D

Le procureur n'a plus de témoins à appeler.
La poursuite est close.

Motion de non-lieu

Il est loisible à l'accusé, à son avocat ou à l'officier défenseur, après l'audition de la preuve de la poursuite, d'alléguer que celle-ci n'a pas réussi à établir une présomption légale contre l'accusé et que ce dernier ne devrait pas, par conséquent, être contraint de présenter sa défense. Dans le cas d'une telle motion, le procès verbal sera consigné sur des feuilles séparées qui seront insérées immédiatement avant la présente page D. Si la cour estime que cette allégation est bien fondée, elle doit acquitter l'accusé et consigner son verdict à la page A.

Défense

Le président s'adresse à l'accusé en ces termes:

"Il est de mon devoir en cette circonstance de vous aviser de vos droits touchant la conduite générale de votre défense. La procédure à suivre dépend entièrement des réponses que vous ferez aux questions de forme que nous allons vous poser. Il importe donc que vous compreniez et saisissiez l'effet de vos réponses. Vous n'aurez pas à témoigner sous serment à moins que vous ne le vouliez. Mais, si vous faites des dépositions assermentées, vous serez sujet à l'interrogatoire contradictoire par les soins du procureur et à l'interrogatoire par les soins de la cour."

"Si vous ne faites pas de déposition sous serment, vous avez le droit de faire une déclaration où vous donnerez votre version de l'affaire. Vous ne serez pas assermenté et vous ne serez pas interrogé sur ce que vous dites par la cour ou par quelque autre personne. Je dois cependant vous prévenir qu'une déposition faite sous serment aura plus de poids aux yeux de la cour qu'une simple déclaration non assermentée."

S'il n'y a pas d'officier défenseur, le président explique alors à l'accusé l'effet que ses réponses aux questions de forme de la page D du procès verbal auront sur l'ordre des dernières plaidoiries, prévu dans les Règles de procédure 40 et 41.

Question à l'accusé. Désirez-vous comparaître, vous-même, comme témoin, ou bien désirez-vous faire une déclaration non assermentée.

Réponse: L'accusé désire rendre témoignage sous serment, monsieur.

Question à l'accusé. Avez-vous l'intention de citer des témoins pour votre défense ?

Réponse: Non, monsieur.

Témoin de la Défense :- L'accusé, mat. D-472282, - Artilleur Honoré MONTPETIT, A.R.C., A.C., attaché au Dépôt Régional No. 5, A.C., étant dûment assermenté,

EST INTERROGE PAR L'OFFICIER DEFENSEUR :-

Q. Soldat Montpetit, voulez-vous dire à la Cour vos raisons pour lesquelles vous vous êtes absenté et, si vous voulez bien, commencez par votre enrôlement pour en venir à date ?

R. J'ai été enrôlé le 9 janvier, 1942, comme recrue. J'ai fait l'entraînement, "advanced et basic", puis j'ai été envoyé à Arvida comme corps de défense. Là, j'ai demandé un "reboard" mais il ne m'a jamais été accordé. J'ai demandé au Major Paquet et il ne m'a pas été accordé. J'ai passé un examen seulement en entrant dans l'armée.

Q. Combien de temps avez-vous été dans l'Atlantic Command ?

R. 2½ ans. J'ai 3 ans de service et je n'ai eu qu'un "furlough". C'est un moment de découragement qui m'a pris.

Q. Quelle a été votre conduite durant ce temps de service, durant le temps que vous étiez à l'Atlantic Command ?

R. Pas mal, monsieur.

Q. De quoi souffrez-vous ?

R. J'ai des crampes, j'ai mal aux jambes.

Q. Pouvez-vous définir ce mal ?

R. Si je reste cinq minutes debout, je suis obligé de me tenir sur une jambe.

Q. Est-ce que ce serait dû à ce manque d'attention médical que vous vous seriez absenté ?

R. Oui, monsieur. Quand j'ai parti d'ici, j'ai demandé pour passer un examen. J'ai été passer une examen tout habillé et, si un homme a du mal, ce n'est pas comme ça qu'ils vont le voir. J'ai dit que j'avais mal aux jambes et ils n'ont pas regardé.

- INTERROGE CONTRADICTOIREMENT PAR LE PROCUREUR : -

Q. Montpetit, dans l'acte d'accusation, on dit que vous vous êtes absenté sans permission du 30 décembre, 1944, au 21 février, 1945; est-ce exact, ça ?

R. Oui, monsieur.

Q. Où demeurez-vous ?

R. A Valleyfield, monsieur.

Q. Qu'est-ce que vous faisiez à Montréal quand vous avez été arrêté ?

R. J'étais là par affaires; des commissions pour chez nous.

Q. Pendant votre absence, est-ce que vous avez travaillé ?

R. Non, monsieur.

Q. Au mois d'août, 1944, où étiez-vous ?

R. Au mois d'août, 1944, je crois que c'est dans ce mois d'août là qu'on a été draftés pour aller dans le Manitoba. Je ne pourrais pas dire.

Q. Est-ce que vous avez été examiné au point de vue de votre Pulhems ?

R. J'ai eu un reboard. J'ai demandé à être examiné pour les jambes.

Q. Vous souvenez-vous avoir eu un examen au mois d'août, pour votre Pulhems ?

R. Oui, monsieur.

Q. Savez-vous ce que c'est qu'un Pulhems ?

R. Un examen complet, sans rayons-x.

D - 7

Q. Au mois de décembre, cette année, vous avez subi un autre examen; c'est cet examen que vous dites avoir subi tout habillé ?

R. Oui, monsieur.

Q. Pendant votre absence, avez-vous vu un médecin civil ?

R. Non. Je n'en ai pas eu le temps.

Q. A Lauzon, qu'est-ce que vous faisiez ?

R. J'ai été transféré de mon régiment pour m'en venir ici, et là, on faisait rien dans le moment. On venait aux parades et on était pas draftés dans d'autres régiments. J'étais transféré ici en attendant.

- L'OFFICIER DEFENSEUR NE DESIRE PAS INTERROGER DE NOUVEAU. -

- De l'avis de la Cour, il n'est pas nécessaire de se conformer à R. P. 83 (b). -

Procédure sur déclaration de culpabilité précédant la sentence

Quand la cour en est arrivée à une décision relativement à tous les chefs d'accusation contre l'accusé et que ladite décision a été annoncée à ce dernier, le procureur remet au président le modèle M.F.B. 355 et, si possible, un modèle M.F.M. 6.

Ces documents sont lus à la cour par le président, marqués "Y" et "Z", signés par le président et versés au dossier.

Question à l'accusé. Avez-vous quelque déclaration à faire relativement aux documents dont on vient de vous donner lecture ?

Réponse: Non, monsieur.

Question à l'accusé. Désirez-vous adresser la parole à la cour ?

Réponse: Non, monsieur.

La sentence est alors consignée à la page "A" du procès verbal et elle est annoncée à l'accusé en plein tribunal.

Le président établit alors et signe le mandat d'incarcération, le cas échéant, et celui-ci est immédiatement transmis au commandant de l'accusé. Dans chaque cas, il établit aussi et signe le certificat de procès devant une cour martiale permanente et le transmet en conformité des règlements. Le procès verbal ainsi que tous les documents seront transmis au juge-avocat général.

A.63 I got there at 1945 hours. He was there then, sitting with four or five others.

Q.64 Did you make any estimate as to how much beer he had ?

A.64 No, I couldn't say, I just noticed him there.

Q.66 How did you come to notice the accused during the evening, if you had never seen him before?

A.66 I was standing at the end of the counter and the accused was sitting at the first table near the counter, near the Orders, and I saw him two or three times going to get more beer and bringing it to the table.

Q.67 What was the conduct of the accused up to the time that he started to leave the canteen?

A.67 Very orderly, sir.

Third Witness for the Prosecution

B.18000 RSM (WOI) C.J. Rouse, A.37 C.I.T.C., having been duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor.

Q.78 You are the Regimental Sergeant-Major at A.37 Training Centre?

A.78 Yes, sir.

Q.79 How long have you held the rank of Warrant Officer I?

A.79 Since about Christmas 1941.

Q.80 Prior to A.37 CITC, what Unit were you with?

A.80 A.2 C.A.T.C., sir.

Q.81 Were you the R.S.M. there?

A.81 That is correct, sir.

Q.82 Do you know A/Cpl Patrick Hugh Pierce McDaniel?

A.82 I do now, by sight, sir.

Q.83 Which is he?

A.83 The chap in the centre, the Cpl with the red patch (indicating accused).

Q.84 When have you seen him previously?

A.84 I have spoken to him on one or two occasions. The last time I had any contact with him was when this trouble occurred at the canteen.

Q.85 Do you remember when that was?

A.85 On last pay night. I believe it would be the 15th February.

Q.86 Will you relate to the Court what you saw and what you did on that occasion?

A.86 Yes, sir. On pay nights, in particular, I invariably attend the closing of the mens' canteen. Usually there is a crowd, and in order to give support to the Police and N.C.O's detailed for duty there, I put in an appearance. On this particular night I was there, sir, there was quite a large crowd. I removed my sheep-skin coat which I was wearing because it was snowing. I was there for a considerable time before the canteen actually closed. As we were getting the men out of the main exit side door of the hut, I was walking around getting the various men to move along, when there was still a group of 20 or 30 in the canteen slowly drifting out, when the Provost Sgt, Sgt Roach, informed me that he had detected a man in the act of trying to take from the canteen, some beer in a jug, so I went further up into the canteen where Sgt Roach had steered this chap to get him away from the crowd near the door. This chap was wearing a greatcoat. The greatcoat was open. He wore two chevrons on it, sir, and on the table alongside was a one gallon jug filled to the top with beer. Sgt Roach indicated the beer and said this was the chap that was attempting to take it out.

Q.87 Was the accused present?

A.87 The accused was standing right by the table the beer was resting on.

Q.88 He would be in a position to hear what Sgt Roach said to you?

A.88 Sgt Roach didn't speak to me until I was about a couple of feet from the accused. I noticed the accused's overcoat buttons were not done up and he, I believe it was his right blouse was swollen up as if he had something inside, and as he moved I could hear the clink of some glasses and I connected that at once in my own mind with this beer, so I asked him what he had and he said glasses. That is quite legitimate, because they pay a 10¢ deposit on these glasses and if they break them, or lose them, they lose their deposit. I then asked him was he the one that had this beer. He said yes. I said "You were attempting to take it from the canteen?" and he admitted such was the case. I said words to this effect, "You are going to take this beer out of the canteen", and he said yes. I said "Do you not realize it is against Camp Standing Orders to take beer, malted liquors from a mens' canteen" and he said "No, I never heard of any such order" - in much that tone. His tone was insolent, very loud and he sort of snapped it out. So I continued to question him "Where did you get this beer" and in the same loud insolent tone he told me sarcastically that he had purchased it and was going to take it to his sleeping hut and drink it. I pointed out again, sir, that this too was against Camp Standing Orders. He became very very hostile at this point, and then in the same tone, loud enough I estimate, for people who were still in the doorway to hear, he said beligerently as he possibly could "Oh fuck you". Now, as I recall it, sir, standing with me were Sgt Rosch, Sgt Moen, and Bdr Crone. They were within a few feet of me at the time. We were about 15 feet I would say, up the canteen away from the door. I put this man under arrest and as we walked up to take him out of the canteen, men were still congregated in the doorway.

Q.89 Did you examine the jug you speak of?

A.89 Yes, sir, I had intended bringing it down for evidence, but Mr White said he didn't think it was necessary.

Q.90 How did you determine that it contained beer?

A.90 By taste and smell of it.

Q.91 What have you got to say as to the condition of the accused at the time of this conversation?

A.91 Well, sir, he had undoubtedly been drinking, but he was able to stand steadily on his feet and walk quite steadily. I saw him walk when we took him out. His speech was clear and he gave no physical indication that he was drunk. I reason it this way, sir, that any man that can take a full gallon, that is 16 pints, a full gallon of beer in an open topped jug under his coat without spilling it, was not drunk, sir. The jug was filled to the brim when I saw it on the table.

Q.92 Now, on this particular occasion you have told us you took off your sheepskin coat. How were you dressed?

A.92 Exactly as I am now, sir. I take the coat off as a means of identification.

Q.93 Would you describe your dress?

A.93 Battle dress showing my rank badges, wearing a khaki tie and wearing a fur hat. That's exactly how I was dressed, sir, with anklets. When I am in the canteen I usually take the coat off so people will know who I am and I insist on the other Orderly people on duty doing the same thing.

Q.94 You have told the Court that you had seen the accused on how many occasions prior to this?

A.94 Well, I spoke to him a day or so before that when he was in the Quartermaster Stores. On this particular night I wouldn't like to swear I had seen him in the canteen before, but I have seen him around the Centre. We have so many new chaps, but this chap had a sheepskin coat in the Q.M. Stores a day or so previous to this business.

Q.95 When you spoke to him in the Q.M. Stores, what were you doing there?

A.95 I dropped in to get some red chevrons or badges. It was not official business as far as he was concerned.

Q.96 How were you dressed on the occasion you were in the Q.M. Stores?

A.96 I had my sheepskin coat on with no rank badge on.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

Q.97 Mr. Rouse, how far away was the table that pitcher of beer was set on from the canteen door, would you say?

A.97 I would say about 15 feet, sir.

Q.98 Going into the canteen was the table on the right or left hand side? That is, the main door.

A.98 The exit door - it would be on the left, about the second or third table on the left.

Q.99 In the canteen, where are Camp Standing Orders hung, or placed?

A.99 In this case they are always kept hung on the wall near the bar, there is a notice board right there.

Q.100 Are they on the notice board?

A.100 Right alongside, accessible to anyone walking past to get beer.

Q.101 Could you describe how these Camp Orders are put up?

A.101 They are hanging by a string as provided byCamp.

Q.102 Are the actual Orders paper?

A.102 Absolutely, sir.

Q.103 Could you give a description of how the Orders are put up - in book form, or ordinary form?

A.103 They are loose-leaf and wire clip to hold the leaves together and there is a cover on outside saying "Camp Standing Orders."

Q.104 You say that the beer was not spilled at all. Can you say definitely it was not spilled?

A.104 I can say definitely the jug was filled to the brim. It couldn't hold any more. I am assuming none was actually spilled. This lad, I understand, was sitting at a table near the bar and he walked on his way out to the door and was steered at least 15 feet up the canteen by the Sgt.

Defending Officer: President and members of the Court. I have here a copy of Camp Standing Orders taken from the mens' wet canteen in question, which I intend to file as an exhibit when presenting my defence. I ask the Courts' permission to cross examine the present witness on this document, which I undertake to subsequently file as an exhibit.

Prosecutor: I have no objections, sir.

Q.105 Mr. Rouse, I show you a copy of Camp Standing Orders. Will you describe to the Court the way this copy is made up, or bound?

A.105 I describe this as a loose-leaf book, made up so amendments can be added or subtracted by means of this clip. Orders generally are the same. All Camp Standing Orders have this type of facing.

Q.106 Does it not look to you very similar to an ordinary telephone book?

A.106 The Camp telephone directory, the last time I saw it, had a pink cover, sir, and there was no telephone available for the use of the men in the canteen. There is one in the sleeping quarters at the back for the staff only.

PROSECUTOR DECLINES TO RE-EXAMINE

QUESTIONED BY THE COURT

Q.107 In your statement you say that, or you intimated as much, that it was an unheard of thing for anybody to take beer and malted liquors out of the mens' canteen. Has it not become common practice for N.C.O's, I would rather not mention rank, to take malted liquors and beer out of the mens' canteen?

A.108 It is absolutely forbidden, sir.

Q.109 That does not answer the question. I asked if it had not become custom to do this. Have you ever known of anybody else doing that?

A.109 Yes, sir, but the man I detected was charged.

In the opinion of the Court it is not necessary to comply with R.P. 83(b).

The witness withdrews.

Fourth witness for the Prosecution.

D.132074 Bdr Crone, A.J., A.37 C.I.T.C., having been duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor.

Q.114 You were at A.2 CATC prior to the forming of A.37 CITC?

A.114 Yes, sir.

Q.115 Do you know Cpl McDaniel?

A.115 Not until the other night when I saw him for the first time, sir.

Q.116 Where was that?

A.116 In the wet canteen.

Q.117 Do you recall the date?

A.117 15th February, 1945.

Q.118 About what time did you see him?

A.118 About 1845 hours, sir.

Q.119 What was he doing?

A.119 He had just come into the canteen, sir.

Q.120 What did he do?

A.120 He proceeded to the bar, sir, purchased some beer and then he sat down at the table.

Q.121 Where were you in relation to him at that time?

A.121 I was standing by the stove.

Q.122 How far is that away from him?

A.122 About 25 feet, sir.

Q.123 Did you see him again after that?

A.123 I noticed him, sir, when I was walking around the canteen.

Q.124 How often?

A.124 About three or four times.

Q.125 What time does the canteen close?

A.125 2130 hours, sir.

Q.126 Did you see the accused at that time?

A.126 Yes, sir.

Q.127 Under what circumstances?

A.127 He was leaving the canteen.

Q.128 Now, will you tell the Court what you saw and what you did?

A.128 Cpl McDaniel came down from his table. He had a jug of beer hid under his coat and attempted to leave, going out the door, and I stopped him at the door of exit and I took him down about 15 feet past the door of exit as instructed by Sgt Roach.

Q.129 You say you stopped him at the door. Just where was he in relation to the door when you stopped him?

A.129 He was about 5 feet from the door.

Q.130 How did you stop him?

A.130 I just took him by the arm.

Q.131 What did he say?

A.131 As far as I know he said nothing, just went with me where I took him, down about 15 feet from the door of exit.

Q.132 Would you explain to the Court the character of the canteen, that is, the position of the door as regards the bar and where the tables are and then where you took the accused?

A.132 I would say the door was about 25 or 30 feet from the bar, the door of exit, and I took this man about 15 feet farther down into the back of the canteen away from the door.

Q.133 When you saw him sitting , where had he been sitting in relation to the door?

A.133 About 25 feet, sir, just beside the bar. The table was just outside the bar.

Q.134 What happened then, Bdr?

A.134 Cpl McDaniel put the jug of beer down on a table and Sgt Roach called the R.S.M. The R.S.M. proceeded to speak to Cpl McDaniel.

Q.135 What did the R.S.M. say to Cpl McDaniel?

A.135 I didn't hear all the conversation, sir. I just heard the R.S.M. say he didn't like the Cpl's attitude.

Q.136 What did the accused say to the R.S.M.?

A.136 "Oh fuck you".

Q.137 What happened then?

A.137 Then Sgt Roach called me and told me to take this man to the Guard Room under close arrest.

Q.138 What have you to say, Bdr, as to the condition of the accused during the conversation with the R.S.M.?

A.138 I believe he was under the influence of liquor, sir.

Q.139 On what facts do you base the opinion he was under the influence of liquor. What were your observations?

A.139 The man's actions, sir, the way he spoke.

Q.140 Could you describe it further. How did he speak? Was his conversation in a loud voice?

A.140 The conversation between the R.S.M. and the Cpl. didn't seem to be very loud to me, sir.

Q.141 What were his actions that lead you to believe that he was under the influence of liquor?

A.141 Well, the man seemed very excited and by the way he spoke.

Q.142 You told us that you saw the accused come into the canteen.

A.142 Yes, sir.

Q.143 What time was that?

A.143 About 1845 hours, sir.

Q.144 Do you know whether or not he was there from then until closing time?

A.144 As far as I know he was, sir.

Q.145 You are not sure?

A.145 I didn't see him leave at all.

Q.146 Did you see the accused during the evening from time to time?

A.146 I would say about four or five times.

Q.147 Describe to the Court his condition on these occasions.

A.147 It seemed to be very orderly conduct to me, sir.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

Q.148 Bdr Crone, was the accused standing steadily on his feet when you saw him, or was he swaying and weaving?

A.148 He was none too steady, sir.

Q.149 You think he was definitely under the influence of liquor?

A.149 I do, sir.

Q.150 Who put the beer on the table?

A.150 The accused.

PROSECUTION DECLINES TO RE-EXAMINE

A.154 No, sir.

In the opinion of the Court it is not necessary to comply with R.P. 83(b).

Fifth witness for the Prosecution.

L.8749 Sgt Moan, J.J., A.37 C.I.T.C., having been duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor.

Q.155 You are on the strength of A.37 CITC?

A.155 Yes, sir.

A.156 Since about 9th January, or somewhere around there.

Q.157 Have you never been here before?

A.157 No, sir.

Q.158 Do you know Cpl McDaniel?

A.158 Not until the night of the 15th. I know him to see him, and I recognize him now.

Q.159 Where did you see him on the 15th?

A.159 In the mens' wet canteen, sir.

A.161 The canteen closes at 9:30, sir.

Q.162 Did you see Cpl McDaniel at that time?

A.162 Yes, sir.

Q.163 What was he doing?

A.163 He was finishing up his beer and when he finished he got up from the table and he was carrying a jug with him when he left the table.

Q.164 Do you know what was in the jug?

A.164 At the time I didn't, sir.

Q.165 Then what happened. What did you see?

A.165 He walked to the far end of the canteen and set the jug on the table.

Q.166 Who did?

A.166 Cpl McDaniel, sir.

Q.167 Was anyone with him?

A.167 There was a couple of fellows leaving with him.

Q.168 Then what happened?

A.168 The R.S.M. went and started talking to him,

Q.169 What did the R.S.M. say to him?

A.169 I couldn't say, sir.

Q.170 What did he say to the R.S.M.?

Q.171 What have you got to say as to the condition of Cpl McDaniel on this particular night?

A.171 I believe he was under the influence of liquor but I am no judge of what one man can drink and another one can drink. One acts differently with different quantities. I know he was under the influence of liquor.

Q.172 What are the reasons? Why do you pass the opinion he was under the influence of liquor?

A.172 Well, just the way he acted.

Q.173 What did he do?

A.173 He was very cantankerous and argumentative, and on the way to the Guard Room you could tell he was under the influence of liquor.

Q.174 Did you notice the conduct of the accused prior to the conversation with the R.S.M.?

A.174 No, he was sitting at his table and had a bunch of men around him and he seemed alright to me.

A.179 I didn't take much notice of them, sir.

PROSECUTOR DECLINES TO RE-EXAMINE

QUESTIONED BY THE COURT

Q.180 You stated you saw the accused sitting at the table and he got up and had a jug of beer under his coat and walked down to the other end of the canteen and put it on the table.

Q.187 Referring to the conversation between the Sgt Major and the accused. You didn't actually hear the conversation at all?

A.187 No, sir.

Q.188 What you said was merely supposition on your part, or what you heard afterwards, that this was said.

The witness withdraws.

The prosecution has no further witnesses.

D

The prosecution is closed.

DEFENCE

A.189 Yes, sir.

Q.190 Do you intend to call any other witness in your defence?

A.190 Yes, sir.

Q.191 Is he a witness as to character only?

A.191 No, sir.

The evidence of the accused is recorded on a seperate page (see overleaf).

First witness for the Defence

The accused, M.16438 A/Cpl Patrick Hugh Pierce McDaniel, A.37 Canadian Infantry Training Centre, C.A., having been duly sworn, is examined by the Defending Officer.

Q.192 How long have you been at A.37 C.I.T.C.?

A.192 I left Calgary on the 8th February I think, and I think, as near as I can remember I got here on the 11th February.

Q.193 Could you tell in your own words as much as you can remember of what happened on the night of the 15th February?

A.193 Yes, sir. It was pay night and I went over at 10 past 6 to get paid, and it didn't take me very long, I would judge about 15 minutes or so. We got paid at W.12, I believe, about 5 minutes walk from the wet canteen. I came right from there where I got paid to the wet canteen, and went to the wet canteen and I went up to the bar and bought two beers and sat down at the table. A L/Cpl came and sat beside me and then three other Cpls came in and sat down and they all bought some beer. I went in there to wait for a Sgt, a Sgt from the Royal 22nd who I came back on the boat with. I don't know his name, I think it is Sgt Wheaton. We were going down to Petawawa to see what it looked like as we hadn't been down there. We just sat around the table and talked and drank. The Sgt came in to get me and by that time I was feeling much better than when I went in the canteen and decided I wouldn't go, and stayed on there. A Cpl sitting directly across from me was a pretty good singer so we started to sing. I don't know how the passage of time went, I assume it was 7:30 when he came in. We went on drinking anyway, and singing and I believe I got up to sing a song myself, and I don't remember if I actually finished it, I know I started, and after things got pretty hazy for me.

Well, I believe somebody, I am not quite sure, but somebody went and got a jug. We decided to take some beer. I don't know what time during the night this happened, but the next thing I can remember clearly after that, I was in the Guard Room, and the only person I can remember seeing, to actually see,- I guess there must have been other people in the Guard Room - I know I was taken there - was the M.O. As clearly as I can remember about the M.O. he was trying to examine me and told me to go to bed. I believeI was arguing with him, I don't remember what it was about, and the next thing I remember I woke up in a cell and I tried to wake somebody up to get some attention. It was awfully warm in there.

Q.194 Cpl McDaniel, was that the first time that you had seen the M.O. that day?

A.194 No, sir. I was on sick parade that morning and it was the same M.O. I don't remember if that is why I remember him, but I remember seeing him clearly.

Q.195 Why did you go on sick parade?

A.195 I was feeling very down hearted and had been that way for quite a few days and ever since I got here, and I was getting sick and throwing up and I wanted to see him as I didn't know what was wrong.

Q.196 Could you give the Court a reason why you were feeling that way?

A.196 Well, I felt very disappointed at getting sent here. I was told before I left England I would be stationed at the west coast and when I came back from my leave they had an order to send me to Petawawa. I was told when I was in England I would be kept as close and as near home as possible, and I couldn't stay in Currie because I was an L.4 and would have to do drill, battle drill and I couldn't do battle drill.

Q.197 Where is your home?

A.197 Edmonton, but I have a sister in Vancouver so I didn't mind the west coast because I had a home there too. We even told them in England that we would rather be in England than stationed away from home, and the Col in charge of the Army Overseas, and the Col in charge of C.I.S. said we had to be definite before we left, as they didn't want us to be moved once we got there.

Q.198 What job did you come home to?

A.198 As instructor in infantry weapons.

Q.199 When did you go overseas?

A.199 December 15th, 1939.

Q.200 When did you arrive in Halifax?

A.200 I landed back in Halifax December 15th, 1944.

Q.201 Your category is L.4?

A.201 Yes, sir.

Q.202 Would you mind telling the Court what physical disability you have?

A.202 My right leg is shorter than my left and twisted my hips, and I have a lot of trouble with my hips. I was lying in hospital about six months prior to leaving England. I went to hospital last June. The doctor said so much marching with one leg shorter than the other hurt my hips and caused this.

Q.203 Just before you came home you said you had been in hospital. Is that your only time in hospital for that particular ailment?

A.203 No, I went to hospital in 1941 in England with my right hip that time, and I went back in 1944 with my left hip.

Q.204 Have you ever been charged before with insubordination?

A.204 No, sir.

Q.205 Have you ever been charged before with drunkenness?

A.205 No, sir.

Q.206 How long have you held the acting rank of Cpl?

A.206 Well, I was made L/Cpl in December 1943 and I was made an Acting Cpl three months later and have been an acting Cpl since.

Q.207 On the evening of the 15th February, do you remember the Regimental Sergeant Major in the canteen at all?

A.207 To the best of my knowledge I never knew the R.S.M. was in the canteen.

Q.208 Or the Orderly Sergeant?

A.208 I remember noticing the Orderly Sergeant when I first came in. He was leaning against the wall, although I didn't know he was Orderly Sergeant then. I saw he had a maple leaf on his CVSM and I wondered if he came back on the same boat with me.

Q.209 You don't remember him when you left?

A.209 No, I don't remember him at all, sir.

Q.210 Do you remember Sgt Roach of the Regimental Police?

A.210 No, I don't remember seeing him.

Q.211 Or Bdr Crone of the Regimental Police?

A.211 I cannot remember him either, sir.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR

Q.212 Cpl, when you went into the wet canteen on the night of the 15th February, do you remember what time it was approximately?

A.212 I couldn't say. I tried to establish the time by the fact I went at 10 past 6 to get paid and I don't think it took more than 15 or 20 minutes to get paid and it is only 5 minutes walk from where we get paid to the canteen. It was after 6.30.

Q.213 You say you bought two beers and sat down?

A.213 Yes, sir.

Q.214 Who were you with?

A.214 I was all alone then, sir.

Q.215 Some other N.C.O's came and sat with you?

A.215 Yes, 3 Cpls and a L/Cpl. The L/Cpl came first.

Q.216 What was his name?

A.216 I don't know his name off hand, sir. He is a L/Cpl of the Police. He was sitting down over from my table by the wall, practically at my table.

Q.217 Who were the three Cpls?

A.217 The three Cpls I don't know by name. I came on the train with them. I met them on the train. I cannot tell you their names. I went to see them after I got out of detention and I have never seen them since as they were drafted.

Q.218 Who was the Sgt you were waiting for?

A.218 He is in the Royal 22nd, he belongs to the Royal 22nd, and came back on the same boat with me.

Q.219 What is His name?

A.219 I believe it is Sgt Wheaton.

Q.220 About what time did he come in?

A.220 He was supposed to come at 7:30 and I have no reason to believe it wasn't 7:30. Maybe I should have put in that we had heard there was nothing down at Petawawa so Idecided there wasn't much use of going down. That is part of the reason why I didn't go down.

Q.221 Do you have any knowledge that any members of the Regimental Police were present in the wet canteen?

A.221 Yes, sir. This L/Cpl who was sitting there was a Regimental Police. He was sitting there and he wasn't drinking with us.

Q.222 Do you know why they were there?

A.222 To keep order, sir.

Q.223 Do you recall the circumstances under which this jug that you speak of was filled?

A.223 Well, I believe that I sent somebody for the jug, but I don't actually remember it getting filled up. I believe it was my idea to take the jug, I admit that.

Q.224 But you don't remember who bought the beer to put in it?

A.224 I cannot actually say. I mean, everybody was buying beer.

Q.225 Was it done at the table you were sitting at?

A.225 I wouldn't be sure, but I imagine it was.

Q.226 You don't remember?

A.226 No, sir.

Q.227 Do you know what happened to the jug?

A.227 No, sir, I don't. I have seen it since.

Q.228 After this you mean?

A.228 I saw it in the Orderly Room when they brought me for trial and I saw it on the Col's desk when I was being tried by the Col.

Q.229 You wouldn't know it was the same jug?

A.229 I was told it was, sir.

Q.230 How many times have you been in the wet canteen at A.37?

A.230 As near as I remember, I was there once before.

Q.231 Did you take any beer out on that occasion?

A.231 I did, as a matter of fact. I don't know if I am supposed to answer that.

Q.232 In what manner?

A.232 In a jug, sir.

Q.233 How did you carry it out? In what manner? Did you walk out with the jug in your hand?

A.233 No, sir.

Q.234 How did you do it?

A.234 I had a fleece-lined coat and I brought it out under that.

Q.235 What time was that?

A.235 I couldn't say. I don't remember.

Q.236 Was it early in the evening?

A.236 No, I don't think it would be early. I don't remember.

Q.237 How long had you been in the canteen on that occasion?

A.237 I have never thought about it, sir, I don't really know. It is quite a while ago. I had never any occasion to think about it.

Q.238 Did you, on the 15th day of February, 1945, attempt to take malted liquor out of the A.37 CITC mens' wet canteen?

A.238 I don't remember doing it, sir. I have been told I did.

Q.239 Did you, on the 15th day of February, 1945, have any conversation with R.S.M. Rouse in the wet canteen?

A.239 To the best of my knowledge, no, sir.

Q.240 Did you have any conversation with any army personnel on the way out of the wet canteen on the night of 15th February, 1945?

A.240 I don't remember.

RE-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

Q.241 The previous occasion on which you took the beer out - was it the same evening on which you were charged?

A.241 No, sir.

QUESTIONED BY THE COURT

Q.242 Were Standing Orders ever read to you since you have been in this Unit?

A.242 No, sir.

Q.243 What was your understanding as to the taking out of beer?

A.243 I didn't think there was much wrong. I have done practically all my soldiering in England and noone thinks anything of walking out with a jug of beer there.

In the opinion of the Court it is not necessary to comply with R.I. 83(b).

The witness resumes his seat.

Second witness for the Defence

Capt R. Gourdeau, RCAMC, attached A.37 C.I.T.C., having been duly sworn, is examined by the Defending Officer.

Q.244 Capt Gourdeau, you are at A.37 CITC?

A.244 Yes, sir.

Q.245 What position do you hold there - what job?

A.245 I am Medical Officer at the M.I.R., assistant to the Senior Medical Officer.

Q.246 How long have you been at A.37 CITC?

A.246 A month and a week.

Q.247 Previous to that?

A.247 Previous to that I was at the hospital, assistant in surgery.

Q.248 What hospital?

A.248 Petawawa Military Hospital.

Q.249 Of the three men sitting here, do you recognize any of them?

A.249 I do recognize Cpl McDaniel, I saw him a few times.

Q.250 When was the first occasion that you saw him?

A.250 I saw him first on sick parade. I cannot remember the exact date, I think the 15th of this month. He came on sick parade complaining of gastric trouble - stomach trouble. I checked him all over and to my own judgment he had no organic basis for his gastric trouble. I thought it was due mostly to nervous condition. He seemed to me to be anxious, worried and distrait, so as a treatment, apart from gastric powder, I gave him some sedatives.

Q.251 Can you remember any of the conversation that was carried on between yourself and the accused on that occasion?

A.251 Not particular details, no. I can remember that I questioned him what he had been doing before. He said he was overseas for a few years and he didn't seem to like his posting up here very much, and from what I remember, he seemed to me to be a little unstable, that is all I can remember. That is only the impression I got, not the words of the conversation.

Q.252 When was the next occasion that you saw him?

A.252 I had a phone call to go to the Guard House that same night and when I arrived there I recognized McDaniel that I had seen in the morning. He was not the same man. He was excited. His face was flushed. His eyes were bright and he was talking very quickly and in a different way then in the morning. I was told, and he told me that he had taken some beer. I talked to him and tried to convince him to get examined and I had a little trouble, he was not in the depressive phase of drunkenness, but as far as I could see, he was in the excitation phase of it. He had lost power of his judgment. He even asked me for a gun to kill himself that night. He was disgusted he said. I checked him all over and there was no impressionable disease except from the fact that he was not in a normal state of mind. To my knowledge, he was in the excitation phase of drunkenness. There are two phases - first the excitation phase where a chap loses the power of his judgment, gets very talkative and flushed and then the depressive phase where he doesn't have the co-ordination of his movements, because the alcohol gets in his system. He was in the first phase of it.

Q.253 You definitely don't think he was normal?

A.253 No, to my judgment he was not normal.

Q.254 Did you see him later, after that occasion?

A.254 I saw him, I think, the morning after. I didn't examine him, Capt Goldberg did. I talked to him because I had seen him the night before so I went and asked him how he felt, so he said he felt very sorry for what he did, and I asked him if he remembered what he told me the previous night, I was thinking about the gun, and all that, and he said he remembered seeing my face, but he didn't remember the conversation he had with me. That was all, I didn't examine him this morning, Capt Goldberg did.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR

Q.255 When you examined the accused on the night of the 15th February, what time was it?

A.255 I couldn't tell, sir, it was, I think, around 10 or 10:30, I am not sure, though, I was getting ready to go to bed when the call came in.

Q.256 When you saw the accused in the Guard Room, did he know who you were?

A.256 I think so. He did know I was the M.O. as far as I can say.

Q.257 Did he address you at all?

A.257 Yes, he said "You are the M.O. and I went to know what charge is made against me". So I told him it is not my duty, I didn't make any charge against you, it isn't my duty to make charges against you, I just went to examine you and see if anything is wrong with you.

Q.258 This stage of drunkenness that you describe as being in your mind, the state of the accused. Would a person in that stage recognize people they were talking to?

A.258 Yes, they can. It is very variable. If you call their attention, or if they are shocked by something then they come to a more lucid state of mind and can recognize people, but usually in that phase they are supposed to recognize people and even to remember what they have said, but there is no definite limit between all these stages.

Q.259 But you have told us that the accused was, I think you called it, the first stage?

A.259 He was more in that stage than the other one, because to me, I saw him walk from the room where he was to the office where I examined him, and he walked alright, so he - I didn't see him walk very long, he seemed to have the co-ordination of his movements. That is why I say he was not in the last phase of drunkenness.

Q.260 You say that any, I believe you said, any shock has the effect of bringing more lucidness?

A.260 Yes, sir. What I mean - suppose you are in front of a drunken man, and you tell him he can have $10.00 if he walks this line, but maybe for a minute he can, but if he has no reason to try to walk straight, he is going to walk zig-zag.

Q.261 What about the conversation - was that intelligent?

A.261 No, definitely not. First he was very aggressive and he wasn't talking to me politely. He was asking for everything, he was very imperative, more commanding me to do this and that. If I can express myself more clearly, I saw the man in the morning and I saw him in the night, and he was definitely not the same type of man, so seeing that, I asked him what happened, if he had drank, and he said yes, so that confirmed my opinion, and I saw him again the morning after and he was not the same man he was at night, so I thought surely something had happened to him.

Q.262 There is not any doubt in your mind but what he recognized you, is there?

A.262 No, sir.

Q.263 You had seen him on how many previous occasions?

A.263 One that I know of when he came on sick parade that same morning.

RE-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

Q.264 Would you say ten minutes in the open, in the cold sir, would be sufficient time for a drunken man to sober up sufficiently to recognize a person?

A.264 Well, I am not an authority on the matter, but as far as I know, he could, if the man is not too drunk. It depends on what is the depth or degree of drunkeness.

Q.265 You mentioned that you prescribed sedatives for the accused. What were they?

A.265 They were Phenoearbital, half a grain, and I asked him when I saw him in the Guard House and he told me he took two.

Q.266 Is that what you prescribed?

A.266 I prescribed some more at the Guard House. I gave them to the Cpl there.

Q.267 How many was he supposed to take - every day, or what exactly?

A.267 Two or three a day, but the effect of these tablets are to apease him and I gave him some more that night because he was in that phase.

Q.268 What would be the effect of an overdose of those tablets, say six in number?

A.268 Sleep - dead coma if too much.

Q.269 How would liquor and those tablets, if taken within a short time together, what would the effect be, can you answer that question?

A.269 From what I know, the effect of the sedative would go against the effect of the alcohol, that is why I gave him some more that night, to cool him off, to help him sleep.

Q.270 Only a matter of two tablets would not make very much effect?

A.270 No, we take sometimes, a grain and a half for a tooth-ache, a serious one though, but that is an ordinary dose, a grain and a half, and he had one grain according to him.

In the opinion of the Court it is not necessary to comply with R.P. 83(b).

The witness withdrews.

Third witness for the Defence

B.119828 Cpl Dillick, S., A.37 C.I.T.C., having been duly sworn, is examined by the Defending Officer.

Q.271 How long have you been at A.37 CITC?

A.271 Since 31st January.

Q.272 Before then, where were you?

A.272 At Canadian Signal Training Centre, at Vimy Barracks.

Q.273 Do you recognize Cpl McDaniel?

A.273 Yes, sir.

Q.274 Which one is he?

A.274 The man in the centre (indicating accused).

Q.275 Would you mind telling the Court just how you came in contact with Cpl McDaniel first of all?

A.275 I have been attached to "A" Company, which has been a reception Company. Cpl McDaniel came into the Company with one of the drafts. I saw him casually and recognized him on the night of Feb 15th when I was in the canteen in the company of the R.S.M. just after coming off duty on pay parade about a quarter to nine, it was definitely way after 8:30, and not quite nine o'clock. After entering the canteen with R.S.M. House, we stood there for a few moments and talked, and I went to the bar and got a glass of beer and noticed a large group of men from "A" Company, men who had been warned for draft, sitting around the table. Some of them recognized me and asked me to come and sit down, which I did. There was a great deal of slap-happy noise and singing - I remember Cpl McDaniel was singing and another lad who was also singing solo pieces. The table was full of glasses of beer, everyone seemed to be feeling quite good. I was sitting to the right of Cpl McDaniel and he seemed to be feeling extraordinarily good.- when he sang he sang very loud in a raucous voice and during the conversation an argument would start and none of the boys would take him up on it, if he was at the other end of it. I recall myself moving my chair away during the conversation and singing, etc. I recall too, that while sitting there, the boys were very free with their beer and one asked me if I would have a glass of beer, and after a little coaxing from him I took it as a bit of courtesy to him, and I noticed Cpl McDaniel was drinking from any or every glass from the table. At one point he left the table, presumably to go to the lavatory, because I saw him walking in that direction, and he had a hard time maintaining his balance. I left the canteen between five minutes after nine and 9:30. The table just broke up and I left with a couple of the lads. It was before Cpl McDaniel left, I recall that.

Q.276 Were you sitting at the same table with Cpl McDaniel?

A.276 Yes, sir.

Q.277 Could you describe more fully the condition of Cpl McDaniel at the time you left?

A.277 In a word I would say he was drunk. I don't know what the technical definition of drunkenness would be, but the behaviour of the man first, his behaviour at the table, I was immediately impressed that he was handling more beer than the others at the table. The fact that he would just pick up anyone's glass and drink, I thought it wouldn't be tolerated at all if he wasn't being tolerated by the other members at the table. And his singing particularly, when not more than one or two people would be listening to him, I did tolerate it, but I moved away from him at one time.

Cross-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR

Q.278 You are in the same Company, Cpl. as the accused?

A.278 No, sir.

Q.279 How well have you known him, and for how long?

A.279 I knew him only quite casually when he came into "A" Company.

Q.280 When was that?

A.280 A few days after I came to "A" Company 31 Jan.

Q.281 How often had you seen him prior to this night you mention?

A.281 I had seen him around the dry canteen. I don't know if I saw him in the wet canteen, and around the Camp on several occasions, just casually from the first time I saw him.

Q.282 Did Cpl McDaniel know you in the canteen on this perticular night?

A.282 I couldn't say, sir.

Q.283 Did he call you by name?

A.283 No, sir.

Q.284 Did he call you by rank?

A.284 No, sir.

Q.285 Just spoke to you?

A.285 Yes, sir, he just regarded me as one of those around him.

Q.286 What was the rank of the soldiers around the table that the accused was at?

A.286 I noticed that there was at least one other Cpl and in fact I think there were two, and I can remember specifically the others were Privates, formerly Gunners.

Q.287 When you came into the canteen you were with the Sgt Major, Sgt Major Rouse?

A.287 I was, sir.

Q.288 While you were at the table where was S/M Rouse?

A.288 S/M Rouse was not very far away, in fact before I sat down at the table I pointed out the other lad who was singing solo numbers and remarked to the S/M that he was quite a good Irish tenor, and he listened to this other lad awhile, and just nodded agreement on it and he moved down to the other end of the canteen. I saw him talking to one of the R.P's on duty.

Q.289 He wasn't at the table you were at?

A.289 No, just for that brief moment when I drew his attention to this man singing. By the way, that man was a Cpl. I would say three others were Cpls beside myself and McDaniel.

Q.290 Were there any Privates?

A.290 Yes, sir.

Q.291 How many sat at this table?

A.291 I would say at least six, quite a few more I would think.

A.304 No, sir.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR

Q.306 Did he say anything else to you?

A.306 No, sir.

MINUTE OF ADJOURNMENT

1. The Defending Officer, being unable to attend until 1400 hours, 22nd day of February, 1945, the Court, at 1030 hours, 22nd day of February, 1945 adjourns until 1400 hours, 22nd day of February, 1945.

On 22nd day of February, 1945 at 1400 hours, the Court re-assembles pursuant to adjournment. Present the same members as at 1030 hours, 22nd day of February, 1945.

MOTION TO ADJOURN

2. Defending Officer: Mr. President and members of the Court. I request an adjournment until Saturday, morning, February 24th, as I have not had sufficient time to prepare my case, and a necessary witness for the Defence will not be available until Saturday morning.

Prosecutor: I have no objection, except practical objections. All the four witnesses for the Prosecution are in the building and available. One of them happens to be the Adjutant of the Training Centre and I would like if possible, to have his evidence taken now that he is here. One of the other witnesses, Sgt Roach, is due to go on a six day leave. He was supposed to leave to-day at noon, and waited for the Trial, and is hoping to get away to-morrow. However, other than that, I have no objections to the adjournment. It means holding Sgt Roach at least Sunday, although he might get through Saturday morning, and I would suggest that if there is no objection, the Court could proceed to-day and hear the evidence of at least Capt Ralph and possibly also Sgt Roach.

Court: With the Defending Officer's consent, the case could proceed, and the witnesses for the Prosecution, Capt Ralph and Sgt Roach be heard now, and the motion for adjournment of the Defending Officer could then be granted until 0900 hours, Saturday, 24th February, 1945.

Defending Officer: I consent, sir.

THE DEFENDING OFFICER MAKES A CLOSING ADDRESS

Mr. President and members of the Court:

On the first charge, the accused is charged with attempting to take malted liquor out of the wet canteen at A.37 C.I.T.C.

Cpl McDaniel, as you know, returned from overseas and landed in Halifax on the 15th December, and arrived in Edmonton, which is his home, on the 20th. He had his leave and reported here on the 8th February. To-day is the 24th. He has only been here a very short time and since he has taken most of his training overseas, having been there for a period of five years to the day, it is extremely likely that he never had occasion to read Camp Standing Orders to the effect that he was not allowed to take malted liquor out of the canteen. He gave evidence to the effect that he had only been in the canteen on one previous occasion up to the night of the 15th, and although all ranks are supposed to read Camp Standing Orders, very few of them actually do. They are, in a Camp this size, extremely detailed and they make up quite a volume of reading just in themselves. So it is extremely unlikely that he ever had a chance, or ever thought about reading Camp Standing Orders.

Overseas they have the public house system and it is quite different from here and things are much more relaxed. Now, every one of the witnesses for the prosecution have admitted that the accused had been drinking that evening. Bdr Crone, Sgt Moen definitely say that he was under the influence of alcohol. The witnesses for the defence, which include the Medical Officer who examined him, have said that he was under the influence of alcohol. Pte Cox and Bdr Dillick say he was drunk, unable to walk steadily, and very much unlike his usual self. The Medical Officer said that he was not normal in any way. That is brought out by the fact that he asked for a gun to kill himself. Only a man who was just plain drunk would do that.

Also, the accused was depressed, has been depressed since he arrived here, which is quite understandable, having served five years overseas and was promised that he would be stationed as close to his home as possible. Instead, he is sent 2000 miles from it.

He also has a physical ailment from the fact that his one leg is shorter than the other, and which has given him an L.4 category. There is no question in my mind that he was anything but drunk, and consequently not responsible for his actions in any way, shape or form.

The character witnesses have testified that he has been extremely conscientious as an instructor, has been a very good N.C.O., is well liked by his men, has done all the jobs given to him in a soldierly manner and has carried them out, has obeyed orders and has never been brought up on a charge of insubordination or drunkenness in his own Company. The accused's own evidence shows that, while he served five years in the Army, more than that, five and a half now, during that time he has never been charged with drunkenness or insubordination. In summing up that point, I believe that he was definitely under the influence of alcohol.

Regarding the charge of insubordination. No N.C.O. who has served overseas for the length of time that the accused has, under normal conditions would be insubordinate to an R.S.M. in a public place like a wet canteen, and I believe that the evidence brings out the fact that he was intoxicated and shows that he wasn't responsible for any of his actions and consequently a verdict of not guilty should be returned on the charges.

J. Chapman Major, Pros. DCM.

THE PROSECUTOR MAKES A CLOSING ADDRESS

Mr. President and members of the Court:

The defence to all the charges appears to be that, the accused, on the night in question, was intoxicated. I suggest that if the evidence discloses that the accused was so intoxicated, that he didn't know what he was doing, then this would be a defence to the second charge, in that, if the accused did not know what he was doing, he didn't know that he was in conversation with his superior officer, being H.S.M. C.J. Rouse.

Now, as regards the first charge. The accused is charged with attempting to take malted liquor out of the canteen, contrary to Camp Standing Orders. The Court has heard the evidence as to the posting of Camp Standing Orders in the wet canteen. The accused was out-spoken, and in fact, admitted, that on the night in question it was his idea to take beer out of the canteen. The Court has heard the evidence of the accused as regards his actions when he was in the wet canteen at A.37 on a previous occasion, and does, in fact, admit that he did on that occasion, take beer out of the wet canteen under the circumstances described.

