THE ACADIAN.

WOLFVILLE, N. S., JUNE 23, 1916

Editorial Brevities.

It Roumania now feels that she can enter the war without being crushed, as Belgium and Serbia were crushed, it will be a good thing for the Allies. Her assistance would be of great value in a great general offensive on all fronts. Greece continues to humiliate herself, because she lacks the courage o do right.

The election for the provincial legislature on Tuesday resulted in the return of the Murray government by an increased majority. The standing of the parties in the House will be about 31 to 12. In this county H. H. Wickwire, Liberal, and J. E. Kinsman, Conservative, are elected. The vote was much closer than usual.

Eighty-six days of recruiting has given the United States only 9,428 volunteers for the army of twenty thousand called for by the War department as a consequence of the Mexican trouble. Canada, with about one tenth the population, has made a far better showing. American papers sometimes reproduce Canadian recruiting appeals in support of arguments that Canada is finding it difficult to secure volunteers.

....

You should get the worth out of your money when you spend it. You owe it to yourself and to those dependent on you to get value received for every dollar you spend. This is not parsimony, nor stingyness; it is merely business sense. You are entitled to all that your money will buy, but you will not get it unless you demand it, and you can't demand it unless you know values, unless you are posted on current conditions. You can gain this wisdom only by reading the advertisements. They will tell you what things are worth, where they can be had, and will offer suggestions concerning qualities, styles and designs. Advertisements will make your dollar bigger. There is news—real live news—in our advertising columns this issue and every issue. It is the sort of news that costs you money if you miss it.

Pay Up.

More and more we are convinced that what this country most needs is a religion or training that will make a man pay his debts. Shooting does not settle accounts with God or man. Often we want to boycott a fellow right out of the church because he went fishing on Sunday, but never say a word to the pious scamp who never pays his debts; and such people are doing the church more harm than a lot of Sunday desecrators, for there are more of them in the church.

One of the great difficulties in life by which the average man is confronted is that of "paying." It may be extremely simple to contract a debt, but not always so easy to discharge the same. Nevertheless, the debt must be paid—by someone. The pity is that we so often postpone what we term the evil day—"pay up day." We should endeavour to avoid this mistake; for in most cases the older the debt the harder it is to pay.

Delegates.

The Canadian Branch of the Empire Parliamentary Association has selected the delegates who are to go to Great Britain as guests of the United Kingdom branch. There are to be four senators and six members of the House of Commons in the delegation.

The senators selected are: Landry, Dennis, Ross, of Moose Jaw, and Belcourt, and the substitutes, Watson, Sproule, Casgrain and Bober.

The members of Parliament chosen are: Sir George Foster, Messrs. Shepard, Nanaimo; Knowles, Moose Jaw; Nickle, Kingston; Chabot, Ottawa, and Armstrong, Lambton. Their substitutes are: Messrs. Rhodes, Lemieux, Bennett, McCraney and Thompson.

A delegation is coming from Australia and New Zealand, and the party will cross the Atlantic together about the end of June.

Liquor Seized.

The newly appointed Inspector under the Nova Scotia Temperance Act, Mr. Buchanan, whose appointment was gazetted on Wednesday last, signalized his entrance upon office by an important seizure at Canning early on Thursday morning, of last week. A quantity of intoxicants, which had been brought to Canning in a motor boat, was transferred by the light of the moon to the home of Mr. Leslie Baxter. Some young men watched the proceedings, and, actuated by moral or political considerations, summoned the Inspector who instituted a search, as authorized by law, gathered in the liquor and had it conveyed to Kentville. Mr. Baxter was not arrested. He was reported to be in hiding.

Boys and Girls as Workers.

