Pure, clean, flavory and strong, in sealed packets.

Red Rose Tea "is good tea"

603

Aylmer's General Store

HONEST GOODS AT HONEST PRICES

Visit our store and Inspect our Stock of

Spring Goods

Lace Curtains, 3 yds. long, per pair	50c
" 3 " "	75c
" 3½ " "	$1.00
Curtain Scrim, per yard	10c
Roller Blind, 3 x 6, green and cream	35c
Dotted Curtain Muslin, per yard	15c

H. L. STRATTON

"The Store of Quality"

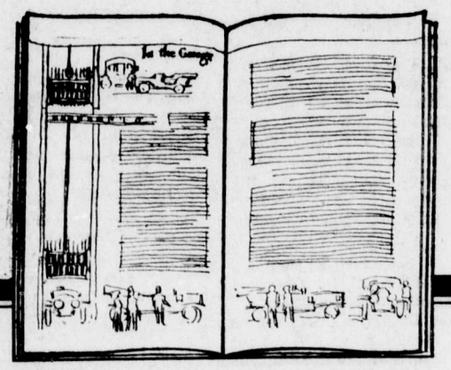
Real Estate Bargain

For Sale 116 acres. Good Buildings and Fences.

Two miles west of Aylmer, a few rods from Church, Post Office and Blacksmith Shop. The farm is well watered. Owners health bad is the reason for selling. Will consider letting on shares. Good terms to right man.

Lorne L. Miller

Box 234, Aylmer — Rural Phone 105 a or b



Automobile Dealers Will Read This Book With Profit

DO you want to know how some of the most successful automobile dealers in Canada have reduced their expensive ground floor area in congested districts, and cut down their overhead expense?

This Book will tell you. Write for it to-day. Don't put it off and forget all about it. You'll find on pages 12 and 13 information which may mean all the difference between success and failure. Tear off the coupon and mail NOW, before you have time to forget.

OTIS-FENSOM ELEVATOR COMPANY LIMITED

50 BAY ST., TORONTO

COUPON "N-1."
Please send me your Book.
Name.....
Address.....

MT. SALEM

Mrs. Geo. Buck, of St. Thomas is not improving as her friends would wish to see.

Leman Hawley's little son is not much better. He has inflammation of the glands of the neck.

Mrs. Amelia Baughman and Mrs Jno Hawley returned from St. Thomas, on Saturday, after visiting their sister, Mrs. Geo. Buch.

Truman Appleford and Stuart Hamilton were visitors at A. Boyd's Sunday.

LUTON

The dinner given by the Ladies Aid at the home of Mrs. W. J. Dunn on Thursday of last week was a great success. There was a large attendance and a good time. Proceeds $13.

Three of our citizens have purchased automobiles this spring. Mr. A Harrett, Mr. E. Vanpatter and Mr. Richardson. Who'll be the next?

Mrs F. Tufford is quite ill at present.

Mr. E. B. Hill will spend a few days this week in Ottawa.

Over forty of our citizens drove to Lyons on Friday evening last and gave the entertainment given here the previous week. After the concert the Lyons ladies served a delightful lunch. Proceeds $27.

JAFFA

A very enjoyable time was experienced at the St. Patrick's social last week.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Weaver and daughter, of Kingsmill, spent Sunday with relatives here.

H. Teeple is improving after a severe attack of neuritis.

Mrs. I. Davidson has returned home after spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. J. McNight, of Mt Salem.

H Ebey has returned from a trip to England.

Floyd Pearce is visiting his cousins, Glen and Alice Roberts, at Copenhagen.

Many of the old friends of Mr. J. Locker, a former resident were sorry to hear of his death in Aylmer last week.

CORINTH

Mrs. McQueen, of Tillsonburg, spent a few days with her aunt, Mrs J Ames.

Misses Viola and Elva Pearson spent the week end in St. Thomas.

Mr. and Mrs. Fewster, of Ingersoll, spent Sunday with their son Harrison.

Mr. and Mrs C. Turnbull spent Friday in St. Thomas.

The bazaar and sugar social will be held on Friday evening in the literary hall.

Miss Eerdie White has returned after a three weeks' visit with friends in Copenhagen and Dunboyne.

The ladies aid held their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Ira Hayward.

Mrs. L. Best has returned from St. Joseph's hospital, London, where she underwent an operation.

Miss Minnie Evans left for Toronto, where she has accepted a position on the staff of the public schools

T. Lord left on Saturday for Welland where he has accepted a position, Mrs. Lord and Nellie going later.

A very pretty but quite wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clark, at Verna, when their daughter, Emily, was united in marriage to Mr. Samuel Evans of this place. Mr. and Mrs. Evans will reside in McTaggart, Sask.

