TORONTO BLANKED BY JERSEY CITY

Falkenburg Fanned 9, But Errors and Lack of Hits Lost the Game.

Toronto lost the first game with Jersey City owing to Francis' costly errors and a general inability to hit Eason at any time. Falkenburg served up his usual all kinds of shoots and had his opponents at his mercy. The visitors did not secure a solitary hit until the sixth, when Pattee beat out a bunt. Both pitchers had remarkably good control, but Eason had a little the best of it. He passed none and in five of the nine innings the Torontos went out 1, 2, 3. Toronto got more hits than the other fellows, but never could get two consecutively. Falkenburg easily led his opponent in strike-outs.

In the fourth innings, after Pattee had flied out to Harley, Merritt drove a rather easy one near Francis, who handled the hit well enough, but threw low and fast to Raub. The latter made a stab in an attempt to stop the throw, but missed and over the fence between the grand stand and the south bleachers went the ball. Merritt circled around the bases home. In the seventh another run came. Clement singled safely over second, but was out at second on Halligan's slow one. Doolin struck out and Duff hit for three sacks to right, which scored Halligan. Murray did not seem to get behind the three-bagger at all, tho it looked an easy matter to do so. Scores:
