POOR DOCUMENT

MC 2033

FROM ALL OVER THE MARITIME PROVINCES

CAMPBELLTON.

Campbellton, N. B., Nov. 31—Miss May Moffat, of Tide Head, has been visiting friends in Dalhousie.

Mrs. Thomas Malcolm left on Saturday for Bathurst, where she will visit her sister, Mrs. McKay.

Mr. James Wall spent Sunday at Tide Head.

Mrs. E. R. Lockhart, of Petitcodiac, is the guest of Mrs. George Fawcett.

Mrs. S. S. Harrison has returned from a visit to Charlo.

Mrs. Angus McLellan entertained the Whist Club on Friday evening, when a very enjoyable time was spent.

Mr. Charles Murray, of St. John, is visiting his father, Mr. Charles Murray.

Mr. and Mrs. G. G. McKenzie returned this morning from a short trip to Moncton, Loggieville and Newcastle.

Mr. Wm. O'Regan spent Sunday in Dalhousie.

Mr. McLeod, of Truro, was in town last week.

Mr. St. Clair Jellett returned on Tuesday from a visit to friends in Chatham.

Dr. Rowley, of Dalhousie, was here on Tuesday.

Rev. J. W. Keinstead has resigned the pastorate of the Baptist church here, and leaves this week for Oxford (N. S.)

Mrs. W. W. Doherty is visiting her sister, Mrs. Ritchie, in Dalhousie.

PETITCODIAC.

Petitcodiac, Nov. 30—Mrs. D. D. McDonald spent a few days of last week in St. John.

Mrs. D. L. Trites returned last Wednesday from a pleasant visit with her daughter, Mrs. H. H. Magee, at Pictou (N. S.)

Mr. F. C. Robinson, of Moncton, was in the village Saturday.

Mr. Heber Goggin spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Goggin.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Lockhart and Master Bobs, went to Campbellton, Saturday to visit relatives.

Mrs. Mary Lawrence left this morning for Sydney (C. B.), where she will in future reside with her son, Mr. Fred Lawrence.

Mrs. D. Allison Jonah entertained a number of her friends at a dinner party Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Fowler spent Sunday with friends in Moncton.

Mr. John Kennedy, of Salisbury, was in the village Saturday.

Miss Margaret McAfee has severed her connection with the Sussex Mercantile Company, and returned today to her home at Milnstream.

ROTHESAY

Rothesay, Nov. 30—The annual Christmas sale of St. Paul's Church Sewing Society was held yesterday in the Sunday school house and in spite of the heavy rain and dreadful roads, was well attended and proved a success in every way. High tea was served at 5.30 o'clock. A new feature was the very pretty circular candy booth in the middle of the room, which was beautifully decorated with red and white and supplied with an abundance of home-made candy daintily put up. Those in charge were Misses Nan Fairweather, Jean Daniel, Gladys Mitchell and Helen Fairweather. This booth held great attraction for the pupils of both Netherwood and the boys' school. Many beautiful and novel bits of fancy work were found on the fancy table, which was presided over by Mrs. Barclay Boyd, Miss Taylor and Miss Puddington.

Mrs. Starr has quite recovered from her recent illness and is out again.

Rev. Mr. Glover is planning a ten days' holiday and will go to Prince Edward Island to spend it.

Miss Ethel Smith is visiting Mrs. R. P. Starr this week.

Mr. Harold Brock is home after a five weeks' business trip.

Miss Helen Roberts went to St. John on Friday and is visiting friends in the North End.

Mr. Rupert Turnbull went to New York the end of last week and is still away.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Chisholm spent last Sunday in St. John, returning home on Monday.

Mrs. Walker, of Truro, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Page.

Miss Muriel Fairweather is laid up with a sprained ankle.

ST. GEORGE.

St. George, Nov. 30—Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Frauley most pleasantly entertained on Friday evening. There was a musical programme, whist and dancing. At midnight a dainty supper was served. The evening was greatly enjoyed by their guests, which included Mrs. James Chase, Miss Tomilson, Misses Mary and Annie O'Neill, Miss B. McGee, Miss Bessie Frauley, Miss Perry, Mr. R. T. Wetmore, Mr. Edward McGratton, Mr. Arthur Clinch, Mr. McQue, Mr. Arthur Frauley and others.

A number of the young set enjoyed Thursday evening with Rev. and Mrs. Hillock at the Presbyterian manse. The young ladies made candy and the gentlemen pronounced it excellent. Everyone was charmed and a delightful evening was spent.

Mrs. Abram Young, who has been spending the summer and autumn in Parrsboro (N. S.), returned home last week.

On Saturday evening Miss Eulalia O'Brien gave a chicken supper to a few relatives. Mr. James O'Brien was guest of honor, it being his 72nd birthday.

