Sir Oliver Mowat, Minister of Justice, after a couple of weeks' rest in Toronto, has returned to Ottawa with his family.

Sir William Van Horne, president of the C. P. R., says that the election proves that, notwithstanding the dirt that is thrown to the surface by the boiling of the political pot in the United States, and which so often misleads onlookers at a distance, the great mass of the American people is clean, sensible and honest, and when matters have drifted the wrong way about so far they will always be taken hold of and set right with an emphasis. Sir William believes that good times will come to the United States as a result of the election, and "good times in the United States will have a marked effect for good times here in Canada, for experience has shown that, although the particular causes may not exist with us, our business quickly sympathizes with the ups and downs of theirs."

Hon. Louis Tourville, one of Montreal's best-known business men, a Liberal and a member of the Legislative Council, died yesterday morning. He was 65 years of age.

Sir Richard Cartwright, interviewed at Ottawa, said he was well pleased with the election results in the States. The settlement of affairs will increase the demand for Canadian lumber, which has been depressed. Sir Richard does not think that in the circumstances Mr. McKinley will repeat the experiment of a high protective tariff.

Later returns fatten up Bryan's score in the Presidential race; but McKinley's advantage cannot be overcome by changes in the figures from the smaller States.

The Liberals of Cornwall and Stormont met in convention at Newington on Nov. 14 to nominate a candidate for the House of Commons in succession to the late Dr. Bergin. It is believed that the Liberals will capture the seat.

For the week ending Oct. 31, the C. P. R. receipts increased $32,000. It is satisfactory to know that the figures are once more on the right side of the ledger.

STYLISH WEDDING IN TORONTO.

Toronto, Nov. 5.—There was a fashionable wedding at the residence of Mr. Robert T. Gooderham yesterday afternoon, the occasion being the marriage of Mr. Gooderham's second daughter, Miss Eva Claribel, to Lieut. Jas. H. Mitchell, of the 48th Highlanders. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Arthur Baldwin, in the presence of about 300 guests.

Alf Gold Mining Company.

In another column will be found the advertisement of the Alf Gold Mining Company. This company is being promoted by some of the leading business men of Brantford, Galt and St. Catharines. The Alf mine is located in Rossland, Trail Creek district. The company have incorporated under the laws of Canada (British Columbia), and the promoters are all citizens of Canada. The names of the officers and heavy stockholders are a sufficient guarantee that the affairs of the company will be run in a straightforward manner. People who invest in the Alf will have the advantage of knowing the men they are associated with, and that the affairs of the company will always be under the jurisdiction of Canadian laws.

Mr. W. G. Elliott, vice-president of the company, who has just returned from Rossland, claims they have a first-class property, and expects the Alf to be heard from very soon. The company have made Mr. Alex. Tytler, broker, 183 1-2 Dundas street, their representative, and citizens will be given the opportunity to invest with this entirely Canadian company. b

Another Royal Marriage Billed for Nov. 6.

A Successor to Sir John Millais—A New Bishop.

THE BANK OF ENGLAND.

London, Nov. 5.—The Bank of England's rate of discount remains unchanged at 4 per cent.

SIR JOHN MILLAIS' SUCCESSOR.

London, Nov. 5.—Edward John Poynter has been elected president of the Royal Academy, as successor of the late Sir John Millais, who died in August last.

NEW BISHOPS.

London, Nov. 5.—Rev. Carr Glyn, vicar of Kensington, has been appointed Bishop of Peterboro.

A dispatch from Rome says: Rev. C. F. Thomas has been appointed Bishop of Wilmington, Delaware. The Vatican has received the names of the candidates for the rectorship of the Catholic University at Washington, in succession to Bishop Keane. It is said that the chances favor Rev. Thomas Conaty, of Boston, Mass.

ANOTHER ROYAL MATCH.

Vienna, Nov. 5.—The Duc d'Orleans arrived here yesterday, and was received by the Emperor Francis Joseph.

