TORONTO FOOTBALL LEAGUE.

Teams Practising Hard for the Opening Matches Next Saturday.

The teams competing in the Toronto Foootball League are practising hard for the championship matches, which commence on May 4.

The Hurons are especially in good condition, and when they meet the Gore Vales, the champions of last fall, some very fine scientific combination may be expected.

The Scots have a stronger and better team this year than they have ever placed upon the field before, and their match with the Riversides, whose forward line is second to none in the league, will have a verytelling effect upon the Scots' citadel.

Football Kicks.

The Scots and Highlanders will practice this afternoon at 3 o'clock, corner Simcoe and Wellington-streets.

The Gore Vales and Royal Canadians will play their Intermediate League football match, Saturday, at 2.30 p.m., on the lawn at Stanley Barracks. The following will represent the Gore Vales: Goal, Brown; backs, Maddigan and Willard; halfbacks, Franks, Little and Taylor; forwards, Braund, Scott, Orr, Peaker and Humphry.

The following players will represent the Senior Riversides in their match with the Hurons on the Baseball Grounds at 4 p.m. to-day: Goal, Hatt; backs, Millar and Bullock; half-backs, Brown, Robinson and Horne; left wing, Cale and Gentle; centre, D. Murray, R. Wing, Barkey and Secker.

Charlie Bennett Still in the Game.

Umpire Bob Emslie put in the winter at St. Thomas, but he spent a little while at Detroit. "I called on Charlie Bennett while I was there," said he to Ren Mulford, jr., "and found him in good spirits. He can walk on his artificial legs with the aid of a cane, although he was a little afraid to venture on the ice during the cold weather. That is a mistake about his owning a cigar store. You couldn't guess what he is doing. He has been taking lessons in China painting and has scored quite a hit as a decorative artist. Although out of the game forever, he still thinks and talks about it. While Frank Shelbeck and I were there he showed us his right hand. He had lost a piece of skin as big as a dollar. 'That,' said he, 'is a reminder of a game I was in last night. I threw somebody out at second base. I don't know who he was, but boye's where I hit the headboard when I drew back my arm to let the ball go!'"

Georgian Bay Baseball League.

The meeting of the Georgian Bay Baseball League was held at Paul's Hotel, Meaford, on Wednesday. Officers elected: Pres., Plewis; vice-pres., Lamont; sec., Latornell; treas., A. J. Creighton. The schedule is as follows: Collingwood at Owen Sound, May 24, or date to be arranged; Markdale, at Meaford, June 3; Meaford, at Owen Sound, June 12; Collingwood, at Markdale, June 17; Owen Sound, at Markdale, July 1; Collingwood, at Meaford, July 1; Owen Sound, at Collingwood, July 12; Meaford, at Markdale, July 12; Owen Sound, at Meaford, Owen Sound's Civic Holiday; Markdale, at Collingwood, Markdale's Civic Holiday; Markdale, at Owen Sound, Aug. 5; Meaford, at Collingwood, Meaford's Civic Holiday.

Gilchriese, pres.; H. B. Jolly, 1st vice-pres.; W. A. McDonald, 2nd vice-pres.; Calvin Davis, sec-treas. The guarantee was fixed at $5, and the league will play 12 games, beginning the season on May 18.

The London Alerts are practising regularly every evening now, and the boys are getting into excellent condition.

The Galts of the Western League and the St. Thomas Browns will play an exhibition game on May 18.

The Willows want to hear from three clubs in the northeast part of the city to form a new league. Address T. W. Turff, 285 Wilton-avenue.

St. Michael's College inaugurate a new idea to-day, and will charge a 15c admission to their game with the Crescents. It is a correct innovation.

The Parkdale Beavers to meet Trinity University to-day: Sykes p, Holden c, Humphries 1b, Nethery or Benson ss, Moriarity 3b, Snow lf, Carley cf, Ward rf. The Beavers will appear in their new suits of blue knickers, red stockings, gray shirts and blue caps.

The experiment will be tried on the Philadelphia grounds of keeping all ball players except those actually playing or coaching out of sight of the spectators. This result will be attained by having the players' benches under the stand instead of in front of it.

The following team will represent the Crescent Athletic Club in their match with St. Michael's College on the college grounds to-day at 3 p.m.: McMahon c, Ward p, Chambers 1b, Lawson 2b, Trowbridge ss, Synge 3b, Crews rf, Young cf, and Harris lf.

The following have signed articles with the Owen Sound team for the coming summer: George McLauchlan, Phillip Bayley, Fred Glassford, Dave Taylor, Charles Dowding, Hugh Bird, John Wharry, Dave Christie, John Ross, Mike Griffin, W. Irving, Alex. Brock and C. H. Green.

