Oakland Winning Owners.

Thru winning the Burns handicap with Montgomery, S. C. Hildreth climbed to the summit of the winning owners' hill at Oakland, while Keene Bros. are still second and R. F. Carman drops from first to a good third position. Barney Schreiber has moved up fest thru the four successive wins of Deutchland, one of them a stake victory. Following is a list of owners whose horses have earned $2000 at the Emeryville meeting, exclusive of entrance fees in the races they have competed in:

S. C. Hildrith $15,655, Keene Bros. $15,230, R. F. Carman $13,405, H. G. Bedwell $7860, B. Schreiber $5505, H. E. Rowell $5370, H. I. Wilson $5315, Sierra Nev. Stable $4735, E. Trotter $4510, T. H. Williams $4500, J. S. Hawkins $4455, U. Z. DeArman $4315, Oakland Stable $4190, M. J. Hayes $3620, H. W. Hoag & Co. $3565, D. A. Ross $3535, John B. Smith $3100, J. M. Crane 2815, Burlingame Stable $2710, T. H. Stevens $2475, Maple Stable $2400, C. C. McCafferty $2350, M. A. Dodge $2275, R. R. Rice, jr. $2150, E. Dealy & Co. $2404, H. E. Cotton $2030.

Sporting Miscellany.

Perseverance, whose defeat in the Dixie at Bennings last November by Oraculum was one of the sensations of the year, has been entred in a numbr of steeplechase stakes by his owner, Paul Rainey, who purchased the gelding originally for the branch of the sport.

The six-day go-as-you-please walking match at Cleveland, O., ended at 11 o'clock Saturday night with Shelton of Cuba, the winner. The mile score was: Shelton 388, Barnes 377, Prouty 351, Dyer 308, Loeslin 297, Teagle 261, Ross 259, Fisk 176.

The Boston American League Club, says an eastern exchange, will probably farm Pitcher Cicotte out to Providence or Toronto. Newark secured Cicotte from Detroit two years ago in the Arthur Brown deal, but owing to an abundance of twirlers las spring Cicotte was disposed of to the Lincoln (Neb.) Club.

Tom Longboat, who is scheduled to run a ten-mile exhibition at Boston at an amateur meet on Feb. 13, has disappeared. He left last Thursday, and the I.C.A.C. don't know where he is. Claude Pearce, W. F. Cumming, and Percy Sellen will pace the Indian, if he is found before the date. He will go out against Alf. Shrubb's time made on the same track. Shrubb's time was 51 something, but it was found that he ran 10 laps short in the 10 miles.

Entries for the Olympic games to be decided in London in July, will close on Jan. 12, while for the winter games, which begin at the Stadium on Oct. 19, the last date for entry is Sept. 1. The full list is again given: Golf, May 23; fencing, June 1; polo, June 1; rowing, June 1 and 30; shooting, June 1; clay-bird shooting, June 1; yacht racing, June 28; skating, Sept. 21. It should be pointed out that the later of the two dates for rowing entries applies to Canada, Germany, Belgium and Holland.

James McLaren, a former American champion at the game of quoits and at one time holder of the international championship of the same sport, died in his 78th year at his home, in Newark.

In the early sixties McLaren defeated William Hodson, champion of Great Britain, in Newark, for the championship of America, but was beaten in a return game. McLaren won the first international quoit tournament held in this country, which took place in New York under the auspices of the Caledonian Club. In 1884, 1886 and 1888 he captured the Bell medal, the Grand National Club of America's chief quoit trophy.

McLaren was born at Alloe, Scotland, and came to this country when 21. At the age of 60 McLaren went to Scotland and issued a challenge to play any quoiter of his age in Great Britain. A match was arranged with Andrew Hunter, the champion, however, and McLaren was defeated.

Aquatic Hockey League.

A very exciting game of hockey was played last night on the St. Michael's College Rink between the Balmy Beach and Young Toronto teams. The class of hockey handed out by both sides was of the sort that is rarely seen in this city. The play all thru was of Stanley Cup quality. It would be unfair to any of the players to signalize them as putting up a good game. Combination work on both teams was down to such a point that the side with the puck usually had a fourman combination working, and a following of four opponents checking back. Still a word should be said particularly of the playing of Fred Fielder, the right wing of the B.B.C. team. He was the smallest man on the ice, and in consequence was handed out a few rough ones, and was laid out with a split nose for five minutes, but he pluckily resumed play and was instrumental in helping W. Brown to score the last goal one minute before time was up. Kid Brown justified the captain's judgment in playing him, from the game he put up in goal. The final score was 3 to 1 in favor of the Balmy Beach team. Line-up:

Federal League Finale.

