PRESBYTERY MEETING

At a special meeting of the St. John Presbytery yesterday afternoon the resignation of Rev. A. A. Graham was reluctantly accepted. Arrangements were made to declare the pulpit vacant on the first Sunday in July, Rev. J. H. A. Anderson being chosen interim moderator of the congregation. Rev. F. W. Murray, of Glassville, signified his acceptance of a call from the Nashwaak and Stanley field, and arrangements for the induction were made. Another call from Grand Falls, to Rev. Roland Davidson, of the Presbytery of Halifax, was sustained and it will be forwarded to him. Provisional arrangements were made for his induction.

Rev. Mr. Dickie reported for the home mission committee how the catechists had been stationed for the summer. The remainder of the time till adjournment was taken up dealing with routine matters. Rev. H. R. Read acted as moderator and the other clergymen present were Rev. Frank Baird, clerk; Rev. A. A. Graham, Rev. J. J. McCaskill, Rev. J. H. A. Anderson, Rev. Gordon Dickie, Rev. David Lang, Rev. F. W. Murray and Rev. C. W. Townsend.

The St. David's church delegates expressed regret at having to lose their pastor. Andrew Malcolm said that in his 47 years in the church, it had never thrived better than under the guidance of Rev. Mr. Graham. Rev. J. J. McCaskill and Rev. C. W. Townshend also spoke.

Rev. Mr. Graham said in reply that he was sorry to go, but he had been imbued with the spirit of the west, and thought that it was the best place for him. Rev. J. H. A. Anderson was appointed interim moderator for the church. The pulipt in St. David's will be declared vacant on the first Sunday in July.

The matter of rearranging the Apohaqui, Millstream and Sussex field was discussed and left to a committee, composed of Rev. G. Dickie, Rev. J. H. A. Anderson and Rev. James Ross.

Family Cured of Eczema

By Cuticura Remedies

"The Cuticura treatment has absolutely cured me and family of eczema which I, my wife and two-year-old child had for eight months. It started with small pimples on the head of my child which gradually broke out in sores, and it was not long before I and my wife got the same. Our heads were one mass of sores, we could not sleep and the itching was terrible. We suffered for eight months. We tried different kinds of ointments and medicine but it did us no good and soon it began to break out on our bodies until a friend who had the same trouble told me about Cuticura of which I used two sets of Cuticura Soap, Cuticura Ointment and Cuticura Resolvent, and I was surprised. After the first few days our heads began to heal and in two months we were absolutely cured of this terrible eczema."

Presbyterians and Marriage

Perth, Ont., May 11—That marriage should be made a purely civil contract was the most important clause in a resolution passed almost unanimously by the Presbyterian Synod of Montreal and Ottawa here today.

The resolution is the same as was passed by the Presbytery of Montreal. It protests strongly against the admission by Quebec of the claims of the Roman Catholic church to have the right to call on the judiciary of the province to approve of its ecclesiastical deliverances in this connection.

AMUSEMENTS FOR OURSELVES AND OTHERS

THE UNIQUE.

The management announce that three star motion picture companies, the Rex, Thanhouser and Solax, which have each achieved a grand success in Canada and the United States and hold an enviable reputation in motion picturedom will supply an elaborate entertainment for the week end crowds at the Unique Theatre. The Rex Co., whose first production was seen with no little pleasure about a week ago will present a dainty playlet, entitled "The Heiress." This will serve to introduce to lovers of the silent drama a captivating actress, Miss Lois Weber who will portray the title role. The Thanhouser players who have a strong hold on St. John people are expected to add another laurel to their list when seen in "Dots and Dashes," a drama of a young girl who saved her sweetheart's life by means of wireless telegraphy. The Solax aggregation of notable comedians will put up a comedy par excellence. "The Tramp's Strategy." Miss Alice Mackenzie's contribution to the bill will be a cute love ditty, "Tit for Tat," prettily dressed which is expected to make up a programme that will please the most critical.

THE GEM.

Tomorrow will be children's day at the Gem Theatre and a fine programme of pictures, songs and music is promised. In addition each of the little ones attending will receive a dainty souvenir as a pleasant reminder of the visit. Of the new bill, the Edison drama, "Jim, The Mule Boy," is expected to prove the most delightful. It is the story of a brave lad striving for the life of his blind father, mother and sister. His daring in the shaft of a mine, which has caved in, is the means of winning his success. "Sunshine Sue," is the title of an attractive Biograph story of life in a New England village, and of the allurements of city life presented to a rustic lass by a scheming young man from the "big towns." Winsor McKay has won fame in the states with his cartoons of "Little Nemo," and Gem patrons will have a chance to see them in motion in Vitagraph films today and tomorrow, while they may also see a pleasing pastime "Bob-Sledding in Rhode Island." Miss Allen will sing "Take Me Up With You, Dearie," and the orchestra will play some new pieces.

THE LYRIC

An acrobatic tumbling act of the old style with hazardous escapades and funny clown antics by the Mad Dailey & Co., constitutes the vaudeville portion of the Lyric's programme for today and Saturday. It was interesting to note how the spectators of yesterday enjoyed this performance inasmuch as it contained many features that are not new but were performed in a manner entirely different than usual. A strong vein of good clean comedy prevails throughout the act and was brought out in a clever manner by the capable artists assisted by several dummies and a trick house setting. In the picture bill, the Selig drama, "Zulu Land" is particularly fine and the natural fire scene depicted called for much applause. The same performance will be given tonight and a special matinee on Saturday afternoon.

OPERA HOUSE.

The Man of the Hour, at the Opera House last night, was seen by a very large audience. There was scarcely a vacant seat. The Helen Grayce company were again seen to excellent advantage.

Tonight they are to be seen in Wildfire, for which the advance sale has been very large. This afternoon they will play The Squaw Man, and again on Saturday night. The Cowboy and the Lady is the bill for Saturday afternoon. The advance sale for Saturday's night performance is very large.

THE STAR

The Star Theatre in north end will close the week with three pictures that are all announced as entitled to a headliner position. They are: the Selig drama of a terrible war, entitled "1861" replete in exciting scenes and stirring climaxes; Biograph Stock Co., a fine story of the west in "Was He a Coward," and the Edison Co., in a comedy of the most hilarious type "The Lover and the Count." Ralph Fischer will sing. A big matinee is announced for Saturday.
