Q.13 Pour quelle unité?

R.13 Le Régiment de Joliette.

PREMIER TEMOIN
POUR REPUTATION
(Suite)

Q.14 En quelle qualité a-t-il travaillé pour vous?

R.14 Comme commis aux Quartier-Maître.

Q.15 Voulez-vous dire à la Cour ce que vous pensez de l'accusé au point de vue de son caractère et quelles sont vos impressions à ce sujet quand il a travaillé pour vous?

R.15 Tout le temps que j'ai connu Bourbeau comme soldat, il a été un soldat exemplaire. Il était d'abord employé à l'Orderly Room et quand je suis devenu Quartier-Maître, je l'ai fait demandé à mon bureau immédiatement. Il a accepté et tout le temps qu'il a travaillé pour moi il s'est montré un employé modèle. Il n'a jamais épargné ni son temps ni d'efforts et énergies. Il a toujours été an avant et a compris l'importance du travail que je lui confiais et s'est toujours acquitté du travail que je lui confiais et s'est toujours acquitté de sa charge de la meilleure façon. Je n'ai pas pu lui obtenir dans le temps le grade de RQMS parce que dans le temps il était trop jeune, il n'avait pas encore 21 ans, c'est pourquoi le Colonel s'était opposé à sa promotion. J'ai agi par après par mon successeur et je me suis réjoui de sa promotion qu'il a mérité 100%. Je dois dire, toutefois que de temps à autres, il donnait des signes de mélancolie. Il y avait, je crois, des petites affaires chez-lui qui le tracassaient. Il a été ensuite désigné comme candidat officier et je fus réjoui de cette nouvelle possibilité pour lui que je croyais bien qu'il avait mérité car il n'avait jamais ménagé ses efforts. Après une dûre journée de travail il a continué à travaillé jusqu'au lendemain matin et ne s'est jamais plaint.

Q.16 Etes-vous au courant de ses troubles de famille?

R.16 Je sais que son père et sa mère ne vivent pas ensemble. Un jour je lui ai demandé le pourquoi de cette mélancolie et j'ai insinué "est-ce que c'est par rapport à chez-vous"? et il m'a répondu: "Que feriez-vous à ma place?" Je puis dire que de temps à autre ça l'affectait, mais ça n'a nui ni à son travail ni à son efficacité.

Q.17 Etes-vous au courant ... est-ce que l'unité ne partait pas pour l'autre côté, overseas?

R.17 Oui, monsieur.

Q.18 Est-ce qu'il y est allé lui-même?

R.18 Non, je crois qu'il est resté ici pour sa commission.

DEUXIEME TEMOIN
SUR REPUTATION

Le Capitaine J.L. Gauthier, faisant partie des forces du Pacifique, attaché au Dépôt du District No 4, C.A., étant dûment assermenté, est interrogé par l'officier défenseur:

Q.19 Connaissez-vous l'accusé?

R.19 Oui, monsieur.

Q.20 Est-ce que vous avez eu l'occasion de travailler avec lui?

R.20 Oui, j'ai travaillé avec lui depuis le mois de mai 1942 alors que j'étais RQMS du Régiment de Joliette, jusqu'au 9 janvier 1945 alors que j'étais Quartier-Maître.

Q.21 Voulez-vous dire un mot à la Cour du caractère de l'accusé?

R.21 Je n'ai pas d'autre chose que des louanges de la conduite et du caractère. Sur tous les rapports il a été un employé modèle, consciencieux, ponctuel et c'est moi qui l'a recommandé comme RQMS du régiment.

Q.22 Est-ce qu'il arrivait souvent qu'il travaillait au Quartier-Maître en dehors des heures de bureau?

R.22 Oui, surtout dans les derniers temps alors qu'il a même travaillé jour et nuit.

Q.23 Est-ce qu'il est allé overseas avec le régiment?

R.23 Non, j'ai soumis son nom, à la demande du Brigadier, pour sa commission d'officier.

Q.24 Est-ce qu'il avait manifesté le désir de suivre l'unité overseas?

R.24 Oui, jusqu'à la dernière minute. Jusqu'à ce que le Brigadier demanda au Colonel de soumettre cinq noms pour qu'on en fasse des officiers. Jusqu'à ce moment là Bourbeau s'en venait avec nous autres. Quand je lui ai donné la main le matin, il était peiné.

Q.25 Etes-vous au courant de la raison pour laquelle on ne lui a pas donné sa commission d'officier?

R.25 Non, j'étais parti dans ce temps là. Mais je crois qu'il avait beaucoup d'ouvrage car il a travaillé jour et nuit.

Q.26 Connaissez-vous sa famille?

R.26 Oui, monsieur.

Q.27 Pouvez-vous donner des renseignements au sujet de sa famille?

R.27 Bien ... c'est un ménage séparé, son père est à St-Jérôme et sa mère à Montréal.

DEUXIEME TEMOIN
(Suite)

Q.28 Combien y a-t-il d'enfants dans sa famille?

A.28 J'en connais trois.

Q.29 Est-ce qu'ils vivent avec le père ou la mère?

R.29 Il y en a une de marié et il y a un petit bonhomme qui vit avec le père. Bourbeau m'en a souvent parlé et je sais que ça l'affectait beaucoup de voir la manière dont son père vivait.

L'OFFICIER DEFENSEUR S'ADRESSE A LA COUR
AU NOM DE L'ACCUSE AVANT QUE LA SENTENCE SOIT RENDUE

M. le Président,
Membres de la Cour,

Je ne parlerai pas longtemps, je voudrais simplement récapituler un peu ce que les témoins de caractère ont dit au sujet de l'accusé.

Il est dans l'armée active depuis plusieurs années, comme l'ont dit les Capitaines Marchand et Gauthier. Il a toujours été bon soldat et sous-officier modèle. On lui a confié plusieurs charges responsables, surtout celle de RQMS, dont il a toujours su s'acquitter avec honneur. Il ne s'occupait pas de son temps et a travaillé jour et nuit. Il a été à Terre-Neuve, ce n'était pas en preuve, mais il a été à Terre-Neuve pendant deux mois, où il a travaillé fort et, comme ont bien voulu témoigner les Capitaines Gauthier et Marchand, il a travaillé jusqu'à quinze heures par jour lorsqu'il était avec son régiment. Le régiment a été transféré à Valcartier pour aller de l'autre côté et on a laissé Bourbeau au Quartier-Maître avec l'intention de lui faire prendre sa commission, espoir qui ne s'est pas réalisé.

La grande cause, toutefois, de l'offense commise par Bourbeau, ce sont bien les troubles de famille chez-lui. Je n'ai pas besoin de m'étendre la dessus parce que la lettre de son père est explicative pour tout le monde. Il faudrait se mettre à sa place pour comprendre dans quel état d'esprit se trouvait l'accusé. Ses parents vivent chacun de leur côté, les enfants sont séparés et il n'y a pas d'unité familiale. Cet état de chose existe depuis assez longtemps et, comme le disaient les Capitaines Gauthier et Marchand, celà affectait certainement son morale, si ça n'affectait pas son travail. Bourbeau était pris entre son père et sa mère et il essayait probablement une réconciliation, qui n'a pas réussi d'ailleurs et je prétends que c'est la grande cause pour laquelle il est resté absent-sans-permission.

Pour toutes ces raisons, je demande à la Cour d'être aussi clémente que possible. Bourbeau est un jeune et bon homme, bon travaillant qui a fait ses preuves dans l'armée. Son record est intacte, mais par contre, son morale est à terre complètement et je dirais qu'une sentence un peu forte ne contribuerait pas beaucoup à améliorer son sort. Il a déjà passé quarante jours sous "close arrest" dont cinq jous dans le "clink" couché à terre avec les ivrognes du camp. Je vous demande de lui donner une chance, ça ne fera certainement pas de tort.

A-22966 Pte Butcher, G.C.

1. The m/n soldier is now serving a sentence of 2 years imprisonment with hard labour and discharge with ignominy awarded by FGCM 12 Mar 45 for an absence without leave from which he was apprehended after 211 days (AA Sec 15(1)), and an absence without leave from which he surrendered after 219 days (AA Sec 15(1)).

2. He has so far earned full remissions for good conduct while serving his sentence and accordingly the earliest date on which his sentence of imprisonment with hard labour should terminate if he continues to do so, is 11 Jul 46.

3. This soldier enlisted 1 Feb 41 at Windsor, Ont., and he is now 24 years of age. In addition to the offences mentioned in para 1 above he has since enlistment been found guilty of 2 offences under AA Sec 40. He has had no previous FGCM.

4. This soldier was medically reboarded 8 Aug 45 and placed in Pulhems Grade S4 on a diagnosis of "chronic psychoneurosis, anxiety state". He has been certified as fit to undergo detention.

5. The Neuropsychiatrist and S.P.O. who have examined this soldier state that he is an individual of average intelligence who is immature, timid and apprehensive; that his history is one of inadequacy; that he projects himself into his dreams to compensate for his lack of achievement; that he states he went absent because he was too nervous to stand further service in action; and that although he is reasonably conscientious, he is not of operational calibre.

6. In view of the length of this soldier's illegal absence from a field unit and the fact that he now admits it was for the purpose of avoiding further service in action, it is considered that the sentence including discharge with ignominy is appropriate and that he should be required to serve his sentence of imprisonment with hard labour in full and be discharged with ignominy under the provisions of para 9 of Appx to CARO 1029. It is considered that this soldier has deliberately misconducted himself in order to avoid further service in action and he probable had his discharge in view.

7. It has accordingly been directed, pursuant to P.C. 1304/44, that this soldier be returned to Canada in custody under sentence. Herewith original proceedings of the FGCM held 12 Mar 45, together with original A.F.A3104 in respect thereof on which this direction has been endorsed.

Statement by the Accused

I joined the army in 1940 and I have been high strung, and nervous ever since a accident in 1934. I went to England in July 41. I went through all of the Sicilian campaign and the Italian campaign up as far as the Ortona front. Since the Sicilian campaign, I have had family troubles. At the Ortona front my ~~[illegible]~~ nerves started to go. The reason I did not go to M.O. was because others who went to the M.O. were advised to return to the front. I just about got it at Ortona. After a few weeks I was thinking about coming back, but thought it was too late. I asked a military policeman at Campobasso, who appeared to be a sergeant, what sentence they would give me on coming back, and ~~[illegible]~~ he told me they would shoot me. After he told me that, I assumed it would be better to stay in Italy than be shot. I had that idea up until last January, when some English soldiers came to the town I was staying in. I asked them if it was true that a man A.W.L. for more than six months would be shot. They said "No". When they told me that, I figured a term in jail would be the best thing in order to return home. So I said good bye to my friends, and surrendered simply at Benevento, and was returned here.

Many times while I was A.W.L. I would wake up in the middle of the night, hearing the whistling of shells. I would have to get up and walk around and therefore got no sleep at all. Even now I jump at the slightest loud noise.

R.P. 83(b) complied with

The above statement was read back to the accused.

Mitigation of sentence

Pte Butcher G. C. joined the army on the 1st Feb. 1941 in Canada, He was sent to England six months later in July 1941 where he spent two years, doing training. He took part in various battle schemes held in England, ~~where~~ he proved to be a soldier willing to learn, and anxious to do work, his results he had very good records of his work while in England.

He was in the Invasion ~~during~~ and through all the campaing, and finally came to Italy where he fought ~~up to~~ Ortono front in action, he was a good soldier, ~~despite~~ the man was subject to be nervous at times.

~~He~~ Through all this time in the army Pte Butcher was only awarded few days C.B for minor offences.

I would ask the court to take these facts in consideration when giving the sentence to the accused.

STATEMENT OF ACCUSED IN REFERENCE TO PLEA OF GUILTY:
F-607734 Pte. Gordon Henry BELL

Sir:

The reason I went home is the illness of my father. My father and sister have been under a doctor's care since my mother died. My father is 74 years old and he has been sick for five years, and my sixteen year old sister is delicate, and she was home alone when mother died, and she suffered quite a shock when mother died. Since then my father and sister have been sick. Father was laid off, and I had a chance to get a job, and I wired for ah extension. I could not take the chance of leaving my father and sister in the state they were in, and I had a chance to get a job, so I took it. The Monday I was apprehended I had told my father I intended to come back to the army on Wednesday. I present the following documents to that effect: Certified true copy of letter from M.J. Kaufman, Mayor of Amherst(marked Exhibit "F" attached), letter from Dr. B. McCannell (marked Exhibit "G" attached), certified true copy of letter from Dr. B. McCannell (marked Exhibit "H" attached), letter from the Rector of St. Charles' Rectory, Amherst (marked Exhibit "I" attached) and letter from the Commissioner of Public Works at Amherst, Mr. H.J. Shea (marked Exhibit "J" attached).

Officer Commanding,
No.60 CI(B)TC,
Yarmouth, N. D.

Dear Sir:

I am writing on behalf of F.607734 Pte. Gordon Bell, under your command.

Pte. Gordon Bell is making application for his discharge from the Armed Services or to be granted leave of absence for compassionate reasons which are as follows:

I have been advised by Dr.Bruce MacCannell of this Town that his father, William Henry Bell, who is residing at No.2 Park Street, Amherst,N.S. because of ill health and age is certainly unfit for further labor.

I am well acquainted with Mr.Wm. Bell and know the above to be true in every respect. Mr.Bell's wife passed away last February 1945.

In view of these facts and also the fact that Pte.Bell is needed here at home, I would very much appreciate anything that you could do with regard to his obtaining his discharge.

Thanking you, I remain

Yours very truly,

M. J. Kaufman
Mayor.

2. It is desired to advise, with reference to para 2 of your above mentioned letter, that this case was submitted to this HQ during the absence of the AJAG then on special duty at the WDCS CA. The Officer who checked this Summary of Evidence forgot to comply with the provisions of K.R.(Can). 540. This error is regretted and steps have been taken to avoid the repetition of such errors.

3. The Finding and Sentence in this case were quashed as suggested. A Minute of this Quashing and a Minute of Promulgation are attached to Page "A" of the proceedings.

4. It was not considered practical to convene a new Court-Martial as four material witnesses are now out of this District and too much expense would be incurred to recall them. Authority has therefore been granted to discipline this soldier summarily.

D

Le procureur n'a plus de témoins à appeler.
La poursuite est close.

Motion de non-lieu

Il est loisible à l'accusé, à son avocat ou à l'officier défenseur, après l'audition de la preuve de la poursuite, d'alléguer que celle-ci n'a pas réussi à établir une présomption légale contre l'accusé et que ce dernier ne devrait pas, par conséquent, être contraint de présenter sa défense. Dans le cas d'une telle motion, le procès verbal sera consigné sur des feuilles séparées qui seront insérées immédiatement avant la présente page D. Si la cour estime que cette allégation est bien fondée, elle doit acquitter l'accusé et consigner son verdict à la page A.

Défense

Le président s'adresse à l'accusé en ces termes:

"Il est de mon devoir en cette circonstance de vous aviser de vos droits touchant la conduite générale de votre défense. La procédure à suivre dépend entièrement des réponses que vous ferez aux questions de forme que nous allons vous poser. Il importe donc que vous compreniez et saisissiez l'effet de vos réponses. Vous n'aurez pas à témoigner sous serment à moins que vous ne le vouliez. Mais, si vous faites des dépositions assermentées, vous serez sujet à l'interrogatoire contradictoire par les soins du procureur et à l'interrogatoire par les soins de la cour."

"Si vous ne faites pas de déposition sous serment, vous avez le droit de faire une déclaration où vous donnerez votre version de l'affaire. Vous ne serez pas assermenté et vous ne serez pas interrogé sur ce que vous dites, par la cour ou par quelque autre personne. Je dois cependant vous prévenir qu'une déposition faite sous serment aura plus de poids aux yeux de la cour qu'une simple déclaration non assermentée."

S'il n'y a pas d'officier défenseur, le président explique alors à l'accusé l'effet que ses réponses aux questions de forme de la page D du procès verbal auront sur l'ordre des dernières plaidoiries, prévu dans les Règles de procédure 40 et 41.

Question à l'accusé: Désirez-vous comparaître, vous-même, comme témoin, ou bien désirez-vous faire une déclaration non assermentée.

Réponse: Je désire rendre témoignage sous-serment monsieur.- (Pages D-3 et suivantes).

Question à l'accusé: Avez-vous l'intention de citer des témoins pour votre défense?

Réponse: Non monsieur.-

CHARGES:

2. CONDUCT TO THE PREJUDICE OF GOOD ORDER AND MILITARY DISCIPLINE.

The O.C. directs that the evidence be taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS: D-643817 Sdt VEZINA Roger, N.R.M.A., att. to A-13 C.I.T.C., C.A., dûment assermenté, déclare:

Jeudi soir le 30 août 45 lorsque le "lights out" a sonné, j'ai fermé mon radio que se trouvai sur une tablette au-dessus de mon lit. Le lendemain matin, le Sdt Noel a trouvé une "plug" près de la porte. Comme il savait que cette "plug" m'appartenait, il a regardé sur ma tablette et il s'est aperçu que le radio était disparu. Il m'a alors réveillé et je me suis aperçu que mon radio était disparu. Lorsque le C.O.S. est passé, je lui ai fait remarquer que le radio était parti. Le C.O.S. m'a donné instruction de continuer mon ouvrage et a fait rapport au C.S.M. de ma Compagnie. Vers 9 heures, deux M.P's sont arrivés à ma hutte et m'ont amené avec eux afin d'identifier le radio au cas où ils le trouveraient. Rendu à la hutte 325 en tâtant les "kit bags" un dit M. P's s'est aperçu qu'il y avait un radio dans l'un d'eux. Le Kit Bag était sous clef. Le nom du Sdt Bérubé apparaissait sur ce Kit bag. Le M.P. s'est alors informé au "hut orderly" et à quelques autres soldats si Bérubé avait un radio. Ils ont tous déclaré qu'il n'en avait pas. L'autre M.P. est alors sorti et est revenu avec Bérubé. Durant son absence, j'avais donné au M.P. qui était demeuré, la description de mon radio et les marques d'identification qu'il y avait dessus. Les M.P's ont alors demandé à Bérubé d'ouvrir son Kit Bag. Il L'a ouvert et a sorti un radio que j'ai alors recommu comme étant le mien. Un des M.P's a alors demandé à Bérubé à qui appartenait le radio et il a répondu que c'était le mien. Le même M.P. lui a demandé pourquoi il avait volé ce radio. Il a alors déclaré que c'était pour se faire ôter de sur une draft. Nous sommes allés ensuite au bureau du Major Doiron à la 21ème Infanterie. On a alors gardé mon radio comme pièce à conviction et on amené Bérubé dans le "clink".

Q.- Connaissiez -vous Bérubé?
R.- J'ignorais son nom, mais en le voyant je me suis rappelé qu'il était venu quelques jours auparavant dans notre hutte afin d'obtenir un renseignement quelconque.

THE ACCUSED CROSS-EXAMINES THE WITNESS

Q.- A quel endroit a-t-il trouvé la "plug"?
R.- A peu près 8 ou 9 pas de la porte du milieu en direction de la 1ère et 81ème Infanterie.

Att. to A-13 C.I.T.C., C.A.

SECOND WITNESS: D-605282 Sdt Christian DUPONT, R.H.Q., R.M.P., att. to A-13 C.I.T.C., C.A., dûment assermenté, déclare:

Vers les neuf heures, je fus détaillé par le Sergent Leclerc B., en charge du "clink", pour aller me rapporter au bureau de la 2e Infanterie pour devoir au sujet d'un vol qui fut perpetré à cette compagnie. A la 21ème Infanterie, le C.S.M. m'a dit d'aller dans les huttes du A-13 et vérifier les kits des hommes afin d'essayer de trouver un radio qui fut volé. Ce radio appartenait au soldat Vézina de la 21ème Infanterie. Je me suis rendu d'abord à la 1ère Infanterie en compagnie du Pte Laflamme M.P., et du Pte. Vézina. A la hutte 325, en tâtant les "Kit Bags", j'ai senti comme une sorte de petite boîte pouvant avoir la forme d'un petit radio dans un de ces "Kit Bags". Le nom de Bérubé apparaissait sur celui-ci. J'ai alors donné instructions à Laflamme d'aller chercher Bérubé. Durant ce temps, Vézina m'a dit que son radio était de la marque Victor et qu'il était cassé dans le coté et qu'il manquait 3 vis en arrière. Lorsque Laflamme est revenu avec Bérubé, j'ai demandé à ce dernier d'ouvrir son "Kit Bag". Il l'a ouvert et a sorti un radio qui correspondait à la description que m'avait donnée le Pte. Vézina. J'ai demandé à Bérubé à quel endroit il avait pris le radio et il m'a répondu que c'était à la hutte 330. Je lui ai alors demandé si c'était à lui. Il m'a répondu non que c'était au Pte. Vézina. Je lui ai ensuite demandé pourquoi il avait pris ce radio. Il m'a dit que c'était pour s'exempter d'une draft.

Je l'ai amené au bureau du Major Doiron afin de faire rapport que le radio était retrouvé. Le Major Doiron m'a donné instructions de conduire Bérubé au "clink". C'est ce que j'ai fait.

THIRD WITNESS: D-642630 Sdt Jean-Paul LAFLAMME, R.H.Q., R.M.P., att. to A-13 C.I.T.C., C.A., dûment assermenté, déclare:

Le 31 août 45, j'ai été détaillé par le Sergent Leclerc, en charge du "clink", pour aller enquêter sur un vol de radio à la 21ème Infanterie. Je me suis rendu à la 21ème Infanterie en compagnie du Sdt Dupont. Le C.S.M. de la 21ème Infanterie nous a donné instruction d'aller dans les huttes faire des recherches.

Nous sommes partis en compagnie du Sdt Vézina qui s'était fait voler son radio. Nous sommes allés d'abord dans la hutte 325 de la 1ère Infanterie. En tâtant les "Kit Bags", le Sdt Dupont s'est aperçu qu'il y avait un radio dans l'un d'eux. Il y avait deux "kit bags" attachés ensemble et sur l'un d'eux, le nom de Bérubé apparaissait. Dupont m'a alors dit d'aller chercher Bérubé. Je suis revenu avec lui quelque temps après. Dupont a alors dit à Bérubé d'ouvrir son "kit bag". Celui-ci ouvrit son "kit bag" et sortit un radio que Vézina a immédiatement identifié comme le sien. Lorsque nous nous sommes dirigés vers le bureau de la 21ème Infanterie, le sdt Dupont a demandé à Bérubé à quelle place il avait pris le radio. Le Sdt Bérubé a alors déclaré que le radio appartenait au Sdt Vézina et qu'il l'avait volé pour s'exempter d'une draft. Nous nous sommes rendus au bureau du Major Doiron et nous avons ensuite amené Bérubé dans le "clink".

The accused declined to cross-examine.

FOURTH WITNESS: D-450917 Pte Roland NOEL, N.R.M.A., att. to A-13 C.I.T.C. C.A., dûment assermenté, déclare:

Vendredi le 30 août 45 au matin je revenais de passe. En dehors de la hutte où je loge à six ou sept pas de la porte du centre, en entrant j'ai trouvé une "plug". Je l'ai ramassée en me faisant la réflexion que cela pouvait provenir du radio du Sdt Vézina que je connais depuis ce printemps. Arrivé dans la hutte, j'ai regardé sur la tablette où Vézina mettait son radio et j'ai constaté qu'il n'y était plus. J'ai réveillé Vézina et je lui ai demandé ce qu'il avait fait de son radio. Il a alors regardé sur la tablette et il a dit: "Il faut croire que je me suis fait voler mon radio cette nuit". J'étais parti en passe la veille au soir et le radio était là. De ma connaissance, Vézina avait ce radio depuis que je le connais. C'est un petit radio.

Q.- Quelle sorte de "plug" était celle que vous avez trouvée?
R.- C'était une "plug" avec 2 pattes pour permettre d'entrer celle qui va au bout du fil.

The accused declined to cross-examine.

Standing Court-Martial
K.102844 Pte. Lucien Berube,
Royal 22e Regt., C.A.,
att.A-13 C.I.T.C., C.A.

Receipt is acknowledged of the proceedings of the m/n Standing Court-Martial which were forwarded by the President named therein.

2. The accused was charged with theft contrary to A.A. 18(4) and alternatively with improper possession contrary to A.A. 40 in connection with the theft of a radio from a fellow soldier. The Charge Sheet and Summary of Evidence were not submitted to this Headquarters in accordance with K.R.(Can) 540. May an explanation of this omission be forwarded, please.

3. The accused was remanded for trial by Standing Court-Martial on the above charges, to both of which he pleaded Not Guilty. He was found Guilty of the first charge (theft) and Not Guilty of the alternative charge (improper possession) and was sentenced to undergo detention for six (6) months.

4. As the accused did not elect trial by Standing Court-Martial pursuant to C.A.R.O. 4563 para.10, the Court had no jurisdiction to try him upon the charge in respect of which he was convicted. Accordingly, the Finding cannot be upheld in law and I must advise that the same should be quashed. Quashing may be effected by the endorsing by you on page "A" of the proceedings of the following Minute to be signed by you and dated:

> "On the advice of the Judge Advocate-General, I hereby quash the Finding of this Court on the first charge and direct that the record of such conviction be, and the same is, hereby removed and the accused relieved from all consequences of his trial thereon."

5. The quashing should be duly promulgated to the accused and reflected in Unit Orders in the usual manner.

6. Since there was evidence upon which a conviction of theft could properly be made by a Court having jurisdiction to try the charge, you may care to consider whether the accused should be retried by District Court-Martial. In this connection you are referred to A.A.157 para. 3 of Note thereto.

.....(PTO)

7. It is further observed that the date of the alleged offence was 31 Aug 45 and the date of trial was 13 Sep 45, but that M.F.B.355 does not state the number of days spent by the accused in military custody.

8. The proceedings are forwarded to you in order that the above recommendation may be carried out and also in order that you may comply with the provisions of paragraph 12 of C.A.R.O. 4565. May they be returned to this office after they have served your purpose.

(R.J.Orde) Brigadier,
Judge Advocate-General.

Montreal, 5 sept. 1945.

Je, soussigne, Charles Rene Bougie, declare ce qui suit:-

En fevrier 1945, j'etais avec la 3ieme Compagnie de Munitions de St-Polycarpe depuis environ un an. Durant ce temps je fus promu L/Cpl et plus tard Corporal. Je visitais regulierement ma famille et en particulier ma mere qui était bien malade. Aussi, ma feuille de consuite etait sans tache. Vers le 14 février, je recus l'ordre de me rapporter quelques jours plus tard au depot de la region militaire No 4.

Je ne savais pas d'une facon definitive ou je devais etre transferre, mais les bruits couraient que j'allais a debert, tandis que d'autres allaient a St-Jean, Que.

Comme ma mere avait une grave maladie de coeur (Certificat assermente du medecin inclus) et que son etat necessitait beaucoup de menagement, je me rendis aux quartiers-generaux du district pour demander si l'on voulait bien me transferre a St-Jean plutot qu'a Debert. Ma mere s'inquietait beaucoup a mon sujet, a cause de mon depart et de mon état de santé.

Ne recevant aucune reponse, je m'absentai sans permission le 20 fevrier pour me rapporter le 28 aout. [redacted]

En terminant, puis-je ajouter qu'etant un peu l'enfant prefere de ma mere, je craignais, apres consultation d'un medecin sur son etat de sante que mon depart au loin pourrait avoir pour elle des suites tres graves et que cela pourrait peut-etre la faire mourir d'une syncope.

A qui de droit :

Ceci pour certifier que j'ai traité Madame Elise Bougie, mère de M. Pierre Bougie, en février 1945 pour hypertension artérielle grave, mon mia dépassant 250 mm. Madame Bougie a d'ailleurs présenté une hémi-plégie transitoire. Je puis actuellement pas condition inchangée. C'est une pauvre malade nécessitant beaucoup de soins et de ménagements.

Nécessité d'avoir soin ce jour pour du mois de septembre 1945 et de disposer mon salaire Merci

Capitaine G. Deneault, Les Fusiliers de Sherbrooke, C.A., attached to Longue Pointe Ordnance Depot, R.C.O.C., C.A. étant dûment assermenté, est interrogé par l'officier défenseur.

Q. Avez-vous déjà été l'officier commandant du soldat BOUGIE, l'accusé?

R. J'ai eu le soldat BOUGIE sous mes charges durant six mois à St-Polycarpe, qui était le No. 3 Ammunition Coy.

Q. Pourriez-vous dire à la cour de quelle façon le soldat BOUGIE s'est conduit pendant qu'il était sous vos ordres?

R. Lorsque j'ai eu le soldat BOUGIE à St-Polycarpe il agissait comme en charge du département médical "First Aid"; aussi il a été un soldat modèle, très dévoué. Il prenait souvent l'organisation du divertissement des soldats du côté "sport" ou de la bibliothèque, et je n'ai jamais rien eu à reprocher au soldat BOUGIE durant les six mois que j'ai été son commandant.

LE PROCUREUR NE DESIRE PAS INTERROGER CONTRADICTOIREMENT LE TEMOIN.

LE TEMOIN SE RETIRE.

Procédure sur déclaration de culpabilité précédant la sentence

Quand la cour en est arrivée à une décision relativement à tous les chefs d'accusation contre l'accusé et que ladite décision a été annoncée à ce dernier, le procureur remet au président le modèle M.F.B. 355 et, si possible, un modèle M.F.M. 6.

Ces documents sont lus à la cour par le président, marqués "Y" et "Z", signés par le président et versés au dossier.

Question à l'accusé. Avez-vous quelque déclaration à faire relativement aux documents dont on vient de vous donner lecture ?

Réponse: Non, monsieur.

Question à l'accusé. Désirez-vous adresser la parole à la cour ?

Réponse: Oui, monsieur. (Par l'entremise de mon officier défenseur - Voir E-3).

La sentence est alors consignée à la page "A" du procès verbal et elle est annoncée à l'accusé en plein tribunal.

Le président établit alors et signe le mandat d'incarcération, le cas échéant, et celui-ci est immédiatement transmis au commandant de l'accusé. Dans chaque cas, il établit aussi et signe le certificat de procès devant une cour martiale permanente et le transmet en conformité des règlements. Le procès verbal ainsi que tous les documents seront transmis au juge-avocat général.

EXPOSE DE L'OFFICIER DEFENSEUR AU NOM DE L'ACCUSE.

Monsieur le président,

Le soldat René BOUGIE appartient à une des vieilles et bonnes familles de Notre-Dame de Grâce que je connais très bien. J'ai vu le soldat Bougie à l'oeuvre dans toutes les organisations paroissiales, organisations de charité, etc., et il s'est toujours dévoué. Dans l'armée il a toujours eu le même esprit. C'est pour cette raison que j'ai accepté de le défendre.

Bougie, durant les trois premières années de son service militaire dans l'armée canadienne a eu une conduite exemplaire, malgré certains handicaps. Il causait beaucoup d'inquiétude à sa mère, parce qu'assez longtemps il a souffert des oreilles et à la tête, et évidemment la mère s'inquiétait. Bougie était aimé et estimé de ses camarades et de ses supérieurs.

Cependant, un moment ou il eut à choisir entre le coeur et la raison, sa mère était malade et il savait que son départ subitaurait pu lui être néfaste, alors par un sentiment que l'on peut très bien comprendre, sentiment qu'un fils doit avoir pour sa mère, il a laissé le devoir pour écouter son sentiment. Je crois que dans les conditions...l'état de santé de sa mère, il ne voulait pas risquer qu'elle devienne plus mal, puisqu'elle était déjà très mal, et il s'est absenté. Il a toujours été le grand bébé de la maison.

C'est pour ces raisons, monsieur le président, que je demanderais la clémence de la cour pour le soldat BOUGIE.

Procédure sur une dénégation de culpabilité

Question à l'accusé.

Désirez-vous demander un ajournement, sous prétexte que l'une quelconque des règles de la procédure antérieure au procès n'aurait pas été observée, vous causant ainsi préjudice, ou que vous n'auriez pas eu assez de temps pour la préparation de votre défense ?

Réponse: Non Monsieur.

(Si l'accusé demande un ajournement, voir les instructions à la page 747 du M.D.M.)

~~Le procureur procède à l'appel des témoins~~

~~Pr à~~

~~Une enquête sommaire, est interrogé par le procureur.~~

~~Question.~~ LE PROCUREUR REMET AU PRESIDENT LES DOCUMENTS SUIVANTS SE RAPPORTANT A L'ACCUSE.

- - - - - - - - - - - - - - -

1° Extrait certifié des Ordres du Jour Partie II, No. 2, en date du 5 janvier 1945, émis par le 1er Bataillon Fus. du St. Laurent, A.C., se rapportant à l'accusé;

"Ce document est lu par la Cour, marqué "G", signé par le Président et versé au dossier."

2° MFB 375 en date du 7 février 1945, se rapportant à l'accusé;

"Ce document est lu par la Cour, marqué "H", signé par le Président et versé au dossier."

3° MFM 216, en date du 6 septembre 1945, se rapportant à l'accusé;

"Ce document est lu par la Cour, marque "I", signé par le Président et versé au dossier.

Le procureur n'a pas de témoins à appeler.
La poursuite est close.

Motion de non-lieu

Il est loisible à l'accusé, à son avocat ou à l'officier défenseur, après l'audition de la preuve de la poursuite, d'alléguer que celle-ci n'a pas réussi à établir une présomption légale contre l'accusé et que ce dernier ne devrait pas, par conséquent, être contraint de présenter sa défense. Dans le cas d'une telle motion, le procès verbal sera consigné sur des feuilles séparées qui seront insérées immédiatement avant la présente page D. Si la cour estime que cette allégation est bien fondée, elle doit acquitter l'accusé et consigner son verdict à la page A.

Défense

Le président s'adresse à l'accusé en ces termes:

"Il est de mon devoir en cette circonstance de vous aviser de vos droits touchant la conduite générale de votre défense. La procédure à suivre dépend entièrement des réponses que vous ferez aux questions de forme que nous allons vous poser. Il importe donc que vous compreniez et saisissiez l'effet de vos réponses. Vous n'aurez pas à témoigner sous serment à moins que vous ne le vouliez. Mais, si vous faites des dépositions assermentées, vous serez sujet à l'interrogatoire contradictoire par les soins du procureur et à l'interrogatoire par les soins de la cour."

"Si vous ne faites pas de déposition sous serment, vous avez le droit de faire une déclaration où vous donnerez votre version de l'affaire. Vous ne serez pas assermenté et vous ne serez pas interrogé sur ce que vous dites, par la cour ou par quelque autre personne. Je dois cependant vous prévenir qu'une déposition faite sous serment aura plus de poids aux yeux de la cour qu'une simple déclaration non assermentée."

S'il n'y a pas d'officier défenseur, le président explique alors à l'accusé l'effet que ses réponses aux questions de forme de la page D du procès verbal auront sur l'ordre des dernières plaidoiries, prévu dans les Règles de procédure 40 et 41.

Question à l'accusé. Désirez-vous comparaître, vous-même, comme témoin, ou bien désirez-vous faire une déclaration non assermentée.

Réponse: L'accusé désire rendre témoignage sous serment, Monsieur.
(Voir page D-3 et suiv.)

Question à l'accusé. Avez-vous l'intention de citer des témoins pour votre défense ?

Réponse: Non Monsieur.

~~Question à l'accusé.~~ ~~Est-ce uniquement un témoin à l'appui de votre réputation?~~

~~Réponse:~~

TEMOIN DE LA DEFENSE: L'accusé, E-627372, Fusilier Jean-Paul BOULANGER, Les Fusiliers du St-Laurent, A.C., att. dépôt régional No. 5, A.C., étant dûment assermenté, est interrogé par l'Officier Défenseur:

Procédure sur un aveu de culpabilité

L'accusé s'étant avoué coupable au deuxième - - - - - - - - - - - chef d'accusation, il est déclaré coupable de ladite accusation.

(On demandera au procureur s'il a une déclaration à faire touchant toutes les circonstances relatives à l'infraction.)

PAR LE PROCUREUR:

Si l'accusé avait plaidé non coupable, la Poursuite aurait établi, à l'aide de la 375 et du témoignage du Quartier-Maître, qu'à la date du 13 septembre 1945, il manquait à l'accusé des articles pour un montant de $2.02.

Question à l'accusé. Avez-vous quelque déclaration à faire relativement à l'accusation dont vous vous êtes avoué coupable?

Réponse: Non Monsieur.

(La déclaration de l'accusé doit être consignée sur une feuille séparée.)

Question à l'accusé. Désirez-vous faire quelque déclaration par voie d'atténuation de peine?

Réponse: Non Monsieur.

(La déclaration de l'accusé doit être consignée sur une feuille séparée.)

Question à l'accusé. Désirez-vous rendre témoignage vous-même quant à votre réputation?

Réponse: Non Monsieur.

Question à l'accusé. Désirez-vous appeler des témoins quant à votre réputation?

Réponse: Non Monsieur.

Règle de procédure 37 (d). Si, d'après la déclaration de l'accusé ou d'après le sommaire ou l'abrégé de la preuve, ou autrement, la cour en vient à la conclusion que l'accusé n'a pas compris les conséquences de son "aveu de culpabilité", la cour devra modifier le dossier et enregistrer une "dénégation de culpabilité" et instruire le procès en conséquence.

Pour les variantes, voir page 747 du M.D.M.

E

Procédure sur déclaration de culpabilité précédant la sentence

Quand la cour en est arrivée à une décision relativement à tous les chefs d'accusation contre l'accusé et que ladite décision a été annoncée à ce dernier, le procureur remet au président le modèle M.F.B. 355 et, si possible, un modèle M.F.M. 6.

Ces documents sont lus à la cour par le président, marqués "Y" et "Z", signés par le président et versés au dossier.

Question à l'accusé. Avez-vous quelque déclaration à faire relativement aux documents dont on vient de vous donner lecture ?

Réponse: Non Monsieur.

Question à l'accusé. Désirez-vous adresser la parole à la cour ?

Réponse: L'accusé, par son Officier Défenseur, dit: "Voici le cas d'un fils qui, sur les instances de sa mère malade, quitte pour un certain temps le service militaire. 4 de ses frères sont actuellement dans le service et il reste à la maison 8 enfants auxquels il lui faut subvenir. Je désire présenter à la Cour, en mitigation, 2 lettres: Une du député Bourget et l'autre du Dr. Bourget:"

1° Lettre de M. Maurice Bourget, M.P., en date du 15 septembre 1945 :

"Cedocument est lu par la Cour, marqué "J", signé par le Président et versé au dossier."

2° Lettre du Dr. R. Bourget, en date du 15 septembre 1945;

"Ce document est lu par la Cour, marqué "K", signé par le Président et versé au dossier."

La sentence est alors consignée à la page "A" du procès verbal et elle est annoncée à l'accusé en plein tribunal.

Le président établit alors et signe le mandat d'incarcération, le cas échéant, et celui-ci est immédiatement transmis au commandant de l'accusé. Dans chaque cas, il établit aussi et signe le certificat de procès devant une cour martiale permanente et le transmet en conformité des règlements. Le procès verbal ainsi que tous les documents seront transmis au juge-avocat général.

Mon Cher Colonel,

Je comprends que le soldat ci-haut mentionné s'est absenté de son service militaire depuis le 27 décembre 1944. La raison de cette absence provient du fait que sa mère qui était malade à cette période ne voulait pas laisser partir son fils Jean-Paul. Elle avait déjà deux de ses fils enrolés dans l'armée active depuis le début de la guerre, et elle ne pouvait supporter le départ de ce troisième.

J'espère que vous comprendrez le bien-fondé de ces raisons, et que vous jugerez ce jeune homme avec beaucoup de sympathie.

Vous remerciant à l'avance, je vous prie de me croire,

Dear Mr. Bourget:

Re: E.627372, J. P. Boulanger

I have your letter of October 1st in which you ask that the above mentioned soldier be released from detention.

I do not feel that I would be justified in ordering the release of a soldier from detention except on the advice of the officers having jurisdiction over such matters. I have, however, asked for a report on any review which may have been made of Private Boulanger's case and will write to you again as soon as this is received.

Yours very truly,

Quebec, October 1st, 1945.

Honourable D. Abbott,
Minister of National Defence,
O T T A W A.

Re: E.627372, J.P. Boulanger.

Mr. Minister:

I wish to submit to you, in your capacity of Minister of National Defence, the case of the above-named who is from Lauzon.

This young man was called for service on December 9th, 1942, and served as a volunteer for nineteen months at several places in the country. On December 7th, 1944, he obtain a few days' leave and was transferred to the Fusiliers du St. Laurent.

On December 27th, 1944, he was called for service overseas and deserted. He reported to Lauzon Camp on September 16th, 1945, and was sentenced to eight months' imprisonment with hard labour.

Mr. Emile Boulanger, the young man's father, has a family of thirteen children and two other sons have served in the Merchant Navy and Royal Canadian Navy during the present war. Mr. Boulanger's three sons had rather good positions at the time of their enlistment and their future is now quite impaired.

Mr. Boulanger counted on their help to support his family but has been disappointed. I must say that the population of Lauzon among which this young man lives is insulted and vexed at such a sentence.

After all, the war is over and do you not think that an amnesty should be granted to all absentees as the Conservatives did in 1918? It seems to me that this case is revolting and as I trust your sense of justice, I have every reason to believe that you will see to it that this sentence is reviewed and that the injustice is rectified.

That war has brought dire poverty on Mr. Boulanger who has made all the necessary sacrifices to bring up his large family.

I therefore trust that you will take my request into serious consideration and see that this injustice is rectified at once by giving instructions to that effect to the appropriate authorities.

I beg to remain,

Yours truly,
(Sgd.) Antoine Bourget, K.C.

MINISTERS OFFICE OCT 2 1945 DEPT. N. D. OTTAWA.

Honorable D. Abbott,
Ministre de la Défense Nationale,
O T T A W A.-

Monsieur le Ministre,

re:- E-627-372 - J.-P. Boulanger.

Je viens vous soumettre en votre qualité de ministre de la Défense Nationale le cas de M. J.-P. Boulanger, de la ville de Lauzon.

Ce jeune homme a été appelé sous les armes le 9 décembre 1942 et il a servi volontairement pendant une période de dix-neuf mois à plusieurs endroits du pays.

Le 7 décembre 1944, il a obtenu un congé de quelques jours et il a été versé dans le régiment des Fusilliers du St-Laurent.

Le 27 décembre 1944, il a été appelé pour service pour outremer et il a déserté. Le 16 septembre 1945, il s'est rapporté au camp de Lauzon et il a été condamné à un emprisonnement aux travaux forcés pour une période de huit mois.

M. Emile Boulanger, père du jeune homme, a une famille de treize enfants et deux autres de ses enfants ont servi durant la guerre dans la marine marchande et canadienne.

Les trois garcons de M. Boulanger au moment de leur enrolement avaient des positions assez enviables et leur est fortement compromis.

M. Boulanger, père, comptait sur eux pour pouvoir lui aider pour la subsistance de la famille et il n'en fut pas ainsi. Il me faut vous dire en toute sincérité que la population de Lauzon où ce jeune homme habite est outragée et vexée contre une telle sentence.

Après tout, la guerre est terminée et ne croyez-vous pas qu'un armistice devrait être accordé aux insoumis tout comme les conservateurs l'ont fait en 1918? Ce cas me semble révoltant et comme j'ai confiance dans votre esprit de justice, j'ai tout lieu de croire que vous allez voir à ce que cette sentence soit reformée et que cette injustice sera réparée.

Cette guerre a plongé dans une plus grande pauvreté M. Boulanger qui a fait tous les sacrifices nécessaires pour élever sa nombreuse famille.

J'espère donc que vous allez prendre ma demande en sérieuse considération et que vous allez voir à ce que cette injustice soit réparée immédiatement en donnant des instructions à ce sujet à qui de droit.

Veuillez me croire, Monsieur le Ministre,

Votre bien dévoué,

Ant. Bourget.

Ref telegram AG 0267 D/18 Oct 45 Review.

2. The CM Board of Review has in the case of the a/m soldier made the following recommendation:

"Release on 5 Mar 1946".

3. You will note that the recommendation of the Board deals with the remission at a future date. In considering this case your attention is directed to paras 3 and 4 of the telegram above referred to. It is pointed out that the action to be taken by you as a Superior Military Authority is not immediate and therefore this soldier's conduct and other circumstances up to the date of the recommended remission should be taken into consideration by you prior to your acting upon the recommendation of the Board. It is therefore suggested that you should not sign the appropriate entry until the recommended date approaches.

4. If in your opinion recent misconduct exists it is requested that this HQ be advised at once in accordance with paras 3 and 4 of the AG telegram above mentioned.

5. May this HQ be infm of action taken.

DECLARATION DE L'ACCUSE EN ATTENUATION DE PEINE.

J'étais pas "fit" pour aller de l'autre bord, j'ai une sinusite et du rhumatisme. J'ai parti en "embarkation leave" et je suis revenu le 27 au matin, et puis ils m'ont donné une autre passe jusqu'au lendemain matin.

Quand je suis arrivé chez nous, ma mère était malade au lit parce que j'étais supposé partir. Quand j'ai vu ça, j'ai dit: "Je vais rester à la maison". C'est la police qui m'a ramassé et je leur ai dit tout de suite: "Vous ne pourrez pas me garder parce que je suis un déserteur de l'armée". J'avais toujours l'idée de revenir mais j'avais plutôt peur.