BROCKVILLE, Feb. 3.—(Special.)—This year's executive of the Federal Hockey Club held a meeting this morning for the purpose of winding up the affairs for the season. The club are behind financially. The most important matter brought up was the decision that Brockville must be represented in the senior hockey world next season and with that end in view the manager was instructed to commence laying his plans at once. The proposition advocated, and it seems to meet with considerable favor, was that a senior league should be formed with such towns as Smith's Falls, Arnprior, Kingston, Belleville, Pembroke, Renfrew and Cornwall, and arrangements will be made to hold a meeting at an early date to consider the scheme.

Most Easy Going Of All Monarchs

Some Interesting Particulars About the Characteristics of Carlos.

A recent article, descriptive of King Carlos, said:

King Carlos of Portugal is the happiest, most easy-going and pleasure-loving ruler in Europe. The only cloud upon his horizon has been a parliament which persisted in trying to make laws and run the country. Life was not worth living, decided the jolly monarch, with such a pest always on hand, so he sent the lawmakers home and proclaimed that he would run the country alone for three years.

The private life of Portugal's monarch is rather interesting because it is more like that of a private gentleman than the daily round of a sovereign. As he rises at 5 in the morning, he contrives to get all his work done before mid-day, then five days of the six he gives over the afternoon and evening to his amusement—sport. He has explored every corner of his kingdom in his motor car, and a short time since, when driving thru some out-of-the-way place, he had rather an amusing experience. Arriving at a small town, he found a crowd waiting, but no one recognized him. In fact, the chief point of interest at that moment was an old woman, who had had her basket of eggs upset by those who jostled her. The king, with his usual good nature, approached and asked what was the matter. "They say the king is coming thru here today, so these idiots are waiting to see him. One cannot even do one's daily labor, with this crowd watching for a fat, lazy fellow, who does no work and spends his time in eating."

The king laughed, presented her with a coin to pay for the eggs, and to "remember the fat, lazy fellow by," and a moment more the royal car had vanished in a wirl of dust before anyone knew it had arrived—save one dumb-struck peasant woman.

King Carlos is a popular ruler and can do pretty much as he likes. When, several years ago, it was reported that he had pawned the royal crown, his subjects expressed no surprise or disapproval.

King Carlos of Portugal has earned the reputation of being the hungriest of monarchs. His three chief meals are colossal, and he cannot exist without a snack every two hours.

Being very fat, King Carlos is forbidden by his physicians to eat much meat. He disobeys the doctors, however, and is especially fond of beef, of which he eats great quantities.

When he visited England, a few years ago, he was stopping at Lord Salisbury's country seat, where King Edward was also a guest. One day at dinner King Carlos was asked what had impressed him most during his short stay in England.

He replied, thoughtfully: "Well, I think English roast beef is very delightful."

"Oh," laughed King Edward, "surely something else has impressed you as well?"

"Ah," was the reply, "of course. The English boiled beef also is delightful."

THE PITY OF IT.

New York Sun: We may only remark that in respect of tone, of substance and of intention the message delivered to congress yesterday by the chief magistrate of the United States is absolutely without precedent or parallel in our documentary history. Comment on its contents is unnecessary; it is the method, the manner, the aura that are most disturbing. Can any person skilled in the psychologic indications read this portentous diatribe without perceiving that its legitimate place is rather in the inwards of a carefully-framed hypothetical question addressed to experts than in any respectable collection of state papers?

It is an even more disturbing reflection that the hand which penned this message is the same hand which directs the American navy, now on its mission toward unknown possibilities. God send out ships and all of us good luck!

"Where Knowledge Fails."

"Where Knowledge Fails" is the apt title which Prof. Earl Barnes has chosen for his book in "The Art of Life Series." In some sixty neatly printed pages he discusses the relation and interdependence of knowledge and faith. He points out the limitations of each, and clears the way for believers to accept the progress of science and for scholars to embrace a satisfying faith.

Mr. Barnes is clear-seeing and impartial, and he succeeds in showing both sides of every picture. His conclusions are sound, and, while it is too much to hope that he may please either the fanatical scientist or the fanatical religionist, his book will be of incalculable value to all who stand between those extremes.
