Note and Comment

Ontario curlers are all home from the Winnipeg bonspiel with nothing to show of their prowess. However, as R. B. Rice explained, they secured the experience desired and, contrary to the expectations of some writers in Winnipeg, these parts will be ready to send rinks west again when bonspiel time arrives.

After Winnipeg there is a bonspiel in the east, even if real curlers take no notice of it. Plans are completed for the games at Boston. The chief event will be the nineteenth annual match for the Gordon Medal, an international competition with eight rinks entered from Canada and an equal number representing the United States. The series at present stands 12 to 6 in favor of Canada. The Gordon Medal matches will begin this afternoon at 2 o'clock and continue probably until about 6 o'clock, five rinks to be played in the Boston arena and the three others in the quarters of the Boston Curling Club.

Sam Langford is receiving heavy backing to win the fight with Bill Lang, the Australian heavyweight, in London on Wednesday next. He will probably enter the ring an odds-on favorite, altho Lang will have plenty of support. McIntosh, who will pull off the scrap, is busy telling English sporting men that Lang is the real hope of the white race and that as soon as he has beaten Langford he will issue a challenge to fight Jack Johnson for the championship of the world. If Johnson agrees to meet Lang McIntosh says he will arrange a finish fight to be decided at his new club in Paris, France. McIntosh's confidence in Lang is puzzling ring followers in this country, says a New York writer. On past ring performances good judges of pugilism are willing to support their opinion that Langford can beat the Australian to a standstill. They even expect a quick knockout with Langford delivering one of his famous sleep wallops. They can't figure it out how Lang, a slow, awkward, dull witted fighter, has a chance with the scientific, heavy hitting Boston man, and many of them are offering 10 to 6 against the Australian. This will be the biggest fight arranged by McIntosh in England so far, and a crowd of 10,000 spectators will be provided for. The prices range all the way from $3 to $20.

Hamilton club men are second in line with their professional boxing bouts for members, following closely after Toronto's Metropolitan. Watch for the next big ones to get into line!

Another new baseball curve has been developed in the Pacific Coast. Pitcher Hall of the Tacoma team claims that he has a twister that he calls the "Pork ball," that is going to keep the batters guessing. He holds the ball between his forefinger and the second finger and throws it overhand. It is called the "pork" because the batsman grunts when he swings and misses it.

President Ed. Barrow of the Eastern League has signed a new umpire on the recommendation of President Ban Johnson of the American League. He is John Pollock of Kewanee, Ill., who has been holding the indicator in the Wisconsin-Illinois League for several seasons. Brennan, the National League umpire, did service with the same organization before he was graduated to the majors.

"When I was umpiring ten years ago," says President Lynch of the National League, "Orator Jim O'Rourke, who had been playing with the Giants, was appointed to the staff by N. E. Young, then president of the league. O'Rourke, after several weeks' work with the indicator, met me in Philadelphia one day. He was pretty well discouraged, and while talking shop he said to me:

"'Mr. Lynch, when I was a player I used to find fault with some of your decisions. Please accept my apology. Anything I ever said to you in the heat of battle I want to take back. I never knew what an umpire's trials and tribulations meant until now, and let me say they are something intolerable. Old friends have turned against me, and I find myself a scapegoat instead of an idol. The salary ought to be $10,000 a year.'

"The odd part of our meeting was the fact that only one of us should have been sent to Philadelphia. Mr. Young had made a mistake by sending both of us to that city, leaving New York without an official umpire for that day. So rather than have Mr. Young blamed I left O'Rourke there, and sent a telegram to the New York Club that I was ill. That smoothed over the mix-up, and the next day I was on deck at the Polo Grounds. O'Rourke, by the way, resigned from the staff shortly after. He couldn't stand criticism and abuse."

Goulding Wins In Easy Manner Tait Third in Mile

NEW YORK, Feb. 18.—Eastern college track and field cracks and representatives of athletic clubs from Chicago, Boston and Canadian points, participated to-night in the annual indoor meeting of the New York Athletic Club at Madison-square Garden.

Cornelius E. Walsh of the New York A. C. established a new world's record of 15 feet ½-inch in throwing the 56-pound weight for height over a bar, a method different from throwing it toward a suspended wooden disc, at which he also holds the world's record. The former world's record was 14 feet 10 inches, made by J. S. Mitchell, N.Y.A.C., in 1904.

George Goulding of Toronto, Canada, who holds the world's one-mile walking championship, with a mark of 6.25 4-5, gave a splendid exhibition in the one-mile walk handicap, which he captured in 6.33, beating his field easily.

