FOR THE OVERWORKED.—What are the causes of despondency and melancholy? A disordered liver is one cause, and a prime one. A disordered liver means a disordered stomach, and a disordered stomach means disturbance of the nervous system. This brings the whole body into subjection and the victim feels sick all over. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills are a recognized remedy in this state and relief will follow their use.

Lieut. Zebulon Montgomery Pike, an officer in the United States army, discovered the famous peak Nov. 15, 1806. The Chamber of Commerce of Colorado Springs has started a movement to honor the 100th anniversary of this event in 1906 by a celebration to be participated in by the entire state.

LONDON AND DISTRICT

—Mrs. Wm. Fulton, of Waterloo street, is visiting with friends in Toronto.

—Miss Pearl Hopper, of Alma College, is spending the Easter vacation with Mrs. Cowley, Princess avenue.

—Mr. and Mrs. Bert Greenwood, of St. Thomas, are visiting with Mrs. Atted, Wharncliffe road, South London.

—The Ontario College of Pharmacy has granted a medal to Mr. Cairncross, druggist, of this city, for the standing he took in a recent examination.

—The Forest City Pedro and Angling Club met at the residence of Mr. Albert C. McMullin, Princess avenue, last evening, and played off the final games in their pedro series. Mrs. McMullin and Mr. L. Arscott won the prizes.

HOLIDAY AT POSTOFFICE.

Tomorrow there will be a morning delivery only by carriers. General delivery wicket will be open 8 to 10 a.m. and 6 to 7 p.m. The stamp vendor's office will also be open during the same hours. Lobby open to box-holders as on other days. Mails dispatched as usual.

GOWN AND CASSOCK.

Rev. Dr. Ross, pastor of St. Andrew's Church, was presented with a handsome gown and cassock by his congregation, after the regular prayer-meeting last evening. Mr. C. R. Somerville delivered an address, while Mrs. J. A. Murray made the presentation. A fine sideboard for the dining-room was given to Mrs. Ross. The reverend gentleman and his wife were taken completely by surprise by the pleasant affair, but Dr. Ross expressed the great appreciation of both, very happily.

WAS PASSED TO LONDON.

Stooped with age and hair that showed plainly the winter of her life, Mrs. Mary Greer, claiming London as her home, called on Chief of Police Wills this morning, and asked for transportation to the Forest City, says the Windsor Record of Tuesday. The old lady possessed the sum of $2, which she was willing to put towards the expense of taking her to that city. She was taken to the mayor, who provided her with the necessary transportation.

DYKER—FINLAY.

At the residence of Mr. James Finlay, West avenue, St. Thomas, a happy event took place on Tuesday evening, when his daughter, Miss Ethel, was wedded to Mr. James Dyker, now of this city. Rev. D. Bovington conducted the ceremony in the presence of a few immediate friends and relatives. The bride was attended by Miss Emily Rendle, while Sergt. William Rendle acted as best man. After the wedding breakfast, Mr. and Mrs. Dyker left for this city, where Mr. Dyker has taken a position in the store of Screaton & Co. The many friends of the young couple in St. Thomas wish them every happiness.

CONCERT AND BOX SOCIAL.

Companion Court Friendship, I. O. F., held a most enjoyable concert and box social in the Foresters' Hall, South London, Monday evening. The last part of the programme was an impromptu auction sale conducted by Bro. A. M. Hunt, and was carried through very satisfactorily. Those contributing to the rest of the programme were as follows: Mr. E. H. Allport, Miss Kate Lancaster, Mr. Roy McLean, Miss Ora Lefler, Messrs. Keenber and Williamson, Miss Pearl Jackson, Mr. McCann, Messrs. Imrie Bros., Miss Gilbank, Miss Winnie Short, Miss May Mason, Miss Lilian Smallman, Miss N. merryfield, Messrs. Imrie Bros., Master Teddy Williamson, Miss Winnie Short, Miss Pearl Lewis, Miss Kate Lancaster, Miss Mulberry.

Mr. Atkinson's Ideal Piano.

Mr. G. D. Atkinson, organist of Wesley Methodist Church, Toronto, has been a prominent figure among the musicians of the city for some years. His instincts are distinctly musical, his knowledge of all branches of his art wide and accurate, and his taste as to devotional music conservative and artistic. As a choir leader he has achieved great success and he has the faculty of inducing enthusiasm, the great necessity if a volunteer choir is to accomplish anything. After Mr. Atkinson had been organist of Wesley for several years, he was appointed to Dundas Center Methodist Church, in London, in succession to Mr. W. H. Hewlett, but when Wesley put in a new organ the music committee asked him to return to his old position, and he accepted. His opinion of the latest achievement in piano-making is contained in the following letter addressed to the firm of Messrs. Gourlay, Winter & Leeming: "It affords me a great deal of pleasure to add my word of appreciation of your Gourlay piano. Having had two of them in use for nearly two years, I have had abundant opportunity of proving their many excellent qualities. Without attempt to enumerate these in detail, I would simply say that in your piano I feel that you have been particularly happy in combining those mechanical and artistic qualities which go to make up the ideal instrument. I wish you every possible success."

