

Mr. and Mrs. A. Koronkiewicz, Toronto, announce the engagement of their daughter, Marika Viktoria, to David Earl Lowry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lowry, Mississauga.

Shopping problems discussion

Lakeview

Gwen Clark 278-5715

Have you shopping problems? Bring them to the Lakeview Library Tuesday, Jan. 11 at 2 p.m. Mrs. Norma Carriere from the Consumer's Association will talk about getting more value for your dollar. An informal discussion will follow and coffee will be served.

Children's chess meetings will resume at the library Saturday, Jan. 15 at 11 a.m. All children interested in learning to play the game are welcome.

The Lakeview Library is planning to begin chess meetings for adults on alternate Thursday evenings. If you are interested please leave your name at the Lakeview Library, 1110 Atwater Avenue, or phone 274-5027.

FRIENDSHIP

There were 39 members and friends of the Lakeshore Friendship Club present to enjoy a recent dinner party prepared by the ladies of Lakeview United Church. After dinner a concert was held including violin solo's, duets, and Santa (Herman House) who presented everyone with a Christmas gift.

The club will hold its next meeting Jan. 10. Anyone interested in senior citizens and friendship is welcome to come and spend a pleasant evening.

Club members would like to extend get well greetings to Mr. and Mrs. Meeker who were shut in during the holidays and to Mrs. Fran Hanna who spent Christmas in the Mississauga Hospital.

TOP-C-TURVEY

Mrs. Maureen Blondin, Pinewood Trail, was hostess at the annual Christmas party for members of the Top-C-Turvey Club of T.O.P.S. The evening included a delicious dinner of Chinese food and chicken and a program of games.

Prize winners for the Christmas tree contest were Phyllis Yoeman, first, Maureen Blondin, second, and Gloria Plume, third. Bracelet charms were presented to Elsie Fawcett as weight recorder, who received a tiny set of scales and also a graduate's hat as the club's first K.O.P.

Ruth Ranson, as leader, received a tiny mallet for her charm bracelet, and Florence Walters as secretary received a miniature typewriter. Doris Davidson, for her services as treasurer, received a cheese board since she had received a charm for being treasurer last year.

If anyone is interested in joining the Top-C-Turvey group, after gaining extra weight over the holidays, please call Ruth Ranson 278-7173.

CHRISTMAS

Each year Mrs. Greta Lewis' children, who live in Lakeview, meet at each other's home Christmas morning to watch everyone open his gifts. This year was no exception.

Mrs. Greta Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. George Lewis and family, and Mr. and Mrs.

Hartley Cameron and daughter Alvina went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schute, Alexandra Blvd., to watch the Schute family open their gifts.

Then everyone went to the Cameron home on Fourth Street while the Camerons opened their gifts. Finally everyone went to the Lewis' home to see them open their gifts.

A lovely dinner followed at the Lewis home with Mrs. Greta Lewis, George and Mona Lewis, their children, George, Kevin, Darrin, Gordon and Delrene, Fred and Mary Schute, their daughters, Kerry Ann and Joanne, and son-in-law Dave Graham.

Mr. and Mrs. Schute and Kerry Ann left after dinner to go to Pembroke to visit with Mr. Schute's relatives for the remainder of the holidays.

Christmas evening at the Lewis' home was spent entertaining numerous friends and relatives who dropped in to extend Christmas greetings.

Students receive cloth bar awards

Malton

Cathy Groves 677-3721

Marvin Heights Public School recently gave to deserving students academic and citizenship awards in the form of a cloth bar which can be sewn on jackets or sweaters.

Receiving academic awards were Mirella Aglio, Diane Duggan and Greg Zaiser from the grade 2 level; Steven Robinson, Dagmar Gross, Kim Lush and Alicen Bain from the Grade 3 level; Adrian Pickett, Steven Ottman, Tim Wilgress, and Sandra Grey from the Grade 4 level; Karen Nurse, Karen Holder and Sabina Madill from the Grade 5 level; Philip Brennan, Ingrid Stangl and Della Barrington from the Grade 6 level.

Receiving citizenship awards were, Maria Russo, Wendy Buckingham and Hank VanDeemter from the Grade 2 level; Patty Ann Campbell, Eva Sousa, Chris Ballanger and Eddie McDowall from the Grade 3 level; Archie Hausler, Penny Ann Woodward, Brenda Terry and Kevin Fricker from the Grade 4 level; Anthony Yapp, Roy Hofstee and Vipul Chopra from the Grade 5 level; Glenn Wilkinson, Nick Jones and Michael Carr from the Grade 6 level.

The week prior to Christmas, Marvin Heights School held six assemblies put on by students from various levels and attended by a great number of parents. The staff at the school were also treated to a Christmas luncheon given by members of the Marvin Heights Parents and Guardians Association.

CORLISS

Corliss Public School held a successful Christmas assembly with 200 parents present. Students acted out various plays and skits and sang Christmas carols. Santa was also on hand distributing candy canes to all the children.

During the giving season, pupils of the school brought in money they had saved themselves for the school's adopted child, Lop Sang. They collected $16 in less than three days.

WESTWOOD

All the students of Westwood Public School participated in carol singing in the auditorium before the holidays. Groups taking part were the primary choir under the direction of Ev Timmins; the senior choir, directed by D. Graham; the vice-principal; and one Grade 5 choir, directed by Adolph Miecznikowski.

NEW YEARS

Friday, Jan. 7, St. Hugh of Lincoln Anglican Church has arranged a parish New Year's party with an enjoyable program including a buffet turkey meal.

PIONEER GIRLS

The Pioneer Girls of the Malton Bible Chapel held their Christmas party with games, gifts and refreshments.

BINGO

A benefit bingo was held at Malton Legion Branch 528 recently. Proceeds went to Mr. and Mrs. Morley Peeling, well known by Malton residents. Mr. Peeling has been ill for some time and it was hoped that this gift would bring joy to the couple, especially during the holiday season.

Residents attending the bingo were only too glad to take part since Morley's name is a household word when it comes to hockey and the Malton arena. In this way each and every parent of boys playing hockey could say thank you Mr. Peeling for having the interest to help the children.

PAGEANT

A pageant, The Cradle of Bethlehem, performed by the church's children's choir, will be presented at St. Hugh of Lincoln Anglican Church Sunday, Jan. 9 at the 11 a.m. service. The pageant is being produced and directed by Mrs. Valerie Latz, a former opera and concert coloratura soprano singer. Mrs. Latz now teaches elementary drama and is director of the County Playhouse.
