FERROZONE

Cures All Ailments From Which Women Suffer.

Many women suffer untold torture from nervous debility caused by disorders of the feminine organs. Day by day they grow worse, but from a false sense of modesty they shrink from using a good remedy like Ferrozone. And it would cure them.

Nothing renews weak women like Ferrozone. It brings back lost nerve force, supplies new vital energy, increases the blood supply.

No restorative so potent and prompt as Ferrozone has ever been discovered. You feel its uplifting effect at once. Your spirits rise, you gain in power and cheerfulness, feelings of weakness and despondency disappear.

No woman can remain sick or miserable if she uses Ferrozone. It goes direct to the seat of the trouble, puts a stop to functional irregularities, and so establishes buoyant health. Being free from alcohol and dangerous drugs, Ferrozone can be used by young and old with absolute safety. Prepared in tablet form, fifty to the box; price 50c., or six boxes for $2.50, at all dealers, or N. C. Poison & Co., Hartford, Conn., U. S. A., and Kingston, Ontario.

A Man Hates Himself

When he wakes up with headache and bad taste in the mouth. Something is needed to settle the stomach, clear away the dull heavy feeling and create a little appetite. Just get a tumbler of water, some sugar, and pour in a stiff dose of Nerviline. You'll pick up immediately and feel tip-top in a few minutes. Nerviline hasn't an edual for a condition of this kind. It stimulates, cures the headache, relieves the sick feeling and fits you for a hard day's work. Try Nerviline. Large bottles cost 25c.

Orgin of the Sandwich.

The Earl of Sandwich, who entered on his sixty-sixth year recently, represented Huntingdon in the Commons—he was then Vicount Hichingbrooke—for a long period before his father's death, 20 years ago, elevated him to the family earldom. The titular name of this interesting branch of the Montagus has been fixed in history in many odd ways, and the long-familiar sandwich of the luncheon bar and picnic basket derived its name from the head of the Montagus family, who invented it. Of him and his contemporary, Earl Spencer, whose sartorial ingenuity also brought him into memorabilia [illegible] minence, it was written at the time:

Two noble earls, whom, if I quote,
Some folks might call me sinner;
The one invented halt a coat,
The other halt a dinner!

The present Earl is the eighth of his line. The fourth, from whom he is directly descended, was a prominent member of the Government and First Lord of the Admiralty in the days of Capt. Cook's adventures in the Pacific, and hence the title of the Sandwich Islands, which has clung so persistently to the Hawaiian group, on one of which Cook finally lost his life.

If You Don't Sleep Well

It's because your nerves are in a weak, irritable condition. Ferrozone will make them strong and correct the trouble causing your insomnia. 'I fell into a state of nervous exhaustion last fall,' writes Mrs. J. Stroud, of Dexter. 'I was run down, couldn't sleep and felt perfectly miserable,—tried Ferrozone and was quickly benefited. I can recommend Ferrozone to anyone suffering from over-wrought nerves and sleeplessness.' No tonic is better, try Ferrozone. Price 50c. at druggists.

"You Shan't Spoil My Character"

Let me tell you of a boy who is worthy of your admiration. He was engaged in a workshop where the men put money together and sent out for beer. One day a workman held a glass of beer in his hand, and said—'You must either take this inside or outside,' intending to throw it about it him if he still refused. 'Ah, well!' said the noble boy, 'you may spoil my coat, but you shan't spoil my character.'

Insomnia and Indigestion Cured

'Last year I had a very severe attack of indigestion. I could not sleep at night and suffered most excruciating pains for three hours after each meal. I was troubled this way for about three months when I used Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and received immediate relief,' says John Dixon, Tullamore, Ontario, Canada. For sale by Rand's Drug Store.

A report from the Inspector of Fisheries at Dawson City to the Minister of Marine and Fisheries at Ottawa states that grayling are abundant in the Klondike and Yukon rivers from April 1st until June 1st, and again in September until the middle of October. They run about a pound and a half. They sell for $2 per pound for a short season. White fish, lake trout, kind salmon and dog salmon are also plentiful.