Mr. Fred Gilmor left on Saturday for Wisconsin.

Miss Phoebe O'Brien has been appointed her late father's successor in the post office.

Mrs. McKenney and little daughter, Margaret, of Calais, having enjoyed a short visit with Mrs. James O'Brien, returned home Tuesday morning.

Miss Brittain, who has been spending the summer in town, left on Monday for her home in St. Martins.

ST. ANDREWS.

St. Andrews, Nov. 29—The members of the Sabbath school of All Saints church who were to have given an entertainment in Memorial Hall on Tuesday evening have postponed it till Tuesday evening of next week.

Mrs. Hazen Grimmer, who has been a recent guest of her mother, Mrs. Charles Gove, has returned to her home in St. Stephen.

Mrs. Outhouse is visiting friends in Eastport.

Mrs. Morrison, of Eastport Junction, spent the week-end as guest of her sister, Mrs. Isaac Richardson.

Captain and Mrs. Clarke visited St. Stephen this week.

Mr. Skiff. Grimmer, who has been so seriously ill of typhoid fever ever since his return from U. N. B., Fredericton, at Thanksgiving, is improving. Dr. O'Neill has had charge of the case while Miss Powers, of St. John, and Miss O'Neill have been attending nurses.

Mr. Richard Owens and Miss Owens, of Newburg Junction, were in St. Andrews last week and registered at Kennedy's Hotel.

After a pleasant visit with her friend, Miss Bessie Grimmer, Miss Bremner Ross has returned to her home in St. Stephen.

Rev. J. S. Allen made a brief visit to St. Stephen this week.

Mrs. Will Burton went to St. John on Friday last. She expects to be absent a few weeks and while in St. John will be the guest of Mrs. L. B. Knight.

Mrs. C. M. Gove went to St. Stephen last week to visit her daughter, Mrs. Hazen Grimmer.

Mr. McMulkin was in town recently.

Rev. Mr. Parkins was in Eastport quite recently.

Mrs. Isaac Richardson and Miss Georgie Richardson are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Richardson, St. Stephen.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Grimmer are in Boston, where they will visit friends for a short time.

Mr. D. C. Clarke, of St. John, was in town on Wednesday.

Miss O'Neill visited St. Stephen lately.

NEWCASTLE.

Newcastle, Nov. 30—Miss Olive Williamson spent part of last Thursday and Friday in Chatham.

Mr. H. B. Anslow, accompanied by Master Gordon, visited friends in Taymouth (York county) last week.

Mr. Edward McGruar spent Wednesday and Thursday of last week in Chatham.

Misses Edith Clarke and Jessie Corbett visited Chatham last Thursday.

Mrs. M. H. McMillan has returned home from a trip through Western Canada, as far as Calgary (Alta.). Mrs. McMillan has been absent for two months.

Mrs. Frank Ward, of Chatham Junction, was visiting friends in town today.

Miss Bessie Grensley has returned from a visit to friends in P. E. Island.

BATHURST.

Bathurst, N. B., Nov. 29.—Mrs. D. T. Johnston has returned from a visit of seven days to Chatham.

Miss Georgie Burns has returned from Dalhousie where she was a guest of Mrs. C. H. LaBillois.

Miss Bourque, of Richibucto, is visiting Mrs. F. Curran.

Mrs. H. Bishop entertained the members of the whist club at her home on Wednesday of last week. Miss Belle Mullins carried off the lady's prize and Mr. Aurrelle Landry was the winner of the men's prize.

Mrs. J. Henderson and Master Hedley Henderson went on Monday to Douglastown to attend the wedding of Miss Henderson there.

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Veniot and Mrs. H. White spent several days in Caraquet this week.

The whist club were most agreeably entertained at the home of the Miss O'Brien on Tuesday evening. The prizes were awarded to Miss Alice Landry and Hector Melanson.

Mrs. S. R. Shirley on Friday evening, gave a most enjoyable party to a number of friends.

Rev. H. Hooper has returned from a brief visit to Richibucto.

Mr. H. Hudson was called to his home in Richibucto last week on account of the death of his father.

Mrs. McCurdy, of Jacquet River, is visiting her sister, Mrs. H. Carter.

His friends regret to learn that Rev. E. Martin is confined to the house on account of a broken arm and dislocated shoulder received on Thursday last when he accidentally fell on the ice.

Mons. Dugal, V. G., spent Sunday and Monday here at the presbytery.

Mrs. V. Smith has gone to St. John to Spend some months with friends.

The high tea given by the members of the Village Temperance Society, in the Opera House, was in every way a success. The amount realized was $250. A voting contest which was carried on during the evening occasioned a great deal of interest. The contest was to decide the most popular waitress and the votes decided in favor of Miss Gertie Leahy.