ALL GENUINE SIGNED

TWO FAITHFUL OFFICERS RESIGN

Miss Graydon and Mrs. Lilley Decline Re-Election by the Woman's Music Club.

The Woman's Music Club has lost the services of two of its most earnest workers—Miss Graydon and Mrs. Lilley, who for some years, in the respective positions of president and treasurer, have been instrumental in advancing the welfare of the organization to no small extent. At the annual meeting of the club held yesterday afternoon, both Miss Graydon and Mrs. Lilley announced their intention to retire from office, and the members generally expressed regret, for they recognized that to fill their places would be no easy matter. The election of a successor to Miss Graydon was deferred until the fall. The other elections resulted as follows:

Honorary President—Miss Graydon.
Honorary Vice-Presidents — Mrs. Moore and Miss Carling.
First Vice-President — Mrs. (Dr.) Drake.
Second Vice-President—Mrs. W. E. Saunders.
Third Vice-President—Mrs. Beck.
Fourth Vice-President — Mrs. R. Burns.
Treasurers—Miss Culver, Miss McCallum.
Secretaries—Miss Hodge, Miss Bethune.
Librarian—Miss Mabel Luscombe.

The programme, which was in charge of Miss Regan, was as follows:

(a) Serenade ..... Pierne
(b) Minuet ..... Boccherini
(With muted strings.)
Ladies' Orchestra.
(a) Come Not When I Am Dead..Allitsen
(b) Thy Voice is Heard 'Mid Rolling Drums ..... Allitsen
Mr. Cyril Dwight-Edwards.
Rhapsodie Hongroise, No. 14.....Liszt
Miss Jeanette Steele.
(a) Wishes .....Sans-Souci
(b) Easter.....Van der Water
Miss Homuth.
Concerto in E flat major—"Emperor" (for piano and orchestra)...Beethoven
Mrs. John Pocock.
(Orchestra part on second piano by Mr. Thomas Martin.)
It Is Enough ("Elijah").....Mendelssohn
Mr. Cyril Dwight-Edwards.
(a) Andante Cantabile, from String Quartet, op. 11.....Tschaikowsky
(b) Valse Lente.....Grau
Ladies' Orchestra.

Miss Steele rendered her selection in her usual masterly manner. Mr. Dwight-Edwards, as usual, delighted his hearers, and was heartily encored, and Mr. Martin, who is always received with intense pleasure, was highly appreciated, as was also Miss Homuth. The Ladies' Orchestra rendered their selections in an artistic manner, showing Mr. Jordan's careful instruction.

TRIED TO BREAK JAIL

Unsuccessful Attempt Made by Two Boys at Woodstock.

The turnkeys at the Woodstock jail have lately been paying particular attention to Joseph Malone and George Findlay, who are there awaiting transfer to the Central Prison. Malone and Findlay, though mere boys, recently broke jail there, only to be rearrested at the C. P. R. sandhouse in this city, and since they were returned to Woodstock a close watch has been kept on them. Yesterday afternoon it was discovered that with pieces of iron from their beds they had removed some bricks leading to the cold air shaft, hoping thereby to reach the basement and escape. However, had they clambered into the shaft they would have found their way obstructed by a heavy iron grating at the bottom. Malone and Findlay have a year to serve in the Central.

SPRING ASSIZES DOCKET CLOSED

Long and Most Important List—Cases That Have Not Been Before Mentioned.

This morning the docket for the spring assizes closes, and it is one of the longest and most important that has ever come before a high court judge in this city. The cases not yet mentioned in these columns are as follows:

Cobbin vs. Murray—This is a suit for slander, in which $5,000 is the amount claimed. Some time ago a lively dispute took place in the local courts regarding the ownership of the racing mare, "Indian Girl," formerly owned by the deceased Sam Plain, an Indian brave, known all over Middlesex. The horse was taken charge of by Plain's executor, but Murray claimed that he had bought the animal from Plain, and finally obtained possession of her. Mr. Cobbin, the other party to the case, now claims that Murray slandered his character, and had him placed under false arrest. The case will be an interesting one. McEvoy & Perrin for plaintiff; Meredith, Judd & Meredith for defendant.

Russell vs. Fleming—This is another slander suit in which $5,000 is claimed. Gibbons & Harper for plaintiff, Gladman & Stanbury for defendant.

