YOUNG WIFE IS MISSING

W. Watson Says She's Gone Away With One of the Roomers.

HAMILTON, Aug. 29.—(Special.)—One of Hamilton's one-time best known hotelkeepers died this morning in the person of Andrew Dillon, 307 North Macnab-street. He was 66 years of age.

This afternoon, Thos. Crooks' auto collided with a street car near the entrance to Dundurn Park. The chauffeur was turning the auto around when the car ran into it, breaking the axle of the machine. No one injured.

While she was on her way home last night, Mrs. Stormant, Crooks-street, was chased by Wilmot Davis, 307 North James-street, who had followed her for some distance. She says the man hugged her. The police were sent for and Davis was arrested.

Fred Asbaugh, 292 East Cannon-street, and E. Geary, 2 Argue-street, were arrested on Saturday night on charges of acting disorderly on a Brantford and Hamilton car.

John Young of this city, who was elected high chief ranger of the A.O.F., at Sarnia, was given an enthusiastic reception by the local members Saturday night. A procession headed by the Highlanders Band, marched thru the principal streets.

Mrs. Isabella Johnson, 130 Market-street, died to-day, aged 83.

Chas. Newberry had a narrow escape from being killed by an electric shock at Dundas.

While trying to board a street car at King William and James-streets on Saturday night, Chas. Halliday, 209 East Main-street, fell and broke one of his legs.

Magistrate Jelfs is going to register a complaint with the provincial authorities because insane people committed to the asylum, are kept in the city jail for months at a time before being removed to the institution.

Chas. Stewart, secretary to Mayor McLaren, is anxious for the safety of his brother Frank and his wife, who were passengers on the steamer Ohio, wrecked in Alaska.

W. Watson, 107 Charles-street, is bemoaning the absence of his wife, who he says went away with a roomer named Hines. She is only 19 years of age and has been married twice. Watson is forty, with a wife in the States.

John Taylor and A. Wright, have issued writs against the Dominion Tar and Ammonia Company for damages for the drowning of their sons in a swamp on some vacant property owned by the company last January.

ONE KILLED IN RAILWAY CRASH

G.T.R. Chicago Express Collided With Work Train.

CAPAC, Mich., Aug. 29.—Rushing along at a rate of 60 miles an hour the Grand Trunk express, running from Chicago to Port Huron, collided with the rear end of a work train at 1 o'clock yesterday morning. The fireman, John Brush, of Battle Creek, was instantly killed and three others were injured.

The accident occurred without warning. Brush attempted to jump, but was pinned between the cab and boiler of his locomotive. James McCaren, engineer, also tried to jump, but was caught in the wreckage and loses a leg.

The other two injured were John Sturman, fireman on the engine on the work train, and D. H. Rathman, engineer.

Just the Man for the Stunt.

SUMMIT, N.J., Aug. 29.—Antonio Sylvia, a laborer employed by John J. McGrath, sat on a limb and sawed it off between himself and the tree. He fell thirty feet and landed on his head. But he has the kind of a head that goes with that kind of a trick and he wasn't much hurt.

"GOLDEN DART" READY FOR FLIGHT TO-NIGHT

Willard's Biplane a Marvel of Lightness and Simplicity—Aviator Confident.

The aviators at Scarboro Beach were busy all day Sunday setting up the Golden Dart and making all ready for a flight this evening about sundown.

The Golden Dart is of the biplane type. The "planes," which are really not planes at all, but surfaces, concave on the under side, and convex on the upper, much the shape of a bird's wing, are about 30 feet across and four and one-half feet long. These are placed about five feet apart and directly above the other, well braced, with the engine, and the operator's seat in the centre between them. There is a pair of small horizontal planes in front, which direct the machine up or down, and a small vertical plane in the rear, which steers the machine, in the same manner as a rudder steers a ship. The aviator sits on a canvas seat with a wooden steering wheel in his hands. An ingenious device is used to give the necessary tilt to the aeroplane when making a turn. A light frame in the shape of a fork fits over the aviator's shoulders, which is connected with small tilting planes placed between the forward outside ends of the main planes. As a turn is made the aviator naturally leans to the inside of the curve, and this automatically tilts the machine to the required angle.

The propeller which drives this aeroplane is most surprising in its simplicity. It looks very much like the blades of two large canoe paddles fastened together, handle ends in, the blades being turned at a slight angle to each other. This is fastened directly to the end of the engine shaft and is driven round 1300 times per minute. When the machine is held stationary and the engine is running this creates a breeze of about 80 miles per hour.

The engine is a marvel of lightness and efficiency. It is of the four-cylinder, vertical, water corled type, the same as used in automobiles, but much lighter in every part.

A runway has been prepared in the park, on which the aeroplane will get up speed previous to rising.

The machine is equipped with three small pneumatic tired wheels, on which it runs before taking the air. About 50 yards run on the ground is sufficient to get up speed and the machine gracefully rises from the ground.

The speedway has been laid out leading directly to the water, and stands as an evidence of the confidence of the aviators that the aeroplane will rise before it reaches the brink. In case of a failure the driver will surely get a wetting.

Heintzman & Co. Player-Piano.

People of fine musical taste; pianists who can speak with exact knowledge, are saying many kind things of the new player-piano that is being manufactured by Heintzman & Co., Ltd., 115-117 King-street west. An exhibit is being made at the Canadian National Exhibition, and also at the firm's warerooms.

Judge's Offer to Prisoner.

ST. JOHN, N. B., Aug. 29.—(Special.)—George Merissis, who was found guilty of selling Free Speech, an obscene publication, was sentenced by Judge Forbes to three months in jail and a fine of $300. The judge intimated that if the prisoner would assist the authorities in the suppression of the paper he would commute the sentence.