Mrs. J. J. Harrington, after several weeks' illness, is able to be out again.

WOODSTOCK.

Woodstock, Nov. 28—Mrs. Donald Munro delightfully entertained about forty of the young friends of Miss Currie at a dancing party on last Friday evening.

Mrs. Ananias McFarlane is spending some weeks with friends in Lewiston (Me.).

The concert given last evening under the auspices of the 67th Regimental Band was a decided success, the proceeds amounting to about $100. The following programme was carried out: Selection, band; chorus (Wanita) Glee Club; clarionet solo, Mr. Robert Wollard; solo (Afton Water) Mr. Harry Dunbar; reading, Mr. B. M. Macleod; solo (You and I), Mrs. Brewer; selection, band; intermission; solo (Sing Me to Sleep), Mr. Donald Matheson; reading (The Marble Dream), Mrs. G. A. Ross; solo (The Auld Scotch Songs), Mrs. R. E. Holyoke; chorus (Old Oaken Bucket), Glee Club; march, band; God Save the King.

Sheriff Tibbits, of Andover, spent part of last week in Woodstock.

Mr. J. C. Hartley left on Monday for a trip to Toronto.

Mrs. Percy Graham, of Hartland, spent Thursday in town.

Mr. John H. Watt paid a visit to Kincardine last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Beardsley and children, who have been guests at the "Grove," left last week for their home in Louisiana.

Mr. Mark C. Gillin, of the Canadian Regiment, Halifax, was the guest of his mother, Mrs. P. Gillin, last week.

Miss Matilda Beardsley left on Friday for a visit to St. John.

Mr. Robert Caldwell, who has spent the past three months in Woodstock, left on Saturday for Boston en route to Mexico, where he will spend the winter.

Mr. A. E. Mark, of Toronto, was in town this week.

On Tuesday evening, in St. Luke's church, Rev. Archdeacon Neales conducted a special choral service for the newly organized Boys' Brigade, which is being drilled by Captain Jarvis Bull, of the 67th Regiment.

Misses Alice Harvey and Alice Dennison and Mr. Bert Harvey spent Saturday in Hartland.

Miss Katherine Clarke, of Woodstock, graduated last week at the Framingham Training School for Nurses.

Mr. B. F. Smith, of East Florenceville, was in town on Wednesday.

Mrs. John Davidson will leave this week to spend the winter in Augusta (Me.).

HARTLAND.

Hartland, N. B., Nov. 28.—Miss Lida Reid and Mrs. Gardiner made a brief visit to Woodstock last week.

Mr. E. Alexander was in St. John last week.

Rev. A. Rideout, pastor of the United Baptist church Fredericton, is here till Thursday the guest of his father, Amas Rideout.

Mr. and Mrs. Page Boyer drove to Woodstock on Saturday.

Rev. Thos. Todd and wife spent Sunday here with friends, returning to Woodstock in the evening.

Mr. Joseph Rideout, of Brighton, was buried yesterday. The funeral service was held at the Lower Baptist church.

Rev. J. B. Ganong, field secretary of the Sunday School Association, will meet with the Sunday school workers here on Monday, December 4th.

Mr. and Mrs. Robertson, of Wakefield, were guests of Rev. D. E. and Mrs. Steeves on Saturday.

Mrs. Wilkinson is here from Centreville to remain till Christmas with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Reid.

Mrs. Hovey, mother of Mrs. Kennedy, had a slight stroke of paralysis on Saturday.

HILLSBORO.

Hillsboro, Nov. 30.—Miss Mary Blight left on Monday for Boston, where she will spend a few weeks visiting friends and relatives. Miss Blight was accompanied by her nephew, Master James Blight.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Peck visited Moncton on Saturday.

Mr. George Seamans and son, Lloyd, of Moncton, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Dickson on Sunday.

Miss Winnifred V. Keith, teacher of the primary department of the Hillsboro superior school, spent this week at her home in Havelock, the school being closed on account of diphtheria.

Miss Jessie Dickson returned on Sunday after spending a week in Moncton.

Mrs. M. L. Steeves, of Surrey, left last week for Boston, where she will spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. McKay.

Miss Mabel E. Sherwood left on Monday for Calgary. Miss Sherwood was accompanied by her father, A. Sherwood, as far as Montreal.

Rev. E. B. McLatchy, of Moncton, was in town last Friday.

Dr. A. J. McKnight, of Moncton, was in Hillsboro professionally on Tuesday.

Miss Fannie Dickson returned this week after visiting relatives in St. John for the past few weeks.

Dr. B. A. Marven visited Havelock professionally on Tusday.

MONCTON

Moncton, N. B., Nov. 30—Mr. and Mrs. Robbins, of Boston, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Robinson on Sunday last.

