9521—A Pretty Nightdress.—Ladies' Nightdress With Yoke.

New York Gunman Taken in Detroit

Horowitz, Wanted For Murder, Was Trailed For Some Weeks.

Detroit, May 15. — Clever work on the part of Lieutenant Lally and Detectives Wilkinson and Dowd resulted in the capture here last evening of Horowitz, one of New York's most famous gunmen, for whom the sleuths of the country have been looking for more than a month.

Early in the afternoon, Detective Gorevan, of New York, and Detective O'Reilly, of Toledo, came into the office of Lieutenant Lally and showed him a picture of Horowitz, said to be a cousin of "Gyp the Blood," whose name is also Horowitz, and asked that they be given the assistance of a Detroit detective.

Five minutes afterward Detectives Wilkinson and Dowd walked in with Horowitz, whom they had picked up on the street. Identification was completed by the New York officers. Horowitz is wanted in Gotham for murder.

Says Toronto Values Are Much Inflated

Sir Robert Perks Thinks Canadian Workmen Invest Better Than British.

[Canadian Press.]

Montreal, May 15.—"Even if values are inflated and much money is being uselessly tied up, the Canadian wage-earner who invests in town lots is spending on a much sounder basis than the man who puts a large share of his money into the publichouse and on the race course," says Sir Robert Perks, the eminent English engineer, as he left for Boston this morning after a two-weeks' visit to Canada.

Sir Robert declared that inside property in Toronto with nothing in particular to recommend it, was being sold as high as the best property in Lombard street in the heart of London's business district, or on Bond street, the most fashionable of the residential streets in London's West End.

"But," he said, "I do not say that this speculation offers any real danger to the economic progress of the Dominion, however. Your worknig people have large savings, and are not accustomed to spend a large proportion in gambling and drinking, as our English people do, so that land of any kind is better than this other investment."

CHATHAM FIRE IS STILL A MYSTERY

Inquest Into Blaze in Newspaper Office Which Cost Two Lives.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Chatham, May 15.—The mystery of the fire which wiped out the Chatham Planet and cost the lives of two of its employees, will probably never be solved.

The jury, which last night under Coroner Charteris, investigated the deaths of the two victims, Alex. McDougall and Robert Birch, brought in a verdict that death was due to suffocation.

All Planet employees called corroborated one another regarding the location in which the fire was first discovered. They all agreed that the flames were first noticed in the stockroom by the elevator shaft. There were no electric wires in the immediate vicinity, although several were strung on the ceiling of the first floor not a great distance away.

That the two men who were employed in the composing room on the second floor could easily have escaped by way of a shed at the rear of the building was the opinion of the witnesses called, and this testimony serves to strengthen the belief that they must have left their places at the rear and were overcome with the smoke, and later burned to death.

LEGAL QUERIES

KINCARDINE.—Our town has been put to a new election by the resignation of the reeve. This vacancy a member of the council thought of filling, and resigned. This necessitated a new councilman to fill the vacancy. Is Judge Middleton's decision applicable to the town of Kincardine, where he says: "Section 215 (a) provides in the case of a vacancy in the office, of aldermen in a city, occasioned by death or resignation, or by any cause, where the aldermen are elected by a general vote, the unsuccessful candidate, who receives the highest number of votes in the last municipal election, shall be entitled to the office"? Ans.—Kincardine is a town, not a city and the vacancies are filled by a new election as provided by section 212.

RATEPAYER, KINCARDINE. — Can a member of a firm which takes contracts from a town legally hold the position of reeve or councilman? Ans.—No, but a clerk or other individual engaged by a company doing or taking contracts from municipalities may become a legal member of the council.

Twenty-two years ago China and Japan supplied all the Tea consumed in Canada. "The 'Salada' Tea Company at that time, commenced the introduction of British grown Teas, with the result that last year, of the thirty-nine million pounds of tea imports, thirty-two millions came from Ceylon and India, and nearly one-quarter of all the teas sold in the Dominion was sold in "Salada" sealed lead packets.