The renunciation upon the part of the Archduchess Maria Dorothea of all her rights of succession to the throne of Austria prior to her marriage to the Duke of Orleans occurred at noon yesterday at the Hofburg, in the presence of Emperor Francis Joseph, the Archdukes and the Ministers.

A TRIUMPH FOR CUBA.

Paris, Nov. 5.—The Gil Blas today publishes an interview with the Paris representative of the Cuban republican committee, in which he is quoted as declaring that the result of the election is a triumph for Cuba, which, however, he declares, will be free before the new President arrives at the White House.

The Matin expresses the opinion that "The election does not give cause for anxiety. The uncompromising protectionism of McKinley will be weakened in the exercise of office."

STATE SECRETS.

London, Nov. 5.—The Standard's Vienna correspondent telegraphs to that paper: "The Nue Freie Presse, doubtless inspired by Bismarck, reveals another important state secret. It alleges that early in 1876 Russia asked Prince Bismarck whether Germany would remain neutral if Russia attacked Austria, as the Russian army was tired of inaction. Bismarck, in reply, recalled the German ambassador from St. Petersburg, and informed Austria of the proposition. The result was that the war cloud burst further east over Turkey."

COOLING OFF.

London, Nov. 5.—The excitement on the Stock Exchange is subsiding. The markets are quet today, and the fluctuations in American securities are small. A sharp fall in New York exchange caused consols to relapse 3-8.

The afternoon newspapers today all have lengthy comments on the result of the election in the United States. They are similar in tone to those of yesterday, and repeat their warnings that "Bryanism is not dead."

The Westminster Gazette expresses the opinion that the "clevage of the East from the West is very apparent, and is an alarming feature of the situation."

COMMENT ON THE UNITED STATES ELECTIONS.

London, Nov. 5.—The Canadian bankers and traders here fully share the feeling of relief resulting from the election of McKinley. "It is the best news Canada has had for a long day," said a leading Anglo-Canadian yesterday. "Few realize how near that depression brought Canada to grave financial peril, especially as regards the weaker banks. A renewal of that state of things must have proved most disastrous. What, with the advance in wheat, the marvelous gold discoveries, and the probable developments of, and the desire at Ottawa for closer trade relations with the United States, Canada should make giant strides in the next few years."

Others spoken to are less sanguine in their opinion. They say the beliefs of a great party, however ruinous, are not abandoned in a moment. There seems, however, a general belief that Mr. McKinley will be so restrained by his Democratic allies that no return of high protection is likely.

The news sent up Canadian Pacific and Grand Trunk stocks.

A CHURCH CLUB.

Billiards, Skittles and Beer for the Members.

London, Nov. 5.—Arrangements have now been completed for the opening, on somewhat novel lines, of a men's club in connection with the Church of St. Michael and All Saints, North Kensington. The Rev. Henry Phipps Denison, vicar, has for some time past been busy with the scheme, and one of the curates, the Rev. J. Butcher, has taken up his residence in the club quarters. The building is admirably suited for the purpose. In the basement is a roomy skittle alley, while close by is a space for boxing. Ample cellarage is also here. On the first floor is a large billiard room, with full-sized table, and on the other side of the passage is the bar.

Mr. Denison has refused to place any undue restriction upon the sale of liquor. He contends that if you teach a man to respect himself he is more likely to be careful not to forfeit the respect of others. "If any man takes too much, and makes a beast of himself, he can be kicked out!" On the drawing-room floor is the reading-room, and a large concert hall, with a fair-sized stage and footlights. Good dressing-room accommodation is provided, and the county council will shortly be approached with a view to obtaining a dramatic license. Smoking concerts are promised, and occasional lectures, and these form but the nucleus of an elaborate scheme at present locked in the breasts of the vicar and his associates.

