O-DAY'S MESSAGES.

EDWARD, K.T.
LONDON, June 22.
The King has appointed the Prince Wales to be a Knight of the Thistle.

DENIES CRIME.
DUBLIN, June 22.
General Owen O'Duffy, Chief of staff of the Irish Republican Army, emphatically contradicts the allegation that Field Marshal Wilson's assassination was the work of that organization.

ONE STEP FROM DEATH.
PEKING, June 22.
Dr. Sun Yat Sen, former President of the South China Republic has been taken prisoner by United China forces, according to the Foreign Legation here.

SIGNED ARMISTICE.
TIEN TSIN, June 22.
Representatives of Chang Tso Lin, defeated Manchuria War Lord, and Pei Fuhi's conqueror, signed an armistice yesterday. Negotiations were begun last week aboard a British warship.

NO RETURNS FROM CORK.
DUBLIN, June 22.
Cork County is the only district in which election returns have not been announced. Michael Collins is known, however, to head the poll. Other candidates are expected to win seats, displacing Treaty opponents.

BOULDER ON TRACK.
ST. JOHN, N.B., June 22.
C.P. Ry passenger train, from Montreal for this city, crashed into a large boulder in a cut ten miles east of Vanceboro, Maine, early to-day. Engine, express and mail cars were derailed. Fireman Albert Lockhart was killed and engineer Rogers badly injured. No passengers were injured.

A PESSIMIST.
DUBLIN, June 22.
De Valera to-night issued a statement saying he does not believe Dail Eireann will pass the new Irish constitution in its present form. He declares the constitution would exclude from public service, and practically disfranchise, every honest republican.

THE LONG ARM OF THE LAW.
PARIS, June 22.
Madame Marie Bessaare, poetess and playwright, was convicted to-day of the murder of her husband, George, whose body was found concealed in a trunk at Nancy two years ago. She was sentenced to twenty years hard labor.

ADD ANOTHER FOR BELFAST
BELFAST, June 22.
Firing broke out in York Street shortly before Curfew last night, and the police found an unknown man lying in a pool of blood. The shooting of William Miller, aged 70, in Willowfield district, was particularly atrocious. Opening his door to a knock, four men rushed in, chased him into a back yard, and riddled him with bullets.

MINERS WARFARE.
PERRIN, ILL., June 22.
Sounds of occasional shots were heard early to-day from the direction of the mining camp near here, where striking miners surround a camp in which 100 men non-union workers are quartered. The sound of explosions, said to be dynamite blasts, were also audible.

Digby Arrived.

SUMMER WEATHER ON ATLANTIC.
S.S. Digby, Capt. F. W. Chambers, R.C., arrived from Liverpool at 7.30 Wednesday evening. The Digby made a run in seven days, and had summer weather all the way across until Tuesday morning when 150 miles east of this port dense fog was encountered. Owing to the prevalence of ice her speed was considerably reduced otherwise the ship would have docked early Tuesday evening. The Digby brought 850 tons of general cargo and the following passengers:—Mrs. Hughes and H. D. and Mrs. Carter, Miss G. Carter, H. E. Cavie, R. H. Ferguson, J. C. Furneaux, A. H. Goodridge, E. Groton, A. C. N. Gosling, T. Hallett, A. E. L. Henderson, H. Hinton, Mrs. J. M. Hunt and infant, Miss M. J. Hunt, Major D. C. Jennings, J. Kearney, Mrs. I. Monroe, W. J. Myllus, Mrs. Myllus, Mrs. F. M. Oakley, Miss S. Merine, Basil Outerbridge, H. Oxford, Mrs. E. A. Reynolds, Mrs. E. E. Rouse, Miss R. K. Sherman, Mrs. H. Steer, Mrs. H. M. Stewart, Miss P. Stewart, Master A. Stewart, R. Sutherland and Brig.-Gen. M. E. Sullivan. The Digby sails for Halifax at 9 a.m. to-day.

Our Sixth Week's a Musical Make-Room Sale!

A Paradox Sale!!! Where cheap music is really good---and good music is really cheap. Just look at the reductions made below, and see what great savings you can make by buying your Grafonola now. This offer is just in good time for little summer parties in the country houses. There's nothing that gives such pleasure and entertainment in the country as a good portable Grafonola. You can have a round of fun and dancing all the summer long at a very small cost. If there's a picnic nearby just pack your Grafonola and some good "Jazz" records in your car, and take them along. Nothing more fascinating than a moonlight dance out-of-doors.

Three very fine Grafonolas are illustrated below. They are "Columbia's," than which there are none better, and there's a feast of music in each of them.

Columbia Records

Come in and listen to a good concert. Hear some of the new Columbia records. Dance Music, the kind that makes you kick back the rugs. Sacred Music, old-fashioned melodies, quartettes---music that never grows old. Operatic, Instrumental, and Concert Music. Let the world's great artists entertain you. The latest "Blues," to drive away the blues. New song hits and comic-songs you hear people whistling and humming.

If you haven't a Grafonola, remember now is the time to put one of these models in your home. Come in to-day. Pick out the model you like best. Good music makes happy homes. Now you can have an entertainment in your home every night, enjoy the same Music that is being played in the great theatres, auditoriums and hotels in the big metropolitan centres.

SCHR. LOST.—SUPPLIES SALVED.
A message was received yesterday by the Dept. of Shipping stating that the schr. Jessie bound to the Straits with a load of fishing supplies had gone ashore at Peckford's Island, and was a total loss. The Jessie, a vessel of 70 tons, owned by J. Rorke and Sons of Carbonear, left her home port on Tuesday morning in charge of Capt. McCarthy, and having on board some 27 people who were bound to their fishing rooms on the coast. The vessel struck in the early morning during a dense fog. All those on board landed safely. The message stated that the supplies and fishing gear on board would be salved.