The Boston A.A. team made a plucky effort in the one-mile relay race against the N.Y.A.C. team, but Gissing of the local club made his run in good time in the final quarter of a mile and beat out Merrihew at the finish by one yard.

The one-mile race for the Baxter Cup, an international event, was cleverly won by A. R. Kiviat of the Irish-American A. C., who beat Hedlund, the New England champion, by one yard, with Tait, the Canadian, third, five yards back.

WINNIPEG WINS EVERY BONSPIEL FINAL BUT ONE

Braden of Thistles and Finlay of Strathconas Each Land Two Open Events.

WINNIPEG, Feb. 19.—To all intents Winnipeg's curling carnival is an item of history, and with one exception the eleven cups competed for remain in the city, despite the fact that country rinks outnumbered city competitors almost two to one. The finals in all the big competitions were played yesterday afternoon, and when outside rinks competed they were almost snowed under. Mainwaring of Birtle, who worked his way down to the final of the McLaren and the Caledonian, fell twice during the day, while Finlay of the Strathcona Club landed the big Tetley Tankard, and the Caledonian, Braden, beat out Cobb of Melita to win the Dingwall, and then defeated Ferguson of Hamiota in the final of the Purity Flour. The Tuckett Trophy, which was captured Friday night by the double rink from Neepawa, is the only cup to leave the city. Points play will not be closed until Monday night, and the city rinks will play down for the Blue Ribbon prizes during the coming week. The uniform prizes went to Ament of Seaforth. Fort William took a couple of second and third prizes in the open events. Braden of the Thistle Club, who captured two open events, was the lion of the bonspiel, but all local enthusiasm is centred in the playing of Finlay's Strathcona rink, which won the Tetley and the Caledonian. Finlay played second in the Cassidy rink for half a dozen seasons, and this was his first year as a skip. His headwork and ability to shape ends surprised the oldtimers, and after passing thru five days of play without a defeat he wound up by taking two events, causing the sensation of the spiel by his defeat of Blackburn in the final of the Tetley. While enthusiasm is rife here over the good showing of the local rinks, there is also much regret apparent that such a small margin of the prizes left the city, as an occurrence of this nature, after the Cassidy clean-up last year, will, perhaps, be detrimental to the popularity of the bonspiel in the east and west. The following were the scores Saturday:

1 o'clock draw—International semi-finals—Aldous (Assiniboine) 14, Lemon (Granite) 13.

Black, Girven—Sinclair (Strathcona) 8, Pace (Strathcona) 12.

Whyte Cup—Rochon (Thistle) 11, Johnstone (Granite) 6.

McLaren Cup, final—Blackburn (Granite) 12, Mainwaring (Birtle) 8.

Whyte Cup—Drummond (Minnedosa) 14, Robertson (Assiniboine) 12.

4 o'clock draw—Purity Flour, final—Ferguson (Hamiota) 12, Braden (Thistles) 17.

Caledonian, final—Mainwaring (Birtle) 8, Finlay (Strathcona) 19 (ten ends).

7.30 o'clock draw—Tetley Tea, final—Blackburn (Granite) 8, Finlay (Strathcona) 10.

International, final—Aldous (Assiniboine) 5, Growier (Thistles) 8.

Black, Girven, final—W. R. Mullock (Assiniboine) 8, Pace (Strathcona) 17.

Whyte Cup, final—Drummond (Minnedosa) 6, Rochon (Thistle) 14.

Varsity Curlers Win.

In spite of the heavy ice at Prospect Park Curling Rink Saturday afternoon two exceptionally fine games were curled between Varsity and Queens, and Varsity and Ayr. On Saturday night Varsity entertained Queens to dinner at the St. Charles. The scores were:

Curling at Boston.

BOSTON, Feb. 18.—Greater Boston teams took three of the four curling matches in the opening series of the international curling tournament here to-day. The tournament will extend thru Tuesday, the nineteenth annual Gordon Medal play coming on Monday.

Rube Marquard, New York's $11,000 southpaw, says that as soon as he arrives at Marlin he will begin pitching at a target made of padded canvas with a bullseye in the shape of a catcher's mitt. Marquard declares that he will control his port side curves so well that he can hit the mitt nine times out of ten. Then he will be able to get the ball over the plate. The theory is excellent, but pitching at a canvas target is far different from throwing up curves to live batsmen in the presence of over-anxious rooters.

LEAGUE BALL PLAYERS START FOR THE SOUTH

Buffalo Gets Sensational Second Baseman — Baseball Trades and Deals.

