Off for the Front!

The Anglo-Egyptian Expedition About Starting.

Large Force of the Enemy Entrenched at Omdurman.

Premier Laurier Speaks at Another Banquet.

Poor Prospects for the Russian Harvest—Calcutta Quiet—The Delagoa Bay Matter.

DELAGOA BAY.

London, July 8.—In the Portuguese Chamber of Deputies yesterday, Senor Jacinto Candido, the minister of marine, explicitly denied the existence of any syndicate for the acquisition and administration of Lorenzo Marques at Delagoa Bay. He said the Portuguese Government had absolutely no preference as to who should carry out the works of harbor improvement there.

BRITISH EXPORTS.

London, July 8.—The morning papers comment upon the most striking feature of the board of trade returns, which show a reduction of £1,470,000 in the export account, and attribute this principally to the contraction of the shipment of cotton goods to India, China, Japan, Central and South America, despite the increase of the shipment of wool and worsted to the United States.

COSTLY CORRESPONDENCE.

London, July 8.—In the libel action of Andrew Atteridge against E. F. Knight, Soudan war correspondents of the Daily Chronicle and Times of London, the jury awarded the plaintiff $5,000 damages. Knight wrote a letter accusing Atteridge of cowardice in remaining in the rear with the baggage, and of selfish and neglectful conduct towards a colleague, Henry Garrett, the correspondent of the New York Herald, who died of cholera in the Soudan on July 28, 1896.

BRITAIN AND THE COLONIES.

London, July 8.—The London Standard, editorially reviewing the visit of the colonial premiers, disapproves any treaty or convention for common defense between the colonies and Great Britain. It believes that if one of the colonies should not proffer aid if an occasion should arise where the honor of England was involved. "Therefore," it says, "let the bond be an unwritten one. There is far more vitality and endurance in spontaneous and absolutely free attachment."

FORWARD!

Cairo, July 8.—Gen. Sir Herbert Kitchener, who commands the Anglo-Egyptian expedition for the reconquest of Dongola, has embarked for the front, and it is expected that the attack on Abou Hamed will be made about the 30th. The Egyptian intelligence department ascertains from its spy that owing to the disaffection of the Soudanese, little opposition will be encountered by the column in passing up the Nile beyond Merawi to Abu Hamed. The forces of the khalifa are entrenched at Omdurman, variously estimated at from 30,000 to 60,000 men.

THE RUSSIAN HARVEST.

London, July 8.—A correspondent at St. Petersburg says: "The harvest prospects in central and south Russia are getting worse and worse. Continuous rains are destroying the hay crops, while the exceptionally poor beet crop in Podolien (Poalia) has practically ruined the sugar industry. The crops in some of the Baltic provinces also have suffered heavily from rains, and a significant sign of the gravity of the situation is the fact that an unusually severe censorship is exercised over news concerning it. There is every likelihood that the present will be one of the darkest years in Russian history.

THE BISHOPS COMPLIMENT THE QUEEN.

London, July 8.—At the banquet given last night at the Mansion House to the ecclesiastics attending the Pan-Anglican, or Lambeth conference, Bishop Whipple, of Minnesota, responding to the lord bishop of Dublin, who had proposed "The Colonial and American Bishops," declared that the American bishops would not yield even to Englishmen in their reverence for Queen Victoria, for they could never forget that the Queen and the lamented Prince Consort had, at a critical period, saved England and the United States from fratricidal strife; nor could they ever forget the Queen's message to the widow of Lincoln. The Bishop of Ontario also responded to the toast.

THE DISABLED CEPHALONIA.

The steamer Cephalonia, in tow of the steamer Floridian, arrived at Queenstown last evening. Her passengers were dispatched to Dublin on special trains. The Cephalonia reached Queenstown harbor at 9 p.m. The accident which disabled the Cunarder took place on Sunday morning last about 6 o'clock, 365 miles west of Fastnet. Her shaft became bent, and the propeller was disconnected. The weather was beautiful, and there was no alarm among the passengers, about 5 o'clock in the evening the Floridian was sighted, and was soon alongside. Within an hour towage was arranged, and the two vessels proceeded for the Irish coast.

The North German Lloyd steamer Spree, due at Cherbourg on Sunday last, from New York, was spoken on Sunday in latitude 48.41 degrees north, longitude 26.34 degrees west, with her main shaft broken. The Spree has been reinsured at 5 guineas premium.

SIR WILFRID AT THE FISHMONGERS' BANQUET.

London, July 8.—Last evening the Fishmongers' Company gave a banquet to the colonial premiers. Sir Wilfrid Laurier, the Dominion premier, said, in the course, of an effective speech, that he cordially disliked the word colony, because it seemed to imply superiority on the part of the inhabitants of the home country. He had no doubt, however, that the time was coming when the name colony would be exchanged for another word. Continuing, he said he wished he could convey the surplus population of the congested districts in England to Canada, where there was ample room for them, and abundant resources to employ them. In this connection he referred to the new railway over the Rocky Mountains to British Columbia.

