DROWNED AT CEDAR BEACH

Young Son of Rev. Mr. Ross Meets Tragic Death.

Kingsville, Aug. 30. — Ewart Ross, aged 18 years, son of Rev. Mr. Ross pastor of the Essex Presbyterian Church, was drowned this morning about 11 o'clock at the Essex camp near Cedar Beach.

Young Ross was, in company with others, diving from a boat some distance from the shore. The sport was in progress for some time when he was noticed to remain under water longer than usual. He came to the surface, but sank again before assistance could reach him. Where Ross went down the water was about 8 feet deep.

A search for the body was at once instituted, but as yet no trace of it could be found.

The young man was decidedly popular in Essex and vicinity, and his death will be heard of with regret.

BRYAN LEAVES NEW YORK.

New York, Aug. 31.—Wm. J. Bryan left the Grand Central station on a train for Connecticut at 10:06 a.m. today. About 100 persons were gathered at the station as the train pulled out, and they cheered him as he departed. Mr. Bryan bowed his acknowledgments from ther ear platform. A party of friends accompanied Mr. Bryan in a special car.

HAD MASKS AND A MOTOR.

Kingston, N. Y., Aug. 31.—Early today three men and a woman, all masked, entered the postoffice at Highland. They blew open the safe, secured $500 in money and $800 in stamps, and escaped in an automobile when residents who had been aroused came on the scene.

The Grand Trunk city ticket office, Clock Corner, Richmond and Dundas streets, will be open this evening for the sale of Labor Day, Toronto Exhibition, excursion and other tickets. 20u

Faulty Digestion

Causes Physical and Mental Breakdown—Mi-o-na Will Strengthen Stomach.

Few people realize the intimate relation between the mind and the stomach. Worry and excessive mental work re-act on the digestive system, while on the other hand the greatest cause of nerve and brain impoverishment is a weak or faulty digestion.

When the stomach does not assimilate the elements of strength and nerve force that are in the food we eat, the energies we expend in the active processes of life are not replaced, and physical and mental breakdown results.

If the stomach does not have action, it soon becomes unable to act, just the same as a muscle that is not used becomes weak and valueless. Just as soon as you find that your food is not properly digested, that you taste it after eating, that the tongue is furred, the breath heavy, the appetite poor, the head occasionally dull and aching, begin the use of Mi-o-na.

This reliable remedy contains no pepsin, and is an absolute strengthener of the digestive system. In fact, it is a guaranteed cure for all diseases of the stomach, excepting cancer. It is not a patent medicine, and its formula is furnished to physicians, druggists, and all intelligent people who may desire it. Mi-o-na differs from any other remedy on the market in its lasting effects.

Mi-o-na costs but 50 cents a box.

If you cannot obtain Mi-o-na of your druggist, it will be sent by mail, postpaid, on receipt of price. Write us for advice on your case from a leading stomach specialist which will be sent free. The R. T. Booth Company, Ithaca, N. Y.

THE BANKS OF CANADA

Their System Superior to That of the United States.

Washington, Aug. 31.—The Star publishes the following:

The banks of Canada have played a very important part in the recent interesting development of that country's western provinces. American farmers who have moved into Canada are loud in their praises of the Canadian banking system in the letters they write to their friends at home. They speak especially of the stability and reliability of the Canadian banks. Bank failures are rare in Canada, and when a depositor puts his money in a bank he has little occasion whatever to worry as to the safety of his funds.

Another thing that impresses itself on Americans when first they come into contact with the Canadian banking system is that the largest deserved credit can be obtained from one bank. It is not necessary for a large business to carry accounts at several banks in order to get the accommodations required.

Canadian bank currency is superior to Canadian banking system and that of the United States are that the Canadians have nothing to correspond to our state banks; and the chartered banks, which correspond to our national banks, are permitted to maintain branches. The result of these two differences is that there are no small individual banks in Canada, and the banking business of the country is conducted by a comparatively limited number of banking corporations, with branches in every part of the country. There are, all told, only 34 chartered banks in Canada, but they have about 1,200 branches in that country, and a number of foreign branches. The existence of these great banking institutions, ready at all times to establish new branches or local banks in every town that develops or promises to develop business, is of great help in opening up new country, because it provides, before an isolated community could provide for itself, an agency that performs the functions of banking—which are in even greater need in a new country than elsewhere.