The moral is: If you have a good thing with which to serve the public—advertise it.

Fear Trouble Over Quinlan's Conviction

Striking Silk Workers May Clash With Paterson Authorities.

[Canadian Press.]

Paterson, N. J., May 15. — Relations between the city and county authorities and the striking silk mill workers, strained at all times, since the start of the strike two months ago, were made more acute today by the fact of the conviction of Patrick Quinlan, the Industrial Workers of the World leader, found guilty of inciting riot.

He will be sentenced probably tomorrow and faces a maximum penalty of seven years in prison and a fine of $2,000. He is perhaps the most conspicuous leader of the Industrial Workers of the World ever convicted of a similar or kindred offence in this country.

Four other leaders of the organization are yet to be tried for inciting riot. They are: "Big Bill" Haywood, Elizabeth Gurley Flynn, Carlo Treska and Adolph Lessig. According to present plans of the prosecutor the next defendant to face the bar will be Treska. His trial will start a week from Monday.

Quinlan is out on bail and his lawyers are making preparations for an appeal.

ENDED HER LIFE

Mrs. Chas. Schmidt Jumped Into the Rapids at Niagara.

Niagara Falls, N. Y., May 14.—Under the gaze of at least fifty men, women and children, Mrs. Chas. M. Schmidt, of N. 128 Woodward avenue, Buffalo, today threw off her coat, flung her purse from her and leaped into the American rapids a few feet above Prospect Point. As they looked helplessly on the woman was speedily swept over the brink to her death. For a time the body lodged on a rock, then it was swept out into the lower river and down the American shore, and disappeared at the spillway of the Niagara Falls Power Company's tunnel.

HIS DIFFICULTY.

The manufacturer observed an unusually expansive smile on the face of the jovial German foreman of his establishment. An interesting event had occurred at the house of the German the night before.

"I congratulate you, Hans," smilingly said the employer. "Of course, the new arrival is a wonder?"

"Of course," was the emphatic reply of the father. "Dis baby vays more and fifteen bounds."

"Splendid, and is it a boy or a gri?"

"Py golly," he exclaimed in chargin, "in der excitement I haf forgot to find out vedder I vos a grandfather or grandmudder."

BACK NUMBERS MISSING.

Bulkins was very pious, very fond of the ladies, and very bald on the back of his head. The other evening he was calling on a girl and was giving her considerable church talk.

"Ah, Miss Mary," he said, "we are watched over very carefully. Even the hairs of our heads are numbered."

"Yes, Mr. Bulkins," she replied, "but some of the back numbers of yours appear to be missing!"

The Easiest Way To Remove Fuzz

[Bourdoir Secrets.]

No longer is it necessary for women troubled with hair on face or arms to submit to the torturous electric needle, or experiment with injurious preparations, for powdered delatone, mixed with water to form a paste and spread on the hairy surface, will quickly remove every trace of hair or fuzz. After leaving the delatone on two or three minutes, it should be rubbed off and the skin washed. Not only will the hairs vanish, but the skin will be left white, soft and firm.

Eyebrows can be made to grow thick and glossy by rubbing a little pyroxin on each day. Short, straight eyelashes will come in long and have a beautiful curl if pyroxin is applied at lash-roots with thumb and forefinger. Be real careful and don't get any where no hair is wanted.

An Ideal Range

For three generations "Gurney-Oxford" has stood for progress in the art of stove manufacture.

The one-piece solid steel top allows five inches more space each way for cooking than other ranges, and is absolutely smooth without shaky shelves.

The caps on the burners, their pipes, all connections, oven linings and racks, can be removed by hand, thrown into boiling water, and perfectly cleansed.

Four 9-inch pies can bake at one time on each rack of the oven, and the double system of circulation insures thorough, even, and uniform cooking. No heat can escape through the doors, as they are double-lined and weighted to close by a counter-balancing device.

No leakage of gas from the taps is possible as they are connected in an exclusive manner of our own invention.

We will gladly demonstrate the features of this staunch and properly-constructed Gurney-Oxford range. Furniture Department, Third Floor.