Mr. G. H. Reid, the premier of New South Wales, said he trusted in the near future the Australian colonies would be federated, and would even surpass Canada in advantageous tariff terms. This latter statement was received with great enthusiasm.

CABLE NOTES.

The French Chamber of Deputies has voted 7,000,000 francs for the relief of the victims of the floods in France, Guadaloupe and Algeria.

Three strong earthquake shocks were felt last night at Voltri and its vicinity. Voltri is a town of Northern Italy, on the Gulf of Genoa, and nine miles west of Genoa.

Madame Lillian Nordica, the prima donna, is ill at the Hotel Savoy. While her condition is not regarded as dangerous, she will probably be prevented from singing at the next state concert.

Joseph Edouard Danton, the well-known French painter, was killed at Honfleur, France, on Wednesday, by being thrown out of his carriage, owing to the bolting of the horse attached to it. The legs of Madame Danton, his wife, were broken through the same cause.

The Reaper Death

Is Gathering in a Great Harvest.

Long List of Sudden or Accidental Deaths

Supplemented With a Case of Suicide.

DROPPED DEAD.

Ottawa, Ont., July 8.—P. A. Eagleson, merchant tailor and prominent Irish Catholic, who contributed largely to the home rule and other Irish association, dropped dead yesterday in the office of George O'Keefe, M.P.P. Mr. Eagleson was on his way home with Mr. O'Keefe from seeing some of the ministers of the crown regarding some departmental business, and dropped in with Mr. O'Keefe to the latter's office. He fell without saying a word or showing any signs of illness. He was about 60 years of age, and very wealthy.

ALEXANDER MOLSON.

Montreal, July 8.—Alexander Molson, son of the late Hon. John Molson, and cousin of J. H. R. Molson, who died a month ago, passed away yesterday morning at the age of 77. He had been ill for some months, suffering from the effects of a fall last winter. He leaves a widow and large family.

HON J. B. MURPHY.

Montreal, July 8.—Hon. J. B. Murphy was found dead in his room at the St. Lawrence Hall at 11:30 Tuesday evening. Deceased retired to his room after a hearty meal. Death was due to suffocation. Deceased was very wealthy.

PROMINENT ODDFELLOW DEAD.

Indianapolis, Ind., July 8. — John Reynolds, for 30 years publisher of the Oddfellows' Talisman, and one of the best known Oddfellows in the United States, is dead at his home in this city. Mr. Reynolds was 70 years old, and had been for several years suffering from fatty degeneration of the heart.

OWEN MCGARVEY.

Montreal, July 8.—Mr. Owen McGarvey died yesterday after a short illness. Mr. McGarvey became unconscious at midnight on Monday, and remained so until 5 o'clock yesterday morning, when he rallied. He died a few minute to 11 o'clock. Mr. McGarvey was a native of county Armagh, Ireland, where he was born 73 years ago, and emigrated to this country at an early age, making Montreal his home. In 1843 he established his furniture business, which developed into one of the largest trades in the Dominion. As a philanthropist, he was a prominent figure.

FOUND DEAD IN AN ORCHARD.

Drayton, Ont., July 8.—Mr. Peter Doyle, a wealthy retired farmer, living at the outskirts of the town, was found dead yesterday. He went to a field to cull some mustard, but did not return. It is supposed, while stooping down picking mustard, he was overcome by the heat, and, feeling ill, crawled through the fence into the orchard, where he died. He was 51 years old, and leaves a widow and three children.

SHOT HIMSELF.

Regina, N. W. T., July 8.—An Englishman named Scowan, who has been employed temporarily as porter at the Lansdowne Hotel here, tried to commit suicide in his bedroom Tuesday night with a revolver. He fired two shots, the second taking effect in his head. The man's death is hourly expected. Temporary insanity is supposed to be the cause.

BATHER DROWNED.

Toronto, July 8.—Another bathing fatality occurred here last night. A crowd of boys were bathing in a slip at the western end of the bay, when one of them suddenly sank. Another lad dived and brought him up, but lost his hold, and the lad went down again and did not rise. No one knows who the dead boy is.

MANGLED BY THE CARS.

Sarnia, July 8.—Rory McDonald, a Sarnia sailor, was killed on Wednesday morning on the Grand Trunk Railway track in rear of the Mackenzie mill property, at the foot of George street. He is supposed to have been struck by the G. T. R. express engine going to the tunnel to take the Toronto express east on the main line, and which leaves the tunnel station at 2:20 a.m. Both legs were cut off, as was also one arm, while the trunk and head were terribly bruised.

McDonald was around town Tuesday night with a number of companions, and was seen on Front street between 11 and 12 o'clock, at which time he was slightly under the influence of liquor. He was 28 years old. Some years ago he jumped from a ferry boat to rescue a drowing woman in the River St. Clair, for which act of bravery he was rewarded by the President of the United States.

The Great Coal Strike

President Ratchford Confident the Men Will Win.

Railroads Seizing Coal Regardless of the Consignees.

Bishop Potter Willing to Act as Arbitrator in the Trouble.

