CARDS TIE CUBS IN OPENING GAME

Teams Played Eleven Rounds in Chicago Before Darkness Interfered.

FINAL COUNT WAS 3 TO 3

Reulbach Got a Bad Start and Chance Ordered Weaver to the Mound.

Chicago, April 12.—The National League baseball season in Chicago was inaugurated today with St. Louis as an opponent, when Mayor Carter Harrison, mayor-elect, tossed the first ball into the diamond.

After eleven innings the teams were on even terms, and the umpire announced that the game was called on account of darkness.

The final contest was 3 to 3. The visitors went to the front in the first inning. Reulbach got a bad start. He could not locate the plate, and, after walking two men on consecutive balls, he threw two more and Manager Chance called upon Weaver to replace him. Weaver started well, but after pitching one ball hit Mowrey and the bases were filled. He forced a run by hitting Konetchy. A sacrifice fly netted another run, while the third score was made on Bresnahan's out.

Weaver Settles Down.

St. Louis did no more scoring after this, Weaver allowing the St. Louis team but four scattered hits. The home team played hard every inch of the game. The first run was the result of a pair of doubles. The second was a home run by Schulte, who knocked the ball over the right field bleachers, and the tying run came when Hauser fumbled Chance's grounder and Tinker tripled after two were out.

Chicago batted Sallee hard at times, but he tightened up and was given excellent support in the pinches. Score:

LUDERUS' BINGLE WINS FOR PHILADELPHIA, 2-0

New York Giants Blanked After the Eighth Round—Neck and Neck Race.

New York, April 12.—A pitchers' duel which went for eight innings without a score and was ended in the ninth by two runs for Philadelphia, marked the opening game of the National League season in New York City today. A throng of over 30,000 noisy fans filled the Polo Grounds.

The music of a band, nerve-racking rattle of patent noise machines, cow bells and cheers, greeted the popular idols as they appeared on the field. Mayor Gaynor tossed out the sphere, and under a clear sky, albeit a bit chilly, real baseball began.

Ames was in the box for the Giants. He twirled sensationally for six innings, not allowing a hit, but weakened toward the end. With two men out and men on second and third, Luderus, the Philadelphia first baseman, hammered out a two-bagger against the left field fence, driving in Lobert and Paskert.

Moore held the Giants down to two singles, and although wild at times, always pulled himself together at critical stages. He received brilliant support. The score:

REORGANIZED DOVES START WITH VICTORY

Put One Over on Brooklyn by Ninth Round Spurt—Score 2 to 1.

Boston, April 12.—Timely hitting in the eighth inning won for the Boston Nationals their first game from Brooklyn in the race for the National League pennant, which was inaugurated at the Walpole street grounds this afternoon. The game was anybody's up to the eighth inning, when the visitors connected with Brown, the local pitcher, and secured a run before the side was out. With Boston up, a pass to first, followed by an error and a two-bagger, gave the game to the home team.

The usual opening ceremonies began the first game of the season. The two teams marched to the flagpole in centre field for the customary flag-raising, and Mayor Fitzgerald threw out the first ball. In spite of a cool wind a large crowd of loyal fans gave the reorganized Boston Nationals a rousing send-off. The score:

FRED WELSH OUTCLASSES MOORE IN TEN ROUND GO

Englishman Shows Remarkable Science, and Puzzles Philadelphia Youngster.

New York, April 12.—England's former lightweight champion, Freddie Welsh, gave a great exhibition of scientific boxing at the National Sporting Club here tonight, easily taking the measure of Pal Moore, the 19-year-old Philadelphia boy, in ten rounds.

Welsh's longer experience, coupled with swiftness in attack and defence, made the Quaker look like a green novice in several of the rounds. He puzzled Moore with a fast left-hand jab that shot squarely to the mark and drew the claret from Pal's nose and mouth, early in the contest. Moore tried to mix it at the outset, relying upon slugging tactics, but at this game Welsh was able to hold his own.

Moore Outclassed.

After that Moore resorted to every known method of attack. He feigned weakness, with the idea of catching Welsh off his guard, with a sudden wallop, and he roughed his man on the ropes, but Welsh sidestepped, ducked, countered, mixed it in half clinches and then, when Moore was tired, he jabbed the Quaker's head with cutting blows until it was plain which was the better man.

Moore was rattled on several occasions, but his seconds steadied him.

The one thing in his favor was gameness and natural pugnacity.

HOME RUN OVERCOMES LEAD OF BOSTON RED SOX

Gives Game to Washington When Record Number of Fans Had Given Up Hope.

Washington, April 12.—For the second time during his term as chief executive, President Taft today officially opened the baseball season. From his box in the new grand stand at the local grounds he tossed the first ball to Pitcher "Dolly" Gray, of the Washington team, and saw Washington romp away from Boston in a very ragged game by a score of 8 to 5.

A crowd estimated at 16,000, breaking all Washington records, cheered the president first and then forgot all about him, when, in the sixth inning, the home team, overcoming a lead of four runs, piled up by the visitors in the third and fourth session, batted Wood out of the box and scored six runs. Grey, who started in to pitch for Washington, gave way to Walker in the sixth, having been removed to make a place for a sub-batter.

The Boston team did not make a very good impression, its fielding being decidedly off color. It was due more to bad support than poor pitching that Wood was taken out of the box. His removal did not help matters much. The game was slowly played in a chill east winds. President Taft sat muffled up in a heavy fur overcoat throughout the struggle.

"Uncle Nick" Young, former president of the National League, was one of the distinguished spectators.

Walter Johnson, Washington's truant pitcher, came back from Coffeyville today, and was in uniform. He will not be pitched for several days. Score:

DETROIT AND CHICAGO WERE HELD UP BY RAIN

Unable to Open Season With Other Crews Yesterday Afternoon.

Detroit, April 15.—True to his promise, the weather man yesterday sent along some specimens of assorted dampness that he must have been saving for weeks. It started to rain about midnight on Tuesday and continued until past noon, and in the afternoon there was a drizzle most of the time. Naturally, it was impossible to play baseball under such conditions and the Tigers and White Sox had to forego the pleasure of tearing each other to bits. It was a bitter disappointment to the thousands of fans who had planned on being present, many of whom had gone to great trouble to arrange their engagements so as to permit the treat.

All morning the Tiger management held out hope of being able to go through with the exercises, but when 1 o'clock came and no signs of clearing, it was announced officially that the game was off for the day.

President Ban Johnson and a number of other Chicago baseball moguls, who came over as guests of Mr. Comiskey, paid a visit to the Ford Company's big plant in Highland Park in the afternoon, and were shown the process of making the cars from beginning to end. Factory Manager McGuire piloted the party through the plant and found his guests much interested in the various machines and processes that this up-to-date establishment can show.
