Mortgage Sale of Farm!

DEFAULT HAVING BEEN MADE IN the payment of a certain mortgage, dated the 13th day of January, 1886, made by one Robert Edward Allen to the vendors, there will, under power of sale contained in said mortgage, be sold by public auction by John W. Jones, auctioneer, at his rooms, 242 Dundas street, in the city of London, on Friday, the 11th day of September, 1896, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, the following property, viz: The southeast half of lot No. 17, in the 11th concession of the township of Lobo, in the county of Middlesex, containing 100 acres more or less; and secondly, 85 acres of the southeast half of lot No. 18, in the tenth concession of said township, more fully described in aforesaid mortgage. The land is close to Duncrief; the soil is excellent; on the 85-acre parcel there are a frame house, frame blacksmith's shop and frame barn; on the 100-acre parcel there are a a frame barn, frame stable and shed and brick house. The land is mostly cleared. Terms of sale—10 per cent of the purchase money will be required to be paid at the time of sale, and the balance within fifteen days thereafter. A portion of the purchase money may be secured by mortgage on the property. For further particulars apply to A. GREENLEES, vendor's solicitor, London, Ont., or to J. W. JONES, auctioneer, London, Ont.

Labor's Parliament.

Important Meeting in Progress in Edinburgh.

What the Delegates to the Trades Congress Will Ask.

Egypt's Cotton Crop the Largest One on Record.

Bomb-Throwing in London—The Spanish Elections Attended by Rioting.

EGYPTIAN EDITORS IN TROUBLE.

Cairo, Sept. 8.—Two Egyptian editors, charged with insulting Queen Victoria, have been sentenced to undergo the maximum penalty of eighteen months' imprisonment and to pay a fine of £20.

THE BIGGEST COTTON CROP ON RECORD.

London, Sept. 8.—A Cairo dispatch to the Times says: "The Egyptian cotton crop promises to be the largest on record. It will probably reach 6,000,000 cantars."

BOMB-THROWING IN LONDON.

London, Sept. 8.—London now has a "bomb outrage" to discuss. At about 11 o'clock last night an unknown man threw a clumsily-constructed bomb into the premises of Farmer & Brindley, marble masons and sculptors, of No. 63 Westminster bridge road. No damage was done.

THE CRETE SETTLEMENT.

Constantinople, Sept. 8.—The insurgents in the Island of Crete have promised to do their utmost to assist in the execution of the proposed Crete settlement, and the question is regarded as settled. But serious disturbances are reported at Sitia and Candia.

WILL THE QUEEN READ THEM?

London, Sept. 8.—The Queen has consented to receive a petition containing the signatures of 7,000,000 women against the liquor and opium traffics. The signatures were gathered by the World's Women's Christian Temperance Union, and those of Miss Frances Willard and Lady Henry Somerset head the list.

EMIGRATION STATISTICS.

London, Sept. 8.—The emigration to the United States decreased from 29,000 to 19,382, while emigration to Canada declined from 3,323 to 2,397. For eight months, however, emigration to Canada has increased 1,000 to 17,075, while that to the United States has declined 27,000. The total exodus has declined 18,000.

DEATH OF EL MAHDI'S SUCCESSOR.

Rome, Sept. 8.—The Tribuna publishes a dispatch from Kassala, a town in the Soudan held by the Italians, announcing the death of the Khalifa, the successor of El Mahdi, and the leader of the Dervishes, against whom the Anglo-Egyptian expedition is now operating. Beyond stating that the Khalifa died at Boga, the dispatch gives no details.

ENGLAND'S HARVEST.

London, Sept. 8.—Rain has checked the harvest in the north of England, while in the south the harvest is complete, with a yield of 2,000,000 quarters in excess of last year. The wheat market was on a better and firmer basis, but operators were cautious and waiting for further news of the principal wheat crop. The wheat crop of France is estimated at 119,000,000 hectoliters.

JEALOUS OF GREAT BRITAIN.

London, Sept. 8.—The St. Petersburg Novoe Vremya says that the Czar's tour shows that Berlin and Vienna, as well as Paris and St. Petersburg, are conscious of the necessity of common action by the powers to defeat the political designs of Great Britain, which, it is added, are clearly displayed in recent events in Turkey.

THE PHILIPPINE REVOLT.

