New Senior Baseball League

Sporting Editor World: If the idea which has fomented in the minds of some east enders comes to a head baseball fans east of the Don River will be treated to real senior baseball which will put former so-called senior league which have had the call up to now to shame. Several well-known east end sporting men have pledged themselves both by influence and financial means to organize and maintain a league which should have the call on the pick of the senior element in Toronto. These gentlemen have received an option on splendid grounds near the head of Broadview-avenue, and if their plans mature a meeting will be held in the near future to appoint a committee. All interested are asked to watch The World for later reports.

FINE SALE OF HORSES AT BURNS & SHEPPARD'S

Montreal Man Pays $450 for Pair Fit for the Show Ring—The Price List.

One of the largest sales of horses in a long time was held at Burns' and Sheppards' Repository yesterday. The attendance was large. The galleries all around the ring as well as the ring itself were very much crowded. Nearly every horse paraded was sold, and there were some grand specimens of horse flesh. A great number of outside buyers were on hand, and bought ar or part of car lots, some for shipment to the west, others for Ontario points.

H. Gaffney of Montreal bought a lot of extra good ones, pair of bay geldings of extra good kind, with grand, flat bone, the best of feet with not too much hair, a pair fit for the show ring. He paid $450 for this pair. Another good pair of bay and brown mares, $407.50, and a pair black geldings for $400. As choice a pair of gray mares as has been seen in a long time, well matched, good lookers and actors, in fact, traveled as one horse. This pair cost $470. They were 5 years old and weighed over 200 lbs., a blak gelding, real good sort, $212.50, and an extra good heavy gray gelding, weighing close to 1700 lbs., for $232.50; pair of bay mares, $380.

A bay gelding, extra good conformation and all horse, $222.50; pair of gay geldings, $250; Geo. Hartley of Winnipeg bought a grand lot, a bay gelding, for $212.50, that showed a great deal of class and was easily worth much more money; a black mare, $125; bay mare, $122.50. A splendid pair of bay mares that will be hard to beat any place, and bought cheap at $342.50. A bay mare, $142.50; pair bay mares, $320; brown mare, $150; bay mare, $152.50, and a registered Clydesdale mare with the papers, Dolly H., a grand looking individual, and she really looked cheap from the class shown, at $247.50; brown mare, $137.50.

C. Barnes of Nepigon bought the finest pair of gray geldings shown for a long time, and no doubt the holdest lot of the day. They were perfectly broken, well mated for color, size and way of going; they hitched as one horse and weighed 3420 lbs. They were certainly a grand pair, and looked well worth the money, $550; a brown gelding, $140, and a brown gelding, $180, went to the same gentleman. G. B. Staples of Woodville bought a good cheap pair of bay mares for $205; a chestnut gelding, $165; brown mare, $117.50; brown mare, $82.50; brown gelding, $115; gray gelding, $22.50. Scott and McElroy of Frobisher, Sask., bought a lot of six real choice ones for $1350, an average of $225 each.

T. Holland bought a good brown mare well worth the money, paying $115; A. Boyd bought a bay mare, $80; a bay gelding, $72.50; W. Fawcett bought a bay mare, $90; brown gelding, $87.50; bay gelding, $97.50; brown gelding, $120; chestnut gelding, $65; a grand bay gelding with and a black road horse, cheap at price, lot sof class, $215; pair of gay geldings, $227.50; bay mare, $125; bal gelding, $112.50, $110; bay mare, $97.50. Pearson, cream pony, $30; Mr. Mulholland, a nice pair bay geldings, $240; J. J. Walsh bought a good pair of brown and black geldings, well worth the money, $282.50; Geo.