Je demanderais à la cour la permission de produire une lettre de mon docteur, le Dr. J.A. Sylvestre, en date du 5 septembre 1945. (Voir CC-5)

Je suis dans l'armée depuis le 27 septembre 1943. Avant d'entrer dans l'armée je travaillais comme machiniste dans une "machine shop". Dans l'armée j'ai passé par Longueuil, Petawawa et ici. Je ne suis par marié. Durant mon absence sans permission, j'ai travaillé un petit peu dans la peinture, deux ou trois jours par semaine. J'ai demeuré en chambre sur la rue Montcalm et St-Catherine, et j'allais manger au restaurant. Je payais seulement $2.00 par semaine pour ma chambre. Pendant mon absence, je ne me suis pas fait soigner parce que je ne gagnais pas assez d'argent pour y aller.

Procédure sur déclaration de culpabilité précédant la sentence

Quand la cour en est arrivée à une décision relativement à tous les chefs d'accusation contre l'accusé et que ladite décision a été annoncée à ce dernier, le procureur remet au président le modèle M.F.B. 355 et, si possible, un modèle M.F.M. 6.

Ces documents sont lus à la cour par le président, marqués "Y" et "Z", signés par le président et versés au dossier.

Question à l'accusé. Avez-vous quelque déclaration à faire relativement aux documents dont on vient de vous donner lecture ?

Réponse: Non, monsieur.

Question à l'accusé. Désirez-vous adresser la parole à la cour ?

Réponse: Oui, monsieur (Par l'entremise de mon officier défenseur - Voir E-3).

La sentence est alors consignée à la page "A" du procès verbal et elle est annoncée à l'accusé en plein tribunal.

Le président établit alors et signe le mandat d'incarcération, le cas échéant, et celui-ci est immédiatement transmis au commandant de l'accusé. Dans chaque cas, il établit aussi et signe le certificat de procès devant une cour martiale permanente et le transmet en conformité des règlements. Le procès verbal ainsi que tous les documents seront transmis au juge-avocat général.

EXPOSE DE L'OFFICIER DEFENSEUR AU NOM DE L'ACCUSE.

Mr. President,

The accused has pleaded guilty to the charges laid against him. He is a young man, 21 years of age. Yesterday, I visited his home to find out the circumstances under which he deserted.

His mother told me the story that she was not well and the first time he returned to the Army, he did it against her will. The next morning, in fact, he left early in the morning without her knowing about it. When he came back on a 24-hour leave she was sick in bed; the reason for it being she was heart-broken at his leaving for overseas. As a result he stayed home.

Ever since he was a child seven years old, he was very sick. He suffers from sinus trouble and she claims that all the times he went to the doctors in the army no one would do anything for him. His mother took him to Dr. Sylvestre and to Dr. Godin, a specialist, and they verified his sinus trouble, but due to lack of money he could not be treated. Due to the fact that he also suffers from rhumatism, he did not think he was fit to undertake going overseas.

As his age a mother has very good influence on her son, and I feel he was greatly influenced by her in deserting. I would ask you in passing sentence on this man to keep these things in mind.

Item 10 has been omitted.

In sworn evidence the accused states that he enlisted at the age of 17; he could not go overseas although he wanted to very badly, instead he was employed on General Duty fatigues. Later he could not finish his advance training because his feet would not permit him to make long marches. He remained AWL because he thought his category would not permit him to go overseas if he returned. This man has a brother at present undergoing detention and a third brother has just returned from overseas and is blind due to alcoholic poisoning. The mother is highly disturbed about her sons and it has been suggested that the two sons in detention be given an early release, but the DOC MD 3 stated that the conduct of the accused does not warrant remission before half of sentence has been served.

D.148688 Pte BEAUDOIN, Jean
C.33070 Pte BEAUDOIN, Joseph Paul

The sentences awarded these two soldiers have been reviewed by DOC MD 3. It is felt that, due to their very poor military record, they should serve at least one-half of the sentence awarded.

2. Accordingly consideration will be given to remission of the sentence awarded D.148688 Pte Beaudoin, Jean on 7 Dec 45 and C.33070 Pte Beaudoin, Joseph Paul on 28 Jan 46.

3. DOC MD 3 feels that if preferential consideration were given to these soldiers whose conduct had been far from satisfactory, other SUB whose conduct has been better in comparison, would feel that there had been a discrimination and an undercurrent of unrest would develop among the soldiers who felt themselves so aggrieved.

B-33070 Pte BEAUDOIN, Joseph Paul (Your PCO: B-19)
B-102869 Pte BEAUDOIN, Marcel

Jean and Joseph Paul Beaudoin are at present serving sentences of six and nine months detention awarded by CM at No 9 DD. In both instances they were convicted on charges of desertion.

2. Another brother, Marcel Beaudoin, has recently returned from overseas and is at present on leave.

3. Representations have been received that Marcel Beaudoin is totally blind and that the mother is in a highly nervous condition. It has been suggested that if some encouragement could be offered her regarding Jean and Joseph Paul Beaudoin, such compassionate action would tend to improve her condition.

4. Examination of the file of Marcel Beaudoin discloses the following info:-

(a) His condition is the result of alcoholic poisoning as a result of drinking cognac (where is not indicated). Another soldier who was apparently drinking with him died of the effects;

(b) The soldier is not totally blind - some improvement in his condition is indicated;

(c) Whether his condition will improve or deteriorate is not known at the present time.

5. Having regard to the above circumstances, any consideration be given, pls, to the advisability of remitting the sentences awarded Jean and Joseph Paul Beaudoin. If it is not considered that remission should be granted at this time, may it be indicated, pls, when further review with a view to remission is contemplated.

6. Special Enquiry - Urgent.

The procedure to be followed depends entirely on the answers given to the formal questions which are about to be put to you. It is therefore important that you should understand and appreciate the effect of your answers to these questions. You do not need to give evidence on oath unless you wish to do so, but if you do give sworn evidence you are liable to be cross-examined by the Prosecutor and questioned by the Court."

"If you do not give evidence on oath you are entitled to make a statement giving your account of the subject of the charge against you. You will not be sworn and no question may be put to you by the Court or any person with respect to such statement. I must warn you, however, that evidence given on oath will carry more weight with the Court than a mere statement not on oath."

If there is no Defending Officer the President should then explain to the accused the effect which his answer to the formal questions on Page D of the proceedings will have on the order of the Closing Addresses as provided in R.P. 40 and 41.

Question to the accused. Do you apply to give evidence yourself as a witness, or do you wish to make an unsworn statement?

Answer. I wish to give evidence on oath, sir.

Question to the accused. Do you intend to call any witness in your defence?

Answer. No, sir.

Question to the accused. Is the witness to be called a witness as to character only?

Answer.

A. Camp Borden, sir.

Q. What were you doing in Camp Borden?

A. Well, I run away lots of time and I run away like that, when I come back I have chance to go overseas like the other boys and fight.

Q. Why did you not report back in military clothes?

A. First, sir, couple of months somebody stole my clothes, everything I had. I had a battle dress and a field hat. That's all I had.

Q. Have you any brothers in your family of Army age?

A. Yes, sir; two.

Q. How many are in the service?

A. Two, sir.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR:

Q. When were you posted to Farnham?

A. Oh, I can't remember the date, sir.

Q. Was it May, 1944?

A. Its about that, sir.

Q. And you were sent down there to take advanced Infantry training, were you?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And you completed your Infantry training, didn't you?

A. I beg your pardon?

Q. And you completed your Infantry training, didn't you?

A. I couldn't make it.

Q. Why?

A. Since I have been in the Army I have sore feet and

I was like for the instruction but I couldn't make the route march.

Q. You didn't like it?

A. I like it but I couldn't make it.

Q. What happened to you?

A. Every time I went on route march I was always on the back and they bring me back at the time we had dinner and the Mm. O. was always there and look at my feet all the time. I didn't say nothing, he bring me back himself all the time. I didn't made the full route march since I was there.

Q. How long was the advanced training at Farnham, eight weeks?

A. I made about six, seven weeks and we had two or three more months to do.

Q. You had two or three more months to do?

A. My advanced training wasn't finished yet and I had to go to T.S.

Q. Trained soldier company?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. But you only had a week or two weeks or three weeks to finish up your advanced training? How long did you have to do to finish your advanced training?

A. Three weeks, about a month.

Q. It might have been less than three weeks, it might have been a week or less, isn't that right, Beaudoin, before your finished your advanced training when you went absent?

A. About two weeks, I think, sir.

Q. You now change it to two weeks. Your categpry was A-1 at the time you went absent?

A. Yes.

Q. Where did you go when you went absent?

A. Back to Montreal, sir.

Q. Were you on leave when you went absent?

A. Yes; I had a weekend pass, sir.

Q. How long a weekend?

A. Friday till Monday morning.

Q. Was it just a weekend pass?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. There was no other mention of any other kind of pass

A. No, sir.

Q. And you went to Montreal?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Why?

A. Well, that's why -- before I left somebody told me, "You are going to get your discharge", or something like that, and before I go I told a guy I was going away, I can't do it any more. And he said, "You stayed and you get your discharge, with a reason like that you can go on the M. O."

Q. You wanted your discharge:

A. Well, in a way, but [redacted] better I go overseas.

Q. You don't tell me that you believed that?

A. I didn't pass a reboard since 1942. They never passed me a reboard.

Q. You passed in 1942 and you were A-1 in 1944 when you went absent?

A. I passed a reboard in 1942, I never passed any after that.

Q. Yes; but your cate[redacted]gory was still the same in 1944 as it was in 1942?

A. My feet were bothering me.

Q. Why did you go to Montreal?

A. Well, I worked there.

Q. Who did you work for?

Q. When I started to work I worked here and there for transport and after that, in the summer time, I worked three or four months for a farmer and after that I start to work for a transport again.

Q. What work were you doing for the transport company?

A. I can't say the thing. Move something in the house.

Q. It was pretty heavy work?

A. Yes; very heavy work.

Q. Your feet didn't bother you then?

A. Very bad, sir.

Q. You still went and worked on the farm and went back to the transport company; that is correct?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And you were wearing your civilian clothes at the time you worked for the transport company?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. You didn't tell anybody you were in the Army?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And it was while you were wearing your civilian clothes somebody stole your Army clothes?

A. Somebody stole my Army clothes.

Q. And where were your Army clothes, back here in Hull?

A. No; in Montreal.

Q. Did you come back to Hull?

A. Two times, sir.

Q. When was that?

A. I don't know the date. The time I was away I went two times.

Q. How long were you away when you first came ba to Hull? How long had you been away, absent, when you first came back to Hull?

A. About five months, six months.

Q. How long did you stay there?

A. A day and a half, sir.

Q. And were you talking to your parents then?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And they told you the Provosts had been looking for you?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. How many times had they been around?

A. Oh, lots of times.

Q. Lots of times?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And that was the reason you only stayed a day and a half?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. When was the next time you came back to Hull?

A. About three months after.

Q. And the Provosts had been around in the meantime? How many times had they been around?

A. I don't know.

Q. How long did you stay at Champlain Street this time?

A. About the same.

Q. And the reason you left then was because you thought the Provosts would pick you up?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And did you go back to Montreal?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you have a girl in Montreal?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. You didn't get married while you were absent,

did you?

A. No, sir.

Q. Why did you decide to return in August, 1945?

A. All the time I was away, every day, I was thinking about it and I have thinking about coming back and waiting and waiting.

Q. Everyday you thought about it from the 18th September to the 30th August, 1945; is that right?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And it took you almost a year thinking about it to make up your mind to come back; is that right?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Are you asking the Court to believe that?

A. Well, the time I have been away I have been sick lots of time and I weighed about 150 when I left and I was sick, you know. Before I joined the Army I didn't stay sick like that. I had trench mouth in the Army and it last about a week and then that.

Q. You had a difficult existence while you were away?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And the only reason you put up with that existence was because you didn't want to come back to the Army?

A. No, sir.

Q. Well, what was the reason, you could have gone back to the Army and had medical attention?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Why didn't you come back then? Because you didn't have any intention of coming back to the Army then; isn't that right, Beaudoin?

A. Oh, yes; I have thinking all the time about it.

Q. Why didn't you surrender the first time you were home, your family told you the Provosts were looking for you? Why didn't you surrender yourself?

A. They told me to go back too, they didn't want me to stay on the loose.

Q. Why didn't you go back? Why didn't you surrender the first time, your family wanted you to come back and you thought about coming back? There must have been something kept you from coming back, what was it?

A. I don't understand what you said, sir.

Q. You told me you went home for a day and a half and you also told me your family wanted you to come back?

A. Not where I live, come back to the Army.

Q. Yes; to the Army. And why didn't you come back?

A. I told you before.

Q. Well, tell me again, I want to listen to you?

A. Well, my feet were still sore and I want to go overseas and I run away and since I have been in the Army my mouth has been sore.

Q. Is that the reason you didn't surrender yourself the second time?

A. I didn't go overseas and my feet were sore.

Q. Are your feet still sore?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Were they sore on the 30th August, 1945?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Why did you surrender yourself then, any difference between the 30th of August and say the 30th of April, 1945, were your feet in the same condition?

A. Yes.

Q. Why didn't you surrender yourself in April, 1945, then, have you any other reason?

A. No, sir; that's all.

Q. And when you surrendered on 30th August, 1945,

you knew the war was over, did you?

A. Yes, sir.

---The Defending Officer declines to re-examine.

QUESTIONED BY THE COURT:

Q. Beaudoin, did the medical officer at Farnham look at your feet?

A. Yes, sir. Only the Corporal there, sir.

Q. What about the officer?

A. He didn't see it, sir.

Q. What did the Corporal say?

A. He said I had bad feet and I went on sick parade about very day, sir.

Q. Did you have your feet looked at?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. What did they do?

A. Kind of water, I don't know the stuff. Kind of water and I put my feet in it.

Q. But your feet are not flat?

A. Falling arches.

Q. Did you see the medical officer?

A. No, sir; I went sick parade lots of time but I couldn't see him, only the Corporal.

Q. How told you you had falling arches?

A. When I arrived here I had been home before and I had seen a doctor before and he said I had fallen arches and I had something under my foot.

Q. When was this?

A. The same night I arrived, the same day I report myself at eleven o'clock at night.

Q. The day you arrived at Lansdowne Park?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you see the doctor here?

A. Dr. Bigras.

Q. He is a civilian doctor?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. He says you have fallen arches?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Of course, this is a year later?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And you worked all the time you were away?

A. I didn't work at the same place all the time.

Q. But you had to work to live?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And where did you work?

A. Transport and summer time I worked on a farm.

Q. What were you doing?

A. Well, I can't say in English.

Q. With the hay? Say it in French?

A. (answers in French) Hoeing and sowing.

Q. Did you work on the hay, too?

A. No, sir.

Q. You were standing on your feet then quite a lot, it is hard work. That's hard work, isn't it? Would you agree that it is, you have to stand up all the time?

A. For the farmer, I was on my knees all the time.

Q. But you can't hoe on your knees?

A. Well, I sit down.

Q. You had no treatment for your feet during this year you were away?

A. No, sir.

Q. Now, you had just about completed your training at Farnham?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And your comerades there went overseas shortly after you left?

A. Yes. I went to St. Jerome one day and I saw one guy and he came back with all the boys that was there. The platoon I was with at Farnham, they went overseas and they are all back here now. I saw one guy in St. Jerome, his Depot was Longueuil.

Q. The platoon you were with when you went absent went overseas shortly after you left?

A. For that I don't know. I think they went about five or six months after.

Q. When you were absent in the winter of 1944, last winter, --

A. Yes, sir.

Q. -- you knew they were sending every available soldier overseas?

A. I knew, sir; but that's why somebody told me I wouldn't go overseas, because of my feet.

Q. You certainly couldn't go overseas if you remained absent?

A. I don't know.

Q. Well, you knew that, you were well aware that if you had come back, say, in December that you would have gone overseas? You knew that, Beaudoin? Come now, you knew that, you read the paper and you hear people talk, you knew they were sending everybody overseas then?

A. Well, when a guy gets sore --

Q. You didn't do anything about your feet all the time you were away? Surely they couldn't have been hurting you very much? If a man doesn't do anything about them? If you had wanted to go overseas you could have come back in December?

A. Like the other guys?

Q. Pardon?

A. You mean to go overseas --

Q. You knew they were sending everybody overseas last winter? You knew that? Even the "R" recruits, the draftees, the men they drafted into the Army, they were even sending them over. You knew that? So that, if you had wanted to go overseas you would have come back to the Army, isn't that right? Don't you agree with that? But, you didn't want to go overseas, Beaudoin?

A. Oh, yes; if I had gone overseas the first time I join the Army all those things wouldn't happen.

Q. That's quite true but in this last year you must have changed your mind? In any event, you were well aware they were sending everybody overseas,;that is right, isn't it? And you didn't come back. And then in May you knew that the war in Europe was over; isn't that right? And you didn't come back. And then you finally come back the end of August after a year's absence?

A. (no answer).

---The witness resumes his seat.

---The Prosecutor does not desire to make a closing address.

---The Defending Officer makes a closing address.

Item 10 has been omitted.

In sworn evidence the accused states that he enlisted at the age of 17; he could not go overseas although he wanted to very badly, instead he was employed on General Duty fatigues. Later he could not finish his advance training because his feet would not permit him to make long marches. He remained AWL because he thought his category would not permit him to go overseas if he returned. This man has a brother at present undergoing detention and a third brother has just returned from overseas and is blind due to alcoholic poisoning. The mother is highly disturbed about her sons and it has been suggested that the two sons in detention be given an early release, but the DOC MD 3 stated that the conduct of the accused does not warrant remission before half of sentence has been served.

13. Recommendations: (State by whom made, e.g., CMM, DOC, Reviewing Officer, etc.)

D.148688 Pte BEAUDOIN, Jean
C.33070 Pte BEAUDOIN, Joseph Paul

The sentences awarded these two soldiers have been reviewed by DOC MD 3. It is felt that, due to their very poor military record, they should serve at least one-half of the sentence awarded.

2. Accordingly consideration will be given to remission of the sentence awarded D.148688 Pte Beaudoin, Jean on 7 Dec 45 and C.33070 Pte Beaudoin, Joseph Paul on 28 Jan 46.

3. DOC MD 3 feels that if preferential consideration were given to these soldiers whose conduct had been far from satisfactory, other SUS whose conduct has been better in comparison, would feel that there had been a discrimination and an undercurrent of unrest would develop among the soldiers who felt themselves so aggrieved.

1. Jean and Joseph Paul Beaudoin are at present serving sentences of six and nine months detention awarded by GCM at No 9 BD. In both instances they were convicted on charges of desertion.

2. Another brother, Marcel Beaudoin, has recently returned from overseas and is at present on leave.

3. Representations have been received that Marcel Beaudoin is totally blind and that the mother is in a highly nervous condition. It has been suggested that if some encouragement could be offered her regarding Jean and Joseph Paul Beaudoin, such compassionate action would tend to improve her condition.

4. Examination of the file of Marcel Beaudoin discloses the following info:-

(a) His condition is the result of alcoholic poisoning as a result of drinking cognac (where is not indicated). Another soldier who was apparently drinking with him died of the effects;

(b) The soldier is not totally blind - some improvement in his condition is insisted;

(c) Whether his condition will improve or deteriorate is not known at the present time.

5. Having regard to the above circumstances, may consideration be given, pls, to the advisability of reviewing the sentences awarded Jean and Joseph Paul Beaudoin. If it is not considered that remission should be granted at this time, may it be indicated, pls, when further review with a view to remission is contemplated.

Proceedings on Plea of Not Guilty

Question to the accused.

Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity for preparing your defence?

Answer.

No, sir.

(If the accused applies for an adjournment see instructions at page 747 M.M.L.)

The Prosecutor proceeds to call witnesses.

First Witness for prosecution.

being duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor.

Question

BY THE PROSECUTOR: I present M.F.B.375 dated the 10th of October, 1944, sir.

---M.F.B.375 is received, read, marked EXHIBIT "F", signed by the President and attached to the proceedings.

I present M.F.M.216 dated the 31st of August, 1945, sir.

---M.F.M.216 is received, read, marked EXHIBIT "G", signed by the President and attached to the proceedings.

The Prosecutor has no further witness to call.
The Prosecution is closed.

Motion – No Case

It is open to the accused, his Counsel or Defending Officer at the close of the case for the prosecution to submit that the evidence given for the prosecution has not established a prima facie case against him, and that he should not therefore be called upon for his defence. If such Motion is made, the proceedings will be recorded on separate pages which will be inserted immediately before the present page D. If the Court is satisfied that the Motion is well founded, it must acquit the accused and register its Finding on Page A.

Defence

The President will now address the acused as follows:—

"It is my duty at this stage to advise you as to your rights in the general conduct of your defence. The procedure to be followed depends entirely on the answers given to the formal questions which are about to be put to you. It is therefore important that you should understand and appreciate the effect of your answers to these questions. You do not need to give evidence on oath unless you wish to do so, but if you do give sworn evidence you are liable to be cross-examined by the Prosecutor and questioned by the Court."

"If you do not give evidence on oath you are entitled to make a statement giving your account of the subject of the charge against you. You will not be sworn and no question may be put to you by the Court or any person with respect to such statement. I must warn you, however, that evidence given on oath will carry more weight with the Court than a mere statement not on oath."

If there is no Defending Officer the President should then explain to the accused the effect which his answer to the formal questions on Page D of the proceedings will have on the order of the Closing Addresses as provided in R.P. 40 and 41.

Question to the accused. Do you apply to give evidence yourself as a witness, or do you wish to make an unsworn statement?

Answer. I wish to give evidence on oath, sir.

Question to the accused. Do you intend to call any witness in your defence?

Answer. No, sir.

Question to the accused. Is the witness to be called a witness as to character only?

Answer. .....

FOR)
DEFENCE)

The accused, C-33070 - Pte. JOSEPH PAUL BEAUDOIN, No. 9 District Depot, C.A., being duly sworn, is examined by the Defending Officer:

Q. Beaudoin, when did you join up?

A. In 17th December, 1941, sir.

Q. 17th December, 1941?

A. 1941.

Q. How old were you when you joined up?

A. I was seventeen, sir.

Q. Where did you go after your basic training?

A. Camp Borden, sir.

Q. What were you doing in Camp Borden?

A. Washing dishes and fireman and some time I was pick and shovel.

Q. Why did you go absent?

A. Well, I run away lots of time and I run away like that, when I come back I have chance to go overseas like the other boys and fight.

Q. Why did you not report back in military clothes?

A. First, sir, couple of months somebody stole my clothes, everything I had. I had a battle dress and a field hat. That's all I had.

Q. Have you any brothers in your family of Army age?

A. Yes, sir; two.

Q. How many are in the service?

A. Two, sir.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR:

Q. Beaudoin, did you absent yourself without leave from A-12 Infantry Training Centre, Farnham, at 0100 hours on the 18th September, 194?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And did you remain continuously absent until you surrendered yourself to military authorities at Ottawa, Ontario, at 2305 hours on the 30th August, 1945?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And you were dressed in civilian clothes at the time?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where was your home at the time you joined the Army?

A. Hull, Quebec, sir.

Q. And what was your address there?

A. 386 Champlain Street.

Q. What year were you born?

A. 1924, sir.

Q. What date?

A. 25th of March.

Q. When were you posted to Farnham?

A. Oh, I can't remember the date, sir.

Q. Was it May, 1944?

A. Its about that, sir.

Q. And you were sent down there to take advanced Infantry training, were you?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And you completed your Infantry training, didn't you?

A. I beg your pardon?

Q. And you completed your Infantry training, didn't you?

A. I couldn't make it.

Q. Why?

A. Since I have been in the Army I have sore feet and

I was like for the instruction but I couldn't make the route march.

Q. You didn't like it?

A. I like it but I couldn't make it.

Q. What happened to you?

A. Every time I went on route march I was always on the back and they bring me back at the time we had dinner and the Mm. O. was always there and look at my feet all the time. I didn't say nothing, he bring me back himself all the time. I didn't made the full route march since I was there.

Q. How long was the advanced training at Farnham, eight weeks?

A. I made about six, seven weeks and we had two or three more months to do.

Q. You had two or three more months to do?

A. My advanced training wasn't finished yet and I had to go to T.S.

Q. Trained soldier company?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. But you only had a week or two weeks or three weeks to finish up your advanced training? How long did you have to do to finish your advanced training?

A. Three weeks, about a month.

Q. It might have been less than three weeks, it might have been a week or less, isn't that right, Beaudoin, before your finished your advanced training when you went absent?

A. About two weeks, I think, sir.

Q. You now change it to two weeks. Your category was A-1 at the time you went absent?

A. Yes.

Q. Where did you go when you went absent?

A. Back to Montreal, sir.

Q. Were you on leave when you went absent?

A. Yes; I had a weekend pass, sir.

Q. How long a weekend?

A. Friday till Monday morning.

Q. Was it just a weekend pass?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. There was no other mention of any other kind of pass

A. No, sir.

Q. And you went to Montreal?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Why?

A. Well, that's why -- before I left somebody told me, "You are going to get your discharge", or something like that, and before I go I told a guy I was going away, I can't do it any more. And he said, "You stayed and you get your discharge, with a reason like that you can go on the M. O."

Q. You wanted your discharge:

A. Well, in a way, but better I go overseas.

Q. You don't tell me that you believed that?

A. I didn't pass a reboard since 1942. They never passed me a reboard.

Q. You passed in 1942 and you were A-1 in 1944 when you went absent?

A. I passed a reboard in 1942, I never passed any after that.

Q. Yes; but your category was still the same in 1944 as it was in 1942?

A. My feet were bothering me.

Q. Why did you go to Montreal?

A. Well, I worked there.

Q. Who did you work for?

Q. When I started to work I worked here and there for transport and after that, in the summer time, I worked three or four months for a farmer and after that I start to work for a transport again.

Q. What work were you doing for the transport company?

A. I can't say the thing. Move something in the house.

Q. It was pretty heavy work?

A. Yes; very heavy work.

Q. Your feet didn't bother you then?

A. Very bad, sir.

Q. You still went and worked on the farm and went back to the transport company; that is correct?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And you were wearing your civilian clothes at the time you worked for the transport company?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. You didn't tell anybody you were in the Army?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And it was while you were wearing your civilian clothes somebody stole your Army clothes?

A. Somebody stole my Army clothes.

Q. And where were your Army clothes, back here in Hull?

A. No; in Montreal.

Q. Did you come back to Hull?

A. Two times, sir.

Q. When was that?

A. I don't know the date. The time I was away I went two times.

Q. How long were you away when you first came back to Hull? How long had you been away, absent, when you first came back to Hull?

A. About five months, six months.

Q. How long did you stay there?

A. A day and a half, sir.

Q. And were you talking to your parents then?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And they told you the Provosts had been looking for you?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. How many times had they been around?

A. Oh, lots of times.

Q. Lots of times?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And that was the reason you [redacted] only stayed a day and a half?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. When was the next time you came back to Hull?

A. About three months after.

Q. And the Provosts had been around in the meantime? How many times had they been around?

A. I don't know.

Q. How long did you stay at Champlain Street this time?

A. About the same.

Q. And the reason you left then was because you thought the Provosts would pick you up?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And did you go back to Montreal?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you have a girl in Montreal?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. You didn't get married while you were absent,

did you?

A. No, sir.

Q. Why did you decide to return in August, 1945?

A. All the time I was away, every day, I was thinking about it and I have thinking about coming back and waiting and waiting.

Q. Everyday you thought about it from the 18th September to the 30th August, 1945; is that right?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And it took you almost a year thinking about it to make up your mind to come back; is that right?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Are you asking the Court to believe that?

A. Well, the time I have been away I have been sick lots of time and I weighed about 150 when I left and I was sick, you know. Before I joined the Army I didn't stay sick like that. I had trench mouth in the Army and it last about a week and then that.

Q. You had a difficult existence while you were away?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And the only reason you put up with that existence was because you didn't want to come back to the Army?

A. No, sir.

Q. Well, what was the reason, you could have gone back to the Army and had medical attention?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Why didn't you come back then? Because you didn't have any intention of coming back to the Army then; isn't that right, Beaudoin?

A. Oh, yes; I have thinking all the time about it.

Q. Why didn't you surrender the first time you were home, your family told you the Provosts were looking for you? Why didn't you surrender yourself?

A. They told me to go back too, they didn't want me to stay on the loose.

Q. Why didn't you go back? Why didn't you surrender the first time, your family wanted you to come back and you thought about coming back? There must have been something kept you from coming back, what was it?

A. I don't understand what you said, sir.

Q. You told me you went home for a day and a half and you also told me your family wanted you to come back?

A. Not where I live, come back to the Army.

Q. Yes; to the Army. And why didn't you come back?

A. I told you before.

Q. Well, tell me again, I want to listen to you?

A. Well, my feet were still sore and I want to go overseas and I run away and since I have been in the Army my mouth has been sore.

Q. Is that the reason you didn't surrender yourself the second time?

A. I didn't go overseas and my feet were sore.

Q. Are your feet still sore?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Were they sore on the 30th August, 1945?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Why did you surrender yourself then, any difference between the 30th of August and say the 30th of April, 1945, were your feet in the same condition?

A. Yes.

Q. Why didn't you surrender yourself in April, 1945, then, have you any other reason?

A. No, sir; that's all.

Q. And when you surrendered on 30th August, 1945, 16

you knew the war was over, did you?

A. Yes, sir.

---The Defending Officer declines to re-examine.

QUESTIONED BY THE COURT:

Q. Beaudoin, did the medical officer at Farnham look at your feet?

A. Yes, sir. Only the Corporal there, sir.

Q. What about the officer?

A. He didn't see it, sir.

Q. What did the Corporal say?

A. He said I had bad feet and I went on sick parade about very day, sir.

Q. Did you have your feet looked at?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. What did they do?

A. Kind of water, I don't know the stuff. Kind of water and I put my feet in it.

Q. But your feet are not flat?

A. Falling arches.

Q. Did you see the medical officer?

A. No, sir; I went sick parade lots of time but I couldn't see him, only the Corporal.

Q. How told you you had falling arches?

A. When I arrived here I had been home before and I had seen a doctor before and he said I had fallen arches and I had something under my foot.

Q. When was this?

A. The same night I arrived, the same day I report myself at eleven o'clock at night.

Q. The day you arrived at Lansdowne Park?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you see the doctor here?

A. Dr. Bigras.

Q. He is a civilian doctor?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. He says you have fallen arches?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Of course, this is a year later?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And you worked all the time you were away?

A. I didn't work at the same place all the time.

Q. But you had to work to live?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And where did you work?

A. Transport and summer time I worked on a farm.

Q. What were you doing?

A. Well, I can't say in English.

Q. With the hay? Say it in French?

A. (answers in French) Hoeing and sowing.

Q. Did you work on the hay, too?

A. No, sir.

Q. You were standing on your feet then quite a lot, it is hard work. That's hard work, isn't it? Would you agree that it is, you have to stand up all the time?

A. For the farmer, I was on my knees all the time.

Q. But you can't hoe on your knees?

A. Well, I sit down.

Q. You had no treatment for your feet during this year you were away?

A. No, sir.

Q. Now, you had just about completed your training at Farnham?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And your comerades there went overseas shortly after you left?

A. Yes. I went to St. Jerome one day and I saw one guy and he came back with all the boys that was there. The platoon I was with at Farnham, they went overseas and they are all back here now. I saw one guy in St. Jerome, his Depot was Longueuil.

Q. The platoon you were with when you went absent went overseas shortly after you left?

A. For that I don't know. I think they went about five or six months after.

Q. When you were absent in the winter of 1944, last winter, --

A. Yes, sir.

Q. -- you knew they were sending every available soldier overseas?

A. I knew, sir; but that's why somebody told me I wouldn't go overseas, because of my feet.

Q. You certainly couldn't go overseas if you remained absent?

A. I don't know.

Q. Well, you knew that, you were well aware that if you had come back, say, in December that you would have gone overseas? You knew that, Beaudoin? Come now, you knew that, you read the paper and you hear people talk, you knew they were sending everybody overseas then?

A. Well, when a guy gets sore --

Q. You didn't do anything about your feet all the time you were away? Surely they couldn't have been hurting you very much? If a man doesn't do anything about them? If you had wanted to go overseas you could have come back in December?

13

A. Like the other guys?

Q. Pardon?

A. You mean to go overseas --

Q. You knew they were sending everybody overseas last winter? You knew that? Even the "R" recruits, the draftees, the men they drafted into the Army, they were even sending them over. You knew that? So that, if you had wanted to go overseas you would have come back to the Army, isn't that right? Don't you agree with that? But, you didn't want to go overseas, Beaudoin?

A. Oh, yes; if I had gone overseas the first time I join the Army all those things wouldn't happen.

Q. That's quite true but in this last year you must have changed your mind? In any event, you were well aware they were sending everybody overseas,;that is right, isn't it? And you didn't come back. And then in May you knew that the war in Europe was over; isn't that right? And you didn't come back. And then you finally come back the end of August after a year's absence?

A. (no answer).

---The Prosecutor does not desire to make a closing address.

---The Defending Officer makes a closing address.

Proceedings on Conviction before Sentence

After the Court has arrived at a Finding on all the charges against the accused and such Finding has been announced to the accused, the Prosecutor will tender to the President M.F.B. 355, together ,when it is possible, with an M.F.M. 6.

---The Prosecutor presents to the Court M.F.B.355 and M.F.M.6.

---These documents are read to the Court by the President, are marked "Y" and "Z", signed by the President and annexed to the proceedings.

Question to the accused. Have you any statement to make concerning the documents which have just been read to you?

Answer. No, sir.

Question to the accused. Do you wish to address the Court?

Answer. Yes, sir; through my Defending Officer.

BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER: This man got started on the wrong foot. He joined the Army at the age of seventeen, hoping to get overseas, instead of which his training was retarded after his basic traing, during which incidentally his conduct was excellent. He was sent to Borden as a G.D. man on the H. W. E. It was only by going absent that he got his interview with the Army examiner and he was posted to a French-Canadian advanced training unit in infantry. Thus, by going A.W.L. he got the posting he wanted and he thought that if he continued to go A.W.L. he could get what he wanted and could get overseas.

There are three boys in this man's family of Army age and all three are in the service. I would ask the Court to remember that this is not a case of the man not intending to return to the Army, he did return. I would ask the Court to consider the sincerity of this man's desire to get overseas as attested by his age when he joined and the fact that it was early in the war. Also I would ask the Court to consider that this man would not have gone absent had he been sent overseas.

The Sentence is then recorded on Page "A' of the proceedings and same is announced to the accused in open Court.

The President then completes and signs the "Warrant of Commitment", if any, which shall be transmitted forthwith to the Commanding Officer of the accused. He will also complete and sign in every case, the "Certificate of trial by Standing Court-Martial", and address same as directed by the regulations. The proceedings, with all documents, will be transmitted to the Judge Advocate General.

C-102869, Pte BEAUDOIN Marcel.

2. Beaudoin J P was tried by SCM on 13 Sep 45 on a charge of desertion having absented himself without leave from 18 Sep 44 until arrested on 30 Aug 45. An absence of 11½ months. He was found guilty of the offence and sentenced to 9 months detention.

Beaudoin Jean was tried by SCM on 7 Sep 45 on a charge of desertion having absented himself without leave from 2 Apr 45 until arrested on 29 Aug 45. An absence of 4½ months. He was found guilty of the offence and sentenced to undergo detention for a period of 6 months.

3. In view of the fact that both these SUS were convicted of desertion after long absences it is not considered that in the interests of military discipline that they should be released prior to their having served a substantial portion of the sentence awarded. Consideration would be given to their release only on the most serious compassionate grounds.

4. Beaudoin Marcel is at present O/S having been admitted to the 4th Cdn General Hospital, RCAMC, on 6 Aug 45 diagnosed alcoholic poisioning of the optic nerve. He is described as doing well.

5. In view of the fact Marcel Beaudoin is still O/S and his physical condition is apparently the result of his own action it is not considered that such compassionate grounds have been shown as to warrant other than normal review in these two instances.

6. First review of sentence will take place 45 days after the award.

THE DEFENDING OFFICER DECLINES TO CROSS-EXAMINE

THE WITNESS WITHDRAWS

The Prosecutor has no further witness to call.
The Prosecution is closed.

Motion – No Case

It is open to the accused, his Counsel or Defending Officer at the close of the case for the prosecution to submit that the evidence given for the prosecution has not established a prima facie case against him, and that he should not therefore be called upon for his defence. If such Motion is made, the proceedings will be recorded on separate pages which will be inserted immediately before the present page D. If the Court is satisfied that the Motion is well founded, it must acquit the accused and register its Finding on Page A.

Defence

The President will now address the acused as follows:—

"It is my duty at this stage to advise you as to your rights in the general conduct of your defence. The procedure to be followed depends entirely on the answers given to the formal questions which are about to be put to you. It is therefore important that you should understand and appreciate the effect of your answers to these questions. You do not need to give evidence on oath unless you wish to do so, but if you do give sworn evidence you are liable to be cross-examined by the Prosecutor and questioned by the Court."

"If you do not give evidence on oath you are entitled to make a statement giving your account of the subject of the charge against you. You will not be sworn and no question may be put to you by the Court or any person with respect to such statement. I must warn you, however, that evidence given on oath will carry more weight with the Court than a mere statement not on oath."

If there is no Defending Officer the President should then explain to the accused the effect which his answer to the formal questions on Page D of the proceedings will have on the order of the Closing Addresses as provided in R.P. 40 and 41.

Question to the accused. Do you apply to give evidence yourself as a witness, or do you wish to make an unsworn statement?

Answer. I would just as soon take the oath, Sir.

Question to the accused. Do you intend to call any witness in your defence?

Answer. No, Sir.

Question to the accused. ~~Is the witness to be called a witness as to character only?~~

Answer. .....

First Witness for Defence

The Accused, A.114243, Gnr. Orville Joseph BELLAIRE, No. 1 District Depot (CA), being duly sworn, states:

Well, Sir, since coming in the Army I have had large and infected tonsils. They were supposed to have something done for me but apparently nothing was done. Since coming in the Army I was in an accident and I had an injury to my back, and since that time, Sir, I have been suffering with backaches continuously and sometimes they are very severe. Well, there was supposed to be something done for me and I kept going on sick parade and all they would do was give me treatments; that wasn't enough, Sir. So when I came home I brought my wife home; it was sometime in March, but on March 22nd I went to a civilian doctor and I had him examine me. He gave me a certificate to come back with and with the certificate I went up to my O.C. and I explained my story to him and showed him the doctor's certificate. Well he said there was nothing he could do, that I would have to go on sick parade, that all they would give me were just treatments; that is all they had been giving me since having this accident and with these enlarged tonsils. I got a slip of paper that the M.I.R. issues you with to prove that you are on sick parade. I was to be paraded before the Colonel...they put it off,going to the Colonel and that is when I went A.W.L. I have that doctor's certificate with me and I have the proof I went on sick parade.

CERTIFICATE FROM DR. A.H.E. TROTTIER, WINDSOR, ONTARIO, DATED 22 MAR 45 PRODUCED, READ, MARKED EXHIBIT "K" SIGNED BY THE PRESIDENT AND ATTACHED TO THE PROCEEDINGS

MEDICAL INSPECTION ROOM PRO FORMA L SICK BAY TREATMENTS DATED MAR 27/44 FROM A-1 CATC PRODUCED, MARKED EXHIBIT "L" READ, SIGNED BY THE PRESIDENT AND ATTACHED TO THE PROCEEDINGS

ACCUSED: Well, on top of that, Sir, on February 18th my wife gave birth to a baby boy and nine days later the baby died, which she took very hard and I had to bring her home after that. She was in a very nervous frame of mind. She influenced me a little although I didn't need much influence. I didn't intend to stay so long; I fully intended to come back on August the 16th and in the meantime I was apprehended. When I was apprehended in bed I had army issue underwear on and when I got out of bed I put army issue socks on and boots and a pair of civilian pants and later I put on my uniform. I guess that is all, Sir.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY PROSECUTOR:

Q. Were you discharged from the Rideau Military hospital then notwithstanding your condition?

A. Yes, Sir.

A. That is when I was in, Sir; the accident happened December 27th, 1942 and in March 1943 I was still in the hospital.

Q. I thought you told us previously that the accident happened on the 26th or 27th of August, 1942?

Q. Exhibit "K" is dated March 27th, 1944?

A. I went on sick parade the day I was told to go.

Q. What day did you go on sick parade?

A. Well, I can't recall that, Sir, if it was the 27th that must have been the day.

Q. When?

A. It would be March, 1945.

Q. He told you to go on sick parade and

A. Yes, Sir.

Q. When you got to see the M.O. did you tell h trouble?

A. Yes, Sir.

A. That I was suffering from severe backache and sore throat.

Q. Did he look at your throat?

A. Yes, Sir.

Q. Did he look at your back?

A. I can't recall whether he did or not.

Q. You haven't any recollection of him examining your back?

A. I can't say he did or he didn't.

Q. Did he take any case history of your injury?

A. He knew me, Sir.

Q. Did he ask when you injured your back?

A. No, Sir, I didn't state anything about the injury to my back; I felt he was a doctor and should be able to tell me that.

Q. He didn't interrogate you about your back injury?

A. I told him I had it injured and was suffering from these backaches.

Q. And what where his instructions to you?

A. To go to the dispensary and have linament rubbed on my back.

Q. From whom did you receive Exhibit "L"?

A. That was from the N.C.O. in charge of the dispensary.

Q. And what did he want you to come back for, do you know?

Battery Commander?

A. Severe pain in my back and large and infected tonsils.

Q. He told you to go on sick parade and see the M.O.?

Q. What did you tell him?

Q. Did he take any case history of your injury?

A. He knew me, Sir.

Q. Did he ask when you injured your back?

A. No, Sir, I didn't state anything about the injury to my back; I felt he was a doctor and should be able to tell me that.

Q. He didn't interrogate you about your back injury?

A. I told him I had it injured and was suffering from these backaches.

Q. And what where his instructions to you?

A. To go to the dispensary and have linament rubbed on my back.

Q. From whom did you receive Exhibit "L"?

A. That was from the N.C.O. in charge of the dispensary.

Q. And what did he want you to come back for, do you know?

A. To keep taking these treatments; rubbing linament on my back and spraying my throat.

Q. And did you go back?

A. Yes, Sir, I did.

Q. Exhibit "L" says "The m/n has been ordered to report back to the M.I.R. A-1, C.A.T.C., for further treatment at 0715 hrs., 1630 hrs., for the next two days." The document is dated March 27th and you say it was last March. That would mean that you were to report back on March 28th and March 29th, I take it?

A. It would be the 27th and 28th, Sir.

Q. Well this document is dated the 27th and you say it was last March. You were instructed to report back for further treatment at 0715 hours, 1630 hours, for the next two days. This treatment will take approximately 10 minutes. Now did you go back on the next day; that would be the 28th?

A. Yes, Sir, I did.

Q. And did you take the treatment then?

A. Yes, Sir.

Q. And did you go back on the 29th and take a treatment?

A. I can't recall whether I did or not because I think I went on the 27th and 28th. I was on sick parade in the morning and ordinarily you take your treatments after you have been on sick parade.

Q. Do you remember what day it was when you first went to the M.O.?

A. You mean to get this proof?

Q. Yes?

A. On the 27th of March, 1945.

Q. And you just have a recollection of going back one other day?

A. One other day, Sir, plus March the 27th.

Q. And did you go at 1630 hrs. on the 28th of March to the M.I.R.?

A. Yes, Sir, I did.

Q. And what did you do after that?

A. I went back to my duties.

Q. Was it right that you were A.W.L. from your Unit at 0600 hrs. on the 29th day of last March?

A. Yes, Sir.

Q. Was there any reason for going at that time?

A. Well, as I say, Sir, I was suffering with these backaches and I was getting no relief and I still had to carry on with my duties and my wife was in a nervous frame of mind.

Q. What were your duties at that time?

A. Cooking in the kitchen, Sir.

Q. And you say your wife on the 29th of March was at R.R. 2 Maidstone, was she?

A. Yes, Sir.

Q. And what did you do after you left Petawawa?

A. I came back to that vicinity; I went driving tractors for farmers, I had to live somehow or other.

Q. I take it then from what you have said that after you went A.W.L. from Petawawa you returned to the Maidstone area?

A. Yes, Sir.

Q. What did you do before you came into the service?

A. Worked for the Ford Motor Company, Sir.

Q. You say when you left Petawawa you drove tractors?

A. Well that is what I mostly did.

Q. And where did you live while you were driving tractors?

A. I only worked by the day and lived at the place where I drove the tractor, I stayed right there.

Q. Whose tractor did you drive?

A. Do I have to answer that question?

Q. Sure?

A. Does that involve the poeope where I had driven the tractor.

Q. No?

A. Well it was Guinlin.

Q. Was that a man you worked for?

A. Yes, Sir.

Q. You just went to the farm and drove the farmer's tractor?

A. Yes, Sir. And Clark's.

Q. Did you see your wife at any time while you were away?

A. Not right at the start, Sir.

Q. How long was it after you were A.W.L. from your Unit that you saw your wife?

A. It was sometime after 21 days, Sir; I can't say to be exact.

Q. What was the state of her health when you saw your wife again?

A. She had improved a great deal.

Q. You say it was some time after 21 days after the 29th of March that you saw your wife?

A. Well it was after I had been classed as a deserter, Sir, anyway.

Q. Was there any reason why you didn't want to see your wife until after that period of time had elapsed?

A. I don't know why, Sir, but I didn't want to see anybody.

Q. Did you see a doctor during that period of time at all?

A. I couldn't go to a doctor when I was on the loose.

Q. When did you next see a doctor then?

A. I didn't go near any doctor, I was too scared.

Q. Do you mean from the 29th of March last and the time you were apprehended on the 9th of August that you didn't see any doctor?

