MORE SHEEP THAN EVER

SHIPPED FROM THE PORT OF MONTREAL LAST WEEK.

Horses and Cattle Also Numerous—A Man Sent to Penitentiary for Falsely Alleging That He Enclosed Money in a Letter—Funeral of Mgr. O'Bryan—General News From Montreal.

Montreal, Oct. 27.—There were more sheep shipped last week from the port of Montreal than during any previous week in the history of the port. A leading shipper was asked if it was because prices were high, and he replied that although prices were good earlier in the season, the figures were not now very high and that the secret of the present heavy shipments was found in the fact that there were a great many sheep in the country and they had to be got rid of. The following are the live stock figures up to Saturday:

Said He Sent Money When He Didn't.

One of the first cases of the kind in Quebec under the new law has been tried in Sherbrooke and Judge Archibald sent one Clarke to the penitentiary for having alleged that he enclosed a $500 bill in a letter and sent the same to the Eastern Townships Bank. Clarke was arrested under the authority of act 361, chapter 29 of the new criminal law.

Sir William Van Horne on Mr. Hays.

Sir William Van Horne, F. C. Clarke, C.E., of New York, and General Manager Clouston, of the Bank of Montreal, arrived back to-day from the west. They report business on the upward trend, and Mr. Clarke says the Canadian Pacific is by far the finest of the trans-continental roads. In speaking of General Manager Hays, Sir William Van Horne said: "I have known Mr. Hays for 22 years, and I consider him one of the brightest railway men in the United States. The Grand Trunk could not have made a better selection."

Notes.

Mr. P. M. Sauvalle, for a number of years editor of La Patrie, has severed his connection with that journal and will be succeeded by Mr. George Langlois.

Madame Bureau, who died last evening at the St. Lawrence Hall, willed $30,000 to the Providence nuns of this city.

Ex-Mayor Beaugrand, proprietor of La Patrie has returned from Denver, Col., where he went in the search of health.

Mr. Tarte writes to his paper that the value of property in East York, one of the most fertile counties in Ontario, and at the very door of Toronto, has diminished from 40 to 50 per cent.

General Gascoigne was banqueted at the Windsor Hotel last evening by the militia officers of the district. The new commander made a pleasing and enthusiastic speech, declaring that it was his intention to improve the force.

MORE FARM PUPILS ARRIVE.

Four Sent on to Kansas. Only One Being Consigned to Toronto.

In spite of his alleged difficulties with the International Immigration Association, Ltd., of London, England, and Toronto, Mr. F. F. McArthur, the Canadian superintendent of that association, continues in the "farm pupil" industry at this end of the line.

Yesterday morning, a "cadet" reached the city consigned to McArthur from the home office in London, and was met at the Union Station by the Canadian superintendent's son, Frederick A. McArthur of 14 Dupont-street, and taken away, presumably to be installed on the broad acres of some well-to-do Ontario farmer, there to toil and blister and gain worldly experience at the princely salary of $5 per month. Young McArthur declined to give his name to Immigration Officer Welch until a constable was called in.

On the same train and among the passengers landed from the steamer Labrador at Quebec on Saturday morning were four bright-appearing young Englishmen, giving their names as Patrick McKeown, Henry Sergel, Jas. Drysdale and Walter Hall, all of whom had been shipped by the International Immigration Association from London, consigned to one Dedrick, said to be an attorney, at Wichita, Kansas. The young men admitted having each paid into the association the sum of [illegible] pounds and were anxious to learn from Immigration Officer Welch the particulars concerning the recent developments of the association's Canadian and American business, and of which they had no knowledge prior to leaving England. Mr. Welch gave the young men the name and address of the British Vice-Consul at Kansas and instructed them to appeal to him should they find themselves in straits on arriving at their destination.

An Asylum Attendant Under Arrest For a Unique Theft.

