Pains in the Joints

Caused by Inflammatory Swelling

A Perfect Cure by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"It affords me much pleasure to recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla. My son was afflicted with great pain in the joints, accompanied with swelling so bad that he could not get up stairs to bed without crawling on hands and knees. I was very anxious about him, and having read so much about Hood's Sarsaparilla, I determined to try it, and got a half-dozen bottles, four of which entirely cured him." MRS. G. A. LAKE, Oshawa, Ontario.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Cures

N. B. Be sure to get Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Hood's Pills act easily, yet promptly and efficiently, on the liver and bowels. 25c.

THE REPORTER

My Daughter's Learned to Cook.

We used to have old fashioned things, like hominy and greens;
We used to have just common soup, made out of pork and beans.
But now its bouillion, consomme and things made from a book,
And pot au feu and Julienne, since my daughter's learned to cook.

We used to have a piece of beef—just ordinary meat—
And pickled pigs' feet, spareribs, too, and other things to eat.
While now it's fillet, and ragout, and leg of mutton braised,
And macaroni au gratin, and Sheep's head Hollandaised.
Escallops a la Versailes—a la this and a la that.
And sweet bread a la Dieppoise—it's enough to kill a cat!
But while I suffer deeply, I invariably look
As if I were delighted 'cause my daughter's learned to cook.

We have a lot of salad things, with dressing mayonnaise,
In place of oysters, Blue Points, fricasseed a dozen ways,
And orange roly poly, float, and peach meringue, alas,
Enough to wreck a stomach that is made of plated brass!
The good old things have passed away, in silent, sad retreat.
We've lots of highfaluting things, but nothing much to eat.
And, while I never say a word and always pleasant look,
You bet I've had dyspepsia since my daughter learned to cook.

COUNTY NEWS.

INTERESTING LETTERS FROM OUR STAFF OF CORRESPONDENTS.

A Budget of News and Gossip. Personal Intelligence.—A Little of Every thing well Mixed up.

PORTLAND.

SATURDAY, April 20.—Misses Hanna and Sara Rodgers, students of the Athens High school, spent their Easter vacation at their home here.

James Rape is now able to be out.

Miss Addison Harrison is slowly recovering from a severe attack of diptheria.

Dr. Lillie, dentist, has paid his semi-annual visit,

We regret to chronicle the death of Mr. R. Cauley, who passed peacefully away on the 19th inst., after a long and patient suffering. He was a kind husband and a loving father and leaves a wife and four small children to mourn his loss. His remains were placed in the R. C. cemetery at Toledo.

Easter exams. next week.

HARD ISLAND.

SATURDAY, April 20.—Farmers have commenced ploughing.

Fishermen gather in immense numbers around booming camp-fires on the well known fishing grounds, where between swapping yarns and catching suckers they oftimes tarry until the dawn of day.

P. H. Robeson appears to be the most successful bee-keeper of our hamlet, having wintered twenty-one colonies without the loss of one and reports them all in good condition. Owing to the rapid increase anticipated, he has concluded to reduce his stock and is offering choice colonies for three dollars each. This would be a good investment for some of our boys and girls.

W. W. Robeson left on Monday for Munster to resume the management of the large cheese-factory at that place, where he has been stationed for a number of years.

The sap bushes have been abandoned by the farmers, but we presume will soon appear bedecked with gaudy flowers and will then become a favorite resort for high school girls, humming birds and butterflies.

Our genial friend, Mr. J. K. Redmond of the west end, is again selling agricultural implements. Owing to his extensive experience in the business, we feel safe in saying that farmers will do well to give him a call before purchasing.

WILTSETOWN.

MONDAY, April 22.—Miss A. R. Rowsom has returned to Brockville after spending Easter holidays at her home here.

Miss E. A. Steacy still continues on the sick list.

Miss Lottie Curran of Coldwater, Mich., is the guest of her cousin, Alexena Earl.

Mr. James Alguire has erected a new house this spring.

LYN.

MONDAY, April 22.—Another of our old residents passed away last week in the person of Mrs. Raymond. A year ago she had a paralytic stroke but recovered so far as to be able to go about, until on Monday evening last she had another and sank until Thursday noon when she died.

Wallace Nicholson and wife are visiting Mr. Robert Widdis, her father, who is very ill.

Mrs. Martin Hunt has returned after spending the winter with her son at Syracuse, N. Y.

Miss Jennie Raymond is home from Chicago, on account of the death of her mother.

Peter Pergau has commenced building his new house on the Demming lot. Pity we did not have some more men like Peter.

James McNish of Elm Grove farm is very ill.

