Ottawa, 25th August, 1919.

Dear Madam,

It is very good of you to have extended the kind congratulations and wishes conveyed in your letter of August 11th, which I received a few days ago.

Will you please accept my most sincere thanks, and the expression of my hope that Time and Care will deal gently with you, and that your years, which are already many, may be prolonged in health and strength.

Believe me

Yours respectfully,