In regard to the second charge, I would like to draw the Courts' attention to the evidence of what took place. I think it is fair to say that Bdr Crone led the accused away from the door when he had in his possession a pitcher full of beer. The Sgt Major questioned the accused. The Court has heard the questions and the answers. Whether or not this accused would, under the circumstances, act like he did, had he not known he was being addressed by a superior officer, I leave for the Court to decide.

K Elm Prow Accs: Pres: Dem.

DEFENDING OFFICER ADDRESSES THE COURT IN MITIGATION OF PUNISHMENT

Mr. President and members of the Court:

I wish to make now a very strong plea in mitigation of punishment.

As you know, Cpl McDaniel has been overseas five years. He went over on the 15th Dec 1939 and returned on the 15th December 1944. During that time his conduct sheet has been very good, there has been no serious offences recorded. He was AWL, but times have not exceeded more than four days and his other two charges have been minor in nature. For a man that has soldiered in England and has led a hard life, gone through the blitz of 1940 and 41, has volunteered for active service to be sent overseas, and was sent overseas, and along with that he volunteered to fight anywhere in the world and was only prevented because of a physical disability, I think his crime sheet is amazingly good for a person who has not only been in the Army that long, but has served in England a period of that time.

He has been an N.C.O. since Dec 43 and during that time he has done very well. There have been no charges of insubordination or drunkenness at any time. Since he has been at A.37 CITC his platoon and Company Commander have spoken very highly of him. He is well liked by his men and does his job well. I believe that his punishment should be extremely light when all circumstances are taken into consideration.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

in the case of

M.16438 Private (Acting Corporal) Patrick Hugh Pierce McDaniel, A-37, Canadian Infantry Training Centre, C.A. A G.S. soldier of the Canadian Army placed on Active service.

CHARGES--

1. Neglecting to obey Camp Standing Orders.
2. Conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline (Alternative)
3. When on active service, using insurbodinate language to his superior officer.
4. Conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline (Alternative)

The Commanding Officer has not directed nor has the accused demanded that the evidence be taken on oath:

First Witness

B.18000, RSM (WOI) C.J. Rouse, A-37, C.I.T.C., C.A. states:--

I am the Regimental Sergeant Major at A-37, Canadian Infantry Training Centre Petawawa Military Camp. In the evening of 15Feb45 I was at the A-37, CITC Men's Wet Canteen from 2030 hours until 2215 hours for the purpose of seeing that the conduct of the men was proper. At approximately 2130 hours, while I was standing by the door watching the men leave, as it was closing time, B.18181 Sgt. Roach, F.J. of the Regimental Police approached me and informed me that he had caught a man in the act of carrying beer in a jug out of the Canteen. I left the door where the crowd was still crowding out, and walked about fifteen feet into the Canteen where the accused, M.16438 Pte (A/Cpl) P.H.P. McDaniel was standing by a table. On the table was a gallon jug filled to the top with beer. With me at the time were Sgt. Roach, F.J., Sgt. Moan, J.J., A-37, CITC Orderly Sergeant and D.132074 Bdr. Crone, W.J. of the Regimental Police. I asked the accused if he did not know that it was against the orders to take beer from the canteen. He said in a belligerent way that he had never heard of any such order. I asked him if he had bought the beer in the canteen and he said yes. I asked him what he intended doing with it and he replied that he intended to drink it over in his sleeping hut. I pointed out to him that this was also against regulations. I noticed that the right breast of the accused's battle blouse was sticking away out. I touched the blouse and heard the clink of glass. I asked him what it was. He replied that it was beer glasses. His tone of voice was most overbearing and insolent. I told him to moderate the tone of his voice and remarked that I did not like his attitude. To this he replied in a loud voice "Oh fuck you" I immediately placed the accused under arrest. The accused had been drinking but I did not think that he was drunk. There are copies of Camp Standing Orders in both the Wet and Dry Canteens.

Cross-examined by the accused.

Q-1. Did you thin k that I was aware that you were the RSM of the Centre at the time thet this happened.

A-1. I assumed so because I did not have my great coat on and had my rank badge on my battle dress and was wearing fur hat and khaki tie.

B18000 RSM Rouse CJ

Second Witness

B.18181 Sgt. Roach, F.J. A-37, CITC states:--

I am the N.C.O. in charge of the A-37, CITC. Regimental Police. On the evening of 15Feb45 I was present at A-37, CITC Men's Wet Canteen from 1945 hours until 2005 hours for the purpose of supervising the conduct of the men. At approximately 2130 hours while supervising the clearing of the Canteen at closing time, I saw the accused M.16438 Pte (A/Cpl) McDaniel making towards the door of the Canteen. He was holding a pitcher of beer beneath his coat. I told Bdr Crone, of the Regimental Police to take the accused past the door leading out of the canteen which he did. Bdr Crone took the pitcher of beer from the accused and put it on the table. I spoke to RSM Rouse C.J. who was in the Canteen at the time and told him what had happened. He came over to where the accused was and asked the accused i f he knew that it was against orders to do what he was doing. The accused replied that he did not know about orders. The accused on questioning admitted that he had bought the beer in the canteen. He said that he intended to take it to his hut and drink. The accused's manner and tone of voice was most insolent. RSM Rouse told the accused that he did not like his attitude. The accused replied "Oh fuck you". R.S.M. Rouse placed the accused under arrest and had him escorted to the A-37, Guard Room. There are copies of Camp Standing Orders in both the Dry and Wet Canteens at A-37, CITC.

Cross-examined by the accused.

Q-1. In your opinion, was I drunk?
A-1. No I do not think so.

Sgt Roach F.J.

Third Witness

D.132074 Bdr. Crone, W.J. A-37, CITC states :--

I am an NCO on the Regimental Police at A-37, CITC. On the evening of 15Feb45, I was on duty in the A-37, CITC Men's Canteen from 1640 hours until 2145 hours., At approximately 2130 hours while I was helping in closing the canteen, I saw the accused, M.16438 Pte (A/Cpl) McDaniel, heading towards the door of the canteen carrying a jug full of beer under his great coat. Under Sgt. Roach's instructions I took the accused past the door and he put the beer down on a table. Sgt. Roach Called RSM Rouse over. RSM Rouse spoke to the accused. I did not hear every thing that RSM Rouse said to the accused but I did him say to the accused that he did not like his attitude. The accused replied "Oh fuck you" in a clear voice. RSM Rouse placed the accused under arrest and I escorted him to the A-37, CITC guard room.

Cross-examined by the accused.

Q-1. In your opinion, did you think that I was drunk?

I did not know what was in it at that time. He walked past RSM Rouse and he went past the door and set the jug on a table. When I looked that way again RSM Rouse was talking to the accused. STATEMENT BY THE PROSECUTOR:

Sir, it appears from the evidence that was available to the Prosecution to produce before this Court-Martial that the accused is a member of No. 2 E.S.& W. Company, Headquarters, M.D. 2, attached to No. 2 Depot. It appears that he was employed in one of the buildings that houses soldiers. In each case it was the intention of the Prosecution to have evidence given by the owners of each of the respective wallets and to positively identify same as their own. That not being necessary now that the accused has pleaded guilty, naturally they won't be called, but there was evidence to identify the wallets. Then there is evidence, also, from the same witnesses whose names are stated in the Charge-Sheet, the owners of the wallets, that the wallets were missing, appeared to be missing from their clothing, etc., during the night-time.

Then there is the evidence of Corporal Harry Meyers who could have given evidence, I believe, that he found a pig skin wallet lying on McLeod's pillow in his cubicle; that McLeod was on duty that night. Then Corporal Meyers, apparently, mentioned this to Sergeant Ribble and the result was that a kit inspection was made of the accused's kit, with the assistance of Corporal Vigar of the Regimental Police, and during that kit inspection the wallets were found. These four wallets here, I believe, were found at that time. There was also evidence available from Sergeant Ribble and Corporal Vigar to tell about the kit inspection, but I consider it unnecessary to go into that very fully.

Sergeant Clark, who is a special investigator for the Commanding Officer of No. 2 District Depot, he also had evidence and he was available as a witness. He would have given evidence that, in the presence of the accused and himself, these wallets were identified by their respective owners.

Also there is the question of a statement, which may or may not have been admissible, in which the accused admitted to the Sergeant that he had taken these respective wallets. It was intended to offer that as evidence providing that the Prosecution was able to show by prior evidence that the accused had, in fact, been properly and duly warned and the statement was proved to the Court to have been given voluntarily.

BY THE PRESIDENT: Which, I think, would mean a trial within a trial?

BY THE PROSECUTOR (Cont'd): Yes, sir. The facts seem to be very similar in each of the charges and I feel it is unnecessary to take up the time of the Court by going into each charge seperately. It seems that the accused had the opportunity of taking these wallets, and the wallets were missing; the accused was working nights and the wallets were found in the possession of the accused, in his kit. The story seems to be the same in each case. For instance, there is the evidence of Private Orzy, who was stationed at No. 2 District Depot and quartered in the Horse Palace, who would have stated, I believe, that when he got up in the morning at approximately October 5th, 1944, he noticed that his wallet was missing and he reported that fact to the Corporal in charge. He identified the wallet as a smooth brown leather wallet containing some pictures, Unemployment Insurance Card, Temporary Driver's License and some papers and some loose change amounting to approximately 60 cents. The night before he went to bed he placed his wallet in his battle-dress trousers and at reveille

BY THE PROSECUTOR (Cont'd): the wallet was missing. Then there is the evidence of Private Vandergunst. Private Vandergunst would have given evidence, I believe, that he reported to the Depot on October 6th, 1944, for enlistment in the Canadian Army and that at approximately on the 8th or 9th of October 1944, he was quartered in the Horse Palace, Exhibition Buildings, Toronto. He would have stated that when he went to bed that night he hung his trousers on a nail behind his cot and in the morning his wallet was missing. He then reported the loss of the wallet to the Corporal in charge. He would also have told the Court that around 0200 hours the same night he had noticed someone come into the cubicle but he didn't pay much attention, thinking that it was somebody making an inspection and he went back to sleep. He would have stated that his wallet was black leather, with a zipper and it had the words 'Morocco Goat' stamped on it. It also contained a chauffeur's license, a National Registration Card, a 22 rifle registration certificate and various snapshots, and that the wallet itself cost $2.50.

Private Harris would have told the Court that on the 26th or 27th of January, 1945, he returned from his leave; that he had left his wallet in the left upper pocket of his tunic, where he always carried it. When he arrived around midnight he forgot to take the wallet out of his pocket when he went to bed. The next morning he went to breakfast and didn't think about looking for his wallet until he went to dinner. After dinner he looked for his wallet and found it missing. He then reported it to a Corporal in his lines and the next day there was an investigation. A few days later he was called to the Orderly Room and was shown a black wallet which he identified as his own, and

BY THE PROSECUTOR (Cont'd): in the presence of the accused. The wallet contained his 1944 driver's license, a snapshot of himself in civilian clothes, a One Dollar Bill and about 40 cents in silver, and also various other papers.

Private Joseph Pilot is the only witness I have not yet covered. He was available to give evidence to the effect that at approximately midnight on January 28th, 1945, he returned to his cubicle in the Horse Palace, No. 2 District Depot, from a week-end leave. He would have stated that he went to bed immediately, leaving his wallet in the inside left-hand pocket of his tunic. He had carried his pass in his wallet and when he handed in his pass he remembered placing the wallet in that pocket. The next morning, when he got dressed, he felt for his wallet and he found it missing. He then reported the loss to Corporal Iris and the Corporal advised him to report it to the Wing Police, which he did. His wallet was hand-made, light brown leather with the name "J. Pilot" engraved in ink on the front of it. His regimental number was written in ink on the opposite side. On the inside of the front cover there was a heart-shaped opening containing a picture of his girl friend. On the first leaf there was his driver's license and a picture of himself in civilian clothes. In the second leaf there was a picture of himself and his girl friend, and another picture of his girl friend. In the change compartment was his duffle bag key, a piece of lighter wick and a business card. During the inspection Sergeant Ribble handed him a wallet which was found in the kit of the accused, which he identified as his own.

There was also available the evidence

BY THE PROSECUTOR (Cont'd): of the two N.C.O's who made the kit inspection and the evidence of Sergeant Clark, the special investigator, who took the statement from the accused. Now, sir, is it the Court's wish that these wallets be made exhibits?

BY THE PRESIDENT: I think that would just make it more difficult for the owners to get them back. I think that you having referred to them and my having seen them should be quite sufficient and that will allow the owners to have them back without delay.

FIRST WITNESS FOR THE DEFENCE.

Frank Derno (Civilian) employed by Royal Canadian Engineers, No. 2 D.D., CA, residing at 167 Northcliffe Boulevard, Toronto, having been duly sworn is examined by the Defending Officer:

Q- Do you know the accused, Sapper McLeod?

A- I have known him since he came up with the Engineers; he was helping me.

Q- How long have you known him?

A- I would say about three months.

Q- I think that McLeod came here sometime in October.

A- Well, I have known him just since he started to help me.

Q- What kind of a man is he, as far as you know?

A- Well, he was helping me and, as a helper, he was alright; he was O.K. I understood that he was using some of my tools at night, when there used to be a job and he was on duty, but the tools were always brought back in the daytime; I had nothing missing.

Q- Personally, you have no complaint against him?

A- No.

Q- As a worker, you say he was a good worker.

A- Yes.

Q- Was he working at nighttime with you or in the daytime?

A- I understand they go out on duty one night and other times it is their duty to answer the phone. They go out on small jobs, such as frozen pipes during the winter. I understand that McLeod used a blow-torch of mine but he brought it back the next morning.

Q- You are quite satisfied with the man, as far as his work was concerned?

A- Yes, sir.

---- The Prosecutor declines to cross-examine.

QUESTIONED BY THE PRESIDENT:

Q- What was the general reputation of Sapper McLeod in the camp, as far as you are concerned?

A- Well, I suppose he was the same as any other Sapper; he came in in the morning and did his work and talked with the boys and nothing was out of the ordinary, as far as we were concerned.

BY THE PRESIDENT: Are there any questions arising out of my examination?

BY THE PROSECUTOR: I have none.

BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER: No, sir.

--- The witness withdraws.

--- The Defence is closed.

Proceedings on Conviction before Sentence

After the Court has arrived at a Finding on all the charges against the accused and such Finding has been announced to the accused, the Prosecutor will tender to the President M.F.B. 355, together ,when it is possible, with an M.F.M. 6.

These documents are read to the Court by the President, are marked "Y" and "Z", signed by the President and annexed to the proceedings.

Question to the accused. Have you any statement to make concerning the documents which have just been read to you?

Answer. No, sir.

Question to the accused. Do you wish to address the Court?

Answer. Yes, sir, through my Defending Officer.

The Sentence is then recorded on Page "A' of the proceedings and same is announced to the accused in open Court.

The President then completes and signs the "Warrant of Commitment", if any, which shall be transmitted forthwith to the Commanding Officer of the accused. He will also complete and sign in every case, the "Certificate of trial by Standing Court-Martial", and address same as directed by the regulations. The proceedings, with all documents, will be transmitted to the Judge Advocate General.

ADDRESS BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER:

Sir, the accused has pleaded guilty to the four charges under Section 18 (4) of the Army Act, stealing property belonging to a person subject to military law. I think the accused did the right thing in pleading guilty instead of taking up the whole time of the Court. He knew that he was guilty and, therefore, he admitted his guiltiness.

Now, the accused will have been in the Army three years on July 28th, 1945, and he has rather a very good record, just one absence without leave. On January 31st, 1945, that was after his arrest on these charges, there was a kit inspection and he was charged with losing by neglect. The accused had been in the Army for about eighteen months before committing an offence. The accused has had a very good record, as far as the Army is concerned, as a soldier.

This case - I think it is a very light offence. Now, why the accused stole these pocketbooks, well, naturally, to get the money that was in them, perhaps, because the pocketbooks were not of much use to him. I see that the only money mentioned at all was $1.41 taken from Harrison Harris and $6.00 from Private Vandergunst, approximately $7.40 altogether. The offences, sir, in each case, are not very serious because the amount of money involved is rather small, and all these pocketbooks will be returned to the owners. Taking that into consideration, sir, also the fact that the accused has already been 56 days in custody, I submit that the Court should be very lenient with the accused. As a matter of fact, I would suggest that the accused be sentenced, if this is possible, just for the time he has already spent in custody. In the ordinary case, if the case had been heard right after his arrest, he would probably have got a light sentence, but in this case he had to wait 56 days in custody, and you know what it is to be in custody here. I suggest that the sentence should run concurrent and not consecutively in each case. The witness, Derno, said that the accused was a good man, that he took tools at night and brought them back and he never missed anything.

I submit, sir, that you should be very lenient to the accused and sentence him to the time he has already spent in custody. That is all I have to say, sir.

BY THE PRESIDENT: I just want to point out, Mr. Serre, that it would make no difference to the Court if the accused had pleaded not guilty and it had taken a week to try the case; it is the duty of the Court to sit here and listen to anything accused have to say.

BY THE PRESIDENT TO THE PROSECUTOR: Can you explain the reason, Captain Downey, for the accused being 56 days in custody, as shown on the M.F.B. 355?

BY THE PROSECUTOR: Well, sir, my personal knowledge of this case only dates back two days; in other words, it was given to me to prosecute only two days ago - I am sorry, maybe three or four days ago - therefore I am unable to explain the delay myself, but I think I can explain part of the delay by reason of the fact of what has been told to me. What I am getting at is this: it appears that two of the witnesses who were called to give evidence at the taking of the summary of evidence - and at that time it was necessary to take a summary of evidence under the existing laws relating to Courts-Martial cases - went

BY THE PROSECUTOR (Cont'd): absent without leave and, therefore, it was very difficult for the Prosecutor who was handling the case to get the summary of evidence taken. For the purposes of this case it was necessary for two witnesses to be returned here, one from Petawawa and one from Winnipeg, No. 10 District. Vandergunst is the one who was sent here from M.D. 10 for the purpose of giving evidence and the other was Private Orzy, but it just happened that he was in Toronto on embarkation leave when we contacted him. Then, I believe, and know, that in this charge under Section 18(4)of the Army Act it is necessary that the Charge-Sheet be submitted to the Judge Advocate-General for approval before an order for trial can be granted, or the case heard. A letter was dispatched to the Secretary, Department of National Defence, signed by Major-General A.E. Potts, on March 22nd, 1945, sending the Charge-Sheet and precis of evidence for submission to the Judge Advocate-General and asking that the two charges be proceeded with at the same time as the other six charges which had previously been sent to the Secretary, Department of National Defence. A telephone call came from the Department of National Defence just yesterday to Headquarters, M.D. 2 authorizing the additional two charges, in other words, the seventh and eighth charges, be included in the Charge-Sheet. That is part of the reason for the delay. While I am on my feet, I would like to explain that the Charge-Sheet given to the accused this morning, through his Defending Officer, could not have been given to the accused before, because it was only yesterday that we were authorized to include the seventh and eighth charges in the Charge-Sheet.

BY THE PRESIDENT: The accused waived the usual twenty-four hours' notice?-

BY THE PROSECUTOR: That is right, sir, he did. I am

BY THE PROSECUTOR (Cont'd): unable to give the Court any other explanation for the delay because I knew nothing of the case prior to taking it over a few days ~~later~~ ago.

Application for Trial by District Court-Martial
C-100861, Spr. James McLeod,
No. 2 E.S. & W. Company, R.C.E., C.A.

Receipt is acknowledged of your T-20-M-15576(AJAG), dated 7th March, 1945, under cover of which you forwarded two Charge Sheets and Summaries of Evidence with reference to the a/m soldier, pursuant to K.R.(Can.) 540.

2. It is noted that both Charge Sheets are signed by the Officer Commanding No. 2 E.S. & W. Coy., R.C.E., but the accused is described as Spr. Jas. McLeod, No. 2 E.S.& W. Coy., R.C.E., attached No. 2 D.D. If the officer commanding No. 2 E.S.& W. Coy. is the accused's Commanding Officer the words "attached No. 2 D.D." should be omitted from the Charge Sheets. On the other hand if the accused is attached to No. 2 D.D. for purposes of discipline, as the description of the accused appears to indicate, the C.O. of that unit is the proper officer to conduct the proceedings required by R.P. 4 and 5 and to sign the Charge Sheets.

3. Attention is directed to Note 1(c) to R.P. 62. Unless there is some reason not apparent in the summaries it is considered that this is a proper case to include all six charges in one Charge Sheet.

4. The Fourth Charge in the First Charge Sheet, and the Second Charge in the Second Charge Sheet should be marked "alternative".

5. I have perused the summaries of evidence and am of the opinion that there is sufficient evidence to establish a prima facie case on all six charges. It is noted however that some of the material in the summaries is hearsay and the statements attributed to the accused have not been shown to have been made voluntarily. In this connection may the attention of the officers concerned be drawn to Court Martial Circular Letter No. 3, dated 30th June, 1944, Para 5(E).

6. Paragraph 2 of your letter has been noted and passed to the proper authorities for action.

7. The Charge Sheets and Summaries are returned herewith for your further use. Your attention is directed to CARO 5439.

Q At what time did you see him there?

A Approximately around nine o'clock in the morning.

Q You said that you took him into your custody, What did you do with him?

A He disobeyed the order.

Q Did he say anything?

A I can't exactly recall the words. Anyway, he would not do such a thing. I don't remember what he said, all I know is he disobeyed the order.

The accused declines to cross-examine this Witness.

Questioned by the Court:-

Q You said in your evidence that you took the accused into custody at Vaughan Jail and then you said we proceeded to M.D.10; who do you mean by 'we'?

A There was two other accused and one other soldier and the driver and this accused.

Q What kind of institution is the Vaughan Jail?

A It is a civilian Jail, Sir.

The Witness Withdraws.

Q Are you Lieutenant H.V.Larusson, No. 10 District Depot, C.A.?

A Yes, Sir.

Q How are you employed at the Depot?

A I am at present with the Appraisal Wing, Sir.

Q And No. 10 District Depot is at Fort Osborne Barracks, Winnipeg, Manitoba, is it?

A Yes, Sir.

Q In what Building are the Headquarters located?

A Roblin Hall, the red brick building.

Q Do you recall the 18th day of July, 1945?

A Yes, Sir.

Q How were you employed on that date?

A I was employed as acting assistant Adjutant.

Q Do you know Call-up No. J-28705, Metro McKitten?

A I do, Sir.

Q Is he present?

A There is Metro McKitten, Sir (Pointing out the accused.)

Q Did you see the accused on the 18th day of July, 1945?

A Yes, Sir.

Q Where did you see him?

A I saw Metro McKitten in the hall in front of the Assistant Adjutants office in Roblin Hall in the custody of Private Delveaux.

Q At what time was that?

A Approximately 0945 hours.

Q Had you any instructions in regard to him?

A Yes, Sir.

Q What did you do pursuant to those instructions?

A I called Metro McKitten into my office in company with Private Delveaux and explained to Metro McKitten that under the terms of the N.R.M.Act he was subject to Military Law and that I was, in effect, his Superior Officer

Q Did he appear to understand the explanations that you made to him?

A Yes, he did.

Q Did he say anything about it?

A He made no comment except that he said he understood when I asked him whether he did understand.

Q What happened then?

A I took Metro McKitten with Private Delveaux down to the Reception Centre in Roblin Hall where an M.F.M. 2 was made out and an requisition for an X-ray. We then proceeded to the X-ray Department. I gave the X-ray requisition to a member of the staff there and told that person that Metro McKitten was here to be X-rayed. I then told Metro McKitten that he was to be X-rayed as the first step in his induction into the army and he refused to be X-rayed.

Q Just exactly how did you tell him that he was to beX-rayed?

A After he refused to be X-rayed on the first order, I took him aside into a small room in the X-ray Department and explained to him over again that he came under Army Regulations. That I was his Superior Officer and I indicated my insignia to him, that I was a Lieutenant in the Canadian Army and I told him that I was about to give him a Lawful command and explained further that he was liable to punishment if he did not obey. I asked him again if he understood the explanation and he said he did. I then gave him the order 'Strip to the waist and be X-rayed.' He replied 'No.'.

Q Did he in fact make any move to comply with the order?

A No, Sir.

Q Are you aware of any reason why he should not comply or could not comply with the order?

A No, Sir.

Q What preparations had been made by the X-ray Department?

A I cannot say what preparations had been made, Sir, but the staff appeared to be there and readiness as far as I could tell. When I was giving him this explanation the second time we were not in the room where the actual X-rays are made, so far as I know.

Q How much time did you give him in which to comply with the order?

A Approximately two to three minutes, Sir.

Q Was that sufficient time?

A I would say so, Sir, as Metro McKitten made no move to strip to the waist and comply with my order in any way.

Q Are you satisfied that the accused understood the explanation which you made to him?

A I am, Sir.

Q Are you satisfied that he was aware that you were a Lieutenant in the Canadian Army?

A I believe he understood my explanation, Sir.

Q Are you satisfied that he understood what was required of him when you gave him the order?

A Yes, Sir.

Q What kind of troops are kept at No. 10 District Depot?

A Active Service Troops, Sir.

Q I show you a document, what is that document?

A This is a Magistrates Order, produced from the records of No. 10 District Depot, relating to the accused Metro McKitten.

Magistrates Order is read, marked 'H', signed by the President and attached to the proceedings.

Q Following the disobedience of the Order what disposition was made of the accused.

A I ordered Private Delveaux to take the accused to the Custody Barracks, here at No. 10 District Depot and Private Delveaux did so.

Q In following this procedure on whose instructions were you acting?

A The Adjutant of No. 10 District Depot, C.A., Sir.

The Accused declines to cross-examine this Witness.

That is the case for the Prosecution, Sir.

The Prosecutor has no further witness to call.
The Prosecution is closed.

Motion – No Case

It is open to the accused, his Counsel or Defending Officer at the close of the case for the prosecution to submit that the evidence given for the prosecution has not established a prima facie case against him, and that he should not therefore be called upon for his defence. If such Motion is made, the proceedings will be recorded on separate pages which will be inserted immediately before the present page D. If the Court is satisfied that the Motion is well founded, it must acquit the accused and register its Finding on Page A.

Defence

The President will now address the acused as follows:—

"It is my duty at this stage to advise you as to your rights in the general conduct of your defence. The procedure to be followed depends entirely on the answers given to the formal questions which are about to be put to you. It is therefore important that you should understand and appreciate the effect of your answers to these questions. You do not need to give evidence on oath unless you wish to do so, but if you do give sworn evidence you are liable to be cross-examined by the Prosecutor and questioned by the Court."

"If you do not give evidence on oath you are entitled to make a statement giving your account of the subject of the charge against you. You will not be sworn and no question may be put to you by the Court or any person with respect to such statement. I must warn you, however, that evidence given on oath will carry more weight with the Court than a mere statement not on oath."

If there is no Defending Officer the President should then explain to the accused the effect which his answer to the formal questions on Page D of the proceedings will have on the order of the Closing Addresses as provided in R.P. 40 and 41.

Question to the accused. Do you apply to give evidence yourself as a witness, or do you wish to make an unsworn statement?

Answer. I have an unsworn statement I would like to read to you.

(See page 'I' attached.)

Question to the accused. Do you intend to call any witness in your defence?

Answer. No.

The Accused declines to make a closing address.

The Prosecutor makes a closing address.

Question to the accused. Is the witness to be called a witness as to character only?

Answer.

Question to the accused. Have you any statement to make concerning the documents which have just been read to you?

Answer. No.

Question to the accused. Do you wish to address the Court?

The Sentence is then recorded on Page "A' of the proceedings and same is announced to the accused in open Court.

The President then completes and signs the "Warrant of Commitment", if any, which shall be transmitted forthwith to the Commanding Officer of the accused. PROSECUTOR'S OPENING ADDRESS

Sir, in this case the jurisdiction of the Court to try the accused, who, as the Court has noted, is not a soldier, depends on certain regulations and also on certain instances which occurred prior to the offence set out in the charge sheet. It will be necessary for the Prosecution to prove that the accused has been previously convicted for other offences in order to establish the jurisdiction of the Court. I wish, first of all, to file with the Court, the National Selective Service Mobilization Regulations, 1944, and to refer the Court in particular to Section 26 (1) of those regulations, and the National Resources Mobilization Act (Army) Regulations, 1943 and to refer the Court particularly to Section 26 of those regulations.

Next, Sir, I would like to file with the Court under the provisions of Routine Order 5126 a certified true extract of No. 10 District Depot, Part 11 Order, Order no 54. It is undated but it says on the face of the document that the last order issued was No. 53, dated 3rd March, 1945.

No. 10 District Depot Part 11 Order No. 54, is read, marked 'Q', signed by the President and attached to the proceedings.

Court Marshall

I have been brought before this court for the second time to answer the charge of disobeying my so called superior officer of the Canadian army. For your information I will state my case scripturally. I cannot possibly recognize any man as my superior officer because Jehovah and Christ Jesus are the only ones who can rightfully claim to be superior to anyone. This is recorded at Ja. 55:4

Behold I have given him for a witness to the people, a leader and a commander to the people.

I have made my vows to Jehovah to obey his commandments at all times whether it be time of war or of peace. God's word instructs me to be entirely neutral in the affairs

Jesus was ordained when he wholly consecrated himself to Jehovah God to do his will in an unconditional agreement. This consecration he symbolized by water baptism at the Jordan river. After his immersion in water the holy spirit descended on Jesus from the almighty God with approval at this act he became an ordained minister. Jesus publicly stated the authority of his ordination by reading Is 1:2. it state hear, o heavens and give ear, o earth for the lord hath spoken, I have nourished and brought up children, and they have rebelled against me likewise his followers didnt go to any school of higher learning to be ordained. It speaks of them as ignorant and unlearned men as for the the wisdom of this world is concerned but they are not ignorant of the word of God. They were common people from all walk of life such as fishermen farmers tent makers etc. Jesus was the only one they followed who set a so good example.

of this world as Jesus was. Jesus when on the earth was completely separate from the politics, ~~and~~ commerce and religion the bitter which he exposed as harmful to men; The only thing Jesus did was to proclaim the Theocratic
Government the hope of humankind;
Therefore knowing that God's kingdom under christ Jesus the king is not of this world & follow the same course as Jesus did when he said at John 18. 36
Jesus said my kingdom is not of the world If my kingdom were of this world then would my servants fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jews: But now my kingdom is not from hence.
Though I am in this world I am not of it.
nor do I entangle myself in its affairs.
As a posle Paul brought out one could be a soldier of Christ by enduring hardships for what he believes and stands for as christ Jesus did even to the very death. 2 Tim 2-3:4 state
Thou therefore endure hardness as a good soldier of Jesus christ. No man that warreth entangleth himself

even for the true consecrated servants to day, as I am one of such consecrated servants. I am commanded by the Greate Creator to preach the good tidings of his kingdom under christ
Jesus which kingdom will bring greate blessing to those who submit to Jehovah's wills but destruction will be rendered to those who do not heed the warning

Dan 2: 44 states and in the days of these kings sall the God of heaven set up a kingdom which shall neaver be destroyed and the kingdom sall not be left to other people but it sall brush in pieces and consume all these kingdoms and it sall stand for ever.

In conclusion of my defence what prosecution is meted out to me the courts will bear the responsibility before Jehovah God.

with the affairs of this life That he may please him who hath chosen him to be a soldier.
Christ Jesus himself fought or waged against his enemies when he was on earth but his weapons were not carnal, His weapons wod the word of Truth. against the false teaching of religionists at that time, I am a warrior for Jehovah God and my weapon of war is the sword of spirit which is God's word, the bible. I do not walk in the flesh but I do not war after the flesh because my fight is not against men or governments but against spiritual wickedness in heavenly places which control and influence humankind.
Apostle Paul proves this in 2 Corinthians 10:3.4 for though we walk in the flesh, we do not war after the flesh: for the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but might through God to pulling down of strong holds:
moreover, I am a minister of the gospel as Jesus and his apostles were.
and have only one thing in common and that is to proclaim the Theocratic Government of Great

Theocrat under his king Christ Jesus. Jesus himself was an ordained Minister of Jehovah God this fact the court will not deny. as were his followers as this proves in John 15:16 Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, and ordained you that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain: that whatsoever ye shall ask of the father in my name, he may give it you. The Pharisees, scribes and other worldly wise, questioned Jesus ordination because they knew he didnt attend theological institutions or schools of higher learning to get knowledge concerning Jehovah's purposes. Still he was a minister of the gospel and taught with authority the truth which he was taught by his heavenly Father. Thus Jesus confirmed this with his word at John 7:15 & 16. and the Jews marvelled saying, How knoweth this man letters, having never learned? Jesus answered them, and and said, my doctrine is not mine, but his that sent me,

District Officer Commanding,

District Court-Martial
Call-up J-28705, Metro McKitten
No. 10 District Depot, C.A.

Receipt is acknowledged of your W.44-M3-3030(J), dated the 6th March 1945, under cover of which you forwarded for registration and custody the proceedings of the m/n District Court-Martial.

2. The Court assembled on February 9, 1945, the date named in the Convening Order. After the President, the members and the short-hand writer were sworn, adjournment was made until February 12. The reasons for adjournment were not entered in the proceedings, as required by R.P. 65, Note 2. When the Court re-assembled on the 12th, the accused asked for a further adjournment in order to prepare his defence. This was granted "sine die". The Court re-assembled on February 15th and proceeded with the trial.

3. Under A.A. 53 (5) the Court may adjourn "from time to time". R.P. 65 (B) provides: "If the time to which adjournment is made is not specified, the adjournment will be until further orders from the proper military authority". In view of this provision, it is preferable that an adjournment be to a definite date and time, when this is practicable. In this case it must be assumed that R.P.65(D) was complied with and in any event no injustice was done to the accused.

4. The Finding and Sentence would appear to be legal and supported by the evidence and accordingly the proceedings are retained for custody.

He informed the accused that he was being held in Military Custody until he was medically examined and found fit or otherwise. Afterwards, the prisoner was taken downstairs to the Reception Centre where Captain MacQuarrie obtained some papers and afterwards we went to the X-ray room where Captain MacQuarrie informed the accused that now he was subject to Military Law he was supposed to obey the commands of his Superior Officer, in this particular case he was his Superior Officer, and he told him he was a Captain in the Canadian Army and pointed to the pips on his shoulder showing him his rank. He told him he was going to give him a command and then asked him if he understood what he had said and he said he didn't. A 49 Yes, he was warned that he was subject to Military Law, being a follower of His Majesty's Troops and in consequence of such he was bound to obey the commands given by his Superior Officer. I, in this case, a captain in the Canadian Army, was his superior officer.

Q 50 Anything said about disobedience?

A 50 Disobedience of such a command would make him liable to punishment which would be meted out by a Court-Martial or other proper authority upon his being convicted.

Q 51 Did the accused have anything to say as to that explanation?

A 51 I asked him if he clearly understood and heard what I had said up to that point. He said he didn't understand and so I repeated the warning and his second reply was 'I want to see the Brigadier.' I then gave him the command.

Q 52 Before you gave him the command, what is your opinion as to whether or not he understood?

A 52 My opinion is he understood as he asked to see the Brigadier the second time, Sir.

Q 53 What was the command you gave the accused?

A 53 I called him by his call up number and his name, Metro McKitten ' I order you to enter that booth, strip to the waist and be X-rayed', his reply was 'I want to see the Brigadier.'

Q 54 Did he make any attempt to comply with the Order?

A 54 None whatever, Sir.

Q 55 Are you satisfied that he heard the Order?

A 55 He did, yes, Sir.

Q 56 Are you satisfied that he understood what was required of him?

A 56 I believe so.

Q 57 What preparations had been made for the X-ray?

A 57 The X-ray Staff and Equipment were ready and waiting.

A 58 There was no physical restraint whatsoever or nothing to have kept him from doing so.

Q 59 When the accused failed to comply what happened?

A 59 I placed him in the custody of Sergeant Burton and told him to take him into custody and march him to the custody Barracks.

Q 60 What time elapsed from the giving of the Order and placing him in the custody of Sergeant Burton?

A 60 Approximately two minutes.

Q 61 Was that sufficient time for the accused to comply with the Order if he intended to do so?

A 61 In my opinion, yes.

Q 62 What kind of troops are at No. 10 District Depot?

A 62 Soldiers placed on Active Service only.

Q 63 Is this the only occasion on which you have made this explanation to a man as to his liability under Military Law?

A 63 No, Sir.

Q 64 How often have you done it, can you give the Court any idea?

A 64 Eight times that morning, Sir, and previously I don't recall the exact number of times.

Q 65 From your experience in giving the explanation are you able to determine fairly accurately, whether the man understands or not; in other words, is the explanation that is given one that the ordinary man can readily understand?

A 65 I would say yes.

Q 66 Where was Corporal McDonald while all this was going on?

A 66 He was present about two feet to the right of the accused.

The Accused declines to cross-examine this Witness.

PROSECUTOR'S OPENING ADDRESS

The Court has noted from the charge that the accused is not a soldier. It is therefore necessary for the Prosecution to prove not only the offence set out in the Charge Sheet but also the jurisdiction of the Court to try the accused.

Dealing first with the matter of jursidiction I will file with the Court now:

1. The National Selective Service Mobilization Regulations.
2. The National Selective Service Mobilization Regulations, 1944.
3. National Resources Mobilization Act (Army) Regulations, 1943, as printed by the King's Printer. The relevant Sections are Section 28 (1) as amended of the first cited regulations and Section 26 of the last cited regulations, and in order to show compliance with the regulations making the accused subject to Military Law as a soldier certain evidence of previous convictions by both the civil and Military authorities must be introduced.

The Prosecution will prove that the accused was convicted under the first cited regulations by a Police Magistrate and that the order provided therein was made.

The Prosecution will further prove that the accused was taken pursuant to the order, to the appropriate Military Training Centre and became subject to Military Law pursuant to the last cited regulations.

Lastly the Prosecution will prove that neither of the conditions precedent to the release of the accused from the provisions of the Magistrate's Order have been complied with and that the accused at the time of the commission of the offence was, and still is, subject to Military Law as a soldier.

Dealing with the offence itself the Prosecution will prove that the accused was given a direct and definite order, that he understood what was required, and that he made no attempt to comply even though fully capable of doing so.

I believe I mentioned that I was filing with the Court the National Selective Service Mobilization Regulations; that is not necessary in this case, only the 1944 regulations are required.

I desire to inform this court, that it has become a world-wide established fact that Jehovah's witnesses never will take part in the affairs of this world. This fact is true regardless of whether the nations be aggressive or neutral.

I am one of Jehovah's witnesses, I have made a very strict covenant with the Almighty God, to obey every ordinance set out by Him. For me to now take up carnal weapons and shed the blood of my fellow man, would be a direct breaking of the covenant. Jehovah teaches us to

Inwood the little that when one makes a covenant with he must not be slow to carry it out. Also that if we break part of the law we break all.
Romans 1:32 sets clearly that all covenant breakers are worthy of death.
The world over, people are persecuted and hated because they stand firmly for the supreme laws of Jehovah
God. This only gives them more confidence because our King Christ Jesus forewarned us of this saying at Math 10 "Here I am sending you out like sheep among wolves... But be on your guard against men; for they 15

will give you up to their courts and have you flogged in their synagogues, and you will be brought before governors and kings to bear your testimony before them - - you will be hated by everybody on my account, but the man who holds out to the very end shall be saved." (Goodspeed)

I obey every law of the land, unless they conflict with God's laws. When they do conflict with his laws I must obey God rather than men."

Now gentlemen for me I am in your hands, do with me as you will, but if you persecute me, you bring innocent blood upon your heads. For this action you will have to answer to the supreme judge.

PROSECUTOR'S CLOSING ADDRESS

Sir, the jurisdiction to try this man is based on the Regulations which I have filed with the Court and in particular to the two sections I have quoted.

From Exhibit 'J' it appears that the accused was convicted for an offence under the National Selective Service Mobilization Regulations and thereupon the Court made the Order provided for in Section 28 (1). Following the Civil Conviction the accused apparently served his sentence and then was taken in custody to No. 10 District Depot under the provisions of the Order for the purpose set out in the Order, that is, to be enrolled as a soldier or, after having been medically examined and found unfit, rejected. On being taken to the Depot in this way the accused became subject to Military Law by virtue of Section 26 of the National Resources Mobilization Act (Army) Regulations and the Army Act applied to him. The accused was then taken to the X-ray Department at No. 10 District Depot for the purpose of going through an X-ray which is, as the Court is aware, one of the first steps in the enrolment procedure in the medical examination. The accused was given a command which was a necessary part of carrying out that procedure. He failed to comply with the command and, in fact, by such failure, he disobeyed. The command was a lawful command. It was given by Captain MacQuarrie who was the superior officer, under Military Law of the accused.. I submit that there is a complete case on the charge.

On the other hand the accused puts forward, indirectly, a defence. Captain MacQuarrie made to the accused an explanation that he was subject to Military Law and the accused, when asked whether he understood, said that he didn't understand and he answered that he wanted to see the Brigadier. The Court is aware that the obligations under Military Law are frequently quite different than the obligations of a man under Civil Law and it is quite possible that this accused did not appreciate that hewas bound to comply promptly and without question that order which he subsequently received. The accused also says that the order that was given to him was an order of a nature which he couldn't comply with. He says, in effect, it would be contrary to his conscience; that he sincerely believes that to become enrolled as a soldier or even to take the first step in that procedure, to undergo a medical examination would be a breach of his covenant with Jehovah God and by reason of that he was unable to comply with the order that he received at that time. It is for this Court to decide whether those two objections, first, that he didn't understand - which is only an inference on the basis of the second witness - and second that he couldn't comply because of his conscientious objections.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

- in the case of -

Call-up No. J-28705 Metro McKITTEN, No. 10 District Depot, C.A., a person such as is mentioned in Section 170(10) of the Army Act, subject to Military Law as a soldier.

CHARGE: DISOBEYING A LAWFUL COMMAND GIVEN BY HIS SUPERIOR OFFICER

The Commanding Officer directs that the evidence be taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS: No. 11329 Corporal McDONALD, M.P., of the Winnipeg Detachment, Royal Canadian Mounted Police, Winnipeg, Manitoba, having been duly sworn, states:-

"I am No. 11329 Corporal McDonald, M.P., of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police and I know the accused, Metro Mykytyn, otherwise known as Metro McKitten.

At about 0830 hours on the 3rd day of February, 1945, I, took custody of the accused at Headingly Gaol, in Headingly, Manitoba, in accordance with a Certificate of Conviction which I obtained from Mr. Keen, the Chief Turnkey.

Q.1 Here is a document. What is it and to whom does it refer?

A It is the Certificate of Conviction which I obtained from Mr. Keen, dated 14th day of December, 1944, signed by T.J. Murray, Police Magistrate, whose signature I recognize and refers to the accused. (Document produced and marked Exhibit "A")

I then escorted the accused in custody directly to No. 10 District Depot, C.A., at Fort Osborne Barracks, Winnipeg, Manitoba, where we reported to Captain MacQuarrie, the Acting Assistant Adjutant, No. 10 District Depot, C.A., at about 0930 hours, on the 3rd day of February, 1945. I handed the Certificate of Conviction referred to before to Captain MacQuarrie on arrival at his office.

The accused and I waited in Captain MacQuarrie's office where we were joined by Sergeant Burton and other military escorts.

While the accused and I were in this office, Captain MacQuarrie explained to the accused that he was being held in Military custody until he became a soldier or till he was found by Military Authorities not to be fit.

The accused, Captain MacQuarrie, and I then went to the Reception Centre in the basement of the same building where Captain MacQuarrie obtained some papers. We then went into the X-ray department, where Captain MacQuarrie asked to have the accused X-rayed. Captain MacQuarrie then explained to the accused that he, the accused, was subject to Military Law, that being subject to Military Law he was bound to obey Lawful Commands of his Superior Officer. Captain MacQuarrie further explained that in this case he was his Superior Officer, being a Captain in the Canadian Army. He was dressed in Battle Dress and showed the accused his Pips and Badges.

The accused said, "I don't understand. I want to see the Brigadier." Captain MacQuarrie then repeated to the accused that he was bound to obey Lawful Commands of a Superior Officer. Captain MacQuarrie then asked me if I had heard and understood what had been said up to that point. I replied that I had both heard and understood. Captain MacQuarrie then ordered the accused, "Enter that booth, strip to the waist, and be x-rayed." The accused replied, "I want to see the Brigadier.", and in fact did not obey this command.

This Command was given in a clear and distinct voice while Captain MacQuarrie was within two paces of the accused. The accused was given every chance and plenty of time to comply and there was no physical restraint to prevent him from obeying. When it was certain that the accused would not obey, Captain MacQuarrie Sergeant Burton to retain the accused in custody and march him to the Garrison Custody Barracks.

Q.2 Were you in continuous custody of the accused from the time you took custody of him at Headingly Gaol until the accused did not obey Captain MacQuarrie's command?

A Yes.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

M. A. McDonald Cpl.
(11329 Cpl. McDonald)
R.C.M.P.

SECOND WITNESS: Captain K.G. MacQUARRIE, No. 10 District Depot, C.A., having been duly sworn, states:-

"I am Captain K.G. MacQuarrie, Acting Assistant Adjutant, No. 10 District Depot, C.A., and I know the accused (pointing) Call-up No. J-28705 Metro Mykytyn, sometimes known as Metro McKitten.

At about 0930 hours on the 3rd day of Feburgy, 1945, Corporal M.P. McDonald of the Winnipeg Detachment, Royal Canadian Mounted Police brought the accused in custody to my office, being Room No. 8, Building No. 4, Fort Osborne Barracks, Winnipeg, Manitoba, and at the same time handed me a Certificate of Conviction.

Q.1 Here is a document marked Exhibit "A". What is it and to whom does it refer?

A It is the Certificate of Conviction referred to dated 14th December, 1944, signed by T.J. Murray, K.C., referring to the accused.

I then arranged to have Sergeant Burton report to my office, While Corporal McDonald and the accused were still in my office, I told the accused that on authority of the Commanding Officer, No. 10 District Depot, C.A., he was being held in Military custody until he became a soldier of the Canadian Army pursuant to N.R.M.A. (Army) Regulations, 1943, or until he was found by the Military Authorities not to be fit.

The accused, Corporal McDonald, and I then went to the Reception Centre in the basement of the said Building No. 4, Fort Osborne Barracks, where an M.F.M. 2 and an X-ray requisition were made out for the accused.

The accused, Corporal McDonald, and I then moved into the X-ray department where I handed the X-ray requisition to the staff and asked to have the accused X-rayed.

I then carefully explained to the accused, (a) that he, the accused, was subject to Military Law, as a person who accompanies his Majesty's Troops on Active Service; (b) that a consequence of his being subject to Military Law was that he was bound to obey a Lawful Command of his Superior Officer and disobedience would make him liable to punishment and that punishment would be awarded after a charge was laid and against him and his guilt established by District Court-Martial or other proper authority; (c) that I, in this case, was his Superior Officer, a Captain in the Canadian Army Active, dressed in Military Uniform and wearing the badges of my rank which I indicated.

I then told the accused that I was about to give him a Lawful Command and asked him if he both heard and understood all that I had said up to that point. The accused replied,"I don't understand. I want to see the Brigadier."

I then repeated to the accused that he was bound to obey Lawful Commands of a Superior Officer. I asked Corporal McDonald if he had both heard and understood what I had said up to that point. Corporal McDonald replied that he had both heard and understood.

I then gave the accused a direct order in these words, "Call-up No. J-28705 Metro McKitten, I order you - enter that booth, strip to the waist, and be X-rayed." The accused replied,"I want to see the Brigadier," and in fact did not comply with the order.

The accused was standing within two feet when I gave the order and in my opinion both heard and understood it. He had every reasonable opportunity and plenty of time to comply with the order. There was no physical restraint to prevent compliance with the order. The X-ray equipment and personnel were ready to X-ray the accused.

After it was obvious that the accused would not comply with the order, I ordered Sergeant Burton to retain the accused in custody and march him to the Garrison Custody Barracks, which he did.

Q.2 What kind of soldiers are kept at No. 10 District Depot, C.A.?

A Soldiers placed on Active Service only.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

A No sir.

FIRST WITNESS FOR DEFENCE

The accused, B-117752, Pte.Roy Malesku, No.11 District Depot, CA, being duly sworn, is examined by the Defending Officer;

Q How old are you?
A Twenty-one.

Q Are you the only member of your family in the armed services?
A No.

Q Who of your family are in he armed services?
A There was one in the Air Force overseas.

Q How long in the Air Force?
A Imagine 3-4 years.

Q Anybody else?
A A brother honourably discharged, died a few months after discharge.