Breaking all records for early starts, the advance guard of the New York Giants started south on Saturday to begin training. The squad consisted of First-Baseman Gowdy, Pitcher Rudolph and Infielder Fullerton, three recruits, but others will be picked up en route. Manager McGraw will start for Marlin this week.

A despatch from the south says that Noah Henline, the sensational outfielder of the Buffalo Club last year, will again be a Bison this season. It is also announced that Jay Kirke, who is the property of the Detroit Baseball Club, and the sensation of the State League last summer at second base for the Scranton team, would also wear a Buffalo uniform this coming summer. Kirke made such a reputation in the second-base position for the Miners that the management had a score of offers from different clubs for his services. However, he was only farmed out by Jennings last summer, and as soon as the Detroit manager saw that Kirke was more than making good he recalled him before the end of the season. Stallings is said to have been very much impressed with him, and, as he has a working agreement with Jennings, it is stated that he has secured the crack second-sack guardian for his Buffalo team. He, too, will report for spring training with the Bisons.

President Frank Farrell of the New York American announced that Manager Chase has traded Third-Baseman Jimmy Austin to St. Louis for Infielder Roy Hartzell, and that the New York Club had sold Second-Baseman Frank Laporte to the same team.

The Chicago White Sox have signed J. Collins of the Winnipeg Club, a star pitcher. On closer inspection this man Collins turned out to be the old Princeton pitcher, Logan Cunningham, who is a native of Chicago, and will now return to the city where he picked up the game as a schoolboy.

Washington will not immediately try Warren Gill, the ex-Pirate. Gill will start the season with Minneapolis, and if his work in the American Association is sufficiently impressive he will be called to Washington for a trial.

Garry Herrmann, chairman of the National Commission and owner of the Reds, will advocate at the meeting in New York City Tuesday the adoption of the plan to number players on the scorecards in championship series for the purpose of identification. By this means all changes in the batting order will be billetined on the scoreboard, and the fans would then not have to rely for information on the announcements by the umpire, which are rarely intelligible.

"Give me the player who gets on base oftenest," says Manager Griffith. "In selecting the best all-round ball player it's necessary to take into consideration the number of times he reaches first, no matter how he gets there. The player on first is the fellow who frequently does something." Apparently the Cincinnati leader was not familiar with Miller Huggins' base-mooching ability when he released him last year.

Cincinnati captured three of the human jackrabbits in Dave Altizer of Minneapolis; Dolan, the star of the Western League, and Breen, the former Nap, who led the Northwestern League. The New York Giants took Mitchell of the South Michigan League, while the Cardinals won Morse of the Western Canada circuit.

Only three of the base-running leaders found their way into American League camps. They are Derrick of the Carolina League, bought by the Athletics; Ralston of Akron, who joined the Washington Club, and McGilvary, recalled by the White Sox from Birmingham. In Joe Jackson and Bronkie Cleveland got the runners-up in the Southern Association.

Jim McAleer has not given up all hope of making some sort of a beneficial trade when he meets the other clubs' owners and managers at the schedule meeting, to be held in Chicago next Tuesday. McAleer, however, will make no overtures to any of the other clubs. If he has something that he can spare, and gets as good or better in return, he can be approached, but he doesn't want to create the impression that he is particularly anxious to make a swap.

Well-informed followers along baseball lines, who are always there with their ears to the ground, hold that the transfer of John Lawrence Corridon and Pitcher Molloy to Pittsburg means the transition of First-Baseman Jack Flynn to St. Louis. The idea is that Pittsburg, having the costly and brilliant Hunter in reserve for first base, is willing to let Flynn go to St. Louis if the Cubs can be induced to waive.

Frank Chance has sent letters to all his Cub pitching recruits, instructing them to begin immediately to loosen up the muscles of their pitching arms. Chance believes that if the youngsters work the soreness from their wings before going south he will be much better able to separate chaff from the wheat.

The proposed set of games between the Phillies and Detroit next spring may be called off, because the Tigers want some of the games played at Monroe, La., where they train. President Fogel declares that under no circumstances would he send his team from Birmingham to Monroe to play the games.

Manager Dooin of the Phillies says he won't take more than thirty-two players south with him. That means that he will use the knife liberally on his reserve list, which shows eighteen pitchers alone.

TORONTO CURLERS TELL ABOUT WINNIPEG BONSPIEL

The Ontario curlers are all home again, just as happy as if they had landed finals like Braden and Finlay. R. B. Rice expressed the feeling of most of them when he said:

"One of the most delightful winter outings I ever had."