"Every one at work," is the call during war time. The more men recruited, the greater the responsibility on those left at home. Men who have worked hard and saved some money so as to spend their old age in comfort will be turning in again to help their sons on the farms or will step in to take the places of sons who have joined the colors. Women, the busiest of whom seem always able to do something more, will be dividing their time between household duties and outdoor work. Young men from the farm will no doubt cut short their term at school or college and lend a hand at spring work and stay with the farm operations until the crops are harvested. Large numbers of soldiers will get temporary leave. Are there any others who can lend a hand in producing? What about the boys and girls who have been receiving instruction in school gardening? A pamphlet just issued by the Dominion Department of Agriculture sets forth in illustrated and descriptive form how school garden work has been carried on in all the provinces of Canada. What are the boys and girls doing now? What is their education and training worth? Now home in the most practical manner what they have been taught at school. The boys and girls of Canada, thousands in number, should be able to do their bit in conducting small gardens at home. Boys and girls, patriotic gardens should produce tons upon tons of fresh vegetables for their home supply and they can readily learn how to put up the surplus for winter use. What pleasure they can get this year in growing food in the home garden and thus helping their fathers and mothers! Production along this line is patriotism.

Then what about waste material? Old paper and rags are needed in our industries, so are metals, bottles, rubber and a score of other things. The country needs material and cannot afford to have waste. The saving and use of waste are as important as production. Boys and girls can make money out of scraps. The soldiers at the front would like to get news from home. Wrap up the papers and mail them to The Canadian Red Cross, 14 Cockspur street, London, S. W., England.

Nova Scotia Creameries.

The co-operative creameries in Nova Scotia are again showing a decided increase in business over former years. It is estimated that the make up to the present time is about 35 per cent ahead of this time last year.

Pastures generally over the Province are good, with possibly some exceptions in Cape Breton where the season so far has been very dry.

One new creamery has been opened this year at Margaree Forks, C. B. The make there for May was very satisfactory. Another new creamery will open at Lower South River, Antigonish county, shortly.

Creamery picnics are being held over the Province as follows: July 1st, Cumberland Co-operative Creamery Co., Ltd., at River Hebert. July 4th, LaHave Creamery Co., Ltd., at Bridgewater. July 6th, Milburn Creamery Co. Ltd. at Malignant Cove. July 7th, Scotsburn Creamery Co., Ltd., at Scotsburn. July 11th, Margaree Creamery, at Margaree Forks.

These picnics will be addressed by Mr. Geo. H. Barr, Chief of the Dairy Division, and Mr. Harvey Mitchell, Maritime Representative of the Dairy Division, Ottawa, and also by Prof. Cumming and other members of the Nova Scotia Department of Agriculture.

A picnic will also be held by the Intercolonial Creamery Co., at Lower South River on July 1st, to be addressed by Mr. D. W. Murray, President of the Nova Scotian Dairymen's Association, and Prof. Trueman, from Truro.

Annual Meeting of The Canadian Seed Growers' Association.

The annual meeting of the Canadian Seed Growers' Association for the year 1915-16 was held in the Canadian Building, Ottawa, Ont., June 16th. Among others there were present the President, Dr. Jas. W. Robertson; Dr. C. A. Zavitz, Guelph, Ont.; Professor James Murray, MacDonald College, Que.; Mr. Savoie, Secretary of Agriculture for Quebec; Professor M. Cumming, Truro, N. S.; Mr. J. B. Digett, Deputy Minister of Agriculture for New Brunswick; W. T. Mocoun, Ottawa; G. H. Clark, Seed Comissioner, Ottawa; W. J. Black, Economic and Development Commission, Ottawa; and the Secretary, Mr. L. H. Newman.

Owing to the war situation the meeting this year dealt chiefly with business matters, there being no papers or addresses presented. The reports submitted by the Board of Directors and by the Secretary indicate that substantial progress has been made by the Association during the past year. The membership has increased as has also the extent of the influence exerted throughout the Dominion.

Dr. Jas. W. Robertson was re-elected President as was also Mr. L. H. Newman as Secretary Treasurer. The Board of Directors consists of 19 members and is composed of prominent authorities chosen from each of the provinces.

Yuan Shi Kai, President of China, who died on June 6th, has been succeeded by Li Yuan Hung, leader of the Republican army.

Our Heroes.

