CROFTS & JOHNSTON.

We have much pleasure in informing our customers and the public that our Mr. Wood, late of Toronto has proved himself a great success as a first class Cutter. With his thorough knowledge of the tailoring business and our good judgment in selecting durable and fashionable cloths, we are now in a position to consider our establishment the leading house of the town for first class and stylish Suits. Give us a call and examine our large stock of Tweeds and Coatings.

COAL OIL BY THE BARREL AT LONDON PRICES.

Goderich, Dec. 15, 1874. 1452

A LUCKY JOURNEYMAN.—A journeyman carriage-maker in April last purchased a ticket to the Grand Gift Concert of the Masonic Relief Association of Norfolk, Va., and when the distribution took place he received a sufficient amount of money to buy a lot, and build thereon a neat and comfortable residence, which will be a home for himself and family during their lives. The second and last Gift Concert of this Association will be given on Tuesday, December 29th, and we would advise all who desire to obtain one or more of the large prizes which will be given to the lucky ticket-holders to send without delay for tickets. The Concert will not be postponed; it will be conducted by gentlemen of high character, and Masons and others can place implicit confidence in the honesty and integrity of all connected with he management of the drawing. Send for tickets to Henry V. Moore, Secy, Va., or an authorized Agent of the Association.