The death of Henry Robinson of Hallecks was quite a shock to the people of the village. His youngest son is now lying at the point of death.

ELBE MILLS.

MONDAY, April 22.—Our cheese factory opened on April 5th, with Mr. Chas. Wing as foreman.

Our sugar season this year is short but sweet.

We can judge how the young man feels after eating two dozen eggs on Easter.

Some of our youths spent a very enjoyable evening at Mr. T. C. Brown's and report lots of sugar.

Miss Pierce of Athens is a guest at Cherry Hill.

Mr. J. Besley has been engaged as foreman with the east end farmer.

And thou, serenest moon,
That with such lovely face
Dost look upon my mill
Asleep in night's embrace,—
Tell me, in all thy round,
Hast thou not seen some spot
Where weary machine agents
Might find a happier lot?
Behind a cloud the moon withdrew
And in a voice, sweet but sad, responded "no".

Mr. Wilbert Phelps of Philipsville was the guest of Mr. W. C. Brown last week.

Quite a number from Elbe attended the funeral of Mrs. B. Towriss at Glen Buell. The Rev. Mr. Hagar preached the sermon, taking for his text Rev. 14, 13.

GREENBUSH.

MONDAY, April 22.—Sugar-making is over and people are gathering their sap buckets.

Our cheese factory opens to-day with Mr. Davis in charge assisted by Mr. D. Fenlong.

Mr. Earnest Loverin has gone from amongst us and and will spend the summer in Forfar learning to make cheese.

We are pleased to hear that Miss Kietha Blanchard who has been on the sick list for the past two weeks, is much better. Dr. S. S. Cornell in attendance.

Mr. Ed. Smith entertains a new "royal guest" at his fireside. It's a girl.

We would think it nothing more than fair if your Addison correspondent would attend the public doings of his village before trying to report thereon. His information must have been more remote than second hand when he got "sugar social" changed to "toe social" and "literary concert to "resurrection concert".

It is to be hoped it wasn't on Easter Sunday night he wrote his news for the Reporter and so got things mixed.

Mr. Will Kerr is spending a few days with his uncle Mr. Thos. Kerr.

Easter was remembered by the ladies of our church some of them bringing plants and flowers, but the display was very small when we consider the number of successful amateur florists we have amongst us.

TOLEDO.

MONDAY, April 22.—Sugar making is over and the farmers have started their spring work.

Mr. Derbyshire, our general merchant, has taken in over 1,500 gallons of syrup this year.

Mrs. Noah Marshall is still on the sick list.

Dr. Ferguson, our new doctor, is meeting with great success.

Toledo people were greatly excited last week over the disappearance and strange death of Miss Stevenson of Frankville.

It looks as if Mr. John Foster was going to destroy the looks of Toledo the way he is moving and tearing down buildings but we live in hopes of seeing great improvements in a short time.

A dangerous yet laughable scene took place here on Friday last when a team belonging to Mr. A. Parker of Frankville broke loose from his wagon and while running away through the village they met with a washing machine agent who had a horse and wagon. As he did not get out of their road one horse took each side of the wagon and tried to get past in this way. There was a lively time for a while but the men soon got the tangle unravelled, and the agent came off safe with only a sore hip and a lost hat.

It is with very deep regret that we announce the death of an old and respected resident in the person of Mrs. Geo. Coad, who passed away peacefully on Friday forenoon last. Her funeral took place on Sunday in the Methodist church and was conducted by the Rev. G. H. Porter after which her remains were laid to rest in the Toledo cemetery.

While the funeral sermon of the late Mrs. Geo. Coad was being preached the congregation was somewhat disturbed by the cry of fire and when some of the men went out it was found that the home of Mrs. J. Smith was on fire. Every effort was made to save the building but inside of an hour the building was burned to the ground. However the household furniture and summer kitchen were saved by the united efforts of the men. The fire started from a chimney which was burning out at the time and as the timber was old and dry the fire got a good start before anything could be done. Let this be a lesson to the people of Toledo to see that their chimneys are always in a good condition.

ELGIN.

MONDAY, April 20.—Chas. Alford left last week for Ennisville, where he intends to make cheese.

Some of the grandmothers of the section are sickly.

Miss Caroline Holladay went to Brockville as a witness on one of the cases.

Easter services were held in the church by Mr. Reynolds. Some infants as well as adults were baptised.

The butter factory opened last week. The cheese factories of the surrounding section have begun operations for the season. Mr. S. Halladay has put a new boiler in his factory.

R. Preston of Chantry was the guest of his sister, Mrs. George Halladay.

A new society of Epworth League is being organized here.

The insurance society of Chosen Friends are trying to start a lodge.