Madrid, Sept. 8.—A dispatch to the Imparcial from Hong Kong says that 1,000 rebels entered the town of San Isidore, capital of the Province of Neuva Ecija, Island of Luzon, the principal island of the Philippine group, and took as prisoners the governor, his secretary, and a priest. The rebels were led by Santollano, a half-breed.

SECRETARY RIDLEY'S REPLY.

London, Sept. 8.—The adverse comments by leading "Unionists," including the Marquis of Londonderry, on the action of the Government in releasing Daly, Galagher and other Irishmen, who were sentenced to life imprisonment for treason-felony, has called forth a letter from Sir Matthew White-Ridley, the Home Secretary, in which he declares that the release of the prisoners was due solely to the medical reports submitted to him regarding their condition.

IN SPAIN.

Madrid, Sept. 8.—The Carlists have issued a manifesto, which pessimistically describes the situation in Spain. It affirms that the rights of the church is the first principle of the Carlist party, and supports the freedom of the provinces in administrative and financial matters.

In the elections for members of the councils general of Madrid and other provinces, in most cases the Government candidates were successful. In Barcelona the elections resulted in a riot, during which the voting urns were smashed. Knives and revolvers were used by the rioters, and three persons were seriously wounded.

WILLIAM'S TOAST.

His Characteristic Address to the Fifth Army Corps.

Goritz, Sept. 8.—Emperor William, in proposing his toast to the Fifth Army Corps, at last night's banquet, made a long speech, in which he expressed thanks for himself and also in the name of his revered grandfather, and his never-to-be-forgotten father, for the splendid efficiency of the corps. The Emperor continued:

"Truly, a fine portion of Prussian history passes in review before us with their regiments and their names and colors. Our hearts are stirred as a vision carries us back to the places where so many of those who belonged to the regiments are laid at rest, who with their blood and lives, helped to win and achieve that which causes us to rejoice today. It is my and your special satisfaction and your good fortune to appear in this state of high efficiency before the eyes of my beloved neighbor and cousin, his Majesty of Russia. We are still all under the fascination of the youthful figure of the knightly Emperor. We still see him as he rode past us at the head of his late father's regiment."

"He, although the commander of a most powerful army, desires to see his troops used only in the service of culture and for the protection of peace. In complete accord with me, his efforts are directed towards drawing together the peoples of Europe in order to unite them on the grounds of common interests and for the protection of the most sacred possessions.

"May this army, pursuing its peaceful activity, give proof in the future of equally good results with that it gave today. With this wish I drink to the Fifth Corps. Hurrah, hurrah, Hurrah."

WHAT THEY WANT.

Programme of the Trades Union Congress at Edinburgh.

London, Sept. 8.—The 29th annual Trades Union Congress, of Great Britain, opened yesterday at Edinburgh. About 360 delegates were in attendance. The congress will close Saturday, Sept. 12.

The power loom overlookers ask the congress to rescind the famous collectivist resolution adopted at the Norwich congress of 1894, and in its place to substitute the following: "That in the opinion of this congress it is essential to the maintenance of British industries to nationalize the land, mines, minerals, royalty, rents and railways, and municipalize all water, artificial light and tramways undertakings within their several authorities, and that the parliamentary committee be instructed to promote and support legislation with the above object."

Councilor W. Thorne, of the gas workers, will ask the congress to declare "that the time has arrived when the hours of labor should be limited to eight per day, in all trades and occupations in the United Kingdom."

Mr. E. Hartford, of the railway men, will bring up the question of employers' liability by a resolution calling upon the Government to so amend the existing act, "that, among other things, the responsibility upon the employer for the acts of his employes, or of those of any sub-contractor, and that irrespective of the acquiescence in or knowledge of any defect or danger on the part of the persons killed or injured; that its provisions may apply to the workers in all industries, on land or sea, in private, state, or municipal employment, and that contracting be made illegal." Factory legislation, paying of members in Parliament, taxation of land values, and ground, which it is demanded be made a "test question at the general election." Employment of children in factories, which is injurious to the children, unjust to their parents and a crime against the human race. Municipalization of docks, wharves and warehouses, the release of all political prisoners, grievances of civilian musicians, hours of domestic servants which are not to be "more than 70 per week, including one and a half hours for meals per day." Fair wages, compensation for injuries, the hours of shop assistants, Government contracts, old age pensions, education and public money, and many other matters all have places on the programme.

CABLE NOTES.

