Montreal wants to annex St. Gabriel.

Chatham is to have a $40,000 Roman Catholic Church.

Building operations are brisk in Peterborough.

The total value of lumber shipped from ports in British Columbia during the month of March is $61,830.14.

John Lyon, ex-Reeve of Dunwich, has been arrested for forging his brother's name to a note for $1100.

James C. Stinson, 87, and Mrs. Burr, a frisky widow of 75, both of Glencoe, were married on Wednesday last.

The newly discovered mines on Granite Creek, B.C., are attracting hundreds of miners and speculators.

The Botanical Association of Montreal are going to lease part of Mount Royal Park for their operations.

The Stewart block, corner of Hunter and Water streets, Peterboro, was reported yesterday to have been sold for $48,000.

The Port Arthur constables corralled fifteen spiled doves in one night. The birds contributed about $150 to the town treasury.

The missionaries to the Bute Inlet Indians are charged by a correspondent of the Victoria Times with rapacity and cruelty to the natives.

Mr. J. C. Harrison of Stratford claims that he has discovered a certain cure for black knot on fruit trees. He is taking the necessary steps to have it patented.

Pat. Sheeley of Rochester, Ont., while out duck-shooting, received the contents of the gun in his left arm, near the shoulder. The limb will have to be amputated.

Winnipeg has had a little labor riot. Some Italians wanted to go west and work for $1.25 per day, but were prevented by certain other natives of the Sunny South, who opine that $2 should be a day's wages.

The body of Mr. John Brechin, of Coldwater, who disappeared about three weeks ago, has been found in the river near his home. The $1200, which he drew from the bank on the day of his disappearance, was found on his person.

One freight train overtook another on the Canada Atlantic Railway Thursday, and pitched in so hard as to telescope the last three cars of the first train, and derail the engine of the second. The accident occurred about 8 miles from Ottawa.

The Cardwell Sentinel does not think much of the workings of the Scott Act, if we may judge from the following: "Pandemonium appeared to be let loose in this town on Sunday last. At an early hour of the day quite a few were drunk. Shouting and swearing were indulged in, and a general fight of the most ferocious character was engaged in for a length of time." Sunday seems to be carnival time in the Scott Act counties.

Mary Redpath, of Kelso, Ont., was crossing a long trestle bridge on the C.P.R. when a train approached. The little girl, seeing that she could not reach the end of the bridge before the train caught her, let herself down between the timbers, and hung suspended by her hands till the train passed over her. She was unable to raise herself to the top of the bridge again and dropped thirty feet into two feet of mud. She was not much hurt but badly scared.

It Acts Like a Charm.

—Ex-Ald. George Evans, 149 Queen street west, testifies to the efficacy of "Hallamore's Expectorant" as follows: "It is undoubtedly far superior to all other advertised remedies for coughs and colds, especially in the case of children, with whom it acts like a charm." edx

They Take the Lead.

Upholstering is one of the fine arts. To be a good upholsterer, means that a man must not only be a good workman, but that he must have a certain amount of good taste. R. F. Cummings & Co., 347 Yonge street, take the lead in Toronto. They turn out none but first class work, work that cannot be excelled. Ladies' work made up to order. Drawing room suites a specialty. 246x

—To those whose occupations prevent them from having their teeth attended to during the day can do so by calling at F. H. Setton's dental office, cor. of Queen and Yonge, whose office will be open hereafter till 9 p.m. All branches attended to. 246x

A Well Filled Case.

—If you are going a journey, fill your cigar case with the "Brave Boys" or "Gen. Middleton" brand, from the factory of W. E. Dobson, and you may count on having an enjoyable smoke yourself and be in a position to afford another to your friends. They always smoke clean and pure. 246x

—If you are contemplating making a trip to Europe, remember the loss of the steamship Oregon and invest a few dollars in a policy in the Accident Insurance company of North America. Medland & Jones, Equity Chambers, 20 Adelaide street east, are the general agents, and their telephone number is 1067. y246

Lace Curtains.