The Lindsay rink left Winnipeg last Wednesday, except J. D. Flavelle, who remained for the Patriarchs' match. The Rennies and Gillies of Brampton reached home on Saturday, while R. B. Rice's Queen City rink returned yesterday with Ament of Seaforth.

Tom Rennie returned with a very severe cold, that will keep him indoors some time. In fact, he was unable to play in the last games, Gillies of Brampton taking his place. The Rennies saw an improvement since their last trip. The westerners are getting more skilful every season, and play the knockout game to perfection, hitting the stone every time.

Before going west it is suggested that eastern rinks should practise a pebbled ice, same as in Winnipeg, instead of on our checkered surface.

R. B. Rice was asked if he thought it possible for a Toronto rink to win at the bonspiel, to which he replied: "Yes," and that there is more in selecting the right kind of men than anything else. He was well satisfied with his trip, which was his second on the same errand, and the experience this time he counted more valuable than if his rink had won the Grand Aggregate. He was at the bonspiel four years ago.

Asked on his opinion how Braden, Huston and the other cracks would do on Toronto ice, Mr. Rice had no hesitation in saying that they would meet with success here, same as on their own ice, the Queen City skip evidently having become a convert to the knockout game. For instance, when only one stone is left to be played, the pebbled ice expert invariably drew the shot.

Winnipeg ice was made on a mud bottom, borrowed about three feet, and was often quite crooked. It was no unusual thing to have the stones run against the turn.

Carlisle Lacrosse Dates.

CARLISLE, Pa., Feb. 18.—Answering the first call for lacrosse candidates, about 35 Indian braves appeared upon the Indian field last Saturday and started preliminary practice and learning how to handle their sticks. Altho the coach, William T. O'Neil, the Canadian expert who coached the team last year, will not be here until March 15, Indian Captain Bracklin will try to have the men in some form, so as not to lose any time after the coach arrives. The Indians have an exceedingly hard schedule this year, and it will be with only the hardest kind of work that they will be able to finish the season successfully. Most of the old players are back and the lacrosse management at Carlisle expects to turn out a winning team. The most important game is that with Harvard at Cambridge. Following is the schedule. Carlisle has two open dates that will likely soon be filled:

March 29 or April 1—Baltimore City College v. Carlisle Indians, at Carlisle.

April 5—Lehigh University v. Carlisle Indians, at South Bethlehem.

April 8—University of Maryland v. Carlisle Indians, at Carlisle.

April 15—Open.

April 22—Johns Hopkins University v. Carlisle Indians, at Baltimore.

April 29—Harvard University v. Carlisle Indians, at Cambridge.

May 6—Open.

May 16—Maryland Agricultural College v. Carlisle Indians, at Carlisle.

May 20—Swarthmore College v. Carlisle Indians, at Swarthmore.

May 27—Stevens Institute v. Carlisle Indians, at Hoboken.

May 30—Mount Washington Club v. Carlisle Indians, at Baltimore.

EATONS DEFEAT T.A.A.C. IN HARD GAME BY 6 TO 5

Ice Was Soft and Heavy and Play of a Rather Strenuous Order—Other Games and Gossip.

Eatons defeated T. A. A. C. for the second time this season at Mutual-street Rink Saturday night, by 6—5. Half-time score, 3—0.

The result of this game makes Eatons winners of Group 3, Senior O.H.A., and they will now go into the finals. The "big store" team were not beaten in their group and deserve their honors.

A fairly large crowd was on hand, and the supporters were about evenly divided. The ice was soft and heavy, with a little water in some places. This condition interferes with team play and makes individual rushes decidedly a feature. Another result of slow-going is that players have a tendency to rough it up much more than on fast ice.

Eatons Saturday night found they were up against a much harder proposition than when these two teams met before. T. A. A. C. made several changes in their line-up, which made them a much stronger team, particularly in the heavy going, and on this occasion they checked their opponents, something they forgot all about in the first game.

Right from the start it was seen the game was going to be close and interesting. Eatons forced matters, but the new T.A.A.C. defence were checking much differently from the last occasion. Leroux was running pretty loose all the time and was getting in some fast shots. McLaren, the T.A.A.C. goaltender, played a great game, and Ardagh at point was exceptionally good on the defensive. Finally, after sixteen minutes and thirty seconds had gone, Leroux found the net for the first goal of the game. Both sides were being penalized freely for various offences, and Steacy had a busy time keeping the players from getting unnecessarily rough. McArthur and Babe Burkart were chief offenders for T.A.A.C., while Meeking for Eatons made three trips to the penalty box. The second goal of the game was scored by Meeking, and Frank Rankin got the next, when, after a side shot, which McLaren stopped, the puck came from the goaltender's skate into the net. This was all the scoring in the first half, tho both teams had plenty of chances, and excellent goalkeeping by both McLaren and Bricker undoubtedly kept the score down.