Berlin, Oct. 26.—A man named Dalldorf, an attendant in the Municipal Asylum for the Insane, has been arrested for having in his possession a box belonging to the Pathological Institute of the Grifeswald University, which was found to contain a number of human hearts and livers. The contents of the box weigh 50 pounds. It is alleged that these organs were stolen from the bodies of deceased inmates of the asylum whose remains were shipped to friends or relatives abroad.

Unequalled—Mr. Thomas Brunt, Tyendinaga, Ont., writes: "I have to thank you for recommending Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil for bleeding piles. I was troubled with them for nearly 15 years, and tried almost everything I could hear or think of. Some of them would give me temporary relief, but none would effect a cure. I have now been free from the distressing complaint for nearly 18 months. I hope you will continue to recommend it."

MR. WAINWRIGHT'S NEW POSITION.

He Will be Placed in New York for the Purpose of Preventing the Disastrous Cutting of Rates.

Montreal, Oct. 27.—The details are given respecting Mr. Wainwright's new position. He has been offered and has probably accepted the presidency of a combination of the western trunk lines, with headquarters at New York, to arrive at and maintain an equilibrium in rates and to obviate the disastrous cutting which has taken place, and to which it is claimed Sir Charles Rivers Wilson, the new president of the G.T.R., is endeavoring to put an end. This appointment of Mr. Wainwright, it is claimed, will be worth from $12,000 to $15,000 a year.

The policy of the new president is to reduce the capital of the company to a paying basis, and, if possible, pay the last preferred shareholders a dividend.

Winter Freight Rates.

The notice which has been posted in the Board of Trade by the C.P.R. and G.T.R., notifying the public that the winter freight rates will be enforced on November 1, has created a great deal of comment. In other years it has been the custom to advance the rates about the 15th of November. For various reasons the trade state that they are strongly opposed to the change. An interview took place Saturday between the railway officials and the merchants. A letter was yesterday addressed to the management of the two railways by the Board of Trade, and it is said that the Chamber of Commerce will move in the matter.

Mgr. O'Bryan's Funeral.

Under the high dome of St. James' Cathedral, the St. Peter's of Montreal, all that is mortal of Mgr. O'Bryan now reposes. The funeral service was given in St. Patrick's Church; the mass was sung by the Rev. Father Cohn, Superior of the Seminary of St. Sulpice. The pall bearers were the Hon. Senator Murphy, Dr. Guerin, M.L.A., and Messrs. James O'Brien, E. H. Merrill, P. Hughes, Toronto; B. Tansey, James Burke and W. E. Doran. Dr. G. H. Merrill and Messrs. E. and A. H. Merrill attended as mourners.

DEATH FROM CHLOROFORM.

Hamilton Girl Found Dead in Bed—Five Men Hurt at the Tunnel.

Hamilton, Oct. 27.—Maud Held, 20 years of age, was found dead in her bed on Friday evening and a bottle of chloroform was found in the bed, about two-thirds of which had been used. It was learned that the girl had been in the habit of using chloroform and had bought ten cents' worth the evening previous. The drug was taken to alleviate pain arising from toothache. An inquest was not thought necessary.

Another accident took place at the T., H. and B. tunnel on Saturday morning, in which five men were more or less seriously injured, and fifty others had a very narrow escape. Shortly before 10 o'clock the big bucket that runs along the cable was being raised to the surface, when it caught one of the shoring supports, and without a moment's warning the big timbers crashed down upon the men.

The ambulance was summoned and three of the injured men, John O'Brien, Harry Jenkins and John Stremble, were taken to St. Joseph's Hospital.

O'Brien had his back badly injured and received bruises about the face and head.

Stremble had his ankle broken and was cut about the head and nose.

Thomas Knight received slight injuries to his face and head.

Robert Smith was taken to his home with his right leg, shoulder and back injured.

A man named William Mitchell was taken from under the heap of timber without the slightest injury.

The Car Question in East Toronto.

Nothing is being talked of in East Toronto but the "bob-tail" cars. The feeling is decidedly against them and it has found vent in a petition to the Reeve and Council protesting against "running electric cars through our streets unless each car is properly manned by motorman and conductor," and asking immediate action to have the "so-called bob-tailed cars removed at once in order to render life safe within our municipality." The document bears some 70 signatures.