The death occurred on Thursday, of Duncan Shepherd, a well known Bayham farmer. About two weeks ago he sustained a paralytic stroke, from which he never rallied. The funeral took place on Sunday afternoon from his late residence to Eden church where the services and interment took place.

An excellent supper was prepared and thoroughly enjoyed by all. Later music, speeches and recitations were given, and an address was read by Gordon Moore, and Mr. and Mrs. Moore were each presented with a pair of gold rimmed spectacles, and all joined in wishing them many more years of married life.

A well known and highly respected resident of this place, in the person of Mrs. T. Firby, passed away on Monday morning at her late residence, after several months' illness following a stroke of paralysis. She has practically resided in this towush p all her life. She leaves to mourn her loss, one son, Jackson, on the old homestead, and several brothers and sisters.

A nice time was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Moore, about three miles west of the village March 11, when over thirty children and relatives gathered to celebrate the 50th anniversary of their wedding day. They have lived for fifty years nearly on the farm where they now reside. Mrs Moore's maiden name was Miss Ellen Nesbit, and she wore the same dress with which she adorned herself on her wedding day.

SEE PAGE 5 & 8
For additional correspondence

C. O. Learn

For Sale or Exchange — Three-fifths of an acre of land and good frame house and barn, on the east side of John st. south, formerly known as the Draper property. There is a very fine lot of small fruit, consisting of strawberries and raspberries. Will sell right or will exchange for a larger piece of land, as the owner wants to go into small fruits on a larger scale.

For Sale or Exchange—50 acres of good sandy loam soil within 2 miles of Aylmer, fair buildings, good orchard well watered both for stock and domestic use, will sell cheap or will exchange for good rentable property in Aylmer.

For Sale or exchange—33 acres of good fair timber, 5½ miles from Aylmer, the timber if properly handled should nearly pay for land and all. Will exchange for good rentable property in Aylmer.

For Sale or exchange—100 acres of choice clay loam soil, good fair buildings, good orchard, on a good gravel road, 1 mile to church, 1¼ miles to school, 4 miles to Park Hill in the County of Middlesex. This is a snap at $6500, on easy terms, or will exchange for good rentable property in Aylmer or St. Thomas or for a smaller farm in Elgin.

For Sale—100 acres, one of the best clay loam in the county, medium buildings. A 1 location, 1½ miles from Springfield, 4 miles from Aylmer, known as the Levi Brooks farm, Price $9000, on easy terms

For Sale—100 acres, being the north half of lot 23, con. 8 Malahide. Clay loam, buildings in fair shape. The land is tile drained, watered by flowing wells, one barn on wall This farm is suitable for either stock or grain, and the price is right and on easy terms.

Only $2,000 required to secure a choice 100-acre farm, with A 1 buildings, within ¾ miles from a nice village. Good orchard, 15 acres timber, farm watered by a never-failing spring creek. Owner too far advanced in years, the reason for selling. To induce immediate sale, the price is placed at $7,000 on easy terms.

For Sale or Exchange—110 acres, part of lots 29 and 31, con. 4 Malahide. Good buildings, house and bank barn new or nearly so, good orchard, farm well watered for stock or domestic use. Will sell reasonable or will exchange for a larger farm near Aylmer.

50-acre farm with brickyard, $4,000 plant. Clay for all time to come, of good quality for either tile or brick, Only 1½ miles from Aylmer. Good buildings and a good business. Owner, too old is the reason for selling. $8,000 on easy terms, will take farm and all.

For Sale or Exchange— 177 acres of good fair land in a good locality only 4½ miles from Tillsonburg Condense Factory, 3 miles to G. T. R. Station. The buildings are first class, consisting of a large 2-storey brick house, nearly new, a large bank barn with all modern equipments. The other outbuildings are numerous and in first class shape. The above farm is offered for the small sum of $8,000 or will exchange for a smaller farm not too far from Aylmer.

For Sale or Exchange—4½ acres of land with fair buildings and brick and tile plant with the best of clay for either brick or tile. Everything in good working order and is offered very cheap and on easy terms or will exchange for good rentable property in Aylmer. Apply to C.O. Learn, Aylmer or B. F. Davenport, Orwell, Ont.

For Sale—60 acres of first class land and medium fair buildings, land well tiled, about 4 miles from Aylmer, within half mile from Northwood cheese factory, is offered at a reasonable price. Apply to C. O. Learn, old Molson Bank building, Aylmer.

For Sale or Exchange— 26 acres with good comfortable buildings, about 2½ miles from Aylmer, known as the Cook farm. A nice home for a retired farmer. Will sell cheap or will exchange for good rentable property in Aylmer.