The Parkdale Intermediates will place the following team in the field against Trinity Second on the Collegians' diamond this afternoon: J. Clunes cf, H. Jack lf, R. McDonald 2b, S. Leslie 1b, J. McDonald ss, K. Caldwell c, J. McDonald p, T. Leask 3b, A. Hewish rf.

It was anticipated that Carson, the catcher for the Meaford nine last season, would sign articles with Owen Sound, but on further consideration he has decided to remain in Meaford this season.

A meeting of those interested in the formation of a new club, or the re-organization of the old club, which two seasons ago played at the corner of Broadview Langley-avenues, will be held this evening at 8 o'clock, at 4 Simpson-avenue. Permission has been obtained from the Parks and Gardens Committee to play in Riverdale Park.

THE HORSES AT WOODBINE

CANDIDATES FOR O.J.C. HONORS DO SLOW WORK.

Seagram's String at the Newmarket Track—Training Gallops at Hamilton—Copyright at 15 to 1 Finishes in Front at St. Asaph—Local and General Notes of the Turf.

A stiff breeze blew across the track at Woodbine Park yesterday morning and, though trainers were busily engaged with their charges, no work of any importance was recorded. The majority of the horses were subjected to slow exercise, while several of the candidates did two-minute work. The usual crowd of turfites were present to watch the movements of the horses and discuss their chances at the coming meeting. Should the track continue to improve some fast work will likely be seen next week. The jumps in the inner field have all been rebuilt, and some of the candidates for cross country honors will be "schooled" this afternoon.

A force of men are at work laying new water pipes to the stables, a large tap having been erected in the centre of the stable enclosure, while the taps about the stables will be done away with.

At the Old Newmarket track Trainer Walker was kept busy with his string, which was worked in three sets. Several of the older divisions were breezed, but no fast work was attempted.

On the Hamilton Track.

Hamilton, April 26.—It was delightfully pleasant at the Hamilton track this morning. Trainer McGarry had the first set of the Hendrie horses, which included Lochinvar and four 2-year-olds, out at 4 o'clock. The youngsters were given slow work. Lochinvar, looking in fine condition, was sent a mile in about 1.56. Flamboro, Coquette, Royal Bob and Bonnie Dundee were in the second set. Flamboro and Coquette went a mile in 1.55 easily. Dundee reeled off the same distance at a two minute gallop. Royal Bob was galloped a couple of miles.

Versatile was walked on the turf. He will not be hurried.

L. Patterson breezed Addie B. and Radiator. The mare was ridden by a youngster. She got away from him and went a mile in 1.54. Coming down the stretch the lad got his feet out of the stirrups and was badly scared.

The Suburban Entries.

There is a great falling off in the entries for the Suburban this year, the Coney Island Jockey Club only having received 21 entries. The Suburban was reduced in value some time ago to $5000 added. It is at a mile and a quarter, and will be run probably either on the first or second day of the June meeting. The entries are:

Copyright Wins at Long Odds.

Washington, April 26.—To-day was long shot day at St. Asaph, the last four events on the card going to outsiders. Pontiac, at 8 to 5, in the first and Heretic, at even money, in the second, were the only two favorites to finish in front. Copyright surprised the knowing ones by winning the Maryland Stakes at 15 to 1. Stanley M., at 20 to 1, won the fourth race easily. Chiswick, at 7 to 1, took the fifth, and Integrity captured the last at the neat odds of 30 to 1. The weather was fine and attendance large.

Racing in England.

London, April 26.—This was the second and last day of the meeting at Sandown Park. The principal event was The Walton 2-year-old race of 1000 sovereigns, five furlongs, which was won by Mr. Dobell's bay colt Tumbler, with T. Cannon's Radoo second and T. Jennings, jr's., Literature third.

The Esher Stakes, handicap, of 1000 sovereigns, 1 mile, was won by Mr. John Dawson's Sir Benjamin, Sir J. Duke's The Corsican was second and Capt, Machell's Erin third.

Turf Gossip.

The hounds will meet this afternoon at Crow's Hotel, Norway, at 3 o'clock.

Mr. William Wilkie of this city, who purchased the bay colt Princeton, by Fred B.—Ella H., a few days ago, may be a new addition to the turf, as Princeton is eligible for the Queen's Plate, which event it is said his new owner has a great desire to capture.

It is doubtful if the Percy-Grey bill will reach the Governor in time, should it pass the Senate, and the racing commission be appointed in time to make possible the holding of the National Steeplechase Association meeting at Morris Park, which commences next Saturday.

Jack Joyner, the trainer of the Blemton Stable, has sold at St. Asaph, Vice Regal, to W. J. Smith of Toronto.

Foxhall Keene's bay colt, Dimity, ran unplaced in the Hyde Park Plate at the Epsom spring meeting on Wednesday.