Sir Joseph Archer Crowe, the commercial attache of Great Britain at Paris, is dead.

The Spanish Cabinet has decided to send two battalions of marines to the Philippine Islands.

The British steamer Quiraing brings news of a serious earthquake which occured in Iceland on Aug. 27. At Toreiklavik two churches and a large number of farm houses were destroyed, and many cattle were killed.

Albert George Whitehead, the Irish-American dynamiter recently released from Portland prison with his mind shattered, who escaped from the home of his relatives at Skibbereen on the night of Aug. 24, has been found in Cork.

"K. C. V. O."

More Honors to Be Heaped on Li Hung Chang.

Ducks in Demand for His Delectation—The Ambassador Hurries Through Toronto.

Toronto, Sept. 8.—The C. P. R. authorities were wired instructions to buy up a quantity of fruit and fowl for Li Hung Chang's consumption on the way to the coast. "Ducks" were especially mentioned in the message, as Li is fonder of them than anything else except rats.

It is understood her Majesty cabled to Lord Aberdeen to invest Li Hung Chang with the title "K.C.V.O."—Knight Commander of the Victorian Order.

On taking his leave of the American side, Earl Li, with a small party, was taken in a carriage across the upper bridge to his hotel at Niagara Falls, Ont. Here Sir Henry De Joly De Lotbiniere and Mr. W. Parmalee, representing the Dominion Government, received the distinguished guest with words of welcome, and the American escort bade him bon voyage. The Canadian hosts then took Li in their carriage and drove through the Canadian Park to the Dufferin Islands. Li was even more visibly impressed with his view of the Falls from the Canadian side than he had been from the American side, and so expressed himself through his interpreter. At 11 o'clock the party boarded the special train and started for Toronto.

Li Hung Chang and his numerous retinue reached Toronto late yesterday. Li did not come into the city proper at all, but stopped at the Industrial Fair, which he inspected thoroughly. When the train reached the exhibition station, about 3 o'clock, Li was received by President Withrow and the directors of the exhibition. Mr. Withrow very briefly welcomed the distinguished visitor, and expressed the hope that he would have a pleasant visit, to which the Viceroy replied, through interpreter, expressing great pleasure at visiting the exhibition. Three cheers were given for the Viceroy. The earl's retinue and directors of the exhibition then formed a procession, and sallied forth to see the fair. The great Chinese magnate went through the exhibition in a hurry and under great difficulties, owing to the enormous crowd, estimated at fully 100,000 people. From the moment of his arrival in the grounds until his train steamed away the great statesman was an object of most intense interest.

At 6 o'clock the train was again boarded and started at once for North Bay, en route for the Pacific Coast.

Dinner yesterday was ordered at 12 o'clock on the C. P. R. dining car, as it was en route on the G. T. R., and the following was the menu:

Fresh pork, rice, chicken, duck, eggs, vegetables, sucking pig, pickled walnuts and olives, and various sweetmeats. The fowl used are carried alive on the train, and killed when wanted.

The bill of fare for the members of his staff was: Consomme vermicelli, sardines, roast chicken, boiled ham, baked sweet potatoes, oyster bay asparagus, stewed duck with olives, pineapple fritters, punch maraschinos, bird's nest pudding, crackers, cheese and coffee.

His Excellency's meals are cooked by his own chefs.

Li Hung witnessed the attractions at Toronto Fair. With the conclusion of the introductions the Earl and his interpreter took a seat in the gubernatorial carriage and witnessed the entertainment to the bitter end. Had there been sufficient ballet numbers he would have run chances of missing his train. The elephants were a source of wonder to him, and their performance gave him such unalloyed pleasure that he commanded the trainer to be brought before him. At the conclusion of the second ballet the unbending statesman remarked to his interpreter that the show was not bad and he would see it through.

LIFE SAVED.—Mr. James Bryson Cameron writes: "I was confined to my bed with inflammation of the lungs, and was given up by physicians. A neighbor advised me to try Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, stating that his wife had used it for a throat trouble with the best results. Acting on this advice, I procured the medicine and less than half a bottle cured me; I certainly believed it saved my life. It was with reluctance that I consented to a trial, as I was reduced to such a state that I doubted the power of any remedy to do me any good."

Prince Auguste d'Arenberg, the new president of the Suez Canal Company, is well posted on European politics, and has more than once shown himself to be an opponent of England.