House cleaning is the question of the day.

Among the sick are Mr. and Mrs. Harvey and Mrs. Wing.

Rev. Mr. Betts of Brockville occupied the pulpit on the 21st in the M. E. Church.

As a man walked down street Tuesday evening, it was fortunate for him that he was neither nervous nor superstitious. Had he been, he witnessed a sight which would have made his blood run cold. As he stood on the sidewalk, a white steed rushed by with the speed generally ascribed to an inhabitant of the lower regions and accompanied by the most unearthly noise ever heard by mortal ears. The animal was profusely adorned with cans, pans, pots, kettles and bells, and as if to quicken his pace the boom of the anvil rang out on the evening air. Such was the energy of the frightened beast that he was full two miles away before he ceased the gallop. He was closely followed by his owner who, after a muddy tramp of two hours, recaptured the beast, none the worse for having taken an active part in the celebration of one of the recent weddings. It was only a charivari.

PLUM HOLLOW.

MONDAY, April 22.—The snow-white mantle has entirely disappeared and with it sugar-making.

The suckers are running now and you will see the boys tramping up and down the creek with their spears.

We hear that Mr. Frank Kilborn is about to leave us but we hope you will come back once and a while "Francis."

Mr. Wm. Duncan and his daughter of Newboro were the guests of C. A. Kincaid last week.

The cheese factory is now running full blast.

A Sad Death.

Miss Stephenson, a young lady eighteen years of age, daughter of the rector of the English church at Toledo, met with her death in a strange and sad way last week. She went for a walk on Tuesday afternoon and failing to return by 10 p. m. her friends became alarmed for her safety. Enquiry failed to reveal her whereabouts and a searching party was instituted early next morning but all efforts to discover her that day failed. She was last seen on the bridge that spans the creek, so that the searchers rightly inferred that she had followed its course and perhaps entered the woods. Traces of her devious way were found in swamp and woods and fields, but when night fell the weary searchers were obliged to return home, disheartened. Next morning at break of day a large number of men assembled, prepared to line out and search every foot of the country. Just as they started, Mr. Running and Constable Richards discovered the body of the unfortunate girl. She had reached the line fence between the Parker and Coad farms, within a few yards of succor and safety, when she fell exhausted. She had been dead apparently some hours. An inquest held by Dr. Vaux failed to elicit any evidence of foul play, the doctors testifying that her death was due solely to exposure. Deceased was near-sighted and it is probable that darkness came on sooner than she expected, resulting in her terrible sufferings and sad death.

This tragic event has profoundly moved the people of the whole community, who sympathise deeply with the family in their heavy affliction.

LOCAL SUMMARY.

ATHENS AND NEIGHBORING LOCALITIES BRIEFLY WRITTEN UP.

Events as Seen by Our Knight of the Pencil.—Local Announcement Boiled Right Down

Just arrived a car load of fine salt in barrels at G. W. Beach's.

The artesian feature of the Model school well has again developed.

Miss Jennie Hartwell spent Easter with friends in the Limestone City.

Oats are at a premium in Athens. It is almost impossible to obtain them at any price.

Sucker fishing is a favorite and fruitful pastime with many of our citizens this week.

Mrs. Wm. Gibson and daughter returned last week from Kingston where she had spent a week visiting friends.

Grey cotton 3c. yd., white cotton 5c. yd., ginghams 5c. yd., prints 5c. yd., shirting 6c. yd., at G. W. Beach's.

Ice is still very much in evidence at Charleston. It has commenced "shoving," and may be relied upon to move out this week.

Stockmen will be interested in learning that Mr Horace Slack, Charleston, is the possessor of the fine carriage horse, Young Duke of Edinburg.

Miss Sadie Johnston, of the Reporter staff, is in Brockville this week attending at the sick bed of her mother.

It required only a few of the sunny days of last week to place the macadamized roads in good condition for wheeling. A brisk trade on Saturday was one of the desirable results.

Mrs. (Dr.) Harte was successful at the assizes last week in her suit against the corporation of Brockville for injuries sustained by falling into an unprotected sewer, and was awarded $3,500 damages.

This week the Reporter will print a folder advertising Charleston Lake Inn (Rob't Foster, prop'r). It will contain a well-written description of the lake and the unparalleled fishing it affords. Secure a copy to send to a friend. Mr. Foster is making a strong bid for American visitors and has already every assurance of a full house.