Columbus, Ohio, July 8.—President Ratchford said today: "There is no longer any doubt that ultimate victory for the miners is assured. Presidents of various national organizations will meet soon to consider means of relief for miners. Railroad employes are taking great interest in mining troubles and may refuse to handle non-union coal. Months ago we warned the operators of the Pittsburg district that West Virginia coal would enter markets in greater quantities than ever unless they ceased to fight."

Bloomington, Ill., July 8.—At a mass meeting last night the miners decided not to enter upon strike. The meeting ratified the agreement of the miners and coal operators to the effect that if the miners did not go out the operators would ship no coal out of the city.

Wheeling, W. Va., July 8.—Yesterday morning armed with pick handles and clubs, the striking Wheeling and Lake Erie miners at Long Run proceeded to Gillonville and forced the working miners there to come out on strike. The striking miners elsewhere are determined that the men shall not work at the mines until the strike is settled.

POLICY OF THE ROADS.

Cleveland, Ohio, July 8.—The railroads have already begun to seize coal for their own use no matter to whom it is consigned. Whole trains are sent to railroad yards and unloaded. Nearly every manufacturing establishment in this city has been the loser by this and with some of them the closing of the works will soon be necessary. An effort was made by railroad men to take three cars of coal from the side track of the Kilby Manufacturing Company which has a government contract, but President Kilby frightened them away by threats. The railroads take the coal by virtue of the fact that they carry the United States mails.

Massillon, Ohio, July 8.—The independent miners in this district have indorsed the proposition to strike.

The Wheeling and Lake Erie Railway began to haul West Virginia coal into Ohio yesterday.

BISHOP POTTER AS ARBITRATOR.

London, July 8.—The first information Bishop Potter has had of the great strike in America and that the men desired him to act as an arbitrator, was given him today. The bishop did not hesitate an instant when asked if he would act.

"I will cut my visit here short and go back immediately," he said, "if these men really want me to act for them." Bishop Potter refused to commit himself to any expression of opinion with regard to the merits of the controversy, on the ground that he was not sufficiently well informed as to the cause of the strike, but he said: "I learn of this with unmixed grief and regret, and I shall be ready to make almost any sacrifice if I can do anything to harmonize those who are at issue."

FAGGED OUT.—None but those who have become fagged out know what a depressed, miserable feeling it is. All strength is gone, and despondency has taken hold of the sufferers. They feel as though there was nothing to live for. There, however is a cure—one box of Parmelee's Vegetable Pills will do wonders in restoring health and strength. Mandrake and Dandelion are two of the articles entering into the composition of Parmelee's Pills.

The Singer Manufacturing Company now have an expert machinist, and are prepared to repair all kinds of sewing machines. Call at their new office, 122 Dundas street, or telephone 812. Charges reasonable. 65n bw

Narrow Escape From Death.

George Constable, His Horse and Rig Wedged Between Two Cars.

The Horse Killed and the Wagon Ruined—The Driver Suffered a Broken Arm and Other Injuries.

A bad accident, attended by a marvelous escape from death, occurred on Richmond street, opposite Dufferin avenue, at 8:45 o'clock this morning.

George Constable, milkman, of the Asylum sideroad, had just driven off Maple street and was crossing the Richmond street car tracks, when he was struck by a Mount Hope car going south. Almost at the same instant the construction car, with two gravel trailers attached, was going northward, and crashed into Constable's outfit, which had been stopped by the Mount Hope car. Horse, wagon, and driver were thus wedged between the two cars, and the wagon was ground literally to pieces, hardly a whole board remaining.

Spectators thought Mr. Constable must have been killed in the double collision, but were greatly relieved to see him crawl from beneath the wreck of his wagon. He did not at first realize how serious his injuries were, and was anxious about the fate of his horse. He was induced to retire to Dr. James D. Wilson's office, where it was found that his arm was broken just below the elbow, and that he had suffered a severe scalp wound and contusions on the hip and left side. A further examination will be made this afternoon.

The horse, which was wedged on the devil strip, between the two cars, limped off on three legs and fell at the corner. Its hip was evidently broken. P. C. Tuke mercifully dispatched the animal with two revolver shots.

Mr. Constable did not see the Mount Hope car because an Oxford street car was ahead of it. He waited until the latter passed, and thought the tracks clear. The construction car was some distance off, but his progress being arrested by the Mount Hope car, the other one bore down on him before he realized it.

Motorman Reycraft, of the construction car, which is used as the sweeper in winter, says he reversed the current and applied the brakes, so that the speed was greatly slackened when he struck the outfit. Motorman Walker and Conductor Jones had charge of the Mount Hope car.

Mr. Constable's loss is a heavy one to him. He valued his mare at $100, and had only recently purchased it. His wagon is now hardly fit for kindling wood.

Wise Men Know
It is folly to build upon a poor foundation, either in architecture or in health. A foundation of sand is insecure, and to deaden symptoms by narcotics or nerve compounds is equally dangerous and deceptive. The true way to build up health is to make your blood pure, rich and nourishing by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla.