On Sunday evenings the club will not open until 8 o'clock, to avoid any counter-attraction to the ordinary church service. After that hour, however, members will find its doors ready to welcome them, and smoking concerts will probably be given. It is not proposed to open the billiard-room and skittle alley on Sunday, as the legal restrictions prevent any charge for these games on Sunday, and the club at the outset cannot afford to run these games for nothing.

AUSTRALIAN HORSES

In Great Demand in India—Six Steamer Loads in Route.

London, Nov. 5.—The demand for Australian horses in India is now very large. One day recently four large steamers of the British India Company were due at Thursday Island, on their way to Sydney and Newcastle, to load no less than 2,100 horses, while two other steamers of the same line were expected via the Leeuwin route, also to load about 1,000 more. At the same time a steamer was loading horses in New Zealand, and three steamers, in addition to the above, will be loaded later in the season. Altogether it is computed that the total export this season will reach about 6,000 head, the greater proportion being from New South Wales.

LOUIS AND DOROTHEA.

Marriage of the French Pretender to an Austrian Arch-Duchess.

Vienna, Nov. 5.—At 11 o'clock this morning, in the Chapel of the Hofburg, Louis Philippe Robert, Duke of Orleans, Pretender to the throne of France, and head of the royal house of that country, was married to the Archduchess Dorothea.

Amid a flourish of trumpets and the rolling of drums, the wedding procession entered the chapel, where they were received by Cardinal Gruscha, the Archbishop of Vienna, who sprinkled the processionists with holy water. The bride and bridegroom then knelt at prie dieux, the wedding rings were blessed, and were then handed on a golden salver to the Duke of Orleans and the Archduchess Maria Dorothea, who afterwards placed the rings on each other's fingers. The bridal pair then clasped hands, and were again sprinkled with holy water. Mass was then celebrated, and a te deum was chanted.

FROM MONK TO BARONET

The Hunter-Blair Estates and Titles Go to a Recluse.

London, Nov. 5.—By the death of Sir Edward Hunter-Blair, the baronetcy, and probably his extensive estates also, go to his eldest son, Father Oswald (as he is now called), of the Benedictine Monastery at Fort Augustus. Many will remember the sensation which was caused some ten years ago when young Capt. Hunter-Blair, the heir of a family no small part of whose fortune had been made as official printers of the Bible in Scotland, joined the Roman Catholic Church. Capt. Blair became a monk of the Benedictine Order, and has been resident at Fort Augustus for several years past, his only appearances before the world being as an occasional writer on historical and antiquarian subjects.

The late Sir Edward Hunter-Blair, never took a very prominent part in public life, and was not so well known as his elder brother, the late Col. Blair, who was M.P. for Ayrshire, 1854. Col. Blair commanded the Scots Fusiliers at Inkerman, and was killed at the head of his regiment in that sanguinary battle. It was on that occasion that Sir James Fergusson made his political debut. He hurried home from the Crimea, where he was serving with the Grenadier Guards, to contest the seat, and after a severe fight with the late Mr. Oswold, of Auchencruive, won the seat.

FRENCH VIEWS

Differ Widely Regarding the Presidential Election.

Paris, Nov. 5.—The Socialist newspapers protest against the election of McKinley, and hold that "Although Bryan is not a real Socialist, his triumph would have been in favor of the workingman."

The Libre Parole deplores the result of the election, which it regards as being "The opening of an era of economic conflicts which may ruin the old world," and says: "The recognition of the Cuban insurgents as belligerants is included in McKinley's programme, and from that point to war with Spain is only a step. But McKinley will reflect beforehand, because Europe might well support Spain." As regards France, she has nothing to expect from McKinley, who is an admirer of Germany.

The Eclair says: "The clearest result for us seems to be the closing of the American market, and that is why it is difficult to cry: 'Long live McKinley,' without bitterness and reservation.

The Journal remarks: "The mass of the American people were aware that the silver millionaires would not be more pitiful towards misery than the gold millionaires."