For Sale—100 acres, being the north ½ of lot 19, con. 8, South Dorchester. Soil clay loam; buildings fair; 2½ miles from Belmont Powdered Milk factory. A good farm and can be had right.

For Sale—116⅔ acres, being parts of lots 24 and 25, con. 3, Malahide. Medium buildings, good orchard, plenty of timber for home use, only 1¼ miles to Mt. Salem. Must be sold, and is offered at a snap.

For Sale—100 acres, being lot 21, south gore, in the township of Bayham. Fair buildings, good orchard, farm well watered. A good farm for the small sum of $3,500.

For Sale—100 acres of choice land and fair farm buildings, only about 4 miles from Aylmer, being part of lot 17 on the townline between S. Dorchester and Malahide. A good farm and the price is right.

For Sale—Frame cottage, nearly new small barn, one fifth of an acre of land, on the corner of Sydenham and Victoria sts., a nice little home for a small amount of money.

For Sale or Exchange—About one acre of land and good buildings, in the village of Lyons. A good place for a store or temperance house; good new barn well fitted up for a number of horses. Would take a small property near Aylmer as part payment.

For Sale—100 acres of choice land in a good state of cultivation; plenty of comfortable buildings; well supplied with water both for stock or domestic use. The farm was formerly known as the Dennis Leeson farm, near Copenhagen. If you want a good farm and a cheap farm for the money, see C. O. Learn.

THE ROYAL BANK OF CANADA

INCORPORATED 1869

Capital Paid Up	$11,560,000
Reserve Funds	13,575,000
Total Assets	180,000,000

TRAVELLERS' LETTERS OF CREDIT issued, also TRAVELLERS' CHEQUES, available throughout the world. DRAFTS are sold, drawn direct on our correspondents, also BANK MONEY ORDERS.

MONEY transferred by letter or cable.

AYLMER BRANCH: NEWMAN BOOKER, Manager

Branches at Brownsville and Springfield

Question?

ARE YOU READY FOR THE QUESTION?

Where do you intend to spend some of your spare evenings? I will put you wise.

Try Jack Harris, Pocket Billiard Parlor and Bowling Alleys, up-to-date, clean and positively no gambling.

He also keeps the finest assortment of pipes, tobacos and cigars.

GIVE ME A CALL AND BE CONVINCED. JACK HARRIS

Tinsmithing

Plumbing, and Gas Fitting
Hot Water and Steam Fitting

We guarantee our work to be satisfactory. Our wide experience enables us to make this statement. We look after the detail; that's where our work pleases the most. Get our estimate on your next job. It's free.

Geo. A. Ellis

PLUMBING & GAS FITTING

Sole Agents for Ideal Gas Ranges

Hot Plates, Gas Burners, and Gas Water Heater

A full line of Chandeliers, Mantles, Globes, etc

PLUMBING—See our fixtures before buying.

Frank Light

The Molsons Bank

Incorporated 1855

Capital and Reserve - $8,700,000

85 BRANCHES IN CANADA

A GENERAL BANKING BUSINESS TRANSACTED

CIRCULAR LETTERS OF CREDIT
TRAVELLERS CHEQUES
BANK MONEY ORDERS } ISSUED

SAVINGS DEPARTMENT

at all Branches. Interest allowed at highest current rate.

E. W. R. Hill, Manager Aylmer Branch

Cream Separators

Your choice of three Excellent Makes—

De Laval, Malotte or Blue Bell

They are all reliable and no mistake can be made in selecting either.

Sewing Machines, Washing Machines, Kitchen Cabinets And all Labor Saving Devices for the Household

BUGGIES

I would like to show you our fine and complete line of buggies. They are all rigs that will stand the wear and tear, and include the following standard makes; Waller & Sons, Wm. Gray & Sons, Campbell and Canada Carriage Co.

A Full Line of Harness, Robes, Etc., Etc.

Newt. Newell

McCormack Agent, Aylmer

Mary G

Or, The

CHAPTER III.