MR. LAURIER'S TOUR ENDED

TWO MEETINGS AT WOODSTOCK ON SATURDAY.

Three Thousand People Listen to the Leader. Mr. Tarte and Others—Mr. Laurier's Great Ambition is to Form a Nation—His Lieutenant on the School Question.

Woodstock, Oct. 27.—The Ontario stumping tour of the Liberal leaders was brought to a close here Saturday by two very enthusiastic meetings in the Opera House. Notwithstanding the fact that the engagement was not made until a couple of days ago, and only hastily advertised, both the gatherings were well attended. It is estimated that over 3000 people were present at the two meetings.

The afternoon gathering was attended mostly by the farmers from the surrounding district, while the townspeople availed themselves of the evening meeting to listen to an exposition of the political gospel according to the Opposition.

Mr. Laurier spoke at both meetings. He delivered two interesting addresses, but it was easily discernible that the Liberal chieftain was tired out with the hard work of the last three weeks.

J. Israel Tarte also took the opportunity of defending himself before the two audiences.

At the afternoon meeting Sir Oliver Mowat, Sir Richard Cartwright, W. Gibson, M.P., and James Sutherland, M.P., also spoke, but the three first-named gentlemen did not stay for the second gathering, their places being taken by Mr. Casey, M.P., and Mr. Hyman of London.

Mr. Laurier's Speeches.

Mr. Laurier's afternoon speech was short and was a repetition of his previous utterances regarding his attitude on the Manitoba school question, but his evening address was a more lengthy effort. He dealt with the tariff and the alleged extravagant expenditures of the present Government, comparing them with the figures of the Mackenzie regime. He vigorously opposed the superannuation system, and in conclusion turned his attention to the statements of the press regarding a personal rupture between Sir Richard Cartwright and himself. That such was the case he emphatically denied, and asserted that the circulation of the statements had taken place because the wish was father to the thought.

"The Liberal party," said he, amid loud applause, "was never more united than it is to-day. Sir Richard Cartwright is one of my most able colleagues, and I thank you for sending him to me to help expose the boodlers and the suckers, the parasites and the barnacles that are eating out the core of the state."

The Ambition of His Life.

This was Mr. Laurier's finale to the tour.

"It is the ambition of my life to form a nation. I cannot do it except on the evangelical principle. 'Peace on earth; good-will toward men.' I have shown the position I occupy. It has been my endeavor to work upon these lines. My political life may be long or short, but whether long or short, when the day comes when I must close my eyes on this fair country that I love, when the day comes when I must appear before another tribunal, I can render testimony that in all things, private or public, known or unknown, I have striven towards that end, and if I may feel that I have removed a prejudice, even a single one, then I shall feel that my life has not been lived in vain. That is the aim I have in view."

Mr. Tarte on the School Question.

Mr. Tarte dealt with the Manitoba school question and with the attacks made against himself. He repeated the assertion that when he got back to the good old city of Montreal he would consult a judge and "invite" Mr. Maclean of The World to visit that city and prove the truth of the statements contained in the "novel" published in that paper.

Regarding the school question, he said: "I am here to say, and to say openly and boldly, that I think the French minority in Manitoba have not been treated fairly. I appeal to the sense of justice of all those who hear me. If the French majority of the Legislature of Quebec were going to abolish to-morrow the official use of the English language and English separate schools in that province, what would you say? You would say it was not fair, and I would say exactly the same. That is exactly what has been done to my French countrymen of Manitoba.

"What are the Government going to do now?" he asked. "Mr. Ouimet, speaking the other day, said that as soon as the session opened the necessary mechanism would be devised to settle the question, and that it would be approved, not only by all Catholics, but by all Protestants. Well, during the last session the Government looked for the requisite mechanism and they did not find it. They would find that the French Liberals of Quebec were against coercion, because they believe that liberality could do a great deal more than coercive measures. Coercion was not a policy of theirs and they were not going to stand by it."

