YOUNG MAN WAS FATALLY HURT

Adelore Normand Instantly Killed at Guimond's Mill Tuesday Evening.

ANOTHER MAN INJURED

A sad fatality took place at Guimond's mill about seventeen miles from Campbellton Tuesday evening, wherehy Adelard Normand lost his life and a companion was slightly injured.

Tuesday evening after the day's work in the mill was done Normand and a helper were making some repairs to a belt. In putting it on Normand was caught in a revolving shaft and before the machinery could be stopped his life was crushed out. Almost every particle of clothing was torn from his body. His back was broken and several other terrible injuries inflicted, so that death is believed to have been almost instantaneous. The accident occurred so suddenly that a man named Coulinard, standing near, was struck by the heels of Normand, as he was being rapidly whirled around with the shafting. Coulinard was knocked unconscious and his face was badly bruised, but otherwise no serious injury was inflicted. Normand's remains were brought to town and after being prepared for burial by Undertaker Graham, were forwarded to his home at L'Islet, Quebec.

Wind on the Stomach

A Well-Known Westerner Tells of Suffering, Misery, and Pain That He Cured With "Nerviline."

"A few weeks ago I ate some green vegetables and some fruit that was not quite ripe. It first brought on a fit of indigestion, but unfortunately it developed into hiccoughs, accompanied by nausea and cramps. I was dreadfully ill for two days—my head ached and throbbed; I belched gas continually, and I was unable to sleep at night. A neighbor happened in to see me and urged me to try Nerviline. Well I wouldn't have believed that any preparation could help so quickly. I took half a teaspoonful of Nerviline in hot sweetened water, and my stomach felt better at once. I used Nerviline several times, and was completely restored."

NERVILINE STRENGTHENS WEAK STOMACHS

The above is from a letter written by G. E. Braun, a well-known stockman and farmer near Lethbridge, Alta. Mr. Braun's favorable opinion of the high merit of Nerviline is shared by thousands of Canadians who have proved Nerviline is simply a marvel for cramps, diarrhoea, flatulence, nausea, and stomach disorders. Safe to use, guaranteed to cure—you can make no mistake in keeping Nerviline for your family remedy. Large 25c bottles; five for $1.00. Sold everywhere, or The Catarrhozone Co., Kingston, Ont.

Electric Light—Mowat, Harrison, White.

Fire Protection—McNichol, McDonald, Moores.

Education and Improvement—Mayor, Richards, McNichol.

Public Charities—Moores, Miller, Richards.

The report was received and adopted.

The council then adjourned.

WASHOUTS ALONG THE INTERNATIONAL

Grog Brook Overflows Banks and Does Some Damage.

WATER VERY HIGH

Traffic on the International Railway has been interrupted by several small washouts along the line where it runs near Grog Brook. For some miles the International Railway follows closely this brook, in many places the river has been walled up to afford a roadbed. This week the water in the stream rose to unheard of heights, and overflowed its banks. The drives drives also jmamed and this backed up the water, causing the damage. Manager Anderson informed the Graphic that the damage was not serious and that traffic would be resumed in two or threedays.

ST ANDREW'S CHURCH HAS NARROW ESCAPE

Fire Discovered in Building Last Evening at Five O'clock.

LITTLE DAMAGE

At about five o'clock last evening an alarm of fire was sounded for a brisk blaze in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church. The fire was extinguished with comparatively little damage to the building.

Driver Noble of the Fire Department noticed smoke issuing from the building and sounded the alarm, and very promptly the fire company had three streams into the building. The fire was all in the roof, having evidently caught on the outside, and fanned by a brisk north west wind burned through and caught on the in side. It was burning quite lively when the first nozzleman arrived at the spot, but soon was subdued.

In fighting this fire the controlable nozzles were used and showed up in fine style. After the fire was under control the water was turned off and only played on the fire where it could do the most good. Most of the damage is from water. The fine pipe organ is undamaged. It was covered with canvas to protect it from moisture. The loss is fully covered by insurance.

THE FAMILY PROMOTION ORGAN

Early this week two influential citizens of Campbellton left for new fields of labor, Rev. P. J. Stackhouse went to Amherst and Wm. Currie, M. P. P. went to British Columbia, and the Tribune has hardly mentioned the fact. In its Tuesday issue it had eight lines in reference to Mr. Currie's departure, but as yet nothing has appeared in reference to Rev. Mr. Stackhouse's change. In the same issue that paper contained over a column telling of the actions of the York County 'monomaniac' at Ottawa, in his frantic endeavor to make political capital. Surely the Tribune has degenerated into a family promotion organ.

The next big attraction to be seen in Campbellton is that sterling English play 'Along the Kennebec,' which will be given in all its entirety, wealth of rural scenery, the great quarry scene with its working drills and a real steam engine at Campbellton Opera House, Friday, May 6. The company is one of the best travelling and numbers many well known players, including some clever specialty artists. The characters are all unique in originality and there are several types entirely new to the stage. In all, the play in its entirety, ill compare favorably with the best of New England plays, such as 'The Old Homestead,' 'Country Fair' and 'Shore Acres.' The comedy duel scene in the third act is very funny and is said to surpass the celebrated duel scene in Joseph Jefferson's play of 'The Rivals.' The company carry a fine band.

What about that civic 'cleaning-up day.'

COLONIAL STOCK CO. COMING

Will Appear in Campbellton Opera House For a Week in May.

WELL SPOKEN OF

Public Works Dep't Dec 07 FREDERICTON

Leah Kleschna, the [illegible] drama, was presented [illegible] Stock Company [illegible] fashionable audience in the [illegible] last night. Leah Klesc[illegible] is the play that Mrs. Fiske has made famous in New York, London and other places. There are five acts and from the rise to the fall of the curtain everyone of these is intensely dramatic and strikingly thrilling. The whole cast of the Colonial Stock Co. seventeen people were required to put on the play and the scenery and stage settings and costumes were all in harmony, at times the effect was very beautiful. This company have given many performances in Charlottetown and have had the satisfaction of breaking the record in regard to audiences at our theatre. They have never presented a greater play or a more excellently acted one, than that of Leah Kleschna.

The performa[illegible] do justice [illegible] larger cities and [illegible] to be at that the Colonial Stock [illegible] draw such splendid houses in all the parts of the Maritime Provinces and elsewhere, that they visit.

Mr. Hartman announced before the curtain that, by request and in view of the very kindly manner in which the Company had been received in Charlottetown, they have decided to stay another week and was greeted with rounds of applause.

They have met with abundant success here as elsewhere and it must be admitted that their performances deserve it.—Charlottetown Patriot.

The Colonial Stock Company is booked to appear in the Campbellton Opera House, for one week commencing May 23. No doubt they will get larger houses as this is without a doubt one of the best stock companies that the people of Campbellton have had the pleasure of meeting.
