REMARKS.

was paid to S. Sewell.

was paid to the Honorable J. Sewell " to reimburse him so much in going to England in 1814 and returning in 1816."

(3) The items in this column were paid to the Commissary-General, but by him since refunded.

(4) The items for pensions consist of an allowance made to the Honorable H. W. Ryland and to George Ryland, of the half of the salary which they formerly received the first as treasurer and the second as clerk to the Jesuits' Estates, and of a pension granted to the Misses De Salabery.

(5) The items for Chaplain were paid to the reverend E. Sewell, as minister of the Chapel of the Holy Trinity at Quebec, with arrears from the 27th November, 1825.