William Stewart, president of the North Oxford Reform Association, occupied the chair at the afternoon meeting and Malcolm Douglas of Woodstock at the evening gathering.

Escape From a Chicago Asylum.

Milwaukee, Oct. 27.—Miss Carrie Ellsworth, daughter of Isaac Ellsworth of Chicago, a millionaire and former street railway magnate of Milwaukee, escaped from the Milwaukee Insane Asylum at Wauwatosa Friday evening. Miss Ellsworth is supposed to be a kleptomaniac and has repeatedly been arrested in Chicago, Milwaukee and other western cities on charges of swindling hotels and store-keepers with bogus cheques and securing goods under false pretenses.

Indian Children Perished.

Perry, O.T., Oct. 27.—Fierce prairie fires raged here along the Arkansas River yesterday. The wind was high and many thousands of acres of pasture meadow and grain fields were burned over. # ALASKA BOUNDARY.

The New York Tribune Indulges in a Little Spread-Eagle Talk.

New York, Oct. 27.—The Tribune today devotes a leader to the Alaska-British Columbia boundary dispute, in which it says: "The time is close at hand when the matter must be settled. The surveying parties sent out by the two Governments are to finish their work by the end of the present year. Then will come argument, and perhaps arbitration. There will be a fine chance for the cuckoos to urge the giving up of everything to England; and also for the rambunctious 'Little Pedlington Gazettes' of England to denounce the 'Yankee-Indian barbarians,' who offer obstacles to British aggrandisement. Of the value of the property in dispute there can be no question. It is capable of producing every year more wealth than the whole purchase-price of Alaska. England cannot be blamed for wanting it, if she can prove it to be fairly hers. Certainly, the United States cannot affard to relinquish it except upon the most convincing proofs. But, however the dispute may be settled, we think, influences will be at work which will compel a dispassionate consideration of it. The British will not be permitted to 'rush' the American position as they would a Nicaraguan port or a Matabele kraal."

MURDER FOLLOWS ELOPEMENT.

Horrible Crime Committed by an Australian Doctor.

San Francisco, Oct. 27.—The steamer Mariposa brings the solution of the murder mystery of Sydney, mentioned in these despatches several weeks ago. The crime which shocked the Australian city was the murder of a young girl, whose body had been horribly cut up, saturated with carbolic acid and crushed into a drygoods box which had been left on a wharf in an out of the way part of Sydney.

The police discovered that the victim was a country girl named Jessie Nichols, who had eloped from her home with a young fellow named Mays. She had been a victim of malpractice, the crime having been committeed by Dr. Thomas M. Sheridan, and his assistant, Mrs. Sarah Chapman. Both have been tried and convicted, the physician of murder in the first degree.

The Strain Has Unbalanced the Breslau Murderer's Mind.

Berlin, Oct. 26.—Kurchinski, ending that he would have to languish in the prison cells another six months before receiving his trial, has gone completely insane. His insanity is of a harmless nature, however, but of the most idiotic character. He appears to have lost all reason and has been imagining that certain papers in his cell are "his babies." He is nursing his imaginary little ones and his mind appears to be completely deranged. The severe mental strain on the alleged murderer seems to have unhinged his intellect. In order that his erratic movements and peculiar vagaries may be closely watched, the Crown has placed an extra guard in his cell.

"A Doll's House."

"A Doll's House," Ibsen's much-talked-about play, and Miss Julia Stuart, equally famed for her portrayal of its leading role, will be at the Princess to-night. The company supporting Miss Stuart is a very clever one, Mr. Charles Hagar being one of the members.

"Trilby" To-Night.

That greatest and most majestic of modern plays, "Trilby," will be seen here at the Grand Opera House to-night, with A. M. Palmer's company, under the direction of William A. Brady, and will be brought here from New York with all its entrancing features, the company, the scenery, the music and every stage effect which made it so gigantic a success in New York, Boston and Chicago.

'Hoss and Hoss' at the Toronto.

