MASONIC GRAND LODGE.

W. R. White, of Pembroke, Elected Grand Master.

The D. D. G. M. for London District Is A. R. Rowat, of Nilestown—Touching Tribute to the Fraternal Dead.

HAMILTON, July 19.—The Masonic Grand Lodge resumed business this morning.

Last night a grand steamboat excursion was given to the members by the Hamilton brethren. The boat was crowded.

Among the reports presented was that on benevolence, by R. W. Bro. William Gibson, M.P., of Beamsville. It stated that 302 applications for relief had been received and dealt with as follows: 161 granted $4,920, two applications refused, 139 applications from local boards of relief, all granted, amounting to $3,650—total $8,570. Special grants $815, or a grand total of $9,385, an increase in 1894 of $1,400.

The condition of Masonry was reported on by R. W. Bro. E. T. Malone. This was a very lengthy document, containing a vast amount of information from the eighteen districts of the jurisdiction regarding craft operations. The report showed harmony, prosperity and progress all along the line. Only a few weak lodges are reported and only 17 out of 432 lodges were not visited by the D. D. G. M.'s. Many excellent suggestions were made by the committee in relation to conducting the business of private lodges on business principles. The report was one of the ablest ever presented to Grand Lodge by Bro. Malone, and he was vociferously applauded on resuming his seat.

Notices of motion were then taken up. Two by Bro. Malone, of Toronto, regarding annulling the fee of $1 for dispensations to attend divine service were withdrawn.

The motion to transfer True Blue Lodge, No. 98, Albion, from the Georgian to the Toronto district was carried.

A resolution by Bro. Dr. McCurdy, of Norwich, empowering Grand Lodge to furnish each D. D. G. M. with an official seal was defeated.

The notice given by Bro. J. K. Brydon, of Rat Portage, that Grand Lodge pay the D. D. G. M.s for their official visits was not passed in the absence of that brother.

A motion authorizing the issuance of a centenary medal was made by Most Wor. Bro. Spry, and carried unanimously.

Right Wor. Bro. Geo. C. Davis reported for the board on the fraternal dead. It was a touching tribute to the brethren who had passed away during the year. Bro. Davis said: "Our hearts are stirred with strange emotion when we recall to memory the faces, the forms, the familiar figures of those who have silently bade us farewell and crossed the deep, dark river into the unknown land. Though we may weave words into graceful sentences of consolation, though we may repeat the beautiful ritual of our craft regarding our dead, though we may wrap around their cold forms the glorious promises of everlasting life, there is something unsatisfying in this; there is an overpowering sense of sadness when we think of the absent one from the lodge room, the vacant chair in the family circle, the broken link in the golden chain of friendship. Oh! ye fraternal dead, where are you? We feel that thy spirits are here hovering over us, with messages freighted with love, joy and peace. Last year the fraternal dead of this year were the living examples of true Masonic life, and from among those who listen, those who read of the fraternal dead of this year, will come the hosts of those whose names will adorn the sad and mournful pages of the proceedings of our annual communication, devoted to the commemoration of our departed brethren. Thus it is that the living of one year are the dead of the next. This should lead us to live without strife, to throw the mantle of charity o'er the form of our brother Mason while he is alive, to shield him from abuse, slander and dishonor, to whisper in his ears words of advice and encouragement, before they become deaf to human sounds."

ELECTION OF D. D. G. M.'S.

The following D. D. G. M.'s were elected by district lodges this morning:

Erie, No. 1—E. S. Wigle, Windsor.
St. Clair, No. 2—W. Ward, Brigden.
London, No. 3—A. R. Rowat, Nilestown.
South Huron, No. 4—R. H. Collins, Exeter.

"A MATTER OF TIME."

Solar or Standard?—Citizens Who Sprinkled Their Lawns After 8 O'clock at the Police Court—They Rely on Sun Time.

A score of well known citizens played the part of defendant, most of them for the first time, in the Police Court today. The argus-eyed water inspectors had detected their lawn services in operation after the hour at which the bylaw says sprinkling must cease. The prosecuting attorney, Mr. Fisher, produced an ADVERTISER to show that citizens had been warned to use water on their lawns only between 5 and 8 a.m. and 5 and 8 p.m.

The first called upon was Mr. George C. Gibbons, Q.C., and the last Police Magistrate Parke himself! John M. Johnson testified to seeing Mr. Gibbons' sprinker at work on July 10 about 8:15 a.m. He notified those in the house and the water was turned off.

Mr. Gibbons had no knowledge of it, but remarked that 8:15 city time was before 8 sun time. He called attention to the magistrate's previous decision by which bars were regulated by sun time.

Mr. Fisher contended that the waterworks regulations being local bylaws, the time stipulated in them was local.

The Magistrate—I will fine you, Mr. Gibbons, if you will make a test case of it.

Mr. Gibbons thought the matter too small.

The magistrate reserved decision and went on with the others. A great deal of amusement was caused by the fact that every gentleman knew the exact time his service was in use, and that in every case, except two, the sprinkling was done before 8:27, city time, which is 8 sun time. Some blamed the women folks for it; some pleaded ignorance of the law; one was showing how a new nozzle worked, and most of them were, of course, unaware it was after 8 o'clock.

As another batch of cases are due next week, the magistrate reserved decision until then on those who claimed they were not using water after 8:27, as follows: Geo. W. Sanborn, J. W. Bartlett, Wm. McDonough, J. Laughlin, Chas. J. Ashton, ex-Ald. Hannah, Thos. Gray, the Dean of Huron, John W. Cowan, City Treasurer Pope, V. Cronyn, Wm. Payne, P. J. McGill and Dean Dignan (St. Andrew's Church lawn), and A. G. Chisholm.

The cases against ex-Ald. Wilkie and H. Brown were found proven.

"The mayor may try me," said the magistrate.
