blood at the last examination had only one-eighth of the richness of an ordinary circulation. He was conscious at times and seemed to recognize those around him. Woodbridge is overcast with gloom.

$300 WITH WRONG ADDRESS.

It was rumored in business circles yesterday afternoon that a package of bullion, valued at about $300 and consigned to the P. W. Ellis Co., manufacturing jewelers, had disappeared from the local Custom House. A member of the firm was spoken to in connection with the matter and he was of the opinion that the package had gone astray as a result of a wrong address being placed on it. Detective Siemin has, it is understood, the matter in hand, altho Sergeant Reburn, the acting head of the department, said last night that the case had not been reported to the police.

SAMPSON WOULD NOT STAND FOR IT

Tardy Statement That He Disapproved of MacLay's Harsh Words.

New York, Oct. 7.—Col. R. N. Thompson, president of the United States Naval Academy Alumnae Association, made a statement to-day concerning MacLay's book, in which the author calls Admiral Schley a coward and a cattiff. The story is that the proofs of the book were submitted to Admiral Sampson for correction, but, as soon as Sampson arrived at the part which contained the statement that Schley was a coward, he was very much angered, and said the statement was one the author had no right to make, that it was unjust and unfair to speak of any naval officer in such terms, and declined to have anything further to do with the proofs. His secretary then continued the reading of the proofs, comparing the book with the records, and marking corrections on the margins, but paying no attention to opinions expressed by the author.