Bankers generally agree that the principal differences between the ours, particularly with respect to utility. The chartered banks have the power to issue bank notes to an amount not exceeding their paid-up capital. These notes constitute practically the entire medium of exchange of the country outside of a limited amount of Dominion Government paper currency and some subsidiary coin. The banks naturally put out a greater volume of these notes or bills when there is a great demand for money. In other words, the Canadian system has that elasticity that the financiers of this country have been saying for years is the chief defect in our own system — a defect which has, however, not been remedied.

Although, like our national banks, the chartered banks of Canada are not permitted to lend money on real estate, any farmer who is making a success may easily secure a reasonable loan on his personal note. As the banks have branches all over the country, they have a most efficient means of transmitting unused capital from one region to another where there is a demand for it. In this way the surplus capital of Eastern Canada is transferred and used in the west with a minimum of friction, and also a minimum of cost to the borrower. The newest town in Western Canada thus has as easy access to the capital required for its development as the oldest town in the east. In consequence of this adaptability of the Canadian banking system there have never been in the west of Canada any such usurious practices as have so often burdened the agricultural classes of the Western States.

STORMED THE "BAD LANDS"

Chicago Police Make Clean Sweep of Disreputable Hotels.

Chicago, Aug. 29.—In what was perhaps the most spectacular and best organized raid ever seen in Chicago 70 policemen and detectives, under the command of Capt. Gibbons, last night stormed the "bad lands" of the downtown hotel district and carried captive to the Harrison street police station more than 100 inmates of fifteen disreputable hotels.

The rattle of the dozen patrol wagons employed in the raid was, according to police prophecy, the requiem of downtown rottenness.

When the last frightened woman had been bundled into the Harrison street annex, Police-Attorney Comerford, who acted as field marshal with Capt. Gibbons in the sacking of the hotels, declared that the resorts never will be permitted to open under the old managements. All books and registers were confiscated by the police, and when 10 o'clock came, the only living beings left behind the locked doors were the rats and cockroaches.

KIDNAPPED GIRL FREED

Elects to Live With Adopted Mother Rather Than Relations.

Montreal, Aug. 30.—Abducted from Courtright, Lambton County, Anna Darragh today regained her freedom in Montreal.

The girl was abducted by her aunt, Margaret Darragh, and her sister, Mary Darragh, of this city.

She had been brought up as a Catholic, and was later adopted by Mrs. J. A. Webb, a widow, of Courtright, and a Protestant, with whom she had been living. Her sister and aunt wished to bring her back under their influence, as they claimed she was drifting away from the religion of her youth.

The girl is twenty years of age, and also the heiress to a small sum of money.

The aunt and sister pleaded guilty of abduction before Justice Riche, but as the girl received her liberty, his honor, after a warning, released the accused.

Anna declared in court her desire to live with her adopted mother.

When a man gets a chance to dispose of his troubles he always heaps up the measure.

MODERN RUSSIAN PERSEUS

Nobleman Rescues His Andromeda from Tartan Bandits.

Odessa, Aug. 30. — Gerinsoff in the Caucasus produced a modern Andromeda in the Princess Nariadzen, daughter of a rich chieftain, who was carried off by Tartar raiders during a recent feud.

The capturers of the princess demanded a ransom of 10,000 rubles, which her father was willing to pay. The Russian authorities, however, refused to encourage the abductors and announced they would recover the captive by force. The Tartars conveyed the princess to the high hills, bound her to a tree, refused to give her food, and said that she might die if the ransom was not forthcoming.

Next day the Russians appeared in a valley underneath, but were ambuscaded and obliged to retreat. A young officer who had heard of the princess' beauty thereupon swore that he would deliver her alone.

He climbed the mountain at night, penetrated the bandits' camp and cut the captive's bonds. The pair fled. The bandits pursued, and by a chance shot, unknown to themselves, struck the rescuer in the chest. The princess bound up the wound, waited beside her deliverer all night, and in the morning ran to the Russian camp and brought back help.