T.A.A.C. came very fast at the commencement of the second half, and after nearly seven minutes of play Brown got an easy one past Bricker. McCreath scored another one minute after, with Hyland and Preston viewing the game from the penalty box. Considerable excitement reigned, and T.A.A.C. scored again, but Steacy called an offside. Eatons came back strong, while T.A.A.C. seemed to fade, and Flesher scored from the side. Ardagh and Hyland were ruled off, together, and Eatons scored the winning point of the game. Leroux got away very easily from his check, and scored, to be followed twenty-five seconds later by one from Meeking, who batted the puck into an open net from a scramble. Bert McCreath got going and scored two in a row in short order, just as Ardagh came back on. The final goal of the game was scored by Ardagh after a rush the length of the rink.

T.A.A.C. put up a hard-checking game, but spent too much time in the penalty box, being penalized for no less than 27 minutes in the first half and 20 minutes in the second half. Eatons were off for 12 minutes in first half and 23 minutes in second.

Irving Ardagh was a wonderful improvement over anybody T.A.A.C. have played at point this season. He was particularly effective on the defensive, and on several occasions he rushed well. He was penalized only once in the first half, but in the second he evidently tired and was frequently benched for being a little too strenuous in getting the man. McArthur was not nearly up to his game, while Babe Burkart has not had enough experience to play well. Brown was decidedly the best man for T.A.A.C., the little Port Hope player being in the thick of the play all the time.

Eatons played well, and their forward line attempted a combination play, something new for them. Rankin and Meeking were very effective in centre ice, while Leroux had an easy time on his wing. Preston worked in some fast rushes, but Hyland was satisfied to lift the puck from half-way. Bricker was very reliable in goal. The teams:

Referee—Noble Steacy, Kingston.

Hockey Notes.

Despite the fact that Orillia beat them 10 to 3 in Orillia, the Toronto Canoe Club Juniors figure they yet have a chance. The unfortunate injury to McKenzie and the absence of Gooch materially weakened the team. These two teams meet again to-night at Mutual-street and should furnish an excellent hockey game.

Irving Ardagh showed the fans he is far from being all in and was very effective thruout the game.

Rankin and Meeking are a great pair of centre men. They had to take several hard bumps Saturday night.

Eatons, Parkdale and Argonauts drew for the bye last night. Eatons were successful. Parkdale and Argos play on Wednesday and Saturday night, total goals to count. The winner plays Eatons on March 1 and 4.

Practice hours to-night at Mutual-street Rink are: 6.30 Argonauts, 7.15 Parkdale.

The usual senior prices will prevail next Wednesday night, when Argos meet Parkdale in the first Senior O.H.A. semi-final. The prices are 25c, 50c and 75c.

The plan for the Argonaut-Parkdale game on Wednesday night at Mutual-street Rink will be on sale Wednesday morning at 189 Yonge street.

Wanderers 6, Renfrew 4.

MONTREAL, Feb. 18.—After a stubbornly fought game, in which Renfrew often looked like winners and were always dangerous contenders, Wanderers with one of the garrison finishes for which they have been famous, but of which they have shown few samples of late, won their third scheduled game with the Renfrew seven at the Arena Saturday night. Coming into the third period with the score three all, Renfrew took the lead for the second time during the game, but held the advantage for only a little more than five minutes, for the cup holders, piling on more speed and checking more closely, scored three goals in succession, holding Renfrew powerless at the same time, the gong finding them 6 to 4. The game was fast and both teams made use of combined play to greater extent than the last time that Renfrew appeared here. So cleanly contested was it that, altho the outcome of the match had no effect on the championship, the crowd were at fever heat thruout the game. There were times when the play was a trifle poor, but on the whole the game was a first-class exhibition. The teams, officials and summary:

Ottawa's Tenth Victory.

QUEBEC, Feb. 13.—Quebec failed to interrupt Ottawa's chain of victories on Saturday night, the visitors winning by a score of 7 to 2. The locals put up a good game in the first period and it was only the great work of Lesueur that saved his team. As a matter of fact all thru the game Lesueur played in superb form and if he had not stopped the shots Quebec started out at a terrific pace, and the hockey was very fast. The first period ended one all. In the second period Ottawa scored two more goals, while in the third Ottawa got four, giving Quebec's one.

