BRAMPTON'S NEW CURLING RINK.

Will Be Opened This Week—Toronto Teams Will Compete.

Brampton, Jan. 16.—(Special.)—The new curling rink at Brampton is to be opened on Thursday and Friday of this week. One unique feature of the opening will be a game with the Ontario Curling Association. Four rinks are expected.

In theevening there will be another match with four representative rinks from western clubs. Refreshments will be served in the banquet room Friday evening, when there will be a match with four rinks from four of the Toronto clubs.

The new rink is a fine building, splendidly lighted, with fine waiting rooms, and is a great credit to the town. It speaks well for the enterprise of the clubs.

Curling To-Morrow.

The single-rink competition for the Canada Life Trophy will be continued to-morrow night, when the committee expects to clean up the first round. Ten have already reached the second round, and the 22 scheduled to retire on Thursday will leave an even 32, showing the beauties of the Bagnall-Wyld system of drawing. Cold weather is again promised, and good ice should be produced everywhere by to-morrow night.

To-Night's Senior Game.

There will be a game to-night at the Mutual-street rink in the senior series between the Marlboros and Argonauts. Good ice is expected. The champions will have on their strongest team, Tyner, Brown, and Winchester having been prevailed upon to play. The scullers will play the team that defeated Midland, and expect to repeat to-night. The game will be called at 8.15. The plan will be at the rink all day. The teams:

Cured her Father's Drunkenness by a Simple Remedy.

Saves her father from a drunkard's grave. Free sample of Samaria Tasteless Prescription checks his drinking and leads to a complete cure.

"It seemed hopeless to keep father from drinking, and we all felt the disgrace. When things were at their worst a friend advised me to try Samaria. I saw that you offered a free sample treatment and that the remedy was tasteless and could be given secretly. I determined to try it, and, have been glad every day since. The full treatment, which I gave him in his tea, cured him, and I am pleased to say he never touches whiskey now. How glad I am that I wrote you and how happy we all are together Father says that he could never have stopped drinking of his own accord."

Free Package and pamphlet giving full particulars, testimonials and price sent in plain sealed envelope. Correspondence sacredly confidential. Address: THE SAMARIA REMEDY CO., 99 Jordan Chambers Jordan St., Toronto, Canada.

Also for sale by George A. Bingham, 100 Yonge-street, and at Kendall's Pharmacy, 1466 West Queen-street.

You Enjoy Curing a Cold
—AT—
Cook's New Turkish Baths

More people have benefited by Cook's Turkish Baths this winter than ever before—it is a positive fact that a fresh cold can be broken up by a couple of hours here and an attack of grip can be avoided.

When you have that shivery, achy feeling come here, and you will not only break up the cold and help your rheumatism, but you will enjoy the bath.

You can stay all night, have an appetizing supper served in our cosy Turkish lounging-rooms, a good bed in a quiet room and be like a new person in the morning.

Price $1.00, day or night.

Cook's Turkish Baths,
202-204 King St. W., Toronto.

Pittsburg Won Final.

Duquesne Garden, Pittsburg, Jan. 16.—(Special.)—Pittsburg and Canadian Soo played the final game of their series here to-night, and it was by far the best of the three, the first half being very fast. Pittsburg had the most stay and won, 9 to 3. The work of Spittal and Taylor on the Soo team was a feature. The game was clean and the half-dozen penalties were for minor offences. Line-up:

Attendance—2000. Referee—Schooley.

Varsity on the 19th and 20th will meet two strong teams in Interscholastic Stars and Carnegie Technical. They will have to bring a good team and need not expect a walkover.

Varsity Rugby Dinner.

The Varsity Rugby football champions were banqueted by the Athletic Association at McConkey's last night. The feature of