Pte. William Arthur Elderkin is the first one of our Wolfville boys to [illegible] in progress. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Elderkin, received the sad news on Thursday of last week. Pte. Elderkin was in the employ of the Canadian Bank of Commerce at Cudworth, Sask., when he enlisted in the Saskatoon detachment of the 3rd Universities Company. He sailed from Montreal in September last and had been at the front about three months with the Princess Patricias when he was killed in action. Mr. Elderkin was 26 years of age, and was the oldest son. He was a graduate of the Wolfville High School and of the Business Department of Horton Collegiate Academy. About eight years ago he began his banking career and was employed with the Canadian Bank of Commerce at Halifax, Parrsboro, St. John and Windsor before going west. He was a clever and popular young man and the sad news of his death was received with deep regret by the community at large.

The news was also received on Thursday afternoon of last week that Pte. Bedford Donald Chase, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Bedford Chase, of Port Williams, had been killed in action. Pte. Chase was practically a Wolfville boy having attended school and spent much of his boyhood here. He was a fine young fellow and had many friends. After completing his studies at the Wolfville High School he entered Acadia and had finished the second year in the engineering course, with much credit. At the time of his enlistment he was at his home at Port Williams. He joined the 4th Universities Company at Montreal last autumn and sailed from Halifax shortly before Christmas. He had been at the front with the Princess Patricias at since about the end of March. The family has had no particulars as yet, but the sad news of his death has caused much sorrow.

Death of Henry H. Theakston.

The death of Mr. Henry H. Theakston, who for the past few years has been a resident of Wolfville, took place at his home on Highland Avenue on Tuesday evening. The deceased was a son of Major Theakston, of Halifax, and was a man of sterling character and had many friends. In his early life he was engaged in the printing business, but for a number of years he carried on a grocery business at Rockingham. About four years ago, owing to ill-health, he came to Wolfville and has resided here since, in the hope of regaining his health. He was a most intelligent and well informed gentleman, and a most interesting companion. He is survived by his wife and one daughter, father, six brothers and one sister, to whom much sympathy is extended. The remains were taken to Halifax on Wednesday evening and the funeral was held yesterday afternoon.

The death of Jas. T. Schofield, of White Rock, occurred Thursday at 1 o'clock a. m., age 88. Funeral tomorrow at late residence at 3 p. m. Notice of Mrs. Schofield's death will be found in this issue.

Look out for the merchant or manufacturer that does not advertise. If he had anything worth the telling he would tell it quickly enough. But "just as good" substitutes or shelf worn goods are not things to boast about. The weak will inherit the earth—eventually, but not now. The progressive business man is not a shrinking violet. He advertises.

MRS VANZOOST,

CANADIAN ZOO

(1) Specimens of Banff Buffalo (2) Three C[illegible] (3) A Banff Polar Bear.

IN the Canadian Zoo at Banff, Alberta, within the Rocky Mountains Park and along the C.P.R., both at the zoo adjoining the museum and out at the animal paddock about two miles east of the town, there are fine specimens of buffalo, moose, elk, deer, Persian sheep, Angora goats, bear, wolves, coyotes, lynx, badgers, martens, and a number of the smaller animals.

Six yak, originally presented to the Dominion Government by the Duke of Bedford, were tendered by the former to the Rocky Mountains Park. They were brought to Banff from the experimental farm at Brandon and are now in a healthy and flourishing condition. Their quaint appearance, causing them to be objects of much interest. The park commission or suggests that it would be an interesting experiment to attempt to cross one of the buffalo bulls with one of the yak cows.

In the Zoo, adjacent to the museum, may be seen the following animals of the Rocky Mountains:

Black bears, Cinnamon bears, grizzly bears, red foxes, kit foxes, timber wolves, coyotes, lynx, American panther (or mountain lion), badgers, pine martens, porcupines, mountain gopher, albino gophers, marmots, fox squirrels, black squirrels, Canada geese, hawks, golden eagles, black-headed eagles, owls, pelican.

The following animals, from distant parts of the world, may be seen in the Zoo:

Bonnet monkey, rhesus monkeys, polar bear, racoons, orange squirrel, silver pheasants, golden pheasants, Amherst pheasants, reeves pheasants, common pheasants, pea fowls.
