instantly seized by attendants and prevented doing further harm; and it was then found that the pistol was unloaded and that it was of such primitive construction that if it had been loaded it probably could not have been discharged.

Her Majesty was very calm and showed that courage which she has often before exhibited. She directed that a statement of the circumstances be in both Houses of Parliament in order to prevent exaggerated rumors.

Lord Granville said he would not dwell on the details nor point to the contrast between the dastardly act and Tuesday's extraordinary exhibition of the Nation's loyalty.

The Duke of Buckingham briefly expressed the thankfulness of the House at the escape of Her Majesty from danger.

Mr. Gladstone made a statement in the House of Commons, similar to that of Lord Granville.

His behavior in the station was wild and his language incoherent. He boasted that he tried to reach the Queen on Tuesday, during the procession.

In the Thanksgiving Day speeches of the British residents of New York, "the sentiments of friendship expressed for the United States were heartily applauded."

What does Councillor Flaglor propose to do about Jeffries Hill and the Ice Blockade? And when?

The British American Presbyterian has just commenced to be published in Toronto, and offers its columns to all the divisions of Presbyterians in the Dominion. Mr. C. B. Robinson is publisher.

We shall next hear that Russell's Shediac Oyster-bed sketches in the Canada Illustrated News have been pirated. The Montreal Gazette says Frank Leslie's Illustrated paper has published several of Notman's hunting scenes as original sketches of camping in the Adirondac by S. S. Jameson.

THE TRIBUNE referred on Wednesday to the prosecution of the Day's Doings in London. A cable telegram of the 26th Feb. says the publication of the sheet has been suspended. We hope St. John vendors will take the hint and refrain from circulating similar obscene sheets in this City before trouble comes.

Hon. Edward Carswell, known in this Province, has just closed his Temperance labors in Massachusetts, and commenced a series of lectures in Long Island.

It is said that an Investigating Committee of our New Brunswick Legislature will make solemn enquiry into the cost of getting their photographs into the Canada Illustrated News. If the price is too steep, they will instantly demand Better Terms.

It is time Councillor Flaglor was moving in that Jeffries' Hill business?