A. Not until I came in the custody room here in London.

Q. Did your back bother you at all?

A. Well I just came out of the hospital; I was troubled with frequency from this back injury.

Q. And immediately when you came back to your Unit you were hospitalized I take it?

A. Not immediately; I was picked up on the 9th of August and I was returned to London on the 13th of August and on the 26th of August I was admitted to Crumlin Hospital.

Q. And you have been there until?

A. Last Saturday, this past Saturday.

Q. And now is your back now?

A. It still bothers me, Sir.

Q. But you have been released from the hospital?

A. Yes, Sir.

Q. Now after the 21 days of which you have spoken before you saw your wife did you continue to do any work while away?

A. I couldn't work every day, Sir.

Q. Did you give your wife any money?

A. No, Sir, I didn't make enough I only made enough to keep myself.

Q. What did you make while you were away?

A. As high as $4.00 to $5.00 a day.

Q. $4.00 to $5.00 a day?

A. Yes, Sir, I only worked sometimes three days a week; sometimes maybe four or five, it just depended on the climate;

it rained practically a

it rained a great deal.

Q. Because it rained you weren't ab that right?

A. Yes, Sir.

Q. Did you do anything else besides plowing when

A. I did just ordinary farm work, disking, plowing an cultivating; there is a number of things, I just can't p my finger on them at the moment.

Q. Did you do any disking?

A. Yes, Sir.

Q. Besides plowing you tell us what you did while you were away?

A. I disked and plowed and I cultivated; I pulled a wagon with a hay loader behind the wagon with a tractor.

Q. It would be safe in saying that you worked all the time that you were away with the exception of when the weather prevented you from working?

A. Not all the time; sometimes I would lay off.

Q. Why?

A. On account of my back, Sir.

Q. What did you do to help your back when you laid off?

A. All I could do was put linament on it.

Q. Did that help your back at all?

A. Sometimes it would relieve it for half an hour or an hour then the pain would come back as bad as ever.

Q. After the 21 days when you saw your wife where were you living then?

A. I can't just recall that, Sir.

Q. Well did you live at R.R. 2 Maidstone?

A. No, Sir, I didn't live at R.R. 2 Maidstone; that is where I was apprehended at the end.

it rained practically all the time I was on the loose; it rained a great deal.

Q. Because it rained you weren't able to plow the land, is that right?

A. Yes, Sir.

Q. Did you do anything else besides plowing when you were away?

A. I did just ordinary farm work, disking, plowing and cultivating; there is a number of things, I just can't put my finger on them at the moment.

A. I can't just recall that, Sir.

Q. Well did you live at R.R. 2 Maidstone?

A. No, Sir, I didn't live at R.R. 2 Maidstone; that is where I was apprehended at the end.

Q. How long had you been there before the day you were apprehended?

A. About three weeks, Sir.

Q. Is it right it was the 9th of August at 2230 hours when your absence terminated?

A. That was the time they brought me into the barracks in Windsor.

Q. That is the time you were apprehended?

A. Well they came out before that; I was in bed.

Q. 2230 hours, the 9th of August, 1945, you told us before it was on the 13th when they brought you down to Wolseley when you were apprehended?

A. No, Sir, I was in Windsor at 2300 hours.

Q. That is right then is it?

A. Yes, Sir.

Q. You say you got up out of bed and put on some army socks and army boots and a pair of civilian pants; did you have your battle dress?

A. Yes, Sir.

Q. Where was your battle dress?

A. At the wife's brother's place.

Q. Where is that?

A. About three miles from my Father-in-Law's place.

Q. Well is R.R. 2 Maidstone, Ontario, your wife's father's place?

A. Yes, Sir.

Q. Where was it at your Brother-in-Law's place?

A. It was about three miles from my Father-In-Law's.

Q. Where did you have it there?

A. Well just in the closet there.

Q. Why do you say you were coming back on the 13th of August?

was there anything particular about that?

A. Well it is foolish to be hiding; I was hiding all thetime I was on the loose and I felt like a criminal; I felt I had to give myself up sooner or later.

Q. When had you made up your mind you would come back on the 13th of August?

A. About three weeks before that, when I came home and talked to my wife.

Q. Was there any further significance to the date of August the 13th?

A. Well there was no use coming back into camp on Saturday or Sunday; they won't do anything for you then; I thought if I came back on the 13th they would start to proceed on my case right away.

Q. Did you see any newspaper while you were away at all?

A. I did occasionally, Sir.

Q. Did you ever hear the radio when you were away?

A. Now and again I did, Sir.

Q. Did you hear or see anything in the newspaper about lads being A.W.L. from their Units last Spring?

A. I don't think so, Sir.

Q. Did you see a copy of the Border Cities Star when you were away?

A. I did at times.

PRESIDENT:

What are you leading up to. I know there was a great deal in last winter; I am not prepared to say there was much in last Spring. Are you prepared to say it was published in the Spring?

(No answer by Prosecutor)

RE-EXAMINATION BY DEFENDING OFFICER:

Q. During the time after you had been in train accident in the latter part of 1942 at any time were you ever given a medical reboard?

A. I can't recall it, Sir, I don't think I was. Sir, just before March when I joined up in February I did have a medical examination but it was a very poor medical examination.

Q. That was in 1941 I take it?

A. No, Sir, in 1945; it was in between the birth of our child and when it died but I can't recall the correct date. I had been a Zombie up until that time.

Q. That would be in February, 1945 I take it; that would be approximately at the end of February, in 1945?

A. Well No, Sir, it would be shortly after the 18th because the baby was born.....

Q. That would be about the 24th, it states here the 24th of February, 1945?

A. That could be the date, Sir.

Q. Between the time you did have your train accident or you were involved in an accident on a train, until that time you never had a medical board?

A. The only thing I can recall is I went up for vaccinations.

PRESIDENT:

Q At no time between the train accident and February/45 did he have a medical board?

DEFENDING OFFICER: Yes, Sir.

ACCUSED: A. Well I had gone in for vaccinations and needles and I had to strip at that time; I don't recall ever having a medical examination.

QUESTIONED BY PRESIDENT:

Q. Your train accident occurred in December, 1942, is that right?

A. Yes, Sir.

Q. And were you in military hospital until March of 1943?

A. Yes, Sir.

Q. Didn't you have any examination before your release from the hospital?

A. I just went out of the hospital, Sir, that is all there was to it.

Q. I thought you were under continual examination while you were under treatment?

A. Yes, Sir, the M.O. came to see me every two or three days.

Q. You were finally discharged from the hospital in March of 1943?

A. Yes, Sir.

Q. Between March of 1943 and February of 1945 did you have any hospitalization at all?

A. Well I had been in three or four or five times; I just can't say how many times.

Q. Were you put into hospital?

A. Yes, Sir.

Q. You were in hospital three or four or four or five times between the time you were released from hospital in 1943 and the time you were examined for active service in 1945, is that right?

A. Yes, Sir.

Q. How long were you in hospital on those various occasions?

A. Well I couldn't say exactly, maybe two weeks, maybe three weeks, maybe four weeks, I couldn't say.

Q. On each occasion?

A. Yes, Sir.

Q. When was the last time before February, 1945 that you were in hospital?

A. Not including this last time I was put in the hospital?

Q. Not this last time since you came back?

A. It was in March some time, Sir.

Q. Were you in hospital in March?

A. Yes, Sir.

Q. And where were you in hospital in March of 1945?

A. Petawawa, Sir.

Q. How long were you in hospital in March, 1945?

A. Well it wasn't over two weeks, Sir, I don't think, I can't say exactly.

Q. Were you on leave on the 22nd of March?

A. Yes, Sir.

Q. How long before you went on leave?

A. I came right out of hospital and went on leave.

Q. Had you been in hospital for two or three weeks at that time?

A. Around two weeks, Sir.

Q. Prior to the 22nd of March and before this last time you mentioned as being in hospital in March, 1945, when was the last time before that you had been in the hospital?

A. Well I don't know whether it was a year before that or if it was the Fall before; I couldn't say exactly, Sir.

Q. It is your own case, you must have some recollection as to when it would be?

A. I couldn't tell, Sir, I have been in on so many different occasions.

Q. And have you been in many times since the train accident?

A. Four or five times, I couldn't say exactly.

Q. You were in a couple of weeks in March?

A. Yes, Sir.

Q. Do you think you were in prior to that, sometime in the Fall of 1944?

A. I couldn't say for sure.

Q. I say you think you were in?

A. Yes, Sir.

Q. Were you in during the summer of 1944 at all?

A. I couldn't remember, Sir.

Q. Do you recall whether you were in in the Spring of 1944?

A. I couldn't remember that either, Sir.

Q. Do you recall whether you were in in the Winter of 1944?

A. Well I don't know whether it was in the Fall, Sir, or just when it was in 1944; I was in the hospital in 1944 but I couldn't say exactly when.

Q. How often were you in the hospital in 1943? You got out in March 1943 for the first long stretch; how long after that in 1943 were you in the hospital?

A. I think in October, Sir.

Q. You think in October of 1943. Now then I am not trying to get you pinned down to dates, I have none of this information before me at all. You think you were in three or four or four of five times between the time you got out in March, 1943 and the time that you were last in in March, 1945, is that right?

A. Yes, Sir.

Q. Well now then what I want to do is get a picture of the various times you were in. You think you may have been in in the Fall of 1943?

A. Yes, Sir.

Q. And you don't think you were in between March of 1943 and October of 1943, is that right?

A. What is that again, Sir.

Q. You don't hink you were in hospital between March, 1943 and October, 1943?

A. Well I took treatments.

Q. When you were speaking of being in the hospital do you mean simply taking treatments and coming out again? You have told us of being in the hospital on a number of occasions for two or three weeks, that didn't refer to times you were taking hospital treatments and going back to duty did it?

A. No, Sir.

Q. The only time you have given us so far that you were in the hospital in 1943 was in October. When do you think was the next time you were in hospital; in 1944 were you in there at all?

A. I was in there once, Sir; it was either in the Spring or Fall of the year.

Q. In the Spring or Fall of 1944?

A. Yes, Sir.

Q. And you were in in the Spring of 1945?

A. Yes, Sir.

Q. Were you in in the Winter of 1945?

A. Well I think I was but I can't be sure.

Q. Was your head injured at all in this accident?

A. Yes, Sir, It was.

Q. Did that have any effect on your memory?

A. I don't think so, Sir.

Q. How seriously was your head injured?

A. Well it is.....I don't know, it wasn't really serious; my head was swelled up and I had one small cut, I had a cauliflower ear and my head was swelled up on the left side.

Q. That seems to be about as complete a picture as you can give of your hospital experience from the time you joined up until you went absent?

A. Yes, Sir.

Q. When you went to your Battery Commander was that after you got out of the hospital in March, 1945?

A. Yes, Sir.

Q. Then you went on leave and on the 22nd of March you got the certificate from the civilian doctor, Dr. Trottier, is that right?

A. Yes, Sir.

Q. Was it after you got that certificate that you went to see your Battery Commander?

A. Well, Sir, when I came out of the hospital and was immediately put on leave and I came home and after I left the hospital I had been running a temperature; I had an argument with a Nursing Sister there as they were discharging me from hospital and I wasn't fit and well and they sent an Orderly Officer in and I went out anyway. When I was put on leave I didn't have no time to go and see the O.C. then, I had to take the leave or else and when I came home.....

Q. What do you mean, you had to take the leave when they gave it to you?

A. Yes, Sir, when I came home, that is when I went to Dr. Trottier. After I was back off leave I took this letter to the O.C. then.

Q. In this letter from Dr. Trottier the only thing he says is that following your accident you developed a severe pain in the back and that you had not fully recovered from same and that you had large, infected tonsils which should be attended to. At the time you went to him what was the condition of your back?

A. It was something like I went in the hospital with but I was troubled with the frequency then.

Q. Do you mean you had to go and relieve your bladder?

A. I was wetting in my pants.

Q. You couldn't control your bladder, is that right?

A. Yes, Sir.

Q. That is what you went to the doctor about that time?

A. No, Sir, it was just that I had the severe pain in the back.

Q. Did that severe pain in the back cause you to lose control of your bladder?

A. Yes, Sir.

Q. Was that causing you that trouble when you went to Dr. Trottier?

A. No, Sir.

Q. Was there anything it was causing aside from the pain itself?

A. Just that I didn't feel good and this pain knocks the devil out of me.

Q. There wasn't anything that Dr. Trottier could do for you at that time?

A. No, Sir.

Q. Then when you came back to camp you saw your Battery Commander and he said you should go on sick parade?

A. Yes, Sir.

Q. Did you take this Exhibit "K" with you when you went on sick parade?

A. I did not show that to the M.O. they would give me Hell for going to a civilian doctor; I had that once there before after I was in the accident and I got Hell for goi to the civilian doctor.

Q. You and I must be in the same boat because I have gone to one when I was on leave and I never thought I was doing anything wrong?

A. I was given to understand in 1942 that if you went to a civilian doctor that you certainly knew about it afterward.

Q. You did see your Battery Commander and he said that you should go on sick parade; was that for the purpose of confirming what was in this Exhibit "K" or for the purpose of having a military medical officer examine you and come to the same conclusion as the civilian doctor?

A. I wanted to get my tonsils out.

Q. Your Battery Commander said that you should go on sick parade?

A. Yes, Sir.

Q. And did you show him Dr. Trottier's certificate, Exhibit "K"?

A. I showed Dr. Trottier's certificate to the O.C., that is my Battery Commander.

Q. And then what did you do about Exhibit "K"?

A. He said there wouldn't be anything he could do about it even if he took me to the Colonel; there wasn't anything he could do about it.

Q. Why did you want to go on sick parade?

A. To get my tonsils removed and in order to go to the Colonel I had to get this proof that all they had given me was this treatment.

Q. You were to go on sick parade and bring back the document to show what they were doing for you?

A. Yes, Sir.

Q. Did you get this exhibit "L" from the sick parade on March 27th?

A. Yes, Sir.

Q. Was that given to you?

A. Yes, Sir.

Q. On March 27th?

A. Yes, Sir.

Q. And when did you take it to your Battery Commander?

A. The same date, Sir.

Q. On March 27th?

A. Yes, Sir.

Q. And what did he tell you then?

A. He said he would parade me to the Colonel but he didn't say when.

Q. What time of day did you take this to your Battery Commander?

A. Right after I came off sick parade.

Q. That would be in the morning?

A. On the morning of the 27th.

Q. Did he tell you to go and take treatments?

A. Yes, Sir.

Q. And did he tell you he would take you to the Colonel after you had completed the treatments or before?

A. He didn't say exactly when, Sir; I was given to understand as soon as I got that he would take me up immediately in the afternoon on the 27th.

Q. On the 27th he gave you to understand he would take you up on the 27th?

A. Yes, Sir.

Q. And he didn't take you up before the Colonel on the 27th?

A. No, Sir.

Q. Did you see him again on the 28th?

A. I was waiting, Sir, for him to sent for me.

Q. Then on the 29th at 0600 hrs. in the morning you were absent; you were absent when the roll was called, is that correct?

A. Yes, Sir.

Q. You didn't see your Battery Commander again on the 28th, is that right?

A. No, Sir.

Q. Why did you say you thought he had put off taking you to the Colonel?

A. Well it just seemed that was all I ever got in the Army Sir.

Q. You had been troubled with this thing for some two years at this time?

A. Yes, Sir, ever since having the accident.

Q. And was this the first time you had asked to be paraded [illegible]

A. Yes, Sir.

Q. It was the first time?

A. Yes, Sir.

Q. And rather than wait more than two days you went absent, is that right; after receiving this thing rather than wait for a couple of days to get before the Camp Commandant you went absent?

A. Yes, Sir.

Q. And you hadn't been to your Battery Commander except the one time and you didn't know whether there was any reason you couldn't see the Camp Commandant, is that right?

A. On the 26th I went to see the Battery Commander and he advised me to go on sick parade on the 27th.

Q. And you got this Exhibit "L" and you showed it to your

A. I was given to understand I would be taken that afternoon.

Q. Did you see your Battery Commander again before you want absent?

A. No, Sir.

Q. You did not know whether or not it was possible to see the Camp Commandant that day; you did not know whether the Camp Commandant was in or whether he was away?

A. He was there, Sir.

Q. How do you know?

A. Well by word of mouth I heard he was in Camp and when nothing happened.....

Q. Did you see your Battery Commander again to find out why you were not paraded?

A. I had been over to the Battery office but I never found out why I was not paraded.

Q. Did you enquire why you were not paraded to the Camp Commandant?

A. No, Sir.

Q. Now then you have told us that you intended to come back on August 13th; what day would that be?

A. That would be Monday, Sir.

Q. On Monday?

A. Yes, Sir.

Q. You had been doing what kind of work?

A. Plowing and disking.

Q. Why did you pick out August 13th; why did you decide you were coming back on August 13th?

A. I figured when you go A.W.L. you don't like to come into camp on Saturday and spend Saturday and Sunday in camp.

Q. Was the work through you were doing?

A. No, I could have worked on; I have felt like a criminal and, well, I was scared all the time and I had to keep in hiding all the time; I wanted to come back.

Q. You say you had decided before August 8th that you would be back on August 13th, is that right?

A. Yes, Sir.

Q. Why were you keeping your uniform in this place three miles from where you were apprehended?

A. I didn't want to have my Father-in-Law involved; I thought maybe they would do something to him if they found the uniform there; I wanted to keep my uniform to wear back to camp.

Q. Whose house were you keeping your uniform at?

A. My wife's brother's.

Q. And you weren't living there at all, is that right?

A. No, Sir.

Q. Did you get your uniform and come back to camp in your uniform?

A. Yes, Sir.

Q. So that you had it available and were able to pick it up?

A. Yes, Sir.

Ref telegram AG 0267 d/18 Oct 45 Review.

2. The CM Board of Review has in the case of the a/m soldier made the following recommendation:

"Release on 17 Mar 1946"

3. You will note that the recommendation of the Board deals with the remission at a future date. In considering this case your attention is directed to paras 3 and 4 of the telegram above referred to. It is pointed out that the action to be taken by you as a Superior Military Authority is ~~not~~ immediate and therefore this soldier's conduct and other circumstances up to the date of the recommended remission should be taken into consideration by you prior to your acting upon the recommendation of the Board. It is therefore suggested that you should not sign the appropriate entry until the recommended date approaches.

4. If in your opinion recent misconduct exists it is requested that this HQ be advised at once in accordance with paras 3 and 4 of the AG telegram above mentioned.

Madame,

Je vous accuse réception de votre lettre du 13 octobre 1945, relativement à votre frère, le soldat P.-E. Bruneau, matricule E.620887.

Les autorités militaires m'informent que le soldat Bruneau a été traduit devant une cour martiale permanente le 18 septembre 1945, pour répondre à une accusation de désertion, étant donné qu'il s'était absenté sans permission à compter du 18 juin 1942 jusqu'au 5 septembre 1945, alors qu'il a été arrêté par les autorités militaires et qu'il portait des habits civils. Il a été trouvé coupable et condamné à vingt-trois mois de détention.

Vous comprenez que les autorités militaires ne tiennent pas à garder un soldat en détention plus longtemps que ne l'exige l'intérêt de la discipline. Les sentences imposées par les cours militaires sont revisées régulièrement en vue d'une remise de peine, lorsque les circonstances la motivent. Toutefois, on prévoit que, vu la longue absence du soldat Bruneau, il sera tenu de purger une partie substantielle de sa peine avant d'être remis en liberté.

Votre bien dévoué,

I beg to be excused for troubling you concerning my young brother, the above-named soldier.

I acknowledge that he deserted from the Army a long time ago but, he gave himself up of his own accord, hoping that you would be less severe towards him. I hereby request you to grant him his pardon not because of a fancy but because my father, who is a farmer, is an invalid and it is Paul-Emile who used to attend to the farm-work.

He has already been kept under detention for a month and that greatly affects my poor father.

Therefore, I hope you will comply with my request. I shall be very grateful if you do so. I put my trust in you because I know that you will kindly accede to my request.

DEPARTMENT OF NATIONAL DEFENCE

OTTAWA, CANADA.

22 October, 1945

Dear Madam:

This will acknowledge your letter of the 13th October, 1945, with reference to your brother E.620887 Pte P.E. Bruneau.

I am informed by the Military Authorities that this soldier was tried by Standing Court-Martial on the 18th September, 1945 on a charge of desertion, having absented himself without leave from the 18th June, 1942 until he was apprehended by the Military Authorities on the 5th September, 1945, dressed in civilian clothes. He was found guilty of the offence and sentenced to twenty-three months detention.

You will appreciate that it is not the desire of the Military Authorities to retain a soldier in detention any longer than is necessary in the interests of military discipline. Sentences awarded by Military Courts are reviewed at regular intervals with a view to remission when the circumstances warrant. It is, however, contemplated that, in view of this soldier's long absence, he will be required to serve a substantial portion of his sentence before he is released.

Yours truly,

Deputy Minister,

Question à l'accusé.

Désirez-vous demander un ajournement, sous prétexte que l'une quelconque des règles de la procédure antérieure au procès n'aurait pas été observée, vous causant ainsi préjudice, ou que vous n'auriez pas eu assez de temps pour la préparation de votre défense ?

2 - M.F.M. 216 - Certificat de Reddition - signé à Lauzon, P.Q., le 5 septembre 1945, se rapportant à l'accusé.

17

Le procureur n'a plus de témoins à appeler.
La poursuite est close.

Motion de non-lieu

Il est loisible à l'accusé, à son avocat ou à l'officier défenseur, après l'audition de la preuve de la poursuite, d'alléguer que celle-ci n'a pas réussi à établir une présomption légale contre l'accusé et que ce dernier ne devrait pas, par conséquent, être contraint de présenter sa défense. Dans le cas d'une telle motion, le procès verbal sera consigné sur des feuilles séparées qui seront insérées immédiatement avant la présente page D. Si la cour estime que cette allégation est bien fondée, elle doit acquitter l'accusé et consigner son verdict à la page A.

Défense

Le président s'adresse à l'accusé en ces termes:

"Il est de mon devoir en cette circonstance de vous aviser de vos droits touchant la conduite générale de votre défense. La procédure à suivre dépend entièrement des réponses que vous ferez aux questions de forme que nous allons vous poser. Il importe donc que vous compreniez et saisissiez l'effet de vos réponses. Vous n'aurez pas à témoigner sous serment à moins que vous ne le voulïez. Mais, si vous faites des dépositions assermentées, vous serez sujet à l'interrogatoire contradictoire par les soins du procureur et à l'interrogatoire par les soins de la cour."

"Si vous ne faites pas de déposition sous serment, vous avez le droit de faire une déclaration où vous donnerez votre version de l'affaire. Vous ne serez pas assermenté et vous ne serez pas interrogé sur ce que vous dites, par la cour ou par quelque autre personne. Je dois cependant vous prévenir qu'une déposition faite sous serment aura plus de poids aux yeux de la cour qu'une simple déclaration non assermentée."

S'il n'y a pas d'officier défenseur, le président explique alors à l'accusé l'effet que ses réponses aux questions de forme de la page D du procès verbal auront sur l'ordre des dernières plaidoiries, prévu dans les Règles de procédure 40 et 41.

Question à l'accusé. Désirez-vous comparaître, vous-même, comme témoin, ou bien désirez-vous faire une déclaration non assermentée.

Réponse: Rendre témoignage sous-serment.
(Voir pages D-3 et suivantes.)

Question à l'accusé. Avez-vous l'intention de citer des témoins pour votre défense ?

Réponse: Non monsieur.

16

Question à l'accusé. ~~Est-ce uniquement un témoin à l'appui de votre réputation ?~~

Réponse:

Ref telegram AG 0267 d/18 Oct 45 Review.

2. The CM Board of Review has in the case of the m/n soldier made the following recommendation:

"Release 23 Mar 1946".

3. You will note that the recommendation of the Board deals with the remission at a future date. In considering this case your attention is directed to paras 3 and 4 of the telegram above referred to. It is pointed out that the action to be taken by you as a Superior Military Authority is not immediate and therefore this soldier's conduct and other circumstances up to the date of the recommended remission should be taken into consideration by you prior to your acting upon the recommendation of the Board. It is therefore suggested that you should not sign the appropriate entry until the recommended date approaches.

4. If in your opinion recent misconduct exists it is requested that this HQ be advised at once in accordance with paras 3 and 4 of the AG telegram above mentioned.

5. May this HQ be infm of action taken.

Mrs. Elsie Babiy,
KRYDER, Saskatchewan.

Dear Mrs. Babiy,

Re: L-601614, Private Mike Babiy.

As promised in my letter of October 27th, I am now able to inform you of the results of the first review of your husband's sentence.

I regret that I must inform you that when his case was considered, the responsible officers, after reviewing it carefully and sympathetically, recommended that for the present no remission be granted. However, it is possible for a soldier under sentence to earn remission of up to one-third of his sentence for good conduct, and in addition there are arrangements for regular reviews of all sentences awarded by Court-Martial. You may be sure that when your husband's case is again considered it will be dealt with sympathetically with due regard to his interests.

With regard to your financial difficulties, I understand that the Dependents' Board of Trustees have been in touch with you and are prepared, should the Dependents' Advisory Committee in Saskatoon recommend such action, to consider giving you assistance for as long as Private Babiy is in detention and on the strength of the Canadian Army.

Yours very truly,

Dear Mrs. Babiy,

Re: L.601614. Pte. Mike Babiy

Your letter of October 6th, addressed to the Minister of Justice, has been referred to this office for attention.

The Minister does not feel that he would be justified in ordering the release of a soldier from detention except on the advice of the officers having jurisdiction over such matters. He has, however, instructed that your letter be brought to the attention of the appropriate officers of the Department, and as soon as I have a report on any review that may have been made of your husband's case I shall write to you again.

RECEIVED

The Minister of Justice,

Ottawa.

Dear Sir,

Re L. 601614, Pte. Mike Babiy

The above, my husband was conscripted into the the army, and was with the armed forces for about three and a half years. He then deserted and was in hiding approximately 8 months before he was apprehanded, and has now been given 18 months in the Military Detention Barracks at Regina.

I was wholely depedant on the allowance I received from the army. This has now been cut off and I find myself in dire circumstances. We have two children, one 2 years old and another one year old. Unless my husband is released or the army allowance is restored to me, I fail to see how I can keep myself and the children from suffering and starvation

Will you please be good enough to look into this matter, and have either my husband released or the allowance for myself and the children restored.

I might also state that I can furnish sworn affidavits or declarations corroborating the facts outlined above.

Please let me hear from you at an early date.

Yours truly,

Mrs Elsie Babiy

Proceedings on Plea of Not Guilty

Question to the accused.

Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity for preparing your defence?

Answer. No, sir.

(If the accused applies for an adjournment see instructions at page 747 M.M.L.)

The Prosecutor declines to make an opening address.

~~The Prosecutor proceeds to call witnesses.~~

First Witness for prosecution.

~~being duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor.~~

Question

THE PROSECUTOR ADDRESSING THE COURT: Sir, I produce M.F.B. 375, M.F.M. 215, M.F.B. 1481 in the total sum of $6.48, M.F.B. 1481 in the total sum of $5.20, M.F.B. 1482 in the total sum of $8.49 and M.F.B.1482 in the total sum of $1.78.

The Defending Officer has no objection to any of the documents.

The documents are read and marked Exhibits "I" to "N" respectively, signed by the President and attached to the proceedings.

16

The Prosecutor has no further witness to call.
The Prosecution is closed.

Motion – No Case

It is open to the accused, his Counsel or Defending Officer at the close of the case for the prosecution to submit that the evidence given for the prosecution has not established a prima facie case against him, and that he should not therefore be called upon for his defence. If such Motion is made, the proceedings will be recorded on separate pages which will be inserted immediately before the present page D. If the Court is satisfied that the Motion is well founded, it must acquit the accused and register its Finding on Page A.

Defence

The President will now address the acused as follows:—

"It is my duty at this stage to advise you as to your rights in the general conduct of your defence. The procedure to be followed depends entirely on the answers given to the formal questions which are about to be put to you. It is therefore important that you should understand and appreciate the effect of your answers to these questions. You do not need to give evidence on oath unless you wish to do so, but if you do give sworn evidence you are liable to be cross-examined by the Prosecutor and questioned by the Court."

"If you do not give evidence on oath you are entitled to make a statement giving your account of the subject of the charge against you. You will not be sworn and no question may be put to you by the Court or any person with respect to such statement. I must warn you, however, that evidence given on oath will carry more weight with the Court than a mere statement not on oath."

If there is no Defending Officer the President should then explain to the accused the effect which his answer to the formal questions on Page D of the proceedings will have on the order of the Closing Addresses as provided in R.P. 40 and 41.

Question to the accused. Do you apply to give evidence yourself as a witness, or do you wish to make an unsworn statement?

Answer. An unsworn statement. (See document marked "O" attached.)

Question to the accused. Do you intend to call any witness in your defence?

Answer. No, sir.

The Defending Officer declines to make a closing address.

The Prosecutor declines to make a closing address.

Question to the accused. ~~Is the witness to be called a witness as to character only?~~

Answer.

17

E

Proceedings on Conviction before Sentence

After the Court has arrived at a Finding on all the charges against the accused and such Finding has been announced to the accused, the Prosecutor will tender to the President M.F.B. 355, together ,when it is possible, with an M.F.M. 6.

These documents are read to the Court by the President, are marked "Y" and "Z", signed by the President and annexed to the proceedings.

Question to the accused. Have you any statement to make concerning the documents which have just been read to you?

Answer. No, sir.

Question to the accused. Do you wish to address the Court?

Answer. Yes, through my Defending Officer.

THE DEFENDING OFFICER ADDRESSING THE COURT: The accused, sir, is a married man with children. His wife is alone on the farm and this fact has been a great worry to him during his whole life in the Army, which I think probably accounts for these minor cases of absence without leave, where he has gone home to check for himself to see how she is getting along. Any sentence passed on the accused at the present time will bring hardship onto his wife and his children.

The Sentence is then recorded on Page "A' of the proceedings and same is announced to the accused in open Court.

The President then completes and signs the "Warrant of Commitment", if any, which shall be transmitted forthwith to the Commanding Officer of the accused. He will also complete and sign in every case, the "Certificate of trial by Standing Court-Martial", and address same as directed by the regulations. The proceedings, with all documents, will be transmitted to the Judge Advocate General.

Statement by the accused:-

When I returned home that week-end my sister went to the hospital to have a baby. She was underweight and we didn't think she would pull through. She was having a pretty hard time of it and I wanted to stay to see how she made out. In the meantime I lost the return stub of my ticket to Kingston and I had to borrow money to get back. My father promised it to me on the next pay day, but the Ford plant went on strike and I couldn't get it. My wife is not very well. She has had quite a pull the last few years as she has had four children. I finally borrowed five dollars to get back, but it took me three days to get here.

Proceedings on Plea of Not Guilty

Question to the accused.

Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity for preparing your defence?

Answer.

No, sir.

(If the accused applies for an adjournment see instructions at page 747 M.M.L.)

The Prosecutor declines to make an opening address.

~~The Prosecutor proceeds to call witnesses.~~

First Witness for prosecution.

~~being duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor.~~

Question

THE PROSECUTOR ADDRESSING THE COURT: Sir, I produce M.F.B. 375 and M.F.M. 216.

The Defending Officer has no objection to either of the documents.

The documents are read and marked Exhibits "I" and "J" respectively, signed by the President and attached to the proceedings.

D

The Prosecutor has no further witness to call.
The Prosecution is closed.

Motion – No Case

It is open to the accused, his Counsel or Defending Officer at the close of the case for the prosecution to submit that the evidence given for the prosecution has not established a prima facie case against him, and that he should not therefore be called upon for his defence. If such Motion is made, the proceedings will be recorded on separate pages which will be inserted immediately before the present page D. If the Court is satisfied that the Motion is well founded, it must acquit the accused and register its Finding on Page A.

Defence

The President will now address the acused as follows:—

"It is my duty at this stage to advise you as to your rights in the general conduct of your defence. The procedure to be followed depends entirely on the answers given to the formal questions which are about to be put to you. It is therefore important that you should understand and appreciate the effect of your answers to these questions. You do not need to give evidence on oath unless you wish to do so, but if you do give sworn evidence you are liable to be cross-examined by the Prosecutor and questioned by the Court."

"If you do not give evidence on oath you are entitled to make a statement giving your account of the subject of the charge against you. You will not be sworn and no question may be put to you by the Court or any person with respect to such statement. I must warn you, however, that evidence given on oath will carry more weight with the Court than a mere statement not on oath."

If there is no Defending Officer the President should then explain to the accused the effect which his answer to the formal questions on Page D of the proceedings will have on the order of the Closing Addresses as provided in R.P. 40 and 41.

Question to the accused. Do you apply to give evidence yourself as a witness, or do you wish to make an unsworn statement?

Answer. An unsworn statement. (See document marked "K" attached.)

Question to the accused. Do you intend to call any witness in your defence?

Answer. No, sir.

The Defending Officer declines to make a closing address.

The Prosecutor declines to make a closing address.

Question to the accused. ~~Is the witness to be called a witness as to character only?~~

Answer.

E

Proceedings on Conviction before Sentence

After the Court has arrived at a Finding on all the charges against the accused and such Finding has been announced to the accused, the Prosecutor will tender to the President M.F.B. 355, together ,when it is possible, with an M.F.M. 6.

These documents are read to the Court by the President, are marked "Y" and "Z", signed by the President and annexed to the proceedings.

Question to the accused. Have you any statement to make concerning the documents which have just been read to you?

Answer. No, sir.

Question to the accused. Do you wish to address the Court?

Answer. Yes, through my Defending Officer.

THE DEFENDING OFFICER ADDRESSING THE COURT: I would like to draw the Court's attention to the accused. Although the accused is twenty-three years old, after having talked to him for some considerable time a few days ago I am convinced that his judgment of worldly actions is deficient, and that he is in this trouble today due to some undue bearing of his parents. That is all, sir.

The Sentence is then recorded on Page "A' of the proceedings and same is announced to the accused in open Court.

The President then completes and signs the "Warrant of Commitment", if any, which shall be transmitted forthwith to the Commanding Officer of the accused. He will also complete and sign in every case, the "Certificate of trial by Standing Court-Martial", and address same as directed by the regulations. The proceedings, with all documents, will be transmitted to the Judge Advocate General.

The President then completes and signs the "Warrant of Commitment", if any, which shall be transmitted forthwith to the Commanding Officer of the accused. "Well, sir, I realized that I was on draft and, being a married man, I went home and saw how my land was getting behind--taxes was piling up against it--and I decided to stay at home with my wife and family. My farm is four and a half miles from town and there is no well on the place and the wife is there alone and she has to carry water a half a mile; and there's no wood up, sir, for the winter.
And the reason I was in civilian clothes was because I was in the field working at the time, sir, and I didn't get no chance to change my clothes. And it is hard for the wife to bring groceries out from town at the present time.
That's all, sir."

Proceedings on Plea of Not Guilty

Question to the accused.

Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity for preparing your defence?

Answer.

No, sir.

(If the accused applies for an adjournment see instructions at page 747 M.M.L.)

The Prosecutor declines to make an opening address.

~~The Prosecutor proceeds to call witnesses.~~

First Witness for prosecution.

~~being duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor.~~

Question

THE PROSECUTOR ADDRESSING THE COURT: Sir, I produce M.F.B. 375, M.F.M. 216, M.F.B. 1481 in the total sum of $2.88, M.F.B. 1481 in the total sum of $11.27 and M.F.B. 1482 in the total sum of $13.90, making a total of $28.05 instead of $28.13 as alleged in the charge.

The Defending Officer has no objection to any of the documents.

The documents are read and marked Exhibits "I" to "M" respectively, signed by the President and attached to the proceedings.

18

The Prosecutor has no further witness to call.
The Prosecution is closed.

Motion – No Case

It is open to the accused, his Counsel or Defending Officer at the close of the case for the prosecution to submit that the evidence given for the prosecution has not established a prima facie case against him, and that he should not therefore be called upon for his defence. If such Motion is made, the proceedings will be recorded on separate pages which will be inserted immediately before the present page D. If the Court is satisfied that the Motion is well founded, it must acquit the accused and register its Finding on Page A.

Defence

The President will now address the acused as follows:—

"It is my duty at this stage to advise you as to your rights in the general conduct of your defence. The procedure to be followed depends entirely on the answers given to the formal questions which are about to be put to you. It is therefore important that you should understand and appreciate the effect of your answers to these questions. You do not need to give evidence on oath unless you wish to do so, but if you do give sworn evidence you are liable to be cross-examined by the Prosecutor and questioned by the Court."

"If you do not give evidence on oath you are entitled to make a statement giving your account of the subject of the charge against you. You will not be sworn and no question may be put to you by the Court or any person with respect to such statement. I must warn you, however, that evidence given on oath will carry more weight with the Court than a mere statement not on oath."

If there is no Defending Officer the President should then explain to the accused the effect which his answer to the formal questions on Page D of the proceedings will have on the order of the Closing Addresses as provided in R.P. 40 and 41.

Question to the accused. Do you apply to give evidence yourself as a witness, or do you wish to make an unsworn statement?

Answer. An unsworn statement, sir. (See document marked "U" attached.)

Question to the accused. Do you intend to call any witness in your defence?

Answer. No, sir.

The Defending Officer declines to make a closing address.

The Prosecutor declines to make a closing address.

Question to the accused. ~~Is the witness to be called a witness as to character only?~~

Answer.

E

These documents are read to the Court by the President, are marked "Y" and "Z", signed by the President and annexed to the proceedings.

Question to the accused. Have you any statement to make concerning the documents which have just been read to you?

Answer. No, sir.

Question to the accused. Do you wish to address the Court?

Answer. No, sir.

The Sentence is then recorded on Page "A' of the proceedings and same is announced to the accused in open Court.

The President then completes and signs the "Warrant of Commitment", if any, which shall be transmitted forthwith to the Commanding Officer of the accused. STATEMENT BY THE ACCUSED

Well, sir, I realized that I was on draft and, being a married man, I went home and saw how my land was getting behind--taxes was piling up against it--and I decided to stay at home with my wife and family.

My farm is four and a half miles from town and there is no well on the place and the wife is there alone and she has to carry water a half a mile; and there's no wood up, sir, for the winter.

And the reason I was in civilian clothes was because I was in the field working at the time, sir, and I didn't get no chance to change my clothes.

And it is hard for the wife to bring groceries out from town at the present time.

That's all, sir.

12. Remarks: (Here note any Petition or Representation other than in Item 10 but if Item 10 has been omitted so state, and show here any mitigating circumstances)

(1) Statement in Mitigation: Was placed on O/S draft in Apr 44 and given embarkation leave. His mother is very sick suffering from heart disease and he feared the shock of informing her of his being on draft would kill her. While home therefore he did not tell her that his leave was embarkation leave. On his return to camp he requested that he be retained in Canada for the reasons above mentioned. He personally had no fear of going O/S, in fact had enlisted Active Service voluntarily. It is only that he feels that his departure would cause such severe shock to his mother; it might easily bring about her death. He produces as an exhibit a certificate from one Dr. J.A. Larose which would tend to corroborate this evidence. While AWL he worked here and there, even in the woods.

(2) Defending Offr: When the accused enlisted Active Service he was told that he would stay in Canada because his mother was very sick. He is the sole support of his sick mother and while absent he gave her almost all his earnings.

13. Recommendations: (State by whom made, e.g., CMHQ, DOC, Reviewing Offr., etc.)

Rev.Offr: Considering his youth and because if his story is true there would appear to be mitigating circumstances. Recommend remission eff 24 Jun 46, ~~xxxxxxxxx~~.

DECLARATION DE L'ACCUSE EN ATTENUATION DE PEINE

Monsieur le président,

Je suis absent de l'armée active depuis la fin d'avril 1944. Après un entretien avec mon député, monsieur Lionel Bertrand, j'ai écouté son conseil et je me suis rapporté au camp. Monsieur Bertrand avait échangé, en avril, une correspondance avec l'honorable M. Ralston, concernant mon cas.

Je tiens à vous soumettre les quelques considérations suivantes:

a) Je fus mis sur une 'draft' pour outremer en avril 1944, et après un congé, je revins au camp de Petawawa, où je demandai d'être gardé au pays quelques mois additionnels, à cause du mauvais état de santé de ma mère, une cardiaque.

b) On ne prêta qu'une oreille distraite à ma demande, bien qu'à ce moment le bureau du ministre à Ottawa avait communiqué avec le camp, à la demande de monsieur Lionel Bertrand, député fédéral,

c) Ma mère est veuve depuis de nombreuses années. Elle est agée de 66 ans et elle souffre très largement du coeur. Je n'avais pas eu le courage de lui dire que j'étais sur mon congé d'adieu car elle était en très mauvais état de santé alors que j'étais en congé chez nous. Je savais que mon départ la tuerait et je n'ai pas voulu prendre ce risque.

d) Je ne suis pas un peureux. J'ai signé dans l'active parce que ça me plaisait. Mais à ce moment-là, j'ai reculé pour ma mère seulement. Si j'avais été seul, je serais parti sans sourciller.

e) Ma mère n'est pas en meilleure santée.

f) Je sais que j'ai désobéi aux règlements mais je tiens aussi à vous dire ces choses de la façon la plus sincère possible.

g) Je n'ai aucune objection à demeurer dans l'armée, et ma mère n'y aurait pas d'objection, je le crois, si j'étais appelé à servir dans quelque 'staff' ou dans quelque domaine militaire près de la maison ou à un endroit pas trop éloigné de façon qu'elle puisse me voir de temps à autres.

h) Je répète que seule la maladie de ma mère à été la cause de mon départ, et si le Ministère veut bien me confier un poste ou une charge dans le District de Montréal, dans les bureaux d'administration, dans la Prévôté etc., je suis bien prêt à l'accepter.

Depuis mon départ, j'ai travaillé ici et là, même dans les opérations forestières.

Je soumets le tout à votre considération. Je demande qu'on tienne compte des faits et des circonstances; je suis entré dans l'armée en novembre 1943 et j'ai tenté de faire mon possible. Je demande votre bonne indulgence.

Je soumets un certificat du docteur J.-A. Larose, de Ste-Thérèse-de-Blainville,P.Q., concernant l'état de santé de ma mère.

(Le document précité, est lu, marqué pièce CC-5, signé par le président et versé au dossier)

Je Dr J.A. Larose déclare que Madame Ed. Bouchard, mère du soldat Maurice Bouchard est malade et sous mes soins depuis plusieurs années. Madame Bouchard souffre de troubles cardiaques et de maladie nerveuse que l'éloignement de son fils a certainement aggravé. Mme Bouchard a besoin du produit du travail de ses enfants pour vivre, ce qui explique facilement l'aggravation de ses troubles à la suite de la privation de son fils Maurice ainsi que la privation des revenus qu'il lui donnait avant qu'il fut dans l'armée.

Dr J.A. Larose 10

Procédure sur déclaration de culpabilité précédant la sentence

Quand la cour en est arrivée à une décision relativement à tous les chefs d'accusation contre l'accusé et que ladite décision a été annoncée à ce dernier, le procureur remet au président le modèle M.F.B. 355 et, si possible, un modèle M.F.M. 6.

Ces documents sont lus à la cour par le président, marqués "Y" et "Z", signés par le président et versés au dossier.

Question à l'accusé. Avez-vous quelque déclaration à faire relativement aux documents dont on vient de vous donner lecture ?

Réponse: Non, monsieur.

Question à l'accusé. Désirez-vous adresser la parole à la cour ?

Réponse: Oui, monsieur, par l'entremise de mon officier défenseur.

La sentence est alors consignée à la page "A" du procès verbal et elle est annoncée à l'accusé en plein tribunal.

Le président établit alors et signe le mandat d'incarcération, le cas échéant, et celui-ci est immédiatement transmis au commandant de l'accusé. Dans chaque cas, il établit aussi et signe le certificat de procès devant une cour martiale permanente et le transmet en conformité des règlements. Le procès verbal ainsi que tous les documents seront transmis au juge-avocat général.

PLAIDOYER DE L'OFFICIER DEFENSEUR AU NOM DE L'ACCUSE

Monsieur le président,

Le soldat Bouchard s'est enrôlé dans l'armée active et lorsqu'il s'est enrôlé, l'officier en charge lui a dit qu'il resterait au Canada, à cause de sa mère qui était gravement malade.

L'accusé a soumis un certificat médical prouvant le mauvais état de santé de sa mère qui souffre de la maladie de coeur.

L'accusé est le seul soutien de sa mère et quand il a signé 'actif' on lui a dit qu'il resterait au Canada quand même, promesse qui n'a pas été gardée comme bien d'autres.

Pendant son absence, l'accusé a travaillé dans le bois à St-Janvier et à Chateauguay et faisait $60.00 par semaine desquels il donnait $50.00 à sa mère. Il a travaillé aussi pour le même salaire chez des cultivateurs. Il était obligé de travailler parce qu'il était soutien de famille.

Je ferais remarquer à la cour que l'accusé n'a pas peur de l'armée et il est prêt à rester dans l'armée en autant qu'on lui donne une charge près de chez lui vu que sa mère est gravement malade.

Il est venu se rapporter aux autorités militaires lui-même et il a déjà fait 50 jours en détention.

Je demanderais que la cour soit indulgente envers l'accusé vu la situation plutôt embarrassante pour sa mère.

Procédure sur une dénégation de culpabilité

Question à l'accusé.

Désirez-vous demander un ajournement, sous prétexte que l'une quelconque des règles de la procédure antérieure au procès n'aurait pas été observée, vous causant ainsi préjudice, ou que vous n'auriez pas eu assez de temps pour la préparation de votre défense ?

Réponse:

Non, monsieur.

(Si l'accusé demande un ajournement, voir les instructions à la page 747 du M.D.M.)