Q Will you tell the court from the time you went to camp what you did and why you did it?
A Up to the time I went to Camp Borden I took basic training when I joined the army to get in the motorcycle corps. I saw a few different examiners and was kept more or less believing I could get in the motorcycles as that was all I had ever done in my life. When I got to Camp Borden I saw an army examiner, the last one, he told me to get on motorcycles, was taking basic training at the time, was in the Medical Corps at the time; the reason I left was to get out of the Medical Corps. Well, I had intentions of joining up or coming back and getting on the motorcycles. I was going to join up but got scared that more trouble. About the time I was making up my mind I was apprehended in Kelowna. The only proof I have I didn't want to stay away, I could, I escaped from the guard house and came back on my own. I could have stayed away for quite a while.

Q When in Camp Borden and you went to see the army examiner about this motorcycle business did you believe you could become a driver of a motorcycle?
A He didn't, that is when I left. I saw maybe half a dozen army examiners before that, all told me I would have to take my basic training, but would have a pretty good chance to get in.

Q How did you get in the medical corps?
A I don't know, was just put in.

Q Did you ask for it?
A No.

Q You wanted the motorcycle?
A Yes.

Q When you surrendered yourself here to the authorities why did you do it?
A I knew for sure then that if apprehended I would be a deserter.

Q Where did you give yourself up, here?
A Yes, right at the gate.

CROSS EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR:

Q I understand from your evidence that you absented yourself from Camp Borden at 0600 hours, 24 April 1944?
A That is about it, I can't say for sure the exact date.

Q Would it be around that time do you think?
A Yes.

Q Did you remain away until 1 February 1945?
A Yes.

Q When you were apprehended by service authorities at Kelowna,B.C., at 1700 hours?
A Yes.

Q How were you dressed at the time of apprehension?
A Civilian clothes, I was workin .

Q Where was your uniform?
A When I left Camp Borden I went to Toronto, got myself a room there and these people where I stayed at didn't know anything about my being AWL, so they were being called upon by the Provost, so I thought the best thing I could do was send my uniform back to my unit so I wouldn't have it with me in my travels.

Q You lost your uniform?
A No, it was sent back to my unit, they sent it back.

Q What were you doing all the time you were away?
A Mostly motorcycle work.

Q Whereabouts?
A In Toronto, I have been in Kelowna along mechanical lines.

Q When did you come to Kelowna?
A Around 1 Nov.44.

Q What were you doing up at Kelowna?
A When I went there still a few apples left, worked on them and did a little bicycle and motorcycle work.

Q Are you married?
A No.

Q Did you intend to return to the army up to 1st Feb.when you were apprehended?

A Yes, I have a brother up there, he told me to turn myself in. Another brother in Vancouver drove me right up here as soon as he found out I was AWL.

Q What about this second absence, is it a fact that you absented yourself from No.11 District Depot, on 9 Feb.45 at 2000 hours?
A Yes.

Q And remained absent until 1645 hours, 13 Feb.45?
A Three days.

Q On that last date you surrendered yourself to service authorities here at Little Mountain, is that right?
A Yes.

THE DEFENDING OFFICER DECLINES TO REEXAMINE THE WITNESS.

QUESTIONED BY THE PRESIDENT:

Q What reasons, if any, were given you for your not being able to join some motorcycle corps?
A That they had a lot of them in the motorcycle corps already in the army I believe, no place for me.

THE WITNESS RESUMES HIS SEAT AS THE ACCUSED.

THE PROSECUTOR DECLINES TO MAKE A CLOSING ADDRESS.

THE DEFENDING OFFICER DECLINES TO MAKE A CLOSING ADDRESS.

PROCEEDINGS ON CONVICTION BEFORE SENTENCE

The Court having arrived at its finding on the charges, and such finding having been communicated to the accused, the Prosecutor tenders to the court MFB.355 and certified true copy of MFM.6 relating to the accused.

The above documents are read by the President to the court, are marked "Y" and "Z", signed by the President, and attached to the proceedings.

QUESTIONS TO THE ACCUSED

Q Have you any statement to make concerning the documents which have just been read to you?
A No sir.

Q Do you wish to address the court?
A Yes sir. The reason I came back the second time was to make this remark even if I had to go overseas in handcufffs. I would be willing to do so, there is no yellow streak. I have another brother overseas and another died after discharge. The reason I joined the army in the first place was to get overseas.

DEFENDING OFFICER:--This soldier is a young man. These crimes that have been committed have all been committed in the East and I think he was influenced by people there. I think this is true when he says he joined the army to fight, I believe him, and I hope you do. The fact two brothers are in the army service still fighting and the other honourably discharged shows that he has the right background. He appears to me to be young man with a very ingenious mind but has taken the wrong course. I think properly handled and steered along the right channel and sent overseas he would make a good soldier and I would like to ask the court to recommend that this man be sent overseas at the earliest opportunity.

Statement by Accused

I am going to begin this story when I joined the Army in July: at that time I left my job to join the army, and I was as eager, I guess, as any other soldier that joins the army. I went to Cornwall to take my basic. At Toronto in the Q.M. Stores I was fitted with boots that the Q.M. Sergeant told me was the nearest possible fit he could give me. During the course of my training at Cornwall I realized the boots were not exactly what I needed, and I didn't do anything about it for the time. As a matter of fact, I did go to the Q.M. Stores and tried to get them exchanged, but I got the same story there; I was told that the boots I needed or should have had been discontinued. So I carried on.

During this time I had pains in my leg all the time; and one day there was a foot specialist from District Depot No. 2 in Cornwall. He was making a routine check on personnel that came from the Depot. At this time I told him about my legs, and he suggested I see the M.O. in the camp, which I did. It wasn't a very thorough inspection I got - a bottle of liniment to rub on. I told the M.O. there was one knee in particular had bothered me for years, and I had seen civilian doctors about it, and had taken medicine for it, but due to the nature of the work I was doing the knee didn't bother me at the time. After two or three visits to him and massage and treatment of this liniment, I went to him this morning, andhe took another look at my leg, and said I had some sort of foot condition; but seeing my period of training at Cornwall was almost ended, I would be best advised to tell my story to the M.O. at Camp Borden.

I did - at one of the routine check-ups they have. I told my story to the Medical Officer, that was there. They took a look at my legs, which are quite big, by the way: my legs look as if they are powerful; and they practically laughed at me. They told me I should come back on sick parade in the morning if my feet continued to bother me. I went along. Later on, three weeks later, I went to see the M.O. and he gave me quite a thorough check-up. Before this, during the three weeks training I found that it was impossible for me to keep up on the route marches, and such things as that, owing to the pain in my legs, and the tightening of my muscles in my legs. For that reason I went to the M.O. He made quite a thorough check on my legs, and between the two of them they decided my legs were rather short, and that was the reason I couldn't keep up.

I finished my advanced training and went into the Machine Gun Wing there. Just by chance I happened to ask one of the sergeants in the wing, and I told him I would like, if not a proper fitting boot, one that was larger to enable me to get two pairs of socks underneath them. He took me over to the Q.M.Stores, and the Quartermaster tried to fit me and he told me it was impossible to fit my foot with this stock, and I would have to have a special pair of boots. He took me over to the M.O. to get a signed slip stating what I needed.

After this time, the same foot specialist, this Major from District Depot No. 2 was at Borden with a staff of special experts from the firm that made boots for the army, and I was one of the group that went over; and they also said I needed a pair of boots specially made. During my talk with the Major I reminded him about this knee, I had spoken to him about in Cornwall; and I think he remembered - he said he did. He said that when it was my turn to see him at his desk I should remind him that he wanted to speak to the M.O. My turn came along, and I told the Major about it, and he went off to get the M.O.; and came back a little later, and said he couldn't find him, but he would see him later. That was the last I heard of this.

During this period I developed varicose veins in the right leg, that I did not have when I joined the army. The cold weather was coming along, and the tight fitting boots were causing me considerable pain. A few days later I was measured for these boots in the Q.M. Stores, and promised I would have them within a week or two. I went on and did the best I could; a week passed and a month passed. I came down here on course, still no boots. I went over to see the medical officer who was here at that time. He told me there was nothing he could do about it. It was the responsibility of my unit at Borden to handle such things as that; but he did suggest I take these treatments they have after duty each night. I took it for a while - three or four nights, possibly longer - and I went over one night, and there was a fellow over there asked me what I wanted. I told him; and he said there was nobody to give them; I would have to forego them for that night. I was quite disgusted, and I didn't go back.

I carried on until Christmas time, a period of another two weeks, and still no boots; and when the cold weather was increasing, I found the pain was unbearable. Each morning I would go out; my legs would hurt ; and at night I would get into bed, and they would ache. That was one of the reasons why I stayed away at Christmas time.

Also, when I joined the army my job with McColl-Frontenac, which carried with it post-ponement for the duration...I did so against the wishes of my father, who was a very nervous man, I should say; he was quite upset. He has taken since then on a number of occasions; he has seen quite a few doctors, which have done him no good. He has taken all kinds of pills and medicine. When I went home at Christmas my mother told me he had been off work a week, and was going to stay off another week, because of the pain in his stomach. She told me at that time - I think it was Dr. Copp, I couldn't say for sure - had told her on the side sort of, that there was nothing wrong with my father organically or any way like that, just caused through a nervous strain. I thought perhaps it might help a little if I stayed home for a while. I think it did.

On top of that, I was down at Cornwall taking basic, and I made a few friends down there, and I promised I would go back at sometime or other, and didn't get a chance to go until Christmas season. About a week before Christmas I applied for New Years, and was told what would happen; and I made arrangements by letter to go down to Cornwall between Christmas and New Years. Then on the afternoon of the 21st I was told that I would be going on Christmas week; therefore, my arrangements were all shot, and I couldn't possibly get down there.

I think that is just about my story; and it gives the mental attitude I had when I stayed away .

QUESTIONED BY PRESIDENT

Q Did you get the boots yet?

A Yes, Sir, I have them now.

Q Are they of any assistance to you?

A I would say they remedy part of theproblem; I still think I need something else; I have been told by a foot specialist that I need an arch-support.

Q The boots don't supply the necessary arch-support?

A That is what I have been told. The civilian doctor I have seen about my foot, my left foot in particular, he told me it was altogether a different thing. I have been told in the army it is a different thing - it is my feet .

Q What did the civilian doctor suggest?

A He said it was a nerve; the actual pain was in the hip, but seeing the nerve ran down into the leg, that is where I felt the pain and ache.

Q Does it only bother one leg or both?

A I have a knee--I couldn't bend over and touch my toes now without bending my left knee; and in a sitting position I can't strsighten up my leg. Both legs have an ache all the time.

Q Both of them have an ache?

A Yes, Sir.

DOCUMENT "H"

ADDRESS BY DEFENDING OFFICER IN MITIGATION OF SENTENCE

Mr. President,- The accused I believe has very ably explained his reasons for being absent from the army. However, in summing up his case I might say a few words; and I do believe that the accused has been a victim of circumstances. He more or less has had the run-around as far as the Quartermaster Stores or the authorities with regard to his proper fitting of shoes.

We all know how difficult it is to navigate with shoes improperly fitted. He has explained in detail the trouble he has had - the M.O. - the medical authorities, as well as the Quartermaster Stores, in trying to get the proper fitting shoes. The old slogan goes "The infantry marches on its stomach."...I think in this war that it marches on a good pair of shoes, which have been provided for every man in the army. He has been unfortunate that he has not been able to get a proper fit. The proof is that he did not have a proper fit, and that there were measures taken. The fact is that he now produces a pair of shoes that he is wearing. I think that alone is sufficient evidence to prove that he has had trouble, and they realized, and the specialist that has been called in did understand his case, and did try to get shoes for him; but it has been six months since he joined, or longer than that now - he joined the army back in the summer of 1944.

Pte Mangoff, you will recall in his statement, and it is proven, that he did voluntarily join the army on his own account. He left a good job; he left against the wishes of his father to join the army. He is young and as vigorous as any other young Canadian, and who had a feeling he should offer his servi ces.

He has a clean sheet, his M.F.M. 6; this proves he has been a good soldier until coming to this camp, to the point where he was "browned off" and a mental attitude was created, which drove him to go loose. He has returned. The new shoes that have been provided for him in the army may solve part of his problem. I strongly recommend that further steps be taken to correct his trouble. He is young; he is healthy. The trouble apparently has been with shoes that the army has supplied him.

He has, as I said before, covered his problem very thoroughly, and with those remarks before you, I would recommend that the court be lenient in the punishment handed out to the accused.

1. Receipt is acknowledged of the proceedings of the marginally noted Standing Court-Martial which were forwarded by the President named therein.

2. The proceedings are legally regular, the finding is properly made and the sentence is according to law. Pursuant to C.A.R.O. 4065 paragraph 12, the said proceedings are herewith forwarded to you. After they have served your purpose, will you please return the proceedings to this office for custody.

3. The officer to certify that a document is a true copy or extract, so that such copy or extract may be admitted in evidence, is the officer who has the custody of the original document, record or book (A.A.165 (1) (h)). A Legal Officer is not a proper person to sign such a certificate unless he has the custody of the relevant original. Further, the certifying officer should, after his signature and rank, set out his appointment and unit and that he is the Officer having custody of the original document (or record or book, as the case may be). Some of the certificates endorsed on the M.F.B. 550, M.F.H. 6, copy of Part I Order (Exhibit "G") and M.F.B. 575, attached to the proceedings of the G/M Court-Martial, fail to set out certain of these particulars after the signature and rank of the certifying Officer, and some fail to set out others of these particulars.

Q.5 *Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity for preparing your defence?

Answer.

A. No, sir.

(For statement of Prosecutor as to Legal Qualifications, see document marked "G")

(Strike out and initial words not applicable.)

The prosecutor makes an opening address [~~xxxx

A. He is an instructor.

Q.15 Have you any idea or any knowledge as to how long he spent in B Company as an instructor ?

A. I can't answer that except that he was with me for about a week.

Q.16 Do you recall the date of the 10th of January, 1945 ?

A. I do.

Q.17 What were you doing on that date ? How were you employed on that date ?

A. As Platoon Commander, I believe it was of 6 Platoon.

Q.18 Where was the accused on that date ?

A. He was one of my Lance Corporal instructors, employed with my platoon.

Q.19 Did anything happen on that date that was out of the ordinary ?

A. Yes, that is the date the accident occurred.

Q.20 To whom ?

A. To Lance Corporal Muller.

Q.21. Will you tell us what happened. Start from the time you left camp. First of all, did you leave camp ?

A. Yes, we left camp. It was about 1500 hours on that date .

Q.22 On what date ?

A. The 10th of January, 1945.

Q.23 Go on, please ?

A. It was about 1500 hours on the 10th of January 1945. I should say about half an hour before that I was called into the Orderly Room. At that time I was told to take No 5 and 6 Platoons on a route march. The 2 i/c of the Company, Captain Fonger, gave me three 77 Smoke Grenades. They were not primed, the detonators were handed me in a separate envelope. I was instructed to take along a 303 rifle, and at the same time I was handed six or seven live rounds, with instructions to take these platoons on a four mile route march. They were to be halted and during a break period I was to give them a short talk on these grenades and subsequently throw them in some spot that I might choose.

A.23 (cont) I gathered the platoons together, and found out that Mr Gordon, Lieutenant Gordon, was to come along with me and act as 2 i/c of the parade. Corporal Muller was attached to my platoon - was with No 5 Platoon.

We left the gate at approximately 1500 hours, and proceeded in a southerly direction towards Brantford. About a half hour later we had covered two miles. We stopped for the break at a place known as Wyndham Township. On the side of the road, on the left side of the road, there is a gravel pit. It is not exactly a gravel pit, but a depression in the ground. I broke the platoons off, let them smoke, and after about ten or fifteen minutes, I gathered them together on the side of the road, it would be the east side of the road, next to the gravel pit, and gave them a talk on the subject of grenades. While this was going on, I had instructed three or four of the Lance Corporals to gather some brushwood and place it some forty or fifty feet from the road, inside the pit, in the depression. I had intended using this as a target to throw the grenades.

After the talk I primed the first grenade and threw it in the direction of the target. My throw was short - about ten to fifteen feet short, and the grenade did not explode.

Incidentally, I might say, before throwing them, I warned them no one was to leave the bank where we were standing. I had the platoon lined up on the side of the road. I warned them they were not to leave the road. I then called Mr. Gordon over, he was about fifty feet from me. We had a large number of men, somewhere in the neighbourhood of a hundred. I asked him to throw the second one. He threw it a few feet in front of the target and it didn't explode.

Corporal Muller was a few feet from me and he asked me if he could threw the grenade. He had never thrown one before and he did; and it fell to the right of the target. It didn't explode.

Q.24 Can you tell us why the three didn't explode ?

A. Yes, I can. The snow cushioned them, with the result the striker didn't push down the creep spring, with the result the detonator didn't explode. I thought when I went there the hard crust was sufficient to give it the necessary impact, but it seems it wasn't.

Q.25 How deep would the snow be ?

A. It was during the heavy snow, three or four feet I would say.

Q.26 Would you say why you took the rifle with you ?

A. We had thrown these grenades in our area previously. We had had blinds before and we found it the most effective manner to destroy the blinds, to fire a 303 in them.

Q.27 May we take it you anticipated you would have some blinds?

A. Yes, we anticipated that.

Q.28 What county is the township of Wyndham in ? What county is this Training Centre in ?

A. It might be Norfolk.

Q.29 You don't know for sure ?

A. No, I don't know.

Q.30 I am sorry to interrupt you, I wanted to clear up those few points. Will you carry on please. You got to the point where you were telling us about the snow.

A. Yes, the snow cushioned the grenades, and they didn't explode. When that happened, it was imperative we destroy them as soon as possible. I called Mr Gordon over. He is a good shot. I first warned the platoons not to leave the embankment on the side of the road. I took the rifle from one of the men, and gave it to Mr Gordon. I had the rounds in my own pocket, and gave them to him, and told him to destroy the grenades. Mr. Gordon proceeded down the embankment towards the grenade and when he was approximately four or five feet from it, he seemed to walk to the left from where I thought the grenade had landed.

A.30 (cont) I attempted to lead him with my voice, in fact, I think my words were, "Go to the right." He was approaching the grenade very cautiously and carefully.

Q.31 Do you know which grenade he was approaching ?

A. Yes, I had thrown that one. It was the one that fell short. It was the closest to us.

Q.32 I see. You were going to do it closest one first ?

A. Yes, I had intended that in my mind. I didn't communicate my thoughts to Mr. Gordon, but it was logical for him to take the first, and second, and then the third one last.

Q.33 Go on, please .

A. Mr Gordon was approaching the first grenade very carefully, and all of a sudden Corporal Muller rushed down the bank, and said "I will show you where it is, sir".

Q.34 How far would it be from the grenade which you are speaking about to the place where the platoons were halted.

A. About thirty feet. Twenty-five to thirty feet, sir.

Q.35 After he said, "I will show you where it is, sir," what happened then ? What action, if any, was taken by you ?

A. I yelled out, "Come on back here, Corporal," and he might not have heard it or he just disregarded it. At that moment, his run was very fast, he was right behind Mr. Gordon, and when Mr Gordon could see he was there, I heard him say, "Get the hell out of here".

Q.36 How far would the accused be from Mr Gordon, when Mr Gordon said, "Get the hell out of here" ?

A. Not any more than four feet. He was immediately behind him.

Q.37 Did the accused do what Mr. Gordon told him ?

A. No.

Q.38 What did he do ?

A. He took a few steps forward, bent down, and said, "I will show you where it is, sir," and proceeded to remove the snow where ostensibly the first grenade was. Just then Mr Gordon said,

A.38 (cont) "leave that God damn thing alone."

Q.39 What did the accused do, if anything ?

A. The Corporal took the grenade in his hand, and in front of his body, and said, "Look sir, there is nothing to it. He made a motion as if he would throw it in the air, or possibly he did throw it in the air, things happened quickly after that. I saw Mr. Gordon make a left turn, and then I ran down the embankment and started to strip his (Muller's) clothing off. I stripped him to the waist and applied my first field dressing to his nose, that seemed to be the worst burns. I asked the boys for their first field dressings. I flagged a couple of civilian cars on the road and hailed a couple of civilians to help with Mr. Gordon. They went back to camp after that in the same motor vehicle.

Q.40 That is Mr. Gordon and Corporal Muller, the accused ?

A. Yes, about fifteen or twenty minutes after the accident occurred.

Q.41 That - up to that point, is that pretty well how the accident occurred ?

A. Yes.

Q.42 You told us the accused was with you about a week before the accident, is that right ?

A. That is right.

Q.43 Can you tell the Court anything you know about his hearing ?

A. As a Lance Corporal he does a bit of lecturing. I think I gave him the first aid to look after. I remarked to someone, I believe it was my Sergeant, but who it was I don't know , that the boy would address the squad of eight or nine usually gathered in a group in front of him - the boy spoke in an unduly loud voice; and I remarked I usually had to

A.43 (cont) repeat my instructions to him, sometimes twice, and it seems the remark was passed he was rather hard of hearing.

Q.44 Mr Bianco, have you anything to produce to this Court ?

A. Yes, when the accident occurred, I immediately formed the platoons up and returned them to camp, leaving a guard to watch the area where the grenades had been thrown, and when I returned the platoons to their quarters, I went over to theWeapon Training Office, and obtained a vehicle, and in company with the Weapon Training Sergeant, with a Thompson Machine carbine, some rounds, a 22 rifle, and the driver of that vehicle, we proceeded to the area where I left the guards where the grenades - to watch the blind grenades; as we came down the embankment, the driver previously referred to was right behind me, I picked up this object. I am quite sure it was this object, or something closely resembling it, and I said to him, "Take it as a souvenir. That is the grenade that exploded", and I identify it as such.

Q.45 What colour is it ?

A. I would say it is a metal colour.

Q.46 What colour are new smoke grenades ?

A. Green.

PROSECUTOR TO COURT: - I would like to offer it as an exhibit. I don't feel the Prosecution has proved that is the exact colour of a blown out grenade, but I would like to offer it for what it isworth. Either it was that one, or one similar to it.

Q.47 PRESIDENT TO WITNESS - There is no doubt in your mind it is the remains of a 77 exploded grenade ?

A. No, sir.

Q.48 PRESIDENT TO DEFENDING OFFICER: Have you any objection ?

A 48 No objection, as an exploded 77 grenade. Not any particular grenade, but just "a" grenade.

PROSECUTOR: I wish to put it in on that basis if the Court will accept it.

PRESIDENT: It is acceptable to the Court.

(Casing of an exploded No 77 Smoke Grenade, is tagged marked Exhibit "G" by the President)

Q.49 PROSECUTOR TO WITNESS - Mr Bianco, have you any other evidence to give to this Court-martial in this case, or is that all you have to say ?

A. As to the facts, yes, that is all I have to say.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER -

Q.50 I would just like to clarify a couple of things first. Was this direction that you took your route march, was that north or south of the camp ?

A. In a northerly direction.

Q.51 I think you stated south in your evidence. It is not important, I just want to be sure of directions. This brush pile piled as a target for the grenades, was it east or west of the road ?

A. It was east.

Q.52 I believe Captain Downey referred to it as west. I just want to clarify it. It is not important. Merely to get that straight. You said in your evidence you carried a rifle and live rounds. Was it to be used to explode the grenades in the event they didn't explode when thrown ?

A. Yes, that is right.

Q.53 Was anything said by anyone, by yourself or anyone else, that would lead the platoon to believe the grenades might not explode ?

A. Yes, there was. I mentioned that fact after - just before throwing them, after I had covered the characteristics

A.53 (cont) of the weapon, there was a possibility they might not explode.

Q.54 Was there any reason for that ?

A. Yes, it is a creep spring bolted grenade, and the possibility of the snow cushioning it might have had that effect. In other words, it needed a sharp impact to explode the grenade.

Q.55 Have you any knowledge how long these grenades had been in stock or in the camp ?

A. Yes, I have knowledge.

Q.56 About how long would you say ?

A. These grenades had been in the camp since the early part of 1944. A shipment of one container, with possibly thirty-six grenades in that container had been sent to us in the early part of 1944. These had been the last of that container. These were given to me by Captain Fonger. He said, "These three are the last in stores."

Q.57 Would you say they should have been used before that date?

A. No.

Q.58 Was there anything about these grenades that by being a long time in stores, they might not explode ?

A. No, they have to be watched carefully to see that the container is not broken, otherwise the phosphorus would seep out, and on meeting with the air would ignite; then there is the matter of the creep springs. Not all creep springs have the same tension, but the target I had placed there, had it been struck, even on top of the snow, would have given a sufficient impact to explode. There was a crust on the snow that I thought was sufficient.

Q.59 How far would you say the target was from the throwing area ?

A. About forty feet

Q.60 Forty feet? Could it possibly have been a hundred feet ?

A. About 45 paces. That would be about forty-five yards.

Q.61 About forty-five yards, not forty-five feet. In other words, it could be a hundred feet ?

Mr. Bianco, you stated, I believe, that the three grenades were thrown; one by yourself; one by Corporal Muller; and one by Mr. Gordon, is that correct ?

A. Yes.

Q.62 Was there any effort made to destroy the first blind before the other two were thrown ?

A. No.

Q.63 Was that usual, do you know, to throw three blinds ?

A. It has been done before in a number of instances. Not with 77s, but with 36s. It is the usual procedure down at Long Branch. When a blind occurs it is marked in the mind of the officer in charge of the throwing bay, and he proceeds to destroy it. It is not an unusual thing.

Q.64 What happened after the grenade exploded and you rushed down to Corporal Muller and rendered first aid ? What did the rest of the platoon do, that is, the N.C.O.'s who were standing on the road ?

A. A number rushed down in the excitement and I think I yelled, "Get back on that road."

Q.65 But a number did rush down ?

A. Yes.

THE PROSECUTOR DECLINES TO RE EXAMINE.

Q.66 QUESTIONED BY MEMBER: Mr. Bianco, do you know whether this was a Mark I or Mark II 77 Grenade ?

A. I think it was a Mark I

Q.67 The Mark I is a phosphorus grenade. It was a phosphorus grenade ?

A.67 Yes, it was a phosphorus grenade.

Q.68 Then that is the Mark I Grenade; and you say that they had been in the camp since the early part of 1944 ?

A. These grenades, yes. Approximately early in 1944.

Q.69 Mr. Bianco, do you know of any special regulations regarding the useof the 77 Mark I Grenade and the issue of them ? Take the issue question first.

A. They are relatively new. The pamphlet doesn't even say the packing. In other words, I presume this: When the pamphlet was issued covering grenades and their method of packing, it wasn't even determined. In fact, I only found out myself when we received that box. I have issued 36 grenades with the detonators attached.

Q.70 Were they indented for in the regular way ?

A. No, sir. When we received them the 77 grenade was not on the Basic syllabus. I may be wrong there. The Quartermaster might have indented for them, but at that time I was Weapon Training Officer, and I didn't indent for them.

Q.71 Were you acquainted with any training regulations in the use of the Mark I ?

A. No, we didn't use them in training. Actually that was my first experience with throwing them. We threw a number last fall, not on syllabus, but on schemes out in the area. I had advised some officers these were available, and some who had had experience with them in Borden asked to throw them, and since they had been throwing them, I gave them permission. I know from my own knowledge some of them had to be destroyed with live rounds, because they failed to go off

(FOR MINUTE OF ADJOURNMENT AND REASSEMBLY SEE DOCUMENT "J" ATTACHED)

Q.72 QUESTIONING BY MEMBER CONTINUED: - I have one or two more questions I would like to ask you. Did you or did not not know of the scaleof issue of the 77 Smoke Grenades Mark I.

A. I did not know, sir.

Q.73 Did you or did you not know about their use being confined to authorized ranges ?

A. I had some knowledge of that. Where I obtained it, I do not know; but I did make that point when I was given instructions as I mentioned before. Before starting out on the route march with these grenades, my instructions were quite definite, and I had no alternative but to obey orders.

Q.74 Another question. Did you or did you not know of the only authorized method of destroying blinds ?

A. Yes, I did know, but the facilities - we have not the facilities in this training centre, and I was instructed as to what method to use, and was handed the instruments for such destruction before proceeding.

Q.75 Was there a qualified first aid man on the route march ?

A. There was not, sir.

Q.76 Had you taken the course in these 77 grenades at all ?

A. I took the course, the usual course in small arms at Long Branch. They were casually mentioned at the time, but they didn't have the grenade to show us.

Q.77 They didn't have the grenade to show you ?

A. No, sir. They did not.

Q.78 When these grenades and detonators were handed to you, they were handed to you personally weren't they ?

A. They were handed to me personally, yes.

Q.79 You say that you knew of this order about these 77 bombs, did you bring that information to your superior officer when he gave you these bombs ?

A. Yes, I did. In fact the situation was as follows: I was instructed to take these grenades and demonstrate how to throw them on the route march. I queried the wisdom of the order, by reason of the fact the platoons were only in the seventh or eighth day of training. This was their second route march, that would put them into their second week of training, and it was much too soon for them to take up the grenade. That was the conversation that took place between the onethat gave me the instructions and myself in the Orderly Room; and I brought up the fact there might be a possibility I would be unable to find a suitable locality to throw them. My objections were disregarded.

Q.80 You don't remember what your Commanding Officer told you in words, do you ?

A. Yes. "You will find a place out there." In fact the place that I did stop and throw them was taken into consideration as a likely spot for such throwing.

Q.81 Did you fire any of the 303 ammunition into these bombs ?

A. I personally fire any of the ammunition ? No, I didn't.

Q.82 Were they fired ?

A. Not at the time the platoons were there. Later when I returned to the scene.

Q.83 You were there when they were fired ?

A. Yes.

Q.84 Did you consider that a safe place to fire a 303 rifle ?

A. Yes, it was a safe place.

Q.85 Into a gravel pit ?

A. It wasn't a gravel pit. In the summer time it might be seen, but in the winter time it was covered with snow.

Q.86 What first aid did you give this Corporal ?

A. I stripped him to the waist, removing all burning clothing from his body. I took out his field dressing, the old type with two bandages in one container. That gave me two dressings. I applied one to his nose and one to his forehead, and one to his chin. I had to borrow from somebody else. I don't know who.

Q.87 With a phosphorus burn that is no good. That is not the proper cure or treatment for phosphorus burns.

A. I merely applied the first aid for burns that we were instructed to apply on all burns .

Q.88 Taking these phosphorus bombs out, didn't you think it was up to you to find out if a man did get burned with phosphorus what treatment should be proper ?

A. We have to conform with what is laid down with a Basic training centre. It is not usual to throw grenades on a four mile route march with troops so new in training. The accident was not anticipated

Q.89 An accident is never anticipated. In other words, the whole thing was: You took these bombs out. You didn't consider it necessary to find out the proper treatment in case an accident did occur ? They have just come out and they are so young in the Army, and in case of an accident you didn't have the proper cure for a remedy ?

A. I had my first field dressing.

Q.90 I still maintain that is not the one.

A. I am not in a position to answer that, not being a medical man. I was only using the knowledge which is

A.90 (cont) taught us, the first field dressing.

Q.91 QUESTIONED BY THE PRESIDENT: When did you tell the two platoons that they were not to move from the edge of the road ? Do you recall when that instruction or order was given ?

A. I think it was given in two instances, sir. Once just prior to the throwing of the grenade I ordered them all to remain on the road, and under no circumstances to go down into the gully; the second time when Mr. Gordon was instructed to go down and fire them off.

Q.92 Do you know whether - do you know where the accused was when you gave the first instruction ?

A. No, I wouldn't know, sir. He may have been right next to me and again he may have been at the other end. You see there were approximately a hundred lined up on the road.

Q.93 One or two deep, I suppose ?

A. One or two deep and covering a considerable frontage.

Q.94 Would he have been picking up brush at the time ?

A. No, he didn't. He wasn't one of those detailed. I don't remember who it was that was detailed, but I don't think he was one. In any event, if he didn't hear the original order, the second must have been heard when Mr. Gordon went down, because Mr. Gordon was some distance away from me when he was handed the rifle and on his way down the gully, I turned to the platoon and instructed them to remain on the road.

Q.95 Then, I take it, the instructions given to Mr. Gordon to go down and destroy these blinds were given some distance away from him ?

A. I don't for the minute remember whether I gave him the rounds at that time, because I had them on my person just a short time before, and just his exact position,

A.95 (cont.) I can't remember. I can't picture it for the moment.

Q.96 Were your instructions given in a clear tone, or that he could hear at the time ?

A. Yes, they were.

QUESTIONED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER THROUGH THE COURT -

Q.97 Would the Court ask Mr. Bianco as to his opinion on what type of soldier - of N.C.O. Corporal Muller has been, to his knowledge ?

PRESIDENT: Would you answer that question, Mr. Bianco ?

A. Corporal Muller is a very keen, conscientious, and intelligent soldier. I did remark during the week he was with me, that when given work to do he did it just a little better than other N.C.O.'s would do it; and he was very eager. His eagerness sometimes took such a turn that he volunteered for too many things, there was the fear that he would work too hard, and I frequently refrained from giving him instructions or orders, so that I could spread the work out among the others.

Q.98 In other words, he would be the willing horse type ?

A. Yes, he was the willing horse .

Q.99 QUESTION BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER THROUGH THE COURT: Would theCourt ask Mr. Bianco if he considers that he has a loud voice ?

Q.100 Do you consider that you have a loud voice ?

A. I have a very loud voice, sir.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT, IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RULE OF PROCEDURE 83 (B)

THE WITNESS WITHDRAWS.

2nd Witness for THE PROSECUTION — Lieutenant J.G. Gordon, A.10 Canadian Infantry Training Centre, C.A. attached No 25 Canadian Infantry (Basic) Training Centre, C.A. being duly sworn is examined by the Prosecutor:

Q.101 Mr. Gordon, you have given your Unit to the Stenographer as A.10 Canadian Infantry Training Centre, is that right ?

A. That is right.

Q.102 You are attached to No 25 Canadian Infantry Basic Training Centre ?

A. That is right, sir.

Q.103 What type of an officer are you here ? Are you a Reinforcement officer ?

A. I am a reinforcement officer

Q.104 What Company are you in ?

A. B Company.

Q.105 Do you know the accused ?

A. Yes.

Q.106 What is his name ?

A. Corporal Muller.

Q.107 What Company does he belong to ?

A. B Company.

Q.108 Do you recall the date of the 10th of January, 1945 ?

A. Yes, sir.

Q.109 What Company were you belonging to at that time ?

A. B Company.

Q.110 And the accused ?

A. The same Company, sir, B Company.

Q111 What happened on that date? Did you stay in Camp or did you go out of Camp ? What did you do ?

A. Wewent out of camp about 1500 hours - 3 o'clock, on a route march, on a four mile route march. We went north from camp on the highway, I believe going to Brantford.

Q.112 You say "we", who went out ?

A. I believe it was five and six platoons. At that time I was a supernumerary officer under Mr. Bianco. I went along as 2 i/c.

Q.113 Who was the officer in command ?

A. Mr. Bianco.

Q.114 You tell us that - we have got you going out of camp, you say towards Brantford ?

A. I don't know.

Q.115 Well, how far out of camp did you go ?

A. I think approximately two miles.

Q.116 Did you keep on marching ? What did you do ?

A. At the end of that time we stopped and Mr Bianco told me he was going to throw some grenades he had with him, for demonstration purposes, and he said they probably wouldn't go off.

Q.117 PRESIDENT - Did this conversation take place in the presence of the accused ?

A. WITNESS: I don't know, sir. I can't answer that.

Q.118 PROSECUTOR: Don't tell us the exact conversation that took place between you and Mr Bianco. You can say as a result of the conversation you did so and so. You found out there were going to be grenades thrown, is that right ?

A. That is true.

Q.119 Did you know before you left camp there was going to be grenades thrown ?

A. I don't believe so .

Q.120 That wa s the first you found out about it?

A. I believe so. It wasn't anything unusual grenades were going to be thrown, and I don't know.

Q.121 Did you have anything with you to destroy the grenades ?

A. Yes, I was told there was a 303 and shells; and I was going to handle that, because I am a very good shot.

Q.122 Will you tell the Court what your qualifications are ?

A. Not very high. I am an accurate shot. I have never scored anything less than a possible. I happen to be a left hander. I am able to handle the - either a 303 or 22 with a good deal of success.

Q.123 What has your experience been if anything, with reference to grenades ?

A. My experience has not been extensive. I have handled the 36 grenade at Camp Borden, and have destroyed blinds. I haven't had a great deal of experience with either the 69 or the 77 grenade; but I do know very, very well the mechanism of these grenades and I have handled them quite extensively. I have also done power exploding at a gold mine, and I have handled a tremendous number of detonators, and dynamite.

Q.124 Mr. Gordon, we had you at the point the platoon was halted. What was done next ?

A. Mr. Bianco called the platoon together and he spoke to them about the demonstration he was going to put on. He had somebody, I am not quite sure who, go down and get some bits of brush wood, thinking he could throw the grenades against that. I don't know what he did that for. He had some brushwood cut for a target, that's what he did that for; and then we put on the demonstration. We threw three grenades. Mr. Bianco three one; Corporal Muller threw one; and I threw one. All, if I remember correctly, were blinds. Mr. Bianco handed me the rifle, the 303 and four cartridges, and asked me to go down and destroy the grenades. I went down to do so.

Q.125 What happened next.

A. The grenades had been thrown into the snow, and none of them had exploded. Realizing the danger of stepping on such a grenade, I was taking quite a bit of care.

Q.126 Tell us about the snow, will you, Mr. Gordon . How deep was it.

A.126 The snow was about two feet deep.

Q.127 And the condition of the snow ?

A. The condition was such that there was a soft crust on it. The condition was such, the grenade, I realize now, would be cushioned by that sort of snow.

Q.128 Are you telling us then that may be the reason that they didn't explode, because of the soft snow ?

A. I believe myself now, that is the rea son they didn't explode. I'd like to make this statement here: that in spite of the fact that I know the danger of these grenades, Mr. Bianco had emphasized the fact that these grenades were duds. I think Corporal Muller knew that fact, at least was informed that way. I know I was.

Q.129 Now carry on, please. From the point you started down to destroy these blinds. What was the next thing that happened ?

A. I couldn't find the mark of the first grenade in the snow, and I heard Mr. Bianco say, "move over to your right" and I turned to look at him; he must have said that to me. I don't know - I don't remember him calling my name. I turned to the right and looked around, and Corporal Muller had found the mark of the grenade in the snow, and bent down and broke the little top covering there was on the snow and I saw the edge of the grenade in the snow.

Q.130 That's the first you tell us of Corporal Muller being there. Do you know how Corporal Muller got there ?

A. No, sir. I don't.

Q.131 How far would that be from where you saw Corporal Muller from where you saw the rest of the men ?

A. I would say twenty-five yards.

Q.132 Did you hear any conversation that might have taken place between Corporal Muller, the accused, and Mr. Bianco before that ?

A. No, sir.

Q133 Was there or was there not any conversation between the accused and yourself at the time when you first saw him at edge of the grenade in the snow ?

A. As soon as I saw the edge of the grenade, I said to him "Don't touch that God damn thing."

Q134 Did he touch it ?

A Yes, sir.

Q135 Did he make any reply to that remark ?

A He did say something. I am guessing at what he did, but I do consciously believe, he did say something.

Q136 Do you know what he said ?

A. I am not sure, sir.

Q137 Alright, what was the next thing that happened ?

A He took the grenade and I believe he tossed it.

Q138 Yes?

A And the grenade exploded.

Q139 How far would the grenade be from him when it exploded, can you tell us that ?

A N o, I can't exactly tell you that, no sir.

Q140 Were there any effects of that explosion?

A I saw the grenade explode and I dove in the snow, myself, not because I knew what to do; I thought of fire, and I thought of water, and the snow was the closest thing I could think of .

Q141 How far would the exploded grenade be from you ?

A I would say about fifteen feet.

Q142 Did you receive any injuries ?

A No, fortunately, I was very slightly burned about the face; that was all.

Q143 Did you have to go into the hospital ?

A I went into the hospital and had my face burn treated,

A143 (cont)I had some burn cream, I believe No 5, applied, that's all.

Q144 Were you kept in hospital ?

A No.

Q145 Did you lose any time ?

A No, sir.

Q146 What kind of duties did you perform ?

A Light duties, that is, I was allowed to perform my duties.

Q147 What were the effects, if any, of the explosion with reference to the accused himself ?

A When I got my head out of the snow and turned around, Mr Bianco had come down and was attending to Corporal Muller.

Q148 What was he doing with Corporal Muller ?

A He was putting out - the battle dress was on fire, and I think - and he was putting it out to the best of his ability.

Q149 What was he using, do you know ?

A He was using hishands, when I saw him

Q150 I asked you what were the effects of the explosion and you tell us Mr Bianco was putting out the fire, was that an effect of the ex losion ?

A No, as a result of the white phosphorus hitting his battle dress, it put it on fire .

Q151 Where did the white phosphorus come from ?

A The 77 grenade

Q152 Are you telling us the battle dress burn was a result of the explosion ?

A I understand, I am told that when white phosphorus is exposed to the air, it immediately creates a very, very, hot flame, so that after it had hit the battle dress, it would immediately break into flame.

Q153 Was or was not the accused burned as a result of this phosphorus ?

A I would say quite definitely he was burned.

Q154 Where was this phosphorus burn ?

A As I saw it, he was burned about the face, ears, throat and, I think that covers it.

Q155 What happened to the accused after you saw Mr Bianco putting the fire out on his battle dress ?

A Mr. Bianco applied his first field dressing to his face and had stopped the first civilian car that came along the highway. Corporal Muller and myself got into the car and we went immediately to the Simcoe Military Hospital.

Q156 I would like you to look at Exhibit "I". Will you look at that, please, and then tell us what it may or may not be .

A I believe that this is an original container of a 77 Grenade.

Q157 Of"a" 77 Grenade ?

A Of "a" 77 Grenade.

Q158 You are not in a position to say what 77 grenade it might be ?

A No, quite true.

Q159 Do you know what colour a 77 grenade is prior to its being burned out ?

A The ones we were using were green

Q160 Is there any other evidence you wish to tell the Court in connection with this case ?

A Just my personal feelings about the thing

Q161 If the Court wishes to hear them.

PRESIDENT: I don't know just how his personal feelings would have any bearing. He might be asked questions in cross-examination or by the Court as to how he regards the accused, or something of that kind, but I don't think personal feelings are evidence either as to fact or character.

Q162 PROSECUTOR: Have you any other evidence as to fact that you wish to give the Court at this time ?

A No, sir.

Q163 Then, that's all for me.

Q164 THE DEFENDING OFFICER CROSS EXAMINES:- You stated that there were remarks made prior to the throwing of the grenades that would lead you to believe that they would be duds, is that correct ?

A That is true

Q165 Is it possible that remark could have been made in the hearing of Corporal Muller ?

A Yes, I believe so.

Q166 Is it possible this remark could have been made within the hearing of the platoons ?

A Yes.

Q167 Does it seem normal to you as an explosives man, that three grenades should be thrown and all duds, without any effort being made to destroy the first one ?

A No.

Q168 And does it seem normal to you as an explosives man that when the first grenade was a blind it should have been destroyed at once?

A It should have been.

Q169 Was it normal to leave it ?

A It was not normal.

Q170 When the grenades were thrown did you watch the flight of the grenades ?

A Yes.

Q171 Did you see the tapes come off ?

A Not consciously, no, sir.

Q172 You didn't see the tapes come off ?

A No, sir.

Q173 You wouldn't know when they hit the ground, whether the tape had become unwound, or the safety pin come off ?

A No

THE PROSECUTOR DECLINES TO RE EXAMINE

QUESTIONED BY MEMBER:

Q174 You know the regulations laid down regarding the treatment of blinds, don't you ?

A Yes, sir.

Q175 Do you think the correct regulations were followed out in connection with these blinds ?

A Yes, sir. I do.

Q176 You do ?

A Yes, sir. I do. As far as I was personally concerned, yes, sir.

Q177 I understand that the regulations regarding the blinds of the 77 Mark I Grenade, which is a phosphorus grenade are the same regulations that apply to the 36, that is they are only to be destroyed with a demolition set ?

A If that is true, then I do not know the regulations. My believe was that with a grenade that explodes on instantaneous combustion you demolish it the same as you do a 69.

Q178 Or a 36 you mean ?

A No, I don't mean a 36. A 36 has the time fuse.

Q179 Do you know of any such instructions issued by the Director of Military Training regarding the throwing of these grenades on safe ground ?

A No, sir.

Q180 That has not been drawn to your attention ?

A No, sir.

Q181 When Mr Bianco told you he had an idea these grenades were duds, blinds, you don't know what made him make that remark, do you ?

A No, sir. I don't.

Q182 As far as you know, he just made that out of a blue sky ?

A No, I know a little more than that. He told me he was sure they had been in stores a long time. I remember that very clearly. He said he didn't think they would work .

Q183 That doesn't say they won't go off if they have been in storage a long time ?

A Oh, absolutely not, sir.

QUESTIONED BY THE PRESIDENT: -

Q185 I gather that you had reason to believe that these grenades would be blinds before you actually threw them ?

A Oh, absolutely. There was certainly that possibility.

Q186 And you had been informed ?

A Absolutely, and that eventuality had been taken care of. We had the rifle and the shells.

QUESTIONED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER THROUGH THE COURT:-

DEFENDING OFFICER: Would the Court ask Mr Gordon the size of the target area ?

Q187 PRESIDENT: Mr. Gordon, what was the size of the target area, in your estimation ?

A187 The actual brush pile, or whatever it was, - all I could do is guess that ?

Q.188 PRESIDENT: An estimate ?

A Ten feet square. Oh, no, it wouldn't be that.

DEFENDING OFFICER: I might say here, it has been measured. It was nine feet square, so that is a very good estimate. Would the Court ask Mr. Gordon how far from the throwing area was the target ?

Q189 PRESIDENT: How far from the throwing area was the target ?

A I think it would probably be twenty-five yards.

DEFENDING OFFICER: That's close enough. Another question, would a nine foot square target make a good target for throwing at a hundred feet. Would it be large enough is what I mean ?

WITNESS: Give me that again.

Q190 PRESIDENT: Would a target nine feet square be large enough to hit with a grenade at approximately a hundred foot range ?

A A hundred feet would be about thirty yards, wouldn't it ? It would be a fair target.

DEFENDING OFFICER: But none of the grenades hit the target.

WITNESS: That is true.

DEFENDING OFFICER: That has been already brought out in evidence. One other thing. What is your opinion as to the type of soldier, the type of N.C.O. Corporal Muller has been ?

Q191 PRESIDENT: Will you answer that please ?

A I was a stranger in the camp. Even before I had been out with him, I heard nothing but the highest remarks about A191 (cont) him.

Q192 DEFENDING OFFICER: Was there anything definite you did hear about him. For instance did you hear he had bad hearing ?

A I heard him give a lecture on first aid, and I asked somebody because he impressed me

Q193 DEFENDING OFFICER: But you didn't hear any remarks as to his hearing ?

A No, I don't believe I heard that.

Q194 DEFENDING OFFICER: Did you hear any remarks as to his enthusiam ?

A I heard people say he was a hell of a good man, if that's enthusiasm.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH R.P. 85 (B)

THE WITNESS WITHDRAWS

PROSECUTOR: I think it is only fair for the accused as well as the Prosecution, that consideration be given to the recalling of Mr Bianco under Rule of Procedure 86, for the purpose of definitely establishing from his own mouth, whether he did make any statement as to these grenades being duds. If you will notice Rule of Procedure 86 A or B, that gives us permission to recall witnesses providing the Court is of the opinion it is the proper thing to do. Rule of Procedure 86 D also may be applicable.

PRESIDENT: If Mr. Bianco is there, we might have him now.

PROSECUTOR: I believe, sir, that this is to be done by the Court.

PRESIDENT: Questions are to be put by the Court, yes.

1st Witness for THE PROSECUTION (RECALLED) — Lieutenant Alphonse BIANCO, Home War Establishment, No 25 Canadian Infantry Basic Training Centre, C.A., being recalled, is questioned on his former oath, by the President:-

Q195 There has been evidence given by the last witness, Mr. Gordon, that he understood that these grenades, these 77 grenades, were quite likely duds, that is, they might not go off, and I gathered that he had been so informed by you ?

A Yes, I got..

Q196 Is that correct, or not ?

A Yes, that is correct, sir.

Q197 What was the basis of your reason for considering they might be duds ?

A As a result of the conversation I mentioned before, I had in the Orderly Room with Captain Fonger, my Officer Commanding; when he handed me the rifles and rounds, I asked him the reason, and he said they might not go off.