The Washington correspondent of the N.Y. World says: J. J. McCafferty had the mount on Ben Lomond in the fifth race at St Asaph on Wednesday. Opening favorite at 8 to 5, Ben Lomond's price soared up to 10 to 1. Then, unfortunately for the multitude who were solicitous as to the state of his joints and muscles, and were eager to see what kind of an exhibition he would give, he was left at the post.

Billy Barrick, from whom Figaro was claimed on Monday out of a selling race and won the Peabody Handicap at Memphis on Wednesday for his new owner, has protested the horse, as he is under the impression that a horse's engagements do not go with him when claimed. Secretary Rees says he will hold the money until the Turf Congress decides the matter. The race was worth $1150 to the winner, and his new owner, Dr. Rowell, almost won him out at his first attempt.

Sims' victory on Ean De Gallio was not his first mount in England, having ridden one of Keene's colts, which ran unplaced a few days previous.

was in a dreadful state, weak and miserable. Doctor said I had Bright's disease. My kidneys were in dreadful condition. I read about Hood's Sarsaparilla and decided to give it a trial, thinking at the time it was not much use as nothing helped me before. But, thank God, I got relief after the first bottle. I kept on taking it and used five bottles; am now a cured man; never felt better. I owe my life to Hood's Sarsaparilla. JOSHUA SMITH, 201 Market Street, Brantford, Ontario

THE GAUDAUR DOUBLE.

Jake and Charlie Are Thinking of Issuing a Challenge to All Comers.

Orillia, April 26.—Jake Gaudaur told a News-Letter reporter that the Belleville Regatta Committee had cabled Harding of England, guaranteeing a purse of $1000 for a race between him and Jake, with the additional inducement of $250 expenses to the Englishman, and that Harding had declined to come to Canada. The present intention of the Belleville people is to get Berry, the English oarsman, to come out and row Jake in the singles. An effort will also be made to get Peterson of San Francisco to row. In any case, Jake is willing to allow the title of the championship of America to go with the races. Peterson's expenses, if he does come, will be about $500.

Jake Guadaur says that he would be willing to row double with Durnan against any other two oarsmen living. As Durnan has been rather sickly of late it is not likely he will sit in a boat with Jake this summer.

Jake and Charlie Gaudaur are thinking of rowing double and issuing a challenge to all-comers. They would certainly make a fast pair, and, in the opinion of many, Charlie would be a much better partner for Jake than Durnan.

A 9-year-old son of Hugh Wise, the oarsman, was killed by a wagon on Friday last.

The New Bicycle Track.

Great interest was manifested at Hanlan's Point yesterday, when the first bicyclist passed round the new track. So pleased was he at the splendid surface and curves that he was anxious at once to break a record, but was persuaded to postpone this interesting event for a future occasion. A number of the fastest flyers will commence training on the track on Monday. C. W. Ashinger, the expert track builder and champion six-day bicyclist, pronounces this track to be the fastest in the world, and J.S. Johnston, who visited the point last Monday, endorsed his opinion.

Applications for bicycle dates are fast coming in and this season will witness some fine sporting events at Hanlan's Point.

The Canoe Club Wheelmen.

The Toronto Canoe Club reorganized their cycling corps last night, with a membership of 50 wheelmen and prospects of a good season on the road. The officers:

President, J. E. Brown; vice-president, Bert Smith; secretary-treasurer, D. J. Howell; statistical secretary, W. B. Varley; captain, T. Stewart; first lieutenant, F. Andrews; second lieutenant, G. A. Howell.

They will have their first run to-morrow, out the Kingston-road, leaving the club house at 3 p.m.

Bicycling Briefs.

The R.C.B.C. will have a run to High Park and the Humber this afternoon, leaving the club house at 2.30 sharp. A large turnout is requested.

The Toronto Bicycle Club will start at 3 sharp, this afternoon, for the Halfway House, where a baseball match will be played between nines led by Capt. Love and Lieut. Brimer.

The grocers and travelers have made arrangements to hold their annual bicycle races at the Ferry Company's Island track June 5.

The Yachting Lawn Bowlers.

The annual meeting of the R.C.Y.C Bowling Association was held at the town house of the yacht club on Wednesday, for the purpose of electing officers and other business.

After routine matters had been attended to, the election of officers and skips took place and resulted as follows: President, Mr. Alf W. Smith; vice-president, Mr. J. H. Horsey; secretary, Mr. W. J. M. Taylor; skips, the president, and vice-presidents, Drs. Baines and Lesslie, and Messrs. Armstrong, Cayley, Gibson, Geddes, Jennings, Jones, McNally and Robertson.

Lacrosse Points.

The lacrosse season will likely be opened at Rosedale on May 24 by a match between the local rivals, the Torontos and Tecumsehs.