Mrs. A. E. Taylor, who has been visiting Mrs. J. E. Masters for the past two weeks left on Wednesday for her home in Enderby (B. C.)

Mr. and Mrs. H. Wood, of Sackville, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Sumner on Sunday last.

Miss W. Williams returned on Monday from a visit to Portsmouth where she has been visiting Mrs. Walter Chase.

Mr. and Mrs. F. MacDougall left on Saturday of last week for a three months' trip to the West Indies.

Miss J. Webster, of Shediac, was the guest of Mrs. F. J. White Sunday last.

Miss Bessie McLeod, of Pt. du Bute was the guest of Mrs. C. W. Robinson for several days of this week.

Mrs. A. E. Jones, of Boston, arrived here on Tuesday of this week and is the guest of Mrs. E. C. Jones, Botsford street.

Mrs. A. J. Webster, of Shediac, was in town on Saturday last.

Miss Grace Williams left here on Wednesday for Enderby (B. C.), where she will spend the winter with friends.

Mrs. and Mrs. J. Hickman, of Dorchester, were in town on Saturday last.

Mrs. Frank Weir is visiting in Sackville where she is the guest of Mrs. W. H. Tracey.

Mrs. O. B. Price has returned from a visit to Sussex where she was the guest of Mrs. J. J. Daly.

Mrs. W. E. Jarvis, of Chatham (N. B.), is the guest this week of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Harris, Alma street.

Judge Burbidge, of Ottawa, was in town on Saturday.

Mrs. J. White, of Shediac, spent several days of this week here.

Miss Bland, of Los Angeles, California, arrived here on Saturday last and is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. McKim.

Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Smith, of Shediac, were in town on Saturday last.

Mr. and Mrs. Pipes, of Dorchester, spent Saturday of last week here.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Bruce returned on Saturday morning last from Chicago where they were attending the marriage of their son, Mr. W. W. Bruce, of the Bank of Montreal in Chicago.

Mrs. H. A. Price, of Montreal, is visiting at the residence of Mr. H. A. Sleeth, Bonacord street.

Mrs. L. N. Bourque has returned from a visit to Shediac.

Miss Roach, of St. John, who has been visiting Miss Frances Taylor for the past two weeks returned home on Friday.

Miss May Benedict, of Campbellton, is the guest of Mrs. Grace Harris, King street. Miss Benedict's many friends are glad to see her in Moncton again.

Miss Theal and Miss Steeves left on Tuesday for Fredericton to be present at the marriage of Miss Sadie Thompson and Mr. R. Shaw, which took place there on Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. C. J. Sayre, of Richibucto, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. William Powell, Bonacord street.

Mrs. J. Jones, of Mulgrave, is spending a few days with friends here.

Miss Frances Burt, of Shediac, spent several days of last week with friends here.

Moncton, Dec. 3—(Special)—Some of the smelt fishermen have made remarkably big catches since the fishing season opened and as a result of last week's work work two fishermen netted about $400. These are probably the largest catches in this section. Fishermen sell their catches to exporters right on the spot and smelts are reported very plentiful along the Shediac coast.

In one or two cases losses were met with by reason of the nets being so heavily laden with fish that they would not stand hauling out. Reports of large catches also come from Buctouche and other fishing places.

W. B. MacKenzie, chief engineer of the I. C. R. and A. C. Selig, assistant, returned last night after an inspection trip to Sydney, Halifax, Truro and other points.

Moncton Division, No. 162, B. of L. E., at a regular meeting last night, elected the following officers for the ensuing term: Chief engineer, C. P. Atkinson; first engineer, Jas. Stockford; second engineer, Peter McKenna; first assistant engineer, R. G. Jefferson; second assistant engineer, Alexander Donald; third assistant engineer, James McDermott; guide, W. F. Smallwood; chaplain, G. A. Kaneley; delegates to convention in Tennessee, Fred H. Moore; general committee of adjustment, J. Stewart; local committee of adjustment, C. P. Atkinson, R. G. Jefferson.

A regular blizzard set in this evening and the snow is falling fast and the prospects are for good sleighing tomorrow.

SACKVILLE.

Sackville, Nov. 30—Miss Knight, of the Ladies' College, spent Sunday with Mrs. Angus Avard, West Sackville.

Mr. and Mrs. Pickard Trueman returned Monday, from a visit at Moncton and Campbellton.

Mrs. B. C. Atkinson, of Port Elgin, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Edward Ogden.

Chas. Carter, of Amherst, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Duncan, Squire street.

Miss Fanny Langstroth, of the Ladies' College, was the guest of Mrs. J. M. Baird, on Sunday.

Miss Lulla Richardson, of Moncton, spent Sunday with Miss Jennie Amos.

Mrs. C. M. Borton, who has been the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Lund, for some time, returned to Moncton on Saturday.