Q198 Did he give any reason why they might not go off ?

A I don't remember about that.

Q199 Did you yourself have any reason why you thought they would not go off ?

A The only suspicion I had sir, that they might not go off was with experience I have had in our west area with a like type of grenade from the same packing, where we had to fire on them.

Q200 In other words other 77 grenades ..

A Other 77 grenades that came from the same packing

Q201 Had not gone off?

A Had not gone off, and we had to fire them. This

A 201 (cont) experience had occurred before there had been snow on the ground. It lead me to believe that possibly the creep spring might have been a little taut.

PROSECUTOR: Would the Court consider it advisable to ask the witness if the witness did make any statement to the effect that these might likely be duds ?

Q202 PRESIDENT: Had you said anything in the presence of the accused as to these being duds ?

A I don't think I used that word. I think I said they might not go off.

Q203 Was that in the general instructions to platoons ?

A Yes, and I think I spoke personally to him.

Q204 Was that before he threw the one he threw ?

A During the route march, sir, I think he walked next to me.

Q205 And your recollection is you may have then told him that they might not go off, is that correct ?

A Yes, sir.

Q206 And your reason would be based on your own experience plus what you had been told before you left, is that right ?

A That is right, sir.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH R.P. 83 (B)

THE WITNESS WITHDRAWS.

3rd Witness for THE PROSECUTION — Captain A.D. KONKIN, Royal Canadian Army Medical Corps, Hamilton Military Hospital, being duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor:-

Q207 Captain Konkin, you are R.C.A.M.C. ?

A Yes.

Q208 Where are you employed now, Captain Konkin ?

A At the Hamilton Military Hospital .

Q209 In what capacity ?

A I am in charge of surgery in Hamilton Military Hospital

Q210 Do you know the accused ?

A I do.

Q211 What is his name ?

A Lance Corporal Muller.

Q212 Will you tell theCourt how it came about you knew the accused in the first instance ?

A He was admitted to Hamilton Military Hospital on the 10th of January, 1945, at 2100 hours.

Q213 Yes ?

A Suffering from burns to his face and neck.

Q214 While you are at it, Captain Konkin, will you tell us what date he was discharged ?

A He was discharged on the 5th of February.

Q215 That would make it how many days ?

A That would make it twenty-six days

Q216 What is the rate - the cost of hospitalization in Hamilton Military Hospital ?

A $2.50 a day.

Q217 What is the total amount of the cost of hospitalization ?

A $65.00

Q218 Tell us what he was suffering with ?

A He had burns which involved his face, forehead, front and sides of his neck, and his left ear. He had received previous treatment at the local hospital, and he had a treatment of medication on his face when I first saw him.

Q219 What treatment did you give to him ?

A We cleansed the whole area, removed what medication was there, so that we could better determine the extent

A219 (cont.) of the burns and following that, we simply repeated the medication that had been started by the Medical Officer here. It was adequate.

Q220 While in Hamilton Military Hospital, was he kept there by reason of anything else that might have happened to him or exclusively for these burns ?

A For the burns

Q221 In other words, are you telling us the time was spent there by reason of these burns ?

A Yes

Q222 What would you say as to his recovery ?

A I think hehas made a remarkable recovery. There is very little scar, as you can see. The pigmentation you see there, I am afraid will be a permanent disfigurement, if you want to call it that; however, I don't want to be to precise, because my experience with phosphorus burns is limited, but from what I have read on the subject, the discolouration, such as you see may be a permanent factor.

Q223 Can you tell the Court as to whether or not there is any relation between the injuries received, and any other fact, that is, what may or may not have caused the injury? You mentioned something about phosphorus burns.

A That I took from the statement given me by Corporal Muller himself. I didn't, I may make an admission, make that diagnosis of a phosphorus burn, but I got that information from him. To me, it was a burn only. When I said a phosphorus burn, it was on information that I got from him, and I think now, that someone who came in with him gave me the story of the type of burn it was.

Q224 Could they have been caused by some other methods ?

A They could have been caused by many other methods.

Q224 (cont.) But I don't think they would have left the pigmentation that we see there, if they were caused by some other fact.

THE DEFENDING OFFICER CROSS EXAMINES:

Q225 Would you say that these burns were painful ?

A Yes

Q226 There is a possibility they would be painful ?

A Yes, burns to the face are painful

Q227 Do you think there is a possibility of a permanent effect on the hearing of the leftear ?

A No, I don't.

Q228 Did you find anything in your examination to show that Corporal Muller was or is, hard of hearing in that ear ?

A No, I didn't test his hearing. The burn is not likely to cause - the burn is a superficial thing, involving the first part of the canal of the ear, the external ear, and did not effect the hearing apparatus, in my opinion, that is.

THE PROSECUTOR DECLINES TO RE EXAMINE

Q229 QUESTIONED BY THE PRESIDENT: I understand that at the time - we are told, that at the time of the accident, a first field dressing was applied to his nose, and I think possibly to his face; would that be a beneficial treatment or otherwise ?

A Purely a protective thing. I don't know if the face, or if that dressing had not been applied, I don't think he could have come to any harm. It was apparently a neutral thing . It didn't effect it one way or another.

Q 230 Is there any procedure laid down for phosphorus burns ?

A Yes, but it cannot be carried out in the field, a weak solution of copper sulphate.

Q231 Would it normally be carried in a first aid kit by a medical orderly, had one been present ?

A I am afraid I cannot answer that. I am not acquainted with the setup of a first aid kit at the time. He had received adequate treatment by the officer here in camp.

Q232 That was apparent to you ?

A Yes

QUESTIONED BY THE PROSECUTOR THROUGH THE COURT:

Q233 Would the Court consider asking the Medical Officer if the accused's Pulhems Profile might be changed in any way as a result of the accident ?

A. No, there will be no change. It would remain the same.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RULE OF PROCEDURE 83 (B)

THE WITNESS WITHDRAWS

4th Witness for THE PROSECUTION Captain M.P. TOWNSEND, Royal Canadian Army Medical Corps, Officer Commanding Simcoe Military Hospital, being duly sworn is examined by the Prosecutor -

Q234 You have given your Unit as Royal Canadian Army Medical Corps, is that right ?

A That is right

q235 You are Officer Commanding Simcoe Military Hospital, is that right ?

A Yes.

Q.236 Do you know the accused ?

A I do

Q237 What is his name ?

A Corporal Muller, I don't recall his first name, I believe it is Frederick.

Q238 Do you ever remember seeing him in Simcoe Military Hospital ?

A Yes, sir. He was brought in on the 10th of January.

Q239 Of what year ?

A 1945

Q240 Do you recall the time ?

A It was approximately 1630 hours.

Q241 Why was he brought in to your hospital ?

A He was suffering from extensive burns about the face, neck and ears

Q242 What appeared to have caused these burns ?

A It was obviously phosphorus. The material was still smoldering on his face and ears.

Q243 Could you see phosphorus on his face and ears ?

A Yes.

Q244 Can you tell us what extent the burns were ?

A In my opinion they were first, second and third degree burns; first degree burns over the temples, and by the ears. He was wearing a winter Melton cap; it was up to that; second degree burns across his forehead, and third degree burns across his nose.

Q245 Was there any treatment given ?

A Yes, the dressings on him were removed and he was placed over a basin of water and water applied lavishly, over the area, because that prevents the burning of the phosphorus; and the skin that was hanging in shreds was removed.

Q246 What else was done.

A246 After I had done this I felt particles of phosphorus on the skin. I applied a wash of potassium permanganate diluted. This caused a chemical reaction - it caused the phosphorus to go black and any remaining particles could be removed.

Q247 Does the potassium permanganate neuteralize it ?

A No, it produces a copper phosphate, I believe, which is black in appearance and I could see it and pick it off.

Q248 Was any other treatment given ?

A After that No 9 burn cream was applied and he was transferred to Hamilton Military Hospital.

Q249 What time was that ?

A At night. About - it was after the evening meal, I presume about 1900 hours.

Q250 Do you know yourself how long he was in Hamilton Military Hospital.

A He was admitted on the 10th of January, 1945, and he reported to me on the 5th of February, same year. About 26 days.

Q251 Would you say that this would cause any change in his Pulhems Profile, the injuries sustained ?

A N o, sir.

Q252 What can you tell us as to whether or not this will be a permanent disability ?

A There will be some disfigurement as far as the pigmentation on his face; and his ear won't be as pretty, but I think that's all the permanent damage.

Q253 Are you in a position to say what may have caused the injries sustained by the accused ?

A I think all I can say it was caused by phosphorus.

Q254 You don't know where the phosphorus came from yourself ?

A Just from hearsay.

Q255 Did you have occasion to examine Mr. Gordon - Lieutenant Gordon ?

A Yes, he came in at the same time.

Q256 Did behave any injury ?

A He had a few spots of phosphorus on his right jaw. He had fairly superficial burns, treated in the same manner.

Q257 Was there any cost of hospitalization for Mr Gordon ?

A No, sir.

Q258 What have you to say as to his injuries being serious enough to cause him to be off duty ?

A No, they wouldn't be serious enough.

THE DEFENDING OFFICER DECLINES TO CROSS-EXAMINE

Q259 QUESTIONED BY MEMBER:- Do you think, Captain Townsend, that the treatment the Corporal received on the spot where the grenades were thrown - where he received these burns was adequate or in other words, were the burns he received, or the injuries aggravated by the fact he did not receive adequate treatment between the time he received the burns, until you saw him ?

A I think the situation they were in, there was no water. It was a cold day and they would be unable to obtain water where they were. If they had applied snow, it might have helped a little, but outside of that, I can't think of any treatment he could have had.

Q260 The Director of Military Training Circular Letter 1321 states this: that these grenades are highly inflammable and great care must be taken to counteract the fire hazard they cause. They should be thrown in a recognized grenade area, properly fenced so that no one may wander over the ground after the practice, or Q260 (cont) that serious burns may result. There is also the danger of serious burns to personnel. In case of accident where some burning phosphorus lights on the individual, a damp cloth or mud should be used to cover the phosphorus or if the area affected permits, the injured member may be immersed in water. The burn will thus be smothered, but on removal of the cover, there is a possibility of reignition. The Medical Officer should pour a quarter percent copper sulphate solution over the phosphorus, which forms a non inflammable crust. The phosphorus may then be picked out of the burn with tweezers, and the burn having been freed of phosphorus is then treated.

What I was getting at was the question of whether the injury was aggravated between the time he received it and you saw him for treatment. What would you say as to this treatment ?

A The treatment described there ? It is perfect, but as I said before, it was quite a cold day, without any mud or wet cloths. If they had applied snow, that would have had the same effect. The first field dressing, while it didn't harm it, had no beneficial effect. It was not beneficial or detrimental, one way or the other. It might help a bit to prevent the air from getting at the phosphorus too readily. I don't think it had any detrimental effect.

The phosphorus itself burns; in the matter of phosphorus burning, something causes the phosphorus itself to burn when it strikes the air.

Q 261 It wouldn't ignite the first field dressing ?

A No, sir.

Q262 Had there been a first aid kit available at the time this accident occurred, would it have contained one quarter percent copper sulphate solution in the first aid kit, that is, if it had been known that phosphorus was going to be used, would it have contained that solution ?

A I don't believe at the present time that is required. The first aid kit as outfitted for route marches contains no copper sulphate solution

Q263 QUESTIONED BY THE PRESIDENT: - Would you not consider it proper if there were an area for the throwing of these 77 grenades, in any kit they might have a solution of copper sulphate ?

A I don't know the properties of copper sulphate as a first aid. I think that measure would be taken by the medical officer taking the case. After we black it off with - copper sulphate is applied to see the presence of phosphorus. The best thing is to use water; profuse use of water to wash it off. The copper sulphate as it is used, is to pick up small particles we miss in our cursory examination. Although it does form a coating over the phosphorus, in my opinion, it does not ease the sensation - the burning.

Q264 In other words, water and lots of it is the thing

A. Yes; snow would have been the thing in this case.

PROSECUTOR: Another suggestion I have. Possibly meaning copper sulphate solution, I think Captain Townsend said he used something else. He said permangenate potash, or - what was it he said ?

WITNESS It was copper sulphate. If I said potassium permanganate, it is incorrect.

PROSECUTOR: In other words, then the witness did use the proper treatment.

WITNESS: Yes, it was copper sulphate, a quarter percent.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH R.P. 83 (B)

1st Witness FOR DEFENCE The accused B 160485 Pte (L/cpl) Fred Frank MULLER, No 25 Canadian Infantry Basic Training Centre, C.A., being duly sworn, is examined by the Defending Officer:-

Q268 Corporal Muller, you have heard the evidence for the prosecution in this particular case; there is no need to go over it, or refer to it. We know the particular date and the particular event we are talking about.

D o you feel everything possible was done at the time of the injury to stop your suffering, and get you medical attention ?

A Yes, sir, I do.

Q269 No one made any mistakes; you are quite satisfied ?

A Yes, sir.

PRESIDENT: Put the question this way: Are you quite satisfied ?

Q270 DEFENDING OFFICER: - Are you quite satisfied that everything was done ?

A I am, sir. One thing that neither of the M.O.'s mentioned was that they immediately buried me in the snow and smothered the flame that way and I don't think that Captain Konkin was aware of that fact. Everything possible was done and they did apply snow.

Q271 Snow was applied ? Was there anything more they could do ? They did theprescribed thing; exactly what the Medical Officer said they should do. Now, Corporal Muller, who threw the first grenade ?

A The firstgrenade was thrown by my platoon commander.

Q272 Who was your platoon commander ?

A Lieutenant Bianco.

Q273 A nd what happened immediately after the first grenade was thrown, do you remember ?

A As soon as the first grenade was thrown without an explosion, I began to wonder what the cause of it was.

Q274 Was there any effort made to destroy that grenade at that time ?

A No, sir, none whatsoever.

Q275 How many grenades were thrown altogether ?

A Three grenades were thrown.

Q276 Did any of them hit the target ?

A No, sir. One grenade was short, one behind, and one grenade very close, but no grenade actually hit the target.

Q277 Whose grenade was the one you speak of that almost hit the target ?

A The 2 i/c of the platoon .

Q278 Who was that ?

A Lieutenant Gordon.

Q279 What did the grenade fall into ?

A It fell into what appeared to me to be an old gravel pit.

Q280 Did it fall into the gravel ?

A No, sir. It didn't.

Q281 What did it fall into ?

A It fell into about eighteen inches of snow.

Q282 Did you expect the grenades to go off when they were thrown ?

A Sir, I had some doubt as to whether they would go off or not.

Q283 What caused you to have that doubt ?

A From the previous knowledge I had heard, that since the grenades had been in the stores for a period of many months, that they might fail to explode.

Q284 You were actually told that, were you ?

A284 Yes, sir. I was.

Q285 At the time you heard that, would it be possible for the other members of the platoonsto have heard the conversation ?

A Yes, I am definitely sure some members must have heard the same as I did.

Q286 Did you at any time hear a command given by Mr. Bianco to you personally ?

A No, sir. I didn't.

Q287 What I mean is while theplatoons were - I am not talking about during the route march, after the platoons were lined up at the side of the road. Did you hear any specific command given to you by Mr Bianco ?

A No, sir, if he did make any such command, I did not hear it, sir.

Q288 You did not hear it ?

A I did not, sir.

Q289 Why, Corporal Muller, did you elect trial by Court-Martial? I understand the cost of hospitalization is $65.00. I might ask if you have any outside income other than your Army pay ?

A. Yes, I have, sir; but it is all taken up for hospitalization for my family.

Q290 Would the payment of $65.00 have been a great hardship to you ?

A No, sir, it would not.

Q291 Did you realize if you did pay the $65.00 and not elect trial by Court-Martial that would have been all there would have been to it ?

A I surmised it, but I didn't know positively that that was all the O.C. could have done.

Q292 Why did you elect trial by Court-Martial ?

A Sir, the reason why I elected trial by Court-Martial: I had no crime sheet to my knowledge, and I wanted to keep a clean record.

Q293 That was the reason you elected trial by Court-Martial ?

A Yes, sir.

Q294 Corporal Muller, supposing you were, let's say overseas in action as an N.C.O. in charge of a small group of men, and you received work of a very dangerous mission for one man, with the possibility of being dangerously injured, or killed; what man of that platoon would you select for that mission ?

A N aturally myself .

Q295 Yourself ?

A Yes, sir.

Q296 What made you run down the bank to find this grenade ?

A Sir, I don't recollect running down the embankment. The reason I did join Mr Gordon was for the simple reason I followed the flight of the grenade and I knew within a perimeter of three feet where the grenade was, and when I noticed Mr. Bianco directed Mr. Gordon over to the right, I knew then Mr. Gordon could not know just the exact spot where the grenade lay; and knowing this myself, I thought I would show him just exactly where it was, so he wouldn't step on it himself. There was a possibility he might have stepped on it, because he didn't know the exact location and I did.

Q297 You knew the exact location ?

A Yes, I did.

Q298 And you went right to the location ?

A Yes, sir. I did.

Q299 What did you do when you got to where the grenade was ?

A299 I removed the crust on the snow; groped and probed around with my right hand and I felt the grenade in my right hand.

Q300 What made you pick the grenade up ?

A Mr Gordon - as soon as he saw the grenade exposed, he did tell me, "Leave that thing alone," or words to that effect, and at that instant I realized the possibility of danger; but up to this time I hadn't. I had no fear of danger because three grenades were thrown and not one exploded. I didn't realize the danger there really was. At that instant when Mr Gordon told me, "Leave that God damn thing alone," My own instinct made me want to get rid of the grenade as fast as I could. Without thinking, I picked it up and threw it. It only left my hand, I would say a yard in front of my hand, when it exploded.

Q301 Have you had any experience in the handling of blind grenades ?

A No, sir. It was my first experience.

Q302 You never handled them before? It was your first experience ?

A Yes, sir. It was.

Q303 If there was a grenade in the same area - in the west area, would you volunteer ?

A Yes, sir. I believe it would be my duty. If I was told to do a certain thing, I would carry out the command. It would be my job

Q304 At the time the first aid was given to you, what were the men in the platoon doing ?

A There was a great deal of confusion as soon as the grenade exploded. I dove into a snow bank and then I heard shouts from everywhere. I naturally couldn't see, but I knew there were fellows running in all directions because I heard their voices, and there seemed to be, they seemed to come from the very same vicinity as I

A304 (cont.)was myself because they were applying first field dressings at random wherever they could get one. I would say at least eight were assisting Mr. Bianco. Eight privates.

Q305 Are yousaying then that there would be Privates milling around in the area where there were still blinds

A Yes, sir. That is correct.

Q306 I notice Corporal Muller in speaking to you myself in outlining the defence for you, that was really the first time I have known you, but I noticed you are hard of hearing. I noticed you spoke very loudly. I asked you if something was wrong with your hearing. I thought it was an effect from the injury you received that you didn't hear well. Were you hard of hearing before your injury ?

A Sir, to my knowledge, I had always had trouble with my left ear, but I didn't want that known by the M.O. for fear my category was lowered.

Q307 Why do you not want your category to be lowered ?

A I couldn't go overseas.

Q308 You want to go overseas?

A Definitely, sir.

THE PROSECUTOR CROSS EXAMINES:-

Q309 It is my duty to ask you a few questions now. This accident, or did this accident happen in the township of Wyndham ?

A Yes, sir. It did.

Q310 In the county of Norfolk ?

A Yes, sir.

Q311 Was it on the 10th of January 1945 ?

A Yes, sir, it was.

Q312 Was the grenade you handled a 77 smoke grenade ?

A Yes, sir, it was.

Q313 You have seen the one, what is left of one, in Court today ?

A Yes, sir.

Q314 Similar to that ?

A Yes, sir.

Q316 You were in hospital for sixty-five days ?

A Twenty-six days.

Q317 I mean twenty-six days ?

A Yes, sir.

Q318 Is there any question about the $65.00 as hospital expenses ?

A No, sir.

Q319 And you did handle the grenade, didn't you ? You did have it in your hands ?

A. How do you mean, sir.

Q320 You did pick it up ?

A Yes, sir, I did.

Q321 You are quite satisfied everything was done to get you the proper medical aid ?

A Yes, sir

Q322 And that you were buried in the snow ?

A Yes, sir.

Q323 You have heard the evidence given as to the condition of the snow, and everything, is that pretty well correct ?

A Yes, sir. It is.

Q324 Soft snow ?

A Yes, sir.

Q325 You say about eighteen inches, with a slight crust on top ?

A Yes, sir.

Q326 You had a doubt as to whether the grenades would go off because of what you heard Mr. Bianco say ?

A326 Partly, sir. Previous to that, grenades were thrown in our own area. I did know that even last fall that when these grenades were thrown some failed to go off. I had that knowledge from last fall from the people who worked in the W.T.O. office.

Q327 Did you not hear that, or if you had heard these grenades were likely to go off, do you think you would have gone down after this one ?

A If I had been instructed to, yes, sir.

Q328 Were you instructed to go down after it ?

A No, sir, I was not.

Q329 You did it voluntarily ?

A Yes, sir. I did.

Q330 No officer or N.C.O. ordered you to do it ?

A No, sir.

Q331 I am suggesting that you did it because you were over zealous or because you were anxious to help out ?

A Yes, sir. I believe that's a good way of putting it.

Q332 It is sort of your nature always to be in there helping out with things ?

A Yes, sir. Especially if there is something new to be learned, and in this case there was.

Q333 Did you hear Mr Bianco tell the members of the platoons to stay on the side of the road ?

A Yes, sir. I did.

Q334 Did you feel that that included you as well as them ?

A Sir, I knew he said it to everyone as a whole, but I didn't think he meant the N.C.O.'s as much as he did the rest of the platoon.

Q335 Were there any other N.C.O.'s in the platoon as well as yourself ?

A Yes, sir, there were.

Q336 Sergeants ?

A No, sir.

Q337 Any corporals ?

A Yes, there were, sir.

Q338 And in view of the fact you had been allowed to throw the grenade, that would more or less put you in the picture with the rest of them; is that why you went down there ?

A Yes, sir. I would say so.

Q339 Was ~~was~~ specific command given to you to stay back or was it a general command to the whole platoon ?

A No specific command was given to me.

Q340 You heard the evidence given by Mr Bianco this morning ? I am just going to go over it breifly. Mr Bianco said something to the effect that you said to Mr. Gordon "I will show you where it is, sir." Did you say that ?

A. I said something to the effect, sir.

Q341 Did or did not Mr Gordon say to you, "Get the hell out of here" ?

A He did warn me, I don't remember the exact words; but the time he warned me was when I already knelt over this grenade.

Q342 You are telling us he didn't warn you prior to your getting to the place where the grenade was ?

A No, sir. If you remember, Mr. Bianco asked Mr. Gordon to look over to his right side; as he was looking over to his right side, I proceeded to where the grenade was and knelt over it.

Q343 Did Mr. Gordon say to you words to the effect, "leave that God damn thing alone ?

A Yes, he did.

Q344 That was after you had knelt down ?

A Yes, sir.

Q345 You say Mr. Bianco did not himself, give you any specific orders to stay away ?

A If he did, I didn't hear him.

Q346 You can't say yes, or no ?

A No, I can't sir.

Q347 Did you say to Mr. Gordon words to this effect, "Look, sir, there is nothing to it" ?

A I don't remember saying that, sir.

Q348 You may have said it or you may not have, is that right ?

A Yes, sir.

Q349 When Mr. Gordon said don't touch it, or leave it alone, did you reply, "It's okay, sir," ?

A. I don't recall just what I did say, but I did reply to Mr. Gordon when he ordered me not to touch it.

Q350 Now, which grenade was this that exploded ? Was it the one you threw, or the one that who else - the one that who threw ?

A I believe, sir, it was the one Mr Bianco threw.

Q351 The first one ?

A Yes, sir.

Q352 Of the three ?

A Yes, sir.

Q353 That was the first one you would reach in going towards the three grenades from where you stood ?

A Yes, sir.

Q354 Would you not agree that you knew at the time you did this that it was a dangerous operation, or it might have been a dangerous operation ?

A I certainly do admit it today, but at the time I did it, I didn't realize the danger involved.

Q355 You knew it was phosphorus ?

A Yes, sir.

Q356 Had you ever seen one explode or burn before ?

A No, sir.

Q357 Was it because you were so interested or just tell us why you did it ? There must have been some reason ?

A Do you mean why I proceeded down there ?

Q358 Yes, why you proceeded down the bank, in spite of the fact you were told to stay back, and in spite of the fact Mr Bianco told you not to go down ?

A I do recall Mr. Bianco warning both platoons to stay back on the Q358 (cont) road, and then the three grenades were thrown, and there was a lapse of time, I would say approximately four or five minutes; and then as I said before, Mr. Gordon proceeded down the bank with the rifle and the 303 rounds, and he did not appear to me as if he knew where the first grenade had landed; and when Mr. Bianco directed him over towards his right, I was positive in my own mind, he didn't know where the grenade was; and thinking that I could assist him and prevent him from stepping on the grenade before he found it, I proceeded down the bank. I didn't hear Mr. Bianco give me any warning to come back or stay back, or anything to that effect. As I said before, when I reached Mr. Gordon, I immediately proceeded ahead of him to the spot where the grenade lay; got down on one knee and exposed the grenade. Then Mr. Gordon told me to leave that God damn thing alone and in my excitement I suddenly realized that there was danger there. Then the next thing that came into my mind was to get rid of the grenade, so I stepped up and tossed the grenade and it exploded about a yard from my head.

Q359 Would you say Corporal Muller, that your handling of the grenade at that time was proper ? Do you think it was the proper thing for you to do ?

A I can see today, sir, that it was certainly not the proper thing to do.

Q360 You admit - you now admit that your handling of that grenade was improper ?

A Yes, sir. I do.

Q361 But at the time you didn't think ?

A I believe it was excitement or over-enthusiasm that caused it.

Q362 In other words, you should not have done it, should you ?

A Yes, sir. I admit that today.

Q363 Had you ever had previous experience with any kind of grenades ?

A No, sir, only instructional grenades .

Q364 In other words, no live grenades ?

A No, sir. I never had.

PROSECUTOR: That is all the questions I have of this witness.

THE DEFENDING OFFICER DECLINES TO RE-EXAMINE

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RULE OF PROCEDURE 83 (B)

THE ACCUSED RESUMES HIS SEAT .

2nd Witness FOR ~~WITNESS~~ DEFENCE

B-168197 Private R.L. MAIST, No 25 Canadian Infantry Basic Training Centre, Reinforcement, being duly sworn is examined by the Defending Officer:-

Q365 Private Maist, do you remember the date of January 10th, of this year ? Did you have any occasion to particularly remember that date ?

A Yes, sir. That was the date on which we went on a route march, and Corporal Muller was injured.

Q366 Do you know Corporal Muller ?

A I met him on coming into the Army. I didn't know him before that.

Q367 You could recognize him if you saw him ?

A Yes, sir.

Q368 Do you see him in the Court room ?

A Yes, sir.

Q369 Where is he ?

A There (indicating the accused)

Q370 It has been brought out that five and six platoons of B Company left the camp in the afternoon and proceeded north in the direction of Brantford, approximately two miles, and stopped. Would you go on from there? What happened after ?

A370 To my knowledge, we all stopped, and formed up on the left side of the highway, and Mr. Bianco had three of these 77 grenades and gave a short talk describing the grenade and the effects it would have. I am not sure whether he threw all the three of them, there were three thrown, and none of them exploded.

Q371 Did you at any time believe that the grenades would not go off ?

A Mr. Bianco said that - to the best of my knowledge - that they had been in the stores quite some time, and that they were taking them out more or less to get rid of them.

Q372 What did that make you think ? They were sure to go off, or not to go off ?

A It was putting a little doubt in my mind, I wouldn't be quite sure. When three grenades were thrown and none of them exploded, that sort of cinched it in my mind.

Q373 That the three were duds ?

A Yes, sir.

Q374 You have told us that three grenades were thrown and that none of them exploded, what happened after the grenades were thrown ?

A Mr. Gordon went down the bank with a rifle, and rounds, and going down he seemed to veer away from the place where the grenades were, and Corporal Muller, I imagine wanting to help him find them, went down the bank and stopped where they were.

Q375 He went down the bank towards the grenades ?

A Towards Mr. Gordon.

Q376 Did you, or did you not, hear any command at that time, right at that moment, being given to Corporal Muller ?

A No, no I didn't.

Q377 Did you hear Mr. Bianco give any command at that time ?

A No.

Q378 How far were you away from Mr. Bianco ?

A I would say approximately eight feet.

Q379 Were you as close to him as you are to me now ?

A Yes, a little closer .

Q380 Closer ? And you didn't hear him give any command ?

PRESIDENT: The distance between you and the witness being ten feet.

Q381 DEFENDING OFFICER: He was closer than ten feet to you ?

A Yes.

Q382 And you didn't hear any command ?

A No, sir.

Q383 At the time that Corporal Muller went down the bank towards the grenades, what did he do immediately after that ?

A Corporal Muller went straight to the spot where this one grenade was, knelt down and brushed the snow away from the grenade.

Q384 Did you hear any conversation that Corporal Muller had with anyone ?

A No, sir.

Q385 Was he close enough to you that you could overhear any conversation ?

A No, sir. I don't think so.

Q386 Would you say he was out of earshot, out of hearing ?

A Yes, sir.

Q387 Did you hear any conversation between Mr. Gordon and Corporal Muller ?

A No, sir.

Q388 You didn't hear anything at all ?

A No, sir.

THE PROSECUTOR CROSS EXAMINES

Q.389 Were you listening for any conversation, Private Haist ?

A Well, I was paying very strict attention to it. I knew there was live grenades down there and men around, so I was watching pretty closely.

Q.390 Do you remember Mr. Bianco telling the whole platoon to stay where they were ?

A Before he threw them he said he didn't want anyone to go down the bank.

Q391 And after that too ?

A Yes, sir.

Q392 And after did he say - did he turn around to the platoons and tell them not to move from there, do you remember ?

A Yes, sir. I think he did.

Q393 Then Mr. Bianco on two occasions told the platoons to stay where they were ?

A Yes, sir.

Q394 So you did hear some conversation ?

A Yes, sir.

Q395 But it didn't apply specifically to the accused ?

A No, sir.

Q396 Did you hear the accused say to Mr. Gordon, "I will show you where it is, sir" ?

A No, sir. I didn't.

Q397 Did you hear Mr. Gordon say, "Get the Hell out of here" ?

A No, sir.

Q398 Did you hear Mr. Gordon say, "Leave that God damn thing alone" ?

A No, sir.

Q399 Did you hear the accused say "Look sir, there is nothing to it" ?

A No, sir.

Q400 You heard no conversation at all ?

A None whatsoever, no, sir.

THE DEFENDING OFFICER DECLINES TO RE EXAMINE

Q.401 QUESTIONED BY THE PRESIDENT: How far away were you from Mr. Gordon and the accused at the time he picked up the grenade ? Put it this way, were you still on the side of the road ?

A. Yes, sir.

Q402 You would be approximately twenty-five yards away ?

A At least.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RULE OF PROCEDURE 83 (B)

THE WITNESS WITHDRAWS

3rd Witness FOR DEFENCE B-166146 Pte G.A. HYNDMAN, Headquarters Company, No 25 Canadian Infantry Basic Training Centre, being duly sworn is examined by the Defending Officer:-

Q403 What platoon were you a member of on the 10th of January, this year ?

A I was in 6 Platoon, B Company.

Q404 Do you remember that date, the 10th of January ?

A I do, sir.

Q.405 What happened particularly on that date that would make you remember ?

A There was an accident.

Q406 Do you know the person that was injured ?

A I do.

Q407 What was his name ?

A Lance Corporal Muller.

Q408 Do you see him in the Court room ?

A Yes, sir.

Q409 Whereabouts is he ?

A Sitting between these two escorts here.

Q410 It has been brought out in evidence the two platoons were out on a route march; went two miles and stopped and had a short lecture on the 77 Grenade, by Mr. Bianco, and three grenades were thrown. Did you have any reason to believe the grenades might not go off ?

A I did, sir. I was under that impression.

Q411 What gave you that impression ?

A I was told to take my rifle with me. I was told they would use the rifle to explode the grenades, if they didn't go off. It was the only one in the platoon.

Q412 It has been brought out in evidence Corporal Muller, after the grenades were thrown, went down the bank to try and find it. Did you hear any command given to Corporal Muller at that time ?

A I don't remember any being given.

Q413 Did you hear any specific command given by Mr. Bianco to Corporal Muller ?

A I did not.

Q414 At the time he was bending over the grenade, didyou hear any conversation between Mr. Gordon and Corporal Muller ?

A I believe there was a little. I don't remember, but I didn't hear anything.

Q415 Is your hearing normal ?

A It is.

Q416 You didn't hear anything ?

A I didn't hear anything.

Q417 At the time, immediately after, when first aid was being administered to Corporal Muller, where was the rest of the platoon chiefly ?

A Most of them were on the bank.

Q418 Where were the rest of them ?

A A few of them were down the bank, surrounding Corporal Muller.

Q419 But at that time they were in the vicinity of one grenade anyway, the one that had exploded ?

A That's right, sir.

Q420 About how far away were the other grenades ?

A Not too far. I couldn't say.

Q421 Some of the members of the platoon were in the immediate vicinity of two blinds, is that right ?

A That is right, sir.

Q422 Have you noticed this particularly: Mr. Bianco in giving a command, is his voice unusually loud, or normal, or soft ? How would you describe his voice ?

A He has quite a loud voice.

Q423 How far would you say the throwing area, that is the place the grenades were thrown from, how far was that from the throwing area of the target? Have you any knowledge of that distance ?

A I have.

Q424 What knowledge ?

A I paced it off myself.

Q425 How far was it ?

A It was approximately forty of my own paces.

Q426 When you are on a march, what size step do you take? With a platoon, do you march the same pace as any of them ?

A I do, sir.

Q427 Would be a hundred feet exactly. That establishes the throwing area a hundred feet from the target. How large was the target ? How large an area would it cover ? Did you measure that ?

A I would roughly say six or eight feet.

Q428 If you paced the distance, you must have walked right up to the target ?

A Yes, sir. I did.

Q429 How do you mean, long or high ? Do you mean six or eight feet across ?

A Yes, sir.

THE PROSECUTOR CROSS EXAMINES.

Q431 When you say that you didn't hear any conversation, you are only saying that, you are not saying that none took place, are you ?

A No, sir. I am not.

Q432 It is possible that you didn't hear it ?

A Yes, sir.

Q433 Did you hear Mr. Bianco say to the whole platoon - order the whole platoon to stay on the road before the grenades were thrown at all ?

A I believe I did, sir.

Q434 After the grenades were thrown and the three proved to be blinds, did you again hear Mr. Bianco order the whole platoon to stay on the road ?

A Yes, sir.

Q435 In other words he ordered the platoons to stay there on two occasions ?

A Yes, sir.

Q436 Can you tell us what he said ?

A No, I can't remember.

Q437 What did you take from what he said, he was to stay there ?

A He didn't say anybody specifically, just told all of us to.

Q438 You don't remember Mr. Bianco telling the accused specifically to stay back on the road ?

A No, sir I don't remember that.

Q439 When did Mr. Bianco say to you that the grenades being old were not likely to go off ?

A I remember he said that they had been kept in stores for some time, and were not likely to go off, that's all I remember.

THE DEFENDING OFFICER DECLINES TO RE EXAMINE

QUESTIONED BY THE PRESIDENT:

Q.440 When the Lance Corporal went down the embankment to help out in locating this grenade, how far were you from Mr. Bianco then ?

A Not very far. I took my rifle and gave it to Mr. Gordon, and Mr. Gordon and Mr. Bianco were standing close together, and I didn't move very far away from the place. I'd say eight or ten feet.

Q441 At that distance you heard no special command from Mr. Bianco ?

A I did not sir.

THE WITNESS WITHDRAWS.

4th Witness FOR DEFENCE B-108502 Sgt J. McCONNELL, Home War Establishment, No 25 Canadian Infantry Basic Training Centre, being duly sworn, is examined by the Defending Officer:-

Q442 Sergeant McConnell, do you know Corporal Muller ?

A I do, sir.

Q443 Do you see him in the Court Room now ?

A Yes, sir.

Q444 Where is he ?

A That is Muller sitting right in the centre here.

Q445 How long have you known him ?

A Since approximately last April or May when he came into this Camp.

Q446 Approximately ten or eleven months ago ?

A Yes, sir.

Q447 How have you found him in that time, as a soldier, or N.C.O. ?

A Very competent, very enthusiastic, and I would say, sir, very trustworthy.

Q448 When you say trustworthy, what do youmean ?

A If you gave him a job to do, you could depend on it. I didn't have to check up on him afterwards. I knew his job would be done.

Q449 You are his Sergeant ?

A I was the Sergeant in charge of S of I Corporal Muller attended here in this camp.

Q450 What Company ?

A B Company.

Q451 You say he is enthusiastic. Would you say he is over-enthusiastic ?

A Yes, sir. I believe you would say that at time he was over-enthusiastic.

Q452 What would you say about his wanting to learn ?

A In compiling the records of the S of I, I was in charge of, Corporal Muller had the highest marks in that S of I, I believe out of twenty-five men.

Q453 Would you say from your remarks, that he isa good soldier ?

A A very good soldier.

Q454 A good N.C.O.

A Yes, sir.

Q455 Would you be willing to trust Muller on any important or dangerous job ?

A Well, sir, that is a hard question to answer. If a man knows what he is handling, or the job he is doing, and Corporal Muller did know that job, yes, sir, I would trust him with that job.

Q456 Would you hesitate at all if you needed a good N.C.O. for a very special job and you had Corporal Muller, and several otherCorporals in your platoon, would be likely to select Corporal Muller for that job ?

A Yes, sir. I would sir.

STATEMENT BY PROSECUTOR :

PRESIDENT: Captain Downey, what about seven days' notice of legal qualification, has that been given to the accused ?

PROSECUTOR: The summary of evidence was taken by myself exactly one week ago to-day in this very room. It is true the summary was not taken until after lunch. He has not had seven full days notice. The seven full days will not be up until after lunch to-day.

At the time the summary was taken, the accused was warned he would be prosecuted by an officer with legal qualifications in civil life and he signed a document to the effect: "acknowledge that should an order for trial be granted that I have been warned that an Officer may be named as Prosecutor at my trial who has legal qualifications in civil life". He has had that warning, but he has not had the full seven days. The full seven days will expire after lunch today.

PRESIDENT TO ACCUSED: Corporal Muller, you have heard the explanation given by Captain Downey. Are you willing to waive the full seven days notice to which you are entitled ?

ACCUSED: I am, sir.

OPENING ADDRESS BY THE PROSECUTOR.

I believe that in this case it is advisable for me to give a short opening address:

The accused is what is called a 4½ Lance Corporal at this Training Centre. I consider it is not necessary for me to explain what a 4½ Lance Corporal, owing to the fact, the Court is composed of officers who know better than I do what a 4½ Lance Corporal is.

In any event, he was acting as an instructor in B Company, and on the 10th of January, 1945, he accompanied a Platoon, Platoons No 5 and 6, on a route march. The officer in charge of the route march, was Lieutenant Bianco of this Training Centre, and the 2 i/c was Lieutenant Gordon.

The route march took them out of Camp in a northern direction, on the highway to Brantford.

After leaving, about two miles out on the road, they were halted and it appears that before they left, Mr. Bianco was supplied with three No 77 Grenades and detonators, and he was instructed he was to throw them some time during the break period which would occur in the march.

Mr Bianco also took with him a 303 Rifle, and some 303 rounds which were to be used in the event the grenades did not explode.

They arrived at a gravel pit in the township of Wyndham, in the County of Norfolk about two miles north of this camp.

The two platoons were halted and Mr. Bianco gave a talk to all concerned with respect to the No 77 Smoke Grenades. Then, it appears, that certain N.C.O.s collected and piled branches some forty or fifty feet on the west side of the road where they had stopped in a gully; and it was proposed then to throw the grenades on these branches. It appears there was very deep snow there and, subsequently, the grenades were thown, one by Mr. Bianco, one by Lieutenant Gordon, and one by the accused, Corporal Muller. All three of the grenades failed to explode and they were, I believe the term is "blinds".

Mr. Bianco, I believe, will give evidence that he gave orders no one was to move from his position, and he instructed Mr. Gordon to take his rifle down and destroy the blinds.

Evidence will be given that Mr. Gordon did go down to destroy these blinds. It appears the grenades became pillowed in the snow. It appears they missed the brush and fell in the snow.

Evidence will be given that when Mr Gordon approached the grenades under the direction of Mr. Bianco, the accused, who appeared on the ascent from the road, rushed down the slope from the road towards Mr Gordon, saying, "I will show you where it is, sir".

Evidence will be given by Mr. Bianco, I believe, that he raised his voice and told the accused to come back to the road. Evidence will be given by Mr. Bianco that he heard Mr. Gordon say "Get the Hell out of here."

The accused , as will be shown by evidence, paused a few feet in front of Mr Gordon and knelt down and brushed the snow away from the spot where the grenade was.

I believe evidence will be given Mr Gordon again said something to the effect: "Leave that God damn thing alone". The accused continued to burrow in the snow and held the grenade in his hand a fraction of a second, and said, "Look sir, there is nothing to it", and then threw the grenade. It exploded in his face. His neck, ears, and face were burned by what I believe will be shown to the court, are phosphorus burns. First aid was then applied and the accused was returned to Simcoe Military Hospital. Mr. Gordon was only injured superficially and lost no time, nor was he hospitalized. There are no costs of hospitalization as far as Mr. Gordon is concerned. The costs incurred by Corporal Muller refer to costs of hospitalization incurred by the accused himself.

There will be evidence given, in fairness to the accused, he has been noted to be a little hard of hearing.

We will endeavour to produce to the Court an exhibit which may or may not be, the exact grenade that did explode, but at least will show what type of grenade it was, in a burnt out condition.

As a result of all this, the accused has been charged with conduct to the prejudice of good order and Military discipline in that he improperly handled a No 77 Smoke Grenade and thereby negligently injured himself, whereby His Majesty suffered loss or damage in the amount of $65.00. That is the charge on which he is being tried to-day.

I ask permission of the Court to call as my first witness, Mr. Bianco.

At 1200 hours on the 26th day of February, 1945, the Court adjourned until 1330 hours on the 26th day of February, 1945.

On the 26th day of February, 1945, the Court reassembles pursuant to adjournment, presents the same members as when adjourned.

W.P. McClement Major,
President, D.C.M.

CLOSING ADDRESS BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER : -

Sir, there is very little to be said in this case. It all has been said already.

Corporal Muller, as has been brought out in evidence, was given to understand these grenades were duds, and at only the very last minute when it was too late, realized that there was a danger. I think any ordinary person who had no experience with this particular type of thing and was told they were duds would be inclined to act the same way, I might take it as a sort of a game myself, and not attach anything to it; and probably somehow, or something in Mr. Gordon's voice when he said, "Leave that damn thing alone" made him do the first thing, the natural instinctive thing, to throw it. Though it didn't come out in evidence, I believe he was trying to throw it towards the target at the time.

The Manual of Military Law says If neglect is wilful, that is intentional it is clearly blameworthy. If it is caused by an honest error of judgment and involves no lack of zeal and no element of carelessness or intentional failure to take the proper action it is equally clear that it is blameless and cannot be a ground for conviction.

This man's very attitude and the evidence that has been given in Court would show that he is notguilty of neglect. He might be guilty of an error of judgment, because of over-enthusiasm; but I don't think that the Court would say that he is guilty of wilful neglect. I don't think any intelligent person would deliberately handle a live grenade, if he knew there was any danger.

I think Corporal Muller is guilty of being over-enthusiastic being a darn good N.C.O., and he may be guilty of making an error of judgment, but he is definitely not guilty of this charge against him. He is not guilty of neglect as laid down in the Army Act and I think the Court will see that.

Mr. Bianco's voice, as he said, was loud when he gave that command, but the command was not heard by two members of the platoons eight or ten feet away from him I personally noticed his voice in Court is very soft - very quiet. I do not say he did not give that command, but I do say the accused did not hear him.

Corporal Muller, as I say, may commit these errors of judgment; he may act on the spur of the moment, but it is caused sometimes just by being tooanxious, but personally, if I were overseas in a field of action, and I was in a tough spot, I think I would want a bunch of men following me, behind me like Corporal Muller. Corporal Muller is too darn anxious to get in and be in the thick of things, which to my mind makes a good soldier.

L

W. H. McClement Major,
President, D.C.M.

CLOSING ADDRESSBY THE PROSECUTOR:

First of all, gentlemen, I wish to point out that there is some discrepancy in the evidence.

For one thing, Mr. Bianco states he heard Mr. Gordon say, "Get the Hell out of her," whereas, I gather from Lieutenant Gordon's evidence he doesn't remember saying that.

Also, Mr. Bianco says that he ordered the platoons to remain where they were on the side of the road, right before the grenades were thrown, and after the grenades were thrown. The two witnesses called for the defence in cross-examination corroborate this testimony.

I am trying to get for the Court the number of times he, the accused was told not to go down to the danger zone. He was told once. According to Mr. Bianco, he said he raised his voice and told him to go back to the side of the road. According to Mr. Bianco's evidence, he heard Mr. Gordon say, "Get the Hell out of here. Leave that God damn thing alone", and he heard the accused say "Look, sir, there is nothing to it." And in Mr. Gordon's evidence he told the accused, "Don't touch that God damn thing", but that was after the accused was already at the point of danger beside the grenade.

There has been lots said for the accused. Apparently, he is an excellent soldier, and an excellent N.C.O, and we wish we had more like him in the Army; but, nevertheless as a matter of Military law, my duty as Prosecutor as I see it, is not to press for a conviction, but to endeavour to be fair about it; therefore, I have to talk as I intend to speak now:

I submit this accident was caused by the accused himself. He had had no previous training in connection with grenades, although it is true the officers allowed him to throw one. After being told twice what to do, I think we have proved that, he did not do it. He went down and placed himself in danger beside the grenade, lifted it up, threw it, and it exploded. His own act. He was not ordered to do it; it was against orders. He was with the platoon and was ordered to stay back, and Mr. Bianco says he told the accused himself to stay back. In other words, if the accused had not gone down there, he would not have been injured. The accused apparently through his over-zealousness or over-enthusiasm, put himself in a position where he was very seriously injured.

Something has been said with reference to some fault that may lie on the heads of other people in the case as to why these grenades were in use in a Training Centre. That is not the issue in this case. In view of the fact they were used and the accused put himself in the position of danger, he didn't know what the result of these bombs might be, and therefore, I submit he may be found guilty of negligence or neglect, negligently injuring himself.

There was some conversation between Mr. Bianco and the accused on the way out where Mr. Bianco told the accused they might not go off. These grenades, I suggest to the Court, are something that are, and the accused should have considered that they are, something inherently dangerous in themselves, and this grenade was.

I carefully went over the charge sheet when the accused was cross-examined to prove these essential ingrediants w hich are necessary for the Prosecution to prove in order for the accused to be found guilty. In the long run the Court must decide if the conduct of the accused was such that it was against good order and military discipline. Not one, but both. Whether or not what the accused did was conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline; but on checking and going over the charge-sheet with the accused, he did admit it was in the county of Wyndham, in the Township of Norfolk; the date was the tenth of January; it was a 77 Smoke Grenade that he was injured by; and as a result of his injury His Majesty suffered loss in the amount of $65.00. I had him admit his handling of the grenade was improper. The only thing I did not ask him was whether or not he was negligent. I am leaving that to the Court. The question is negligence. Whether he was negligent in improperly handling the grenade. The accused himself admitted he heard Mr. Bianco order the platoon to remain on the road, or words to that effect. He admits he improperly handled the grenade. The question is: Does over-zealousy or desire to help amount to negligence under the circumstances of this case. We have to have discipline in the Army. Certain men have certain jobs to do, and if one man undertakes a job that is not his job, and thereby injures himself, I submit that may be grounds for conviction. I have made some notes on the evidence of the accused: "My own instinct made me want to get rid of it, without thinking I picked it up and threw it. It was my first experience with live grenades."

There is some question as to whether he heard the orders, any orders. It is just a matter for the Court. He states: "I removed the crust of snow carefully, then probed around with my right hand and picked it up with my right hand and all this time, I didn't realize the possibility of danger." I submit that this in itself is negligence. He knew Mr. Gordon was there with a rifle and rounds for the purpose of destroying the grenade. In connection with that fact, he knew that a blind grenade was a dangerous thing.