Pentecost vs. Fitzpatrick—This is the third slander registered, in which $2,000 is claimed. Bartlett for plaintiff; Faulds & Campbell for defendant.

Frank vs. Hamilton Bridge Company—Action for injuries incurred owing to alleged negligence on the part of the defendants' company, $2,000 damages. Meredith, Judd & Meredith for plaintiff; Duvernet, Jones, Ross & Ardagh for defendants.

The following are non-jury cases:

Irvine vs. Charlton — Action by plaintiff to recover conveyance of certain lands and possession thereof, or a return of $700 part payment thereof. Buchner & Gunn for plaintiff; Tennent & Coleridge for defendant.

Dreaney vs. Blaney—Action for recovery of certain lands lying in the township of North Dorchester. E. T. Essery for plaintiff; McEvoy & Perrin for defendant.

Maddigan vs. Maddigan — For the partition or sale of land or premises situated in the township of Biddulph. Meredith, Judd & Meredith for plaintiff; Meredith & Fisher for defendants.

Cox vs. Wall — For rectification of mortgages on certain premises situated in the city of London. Meredith, Judd & Meredith for plaintiff; Edmund Weld and H. B. Elliot for defendants.

Lancaster vs. Shaw—Plaintiff claims $2,000 damages under the Ontario election act for illegal voting of the defendant at the elections of Jan. 25, 1905. H. B. Elliot for plaintiff; Gibbons & Harper for defendant.

London Life Insurance Company vs. Goulding—This action is over the disputed possession of certain properties in the township of London. McPherson & Jeffrey for plaintiff; E. T. Essery for defendant.

Walker & Logan vs. Johnston — The amount of $732 32 is claimed by plaintiff, as amount due him on a purchase from him by defendant. Meredith & Fisher for plaintiff; McEvoy & Perrin for defendant.

DISCUSSED ART

East Middlesex Teachers Talk On an Interesting Subject.

At the annual convention of the East Middlesex Teachers' Association, now being held in the county buildings, the subject of art and construction work was thoroughly discussed yesterday afternoon. The Misses Teskey, Fair, Howard and McMillan spoke on the subject of drawing and color work, while the following discussed the subject of clay-modeling, etc.: The Misses Murdick, Ruddick, McMartin and Heatly.

Another excellent address was delivered by Principal Scott, of Toronto, his subject being "Indirect Teaching."

In the evening a public meeting was held in the Normal School. An interesting part of the programme was contributed by Vice-Principal Dearness, who gave a fine lecture on "Nature Study."

The Misses Mowatt and McBride gave some enjoyable solos, while several recitations were given by Miss Murdick.

THE WIZARD OF OZ

The Merry and Favorite Extravaganza Revisits Grand Opera House.

Age, as age goes with musical comedy or extravaganza, has not robbed the "Wizard of Oz" of charm and entertainment. This clever piece revisited the Grand last night, and was welcomed by a large audience, which was kept in a constant ripple of laughter. The "Tin Woodman" and the "Scarecrow" are as amusing as of old, the Swor Bros.'s performance of these grotesque characters being quite up to the standard set by the originators, Montgomery and Stone. Trixie, Dorothy, the Lady Lunatic, the Skittish Cow and the Cowardly Lion were capably presented, while the stage settings and grouping (notably the "Garden of the Poppies") were as beautiful as ever. If fetching music, graceful dance, and popular song go for anything, this merry piece should remain before the public for many more moons.

THE AUTONOMY DEBATE

Slim Attendance at the House On Eve of the Holidays.

Ottawa, April 19.—With Easter holiday at hand there was a very slim attendance in the House today. The sitting was shortened in order that the members might catch evening trains for home. The principal speech on the autonomy bill was that of Opposition member David Henderson, of Halton. While he did not contribute anything startlingly new or thrilling to the discussion, his speech was a vigorous one and received close attention from the small audience.

Mr. Henderson declared that Parliament today was perfectly free to give the Northwest such a constitution as it deemed most suitable to the country, and he submitted that Parliament was in a better position today, with full knowledge of the conditions of the Territories, than was the Parliament of 1870, to dealing with this educational question.

In conclusion, Mr. Henderson declared himself in favor of provincial rights, and of giving the people of the Northwest the full autonomy to which they were entitled. But he accorded to every member his right to his own opinion upon the subject. He was pleased, however, that in voting for Mr. Borden's amendment, he would be acting in complete accord with his constituents.

Mr. Cash, of MacKenzie, N. W. T., supported the bill. Personally, he said, he favored national schools, but in justice to the large number of Roman Catholics in his district, he would support the separate school clauses.

The adjournment was moved for Mr. Broder, of Dundas, and the House rose at 5:30 p.m.

Much charity ends with the bestowal of a sympathetic smile.