—A big room is now on at the corner of Yonge and Alice. Messrs. McKendry & Co. having purchased a tremendous drive in lace curtains, they are selling a really good pair of curtains, for 50 cents and 75 cents a pair, and in the better class goods the prices are ridiculously low. All ladies about to do house-cleaning should visit the Waterloo House, 278 Yonge, south corner Alice. 246x

—It was a summer's evening,
Old Caspar's work was done,
And he before his cottage door
Was sitting in the sun,
Before him playing on the green
His little grandchild Wilhelmine.

What a beautiful picture; and yet there might be hundreds of them if Toronto's Caspars bought their houses from Grant & Webster, 60 King east. 467x

To Old Country People.

—They flock from the north, south, east and west to have their fine old country watches skillfully repaired by competent workmen at the Toronto Horological work shops, 380 Queen street west (360). 246

Public Notice.

—All testimonials in favor of Hallamore's Expectorant are from well known residents of Toronto. Mr. S. J. Willcock, 129 Spadina avenue, says: "I have used Hallamore's Expectorant for coughs and colds for thirteen years, and would not be without it. It never fails to cure me." edx

Real Estate.

—Persons having real estate to sell are requested to leave description with Ragor & Faulkner, 21 Adelaide street east. If desired, they will be published in their spring list free of expense. No charge is made unless sale is effected through them. 246x

I Lost $10

—Because I did not buy my harness from the Canadian Harness Co., 104 Front Street East, opposite Hay Market. Take my advice and don't you do the same. They have the finest and largest stock of hand-stitched harness in the Dominion. All made on the premises. They guarantee every set. I won't get left next time. x246

Hoarseness and Bronchitis.

—Among the many remedies used for the cure of coughs and colds, none more speedily gain the confidence of the sufferer than Hallamore's Expectorant. For hoarseness and bronchitis its rapid effect is surprising. In private sale during 35 years it has gained for itself an enviable reputation and produced wonderful results. In 25 cent bottles at all drug stores. edx

Real Ladies

—Are those who can appreciate fine fitting garments, and smart ones are those who come right straight along and learn to be a first-class cutter by our Prof. Moody's New Tailor System of Dress and Mantle Cutting. Draft direct on your own material. Easy to learn. Special inducements to join our class for the next few weeks. Come at once. The World says go at once. J. & A. Carter, 372 Yonge street, corner Walton street, practical dress makers and milliners. 36

—"Henry, love, I wish you would throw away that book and talk with me—I feel so dull." (A long silence and no reply.) "Oh, Henry, my foot is asleep!" "Is it? Well, don't talk, dear, you might wake it." If that gentleman wore Wheaton & Co.'s shirts and underwear, he could not possibly have been so rude to his pretty little wife. 17 King street west, corner Jordan. 135x

—A. S. Smith, the hat manufacturer, has received the style of silk hat for spring both in American and English in which he is prepared to fill orders either in the easy fitting wire brim or the regular solid brim. Ask your hatter for the wire brim if it is best quality. edx

—Hello! Gus you look happy, what's up? Well, Fred, I'll tell you. That dude that has so much cash called on Jennie the other night and her mother got him to help her put up some pictures, and he drove the nails in and broke the plaster off their new walls, and she got mad with him and Jennie told me of it. I telephoned R. J. Licence & Co., cor. Bay and Adelaide, and they sent a man up and put up room mouldings at my expense (and it only cost six dollars), and now I'm solid with the old lady. She thinks I've a great head. edx

Choice Wines.

—The finest imported port and sherry wines at $2.50, $3.00, $3.50, $4.00, $4.50, $5.00 and $6.00 per gallon. The choicest native wine in the Dominion is Concord grape and Catawba $2.00 per gallon or $5.50 per doz. at Mara & Co., 280 Queen street west, near Beverley street. edx