The Tecumsehs will hold a practice this afternoon at Old Rosedale. A full turnout is requested.

The Elm Lacrosse Club would like to arrange a match with some local club. They have had several offers, but would like to hear from some first-class club regarding a game for May 24 and July 1. Address William Gallangher, 255 Victoria-street.

The boys have been getting down to work this week and several splendid practices have been held. Hoise, Manning, and nearly all of last season's players have been out and everything points to success. Mr. George Ewing, who has played point for the Torontos the past two seasons, and who is one of the strongest defence players in Canada, has secured a situation in town, and will play with the Telegoos this summer.—Newmarket Era.

PROF. BLACKIE.

Some Interesting Anecdotes—Furious Political Wrangles in the Class-Room.

Judging from the number of disputes of one kind and another in which Professor Blackie was engaged during his life, it must be admitted that he had a large share of pugnacity in his composition, and a curious instance of it is given in this same account by himself. "As a boy," he said, "I was always antagonistic to school fights; pugilism had no fascination for me. I well remember a lad, over some small squabble, saying to me, 'Will you fight me?' 'No,' I replied, 'but I will knock you down,' and immediately did it, amid great applause." This method of non-fighting was rather characteristic of him throughout life. He did not care for squabbling about anything, but always "let out" straight from the shoulder.

Blackie, it may be noted, throughout life was a lover of active exercise. He boasted that he had walked over all the big hills of Scotland, going out for what he called a "single shirt walk," and staying out until apparently he wanted a change of linen, and he always preached to students the necessity of cultivating the body quite as much as the mind.

To a writer in The Strand Magazine, he said: 'The Highlanders wanted a Celtic chair of literature, and I was asked to undertake the task. Now, I am not accustomed to begging. I was told that if I did not beg the thing would go to the wall. Well, I said I would try. During that four years of begging I got a great insight into human nature, for the art of begging is simply this: If you want the duke, you must first get the duchess. There is more sympathy in women in these matters. When I had got about £5,000, her Majesty, at Inverary Castle, subscribed £200. The Princes Louise said to me, "How do you expect to get the rest of the money?" "Oh, some way or other, your Royal Highness," I replied. "But how?" the Princess insisted. "Faith removes mountains," I replied. Professor Blackie collected about £12,000, and a chair was founded.

Professor Blackie, we are also told in The Strand article, attributed his robust health to the fact that he had always worked and lived, read and thought, on a system. He rose at 7.30 and breakfasted. The morning was occupied in work and correspondence; the open air claimed him for the day for two hours before dinner, and Morpheus for an hour after the midday meal. No hard work after 9 unless he had a lecture or other engagement. The evening found him playing a game of backgammon with his wife, and he opened the door of his bedroom as the clock was chiming 12. System governed every hour of the day, and two invariable mottoes guilded every moment of his life. You could not receive a letter from Professor Blackie without finding his motto penned in Greek characters in his own handwriting in the left-hand corner of the evelope. He put it on every envelope he found about the place, the servants' included. "Adopt it," he said, "and it wil turn earth into Heaven; it will revolutionize society in the twinkling of an eye." This motto was: "Speak the truth in love." (Ephes, iv., 15.) And the second motto was: "All noble things are difficult to do." Letters he divided into four B's—"Business, Blethers, Bothers and Beggary." This was in his later days, when probably he found writing a nuisance if it did not serve some distinct purpose.

One of his old pupils states that in Blackie's class-room there used to be a demonstration every time he mentioned the name of a distinguished politician. Whether the demonstration took the Professor by surprise or whether he waited for it will never perhaps be known. But Blackie at least would put out the gleam in his eye and looked as if he were angry. "I will say Beaconsfield!" he would exclaim. (Cheers and hisses.) "Beaconsfield" (uproar). Then he would stride forward, and, seizing the railing, announce his intention of saying Beaconsfield until every goose in the room was tired of cackling. ("Question.") "Beaconsfield." ("No, no.") "Beaconsfield." ("Hear, hear," and shouts of "Gladstone.") "Beaconsfield." ("Three cheers for Dizzy.") Eventually the class would be dismissed as (1) idiots, (2) a bear garden, (3) a flock of sheep, (4) a pack of numbskulls, (5) hissing serpents. The Professor would retire, apparently fuming, to his anteroom, and five minutes afterward he would be playing himself down the North Bridge on imaginary bagpipes. This sort of thing added a sauce to all academic sessions.

Blackie and Gladstone met at Pitlochry, and they discussed their years, as old men do. "Ah, yes," said Blackie, in his own delightful egotistic style, there were three great men born in 1809—Blackie, Gladstone and Tennyson." A twinkle appeared in the old Parliamentary eye. "Ah, but," quoth the G.O.M., "Tennyson won't thank you for including him in our set. We are far too noisy for him."—London Globe.