I would like very much to read to the Court the full definition of neglect in the Army Act, that is, an amendment to the Army Act. Thereby hangs the decision.

It will be noted that Note 1 to Army Act Section 40 has been amended and these are the notes under that Act. "Neglect to be punishable under this section must be wilful or culpable, and not merely the result of forgetfulness, error or judgment, or inadvertence." Those words have been stricken out and these words have been put in place of them, and I submit that neglect and negligence mean the same thing. " Neglect to be punishable under this section must be blameworthy. If neglect is wilful, that is, intentional, it is clearly blameworthy. If it is caused by an honest error of judgment and involves no lack of zeal and no element of carelessness or intentional failure to take the proper action it is equally clear that it is blameless and cannot be grounds for conviction. Where it is not thus completely blameless the degree of blameworthiness naturally varies, and a court trying such a case must consider the whole circumstances of the case and in particular the responsibility of the accused. For example, a high degree of care can rightly be demanded of an officer or soldier who is in charge of an armoured vehicle or an aircraft or is responsible for its condition, or who is handling explosives or highly inflammable material, where a slight degree of negligence may involve danger to life. In such circumstances, a small degree of of negligence may be so blameworthy as to justify conviction and punishment. On the other hand, such a slight degree of negligence resulting from forgetfulness or inadvertence, in relation to a matter that does not rightly demand a very high degree of care, would not be judged so blameworthy as to justify conviction and punishment. The essential for the Court to consider is whether in the whole circumstances of the case as they existed at the time of the offence the degree of neglect proved is such as having regard to the evidence and their military knowledge as to the amount of care that ought to have been exercised, renders the neglect so substantially blameworthy as to be deserving of punishment."

My submission is a smoke grenade such as this demands a high degree of care and is a dangerous thing and that the whole circumstances of this case demand a high degree of care. The Court may well find that the actions of the accused, while they may have been prompted by a motive of the highest type, that is trying to help, nevertheless the result is - as a result of his actions, he was hospitalized - he was severly injured and the government has lost time; and it cost $65.00 to hospitalize him.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

in the case of

The accused, No. B.160485, Private (Lance Corporal) Fred Frank MULLER, No. 25 Canadian Infantry Basic Training Centre, C.A., Simcoe, Ontario, a G.S. soldier of the Canadian Army, placed on Active Service.

CHARGE:

CONDUCT TO THE PREJUDICE OF GOOD ORDER AND MILITARY DISCIPLINE (Negligently Injuring Himself).
SECTION 40 Army Act.

The Commanding Officer has directed that the evidence be taken on oath.

W.130582, Private (Lance Corporal) Masters, M.S., Canadian Women's Army Corps, Home War Establishment, No. 25 Canadian Infantry Basic Training Centre, C.A., Simcoe, Ontario, is duly sworn as shorthand writer.

FIRST WITNESS:

Lieutenant Alphonse BIANCO, Home War Establishment, No. 25 Canadian Infantry Basic Training Centre, C.A., Simcoe, Ontario, having been duly sworn states:-

"I am a Platoon Officer in "B" Company of this Training Centre. The accused, here present, whom I now recognize and identify, is a four percent (4%) Lance Corporal who has been employed in "B" Company as an Instructor for some time. On the 10th of January, 1945 I was Platoon Officer of No. 6 Platoon and the accused was one of my Instructors. On 10th January, 1945 together with Lieutenant J.G. Gordon I took Nos. 5 and 6 Platoons out on a four mile route march. Before starting out I had been supplied by Captain A.H. Fonger, the 2 i/c of the Company with three No. 77 Grenades and Detinators, and with instructions to throw the same during the break period which would occur on the march. I carried with me a 303 rifle and a number of 303 rounds to be used in the event that these grenades did not explode. We marched out some two miles from Camp in a northerly direction, leaving at 1500 hours. At or about 1550 hours the Platoons were stopped at the side of the road, which runs from Simcoe to Brantford, and the place, I understand, where we stopped was in Wyndham Township in the County of Norfolk. I instructed certain N.C.O.s to collect and pile branches some forty or fifty feet from the west side of the road where we had stopped, in a gully, with the intention of using these branches as a target at which the grenades would be thrown.

I gathered both Platoons together at the edge of the road, facing the gully, and gave them a brief talk on the characteristics of the No. 77 Grenade. Three grenades were then thrown and failed to explode. I then issued orders that no one was to move from his position at the edge of the road. I then instructed Mr. Gordon to take the rifle which he had been carrying and the 303 rounds, and go down and destroy the blinds. Mr. Gordon went down the gully towards the first grenade, which was not visible by reason of the fact that it was buried in the snow. As he approached the object I attempted to direct him to the spot where it had struck the ground, when at this moment the accused dashed down the slope from the edge of the road towards Mr. Gordon, saying:-

'I will show you where it is, Sir.'

At the moment the accused dashed down the embankment, I raised my voice and told him to come back to the edge of the road. Either he did not hear, or if he did, he paid no attention, for he continued to run towards Mr. Gordon, and when within three or four feet of Mr. Gordon, I heard Mr. Gordon say:-

'Get the hell out of here'

The accused dashed ahead a few feet in front of Mr. Gordon, knelt down, and I observed him brushing the snow away from the spot where I was sure the grenade lay. As he was brushing the snow away I distinctly heard Mr. Gordon say:-

'Leave that God damn thing alone'.

The accused continued to burrow in the snow. Then I saw him pick up the grenade, hold it in his hand for a fraction of a second, when I heard the accused say these words:-

'Look Sir, there is nothing to it'.

Then he tossed the grenade in the air, and it went off in his face. I noted that the accused had been injured, and I dashed down the bank, and by the time I reached him I had extracted my first Field Dressing out of my pocket. I applied that on his forehead, and called for two or three other First Field Dressings, which I applied on his nose and mouth. While this was being done the burning clothing was ripped off him, and I sent someone on to the road to commandeer the first car that would pass. While dressing the accused I gave instructions that Mr. Gordon was to be attended to, and this was being done. I believe that we had the accused back at Simcoe Military Hospital within ten minutes after the accident happened. I believe that this accident happened at approximately 1600 hours on 10th January, 1945.

From what I can see the injuries sustained by Mr. Gordon were not very serious, but he was returned to Simcoe Military Hospital in the same vehicle that brought the accused back.

The accused had been with me for about a week before this accident happened and it came to my attention that he, when lecturing or speaking to the men, spoke in an unusually loud voice. Frequently when giving my instructions to him, I would have to repeat myself. As a result of that he appeared to me to be hard of hearing.

I now produce and offer as an Exhibit at this Summary of Evidence a tin casing of a No. 77 Smoke Grenade which is similar to the grenade which exploded as before set out, and thereby injured the accused. The original colour of this was green, but when they are burned out, they are of a natural metal colour, similar to this one. I cannot say that this is the exact container of the grenade that exploded as before stated, but I believe that it is the one."

(A. Bianco) Lieutenant,

No. 25 C.I.S.I.C., CA,
SIMCOE, Ontario.

The Grenade Container No. 77 above referred to in the evidence of Lieutenant A. Bianco is marked "Exhibit A" in this Summary of Evidence.

The accused declines to cross-examine this Witness.

SECOND WITNESS

Lieut. J.G. GORDON, A.10 Canadian Infantry Training Centre, C.A., Camp Borden, Ontario, attached No. 25 Canadian Infantry Basic Training Centre, C.A., Simcoe, Ontario, having been duly sworn states:-

"I am a Reinforcement Officer at this Training Centre and am in "B" Company. On 10th January, 1945 I was a member of "B" Company. The accused herepresent, whom I now recognize and identify was also a member of that Company, and a member of No. 6 Platoon. Nos. 5 and 6 Platoons on that date went on a route march under the command of Lieutenant A. Bianco, and I went along to assist him as 2 i/c. We marched out of Camp along the highway between Simcoe and Brantford for a distance of approximately two miles, which I understand is in the Township of Wyndham. The Platoons were halted and Mr. Bianco gathered them around him at the side of the road. He had with him three No. 77 Grenades and he told me that he had been instructed to put on a demonstration for the men. He had with him also one 303 Rifle and several cartridges. He brought the rifle and cartridges with him for the purpose of exploding any blind grenades should they occur. Mr. Bianco gave a short talk to the men, explaining the use of the grenades. The grenades were thrown and all were blind. Mr. Bianco called me over, gave me the rifle and four cartridges and instructed me to go down and explode the blinds. I took the rifle and the cartridges and walked down towards the spot where the first grenade had landed. I have had a great deal of experience with high explosives, and have destroyed blind grenades on several previous occasions. I was intently concerned with the job at hand, because I realized that if I stepped on the grenade it would explode. I heard Mr. Bianco call to me to look over to the right. Cpl. Muller, apparently desiring to help me locate the grenade, came down and did so. He located the mark of the grenade in the snow, broke the crust of the snow carefully, and when I saw the edge of the grenade in the snow, I told him to leave it alone. I said:-

'Don't touch that God damn thing'.

I believe Cpl. Muller said:-

'It's O.K., Sir.'

Then he picked the grenade up and tossed it up in the air and it exploded. As a result of the explosion Cpl. Muller was rather seriously burned about the face, ears and neck. I received superficial burns on my face and jaw. Mr. Bianco, after applying First Field Dressing to Cpl. Muller stopped the first civilian vehicle that came along, and Cpl. Muller and myself proceeded immediately to the Simcoe Military Hospital, and received attention from Capt. Townsend. My face was washed off for approximately twenty minutes, and No. 5 burn ointment applied, and I returned to my quarters, and was fit for light duty. I was not hospitalized.

Now produced to me is Exhibit "A" already produced at the taking of this Summary of Evidence, and after examining same I say that Exhibit "A" is a tin container of a No. 77 grenade which has been burned out, and this is similar to the tin container of the No. 77 Grenade that was burned out on the occasion of the accident which resulted in the injuries to the accused.

Camp Borden, Ontario.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

THIRD WITNESS

Capt. M.P. TOWNSEND, RCAMC, CA, Officer Commanding Simcoe Military Hospital, having been duly sworn states:-

"I am the Officer Commanding Simcoe Military Hospital. The accused here present, whom I now recognize and identify, was admitted to Simcoe Military Hospital at approximately 1630 hrs. on 10th January, 1945. At the time he was suffering from extensive first, second and third degree burns on his face, neck and ears, due to phosphorus. He was immediately put over a basin of water and all areas washed thoroughly to prevent continued ignition of the phosphorus, and to remove all that was still adhering. He was later bathed with dilute copper sulphate and the particles of phosphorus then appearing as black specks were removed. No. 9 burn ointment was applied and he was transferred to Hamilton Military Hospital. At approximately 1900 hours on the same day he left Simcoe Military Hospital for Hamilton Military Hospital via ambulance. I know that the accused was in hospital at Hamilton Military Hospital from 10th January, 1945 until he was discharged therefrom on 5 th February, 1945, a total of 26 days, and that he was admitted to that hospital by reason of having suffered burns on his face and neck and ears caused by phosphorus. The cost of hospitalization in Hamilton Military Hospital is $2.50 per day, making a total cost of $65.00.

The injuries sustained in my opinion were not serious enough to cause any change in his Pulhems Profile, and I expect no permanent disability to follow. In my opinion the injuries sustained by the accused were a direct result of some sort of an accident involving phosphorus.

I examined Lieut. J.G. Gordon, and found that he had a slight phosphorus burn on his right jaw, but this was not at all serious. He was not hospitalized and the burns were not serious enough to cause him to be off duty.

In my opinion I can say that the 26 days that the accused spent in Hamilton Military Hospital were necessitated as a result of these phosphorus burns.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

At this point in the proceedings I explained to the accused that a written statement of evidence signed by Jas. McKeown, Lieutenant, will be included in this Summary of Evidence under Rule of Procedure 4(G), and he appeared to understand my explanation.

I hereby certify pursuant to Rule of Procedure 4(G) that owing to the exigencies of the service, and expense and loss of time involved, the attendance of Lieutenant Jas.McKeown could not in my opinion be readily procured and a written statement of his evidence purporting to be signed by him has been read to the accused and is included in this Summary of Evidence, and is attached hereto marked "Appendix "B"".

A-1 No, I didn't hear him say that.

Q-2 Were you standing close enough to Mr. Bianco that you would have heard him had he made such a remark?

A-2 I was standing approximately 8 feet from him.

Q-3 Did you see me kneel over the spot where the grenade was, and see me pick it up?

A-3 Yes, I saw you do that.

Q-4 Were you close enough to hear any conversation that might have taken place between myself and Mr. Gordon at that time?

A-4 No.

Q-5 After I had picked the grenade up, what to your knowledge was the next thing that happened?

A-5 When you picked it up it seemed as though you were going to throw it, but it blew up right out of your hand.

went on a route march along No. 24 Highway in the direction of Brantford, north from the Camp. We marched for about 2 miles, and then halted near a gravel pit in the Township of Wyndham. After halting, our Officer, Lieutenant Bianco gave us a talk on the No. 77 Grenade, and then three of them were thrown at some branches that had been laid in the snow, but they missed their target and failed to explode."

CROSS EXAMINATION BY THE ACCUSED

Q-1 Were you close enough to Mr. Bianco that you would have heard him tell me not to proceed down the bank?

A-1 I was close enough as I had just given my rifle to Mr. Gordon, and that was the one they were going to use.

Q-2 Did you hear Lieutenant Bianco say to me, or order me not to proceed down the bank?

A-2 I did not hear him order you not to proceed down the bank, but I did hear him tell the platoon not to go down the bank.

Q-3 Were you close enough that you could hear anything that was said between Lieut. Gordon and myself?

A-3 I did not hear any of the conversation between yourself and Lieut. Gordon.

Q-4 Just tell us in your own words what happened after I knelt over the spot where the grenade was.

A-4 You leaned over the spot where the grenade was and proped around with your hand, and then you picked it up, and it looked as if you tried to throw it into the air. It looked about two or three feet from you , and then there was a sharp crack and a puff of smoke, and I could not see anything else until the smoke cleared away.

Q-5 Do you recall who threw the grenades and in what order they were thrown?

A-5 I recall who threw the grenades but I don't recall what order.

Q-6 Well, who threw them?

A-6 Lieut. Gordon, Lieut. Bianco and yourself.

Q-7 Did you have any knowledge of the fact that grenades might not explode since they had been in the Stores for a long time?

A-7 Yes, I did.

SECOND WITNESS FOR THE DEFENCE (cont'd)

CROSS EXAMINATION BY THE ACCUSED - cont'd.

Q-8 How did you get this knowledge?

A-8 Well, for onething I took my rifle with me, and I was told that if the grenades did not go off they would use my rifle to explode them.

Q-9 Did Mr. Bianco in his talk before the grenades were thrown, say anything about the grenades being old, and that they might be likely not to go off?

A-9 Yes in his talk I remember him saying that they might not go off as they had been kept around for a while.

(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

Statement in Mitigation by No. E 51106
Sapper McAnulty, W. J., R.C.E.

I am 30 years of age, married and my wife resides in Montreal. I joined the Army on July 14, 1941 and arrived overseas in June, 1942. I am with the R.C.E. as carpenter, class B. At the time I went A.W.L. I was attached to 5 C.I.R.U. from my unit for the purpose of renovating a building to be used as a Visual Training Hut. At the time I was sent to 5 C.I.R.U. I was next in line to go on draft to a field unit for which I had been waiting a long time and which I had been promised three times. Naturally this disappointed me because I would lose my opportunity to go on draft and away from Holding Units in which I had become fed up. But as my stay in 5 C.I.R.U. was to be only for three weeks I was determined to make the best of it. While I was at 5 C.I.R.U. I received a letter from a friend in

~~I do~~ verifying my suspicions of the unfaithfulness of my wife. I had suspected something of the sort for the past two months from the fact that I received no letters from her and from rumors of the unfaithful conduct of my wife. This letter, added to the fact that I was disappointed in being sent to #5 CIRU & thus losing my opportunity of going on draft, made me unhappy and very depressed. I consoled myself by going ~~on leave~~ A.W.L and doing a considerable amount of drinking. After 19 days absence I returned to my own unit for the purpose of giving myself up; but, on finding that there was no mail for me at the Post Office, I left again. Then I proceeded to 5 CIRU with the same intention in mind, but on finding no mail there either I decided to continue my illegal absence.

Plea of Mitigation - G-51106 Pte. McAnulty, W.S.

Pte. McAnulty enlisted 14 Jul 41 and proceeded overseas as a tradesman Carpenter, with 7 Construction Coy. R.C.E. He was with the unit from the time they came overseas 14 Jun 42 until 22 Mar 43 during this period he had but two minor charges laid against him. On March '43 he transferred to No. 1 CGRU in the hope of being posted to a more active unit. This he seemed unable to do until he managed to transfer voluntarily to the Canadian Infantry Corps, and it was during this period that he developed a feeling of discontent. ~~that order of~~ more or less inactivity but lately severe mental anguish due to the fact that his wife's brother had gone into Japanese on D day and he seemed unable to get going.

I believe that these feelings finally culminated in the present charge. McAnulty obviously wanted and still wants to get into battle. I ask the court for leniency so that he may fulfil his desire to fight as soon as possible.

F.G.C.M. IN THE CASE OF

STATEMENT BY THE ACCUSED (NOT UNDER OATH) E-1

Sir,

I was in the Engr and drafts were so slow that I thought I could get into action sooner by going to the inf. I had a pretty bad conduct sheet and wished to start over again and so transferred to the inf. I was on two drafts, the first one I was taken off and the second time I was not allowed to go. After D-Day I became parttularly anxious to go as my younger brother had gone, he is in the artillery.

I was a carpenter in the Engrs with the 7 Constr Coy. I received trades pay until I asked to come into the CERU with a view to going to the inf or to some other more combatant unit. I am still anxious to go to France or Italy and hope to get that opportunity before long.

MEDICAL OFFICER'S CERTIFICATE
K.R.(Can) para 557

I certify that I have this morning examined G51106 Spr McAnulty, W.J., and in my opinion he is fit to undergo trial by court-martial.

Field,
11 Mar 44

.....CAPT RCAMC
Medical Officer

PLEA OF MITIGATION FOR G51106 SPR MC ANULTY

SWM

Spr McAnulty is used to hard work and likes to be kept busy. In civilian life he did stevedoring work in St. John, N.B. He joined the army on 14 Jul 41 and came overseas with the 7 C.C.C. RCE and remained with them until Mar 43. During this period his record was good.

He asked to be transferred to the 1st Fd Coy RCE where he had several friends. Up to this time transfers took place between the units concerned. The system changed so that he had to return to the re-inforcement unit. Here he underwent 9 weeks refresher course during which time the vacancy (Carpenter B) had been filled in the 1st Fd Coy, RCE . He was placed in the draft coy and several times was put on and off drafts. This became discouraging especially when much of his time was spent at kitchen fatigues. His AWL started at this time. Consequently he lost his trade pay and was held in A Coy CERU with little hope of getting to the field. When he finally did get out to the 2 Bn RCE he made up his mind to soldier but he had become so slack after his year in 1 CERU that he did not realize his responsibility when he went AWL.

On the 19th of Feb 44 he went to Purley to practice Hockey. After the practice he went to Croyden to meet his cousin who was starting his leave. He intended to return to his coy by 2300 hrs that evening but during the afternoon he got drunk in a pub and he decided to go to London with his cousin. They got to Piccadilly and ended up in a pub. That evening his cousin left him. He met his friends from his old unit and continued his drunk. He surrendered himself on the 28 Feb 44. He hesitated to give himself up several times but never got around to it until the 28 Feb 44.

Spr McAnulty has been used to an active life. He spent 2 years in the field during which time he was kept busy and did a good job. Since then he has spent a boring year in 1 CERU which takes the ambition out of many a man. On top of this he has not recieved any mail from his wife in Canada since Xmas. He is a moody type of person who tries to drown his troubles in drink. He is easily led especially when under the influence of liquor.

I ask that Spr McAnulty be given as light a sentence as possible due to the fact that he is a willing and able worker who desires to soldier. He realizes now that his downfall has been due to liquor and promises to use it with more discretion.

CANADIAN MILITARY HEADQUARTERS

LONDON 28 Feb 45.

The Secretary,
Department of National Defence,
OTTAWA, Canada.

C.55-M-1600

G.51106 Pte McAnulty, W.J.

1. The marginally named soldier is now serving a sentence of 6 months detention awarded 27 Dec 44 by FGCM for an absence without leave which terminated on apprehension after 41 days. He has so far earned full remissions for good conduct while serving his sentence and accordingly the earliest date on which he should be released if he continues so to do is 26 Apr 45.

2. This soldier enlisted 14 Jul 41 at St. Johns, New Brunswick, and he is now 31 years of age. Since enlistment he has been found guilty of 18 offences under AA Sec 15; of 4 offences under AA Sec 19; of 1 offence under each of AA Secs 10(4), 11, 24(2) and 40. In addition to the FGCM set out in paragraph 1 hereof he has had 2 previous courts martial: on 9 Nov 43 he was awarded a sentence of 90 days detention for 25 days absence without leave, and on 11 Mar 44 he was awarded a sentence of 120 days detention for 8 days absence without leave. He has been convicted 3 times by a civil court: on 24 Jun 44 he was sentenced to 1 day imprisonment for theft, on 27 Jul 44 he was fined £5 for theft, and on 19 Oct 44 he was sentenced to 60 days imprisonment for 2 offences of theft.

3. This soldier has been medically examined and it is stated that he is fit to undergo detention.

4. The Neuropsychiatrist and Selection of Personnel Officer who have examined this soldier state that he is impulsive and irresponsible, that his difficulties are due to indulgence in alcohol and bad company, and that he will undoubtedly continue to be a disciplinary problem. No change in his S category was recommended.

5. Taking into consideration these reports, this soldier's record of absences without leave, his previous courts martial, and his 3 civil convictions it is considered that he should serve his present sentence in full and thereafter should be discharged for misconduct in accordance with paragraph 8 of Appendix to C.A.R.O. 1029, and it is so recommended. It is possible that this soldier has misconducted himself for the purpose of obtaining his discharge.

6. It has accordingly been directed pursuant to P.C.1304/44 that this soldier be returned to Canada in custody under sentence. Herewith original A.F. A3104 in respect of the FGCM held 27 Dec 44 on which this direction has been endorsed.

Reference H.Q.C.55-M-1601 (JAG/D-9) dated 20 Mar 45.

2. The proceedings of this Standing Court-Martial have been reviewed and are herewith returned for safe custody.

3. Regarding delay the Officer Commanding 21st A.A. Regt. reports as follows:

" The M/N soldier returned from A.W.L. 17 Feb 45, and was paraded before the Commanding Officer 19 Feb 45, and remanded for a District Court-Martial, Summary of Evidence was taken in this connection 27 Feb 45 and an application for a D.C.M. was forwarded 1 Mar 45.

It was then decided to present this soldier before a Standing Court-Martial and a new charge sheet was incorporated in the new application for Standing Court-Martial which was forwarded 5 Mar 45.

The delay during the period 19 Feb to 27 Feb 45 can only be explained by the amount of detail work caused by the large number of absentees during that period. "

Proceedings on Plea of Not Guilty

Question to the accused. Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity for preparing your defence?

Answer. Yes, sir.

(For Minute of Adjournment and Reassembly, see document marked "G")

(If the accused applies for an adjournment see instructions at page 747 M.M.L.)

~~The Prosecutor proceeds to call witnesses.~~

First Witness for prosecution. ~~being duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor.~~

Question

The Prosecutor, in support of the charge, produces the following documents,-

M.F.B.375.

(M.F.B.375 is read, marked EXHIBIT "H", signed by the President and attached to the proceedings)

M.F.M.216.

(M.F.M.216 is read, marked EXHIBIT "I", signed by the President and attached to the proceedings)

M.F.B.1481.

D

The Prosecutor has no further witness to call.
The Prosecution is closed.

Motion – No Case

It is open to the accused, his Counsel or Defending Officer at the close of the case for the prosecution to submit that the evidence given for the prosecution has not established a prima facie case against him, and that he should not therefore be called upon for his defence. If such Motion is made, the proceedings will be recorded on separate pages which will be inserted immediately before the present page D. If the Court is satisfied that the Motion is well founded, it must acquit the accused and register its Finding on Page A.

Defence

The President will now address the acused as follows:—

"It is my duty at this stage to advise you as to your rights in the general conduct of your defence. The procedure to be followed depends entirely on the answers given to the formal questions which are about to be put to you. It is therefore important that you should understand and appreciate the effect of your answers to these questions. You do not need to give evidence on oath unless you wish to do so, but if you do give sworn evidence you are liable to be cross-examined by the Prosecutor and questioned by the Court."

"If you do not give evidence on oath you are entitled to make a statement giving your account of the subject of the charge against you. You will not be sworn and no question may be put to you by the Court or any person with respect to such statement. I must warn you, however, that evidence given on oath will carry more weight with the Court than a mere statement not on oath."

If there is no Defending Officer the President should then explain to the accused the effect which his answer to the formal questions on Page D of the proceedings will have on the order of the Closing Addresses as provided in R.P. 40 and 41.

Question to the accused. Do you apply to give evidence yourself as a witness, or do you wish to make an unsworn statement?

Answer. I apply to give evidence myself as a witness, sir.

Question to the accused. Do you intend to call any witness in your defence?

Answer. No, sir.

Question to the accused. ~~Is the witness to be called a witness as to character only?~~

Answer.

FIRST WITNESS FOR THE DEFENCE) The Accused, C.442066 Private Edwin Cecil MOORE, No. 3A District Depot, C.A., being duly sworn, is examined by the Defending Officer,-

Q. Pte Moore, I understand that you were granted farm leave?

Yes, sir.

Q. Can you tell the Court how much farm leave you were granted since you have been in the Army?

Yes, sir. I was called up in the fall of 1940 and done thirty days' training in Brockville. Then I come home and then 1941 in August or September I got another call and a farm form to fill out and I got six months leave, and it stated in that when the six months' leave was up to apply before the time had expired if I wanted further extension, which I did. After a while I got called up again. The Provost came out and picked me up and brought me in. I was in custody eight days. They thought they had a charge against me from Peterborough. One of their fellows came down and asked me if I had trained in Peterborough and I told him I had never been there in civilian life or anything, but I was still in the Army.

Q. You say you have never been there in civilian life. Have you been there in Army life?

No, sir, I have never been there. I went to Cornwall and was there for two months, although I didn't train two months, and I got farm leave another six months from there and then after that I think I got two months' leave.

Q. How long were you back in the Army after the six months' leave?

I came and was here about a week and still in civilian clothes. We just hung around over here until our papers came and were sent back home.

Q. Did you get farm leave?

Yes, sir, two months' leave.

Q. During that two months' leave that you had, on what farm did you work?

Scales.

Q. It was Scales who applied for farm leave?

Yes, sir.

Q. He had applied for former leaves as well?

Yes.

Q. While on this two months' farm leave on Scales farm, what happened?

My brother was called into the Army and I was the last one at home. My mother took sick and had no way of getting to the doctor so I went home to help do the work and take her to the doctor. My dad isn't very well. Rheumatism; too much work and they needed help. I was the last boy, only one left.

Q. When you went home did you know you were doing wrong?

Yes, sir, but there was a friend of ours, a neighbour there who went all through last war and he said in a case like that, mother sick, no way of getting out, as long as we notified the Army it was all right. My mother wrote, but I don't know where the letter went.

Q. Did your mother receive any information from the Army that further leave could not be granted?

I guess she did, sir.

Q. Regardless of that on the face of this friend, Mr Boyce ...

Crosby.

Q. Crosby, you remained at home?

Yes I did, sir.

Q. You claim your mother did write and tell the Army you were home?

Yes, and her health and her circumstances.

Q. While you were at home on this farm did you go out anywhere else and work on another farm?

Yes, sir, I changed worked. I would go and work on another farm for two or three days and he would help me back when we had something difficult.

Q. In other words you helped one another?

Yes.

Q. Did they help you on your farm too?

Yes.

Q. While doing this did you also help an aunt of yours?

Yes I did, sir.

Q. Can you tell me was it necessary to help this aunt?

I should say it was, sir.

Prosecutor: All this information is coming not from the witness, but from the Defending Officer. The Defending Officer is not under oath and I would suggest the Defending Officer get the information by rewording the questions.

DEFENDING OFFICER CONTINUES EXAMINATION

Q. While you were working on the farms, your parents', your aunt's, and as you say you interchanged with other people, did you work only on the farm or did you do something else?

Only farm work and cut wood in the winter, what we call summer wood; cut enough in winter to do the year.

Q. Do you call that farm work?

Oh yes, that is farm work.

Q. Did you at any time make an attempt to come back to the Army while on this leave?

No, sir.

Q. Were you satisfied you were doing the right thing?

I thought I was, sir. My mother couldn't do hardly anything at all. She has a leakage of the heart and also a slight rupture and there was nobody to take here to the doctor. We live eleven miles from her doctor.

Q. While working on the farm did you ever have an accident?

Yes I did, sir. Quite some time ago.

Q. Does that effect you in any way?

It does, sir; I fell out of a tree once, fourteen feet and I was knocked out for a couple of hours. My skull was fractured and also my back fractured.

Q. You wouldn't say fractured; you might say strained?

Yes, strained.

I don't remember just what day I was supposed to report back.

Q. Do you want the Court to assume you didn't care when you were to report back?

No, sir.

Well, sir, it was up on the 9th of July and we were over here at this building and it seemed we were going to get further leave.

No, sir.

Q. That is ten o'clock at night. Were you there at ten o'clock at night?

I don't think I was.

Q. Were you or were you not?

I was at home.

Q. And you were away from that place, the unit, until apprehended?

I was, sir.

Q. At Verona, Ontario?

That was where I was apprehended. I was at home and my home is at Godfrey.

Q. But you were apprehended at Verona, Ontario?

Yes, sir.

Q. How far is Godfrey from Verona?

About six miles.

Q. You were just in town I suppose?

Yes, sir.

Q. You weren't picked up at your own home?

Yes, sir.

Q. The 20th of February, 1945?

Yes, sir.

Q. And dressed in civilian clothes?

Yes, sir. When I got farm leave before they always .....

Q. You can tell that later on. Just answer my questions. Where were you living before you came into the Army in the first place?

Godfrey.

Q. What were you doing at Cobalt, Ontario?

I was born there. I didn't live there.

Q. How long is it since you have been at Cobalt?

Seventeen or eighteen years, sir.

Q. And you have never been in Cobalt since?

No, sir, I have not.

Q. What did you do before you came into the Army?

Farmed.

Q. Always farmed?

Always farmed. I was brought up on a farm.

Q. You have already told the Defending Officer that you couldn't get any further leave?

Yes.

Q. It was applied for?

Yes.

Q. And you could not get it. Nevertheless you made up your mind you were going to stay on the farm?

I was needed on the farm.

Q. But you made up your mind you were going to stay there?

I don't know about that. I was certainly needed.

Q. You were told you weren't going to get any more leave is that right?

Yes, sir. That was on Scales farm.

Q. Did your mother apply for leave?

Yes.

Q. And she was told you couldn't get any leave?

She didn't apply for leave. She wrote in and didn't get an answer.

Q. How long ago was that?

Quite a while ago.

Q. Over a year?

No.

Q. Quite a few months ago?

After I was out I got thinking and thought I should report or do something and I asked this man about it.

Q. When did your mother write in for leave?

I don't remember just what date.

Q. While still working on Scales farm?

No, sir, I was at home.

Q. Still on leave?

No.

Q. Didn't you tell us you changed from Scales farm to your mother's without permission?

Yes.

After my other time had been up.

Q. How many months, days or weeks?

Q. She waited well over the time your leave was up?

Yes that would be it.

Q. Several months elapsed before you were apprehended?

Yes, sir.

Q. After she wrote?

Yes.

Q. No reply?

No reply.

Q. You knew you weren't going to get leave after several months?

They didn't bother me.

Q. The question is, you never got a reply after several months. You knew your leave would come before them?

(no answer)

Q. Don't you want to answer the question?

Yes, sir. What was the question again?

Q. You knew you weren't going to get leave after you didn't receive a reply for several months?

Well that would be right, sir.

Q. Nevertheless you remained away from the Army?

Yes, I farmed at home.

RE-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

Q. You left Scales farm to go to your own farm?

Yes.

Q. Did you at that time come back to the Depot?

Yes.

Q. You did come back to the Depot?

Yes I came back when the time was up, but I had been home before that.

Q. You didn't fill in two months on Scales farm. In other words when you were at Scales farm you decided you were needed more at home than Scales required you?

Yes.

Q. What was the cause of that?

My mother.

Q. And was your brother in the Army then, the younger brother?

He was working for Building Products, grinding grain for feed, when he got his first call.

Q. Do you remember just about when he got his call?

I couldn't tell you, sir. He boarded home and done some work and worked there too and then was called in the Army.

Q. Was he working on the farm at the same time?

Yes.

Q. Just a part time job he was doing?

Yes.

Q. Was he working permanently in the grist mill?

Yes, steady work. He worked in the evenings and before going to work helping with the chores around the farm.

Q. He was not employed full time on the farm?

Oh no.

Q. Did you find it necessary at that time to go home when he wasn't working on the farm all the time?

Yes, mother took sick.

Q. Had your mother been sick beforethat?

She had doctored there, but took worse. She worked too hard and overdone herself.

Q. How long had your father been laid up? The reason you went on the farm your mother couldn't carry on?

Yes that is it exactly. The doctor could tell you the same thing.

Q. After you came back here after two months' leave you say you were around the Depot?

Yes.

Q. You weren't in uniform?

No, for a week I guess.

Q. Did you decide on your own to go home?

I guess I did.

Q. What possessed you to go home?

Because I was needed.

Q. You admit you did wrong?

Yes I know I did wrong.

The Prosecutor declines to cross-examine.

QUESTIONED BY THE COURT

Q. How far is Verona from your farm?

About eleven miles.

Q. Then your farm is at Godfrey?

Godfrey route. Godfrey store is six miles from Verona Store, but ours is on a country road.

Q. Where are you located, north, east or west?

North of Verona, about half way between Verona and Godfrey, you turn left and take what is called the Snyder Road.

Q. How large is the farm?

We work two farms.

Q. How large are the two farms?

One farm is about 100 acres and the other farm is about 200 acres.

Q. How much of that is cultivated?

There would be 35 to 40 acres on one and 75 on the other.

Q. That is between 110 and 120 acres?

Yes.

Q. Have you any stock on the farm?

Yes, sir.

Q. What does the stock consist of?

Nine cows on one, two horses and some other cattle and on the other seven cattle and two horses; a team on each farm.

Q. Any pigs?

Yes, two pigs; sows.

Q. When did you get possession of the other farm?

Well, last summer.

Q. You rented it last summer?

Yes.

Q. Now to get this leave straightened out; if I am wrong correct me. I understand you were first called up and you did thirty days in Brockville?

Yes, sir.

Q. Then you got six months' farm leave?

Yes, sir.

Q. You didn't get farm leave, you were automatically let out?

After Brockville I was just sent home.

Q. How long were you at home then?

From the 9th of November was when we left.

Q. That is 1941?

1940. I think it was in August or September of 1941 we were called up again and got farm leave.

Q. How long did you train when called up?

I didn't train. I filled in the farm form.

Q. You got notice to report and the leave forms at the same time?

Yes, sir.

Q. And you were granted leave for how long?

Six months at that time.

Q. That takes you to when? To the 9th of July, was that it?

Sir, I don't know just what date.

Q. You said you reported in on the 9th of July, isn't that right?

That was this last leave. The leave you were referring to was in 1941.

Q. All right you say you got six months. Then what happened?

I applied and got leave until further notice.

Q. What made you report on the 9th of July?

Well, in the meantime the Provost came out and picked me up and left me in custody for eight days. There were no charges and then let me out, but I went down to Cornwall then.

Q. They sent you down to Cornwall?

Yes.

Q. How long were you in Cornwall?

About two months, but I didn't train except for about two weeks.

Q. What happened then?

I was given six months' leave.

Q. Was the six months' leave up on the 9th of July?

No, sir, up on the 19th of April, then we came in and filled in the forms and then sent us home and then mailed us two months' leave.

Q. And that was the one that was up on ....

Yes on the 9th.

Q. Now, how far is Scales' farm from your farm?

Scales' farm is three miles from Verona.

Q. That would make it fourteen miles from your place?

Scales' farm is on a side road too. If you go around by First Lake Road to Bell Rock, that way probably would be nine miles.

Q. Mr Scales applied for farm leave for you?

Yes, sir, at that time.

Q. Were you working at Scales' farm when you took on the other farm, when the other farm was rented?

I think I was, sir. That is one reason I went home.

EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER THROUGH THE COURT

Q. Did you rent a farm?

No, it is my aunt's farm. My dad and I worked my aunt's farm and our own farm. She is alone and seventy years old and that is why we worked it. That is her home.

The Prosecutor declines to cross-examine.

The witness resumes his seat.

The Prosecutor declines to make a Closing Address.

The Defending Officer makes a Closing Address.

La poursuite est close.

MOTION DE NON-LIEU

Il est loisible a l'accuse, a son avocat ou a l'officier defenseur, apres l'audition de la preuve de la poursuite, d'alleguer que celle-ci n'a pas reussi a etablir une presomption legale contre l'accuse et que ce dernier ne devrait pas, par consequent, etre contraint de presenter sa defense. Dans le cas d'une telle motion, le proces-verbal sera consigne sur des feuilles separees qui seront inserees immediatement avant la presente page D. Si la cour estime que cette allegation est bien fondee, elle doit acquitter l'accuse et consigner son verdict a la page A.

DEFENSE

Le president s'adresse a l'accuse en ces termes:

"Il est de mon devoir en cette circonstance de vous aviser de vos droits touchant la conduite generale de votre defense. La procedure a suivre depend entierement des reponses que vous ferez aux questions de forme que nous allons vous poser. Il importe donc que vous compreniez et saisissiez l'effet de vos reponses. Vous n'aurez pas a temoigner sous serment a moins que vous ne le vouliez. Mais, si vous faites des depositions assermentees, vous serez sujet a l'interrogatoire contradictoire par les soins du procureur et a l'interrogatoire par les soins de la cour."

"Si vous ne faites pas de deposition sous serment, vous avez le droit de faire une declaration ou vous donnerez votre version de l'affaire. Vous ne serez pas assermente et vous ne serez pas interroge sur ce que vous dites, par la cour ou par quelque autre personne. Je dois cependant vous prevenir qu'une deposition faite sous serment aura plus de poids aux yeux de la cour qu'une simple declaration non assermentee."

S'il n'y a pas d'officier defenseur, le president explique alors a l'accuse l'effet que ses reponses aux questions de forme de la page D du proces-verbal auront sur l'ordre des dernieres plaidoiries, prevu dans les Regles de procedure 40 et 41.

Desirez-vous, comparaitre, vous meme, comme temoin, ou bien desirez-vous faire une declaration non assermentee? — Question a l'accuse.

The District Officer Commanding,
Military District No. 5, Quebec, Que.

Standing Court-Martial
E.57688 Pte. Laurent Morin,
Les Fusiliers du St.Laurent, C.A.
att. to No. 5 District Depot, C.A.

Receipt is acknowledged of the proceedings of the marginally-noted Standing Court-Martial which were forwarded by the President named therein.

2. It is noted that M.F.B.1481 is signed by Capt. G.W.Wells, while it appears that Major J.E.R. Beaudet, O.C.#46 Coy., C.Pro.C., was the officer authorizing the transportation. This is an irregularity as this form may be signed only by the officer authorizing or issuing the transportation warrant himself. However, in view of the Sentence of the Court with regard to the costs of apprehension, no prejudice was done by the admission of this form in the present instance.

3. It is assumed that question 7 on page D-7 of the proceedings is due to a clerical error and should read "13 December 1943" instead of "16 December 1943", as this date is inconsistent with the rest of the evidence.

4. On M.F.M.216A there is nothing to indicate that the two NCOs who apprehended the accused, belong to the Riviere-du-Loup Detachment of No. 46 Coy., C.Pro.C.

5. The proceedings are otherwise legally regular, the finding is properly made and the sentence is according to law. Pursuant to C.A.R.O. 4565 paragraph 12, the said proceedings are herewith forwarded to you. After they have served your purpose, will you please return the proceedings to this office for custody.

(R.J.Orde) Brigadier,
Judge Advocate-General.

Motion – No Case

It is open to the accused, his Counsel or Defending Officer at the close of the case for the prosecution to submit that the evidence given for the prosecution has not established a prima facie case against him, and that he should not therefore be called upon for his defence. If such Motion is made, the proceedings will be recorded on separate pages which will be inserted immediately before the present page D. If the Court is satisfied that the Motion is well founded, it must acquit the accused and register its Finding on Page A.

Defence

The President will now address the acused as follows:—

"It is my duty at this stage to advise you as to your rights in the general conduct of your defence. The procedure to be followed depends entirely on the answers given to the formal questions which are about to be put to you. It is therefore important that you should understand and appreciate the effect of your answers to these questions. You do not need to give evidence on oath unless you wish to do so, but if you do give sworn evidence you are liable to be cross-examined by the Prosecutor and questioned by the Court."

"If you do not give evidence on oath you are entitled to make a statement giving your account of the subject of the charge against you. You will not be sworn and no question may be put to you by the Court or any person with respect to such statement. I must warn you, however, that evidence given on oath will carry more weight with the Court than a mere statement not on oath."

If there is no Defending Officer the President should then explain to the accused the effect which his answer to the formal questions on Page D of the proceedings will have on the order of the Closing Addresses as provided in R.P. 40 and 41.

Question to the accused. Do you apply to give evidence yourself as a witness, or do you wish to make an unsworn statement?

Answer. I wish to give evidence on oath.

Question to the accused. Do you intend to call any witness in your defence?

Answer. No. sir

Question to the accused. Is the witness to be called a witness as to character only?

A. (witness hesitates)

Q. How long have you been known to belong to No. 13 District Depot?

A. When they escorted me down they told me I was going to be attached to No. 13 District Depot.

Q. The escort told you?

A. The Sgt. at Camrose.

Q. How old are you?

A. 22, Sir.

Q. Were is your home?

A. Raymore, Saskatchewan.

A. Yes, Sir.

A. I was supposed to do my basic training over again, Sir.

Q. Had you had any previous training?

A. Yes, Sir.

Q. Will you tell the Court how much training you have had?

A. I have had all my basic and advanced training.

Q. Where?

A. At Vernon, B.C., with the First Battalion Irish Fusiliers.

Q. And?

A. From there I was drafted to the Winnipeg Light Infantry.

Q. And then where?

A. I got three months' leave from both my parents being in the hospital.

Q. And after that?

A. I returned to the Regina depot and from there to Vancouver depot, where I was driving and then to Port Alberni and was driving for the Administration Staff.

Q. You were driving a car?

A. Yes, Sir.

Q. Are you a fully qualified driver?

A. Yes, Sir.

Q. And from there?

A. I went home to Regina on two months' spring leave and then I went back to the Regina depot and from there to the Vancouver depot.

Q. And then?

A. And then I was sent to Calgary, Alberta, Currie Barracks.

Q. That would be to A.16 would it?

A. Yes, Sir, to do my advanced.

Q. Yes.

A. To do my advanced training over again. From there I was sent to Camrose to start over at the beginning.

Q. To start your basic training again?

A. Right.

Q. Where were you born?

A. At Raymore, Saskatchewan.

Q. Where were your parents born?

A. They both were born in Germany.

A. No, Sir.

Q. What is your attitude towards the army now?

A. Well, I come back under circumstances and I am willing to soldier.

Q. Do you wish to be an active service soldier?

A. Yes, Sir.

Q. And you are prepared to go overseas?

A. Yes, Sir, and I also wish to transfer to the Airborne Troopers.

Q. If it is possible?

A. If it is possible.

Q. The fact that your parents had to report once a month, did that disturb your mentality at all?

A. Well, it has been disturbing me right along as to why they called me into the army and my parents were supposed to report.

Q. Do you consider yourself a good citizen of Canada?

A. Yes, Sir.

Q. And you look upon yourself as a Canadian?

A. Yes, Sir.

Q. If things had been explained to you a little more fully, would that have made any difference to your service?

A. It may have, Sir.

Q. What made you give yourself up?

A. I was going to come back and soldier again.

Q. Why?

(witness hesitates)

Q. Did you consider it your duty, or otherwise, or what?

A. I figured it would be my duty.

Q. And you -- just tell the Court -- I can't tell you what you can say -- I may be overstepping the bounds now. Would you tell the Court why you decided to surrender yourself to your unit?

A. I came back to my unit to take my training over again and then go overseas.

Q. Would you say that you had done considerable training in the army?

A. I believe I have, Sir.

Q. And you returned to Camrose to undergo basic training?

A. Well, that was the only choice they gave me.

Q. Did that have any bearing on the fact that you left here, that you had to undergo basic training?

A. That was the exact reason I did leave.

Q. You were a driver?

A. I was not driving in Camrose, I was taking basic.

Q. Did you enjoy driving?

A. It is as good a job as any.

Q. And are you happy in that job?

A. Yes, Sir.

Cross-examined by the Prosecutor.

Q. When were you called up first?

A. I was called up on January 4, 1943.

Q. What was the first thing that happened to you then with regard to your training?

A. I got my uniform and was sent to Vancouver, B.C.

Q. For what purposes?

A. For basic and advanced training.

Q. And did you complete that?

A. Yes, Sir.

Q. At Vancouver?

A. At Vancouver.

Q. And when, approximately, was that?

A. On July -- I believe it was July 24th or 25th.

Q. It was during the month of July, 1943?

A. Right.

Q. Then what happened?

A. Then I was at Wainwright, Alberta.

A. Doing what?

A. Going through the battle school.

Q. And you went to Wainwright at the end of July, 1943?

A. Right.

Q. How long were you there?

A. I was there anywhere from fourteen days to three weeks.

Q. Then what did you do?

A. I got three months' leave -- two from Wainwright, and an extension from Regina.

Q. Then what?

A. I returned to the depot at Regina and then was sent to the depot at Vancouver, Sir.

Q. And how long a period were you there?

A. About two months.

Q. Then where did you go from Vancouver?

A. I was a driver at Port Alberni, Sir.

Q. For how long?

A. Until some time in April, at which time I had my furlough.

Q. How long, approximately, were you in Port Alberni, just approximately.

A. Somewhere around about two and a half months.

Q. And then you went on two weeks' leave?

A. Two months.

Q. You went from Port Alberni on your furlough?

A. Yes, Sir.

Q. And you had two weeks then?

A. Right.

Q. And two months leave, did you say?

A. Right, Sir.

Q. Then what happened?

A. Then I came back to Regina.

Q. How long were you in Regina?

A. I could not say definitely how long.

Q. Can you give us some idea?

A. It would be two weeks and it could have been a month.

Q. You would say approximately three weeks?

Court I think he has given as close an answer as he can.

Q. And then where did you go?

A. I was sent back to Vancouver.

Q. What were you doing in Regina?

A. Just lying around and sleeping.

Q. And how long were you in Vancouver?

A. Three weeks or a month.

Q. And what did you do in Vancouver?

A. Nothing.

Q. And from there?

A. Back to Currie.

Q. How long were you in Currie?

A. I was doing my advanced training.

Q. Was that not a recap on your advanced?

A. Yes, Sir.

Q. How much of that training had you completed before you went to Camrose?

A. I don't know how much we had completed.

Q. It was while you were doing a recap on your advanced training that you were sent to Camrose?

A. Right, Sir.

Q. And how long were you at Camrose before you went absent without leave?

A. Two days.

Q. So that from July, 1943, until you went absent without leave in August, 1944, for a year and a month approximately, you had done no soldiering at all?

Court Wait a minute now.

Prosecutor May I put the question another way?

Court Do you need to put the question?

Prosecutor I do, Sir.

Q. During the period of 1943 -- July until August, 1944, you had no training as a soldier?

Defending Officer I must object, Sir, to that question because I don't know whether the accused is qualified to answer that.

Q. During -- from the period July, 1943, until August, 1944, you had no training as a soldier?

A. I didn't do any training, no, Sir.

Q. That is for a period of approximately a year?

A. Yes.

Q. And I believe you said it was by reason of the fact that you had to start over basic training again that you went absent without leave. That was the reason you went absent without leave because you didn't want to get your basic over again. You figured you were a fully trained soldier?

A. I figured that I had enough training.

Q. Didn't you think you were a little rusty over a period of a year, not doing any training?

A. I believe they gave me enough recap in Currie to overcome that. We understood it was because the active men couldn't get along with the reserve men.

