THE TORONTO WORLD.

SATURDAY MORNING, FEB. 14, 1885.

MR. TAYLOR ELECTED CHAIRMAN.

The Public Library Board for 1885 Duly Organized.

The public library board for 1885 was organized yesterday afternoon. It had been on the tapis for some time that John Taylor, one of the representatives of the city council, was to be elected chairman and the rumor proved correct. The election was by ballot and without nominations. Those present were Mayor Manning, Dr. Wright, Messrs. Taylor, Mills, Knowlton, Scully, Mason, Hallam and Boswell. On the first ballot Mr. Taylor received 5 votes, Dr. Wright 2 and Mr. Boswell 2. The standing committees were struck as follows, the first name in each receiving the chairmanship: Library committee—Knowlton, Wright, Boswell, Hallam. Finance—Mason, Mills, Scully, Wright. Building—Mills, Scully, Hallam, Mason. The new chairman, who has been on the board since its inception, thanked the meeting for the honor conferred on him. He said in the event of a branch library being established in Parkdale, he supposed the citizens in the extreme east-end would also request one.

A motion was offered by Mr. Boswell and carried directing that a return be laid on the table at the next meeting of the total number of employes in the library and its branches, their salaries, how long in the service and their daily hours of labor.

Remember the Bon Marche keeps open until 10 o'clock tonight.

Business Pointers.

One of America's greatest musical institutions is represented by the Dominion Organ and Piano company, Bowmanville. To prove this fact we have only to look at the number of prizes and diplomas won by this company in 1883 and 1884, a success unparalled and unequalled by any other company on the continent. Thorough workmanship, high-class musical talent, a life-long energy and unsparing expense combined, is alone accountable for the perfection of instruments the company turn out. Their Toronto agency is carried on at 64 King street west, under the supervision of Mr. Joseph Ruse, whose business ability, musical talent, affable manner and honest business principles have gained him the honor of representing this popular firm in our Queen city. Those requiring an organ or piano will do well to call at 64 King street west, Toronto.

Chapman Symons & Co., the popular Yonge street butchers, have a large assortment of meats, poultry, game, etc., etc, and at prices to suit everybody—"away down."

For solid comfort, everlasting wear and perfect fit in boots and shoes, go right to W. Pickles, 328 Yonge st., the noted house for great bargains.

In order to make room for spring goods, the Bowmanville Furniture company, 5 King street east, are now clearing out their present stock at "cost price." This chance is only for a few days, and the goods being of newest design and first class quality, those purchasing may rely on getting bargains seldom to be met with.

A Chance for Sportsmen.

On Tuesday next, at 3.30 in the afternoon, the popular auctioneers, Messrs. C. M. Henderson & Co., will offer for sale at the Veterinary college that capital hunting and saddle horse Mohawk, 6 yrs., by Judge Durell, winner of several races and a clever jumper. His race last fall, when he so handsomely beat the cracks Grey Friar, Fleurette and Repeater, will be fresh in the memory of all. Mohawk is a handsome brown gelding well up to weight and constituted to carry anyone over fences and ditches after the hounds in good style. There will also be offered at the same time Captain Lysons' celebrated prize winning fox-terriers Vakeel, Village Belle, Thorn, Spy and four puppies by Vakeel out of Village Belle, besides the English terrier dog Hornet, the bull terrier dog Pilot, the pointer Duck, the cocker spaniel bitch Gipsy, and the bull terrier Turk. Included in this list are some of the best dogs in Canada, and being in good condition offer an excellent opportunity to judges to possess themselves of excellent specimens of their classes, either for show or private purposes. Captain Lysons having been summoned for active service in Egypt, both horse and dogs must be sold without reserve.

Five Disorderly Sisters.

Sarah McLean was in the police court yesterday charged with keeping a disorderly house at 70 Elm street, and her married sisters—Mary Blackwell, Lizzie Byron, Isabella Cochrane and Catharine Martin—with being frequenters. It was stated on Mrs. McLean's behalf that her sisters persisted in coming to her house against her will, getting drunk and raising rows. The magistrate imposed a nominal fine of $1 and costs upon McLean, and fined Byron and Martin each $20 or sixty days in prison, and Blackwell and Cochrane $10 or thirty days.

