A very pretty wedding took place this afternoon at the home of the bride's brother, Mr. Charles Alexander, when his sister, Miss Anna Edna, was united in marriage to Mr. George Elton Farrer, of Regina. The officiating clergyman was Rev. T. P. Drumm, and the ceremony was witnessed only by immediate relatives and friends. The floral decorations in the drawing room and hall were beautifully and effectively arranged, while autumn leaves and yellow shrysanthemums were banked at the end of the room, where the briday party stood during the ceremony. The bride was given away by her brother, Mr. Charles Alexander, and wore a beautiful gown of ivory crepe meteor over ivory satin, the corsage had a transparent collarless yoke and sleeves finished with heavy lace embroidery. Her tulle veil was draped over a wreath of orange blossoms and she carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses, lillies of the valley and purple orchids. Mr. R. Malcolm Hope played the wedding march. The groom's present to the bride was a handsome diamond and sapphire ring. After congratulations, refreshments were served, after which the bride changed her bridal costume for a stylish travelling suit of navy blue with hat to match, and amidst a shower of good wishes the happy couple left on the Ocean Limited for Regina, where they will reside. Mrs. A. E. Alexander, mother of the bride, wore a handsome grey silk with grey and mauve silk; Mrs. Farrer, mother of the groom, was gowned in a beautiful dress of black satin. The guests present were Rev. T. P. and Mrs. Drumm, Mr. and Mrs. R. Malcolm Hope, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. James Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. Clark, Mrs. Miller (Bathurst), Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Montgomery (Dalhousie), Mr. and Mrs. A. G.