Mr. Alanzo Bowes, of Dorchester, was in town on Moday.

Miss Bessie Hewson, of the Ladies' College, spent Sunday with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Hewson, Point de Bute.

Miss Ida Snowdon, teacher at West Sackville, spent Sunday at Point de Bute.

Mr. William Copp, of Port Elgin, was in town on Monday.

A large audience assembled at Beethoven Hall on Monday evening, to listen to the entertainment furnished by Miss Booth of Mt. Allison Musical Faculty.

Mrs. T. C. Patterson, and daughter Edna, returned last evening from a three-months' trip, during which time they visited the Pacific coast and many of the principal cities on the way. They are much pleased with their visit.

Rev. Mr. Westmorland, of the University, spent Sunday in Point de Bute.

Mr. and Mrs. Fulton McDougall, of Moncton, were the guests of Mrs. McDougall's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Black, on Saturday. They were en route to Halifax, where they purpose sailing for the West Indies, where they will spend the winter.

Mrs. W. W. Andrews gave an excellent address on Tuesday at the W. C. T. U. "Two Centuries in the Land of Evangeline" proved a most interesting topic. A hearty vote of thanks was tendered Mrs. Andrews for the instructive lecture. Mrs. W. Cahill was the president of the occasion, and Miss Edith Trueman conducted the music.

Rev. Dr. Gamble will address a meeting in the Methodist church this evening in the interest of the Lord's Day Alliance.

Miss Lilly Crane, and Mrs. Fred Bell were in Amherst on Tuesday.

Dr. Garnet O'Brien, of Amherst paid a visit to his sister, Mrs. Fred Thompson this week.

Councillor C. S. Hickman, of Dorchester, was in town on Saturday.

Mrs. Theodore Ehrhardt is seriously ill.

Miss Theakston, and Miss Fleming, of the Ladies' College, spent Sunday with Miss Gladys Dixon.

Mrs. Wm. Snowdon, of Woodstock, was the guest of Mrs. Willard Wry, on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Black left on Tuesday or Fredericton, to be present at the marriage of Miss Sadie Thompson and Le Roy Shaw, of Montreal.

Miss Sangster has returned to her duties as professional nurse at Newton (Mass.), after spending four months here, the guest of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Sangster.

Miss Benedict, of Campbellton, and Mrs. Tomlins, of Port Elgin, were guests at the Ladies' College yesterday.

Miss Lily Crane left yesterday for Ipswich (Mass.), after spending two months here the guest of her sister, Mrs. Fred Bell.

Miss McLane, of the Ladies' College, spent Sunday in Fort Lawrence.

Archie Crossman, one of Mt. Allison's musical graudates, was in town on Saturday. His health is so much improved that he has taken a few pupils in Dorchester.

Mr. and Mrs. Hart and daughter, of Sambro (N.S.), spent Sunday with Rev. Thos. and Mrs. Hart.

Mrs. C. F. Wiggins was recently called to Shelburne (N.S.), on account of the serious illness of her brother.

The Guild under the auspices of St. Paul's Episcopal church, has been re-organized with the following officers: Mrs. H. E. Fawcett, president; Mrs. Thomas Estabrooks, vice-president; Mrs. J. F. Allison, secretary-treasurer. Mrs. Allison entertained the guild on Wednesday day afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Wood entertained a few friends Monday evening in honor of their guests, Miss Chapman, Miss Dernier, and Roy Sumner, of Moncton.

Miss Pauline Powell entertained at a paper chase on Tuesday afternoon. The start was made at 4 p. m., and the party returned at six, when a tempting supper was served.

Rev. Dr. Paisley spent Sunday at Petitcodiac.

Miss Joy Charters, of the Ladies' College, spent Sunday at her home in Point du Chene.

Messrs. Roy Harper and Herbert Atkinson drove to Amherst on Sunday.

Rev. Geo. Ayers went to Charlottetown (P. E. I.), on Tuesday to attend the golden wedding anniversary of his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Wheaton were pleasantly surprised on Thursday evening by the arrival of about seventyfive of their friends to congratulate them upon their new residence and give the home a genuine housewarming. A very pleasant evening was spent, and refreshments served before the happy company dispersed.

Miss Calkin is the guest of Captain and Mrs. Calhoun, at Rothesay.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon, of Minudie (N. S.), spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. B. Fawcett.

Miss Dottie Heartz, of the Ladies' College, spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Campbell, of Amherst.

Mr. C. E. Lund is spending the week in Shediac.

Mrs. W. E. Lord is visiting friends in Shediac.

A. B. Copp, M. P. P., returned on Tuesday from Montreal.

Mr. Geo. Wilson, of Moncton, spent Sunday in town.