Q. You are charged in that you at Camrose, Alberta, at 0600 hours on 17th August, 1944, absented yourself from No. 131 Canadian Infantry (Basic) Training Centre, C.A. Did you absent yourself from that place and at that time?

A. Yes, Sir.

Q. And did you remain absent from No. 131 Canadian Infantry (Basic) Training Centre, C.A., at Camrose until you surrendered yourself at Camrose again?

A. Yes, Sir.

Q. And you surrendered to military authorities?

A. Yes, Sir.

Q. At 0600 hours on the 2nd March, 1945?

A. Yes, Sir.

Q. Your present unit is No. 13 District Depot, C.A., is that right?

A. That's the way they made me understand it.

Q. As far as you know?

A. Right, Sir.

The Defending Officer declines to re-examine.

Questioned by the Court.

Q. Where did you go when you went absent without leave?

A. I was working on the farm.

Q. Where?

A. If I would answer that question, it would involve certain people. It was in the Prairie Provinces.

Q. Did you go home?

A. No, Sir.

Q. How close were the Mounted Police to where you were?

A. At times I was right in the same place.

Q. Where would that be?

A. It was down in Regina.

Q. Did you work close to Regina?

A. I was a ways out from Regina.

Q. How far?

A. Oh, about one hundred miles.

Q. How far were you away from the Mounted Police detachment?

A. You mean at that time?

Q. Yes.

A. Sir, I have worked at different places and I have worked in towns where the Mounted Police were living and at times I worked a long ways off from them.

Q. What did you do with your army clothes?

A. I have got my army clothes.

Q. What did you do with them?

A. I wore them.

Q. How frequently?

A. All the time.

Q. What identification did you carry with you?

A. My own identification.

Q. Would that be your army identification?

A. My army identification.

Q. And how far were you away from your home?

A. Well, I never -- I was within about one hundred miles of home all the time.

Q. Did you go home at any time?

A. Well, if I had gone home they would have picked me up right away.

Q. Did you go home?

A. No, Sir.

Q. What led you to come back?

A. I come back and was going to do my duty as a soldier.

Q. What intentions did you have in your mind while you were working during this period?

A. I was thinking of coming back and trying to get my place back with the army.

Q. And you said that as far as your feelings for the army are concerned, you are prepared to go overseas?

A. Yes, Sir.

Q. And do your duty as a soldier?

A. Yes, Sir.

The witness resumes his seat.

The Prosecutor makes a Closing Address.

The Defending Officer makes a closing address.

THE ACCUSED ADDRESSES THE COURT THROUGH HIS DEFENDING OFFICER

Sir, in reference to the accused, there is not a great deal I can say. He has given his evidence before you and he has told his story. This speaks for itself. This man has expressed his intention of going active and I understand that he can do his basic and advanced during detention and get himself ready to go overseas as soon as possible. There is not a great deal I can say but I would ask you to take into consideration his desire to go active and get overseas. Therefore, in the opinion of the defence, the best thing we can do is to get him overseas as soon as possible. In closing, I would just say this, Sir, that I know he will receive every consideration from you possible, knowing from your experience in matters of this kind and your sound judgment that he will receive consideration, therefore, I leave any sentence that you pass in your hands. DEFENCE

The President informs the accused as to his rights in the general conduct of his defence.

Question to the accused:

Q Do you apply to give evidence yourself as a witness or do you wish to make an unsworn statement?
A On oath, sir.

Q Do you intend to call any other witness in your defence?
A No, sir.

First witness for defence:

The accused K.76952 Pte L. Mathews, No. 11 District Depot CA having been first duly sworn, is examined.

BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

Q Will you tell the Court as fully as possible your story as to why you went Absent Without Leave. Give your reasons as you told them to me.
A Sir, the reason I went AWL was to support my father, who is old but not old enough for a pension. He is 60 years old.

Q I believe your father is in very poor health as supported by medical documents?
A Yes, sir. I wasn't able to make enough money in the Army. I only made $6.00 a month to help support him. I did not intend to desert, I wanted to report back after making some money to support him, also a little for transportation back to Vancouver. You see I was the only one he could depend on. I have a brother and a sister. My sister is married and is living in Lethbridge. My brother left home. No one gets along with my father. I am the only one that does. That is all I have to say, sir.

CROSS EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR

Q Mathews, did you absent yourself without leave from No. 11 District Depot CA at Vancouver, B.C. at 0800 hours on the 25th day of Feb 46.
A Yes, sir.

Q And did you remain so absent until you were apprehended by Civil Authorities at Cranbrook, B.C. at 2120 hours on the 20th day of Apr 46.
A Yes, sir.

Q Were you dressed in civilian clothes at the time you were apprehended?
A Right, sir.

Q You have told the Court that the reason you went absent was because you wanted to support your father.
A That's right, sir.

Q Who was supporting your father up until the time you absented yourself?
A My brother. He left home and when he left home he was broke. That meant no money coming in for my Dad.

Q What made you decide to go absent on the 25th of Feb 1946?
A I wanted to support him. I told him a lie and said that I was on leave. He didn't know the difference but I had no intention to desert the Army, sir. I intended to come back a week before I was apprehended.

Q How much money had you made up to the time you were apprehended?
A I don't know exactly, you see sir, it was the day before pay-day and our time wasn't made up.

Q How much money had you made towards the support of your father. In actual cash I mean.
A I was making about $10.00 a day.

Q How much money did you have accumulated at the time you say you were going to surrender?
A I am not positive, but I think it was about $50.00.

Q How much money did you need for the support of your father?
A I don't know, sir.

Q How did you know you had enough then?
(no answer)

Q You just told the Court that you decided to come back to the Army a week before you were apprehended. Now how much money did you have to support your father at that time?
A About $75.00.

Q You thought that was enough?
A Yes, sir. Also the points dropped down and I figured I could get out quick to go back to supporting him again.

Q What was the address you gave the Army when you were attested?
A Cranbrook, sir.

Q Where did you go after absenting yourself without leave from the Army.
A To the B.C. Electric Company, that's where my mother was working, but when I got there I found that she was in uniform.

Q What did you do after that?
A Hitch-hiked to Cranbrock

Q Did you wear your uniform at Cranbrook?
A No sir, I didn't wear it as I was working.

PROCEEDINGS ON CONVICTION BEFORE SENTENCE

The Court having arrived at a finding on the charge, such finding is announced to the Court.

The Prosecutor tenders to the Court MBF 355, and informs the Court that no MFM 6 for the accused is available. This document is marked "Y", signed by the President and annexed to the proceedings.

Question to the accused:

Q Have you any statement to make concerning the documents which have just been read to you?
A No, sir.

Q Do you wish to address the Court?
A Yes, sir, I wish my Defending Officer to speak for me.

THE DEFENDING OFFICER: (In Mitigation)

Sir, the accused volunteered for the Canadian Army as a GS soldier at the age of 18 years. At that time his father was partially supported by his brother and was getting along fairly well. The accused did soldier as well as he knew how for a lengthy period. His sister didn't support his father and being married, had to work herself. The accused felt that it was his responsibility towards his father to contribute something towards his support. Unfortunately his mother is not residing at the same place as his father which doesn't help, and makes life for a chap of 22 years, very difficult. Having spent his time in the Army with a clean record until he took the law in his own hands and decided to go absent to support his father, I ask the Court to be lenient with the accused. I might state that his father still has to have support within the next few weeks. That's all sir, thank you.

THE SENTENCE HAVING BEEN RECORDED IT IS ANNOUNCED TO THE ACCUSED.

Proceedings on Plea of Not Guilty

Question to the accused. Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity for preparing your defence?

Answer. No Sir.

(If the accused applies for an adjournment see instructions at page 747 M.M.L.)

The Prosecutor proceeds to call witnesses.

First Witness for prosecution. Lieut. E. D. Strongitharm, A.16 Canadian Infantry Training Centre, C.A.,

being duly sworn, ~~is examined by the Prosecutor.~~

Question I am Lieut. E. D. Strongitharm, A.16 Canadian Infantry Training Centre, C.A.

I present M.F.B. 375.

(M.F.B. 375 is read, marked "Exhibit F", signed by the President, and attached to the proceedings.)

Certified true extract of M.F.B. 237.

(M.F.B. 237 is read, marked "Exhibit G", signed by the President, and attached to the proceedings.)

M.F.B. 1481.

(M.F.B. 1481 is read, marked "Exhibit H", signed by the President, and attached to the proceedings.)

M.F.B. 1482.

(M.F.B. 1482 is read, marked "Exhibit I", signed by the President, and attached to the proceedings.)

The Defending Officer declines to cross-examine.

The witness resumes his seat.

D

The Prosecutor has no further witness to call.
The Prosecution is closed.

Motion – No Case

It is open to the accused, his Counsel or Defending Officer at the close of the case for the prosecution to submit that the evidence given for the prosecution has not established a prima facie case against him, and that he should not therefore be called upon for his defence. If such Motion is made, the proceedings will be recorded on separate pages which will be inserted immediately before the present page D. If the Court is satisfied that the Motion is well founded, it must acquit the accused and register its Finding on Page A.

Defence

The President will now address the acused as follows:—

"It is my duty at this stage to advise you as to your rights in the general conduct of your defence. The procedure to be followed depends entirely on the answers given to the formal questions which are about to be put to you. It is therefore important that you should understand and appreciate the effect of your answers to these questions. You do not need to give evidence on oath unless you wish to do so, but if you do give sworn evidence you are liable to be cross-examined by the Prosecutor and questioned by the Court."

"If you do not give evidence on oath you are entitled to make a statement giving your account of the subject of the charge against you. You will not be sworn and no question may be put to you by the Court or any person with respect to such statement. I must warn you, however, that evidence given on oath will carry more weight with the Court than a mere statement not on oath."

If there is no Defending Officer the President should then explain to the accused the effect which his answer to the formal questions on Page D of the proceedings will have on the order of the Closing Addresses as provided in R.P. 40 and 41.

Question to the accused. Do you apply to give evidence yourself as a witness, or do you wish to make an unsworn statement?

Answer. "I wish to make an unsworn written statement Sir."

Question to the accused. Do you intend to call any witness in your defence?

Answer. "No, Sir"

Question to the accused. Is the witness to be called a witness as to character only?

Answer.

On the 3 Sept. 45 I was on leave at my sisters place in Lethbridge, Alta. My pass expired on the 4th Sept. Learned from my sister that my father in Cranbrook was ill with lumbago. His illness kept him from working. I wired my Co. Commander in Currie Barracks ~~so~~ telling I did not have ~~fed~~ funds enough to return and asking for an extension. I received a wire telling me to report to #44 Provost Corps where I would receive transportation back to my Unit. I reported to the Provost who I signed for my transportation and was told to pick it up at the Railway Station any time within the next ten days. I left Lethbridge and hitchhiked my way to Cranbrook to see my father. I worked in place of my father in a logging camp as his lumbago would not allow him to do heavy labor. I wore working clothes. I was picked up in Cranbrook in civilian clothes but still in possession of my army registration card. As soon as my father recovered from his illness I intended to return to my unit. The doctor advised my father that he would be able to return to work within a short time.

Proceedings on Conviction before Sentence

After the Court has arrived at a Finding on all the charges against the accused and such Finding has been announced to the accused, the Prosecutor will tender to the President M.F.B. 355, together ,when it is possible, with an M.F.M. 6.

These documents are read to the Court by the President, are marked "Y" and "Z", signed by the President and annexed to the proceedings.

Question to the accused. Have you any statement to make concerning the documents which have just been read to you?

Answer. "No Sir"

Question to the accused. Do you wish to address the Court?

Answer. "I would like Mr. Lacoste to do so for me"

"Retract"

The Sentence is then recorded on Page "A' of the proceedings and same is announced to the accused in open Court.

The President then completes and signs the "Warrant of Commitment", if any, which shall be transmitted forthwith to the Commanding Officer of the accused. He will also complete and sign in every case, the "Certificate of trial by Standing Court-Martial", and address same as directed by the regulations. The proceedings, with all documents, will be transmitted to the Judge Advocate General.

THE ACCUSED ADDRESSES THE COURT THROUGH HIS DEFENDING OFFICER

I wish to make a plea for leniency in the setting of the sentence for Pte. Matthews. Pte. Matthews did volunteer his services to his country. He is still a fairly young man and before he came into the army, he was never away from home for very long. From what he has told me, it seems he is very homesick when he is away and this may be the cause of some of his absences. From his record, it seems that he has got off to a bad start, in life and some steps, as well as punishment by the Court, should be taken to try and straighten this man out to try and prepare him to become a good citizen of this country once he is out of the army.

Proceedings on Plea of Not Guilty

Question to the accused.

Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been compiled with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity for preparing your defence?

Answer.

No. Sir.

(If the accused applies for an adjournment see instructions at page 747 M.M.L.)

~~The Prosecutor proceeds to call witnesses.~~

~~First Witness for prosecution.~~

Question

Capt. D. Bingham, No. 13 District Depot, C.A., the Prosecutor, tenders to the Court the following documents:

M.F.B. 375.

(M.F.B. 375 is read, marked "Exhibit F", signed by the President, and attached to the proceedings.)

M.F.M. 215.

(M.F.M. 215 is read, marked "Exhibit G", signed by the President, and attached to the proceedings.)

M.F.B. 1482.

M.F.B. 1481.

(M.F.B. 1481 is read, marked "Exhibit I", signed by the President, and attached to the proceedings.)

D

The Prosecutor has no further witness to call.
The Prosecution is closed.

Motion – No Case

It is open to the accused, his Counsel or Defending Officer at the close of the case for the prosecution to submit that the evidence given for the prosecution has not established a prima facie case against him, and that he should not therefore be called upon for his defence. If such Motion is made, the proceedings will be recorded on separate pages which will be inserted immediately before the present page D. If the Court is satisfied that the Motion is well founded, it must acquit the accused and register its Finding on Page A.

Defence

The President will now address the acused as follows:—

"It is my duty at this stage to advise you as to your rights in the general conduct of your defence. The procedure to be followed depends entirely on the answers given to the formal questions which are about to be put to you. It is therefore important that you should understand and appreciate the effect of your answers to these questions. You do not need to give evidence on oath unless you wish to do so, but if you do give sworn evidence you are liable to be cross-examined by the Prosecutor and questioned by the Court."

"If you do not give evidence on oath you are entitled to make a statement giving your account of the subject of the charge against you. You will not be sworn and no question may be put to you by the Court or any person with respect to such statement. I must warn you, however, that evidence given on oath will carry more weight with the Court than a mere statement not on oath."

If there is no Defending Officer the President should then explain to the accused the effect which his answer to the formal questions on Page D of the proceedings will have on the order of the Closing Addresses as provided in R.P. 40 and 41.

Question to the accused. Do you apply to give evidence yourself as a witness, or do you wish to make an unsworn statement?

Answer. I wish to give evidence myself on oath.

Question to the accused. Do you intend to call any witness in your defence?

Answer. No.

Question to the accused. Is the witness to be called a witness as to character only?

Answer. No.

Q. You didn't ask for a pass?

A. No, Sir.

Q. Why didn't you?

A. I asked for a furlough.

Q. And?

A. They wouldn't give it to me because I was eight times A.W.L.

Q. For how long?

A. Two weeks.

Q. An average of two weeks?

A. Yes.

Q. Did you have to produce your birth certificate when you joined up originally?

A. No, Sir.

A. Yes, Sir.

Q. And did you ever think about coming back to the army?

A. Yes, I did, Sir.

Q. Why didn't you?

A. They nabbed me before I had a chance to make up my mind. I had two years, I know, Sir, to make up my mind and I liked the army but I was homesick and I didn't know whether I should come back or not.

Q. How old are you now, your correct age?

A. Twenty-one and a half.

A. Yes, Sir, I know one or two of them.

Q. Well, why weren't you picked up before?

Q. The Routine Order saying that you had to turn them in was not in vogue at that time?

A. No, Sir.

Q. Well, now, Pte. Matthews -- ?

A. Yes, Sir.

Q. Look over towards me, will you. What are your ideas now after all this -- you are older considerably then you were. Have your ideas changed at all with regards to the army?

A. Yes, Sir.

Q. What have you got in mind now?

A. Well, Sir, I would like to go overseas just as soon as I finish my training all over again.

Q. It will be necessary to have your basic and advanced over again?

A. Yes, Sir.

Q. And now you had different ideas?

A. Yes, Sir, different altogether, Sir.

Q. He runs an ice-house?

A. Yes, Sir.

Q. And what did you do for him?

Proceedings on Conviction before Sentence

After the Court has arrived at a Finding on all the charges against the accused and such Finding has been announced to the accused, the Prosecutor will tender to the President M.F.B. 355, together ,when it is possible, with an M.F.M. 6.

These documents are read to the Court by the President, are marked "Y" and "Z", signed by the President and annexed to the proceedings.

Question to the accused. Have you any statement to make concerning the documents which have just been read to you?

Answer. No sir

Question to the accused. Do you wish to address the Court?

Answer. Yes sir through my defending officer.

The Sentence is then recorded on Page "A' of the proceedings and same is announced to the accused in open Court.

The President then completes and signs the "Warrant of Commitment", if any, which shall be transmitted forthwith to the Commanding Officer of the accused. He will also complete and sign in every case, the "Certificate of trial by Standing Court-Martial", and address same as directed by the regulations. The proceedings, with all documents, will be transmitted to the Judge Advocate General.

THE ACCUSED ADDRESSES THE COURT THROUGH HIS DEFENDING OFFICER

Mr. President: Before sentencing the accused, the only plea that I can make is the extreme youth of the accused when this A.W.L. first started. There is not much I can do other than that. He has apparently had a change of mind or has decided he is going to soldier. Under the circumstances, I suggest that the accused be given every opportunity to become fully trained and get on his way overseas, where he belongs and where he wishes to go. Other than that, Sir, I have nothing further to add.

Proceedings on Plea of Not Guilty

Question to the accused.

Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity for preparing your defence?

Answer. No, Sir.

(If the accused applies for an adjournment see instructions at page 747 M.M.L.)

The Prosecutor proceeds to call witnesses.

First Witness for prosecution.

being duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor.

Question

By the Prosecutor: Mr. President, the Prosecution's evidence in this case is all documentary, with the exception of one witness in connection with the second charge. I therefore beg to file with the Court the documents, pursuant to C.A.R.O. 5126, in the order as shown on the Precis, which are - M.F.B. 375, M.F.M. 216, and M.F.B. 1481, referring to the accused.

M.F.B. 375 is read, marked "F", signed by the President, and attached to the proceedings.

M.F.M. 216 is read, marked "G", signed by the President, and attached to the proceedings.

By the Defending Officer: In reference to the M.F.B. 1481, I object to that document, Sir.

By the Court: What is your objection, Captain Woods?

By the Defending Officer: My objection, Sir, to it is that the number shown is not the number of this man, and in one place they got 'Douglas Carter Minard', in another place 'Douglas Minard' on the other two documents, and on this document they have got him shown as 'D. Minard", and also the wrong number is shown, and we have no way of knowing at all whether that is him or not.

By the Court: However, I think the document refers to the accused. It is 'D. Minard', and the accused's name is D. Minard. Your objection will be noted, and I will admit the document for what it is worth.

M.F.B. 1481 is read, markd "H", signed by the President, and attached to the proceedings.

First Witness for the Prosecution } No. H.66427 Gunner Alvin John McFARLANE, A3 Canadian Artillery Training Centre, C.A., having been first duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor:

Q Will you give the Court your number, name, rank and Unit, please?

A H.66427 Gunner McFarlane, Alvin John, A3 C.A.T.C., Shilo Camp, Manitoba.

Q Do you know M.612132, Gunner Douglas Carter Minard?

A Yes, Sir.

Q Where is he now?

A Sitting there, Sir (indicating the accused).

Q Can you tell us anything about his Kit?

A Yes, Sir.

Q Would you tell the Court what you know about his kit?

A I checked his kit on the 6th March, 1945, against the deficiencies found at the Court of Inquiry.

Q Against the 375, is that it?

A Yes, Sir.

Q Will you tell me if that is what you checked it against, this Exhibit "F"?

A Yes, Sir.

Q And what did you find?

A I found him to still have deficiencies of kit.

Q Have you a list of them?

A Yes, Sir.

Q Would you mind producing the list and telling the Court what they are?

A The deficiencies are - Anklets, web, prs. 1 ---

By the Defending Officer:

Q Did you check that against some list you had made yourself or somebody else's list?

A No, Sir, not actually.

By the Court:

Q Did you make this list out yourself?

A Yes, Sir, and it was typed out in the office.

Q Did you check it with the list you made?

A ----

By the Defending Officer: I object, Sir, on the grounds that the witness made this list from some other list he didn't make himself.

By the Prosecutor:

Q Will you explain how you got this list? Just tell the Court how you got it?

A Well Sir, according to the list when he came back, if he has no 800 or not I check it against another certified true copy of his 800. I found Minard had been issued a Uniform and stuff like that when he was attached to the Depot. His 800, Sir, had nothing to do with his deficiencies. It was temporary, and therefore he was short all the stuff when he got back.

Q You checked that up then, the temporary 800 against the 375?

A Yes, Sir.

Q How did you arrive at the list that eventually became this? Did you write it out yourself?

A No, Sir, I just took it from this list here.

Q Then how did this one originate?

A It was typed out from that, Sir.

By the Court:

Q Did you check the kit in possession of the accused against the 375?

A Yes, Sir.

Q What did you find he was deficient as a result of that check?

A Well, I can't tell you right off-hand, Sir, but I know he came back in Battle Dress, Anklets Web, Boots and underwear, and stuff like that, Sir.

By the Prosecutor:

Q When you made this check did you have a pencil and a piece of paper so as to write down what you say he was deficient?

A No, Sir.

Q What did you have?

A Well Sir, if he had his Anklets Web, I put a tick beside it.

Q That is on the 375? You took the 375 and checked his kit and if you found he did not have certain articles you checked it off on that, did you?

A Yes, Sir.

Q And when you got to the end of the check what did you do with the list?

A I took it in and gave it to the Clothing Stores where he had been issued with his clothes.

Q And there they made out the list you have?

A Yes, Sir.

Q Is this the list you see now?

A Yes, Sir.

By the Court:

Q Where is the certified copy of the 375 which you checked the accused's kit against?

A It is in the Q.M. Stores, Sir.

By the Prosecutor: Could I have an adjournment to get that, Sir.

By the Court: The Court will be adjourned until tomorrow morning, the 9th March.

"At 1420 hours on the 8th day of March, 1945, the Court adjourned. At 1000hours on the 9th day of March, 1945, the Court is re-opened."

The examination is continued.

By the Prosecutor;

Q When we left off yesterday you were under oath. You were starting to tell the Court in regard to checking the accused's kit. Just tell the Court, first of all, what was your capacity at that time?

A Sir, I was employed in the Q.M. Casualty Stores.

Q Under whom?

A Under R.Q.M.S. Rocan.

Q What were your duties?

A In charge of Casualty Stores.

Q But what were your duties?

A Storeman, Sir, checking kits.

Q On this particular occasion did you check Gunner Minard's deficiencies of kit under instructions from someone?

A Yes, Sir.

Q From whom did you get these instructions?

A Q.M. Office, Sir.

Q Tell the Court what you did?

A I checked the deficiencies of kit against the Court of Inquiry of August 8th, 1944.

Q Is this the document you had checked it against?

A Yes, Sir.

Q Tell the Court what it is?

A This is a certified true copy of M.F.B. 375, Sir.

M.F.B. 375 is read, marked "I", signed by the President, and attached to the proceedings.

Q Then what did you find?

A Sir, I found the accused to be short --

Q On the 6th March, 1945?

A Yes, Sir.

Q Yes, what did you find him short?

A I found him to be short:-

Caps, Field Service	1	.70
Socks, Army, prs.	2	.92
Brasses, Button	1	.04
Brushes, Button	1	.11
Brushes, Hair	1	.39

Q How much does that amount to?

A $20.14, Sir, and a reduction of 25% makes it $15.11.

Q The total is how much?

A $15.11, Sir.

Q And what does that $15.11 signify then?

A The total charge, Sir.

The Defending Officer declines to cross-examine this Witness.

The Witness withdraws.

D

The Prosecutor has no further witness to call.
The Prosecution is closed.

Motion – No Case

It is open to the accused, his Counsel or Defending Officer at the close of the case for the prosecution to submit that the evidence given for the prosecution has not established a prima facie case against him, and that he should not therefore be called upon for his defence. If such Motion is made, the proceedings will be recorded on separate pages which will be inserted immediately before the present page D. If the Court is satisfied that the Motion is well founded, it must acquit the accused and register its Finding on Page A.

Defence

The President will now address the acused as follows:—

"It is my duty at this stage to advise you as to your rights in the general conduct of your defence. The procedure to be followed depends entirely on the answers given to the formal questions which are about to be put to you. It is therefore important that you should understand and appreciate the effect of your answers to these questions. You do not need to give evidence on oath unless you wish to do so, but if you do give sworn evidence you are liable to be cross-examined by the Prosecutor and questioned by the Court."

"If you do not give evidence on oath you are entitled to make a statement giving your account of the subject of the charge against you. You will not be sworn and no question may be put to you by the Court or any person with respect to such statement. I must warn you, however, that evidence given on oath will carry more weight with the Court than a mere statement not on oath."

If there is no Defending Officer the President should then explain to the accused the effect which his answer to the formal questions on Page D of the proceedings will have on the order of the Closing Addresses as provided in R.P. 40 and 41.

Question to the accused. Do you apply to give evidence yourself as a witness, or do you wish to make an unsworn statement?

Answer. By Defending Officer: He has a written statement, Sir.

Question to the accused. Do you intend to call any witness in your defence?

Answer. No, Sir.

The Defending Officer makes a closing address.

The Prosecutor makes a closing address.

Question to the accused. Is the witness to be called a witness as to character only?

Answer.

May it please the Court:

I went home to Vermillion, Alberta, on the week-end previous to the tenth of July. I arrived home on Saturday morning, and if I was to be back on time I would have had to leave the same night for camp. I decided to take a few extra days. Having taken these extra days I thought I might as well be hung for a sheep as a lamb and take a few more. The first thing I knew the days added up and knowing the punishment I would now receive I continued to put off my return. I finally made up my mind to take my punishment and surrendered at Calgary.

All during my absence I knew that eventually I would have to come back, and at no time did I have any intention of remaining away from the Army permanently.

When I gave myself up in Calgary I asked to join the Active Army. They told me that I would have to wait until I got back to Camp Shilo. To-day I applied to the Adjutant A.Z and he told me that I could not go Active until my documents were back from the Records Office.

This is a true statement.

DEFENDING OFFICER'S STATEMENT IN MITIGATION

Sir, this man is single. He is of Reinforcement category -- he has completed one month of Basic training. I would just like to draw the attention of the Court to the fact that this man has a clean sheet with the exception of that one entry, which I don't believe should ever be on any man's crime sheet as a first entry. The man gave himself up. He admits it was a long absence, but he did give himself up, and at the same time he wanted to join the Active Army -- he still does; and instead of a long sentence for this man I think a light sentence would be sufficient, to allow this man to complete his training. Let him join the Active Army and send him Overseas. I think this would be much better than a long sentence, where he would be of little use to himself and of little use to the Army.

D

The Prosecutor has no further witness to call.
The Prosecution is closed.

Motion – No Case

It is open to the accused, his Counsel or Defending Officer at the close of the case for the prosecution to submit that the evidence given for the prosecution has not established a prima facie case against him, and that he should not therefore be called upon for his defence. If such Motion is made, the proceedings will be recorded on separate pages which will be inserted immediately before the present page D. If the Court is satisfied that the Motion is well founded, it must acquit the accused and register its Finding on Page A.

Defence

The President will now address the acused as follows:—

"It is my duty at this stage to advise you as to your rights in the general conduct of your defence. The procedure to be followed depends entirely on the answers given to the formal questions which are about to be put to you. It is therefore important that you should understand and appreciate the effect of your answers to these questions. You do not need to give evidence on oath unless you wish to do so, but if you do give sworn evidence you are liable to be cross-examined by the Prosecutor and questioned by the Court."

"If you do not give evidence on oath you are entitled to make a statement giving your account of the subject of the charge against you. You will not be sworn and no question may be put to you by the Court or any person with respect to such statement. I must warn you, however, that evidence given on oath will carry more weight with the Court than a mere statement not on oath."

If there is no Defending Officer the President should then explain to the accused the effect which his answer to the formal questions on Page D of the proceedings will have on the order of the Closing Addresses as provided in R.P. 40 and 41.

Question to the accused. Do you apply to give evidence yourself as a witness, or do you wish to make an unsworn statement?

Answer. I wish to give evidence myself as a witness, sir

Question to the accused. Do you intend to call any witness in your defence?

Answer. No, Sir

Question to the accused. Is the witness to be called a witness as to character only?

Answer. N/A

First witness for the Defence

The accused, F-77111 Gunner Neil Kempton Millett, A-1, Canadian Artillery Training Centre, C.A., being duly sworn, is examined by the defending officer.

Q. Gnr. Millett, will you tell the court the story that you told me from the time you enlisted in the army to the time you were apprehended?

A. On the day I joined the army I joined the Provost Corps in Halifax. I was put on draft three or four times and was always taken off the draft. The last time I was on draft, which was in Halifax in Nov 42 in reinforcements for #11 Provost Corps, they took us down to the Standing Medical Board before Major James and he lowered my Pulhems to L-4. From there I went on draft to Camp Borden. That was H.W.E. I asked several times to have my category raised. In October 43 I asked for another re-board. The Standing Medical Board in Camp Borden raised my category to L-2 but they would not confirm my category. When they raised my category to L-2 I asked for a transfer. I was transferred in Oct 43 to A-1, Petawawa Military Camp. I was up before the Board here three times and they would not confirm my category. I was put on draft April 1944. I went with the rest of the boys for medical. They told me I was taken off the draft. I got my leave with the rest of the boys - supposed to be embarkation leave - but my category was not confirmed. I think my leave was from 16 to 20 April 1944. When they told me I was taken off the draft I got fed up with the army so I went on leave. I stayed over my time and then I was scared to come back. In June 44 the girl I was running around with discovered she was pregnant. She had no parents and she was scared to be alone. She wanted me to wait until after the baby was born. The baby was born March 7th, 1945.

Q. What were your intentions concerning the army after the child was born?

A. I intended to give myself up.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR

Q. Gnr. Millett, did you absent yourself without leave from A-1 CATC from 0600 hrs the 20th of April 1944 until you were apprehended at 1630 hrs the 26th of February 1945?

A. I did, sir.

Q. And you were apprehended in military uniform?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. What did you do during the period of your absence without leave?

A. I didn't do much of anything.

Q. Did you work?

A. A little bit.

Q. Where were you living?

A. In Toronto, sir.

Q. Were you living at home?

A. No, sir.

Q. Are your parents alive?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Are they familiar of the circumstances that you are the father of a child?

A. No, sir.

Q. Do you know what your category is now?

A. L-2, not confirmed.

Q. Did you stay with this girl from June until February?

A. Yes, sir.

THE DEFENDING OFFICER DECLINES TO RE-EXAMINE

QUESTIONED BY THE COURT

Q. Gnr. Millett, did you assume any financial responsibility in connection with the birth of this child?

A. Some, sir.

Q. Are you married?

A. No, sir.

Q. You did not marry this girl?

A. No, sir.

Q. Is the baby still living?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Gnr. Millett, do you wish to make any statement to the court in regard to your future intentions or responsibilities in so far as this girl and baby are concerned?

A. I intend to marry the girl.

Q. Why did you wait so long to marry her?

A. I didn't have permission to get married.

The Prosecutor proceeds to call witnesses.

First Witness for prosecution. B-58615, Sgt. A.A. I O N, A-10 C.I.T.C., C.A.,

being duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor.

Question

Q. To what unit do you belong?

A. A-10 CITC.

Q. What company?

A. No.3 Coy.

Q. Do you remember the 28th of June, 1944?

A. I do, sir.

Q. Will you tell the Court what happened on that date, please?

A. At approximately 0830 hours the accused, Pte. Martion, was in a group that were warned for draft.

Q. You refer to the accused, Pte. Martion. Is he in Court to-day?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Would you point him out, please?

---- Witness indicates the accused.

Q. Carry on, please?

A. He was read the warning and asked if there were any questions. There were no questions asked. His signature was attached to a master roll and a separate slip of paper which I witnessed both;

Q. I show you Acknowledgment of Warning for Special Duty. By whom is that signed?

A- It is signed by Pte. Marion, E. and Ion, A.A., Sergeant.

PROSECUTOR :- I offer this as evidence, sir.

---- Acknowledgment of Warning for Special Duty, is read by the Court, marked Exhibit "F", signed by the President, and att. to the proceedings.

PROSECUTOR :-

Q- The signature of Pte. Marion, did you see that signature affixed?

A- I did, sir.

Q- Did you place your own signature on there as witness?

A- Immediately after, sir.

Q- How was the warning given -- was that warning read over to the accused before he signed it or not?

A- It was read over to the group as a whole and then they were paraded in front of the table where we were sitting and it was read to them again. Each man was asked if his correct regimental number, his name and rank, and asked if there were any questions, if he thoroughly understood it, and there were no questions asked, they all understood it, and they affixed their signatures to it.

Q- What happened to the draft which was warned, subsequently?

A- The draft left at approximately 1145 hours on the 9th of July from the C.P.R. station, Camp Borden. At that time, according to regimental evidence, the accused, Pte. Marion, was not on that parade.

C-5

CROSS-EXAMINED BY DEFENDING OFFICER :-

Q- Who actually read the warning?

A- An officer, sir.

Q- Did you yourself speak to the men?

A- I had nothing to do with speaking to the men, sir.

---- Prosecutor declines to re-examine.

---- The witness withdraws.

PROSECUTOR :- I offer as evidence MFB 375, dated 26 July, 1944; MFM 216 dated 2 March, 1945; MFB 1481, dated 5 March, 1945; and, MFB 1482, dated 10 March, 1945.

---- The above-mentioned documents are read by the Court, marked Exhibits "G", "H", "I" and "J", respectively, signed by the President, and att. to the proceedings.

PRESIDENT :- Have you any objection to the items in Exhibits "I" and "J"?

DEFENDING OFFICER :- No, sir.

D

The Prosecutor has no further witness to call.
The Prosecution is closed.

Motion – No Case

It is open to the accused, his Counsel or Defending Officer at the close of the case for the prosecution to submit that the evidence given for the prosecution has not established a prima facie case against him, and that he should not therefore be called upon for his defence. If such Motion is made, the proceedings will be recorded on separate pages which will be inserted immediately before the present page D. If the Court is satisfied that the Motion is well founded, it must acquit the accused and register its Finding on Page A.

Defence

The President will now address the acused as follows:—

"It is my duty at this stage to advise you as to your rights in the general conduct of your defence. The procedure to be followed depends entirely on the answers given to the formal questions which are about to be put to you. It is therefore important that you should understand and appreciate the effect of your answers to these questions. You do not need to give evidence on oath unless you wish to do so, but if you do give sworn evidence you are liable to be cross-examined by the Prosecutor and questioned by the Court."

"If you do not give evidence on oath you are entitled to make a statement giving your account of the subject of the charge against you. You will not be sworn and no question may be put to you by the Court or any person with respect to such statement. I must warn you, however, that evidence given on oath will carry more weight with the Court than a mere statement not on oath."

If there is no Defending Officer the President should then explain to the accused the effect which his answer to the formal questions on Page D of the proceedings will have on the order of the Closing Addresses as provided in R.P. 40 and 41.

Question to the accused. Do you apply to give evidence yourself as a witness, or do you wish to make an unsworn statement?

Answer. I will give evidence under oath, sir. (See overleaf)

Question to the accused. Do you intend to call any witness in your defence?

Answer. No, sir.

Question to the accused. Is the witness to be called a witness as to character only?

Answer.

A- No, before noon, sir.

Q- In the morning?

A- Yes, sir.

FIRST WITNESS FOR THE DEFENCE:

The accused, L.609179 Pte. Clarence Harold McMILLAN, No. 12 District Depot, C.A., being duly sworn, is examined by the Court.

Q.11 You may proceed now to give your evidence. Just state what you want to say.

A.11 Well, why I went A.W.L. was, our house at home isn't very good and I was trying to get another--to get some lumber out to get another one built. And I wrote in for a postponement to the Kent Regiment and I never heard no reply from before I left for the bush. I was up in the bush and I had my horses and sleighs up there and I had my lumber pretty near all cut down, and the R.C.M.P. come and picked me up. If they had left me stay about another week and a half or two weeks I would have had my lumber all out by that time.

Q.12 And then what, when you had your lumber out?

A.12 Well, I would have been able to return to the Army then.

Q.13 Yes; go on.

A.13 I applied for a postponement but they wouldn't give it to me. And last spring--a year ago last spring--I asked to join Active in the Provosts and they wouldn't give me that.

Q.14 You wished to go Active in the Provost Corps?

A.14 Yes, I asked them twice, and the last time they said they didn't want no zombies in the Provosts.

Q.15 To clarify it: Whom do you mean by "they" said that?

A.15 Well, the Colonel told us that. My dad he was in two wars and he never got any help from any place, and when he come out he took a loan for the farm from the Soldiers Settlement Board and I have been working all the time to get that paid up. And I had a brother in the last war and they never helped him out any. And I got a brother in this war and a sister in the Air Force; and there's just my mother and a small brother, 14 years old, at home to do the work at home. And I have a number of livestock; and when the police they come and got me I had to leave my horses and everything up in the bush, and there was nobody to go and get them for me. My mother she isn't very well and she is not able to do the work at home. I guess that's about all. And last May my dad he passed away.

Q.16 Last May?

A.16 Yes; and they only give me four days leave to go home from Courtenay, B.C.

Q.17 To where?

A.17 Ridgedale, Saskatchewan. And then when I come back a couple of days A.W.L. they wanted to charge me for them. And I put in for spring leave last spring and they wouldn't give me that. And they did not give me harvest leave until the 6th of October.

Q.18 The 6th of October?

A.18 Yes, sir. I guess that's about all.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR

Q.19 Pte. McMillan, there is a younger brother going to school at home, isn't there?

A.19 Well, he is not going to school now. He quit school but he is not able to work. He never stays home or anything. He comes home once in a while but he won't stay home. He always goes to the neighbours.

Q.20 How old is he?

A.20 Fourteen, sir.

Q.21 Your farm at home consists of a quarter section of land?

A.21 Yes, sir.

Q.22 Now, Pte. McMillan, you have told the Court that you made an application to your Unit, the Kent Regiment?

A.22 Yes, sir.

Q.23 And you were advised..... You received no advice before you went to the bush?

A.23 No, sir.

Q.24 Did you later find out that there was a communication sent to you, is that it?

A.24 Well, I was up in the bush. I wasn't home but some of the neighbours came up there and they said they sent a wire home that I was supposed to return back or something; but I wasn't home.

Q.25 But you had not finished with this work that you had to do to repair the house?

A.25 No, sir.

Q.26 You quit school at the age of fifteen, didn't you?

A.26 Yes, sir.

Q.27 And you were farming with your father ever since you quit school, up there?

A.27 Yes, sir.

QUESTIONED BY THE COURT

Q.28 How much land do you farm?

A.28 160 acres, sir.

Q.29 How much is cultivated?

A.29 About 145 acres, sir.

Q.30 And how much stock have you?

A.30 I got 6 head of cattle and 3 horses and 12 pigs.

Q.31 And there is no other man around the farm?

A.31 No, sir.

Q.32 Just this younger brother who is fourteen years old?

A.32 Yes, sir.

Q.33 How many brothers have you, other than the boy, fourteen?

A.33 I have one more; he is in the Army.

Q.34 One in the Army. Where is he now?

A.34 Well, I don't know where he is now. The last I heard of him he is with the Veterans' Guards out near Vancouver some place.

Q.35 What were you wanting to build with this lumber?
A.35 A house on the farm, sir, so I can make a home for my mother.

Q.36 There isn't a house there now?
A.36 Well, it is just an old log shack there.

Q.37 You wanted to make a more comfortable home for your mother?
A.37 Yes, sir.

Q.38 Did you get any of the lumber back to your farm?
A.38 No, sir.

Q.39 How old are you?
A.39 I am twenty-three now, sir.

Q.40 How old is your mother?
A.40 Well, I don't know just exactly for sure, but somewhere around fifty or fifty-two; something like that.

Q.41 Have you still got part of the Soldiers Settlement Board loan to pay off?
A.41 No; we got it all paid up last summer.

Q.42 You got it all paid up last summer?
A.42 Yes, sir.

Q.43 You said that in another week and a half from the time you were picked up you could have finished cutting your lumber?
A.43 Well, about a week and a half or two weeks.

Q.44 What were you going to do then?
A.44 I was going to return back to the Army.

Q.45 And when did you propose to get the lumber out and build the house?
A.45 When did I?

Q.46 Yes.
A.46 Well, I started on it before Christmas, sir; I started making preparations to go up there.

Q.47 Yes; but this lumber you were cutting when you were up there--when were you going to get that out?
A.47 I was going to haul it out right away.

Q.48 And then leave it on the farm?
A.48 Yes, sir; until it dried out.

Q.49 And later on have an opportunity to build?
A.49 About the middle of the summer it would be dry.

In the opinion of the Court it is not necessary to comply with R.P. 83(b).

I questioned Pte. McMillan about his kit. Pte. McMillan replied that his kit was at home. I asked him if he could get it forwarded. He stated that his mother was the only one at home and had no way of shipping this kit to him. Pte. McMillan was dressed in civilian clothes. I asked Pte. McMillan if he would put the Canadian Army Uniform on. Pte. McMillan said "No". Showing Pte. McMillan the uniform of the Canadian Army, I asked him if he knew what it was. He said Army Uniform. I said What Army. Pte. McMillan replied "Canadian Army". I was dressed in the uniform of the Canadian Army. Showing Pte. McMillan the badge of rank W.O. II on the sleeve of my battle dress blouse I asked him if he knew what it was. He said "Yes, Sgt.-Major". I asked Pte. McMillan if he knew what an order was. He said "Yes". Offering Pte. McMillan the uniform of the Canadian Army I said "this is a direct order put this uniform on now". Pte. McMillan replied "No Sir". Again offering Pte. McMillan the uniform of the Canadian Army I said "this is the second direct order, put this uniform on now". Pte. McMillan replied "No, Sir". Again offering Pte. McMillan the uniform of the Canadian Army I said "this is the third direct order, put this uniform on now". Pte. McMillan replied "No, Sir". Approximately three minutes elapsed between each order. There was privacy and Pte. McMillan could have put the uniform on if he had wished to do so. Pte. McMillan did not take or put the uniform on. I then told the escort to return him to the Guardroom.

L.609179 - Pte. Clarence Harold McMillan
No. 12 District Depot, C.A.

Receipt is acknowledged of your R.C.1-Mc-917(AJAG), dated the 13th of March 1945, under cover of which you forwarded for registration and custody the proceedings of the M/n District Court-Martial.

2. It is noted that the finding of the Court on the third charge and that portion of the sentence awarding stoppages of $88.26 in respect of deficiencies were not confirmed.

3. It is also noted that M.F.B. 1481 contains particulars of the cost of two warrants for transportation for escort from Prince Albert to Tisdale and return and for prisoner from Tisdale to Prince Albert, but the certificate does not state that these warrants were issued or authorized by the officer who signed the certificate. Accordingly I am of opinion that this certificate is not evidence of the costs of these two warrants and that an appropriate remission should be made.

4. The proceedings are returned herewith in order that you may carry out the above recommendation after which may they be returned to this office for safekeeping.

District Court-Martial
L.609179 - Pte. Clarence Harold McMILLAN
No. 12 District Depot, C.A.

Forwarded herewith proceedings of the marginally noted District Court-Martial for registration and safekeeping. M.F.M. 288 has been completed in this case and is attached to the proceedings.

2. The accused did not wish the services of an officer to defend him and signed a statement to that effect.

3. It will be noted that confirmation was withheld with regard to the finding on the third charge and also with regard to the sentence in so far as it purported to award stoppages of pay to cover the value of deficiencies of clothing, equipment and regimental necessaries. The reason for this was that it is brought out in the summary of evidence that the accused claimed that his kit was at home, which indicates that he did not fully understand the nature of his plea of guilty to the third charge. Consequently it is considered that the court should have refused the plea of guilty and should have proceeded to try him on the charge as if he had pleaded not guilty.

4. The Officer Commanding No. 12 District Depot, C.A. has been directed to lay charges against the accused under Section 24(2) of the Army Act with respect to deficiencies of kit and he has been authorized to deal with such charge summarily.

5. The recommendation of the Commanding Officer contained in Part IX of M.F.M. 288 to the effect that the soldier's sentence be remitted if his application for release from the Army is approved will be considered when this case has been fully investigated.

District Court-Martial
L.609179 - Pte. Clarence Harold McMILLAN
No. 12 District Depot, C.A.

Forwarded herewith proceedings of the marginally noted District Court-Martial for registration and safekeeping. M.F.M. 288 has been completed in this case and is attached to the proceedings.

2. The accused did not wish the services of an officer to defend him and signed a statement to that effect.

3. It will be noted that confirmation was withheld with regard to the finding on the third charge and also with regard to the sentence in so far as it purported to award stoppages of pay to cover the value of deficiencies of clothing, equipment and regimental necessaries. The reason for this was that it is brought out in the summary of evidence that the accused claimed that his kit was at home, which indicates that he did not fully understand the nature of his plea of guilty to the third charge. Consequently it is considered that the court should have refused the plea of guilty and should have proceeded to try him on the charge as if he had pleaded not guilty.

4. The Officer Commanding No. 12 District Depot, C.A. has been directed to lay charges against the accused under Section 24(2) of the Army Act with respect to deficiencies of kit and he has been authorized to deal with such charge summarily.

5. The recommendation of the Commanding Officer contained in Part IX of M.F.M. 288 to the effect that the soldier's sentence be remitted if his application for release from the Army is approved will be considered when this case has been fully investigated.

Motion de non-lieu

Il est loisible à l'accusé, à son avocat ou à l'officier défenseur, après l'audition de la preuve de la poursuite, d'alléguer que celle-ci n'a pas réussi à établir une présomption légale contre l'accusé et que ce dernier ne devrait pas, par conséquent, être contraint de présenter sa défense. Dans le cas d'une telle motion, le procès verbal sera consigné sur des feuilles séparées qui seront insérées immédiatement avant la présente page D. Si la cour estime que cette allégation est bien fondée, elle doit acquitter l'accusé et consigner son verdict à la page A.

Défense

Le président s'adresse à l'accusé en ces termes:

"Il est de mon devoir en cette circonstance de vous aviser de vos droits touchant la conduite générale de votre défense. La procédure à suivre dépend entièrement des réponses que vous ferez aux questions de forme que nous allons vous poser. Il importe donc que vous compreniez et saisissiez l'effet de vos réponses. Vous n'aurez pas à témoigner sous serment à moins que vous ne le vouliez. Mais, si vous faites des dépositions assermentées, vous serez sujet à l'interrogatoire contradictoire par les soins du procureur et à l'interrogatoire par les soins de la cour."

"Si vous ne faites pas de déposition sous serment, vous avez le droit de faire une déclaration où vous donnerez votre version de l'affaire. Vous ne serez pas assermenté et vous ne serez pas interrogé sur ce que vous dites, par la cour ou par quelque autre personne. Je dois cependant vous prévenir qu'une déposition faite sous serment aura plus de poids aux yeux de la cour qu'une simple déclaration non assermentée."

S'il n'y a pas d'officier défenseur, le président explique alors à l'accusé l'effet que ses réponses aux questions de forme de la page D du procès verbal auront sur l'ordre des dernières plaidoiries, prévu dans les Règles de procédure 40 et 41.

Question à l'accusé. Désirez-vous comparaître, vous-même, comme témoin, ou bien désirez-vous faire une déclaration non assermentée.

Réponse: Oui, monsieur, sous serment. (Voir pages "D-3" et suivantes.)

Question à l'accusé. Avez-vous l'intention de citer des témoins pour votre défense?

Réponse: Non, monsieur.

TEMOIN POUR LA DEFENSE:- L'ACCUSE, Mat. E/616137, Soldat Holland MEILLEUR, Liste Générale, A.C., attaché au Dépot Régional No. 5, A.C., étant dûment assermenté, est interrogé par l'Officier Défenseur:-

Q- Soldat Meilleur, voulez-vous expliquer à la cour les raisons qui vous ont amené à vous absenter au mois de mai 1944?

R- C'est pour cause de santé que je me suis en allé. C'est parce que çà faisait un an que je n'avais pas de dents, j'avais de la misère à manger, j'avais mal à l'estomac, j'avais mal aux gencives; j'ai décidé d'aller manger chez-nous.