"Do you think that there is luck in a rabbit's foot?'

"Not as much as dar is in a chicken's foot," answered Mr. Erastus Pinkley, "provided de res' er de animal is attached.'

When your Child Suffers

For lack of knowledge of the value of Dr. Chase's Ointment as a cure for eczema, many a mother has been worn out in the effort to relieve her child of suffering. Eczema, scald head, and other forms of itching skin disease are common to children, especially during the teething period. Though readily cured by Dr. Chase's Ointment, eczema, if neglected, becomes chronic and may last for years.

In Woman's Favor

Few treatments stand so high in woman's favor as Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. This is not only because of the extraordinary control which this preparation has over diseases and weakness peculiar to woman, but also because of its power as a tissue builder. By weighing yourself while using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food you can prove that new flesh and weight is being added to the body.

A Judicious Enquiry.

A well known travelling man who visits the drug trade says he has often heard druggists inquire of customers who asked for a cough medicine, whether it was wanted for a child or for an adult, and if for a child they almost invariably recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The reason for this is that they know there is no danger from it and that it always cures. There is not the least danger in giving it, and for coughs, colds and croup it is unsurpassed. Mrs. Fairbanks tells how neglect of warning symptoms will soon prostrate a woman. She thinks woman's safeguard is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Ignorance and neglect are the cause of untold female suffering, not only with the laws of health but with the chance of a cure. I did not heed the warnings of headaches, organic pains, and general weariness, until I was well nigh prostrated. I knew I had to do something. Happily I did the right thing. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound faithfully, according to directions, and was rewarded in a few weeks to find that my aches and pains disappeared, and I again felt the glow of health through my body. Since I have been well I have more careful, I have also advised a number of my sick friends to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and they have never had reason to be sorry. Yours very truly, MRS. MAY FAIRBANKS, 216 South 7th St., Minneapolis, Minn." "Love" Manifested.

At Ocean City, N. J., on August 7th, there was a great temperance celebration. Among the principal speakers were John G. Woolley, editor of the New Voice, and Dr. Silas C. Swallow, the prohibiton party candidate for president of the United States. The services were all characterized by great earnestness and enthusiasm. We refer to them for the purpose of quoting the following strong sentences from Dr. Swallow's able address, which was based upon the text, "By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another."

"A people who pray, 'Thy kingdom come,' and then vote for rum, may point their church spires toward the eternal light, but they are wearing the badge of the prince of darkness.

"By love, or the absence of it, in the home, in the store, the school, the office, the polling booth, the legislature, the senate, the judiciary, and the executive chair, shall all men know whether ye are followers of Jesus or Judas; of Christ or Belial. And don't forget, that to be a Christian anywhere one must be a Christian everywhere. Not less in depositing one's ballot, than in grasping the eucharistic cup. Men can't be saints on Sunday and devils on election day. politics that won't mix with religion in this world, is sure to get its possessor into a bad mix in the next world.

"Love will have compassion on the hundred thousand victims, the hundred thousand widows, the hundred thousand worse than orphaned ones."

Weak Backbone.

When asked about the crop, if the whiskey mills should stop,
She answered, with a merry, laughing tone:
"O, it wouldn't go to waste, we would make it into paste
To stiffen up your temperance men's weak backbone.
"You're a temperance man you say, but on election day
You dodge around the corner and you whine.
'Oh, I cannot vote that way for I'd throw my vote away.'
You need a little paste upon your weak old spine.
"There's a deacon over there, and he makes the longest prayers,
And for the world you'd think he could atone.
But when he comes to vote, his prayers go up the spout,
'Cause he needs a little paste upon his weak backbone.
"Yes, we are bound to rub it in no matter how you grin,
No matter how you wiggle, wince and moan;
You'd rally to the ranks of the prohibition cranks,
If you had a little paste upon your weak backbone."

Denmark.