The Athens Oddfellows played the "International Entertainers" here on Thursday last to a large house. The performers gave good satisfaction and were repeatedly encored. Miss Stevenson possesses a voice of great compass and rare sweetness and flexibility. She captivated the audience with her first selection and held their admiration to the close. Mr. Sim Fax was inimitably droll in his various songs and was heartily encored at each appearance. Mr. and Miss Ward proved themselves artists of marked ability and quite satisfied the expectations of all present. Before the close of the concert a motion returning thanks to the Oddfellows for devoting the proceeds of the entertainment to the fire company was moved by Rev. J. J. Cameron, seconded by Rev. J. A. Kennedy, submitted by Dr. Giles, and carried with enthusiasm.

Death of Mrs. McCaffery.

After a brief illness, Mrs. J. McCaffery died at her home, Mill st., on Friday last.

Mr. and Mrs. McCaffery came to this village from Easton's Corners about two years ago, and during her residence here deceased made a wide circle of warm friends and acquaintances, who deeply regret her early, unexpected demise, and whose hearts go out in the tenderest of human sympathy to the grief-stricken husband and daughter. The funeral took place on Saturday to Easton's Corners where the remains were interred.

The Queen's Birth Day.

The committee of St. James' church is actively organizing to hold a grand pic nic on the 24th May in Columbus Hall, at McIntosh Mills. The programme will be varied. A special orchestra will dispense the music, the latest comic songs by two young comedians who will visit in Wexford at that period, professional step-dancing to surpass anything ever advanced in this county. The Queen pic-nic will open at 1 p. m. and will contine to 10 p.m. Tea will be served from 6 to 7 p. m. The floor of the hall will be thoroughly waxed for the occasion. All the fashionable dances of the day will be the order of the occasion. Rain or shine, the pic-nic will be held; and hence the reason for having it in the hall. Special booth of confectionaries in the hall. Admission, 25 cts.—COM.

Four Generations of Royalty.

"Four generations of the Royal House of England" is the title of a handsome pamphlet just issued by the Dr. Williams Medicine Co. The cover is a work of art, and has admirably executed portraits of Queen Victoria, the Prince of Wales, Duke of York, and the infant Prince Edward of York. The Dr. Williams Co. have a reputation for distributing the handsomest pamphlets issued by any proprietary medicine house in Canada, and the present work amply sustains this reputation. The pamphlet is well worth having, and a copy of it will be mailed free to any of our readers who will send their address (plainly written) on a post card, to the Dr. Williams Medicine Co. Brockville, Ont.

"Frailty, Thy Name Is Woman."

A few days ago a false report was by mistake published in the Reporter The mistake was discovered before the paper was issued and to remedy the matter a piece of paper was pasted over the part of the column containing the report.

In due season the paper was received in the home of one of the subscribers and was opened by the lady of the house. She soon spied the place where the paper was pasted and, her inquisitive nature was aroused. She must know what was under the clean sheet. She carefully steamed the paper and succeeded in removing the strip but to her annoyance the printing was removed also and stuck fast to the white sheet. Here was a difficulty. She was not to be defeated however. She proceeded to the mirror with the strip of paper and held it up in front and thus succeeded in reading the news. This accomplished, she cast the paper one side having obtained all the information she desired for the evening.

Alderman A. F. Stagg, Brockville, died yesterday morning.

You can buy good roll butter for 16c. lb at G. W. Beach's.

Mr. Bower Williams spent Easter vacation at his former home, Gouverneur, N. Y.

Several communications to the Reporter are unavoidably omitted from this week's issue.

Miss Addie Hanna is again in her millinery rooms ready to execute all orders entrusted to her care.

The village schools reopened yesterday with all the teachers present and a large number of pupils in attendance.

Capt. Phillips is fitting up the Idle While for service on Charleston this season. The engine—a 4 h.p. coal oil burner—will arrive this week.

Catarrh is a constitutional disease. Hood's Sarsaparilla is a constitutional remedy. It cures catarrh. Give it a trial.

We regret to learn that the illness of Mr. Charles Barber has taken an unfavorable turn. Dr. Albert Barber of Mishawaka, Ind., has been summoned home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Kerfoot and son of Forest, Ont., arrived in Athens last week on a visit to friends and are the guests of Mrs. Kerfoot's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Boyce, Wellington st.

His Honor Judge McDonald will deliver a lecture on "A trip from the Atlantic to the Pacific" in the lecture hall of Christ Church, Athens, on the evening of Tuesday, April 30. Admission, 15c; double 25c.

Mr. H. Y. Farr, representing Messrs. Robert Wright & Co., Brockville, showed a magnificent range of lace curtains, curtain poles, and opaque window shades in the sample room of the Gamble House on Monday.

Mr. Fred Drewry, the new proprietor of Cedar Park, favored the Reporter with a call yesterday. He is rushing preparations for the opening of the hotel and will have everything in readiness by the time the ice leaves.

