prominent families of Lassa, the capital of Thibet, and his true conversion will doubtbe of no slight influence upon others.

The Presbytery of Halifax, like the Presbytery of Pictou, has recommended congregations to observe the Week of Special Prayer from the 19th to the 26th May, for the conversion of the Papal and Heathen world.

THERE were at last session of Knox College upwards of forty-five students in theology proper, twenty-five in Preparatory classes, and a considerable number taking a university course; so that there are about one hundred thus engaged in prepairing for the ministry.

A Bible Society meeting has recently been held at Rome, under the auspices of the Italian Bible Society. Count Mauriani, President of the Senate, the Duke of Nassau, and Peres Hyacinthe and Gavazzi were present; the two latter took part in the proceedings.