" LE PROCUREUR REMET AU PRESIDENT

LES DOCUMENTS SUIVANTS SE RAPPORTANT A L'ACCUSE"

1.- Un extrait certifié des Ordres Partie II, Ordre No. 175 en date du 30 novembre, 1944, se rapportant à l'accusé.

(Ce document est lu par la Cour, marqué "G", signé par le Président et versé au dossier.)

2.- Une formule M.F.M. 216, en date du 4 septembre, 1945, se rapportant à l'accusé.

(Ce document est lu par la Cour, marqué "H", signé par le Président et versé au dossier.)

-o-o-o-o-o-o-o-o-o-o-o-o-

Le procureur n'a ~~plus~~ pas de témoins à appeler.
La poursuite est close.

Motion de non-lieu

Il est loisible à l'accusé, à son avocat ou à l'officier défenseur, après l'audition de la preuve de la poursuite, d'alléguer que celle-ci n'a pas réussi à établir une présomption légale contre l'accusé et que ce dernier ne devrait pas, par conséquent, être contraint de présenter sa défense. Dans le cas d'une telle motion, le procès verbal sera consigné sur des feuilles séparées qui seront insérées immédiatement avant la présente page D. Si la cour estime que cette allégation est bien fondée, elle doit acquitter l'accusé et consigner son verdict à la page A.

Défense

Le président s'adresse à l'accusé en ces termes:

"Il est de mon devoir en cette circonstance de vous aviser de vos droits touchant la conduite générale de votre défense. La procédure à suivre dépend entièrement des réponses que vous ferez aux questions de forme que nous allons vous poser. Il importe donc que vous compreniez et saisissiez l'effet de vos réponses. Vous n'aurez pas à témoigner sous serment à moins que vous ne le vouliez. Mais, si vous faites des dépositions assermentées, vous serez sujet à l'interrogatoire contradictoire par les soins du procureur et à l'interrogatoire par les soins de la cour."

"Si vous ne faites pas de déposition sous serment, vous avez le droit de faire une déclaration où vous donnerez votre version de l'affaire. Vous ne serez pas assermenté et vous ne serez pas interrogé sur ce que vous dites, par la cour ou par quelque autre personne. Je dois cependant vous prévenir qu'une déposition faite sous serment aura plus de poids aux yeux de la cour qu'une simple déclaration non assermentée."

S'il n'y a pas d'officier défenseur, le président explique alors à l'accusé l'effet que ses réponses aux questions de forme de la page D du procès verbal auront sur l'ordre des dernières plaidoiries, prévu dans les Règles de procédure 40 et 41.

Question à l'accusé. Désirez-vous comparaître, vous-même, comme témoin, ou bien désirez-vous faire une déclaration non assermentée.

Réponse: Oui, monsieur, sous serment (voir pages D-3 et suivantes)

Question à l'accusé. Avez-vous l'intention de citer des témoins pour votre défense ?

Réponse: Non, monsieur.

Question à l'accusé. ~~Est-ce uniquement un témoin à l'appui de votre réputation ?~~

Réponse:

TEMOIN POUR LA DEFENSE:-

L'accusé:- Mat. R-610795 Soldat Marcel BOISSONNEAULT, Le Régiment de St. Hyacinthe, A.C., attaché au Dépôt Régional No. 5, A.C.

étant dûment assermentée,

EST INTERROGE PAR L'OFFICIER DEFENSEUR:

Q.- Soldat Boissonneault, voulez-vous dire à la Cour depuis quand vous êtes dans l'armée?

R.- Depuis le 8 janvier 1942.

Q.- Où avez-vous servi pendant ce temps-là?

R.- Je suis entré à Lauzon. J'ai servi à Valcartier, Debert, Rimouski, Terre-Neuve, finalement à Sussex.

Q.- Vous étiez avec le Régiment de St.Hyacinthe, à Terre-Neuve, en dernier?

R.- Oui, monsieur.

Q.- Quand vous êtes parti des Fusiliers du St-Laurent pour aller à Sussex, c'est avec le Régiment de St. Hyacinthe?

R.- Oui, monsieur.

Q.- Est-ce que vous avez souffert de maladie quelconque dans l'armée?

R.- A Terre-Neuve j'ai eu un accident. Un accident de Bren Carrier; on a viré à l'envers, j'ai été gravement blessé. Il y a un télégramme disant que j'étais gravement blessé. On m'a envoyé à l'hôpital. Quand le régiment est parti pour Sussex ils m'ont sorti de l'hôpital. Ils m'ont envoyé à l'hôpital à Sussex, ils m'ont rien fait absolument.

Q.- Combien de temps avez-vous passé à l'hôpital à Terreneuve?

R.- Un mois et demie, je crois.

Q.- Quand vous êtes sorti de l'hôpital à Terre-Neuve est-ce que vous marchiez?

R.- Je marchais, mais j'avais de la misère de me "grouiller" le côté gauche.

Q.- Est-ce que vous étiez "excuse duty?"

R.- Oui, j'ai été une escousse "excuse duty".

Q.- A Sussex est-ce que vous êtes entré à l'hôpital immédiatement après votre arrivée?

R.- Pas immédiatement, à peu près dix jours après.

Q.- C'est vous-même qui avez demandé d'entrer à l'hôpital?

R.- Oui, monsieur.

Q.- Est-ce qu'ils vous ont traité?
R.- Ils m'ont rien fait, j'étais en "retaining".

Q.- Vous étiez en convalescence?
R.- Oui, monsieur.

Q.- Est-ce que vous vous considérez guéri?
R.- Je souffre à la tête.

Q.- Est-ce qu'on vous a fait subir des examens?
R.- Quand j'ai sorti de l'hôpital j'ai pas eu d'autre examen. On passait chez le Major, on passait à la course.

Q.- Pouvez-vous dire à la Cour pourquoi vous vous êtes absenté?
R.- Je me suis absenté pour aller me faire soigner. J'ai été chez un ramancheur à Québec; il m'a ramanché. J'avais deux côtes de cassées et le bras gauche.

Q.- Est-ce que vous êtes mieux maintenant?
R.- Je peux me "grouiller" le bras. D'une oreille je n'entends rien.

INTERROGE CONTRADICTOIREMENT PAR LE PROCUREUR:

Q.- On dit que vous avez été absent du 25 novembre 1944 au 4 septembre cette année, est-ce exact?
R.- Oui, monsieur.

Q.- Vous étiez sorti de l'hôpital à ce moment?
R.- Je suis sorti le 19.

Q.- Le 19 novembre?
R.- Le 19 au matin, j'ai eu une passe pour aller chez-nous. J'ai téléphoné à un docteur; c'est le Docteur Lavallée qui est venu chez-nous. Il m'a envoyé en haut sur les Cove Fields. J'ai passé un examen. Il n'a pas voulu me traiter.

Q.- Pourquoi?
R.- Il disait que je n'appartenais pas à eux autres. Là-bas il n'y avait pas moyen de parler, c'était seulement de l'anglais.

Q.- Pendant votre absence est-ce que vous avez subi un Rayon-X?
R.- Oui, monsieur.

Q.- Pendant votre congé qu'est-ce que vous avez fait?
R.- J'ai envoyé un télégramme pour demander deux jours de surplus, j'ai pas eu de nouvelles.

Q.- Après cela?
R.- Ca fait à peu près deux mois que je "file" un peu.

Q.- Avez-vous vu un médecin civil?
R.- Non, monsieur.

Q.- Qu'est-ce que vous avez fait?
R.- J'ai travaillé un mois. J'ai un de mes cousins qui est menuisier.

Q.- Quelles étaient vos intentions au sujet du service militaire?
R.- J'étais pour me rapporter au commencement d'octobre. Même s'ils avaient marqué sur les journaux que ceux qui voulaient se rapporter avaient plus de chance je me serais rapporté.

L'OFFICIER DEFENSEUR NE DESIRE PAS INTERROGER DE NOUVEAU.

INTERROGE PAR LA COUR:

Q.- Aviez-vous l'intention de retourner à votre régiment au mois de novembre 1944?
R.- J'avais l'intention, puis pas l'intention, s'ils m'avaient soigné comme du monde je serais resté.

Q.- Je veux savoir si vous aviez l'intention de retourner au Régiment de St-Hyacinthe le 25 novembre 1944?
R.- (le témoin ne répond pas.

Procédure sur un aveu de culpabilité

L'accusé s'étant avoué coupable au deuxième - - - - - - - - - - - - chef d'accusation, il est déclaré coupable de ladite accusation.

LA COUR AU PROCUREUR:- " Avez-vous quelque chose à dire au sujet de la deuxième charge?"

LE PROCUREUR:- " Si l'accusé avait plaidé non coupable j'aurais établi à l'aide de la formule 375 et du témoignage du Quartier-Maître que le 8 septembre 45 l'accusé a été trouvé manquant des articles pour un montant de $13.94".

(On demandera au procureur s'il a une déclaration à faire touchant toutes les circonstances relatives à l'infraction.)

Question à l'accusé. Avez-vous quelque déclaration à faire relativement à l'accusation dont vous vous êtes avoué coupable ?

Réponse: Non, monsieur.

(La déclaration de l'accusé doit être consignée sur une feuille séparée.)

Question à l'accusé. Désirez-vous faire quelque déclaration par voie d'atténuation de peine ?

Réponse: Non, monsieur.

(La déclaration de l'accusé doit être consignée sur une feuille séparée.)

Question à l'accusé. Désirez-vous rendre témoignage vous-même quant à votre réputation ?

Réponse: Non, monsieur.

Question à l'accusé. Désirez-vous appeler des témoins quant à votre réputation ?

Réponse: Non, monsieur.

Règle de procédure 37 (d). Si, d'après la déclaration de l'accusé ou d'après le sommaire ou l'abrégé de la preuve, ou autrement, la cour en vient à la conclusion que l'accusé n'a pas compris les conséquences de son "aveu de culpabilité", la cour devra modifier le dossier et enregistrer une "dénégation de culpabilité" et instruire le procès en conséquence.

Pour les variantes, voir page 747 du M.D.M.

E

Procédure sur déclaration de culpabilité précédant la sentence

Quand la cour en est arrivée à une décision relativement à tous les chefs d'accusation contre l'accusé et que ladite décision a été annoncée à ce dernier, le procureur remet au président le modèle M.F.B. 355 et, si possible, un modèle M.F.M. 6.

Ces documents sont lus à la cour par le président, marqués "Y" et "Z", signés par le président et versés au dossier.

Question à l'accusé. Avez-vous quelque déclaration à faire relativement aux documents dont on vient de vous donner lecture ?

Réponse: Non, monsieur.

Question à l'accusé. Désirez-vous adresser la parole à la cour ?

Réponse: " Oui, monsieur", (l'accusé par son Officier-Défenseur, dit:)

" M. le Président, après un accident des plus sérieux, le soldat Boissormeault n'est pas encore guéri et souffre de côtes défoncées et se voit transféré de régiment et bientôt sans soin. Devant cette menace il ne voit qu'une seule issue, celle de s'absenter pour se faire soigner. Sur le chemin de la guérison il se préparait à se rapporter et pour cela je demande la clémence de la Cour".

La sentence est alors consignée à la page "A" du procès verbal et elle est annoncée à l'accusé en plein tribunal.

Le président établit alors et signe le mandat d'incarcération, le cas échéant, et celui-ci est immédiatement transmis au commandant de l'accusé. Dans chaque cas, il établit aussi et signe le certificat de procès devant une cour martiale permanente et le transmet en conformité des règlements. Le procès verbal ainsi que tous les documents seront transmis au juge-avocat général.

Statement by the Accused:-

Sir, on August 8th I reported to Barriefield Camp from Toronto. On August 9th I received a telegram from home stating my father had been killed. I was granted a ten-day pass to go home. The pass expired on the 20th of August. When I arrived home I found my mother was not well and my father's affairs were in a mess. Five days before my leave expired I knew I would need more time to straighten the affairs out so I wrote in for an extension of leave. Dr. D.W. MacKenzie of Victoria Harbour also wrote and stated the condition in which my mother was and recommended an extension of my leave.

(Letter dated August 15th, 1945, is received for what it is worth and attached to the proceedings)

Mr J.A. Mundell of Orillia, Ontario, our undertaker, also wrote in explaining the conditions at home regarding father's business, insurance, compensation and asked that I be given an extension to assist my mother.

(Letter dated 18th September, 1945, is received for what it is worth and attached to the proceedings)

Our Parish Priest from Victoria Harbour also wrote in stating the conditions at home and recommended that I be released from the Army.

(Letter dated 17th September, 1945, is received for what it is worth and attached to the proceedings)

Mr Grigg of the Tay Telephone Company also wrote a letter explaining the conditions at home and stated that I was needed at home to support my mother.

(Letter dated 12th September, 1945, is received for what it is worth and attached to the proceedings)

Less than two years ago I had a brother accidentally killed at home. Shortly after that my mother received news that my two brothers overseas had been wounded. This gave her quite a shock and when my father was killed her condition was quite serious and the doctor had to give her sleeping tablets for about a week after the funeral. I was needed at home to attend the inquest of my father's death and to look after the compensation and insurance as my mother wasn't able to look after it herself. Also, there was quite a bit of correspondence to be done with both these companies as to the death of my father. All this business, sir, had to be handled when the accident occurred and both companies were out of town--one five miles from Victoria Harbour and the other in Detroit, Michigan.

After straightening the affairs as much as possible I returned back to Camp on September, 14th, sir.

Answer. My Defending Officer will speak for me, sir.

(for address by Defending Officer, see document marked "G")

The Sentence is then recorded on Page "A' of the proceedings and same is announced to the accused in open Court.

G. Bowsley. Major
President, Standing Court-Martial

Address by the Defending Officer,-

Mr President, I submit this as a plea in mitigation of sentence in the case of B.138668 L/Sgt Elmer John Bernard who has pleaded guilty to being absent without leave, but under very exceptional circumstances.

L/Sgt Bernard joined the Army as a volunteer on the 14th of January, 1943, after the enlistment of two older brothers in his family, one in the engineers and one in the artillery.

L/Sgt Bernard went overseas with the confirmed rank of Corporal, but while in England voluntarily reverted to the rank of private to go on draft to the holding unit in Africa of the 48th Highlanders of Canada.

He served as a private from January 1944 until June 1944 in Italy with The Scouts and Snipers Platoon of the 48th, when he volunteered for The Special Service Force and served with them in Italy and southern France from June until December, 1944, when they disbanded.

He returned to the 48th in Italy where he was promoted Lance-Corporal and then to Corporal in February of this year. While with the Regiment in Holland he was again promoted to the rank of L/Sgt in April and he served with the Regiment until June 1945 when he left them to return to Canada, having volunteered for C.F.E.F.

Unfortunately there is no one present who has served in action with L/Sgt Bernard that we can call as a witness, but the fact that he served in the Scout Platoon and the fact that his M.F.M.6 is absolutely clean classes him as a good soldier.

L/Sgt Bernard completed his disembarkation leave on the 6th August, 1945. He reported to his District Depot and proceeded on draft, arriving in Barriefield on the night of the 7th of August, 1945. The next evening he received a telegram informing him of the accidental death of his father. He received leave from the 9th to the 20th of August. The telegram came to the Camp Adjutant. Capt Forbes took Sgt Bernard to the officers' mess where hetold Bernard of the accident. Captain Eady, unable to get hold of the Officer Commanding 48th Highlanders, instructed Capt. Forbes to grant him the ten-day pass. Capt. Eady also felt it warranted him going to the trouble to get the Paymaster after hours so that Sgt Bernard could leave on the next train.

On his arrival at home he found his mother suffering from shock and in very poor health. Her condition was serious. This, climaxing the accidental death of one son less than two years ago and the news that both her other sons overseas had been wounded, was almost too much for her to bear. The presence of Sgt Bernard at home was essential. His younger brother who was working could not carry out the correspondence necessary to settle the family affairs. His mother was helpless without him. Soon he perceived he would require an extension of leave and wrote in for same, enclosing letters from the local undertaker and the doctor to the effect that an extension of Sgt Bernard's leave was essential. Unfortunately, due to the unsettled condition of this Camp at the time, that letter was never answered. L/Sgt Bernard, positive that his leave would be granted due to the circumstances surrounding the request, and also because he felt his family's need of him was greater than the Army's for the moment, remained at home to conduct the business that had to be carried on between the family and the compensation board, the insurance company, the funeral parlour and the C.P.R.

After his mother's health started to improve and after the family affairs were considerably straightened out, he considered that his duty at home was fulfilled and returned to Camp.

In view of the circumstances mentioned above and also this N.C.O's previous record in the Army, it is felt that this Court should show all leniency in their decision on this case and also recommend an immediate discharge for L/Sgt Bernard whose family is still in dire need of his services.

This is to certify, that the above Sgt. Bernard,E.J. was absent,for about 4 or 5 weeks,to assist his Mother in clearing up his Fathers buisness,& during this time was in to see me several times,regarding Insurance,Compensation etc.

Sgt. Bernard's Father was killed through accident on the C.P.Railway Aug.8/45. Shortly after his Fathers death August 9th.or 10 th. I wrote a letter to the Commanding Officer,asking for extension of leave so that he may assist his Mother in cleaning up his Fathers affairs.

Apparently this letter must of went astray, and on Sgt. Bernard's behalf,I can assure you,he had taken it for granted,this letter had reached the proper authorities or he would of reported at an earlier date.

To whom it may concern:

I am personally acquainted with conditions at the home of L/Sgt. Bernard, E. J. (B. 138663). His father was accidentally killed in August this year. This, following on the sudden death of L/Sgt. Bernard's brother, Herbert, less than two years ago, has been such a shock to his mother that her health is seriously impaired. She has been ordered by the doctor to do no work. I would strongly recommend L/Sgt. Bernard's release from the Army. His presence at home would, I feel, greatly assist in Mrs. Bernard's recovery. At the same time he will be able to have work, and to offer financial assistance to his family.

I remain sincerely yours,

3 Bn (48th Highrs) 1 Cdn Inf Regt., CA

1. Receipt is acknowledged of your K.55-B-9519 dated 3 Oct 45, with proceedings of the m/n Standing Court-Martial. The said proceedings are returned herewith.

2. The accused Cpl. (L/Sgt) Elmer John Bernard was charged with being AWL under AA15(1). He pleaded Guilty to the Charge and the Court sentenced the accused as follows:

"To be reduced to the rank of Corporal and to be reprimanded"

3. Lance and acting rank is not cognizable in the sentence of a Court-Martial and therefore a sentence of reduction from or to lance rank is inoperative. AA183 footnote 6; also AA44 footnote 13.

4. The latter part of the sentence herein, namely "to be reprimanded" is legally regular.

5. It will therefore be necessary for a valid sentence to be substituted for the invalid sentence. This may be effected by attaching to the proceedings a Minute signed and dated by you setting forth the new sentence. The Minute may be in the following form:

"The Judge-Advocate-General having advised that the Sentence in these proceedings is invalid, I, being an authority mentioned in R.P.54(C) hereby substitute for the said invalid Sentence, the following Sentence:

To be Reprimanded

(Date) _____Signature"

6. The above Minute must be reflected in Unit Orders, promulgated to the accused and the accused's documents amended accordingly.

7. When this has been completed, may the proceedings be returned to this office.

(R.J.Orde) Brigadier,
Judge Advocate-General.

Procédure sur une dénégation de culpabilité

Question à l'accusé.

Désirez-vous demander un ajournement, sous prétexte que l'une quelconque des règles de la procédure antérieure au procès n'aurait pas été observée, vous causant ainsi préjudice, ou que vous n'auriez pas eu assez de temps pour la préparation de votre défense ?

(Si l'accusé demande un ajournement, voir les instructions à la page 747 du M.D.M.)

~~Le procureur procède à l'appel des témoins.~~

" LE PROCUREUR REMET AU PRESIDENT

1.- Une formule M.F.B. 375, en date du 18 janvier, 1945, se rapportant à l'accusé.

(Ce document est lu par la Cour, marqué "G", signé par le Président et versé au dossier.)

2.- Une formule M.F.M. 216, en date du 7 septembre, 1945, se rapportant à l'accusé.

(Ce document est lu par la Cour, marqué "H", signé par le Président et versé au dossier.)

-o-o-o-o-o-o-o-o-o-o-o-

18

Le procureur n'a ~~plus~~ pas de témoins à appeler.
La poursuite est close.

Motion de non-lieu

Il est loisible à l'accusé, à son avocat ou à l'officier défenseur, après l'audition de la preuve de la poursuite, d'alléguer que celle-ci n'a pas réussi à établir une présomption légale contre l'accusé et que ce dernier ne devrait pas, par conséquent, être contraint de présenter sa défense. Dans le cas d'une telle motion, le procès verbal sera consigné sur des feuilles séparées qui seront insérées immédiatement avant la présente page D. Si la cour estime que cette allégation est bien fondée, elle doit acquitter l'accusé et consigner son verdict à la page A.

Défense

Le président s'adresse à l'accusé en ces termes:

"Il est de mon devoir en cette circonstance de vous aviser de vos droits touchant la conduite générale de votre défense. La procédure à suivre dépend entièrement des réponses que vous ferez aux questions de forme que nous allons vous poser. Il importe donc que vous compreniez et saisissiez l'effet de vos réponses. Vous n'aurez pas à témoigner sous serment à moins que vous ne le vouliez. Mais, si vous faites des dépositions assermentées, vous serez sujet à l'interrogatoire contradictoire par les soins du procureur et à l'interrogatoire par les soins de la cour."

"Si vous ne faites pas de déposition sous serment, vous avez le droit de faire une déclaration où vous donnerez votre version de l'affaire. Vous ne serez pas assermenté et vous ne serez pas interrogé sur ce que vous dites, par la cour ou par quelque autre personne. Je dois cependant vous prévenir qu'une déposition faite sous serment aura plus de poids aux yeux de la cour qu'une simple déclaration non assermentée."

S'il n'y a pas d'officier défenseur, le président explique alors à l'accusé l'effet que ses réponses aux questions de forme de la page D du procès verbal auront sur l'ordre des dernières plaidoiries, prévu dans les Règles de procédure 40 et 41.

Question à l'accusé. Désirez-vous comparaître, vous-même, comme témoin, ou bien désirez-vous faire une déclaration non assermentée.

Réponse: Oui, monsieur, sans serment. (voir page D-3 et suivantes)

Question à l'accusé. Avez-vous l'intention de citer des témoins pour votre défense ?

Réponse: Non, monsieur.

17

~~Question à l'accusé. Est-ce uniquement un témoin à l'appui de votre réputation ?~~

~~Réponse:~~

Procédure sur un aveu de culpabilité

L'accusé s'étant avoué coupable au deuxième - - - - - - - - - - - chef d'accusation, il est déclaré coupable de ladite accusation.

LA COUR AU PROCUREUR:_ " Avez-vous quelque chose à dire au sujet du deuxième chef?"

LE PROCUREUR:- " Si l'accusé avait plaidé non coupable j'aurais établi au moyen de la formule 375 et du témoignage du quartier-maître que le 14 septembre 1945 l'accusé a été trouvé manquant d'effets pour un montant de $5.20".

(On demandera au procureur s'il a une déclaration à faire touchant toutes les circonstances relatives à l'infraction.)

Question à l'accusé. Avez-vous quelque déclaration à faire relativement à l'accusation dont vous vous êtes avoué coupable ?

Réponse: Non, monsieur.

(La déclaration de l'accusé doit être consignée sur une feuille séparée.)

Question à l'accusé. Désirez-vous faire quelque déclaration par voie d'atténuation de peine ?

Réponse: Non, monsieur.

(La déclaration de l'accusé doit être consignée sur une feuille séparée.)

Question à l'accusé. Désirez-vous rendre témoignage vous-même quant à votre réputation ?

Réponse: Non, monsieur.

Question à l'accusé. Désirez-vous appeler des témoins quant à votre réputation ? 14

Réponse: Non, monsieur.

Règle de procédure 37 (d). Si, d'après la déclaration de l'accusé ou d'après le sommaire ou l'abrégé de la preuve, ou autrement, la cour en vient à la conclusion que l'accusé n'a pas compris les conséquences de son "aveu de culpabilité", la cour devra modifier le dossier et enregistrer une "dénégation de culpabilité" et instruire le procès en conséquence.

Pour les variantes, voir page 747 du M.D.M.

E

Procédure sur déclaration de culpabilité précédant la sentence

Quand la cour en est arrivée à une décision relativement à tous les chefs d'accusation contre l'accusé et que ladite décision a été annoncée à ce dernier, le procureur remet au président le modèle M.F.B. 355 et, si possible, un modèle M.F.M. 6.

Ces documents sont lus à la cour par le président, marqués "Y" et "Z", signés par le président et versés au dossier.

Question à l'accusé. Avez-vous quelque déclaration à faire relativement aux documents dont on vient de vous donner lecture ?

Réponse: Non, monsieur.

Question à l'accusé. Désirez-vous adresser la parole à la cour ?

Réponse: Oui, monsieur. (l'accusé par son Officier Défenseur, dit:-)

" M. le Président, j'aimerais attirer l'attention de la Cour sur le jeune âge du soldat Bégin. Si jeune il se voit déjà confié la tâche de la famille. Une telle responsabilité l'a un peu affolé au point qu'il a jugé qu'il devait s'absenter. Je demande à la Cour d'user de clémence".

La sentence est alors consignée à la page "A" du procès verbal et elle est annoncée à l'accusé en plein tribunal.

Le président établit alors et signe le mandat d'incarcération, le cas échéant, et celui-ci est immédiatement transmis au commandant de l'accusé. Dans chaque cas, il établit aussi et signe le certificat de procès devant une cour martiale permanente et le transmet en conformité des règlements. Le procès verbal ainsi que tous les documents seront transmis au juge-avocat général.

Procédure sur une dénégation de culpabilité

Question à l'accusé.

Désirez-vous demander un ajournement, sous prétexte que l'une quelconque des règles de la procédure antérieure au procès n'aurait pas été observée, vous causant ainsi préjudice, ou que vous n'auriez pas eu assez de temps pour la préparation de votre défense ?

Réponse: Non Monsieur.

(Si l'accusé demande un ajournement, voir les instructions à la page 747 du M.D.M.)

Les procureurs procèdent à l'appel des témoins.

Témoins à charge.

étant dûment assermenté, est interrogé par le procureur.

Question

LE PROCUREUR REMET AU PRESIDENT LES DOCUMENTS SUIVANTS SE RAPPORTANT A L'ACCUSE.

- - - - -

1° MFB 375, en date du 5 février 1944, se rapportant à l'accusé;

"Ce document est lu par la Cour, marqué "G", signé par le Président et versé au dossier."

2° MFM 216A, en date du 7 septembre 1945, se rapportant à l'accusé;

"Ce document est lu par la Cour, marqué "H", signé par le Président et versé au dossier."

Le procureur n'a ~~xxx~~ pas de témoins à appeler.
La poursuite est close.

Motion de non-lieu

Il est loisible à l'accusé, à son avocat ou à l'officier défenseur, après l'audition de la preuve de la poursuite, d'alléguer que celle-ci n'a pas réussi à établir une présomption légale contre l'accusé et que ce dernier ne devrait pas, par conséquent, être contraint de présenter sa défense. Dans le cas d'une telle motion, le procès verbal sera consigné sur des feuilles séparées qui seront insérées immédiatement avant la présente page D. Si la cour estime que cette allégation est bien fondée, elle doit acquitter l'accusé et consigner son verdict à la page A.

Défense

Le président s'adresse à l'accusé en ces termes:

"Il est de mon devoir en cette circonstance de vous aviser de vos droits touchant la conduite générale de votre défense. La procédure à suivre dépend entièrement des réponses que vous ferez aux questions de forme que nous allons vous poser. Il importe donc que vous compreniez et saisissiez l'effet de vos réponses. Vous n'aurez pas à témoigner sous serment à moins que vous ne le vouliez. Mais, si vous faites des dépositions assermentées, vous serez sujet à l'interrogatoire contradictoire par les soins du procureur et à l'interrogatoire par les soins de la cour."

"Si vous ne faites pas de déposition sous serment, vous avez le droit de faire une déclaration où vous donnerez votre version de l'affaire. Vous ne serez pas assermenté et vous ne serez pas interrogé sur ce que vous dites, par la cour ou par quelque autre personne. Je dois cependant vous prévenir qu'une déposition faite sous serment aura plus de poids aux yeux de la cour qu'une simple déclaration non assermentée."

S'il n'y a pas d'officier défenseur, le président explique alors à l'accusé l'effet que ses réponses aux questions de forme de la page D du procès verbal auront sur l'ordre des dernières plaidoiries, prévu dans les Règles de procédure 40 et 41.

Question à l'accusé. Désirez-vous comparaître, vous-même, comme témoin, ou bien désirez-vous faire une déclaration non assermentée.

Réponse: L'accusé désire rendre témoignage sous serment, Monsieur. (Voir page D-3 et suiv.)

Question à l'accusé. Avez-vous l'intention de citer des témoins pour votre défense?

Réponse: Non Monsieur.

L'OFFICIER DEFENSEUR PRONONCE UNE PLAIDOIRIE.

Procédure sur un aveu de culpabilité

L'accusé s'étant avoué coupable au deuxième chef d'accusation, il est déclaré coupable de ladite accusation.

(On demandera au procureur s'il a une déclaration à faire touchant toutes les circonstances relatives à l'infraction.)

PAR LE PROCUREUR:

Si l'accusé avait plaidé non coupable, la Poursuite aurait établi, à l'aide de la 375 et du témoignage du Quartier-Maître, qu'à la date du 13 septembre 1945, il manquait à l'accusé des effets militaires pour un montant de $1.31.

Question à l'accusé. Avez-vous quelque déclaration à faire relativement à l'accusation dont vous vous êtes avoué coupable?

Réponse: Non Monsieur.

(La déclaration de l'accusé doit être consignée sur une feuille séparée.)

Question à l'accusé. Désirez-vous faire quelque déclaration par voie d'atténuation de peine?

Réponse: Non Monsieur.

(La déclaration de l'accusé doit être consignée sur une feuille séparée.)

Question à l'accusé. Désirez-vous rendre témoignage vous-même quant à votre réputation?

Question à l'accusé. Désirez-vous appeler des témoins quant à votre réputation?

Règle de procédure 37 (d). Si, d'après la déclaration de l'accusé ou d'après le sommaire ou l'abrégé de la preuve, ou autrement, la cour en vient à la conclusion que l'accusé n'a pas compris les conséquences de son "aveu de culpabilité", la cour devra modifier le dossier et enregistrer une "dénégation de culpabilité" et instruire le procès en conséquence.

(PIERRE DECARY), MAJOR
PRÉSIDENT, C.C.M.

Procédure sur déclaration de culpabilité précédant la sentence

Quand la cour en est arrivée à une décision relativement à tous les chefs d'accusation contre l'accusé et que ladite décision a été annoncée à ce dernier, le procureur remet au président le modèle M.F.B. 355 et, si possible, un modèle M.F.M. 6.

Ces documents sont lus à la cour par le président, marqués "Y" et "Z", signés par le président et versés au dossier.

Question à l'accusé. Avez-vous quelque déclaration à faire relativement aux documents dont on vient de vous donner lecture ?

Réponse: Non Monsieur.

Question à l'accusé. Désirez-vous adresser la parole à la cour ?

Réponse: L'accusé, par son Officier Défenseur, dit: "Nous avons ici un jeune homme qui a servi dans l'Armée avec une certaine distinction puisque finalement à un moment donné on lui a donné une promotion. Sa feuille de conduite est absolument propre ainsi que son record civil. Il est venu se promener, voir sa mère qui était malade et c'est certainement sur les instances de sa mère malade qu'il a cédé, sa mère lui ayant conseillé de rester chez lui pour fournir de l'aide, il est finalement resté ici dans la Province de Québec. Comme il l'a dit sous serment, il fournissait durant son absence et fournit une aide efficace à sa mère. Je demande la clémence de la Cour dans son cas. Je crois en toute sincérité que beaucoup de soldats auraient fait autant ou peut-être plus que le L/Cpl. Bédard dans son cas."

La sentence est alors consignée à la page "A" du procès verbal et elle est annoncée à l'accusé en plein tribunal.

Le président établit alors et signe le mandat d'incarcération, le cas échéant, et celui-ci est immédiatement transmis au commandant de l'accusé. Dans chaque cas, il établit aussi et signe le certificat de procès devant une cour martiale permanente et le transmet en conformité des règlements. Le procès verbal ainsi que tous les documents seront transmis au juge-avocat général.

" LE PROCUREUR REMET AU PRESIDENT

LES DOCUMENTS SUIVANTS SE RAPPORTANT A L'ACCUSE"

1.- Un extrait certifié des Ordres Partie II, Ordre No. 306, en date du 29 décembre, 1944, se rapportant à l'accusé.

(Ce document est lu par la Cour, marqué "G", digné par le Président et versé au dossier.)

2.- Une formule M.F.M. 216A, en date du 29 août, 1945, se rapportant à l'accusé.

(Ce document est lu par la Cour, marqué "H", signé par le Président et versé au dossier.)

-o-o-o-o-o-o-o-o-o-o-o-o-

Le procureur n'a ~~plus~~ pas de témoins à appeler.
La poursuite est close.

Motion de non-lieu

Il est loisible à l'accusé, à son avocat ou à l'officier défenseur, après l'audition de la preuve de la poursuite, d'alléguer que celle-ci n'a pas réussi à établir une présomption légale contre l'accusé et que ce dernier ne devrait pas, par conséquent, être contraint de présenter sa défense. Dans le cas d'une telle motion, le procès verbal sera consigné sur des feuilles séparées qui seront insérées immédiatement avant la présente page D. Si la cour estime que cette allégation est bien fondée, elle doit acquitter l'accusé et consigner son verdict à la page A.

Défense

Le président s'adresse à l'accusé en ces termes:

"Il est de mon devoir en cette circonstance de vous aviser de vos droits touchant la conduite générale de votre défense. La procédure à suivre dépend entièrement des réponses que vous ferez aux questions de forme que nous allons vous poser. Il importe donc que vous compreniez et saisissiez l'effet de vos réponses. Vous n'aurez pas à témoigner sous serment à moins que vous ne le vouliez. Mais, si vous faites des dépositions assermentées, vous serez sujet à l'interrogatoire contradictoire par les soins du procureur et à l'interrogatoire par les soins de la cour."

"Si vous ne faites pas de déposition sous serment, vous avez le droit de faire une déclaration où vous donnerez votre version de l'affaire. Vous ne serez pas assermenté et vous ne serez pas interrogé sur ce que vous dites, par la cour ou par quelque autre personne. Je dois cependant vous prévenir qu'une déposition faite sous serment aura plus de poids aux yeux de la cour qu'une simple déclaration non assermentée."

S'il n'y a pas d'officier défenseur, le président explique alors à l'accusé l'effet que ses réponses aux questions de forme de la page D du procès verbal auront sur l'ordre des dernières plaidoiries, prévu dans les Règles de procédure 40 et 41.

Procédure sur un aveu de culpabilité

L'accusé s'étant avoué coupable au deuxième chef d'accusation, il est déclaré coupable de ladite accusation.

LA COUR AU PROCUREUR:- " Avez-vous quelque chose à dire au sujet de la deuxième charge?"

LE PROCUREUR:- " Si l'accusé avait plaidé non coupable j'aurais établi au moyen de la formule 375 et du témoignage du quartier-maître que le 4 septembre 45 l'accusé a été trouvé manquant pour des articles au montant de $30.25".

Question à l'accusé. Avez-vous quelque déclaration à faire relativement à l'accusation dont vous vous êtes avoué coupable ?

Réponse: Non, monsieur.

(La déclaration de l'accusé doit être consignée sur une feuille séparée.)

Question à l'accusé. Désirez-vous faire quelque déclaration par voie d'atténuation de peine ?

Question à l'accusé. Désirez-vous appeler des témoins quant à votre réputation ?

Réponse: Non, monsieur.

Règle de procédure 37 (d). Si, d'après la déclaration de l'accusé ou d'après le sommaire ou l'abrégé de la preuve, ou autrement, la cour en vient à la conclusion que l'accusé n'a pas compris les conséquences de son "aveu de culpabilité", la cour devra modifier le dossier et enregistrer une "dénégation de culpabilité" et instruire le procès en conséquence.

Pour les variantes, voir page 747 du M.D.M.

E

Procédure sur déclaration de culpabilité précédant la sentence

Quand la cour en est arrivée à une décision relativement à tous les chefs d'accusation contre l'accusé et que ladite décision a été annoncée à ce dernier, le procureur remet au président le modèle M.F.B. 355 et, si possible, un modèle M.F.M. 6.

Ces documents sont lus à la cour par le président, marqués "Y" et "Z", signés par le président et versés au dossier.

Question à l'accusé. Avez-vous quelque déclaration à faire relativement aux documents dont on vient de vous donner lecture ?

Réponse: Non, monsieur.

Question à l'accusé. Désirez-vous adresser la parole à la cour ?

Réponse: Oui, monsieur. (L'accusé par son Officier Défenseur, dit:)

"M. le Président, durant le temps que le soldat Beaupré a été dans l'armée sa conduite a été très bonne, la seule chose c'est une absence de quelques heures. J'ai entendu son témoignage sous serment, il a parlé de l'état maladif de son père. L'impossibilité pour ce dernier à avoir de l'aide à son entreprise. Beaupré a demandé une exemption, il n'a jamais rien eu. Alors, l'accusé est parti pour aller aider à son père qui avait grandement besoin de lui. Evidemment, aux yeux de la Cour il n'a pas suivi les "proper channels", il se rend compte qu'il a mal agi. Je le recommande à la clémence de la Cour".

La sentence est alors consignée à la page "A" du procès verbal et elle est annoncée à l'accusé en plein tribunal.

Le président établit alors et signe le mandat d'incarcération, le cas échéant, et celui-ci est immédiatement transmis au commandant de l'accusé. Dans chaque cas, il établit aussi et signe le certificat de procès devant une cour martiale permanente et le transmet en conformité des règlements. Le procès verbal ainsi que tous les documents seront transmis au juge-avocat général.

Statement by the Accused:-

My father had two serious operations in a short while for hernia and he has a farm of 200 acres, mixed farming. He cannot do heavy work. I was granted a 96-hour pass and when I went home I found him in the middle of the harvest with no help, so I carried on and helped him do his work, get in the crop which amounted to about one thousand dollars. If I hadn't stayed at home he would have lost that.

FIRST WITNESS FOR THE DEFENCE) B.147542 Sergeant R. DUROCHER, 3 Bn. (48th Highrs) 1 Cdn. Inf. Regt., C.A., being duly sworn, is examined by the Defending Officer:-

Q. Sgt Durocher, what can you tell us as to the character of the accused? Were you in action with him?

Yes, sir, I was.

Q. Did you know him while you were in action?

I knew him ever since the 12th of June, 1944.

Q. Will you give us some insight as to his abilities and what unit were you with in action?

Queen's Own Rifles.

Q. What unit was the accused with?

He was with the same unit, the Queen's Own Rifles.

Q. Did you go into action on "D" Day?

No, sir, I was a reinforcement.

Q. You have known the accused since June of 1944?

June 12th, 1944.

Q. Having served with the accused, will you tell us something about him?

In August, 1944, Sgt Baker was recommended for the Military Medal, but he never got it.

Q. He was recommended for the Military Medal?

Yes, sir, but it never came through.

Q. Was he ever recommended for anything else?

Last winter he was mentioned in dispatches.

Q. To your knowledge was the accused ever absent without leave or conduct himself unlike an N.C.O. when in action?

He was well liked by everybody in the Company and he was one of the oldest men in our Company. He was one of the first to volunteer for the Pacific and I volunteered with him and we came back to Canada.

Q. Was he a good N.C.O.?

Yes, sir. Everyone liked him.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR

Q. How long have you known the accused?

Ever since June 12th, 1944.

Q. Yet you didn't know him in civil life?

No, sir.

The Defending Officer declines to re-examine.

The witness withdraws.

Proceedings on Conviction before Sentence

After the Court has arrived at a Finding on all the charges against the accused and such Finding has been announced to the accused, the Prosecutor will tender to the President M.F.B. 355, together ,when it is possible, with an M.F.M. 6.

These documents are read to the Court by the President, are marked "Y" and "Z", signed by the President and annexed to the proceedings.

Question to the accused. Have you any statement to make concerning the documents which have just been read to you?

Answer. No, sir.

Question to the accused. Do you wish to address the Court?

Answer. My Defending Officer will speak for me, sir.

(for address by Defending Officer, see document marked "G")

The Sentence is then recorded on Page "A' of the proceedings and same is announced to the accused in open Court.

The President then completes and signs the "Warrant of Commitment", if any, which shall be transmitted forthwith to the Commanding Officer of the accused. He will also complete and sign in every case, the "Certificate of trial by Standing Court-Martial", and address same as directed by the regulations. The proceedings, with all documents, will be transmitted to the Judge Advocate General.

J. Donsley Major
President, Standing Court-Martial

Address by the Defending Officer,-

Mr President, I submit this as a plea of mitigation in the case of B.135772 Sgt Arthur John Baker, who has entered a plea of Guilty to being absent without leave.

Sgt Baker joined the Army as a volunteer on the 10th day of November, 1942. He went overseas in May 1943 as a reinforcement to the Queen's Own Rifles and went into action on "D" Day with his regiment.

In August of the same year he was promoted to Corporal and four months later attained the rank of Sergeant. In this rank he was confirmed early in March of this year. Sgt Baker fought with the Queen's Own Rifles through France, Belgium and Holland, and into Germany. From there he proceeded on draft to England to join the C.F.E.F. force.

As this N.C.O's Platoon Officer is not in Camp at present it is impossible to call him as a witness, but through conversations I have had with his officer I am convinced of the excellent record of this soldier in the field. This can be confirmed to a certain extent by the nil entries on his M.F.M.6.

After Sgt Baker had completed his 30-day leave and reported back to his District Depot, he proceeded on draft to Barriefield. He was subsequently granted a 96-hour pass. On his arrival at home he discovered that his family were in the midst of harvesting and the work was too heavy for his father who had recently undergone a second operation for hernia. Extra labour not being available, Sgt Baker felt it his duty to assist in the harvesting.

Sgt Baker's only brother who has been in the Air Force for the past five years is at present stationed on Vancouver Island.

If it had not been for the accused's assistance in harvesting this year's crop on his father's 200 acre mixed farm his father would have assuredly had to sell the farm and may still have to sell due to his inability to carry on alone in his condition.

Due to these extenuating circumstances and the fact that Sgt Baker, since his return, has carried out his duties as a Platoon Sergeant in an efficient and able manner, it is felt that this court should show leniency towards this senior N.C.O. in their decision.

"All dictators of correspondence in Government offices will now discontinue the ordinary peacetime practice of acknowledging routine correspondence, by personal dictation, by form letter, or by duplicated or printed forms."

2. It will be noted that the above refers to routine correspondence. The instructions must not be construed as forbidding the acknowledging of correspondence when same requires a reply, and it is not possible to give the full information immediately. Communications which request an acknowledgement should receive same.

3. It has been noted that official letters frequently ask for an acknowledgement, although they deal with matters of minor importance or routine. Acknowledgement should only be called for when it may be necessary to show that the addressee has actually received same.

4. When acknowledgements are required, it is often possible to economize on stationery by "subjoining" a form of receipt which may be torn off the bottom of the original letter and returned to the sender. (R.1-1-17-2)

C

Proceedings on Plea of Not Guilty

Question to the accused.

Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity for preparing your defence?

Answer.

No, sir.

(If the accused applies for an adjournment see instructions at page 747 M.M.L.)

The Prosecutor declines to make an opening address.

~~The Prosecutor proceeds to call witnesses.~~

First Witness for prosecution.

~~being duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor.~~

Question

THE PROSECUTOR ADDRESSING THE COURT: Sir, I produce M.F.B. 375 and M.F.M. 216.

The Defending Officer has no objection to either of the documents.

The documents are read and marked Exhibits "I" and "J" respectively, signed by the President and attached to the proceedings.

The Prosecutor has no further witness to call.
The Prosecution is closed.

Motion – No Case

It is open to the accused, his Counsel or Defending Officer at the close of the case for the prosecution to submit that the evidence given for the prosecution has not established a prima facie case against him, and that he should not therefore be called upon for his defence. If such Motion is made, the proceedings will be recorded on separate pages which will be inserted immediately before the present page D. If the Court is satisfied that the Motion is well founded, it must acquit the accused and register its Finding on Page A.

Defence

The President will now address the acused as follows:—

"It is my duty at this stage to advise you as to your rights in the general conduct of your defence. The procedure to be followed depends entirely on the answers given to the formal questions which are about to be put to you. It is therefore important that you should understand and appreciate the effect of your answers to these questions. You do not need to give evidence on oath unless you wish to do so, but if you do give sworn evidence you are liable to be cross-examined by the Prosecutor and questioned by the Court."

"If you do not give evidence on oath you are entitled to make a statement giving your account of the subject of the charge against you. You will not be sworn and no question may be put to you by the Court or any person with respect to such statement. I must warn you, however, that evidence given on oath will carry more weight with the Court than a mere statement not on oath."

If there is no Defending Officer the President should then explain to the accused the effect which his answer to the formal questions on Page D of the proceedings will have on the order of the Closing Addresses as provided in R.P. 40 and 41.

Question to the accused. Do you apply to give evidence yourself as a witness, or do you wish to make an unsworn statement?

Answer. I wish to make an unsworn statement, sir.
(See document marked "K" attached.)

Question to the accused. Do you intend to call any witness in your defence?

Answer. No, sir.

The Defending Officer declines to make a closing address.

The Prosecutor declines to make a closing address.