CASH.—$8000.00 worth of crockery china and glassware at Bankrupt prices Sale continues for a short time only —T. W. Dennis, Tea Store and China Hall, Brockville, Ont., nearly opposite the Revere house.

Dynamite Found Under a Sidewalk.

Hamilton, April 19.—Six and a half pounds of dynamite and two hundred percussion caps were found under the sidewalk on Hatt street, Dundas, by some boys. The lads did not know the dangerous nature of the stuff and were playing with it when some person saw them and removed the explosive to the town hall. Later on a cartridge was found under the sidewalk in front of the H. & D. station and now the people living in the valley city are quite panic-stricken, fearing that some of the dynamite cartridges may be concealed near their residences or may explode when they are in its vicinity. The tool box of Bracey Bros. & Co. was broken up a few days ago and tools and dynamite were stolen. George Anderson was arrested for the theft and he foolishly concealed the explosives all over the town.

Fire in Thedford.

Thedford, Ont., April 20.—The store containing Dr. McEdwards drug store and Bell telephone office, Walter Robson's jewelery store and the Oddfellow's hall was totally destroyed by fire early yesterday morning. McEdwards had $2,000 insurance on stock which fully covered his loss, the building being insured for $1,500 and the Oddfellow's lost everything, the hall being nicely furnished and insured for $150. The fire started in the ceiling of the hall and as there has been no one in the hall for days an investigation is likely to follow. W. N. Ironsides large stone block had a very narrow escape, also Mr. Jos. Carrothers' bakery, but the heroic efforts of the citizens both were saved.

Will Keep the Muzzle On.

London, April 22.—A St. Petersburg despatch to the Pall Mall Gazette says the Czar has rejected the petition recently presented, praying for a relaxation of the rigor of the existing press laws. The action of the Emperor was taken upon the recommendation of the minister of the interior and the chief of the holy synod, who constituted a commission to consider the petition. The report of the commission was adverse to granting the requests made.

The Britannia Buffeted.

London, April 22.—The Times says that the Prince of Wales' cutter Britannia arrived Saturday night at Cowes, Isle of Wight, from the Mediterranean. In crossing the Bay of Biscay, she encountered heavy weather, during which she lost a portion of her copper sheathing. She will probably be altered in her hull and spars under the supervision of her designer before she sails again

ADMITS HE IS MORRISON.

But Mrs. Mack Denies that She is Tinsey McMillan of Chicago.

Hamilton, April 20.—Charles O. Jones, the newspaper artist of Chicago, was positively identified as the mysterious George Morrison, dealer in counterfeit stamps.

Mrs. M. T. Mack, who is in jail here awaiting the result of extradition proceedings in the counterfeit United States stamp case will not admit that she is Tinsey McMillan, of Chicago. The woman has not even confided this much to her counsel here. She acknowledges having been in many of the large cities in the United Sates and all along has been suspected of knowing more about the stamp case than she pretended to know. She said positively she had never seen Morrison before she came from New York to secure the situation here, but it has been learned that she had an interview with him in the Queen's hotel on the day before she was engaged. The extradition proceedings will be continued before Judge Muir on Monday and the prisoner will make a hard fight to be allowed to remain in Canada.

AN ENGLISH GIRL

Who Died in Detroit Under Circumstances Pointing to Crime.

Detroit, April 22.—A young English girl, Emily Hall, died at a lying-in-hospital here Saturday under circumstances which point to criminal abortion. Dr. Lane, who kept the hospital, and his wife have been arrested and are being closely confined in jail. They deny, however, that any abortion was performed. It is claimed that a clergyman of the Church of England was responsible for the condition of Emily Hall and that he sent her 3,000 miles for the purpose of getting rid of her. The witness who gives the story was formerly an inmate of Mrs. Lane's house and to her the dead girl told her story and gave some other evidence, including damaging conversation between Mrs. Lane and Dr. Seaman. Dr. Seaman was also arrested with the Lanes, charged with murdering the girl.

Notice.

To All Whom it May Concern:

This is to certify that Henry L. Joynt of the Township of Yonge never in any way or particular directly or indirectly said or had any conversation with me in reference to the property of Wm. Woof of the Township aforesaid; any one accusing him of such has no foundation whatever as it would be false and without any authority.

For Twenty Years

Scott's Emulsion has been endorsed by physicians of the whole world. There is no secret about its ingredients. Physicians prescribe because they know what great nourishing and curative properties it contains. They know it is what it is represented to be; namely, a perfect emulsion of the best Norway Cod-liver Oil with the hypophosphites of lime and soda.

Scott's Emulsion
