ETHELBERT'S REALIZATION.

Belmont's Odds-On Favorite Wins Rich Stake on Closing Day at Sheepshead Bay.

MESMERIST WINS DOUBLE EVENT

Brennan's Alfred C. Turns a Trick in the Welland Stakes at Fort Erie.

New York, July 4.—This was getaway day at Sheepshead Bay and the crowd at the track was bigger than any other since the Suburban, at least 20,000 people being present, most of them drawn by the rich Realization Stakes for 3-year-olds, at a mile and five furlongs. All the good 3-year-olds, except Filigrane and Jean Bereud, were eligible. Out of these, five elected to go to the post, with Ethelbert a pronounced favorite. In the first break Half Time stumbled, threw his jockey and ran a mile at top speed before he was caught. After some delay they again went out and this time the flag fell, with Filon d'Or in front, Ethelbert next and The Bouncer following. As they came sailing down the stretch, the jockeys were lying low on their horses' neck for the wind was blowing a gale up the track and their speed was greatly retarded thereby. As they passed the grand stand half a mile of the distance had been run in 50 2-5 seconds and Filon d'Or was half a length in front of Ethelbert, he a length in front of Bouncer and all going well, in spite of the half gale that was impeding them. They reached the five furlong mark in 1.03 3-5 and then for a short time the wind was behind them and Spencer took a good hold of Ethelbert and got a length (the best of Filon d'Or as they rounded the lower turn. Turner and O'Leary then began driving Lothario and Filon d'Or in a vain attempt to catch Ethelbert. As they came up to the upper turn, which marked the end of the mile, 1.44 1-5 had been clicked off on the watches and Ethelbert, under wraps, was still a length to the good. Next came Filon d'Or, two lengths in front of The Bouncer, both being urged by their riders, while Lothario was fourth and Half Time hopelessly beaten. The mile and a quarter on the upper turn and the last bit of the race with fair wind was reached in 2.10 by Ethelbert, but Spencer had concluded that it was time for him to clinch the race and he loosed his horse's head and easily left the others. They came into the stretch, Ethelbert gaining with every jump, and a furlong from home he was half a dozen lengths in the lead and in spite of the fact that Spencer took a steadying pull on him, he won by a dozen lengths, while Lothario got the place by a couple of lengths.

KUNTZSCH THROWS SPONGE

Syracuse Plays Holiday Baseball and Then Quits the Eastern League.

NEWARK MAY REPLACE STARS

Double-Headers Everywhere — Toronto Wins and Loses at Rochester.

George N. Kuntzsch telegraphed President Powers from Syracuse last night that he surrenders the Syracuse franchise in the Eastern League. Mr. Kuntzsch paid up his players to July 1. He has sold Malarkey to Utica, expects to sell Lush to Montreal and has offered Albany, Schenectady and Binghamton the others. Dixon, Winters and Woodlock will probably be sold to the State League teams. Mr. Kuntzsch offers to give his franchise and team to anyone who will finish the season in Syracuse. As he has lost money regularly since the season opened it is not probable that the offer will be accepted. Newark will probably take the franchise.

Double-headers were the order yesterday across the line, being the 4th of July. Montreal worked in three at Syracuse, winning two in the afternoon, and replacing Worcester at the top. Toronto broke even in a pair of close games at Rochester. The Islanders play an exhibition game in Hamilton this afternoon. The record:

	Won.	Lost.	P.C.
Montreal	30	22	.577
Worcester	29	22	.568
Springfield	26	22	.541
Rochester	27	24	.529
Toronto	28	25	.528
Hartford	27	28	.490

Eastern League Morning Games.

Rochester, July 4.—Rochester lost this morning's game with Toronto in a contest which was full of good, lively play. Both pitchers were well supported and did some excellent work with the sphere. At Syracuse: The Stars beat the champions in the morning at Star Park in a good game. Felix was hit hard. Farmer Brown was a puzzle, and had it not been for wildness he would have kept the game from ever being in doubt. When the game finished, Schiebeck was on second, where he rested, while Lush and Winters captured long flies that looked like more than singles. The Stars' fielding was generally rather ragged. At Syracuse—Syracuse played and lost two games between showers before a crowd of about 1500 people in the afternoon. The champions won handily in each game, hitting MacFarland freely at all times in the first, and Villeman less frequently, but often enough, in the second. The Syracuse men, discouraged by their uncertain prospects for continuing in the game, played listless ball.

The second game was not started until 4.30, owing to the showers that made the first game long. It was quite as listless and uninteresting as the first, the only question about the result being whether five innings could be played out before dark. The Stars were never in the game. First game:

At Worcester: Up to the seventh innings in the afternoon, Providence was away ahead, and it looked like a sure victory for them, but the Farmers rallied and knocked Braun out of the box, and then the visitors won out in the ninth. Score:

The Three Hundred Hitters.

According to The Worcester Telegram Eastern League figures, all the Toronto players except Beaumont have batted over the .300 mark, up to last Saturday, and the wonder is that they do not lead the bunch. Four of the new-comers lead the league in batting. Included in the quartet of leaders is Cassidy, who has been farmed to Providence by Washington, the Cassidy who last year led the league at the finish with an average of .385, made in 65 games played with Providence. Another of the leaders is Walter Curley, an old Holy Cross man, who came up from the University of Virginia to play with Springfield, and has been hitting out an average of .422.

Of the day-in-and-day-out players, the men who have been with the league sufficiently long to test their true worth, Jud Smith, Toronto's third baseman, stands at the top with an average of .363. He is hard pressed by Capt. Carr of the Worcesters, who is only 1 point behind. Kuhns of the Worcesters follows Carr, while Smink of the Rochesters has tumbled slightly from his lofty position and is now down in 10th place.

Here are the figures of the .300 hitters:

	At bat	Base hits	Two base hits	Three base hits	Home runs	Total bases	Average
