HALIFAX, May 18.—We understand H. M. Ship Melville may be expected to arrive here in the course of next week, from Bermuda.

H. M. S. Rainbow has been ordered to cruize for the summer on the coast of Newfoundland—and the Wanderer in the Bay of Fundy.—The Champion sailed from hence some weeks since for the Gulf of St. Lawrence.

Our distinguished and ingenious countryman, Perkins, is said to have communicated to the government of the United States, the model of a steam boiler which cannot explode, and which he wishes to undergo a test of ten years' experiment, which if it fails, he will demand no compensation.—*N. Colonel Crockett.—The following is an extract of a letter received by a member of Congress, from a gentleman in Louisiana, under date April 12:

"Crockett was found (within the Alamo) in an angle made by two houses, lying on his back, a frown on his brow, a smile of scorn on his lips—his knife in his hand, a dead Mexican lying across his body, and twenty-two more lying pell-mell before him in the angle."

The Colonel was himself "a fellow of infinite jest," as well as the cause of much jesting in others. He lived, laughed at, but respected; and "died he not as heroes wish to die."—New-York Emigrant.

MARRIED,

On Tuesday last, by the Rev. Mr. Wilson, Mr. Edmund Wallace, to Miss Fanny Crabb, both of Greenwich, King's County.

At Richibucto, on the 3d inst., by the Rev. James Hudson, George Pagan, Esquire, to Kathron Elizabeth Putnam, fifth daughter of the late Honorable Judge Upham.

DIED,

Drowned accidentally, yesterday morning, Mr. William Brundage, aged 24 years, Mate of the Ship James Lemon.—Funeral will take place from the residence of his father in Church-street, To-morrow, (Wednesday) afternoon, at 4 o'clock, when friends and acquaintance of the family are particularly requested to attend.

This morning, in the 43d year of her age, after a lingering illness, which she bore with Christian fortitude, Mrs. Sarah, wife of Mr. Robert Pickthall, in the Ordnance Department, and eldest daughter of Mr. John Dyer, of Waltham Abbey, County of Essex, England.—Funeral on Saturday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, when friends and acquaintance are invited to attend. Residence near the Marine Hospital.

At Indian Town, on the 16th instant, Thomas Robert, son of Mr. Joseph Lingley, aged 3 years, 2 months, and 11 days.

Drowned, in Calais, at Union Mills, Mr. Stephen Hussey, of Saint Stephen.

In September, near Sydney, N. S. W., Deputy Commissary General J. Laidley, who formerly served in Canada, and was for the last eighteen years at the head of the department in New South Wales.

The following obituary remarks on the death of the late James Ratchford, Esquire, of Parrsborough, (whose demise was recorded in our paper of the 10th inst.) we copy from the Halifax papers:—

"He [Mr. Ratchford,] resided the last fifty years at Parrsborough, and uniformly manifested the most lively interest in the welfare and prosperity of its inhabitants. His unwavering integrity, and very judicious method of business, gained for him the unbounded confidence and esteem of all his acquaintance. His benevolent disposition made him always anxiously alive to the wants of the poor, and supplied the place of a father and a friend. His charities were extensive, and were well known to flow from a liberal heart. His hospitality was such as to evince a generousness of spirit not often met with; at his residence, the stranger as well as the friend or more intimate acquaintance, found a welcome reception and a comfortable home. He filled the various offices of Collector of Customs, Registrar of Deeds, Postmaster, Magistrate, and others—discharging the duties of each in a manner highly satisfactory to those who conferred them, and in a way that secured the approbation of all concerned; and whilst in those various offices as well as in his standing as a Merchant he sustained an exalted character, yet in no department of life did he appear so eminently conspicuous as in the character of a Christian:—Having early united himself with the Church of England, he retained his partiality for her service and his attachment to her ordinances, notwithstanding his heart and his house were ever open to Ministers and Christians of every denomination, and to all in whom he saw the marks of genuine piety he readily gave the right hand of fellowship—of his substance he contributed to the cause of God and the promotion of true religion. In his death his children have to sustain the loss of a most affectionate parent, the christian Church one of its best members, and the community in which he lived a father and a well known and tried friend."