Question to the accused. ~~Is the witness to be called a witness as to character only?~~

Answer.

E

These documents are read to the Court by the President, are marked "Y" and "Z", signed by the President and annexed to the proceedings.

L'OFFICIER DEFENSEUR NE DESIRE PAS INTERROGER CONTRADICTOIREMENT.

DE L'AVIS DE LA COUR IL N'EST PAS NECESSAIRE DE SE CONFORMER A LA R.P. 03 (B).

LE TEMOIN SE RETIRE:

LA POURSUITE N'A PLUS D'AUTRES TEMOINS A APPELER.

LA POURSUITE EST CLOSE:

Le procureur n'a plus de témoins à appeler.
La poursuite est close.

Motion de non-lieu

Il est loisible à l'accusé, à son avocat ou à l'officier défenseur, après l'audition de la preuve de la poursuite, d'alléguer que celle-ci n'a pas réussi à établir une présomption légale contre l'accusé et que ce dernier ne devrait pas, par conséquent, être contraint de présenter sa défense. Dans le cas d'une telle motion, le procès verbal sera consigné sur des feuilles séparées qui seront insérées immédiatement avant la présente page D. Si la cour estime que cette allégation est bien fondée, elle doit acquitter l'accusé et consigner son verdict à la page A.

Défense

Le président s'adresse à l'accusé en ces termes:

"Il est de mon devoir en cette circonstance de vous aviser de vos droits touchant la conduite générale de votre défense. La procédure à suivre dépend entièrement des réponses que vous ferez aux questions de forme que nous allons vous poser. Il importe donc que vous compreniez et saisissiez l'effet de vos réponses. Vous n'aurez pas à témoigner sous serment à moins que vous ne le vouliez. Mais, si vous faites des dépositions assermentées, vous serez sujet à l'interrogatoire contradictoire par les soins du procureur et à l'interrogatoire par les soins de la cour."

"Si vous ne faites pas de déposition sous serment, vous avez le droit de faire une déclaration où vous donnerez votre version de l'affaire. Vous ne serez pas assermenté et vous ne serez pas interrogé sur ce que vous dites, par la cour ou par quelque autre personne. Je dois cependant vous prévenir qu'une déposition faite sous serment aura plus de poids aux yeux de la cour qu'une simple déclaration non assermentée."

S'il n'y a pas d'officier défenseur, le président explique alors à l'accusé l'effet que ses réponses aux questions de forme de la page D du procès verbal auront sur l'ordre des dernières plaidoiries, prévu dans les Règles de procédure 40 et 41.

Question à l'accusé. Désirez-vous comparaître, vous-même, comme témoin, ou bien désirez-vous faire une déclaration non assermentée.

Réponse: Oui, sous serment. (Voir pages D-3 et suivantes.)

Question à l'accusé. Avez-vous l'intention de citer des témoins pour votre défense?

Réponse: Non monsieur.-

Question à l'accusé. Citez uniquement un témoin à l'appui de votre réputation.

Réponse:

TEMOIN DE LA DEFENSE: L'Accuse, matricule E-615681, Soldat Hubert BEAUDRY, L.G., Attache Depot Regional No5, A.C., etant dument assermente, est interroge par l'officierdefenseur:-

DE L'AVIS DE LA COUR IL N'EST PAS NECESSAIRE DE SE CONFORMER A LA R.P. 83 (B).

L'ACCUSE REPREND SON SIEGE:

"LE PROCUREUR SOUMET LA CAUSE TELLE QUE PROUVEE ET L'OFFICIER DEFENSEUR PRONONCE UNE PLAIDOIRIE."

E

Procédure sur déclaration de culpabilité précédant la sentence

Quand la cour en est arrivée à une décision relativement à tous les chefs d'accusation contre l'accusé et que ladite décision a été annoncée à ce dernier, le procureur remet au président le modèle M.F.B. 355 et, si possible, un modèle M.F.M. 6.

Ces documents sont lus à la cour par le président, marqués "Y" et "Z", signés par le président et versés au dossier.

Question à l'accusé. Avez-vous quelque déclaration à faire relativement aux documents dont on vient de vous donner lecture ?

Réponse: Non monsieur.-

Question à l'accusé. Désirez-vous adresser la parole à la cour ?

Réponse: L'OFFICIER DEFENSEUR DIT:" Dans ce cas-ci je demande a la Cour de considerer le fait que l'accuse est reste chez lui parce qu'il avait peur d'une punition, il est reste chez lui -par ignorance du droit militaire je demande donc a la cour d'etre clemente envers lui."

La sentence est alors consignée à la page "A" du procès verbal et elle est annoncée à l'accusé en plein tribunal.

Le président établit alors et signe le mandat d'incarcération, le cas échéant, et celui-ci est immédiatement transmis au commandant de l'accusé. Dans chaque cas, il établit aussi et signe le certificat de procès devant une cour martiale permanente et le transmet en conformité des règlements. Le procès verbal ainsi que tous les documents seront transmis au juge-avocat général.

Ref telegram AG 0267 2/CS Oct 45 Review.

2. The CM Board of Review has in the case of the m/n soldier made the following recommendation:

"Release on 27 Mar 1946".

3. You will note that the recommendation of the Board deals with the remission at a future date. In considering this case your attention is directed to paras 3 and 4 of the telegram above referred to. It is pointed out that the action to be taken by you as a Superior Military Authority is not immediate and therefore this soldier's conduct and other circumstances up to the date of the recommended remission should be taken into consideration by you prior to your acting upon the recommendation of the Board. It is therefore suggested that you should not sign the appropriate entry until the recommended date approaches.

4. If in your opinion recent misconduct exists it is requested that this HQ be advised at once in accordance with paras 3 and 4 of the AG telegram above mentioned.

5. May this HQ be info of action taken.

19 Dec 45.

Dear Madam:

This will acknowledge receipt of your letter of 10th December with regard to your husband, L-607359, Pte Beitel A Z.

I am informed by the appropriate officers of this Department that this soldier was tried by Standing Court-Martial on 28th September, 1945, charged with desertion, having absented himself without leave from 4th January 1945 until apprehended on 28th February 1945, dressed in civilian clothes and a further absence without leave from 9th March 1945 until 10th September, 1945. He was found guilty of both charges and sentenced to undergo detention for eighteen months.

It is not the desire of the military authorities that a soldier shall be held in custody any longer than is necessary in the interests of military discipline. Accordingly, sentences are subject to periodical reviews with a view to effecting remission where circumstances warrant.

Your husband's case has been reviewed during December by the Courts-Martial Board of Review. The Board has made recommendation for remission of his sentence about the beginning of April. Remission at that time will, of course, be entirely dependent upon his good conduct in the interim.

Yours truly,

Deputy Minister,
(Army).

Mrs Theresa Beitel,
Spring Valley,
Saskatchewan.

Question

THE PROSECUTOR ADDRESSING THE COURT: Sir, in support of the first charge I produce a certified extract of After Order No. 7, dated 23rd March 1945, of the 1st Battalion Midland Regiment, issued by the Directorate of Records; certified extract of After Order No. 8, dated 24th March 1945, of the 1st Battalion Midland Regiment, issued by the Directorate of Records; certified extract of Part II Order No. 32, dated 2nd February 1945, of the No. 2 District Depot, C.A.; M.F.M. 215; M.F.B. 1481 in the total sum of $2.30 and M.F.B. 1482 in the total sum of $6.75. In support of the second charge, a certified true extract of Guard Report, M.F.B. 237, dated the 10th March 1945; M.F.B. 375 and M.F.M. 216.

The Prosecutor has no further witness to call.
The Prosecution is closed.

Motion – No Case

It is open to the accused, his Counsel or Defending Officer at the close of the case for the prosecution to submit that the evidence given for the prosecution has not established a prima facie case against him, and that he should not therefore be called upon for his defence. If such Motion is made, the proceedings will be recorded on separate pages which will be inserted immediately before the present page D. If the Court is satisfied that the Motion is well founded, it must acquit the accused and register its Finding on Page A.

Defence

The President will now address the acused as follows:—

"It is my duty at this stage to advise you as to your rights in the general conduct of your defence. The procedure to be followed depends entirely on the answers given to the formal questions which are about to be put to you. It is therefore important that you should understand and appreciate the effect of your answers to these questions. You do not need to give evidence on oath unless you wish to do so, but if you do give sworn evidence you are liable to be cross-examined by the Prosecutor and questioned by the Court."

"If you do not give evidence on oath you are entitled to make a statement giving your account of the subject of the charge against you. You will not be sworn and no question may be put to you by the Court or any person with respect to such statement. I must warn you, however, that evidence given on oath will carry more weight with the Court than a mere statement not on oath."

If there is no Defending Officer the President should then explain to the accused the effect which his answer to the formal questions on Page D of the proceedings will have on the order of the Closing Addresses as provided in R.P. 40 and 41.

Question to the accused. Do you apply to give evidence yourself as a witness, or do you wish to make an unsworn statement?

Answer. I wish to make an unsworn statement, sir.
(See document marked "R" attached.)

Question to the accused. Do you intend to call any witness in your defence?

Answer. No, sir.

The Defending Officer declines to make a closing address.

The Prosecutor declines to make a closing address.

Question to the accused. ~~Is the witness to be called a witness as to character only?~~

Answer.

E

These documents are read to the Court by the President, are marked "Y" and "Z", signed by the President and annexed to the proceedings.

Previously to the old Guard marching off, I inspected the several articles in charge of the Guard, and found them correct according to the above list, the Guard Room clean, and the Board of Orders legible. Immediately after the old Guard marched off, I read the orders to the Guard, and again to the sentries first posted, after they had been relieved, after which I visited the Sentries and found them properly posted and acquainted with their orders, and the Board of Orders hung up in the Sentry Boxes and complete. I inspected all Reliefs both going out and coming in, and found them regular. I also visited the Sentries frequently during my Guard and found them alert and on their posts and correct in their orders. Major,
President, Standing Court-Martial.

STATEMENT BY THE ACCUSED

In the spring of 1942 I tried to buy a .22 rifle and we had to have permits for it--a registered permit to carry firearms. I left the rifle with the Municipality--with our Municipal Secretary, and he said he would see the Royal Canadian Mounted Police the first chance he got so I could get this permit.

Time dragged on so I was going to see one night if I could buy the rifle--and I had already paid for it--or when I could take it for my purpose and he said he had never seen the Mounted Police yet and said he would see them as soon as he could. Time dragged on again, and a few months later we get a letter from the Mounted Police stating that they could charge dad for wanting to buy this rifle as he is classed as an enemy alien. This was in the spring of 1942. So that wasn't very good on my part. Dad did not have no intentions of buying this weapon as he knew he was an enemy alien at that time; but they turned around and accused him of wanting to buy the weapon and I was the man that wanted to buy it.

So then in the fall, in October--around the 20th October--I got my medical. I answered my medical and it was barely three weeks later I received my second call to report for training. That was the 10th November 1942. I reported for duty and signed for the Army, so I thought it was my duty to fulfil this in Canada. I thought I would be willing to take my country here in Canada as being a Canadian.

And I also in this time--from the time I had my medical to the second time I got a call to report--we had an accident with the threshing machine and almost put dad through the machine; and he was laid up for two months--two weeks, sir. So, after that I came to Regina and asked for a postponement. No, sir; I had no luck and was told to report for duty on the 10th November 1942. I did that, sir.

So then I tried to get spring leave for 1943; without any results. It wasn't granted. I tried for harvest leave 1943; and dad was trying everything back home to get leave for me. No, sir; nothing was granted. So in 1944 I tried again in the spring, with the same results. Nothing granted. In 1944 in our unit we stood a good chance of going out harvesting. All we needed was one recommendation letter from the municipality stating we was needed at home. So I got that and went home on harvest leave.

"R" (Sheet 2)

Major,
President, Standing Court-Martial.

I come back on the 24th October 1944 and at Christmas time they wanted us to go overseas; so it was against my conscience to go overseas. That is for the first charge.

The second charge: I got married in 1943 and the wife was expecting a baby during the summer so I thought my duty was to stay back here with her.

And that is all I have to say, sir.

Question

Q Cpl. Hewer, what is your position in No. 2 District Depot?

A Sir, I am an N.C.O. of the Home War Establishment.

Q Do you know the accused?

A I recognize Gnr. Bisci, sir.

Q Have you any information to give the Court regarding the accused?

A Yes, sir. I produce M.F.B. 375, being a certified true copy of the record of the declaration of a court of inquiry assembled at Petawawa Military Camp, Ont., on the 1st day of March, 1945, signed by Lieut. S. S. Bard, officer having custody of original record.

Q To whom does that document refer?

A To the accused, sir.

THE PROSECUTOR: Will you hand that to the President, please.

THE PRESIDENT: (To Def. Off.) Any objection?

THE DEFENDING OFFICER: No, sir.

(Certified true copy of MFB 375 sgnd at Petawawa Military Camp, Ont., 1 Mar 45, is marked Exhibit "F," sgnd by the Pres., pertinent portions read, and att'd to the proceedings.)

Q Carry on, please.

A I further produce M.F.B. 216, being certificate of surrender, signed by Cpl. T. Temple, N.C.O. in charge, No. 2 Detachment, No. 31 Company, Canadian Provost Corps, Hamilton, Ont.

Q To whom does that document refer?

A To the accused, sir.

THE PROSECUTOR: Will you present it to the Court, please.

THE PRESIDENT: (To Def. Off.) Any objection?

THE DEFENDING OFFICER: No, sir.

(MFM 216 dated at Hamilton, Ont., 28 Aug 45, is marked Exhibit "G," sgnd by the Pres., read, and att'd to the proceedings.)

Q Have you anything else, Corporal?

A I have no further evidence, sir.

THE DEFENDING OFFICER DECLINES TO CROSS-EXAMINE.

THE WITNESS WITHDRAWS.

The Prosecutor has no further witness to call.
The Prosecution is closed.

Motion – No Case

It is open to the accused, his Counsel or Defending Officer at the close of the case for the prosecution to submit that the evidence given for the prosecution has not established a prima facie case against him, and that he should not therefore be called upon for his defence. If such Motion is made, the proceedings will be recorded on separate pages which will be inserted immediately before the present page D. If the Court is satisfied that the Motion is well founded, it must acquit the accused and register its Finding on Page A.

Defence

The President will now address the acused as follows:--

"It is my duty at this stage to advise you as to your rights in the general conduct of your defence. The procedure to be followed depends entirely on the answers given to the formal questions which are about to be put to you. It is therefore important that you should understand and appreciate the effect of your answers to these questions. You do not need to give evidence on oath unless you wish to do so, but if you do give sworn evidence you are liable to be cross-examined by the Prosecutor and questioned by the Court."

"If you do not give evidence on oath you are entitled to make a statement giving your account of the subject of the charge against you. You will not be sworn and no question may be put to you by the Court or any person with respect to such statement. I must warn you, however, that evidence given on oath will carry more weight with the Court than a mere statement not on oath."

If there is no Defending Officer the President should then explain to the accused the effect which his answer to the formal questions on Page D of the proceedings will have on the order of the Closing Addresses as provided in R.P. 40 and 41.

Question to the accused. Do you apply to give evidence yourself as a witness, or do you wish to make an unsworn statement?

Answer. I would like to make an unsworn statement, sir.

(See following page.)

Question to the accused. Do you intend to call any witness in your defence?

Answer. No, sir.

The Defending Officer and Prosecutor make closing addresses which are recorded but not transcribed.

Question to the accused. Is the witness to be called a witness as to character only?

Answer.

THE ACCUSED:

Well, sir, during my basic training and advanced training, I tried twice for compassionate leave on account of my father and mother were pretty heavily debted, and mother was pretty ill as a result of two car accidents she was in, and I was refused twice for compassionate leave. So, when I went home on furlough I found out things were really bad, and I decided to stay and help with them. I was all set to come back two months ago, and my kid brother got rheumatic fever, so I had to stay and help them out.

THE PRESIDENT: Anything else?

THE ACCUSED: No, sir.

E

Proceedings on Conviction before Sentence

After the Court has arrived at a Finding on all the charges against the accused and such Finding has been announced to the accused, the Prosecutor will tender to the President M.F.B. 355, together ,when it is possible, with an M.F.M. 6.

These documents are read to the Court by the President, are marked "Y" and "Z", signed by the President and annexed to the proceedings.

Question to the accused. Have you any statement to make concerning the documents which have just been read to you?

Answer. No, sir.

Question to the accused. Do you wish to address the Court?

Answer. Through my Defending Officer.

THE DEFENDING OFFICER: Sir, before awarding sentence to Pte. Bisci, I think there are several things which should be taken into consideration: Firstly, his clean record up to the time he went absent without leave; secondly, the cirdumstances at home which are difficult, and his eagerness to help out in every way he can at home and enable the family to get along; and, thirdly, his age -- he is a very youthful soldier, and I think that this one offence, while ill advised, was made with good intention, and a long sentence would not serve a good purpose.

The Sentence is then recorded on Page "A' of the proceedings and same is announced to the accused in open Court.

The President then completes and signs the "Warrant of Commitment", if any, which shall be transmitted forthwith to the Commanding Officer of the accused. He will also complete and sign in every case, the "Certificate of trial by Standing Court-Martial", and address same as directed by the regulations. The proceedings, with all documents, will be transmitted to the Judge Advocate General.

THE DEFENDING OFFICER DECLINES TO CROSS-EXAMINE.

THE WITNESS WITHDRAWS.

W.P.M.

The Prosecutor has no further witness to call.
The Prosecution is closed.

Motion – No Case

It is open to the accused, his Counsel or Defending Officer at the close of the case for the prosecution to submit that the evidence given for the prosecution has not established a prima facie case against him, and that he should not therefore be called upon for his defence. If such Motion is made, the proceedings will be recorded on separate pages which will be inserted immediately before the present page D. If the Court is satisfied that the Motion is well founded, it must acquit the accused and register its Finding on Page A.

Defence

The President will now address the acused as follows:—

"It is my duty at this stage to advise you as to your rights in the general conduct of your defence. The procedure to be followed depends entirely on the answers given to the formal questions which are about to be put to you. It is therefore important that you should understand and appreciate the effect of your answers to these questions. You do not need to give evidence on oath unless you wish to do so, but if you do give sworn evidence you are liable to be cross-examined by the Prosecutor and questioned by the Court."

"If you do not give evidence on oath you are entitled to make a statement giving your account of the subject of the charge against you. You will not be sworn and no question may be put to you by the Court or any person with respect to such statement. I must warn you, however, that evidence given on oath will carry more weight with the Court than a mere statement not on oath."

If there is no Defending Officer the President should then explain to the accused the effect which his answer to the formal questions on Page D of the proceedings will have on the order of the Closing Addresses as provided in R.P. 40 and 41.

Question to the accused. Do you apply to give evidence yourself as a witness, or do you wish to make an unsworn statement?

Answer. No statement at all, sir.

Question to the accused. Do you intend to call any witness in your defence?

Answer. No, sir.

The Prosecutor and Defending Officer make closing addresses which are recorded but not transcribed.

Question to the accused. Is the witness to be called a witness as to character only?

Answer.

E

Proceedings on Conviction before Sentence

After the Court has arrived at a Finding on all the charges against the accused and such Finding has been announced to the accused, the Prosecutor will tender to the President M.F.B. 355, together ,when it is possible, with an M.F.M. 6.

These documents are read to the Court by the President,,are marked "Y" and "Z", signed by the President and annexed to the proceedings.

Question to the accused. Have you any statement to make concerning the documents which have just been read to you?

Answer. No, sir.

Question to the accused. Do you wish to address the Court?

Answer. Through my Defending Officer.

THE DEFENDING OFFICER: Sir, the accused is single. He enrolled the 18th February, '44. His PULHEMS is 1 across the board. He is a French-Canadian who worked at logging operations, and was placed for work in the Medical Corps for which he had no talent. This caused the accused to be mentally worried, and accounts for his absence. And the second factor is that he has a clear M.F.M. 6 as far as the Army is concerned, sir.

The Sentence is then recorded on Page "A' of the proceedings and same is announced to the accused in open Court.

The President then completes and signs the "Warrant of Commitment", if any, which shall be transmitted forthwith to the Commanding Officer of the accused. He will also complete and sign in every case, the "Certificate of trial by Standing Court-Martial", and address same as directed by the regulations. The proceedings, with all documents, will be transmitted to the Judge Advocate General.

CONDUCT

11. (a) Prior to Conviction: Bad (Includes the FGCM already referred to which he is serving concurrently with present sentence. 1 civil offence of theft on 15 Jun 43 - 1 yr Jail.)

Date of enlistment: 4 May 42
re-enlisted: 9 Jan 43

12. Remarks: (Here note any Petition or Representation other than in Item 10 but if Item 10 has been omitted so state, and show here any mitigating circumstances.)

(1) "This soldier was medically reboarded 8 Aug 45 and placed in Pulhems Grades M4, S5 on a diagnosis of "mental Dullness" and "psychopathic personality, anti-social". He has been certified as fit to undergo detention.

The Neuropsychiatrist and SPO who have examined this soldier state that he is an individual of not above borderline intelligence who is extremely immature in his judgement; that he has a history of restlessness and lack of self-discipline dating back to adolescence; and that he appears to have no idea of the seriousness of his offences, and looks upon them as having been merely good clean fun."

(2) CMHQ - Has been in trouble almost continually since enlistment and has consequently given little effective service to army.

(3) Statement of Accused ; "I thing my first sentence was too severe. I was getting no mail from home. I was fed up. Everything seemed to be going against me."

(4) Defence in Mitigation- Asks Courts to consider youth of accused. Only major offence (presumably referring to previous FGCM) was attempt to get up to Front Line to fight. Charge of theft was intended as a prank in that he and 4 others borrowed a car and were caught before they returned it.

13. Recommendations: (State by whom, made, e.g., CMHQ, DOC, Reviewing Officer, etc.)

CMHQ - Serve concurrent sentence in full and be discharged under [illegible] for misconduct.

Rev. Offr: - [illegible] military detention barracks may have corrective value. Therefore remission [illegible] than [illegible] by good conduct is recommended.

C.55-B-2019

The Secretary,
Department of National Defence,
OTTAWA, Canada.

B-136746 Pte Bryson, T.B.E.

1. The m/n soldier is now serving concurrent sentences of 18 months detention and 21 months detention awarded by FGCsM 28 Sep 44 and 22 Mar 45. The first sentence was for an absence without leave of 4 days (AA Sec 15(1)) and improperly using a W.D. vehicle (AA Sec 40); the second sentence was for an absence without leave while undergoing detention from which he was apprehended after 61 days (AA Sec 15(1)).

2. He has so far earned full remissions for good conduct while serving these concurrent sentences and the earliest date on which he should be released if he continues to do so, is 21 May 46.

3. This soldier enlisted 4 May 42 at Toronto, Ont., and he was discharged as being under age on 4 Jan 43. He re-enlisted 9 Jan 43 at Toronto, Ont., and he is now 20 years of age. Since his second enlistment he has been found guilty of 5 offences under AA Sec 15(1) and of 2 offences under AA Sec 40. He has had no previous FGCM. He has however had 1 civil conviction, on 15 Jun 43, when he was convicted of theft and sentenced to a term of 1 year in the reformatory at Guelph, Ont.

4. This soldier was medically reboarded 8 Aug 45 and placed in Pulhems Grades M4, S5 on a diagnosis of "mental dullness" and "psychopathic personality, anti-social". He has been certified as fit to undergo detention.

5. The Neuropsychiatrist and S.P.O. who have examined this soldier state that he is an individual of not above borderline intelligence who is extremely immature in his judgement; that he has a history of restlessness and lack of self-discipline dating back to adolescence; and that he appears to have no idea of the seriousness of his offences, and looks upon them as having been merely good clean fun.

6. From this soldier's record it is apparent that he has been in trouble almost continually since enlistment and has consequently given little effective service to the army. It is consequently considered that he should be required to serve his present concurrent sentences in full and be discharged for misconduct under the provisions of para 8 of Appx to CARO 1029. It is therefore so recommended. It is considered that this soldier must have realized that his consistent misconduct might lead to his discharge and he may have had that end in view.

7. It has accordingly been directed, pursuant to P.C. 1304/44, that this soldier be returned to Canada in custody under sentence. Herewith original proceedings of the FGCM held 22 Mar 45, together with original A.F.A3104 in respect thereof and original A.F.A3104 in respect of the FGCM held 28 Sep 44 on both of which this direction has been endorsed.

Sir,

At DOULLENS on the 8/JAN/45 I received instructions to proceed to the scene of an accident at VACQUERIE-LE-BOUCQ M.R. 5/0800 driving there I was informed that the soldiers involved in the accident had been taken to the GENDARMERIE NATIONALE at FREVENT. I proceeded there where I saw the M/M soldier who was wearing the chevrons of a L/CPL. I asked him to produce his M.B.M.I. he was unable to do so, but produced a CANADIAN ARMY IDENTITY CARD from which I obtained his particulars, which gave his rank as PRIVATE. I then asked him if he was an ABSENTEE, and he replied "yes" He also stated that he was driving the CIVILIAN vehicle at the time of the accident. I placed him under close arrest and conducted him to my SECTION H.Q. for further questioning and later conducted him to the TOWN GUARD ROOM AMIENS, where I handed him over to N.C.O. i/c. GUARD.

Proceedings on Plea of Not Guilty

Question to the accused.

Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity for preparing your defence?

Answer. No. sir

(If the accused applies for an adjournment see instructions at page 747 M.M.L.)

The Prosecutor proceeds to call witnesses.

First Witness for prosecution.

Capt. D. Bingham, No. 13 District Depot, C.A., being duly sworn, ~~is examined by the Prosecutor~~ states:-

Question

I am Capt. D. Bingham, the Legal Officer of No. 13 District Depot, C.A., Calgary, Alberta, and I am producing the following documents:-

A certified true extract of the accused's M.F.M. 2.

(Certified true extract of M.F.M. 2 is read, marked "Exhibit F", signed by the President, and attached to the proceedings.)

M.F.B. 375.

(M.F.B. 375 is read, marked "Exhibit G", signed by the President, and attached to the proceedings.)

M.F.M. 216.

(M.F.M. 216 is read, marked "Exhibit H", signed by the President, and attached to the proceedings.)

I identify the accused, Sir, No. M.602444, Pte. Edwin Irwin Bartz, as the person to whom these documents relate.

The Defending Officer declines to cross-examine.

The witness resumes his seat.

The Prosecutor has no further witness to call.
The Prosecution is closed.

Motion – No Case

It is open to the accused, his Counsel or Defending Officer at the close of the case for the prosecution to submit that the evidence given for the prosecution has not established a prima facie case against him, and that he should not therefore be called upon for his defence. If such Motion is made, the proceedings will be recorded on separate pages which will be inserted immediately before the present page D. If the Court is satisfied that the Motion is well founded, it must acquit the accused and register its Finding on Page A.

Defence

The President will now address the acused as follows:—

"It is my duty at this stage to advise you as to your rights in the general conduct of your defence. The procedure to be followed depends entirely on the answers given to the formal questions which are about to be put to you. It is therefore important that you should understand and appreciate the effect of your answers to these questions. You do not need to give evidence on oath unless you wish to do so, but if you do give sworn evidence you are liable to be cross-examined by the Prosecutor and questioned by the Court."

"If you do not give evidence on oath you are entitled to make a statement giving your account of the subject of the charge against you. You will not be sworn and no question may be put to you by the Court or any person with respect to such statement. I must warn you, however, that evidence given on oath will carry more weight with the Court than a mere statement not on oath."

If there is no Defending Officer the President should then explain to the accused the effect which his answer to the formal questions on Page D of the proceedings will have on the order of the Closing Addresses as provided in R.P. 40 and 41.

Question to the accused. Do you apply to give evidence yourself as a witness, or do you wish to make an unsworn statement?

Answer. I wish to make an unsworn statement in writing

Question to the accused. Do you intend to call any witness in your defence?

Answer. No sir

Question to the accused. Is the witness to be called a witness as to character only?

Answer. No sir

The Defending Officer makes a Closing Address.

The Prosecutor makes a Closing Address.

UNSWORN STATEMENT OF M.602444 Private Bartz, E.I. , No. 13 District Depot, C.A.

Sir:

I am No. M.602444 Private Edwin Irwin Bartz, No. 13 District Depot, C.A., on March 12, 1942, I was enrolled as an N.R.M.A. soldier of the Canadian Army. I took my Basic Training at Camrose, Alberta, and my advanced training at M/A 16 C.I.T.C. Currie Barracks, Calgary, Alberta. At the completion of my advanced training, I was posted to the Irish Fusiliers at Vancouver, British Columbia, in June 1942. On April 1943, I went to Jamaica with the Irish Fusiliers and remained there 15 months. I remained with the Irish Fusiliers until October 1944, when I was transferred to the Midland Regiment.

When I proceeded on leave, I fully intended to return, but conditions on the farm were such that I postponed my return until such time as I felt things were straightened out. My father is 75 years old and is attempting to operate a half section of land by himself. I own one quarter of land and at the present time there is a $1000 mortgage against it. Things kept cropping up one after the other which prevented me from returning until I surrendered myself on the 17th of September 1945.

I am a married man, 26 years of age, Grade 7 education.

During my absence, I did not at any time attempt to conceal my identity and I wore my uniform at all times in public.

Proceedings on Conviction before Sentence

After the Court has arrived at a Finding on all the charges against the accused and such Finding has been announced to the accused, the Prosecutor will tender to the President M.F.B. 355, together ,when it is possible, with an M.F.M. 6.

These documents are read to the Court by the President, are marked "Y" and "Z", signed by the President and annexed to the proceedings.

Question to the accused. Have you any statement to make concerning the documents which have just been read to you?

Answer. No sir

Question to the accused. Do you wish to address the Court?

Answer. Yes sir through my Defending Officer

The Sentence is then recorded on Page "A' of the proceedings and same is announced to the accused in open Court.

The President then completes and signs the "Warrant of Commitment", if any, which shall be transmitted forthwith to the Commanding Officer of the accused. He will also complete and sign in every case, the "Certificate of trial by Standing Court-Martial", and address same as directed by the regulations. The proceedings, with all documents, will be transmitted to the Judge Advocate General.

THE ACCUSED ADDRESSES THE COURT THROUGH HIS DEFENDING OFFICER

Sir, I would like to bring out in Pte. Bartz's case it is another farm problem, the shortage of help. They have no real security on the farm. His father was 75 years old and trying to operate a half-section. The accused is a married man. He owns a quarter section of land, with a thousand dollar mortgage against it. Surely, Sir, this man must have felt a great deal of responsibility resting upon him. This responsibility was the cause of his remaining absent. I would like to point out the fact that he has had no crimes in his army career, and also the fact that he has only had a grade seven education, which puts him below the average man as far as his realization of his responsibilities to his country are concerned. I think, Sir, that this case deserves a great deal of leniency.

Q. Did you check that with the other copy?

A. Yes.

Q. Is it exactly the same?

A. Yes sir.

Court. You may use that.

Q. Would you advise the court as to the articles you found deficient at the time of your inspection?

This made a total of $48.94 at vocabulary rate less 25% sir.

Q. Would you tell the Court by what procedure you arrived at this list?

A. I checked this against the 375.

Q. What is that?

A. That is the finding of a Court of Inquiry. I may say here sir that on the 800 the 375 did not correspond.

Q. Did the accused have with him at the time of your inspection the M.B. Part 3?

A. No sir they don't carry them in this country.

Q. The record then of any soldier of the clothing and equipment on his charge is the 800.

A. Is the 800, yes sir.

Q. Then when making up the 375 by a Court of Inquiry they should check that against the 800?

A. They should sir. There should be no article on the 375 that is not listed on the 800. In this case I have the original 800.

Q. You have the accuseds original 800?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Is the accused in this court at the moment?

A. Yes sir the soldier with no cap on.

Cross-examined by the Defending Officer.

Q. Is it possible that some of this kit may be in the store of his unit at the time of his desertion that is not taken off the 800?

A. According to the 375 there isn't sir the 375 is the result of the collection of all this equipment.

Questioned by the Court.

Q. Did the accused tell you anything about this. Was this check made in the presence of the accused?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Did he make any remarks before about the shortages?

A. Only that he left them someplace.

Q. Did he say where he left them?

A. He might have done. I couldn't tell exactly what the case was. I noticed at the time when I checked the 375 with the original 800 the 375 is not exactly true.

Q. Did he make any remarks as to where they were?

A. I have so many sir I couldn't exactly say what he said.

Q. There are some items which are not on the 375. Here it is here on the charge sheet he is shown deficient, shirts, cotton khaki 1 at $1.46.

A. Yes sir it is right there you will find it below shirts woollen.

Q. There are certain descrepancies between the price and that will be accounted for by what?

A. The 375 is, in my estimation, a mistake of somebody because in the first place he is charged with a jacket K.D., an open collar but you will find that there is no K.D. Jacket on his 800. It was impossible for him to be short that.

Q. Perhaps the 800 should be put in?

A. The certified copy is here sir.

(M.F.C. 800, certified copy, is read, marked Exhibit "I", signed by the President and attached to the Proceedings.)

Q. You say on the 800 there is no-----

A. Jacket K.D. There may be some. Well I think you will find that he isn't issued with them they are not on his 800 anyway.

Q. Helmets cover camouflage, one. I am not certain whether this is on the court of inquiry or not?

A. No sir I am afraid I don't see it.

Q. Another one is Tins, mess, rectangular, one?

A. Yes it is on the 375 sir.

Q. How does the original 800 appear to be made up?

A. The original 800 appears to be true enough.

Q. How about the verification of the soldier?

A. They are verified although it is very irregular in a way. He has M for his initial and on one line I believe he has got only the first three letter of his name.

Q. How about the initials of the Q.M.?

A. It seems to be alright. It seems to be the same initials all the way through the 800.

Q. Would you take a few minutes to compare this list and let me know of any other articles which appear on the 800 but not on the court of inquiry?

A. Yes sir.

At 1555 hours on the 12th day of September, 1945 the Court adjourned.

At 1605 hours on the 12th day of September, 1945 the Court re-opened.

Q.

Q. Have you now checked the charge sheet and the M.F.C. 800 together with the M.F.B. 375?

A. I have sir.

Q. And what articles are you of the opinion should not appear on the charge sheet?

A. Jackets Kjaki drill, open collar shwon as $3.42 and $2.57 and socks light weight black, two pairs shown as 56¢ and 42¢ and covers Helmet Camouflage, on shown as 26¢ and 20¢.

Q. Now there is an item shown on the 375, respirators A.G. with container and facepiece and also haversacks respirator A/G. Now there is one item on the 375 if you will look at it which may possibly be these shown as a total?

A. They are combined sir.

Q. They did combine the two items?

A. I take the price now sir which may differ from the price at that time.

Q. Are there any further comments which you wish to make?

A. No sir I have nothing further to say sir.

The witness resumes his seat.

The Prosecutor has no further witness to call.
The Prosecution is closed.

Motion – No Case

It is open to the accused, his Counsel or Defending Officer at the close of the case for the prosecution to submit that the evidence given for the prosecution has not established a prima facie case against him, and that he should not therefore be called upon for his defence. If such Motion is made, the proceedings will be recorded on separate pages which will be inserted immediately before the present page D. If the Court is satisfied that the Motion is well founded, it must acquit the accused and register its Finding on Page A.

Defence

The President will now address the acused as follows:—

"It is my duty at this stage to advise you as to your rights in the general conduct of your defence. The procedure to be followed depends entirely on the answers given to the formal questions which are about to be put to you. It is therefore important that you should understand and appreciate the effect of your answers to these questions. You do not need to give evidence on oath unless you wish to do so, but if you do give sworn evidence you are liable to be cross-examined by the Prosecutor and questioned by the Court."

"If you do not give evidence on oath you are entitled to make a statement giving your account of the subject of the charge against you. You will not be sworn and no question may be put to you by the Court or any person with respect to such statement. I must warn you, however, that evidence given on oath will carry more weight with the Court than a mere statement not on oath."

If there is no Defending Officer the President should then explain to the accused the effect which his answer to the formal questions on Page D of the proceedings will have on the order of the Closing Addresses as provided in R.P. 40 and 41.

Question to the accused. Do you apply to give evidence yourself as a witness, or do you wish to make an unsworn statement?

Answer. I wish to make an unsworn statement in writing

Question to the accused. Do you intend to call any witness in your defence?

Answer. No sir

Question to the accused. Is the witness to be called a witness as to character only?

Answer. No sir

Sir.

When I came to Canada in July 1935 I was going to Public school and passed grade eight, [illegible] at [illegible] I have great difficulties of [illegible] to understand the army rules as I'm poor in language. Alas I'm still not a naturalized Canadian Citizen. Before my call up to the army I made a contract to cut timber & skid logs to the mill, as after three months in the army I applied for my bush leave and did not get one. On my [redacted] leave I went for a special bush leave or compassionate discharge to Ottawa and received a letter from Selective Service stating that I should apply to C.O. of my unit.

After applying to C.O. I received no answer. Then these days had to be done before April 1945 I went to work in the bush on my own. When I finished my work I tried to get back to my unit on the same ticket. Ticket was invalid in 30 days, so having no money to buy one I went out on the farms to work. After I had enough earned I came back to the depot on my own.

In here I was about I remained in my own district and used my own name.

He will also complete and sign in every case, the "Certificate of trial by Standing Court-Martial", and address same as directed by the regulations. The proceedings, with all documents, will be transmitted to the Judge Advocate General.

THE ACCUSED ADDRESSES THE COURT THROUGH HIS DEFENDING OFFICER

Mr. President, before you pass sentence in this case I would like you please to take into consideration first of all the fact that this man, you might say, is a foreigner. His education is such that might excuse him to a certain degree of the offence which which you have found him guilty that of absence without leave. He is 21 years old and has been in the army since 1943 with the exception of the period he has been on leave and during that time you will see that he did behave himself. He has been 22 days in custody awaiting trial and I would ask you to be as lenient as your wisdom will allow you in this case.

Je, D-170~~234~~32 Pte Boucher J.G. agé de vingt ans, dans l'armée depuis le 13 Janvier 1944 depose et dit:

"J'obtenais mon congé annuel le 19 Juillet 1945 et je devais me rapporter ici au camp de St Jerome le 6 Aug 45.

Le 21 Juillet, cinq (5) amis et moi-même nous partions de Granby, Que., (ou je demeure) pour nous rendre au Mont Tremblant afin d'y passer quelques jours.

Rendus à St Jérome nous decidons d'y passer la nuit à l'hotel Lapointe. Au courant de la soirée un de mes amis "Lemonde" et moi-meme nous prenions l'automobile pour aller faire un tour. Le Proprietaire de l'auto mobile, M. Joe Fournier nous, avait donné la permission, étant donné que nous avions des amis ici car voila deja quelques mois que je suis stationné au camp de St Jerome.

Au cours de la soirée il nous est arrivé un accident avec l'automobile de M. Fournier et les dommages s'éleverent à $179.05 (les factures ci-attachees, et recus du Garage Bellerose de St Jerome, ou furent faits les repa-) rages de l'automobile)

Le 6 Aug 1945 M. Fournier venait lui même à St Jérome, pour chercher son automobile. Il dut encore faire un deboursé d'une cinquantaine de dollars ($50.00) pour peinture et autre petites réparations.

Je me voyais alors obligé de rembourser une somme de $115.00, (ma part dans les raparations) à M. Fournier, soit la moitie des dommages causés à son automobile.

Afin de ne pas inquieter mes parents, qui auraient été oblige de payer à ma place, je jugeai bon alors de travailler pour gagner le montant en question.

Je travaillai donc pour un restaurateur ambulant et ai voyage jusqu'à Quebec. J'ai gagne suffisamment d'argent ($160.) pour payer à M. Fournier ma part et decidai ensuite de retourner au camp.

Je devais revenir au camp lorsqu'un soir les Provost Corps vinrent chez moi et m'apprehenderent.

J'étais arrivé de Quebec à 1700 le lundi et je devais me rapporter au camp le lendemain quand je fus appehendé la nuit même.

Procédure sur déclaration de culpabilité précédant la sentence

Quand la cour en est arrivée à une décision relativement à tous les chefs d'accusation contre l'accusé et que ladite décision a été annoncée à ce dernier, le procureur remet au président le modèle M.F.B. 355 et, si possible, un modèle M.F.M. 6.

Ces documents sont lus à la cour par le président, marqués "Y" et "Z", signés par le président et versés au dossier.

Question à l'accusé. Avez-vous quelque déclaration à faire relativement aux documents dont on vient de vous donner lecture ?

Réponse: "Monsieur, j'ai été onze mois au bureau à Longueuil; "j'étais bien tanné et j'ai demandé pour un transfert, "mais il ne m'a pas été accordé. J'ai demandé pour être "paradé, mais ils n'ont pas voulu me parader. C'est là "l'idée du retard. J'ai été onze mois sans faire d'en- "traînement, rien du tout.

Question à l'accusé. Désirez-vous adresser la parole à la cour ?

Réponse: Oui, monsieur. (Par l'entremise de mon officier défenseur - Voir E-3).

La sentence est alors consignée à la page "A" du procès verbal et elle est annoncée à l'accusé en plein tribunal.

Le président établit alors et signe le mandat d'incarcération, le cas échéant, et celui-ci est immédiatement transmis au commandant de l'accusé. Dans chaque cas, il établit aussi et signe le certificat de procès devant une cour martiale permanente et le transmet en conformité des règlements. Le procès verbal ainsi que tous les documents seront transmis au juge-avocat général.

EXPOSE DE L'OFFICIER DEFENSEUR AU NOM DE L'ACCUSE.

Monsieur le président,

Je demanderais la clémence de la cour en passant sentence sur l'accusé, étant donné le jeune âge de l'accusé et le fait qu'il a déjà passé seize jours en détention préventive, et aussi le motif qui l'a porté à s'absenter était assez légitime, c'est-à-dire ne pas vouloir ennuyer ses parents avec l'accident qui lui était arrivé.

Proceedings on Conviction before Sentence

After the Court has arrived at a Finding on all the charges against the accused and such Finding has been announced to the accused, the Prosecutor will tender to the President M.F.B. 355, together ,when it is possible, with an M.F.M. 6.

---The Prosecutor Presents to the Court M.F.B.355 and M.F.M.6.

---These documents are read to the Court by the President, are marked "Y" and "Z", signed by the President and annexed to the proceedings.

Question to the accused. Have you any statement to make concerning the documents which have just been read to you?

Answer. No, sir.

Question to the accused. Do you wish to address the Court?

Answer. Yes, sir; through my Defending Officer.

BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER: I just wish to deal with the accused's previous service. He joined the army originally in September, 1939, in the Midland Regiment, and stayed with them until January, 1941, during which time he rose to the rank of Acting Sergeant. In 1941 he was discharged because of a nervous breakdown. In between that time he worked in a foundry in civilian life, at which place, incidentally, he has the opportunity of returning to his former job when he is discharged from the Army. He joined the Army again in January, 1943, voluntarily. At the present time he has three children, one four, one two and one fifteen months, and is expecting another addition to his family around December of this year. His wife, apparently, is not very well and requires him at home. On the 5th of September he received a letter from her asking him to come home. He obtained an overnight pass and went home. When he arrived home his wife asked him to stay, which he did until she was well again and then reported. I would ask you to consider his family background when passing sentence and also the fact that his wife is expecting another baby shortly.

The Sentence is then recorded on Page "A' of the proceedings and same is announced to the accused in open Court.

The President then completes and signs the "Warrant of Commitment", if any, which shall be transmitted forthwith to the Commanding Officer of the accused. He will also complete and sign in every case, the "Certificate of trial by Standing Court-Martial", and address same as directed by the regulations. The proceedings, with all documents, will be transmitted to the Judge Advocate General.

Witness for Defence: The accused being duly sworn, states:

I enlisted in the Canadian army in 1940 and I was later discharged in Calgary in the fall of 1940 and reenlisted in Regina in November, 1943. Within that time since my discharge I was unable to return home to Vancouver. When I enlisted I was given enlistment leave. When I returned home I found that my mother was in very poor health and she seemed to have more of a mental illness than anything. Her mind was always as to my safety and the continual worry of me being away caused her to go to hospital. Her mind wasepressed and she was pretty anxious. When I returned home the mere knowledge of me bing home she picked up again and while she did not regain her full health she was allowed home from the hospital. I wired Regina for an extension of five days leave and returned to Regina and Dr. Clement who was handling my mother's case advised me to apply for leaveon compassionate grounds and that he would write my C.O. and he did write. I was notified of that fact by Captain Watt who said that as he was only my company commander he could only give me a short leave, six days, on compassionate grounds. He referred me to the O.C. who in turn informed me that seeing as my applications was for a leave of some length it would have to be taken up by the D.O.C. which was taken up with the D.O.C. and in the meantime I was placed on draft and went to Nova Scotia. I was there for some 2 to 4 weeks and I applied for the same leave from Col. Dawson and he told me that as the D.O.C. in Regina was handling the case he could not overrule him or take the case from his hands. We finished our training and were taken to Camp Borden where I applied there wnd was told the same thing that they could not grane me leave on account of the D.O.C. in Regina. At this time, four months had passed and I received a telegram that my mother would not live more than about two weeks and now I see where I made the mistake of not showing the telegram to my O.C. as I would have got enough leave to come home but I still thought the same that leave would not be granted to me so I went A.W.L. I came here to Vancouver but my mother was too far gone. She died, sir, a month and a half or two months after I got home and she only recognized me as her son regardless that my brother and sister were there and after she died, sir, I helped to pay the funeral expenses. I had to work for a time and then was hospitalized myself through a traffic accident. After I came out of the hospital I knew I should report to the army and yet I was afraid of what might happen after I did report so I came up to Little Mountain here and tried to reenlist sir, under an assumed name. I was rejected. I have my rejection paper to that effect. I returned home and went to work for the city - I was driving truck for them when the civilian authorities apprehended me.

