W. R. CONDON AT 6 TO 1 WON $10,000 BURNS HANDICAP

Claude, Favorite, Second, Half a Length Away—Veterano Third.

Oakland, Feb. 4.—The big attraction at Oakland this afternoon was the Burns Handicap, with a guaranteed value of $10,000. The track was sticky on the rail, making it very uncertain and bad for horses that drew rail positions. Thirteen horses sported colors. The appearance of J. McLaughlin's Pasadena added to the interest of the race.

Twenty-nine books handled the public con and the betting ring was so overcrowded that many were unable to back their choices. The weather was cloudy and threatening, but notwithstanding a crowd of fully 10,000 was present. The Daly stable ruled favorite in the betting at 2 to 5, with Military Man 3 to 1, Pasadena 6 to 1, W. R. Condon 6 to 1 and the Skinner stable, Horatius and Bombardier, 5 to 1. Long prices prevailed against all other horses.

The big field was despatched to a good start. Rockaway assumed the lead, closely pressed by Military Man and Pasadena. Rockaway increased his lead on the backstretch, where W. R. TORONTO HUNT ON A DRIVE SATURDAY'S MERRY SCENE

Many Members in Sleighs and Some in the Saddle Despite the Zero Weather.

Despite the zero temperature of Saturday afternoon, the temptation of an enjoyable drive with the Hunt Club and an hour thereafter at "Chudleigh," was too great for the members of the driving section, and they braved the winter weather and assembled with their tandems and pairs at the guns in Queen's Park, at 3.30 o'clock. The sleighing was magnificently crisp and the sunshine of the brightest sort. The scene just north of College-street was beautiful, and many a pedestrian stopped for a few minutes to look on and admire not only the active participants, but the splendid type of horses to be seen there in goodly numbers. It says a good deal for the gentlemen of Toronto to be able to turn out such beautiful animals, and it is safe to say that many of them will be seen on the tanbark in the armories the last week of April next. The sleighs used were mostly of the dogcart pattern, built to carry two in front and a groom behind, each one carrying a wealth of musk ox or bear furs. There were in all five tandems, six pairs and a lot of single sleighs, with the full pack of hounds, huntsman and whip, the cavalcade extending for a third of a mile, as the master led off around the park.

The word to start was given, and in an instant each groom stepped to the near side of his leader, a chirp given by the gentleman handling the ribbons to his prancing steeds, and they were off. The route taken was around the park, Hoskin-avenue, up St. George and out Davenport-road to near the Junction; south again to College-street, east to St. George, north on that street and round the park, down Queen-street-avenue to St. Patrick-street, with a full stop at the master's residence on Beverley-street.

Some of those noticed were: The master, G. W. Beardmore, accompanied by Mrs. Fisk, leading, driving a tandem composed of Paddy and Nancy, each carrying rosets and ribbons of Hunt Club colors. Following Mr. Beardmore came Mr. and Mrs. Harry Beatty, a beautiful bay tandem, colors red and green; next came Dr. Young of College-street, accompanied, as usual, by Mrs. Young, driving a tandem made up of his crack pair, the Governor-General and Her Excellency, gay with rosets and streamers in bright red; after Dr. Young came Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Clarke, with a tandem of browns, followed by Mr. and Mrs. Walter Beardmore, driving a tandem of that elegant pair by Sensation, Derby King and Prince; then came Dr. and Mrs. G. A. Peters, driving no less than a unicorn made up of Vendetta, Venture and Victor; then Mrs. J. J. Dixon, with Mrs. Harold Wyatt, driving her prize-winning pair; Dr. H. A. Bruce and Miss Elise Clark, a pair; Col. Stimson and Miss Clark, a pair of greys; Col. and Mrs. Williams, a single sleigh; Miss Gritty Haney and her father, a beautiful pair of chestnuts; Mr. Applegath, single, and several others.

Among those in the saddle were: Dr. D. K. Smith, F. T. Proctor, Capt. Straubenzie, Major Elmsley and Gordon Myles.

The members spent a most delightful hour at "Chudleigh," from 5 to 6 o'clock.

The next drive will be at the same hour and place next Saturday.

Turf Fraud Thru Mails.

Chicago, Feb. 4.—On the complaint of many persons who have said to have invested money in the Co-Operative Turf Association, Postoffice Inspector Anderson of New Orleans to-day arrested J. F. Burrett on a charge of using the mails to defraud. Barrett will be taken to New Orleans to-morrow.

A warrant has also been issued for the arrest of N. C. Collins, said to be a partner of Barrett.

Some months ago, it is said, the two men organized in this city the Co-Operative Turf Exchange, with offices in New Orleans. They offered to place money for persons who desired to bet on horse races and it is charged that they received from different persons a total of about $70,000. The investors complained to the postoffice authorities that they could get no returns for the use of their money.

Turf Gossip.

The Memphis Jockey Club may prepare a campaign of war against both the new American Jockey Club and the Western Jockey Club. It was rumored in Memphis on Saturday that Corrigan would get the Washington Park track at Chicago.

The racing game in New York vicinity is threatened by war between the American Jockey Club and the Western Jockey Club. Belmont, it is said, is likely to buy and close moth Aqueduct and Jamaica to save the sport.