Ladies, don't forget that the Bon Marche are opening new goods daily and are offering them at less than any house in town. No trouble to show goods and prices.

Go to the Zoo To-Night.

The Zoo to-night will present a scene only second to the Montreal carnival. The ice palace will be brilliantly illuminated and fireworks under the management of Professor Hand will be let off in showers. The climax of the evening's entertainment will be the grand storming scene, in which a detachment of Arabs will defend the fort against an assault by British soldiers. The palace will finally be captured, and the mahdi hanged in effigy will bring the amusement to a fitting conclusion.

Oriental lace in the new coffee color just opened and offering at 20c a yard at the Bon Marche.

A Tax on the Grand Trunk.

The rival American lines of the Grand Trunk, it is said, propose to make an inroad upon the finances of the Grand Trunk system by petitioning congress to oblige the Grand Trunk to pay taxes for all business done within the domain of the United States, claiming that a foreign road is as much indebted to the United States in the way of taxes and duties as any foreign shipping company or other enterprise. It is taken for granted that such an act would cause the Michigan Central to pay heavily for running its Canada Southern division through Canada.

CRACK BILLIARDISTS IN THE CITY.

Schaeffer and Wallace Exhibit to a Sparse Audience in Albert Hall.

Only about 100 people gathered at Albert hall to witness the exhibition game of billiards between Jacob Schaeffer, the champion of America, and Thos. Wallace, another celebrated player. The game was 500 points up, under the rules of the champion's game. Schaeffer and Wallace did not reach the city until 8.30 last night, and they looked as though they had passed through one of the late snow hurricanes in Michigan. They were three days getting from Chicago, and they started last night's game with low spirits and empty stomachs. Of course it was no trick for Schaeffer to win, and when he finished his 500 points, Wallace had 392 to his credit. Schaeffer's highest run was 69 and Wallace's 53. After and during the game the audience was electrified with a number of skillful shots by the champion. Samuel May and Mr. Higgins of the Rossin house billiard room escorted the players to the Rossin after the game. Charles Schaeffer, brother of Jacob, and A. A. Newland of Chicago accompany them.

Wallace Ross, George H. Hosmer, Fred. Plaisted and Geo. W. Lee are going to row in the New Orleans regatta—that is if a good purse is in the foreground. Ross is now at St. John, Plaisted and Hosmer in Boston, and Lee at Newark, N.J.

The oldest curling club in Scotland is that of Kilsyth and Kirkintilloch, which was instituted in 1716, and there are now only 21 clubs in existance connected with the Caledonian Grand Curling club which date from the last century, all belonging to what may be called the lower midland counties.

Princess, 5 yrs., with 118 lbs. up was beaten at New Orleans Feb. 7 in a mile and seventy yards race by Kansas, aged, by Chillicothe, 90 lbs., Leroy, 4 yrs., by Allen Pinkerton, 105 lbs., and Capt. Warren, 6 yrs., by West Roxbury, 95 lbs. After leading almost from the start her weight told on her in the last 200 yards. She started a big favorite.

"Lacrosse" v. "Non-Lacrosse" members of the Granite rink.—The oyster supper in connection with this game, played last Saturday, will come off to-night (Saturday) at the club rooms. As the match resulted in a tie, those of the members who did not play will be on the same footing as those who did. A good program of songs, addresses, recitations, etc., is to be presented.

Jack Burke said to a Chicago reporter yesterday: "Paddy Ryan says he will not spar with me under any consideration, and that Sullivan is the only man that he will spar with. Should he lose a match with me he would be at the bottom of the ladder, while should he lose against Sullivan it would not affect his reputation very materially. He has made a reputation in a very cheap way and doesn't propose to run any chances of losing it. There isn't a little bit of fight in him."