The Gaulois expresses the opinion that "The election was a splendid triumph for the United States. The success of Bryan would have meant the overthrow of the relations between capital and labor and a class war. From the point of view of Europe, the ultra-protectionism of McKinley renders the commerce of America and Europe open to serious attacks. If McKinley recognizes the Cubans as belligerents, it is not Spain alone which will suffer, and Europe might well come to regret Cleveland, whose wisdom had prevented many conflicts."

Trouble In Camp.

Unpleasantness in the London Field Battery Over Finances.

A Gunner Lays a Complaint Against Major Shaw-Wood.

Non-Coms. and Men Dissatisfied With the Way Their Money Was Spent—Complaint Being Investigated.

There is trouble in the London Field Battery over the expenses in connection with their recent trip to Laprairie to the artillery competition. A few days ago Sergt. Hyman, Sergt. George England, Sergt.-Major Taylor and Gunners George Scott, Charles Teale, J. McLeod, George Judges, and Thomas McIntosh, went as a delegation to the D. A. G. to lodge a complaint. Lieut.-Col. Smith informed them that if any complaints were to be made, they would have to be made in conformity with the military regulations, which require that every man has to enter his own complaint, and that he could not listen to a charge made by a delegation.

A course was decided upon by the men, and as a result the following charge was made to Col. Smith, D. A. G.:

"London, Nov. 2, 1896.

"Lieut.-Col. Smith, district officer, commanding, London, Ont.:

"Sir,—I wish to make a complaint to you against Major Wood, of the Sixth Field Battery, London, as regards our late trip to La Prairie.

"The complain is that I did not receive my pay for duty done on that occasion, and no satisfactory statement of where the money was expended has been given by Major Wood.

"The following is a copy of the statement furnished by Major Wood:

Allowance in full from Government	$219 00
Subsistence in camp	14 00
Amount received by Major Wood	$205 00
Cost of transport	$180 00
Supper and bed at St. James' Hotel	9 75
Breakfast at restaurant	3 25
Supper for 12 at St. James' Hotel	4 50
Lunch at Toronto station	3 00
Total	$200 50

According to this, his own statement, there is yet due the men $4 50. The items that are disputed by the men are:

"1. Subsistence in camp, $14. We were informed by Quartermaster-Sergeant O'Grady that our expenses while in camp would be 25 cents per day, per man, and 15 cents for extra meal, which was breakfast, which would make a total of $5 20, a difference of $8 80 from Major Wood's statement.

"2. Lunch at Toronto station, $2. This money was taken by the men, on the understanding that it did not come out of their pay, and I cannot understand why it appears in his statement.

"3. Hotel expenses in Montreal. In former years it has been the custom of commanding officers on our competition trips to consult the men as to how their money was to be spent in regard to hotel expenses, etc. But in this case, no one was consulted about any expenditure whatever, and I think $17 50 rather expensive, and I cannot understand why I should be responsible for debts contracted by Major Wood.

"In this instance, Major Wood paid our expenses, as we understood, out of his own pocket, and then withheld our pay to reimburse himself, and I maintain that if Major Wood was not willing to pay our expenses, he should have given us our pay and allowed us to settle our own bills; therefore, I think, I am not liable for any bills except camp expenses. I have the honor to be, sir, your most obedient servant, GEORGE JUDGES,

"Gunner, No. 6, F. B., London."

Lieut.-Col. Smith, when seen regarding the matter, said he had the complaint under consideration, and that the matter would likely be settled between Major Wood and his men.

Mr. Judges said that he had asked Major Wood to take him before the D. A. G., but as he got no satisfaction by asking through the telephone, he laid the complaint himself.

THE MEDICINE FOR LIVER AND KIDNEY COMPLAINT.—Mr. Victor Auger, Ottawa, writes: "I take great pleasure in recommending to the general public Parmelee's Pills as a cure for Liver and Kidney complaint. I have doctored for the last three years with leading physicians, and have taken many medicines that were recommended to me without relief, but after taking eight of Parmelee's Pills I was quite relieved, and now I feel as free from the disease as before I was troubled."