Mr. and Mrs. A. McCready are receiving congratulations upon the arrival of a son.

Judge Emmerson, of Moncton, was in town yesterday.

Mr. F. A. Harrison left yesterday for a trip to Montreal.

Mrs. Wm. W. Fawcett and son returned Saturday from a two-weeks' visit at Sussex.

There was a meeting of the Law and Order League last evening, President J. M. Palmer in the chair. The treasurer's report showed a balance on hand of $23.25. Important subjects relating to the League were discussed. The following officers were elected: J. M. Palmer, president; Walter Fowler, vice-president; J. F. Faulkner, secretary; W. A. Gass, treasurer; A. E. Wry, Rev. B. N. Nobles, Rev. George Steel, C. C. Avard, Rev. Dr. Borden, H. M. Copp, and C. W. Cahill, members of executive committee.

Mr. S. E. Hayward, of Mt. Allison University, spent Sunday at his home in Port Elgin.

The marriage of David Snowdon and Miss Eda M. Tower was solemnized at the home of the groom's mother, last evening. Rev. B. N. Nobles performed the ceremony in the presence of 100 invited guests. The bride was becomingly gowned in white organdie with trimmings of lace, wore a bridal veil and carried a bouquet of white carnations. She was unattended. Mr. Harry Snowdon played the wedding march. After the ceremony and congratulations a sumptuous wedding feast was served. The presents were numerous and valuable, including a substantial cheque from Capt. T. R. Anderson, a handsome oak rocker from the office staff of the Enterprise Foundry and a silver souvenir spoon from Sackville R. T. of T.

Sackville, Dec. 2—A large and fashionable audience assembled at Lingley hall last evening, the attraction being a violin concert, given under the direction of Dr. Archibald, of Mt. Allison musical faculty. Each number of the programme was a pronounced success, reflecting much credit upon Dr. Archibald. Two vocal solos by Miss Foster produced prolonged applause. Violin solos by Misses Trenn, Lusby, Robb, Deinstadt and Messrs. Jakeman, and Willie Wood were excellently rendered.

Mrs. Chas. Pickard was called to Sussex yesterday on account of the death of her mother, Mrs. Stockton.

Rev. Dr. Gamble, field secretary of the American Sabbath Union, of New York city, gave an able and instructive lecture in the Methodist church Thursday evening on Sabbath Observance.

Mrs. Isaac Wheaton, of Midgic, is critically ill.

McDonald & Co., of Halifax, who have had a branch music store on York street for some years, have closed it for the present and are opening up a branch store in Amherst.

Miss Maria Prescott, of Baie Verte, has gone to Halifax to spend the winter.

BORDER TOWNS

St. Stephen, Nov. 29—A very jolly drive was given to "Inglewood" camp, several miles from town, on Friday afternoon by Miss Edith Stevens, Miss Ora Humphrey and Miss Lillian Richardson. A number of young people were guests. The party was chaperoned by Mrs. Walter S. Stevens, whose husband is the owner of Inglewood.

Dr. J. P. Russell, a graduate of Bowdoin College, has arrived in Calais and opened an office and will practice his profession.

Mr. G. W. Ganong, M. P., made a brief visit in St. John this week.

Mr. Charles Murray, who expected to leave last week for the Northwest, has postponed his visit until a later date.

Mrs. Thomas I. Byrne and family are going to Sussex at an early date to visit relatives and to spend the Christmas season.

Mr. Arthur S. Burdette, who has been spending a few weeks here, left on Monday evening for New York city en route to San Jose, Costa Rica (C. A.), where he has been for several years in the employ of the United Fruit Company. Mrs Burdette will remain during the winter, to be near her daughter, who is at school in Windsor (N. S.)

Mrs. George H. Eaton has returned from a visit in New York city.

Mrs. John Knowles has gone to Boston for a short visit with relatives.

A "sunlight hop" is to be given in Redmen's Hall tomorrow afternoon. It is a new idea in entertainment and is given for a Thanksgiving day pleasure.

Mr. Gilbert W. Ganong, M. P., who has been visiting Montreal and Ottawa, has arrived home.

Edith, the little daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Deacon, who has been quite ill with scarlet fever, is recovering, much to the relief of her parents and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Nesbitt are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son.

Mr. Lowell Copeland, of Chicago, is visiting in Calais his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Copeland.

Mrs. John D. Chipman has returned from a pleasant visit in St. John.

A number of family Thanksgiving day dinner parties will be given in Calais tomorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert J. Dudley, who recently returned from their wedding tour, are now at Grand Lake Stream to spend two weeks hunting in that vicinity.

Mrs. C. M. Gove, of St. Andrews, is the guest this week of Mrs. Hazen Grimmer.

Miss Georgie Elliott is entertaining the Sewing Club at her home this afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Cole are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter on Monday last.