BY THE COURT:

Q What date did you try to enlist under a false name ?

A It would be the last week of April of this year because I was apprehended about two weeks after I tried to enlist and I was apprehended on the 9th. May, sir. You see, sir, my mother always considered me the pet of the family and that meant more to me than anything else.

CROSS EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR:

D3

Q Did you absent yourself without leave at Camp Borden, Ontario at 0600 hours on the 8th. day of May 1944 from No. A-11 CSTTC ?
A Yes, sir.

Q And did you remain so absent until apprehended by civil authorities at Vancouver at 1830 hours on the 9th. May, 1945 ?
A Yes, sir.

Q That is, other than reporting here for trying to reenlist ?
A Yes, sir.

Q And did you have any leave or permission to be absent during that time ?
A No, sir.

Q Were you dressed in civilian clothes at the time of apprehension ?
A Yes, sir.

Q At the time of your apprehension what name were you using ?
A The name of Hillburne, sir.

Q What initials ?
A J.C.

Q Were you carrying with you any papers saying you were the person Hillburne ?
A Yes, sir I had a registration card and papers in the name of Hillburne.

Q Where did you get that ?
A I got it from a friend up town.

Q Did you have anything else beside your registration card "Hillburne" ?
A Yes, sir a Discharge Certificate.

Q In whose name?
A The name of John Charleston Hillburne.

Q Where did you get that discharge certificate ?
A I got it from a man who passed through this Court by the name of Edwin Bjur and I changed the name to Hillburne.

Q It was not a man named Hillburne that you got it from ?
A No, sir.

Q Were you carrying any other papers that might identify you ?
A No, sir.

Q Did you have a steam engineer's certificate ?
A That was all given to me to hold by this Bjur, sir.

Q But you were carrying it ?
A I was not carrying it. They were in my room, sir, I never attempted to use them, sir.

Q Did you not have a steam engineer's certificate in the name of Hillburne at the time of your arrest ?
A No, sir.

Q Did you have a machinist's certificate in the name of J.C.Hillburne at the time of your arrest ?
A No, sir.

Q You said you were carrying it ?
A No, it was in my room.

Q What were you doing with these certificates ?
A I was holding them for Bjur. He asked me to look after them.

Q Were you not using them for the purpose of obtaining employment ?
A No, sir.

Q You were not ?
A If I may say, sir, my employment card, I registered for employment with the regimental number given me when I tried to enlist.

Q What was the point of using this discharge certificate in the name of Hillburne ?
A I was not using it.

Q Why were you carrying it around ?
A I was not carrying it around.

Q It was on you at the time of your arrest ?
A No, the authorities searched my room and found it there.

Q When you found that you were rejected on medical grounds under the name of John Charleston Hillburne why did you not surrender yourself to the army authorities knowing that you were absent without leave ?
A At the time I did not see, now I do see, but at the time i was medically unfit I did not see any use in that.

Q Why did you go and offer your services under another name ?
A It was my wish to serve in the army.

Q Why not go back and serve under your own name ?
A Every man fears the consequences of such an act even though I believe in my own mind I was justified in taking such a leave, yet I understand it is distinctly contrary to army regulations and orders. My mother meant more to me than my liberty did.

Q At the time you went back to the army your mother had passed away. If you were so anxious to get back to the army why not come back under your own name ?
A As I said I feared the consequences , I knew I would have to appear before a military court.

Q Did you think that if you got into the army under another name they would not know you ?
A I tried to show them that I figured if I came back when my mother died and after I got the funeral expenses paid the war would be practically over and if I had come back then the army would figure that I was just trying to come back now that the war was over and get a discharge when I was going to show them that I was willing to serve that is why I used an assumed name. I was in a traffic accident and had my back injured, my ear had been injured and my right eye.

Q Were you not pretty sure that you would be rejected even before you went to offer your services ?
A No, sir as far as I knew I was well, sir.

Q Where did you present yourself ?
A At the war mobilization board.

Q On what date ?
A I could not tell you the exact date but it was around the middle of April.

Q Did they ask you for identification ?
A Yes, sir.

Q What did you give them ?
A My registration card.

Q The false registration card ?
A Yes, sir.

Q Were you given a medical examination ?
A Yes, sir, right here at Little Mountain.

Q What did they tell you after your medical examination ?
Q I passed through my medical and was told to report to a room at the end of the hallway and they handed me a little white slip about 2 or 3 inches square and on it it said I was unfit for service.

17

Q You have that document ?
A They are in the guardroom. When I was admitted into custody of the barracks they were taken off me.

Q Were they taken off you at the time of your apprehension ?
A No, sir.

Q Why did they not take them off you ?
A I don't know, sir.

Q Who took them off you ?
A Sgt. Killam, sir.

Q How long were you in hospital ?
A About 2½ months.

Q What kind of an accident were you in ?
A A car accident.

Q I am suggesting to you that the only reason you offered yourself in the army was to get an alibi for yourself by offering yourself and then saying you were trying to get back into the army ?
A No, sir.

Q You were satisfied you would be accepted by the army ?
A Yes, sir.

Q Does it not seem strange that you tried to get back under another name ?
A I don't see anything strange about that as regards me offering my services, willing to serve.

Q In whose name was the registration card ?
A James Charleston Hillburne, sir the same name as I applied for for my induction into the army.

Q When did your mother die ?
A She died in August, 1944.

Q How is it that you were absent from August 1944 until the latter part of April 1945 before you tried to enlist ?
A I had to pay funeral expenses which the Home Funeral Chapel will verify I paid

Q Is your father working ?
A My father is a very old man.

Q Has he no regular job ?
A He has not worked for quite a while now.

Q Have you any brothers ?
A One, sir.

Q Does he live in the city ?
A Yes, sir.

Q Is he working ?
A Yes, sir.

Q Is he married ?
A Yes, sir.

Q Did it take you from August to April to make sufficient money to pay the funeral expenses ?
A If you will recall, sir I was in hospital for 2½ months and there was doctor's bills to pay and funeral expenses to pay.

16

QUESTIONED BY THE COURT:

Q Do you know why you were refused enlistment when you tried to enlist again ?
A No, sir, I don't know what my Pulhems wad.

Q What did you think was the reason ? Your eye ?
A I think it was my back, sir because when I was passing through my medical the MO. told me to lay on the table and he tried bending my legs down and when he pressed on my legs I felt a pain all the way up my back, sir.

Q What did you do with ~~your~~ the uniform you had when you went absent without leave ?
A I have it at home, sir.

Q Is it still at home ?
A Yes, sir.

Q How old was your mother when she died ?
A She was about 55, sir.

Q All the time you were away you were going by the name of James Charleston Hillburne?
A Yes, sir.

THE ACCUSED:

Sir, in the past year I have had quite a bit of difficulty at home. I was in Ottawa at the time, and when I was before the Colonel down there he granted me a compassionate transfer to Toronto in order to get things straightened out. When these things developed, which was domestic, I was under considerable mental stress, and as a result, I wasn't able to sleep; I was nervous, and as a result I couldn't sleep at nights, and took a drink, and wasn't able to pull myself together. My nerves went completely on me.

I went before the M.O. at Ottawa, and explained the case to him. He said, "When your case is cleared up at home," he said, "I think your mental stability will be a little better." And things are ironing themselves out at home here. They are not 100 percent. yet. And the least little thing leads to a flare-up, and I completely lose my head and have no control over myself. I can't sleep, and walk the house most of the night, or I am out on the street until 5 or 6 o'clock in the morning, walking around, and then take a drink, sir. That is what I am admitting, sir.

I have never been on the loose since I have been in the Army unless I took a drink. When I come back to Toronto I went to the M.O. over at the"Horse Palace" and they gave me some pills to make me sleep, and they were no good. When I was down at Chorley Park Military Hospital they gave me pills and a capsule -- there were five pills, I believe. What they were I don't know. And I slept about two hours through the night fitfully, and I spoke to the nurse about it, and she said,

"You have enough dope to put a horse to sleep," and I said, "Well, that doesn't do me any good." I couldn't sleep, and my nerves went on me, and I cracked up, that is about all I can say. All the time I was in the Army I never went absent unless I was in no condition to report for duty, sir.

Answer. No, sir.

W.P.Mc

Question to the accused. Do you wish to address the Court?

Answer. Through my Defending Officer (see following page).

W.P.Mc

The Sentence is then recorded on Page "A' of the proceedings and same is announced to the accused in open Court.

The President then completes and signs the "Warrant of Commitment", if any, which shall be transmitted forthwith to the Commanding Officer of the accused. He will also complete and sign in every case, the "Certificate of trial by Standing Court-Martial", and address same as directed by the regulations. The proceedings, with all documents, will be transmitted to the Judge Advocate General.

THE DEFENDING OFFICER:

Just a reminder, sir, that the accused is a G.S. soldier, a confirmed Corporal, and the documents show that his age is 43 years, although he admits to 45 years, actually. His PULHEMS is "P-3; E-2" -- 3 under the Physical and 2 under the Eyes. While in Ottawa he was working in records, and the matter of straining on his eyes. And in close work he complained of unsuitability of his glasses, preferred bifocal lenses, but apparently the Army doesn't issue those; and he was returned here on compassionate grounds, as he told you. What he did not say was that in civilian life he was a proof reader, and I think that that would justify a little extra consideration on his eyes, especially at his age.

During his Army life he has had a very considerable number of case histories, you can tell just by looking at this big sheet here, and in these he has been treated for several difficulties, and in all of them it is admitted that he is a borderline in hypertension, and in fairness he should be lowered on his stability, maybe. Now, I would like to ask you, sir, to consider recommending the accused for a reboard, with a view to obtaining a medical discharge on both stability and age. Thank you, sir.

THE PROSECUTOR:

Sir, theevidence in this case is both verbal and documentary. W.20097, Cpl. (A/Sgt.) Hocking, C. V., H.W.E., No. 2 District Depot, will state that she was N.C.O. in charge Records Office "C", No. 2 District Depot, and that she called the roll of the staff at 1330 hours on the 30th August, and that the accused, who should have been on that roll-call, failed to answer his name, and was continuously absent until apprehended on the 4th day of September, '45; also, again, that she called the roll at 0800 hours on the 8th September, 1945, and the accused also failed to answer his name. He was in arrest at that time. And he was absent until his surrender on the 9th of September. Then I have an M.F.M. 216. And I have another M.F.M. 216.

THE DEFENDING OFFICER DECLINES TO CROSS-EXAMINE.

THE WITNESS WITHDRAWS.

The Prosecutor has no further witness to call.
The Prosecution is closed.

Motion – No Case

It is open to the accused, his Counsel or Defending Officer at the close of the case for the prosecution to submit that the evidence given for the prosecution has not established a prima facie case against him, and that he should not therefore be called upon for his defence. If such Motion is made, the proceedings will be recorded on separate pages which will be inserted immediately before the present page D. If the Court is satisfied that the Motion is well founded, it must acquit the accused and register its Finding on Page A.

Defence

The President will now address the acused as follows:—

"It is my duty at this stage to advise you as to your rights in the general conduct of your defence. The procedure to be followed depends entirely on the answers given to the formal questions which are about to be put to you. It is therefore important that you should understand and appreciate the effect of your answers to these questions. You do not need to give evidence on oath unless you wish to do so, but if you do give sworn evidence you are liable to be cross-examined by the Prosecutor and questioned by the Court."

"If you do not give evidence on oath you are entitled to make a statement giving your account of the subject of the charge against you. You will not be sworn and no question may be put to you by the Court or any person with respect to such statement. I must warn you, however, that evidence given on oath will carry more weight with the Court than a mere statement not on oath."

If there is no Defending Officer the President should then explain to the accused the effect which his answer to the formal questions on Page D of the proceedings will have on the order of the Closing Addresses as provided in R.P. 40 and 41.

Question to the accused. Do you apply to give evidence yourself as a witness, or do you wish to make an unsworn statement?

Answer. No statement at all, sir.

Question to the accused. Do you intend to call any witness in your defence?

Answer. No, sir.

The Prosecutor and Defending Officer make closing addresses which are recorded but not transcribed.

Question to the accused. Is the witness to be called a witness as to character only?

Answer. W.M.C.

Proceedings on Conviction before Sentence

After the Court has arrived at a Finding on all the charges against the accused and such Finding has been announced to the accused, the Prosecutor will tender to the President M.F.B. 355, together ,when it is possible, with an M.F.M. 6.

These documents are read to the Court by the President, are marked "Y" and "Z", signed by the President and annexed to the proceedings.

Question to the accused. Have you any statement to make concerning the documents which have just been read to you?

Answer. No, sir.

Question to the accused. Do you wish to address the Court?

Answer. Through my Defending Officer.

THE DEFENDING OFFICER: Sir, before awarding sentence to Baroni, there are two facts I think we should consider; firstly, his length of service, which originated the 8th of September, 1942; and during the time he was in service he had no serious offences against him, the crimes merely being minor offences.

The Sentence is then recorded on Page "A' of the proceedings and same is announced to the accused in open Court.

The President then completes and signs the "Warrant of Commitment", if any, which shall be transmitted forthwith to the Commanding Officer of the accused. Proceedings on Plea of Not Guilty

Question to the accused.

Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity for preparing your defence?

Answer.

No, Sir.

(If the accused applies for an adjournment see instructions at page 747 M.M.L.)

The Prosecutor proceeds to call witnesses.

First Witness for prosecution.

being duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor.

Question

By the Prosecutor: Mr. President, the Prosecution's evidence in this case is documentary, and pursuant to C.A.R.O. 5126 I would ask permission to file with the Court the documents in the order shown in the Precis; namely, the M.F.B. 375 and M.F.M. 216, both of which apply to the accused.

By the Court to Defending Officer: Have you any objection to these documents, Captain Jackson?

By the Defending Officer: No, Sir.

M.F.B. 375 is read, marked "F", signed by the President, and attached to the proceedings.

M.F.M. 216 is read, marked "G", signed by the President, and attached to the proceedings.

By the Prosecutor: That is the Prosecution's case, Sir.

D

The Prosecutor has no further witness to call.
The Prosecution is closed.

Motion – No Case

It is open to the accused, his Counsel or Defending Officer at the close of the case for the prosecution to submit that the evidence given for the prosecution has not established a prima facie case against him, and that he should not therefore be called upon for his defence. If such Motion is made, the proceedings will be recorded on separate pages which will be inserted immediately before the present page D. If the Court is satisfied that the Motion is well founded, it must acquit the accused and register its Finding on Page A.

Defence

The President will now address the acused as follows:—

"It is my duty at this stage to advise you as to your rights in the general conduct of your defence. The procedure to be followed depends entirely on the answers given to the formal questions which are about to be put to you. It is therefore important that you should understand and appreciate the effect of your answers to these questions. You do not need to give evidence on oath unless you wish to do so, but if you do give sworn evidence you are liable to be cross-examined by the Prosecutor and questioned by the Court."

"If you do not give evidence on oath you are entitled to make a statement giving your account of the subject of the charge against you. You will not be sworn and no question may be put to you by the Court or any person with respect to such statement. I must warn you, however, that evidence given on oath will carry more weight with the Court than a mere statement not on oath."

If there is no Defending Officer the President should then explain to the accused the effect which his answer to the formal questions on Page D of the proceedings will have on the order of the Closing Addresses as provided in R.P. 40 and 41.

Question to the accused. Do you apply to give evidence yourself as a witness, or do you wish to make an unsworn statement?

Answer. By Defending Officer: He wishes to make a statement under oath, Sir.

Question to the accused. Do you intend to call any witness in your defence?

Answer. By Defending Officer: No, Sir.

Question to the accused. Is the witness to be called a witness as to character only?

Answer.

First Witness for the Defence:) No. H-613285 Private Nicholas BOLDT, No. 10 District Depot, C.A., having been duly sworn, states:

'Well Sir, I was a Conscientious Objector before I went into the Army and my beliefs are still the same, Sir, and that is my reason for going on the loose, Sir. That is all, Sir.'

Cross-examined by the Prosecutor:

Q Then you don't deny the times you were absent, from the 22nd of February, 1945, to the 18th of September, 1945?

A No, Sir.

Q You have told the Court your reason, your state of mind; being a Conscientious Objector you object to serve, that is right, isn't it?

A Yes, Sir.

Q When you went absent on the 22nd February, 1945, you were on leave, weren't you?

A Yes, Sir.

Q That was what kind of leave?

A Embarkation leave.

Q How much leave did you have?

A It was four days, Sir.

Q And where did you proceed on that leave -- where did you go on that leave?

A I did proceed, Sir.

Q But didn't you go away on it?

A Yes, Sir.

Q Did you go home, back to the farm, or stay in Camp? You must have gone somewhere? When you got this Embarkation leave your Unit was where?

A Red Deer, Alberta.

Q And when you got this four days' leave where did you go?

A I went home, Sir.

Q Where is your home?

A Winnipeg, Sir.

Q You came home to Winnipeg on the four days' leave?

A Yes, Sir.

Q Where were you to report back when this leave expired?

A At Debert, Sir.

Q And you had been warned, had you, that you were going Overseas?

A Yes, Sir.

Q And for the reason you tell the Court, you didn't return?

A Yes, Sir.

Q Now, during that time you were away from the 22nd February, 1945, to the 18th September, 1945, where did you stay?

A Around Winnipeg, Sir.

Q Were you at home at all?

A No, Sir.

Q What did you do about your uniform? Were you wearing it or not?

A No, Sir.

Q You were hiding out, were you?

A Yes, Sir.

Re-examined by the Defending Officer:

Q When you surrendered to the Police you were wearing your uniform, were you?

A Yes, Sir.

The Witness resumes his seat.

The Prosecutor makes a closing address.

The Defending Officer makes a closing address.

Ref telegram AC 0267 D/18 Oct 45 Review.

2. The CM Board of Review has in the case of the a/m soldier made the following recommendation:

Release on 17 Mar 1946".

3. You will note that the recommendation of the Board deals with the remission at a future date. In considering this case your attention is directed to paras 3 and 4 of the telegram above referred to. It is pointed out that the action to be taken by you as a Superior Military Authority is not immediate and therefore this soldier's conduct and other circumstances up to the date of the recommended remission should be taken into consideration by you prior to your acting upon the recommendation of the Board. It is therefore suggested that you should not sign the appropriate entry until the recommended date approaches.

4. If in your opinion recent misconduct exists it is requested that this HQ be advised at once in accordance with paras 3 and 4 of the AG telegram above mentioned.

5. May this HQ be infm of action taken.

STATEMENT OF THE ACCUSED

The reason I asked for a pass in the first place was to go to see my former employer to get a letter stating that my job was waiting for me but seeing the pass was for a weekend, it was impossible for me to see him. I sent a telegram asking for a 48-hr extension. I received no answer from the telegram and was hoping in the meantime that an answer would come to it. When no answer came at the end of the extension I had asked for and seeing that this letter that I wanted and which meant so much to my future and my getting out of the Army, and seeing that I had already been away for two days, I was hoping that the strike would be settled and that I could get a letter from them stating that my job was there and also a letter stating that it was impossible for me to get that letter before hand, thereby having a concrete reason for my staying away.

The accused, A-102014, Corporal John Urgel Boucher of A-37, Canadian Infantry Training Centre (CA) being duly sworn, is examined by the Defending Officer.

Q. Cpl. Boucher, how long have you been in the Service?

A. Three years and seven months.

Q. Of this period of time, how long have you been an N.C.O.?

A. Three years as an N.C.O., the last year and eight months as a confirmed corporal.

Q. Have you ever been on charge in any of your service?

A. No, sir.

Q. What ribbons are you entitled to through your overseas service?

A. The 1939-45 Star, France Germany Star, Defence Medal and CVSM and clasp.

Q. How long were you in action, corporal?

A. Eleven months.

Q. Why did you not see the Ford Company in the period of your leave that you had been granted from the Camp originally?

A. I arrived at Windsor at 3:00 o'clock in the morning after a 15-hour train ride and I overslept and on Saturday afternoons the office staff of the Company don't work so it was impossible for me to see him then. On Sundays the shop is closed and Monday morning I went down early about 8:00 o'clock and tried to get in to the office but was stopped by the pickets. My train was due to leave to come back at 9:20 so I went back home and sent this telegram asking for the extension.

Q. You didn't receive a reply to the telegram?

A. No, sir. I did not.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR

Q. Corporal, you have told us that you have been in the Army for 3½ years in all.

A. Three years and seven months.

Q. When were you first promoted after joining the Army?

A. The second month after I joined up, the last part of May 1942 I was made Acting L/Cpl. without pay.

Q. You have served continuously since then as an N.C.O.?

A. No sir. After arrival overseas I had to relinquish my rank. Six days later I was promoted to Lance-Corporal with pay which I held for approximately five months, relinquishing the rank when I went out in the field. I became a Lance-Corporal about six months later, a rank which I held till 26 Nov 43, being confirmed to the rank of Corporal 26 Jan 44, a rank which I held up to now.

Q. These reductions that you mention were by reason of your transfers?

A. Yes sir.

THE DEFENDING OFFICER DECLINES TO RE-EXAMINE

The witness resumes his seat.

Proceedings on Conviction before Sentence

After the Court has arrived at a Finding on all the charges against the accused and such Finding has been announced to the accused, the Prosecutor will tender to the President M.F.B. 355, together ,when it is possible, with an M.F.M. 6.

These documents are read to the Court by the President, are marked "Y" and "Z", signed by the President and annexed to the proceedings.

Question to the accused. Have you any statement to make concerning the documents which have just been read to you?

Answer. No, sir.

Question to the accused. Do you wish to address the Court?

Answer. Yes, sir, through my Defending Officer.
(See document attached, marked "P")

The Sentence is then recorded on Page "A' of the proceedings and same is announced to the accused in open Court.

The President then completes and signs the "Warrant of Commitment", if any, which shall be transmitted forthwith to the Commanding Officer of the accused. He will also complete and sign in every case, the "Certificate of trial by Standing Court-Martial", and address same as directed by the regulations. The proceedings, with all documents, will be transmitted to the Judge Advocate General.

"F"

THE DEFENDING OFFICER ADDRESSES THE COURT IN MITIGATION OF SENTENCE.

Mr. President, I submit that Cpl. Boucher has been an exemplary soldier by his record, his attitude and bearing and that in his three years and seven months of service he has been recognized as such by being an N.C.O. for three years. He was eleven months in action. He has never had any charge in all his service and the extenuating circumstances behind his staying away were such that I respectfully submit, sir, that they should be taken into account in mitigation of punishment.

2. Can the interests of Military justice best be served by sending this N.C.O., a soldier in every sense of the word, a conscientious man who has served faithfully and well during his years of service, back to civilian life with one black mark on his otherwise excellent record and on a charge, which at its worst, could only be classed as a very minor offence.

3. I suggest that it would be doing Cpl. Boucher the rankest injustice in the light of the evidence submitted.

FINAL ADDRESS BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER:-

I just have a few facts to bring before the Court that concern entirely Tpr. Bell's record. First of all, he joined the Army two years ago, the first day after his eighteenth birthday, which is pretty young. Joining the Army, his Pulhems were "one across the board" with one exception--he had a two under the "M". Now that goes right back to his education as a boy. He attended school to the age of sixteen, but still only attained Grade Eight, which would indicate he is extremely slow to learn. His Army training falls along that entire same line--apparent willingness to learn, but incapable of picking up the training. Actually, he did manage to qualify as a Driver, Class Three, and would have gone overseas in the normal course of events, except that he was put up before the Psychiatrist. He was very nervous and unstable, and they put him up before the Psychiatrist, and when they looked into his background they gave him an "S-4".

When he was still young his mother died and she died from some form of insanity, which was in the family, his mother's family. The father left and went to the States at that time, and remarried, so Tpr. Bell was left in Canada with his grandparents. The fact that his mother died with this and that it was in the family, was known to be in the family--her father had also died with it--preyed on his mind, and it made him nervous and unstable. It was noted, for instance, in the Psychiatric Report, a little over a year ago, that he continually bit his finger nails, and they were bitten away almost down to the roots, and that condition still exists.

Now, his M.F.M. 6, he has several charges on there for A.W.L., but they are all very small, and where he is now working, or where he has most recently been employed as a dishwasher, they say there, after I checked up, that his work is satisfactory in the sense that he is a willing worker, but he is not too dependable in stability respects.

Now, the reason he gives for being A.W.L. in this latest charge--he went away on a week end, a legitimate week end, and he went to Parry Sound where his Grandparents live, that is, the grandparents on his father's side, and the grandmother was in the hospital. His grandfather has given up working. He worked for the railroad and had a stroke, so he is still able to get around, but he is not particularly able to take care of himself, and Tpr. Bell remained to help take care of him. When the situation improved he gave himself up to the civil authorities.

I would like to suggest, sir, that in view of the circumstances, that the Court be as lenient as possible, and that at the termination of taking his punishment that he be put up for discharge. That is all, sir.

PROCEEDINGS ON A PLEA OF NOT GUILTY

stion to accused:

Q Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity for preparing your defence?
A No, sir.

THE PROSECUTOR DECLINES TO MAKE AN OPENING ADDRESS

THE DEFENDING OFFICER OBJECTS TO THE CHARGE ON THE GROUND THAT IT SHOULD HAVE BEEN LAID UNDER SEC 156(a) ARMY ACT.

THE PROSECUTOR REPLIES, POINTING OUT THAT SEC 156(a) IS INTENDED TO DEAL WITH CIVILIAN OFFENDORS.

THE COURT DISALLOWS THE OBJECTION AND THE DECISION IS ANNOUNCED TO THE ACCUSED AND THE COURT PROCEEDS WITH THE TRIAL.

THE DEFENDING OFFICER OBJECTS TO THE WORDS IN THE STATEMENT OF PARTICULARS "AND ON OTHER OCCASIONS".

THE PROSECUTOR INFORMS THE COURT THAT HE WILL ATTEMPT TO PROVE ONLY ONE OTHER OCCASION, NAMELY 14 SEPTEMBER 1945.

THE COURT INFORMS THE ACCUSED THAT INASMUCH AS THE PROSECUTOR IS ONLY GOING TO ALLEGE ONE OTHER SPECIFIC OCCASION HIS EVIDENCE WILL BE CONFINED TO THAT OCCASION, NAMELY 14 SEPTEMBER 1945.

THE PROSECUTOR PROCEEDS TO CALL WITNESSES:

st Witness Prosecution: Lt J F Noreiko, S-17 Canadian School of Infantry, having been first duly sworn, is examined:

BY THE PROSECUTOR:

Q Will you tell the Court what your duties are here at S-17?
A I am Records Officer, having personal custody of Regimental documents at S-17 Canadian School of Infantry, Vernon, B C.

Q How long have you been in the army?
A A little over five years.

Q And prior to taking on these duties as records officer will you just briefly state what duties you performed since you joined the army?
A I have performed many and varied duties.

Q Did you have anything to do with the attesting of other ranks?
A Yes, sir.

Q Where?
A In Montreal.

Q In what capacity?
A At that time I was an NCO and the unit was recruited for active service and I was one of a number of persons detailed to attest these people and take down information from them.

Q Taking the information from these people before their actual attestation?
A Yes, sir.

Q How long did you do that?
A A couple of weeks.

Q Have you any idea of how many men would come before you when you were working in that capacity?
A Oh, possibly several hundred.

Q Will you identify this document?
A This is a certified true copy of MFM 2, the attestation paper of the accused.

Q It is a copy of the MFM 2 of the accused, which is on file at this School, and under your control?
A Yes, sir.

Q And certified by yourself as officer in charge of records as a true copy?
A Yes, sir.

(Document is read, is marked "F", signed by the President, and annexed to the proceedings).

Q I want to direct your attention to paragraph 14. Is there any difference in the way in which the information with respect to prior military service of another rank on that form and the way in which these questions are asked with respect to an officer?
A Yes, sir.

Q What is the difference?
A The difference is on this form, which relates to other ranks, only one question is asked on the form, the question asked in relation to previous Naval Military or Air Force service and on the officers' equivalent to this form further questions are asked.

Q Is there any question on the officers' form with respect to ribbons or decorations?
A Yes, sir.

BY THE COURT:

Q But not on this form?
A No.

BY THE PROSECUTOR:

Q From your experience at Montreal in being present at the attestation of other ranks what was the practice, insofar as filling in the information in paragraph 14 of that MFM 2?

THE DEFENDING OFFICER: I object to that, as having no relation at all--

THE COURT: The objection is sustained.

THE PROSECUTOR: Am I to understand, sir, you are ruling out as inadmissible as to what was practice in filling out these forms?

THE COURT: Yes, this officer's opinion on what was practice in Montreal doesn't affect this accused, unless you can show me how it would.

THE PROSECUTOR: Q: If another rank, at the time of his attestation had prior military, air force or naval service and had earned a decoration or ribbon in that service, would it appear on his MFM 2 in paragraph 14?

A Well--

DEFENDING OFFICER: I object, that is an opinion question based on his experience in Montreal.

THE COURT: What are your grounds, or experience, Mr. Moreiko, to enable you to answer a question like that?

THE WITNESS: Well, frankly, sir my grounds are very slight.

THE COURT: What, if anything, would enable you to answer that question?

THE WITNESS: The way the question is put it cannot be answered by myself, to my point of view, in a satisfactory way, only in a general way.

THE COURT: I don't see that the witness is qualified to answer a question like that. There is no provision covering that matter in paragraph 14 of the form.

BY THE PROSECUTOR:

Q If the accused had qualified for a service ribbon or decoration in service prior to his attestation in the army would it be likely to appear in paragraph 14 of MFM 2?

THE DEFENDING OFFICER: That is the same question worded differently.

THE COURT: He can state his opinion on that, but I am going to reserve to myself how much weight I will attach to it.

A It might, in answer to that last question.

Q Is the fact that another rank on being attested into the army holds a ribbon, a service ribbon or decoration from any other service an important part of the information that should be included in his records, in your opinion?
A That depends on how he, himself, looks at it.

Q I mean from the point of view of records and the army, in your opinion?
A Well, in my opinion it isn't so utterly important that it couldn't be left out for any reasons that the party in question sees fit.

Q Would you identify this true copy of MFM 196, which is a Personnel Selection Record relating to the accused, where is this produced from?
A The original was produced in the office of some Army Examiner. This copy was produced in my office by my own stenographer from the original contained in the records of the accused.

BY THE COURT:

Q Have you the original of that in your possession?
A I have, sir.

THE COURT: I would like the Defending Officer to know that if,

at any time, you want these original document produced they can be produced for you, if you want to ask for them.

BY THE PROSECUTOR:

Q Did you certify this to be a true copy of the original?
A Yes.

(Document is read, is marked "G", signed by the President, and annexed to the proceedings.)

Q This Exhibit "F", does that represent a complete record of service of all soldiers at the time of attestation?
A Since the information on this form is taken down by questioning the person the service shown is only as the person gives the answers.

Q Is there any place in that form specifically set aside by a heading in which information about service ribbons and other decorations held by the man being attested is recorded?
A No, sir.

Q In what paragraph is the information respecting service ribbons or decorations held by a soldier at the time of his attestation entered?

DEFENDING OFFICER: I object to that question, the question Capt Kirby is putting now was put a few minutes ago.

THE COURT: I will ask him a question:

Q Assuming that an applicant did have prior service decorations, under what paragraph on MFM 2, in your opinion, and experience, would it be proper to record such information, if he gave it to you?
A Well, it might be recorded under paragraph 14 or 15.

Q That, you simply say, would be as a matter of practice, the normal place where such information would be recorded if the information were given?
A Yes.

BY THE PROSECUTOR:

Q In your experience was that information about service ribbons generally given?

THE DEFENDING OFFICER: Objection

THE COURT: I think the witness can state as a fact from his experience whether information as to decorations was generally given, but the question as to what weight I am going to attach to it is a very different thing.

THE WITNESS: (A) It was sometimes.

Q Can you identify this document?
A Certified true copy of MFM 469, which is an individual priority score card relating to the accused.

Q Where is the original of this document?
A It is kept in the files of the Records office here in the Camp in the envelope pertaining to the accused.

Q And have you certified this as a true copy of the original?
A I have.

(Document is read, is marked "H", signed by the President, and annexed to the proceedings).

THE COURT: In all these cases I want to know if the defending officer objects to the certification of the documents because if so the originals will have to be produced to him.

THE DEFENDING OFFICER: I don't object to the documents going in but I want to reserve my right to examine the originals.

BY THE PROSECUTOR:

Q Will you explain the purpose of this form Exhibit "H"?
A Primarily the purpose of this is exactly what it says, it is a priority score for the purpose of discharge of army personnel.

Q What determines the number of priority points that army personnel would have?
A Service in the armed forces.

Q Are the points the same for service regardless of where the service takes place?
A No, you get two points for every month of Service in Canada and three points for every month of service overseas.

Q So that if a soldier had served overseas it would affect the number of priority points?
A Yes.

Q Does this form show a record of the priority points obtained by the accused as of 31 Mar 45?
A It does.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER:

Q Mr. Noreiko, the question was put to you before by the Prosecutor about entries being made on attestation, now isn't it true that even in your experience in your present position at S-17 that there are many things which are found to have not been entered on personal documents?
A Yes.

Q In other words would you say that a man that is attesting another soldier regarding coming into the army, that it all depends on the individual, on how he elicits the information from him?
A To be quite honest about it, yes.

Q I show you Exhibit "G", is this kept up to date, this information on the top of the name, number, rank and so on?
A Well, now this is strictly an Army Examiner's form and we have no authority to touch them, this is a certified copy of the original and the information is--

Q In other words it is static? There is nothing put on by you?
A That is right.

THE PROSECUTOR DECLINES TO RE-EXAMINE THE WITNESS

THE WITNESS WITHDRAWS.

Second Witness for Prosecution: Lt Claude Harry Smith, S-17 C S of I, having been first duly sworn, is examined:

BY THE PROSECUTOR:

Q You are employed here at S-17 Canadian School of Infantry?
A Yes, as an Instructor with "B" Coy.

Q How long have you been employed in that capacity?
A Approximately five weeks.

Q And how long have you held the rank of Lieutenant?
A Since December 1943.

Q When were you commissioned?
A April 1943.

Q And did you have any military service before April 1943?
A Not in the active army.

Q In the Reserves?
A C O T C.

Q Do you know the accused?
A Yes.

Q Did you see the accused on 5 Sep 45?
A Yes.

Q On or about 1730 hours?
A Yes.

Q Where?
A On the Company parade prior to a battalion parade to Polson Park.

Q Where did this take place again?
A Outside the accused's quarters in S-17, Vernon, B C.

Q Why do you remember that occasion particularly?
A Because I was asked approximately four or five days ago if I had ever seen the accused wearing decorations and wings and if I did remember seeing him could I recall a specific date. That was the date I recall because of the fact that it was on that parade that I remarked to another officer in the company that we had a candidate who did have the decoration and wore the wings.

Q You stated you remember that because of the decorations he wore, what decorations were being worn by the accused, if any?
A I don't know the difference between the DFC and the DFM-- I know the two decorations, but I don't know just which is which, but I knew it was one or the other and I believe he had the CVSM and he was wearing Pilot's double wings.

Q Are you referring to the accused?
A Yes.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER:

Q What were you doing that morning, 15 days ago now?
A I can't recall.

Q What were you doing in the afternoon?
A Yes, I do, that was the afternoon that the cadets were taking training in the R C E, and as far as the morning is concerned I can recall the morning there was a Court of Inquiry on a fire at Glen ~~Amigan~~. EMMA Q On that particular date were you Duty Instructor?

A No.

Q Where did the parade fall in, or was there a parade called at 1730 hours?
A I believe the actual parade was 1715, I couldn't say the exact time.

Q Where is it customary for the supernumerary instructors to take their places when the parade is being formed up, what is the usual practice-- isn't it the usual practice for the D.I. only to take the parade?
A Yes.

Q In other words he is the only one that goes out in front of the parade?
A That is right.

Q Where were you standing on that particular afternoon?
A At the right flank of the platoon.

Q Was the accused on parade?
A Yes, sir.

Q Where was he standing?
A As I recall it in the centre rank about the third or fourth from the end.

Q When you were fallen in where did you take your place?
A Do you mean when the parade fell in?

Q First of all you are off on the right flank?
A Yes.

Q And then where did you fall in?
A In the rear of the platoon.

Q And then after that which way were you, about?
A I couldn't recall.

Q And you don't know which way you marched off?
A No, I don't.

Q What sort of hat was the accused wearing?
A I couldn't tell you.

Q Did he have any flashes on at all, besides the white flash?
A I have no idea.

Q Is this how he was wearing the decorations? (indicating)
A I don't know.

Q Is this the decoration?
A No, I don't believe it is.

Q You don't know?
A I am not positive, no.

Q You don't know what that is, anyway?
A I believe it is the D F M.

(Blue and white striped ribbon produced and marked "I" for identification)

Q I would like to submit another ribbon for identification, what is that ribbon?

(Blue and white striped ribbon produced and marked "J" for identification).

RE-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR:

Q Was the accused wearing one or the other of those two ribbons?
A Yes.

Q Of similar appearance?
A Yes.

THE WITNESS WITHDRAWS.

Third Witness for Prosecution: Lt Robert Norval Johnson, S-17 Canadian School of Infantry, having been first duly sworn, is examined:

BY THE PROSECUTOR:

Q You are employed here?
A I am an instructor with "B" Coy.

Q How long have you been so employed?
A Since 7 Apr 45.

Q How long have you held the rank of Lieutenant?
A Since 24 Aug 45.

Q When were you commissioned?
A 14 Jun 44, prior to that I was three years with the COTC at McMaster University.

Q Now, have you any particular reason for remembering 5 Sep 45 at approximately 1730 hours?
A I have, sir, because I was attending a baseball game at Polson Park in Vernon, B C and I remember on that occasion I was on parade with the platoon and we marched down as a body to witness the game.

Q Did you see the accused on that parade?
A Yes.

Q Do you remember anything particular about the accused at that time?
A His dress. He was wearing a battle-dress and the regular Air Force wings and the decoration of the DFC.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER:

Q Mr. Johnson, what was your capacity on that particular day, 15 days ago, the 5th of September?
A I was 2 i/c of the Section.

Q Were you duty instructor?
A No.

Q Who was duty instructor that day?
A I believe it was Kineese on that day, but I wouldn't be sure of that.

Q What is the custom for other instructors, other than the duty instructor, where do they take up their position in the normal parades?
A At the rear of the platoon supernumerary.

Q I mean before the parade?
A On which parade?

Q On any morning parade, if you happen to go on a morning parade, are you in front of the platoon or behind or on the flank, or just in the general area?
A I don't think there is a general rule that can be applied.

Q In other words you aren't fallen in every morning in front of the platoon, or you don't take up a position in front of the platoon, or on the flank, is that correct?
A Not as a general rule.

Q And has it ever happened that you have fallen in on the flank of your platoon, perpendicular to it?
A Yes, on the 5th of September.

Q You mean you were fallen in in the rear?
A Yes.

Q And where was the accused in that platoon?
A When we fell in?

Q When the platoon was all ready to move off where was the accused?
A I couldn't say.

Q Did they have an inspection that day, did they have "open order march?"
A I couldn't say. Not to my knowledge.

Q In other words they didn't?
A I wouldn't say that.

Q What regiment does the accused belong to?
A I don't know.

Q In other words you have never seen that flash before?
A I may have but never taken any notice.

Q I show you exhibit "I" for identification, is this the decoration he was wearing?
A That isn't, I don't think.

Q Could you swear that it isn't, now you are swearing that is not the decoration he was wearing?
A That isn't the decoration he was wearing.

Q I show you "J" for identification, is that the decoration he was wearing?
A Yes.

Q What decoration is that?
A The Distinguished Flying Cross.

Q Now, Mr. Johnson, it seems rather amazing to me that you weren't in front of the platoon, you didn't even see which flashes he had on, you don't know where he was in the platoon and yet you stood there and swore on your oath that on this day he was wearing this decoration and at the same time you didn't have an inspectionof the platoon, you don't know what flashes he had on, in other words your memory isn't very good?
A I think it is.

RE-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR:

Q Mr Johnson, are these Pacific Force Volunteer patches quite common around here?
A I don't know whether you could say they were common or not and just when--

Q Are Air Force Wings and decorations common around here?
A Not in our Company.

THE WITNESS WITHDRAWS.

Fourth Witness for Prosecution: Major S F Turner, S-17 C S of I, having been first duly sworn, is examined:

BY THE PROSECUTOR:

Q How are you employed here, Major?
A I am commander of "B" Coy, O T C.

Q Will you direct your attention to 14 Sep 45 at about 2230 hours, approximately that time, and I ask you if you remember anything particular about that occasion?
A Yes, on 14 Sep 45 at approximately 2230 hours I attended No 5 Platoon dance, one of the platoons of my company, and at that period Cadet Brown, the accused attended the party and he was at that time wearing Pilot's RCAF wings and the ribbon of the D F C.

Q That was at Coldstream?
A At the Coldstream Chalet in the Township of Vernon, B C.

Q It is in the Vernon military area?
A Yes, that Chalet is used by S-17.

Q Did you have a subsequent conversation with the accused relating to his wearing the DFC and Pilot's winge?

DEFENDING OFFICER: Objection to the question.

THE COURT: No, I don't think there is any objection to that. We have evidence that he wore these things and he is asked "did youchave a subsequent conversation with regard to his wearing them".

DEFENDING OFFICER: Then I would like to know whether the question is related to when the accused was brought before the witness.

THE COURT: You are going to object to it on the ground that it might not have been a voluntary statement? You will get an opportunity to cross-examine on that before any alleged conversation will be allowed to go in.

BY THE PROSECUTOR:

Q Did you have such a conversation?
A Yes.

Q Will you explain to the Court the circumstances under which you had this conversation?
A Yes, it was brought to my attention by the A/Adjt, who had been checking the documents of the accused, the fact that there was nothing on his documents that he should be wearing the decoration and wings so on Monday, the 17th I called the accused into my office to inquire about the wings and the decoration.

Q Had any charge been laid against the accused at this time?
A No.

Q Did you charge him on this occasion?
A No.

Q Did you offer any inducment to the accused for the purpose of having him make any statement?
A No

Q Did you make any threat?
A No.

Q Did you make any promises?
A No.

Q Did you use the authority of your rank to compel him to make any such statement?
A Not that I am aware of.

Q Will you relate to the Court the manner in which the statement was obtained?
A The accused came into my office after I sent for him and I told him that his documents had been checked and that there appeared to be no authority on his documents for him to be wearing either the wings or this decoration, the DFC.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER:

Q Major Turner you are Company Commander of the accused, is that correct?
A Yes.

Q Well, normally you are the superior authority in the Company?
A Yes.

Q To whom all respect is given by the Cadets, is that right?
A Yes.

Q In other words, when a Cadet is brought before you or you send for a Cadet and the status of a Cadet being that he is sort of between a window blind and an army hut, that he doesn't know what he is, in other words that his future depends on exactly what his officers think about him, in getting a commission?
A As Company commander I am responsible whether he does well, his final grading on the Course.

Q Was the accused marched into your office?
A No.

Q Was he escorted?
A He was escorted by his Section Commander.

Q In other words when he was sent for it would be quite normal for him to think that he was being taken up for office for an interview, which is something not normally done unless there is something wrong?
A I wouldn't say so, normally, I could have wanted him for anything.

Q Do you normally interview all the Cadets?
A No.

FURTHER EXAMINATION BY THE PROSECUTOR:

Q Was this interview carried on in a formal manner?
A Well, it wasn't formal, the accused was certainly free to say anything he wanted, I merely asked him a question and asked him to answer it.

THE DEFENDING OFFICER: I object to the alleged conversation being brought into the record on the ground that Major Turner, as company commander of the accused was a person sitting in authority and without any words of inducement, threat or promise actually said by him that that condition could be relayed to the mind of the accused and that it is perfectly reasonable to think that a Cadet, who normally doesn't come up before his company commander when he is sent for by his company commander, he knows he is really on the mat, and I think any information elicited by Major Turner, if he elicited any, is, on that grounds of a Major speaking to a Cadet, inadmissible.

THE COURT: I think it is admissible. The burden lies upon the prosecution, but we have the affirmative statements of Major Turner that no threat, inducement or promise was offered to the accused, and that hasn't been destroyed. I think the statement is admissible.

BY THE PROSECUTOR:

Q What was the statement that he made?
A He told me he had been in the Air Force. First of all we took up the question of the wings. He told me he had been in the Air Force, but he admitted that he was not entitled to wear the Pilot Wings. After that I asked him about the decoration and he admitted he wasn't entitled to wear the D F C.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER:

Q Now, Major Turner, you stated that you saw the accused at a dance at Coldstream?
A Yes, at about 2230 hours on Friday evening 14 Sep 45.

Q Was there anything to drink at the dance?
A Yes, the bar was open.

Q And about what time did you get to the dance?
A About 2145.

Q Were there many people there?
A Yes, there was a platoon party, 27 members of the platoon and I would say there were about 40 people there.

Q Did you have any conversation with the accused that night?
A No, I can't remember that I did.

Q Where, exactly, were you standing when you saw him?
A I saw him at various times. The first time I remember I was standing just off the part that they were using for dancing and he was, I believe, making across the dance floor.

Q What type of dress was he wearing?
A Battle dress.

Q These dances are open more or less to the staff?
A No, they are Cadet parties and I was invited as Company Commander.

Q In other words they can invite other people?
A Yes.

Q What regimental flashes, if any, was he wearing?
A I can't remember that.