Owing to a snowstorm in the south, delaying trains ten hours, Parmer, Samuelson, Wynne and others were unable to reach New Orleans for Saturday's meeting of Corrigan's American Jockey Club, and the meeting is postponed until Monday night.

NEW RECORD BY FLANAGAN.

Threw the 28 Pound Weight 39 Feet and One Half Inch.

New York, Feb. 4.—There was plenty of excitement at the big indoor athletic track and field meet of the Irish-American Athletic Association in Madison Square Garden to-night. The big building was crowded and there were outbursts of cheering when the finishes in some of the track contests were so close that only the judges could pick the winner. This was particularly so when the three men in the final quarter of the inter-city relay race between teams representing New York, Philadelphia and Buffalo crossed the finish line. Christofers of New York and McGuckea of Philadelphia breasted the tape almost simultaneously and the judges gave their verdict in favor of the local man, who they said won by a couple of inches.

J. D. Taylor, the negro runner, who made himself famous on the University of Pennsylvania track team, received an ovation when he simply ran away from Overland of Cornell and Johnson of Yale in the final lap of the one mile inter-collegiate team relay race, which he won handily by 20 yards.

John Flanagan of the Irish-American A. A., the world's champion hammer thrower, established a new American record by throwing the 28 pound weight 39 feet and one-half inch. The last contest on the program was the ten-mile run for the National A.A.U. championship. From start to finish John J. Joyce never left the issue in doubt, winning easily by 25 yards.

CRACK CENTRAL INDOOR B. B. TEAM

Beat K. Co. by 26 to 3—Body Guards Won From Engineers 28 to 13.

The champion Body Guards took the Engineers into camp on Saturday night in an Officers' League game by 28 to 13. In the exhibition contest that followed, K Co., Q.O.R., proved no match at all for the crack team from Central Y.M.C.A. K Co. had not lost a game this season until Saturday night. They are the leaders in their section of the Garrison Indoor League, and one of the six teams qualified for the final league championship. The Central boys play a snappy game from the very beginning, and depend solely upon their judgment and knowledge of the rules of the game to win. This, coupled with their gentlemanly conduct on and off the field, has won for them hosts of staunch supporters. Judging from their performance on Saturday the Central Y.M.C.A. will undoubtedly be a safe proposition in the calculation of the experts for the final city championship. Every player is a star in his fielding position, and the team, as a whole, is a great combination of scientific batsmen. The scores:

The Waverleys and St. Georges met for the last time this season Saturday night on the Mutual-street ice. The Saints came out on top to the tune of 15 to 9. At the end of the half the score stood 9 to 2 in favor of the runners-up for the championship of senior group No. 3. The second half the Waverleys counted 7 more, while the Saints netted 6.

Practically nothing depended on the game; no championship was at stake. Consequently it was just plain everyday hockey, with nothing spectacular about it. The Waverleys' sole ambition was merely to uphold their right to a place in the senior series. The St. Georges of course did not wish to be defeated by the new senior club and took no chances and also good care to win. The attendance was small; the hockey-loving public evidently not caring to witness mediocre hockey, even if it is called senior in the canadians. It was the worst exhibition yet; at times there was some scrapping and at all times much cutting.

The Waverleys had their full team on. The St. Georges had several of their intermediate line-up on the ice: Cosgrave was at right in place of Hynes; Morrison was rover and Perram point. The pace at the start was very slow, neither side showing any great anxiety to do anything.

The Saints set what pace there was; Litchfield and H. Ardagh were put off for scrapping. Litchfield made a rush up the ice and landed the nets before he could stop himself. St. Georges scored first, I. Ardagh making one of his rushes and passing to Weller, who shot. Workman was hit with the puck and retired for a time, Cosgrave going off to even the sides and Whale playing in goal for the Waverleys. The Saints got four more, all in a row, before the Waverleys could get one. Morrison shot three of them and Cosgrave the other. Then Roesler and Bergoine each notched one. Before the half had ended the Saints had another quartet, Housser and Webster getting one apiece and Cosgrave two.

At no stage was any interest aroused. On coming out after a rest the Saints bagged three more and the Waverleys were apparently hopelessly in the rear. Bergoine took the next and then Housser got three to Bergoine's one. The Waverleys got up a decided spurt with I. Ardagh off, and before time, notched five goals.

There was considerable rough play and scrapping. Workman in goal did his share of it. Housser was called off several times for nothing at all.

Toronto Lacrosse Hockey League.

Many sections in the Toronto Lacrosse Hockey League have completed their games and the finals will be arranged at a meeting of the executive to be held at the Central Y.M.C.A. this evening. For a league playing in open rinks the T.L.H.L. has probably broken the world's record this season. They have 33 teams playing in four sections—senior, intermediate, junior, juvenile—and nine sub-sections. The number of signed players in the league are: Senior 82, intermediate 93, junior 206, juvenile 67. Total 448. Nearly 100 games have been played without a default and without a protest coming to an issue. The intermediate teams are specially urged to have a representative at the executive meeting this evening to see if all games in their section scheduled after Feb. 20 can not be played off before that date. The following are the games for the present week:

Feb. 6—Broadways at I.C.B.U. (intermediate), Broadview Rink, 8 p.m.

Feb. 7—Broadview B at Young Torontos (junior), Victoria College Rink, 8.30 p.m.

Feb. 7—Monarchs at Chalmers (junior), King Edward Rink, 7 p.m.