"Hoss and Hoss," re-written and brought strictly up-to-date, will begin a week's engagement at the Toronto Opera House to-night. The piece is said to be in the hands of an excellent company this season, each member being equal to an amusing specialty. The famous court-room scene, with its ludicrous jury, is still a prominent feature. The regular popular prices of the Toronto will prevail during the "Hoss and Hoss" engagement and matinees will be given on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday.

Webling Sisters.

The Pavilion will open on Tuesday evening, Oct. 29, with an entertainment by the Misses Webling of London, Eng. This is the only opportunity that the public will have to see these talented young ladies before they continue their tour through the States.

Popular Concerts.

The trustees of the Massey Music Hall have determined to give a first-class concert a week from to-morrow night, at the uniform price of 25 cents for all seats. They have engaged the services of Mr. Harold Jarvis, Miss Louise Gurnier of new York, contralto, and the Mozart Symphony Club of New York. This will be followed by a series of popular concerts if it receives adequate support.

The Copyright Question.

London, Oct. 27.—London publishers are waiting to hear what the American book trade will have to say to a modified license system under authors' control. It is thought probable that Mr. Hall Caine may influence the Canadian Parliament and help bring about an amendment to the Act which the Colonial Office has sent back, but publishers here will be surprised if he succeeds in overcoming the resistance from the American trade.

Holmes' Trial Begins To Day.

Philadelphia, Oct. 27.—The trial of H. H. Holmes on the charge of murdering Benjamin F. Pitezel will be commenced to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock. The movements of the witnesses, many of whom will have to journey from other states, are being kept quiet both by the prosecution and the defence.

VANDERBILT-MARLBORO WEDDING.

The Bride's Marriage Portion is $10,000,000—The Duke Deeds Her Large Estates.

New York, Oct. 26.—In arranging the settlements preparatory to the Vanderbilt-Marlborough wedding, there were three family lawyers engaged. Col. William Jay represented Mrs. Vanderbilt, Chauncey M. Depew represented Mr. Vanderbilt and R. Harding Milward acted for the Duke of Marlborough. It has been reported that Miss Vanderbilt's marriage portion would be $10,000,000. It was learned yesterday that, princely as was Mr. Vanderbilt's settlement upon his daughter, it has a condition attached to it, namely, that the income from the $10,000,000 shall be for the use of the future Duchess during her life time. At her death the principal goes to the issue of her marriage with the Duke.

It is understood that upon his side, the prospective bridegroom deeded to Miss Vanderbilt large estates in England, which have been in his family for years. While the intrinsic value of these estates may not be equal to Mr. Vanderbilt's gift to his daughter, yet they have heretofore always been considered too valuable to be permitted to pass out of the Marlborough family. Mr. Milward, who arranged all these matters for the Duke, is a resident of Birmingham. He was the counsellor of the father and grandfather of the present Duke.

The British vice-consul, Mr. Fraser, said yesterday that, acting under the Duke's instructions, he had asked the customs inspector at the post-office to notify him if any more packages came in order that he might have them reshipped to the senders. The Duke refuses wedding presents.

FRANK BANGER DEAD.

Committed Suicide Because He Married Without Money.

Frank Banger, the young man who slashed his throat with a razor a week ago, and has since been breathing through a tube expired at the General Hospital yesterday afternoon. He had been rapidly sinking for the past couple of days. It is not likely that an inquest will be held, the deceased acknowledged having attempted suicide in a lane in the rear of his father's house, and stated to the hospital doctors that he committed the act while despondent, owing to his inability to save his money and make a home for the girl he had married only a few days before.

"Tom Brown's" Study Burned.

The Rugby Times of October 12 gives this account of a fire in Tom Brown's study. A scholar occupying the study next to Tom Brown's saw his room on fire by upsetting the candle. Thinking he had extinguished the flames, he left for prayers. When the household came out from prayers the corridors were full of smoke, and the books and woodwork of the study, were found burning briskly. The entire contents of the study were destroyed.
