THE BANNER COUNTY.

News Notes from All Parts of Middlesex.

Old Residents Dead—Accident—Strathroy and the Public Park—Gone to the Northwest—Nearly Lost His Hand.

Glencoe wants a kindergarten school.

Metcalfe fair will be held at Napier, Tuesday, Oct. 8.

A young son of John A. Robinson's, Newbury, died very suddenly.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Row, of Avon, are laid up with typhoid fever.

Strathroy citizens are still considering the question of a public park.

The ladies of St. John's Church, Strathroy, are going to hold an open air festival.

D. C. Black, Appin, cut a stalk of corn in his field last week which was 12 feet 6 1-2 inches high.

The contract for the mason work on the Muncey Institute has been completed. The building will cost $20,000.

Joseph Tanner, of Appin, threshed for J. B. Young, 962 bushels of wheat off 30 acres, and 170 bushels of barley off 6 acres.

Mr. Harding's new hall at Thorndale is now completed, and was opened on Thursday night by the Holman Concert Company, of this city.

In the Strathroy examinations, five out of six senior leaving pupils were successful. So were eight of eleven matriculants, and fourteen of thirty junior leaving candidates.

Campbellford Herald: Rev. T. W. Joliffe has gone on a short vacation trip, during which time he will do a little business at Hamilton and visit his aged parents at Avon, near London.

Wm. Knight, of Glencoe, has disposed of the west half of the south half of lot 5, in 3rd con., to R. Reycraft. Price said to be about $2,300. There are about 50 acres in the lot.

The new Collegiate Institute teacher of French and German, Miss Margaret Cook, B.A., comes to Strathroy highly recommended. She is an honor graduate of the University of Toronto and of the School of Pedagogy.

Wm. Cooper, jun., carpenter, while working in a building in Komoka, fell to the ground, a distance of some 7 or 8 feet, and struck a pile of bricks. Besides losing two front teeth, he was somewhat severely cut about the mouth.

Thomas Robinson, of Newbury, who is upwards of 72 years of age, and generally known as the father of that village, walked home from Glencoe, 6 1-2 miles, in two hours, the other day Mr. Robinson enjoys excellent health and vigor for his years.

Mr. Grant Brown and his cousins, Misses Effie and Lizzie Brown, of Flushing, Mich., are visiting relatives in Nissouri. They are school teachers by profession, which by the way, seems to be hereditary, from the fact that their father and grandmother both taught school in Nissouri.

Gilbert Hyndman, sen., an old and respected resident of the township of Ekfrid, who died recently at the advanced age of 79 years, emigrated from Argyleshire, Scotland, in 1831, and settled in the township of Caledon, where he remained three years. He then moved into the township of Ekfrid, where he has resided ever since. From early life he had been a member of the Presbyterian Church, and was an elder for about 50 years.

Mrs. Wm. Crone, who at the age of 81 years, died at the residence of her son, Mr. Wm. Crone, in Strathroy, was born in the Isle of Wight, her maiden name being Jane Rivers. In 1833 she was married to Mr. Crone in England, came to Canada the same year, and settled on the fourth line of Warwick, where, with an interval of only a year or so, she and her husband continued to reside until about 21 years ago, when they came to Strathroy. Mr. Crone died four years ago.

The funeral of Mr. John Hall, of Belment, took place to Woodland Cemetery yesterday. Deceased was 69 years of age. Last fall he was attacked with a bad cold, which settled on his lungs, and finally developed into pneumonia. Deceased was a native of Quebec, being born of English parents in a place known as La Cole, in that Province, but some 40 years ago he came to Nilestown, and for a few years was employed in Pearson's mill. He then purchased 50 acres of land, about a mile south of Belmont, where he lived for many years, with his mother and sister.

Willey, James Clanahan, John Elmore, Wm. McElvrey, Joe McMurray, Duncan Campbell, Archie McCallum, of Ekfrid; Charles Little, Arthur George, James Walker, Dugald Leitch, of Mosa.