Q- Meilleur, vous parlez de vos dents. A quelle date vous a-t-on enlevé vos dents?

R- En 1943.

Q- Quel mois?

R- Dans le mois de juin ou juillet ou mai; je m'en rappelle pas.

Q- Depuis ce temps-là vous n'avez pu de dents?

R- Oui, monsieur.

Q- Meilleur, alliez-vous voir le dentiste de temps en temps pour vous faire examiner?

R- J'y ai été plusieurs fois.

Q- Dans l'armée çà?

R- Oui, monsieur.

Q- Qu'est-ce que le dentiste vous disait?

R- Il retardait çà à plus tard.

Q- Où étiez-vous lorsqu'on vous a arraché vos dents?

R- A Gaspé.

Q- Dans l'armée?

R- Dans l'armée.

Q- A Gaspé, dans quelle unité étiez-vous?

R- 52ième Batterie.

Q- De Gaspé, est-ce que l'unité est allée ailleurs?

R- A Valcartier, monsieur.

Q- Qu'est-ce qui s'est passé à Valcartier, Meilleur?

R- Ils m'ont donné une passe pour Terre-Neuve; j'ai été chez-nous quatre jours, cinq jours, je suis retourné à Valcartier; ils m'ont renvoyé sur le dépot.

Q- Au Dépôt, Meilleur, est-ce que vous vous êtes plaint de vos dents, de vos gencives?
R- Oui, monsieur.

Q- A quel mois avez-vous été transféré au dépôt?
R- Dans le mois de novembre.

Q- Novembre 1943?
R- 1943.

Q- Et vous avez été au dépôt ici combien de temps?
R- Jusque dans le mois de mai.

Q- Et on vous a jamais posé de dents?
R- J'ai été plusieurs fois, ils m'ont mis quelque chose pour les gencives, ils remettaient ça à plus tard.

Q- Est-ce le bas et le haut qui vous manquent?
R- Le bas et le haut.

Q- Qu'est-ce que vous pouviez manger dans l'armée?
R- Quelque chose qui était pas dur à manger; de la viande, j'étais pas capable d'en manger; du pain, du lait.

Q- Meilleur, avant d'être dans l'armée, qu'est-ce que vous faisiez?
R- Je travaillais dans les mines.

Q- Avez-vous travaillé longtemps dans les mines?
R- J'ai travaillé douze ans.

Q- Meilleur, pendant votre absence, quelles étaient vos intentions?
R- J'ai toujours eu l'idée de revenir au camp quand je serais mieux.

Q- Meilleur, l'acte d'accusation dit que vous avez été appréhendé à Thetford Mines?
R- Oui, monsieur.

Q- A deux heures et dix du matin. Vous étiez couché quand ils vous ont appréhendé?
R- Oui, monsieur.

Q- Maintenant, qu'est-ce qu'ils ont fait de vous lorsque vous avez été appréhendé?
R- Ils ont dit: "dépêche-toi, on s'en va à l'hôtel".

Q- Avez-vous été longtemps à l'hôtel?
R- De deux heures aller à dix heures de l'avant-midi, et là on a pris le train, on s'est en venu à Québec.

Q- Vous êtes revenu à Québec le soir même?
R- Dans l'avant-midi.

" INTERROGE CONTRADICTOIREMENT PAR LE PROCUREUR ".

Q- Dans l'acte d'accusation, on dit que vous avez été absent du 16 mai 1944 jusqu'au 28 février 1945. Est-ce que c'est exact?
R- Pour dire le 16 ou le 17, je ne peux pas dire quelle journée.

Q- C'est à peu près ça?
R- J'ai pas remarqué, ça doit être à peu près ça.

Q- Quand vous vous êtes absenté de Lauzon, est-ce que vous êtes allé à Thetford?
R- Oui, monsieur.

Q- Pendant votre absence, est-ce que vous avez consulté un dentiste civil?
R- Non, monsieur.

Q- Le matin de votre appréhension, quand on vous a arrêté, est-ce que vous avez pris un déjeuner?
R- J'ai pris seulement un jus de pamplemousse.

Q- Qui c'est qui a payé?
R- Je ne le sais pas.

Q- C'est pas vous?
R- Non, monsieur.

Q- Quand les escortes sont allés vous chercher chez-vous, est-ce qu'ils sont venus en taxi?
R- Ils sont venus avec le char de la Police Montée.

Q- Comment sont-ils retournés?
R- Avec le char de la Police Montée.

" L'OFFICIER DEFENSEUR NE DESIRE PAS INTERROGER DE NOUVEAU ".

" INTERROGE PAR LA COUR ".

Q- De l'endroit où on vous a arrêté aller jusqu'à l'hôtel, quelle distance y a-t-il?

R- Un mille.

Q- Est-ce que ça coûte $2.25, en taxi, pour faire un mille à Thetford Mines?

R- 50¢.

Procédure sur déclaration de culpabilité précédant la sentence

Quand la cour en est arrivée à une décision relativement à tous les chefs d'accusation contre l'accusé et que ladite décision a été annoncée à ce dernier, le procureur remet au président le modèle M.F.B. 355 et, si possible, un modèle M.F.M. 6.

Ces documents sont lus à la cour par le président, marqués "Y" et "Z", signés par le président et versés au dossier.

Question à l'accusé. Avez-vous quelque déclaration à faire relativement aux documents dont on vient de vous donner lecture ?

Réponse: Non, monsieur.

Question à l'accusé. Désirez-vous adresser la parole à la cour ?

Réponse: Oui, monsieur, par l'intermédiaire de mon Officier Défenseur.

" Je demande tout simplement à la cour de prendre en considération le temps que l'accusé a fait dans la salle de garde et aussi de prendre en considération la bonne conduite qu'il a eue dans le passé, dans l'armée, et de bien vouloir être clémente en faveur du soldat Meilleur. "

La sentence est alors consignée à la page "A" du procès verbal et elle est annoncée à l'accusé en plein tribunal.

Le président établit alors et signe le mandat d'incarcération, le cas échéant, et celui-ci est immédiatement transmis au commandant de l'accusé. Dans chaque cas, il établit aussi et signe le certificat de procès devant une cour martiale permanente et le transmet en conformité des règlements. Le procès verbal ainsi que tous les documents seront transmis au juge-avocat général.

Proceedings on Conviction before Sentence

After the Court has arrived at a Finding on all the charges against the accused and such Finding has been announced to the accused, the Prosecutor will tender to the President M.F.B. 355, together ,when it is possible, with an M.F.M. 6.

These documents are read to the Court by the President, are marked "Y" and "Z", signed by the President and annexed to the proceedings.

Question to the accused. Have you any statement to make concerning the documents which have just been read to you?

Answer. No, sir.

Question to the accused. Do you wish to address the Court?

Answer. Through my Defending Officer (See following pages).

The Sentence is then recorded on Page "A' of the proceedings and same is announced to the accused in open Court.

The President then completes and signs the "Warrant of Commitment", if any, which shall be transmitted forthwith to the Commanding Officer of the accused. He will also complete and sign in every case, the "Certificate of trial by Standing Court-Martial", and address same as directed by the regulations. The proceedings, with all documents, will be transmitted to the Judge Advocate General.

THE DEFENDING OFFICER: Sir, with reference to this particular charge and the accused, I would like to request mitigation of punishment on the following grounds:

In the first place, having just read the summary of character and the MFM 6, you will undoubtedly notice that there are some previous charges of A.W.L., some of them for one, two, three, four, five days, and so on. I suggest that there is a logical reason for those. In looking through the accused's documents and in talking to him, I formed an opinion which is borne out by the documents, and which I would like to leave with the Court. And to do so I would like to show you his previous training and his home background and his family upbringing.

His home is at Thorold, Ontario. His mother and his father are Ukranians, as is he himself. They have been in this country 28 years. And the father, particularly, is not able to be the bread winner for the family. He has not worked for a year and a half. The balance of the family is broken up, as all families get to be after a short time. There are two brothers, one in the Service here in Canada, and one overseas. The one overseas is married and supporting his family. The one in Canada helps to provide for the upkeep of the home. There are two sisters, one in high school and one working in Thorold.

The accused himself also provides, or had provided, I should say, for the upkeep of the home; and despite the fact that both brothers were making an allowance to the mother and father, they were unable to keep both ends going. On a previous occasion the accused had endeavoured to secure governmental aid for this family situation, and was unsuccessful.

I suggest that that, in part, is the reason for his homing instinct.

Now, as regards the man himself. His record, aside and apart from his A.W.L.s, is extremely good; and I would like to show you by virtue of his '105, just exactly how good it is. To do this I need no more than introduce into the Court Record the remarks, general remarks, on the completion of his training, which read as follows: "His military efficiency - good; his conduct - good; his leadership - could be very good. Other remarks: Works hard; intelligent; could make a good junior N.C.O. if he wished." Signed by Lieut. Currier, No. 2 C.B.R. Basic Training Centre, Vernon, B.C. In the face of this evidence, sir, I request mitigation of punishment.

THE PRESIDENT: Could you give me his PULHEMS Profile?

THE DEFENDING OFFICER: Yes, sir. "1" across the board. Born in the year '19.

THE PRESIDENT: The accused is not married; is he?

THE DEFENDING OFFICER: No, sir.

C

Proceedings on Plea of Not Guilty

Question to the accused.

Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity for preparing your defence?

Answer.

No, sir.

(If the accused applies for an adjournment see instructions at page 747 M.M.L.)

The Prosecutor proceeds to call witnesses.

First Witness for prosecution.

being duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor.

Question

By the Prosecutor: Mr. President, the evidence for the Prosecution on this charge is documentary and I tender M.F.B. 375 and M.F.M. 216 pursuant to C.A.R.O. 5126.

By the Court to the Defending Officer: Have you any objection to these documents Captain Anderson?

By the Defending Officer: No, sir.

M.F.B. 375 is read, marked "F", signed by the President and attached to the Proceedings.

M.F.M. 216 is read, marked "G", signed by the President and attached to the Proceedings.

By the Prosecutor: That is the case for the Prosecution, sir.

D

The Prosecutor has no further witness to call.
The Prosecution is closed.

Motion – No Case

It is open to the accused, his Counsel or Defending Officer at the close of the case for the prosecution to submit that the evidence given for the prosecution has not established a prima facie case against him, and that he should not therefore be called upon for his defence. If such Motion is made, the proceedings will be recorded on separate pages which will be inserted immediately before the present page D. If the Court is satisfied that the Motion is well founded, it must acquit the accused and register its Finding on Page A.

Defence

The President will now address the acused as follows:—

"It is my duty at this stage to advise you as to your rights in the general conduct of your defence. The procedure to be followed depends entirely on the answers given to the formal questions which are about to be put to you. It is therefore important that you should understand and appreciate the effect of your answers to these questions. You do not need to give evidence on oath unless you wish to do so, but if you do give sworn evidence you are liable to be cross-examined by the Prosecutor and questioned by the Court."

"If you do not give evidence on oath you are entitled to make a statement giving your account of the subject of the charge against you. You will not be sworn and no question may be put to you by the Court or any person with respect to such statement. I must warn you, however, that evidence given on oath will carry more weight with the Court than a mere statement not on oath."

If there is no Defending Officer the President should then explain to the accused the effect which his answer to the formal questions on Page D of the proceedings will have on the order of the Closing Addresses as provided in R.P. 40 and 41.

Question to the accused. Do you apply to give evidence yourself as a witness, or do you wish to make an unsworn statement?

Answer. I wish to make an unsworn statement, sir.
(See Page "H" attached)

Question to the accused. Do you intend to call any witness in your defence?

Answer. No, sir.

The Defending Officer makes a closing address.

The Prosecutor makes a closing address.

Question to the accused. Is the witness to be called a witness as to character only?

UNSWORN STATEMENT OF THE ACCUSED

All I have to say sir, is that I was having a little bit of trouble with my rib. I reported on sick parade and when I came off sick parade I was told to report to the Sergeant Major and he told me that I was not sick unless I was laying down. I had some trouble with a fractured rib at Saskatoon but I waited until I reported to Curry Barracks in Calgary. When I reported sick because of this rib that is what they told me. I couldn't stand it so I left.

DEFENDING OFFICER'S STATEMENT IN MITIGATION OF PUNISHMENT

Sir, the accused was enrolled as a N.R.M.A. soldier on the 15th of February, 1943. Every so often after being enrolled he was asked to volunteer for Active Service. Early in 1944 upon being asked again to volunteer for Active Service he was paraded to his Battery Commander and stated that he was agreeable to going Active providing arrangements could be made whereby his older brother could claim him. At that time his older brother was stationed at Petawawa and was making an effort to claim him. His brother wrote to him and told him that he, the brother, had been told by his Commanding Officer that he could claim the accused if the Unit that he was serving with would let him go. Upon being paraded to his Commanding Officer was told that he could not be released as his Battery was regarded as an operational unit. He then volunteered to go Active providing that he could get transferred to the Navy but was refused this oportunity to transfer. Then the accused volunteered for the Paratroops but after one interview by a psychiatrist heard no more about it. After these experiences in the army he lost intrest. Finally at Calgary in June 1945 he was having a great deal of trouble with a fractured rib, and every time he paraded sick his Battery Sergeant Major told him he wasn't sick as long as he could stand and would take his name off the sick report and give him extra fatigues at night. Finally he could stand it no longer so went A.W.L. the first time he got a pass. I have a psychiatrist's report I would like to submit to the Court. (See report attached)

A No, sir.

THE PROSECUTOR PROCEEDS TO CALL WITNESSES:

First witness for Prosecution: Lieutenant G.W.VANDERBILT, No. XI Ordnance Depot, RCOC. Prince George Detachment, being duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor:

Q What is your appointment ?
A I am acting officer commanding of the detachment.

Q Will you identify this document ?
A MFB. 375 dated at Prince George, BC. the 26th. January, 1945 referring to the accused.

COURT TO DEFENDING OFFICER:
Q This appears to be in order. Have you any objection to it being admitted ?
A No, sir.
(DOCUMENT is read, marked "F" signed by the President and attached to the proceedings).

THE DEFENDING OFFICER DECLINES TO CROSS EXAMINE THIS WITNESS.

THE WITNESS WITHDRAWS.

Second witness for Prosecution: C.28623 S/Sgt. D.H.SLEETH, No. XI Ordnance Depot, RCOC. (PC) Prince George Detachment, being duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor:

Q What are your duties ?
A I am acting CQMS.

A Yes, the 3rd. January, 1945.

Q What did you do ?
A His kit was picked up at his quarters and returned to the QM.stores by myself and a storeman, Pte. McConnell. Inventory of his kit was made by me - list of shortages was made and values totalled and forwarded on to the orderly room.

Q Was a Court of Inquiry held ?
A Yes.

Q Would you refer to exhibit "F" ? Is this list right ?
A No, sir.

Q Would you explain what you mean by that ?
A I gave evidence that list of shortages made by me was correct. Then on accused's return inventory of his kit was again taken by myself and several of the missing stores were recovered.

Q What date did you make this final inspection ?
A On 28th. February, 1945.

Q Is list set out in exhibit "F" the correct list and valuation on the date of his return ?
A Yes.

Q Would it be possible for a man to turn in uniform without having it taken off his 800 ?

A Yes.

Q Is that all that was turned in for disinfection to you ?
A I am not sure but believe it was.

Q Did the accused return any of these items given in place of those turned in ?
A No, sir.

QUESTIONED BY THE COURT:

Q Is it possible that the accused could have turned in those items to comebody other than you ?
A If this had happened the stores returned would have been marked off his 800.

Q Do I understand this MFB. 375 exhibit "F" does not include all the articles on your original list as set out in the court of inquiry proceedings ?
A No, sir.

Q Then this MFB. 375 exhibit "F" is not a true copy of militia book 68 ?

A In my orderly room here at Prince George, BC.

A No, sir.

Q Do you recall the accused turning in any clothing and equipment for disinfection?
A Yes, sir, certain items: 1 battledress; 1 suit woollen underwear.

Q Were any socks turned in ?
A No, but it is possible he might have done so.

Q What happened when these items were turned in ?
A Items turned in were replaced on free issue and the accused made to understand that he was charged with them. They were entered on his MFC. 800 and no entry is made on his 800 showing them having been turned in.

Q So, actually, he was charged with more than he had ?
A No, when he had kit inspection he was given credit for the things in for disinfection.

A We still have them. Due to moving they never went to the disinfector.

A Yes, sir.

Q He signed for it ?
A Yes, sir.

CROSS EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER:

Q Have any articles of clothing been turned into you which had been left in any huts ?
A No, sir.

Q Would it be possible if the accused turned in battledress to L/Cpl. McNeil that he might not have taken it off his 800 ?
A L/Cpl. McNeil is a qualified storeman and it is doubtful if he would take a battledress in.

THE PROSECUTOR DECLINES TO REEXAMINE THIS WITNESS.

QUESTIONED BY THE COURT:

Q Where is L/Cpl. McNeil ?
A He is absent on Polar Bear.

Q This battledress, etc. handed in for disinfection to you, on whose charge is it now ?
A It is on charge to the accused.

Q How many battledresses are on his charge ?
A 3 complete suits.

Q Where are they ?
A One is the Q.M. stores; one with him and the third is missing.

THE PROSECUTOR HAS NO FURTHER WITNESSES TO CALL.

D

The prosecution is closed.

DEFENCE

THE PRESIDENT ADVISES THE ACCUSED AS TO HIS RIGHTS IN THE GENERAL CONDUCT OF HIS DEFENCE.

Question to accused:

Q Do you apply to give evidence yourself as a witness, or do you wish to make an unsworn statement ?
A On oath, sir.

Q Do you intend to call any witness in your defence ?
A No, sir.

First witness for Defence:

The accused, H.615089 Pte. Norman Stanley MARKUS, No. XI Ordnance Depot, RCOC. Prince George Detachment, being duly sworn, is examined by the Defending Officer:

Q Will you tell the Court what occurred as far as your clothing is concerned, from the time you were in Vancouver ?
A I was at Bassborough Armouries, Vancouver, BC. on a boxing course then transferred to Seaforth Armouries, Vancouver, with my equipment. I got into an accident on the way back to the armouries, with a truck and as I was injured I was sent to hospital where I was for 28 days. My clothing and equipment were supposed to be forwarded to West Point Grey, 58th. Coast Battery. When I returned from hospital I found I was missing 1 waterproof rain coat; 1 pr. khaki trousers; 1 khaki shorts; 1 brown belt. Then I went on 3 months' farm leave. I applied for an extension which was granted but told to report on my return to Little Mountain Camp where my kit was supposed to be forwarded from Point Grey. Before I left Point Grey on farm leave I notified the Q.M. and sargeant major that these articles were missing. They said nothing, I was supposed to get it at Little Mountain. At Little Mountain they told me to get it at Ordnance at Prince George where I was to be stationed. I reported it here at Prince George on arrival but was not fixed up. Then I went on Christmas leave. Now I come back and am charged with these shortages.

Q Regarding the shortage of 1 battledress, blouse and trousers, what happened to that ?
A I had scabies in Vancouver and still had them when I got to Prince George. I saw the M.O. who ordered me to get a new battledress complete, change of underwear 1 towel, 1 pr. woollen socks. I got the uniform and returned the uniform to S/Sgt. Sleeth. He issued me with another charging me with these- not giving me a slip to show I turned in one and underclothes, towel and socks. So S/Sgt. Sleeth told me nobody was to wear my clothes after they had been disinfected so I was to return the new one and get my disinfected one back. Four days before I left on Christmas leave I turned in one complete battledress to L/Cpl. McNeil in the QM stores expecting to get back the disinfected one but it was not back yet, leaving me with only one battledress.

Q Is it your understanding that you have one battledress in the QM stores ?
A Yes.

Q Were you given a receipt for the articles turned in ?
A No, but I believe S/Sgt. Sleeth made out a slip and I signed it.

Q Then it was your understanding that you would return one battledress ?
A Yes, actually charged to my SOO.

CROSS EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR:

Q When you went to Vancouver did you take all your equipment with you ?
A I was stationed in Vancouver and came from there to Prince George.

Q These shortages you found in Vancouver were they charged against you ?

A Yes, but it was supposed to be fixed up before I went on farm leave.

Q When did you go on farm leave ?
A In July, 1944.

Q What did you do with your equipment ?
A Turned it in to West Point Grey.

Q Did you take any military clothing with you ?
A Just what they gave me, overalls, leather mitts and a regular battledress for travelling.

Q When you returned from farm leave where did you go ?
A To Little Mountain and from there to Prince George.

Q What did you do about your equipment ?
A I went to the Q.M. and told them.

Q When you got to Prince George did you tell anybody about these missing articles ?
A Yes, I just mentioned them as lost in Vancouver.

Q Lost as a result of this accident ?
A Whoever was in charge of my stuff while I was in hospital was supposed to send it to West Point Grey where I was stationed.

Q Did you have them at the time of the accident ?
A Yes, in Seaforth armouries.

Q When did you go on Christmas leave ?
A 27th. December, 1944.

Q When were you due back ?
A On 3rd. January, 1945 at 0600 hours.

Q And you did not return ?
A No.

Q You were AWL from 0600 hours January 3rd. 1945 ?
A Yes.

Q When did you return ?
A At 1400 hours on the 28th. February, 1945.

Q During this time you were absent from Prince George Camp ?
A Yes.

Q Did you surrender voluntarily ?
A Yes.

Q Did you have permission to be away ?
A No.

Q Re the battledress! Did you sign MFC. 800 ?
A I think so. I signed for it anyway.

Q Did you get a receipt from L/Cpl. McNeil ?
A No.

Q Did you ask for one ?
A No.

Q On this exhibit F1, are there any items you disagree with ?
A Yes, I had some of it with me.

Q As far as the Q.M.stores records were concerned these were missing ?
A Yes, but I had some with me and these were the articles I have already mentioned as missing.

Q When did you last ask for the battledress turned in for disinfecting ?
A I'm not sure, but about the 26th. December, 1944.

Q Have you asked for it since your return ?
A I have been in close arrest since I have come back.

Q Have you asked anybody for it ?
A No, they have been asking me.

Q Where is your cap, tank, battalion ?
A I gave it to one of the firemen as he had none.

Q Did you get it back ?
A No.

Q Where are your drawers, cotton, short ?
A I think I left them in my barrack box when I went on Christmas leave.

Q How about your drawers, woollen ?
A I lost one of them off the clothes line, the other pair was turned in for disinifecting and never received it back.

Q How about the overalls ?
A I left them in a cupboard in "H" area which I understand has not been occupied for the last 10 weeks.

Q And socks ?
A One pair I turned in for disinfecting and I don't know where the other pair is.

Q Trousers, battledress ?
A The same as the battledress blouse.

Q Where are your shirts, woollen ?
A I turned one in for disinfection and lost one off the line.

Q And your holdall ?
A It got dirty and I threw it away.

Q Bags, ration ?
A I lost it.

Q Belt, waist, leather, brown ?
A That was one of the articles reported missing in Vancouver.

Q Belts, waist, web, 1½ ?
A I don't remember ever having been issued with it.

Q Have you ever worn one ?
A No.

Q How about your waterproof coat ?
A I explained about it missing in Vancouver.

Q Overshoes, four buckle ?
A I don't know what happened to them.

Q Mitts ?
A They were left with the overalls in the cupboard.

Q Pins, collar ?
A I lost it.

Q Shirts, undercotton ?
A That was left in the barrack box.

Q And 2 pairs socks, black ?
A They were worn out and I threw them away.

Q Trousers, khaki drill, long and short ?
A I have already explained them missing in Vancouver.

THE DEFENDING OFFICER DECLINES TO REEEXAMINE THE ACCUSED.

QUESTIONED BY THE COURT:

Q These articles you mention as having lost in Vancouver where were they at the time ?
A In my kit bag, in the Seaforth armouries, the raincoat hanging on a nail.

Q What was this accident you mentioned ?
A I was in the army truck going from the Western Club where boxing classes were held, back to Seaforth and I was injured.

Q Were you taken straight to hospital from the scene of the accident ?
A Yes.

Q Did you eventually get your kit bag and contents ?
A Yes, but only part of the contents.

Q When you went on Christmas leave did you leave some clothing and equipment in camp ?
A Yes.

Q Where ?
A I packed all I could in the barrack box, locked it and gave the key to one of the boys, I don't know his name. My rifle, summer drill jacket and walking out dress were hanging on a nail in the barrack room and the coveralls, mitts, cap, tank battalion were left in the cupboard.

Q When going on leave are you not supposed to turn your stuff in to the Q.M. stores ?
A No, not when we are to be away only a couple of days.

THE ACCUSED RESUMES HIS SEAT.

THE DEFENDING OFFICER MAKES A CLOSING ADDRESS.

THE PROSECUTOR DECLINES TO MAKE A CLOSING ADDRESS.

CC

PROCEEDINGS ON PLEA OF GUILTY

The accused having pleaded guilty to the first charge is found guilty of the first charge.

Question to Prosecutor:

Q Have you any statement to make regarding all the circumstances connected with the offence ?

A Nothing other than the evidence is documentary.

Q Have you any statement to make in reference to the charge to which you pleaded guilty ?

A Yes, sir. I went home to Winnipeg on Christmas leave. I'd had a letter saying my brother was sick. He has 55 head of cattle and only his wife and 10 year old boy to look after it. He tried to get help but could not do so so I helped him out with it. My brother lives at Chatfield, Man. I was going to wire for an extension of leave but understood if I did and it was refused and I stayed I would have two charges laid against me, one for AWL, and one for disobeying an order. I could have got proof that I was there but it would mean waiting 15 days and he was not able to go to town and I do not know my way around there as he had just bought the farm. My brother only takes cream into town every 15 days, just when he can do so, due to road conditions. If I had known I was going to be held awaiting trial so long I could have wired and got proof of working for my brother.

Q Do you wish to make any statement in mitigation of punishment ?

A No.

Q Do you wish to give evidence yourself as to character ?

A No.

Q Do you wish to call any witness as to character ?

A No.

E

THE SENTENCE IS RECORDED AND ANNOUNCED TO THE ACCUSED IN OPEN COURT.

Pte Markus has been in the army more than two years and ~~it will be now~~ ~~at that time~~ has never committed a serious crime. In fact his record is almost without blemish. His MFM 6 has only 1 charge recorded on it. Last July he was AWL for ~~1 day~~ one day + ~~[illegible]~~ 21 hrs.

In this instance his actions are traceable to a desire to assist a sick brother who was unable to carry out the work normally required on a farm. Unfortunately time has not permitted us to obtain documentary evidence to this effect. Pte Markus has assured me ~~that~~ he can still get letters from responsible citizens of Chatfield Manitoba to the effect that his presence was necessary on his brothers farm during the time he was A.W.L.

Also the fact that Pte Markus returned to his unit in Prince George

~~of this case expense~~ is a point that should be taken into consideration.

~~Regarding the second charge, namely of losing by negligence his clothing, there seems to be considerable doubt as to whether he act really lost certain items such as one suit of battle dress and one rain coat. Obviously he should not have surrendered this article to the Quarter Master without obtaining a receipt. However the fact remains that he did.~~

In view of what I have said I believe that the court should take these findings into consideration and be as lenient as possible.

THE DEFENDING OFFICER ADDRESSES THE COURT

Mr. President and members of the Court:

The evidence given by this man proves that he didn't have special care for his foot that he was supposed to have so his intention when he stayed away was not to desert His Majesty's Service, it was only to try to have the proper care for his foot so he could be fit to be a soldier. He proved that he does not want to go overseas as a casualty, he wants to be fit to be there. His medical category was changed 18 months after his accident and it dropped down to L-3. I think this is one of the many reasons why you see the care he needs should be given and when he will be treated, as he gave in his evidence, he is ready to go overseas and that was always his intention and it is still his intention.

"N"

THE DEFENDING OFFICER ADDRESSES THE COURT IN MITIGATION OF SENTENCE

Mr. President and members of the Court:

I would like the court to consider that during the three years this man was an active soldier he had no entries in his conduct sheet.

DECLARATION DE L'ACCUSE PAR VOIE D'ATTENUATION DE PEINE.

Quand je me suis enrôlé j'ai été mal jugé. Je me suis enrôlé; j'ai passé devant un bureau de recrûtement. Je voyais les enseignes, toutes les images. J'ai rentré là. J'ai demandé des informations. On m'a chanté une belle chanson. On m'a dit que je serais dans la branche de l'Armée que je voulais. J'ai signé les papiers. J'ai été envoyé à Longueuil. J'ai dit que je voulais rentrer dans le corps d'ordonnance. On m'a dit qu'il n'y avait pas d'ouverture. Ils m'ont envoyé au basic. On m'a dit que j'aurais ce que je voulais sur le transfert qu'ils me donneraient. J'ai fait mon basic à New Market. Après mon basic j'ai été transféré au Camp Borden. On m'a dit "Demandez ça au Camp Borden". J'ai passé devant l'Army Examiner. Là on voulait me faire suivre un cours d'ingénieur. J'ai dit "Le cours d'ingénieur j'aime pas ça pantoute". J'avais travaillé comme apprenti électricien avant d'entrer dans l'Armée. Il me restait 6 mois pour finir mon appretissage. J'ai parti quelques jours; j'ai revenu. Après ça la dernière fois j'ai parti 58 jours. J'ai été envoyé en détention par une cour martiale. Là j'ai demandé la même chose. J'ai dit que je serais correct la dernière fois.

En sortant de détention, j'ai demandé une passe. Elle m'a été refusée. J'ai demandé pour être paradé. On m'a mis sur la garde. J'ai été sur la garde deux jours. J'ai retourné et j'ai demandé encore une passe. On m'a dit "Si vous vous en allez pas, on va y voir". Je me suis en allé.

Procédure sur déclaration de culpabilité précédant la sentence

Quand la cour en est arrivée à une décision relativement à tous les chefs d'accusation contre l'accusé et que ladite décision a été annoncée à ce dernier, le procureur remet au président le modèle M.F.B. 355 et, si possible, un modèle M.F.M. 6.

Ces documents sont lus à la cour par le président, marqués "Y" et "Z", signés par le président et versés au dossier.

Question à l'accusé. Avez-vous quelque déclaration à faire relativement aux documents dont on vient de vous donner lecture ?

Réponse: Non, monsieur.

Question à l'accusé. Désirez-vous adresser la parole à la cour ?

Réponse: Oui, monsieur, par l'entremise de mon Officier Défenseur.

La sentence est alors consignée à la page "A" du procès verbal et elle est annoncée à l'accusé en plein tribunal.

Le président établit alors et signe le mandat d'incarcération, le cas échéant, et celui-ci est immédiatement transmis au commandant de l'accusé. Dans chaque cas, il établit aussi et signe le certificat de procès devant une cour martiale permanente et le transmet en conformité des règlements. Le procès verbal ainsi que tous les documents seront transmis au juge-avocat général.

Suspension of Sentences for Despatch Overseas

I Reference Ranks 6253 dated 9 APR 45 a survey, as requested, has been made in accordance with para 3 of your wire under reply.

2. It is recommended that the sentences of the under-mentioned soldiers, whose pulhems and state of training permit their despatch overseas, be suspended effective the first day after embarkation for overseas:

NDHQ File No.	Regt. No.	Rank & Name	Unit
HQC 55-B-940	B-113313	Tpr. Brady, A.J.	No.2 CAOTR

HQC 55-P-624	D-141829	" Paquette, J.	A-22 CAMCTC

3. If you concur in the above recommendations may advice be received as soon as possible, please so that arrangements can be made to place these soldiers on overseas draft leaving this Command, whereupon effect will be given, in due course, to para 6(a)(b) of the above mentioned wire. As a draft will be leaving this Command to proceed directly to the ship, in the first part of May, it is suggested that if possible the above-mentioned personnel be placed on such draft.

4. It is recommended that the sentences of the under-mentioned soldiers, whose pulhems permit their despatch overseas, but who require further training before departure, be suspended immediately so as to permit them to be trained.

No. 3 CAOTR for suspension of sentence so as to allow him to complete his training as he considers his record bad. However, the Commandant, No. 86 M.D.B. recommends suspension of this soldier's sentence upon his transfer to CIC for infantry training. It is suggested that consideration be given to the transfer of this soldier from CAC to CIC, and if this is done, it is recommended his sentence be suspended to permit him to complete his training.

6. The O.C., C.B.M.H. has recommended that in the case of F-607999 Pte. Compton, G.L., C.B.M.H., NDHQ file No. HQC 55-C-1175), be allocated to an infantry training centre for the purpose of completing his training, and that his sentence be suspended for this purpose. He is of overseas pulhems but has not had advanced training. This recommendation is concurred in by this Headquarters.

7. The undermentioned personnel are of overseas pulhems and have been fully trained but require, in the opinion of their respective Officers Commanding refresher training, normally before proceeding overseas. It is considered, however, that if these soldiers were released from detention under suspended sentence to allow them to receive such training they would probably absent themselves without leave before the completion of training as their past records are bad. In view of the fact that they are fully trained it is suggested that the following soldiers be placed on overseas draft without refresher training, and that their sentences be suspended effective one day after embarkation for overseas.

Q- How long have you been in the Army, Matucha?

A- Since the beginning of June, sir.

Q- How old are you now?

A- Nineteen, sir.

Q- When did you become of age?

A- Since the 12th of December, sir.

Q- Are you in the same regiment now, to which you belonged at that time?

A- Yes, sir.

Q- When you joined this Canadian Army what was your express purpose, or just what did you think you would like to have done?

A- Well, sir, when I first enlisted I asked to be in the Ordnance Corps, and they told me then that there was no opening. They told me after I had done my basic training with the Armoured Corps that they would see about a transfer when I finished basic training. And when I had my basic finished, I went to see the Army Examiner, and he told me he couldn't do anything about it, when I got to Camp Borden to see the Army Examiner here, and that he would see about a transfer for me. I got there and talked to him about it. He said he couldn't do anything for me here, but "We can put you in straight wheel." And he said, "You have a chance to go on track. Well, I said, "If that is the case, I will do my best, sir." Then when I done my two weeks wheel, I put in for track, and they refused me. They had no opening, they said. So then I was sent to T.S.R., and stayed there two weeks, and I decided to go A.W.L., sir.

Q- What was your civilian occupation?

A- Electric, sir.

Q- How long were you working at that occupation?

A- Three years.

Q- What were you classified as?

A- Motor Repair Man, and assembly.

Q- What firm?

A- Cory Electric

Q- Have you seen any Army Examiners since you finished your advanced training in regards reallocation to Ordnance Corps?

A- No, sir.

----- The Prosecutor declines to cross-examine.

----- The accused resumes his seat.

FINAL ADDRESS BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER:

Tpr. Matucha seems to have the trouble that an awful lot of Canadian soldiers have in Canada. He feels he has been misplaced. Whether that be his fault or other people's fault is hard to say.

There is no excuse for him absenting himself because of lack of reallocation to the Ordnance Corps. He realizes his error, perhaps a little too late, and feels now that perhaps the best thing for him to do is to resign himself to his fate, and proceed overseas as a driver for the Armoured Corps, for which he is fully qualified, and of age and category.

I recommend to the Court that on completion of sentence, he be despatched overseas. That is all.

- De l'avis de la Cour, il n'est pas nécessaire de se conformer à R. P. 83 (b). -

- LE TEMOIN SE RETIRE. -

Le procureur n'a plus de témoins à appeler.
La poursuite est close.

Motion de non-lieu

Il est loisible à l'accusé, à son avocat ou à l'officier défenseur, après l'audition de la preuve de la poursuite, d'alléguer que celle-ci n'a pas réussi à établir une présomption légale contre l'accusé et que ce dernier ne devrait pas, par conséquent, être contraint de présenter sa défense. Dans le cas d'une telle motion, le procès verbal sera consigné sur des feuilles séparées qui seront insérées immédiatement avant la présente page D. Si la cour estime que cette allégation est bien fondée, elle doit acquitter l'accusé et consigner son verdict à la page A.

Défense

Le président s'adresse à l'accusé en ces termes:

"Il est de mon devoir en cette circonstance de vous aviser de vos droits touchant la conduite générale de votre défense. La procédure à suivre dépend entièrement des réponses que vous ferez aux questions de forme que nous allons vous poser. Il importe donc que vous compreniez et saisissiez l'effet de vos réponses. Vous n'aurez pas à témoigner sous serment à moins que vous ne le vouliez. Mais, si vous faites des dépositions assermentées, vous serez sujet à l'interrogatoire contradictoire par les soins du procureur et à l'interrogatoire par les soins de la cour."

"Si vous ne faites pas de déposition sous serment, vous avez le droit de faire une déclaration où vous donnerez votre version de l'affaire. Vous ne serez pas assermenté et vous ne serez pas interrogé sur ce que vous dites, par la cour ou par quelque autre personne. Je dois cependant vous prévenir qu'une déposition faite sous serment aura plus de poids aux yeux de la cour qu'une simple déclaration non assermentée."

S'il n'y a pas d'officier défenseur, le président explique alors à l'accusé l'effet que ses réponses aux questions de forme de la page D du procès verbal auront sur l'ordre des dernières plaidoiries, prévu dans les Règles de procédure 40 et 41.

Question à l'accusé. Désirez-vous comparaître, vous-même, comme témoin, ou bien désirez-vous faire une déclaration non assermentée.

Réponse: L'accusé désire rendre témoignage sous serment, monsieur.

(Voir page D-3 et suivantes.)

Question à l'accusé. Avez-vous l'intention de citer des témoins pour votre défense ?

Réponse: Non, monsieur.

Procédure sur déclaration de culpabilité précédant la sentence

Quand la cour en est arrivée à une décision relativement à tous les chefs d'accusation contre l'accusé et que ladite décision a été annoncée à ce dernier, le procureur remet au président le modèle M.F.B. 355 et, si possible, un modèle M.F.M. 6.

Ces documents sont lus à la cour par le président, marqués "Y" et "Z", signés par le président et versés au dossier.

Question à l'accusé. Avez-vous quelque déclaration à faire relativement aux documents dont on vient de vous donner lecture ?

Réponse: Non, monsieur.

Question à l'accusé. Désirez-vous adresser la parole à la cour ?

Réponse: Non, monsieur.

La sentence est alors consignée à la page "A" du procès verbal et elle est annoncée à l'accusé en plein tribunal.

Le président établit alors et signe le mandat d'incarcération, le cas échéant, et celui-ci est immédiatement transmis au commandant de l'accusé. Dans chaque cas, il établit aussi et signe le certificat de procès devant une cour martiale permanente et le transmet en conformité des règlements. Le procès verbal ainsi que tous les documents seront transmis au juge-avocat général.

No. B.72931. Pte. J. P. McCoy 22 May 43.

Statement in Mitigation of Sentence.

It is submitted that cause of McCoy's bad conduct in the army lies deep-rooted in the background to his first crime. So deep-rooted is it, that only today can a solution other than detention be offered, detention or an examination at Basingstoke Neurological Hospital. This is the history of the background. For almost a year McCoy soldiered, but like all soldiers he desired a little leave. Four times he made his request and four times was refused, this, while other members of his platoon were regularly receiving leave. He went A.W.L., was severely punished and since then has never been out of debt to the army. Because he was not given that first chance he has not since then been able to secure sufficient funds to entitle him to a privilege leave and his leaves have been cancelled. Misguidedly taking the law into his own hands he went A.W.L. again and so on. His recent breakout was a recurrence of this.

trouble. His leave fell due, but for his nine days leave the Paymaster could only give him the usual ten shillings. Ten shillings for nine days! The suggestion was made that his pass would be cancelled, and again he took his own leave. He was awarded F.P. on his return, broke his F.P. and it is for going A.W.L. while undergoing F.P. that he is now charged.

It is submitted that McCoy never got out from under the burden of his first charge - and that the so-called chances given to him, subsequently, were not really chances at all for they never alleviated the underlying cause.

McCoy was sent to Basingstoke in March 1941, and his category was set down as "E". Subsequently his category was raised to "A". Twice, since then, it has been recommended by courts martial that accused be sent to Basingstoke. But no action has been taken on that recommendation.

To-day the accused is a nervous, longer-tied man. That he should be sent to the hospital is clear - and that he is by no means Category A, is also apparent. But this man has had more to contend with than his own nerves. His mother has been very ill for some time. Last December she had a stroke, yet the accused because he had no money could not take her. He had no way of knowing how she was. The worry from this and his obvious unhappiness in the service, plus his nervousness and his inability to make himself understood due to difficulty of speech, was the cause, it is submitted, of his breaking out this last time.

There is, it is submitted a solution. He has two brothers with the R.C.E. In 1941 Mc Coy made his first attempt to transfer to the R.C.E.. Just what a steadying influence this might have had it is impossible to measure accurately. But it is probable that it would have done him a great deal of good. Yet tho' he asked for a transfer for time and time again he was always abruptly refused. At last two years later thro' his mother, some action has been taken.

See two letters attached.

And so at last, perhaps slowly as the army sometimes works, the accused has the opportunity so long sought, of joining his brothers.

Surely if a lenient sentence would make a soldier out of a man who had not soldiered because he had never been treated fairly, in his lights, it should be given. And, it is submitted that this would be giving him his first real chance. But before so doing it is submitted that he should be sent to Basingstoke, and that a recommendation to that effect should be made and carried out, altho' formerly ignored. This man is a case of shattered nerves and it will need a building up period before he is whole again. The army owes a duty to him, as well as he to the army.

Dear Sir:

Just received a letter about my son Jim about A.W.L. against going on over two years. It has upset me terrible. I have just got over a stroke too. My son Bob was getting him transferred into RCE a long with his two brothers and I think if thats done that it would make a difference with him. I do wish they would put him with the two boys Bob and Alex McCoy. I know it would make a difference. I know he will come soon back and though it would make a difference in him. So please try and get with the other two boys. I am worried. Now this is J.P. McCoy, Reg. B 12391 49th Highlanders of Canada 1st Battalion, C.A.S.F. I would be so glad if he was transferred. PLEA OF MITIGATION BY DEFENDING OFFICER

I would point out to the Court that the accused has been 127 days awaiting trial of which 90 days were spent in hospital. It would appear that he automatically lost his pay for 90 days while in hospital and I respectfully suggest that higher authority be asked to remit the automatic forfeiture of that 90 days. I have nothing further to add. His category is S.5

REPORT: — age — Pathology DATE 27 Dec 44

Referred by his defending officer.
This soldier is a Glasgow crime case in the C.A.C. and is now up for his 7th F.P.C.M. He was a patient at B.N.V. & P.S. hospital in Dec 1944 and while there states he was awarded to Cat E, awaited arrival N.E.T.D. to go home but became after restriction on liquor etc and he absented — England. Went A.W.L. for 52 days and again up for F.P.C.M.

Opinion: Lack of documents bar on this patient so there no previous opinion to go on and his story cannot be confirmed to-day.

Very examination to-day indicates he is not insane. Random his quite intelligent and answers appear to be very unstable. He likely falls into the psychopathic group. Obviously punishment has much done this soldier to least bit of good.

He is fit to stand trial — but he knows the difference between right and wrong. Average intelligence. Long detention might be harmful but this can be decided on at later date.

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

STATEMENT IN MITIGATION OF PUNISHMENT

B-72931, Spr. McCoy, J.P., Royal Canadian Engineers, No.1 C.E.R.V., has made some effort in the past to become a good soldier, but has lost considerable enthusiasm for army life. Due to a nervous depression, which he claims was the result of shock received during the bombing of Coventry on 14 Nov. 1940, which he witnessed, he has felt a strong urge to "get away from it all." This could only be done by absenting himself without leave as he could not obtain an official leave. With proper attention, he could become an efficient soldier when his nerves are restored to normal. He voluntarily surrendered himself to the Civil Police in Coventry on 6 oct. 43. He leaves his decision of sentence open to the mercy of the court.

Instructions for the Guidance of the Police.

When a person surrenders himself to a constable as being a deserter or absentee without leave, the officer of police in charge of the police station to which he is brought shall forthwith inquire into the case, and if it appears to him from the confession of that person that he is a deserter or absentee without leave he may cause him to be delivered into military or Air Force custody without bringing him before a court of summary jurisdiction.

B-7[illegible], Pte. McCoy, J.P., (Hqth H of C Fd. Unit) No. 1 Cdn. Inf. Holding Unit, tried by Field General Court-Martial at Witley, Surrey, on the 12th day of March, 1941.

The order convening the Court, the charge-sheet and the summary of evidence are laid before the Court.

Prosecutor - Lieut. H.M. Howell,
Defending Officer - Lieut. J.B. Holladay.

At 1000 hours the Trial commences.

The names of the President and members of the Court are read over in the hearing of the accused and they severally answer to their names.

Before the accused was arraigned it was observed by the President that Lieut. W.W. Foster, No. 1 Cdn. Inf. Holding Unit, was unable to serve on the Court by reason of illness. A certificate of his medical officer had been produced. The Court was of the opinion that in the interests of justice and for the good of the service it was not expedient to adjourn and, not being reduced in numbers below the legal minimum, decided to proceed.

Q1 - Do you object to be tried by me as President, or by any of the officers whose names you have heard read over?
A1 - No, sir.

The president and members are duly sworn.

Q2 - Do you object to M-15577 Sgt. Stanley Fidler, The Edmonton Regiment, C.M.H.Q., acting as Court Stenographer?
A2 - No, sir.

The Court Stenographer is duly sworn.

The charge-sheet is signed by the President and annexed to the proceedings.

The accused is arraigned upon each charge in the above mentioned charge-sheet

Q3 - Are you guilty or not guilty of the first charge against you, which you have heard read?
A3 - Guilty, sir.
Q4 - Are you guilty or not guilty of the second charge against you, which you have heard read?
A4 - Guilty, sir.
Q5 - Are you guilty or not guilty of the third charge against you, which you have heard read?
A5 - Guilty, sir.
Q6 - Are you guilty or not guilty of the fourth charge against you, which you have heard read?
A6 - Guilty, sir.

R.P. 35(B) is complied with by the Court.

Q7 - Do you wish to make any statement in mitigation of punishment?
A7 - No, sir.
Q8 - Do you wish to give evidence yourself or to call any witnesses as to character?
A8 - No, sir.

The Court is closed for the consideration of the finding.

Lieut. D. Ivor, Records Officer, No. 1 Cdn. Inf. Holding Unit, is duly sworn.

Q9 - Have you any evidence to produce as to the character and particulars of service of the accused?
A9 - A.F.B. 296 and M.F.M. 6, sir.
Q10 - Is the accused the person named in the statement which you have heard read?
A10 - Yes, sir.

R.O.A.

Q11 - Have you compared the contents of the above statement with the regimental books?
A11 - Yes, sir.
Q12 - Are they true extracts from the regimental books, and is the statement of entries in the conduct sheets a fair and true summary of those entries?
A12 - Yes, sir.

The accused declines to cross-examine.

Q13 - Do you wish to address the Court?
A13 - (Defending Officer) I don't know whether you notice that McCoy can't make a statement for himself. He hasn't been re-boarded, but he was in Coventry when the big bombing took place and since then he hasn't been able to speak very well.
President - He was alright before that?
Defending Officer - To a certain extent he had an impediment but since then his nerves have been shot and every time he gets nervous he loses his voice. To the first and third charges he pleads guilty and has no excuse but he felt he was getting a raw deal from the ruling of the court-martial before when he was away fifteen days and was given 42 days detention besides the days spent awaiting court-martial. He felt he had been given too much and on the first opportunity he escaped. He felt that 77 days for 15 days a.w.l. was too much on the last charge. In the case of the fourth chargethe provost private had come in to collect the hats and up until then they had been allowed to have their own hats and then it came through that they were only allowed to have steel helmets. I think the words of the provost were "Give me those damn hats" and McCoy got hot under the collar and then there were words back and forth and then the private casually remarked that they were officer's orders and McCoy thought that he said it to get the hats easier and McCoy was very hot under the collar and the private was very surly.

The Court is closed for the consideration of the sentence.

I further searched the whole barrack vicinity and found no trace of the missing men.

H.P.I.:- This patient states that he felt perfectly well up until about June 1940 and had no charges against him since enlistment in Sept. 1939. He also states that he had had no trouble with his N.C.O.'s or officers or other members of his unit and had enjoyed the army life.