Mrs. Frank Todd gave invitations this afternoon to an "At Home" and German whist party at her residence on Friday afternoon from 4 until 7 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. George J. Clarke spent the American Thanksgiving in St. Andrews with their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Francis P. McColl, who have a house party of American guests this week.

Miss Roberta Murchie is the hostess this afternoon to the ladies of the Sewing Club, of which she is a member.

Mrs. Gilbert S. Wall returned from St. George on Monday after a pleasant visit with her daughter, Mrs. Herbert H. Johnson.

Mrs. Hugh Cullinen, of Montreal, and Mr. Alexander Cullinen, of Moncton, who came to attend the funeral services of the late Alexander McTavish, are still in town.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church will hold a supper and sale in Elder Memorial Hall on Thursday evening.

Miss Tisha McFarlane, of St. John, is expected to arrive this week to be the guest of Mrs. Thomas McCullough, Calais.

Mrs. Frederick Richardson, of Deer Island, is spending a day or two in town this week.

Mr. Jack Scammell, of St. John, spent Sunday in town, the guest of his aunt, Mrs. George F. Pinder.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick P. MacNichol and their son and daughter, Frank and Helen, left on Monday evening for Boston to spend Thanksgiving with relatives.

Mrs. Frank B. Street arrived in Milltown on Monday to make her home with her daughter, Mrs. George H. Teed.

The second entertainment of the Spencer star course will take place in the St. Croix Opera House on Monday evening next week.

"Bridge" seems to wax more popular every day. There is scarcely an afternoon there are not four or five small bridge parties among ladies who enjoy the game, which generally lasts about three hours and at the close simple refreshments are served.

CHATHAM.

Chatham, Nov. 28—Mrs. E. W. Jarvis has returned from a visit to friends in Moncton.

Mrs. Weymouth, of Boston, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Traer, left for home on Saturday.

Miss Minnie Dalton, of Newcastle, has returned home after a visit to friends here.

Miss Margaret Phelan, of Halifax, who was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John McKinnon, has returned home.

Misses Jessie Corbett and Edith Clark, of Newcastle, spent Thursday in town.

Miss May Dower, of Athol (Mass.), who has been spending the last four months with her aunt, Mrs. A. C. Woods, has returned home.

Dr. and Mrs. MacDonald are home from a trip to Montreal.

Miss Ella Phillips, of Millerton, spent part of last week with Miss Muriel Ellis.

Mrs. Wood Williston, who has been visiting friends in town, has returned to her home in Bay du Vin.

An interesting event took place at the home of Mrs. John Davidson, Douglastown, on Wednesday, when her daughter, Miss Janet Laura, and Mr. George Traer were united in marriage by Rev. James Strothard. The bridal couple standing under a floral arch. The bride wore a very beautiful gown of cream silk voile, bridal veil and orange blossoms, and carried an exquisite bouquet of white flowers. She was unattended. After the ceremony, which was witnessed by over fifty guests, dinner was served.

Mr. St. Clair Jellett, who has been spending the last few days with relatives here, has returned to his home at Cross Point, Restigouche.

Master Frank Flett pleasantly entertained a number of his young friends Friday evening, which was his thirteenth birthday.

Mr. Archie Fraser has returned from a visit to relatives at Cross Point, Restigouche.

Miss Norma Smith has returned to Rexton after a visit of a few days to Chatham friends.

Mrs. Frank Russell, of Loggieville, who has been spending a few days with Mrs. Annie McKnight, has returned home.

Miss Miriam Mowatt has returned to her home in St. Andrews after a pleasant visit of a week to her aunt, Mrs. George B. Fraser.

Mr. James McNaughton spent Sunday at his home in Black River.

Mr. Joe Ross, of Gibson, was in town Sunday.

Miss Belle Hutchison is the guest of Miss Pierce.

The Misses Marshall gave a very pleasant 5 o'clock tea on Saturday.

Mr. A. G. Bishop, manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia, Bathurst, spent Sunday in town.

Mrs. Lynott and her daughter, Miss Estelle, of Edmundston, are visiting friends in town.

Miss Mollie Girvan has returned from a visit to Miss Hutchison.

Miss Marion Morrison, of the Western Hospital staff, who has been home on a three weeks' vacation, has returned to Montreal to resume her duties.

Misses Frances and Laura Snowball went to Fredericton Monday to attend the marriage of their cousin, Miss Sadie Thompson, daughter of Senator Thompson, to Mr. H. LeRoy Shaw, of Montreal, a former resident of Chatham, which takes place this week.

Mrs. Vivian Burrill, of Three Rivers (Que.) is visiting Mr. and Mrs. James Miller.

