Had 43 Boils And Carbuncles At One Time

Mr. Cland Melanson, Castleford, Ont., writes:—"In regard to your remedies I have to say that B.B.B. was the only medicine I could get to relieve me of my boils and carbuncles.

I had forty-three at one time, and my doctor told me to take

Burdock Blood Bitters.

The first bottle I took gave me such great results that I took three more, and after I had used them I was completely relieved of my boils and carbuncles."

Put up only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

MANY ATTEND SERVICES.

DEPOSIT INCREASE FEATURES REPORT

Imperial Bank Annual Statement Reflects Better Business Conditions.

ASSETS GREATER

Canadian Press Despatch

Toronto, Nov. 23.—Very satisfactory progress is indicated in the 51st annual statement of the Imperial Bank of Canada, which was mailed to all shareholders today. The statement reflects a morked improvement in business conditions in the last four months, and places the profits for the year ending October 31, at $1,162,148.73, an increase of $55,000 over the figures of the previous year.

The most notable feature in the statement is the large increase in deposits, which stand at $95,934,168.29, as compared with those of last year of $88,-123,096.90. Deposits bearing interest increased by $6,200,000, while deposits not bearing interest show an advance of $1,700,000. The bank not only maintained its liquid position, but during the last twelve months improved it considerably as liquid assets stand at $66,-875,829.76, as against $58,951,118.69 at the close of the previous year.

In fact, the bank's liquid assets are over 61 per cent of its liabilities to the public, says the statement.

Cash on hand and kindred assets are placed at $26,338,271.38, or over 24 per cent of the bank's liabilities to the public.

During the year, the funds in the bank represented by dominion and provincial securities showed a considerable increase, and stand at $15,317,561.11.

Current loans at $50,839,845.66, or a million and a half more than a year ago, are given as indicating gradual improvement in business conditions during the past few months.

Business Conditions Good.

Further evidence of improved business conditions is given in the note circulation, which stands at $10,678,152, as compared with a year ago, $9,526,554. With profits for the year of $1,162,148.-73, to which is added the amount carried forward from last year, $1,039,223.19, the bank, after setting aside $150,000 to provide for dominion government taxes, paid dividends at the rate of 12 per cent per annum, and a bonus of 1 per cent to shareholders, and contributed $42,-500 to officers' guarantee and pension funds, leaving $1,098,871.92 to be carried forward, or nearly $60,000 in excess of the amount carried forward last year.

The annual meeting of the bank will be held at the head office in Toronto on Wednesday.

AT THE THEATRES

CAPITOL THEATRE

Ranked among the six best pictures of the year, Sally of the Sawdust, is now showing at the Capitol theatre.

A circus waif and her guardian, as lovable a scalawag as ever picked a necessary pocket, are the principal characters, with love abounding and adventure galore, including a free-for-all circus fight, a ride on the blind baggage of a railroad car to richer fields, and the glamorous story of circus life.

The resources of a circus, with its menageries and side-shows, and a carnival of beautiful homes, have contributed a rich variety of scenery greater than Griffith has achieved in any of his later works.

The story is one of the most entertaining tales ever filmed, alive with joy and gaiety throughout, tinged with pathos, but never for an instant heavy in its tread, and galloping to close that is one of the happiest, most exciting, most satisfying scenes ever offered in pictures.

The comedian's part is played by W. C. Fields, for years famous laugh-maker of the Ziegfeld Follies, the daughter's part is played by Carol Dempster, the California girl who has made such sensational advances in her screen work in the last year. Included in the cast are Alfred Lunt, Effie Shannon, Charles Hammond and others, equally notable.

Taken from all points of view, Sally of the Sawdust is well worth seeing, providing as it does a splendid evening's entertainment.

There is special circus music by the Capitol Little Symphony orchestra, under the able leadership of Arthur Gesensway, as well as the usual attractions, including a screamingly funny comedy entitled Over There Abouts, and the Capitol news events.

LOEW'S THEATRE

In a vehicle, eminently suited to her type, Constance Talmadge comes back to the screen, supported by an excellent cast, including Antonio Moreno and Johnny Harron, playing in Learning To Love, at Loew's. The bill for the first half of the week is rounded out by three fine acts of vaudeville, the usual excellent Pathe news and a riotous, Our Gang, comedy.

Patricia Stanhope is a hopeless flirt, who in the short, but adventurous career of a debutante, manages to annex five fiances and one husband. Forced to marry her guardian by a scandal she herself started, Patricia is sent to Paris by her new husband, who refuses to live with her, demanding fidelity from a wife, and despising a flirt. He is really in love with her, however, and followers her to the continent, and Pat returns to her husband and happiness.

With a surprising wardrobe of beautiful gowns and her usual engaging smile, Miss Talmadge captures the hearts of those who see her in Learning To Love, in the same madcap fashion she wins the hearts of all the men she meets in the picture.

Harriet Naurott and Boys appear in an extremely clever roller-skating act, doing seemingly impossible tricks and attaining unbelievable poses while equipped with the treacherous wheels.

LeVan and Boles, an eccentric comedian, who manages to make the piano behave, and a charming singer, who supports him, draw a heap of laughs from the audience.

J. C. Lewis, Jun., presents his company in a clever little skit, a tale built around a stepfather, two exuberant children, a mother who remaries, and a beautiful aunt.

And anyone who has ever enjoyed chickenpox, and who hasn't, will enjoy a hearty laugh at the expense of our Gang in their latest picture.

DANCER SUES MILLIONAIRE

Grandson of Late Montana Senator Is Sued For Breach of Promise.

Associated Press Despatch.

New York, Nov. 23.—Today's American says that William Andrews Clark III., grandson of the late Montana senator, has been sued for $250,000 by Marguerite McNulty, a dancer, who avers he broke a promise to marry her.

The defendant is in London. The complaint charges that in 1923, less than three months after they met in a Broadway cabaret, Clark took the defendant to his father's house in Butte, Mont., and introduced her as his fiancee, and that announcement of the engagement was made.

HEARST IN TOILS ON THEFT CHARGE

Music Publisher Arrested On Warrant From Manitoba Attorney-General.

$385,000 IN CASE

Canadian Press Despatch.

Winnipeg, Nov. 23.—Joseph Xavier Hearst, former head of the Hearst Music Publishing Company of Canada was arrested tonight by a provincial police constable on a warrant issued by the attorney-general's department of the province, charging him with the theft of $385,000.

The Hearst music bubble burst last spring, and liabilities to the shareholders of the company, scattered throughout Canada, were estimated in the hundreds of thousands of dollars.

Joseph Xavier Hearst, promoter of the music scheme, could not be located at the time in the crash, but later in the summer he reappeared in Winnipeg and gave himself up. He was charged on several counts of fraud and theft and was subsequently released on bail.

Several Londoners were among the hundreds who contributed to Promoter Hearst's elaborate music-publishing plan, the stock sold in this district amounting to nearly $50,000.