There is nothing to prevent anyone concocting a mixture and calling it "sarsaparilla," and there is nothing to prevent anyone spending good money testing the stuff; but prudent people, who wish to be sure of their remedy, take only Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and so get cured.

Hanged by Lamplight.

Execution of Peter Wheeler at Digby, N. S.,

For the Murder of a Young Girl—Unusual Mode of Procedure.

(Special to The Advertiser.)

Halifax, N. S., Sept. 8.—Peter Wheeler was hanged at Digby at 2:30 o'clock this morning by lamplight. The intended hour of execution had been given to the public as 8 o'clock. Immense crowds had gathered in town to see the execution. The first intention of erecting the gallows in the open jailyard was abandoned as risky. Then on account of the feeling against the prisoner for the murder of 16-year-old Annie Kempton, it was further decided to outwit the public, abbreviating Wheeler's respite a few hours, and he was hanged in a room, eight by ten feet, on the second floor of the building.

Capt. Allan, Salvation Army, had been with him all night, and the latter engaged with the prisoner in prolonged prayer. The hanging apparatus consisted of a rope running over a pulley in the room above the death chamber. Two ends descended through holes in the floor, six feet apart. On one end a 500-pound weight of lead hung, six feet from the floor and a small line held the weight in suspension. The noose in the other end of the rope was placed over Wheeler's neck.

Wheeler said he was going to his doom. He said he murdered Annie Kempton at midnight, not in the evening, as the crown had asserted.

Wheeler's death was almost instantaneous, his neck being broken by the fall. The crowd outside the jail suspected that an early execution was intended, and were clamoring loudly for admittance at the time the penalty of the law was being paid.

MR. PATTULLO ELECTED.

Large Liberal Majority in North Oxford—Returns Incomplete.

Woodstock, Sept. 7.—The electors of North Oxford went to the polls today and elected Mr. Andrew Pattullo, editor of the Woodstock Sentinel-Review, to represent them in the Local House, defeating Dr. Adams, the independent candidate, by a handsome majority. The town results were known shortly after the close of the polls. The figures from the different town divisions showed a total majority for the Liberal candidate was 290. The vote polled for Mr. Pattullo was 669, and for Dr. Adams 379. The final results, excepting five places to hear from yet, showed Mr. Pattullo's total vote to be 1,879, and Dr. Adams' 1,120, divided as follows:

	Pattullo.	Adams.
Woodstock	669	379
Blandford Township	121	26
Blenheim Township	409	92
East Nissouri	171	94
East Zorra	280	157
West Zorra	179	297
Embro Village	50	75
Total	1,879	1,120

Majority for Mr. Pattuloo, 759.

Special to The Advertiser.

Woodstock, Sept. 8.—Pattullo's majority is 751, with three places to hear from.

CANON NEWMAN DEAD.

Lived in London Many Years—A Nephew of Cardinal Newman.

Throughout Huron Diocese in particular, it will be learned with deep regret that Rev. Canon Newman, late of London, died in Toronto yesterday, aged 74 years. He was ordained by the late Bishop Cronyn in July, 1859, and was appointed to the charge of the English Churches in Wallace and Howick, in which charge he remained until 1863, when he was appointed incumbent of Kirkton and Prospect Hill Churches. In 1866 he removed to Delaware, and was placed in charge of Christ Church, Delaware, and the Burwell Memorial Church, Caradoc. During his incumbency of these churches the parsonage at Delaware and the new church at Caradoc, as well as the beautiful new church at Delaware, were built. In 1879 declining health compelled him to ask for superannuation, and he removed, with his family, to London, and subsequently took charge of St. George's Church, London West, and continued there until 1888, when he finally retired from the active duties of the ministry. The reverend gentleman was appointed Canon of the Cathedral by Bishop Hellmuth in 1883, and continued to take a deep interest in diocesan affairs until his removal to Toronto a few years since. He leaves a widow (daughter of W. J. Imlach, of this city), one son and one daughter. His funeral takes place on Wednesday from the C. P. R. station, on the arrival of the 11 a.m. train, to St. George's Church, London West, and from thence to Woodland Cemetery.

Canon Newman was a nephew of the late Cardinal Newman, the great English Roman Catholic prelate, and the author of the immortal hymn, "Lead, Kindly Light." He was a man of very amiable character and much beloved by his friends.