Half way thru the second period Quebec began to show signs of tiredness, while Ottawa kept up its incessant rushes. Quebec was by no means all in at that and managed to give Ottawa all they wanted, being frequently flashes of brilliant hockey on the part of the locals. Ottawas played the more systematic game, however, and bored in close on the poles, while Quebec lost many chances by not getting in on Lesueur. Quebec came near the close of the game with a great spurt, but Ottawa held them tight, and had the match well in hand. The teams, line-up and officials follow:

C.L.A. Senior Series Prospects Bright Lacrosse News

In the face of all lacrosse rumors about the formation of a new organization, the C. L. A. appear to have a particularly strong senior series, if Eatons are really serious of going after higher honors. Last year the big store presented an excellent intermediate team, and are worthy of a place in senior company. St. Catharines, Toronto Rowing Club and West Toronto Shamrocks will also play senior, which should make a great group.

Holmes, the goalkeeper for Parkdale Hockey Club, is the most likely man to guard the nets in place of Atton on the Torontos this summer.

Eddie Powers, defence fielder for the Torontos, has turned down an offer to go west to play lacrosse this summer. Powers would make a good captain for the Torontos. He is very aggressive, and is a player who inspires confidence in others.

Very few changes will be made in the Toronto line-up, the management evidently figuring that they have the material, if the boys will only get out and work.

Querrie will have his old players back, and thinks he has landed a couple of new ones that are good.

The Tecumseh management have not sold Dolly Durkin to any eastern club, and the old reliable will be found at the island grounds as usual.

R. W. Crowell of Philadelphia, the crack Swarthmore football and lacrosse player, has been engaged to coach the lacrosse team of Lehigh University for the coming season. Crowell will soon issue a call for candidates for cage work.

Cornwall Hockey News.

CORNWALL, Feb. 19.—The hockey situation here is very exciting just at present. A couple of days ago the Internationals of Cornwall looked like winners of the Stormont Hockey League, but the Rough Riders of East Cornwall, last year's champions, have braced up, and defeated the Internationals by the narrow margin of one goal to nil.

This was rather a surprise party, and leaves the Rough Riders, Internationals and Glengarrians of Williamstown with two losses each. The Internationals have one game to play and the other clubs have two each. They will probably win all remaining scheduled games, as they do not clash again in the series. The International-Rough Rider game was a "hummer" all the way. When these two teams met a few weeks ago the Internationals won without much trouble. Since then the Rough Riders have lost a match at Williamstown by leaving the ice at half-time. Dessler, who was hurt in this game, was replaced by C. Gilhooley, who seemed to be an improvement, and Cote was replaced by Larin. The two teams appeared to be very evenly matched, but perhaps the Internationals were a little too confident. The only goal of the match was scored after twenty-four minutes of play by Lafave of the Rough Riders. Penny, the Rough Rider goalkeeper, did some wonderful work in his nets, and twice rushed out and successfully blocked an opposing player who had passed all other Rough Riders. Without at all disparaging the fine work of the victors, it must be admitted that the Internationals had a lot of hard luck. One of their players, Corbett Denneny, played most of the match with a broken finger. The pace was fast all the way, and in the first half the play was clean, but in the second half the checking became rather rough. The teams and officials were as follows:

Internationals (0)—Goal, F. Sugden; point, E. Sommerville; cover, C. Denneny; forwards, M. Degray, Cyril Denneny, C. Casselman, L. Degray.

Rough Riders (1)—Goal, J. Penny; point, C. Giroux; cover, A. Charlebois; forwards, C. Larin, A. Bergeron, A. Lafave, B. Whiteham.

Referee—Geo. E. Smith, Judge of play—Ted Kennedy.

The Philadelphia Americans and the Chicago Americans will play at Chicago on May 28 for the benefit of the family of the late Fire Marshal James Horan, who lost his life in the Stock Yards fire two months ago. The dead fireman was a baseball "fan," and the promoters of the benefit expect to make it one of the biggest events of the kind ever attempted. The gross receipts are to go to the family.

The racing season in France opened yesterday at Auteuil. The race for the Prix Bellevue was won by Thei-beaux's Dynamo, with Sauval up. Widener's Laugue de Chat, with Preferment in the saddle, finished second, and Goudchaux's Chartres, Salmon up, was third. Seven horses ran.