"I don't know. But I thought a widower. He seems very mu up with Mrs. Grey," sighed th man.
"Oh, is that it?" laughed Emm
an away to take off her bon mantle.
And that Easter Sunday Ma
found herself again in a dilemma her two proposed victims—the gr clergyman and the raven-locked But she managed them both much adroitness that at the clo day, when Craven Kyte was ridin back to Wendover, he was saying elf:
"She is fond of me, after all; th he darling, the angel! Oh, that perfect creature should be fond m at this moment the very happ
n earth!"
And later the same night, when Dr. Jones laid his woolen nigh ead upon his pillow, instead of leep as the old gentleman shou
one, he lay awake and commun himself, as follows:
"Poor child—poor child! A me and she is penitent; sincerely Oh, I can see that! And to thi he is not nearly so much in fau believed her to be! She tells me eally was married to that man—hen she was a child only fourtee
f age. So her gravest error wa ing away to be married! And he fault of the man who stole her han of herself. And she is as re or that fault as if it were som rime. And oh, how she has What she has gone through for oung! And she has such a tend ectionate nature! Ah, what will f her, poor child—poor child! She o have some one to take care of h ught indeed to be married, for no tender husband could take care pretty, delicate, helpless creatur ught to marry some one much old erself. Not a green, beardless b at young puppy—Heaven forgive mean that young man Kyte. He t appreciate her, couldn't be a g guard to her. And she really iding and guarding too. For se asily she falls into error. She ou arry some good, wise, elderly ma uld be her guide, philosophe riend as well as husband."
And so murmuring to himself h eep to dream that he himself w odel guide, philosopher and frie ired by the young widow.
The next day, Easter Monday, b messenger from Lytton Lodge; enger who was no other than M ates, commonly called "Taters," servant of Frederick Fanning andlord of White Perch Point, bu hired man of John Lytton's.
Mithridates, or Taters, rode an oking old draft horse, with a ated saddle and bridle, and wore nd coat exceedingly shabby for a eman's servant.
He also led a second horse furn
ith a side-saddle.
He dismounted at the carriage-ed the horses to a tree, and went to the front door and knocked.
Jerome opened it, and administe harp rebuke to the messenger for ming to knock at the visitors' do ead of at the servants'.
"If I'd a come to the servants' pped at the servants' door; but ve comed to the white folks' I dere door. Here: I've fotch a l om Marse Jacky Lytton to his iss Lorrer," said Taters, pompous
"Give it to me then, and I'll tu to her," said Jerome.
"Set you up with it! I must 'liv is here letter with my own hands own hands," said Taters, stout
"Well, come along, for a fool! Y purty looking objick to denounce
e parlor, a'n't you now?" said Jer ding the way.
At that moment, unseen by Jer
t distinctly seen by Taters, a face ared at the head of the stairs fo stant, but meeting the eye of Ta ned white as death and vanished.
Taters uttered a terrible cry and s hen pale and quaking with horror
e foot of the steps.
"Why, what in the name of the y is the matter with you, man? H u trod on a nail or piece of glass ything that has gone through y ot, or what is it?" demanded Jero astonishment.
"Oh, no, no, no! it's worse'n that—rse'n that! It's no end worse'n t Lor'! oh, Lor'! oh, Lor'!" cried holding his knees and sawing ba rd and forward in an agony of h
"Ef you don't stop that howlin'
l me what's the matter of you sed ef I don't get a bucket of ler and heave it all over you to fe to your senses!" exclaimed the perated Jerome.
"Oh, Lor', don't! Oh, please don't ll die quick enough now withe
it!" cried Taters, writhing horribly.
"What's the matter, you born id
t?" roared Jerome, in a fury.
"Oh, I've seen a sperrit—I've seen rrit!! I've seen the sperrit of ng mistress And it's a token of th!" wailed the negro boy in agon
"What's that you say—a sperrit?
rrit in this yer 'epectable, 'sponsib se? Lookee here, nigger: mind wh say now, or it'll be the wus for yo sperrit in this yer ginteel family er had a crime or a ghost inter
e Cavendishers nebber 'mits no crim en der living, nor likewise don't wa ut ondecent arter der dead. And d t no sperrits here," said Jerome, wi

ER AND STOMACH WRONG

igestion, Bad Color, Pale, Fatigued.

se Oppressed by Palpitation and eart Pains will find Interesting Facts in this Article.

he following letter is printed with hope that it will show a clear road ealth to those who suffer the pangs indigestion and weak stomach.
am anxious to send the message ope far and wide to all who are in health, as I was a year ago," es Mrs. Ernest P. Gomez, from den. "For years I have had a stomach, and have experienced the distress caused by indigestion. y say that the heart pains, watery gs, pressure of gas from fermenta- at times almost drove me wild. a time I could scarcely eat a ful without causing myself end- misery; I could not sleep well, my was fearful, dark circles under eyes, bad dreams, etc.
a a last hope, I was persuaded to Dr. Hamilton's Pills of Mandrake Butternut. As I persevered with treatment my appetite gradually ned, and I began to relish my . My strength slowly returned, eadache and chest pains grew less , and at last I began to look my elf again. Dr. Hamilton's Pills me, and I use them occasionally because I find as a system re- r and health-supporter no medi- is equal to them."
same medicine that so wonder- restored Mrs. Gomez will also you, 25c per box, or five boxes .00. Beware of substitutes. By from The Catarrhozone Company, ton, Ont.
12