Q He is a member of your company?
A Yes.

Q Are there any other people in this camp who wear wings?
A What type of wings do you mean?

Q Pilot's wings?
A Well, I know there are in the Air Force Conversion Wing, but I haven't anything to do with them.

Q There is a platoon of Air Force people here, is that right?
A Yes, but they wouldn't all be wearing pilot wings.

Q The majority of them?
A I have no idea.

Q I would like to show you Exhibit "I" for identification, is that the decoration?
A It appears to be from here, yes, but I must admit I am a bit colour blind

Q In other words you wouldn't know whether it was a ribbon with orange or blue?
A Yes, what I am thinking of is the width of the stripes.

Q Did you say you were colour blind?
A I am partly colour blind, yes.

Q For instance that sign on the wall down there, where it says "Boy" what colour are the letters?
A It is red.

Q Do you know what decoration this is, if it is a decoration?
A Yes, it looks like either the DFC or the DFM

Q But you don't know wh ch this is?
A I know the DFC has the broad stripe, but from this distance I wouldn't say.

THE PROSECUTOR DECLINES TO RE-EXAMINE THE WITNESS

THE WITNESS WITHDRAWS.

[illegible]th Witness [illegible] Prosecution: 2/Lt John Jack Paanakker, S-17 C S of I, having been first duly sworn, is examined:

BY THE PROSECUTOR:

Q How are you employed here at S-17?
A I am under instruction with the RCAF Conversion Wing.

Q When were you commissioned as a 2nd Lieutenant?
A 28 May 45.

Q Will you give the Court a brief summary of your service in this country?

A I joined the RCAF 4 Aug 41, was trained as an Air Gunner in Canada, went overseas in May 1942, served in the United Kingdom, did my operational training there, was directed with my Crew to the Middle East as reinforcements, but on arrival we were surplus to requirements there, and we were sent to the Far East, where I joined 205 Squadron and did a tour of operations there and was surplus to requirements and posted back to the Middle East, and from there back to the United Kingdom, and have been two years and 10 months in Canada. I tried to go back overseas with the RCAF but there was no vacancy to go back overseas so I joined the Canadian Army here.

Q How many flying hours have you got?
A Nearly 500, 300 hours operational

Q Now, would you explain to the Court very briefly, from your own personal knowledge the general plan of training employed by the RCAF in Canada, from the time you enlisted?

THE COURT: Who is this Officer, is he on the General Staff?

THE PROSECUTOR: I am saying from your own personal knowledge, as applies to a pilot.

A The recruit is attested at a Depot and then he goes to a manning depot and he spends about two months there.

Q What would be the minimum?
A About a month.

Q Would that apply to anybody in the Air Force, no matter what ultimately they were being trained as?
A About a month, yes.

Q And after they leave the depot?
A Then, in 1941 we had to go to what they called Security Guard because the Empire Training Scheeme was expanding so rapidly, so they had to kill time, so we did Security Guard for roughly six weeks, and after that you were posted to an I T S.

Q And does that still apply to anybody, regardless of what you are going to become?
A Yes, and then they spend anything up to a month or two-- subsequently I think the I T S course has been increased to three months, and from there their categories get split up like Air Gunners going to "B" and "G" and Wireless Operators go to radio school and pilots go to E N T S.

Q Did you have any personal friends who became pilots?
A Yes, naturally, I flew.

Q And do you know as a matter of personal knowledge and correspondence with them how long it took them to go through their training?

THE COURT: No.

Q Have you any knowledge of the amount of training that was given to a man who was going through as a pilot?
A Well, all the pilots I have met overseas, Canadian pilots, or British pilots that trained in the Empire Training Scheme, roughly took a year, in any event, before they were sent overseas.

Q When you went overseas did you take your advanced training with pilots?
A Yes, sir.

Q And how long training did you have with pilots before going into operations?
A The course should last three months, but due to the bad weather we had in the winter it takes six months operational training.

THE DEFENDING OFFICER: I would like to question the relevancy of that question.

THE COURT: Do you object to its admission?

THE DEFENDING OFFICER: Yes.

THE COURT: Why?

THE DEFENDING OFFICER: I can't see on what grounds it is being put in.

THE COURT: I see some relevancy in this.

BY THE PROSECUTOR:

Q Have you any pilot friends who have the D F C?
A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know of any friend of yours who won the D F C without going into an operational flying command?
A No, sir.

Q I am going to show you Exhibit "G", paragraph 5 states-- I want you to explain this term, which I believe is an Air Force term, "washed out of aircrew," I want you to explain the meaning of that term?
A "Washed out" is an Air Force term that means that a man has ceased training due to several reasons, one could be due to medical category, or maybe lack of moral fibre, just didn't have the guts, or whatever the cause may be, maybe he is too nervous. The term "grounded" is always used when a man has got his wings and then has ceased to fly, "washed out" is when he hasn't got his wings, and ceases to fly.

Q Are you familiar with the appearance of the D F C?
A Yes, sir.

Q Could you identify which of these two badges is the DFC?
A The one in your left hand is the DFM and the one in the right is the DFC.

Q The DFC is the one with the wide stripes?
A Yes, sir.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER:

Q Are you a pilot?
A No, sir, I was a rear gunner on Wellingtons.

Q Did you take your course with people who were training as pilots when you were at I T S?
A Yes, sir. I was washed out of I T S and taken on as a gunner.

Q You were washed out once?
A Yes, in my case I never started flying, I was washed out on maths.

Q In other words it is possible to go back and try again, is that correct?
A I don't understand.

Q You were washed out?
A Washed out from my initial trade of pilot and went back into another aircrew category, air gunner.

Q How long did you say that it takes a man to qualify as a pilot?
A A year.

Q You joined the service when?
A 4 Aug 41

Q Has that ever been changed?
A When I said a year, I mean maybe a week or so due to bad weather, it has always been just about a year.

Q Would it depend upon the individual in any case?
A No.

Q In other words you can't say they never decreased the length of time?
A If anything they have increased it with the war progressing more favorably they have trained them better.

Q You say you don't know anybody that has ever one the DFC in Canada?
A I didn't say that, sir.

BY THE COURT:

Q What did you say?
A I said I had never heard of anybody getting the DFC not on air operations against the enemy.

Q In other words a man stationed on one of the Coastal Flying Patrols, it is quite possible for him to win the DFC?
A Yes.

Q A man stationed, perhaps at Halifax?
A Yes, it is possible.

BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER:

Q Nevertheless he could win a decoration?
A Yes.

Q But he wouldn't get a clasp for his CVSM?
A The ones that I have talked to, the ones that did the same thing in Vancouver had it.

THE PROSECUTOR DECLINES TO RE-EXAMINE THE WITNESS

THE WITNESS WITHDRAWS.

The Prosecutor has no further witness to call
The Prosecution is closed.

THE DEFENDING OFFICER MAKES A MOTION FOR DISMISSAL OF THE CHARGE ON THE GROUND THAT THE PROSECUTION HAS FAILED TO MAKE OUT A PRIMA FACIE CASE THAT THE ACCUSED IS NOT ACTUALLY ENTITLED TO WEAR WHAT IS ALLEGED IN THE CHARGE, AND THAT THE PROSECUTION HAS NOT PRODUCED THE WINGS AND RIBBON ALLEGED TO HAVE BEEN WORN BY THE ACCUSED, AS EXHIBITS.

THE PROSECUTOR DOES NOT REPLY

THE COURT DISALLOWS THE MOTION AND THE TRIAL PROCEEDS.

DEFENCE

THE PRESIDENT INFORMS THE ACCUSED AS TO HIS RIGHTS IN THE GENERAL CONDUCT OF HIS DEFENCE.

Questionto the accused:

Q Do you apply to give evidence yourself as a witness or do you wish to make an unsworn statement?
A An unsworn statement?

Q Do you intend to call any other witness in your defence?
A Yes, sir.

Q Is this witness a witness as to character only?
A Yes, sir.

STATEMENT OF ACCUSED:

I have held the rank of confirmed sergeant-- I have been in the army for 3 years and 9 months-- and I had the rank of confirmed sergeant since 28 Sep 43. My intentions, including up until this point, were to serve in the Interim Army or going back to University. I have signed that statement brough around about the Interim Army and I have signed it to the effect that I will serve two years in the interim army. I have never been charged with any crime before. I have completed my junior matriculation in Toronto and part of the first hear of senior matric with the Royal Canadian Air Force before I was admitted into the army.

First Witness for Defence:

Lt J H Turner, S-17 C S of I, having been first duly sworn, is examined:

BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER:

Q Do you know the accused?
A I do.

Q How long have you known him?
A I first knew the accused about 1935 or 1936 in Toronto, he was a member of the same church. I was associated with him to the extent that he was a member of a Young Men's Group and was interested in that work. The accused wasn't a personal friend, he was one of the younger members of this very active Young People's Group and being considerably younger I didn't any great deal of contact with him. I knew all his family and he always seemed to be a very quiet serious sort of individual and on several occasions he helped us out with various activities around the Church and around the Club and I can't tell the Court a great deal, except that he was very quiet, sincere and steady in attendance at the Club. He has a very good family background.

THE PROSECUTOR DECLINES TO CROSS-EXAMINE THE WITNESS

THE WITNESS WITHDRAWS

Second Witness for Defence: Lt R I Mitchell, S-17 C S of I, having been first duly sworn, is examined:

BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER:

Q You are a Platoon Commander in "B" Company?
A That is right.

Q Is the accused a member of your platoon?
A Yes, sir.

Q How did you find him in his work?
A On the course as a whole I found him an average student, he isn't above average in any particular subject.

Q In other words does he pass the requirements that were set up here to put a man through the course?
A Yes, the marks are much lower than any other school in Canada. The standards are higher here than any other Training School. A "Q2" here might mean a "Q1" there.

Q Has he given you any disciplinary trouble?
A No, sir the Section Instructors have never brought him up to me as giving any trouble and throughout the course they seemed to be quite pleased with his work.

THE PROSECUTOR DECLINES TO CROSS EXAMINE THE WITNESS

THE WITNESS WITHDRAWS

THE DEFENDING OFFICER MAKES A CLOSING ADDRESS

THE PROSECUTOR MAKES A CLOSING ADDRESS.

PROCEEDINGS ON CONVICTION BEFORE SENTENCE

The Court having arrived at a Finding on the charge such finding is announced to the accused.

The Prosecutor tenders to the Court MFB 355 and MFM 6. These documents are read to the Court by the President, are marked "Y" and "Z", signed by the President and annexed to the proceedings.

Question to the accused:

Q Have you any statement to make concerning the documents which have just been read to you?
A No, sir.

Q Do you wish to address the Court?
A I would like my defending officer to speak for me.

THE DEFENDING OFFICER: The accused is young and is in a rather unfortunate position. I would like to state his case briefly for you. He went to Brockville, passed the OSAW Board there as suitable officer material, went through Brockville, got practically to the last week of the course and then broke his ankle, and then he was confined to hospital for quite a while and then he was sent out here to take the Course again and he is a confirmed sergeant, has climbed up through the ranks. He was sgt-instructor in Debert with the Pacific Trg Bns that were recently formed there and then he was sent up for a commission. I think, in view of his age, he is 22 years old, he comes from a good background of family and Mr. Turner, the character witness has pointed out that he is a very steady and serious young man, that he showed a quiet confident way of going about things and perhaps one of the most steady members of the junior associations that they had in the Church. I would also like to bring out the fact that he hasn't been charged or convicted in any military or civil court and on the basis that he is a personable young man with his instructors, as they say he was and a good student. He led his troops well, and the only thing that is holding him up now is because this has been pending. In other words his whole career hangs in the balance on this case, whether he becomes a commissioned officer or not. I think he realizes now perhaps which he didn't before that it is a most serious thing and he realizes that his career is just hanging in the balance. He likes army life and I think he would like to continue on and from his own statement he would like to get into the regular army, and I would apply for your very great leniency in dealing with him for punishment and perhaps not interrupt a career that has been twice stopped, in Brockville and here.

THE SENTENCE HAVING BEEN RECORDED IT IS ANNOUNCED TO THE ACCUSED.

VI. Other Personal History and Appraisal

Cpl. Brown is a tall youth of clean and neat appearance, good physique and attractive personality. He has a deep, steady voice and a calm manner. He seems mature for his years and has a good sense of humor. He hopes to go o/s with his Unit, partly because of family traditions. His grandfather and two of his uncles were field officers with this regiment. If the opportunity for comissioned rank arose, he would be glad to serve anywhere however, and would prefer, after the Q.Y.R., a C.A.C. Unit.
He has a good record from High School days in respect to athletics and on school teams (rugby andbasketball).
He plays the piano and organ.

Suitable candidate for consideration for comission in C.I.C.

Camp Army Examiner

O.S.A.E. Brockville, Ont. 15 Mar 45

Brown was born in Toronto, 1.7.23. His father is sales manager of printing firm. Brown is eldest of 3. He completed grade XI at Western Tech. and Sr. Matric in RCAF Classes from Feb to Nov 1941.

Brown enlisted in R.C.A.F., 26.11-41 but was turned down for air crew, owing to vision after 6 mths in the force. Took discharge to join the family unit. (Q.Y.R.) and trained with the Q.Y.R. until it was disbanded. Since then he had spend 16 mths as A/I at #2 Inf Trng Bn C.I.C.

Brown has shown leadership in civilian summer jobs and in athletics. He was coach and captain in Sr rugby at West Tech. He has done well in some track events.

At O.S.A.W. he is below average in 4 out of 5 written tests including B.M.K., basic Maths and Gen Education. In platoon talks and group tasks he was definitely below average and displayed very little enthusiasm.

On the whole Brown has a dull personality and needs more enthusiasm and aggression. His long sojourn in Canada appears to have developped a slight "browned--off" attitude.

RECOMMENDATION: Doubtful, probably suitable for O.T.C. "DS"

2. The CM Board of Review has in the case of the a/m soldier made the following recommendation:

" Release on 28 Mar 1946".

3. You will note that the recommendation of the Board deals with the remission at a future date. In considering this case your attention is directed to paras 3 and 4 of the telegram above referred to. It is pointed out that the action to be taken by you as a Superior Military Authority is not immediate and therefore this soldier's conduct and other circumstances up to the date of the recommended remission should be taken into consideration by you prior to your acting upon the recommendation of the Board. It is therefore suggested that you should not sign the appropriate entry until the recommended date approaches.

Dear Mr Abbott:

Re: C-427765 Pte A J Brunet

You will excuse me if I bring again the case of this young man to your attention, but it is near four months he is in jail. I am of the opinion that he should be sent back home pretty soon to take care of his farm, cut some woods, etc.

I am willing to support the Government but I am still of the opinion something should be done pretty soon with those deserters and get the regulations smoother.

Yours very truly,

October 25, 1945

Honourable D.C. Abbott,
House of Commons,
OTTAWA, Ontario

Dear Mr. Abbott; re: Brunet A.J. Pte
C 427765

The above-named soldier was on absence without leave since early in January until his father, with his son's consent, reported him on September 18th when he was then sentenced to ten months' jail. I am of the opinion there may be some misunderstanding in this case. This young man might not have given full explanations about his case or, did he do something of which I am not informed? I have known Private Brunet since he was a baby and never thought him a bad character except for his deserting the army, but upon investigation since then, I have found out that he was working with his brother-in-law, on the farm, and also on his own farm and also on his own farm in the township of Cambridge.

Therefore, I would like a report on his case, and would very much want to have Private Brunet back on his farm as soon as possible, as there is no one to look after same.

Yours truly,

J.O. Gour, MP

"It is my duty at this stage to advise you as to your rights in the general conduct of your defence. The procedure to be followed depends entirely on the answers given to the formal questions which are about to be put to you. It is therefore important that you should understand and appreciate the effect of your answers to these questions. You do not need to give evidence on oath unless you wish to do so, but if you do give sworn evidence you are liable to be cross-examined by the Prosecutor and questioned by the Court."

"If you do not give evidence on oath you are entitled to make a statement giving your account of the subject of the charge against you. You will not be sworn and no question may be put to you by the Court or any person with respect to such statement. I must warn you, however, that evidence given on oath will carry more weight with the Court than a mere statement not on oath."

ST WITNESS) FOR DEFENCE)

The accused, C-427765 - Pte. Aime Joseph BRUNET, No. 9 District Depot, C.A., being duly sworn, states:

Well, we were just -- I was in the regiment. We went back to Vernon after we went -- passed four days at Vancouver, and then went to Vernon and there at first I was a batman and then I had no rifle for a while and after I quit the job that they gave me a rifle and after that, you see, that rifle was taken off for me because they gave me a machinegun. I had it only for about a week. I don't remember exactly. And after that we were put on draft overseas and they took off machinegun of uss because there was kind a revolver on there for conscription and later on they gave us a rifle and just one day or two day before I went on pass for our embarkation leave they all took off the rifle. That's all I could say on that, sir.

Well, you know, that has always been against my principle to go active or to go overseas to kill because in my own opinion it would be, you see, as I would have always see the fact of my victim in front of me. I have read a lot of book and I had formed my own opinion that war is so -- I mean, so mix up that we have the best thing just to defend our own country on our own soil, this I believe. I have done all my duty when I was in Canada. As long as they keep me in Canada I was ready to fight everywhere. And then, when they were called for overseas, well, I saw the Army Examiner and I told him all about this, that my conscience couldn't permit me to kill overseas so he gave me no satisfaction about that. So, I just went A. W. L. and when I was on leave I didn't went back. In a while I was helping my brother-in-law on his farm for a while, he needed very badly there. And, I bought a small farm not far from there and I start repair the building and I want to get that repaired before I went to come and be arrested, you see. Any time I was A.W.L. for Canada had been invaded or anything like that I would have tried to defend my country. Well, I can see maybe you can believe that. I don't want to say to my relatives that I am not go overseas and kill somebody. I read a lot of book and I read a book Cry Havoc, Lets Slip the Dog of War. I had read that book about five, six years ago and I read it again the in Army, after.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR:

Q. You were stationed at Vernon, were you?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And you were given embarkation leave?

A. Yes. Well, we all went to embarkation leave, all the regiment.

Q. You were warned for draft first?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And at the end of your embarkation leave you were to report to Toronto?

A. Well, you see, I was supposed to report in Montreal but on the train I ask to stop at Sudbury because I know my brother was there and I want to see him. Maybes that's why it changed it to Toronto.

Q. You were in the Midland Regiment?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And you were to report at Toronto, Ontario, at 1200 hours on the 4th of January, 1945?

A. It was supposed to be for Montreal. Sudbury was supposed to reported at Toronto.

Q. Those getting off at Sudbury were supposed to report at Toronto, therefore you were supposed to report at Toronto?

A. My pass was for Casselman.

Q. But you got off at Sudbury?

A. I have my pass here.

Q. Isn't that correct, Pte. Brunet? You know the situation, don't you?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And you were to report by 1200 hours on the 4th of January, 1945?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And you didn't report?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. You didn't report, did you?

A. No, sir.

Q. And you stayed absent without leave until you were apprehended by the civil authorities at Casselman Ontario?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And that was at 1545 hours on the 19th of September, 1945, and you were dressed in civlian clothes; is that right?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And you say you were issued with a rifle and bayonet and scabbard and pullthrough and oil bottle, weren't you?

A. Not when I went on leave.

Q. You were issued with them?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And don't troops reporting to another unit, proceeding on leave, take all their equipment with them? Didn't the others take their rifles with them?

A. No, sir.

Q. How many were on the train?

A. All the regiment.

Q. And nobody had their rifles?

A. No, sir.

Q. Where were their rifles?

A. The Q.M. had taken them. They were put in box and sent, I suppose, by freight. I don't know.

Q. And you say you turned in your rifle before you went on your embarkation leave?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And to whom did you turn it in to?

A. The Q.M. stores, a Sergeant-Major.

Q. Did they have your 800? Did you see whether the Quartermaster took the rifle off your 800?

A. I don't know.

Q. You didn't have any intention of coming back to the Army, did you?

A. Well, I was worrying that I would be apprehended.

Q. You were worried that you might be caught but if you were not caught you would not have returned?

A. I would have later on, sure.

Q. You are under oath. You have read lots of books. You wouldn't have come back if you weren't caught?

A. I would have come back .

Q. When Canada was invaded?

A. If Canada was invaded, sure.

Q. But you weren't going to come back if it wasn't invaded?

A. Not to go overseas. I don't see what is the use if I don't want to go overseas to kill.

Q. Did you have any intention of coming back to the Army at all?

A. Well, really, I had no real intention but I was about sure I would be caught.

16

Q. You bought yourself a farm while you were absent?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. You didn't intend to return?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. You didn't intend to return to the Army, did you?

A. Well, you know, I was expecting to go after --

Q. You were expecting to be caught; isn't that the truth?

BY THE COURT: Let him finish his answer.

BY THE PROSECUTOR: All right.

Q. Repeat your answer? What were you going to tell me? If I stop you in the middle of an answer you go ahead and finish your answer?

A. Well, I wanted to come here to work in Ottawa and I was sure I was going to be caught but really my principle was that I couldn't go because it look as if I want to just, to get through after that, you see, and I didn't want to show that, I didn't want to look like a coward who had just went to escape to be killed and then when it was all over come and be out. I knew I was going to be caught coming in Ottawa and I was ready to come here. I was sure I would be taken in about fifteen days. I was going to get a job from Selective Service.

Q. You told me you bought a farm?

A. Yes. On farm in winter we have spare time in winter.

Q. That's not what most of the boys tell me here. You have work on the farm in the winter?

A. Not just now because I have no livestock there and I was just going to buy them in the spring.

---The Defending Officer declines to re-examine.

QUESTIONED BY THE COURT:

Q. Did you make known your feelings to military authorities when you were called up for service?

A. Well, not at first but later on I told - when they asked me to sign active - I told them why I didn't sign. I told them at Vernon when I was in the Regiment de Hull there.

Q. You didn't object when you were called up?

A. No; because we were called under the Act for home defence, for the country.

Q. Parliament said that we would call you up for home defence?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And you agreed in that?

A. I was ready to fight. [redacted]

Q. You were ready to fight for the safety of Canada?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Parliament asked you to do it and you agreed and went in the Army?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And you say the reason you went absent when you were to go overseas was that you could not fight anybody overseas; is that right?

A. Well, yes; I couldn't go and kill anybody in another country.

Q. If they invaded Canada you could kill them?

A. Yes.

Q. I just can't see your distinction in your conscience between killing a man in Canada or killing a man outside of Canada?

A. Then I am sure I won't to do some harm to my country.

Q. Do you feel that when there is a threat to your country that you should remain on the shores of your own land and wait until the invader comes to you?

A. Well, if it is very clear, of course, that he is ready to come, invade your country, if we know for sure, well, --

Q. Then, you don't agree to going outside the country to defend it?

A. Yes.

Q. You feel then that there was no danger to Canada in this war?

A. Well, there was no real danger. I never believe they would come and attack Canada, except if they were provoked, you see. If he could show something and make damage, if they come down balloons or bombs.

A. Did you read about the Jap balloon bombs coming over Canada?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you believe that?

A. Yes; I believe.

Q. Don't you think that was a real threat?

A. Yes; that was a threat to make some damage but I never thought they were --

Q. Didn't it indicate to you that they were probably sincere, that if they could get this far they would attack Canada?

A. If they --

13

Q. If they had enough success in their conquest of other lands the fact that they were trying to drop bombs on Canada, didn't it indicate to you they might come to Canada?

A. For the Japs I believe -- I wasn't so sure as for Germany. Maybe the Japs might come if they got very big.

Q. Sure, if they defeated the people outside of Canada they would come to Canada?

A. I knew the United States was there. I don't think very mich that they might have come.

Q. You don't. And that's why you didn't go overseas. If you had felt that they might have come you would have gone overseas?

A. Yes; if I had been sure they would come to Canada I would have gone to get them in their own country; not fight them in another country, keep them in their borders.

Q. You were ready to obey the government when they called you up for duty in Canada?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. But you weren't ready to obey them when they were going to send you overseas?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. You thought they were wrong?

A. Yes; I thought they were wrong.

Q. And you took the law into your own hands?

A. Well, I didn't like it very well. At first I was going to go overseas, then I thought it would be no use for me to go there and refuse to kill after. If they had transferred me in the Medical Corps, just to save life I would have been ready for it.

Q. Did you ask for that?

A. Yes; I ask a few times to go in the Medical Corps.

12

QUESTIONED BY THE PROSECUTOR THROUGH THE COURT:

Q. What religon are you, Brunet?

A. Roman Catholic.

Q. And it is not against your religion to go overseas?

A. No, sir.

---The witness resumes his seat.

---The Prosecutor does not desire to make a closing address.

---The Defending Officer does not desire to make a closing address.

Proceedings on Conviction before Sentence

After the Court has arrived at a Finding on all the charges against the accused and such Finding has been announced to the accused, the Prosecutor will tender to the President M.F.B. 355, together ,when it is possible, with an M.F.M. 6.

---The Prosecutor presents to the Court M.F.B.355 and M.F.M.6.

--These documents are read to the Court by the President, are marked "Y" and "Z", signed by the President and annexed to the proceedings.

Question to the accused. Have you any statement to make concerning the documents which have just been read to you?

Answer. No, sir.

Question to the accused. Do you wish to address the Court?

Answer. Yes, sir; through my Defending Officer.

BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER: The accused has been found guilty of desertion. Pte. Brunet is quite willing to assist in defending his own country in the event of an attack by enemy forces but to proceed overseas and join our forces to combat the enemy on his own soil, this he felt he could not do because his conscience would have bothered him. Had he been thrown into action and taken a human life would have meant the end of any peaceful existence for him. Previous to going absent he was interviewed by an Army Examiner to whom he explained his case but apparently he was not given any satisfaction. As a result of that Pte. Brunet decided to go absent. During the time he was away he purchased a farm from money he had saved before enlisting in the Army. Also, before going absent, he had requested two exemptions from the service to help out on the farm owned by his brother-in-law. The first request was submitted to higher authority but not granted. The second was not considered by Pacific Command because they did not think that they would consider such exemptions at the time. Prior to enlisting Pte. Brunet was employed as a painter, carpenter and also performed clerical work. He has only had one other charge against him during his 34 months of service, for which he was given C.B. In view of the above I would ask the Court to show leniency when passing sentence on the accused.

The Sentence is then recorded on Page "A' of the proceedings and same is announced to the accused in open Court.

The President then completes and signs the "Warrant of Commitment", if any, which shall be transmitted forthwith to the Commanding Officer of the accused. He will also complete and sign in every case, the "Certificate of trial by Standing Court-Martial", and address same as directed by the regulations. The proceedings, with all documents, will be transmitted to the Judge Advocate General.

10

Question à l'accusé.

Désirez-vous demander un ajournement, sous prétexte que l'une quelconque des règles de la procédure antérieure au procès n'aurait pas été observée, vous causant ainsi préjudice, ou que vous n'auriez pas eu assez de temps pour la préparation de votre défense ?

" LE PROCUREUR REMET AU PRESIDENT

LES DOCUMENTS SUIVANTS SE RAPPORTANT A L'ACCUSE"

1.- Une formule M.F.B. 375, en date du 30 avril, 1945, se rapportant à l'accusé.

(Ce document est lu par la Cour, marqué "G", signé par le Président et versé au dossier.)

2.- Une formule M.F.M. 216, en date du 13 septembre, 1945, se rapportant à l'accusé.

(Ce document est lu par la Cour, marqué "H", signé par le Président et versé au dossier.)

3.- Une formule M.F.B. 1481, en date du 14 septembre, 1945, se rapportant à l'accusé.

(Ce document est lu par la Cour, marqué "I", signé par le Président et versé au dossier.)

4.- Une formule M.F.B. 1481, en date du 17 septembre, 1945, se rapportant à l'accusé.

(Ce document est lu par la Cour, marqué "J", signé par le Président et versé au dossier.)

5.- Une formule M.F.B. 1482, en date du 17 septembre, 1945, se rapportant à l'accusé.

(Ce document est lu par la Cour, marqué "K", signé par le Président et versé au dossier.)

-o-o-o-o-o-o-o-o-o-o-

Le procureur n'a pas de témoins à appeler.
La poursuite est close.

Motion de non-lieu

Il est loisible à l'accusé, à son avocat ou à l'officier défenseur, après l'audition de la preuve de la poursuite, d'alléguer que celle-ci n'a pas réussi à établir une présomption légale contre l'accusé et que ce dernier ne devrait pas, par conséquent, être contraint de présenter sa défense. Dans le cas d'une telle motion, le procès verbal sera consigné sur des feuilles séparées qui seront insérées immédiatement avant la présente page D. Si la cour estime que cette allégation est bien fondée, elle doit acquitter l'accusé et consigner son verdict à la page A.

Défense

Le président s'adresse à l'accusé en ces termes:

"Il est de mon devoir en cette circonstance de vous aviser de vos droits touchant la conduite générale de votre défense. La procédure à suivre dépend entièrement des réponses que vous ferez aux questions de forme que nous allons vous poser. Il importe donc que vous compreniez et saisissiez l'effet de vos réponses. Vous n'aurez pas à témoigner sous serment à moins que vous ne le vouliez. Mais, si vous faites des dépositions assermentées, vous serez sujet à l'interrogatoire contradictoire par les soins du procureur et à l'interrogatoire par les soins de la cour."

"Si vous ne faites pas de déposition sous serment, vous avez le droit de faire une déclaration où vous donnerez votre version de l'affaire. Vous ne serez pas assermenté et vous ne serez pas interrogé sur ce que vous dites, par la cour ou par quelque autre personne. Je dois cependant vous prévenir qu'une déposition faite sous serment aura plus de poids aux yeux de la cour qu'une simple déclaration non assermentée."

S'il n'y a pas d'officier défenseur, le président explique alors à l'accusé l'effet que ses réponses aux questions de forme de la page D du procès verbal auront sur l'ordre des dernières plaidoiries, prévu dans les Règles de procédure 40 et 41.

Question à l'accusé. Désirez-vous comparaître, vous-même, comme témoin, ou bien désirez-vous faire une déclaration non assermentée.

Réponse: Oui, monsieur, sous serment. (voir page D-3 et suivantes)

Question à l'accusé. Avez-vous l'intention de citer des témoins pour votre défense?

Réponse: Non, monsieur.

~~Question à l'accusé.~~ ~~Entendez-vous uniquement un témoin à l'appui de votre réputation?~~

~~Réponse:~~

TEMOIN POUR LA DEFENSE:-

L'accusé:- Mat. E-610552- Soldat Johnny BRETON, Liste Générale, A.C., attaché au Dépôt Régional No. 5, A.C.

étant dûment assermenté,

EST INTERROGE PAR L'OFFICIER DEFENSEUR:-

Q.- Depuis quand êtes-vous dans l'armée?
R.- Le 28 août 1941.

Q.- Où avez-vous été stationné la plupart du temps?
R.- A Valcartier.

Q.- Quel était votre ouvrage à Valcartier?
R.- Chauffeur de camion.

Q.- Avez-vous toujours fait cela?
R.- Non, monsieur, j'ai travaillé dans la cuisine, travaillé sur les camions.

Q.- Voulez-vous dire à la Cour pourquoi vous vous êtes absenté?
R.- Je me suis absenté par rapport qu'ils ont refusé de me soigner, premièrement; deuxièmement par rapport que mon père est âgé, il avait besoin de moi pour travailler sur la terre.

Q.- Vous dites qu'ils ont refusé de vous soigner? voulez-vous raconter à la Cour comment ça?
R.- Par rapport que l'armée a dit que c'était une opération qui ne se faisait pas dans l'armée, trop grave pour se faire dans l'armée. J'ai été à l'hôpital de Valcartier trente-deux jours pour cela; j'ai été transféré à l'Enfant-Jésus, l'armée a refusé l'autorisation de m'opérer.

Q.- Avez-vous été longtemps à l'Hôpital de l'Enfant-Jésus?
R.- Quarante jours.

Q.- Quel était votre pulhem quand vous êtes sorti de l'Enfant-Jésus?
R.- Quand j'ai sorti mon pulhem était P-5, ils m'ont descendu à P-3, il y en a qui ont marqué P-5 et un autre P-3.

Q.- Avez-vous demandé l'autorité de l'armée pour être opéré?
R.- J'ai pas demandé parce-qu'ils m'ont envoyé à l'hôpital pour cela pour me faire opérer, j'étais accepté, l'armée a refusé. Le médecin de l'hôpital a demandé l'autorisation et l'armée a refusé.

21

Q.- Savez-vous pourquoi l'armée a refusé?
R.- Ils ont dit que c'était trop grave, que c'était un cas que je pouvais mourir.

Q.- Êtes-vous encore malade?
R.- C'est la même maladie, j'ai mal à la tête quand même.

Q.- Avez-vous été soigné?
R.- Je me suis soigné moi-même, j'ai pris des pastilles.

Q.- Qui vous disait que ces pastilles étaient bonnes?
R.- C'est moi-même parce que ça me faisait un peu de bien.

Q.- Etes-vous fils de cultivateur?
R.- Oui, monsieur.

Q.- Avez-vous demandé une exemption comme fils de cultivateur?
R.- Oui, monsieur.

Q.- Plusieurs?
R.- Trois, je les ai eu toutes les trois.

Q.- Est-ce que vous en avez demandé d'autres?
R.- Oui, monsieur.

Q.- Est-ce que vous l'avez obtenue?
R.- Non, monsieur.

Q.- Savez-vous pourquoi?
R.- Je ne sais pas pourquoi.

Q.- Quelles étaient vos intentions au sujet du service militaire quand vous êtes parti du camp?
R.- Travailler sur la terre jusqu'à l'automne, quand les labours auraient été finis je me serais rapporté.

INTERROGE CONTRADICTOIREMENT PAR LE PROCUREUR:

Q.- Soldat Breton, est-ce que c'est parce-que vous étiez malade ou c'est pour travailler sur la terre que vous êtes parti?
R.- C'était pour travailler sur la terre, venir en aide à mon père.

Q.- C'est pour cela que vous êtes parti? 20
R.- Oui, monsieur.

Q.- Quand vous avez demandé votre dernière exemption?
R.- Au mois de novembre.

Q.- En 1943?
R.- En 1944.

Q.- Quand avez-vous eu une réponse?
R.- A peu près quinze jours après.

Q.- Vous n'avez pas fait d'autre demande?
R.- Ils ont dit de me rapporter à mon unité au dépôt, à Lauzon.

Q.- On dit que vous avez été absent du 31 mars au 13 septembre 1945, est-ce exact?
R.- Oui, monsieur.

L'OFFICIER DEFENSEUR NE DESIRE PAS INTERROGER DE NOUVEAU.

De l'avis de la Cour il n'est pas nécessaire de se conformer à la Règle de Procédure 83(b).

Procédure sur un aveu de culpabilité

L'accusé s'étant avoué coupable au deuxième chef d'accusation, il est déclaré coupable de ladite accusation.

(On demandera au procureur s'il a une déclaration à faire touchant toutes les circonstances relatives à l'infraction.)

LE PROCUREUR:- " Si l'accusé avait plaidé non coupable au deuxième chef d'accusation, j'aurais établi au moyen de la formule 375 et du témoignage du quartier-maître que le 21 septembre, 1945, l'accusé a été trouvé déficient d'articles pour un montant de $14.91".

Question à l'accusé. Avez-vous quelque déclaration à faire relativement à l'accusation dont vous vous êtes avoué coupable ?

Réponse: Non, monsieur.

(La déclaration de l'accusé doit être consignée sur une feuille séparée.)

Question à l'accusé. Désirez-vous faire quelque déclaration par voie d'atténuation de peine ?

Réponse: Non, monsieur.

(La déclaration de l'accusé doit être consignée sur une feuille séparée.)

Question à l'accusé. Désirez-vous rendre témoignage vous-même quant à votre réputation ?

Réponse: Non, monsieur.

Question à l'accusé. Désirez-vous appeler des témoins quant à votre réputation ?

Réponse: Non, monsieur.

Règle de procédure 37 (d). Si, d'après la déclaration de l'accusé ou d'après le sommaire ou l'abrégé de la preuve, ou autrement, la cour en vient à la conclusion que l'accusé n'a pas compris les conséquences de son "aveu de culpabilité", la cour devra modifier le dossier et enregistrer une "dénégation de culpabilité" et instruire le procès en conséquence.

Pour les variantes, voir page 747 du M.D.M.

E

Procédure sur déclaration de culpabilité précédant la sentence

Quand la cour en est arrivée à une décision relativement à tous les chefs d'accusation contre l'accusé et que ladite décision a été annoncée à ce dernier, le procureur remet au président le modèle M.F.B. 355 et, si possible, un modèle M.F.M. 6.

Ces documents sont lus à la cour par le président, marqués "Y" et "Z", signés par le président et versés au dossier.

Question à l'accusé. Avez-vous quelque déclaration à faire relativement aux documents dont on vient de vous donner lecture ?

Réponse: Non, monsieur.

Question à l'accusé. Désirez-vous adresser la parole à la cour ?

Réponse: (l'accusé par son Officier-Défenseur, dit:)

" J'ai des lettres ici à produire. J'ai ici une lettre de l'agronome et une lettre du maire".

(Ces documents sont lus par la Cour, marqués respectivement "L" et "M", signés par le Président et versés au dossier.)

La sentence est alors consignée à la page "A" du procès verbal et elle est annoncée à l'accusé en plein tribunal.

Le président établit alors et signe le mandat d'incarcération, le cas échéant, et celui-ci est immédiatement transmis au commandant de l'accusé. Dans chaque cas, il établit aussi et signe le certificat de procès devant une cour martiale permanente et le transmet en conformité des règlements. Le procès verbal ainsi que tous les documents seront transmis au juge-avocat général.

DECLARATION DE L'ACCUSE EN ATTENUATION DE PEINE

Monsieur le président,

Quand j'ai parti A.W.L., mon père est décédé. Ma mère a 45 ans. J'ai deux p'tits frères, un qui a dix ans et l'autre en a huit. Je suis le seul soutien de la famille chez nous.

Avant de partir, j'ai contracté $300.00 de dettes avant Les Fêtes, et je suis parti pour aller payer ça, parce que la pension de ma mère ne suffisait pas. J'ai demandé une exemption mais ils m'ont refusé; j'avais demandé l'exemption pour aller chez nous aider ma mère.

Avant d'entrer dans l'armée, je travaillais à la Compagnie de Tramways comme "fitter".

E

Procédure sur déclaration de culpabilité précédant la sentence

Quand la cour en est arrivée à une décision relativement à tous les chefs d'accusation contre l'accusé et que ladite décision a été annoncée à ce dernier, le procureur remet au président le modèle M.F.B. 355 et, si possible, un modèle M.F.M. 6.

Ces documents sont lus à la cour par le président, marqués "Y" et "Z", signés par le président et versés au dossier.

Question à l'accusé. Avez-vous quelque déclaration à faire relativement aux documents dont on vient de vous donner lecture ?

Réponse: Quand j'ai dit: "Viens pas me baver", c'est un patois que j'avais et j'ai dit ça. On disait toujours ça.

Question à l'accusé. Désirez-vous adresser la parole à la cour ?

Réponse: Oui, monsieur, par l'entremise de mon officier défenseur.

La sentence est alors consignée à la page "A" du procès verbal et elle est annoncée à l'accusé en plein tribunal.

Le président établit alors et signe le mandat d'incarcération, le cas échéant, et celui-ci est immédiatement transmis au commandant de l'accusé. Dans chaque cas, il établit aussi et signe le certificat de procès devant une cour martiale permanente et le transmet en conformité des règlements. Le procès verbal ainsi que tous les documents seront transmis au juge-avocat général.

PLAIDOYER DE L'OFFICIER DEFENSEUR AU NOM DE L'ACCUSE

Monsieur le président,

Le père de l'accusé est mort et la mère se trouvait avec les deux petits frères de l'accusé, qui n'étaient pas en état de travailler ni l'un ni l'autre, à cause de leur jeune âge.

Quoique sa mère soit jeune un peu --à 45 ans on est encore jeune-- elle ne pouvait pas aller travailler parce qu'il lui fallait tenir sa maison et avoir soin des enfants.

Ce qui est arrivé, c'est que l'accusé a contracté une dette pour la famille de $300.00, et avec le salaire de l'armée, il ne pouvait pas arriver à payer sa dette. Il a demandé une exemption pour aller aider chez lui mais on ne le lui a pas accordée.

Durant son congé, il a travaillé dans la construction à 75 cents de l'heure, ce qui représente un salaire assez élevé par semaine, parce que si vous travaillez à 75 cents de l'heure pendant 48 heures, et après les 8 heures par jour vous gagnez temps et demi, ça représente un bon $50.00 par semaine.

Alors, l'accusé a payé sa dette, mais il en a contracté une autre parce que la famille était encore dans le trou.

Cher monsieur Fauteux,

Je viens faire suite à ma lettre du 5 novembre 1945 au sujet du soldat A. Bouvier, matricule D-643004.

On m'informe que la sentence imposée au soldat Bouvier a été revisée le 5 novembre 1945. Vu les infractions dont il avait déjà été trouvé coupable, on n'a pas jugé devoir lui accorder une remise de peine avant qu'il ait purgé la moitié de sa sentence, c'est-à-dire avant le 10 février 1946.

Bien sincèrement,

L'honorable Gaspard Fauteux,
Président de la Chambre des Communes,

DECLARATION DE L'ACCUSE EN ATTENUATION DE PEINE.

C'est parce que je souffrais d'une hernie. Ils m'ont donné une bande herniaire pour supporter. J'avais déjà eu une cour martiale au dépôt de Lauzon. Ma cour martiale m'a jugé comme quoi j'étais pas "fit" pour faire de la détention. La cour martiale a reviré. J'ai été paradé devant le colonel. Ils m'ont donné seulement une "job" légère comme quoi j'étais pas fit pour faire de la détention. Le médecin ici m'a dit que c'était un cas de "discharge". Il m'a demandé si je voulais accepter une opération. J'ai pas accepté. C'est pas parce que j'aimais pas l'armée; mais qu'on me donne un support pour supporter mon hernie, je prendrai ma punition. Comme c'est là quand même que je voudrais je suis pas capable de faire de la détention. Le médecin qui m'a examiné pour m'envoyer en cour martiale m'a dit que j'avais une hernie, il m'a dit que mon cas était pas assez grave pour prendre une opération, il m'a dit que dans une couple de mois...

Durant mon absence, je suis musicien, je jouais dans les clubs, c'est la seule manière que je peux gagner ma vie. J'ai appris le métier de barbier et j'ai appris la musique à part de çà.

Procédure sur déclaration de culpabilité précédant la sentence

Quand la cour en est arrivée à une décision relativement à tous les chefs d'accusation contre l'accusé et que ladite décision a été annoncée à ce dernier, le procureur remet au président le modèle M.F.B. 355 et, si possible, un modèle M.F.M. 6.

Ces documents sont lus à la cour par le président, marqués "Y" et "Z", signés par le président et versés au dossier.

Question à l'accusé. Avez-vous quelque déclaration à faire relativement aux documents dont on vient de vous donner lecture ?

Réponse: Non, monsieur.

Question à l'accusé. Désirez-vous adresser la parole à la cour ?

Réponse: Oui, monsieur, par l'entremise de mon officier défenseur.

L'OFFICIER DEFENSEUR S'ADRESSE A LA COUR:

Monsieur le Président,

J'ai pas grand'chose à dire. La seule chose, l'accusé aujourd'hui est obligé de porter une bande herniaire qui lui fait mal, qui n'est pas appropriée à lui. Il demanderait à en avoir une autre. Ensuite de çà, c'est parce qu'il est pas capable de faire l'ouvrage général de l'armée qui n'est pas trop dur, mais assez dur.

12

La sentence est alors consignée à la page "A" du procès verbal et elle est annoncée à l'accusé en plein tribunal.

Le président établit alors et signe le mandat d'incarcération, le cas échéant, et celui-ci est immédiatement transmis au commandant de l'accusé. Dans chaque cas, il établit aussi et signe le certificat de procès devant une cour martiale permanente et le transmet en conformité des règlements. Le procès verbal ainsi que tous les documents seront transmis au juge-avocat général.

Question

By the Prosecutor: Sir, there are three documents which I am submitting as evidence in this case, and under the authority mentioned in Routine Order 5126 I am producing these documents; namely, M.F.B. 375, M.F.M. 215, and M.F.B. 1481, all of which relate to the accused.

Motion – No Case

It is open to the accused, his Counsel or Defending Officer at the close of the case for the prosecution to submit that the evidence given for the prosecution has not established a prima facie case against him, and that he should not therefore be called upon for his defence. If such Motion is made, the proceedings will be recorded on separate pages which will be inserted immediately before the present page D. If the Court is satisfied that the Motion is well founded, it must acquit the accused and register its Finding on Page A.

Defence

The President will now address the acused as follows:—

"It is my duty at this stage to advise you as to your rights in the general conduct of your defence. The procedure to be followed depends entirely on the answers given to the formal questions which are about to be put to you. It is therefore important that you should understand and appreciate the effect of your answers to these questions. You do not need to give evidence on oath unless you wish to do so, but if you do give sworn evidence you are liable to be cross-examined by the Prosecutor and questioned by the Court."

"If you do not give evidence on oath you are entitled to make a statement giving your account of the subject of the charge against you. You will not be sworn and no question may be put to you by the Court or any person with respect to such statement. I must warn you, however, that evidence given on oath will carry more weight with the Court than a mere statement not on oath."

If there is no Defending Officer the President should then explain to the accused the effect which his answer to the formal questions on Page D of the proceedings will have on the order of the Closing Addresses as provided in R.P. 40 and 41.

Question to the accused. Do you apply to give evidence yourself as a witness, or do you wish to make an unsworn statement?