A LARGE AND PROSPEROUS SOCIETY—GOOD WORK AND A BRIGHT OUTLOOK.

The Temperance Union of Denmark is the largest and most influential temperance society in the progressive little country whose name it bears. This organization started in the year 1878 and has just celebrated at Copenhagen its twenty-fifth anniversary. Last year it had a membership of 53,000, and during the present year its progress has been very great. The yearly Congress of the Union is a great event in the Danish Kingdom. Each annual meeting is quite interested in the problem of the place for the next Congress, there being generally received many invitations from provincial towns. The present President of the Society is the man who was first chosen for that position more than twenty years ago. His name is Claus Johannsen. He is a farmer, a member of a County Council and an ex-member of the Danish Parliament. Peter Dam, of Neksoe, writes to the English Temperance Record an interesting statement of the usual order of business in connection with these Congresses. He says:

The Congress lasts three days, about a dozen questions are debated; the sittings take place in the early hours of the day, usually from six o'clock, only the first day the afternoon hours are spent in discussion. Five hundred to seven hundred delegates are met, and live as guests with the inhabitants of the town. The first evening an open-air meeting gathers thousands of men and women from town and country. The foregoing abstainers's procession, with banners, bands and scores of flying banners, has crowded the streets and taken the greater part of the population to the public pleasure ground, where the meeting takes place. Short addresses and many songs mark the meeting.

The next two days, the afternoons are used from two or three for excursions by train or steamer to some not too distant grove or wood, where a meeting is to be held; it is always gathering crowds of artisans and farmers from the freeholds, which are strewn all over the Danish land. Occasionally a couple of hours are spent in talking, singing, and chatting about the table, whereupon a frugal two shilling dinner was placed. The delegates always return from such a congress to their local sections filled with joy, with new knowledge, and fresh energy.

The Temperance Union of Denmark is managed by nine men, including the president. They are elected by the congress. The union members form parish or town sections and the sections form larger divisions, called circles; there are about eight hundred sections in the kingdom, and between ten and thirty sections in each circle. These circles are the centres for the agitation, which is chiefly by word of mouth only.

Federated to the union is the Teachers' Abstinence League and the Temperance Speakers' Federation. The union is partaker in a temperancepaper, Folkevennen—The Friend of People—and in a large temperance hotel, erected in Copenhagen. The legislature may be said to acknowledge the work of the union, granting year by year an amount to it; last year £660. Many county councils and parish councils also contribute with yearly-granted sums. The laws of the kingdom have hitherto not at all been influenced by the work of the union, but the omens now tend to the better.—Pioneer.

Had Not Strength To Do His Work

Was laid up for a month and suffered greatly but cure came with the use of Dr. Chase's Remedies.

While Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is extraordinary as a system builder it is only slightly laxative and persons inclined to constipation and liver or kidney disorders obtain the best results by using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills at the same time, taking one pill at a dose as often as is required to keep the bowels active.

MR. FREDERICK WHITTAKER, 996 Queen's Avenue, London, Ont., writes:—"I used nine boxes of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food and six boxes of his Kidney-Liver Pills for a run-down system and now feel like a new man in every way. Before beginning this treatment I had been laid up for a month, as I had not the strength to stand up at my work as machinist and suffered much from headaches, stomach troubles and pains in my legs.

"If I ever get run down in health again I shall not be long in trying these medicines, for I have proven their excellence."

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50 cents a box. Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, 25 cents a box, at all dealers. The portrait and signature of Dr. A. W. Chase, the famous receipt book author, are on every box.

Some Seasonable Advice

It may be a piece of superfluous advice to urge people at this season of the year to lay in a supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is almost sure to be needed before winter is over, and much more prompt and satisfactory results are obtained when taken as soon as a cold is contracted and before it has become settled in the system, which can only be done by keeping the remedy at hand. This remedy is so widely known and so altogether good that no one should hesitate about buying it in preference to any other. It is for sale by Rand's Drug Store.
