THE YOUNG IDEA.

INSTITUTIONS IN THE CITY WHERE IT IS TAUGHT TO SHOOT.

The Public Schools Had Many Visitors This Morning—Terminal Examinations—Presentation of Prizes, and the Summer Holidays.

The closing of the public schools in this city is usually characterized by fine weather and a large attendauce at the various departments, and the unpleasant exception today only goes to prove the rule. Interest in the work of educating the young is both an inducement to the scholar, and on "Examination" morning special exercises are carried out in each of the many institutions of education here. The attendance today of visitors was, in consequence of the inclement weather, not so large as is customary on such occasions, but the exercises throughout were just as interesting as ever, and the prize-winners are just as deserving of as much credit as though the school were crowded with their friends to see them receive the just recognition of their energy and ability and to applaud them for their good work.

GRAMMAR SCHOOL.

Quite a number of those particularly interested in the work of the grammar school were present at the terminal examination this morning. Among those who occupied seats on the platform were, His Worship Mayor Lockhart, Chairman H. J. Thorne, and W. B. Carvill, and D. R. Jack of the board of school trustees, president Harrison of the University, chief superintendent Crocket, J. V. Ellis, M. P., S. D. Scott, L. D. Clarke, Thomas Stead. Quite a sprinkling of the old graduates of the school were also present. After a thorough and very satisfactory examination of the several grades in the various departments of study the winners of the prizes were called to the front.

His Worship, the Mayor, after a few complimentary remarks presented Frank Greene (winner of the three school medals) with the corporation gold medal for classics and highest averages. Mr. J. V. Ellis presented Wm. Clarke, with the Parker silver medal for mathematics, and Principal McLean, Chas. Manning with the governor General's bronze medal for English.

Thos. Powers received second prize in the classical competition.

Herman Peck, Herbert Jordan and James Cameron, tenth grade boys, won the Colin Livingstone prizes in Latin and Greek, Mathematics, and English respectively. O. Ring, L. Morrow and Austin Stead won the prizes in Grade IX for Latin and Greek, Mathematics and English and Science respectively.

Austin Stead also carried off the ten-dollar gold piece offered by Mr. Devitt, one of the teachers, for the best botanical collection. This is a new feature in the school competition, and an excellent one, too. Master Stead's collection is highly creditable, and will now become the property of the school.

CHARLOTTE STREET SCHOOL.

At Charlotte street school there are four rooms, taught respectively by the principal, Thos. Stothart, Mr. David Chisholm, Miss Turnbull and grades 1 and 2 by Misses Robertson and Thompson. In Mr. Stothart's room the regular work of the term was reviewed this morning.

C. W. Cassidy was presented with a handsome book entitled "Hendricks the Hunter" donated by Mr. Colin Livingstone for the highest standing in grade VII. The boys who were advanced from grade VII to VIII were given certificates. The principal has 32 scholars enrolled on his register, 20 of whom were present to-day.

The scholars of Mr. Chisholm's department also reviewed the work done during the past term.

In grades III and IV taught by Miss Turnbull an interesting programme was carried out. Speeches were made by Messrs. Hugh McLean, J. G. Forbes, Geo. Robertson and Rev. George Bruce. Following is the programme rendered :—

Chorus—School.
Recitation—Henry Wilson.
Recitation—Master Jackson.
Recitation—Edgar Davidson.

Recitation—Chas. Gregory.
Recitation—Geo. Robertson,

Grades 1 and 2 held no special exercises.

LEINSTER STREET SCHOOL.

A very lengthy programme was given in this building. The scholars made a very creditable showing and it was easy to be seen that no pains had been spared by the efficient staff of teachers in instilling knowledge into their charges. The programme rendered was of an excellent nature. Quite a number of visitors were present.

The programme was as follows:—
Chorus—Greeting Song.
Simultaneous recitation on Canada, grade VIII.
Chorus—Up with the Union Jack.
Chorus—Who Woke Our Cock Robin, Masters McFarlane, Burnham, Golding, Fairall, McGinley, Thorne, Bell and Olive.

Short speeches were then delivered by several of the visitors after which "God Save the Queen" was sung and a crowd of happy boys left the school for a long vacation.

A large number of prizes were presented at the Leinster street school. Rev. Dr. Macrae and Mr. Vroom made the presentations. Several speeches were made and everything passed off well. Following is the list of the prizes presented:

Principal Thompson's room.—Wm. J. Joshua, "Family flight through Mexico," for penmanship. Reuben Scovil "The World of Ice," for drawing. Hogarth Swann, "Lost in the Back Woods," for highest marks.

WHAT M'DONALD IS THIS?

A PROVINCIAL HORSE THIEF CAUGHT.

He was Brought in Monday Evening and Bound Over to the August Term —Something of his Story.

[Bangor Commercial, 24th inst.]

Last evening City Marshal Whitney arrived here from Houlton with William McDonald who stole Dr. Laughton's horse and carriage. He was at once locked up in the police station where he remained until his trial which took place this forenoon. From McDonald's statement this is not the first offence of horse theiving of which he is guilty. The young fellow seems to have a mania for horse flesh and has served a term in Concord prison for a former case of this kind. A few days before arriving in Bangor he stole a team in Lawrence and drove to Lewiston. Concerning this ride McDonald said that he had a father who lived in the Provinces and for some time he had been trying to save enough money to take him there, but at length becoming discouraged as the little money he was able to earn was barely sufficient to support him, he resorted to other means to gain this end.

As he tells the story he became acquainted with a Frenchman in Lawrence, and the man stealing the team of a well-known citizen took him in and started for Lewiston. Arriving on top of a hill, a short distance from the city, the Frenchman got out and left McDonald to drive on alone. He says he has not seen the man in question since, but describes him as of dark complexion, 5 feet 7 inches in height, weighing about 150 pounds, with blue eyes and smooth face, wearing dark coat and pants with dark stripes, a light checked vest, stiff black hat and congress shoes. The man spoke the English language in a broken manner and had but little to say, not even giving his name during the ride.

McDonaid reached this city last week and having no money, applied at the Police Station Wedesday evening for a place to spend the night. He left the next morning and was not heard from until the time of the stealing of Dr. Laughton's horse and carriage. Wm. McDonald is a young man of youthful appearance, not being over 16 or 18 years of age. He is of medium height, slightly built, with a freckled face and blue eyes. It seemed almost incredible to look at him to believe that he had already served a sentence in prison. One might have expected to see a face hardened with crime and sin, a fellow who carried himself in a haughty and don't care manner. The young man when spoken to hung his head in a shameful way refusing to look anyone in the face.

McDonald, in relating the story connected with the stealing of Dr. Laughton's horse, said he met a man Thursday afternoon who offered to give him two