Answer. By Defending Officer: I would like the accused placed under oath, Sir, to make a statement to the Court.

Question to the accused. Do you intend to call any witness in your defence?

Answer. By the Defending Officer: No, Sir.

Question to the accused. Is the witness to be called a witness as to character only?

Answer.

First Witness for the Defence: } No. H-510007 Private Leon BONNETEAU, No. 10 District Depot, C.A., having been first duly sworn, is examined by the Defending Officer:

Q Where do you live, Bonneteau?

A On a farm, Sir.

Q How big is the farm?

A Eighty acres.

Q Who is living on the farm?

A There is no one in the meantime. I was called into the Army.

Q When you were called into the Army who was with you on the farm?

A I was with my Mother and sister, Sir.

Q Have you any brothers?

A Yes, I have a brother Overseas since the beginning of the War.

Q And what kind of a condition did that leave the farm when you were called up?

A I was on the farm with my Mother, alone there.

Q And when you were called up were you able to get Dependents Allowance for your Mother?

A No, Sir. Applications were made and I never had any Dependents Allowance for my Mother. I made applications at different places where I was in the Army, Sir.

Q Up until this time she hasn't received any Dependents Allowance?

A Not yet, Sir; she hasn't received anything on it.

Q And you decided then to ask for a discharge, did you not?

A Yes, Sir. I made application for farm leave first, and after that application they turned me out on six months' farm leave from August, 1944, and I was granted an extension of two months.

Q And this time that you were granted farm leave were you able to plant a crop?

A No, Sir; it was in the Fall. All I could do was to make up the feed for the winter on the farm.

Q So you applied for an extension and was granted two months' extension of your farm leave?

A Yes, this Spring, Sir.

Q Was your work finished up then?

A Pardon, Sir.

Q What did you have to do when your extension was up?

A I was on the farm with my extension -- I was with my Mother, Sir.

Q Did you apply for another extension?

A Yes, Sir, I made application but never had a reply yet.

Q So you remained on the farm?

A Yes, Sir, I remained on the farm until I was able to fix up my Mother before I could come back.

Q What did you do with your Mother then?

A My Mother moved in town -- she lived in town.

Q Where was your sister at this time?

A She is married, Sir.

Q Is your Mother well?

A No, Sir, she is not -- it is in my documents, I can show you proof of it.

Q What were you doing when the Mounties picked you up?

A I was coming home with a load of wood with me, Sir.

Q Were you in Civilian clothes?

A Yes, Sir.

Q Why were you in Civilian clothes?

A Because I had turned in all my equipments in the Quartermaster Stores, Sir, before I went on my farm leave.

Cross-examined by the Prosecutor:

Q During the past winter you were at home on your compassionate leave, were you?

A I was home on farm leave, Sir.

Q And you had that extension up until the 20th April, 1945, did you?

A Yes, Sir.

Q You were due to report back to No. 10 District Depot by the 20th April, 1945, were you?

A On the 20th April I came to No. 10 District Depot for an extension.

Q You had reported in to No. 10 District Depot on that day?

A Yes, on the 20th April.

Q You didn't report by one o'clock on that day?

A No, Sir, I came in at noon, just about after dinner.

Q Who did you see then?

A Lieutenant Argue.

Q And how long did you stay here?

A I was here about an hour and a half.

Q Then where did you go?

A I went back home on a three days' leave.

Q Not after the 20th April on a three days' pass? You mean from the 17th April you had three days' leave, do you not, not after the 20th April?

A Yes, Sir.

Q You had leave up to the 23rd April from the 20th April?

A Yes, Sir.

Q So you got leave up until the 23rd April, did you? Is that right?

A That is right, Sir.

Q And what Unit were you to report back to?

A No. 10 District Depot, Sir.

Q When?

A On the 23rd April at 0700 hours.

Q At 0700 hours on the 23rd April, 1945?

A Yes, Sir.

Q You haven't got any pass now in your pocket?

A No, Sir.

Q Did you have one?

A Yes, Sir. I forgot to put it in my papers and bring it back.

Q You say the pass is still at your home?

A Yes, Sir.

Q And you didn't come back to Fort Osborne or No. 10 District Depot on the 23rd April, did you?

A No, Sir.

Q What did you do -- stay at home after that?

A I sprained my foot.

Q You didn't go to the Hospital, did you?

A No, Sir; it just lasted about a week and a half.

Q You didn't see any Doctor or let them know at No. 10 District Depot about your foot, did you?

A Yes, Sir. The Doctor gave me a telegram and signed it himself and gave it to me to send myself.

Q And how was the telegram addressed? Addressed to what Officer?

A To the O.C., No. 10 District Depot, Winnipeg.

Q What date did you send that?

A I couldn't say, Sir.

Q Perhaps it was before the 20th April, was it?

A It was 23rd April.

Q After the 23rd April?

A Yes, Sir.

Q What day did you sprain your foot?

A The same night I came in the City.

Q But that was after the 23rd April?

A When I came here on the 20th April to No. 10 District Depot, and when I came back on the farm I went to get a load of feed and it turned upside down and hurt my foot.

Q Your foot didn't hurt you so badly as to make you go to the Hospital, did it?

A It was swollen -- I couldn't walk.

Q You could have been brought into Winnipeg or Fort Osborne?

A There was no transportation in the meantime, Sir.

Q When you came in on the 20th April how did you travel?

A I come up with the horses uptown, and from town I had a ride with my brother-in-law.

Q Where does your brother-in-law live?

A He lives in Haywood.

Q Right near your farm?

A No, Sir.

Q How far away?

A He is working every place -- his wife lives in Haywood.

Q He has an automobile, has he?

A He had at that time.

Q So you could have travelled in with him again, couldn't you?

A I couldn't say, Sir.

Q Who owns that small farm, your or your Mother?

A It is my own, Sir.

Q What size is it; eighty acres, is it?

A Right, Sir.

Q How many acres ~~ix~~ are under cultivation?

A It has been pretty well all in Broom grass the last six years and there is Broom grass on it now; and four horses.

Q There are four horses on the farm?

A Yes, Sir.

Q Any cattle?

A No, Sir.

Q Any pigs?

A No, Sir.

Q So your Mother could have lived on the farm -- she wouldn't have had much to do?

A The farm had to be built -- she couldn't live on it -- she lives right in town; I had to move the house to town. I was going to fix it up -- it was just a small house.

Q But in April this year the house was still on the farm, was it?

A Yes, Sir.

Q And had your Mother been living in it for several years?

A No, Sir.

Q How long had she lived in it?

A About three months. After I got in the Army she went in town and stayed in town.

Q When did you get these four horses?

A I had them before I was called up for the Army.

Q And who looked after them while you were serving in the Army?

A They were outside all the time, Sir.

Q So they could have stayed outside for another year, couldn't they?

A Yes, Sir.

Q When were you called up for the Army?

A 9th October, 1940, for one month.

Q And then when did you get in to stay in the Army?

A 1941.

Q What month, the end of October, was it?

A 29th October, 1941.

Q You have been in the Army ever since then, have you?

A Yes, Sir.

Q You said you reported to No. 10 District Depot at Winnipeg on the 20th April? You didn't come in to Fort Osborne after that until just a few days ago, is that right?

A Until I was picked up by the Mounties, Sir.

Q And you didn't report to any other unit in the Canadian Army before that date?

A No, Sir.

Q So the Mounted Police picked you up on the 26th September, 1945; is that right?

A Yes, Sir.

Q Was it about 1445 hours?

A Yes, Sir.

Q And it was where?

A At Haywood, Manitoba.

Q And you were dressed in Civilian clothes?

A Right, Sir.

Q But you had turned your Military uniform in when you went on farm leave?

A All of my equipments was turned in to the Quartermaster Stores before I went on farm leave, Sir.

Q How were you brought to Fort Osborne from Haywood?

A Up to Carman by the Mounties, and then to Fort Osborne by the Provosts.

Q When did you move the house you had on this farm?

A On the 25th September, 1945.

Q How far is that farm away from the town of Haywood?

A Five and a half miles, Sir.

Q Did the Police visit that farm, looking for you?

A I couldn't say -- I don't think so; I have always been around there.

Q How was it they found you just one day after you moved the house?

A Well Sir, before I was picked up I had been talking to them.

Q How long before?

A I couldn't say the date, Sir.

Q Had they been around to your farm?

A Yes, Sir, they were around, but they never stopped at the farm.

Q And you say your Mother is not well?

A No; my Mother is in bad health and she couldn't live there on the farm, and she is old.

Q Did you intend to live with her in Haywood after you moved this house?

A Yes, Sir; I always did.

Re-examined by the Defending Officer:

Q What were your intentions after you had moved your Mother into town?

A I was getting the crop on the farm and coming back to the Army.

Questioned by the Court:

Q How many farm leaves did you have, Bonneteau?

A Just one, Sir, six months and extension for two months.

Q And that commenced in September, 1944?

A Yes, Sir; 23rd August, 1944.

Q For six months?

A For six months.

Q And you had this extention, which expired on the 20th April, 1945?

A Right, Sir.

Q And you say you came in and saw Mr. Argue and got three days' pass?

A I went to apply for extension on my leave, Sir, and he gave me three days.

Q He gave you three days, did he?

A Not quite three days, Sir. The third day I was to be here at seven o'clock in the morning.

Q At 0700 hours?

A Yes, Sir.

Q Were you notified later on that your extension would not be granted, that your application for an extension would not be granted?

A No, Sir.

Q Didn't you hear from Mr. Argue at all?

A No, Sir.

Q So you just stayed on until you were apprehended?

A Yes, Sir. I was trying to get my Mother ready for the winter, Sir; for the fuel.

DEFENDING OFFICER'S STATEMENT IN MITIGATION

Sir, I would like to point out that this man has very little in the way of this World's possessions, and naturally, like any man, he wants to keep them all together. The call-up was a real hardship for this man, Sir, and through it he has lost the development of his little farm, such as it is. He has had to sell his livestock that he had when he was called up, at sacrifice prices, in order to get them away, not being able to look after them, and all he has left is four horses and a lot of land that needs attention.

I would to ask, Sir, that you remember those things, and also the fact that he is the sole means of looking after his Mother; and also in view of those facts avoid discharge with ignominy because he would lose what little gratuity he would have coming to him.

DECLARATION DE L'ACCUSE EN ATTENUATION DE PEINE.

J'ai déserté de l'armée parce que mon père avait besoin de moi. Je suis le plus vieux de la famille. Mon père est pas capable de travailler, il est seul sur une terre pour le moment. Mon petit frère, le plus vieux après moi, a dix ans. Vu que j'avais demandé une exemption à Sherbrooke, ça été refusé. Quand j'ai vu ça j'ai déserté l'armée pour aller aider mon père. Il est pas capable de travailler, il a quarante-cinq ans. Il a eu un accident, il était malade à quatorze ans. Il est resté le dos courbé, il est plus capable de marcher. Après moi c'est seulement des filles qu'il y a pour aider. On a 160 arpents de terre. Jusqu'à présent je lui aidais. J'ai dix-neuf ans. Depuis l'âge de quatorze ans que je lui aide. Avant çà il faisait la malle à Granby. Il a toujours été cultivateur; seulement il avait seulement une petite terre, il avait des hommes pour lui aider. Dans ce temps-là il "runnait" la malle à Granby.

E

Procédure sur déclaration de culpabilité précédant la sentence

Quand la cour en est arrivée à une décision relativement à tous les chefs d'accusation contre l'accusé et que ladite décision a été annoncée à ce dernier, le procureur remet au président le modèle M.F.B. 355 et, si possible, un modèle M.F.M. 6.

Ces documents sont lus à la cour par le président, marqués "Y" et "Z", signés par le président et versés au dossier.

Question à l'accusé. Avez-vous quelque déclaration à faire relativement aux documents dont on vient de vous donner lecture ?

Réponse: Non, monsieur.

Question à l'accusé. Désirez-vous adresser la parole à la cour ?

Réponse: Oui, monsieur, par l'entremise de mon officier défenseur.

PAR L'OFFICIER DEFENSEUR:

Monsieur le Président,

L'accusé ici a déjà demandé une exemption pour aller travailler sur la terre aider son père parce que dans leur famille il y a neuf enfants. Lui-même est le plus vieux et il a seulement dix-neuf ans. Il y a trois enfants qui suivent après lui, trois filles. Les autres garçons sont très jeunes pour pouvoir aider à leur père. C'est dans ce cas-là pour pouvoir aller aider son père qui est malade et qui n'avait personne pour l'aider qu'il a parti et qu'il est pas revenu.

La sentence est alors consignée à la page "A" du procès verbal et elle est annoncée à l'accusé en plein tribunal.

Le président établit alors et signe le mandat d'incarcération, le cas échéant, et celui-ci est immédiatement transmis au commandant de l'accusé. Dans chaque cas, il établit aussi et signe le certificat de procès devant une cour martiale permanente et le transmet en conformité des règlements. Le procès verbal ainsi que tous les documents seront transmis au juge-avocat général.

Ma mère était malade. J'ai un certificat de médecin attestant la maladie de ma mère. Je désire produire les documents suivants à l'appui de ma déclaration:

a) Une lettre du Dr. Ernest, Rousseau, en date du 27 juillet 1945, attestant l'état de santé de ma mère.

b) Une lettre du Dr. P. LaHaye, du Cap de la Madeleine, en date du 27 juillet 1945, certifiant qu'il a soigné ma mère.

c) Une lettre du Curé Lupien de la paroisse Cap de la Madeleine, en date du 27 juillet, 1945.

d) Une lettre du maire de Cap de la Madeleine, Irené Rochefort, en date du 31 juillet 45.

Les documents précités sont lus, marqués pièces "F", "G", "H" et "I", respectivement, signés par le Président et versés au dossier.

Depuis que je suis entré dans l'armée que ma mère est malade; elle fait des crises cardiaques. Chaque fois que j'allais en passe et que je me préparais pour m'en retourner à mon unité, elle faisait des crises.

Mon père vit et travaille dans un moulin à papier à Trois-Rivières. Je j'ai pas de frères, je suis le seul garçon.

Procédure sur déclaration de culpabilité précédant la sentence

Quand la cour en est arrivée à une décision relativement à tous les chefs d'accusation contre l'accusé et que ladite décision a été annoncée à ce dernier, le procureur remet au président le modèle M.F.B. 355 et, si possible, un modèle M.F.M. 6.

Ces documents sont lus à la cour par le président, marqués "Y" et "Z", signés par le président et versés au dossier.

Question à l'accusé. Avez-vous quelque déclaration à faire relativement aux documents dont on vient de vous donner lecture ?

Réponse: Non, monsieur.

Question à l'accusé. Désirez-vous adresser la parole à la cour ?

Réponse: Oui, monsieur, par mon officier défenseur.

L'OFFICIER DEFENSEUR S'ADRESSE A LA COUR

M. le Président,

Je voudrais souligner dans quel état d'esprit était l'accusé quand il s'est absenté sans permission. Il était dans un milieu Anglais, ce qui ne le convenait pas très bien et il recevait des lettres de sa mère, qui souffrait de maladie cardiaque. Il n'a pas réalisé la gravité de sa faute et est parti surtout sous l'influence de sa mère. Pour ces raisons, je demanderais que la cour soit clémente envers l'accusé.

La sentence est alors consignée à la page "A" du procès verbal et elle est annoncée à l'accusé en plein tribunal.

Le président établit alors et signe le mandat d'incarcération, le cas échéant, et celui-ci est immédiatement transmis au commandant de l'accusé. Dans chaque cas, il établit aussi et signe le certificat de procès devant une cour martiale permanente et le transmet en conformité des règlements. Le procès verbal ainsi que tous les documents seront transmis au juge-avocat général.

Re: Mme Wilbrod Bellemare.

Ceci est pour certifier que cette Dame est sous mes soins depuis la fin de février 1943; c'est une cardiaque asthmatique et depuis l'appel de son fils pour le service militaire ses crises d'asthme sont devenues subintrantes au point que pendant quelque temps il lui fallait une injection par jour.

Il est évident que cette Dame a un fond asthmatique et que sa cardiopathie la rend sensible au moindre choc moral ou physique.

L'appel de son fils a certainement eu une influence sur son état, car à partir de cette date l'état de cette Dame s'est aggravé. La présence de son fils à la maison serait aussi importante que le traitement médical.

Bien obligé,

Ernest Rousseau M.D.

A qui de droit,

Je soussigné certifie que j'ai eu sous mes soins depuix 30 mois Madame Wilbrod Bellemare mère du soldat Henri-Jean Bellemare laquelle est une asthmatique chronique et une cardiaque. J'ai eu le regret de constater une agravation de sa maladie lors du depart de son fils pour l'armée, pour des raisons d'ordre psychique surtout.

Evidemment nous reconnaissons que le moral a une influence très marquée sur l'évolution de certaines affections en particulier chez les cardiaques.

Depuis que son fils est en dehors de l'armée, depuis le début de fevrier, son etat de santé s'est de beaucoup amélioré diminuant de beaucoup les dépenses du mari Mr. Wilbrod Bellemare lequel est un journalier.

Il conviendrait donc à mon point de vue que pour l'amélioration de l'etat general de Madame Bellemare que le retour de son fils au foyer s'effectue le plus tôt possible dans des conditions normales.

A qui de droit,

Je soussigné certifie que Madame Wilbrod Bellemare, mère du soldat Henri-Jean Bellemare fut gravement malade, atteinte de crises cardiaques.

Je l'ai visitée plusieurs fois et j'ai constaté que ses crises cardiaques etaient très fréquentes.

Depuis que son fils est en dehors de l'armée, c'est-à-dire depuis fevrier, elle est beaucoup mieux et même je puis vous dire qu'elle peut venir à l'église assez régulièrement.

Je puis certifier que la maladie de Madame Bellemare a occasionné de fortes dépenses.

Le retour du soldat Henri-Jean Bellemare au foyer paternel serait de nature à parachever la guérison de sa mère.

Bien à vous, J. Ad. Lupien ptre curé

Question à l'accusé. Désirez-vous rendre témoignage vous-même quant à votre réputation ?

Réponse: Non, monsieur.

Question à l'accusé. Désirez-vous appeler des témoins quant à votre réputation ?

Réponse: .....

Règle de procédure 37 (d). Si, d'après la déclaration de l'accusé ou d'après le sommaire ou l'abrégé de la preuve, ou autrement, la cour en vient à la conclusion que l'accusé n'a pas compris les conséquences de son "aveu de culpabilité", la cour devra modifier le dossier et enregistrer une "dénégation de culpabilité" et instruire le procès en conséquence.

Pour les variantes, voir page 747 du M.D.M.

E

Procédure sur déclaration de culpabilité précédant la sentence

Quand la cour en est arrivée à une décision relativement à tous les chefs d'accusation contre l'accusé et que ladite décision a été annoncée à ce dernier, le procureur remet au président le modèle M.F.B. 355 et, si possible, un modèle M.F.M. 6.

Ces documents sont lus à la cour par le président, marqués "Y" et "Z", signés par le président et versés au dossier.

Question à l'accusé. Avez-vous quelque déclaration à faire relativement aux documents dont on vient de vous donner lecture ?

Réponse: Non, monsieur.

Question à l'accusé. Désirez-vous adresser la parole à la cour ?

Réponse: Oui, monsieur, par l'entremise de mon officier défenseur.

L'officier défenseur s'adresse à la cour:

Dans le cas du soldat Begnoche, il y a eu des troubles de famille; ils sont neuf à la maison; le père était malade; deux petits frères sont à l'école et l'autre ne peut pas travailler à cause de sa maladie fort peut intéressante. Une des soeurs va encore à l'école, et les deux autres ne gagnent pas de gros salaires; alors, comme ça n'arrivait pas à la maison, l'accusé est allé les aider. Il a travaillé à la Centrale Catholique de St-Jean; je crois que c'est une association de prêtres ou un monastère. Il faisait $25.00 par semaine et là-dessus il en donnait $15.00 à la maison.

Je demanderais la clémence de la cour pour l'accusé qui a déjà passé 83 jours en détention en attendant son procès et qui n'a qu'une petite infraction sur sa feuille de conduite.

La sentence est alors consignée à la page "A" du procès verbal et elle est annoncée à l'accusé en plein tribunal.

Le président établit alors et signe le mandat d'incarcération, le cas échéant, et celui-ci est immédiatement transmis au commandant de l'accusé. Dans chaque cas, il établit aussi et signe le certificat de procès devant une cour martiale permanente et le transmet en conformité des règlements. Le procès verbal ainsi que tous les documents seront transmis au juge-avocat général.

st Witness Accused D-58081 Pte Beaudoin, Arthur, R de Mais sworn states:

On 17 Oct I left my regiment. I had permission from my officer to go into town. I bought what I wanted and it was time to return but I lost my way and I went to an English Arty Regt and stayed there all night. Next morning I tried to find my regiment. I went back to town and tried to find a Canadian reg't in town and the French police came and arrested meas a suspect together with two English MP. They sent me to Commander and kept me 4 or 5 days. I do not know the name of the town it was far away from my unit. Then they sent me to Leopold Barracks in Ghent. I do not know the date, I was kept in Leopold Barracks for one month certainly 2 or 3 weeks. Then they let me go from custody. I went AWL to various towns. I went to a regiment where my two brothers were around the 20 Jan 44. I did not see my brothers and was told they were killed by some soldiers there. I went away discouraged. At this time I intended to return to my unit. I was walking about Caen and slept and visited with friends there. I had 12,000 francs when I left my unit. I did not wear my uniform in Caen. Yes I often wore my uniform. I have only one. When picked up by the police I was wearing army boots and civilian clothes and had my identity discs on, and had photos received from women and photos of myself inkhaki. My pay book was left in Ghent. The rest of my uniform was at the tailors being repaired. I planned to leave it there about ten days. I was arrested as a suspect by the French Police. I gave them my identity, I said I was a Canadian AWL. I told them I was a French Canadian soldier. I showed them my identity discs and photos of myself in uniform. They took me to the French Barracks and informed the Commander and they took me to Caen and handed me over to the Provost Corps. I never said to anyone that I was a civilian. I was waiting for my uniform to go back to my unit when picked up.

Cross-examined:

After leaving Leopold Barracks I visited several towns and people I knew. Some RCE told me where my brothers were. They were from the 2nd Division. I belong to the 2nd Division. No I did not know where the R de Mais were because I went there to inquire about my brothers. I intended to return to my regt about 10 days later. From 17 Oct 1944 to 10 Jan 45 I did not try to locate my regiment I was too discouraged. When arrested the first time I had 150 francs left. After leaving Leopold Barracks I met a young girl, she gave me no money. I did not want money. I bought the civilian clothes I had 1200 francs. I paid 1800 francs for the clothes.

At this time I had 3-4000 francs. It was the second time arrested I had only 150 francs. I was mistaken when I said it was the first time I had 3-4000 francs then. I cannot tell exactly how much I had left. After paying for my civilian clothes I had between 2,500 and 3,000 francs left. I was not living with the girl but wandering at this time. I wore my civilian suit for three days in Paris. This was the only time I wore the suit. I was not arrested in Caen in civilian but at Laire. About 15 or 20 Apr I wore these clothes in Paris. I was arrested about the 25th April. I bought the civilian suit about this same month in the suburbs of Paris. I do not remember the name. I spent about 2 mos & ½ in Paris. I left my uniform at the tailors in Paris to be repaired. I bought the suit before I took my uniform to the tailors about 2 or 3 days before. I was forced to wear my civilian clothes when I took my uniform to the tailors. I do not know how much but had little money when arrested at Loire. I lived with a few girls, sometimes they gave me money. When I left my regiment I did not intend to desert. I intended to return in ten days after I failed to find my brothers at their regiment. When I was told my two brothers were killed I was discouraged. I do not know when but I did intend to return.

Questioned by the Court.

I can read and write. I was told by two others soldiers that my brothers were killed and have had no word from them since I saw them in England in March 1943. Capt David gave me permission to go into town on 17 Oct 44. I do not remember the name of the town as we had just arrived there. It is in France, near the Belgium frontier I believe. I was not with my regiment in Holland but was with it in Belgium for about a week.
I was an equipment repairer and tailor with B Echelon. I do not remember if my regiment was fighting at the battle or Moth Dieppe on the 17 Oct. I lost my way trying to return to my regiment. I was arrested by civilian police with an English soldier. They were French police. I do not know if my regiment was in Holland on 17 Oct 44. I do not remember Hoogerheide but I do remember Honchodte. I cannot say it is in France or Belgium but is near the frontier. I do not know the names of my friends in Caen justsoldiers in my regiment I was there about a week. The last time I was arrested at Loire. Father and three sisters are living. I get a letter from them about every six months. I received no news from them that my brothers were dead. I am single. Last time I received news from home I was in England.

RP 83(B) complied with.

Summary by Prosecution p. 6

Summary by Defence p. 7

Plea in Mitigation by Defence p. 8

Mr President and Members of the Court,

There are two types of desertion. General desertion and Special Desertion. General Desertion concerns a person who goes absent with the intention of avoiding service with any formation. This is the type of desertion covering this case.

The accused went absent on the 17 Oct 44 and was absent for a period of 197 days until apprehended on the 2 May 45, in civilian clothes.

The accused spent approx 9000 frs in the first two to 2½ months of AWL, yet he lives for a period of approx 130 days on about 4000 frs. Out of this he bought a suit of civilian clothes for 1800 frs. He admits that a few girls helped support him.

He claims he intended to return to his Regt. He could question 2nd Div troops as to the whereabouts of his brothers Regt, but failed to inquire as to his own Regts whereabouts, although he states that he was trying to locate them.

On further questioning he states that he intended to return to his Regt after he saw his brothers, in about ten days. This occurred on about the 20 Jan 45. Yet approx 3½ months later he is still AWL until apprehended and is not sure when he intended to return.

These points along with the fact that he was arrested in civilian clothes proves quite conclusively that the accused intended to desert.

Gentlemen, if this evidence has convinced you of the guilt of the accused, then he is guilty of desertion. If, however, it does not convince you of this, then you can only find him guilty of AWL.

"GK Bissett" Lt
Prosecuting Officer.

"DM"

Summing up for the Defence in the case of Pte Beaudoin, A.

The law of desertion is very clearly defined. On this case the accused was rightly charged with desertion because it did appear that some intention to desert existed.

Once charged, the onus is on the prosecution to prove, to the satisfaction of the court, that the accused did in fact intend never to return to His Majesty's service.

What has the Pros presented?

Two slips of paper - documentary evidence showing that the accused was absent and that he was picked up in Caen in plain clothes. The circumstances of the apprehension are not given. No witnesses have been called.

Gentlemen - I fail to see how the prosecution has proven the intention - Not has he complied with his duties so clearly outlined in MML p.55 para 32.

That the accused was absent - we do not question, but his statement must have convinced you that he did intend to return - at the very least - a real doubt has been established as to his intentions.
AA Sec 56(3) gives you to power to find a man charged with desertion - not guilty of desertion but guilty of AWL. MML goes further. Page 20 para 24.

Let us review the facts

The accused - AWL in Caen, thinking of returning to his unit, and anxious to appear a smart soldier, he left his uniform at a shop to be cleaned. He then obtained a civilian suit and carefully took his wallet - containing pictures of himself in uniform and his identy discs with him. When some few hours later he was questioned by the French Police - he produced his pictures in uniform, his discs and stated "I am a French Canadian soldier".

Surely these are not the actions of a man whose nature tongue is French - If he really intended to lose himself and never return to the army.

Gentlemen "The criterion between desertion and absence without leave is intention."

Plea in Mitigation

in the case of B-58681 Pte Beaudoin A

Mr President: Gentlemen,

You have now to decide on a punishment becoming to the offence which Pte Beaudoin has committed.

I am not calling a character witness but am asking the court to accept in lieu the written statement of Lt-col Guy Laromie, Sr Chaplin (RC) who had no difficuly in remembering Pte Beaudoin.

- Exhibit

Now Gentlemen, let me briefly review the facts for you.

Pte Beaudoin - a young man - age 26 - and having served for five years without crime or offence against the army act, except for a few days or hours absent.

He did however find himself lost - away from his unit - and took advantage of that opportunity to call on his brothers - the first opportunity he had had since he had heard of the death of his mother. Imagine his shock when he was told that his brothers had been killed in action.

These were the conditions which Pte Beaudoin to stay away such a long time - Saddened by the thought of his motherless home - Shocked to despondency by the report of the untimely deathof his two brothers.

From his MFM 6 - he must be given the benefit of being a first offender. I suggest to you that a very light sentence would not embark him on a career of crime but rather return a sorry but wiser Beaudoin home to useful civil occupation.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

I have been for four years Regimental Chaplain in the Regiment de Maisonniere. At that time I have known D-58081 Pte Beaudoin A, who joined the unit in England in March 1942 and was employed as regimental tailor. He was still with the unit when I left in September 1943.

I can assure that at that time he was known in the unit as a very reliable man, non-drinker, with very good behaviour.

He was always very worried about the situation at home. His mother was the only one writing to him, but as she was a sick person she did not write very often, and he often kept thinking and worrying about her.

This might account for a part in his getting more unsettled later on, especially after he was falsely informed of the death in action of two of his brothers.

CANADIAN MILITARY HEADQUARTERS

LONDON 1 Oct 45.

The Secretary,
Department of National Defence,
OTTAWA, Canada.

C.55-B-2040

D-58081 Pte Beaudoin, A.

1. The m/n soldier is now serving a sentence of 2 years imprisonment with hard labour and discharge with ignominy awarded by FGCM 28 May 45 for an absence without leave from which he surrendered after 18 days (AA Sec 15(1)) and an absence without leave from his unit from which he was apprehended wearing civilian clothes after 197 days (AA Sec 15(1)).

2. The earliest date on which his sentence of imprisonment with hard labour should terminate if he earns full remissions for good conduct while serving this sentence is 27 Sep 46.

3. This soldier enlisted 19 Jul 40 at Montreal, P.Q., and he is now 26 years of age. In addition to the offences mentioned in para 1 above he has since enlistment been found guilty of 4 offences under AA Sec 15(1) and of 1 offence under AA Sec 40. He has had no previous FGCM.

4. This soldier was medically reboarded on 31 Jul 45 and placed in Pulhems Grades M2, S3 on a diagnosis of "psychopathic personality, inadequate". He has been certified as fit to undergo detention.

5. The Neuropsychiatrist and S.P.O. who have examined this soldier state that he served with R de Mais in France as a rifleman from 7 Jul 44 until committing his present offences; that he claims that he became fed up as he had heard his brother had been killed in action and he was not hearing from home; that he shows no shame or remorse over his behaviour; that he states that he is willing to carry on in a limited capacity but cannot stand up under operational conditions; and that he is a quite unreliable individual of low average intelligence, with little or no self discipline and who is not of operational calibre.

6. In view of the extreme length of the illegal absences of which this soldier has been convicted while serving with his unit in the field as a result of which he rendered himself incapable of further effective service in action, it is considered despite his previous reasonably good record that his sentence including discharge with ignominy is appropriate and that he should be required to serve his sentence of imprisonment with hard labour in full and be discharged with ignominy under the provisions of para 9 of Appx to CARO 1029. It is considered that this soldier deliberately misconducted himself in order to avoid further action and very probably for the purpose of obtaining his discharge.

7. It has accordingly been directed, pursuant to P.C. 1304/44, that this soldier be returned to Canada in custody under sentence. Herewith original proceedings of the FGCM held 28 May 45, together with original A.F.A3104 in respect thereof on which this direction has been endorsed.

In Charge of Administration

Defence

1st Witness

Accused, D58081 Pte Beaudoin, Arthur, R de Mais. sworn, states.

On 17th Oct I left my regiment, I had permission from my officer to go into town I bought what I wanted and it was time to return but I lost my way and I went to an English Arty Regt. and stayed there all night. Next morning I tried to find my regiment I went back to town and tried to find a Canadian reg't in town and the French Police came and arrested me as a suspect ~~they were escorted by~~ together with two English MP's. They send me to Commander and kept me 4 or 5 days I do not know the name of the town it was far away from my unit. Then they sent me to Leopold Barracks in Ghent. I do not know the date. I was kept in Leop. Barr. for one month certainly 2 or 3 weeks. Then they let me go on leave. I went AWL to various towns I went to a regiment where my two brothers were around the 20 Jan. 44. I did not see my brothers and was told they were killed, by some soldiers there. I went away discouraged, At this time I intended to return to my unit. I was walking about Caen and slept and visited with friends there.

15

I had 12,000 francs when I left my unit. I did not wear my uniform in Caen - yes I often wore my uniforms
I have only one. When picked up by the police I was wearing army boots and civilian cloth and had my identity discs on. and had photos received from women
& photos of myself in khaki. My pay book was left in Ghent. The rest of my uniform was at the tailors being repaired
I planned to leave it there about 10 days
I was arrested as a suspect by the French
Police I gave them my identity. I said
I was a Canadian A.W.L. I told them
I was a French Canadian soldier. I showed them my identity discs and photos of myself in uniform. They took me to the French barracks and informed the commander
They took me to Caen and handed me over to the Provost Corp. I never said said to anyone that I was a civilian
I was waiting for my uniform to go back to my unit when picked up

Cross. Examined.
After leaving Leopolds Barr. I visited several towns and people I knew. Some R C E told me where my brothers were.
They were from the 2nd Division. I belong to the 2nd Division

No I did not ask where the R. de Mais were because I went there to inquire about my brothers I intended to return to my regt. about 10 days later From 17 oct 1944 to 10 Jan 45 I did not try to locate my regiment I was too discouraged. When arrested the first time I had 150 francs left. After leaving Leopold barracks I met a young girl, she gave me no money I did not want money. I bought the civilian clothes I had 1200 francs I paid 1,800 francs for the clothes. At this time I had 3-4000 francs. It was the second time I was arrested I had only 150 francs. I was mistaken when I said it was the first time I had 3-4000 francs then. I cannot tell exactly how much I had left After paying for my civilian clothes I had between 2,500 & 3000 francs left I was not living with the girl but wandering at this time. I wore my civilian suit for three days in Paris This was the only time I wore the suit. I was not arrested in Caen in civilian cloth but at Laval. I wore these clothes in Paris I was arrested about the 25th April About 20 apr 1944

14

I bought the civilian suit this same month in the suburbs of Paris I do not remember the name. I spent about 2 mos & 1/2 in Paris. I left my uniform at the tailors in Paris to be repaired. ~~This was~~ I bought the suit before I took my uniform to the tailors about 2 or 3 days before. I was forced to wear my civilian clothes when I took my uniform to the tailor. I do not know how much but had little money when arrested at ~~Soirs~~. I lived with a few girls. Sometimes they gave me money. When I left my regiment I did not intend to ~~return~~ desert. I intended to return in ten days after I failed to find my brothers at their regiment. When I was told my two brothers were killed I was discouraged I do not know when but I did intend to return.

Questioned by Court.

I can read and write. I was told by other soldiers that my brothers were killed and have had no word from them since ~~[illegible]~~ I saw them in England in March 1943. Capt. David gave me permission to go into town on 14 Oct 1944. I do not remember the name of the town as we had just arrived ~~there~~. It is in France near the Belgium frontier I believe. I was not with my regiment in Holland but was with it in Belgium for about a week.

DW

I was an equipment repairer and tailor with "B" Echelon. I do not remember if my regiment was fighting at the battle of North Steppe on the 17th Oct. I lost my way trying to return to my reg't. I was arrested by civilian police with an English soldier. They were French police. I do not know if my reg't was in ~~town~~ Holland on 17 Oct 44. I do not remember ~~Hoogerheide~~ HOOGERHEIDE but I do remember Bonchotte. I cannot say it is in France or Belgium but is near the frontier. I do not know the names of my friends in Caen just soldiers in my regiment. I was there about one week. The last time I was arrested at ~~Loisir~~ Loisir. My father and three sisters are living. I get a letter from them about every six months. I received no news from ~~them~~ ~~that~~ my brothers were dead. I am single. Last time I received news from home I was in England.

Mr President and Members of the Court.

There are two types of desertion General desertion and Special desertion. General Desertion concerns a person who goes absent with the intention of avoiding service with any formation. This is the type of desertion covering this case.

The accused went absent on the 17 Oct 44 and was absent for a period of 197 days until apprehended on the 2 May 45 in civilian clothes.

The accused spent approx 4000 frs in the first two to 2½ months of A.W.O.L. yet he lives for a period of approx 170 days on about 4000 frs. Out of this he bought a ~~two~~ suit of civilian clothes for 800 frs. He admits that a few girls helped support him.

He claims he intended to return to his Regt. He could question 2nd Lt. Trevjas as to the whereabouts of his brothers Regt. but failed to inquire as to his own Regts whereabouts, although he states he was trying to locate them.

On further questioning he states that he intended to return to his Regt. after he saw his brothers, in about two days. This occured on about the 20 Jan 45. Yet approx 3½ months later he is still A.W.O.L. until apprehended and is not sure when he intended to return.

These points along with the fact that he was arrested in civilian clothes proves quite conclusively that the Accused intended to desert.

Gentlemen if this evidence has convinced you of the Guilt of the Accused, then he is guilty of desertion. If however it does not convince you of this, then you can only find him guilty of A.W.L.

G. K. Bissett Capt
Prosecuting Officer.

Summing up for the Defence in case of
Pte Beaudoin A.

The law of desertion is very clearly defined. In this case the accused was rightly charged with desertion because it did appear that some intention to desert existed.

Once charged, the onus is on the prosecution to prove - to the satisfaction of the court, that the accused did in fact intend never return to His Majesty's service.

What has the Pros. presented?

Two slips of paper - documentary evidence showing that the accused was absent and that he was picked up in Quebec in civilian clothes. The circumstances of the apprehension are not given. No ~~witness~~ witnesses have been called.

Gentlemen - I fail to see how the prosecution has ~~shown th~~ proven the intention - nor has the complied with his duties as clearly outlined in MML P.55 Para 32

MML P.55 Para 32

That the accused was absent - we do not question, but his statement must have convinced you ~~that~~ he did intend to return - at any least - a real doubt has been established as to his intentions.

A.A. Sec 36(2) gives you the power to find a man charged with desertion - not guilty of desertion but guilty of A.W.L. MML. goes further Page 20 Para 20

Page 20 Para 20

"~~Leaving room of doubt as~~

Let us review the facts

The accused - P.W.L. in Caen, thinking of returning to his unit, and anxious to appear a smart soldier, ~~to~~ left his uniform at a shop to be cleaned. He then obtained a envelope and carefully took his wallet - containing pictures of himself in uniform and his identity discs - out of them. When some few hours later he was questioned by the French Military Police - he produced his pictures - in uniform -, his discs, and stated "I am a French Canadian Soldier"

Surely these are not the actions of a man whose native tongue is French - if he really intended to desert himself and never return to the army.

Gentlemen: The criterion between desertion and absence without leave is intention.

Plea in Mitigation (8)
in case of D58081 Pte Beaudoin A.

Mr President: Gentlemen

You have now to decide on a punishment becoming to the offence which Pte. Beaudoin has committed.

I am not calling a character witness but am asking the court to accept in lieu the written statement of Lt. Col. Guy Laramie, Sr. Chaplain (R.C.) who had no difficulty in remembering Pte Beaudoin.

– Exhibit

Now Gentlemen, let me briefly review the facts for you.

Pte. Beaudoin – a young man – age 26 – and ~~not~~ having served for five years without crime or offence against the army act enjoyed for a few days or hours absence.

He did however find himself – lost – away from his unit – and took advantage of ~~that~~ opportunity to call on his brothers – the first opportunity he had had since he had heard of the death of his mother. Imagine his shock when he was told that his brothers had been killed in action.

Those were the conditions which had Pte Beaudoin to stay away such a long time. – Saddened by the thoughts of his motherless home – ~~shocked~~ now ~~despondent~~ Shocked to despondency by the report of the untimely death of his two brothers.

~~I grant that he stayed away a long time~~ in ~~that~~

10

From his MPM 6 - he must be given the benefit of being a first offender. I suggest to you that a very light sentence would not embark him on a career of crime but rather return a sorry but wiser Beaudoin, home, to useful civil occupation.

Respectfully

To whom it may concern.

I have been for four years Regimental Chaplain in the Regiment de Maisonneuve. At that time I have known W58081 Pte Beaudoin A, who joined the unit in England in March 1942, and was employed as regimental tailor. He was still with the unit when I left in September 1943.

I can assure that at that time he was known in the unit as a very reliable man, non-drinker, with very good behaviour.

He was always very worried about the situation at home. His mother was the only one writing to him, but as she was a sick person, she did not write very often, and he often kept thinking and worrying about her.

CFA 170 PLEASE WRITE ON BOTH SIDES

This might account for a part in his getting more unsettled later on, especially after he was falsely informed of the death in action of two of his brothers.

B1. The President ~~or JA, if any~~, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s). If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans. No Sir. (5)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex C, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

NB : If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused : You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused : Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither ? Ans. I will do neither. Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf ? Ans. No Sir. Are they witnesses as to character only ? Ans. N.A.

Prosecution Length of time establishes a Prima Facie case. The surrender of the accused could have been induced by many circumstances. During time of absence Cdn Army was involved in heavy action.

DEFENCE The only evidence produced so far is that the accused was absent for 134 days. Further he surrendered himself, thereby disproving any intention of not returning at any time. No prima facie case of desertion has been established.

Court closes to consider finding.

The accused is cautioned on his plea of guilty in the second charge and advised as to the procedure.

Accused is satisfied with his plea and declines to make any statement. Summary of evidence read to accused who makes no objection. Summary included as Exhibit "C".

Defence in Mitigation.

Pte Beaudoin enlisted 13 Jul 1940, came to Eng in Feb 41 to Europe Jul 44. He surrendered himself at a time when the military situation was still critical. He was under close arrest waiting trial xxxx on first charge for 10 days and on the second charge 27 days a total of 37 days.

Abstract of Evidence in the case of E 29403 Pte. Beaudoin, L., 18 Cdn Fd Amb, translated by Interpreter.

'I, E 29403 Pte. Beaudoin, L., 18 Cdn Fd Amb, RCAMC, make willingly the following declaration, without having received any promise or menace and knowing that this statement may be used in evidence against me.'

"On 23 Jun 41 the day before St. Jean Baptiste, I was in detention in the Fus M R clink with Muir of my unit and St. Georges and Girard of the Fus M R. We were talking together of the detention we had to do and the field punishment and we talked about the medicine and injection and we went out to take the air in the clink yard. After 15 minutes we went in the cells and I saw injection needle and blanco bottle on the shelf near the window. We began to talk that if we give ourselves the injection it would be the means to go to the hospital the time we have to pass in detention. I saw St. Georges the first to take the injection but I did not know what it had in the syringe. After St. Georges I took the injection. We were taken to have an examination by the doctor because we had to go to field punishment on the next morning. ½ hour after we go back to our cells and Girard took the injection to and that was half full and Girard told us that it was blanco and lamp oil that was in the needle and in the blanco bottle. I filled up the needle with the rest that was in the bottle and Muir took an injection, after that I took an injection with what was left in the needle. After half an hour it hurt and St. Georges and Girard decided to ask the officer on duty, and they told him they injected themselves. He come to see us and looked at our legs. After supper the first aid of the Fus M R came with Sjt. Bedard of the 18 Cdn Fd Amb and put some hot water towels on our legs. Before supper the M.O., Capt. Bundock, came and looked at our legs where we had taken the injection and the next morning the 24 Jun 41 we were carried out to the hospital all together. I was 19 days at the hospital because of the injection. We took the injection the four of us in the legs."

'I declare that what I have said and what was done and what I mentioned in that declaration is all the truth and I did that declaration voluntarily without promise or menace knowing that this declaration might serve as evidence against me. After I have read this declaration I signed in the presence of Pte. Laurin of the Regimental Police of the Fus M R, signed at Blackwater on 18 Oct 41.'

Statement of Defending Officer.

I have very few things to say, but I would like to draw the attention of the Court to the accused, the accused is not yet 20 years old and became an orphan very young and was kept by his uncle in Ottawa and left school when he was very young and began earning his own living. His education has been very limited by this and when he joined the army almost two years ago he was not 18 years old yet by a few months. He has served ever since without committing any serious offence and he has willingly signed a confession of this offence. It is through a series of circumstances over which he had no control although he is responsible for them. He had been absent without leave for two days and then reported to the unit. The unit was going on a scheme and he was warned that he would be brought before the C.O. and went on and did his duty as a driver. Although he is attached to the 18 Cdn Fd Amb he really belongs to the RCASC, and serves as a driver to the 18 Cdn Fd Amb. When he came back he was paraded before the C.O. and sentenced to 14 days field punishment. Waiting departure for the field punishment camp he was kept in the clink of the 18 Cdn Fd Amb. It was a warm June day and more like a child, than a grown up man or a criminal, he decided he would go for a swim. Came out of the clink and went for a swim and because of this was put in the clink of the Fus M R. There he met some others who were waiting to be sent to the field punishment camp. They talked how one on a previous occasion had taken an injection and had been sent to the hospital. To a mind with very little education and and very little instruction, who is not yet a grown up man, this idea of taking an injection seemed to be quite a good trick and he went on with the plan. From the consequences of that injection he spent almost a month in the hospital. The doctor admitted he had suffered quite a great deal and after the ailment had been cured he was sent back to the unit and was kept in detention for a long period, since early June. I think that taking into consideration his youth, his very limited education and instruction, the fact that he came in contact with a group of other men who were his seniors in age, and that he acted on the spur of the moment, that he has suffered physically for this and that he he has been deprived of his liberty for a long time I think the sentence of the Court should show a great deal of leniency because he has already been heavily punished and I do not think a young man needs a great long punishment to learn his lessnn.