Mr. A. Cameron, of the Bank of Nova Scotia staff, Toronto, who has been visiting friends here, has gone to New Glasgow (N. S.) to spend the remainder of his vacation.

The party given by Mrs. George B. Fraser Friday evening was much enjoyed by the guests.

The engagement of Miss Maud H. Ripley, of South Quincy (Mass.) to Dr. A. E. Loggie, formerly of Chatham, but now of Millbridge (Me.), has been announced.

An interesting event took place in the procathedral at 4 o'clock this afternoon when Miss Lillian, daughter of the late Mr. John Moar, and Mr. William Skidd were united in matrimony, Rev. Father O'Keefe officiating.

The bride looked very charming in a beautiful tailor-made suit of green broadcloth and white picture hat. Miss Araminta Johnson, who was bridesmaid, was stylishly attired in a navy blue broadcloth suit and hat of same shade. Mr. Hugh Moar, brother of the bride, supported the groom. In the evening a reception was held at the home of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Skidd, who are both very popular, were the recipients of many beautiful gifts.

Mrs. Robert Dunbar and Mrs. John Johnston, of Loggieville, spent today with friends in Newcastle.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Tapper gave a very delightful whist party this evening.

Mrs. George Hildebrand, who has been visiting Newcastle friends, has returned home.

Mrs. G. F. Ward has returned from a pleasant visit to St. John and Moncton.

Miss Angela Maher spent part of last week in Newcastle.

Mr. and Mrs. David T. Johnston, of Bathurst, are in town.

Miss Cris Berry, of Berry's Mills, is visiting her sister, Miss Rose Berry, Loggieville.

Miss Annie Harriman, of Newcastle, is the guest of Mrs. P. Harriman, Loggieville.

HAMPTON.

Hampton, Kings Co., Nov. 29—Mr. and Mrs. Allan Fairweather and their son, Lea, of Lower Norton, spent a few days last week with Miss Cochrane. Mrs. Fairweather's sister, at her home on Railway avenue, Hampton Station.

Mr. H. D. McLeod, of St. John, came up on Saturday last on a short visit to his summer residence, the first after his return from his month's vacation in the States.

Mr. E. Allan Schofield, of Wright street, St. John, has been here on three or four brief visits during the past week.

Mr. George C. Weldon, St. John, was the guest of his daughter, Mrs. W. J. Brown, at Hampton Station from Saturday to Monday.

Miss Isabel Archibald, of St. John, has been visiting her friend, Miss Margaret Evans, at her home on Everett street since last week, and will remain until after Thursday's sale and tea of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist church.

Mrs. T. William Barnes, of Hampton Station, spent Sunday last in St. John with friends.

Mrs. Oscar Hanson, jr., of Lepreaux, Charlotte county, and her infant are visiting at the home of her brother, Mr. E. G. Evans, on Main street, Hampton Station.

Mr. Thomas A. Peters, commissioner of agriculture, Fredericton, was here on Monday on his way to Alma, Albert county.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. March and daughter, Dorothy, of St. John, came up on Monday for a few days' visit with friends here.

Mrs. Johnstone, of St. John, who has been quite ill with an attack of influenza, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. B. Webb, on Church Hill, is rapidly recovering.

Mr. William Dominick, manager of the Canada Woodworking Company's factory, has taken as a residence for his family, the members of which are expected to arrive from Winchenden (Mass.) within the next few days, the house on the Cemetery road, recently vacated by the family of Mr. Jonathan Crandall.

Mr. W. O. Slipp's new house, in Everett street, Hampton Station, is being pushed forward with all practical speed and before winter is over he will have one of the most sightly and commodious residences in this vicinity.

Mr. Wm. J. Smith has sold the house on Langstroth terrace, at present occupied by Mr. W. J. Brown, to Mr. Cornelius Hendricks, of Norton, and he and his brother, Mr. George Hendricks, will take up their residence here as soon as Mr. Brown's term has expired.

Miss Flossie Peters, who has been visiting the family of Mr. Edwin Peters at Elmhurst, Kingston, returned on Monday and is now with her sister, Mrs. F. M. Humphrey.

Mrs. Burrill, of Yarmouth (N. S.), has been visiting her cousin, Mrs. S. Girvan, but returns by way of St. John in a day or two.

Mrs. Philip Palmer has given up housekeeping and at present is boarding with Miss Anne Cochrane on Railway avenue.

Miss Margaret Turnbull, of St. John, was here yesterday, a guest with Mrs. G. Prichard.

Mr. W. C. Mallory, of Somerville (Mass.), a former resident of St. Martins, was here last week.

Mrs. William Barker, Mrs. F. Jones and Miss Minnie Jones and Messrs. C. S. Smith and B. M. Hodsmyth, of St. Martins, have been guests of Miss Cochrane within the past few days.

The