In June he felt that he was not being given the leave that was due him and that others in the unit were getting it so he should. Although he states that others in the unit hadn't had leave either. He says that when he went to see his major about it he would become nervous and stutter and felt that because of this he wasn't given fair consideration. This speech difficulty has been present since childhood but only during the past 4-5 months has it really gotten worse. Because he had the feeling that he hadn't been given proper consideration he decided to go A.W.L., and on June fourth he went A.W.L. to Birmingham for 12 days where"he went to dances and enjoyed himself". He then returned to his unit on June 16th. and was given 27 days detention in the "glass house", and he felt because others before him with similar charges and with previous charges had been given lighter sentences that his sentence was excessive and he was being "picked on" and that no one tried to help him. He says that he had no trouble in the "glass house" because "it wouldn't get him anywhere". On his return from his detention he asked for leave and this was refused. He felt that he was entitled to leave because others were getting leave and although he had had twelve days leave when he was A.W.L. he had paid for it by his detention and was therefore still entitled to leave.

On July 17th., four days after discharge from detention, he went A.W.L. with "nearly 70 others in the company" and was gone for 14 days whereas "the others stayed away between 7 and 18 days." He returned himself and was given 42 days sentence by a court-martial after waiting

HISTORY OF PRESENT ILLNESS CONT'D.

35 days in detention. And he states that he was the only one given court-martial and again felt that he was being discriminated against because of this. While awaiting being sent to the "glass house" he "foolishly broke detention, and was gone for 74 days because he was discouraged and had lost interest feeling that he was not given a fair deal. During this 74 days he spent his time in Manchester and Leeds living with friends part of the time and making some money gambling and being taken around by friends. He was apprehended by Military Police on November 22nd. being returned to detention in Bordon. While awainting court-martial he again broke detention on Dec. 6th., and was gone for 22 days because "nothing was happening as far as his trial was concerned and he didn't care any more." He was again picked up by the Military Police and returned to detention being tried by court-martial on evaluation of his mental state and ability to stand detention.

His chest condition has already been evaluated by the 15th. Cdn. General.

PROGRESS NOTES.

During his stay in here he has been quiet and cooperative and has caused no trouble. He has stammered whenever he is under stress or excitement but when he is interested and at ease this becomes less apparent although it does not disappear completely and I believe it is genuine.

I do not believe that there is any organic or functional neurological disease to account for his behaviour difficulties or to prevent his serving a sentence although he is a rather sensitive type of individual. He says that he believes that he certainly has some punishment coming to him and that he intends to do his best to serve it and then to try and become a good soldier. And I believe that he is sincere in this sentiment.

I would like to suggest that most of his difficulty arose out of a feeling that he was being discriminated against in the question of leave, because of his tendency to stammer when he tried to request leave. Subsequent events tended to perpetuate this belief in his mind. In spite of this, his fair attitude towards his sentence and desire to soldier afterwards suggest that the tempering of justice with mercy may make the difference between returning a useful soldier and one who is of no use to the army.

L-55-M-1618

B.72931 Spr McCoy, JP.

1. The marginally named soldier is now serving a sentence of 90 days imprisonment and discharge with ignominy from His Majesty's Service awarded 11 Jan 45 by FGCM for an absence without leave from which he was apprehended after 83 days. He has so far earned full remissions for good conduct while serving his sentence and accordingly his sentence of imprisonment will expire 10 Mar 45.

2. This soldier enlisted 9 Sep 39 at Toronto, Ontario, and he is now 26 years of age. Since enlistment he has been found guilty of 14 offences under AA Sec 15(1), of 2 offences under AA Sec 40 and of 1 offence under AA Sec 22. In addition to the court-martial set forth in paragraph 1 above he has been convicted by 6 previous courts-martial. On 2 Sep 40 he was awarded 42 days detention for 13 days absence without leave. On 12 Mar 41 he was awarded 8 months detention for a total of 96 days absence without leave and a charge under each of AA Secs 22 and 40. On 5 Nov 41 he was awarded 90 days detention for 63 days absence without leave. On 10 Jul 42 he was awarded 6 days detention for 15 days absence without leave. On 10 Dec 42 he was awarded 45 days detention for 11 days absence without leave. On 22 May 43 he was awarded 120 days detention for 42 days absence without leave, and on 23 Oct 43 he was awarded 9 months detention for 30 days absence without leave.

3. This soldier was reboarded 25 Nov 44 and placed in Pulhems Grade S5 on a diagnosis of psychopathic personality, inadequate type with anxiety hysteria. The Medical Board states that he is fit to undergo detention.

4. The Neuropsychiatrist and Selection of Personnel Officer who have examined this soldier state that he is of dull normal intelligence; that he refuses to admit responsibility for any of his offences; and that he states that all his absences without leave were caused by the injustices of his superiors and that he is full of self-pity. It appears that this soldier has had VDG once and VDS once.

5. Taking into consideration these reports and this soldier's 7 FGC'sM it is considered that the sentence awarded is just and appropriate and that on the termination of his sentence of imprisonment he should be discharged with ignominy from His Majesty's Service in accordance with paragraph 9 of Appendix to C.A.R.O. 1029, and it is so recommended. It is considered that this soldier has not misconducted himself for the purpose of obtaining his discharge.

6. It has accordingly been directed, pursuant to P.C.67/9555/44, that this soldier be returned to Canada in custody under sentence. Herewith original A.F. A3104 in respect of the FGCM held 11 Jan 45, so endorsed. Also enclosed is a copy of the direction made under said P.C.67/9555/44.

FIELD GENERAL COURT MARTIAL
C.15600, Pte. Gavan, P.A.
B.72931, Pte. McCoy, P.J.

1. The Members of the m/n F.G.C.M., assembled at the N.A.A.F.I. Reading Room, Havannah Barracks, Bordon, Hants. at 0930 hrs. Friday, 10 Jul 42, considering the case of B.72931, Pte. McCoy, P.J., 48th Highrs., attached to C.T.S., charged under A.A. Sec. 15 (1), W.O.A.S. absenting himself without leave, find that the condition of Pte. McCoy's Pay Book is in an impossible state, in that he already owes the Government $450-25.

2. This Court had, as a result of evidence, no alternative but to give the full sentence to the Accused, but in doing so would like to recommend that higher authority go into this case thoroughly, in order that this man may have a revision in his debt, which is now far beyond the capacity of his earnings.

BRIEF SUMMARY OF STATEMENT IN MITIGATION OF PUNISHMENT AND EVIDENCE AS TO CHARACTER GIVEN BEFORE THE COURT IS CLOSED FOR THE CONSIDERATION OF THE SENTENCE

FIELD GENERAL COURT MARTIAL

Convened by order of Brigadier J.P. Archambault, D.S.O., M.C., Commander, "F" Group, C.R.U., at the N.A.A.F.I. Reading Room, Havannah Barracks, Bordon, Hants, at 0930 hours, Friday, 10 July 1942, for the purpose of trying - B.72931, Pte. McCoy, P.J., 48th Highrs., attached to Canadian Training School, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, on a charge under Army Act, Sec. 15(1) absenting himself without leave.

Officer for Defence - Capt. J.T. Harper, P.P.C.L.I., posted to Canadian Training School, O.C. #3(Weapons) Wing, states:-

"I wish to put in a plea for mitigation of sentence.

I only met the Accused two or three days ago and have spoken with him several times. I think this is a pathetic case insofar as this soldier, since the beginning of the war, has continually been going absent without leave, and has lost approximately 610 days pay since joining the Army. He has been continually refused leave, and at the present time he owes the Government approximately $450.00, which is an impossible situation. He makes an assignment of $20.00 per month to his mother who is dependent upon it, and who is still receiving it. The only other money he receives is ten shillings twice a month, 15th and 30th. At that rate he is going to be in debt to the Government for 2 years, making this a most impossible situation. He is very highly strung, having been through the bombing raids on Coventry, and he has been in the Neurological Hospital at Basingstoke twice for nerves. He has been to his C.O. at various times requesting leave, but always has been refused on the grounds that he hadn't money for leave. No effort or inquiry was made to ascertain if there were any source from which he might obtain money for leave. He has had only 5 days privilege leave since coming to this country in December, 1939. I think that due to the mere fact of not having been granted leave, he simply took it. He has two brothers in this country, a Sergeant in the R.C.E. and also a Sapper in the 1st Bn. R.C.E., either of which would have provided him with money for the purpose of going on leave. No C.O. asked whether he could get money, but simply refused him, which is not quite fair. He tookit. No man can keep to duty the whole time. I realise that leave is a privilege but I do think that he should be given some consideration. The Accused's father died when Accused was young, and he had a stepfather who was probably not good, and who is an invalid at the present time, and is unable to support the mother. This man has a very bad impediment in his speech and has difficulty in explaining himself. He probably has been badly defended in the past, and I believe if he is given a chance he will become a good soldier. I therefore recommend that this case be brought specially to the notice of higher authority; also that a recommendation be made by this Court to have reduced the amount of money which this man owes to the Government; and also that leniency be applied in this case. This would without a doubt give the man a chance to clear himself and become a good soldier."

The Court was adjourned to consider sentence.

PLEA OF MITIGATION:

The accused B.72931 Pte. McCoy, J.P. pleads:-

He is in debt to the Canadian Government to the extent of $500.00. His Part II Pay Book is held by the Provost Corps in London, but the Pay Office C.T.S. state that the above sum is approximately correct.

This matter was taken up at his last Court Martial, by the President of the Court, and the accused was bouyed up with the thought that his debt was going to be greatly reduced. The recommendation was turned down. He has $20.00 a month assigned to his mother in Toronto, Ontario and she is really in need of this assistance.

Under present circumstances if everything was to go in his favour, it will take between two and three years before he will be entitled to a full pay. This knowledge is very depressing, and the future looks so black he is convinced he can never get clear.

Would it please the Court to take into consideration the above facts. ~~and findings~~

Sir,

At Blackpool, on 2nd. Dec. '42, at about 15.30 hrs., I was on duty in Chapel Street, where I saw the above-named soldier.

My attention was drawn to his untidy appearance and the fact that he had his hands in his pockets. I stopped him and asked him for his pass which he produced. His pass had expired on the 29th Nov. '42. I asked him if he was absent, and he replied, " Yes".

I arrested him and conveyed him to Squires Gate Camp, where I handed him over to the M.P. i/c Guard Room.

"If you do not give evidence on oath you are entitled to make a statement giving your account of the subject of the charge against you. You will not be sworn and no question may be put to you by the Court or any person with respect to such statement. I must warn you, however, that evidence given on oath will carry more weight with the Court than a mere statement not on oath."

If there is no Defending Officer the President should then explain to the accused the effect which his answer to the formal questions on Page D of the proceedings will have on the order of the Closing Addresses as provided in R.P. 40 and 41.

Question to the accused. Do you apply to give evidence yourself as a witness, or do you wish to make an unsworn statement?

Answer. On oath, sir.

Question to the accused. Do you intend to call any witness in your defence?

Answer. No, sir.

Question to the accused. Is the witness to be called a witness as to character only?

Answer.

First Witness for the Defence

The Accused, No. L.602245, Pte. Joseph MEIER, (Mid. Regt) No. 2 District Depot, C.A., being duly sworn, is examined by the Defending Officer:

Q Pte. Meier, where are you stationed at the moment?

A Exhibition Grounds, No. 2 District Depot.

Q What is your unit?

A Midland Regiment, sir.

Q What were your reasons for going home? I mean, the reasons why you went home in the first place?

A Well, I had a furlough attached to embarkation leave, sir.

Q When your furlough was up, why didn't you report back to your unit?

A Well, sir, the folks I was staying with, they moved to town until spring, and she has got no other place to go to; and she is in poor health; and I couldn't leave at the present time. So, I prepared her stuff to get ready so that she could move at the first opportunity; and while I was doing that they picked me up. And I also helped the father-in-law on his farm while being absent.

Q Why couldn't you move right away?

A Well, sir, the roads were all closed up, and I couldn't move with nothing.

Q Why were the roads closed up?

A Blocked with snow, sir.

Q You stated that you were in civilian clothes when you were picked up. Can you give any reason why you were in civilian clothes?

A Yes, sir.

Q Will you tell the Court, please?

A Well, I was in civilian clothes on account of getting it torn and dirty and hav e to pay for them; because I was doing farm work. I might have torn them and had to pay for them when I came back.

Q You mean you might have torn your Army uniform; or civilian clothes?

A My Army uniform.

Q Your reasons, then, is that you were wearing civilian clothes because you were working on the farm and you didn't want to damage your Army uniform?

A Right, sir.

Q Did you have any intention of changing your name?

A No, sir.

Q While you were away?

A No, sir.

Q Were you getting paid for your work on the farm at that time?

A No, sir; I wasn't.

Q And whose farm is that that you were working on?

A My father-in-law's, sir.

Q Your father-in-law?

A Yes, sir.

Q And you were helping your father-in-law out; were you?

A Yes, sir.

Q Was there any reason why you would help him out?

A Yes, sir.

Q What is the reason?

A He only has one son at home, and he is looking after two crippled men. The father-in-law was sick then so bad he couldn't do any work; so I helped him out as much as I could, sir.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR

Q Meier, where was your home when you were called up?

A Prelate, Saskatchewan.

Q Is that very far away from Portreeve, where you were picked up?

A It is about 24 miles, sir.

Q Now, you say you had a furlough attached to an embarkation leave; is that right?

A Yes, sir.

Q When was that leave up, or that furlough?

A On the 1st of January.

Q And were you supposed to report any place at the end of it?

A Yes, sir; down to Regina first.

Q To Regina?

A I think.

Q Were you supposed to go anywhere after that, you know of?

A Pardon, sir?

Q Do you know any place else you were supposed to go after Regina?

A I wasn't quite sure, sir, where I was supposed to go, exactly.

Q Were you warned for any special duty, then, before you went on this leave?

A Well, sir, as far as the warning goes, they told us -- they didn't tell us how long we would stay in Regina. They told us to report there, and then maybe make up a draft, they told us, and then go down east.

Q And where were you when you got this leave?

A Vernon, B.C.

Q And then you were ordered to report to Regina; is that right?

A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know of your own knowledge whether your unit, the Midland Regiment, was moving away from Vernon?

A Pardon, sir?

Q Do you know whether or not your unit was going away from Vernon, the Midland Regiment?

A Well, sir, they all moved together.

Q Do you know where they went to?

A No, sir.

Q But they were moving away from Vernon?

A They were moving away from Vernon; but we didn't know where they were going.

Q And you were given a furlough and told to report to Regina?

A Yes, sir.

Q And you say it was the 1st of January that that furlough was up; is that right?

A Yes, sir.

Q And did you return from that furlough?

A No, sir.

Q And did you stay away from the Army until apprehended by the civil police?

A Yes, sir.

Q On the 19th of February?

A Yes, sir.

Q And you said you were dressed in civilian clothes. And were you brought under escort to Regina from where you were picked up?

A Yes, sir.

Q And you say you were working on this farm, helping out.

What did you intend to do as far as the Army was concerned?

A Well, sir, all I was intending to do was wait until the roads were open, get my wife moved to town, and then come back to the Army.

Q It was your wife who wasn't able to move?

A Yes, sir.

Q I thought you said at first it was the people you were staying with were moving to town?

A They are moving in the spring.

Q And your wife was moving with them?

A Moving before them.

Q And what did you intend to do after your wife moved to town?

A I was intending to come back.

Q Have you any idea when you were intending to come back?

A As soon as the roads were in shape I was going to come back.

Q Have you any idea when that would be; February, March or April? Have you any idea?

A Well, I think after a week, after a week after I left the roads were all right.

Q You would have come back yourself a week after you were picked up; is that what you mean?

A Yes, sir.

Q You thought the roads would be all right then. And did you wear your uniform at all after you were away?

A I wore it a while, sir, until I started working on the farm.

Q Did you wear it at nights at all when you were away?

A I wore it at parties.

Q When you went to parties you wore it?

A Yes, sir.

THE DEFENDING OFFICER DECLINES TO RE-EXAMINE.

BY THE PRESIDENT

Q Meier, have you any children?

A Yes, sir.

Q How many?

A Two of them, sir.

Q And they are with your wife; are they?

A Yes, sir.

Q On your father and mother's farm?

A Yes, sir.

Q How large is that farm? How many acres?

A It is two sections, sir.

Q That would be about approximately what acreage?

A 360 acres, sir.

Q 360; is that right, altogether?

A About that, sir.

Q That would be two quarter-sections?

A Yes, sir.

Q 320?

A Yes, sir; that is right, sir.

Q How did you get to this farm if the roads were in such bad condition?

A Well, I come there by train, sir, from my leave.

Q How far is the farm from the nearest station?

A It is about 4 miles and a quarter, or something like that, sir.

Q And what you say is that the roads were so bad your wife and children and father-in-law couldn't move out; is that right?

A Well, at that time when I first come home, they weren't too bad. But it snowed just after I got home two days, it snowed right up, and they got blocked right up.

Q I suppose you are a fully trained soldier?

A Yes, sir.

THE ACCUSED RESUMES HIS SEAT.

THE PROSECUTOR AND DEFENDING OFFICER MAKE CLOSING ADDRESSES WHICH ARE RECORDED BUT NOT TRANSCRIBED.

E

Proceedings on Conviction before Sentence

After the Court has arrived at a Finding on all the charges against the accused and such Finding has been announced to the accused, the Prosecutor will tender to the President M.F.B. 355, together ,when it is possible, with an M.F.M. 6.

These documents are read to the Court by the President, are marked "Y" and "Z", signed by the President and annexed to the proceedings.

Question to the accused. Have you any statement to make concerning the documents which have just been read to you?

Answer. No, sir.

Question to the accused. Do you wish to address the Court?

Answer. Through my Defending Officer.

THE DEFENDING OFFICER: Sir, this man's PULHEMS read "2" under the "M." He has a wife and two children, which has been brought out in the evidence. During the time he was home his wife was suffering from ill health. The two children were also in the care of her, and while he was home no doubt the accused could have taken care of the two children. This state of affairs at home would have caused a certain amount of worry. The PULHEMS record shows that the man is deficient somewhat, and I think possibly due to that, some leniency should be shown in his case.

The Sentence is then recorded on Page "A' of the proceedings and same is announced to the accused in open Court.

The President then completes and signs the "Warrant of Commitment", if any, which shall be transmitted forthwith to the Commanding Officer of the accused. He will also complete and sign in every case, the "Certificate of trial by Standing Court-Martial", and address same as directed by the regulations. The proceedings, with all documents, will be transmitted to the Judge Advocate General.

Ref telegram AG 0267 dated 18 Oct 45 review.

2. The CM Board of Review has in the case of the m/n soldier made the following recommendation: -

"Release on 12 Dec 1945".

3. You will note that the recommendation of the Board deals with the remission at a future date. In considering this case your attention is directed to paras 3 and 4 of the telegram above referred to. It is pointed out that the action to be taken by you as a Superior Military Authority is not immediate and therefore this soldier's conduct and other circumstances up to the date of the recommended remission should be taken into consideration by you prior to your acting upon the recommendation of the Board. It is therefore suggested that you should not sign the appropriate entry until the recommended date approaches.

4. If in your opinion recent misconduct exists it is requested that this HQ be advised at once in accordance with paras 3 and 4 of the AG telegram above mentioned.

5. May this HQ be informed of action taken.

DECLARATION DE L'ACCUSE EN ATTENUATION DE PEINE.

J'étais malade, monsieur. J'avais mal aux jambes, mal dans l'estomac et mal à la tête. Avant d'entrer dans l'armée je travaillais chez les cultivateurs quand j'étais capable. Je ne suis pas marié. Durant mon absence sans permission je travaillais chez les cultivateurs. J'ai travaillé pour plusieurs cultivateurs. J'ai travaillé pour Leclerc une semaine ou deux semaines. J'ai travaillé pour Lemay, là je travaillais quand j'étais capable, une semaine ou deux semaines. Durant mon absence sans permission j'ai demeuré chez nous. Mon père ne travaille pas dans le moment. Il est journalier. Quand je ne travaillais pas c'est mon père qui me faisait vivre. Durant toute mon absence, des fois j'étais une semaine sans travailler, ensuite je commençais à travailler. J'ai été à peu près la moitié du temps à travailler et la moitié du temps à ne pas travailler. Avant de partir absent sans permission j'ai été un mois dans l'armée. Quand je me suis enrôlé je ne savais pas, c'est eux autres qui m'ont amené. Durant mon absence sans permission je me suis fait soigner par le docteur Coté à Brownsburg. Il m'a soigné à plusieurs reprises. Il me donnait des remèdes, des pilules pour la tête, pour les jambes.

Procédure sur déclaration de culpabilité précédant la sentence

Quand la cour en est arrivée à une décision relativement à tous les chefs d'accusation contre l'accusé et que ladite décision a été annoncée à ce dernier, le procureur remet au président le modèle M.F.B. 355 et, si possible, un modèle M.F.M. 6.

Ces documents sont lus à la cour par le président, marqués "Y" et "Z", signés par le président et versés au dossier.

Question à l'accusé. Avez-vous quelque déclaration à faire relativement aux documents dont on vient de vous donner lecture ?

Réponse: Non, monsieur.

Question à l'accusé. Désirez-vous adresser la parole à la cour ?

Réponse: Oui, monsieur, par l'entremise de mon officier défenseur (voir page E-3).

La sentence est alors consignée à la page "A" du procès verbal et elle est annoncée à l'accusé en plein tribunal.

Le président établit alors et signe le mandat d'incarcération, le cas échéant, et celui-ci est immédiatement transmis au commandant de l'accusé. Dans chaque cas, il établit aussi et signe le certificat de procès devant une cour martiale permanente et le transmet en conformité des règlements. Le procès verbal ainsi que tous les documents seront transmis au juge-avocat général.

E-3

EXPOSE DE L'OFFICIER DEFENSEUR AU NOM DE L'ACCUSE.

L'accusé a toujours eu une bonne conduite tant dans le civil que dans son peu de service dans l'armée. D'après le rapport que j'ai ici du psychiâtre, il dit dans ce rapport: "Man seems a dull mentality, answers only after delay, but reasons well enough, can make simple calculations. Five years in school with progress. Complains of headaches possibly due to sinusitis, for which he will be checked". Et un peu plus loin, "Social, single, poor mixer. Occasionally hereto-sexual relations and alcohol addict. No hobbies. Not interested in sports. Shy and seclusive, fearful. No severe disease. Schooling from 6 to 11 in a rural district. Reached grade 4. Repeated grades 2 and 3, slow learner, usually at the end of the class. Can hardly write, reads a little. Work, since age of 12 has worked on odd jobs on farms and bush. Medium built, dull looking individual of 25, unkempt, appears older than stated age. Talks slowly in a low monotone voice; answers after delay. Shows no objective signs of instability. Vocabulary is limited. M test 36. Almost illiterate. General knowledge limited. Poor performation on intelligence test. Definitely mentally retarded.

Dans le cas de l'accusé, son absence a été plutôt due à sa déficience mentale plutôt qu'à autre chose, monsieur. Maintenant, son "pulhems" montre un M-4. L'accusé a dit qu'il était prêt à faire du service dans n'importe quel territoire, mais par son "pulhems" il est entendu qu'il n'ira pas dans aucun territoire.

STANDING COURT-MARTIAL
C.33944, Pte. Anatole MEILLEUR
R.C.E., C.A., attached to
No.4 District Depot, C.A.

1. Receipt is acknowledged of the proceedings of the marginally noted Standing Court-Martial which were forwarded by the President named therein.

2. It is noted from the proceedings that the accused pleaded Guilty to the charge of "Losing by neglect his equipments, clothing and regimental necessaries", with the exception of item: "Boots, ankle, felt, prs 1 ... $3.61" (Page B), that the prosecutor informed the Court that the convening officer had authorized the withdrawal of that item from the charge sheet, in accordance with R.P. 44(H), that the accused was satisfied of the procedure, and that the court was satisfied that no prejudice was done to the accused and of the justice of such course. (See document marked "F"). The accused was found guilty of the charge and sentenced, to be placed under stoppages of pay to the amount of $27.04, that is the amount contained in the charge sheet, less $3.61.

3. It is considered that upon the plea of Guilty as made by the accused, the procedure laid down in R.P. 44 (H) was not properly followed.

4. This rule directs, inter alia, "In any case where a court could after hearing the evidence have made a special finding of guilty subject to exceptions or variations in accordance with paragraph (D) and (E) of this rule, they may, if they are satisfied of the justice of such course, and if the concurrence of the convening officer is signified by the prosecutor, accept and record a plea of Guilty of the offence charged subject to such exceptions or variations."

5. Therefore, instead of withdrawing from the charge the item referred to (which course is not authorized by R.P.44(H)), the court should have accepted and recorded the plea of guilty of the offence as charged, subject to the exception concerned and made its finding accordingly as a special finding under R.P. 44(E), which finding should have read on page A and also on page CC of the proceedings: "guilty of the second charge with the exception that he did not loose by neglect the following article: "boots, ankle, felt, prs 1...$3.61".

6. As the accused was not placed under stoppages of pay for the item referred to, no injustice was done to the accused; the proceedings are otherwise legally regular, the finding is properly made and the sentence is according to law. Pursuant to C.A.R.O 4565 paragraph 12, the said proceedings are herewith forwarded to you. After they have served your purpose, will you please return the proceedings to this office for custody.

(R.J. Orde), Brigadier,
Judge Advocate-General.

Plea in mitigation:

The accused made a statement during the trial saying that he lost his sec in battle. Now this man has been fighting in France since "D" Day, doing a good job, and then he loses a sec. Now as a sec leader this affected the morale of the man and since that time Cpl Michaud may have lost some of his nerve, which inclined him to go away. I might say that if a man has no control over his nerves and is badly shaken he might do anything. He might lose his sense of responsibility or he might not be so sure of himself. So I ask the court to consider what happened. That is all.

Accused

Emile

D/129109 Cpl Paul/Michaud, Regt de Chaud, having been duly sworn gives evidence as follows:

Q. Will you tell the court what happened on 8 Aug 44 at meal parade and continue from there.

A. On 8 Aug 44 I was with the unit during the rest period down at Basly. My brother in the Air Force was with me then. He had come over to see me. I was all packed up on stand-to all the time. I thought that one day or another we were going to go away so that is why I was always ready. My brother came over to see me and I had not seen him since I had been in France. He asked me if I was going to be there long and he started to cry. Then I decided not to go with the unit when it went and I decided to pull out. So I went. Afterward I was residing in a house in Basly with a friend. I stayed there for 22 days. I had the intention of coming back to the unit but I did not know where it was then. The day I was coming back to the unit I got a German bicycle. That day the woman where we were residing was sick. So I could not leave the woman alone with one kid of five years. We stayed another day. We tried to find out where the unit was. It was then about 300 miles from there.

Q. Could you tell me if you knew that there was going to be a move very soon?

A. I did not know exactly. But since we are in the army we are always on the move. I did not know the unit was going to move the day I left.

Q. Were you advised by someone in your coy that you were going to move?

A. There was talk among the boys that the unit was going to move but nobody knes for sure that the unit was going to move.

Cross-examination:

Q. Where were you when the Commanding Officer talked to the whole coy?

A. Down to the PMR to find out if I could send some money home. I had some money in my paybook. When I came back the boys came over and told me the Col had given them a talk.

Questioned by the Judge Advocate:

Q. Your brother started talking to you and then you say your brother started to cry?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Why did he start to cry?

A. Because he was happy to see me. He thought I was wounded or dead because he had had no news of me since I had gone to France.

Q. Did you stay any time with your brother?

A. Just that day.

Q. Then wy did you go AWL that day?

A. Frankly I was knocked out. I was knocked out on account of the war and particularly because I had lost my whole Sec one day. The war can turn a men and make him what he is not.

Character Witness

D/150133 Sgt Dion, F, Regt de Chaud, having been duly sworn gives evidence as follows:

Q. Do you recognize the accused?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Would you tell the court what you know about Cpl. Michaud?

A. I met the accused in Bournemouth, England. I was sec comd at the time. His conduct was very good. I was a good friend of his. I knew him pretty well. He always conducted himself as a good soldier. Later in France he conducted himself as a good soldier. He was very good to take orders and very good to execute them.

The prosecution does not wish to cross-examine.

The prosecution does not wish to sum up.

The defence sums up:

Gentlemen, you have seen the witnesses and heard their evidence. You have seen the accused. Some evidence has been given the court proving that Cpl Michaud was absent for 22 day. But there is one thing lacking and that is proof of the intention of Cpl. Michaud to desert H M Service. I hope you will understand what Cpl Michaud said a few min ago and will consider his case in that light. That is all I have to say.

ACH

The Judge Advocate addresses the court:

The prosecution submits in this case that Cpl Michaud deserted H M Service. Now he who alleges must prove. In this case the prosecution must prove that allegation. They must est two main things to your satisfaction:

(1) They must prove the facts that they allege.

(2) They must convince you that those facts constitute an offence against military law, specifically desertion.

It is stated in MML that the criterion between desertion and AWL is intention. In other words desertion is AWL having superimposed upon it the element of intention. This intention must be an intntion on the part of the offender either

(1) never to return to H M Service or

(2) to avoid some particular important service.

Now intention is never capable of positive proof. That is, it cannot be laid before the court as an exhibit or proved by oral testimony of a witness who can say that he observed the mind of the accused. It can only be implied from overt acts. This process of inference would be simple if the overt act were a definite admission by the accused that he intended to desert. But such is not the case here. I do, however, draw your attn to MML, Chap VII para 23:

"If a man bound by law to perform any duty does an act which necessarily causes or most probably will cause a failure in the performance of that duty, he will be held in law to have intended to fail, and therefore to have wilfully failed, to perform that duty."

In trying to arrive at a decision as to what was in the mind of the accused you must endeavor to draw inferences from all the facts proved in evidence as they existed at the time of the alleged offence.

Previously I have said that he who alleges must prove. The law presumes, and you must accept this presumption, that every man is innocent until he is proven guilty and the onus of proving that guilt is entirely upon teh prosecution. If, therefore, upon any point you have a reasonable doubt, you must give the accused the benefit of that doubt. By reasonable doubt I do not mean the vague ephemoral doubt that a man who is anxious to avoid an unpleasant responsibility can conjure up in his mind. But rather it is that reasonable sensible doubt that a reasonable man in his other daily pursuits of business or military duty considers serious enough to deter him from positive action.

On a charge of desertion you may, under Army Act Sec 56, find the accused not guilty of desertion but guilty of being AWL. You may also find him not guilty of attempting to desert but I suggest that in such a case as this that that would not be a reasonable finding. You may of course find the accused not guilty of anything.

ACH

One further point arises in the present case. The charge alleges that the accused absented himself from 1215 hrs 8 Aug 44. The evidence indicates that the absence started at 1245 hrs. This is a small matter but nevertheless the evidence does not fully support the charge. Under R P 44 (D) you may bring in a special finding. That is, if you are satisfied of the other facts and are further satisfied that they prove either desertion or AWL, you may make the appropriate finding "with the exception that....etc...." and then fill in the clause that would make your finding conform with the evidence. Your form of special finding is set out on MML page 753.

President to accused : You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

1st Witness for the Prosecution

E/41952 Sgt Turgeon, J, Regt de Chaud, having been duly sworn gives evidence as follows:

Q Who first noted the absence of Cpl Michaud?

A I noticed the absence of Cpl Michaud at 1245 hrs 8 Aug 44.

Q Do you know if Cpl Michaud knew that we were proceeding on an attack or some op before he went AWL?

A I cannot certify.

Cross-examination:

Q You said a moment ago that you noticed the absence of Cpl Michaud at 1245 hrs?

A Yes, sir.

Q In what capacity did you call the pl on meal parade on 8 Aug 44?

A A/pl comd.

Q How did you notice that Cpl Michaud was missing?

A I noticed myself that he was missing in the pl.

Q You say you noticed the absence of Cpl Michaud. In what way did you notice? Did you have a roll call? Did you call the roll of the pl?

A I didn't make a roll call but I knew the men in the pl sufficiently well to see that Cpl Michaud was missing.

Q At that time did you know there was going to be a move of the bn?

A Yes, sir.

Questioned by the Judge Advocate:

Q Did you make a search yourself at noon on 8 Aug 44?

A Yes, sir.

Q Looking for the accused?

A Yes, sir.

Q What was the extent and nature of your search?

A I looked for him about one hr.

Q Have you been with the unit from 8 to 30 Aug 44?

A Yes, sir.

Q Was the accused present during that time?

A No, sir.

Q If he had been, would you have known it?

A Yes, sir.

2nd Witness for the Prosecution

Capt J P Verge, Regt de Chaud, having been duly sworn states:

I produce herewith certificate in accordance with Sec 163 of the Army Act purporting to be signed by the Commanding Officer 243 Pro Coy and I identify the accused as the person to whom it refers.

The certificate is marked Exhibit "A", signed by the president and att to the proceedings.

The defence does not wish to cross-examine.

3rd Witness for the Prosecution

E/9305 Sgt Ouellette, H, Regt de Chaud, having been duly sworn gives evidence as follows:

Q What was your duty in the coy from 8 to 30 Aug 44?

A A/CSM.

Q During this time did you see Cpl Michaud in the unit lines?

A No, sir.

The defence does not wish to cross-examine.

Questioned by the Judge Advocate:

Q If he had been present would you have seen him?

A Yes, sir, because I was always in the coy lines.

Accused

D/129109 Cpl Paul Emile Michaud, Regt de Chaud, having been duly sworn gives evidence as follows:

Q Will you tell the court what happened on 8 Aug 44 at meal parade and continue from there.

A On 8 Aug 44 I was with the unit during the rest period down at Basly. My brother in the Air Force was with me then. He had come over to see me. I was all packed up on stand-to all the time. I thought that one day or another we were going to go away so that is why I was always ready. My brother came over to see me and I had not seen him since I had been in France. He asked me if I was going to be there long and he started to cry. Then I decided not to go with the unit when it went and I decided to pull out. So I went. Afterward I was residing in a house in Basly with a friend. I stayed there for 22 days. I had the intention of coming back to the unit but I did not know where it was then. The day I was coming back to the unit I got a German bicycle. That day the woman where we were residing was sick. So I could not leave the woman alone with one kid of five years. We stayed another day. We tried to find out where the unit was. It was then about 300 miles from there.

Q Could you tell me if you knew that there was going to be a move very soon?

A I did not know exactly. But since we are in the army we are always on the move. I did not know the unit was going to move the day I left.

Q Were you advised by someone in your coy that you were going to move?

A There was talk among the boys that the unit was going to move but nobody knew for sure that the unit was going to move.

Cross-examination:

Q Where were you when the Commanding Officer talked to the whole coy?

A Down to the PMR to find out if I could send some money home. I had some money in my paybook. When I came back the boys came over and told me the Col had given them a talk.

Questioned by the Judge Advocate:

Q Your brother started talking to you and then you say your brother started to cry?

A Yes, sir.

Q Why did he start to cry?

A Because he was happy to see me. He thought I was wounded or dead because he had had no news of me since I had gone to France.

Q Did you stay any time with your brother?

A Just that day.

Q Then why did you go AWL that day?

A Frankly I was knocked out. I was knocked out on account of the war and particularly because I had lost my whole See one day. The war can turn a man and make him what he is not.

Character Witness

D/150133 Sgt Dion, F, Regt de Chaud, having been duly sworn gives evidence as follows:

Q Do you recognize the accused?

A Yes, sir.

Q Would you tell the court what you know about Cpl Michaud?

A I met the accused in Bournemouth, England. I was sec cond at the time. His conduct was very good. I was a good friend of his. I knew him pretty well. He always conducted himself as a good soldier. Later in France he conducted himself as a good soldier. He was very good to take orders and very good to execute them.

The prosecution does not wish to cross-examine.

The prosecution does not wish to sum up.

The defence sums up:

Gentlemen, you have seen the witnesses and heard their evidence. You have seen the accused. Some evidence has been given the court proving that Cpl Michaud was absent for 22 days. But there is one thing lacking and that is proof of the intention of Cpl Michaud to desert H M Service. I hope you will understand what Cpl Michaud said a few min ago and will consider his case in that light. That is all I have to say.

CORRECTION

This document has been rephotographed to assure legibility

The Judge Advocate addresses the court:

The prosecution submits in this case that Cpl Michaud deserted H M Service. Now he who alleges must prove. In this case the prosecution must prove that allegation. They must est two main things to your satisfaction:

(1) They must prove the facts that they allege

(2) They must convince you that those facts constitute an offence against military law, specifically desertion

It is states in MML that the criterion between desertion and AWL is intention. In other words desertion is AWL having superimposed upon it the element of intention. This intention must be an intention on the part of the offender either

(1) never to return to H M Service or

(2) to avoid some particular important service

Now intention is never capable of positive proof. That is, it cannot be laid before the court as an exhibit or proved by oral testimony of a witness who can say that he observed the mind of the accused. It can only be implied from overt acts. This process of inference would be simple if the overt act were a definite admission by the accused that he intended to desert. But such is not the case here. I do, however, draw your attn to MML, Chap VII, para 23:

> "If a man bound by law to perform any duty does an act which necessarily causes or most probably will cause a failure in the performance of that duty, he will be held in law to have intended to fail, and therefore to have wilfully failed, to perform that duty."

In trying to arrive at a decision as to what was in the mind of the accused you must endeavor to draw inferences from all the facts proved in evidence as they existed at the time of the alleged offence.

Previously I have said that he who alleges must prove. The law presumes, and you must accept this presumption, that every man is innocent until he is proven guilty and the onus of proving that guilt is entirely upon the prosecution. If, therefore, upon any point you have a reasonable doubt, you must give the accused the benefit of that doubt. By reasonable doubt I do not mean the vague ephemeral doubt that a man who is anxious to avoid an unpleasant responsibility can conjure up in his mind. But rather it is that reasonable sensible doubt that a reasonable man in his other daily pursuits of business or military duty considers serious enough to deter him from positive action.

On a charge of desertion you may, under Army Act Sec 56, find the accused not guilty of desertion but guilty of being AWL. You may also find him guilty of attempting to desert but I suggest that in such a case as this that that would not be a reasonable finding. You may of course find the accused not guilty of anything.

One further point arises in the present case. The charge alleges that the accused absented himself from 1215 hrs 8 Aug 44. The evidence indicates that the absence started at 1245 hrs. This is a small matter but nevertheless the evidence does not fully support the charge. Under R P 44 (D) you may bring in a special finding. That is, if you are satisfied of the other facts and are further satisfied that they prove either desertion or AWL, you may make the appropriate finding "with the exception that....etc...." and then fill in the clause that would make your finding conform with the evidence. Your form of special finding is set out on MML page 753.

Plea in mitigation:

The accused made a statement during the trial saying that he lost his sec in battle. Now this man has been fighting in France since "D" Day, doing a good job, and then he loses a sec. Now as a sec leader this affected the morale of the man and since that time Cpl Michaud may have lost some of his nerve, which inclined him to go away. I might say that if a man has no control over his nerves and is badly shaken he might do anything. He might lose his sense of responsibility or he might not be so sure of himself. So I ask the court to consider what happened. That is all.

Cher monsieur

Vous avez sans doute, reçu depuis quelques temps déjà, une requête signée par le maire de Lac au Saumon et plusieurs gens attitrés, au sujet de la libération de mon fils Emile Michaud

Je ne commencerais pas a vous énumérer, la cause de sa détention, parce que vous êtes plus au courant que nous dans cette affaire.

Cette punition lui a été infligée lors de son séjour en Italie. Je vous demande si vous êtes capable de lui rendu sa liberté, j'en aurais bien besoin à ce temps-ci de l'année sur ma terre et compter bien que ça fait 1½ ans qu'il ne touche pas un sous

A bien penser, la justice
l'a puni, c'était son droit de le faire, mais ne voit-on pas des prisonniers obtenir des mois de grâce, pourquoi pas

Je sais que si vous le voul-

Dear Mrs. Michaud:

Re: D.129109, Pte. Paul E. Michaud

General McNaughton has directed me to acknowledge receipt of your letter of 9th August in which you ask that your son, the above mentioned soldier, be released from detention.

The Minister does not feel that he would be justified in ordering the release of a soldier from detention except on the advice of the officers having jurisdiction over such matters.

He has, however, instructed that your letter be brought to the attention of the appropriate officers of the Department for their consideration, and as soon as I have the results of any review which may have taken place I will write to you again.

Yours very truly,

Mr. Minister:

Once again, I have come to ask you, provided his conduct warrants it, that my son be released from detention.

My othe r son will soon return from overseas, and in his name, and that of the family, I beg of you to send his brother home, so that we all be together to greet him. You will readily understand that if he is still in detention it will thoroughly spoil our joy on my other son's return!

The latter fought on almost every theatre of war, and it seems to me but fitting that in recognition of his faithful services, his brother be released from detention.

If so, he will immediately secure employment, and help at home. I am in very poor health, and to have my son released will certainly help me to some extent.

Hoping that you will give my request your benevolent attention, I .....

Dear Madam:

Further to my letter to you of the 13th March, 1945 and with reference to your recent letter of the 26th April, 1945, in connection with your son D.129109 Pte P.E. Michaud:

Further details are now available with reference to the sentence awarded this soldier. I am informed by the military authorities that on the occasion when he deserted his unit he was a non-commissioned officer. The Court took an extremely serious view of the offence committed and he was sentenced to suffer penal servitude for a term of 10 years. This sentence was subsequently remitted to 2 years imprisonment.

Sentences awarded by Military Courts are reviewed from time to time with a view to remission or suspension when the conduct of the soldier and the interests of military discipline warrant such action. However, in view of the fact that a substantial portion of the sentence has already been remitted, it is probable that this soldier will be required to serve the greater part of the sentence awarded if not all of it.

There is nothing to indicate that this soldier is medically unfit or suffering any incurable nervous break-down. He is described as suffering from a moderate instability and is considered fit to undergo his sentence.

APR 30
MAY 3

Monsieur le ministre,

Je m'excuse auprès de vous si j'ai pris la liberté de vous écrire; c'est pour vous demander de me venir en aide si cela est possible. Je suis une pauvre mère de famille de huit enfants, veuve depuis douze ans. J'ai deux fils en service, un dans l'aviation qui est en service outremer depuis seize mois. Le premier est dans l'armée; il est en service depuis trois ans. C'est pour ce dernier que je viens vous demander grâce pour mon fils qui, au début de son entraînement, signa pour service actif et devint au bout d'un mois qualifié Caporal Instructeur au camp de Sherbrooke; pendant seize mois il fut envoyé outremer. Le 6 juin il prit part à l'invasion de la France avec sonunité le Régiment de la Chaudière; il demeura 30 jours dans les tranchées sans repos ni pouvoir enlever ses vêtements. Pour comble de malheur après avoir obtenu un congé il était bien malade, nerveux et démoralisé; il demanda du secours à son officier qui n'a pas compris son cas; finalement il se retira et retourna avec son régiment. Après 22 jours d'absence il passe en cour martiale et fut renvoyé sur la ligne de feu où il demeura en faisant les campagnes de Caen, Belgique, Hollande, jusqu'en Allemagne. En décembre il fut condamné à 2 ans de détention.

Je viens d'apprendre que mon fils est revenu au Canada pour finir sa détention au camp de Borden, Ontario. Il a été déclassé pour une dépression nerveuse incurable, et son temps terminé il sera renvoyé avec une décharge de mauvaise conduite lui enlevant tous ses droits de vétérans. Avec une maladie contractée sur les fronts, lui qui a souffert de tout, risqué sa vie pendant sept mois, et maintenant on le qualifie comme une honte pour l'armée. J'ai demandé de bien vouloir m'aider à supporter mes peines en faisant sortir mon fils sur parole et le placer dans un camp militaire dans d'autres fonctions afin qu'il puisse payer sa dette et recevoir après la guerre des papiers de bonne conduite. Nous sommes pauvres et c'est mon aîné qui me protégeais dans la vie civile. Je souffre d'une maladie de coeur. Cardiaque. J'ai remis un certificat de médecin aux autorités militaires mais aucune sympathie envers moi a été montrée. Mon fils que je désire voir depuis si longtemps! Est-il juste de nous traiter ainsi. Il m'est impossible d'aller voir mon enfant; je ne suis pas assez riche ni assez forte pour entreprendre ce voyage. C'est pour cette raison que je viens vous demander de me secourir et de faire que je puisse revoir mon fils et qu'il soit pardonné de tout. C'est la seule faute qu'il a commise pendant son service. Il avait travaillé avec acharnement pour recevoir ses galons de Caporal et ce fut une grosse peine de se les voir enlevés. Ma peine et mes inquiétudes sont bien remplies car j'ai un autre de mes fils en Allemagne même. J'espère bienque si on ne m'a pas compris que vous même vous ferez pour moi votre possible afin de me rendre plus heureuse. Je ne vous demande pas l'impossible mais rendez la Charité à une pauvre mère.

'tournez'

Je vous remercie de toute votre sympathie que vous aurez envers moi, parce que je suis que vous êtes Canadien comme nous-mêmes et que vous m'avez compris. J'attends de vous avec patience une réponse favorable.

Re: D.129109, Paul-Emile MICHAUD,

Camp Borden, Ont.

Kindly excuse me for taking the liberty of writing to ask for help, if possible. I have eight children and have been a widow since twelve years. I have two sons in the Armed Forces, one with the R.C.A.F. overseas since sixteen months and the other, the above-named, in the Army since three years. Paul-Emile signed for Active Service when he started his training and became a qualified Corporal Instructor at Sherbrooke a month later. He spent sixteen months over-seas. On June 6th, he took part in the invasion of France with the Regiment de la Chaudière and was thirty days in the trenches, without taking any rest. He obtained leave but was very sick, nervous and down-hearted. He applied for help to his officer who did not understand his case. Finally, he withdrew and then returned to his Regiment. After an absence of twenty-two days, he was court-martialed and returned to the firing-line where he fought at Caen, in Belgium, in Holland, as far as Germany. In December, he was sentenced to two years of detention.

I have just heard that he has been returned to Canada to complete his sentence at Camp Borden, Ontario. He has been found medically unfit on account of an incurable nervous breakdown and on completion of his sentence, he will be discharged for misconduct and deprived of all his rights as a veteran. On account of a disease contracted on the battle front and after having suffered from every-thing and risked his life during seven months, he is now considered as a disgrace to the Army. I have asked that he be paroled and assigned other duties in some military camp to pay for his misdeed and obtain an honourable discharge after the war. We are poor; he is my oldest son and my support in civil life. I am affected with heart trouble and I have submitted a medical certificate to the military authorities but I have not been shown any sympathy. It is impossible for me to go to see my child, being too poor and too weak to make the trip. That is why I beg you to help me so that I may see my son again and obtain his pardon. That is the only offence he has committed during his period of service. He had worked hard to earn his Corporal's stripes and he was very sorry when he lost them. I have another son in Germany.

I trust that you will do all you possibly can to relieve my worries. Thanking you for the sympathy which you will show to me and looking forward to a favourable reply, I am,

Camp Borden, Ont.

Kindly excuse me for taking the liberty of writing to ask for help, if possible. I have eight children and have been a widow since twelve years. I have two sons in the Armed Forces, one with the R.C.A.F. overseas since sixteen months and the other, the above-named, in the Army since three years. Paul-Emile signed for Active Service when he started his training and became a qualified Corporal Instructor at Sherbrooke a month later. He spent sixteen months overseas. On June 6th, he took part in the invasion of France with the Regiment de la Chaudière and was thirty days in the trenches, without taking any rest. He obtained leave but was very sick, nervous and down-hearted. He applied for help to his officer who did not understand his case. Finally, he withdrew and then returned to his Regiment. After an absence of twenty-two days, he was court-martialed and returned to the firing-line where he fought at Caen, in Belgium, in Holland, as far as Germany. In December, he was sentenced to two years of detention.

I have just heard that he has been returned to Canada to complete his sentence at Camp Borden, Ontario. He has been found medically unfit on account of an incurable nervous breakdown and on completion of his sentence, he will be discharged for misconduct and deprived of all his rights as a veteran. On account of a disease contracted on the battle front and after having suffered from everything and risked his life during seven months, he is now considered as a disgrace to the Army. I have asked that he be paroled and assigned other duties in some military camp to pay for his misdeed and obtain an honourable discharge after the war. We are poor; he is my oldest son and my support in civil life. I am affected with heart trouble and I have submitted a medical certificate to the military authorities but I have not been shown any sympathy. It is impossible for me to go to see my child, being too poor and too weak to make the trip. That is why I beg you to help me so that I may see my son again and obtain his pardon. That is the only offence he has committed during his period of service. He had worked hard to earn his Corporal's stripes and he was very sorry when he lost them. I have another son in Germany.

I trust that you will do all you possibly can to relieve my worries. Thanking you for the sympathy which you will show to me and looking forward to a favourable reply, I am,

Yours very truly,
(Sgd.) Mrs. Joseph Michaud, widow,

INVESTIGATOR'S REPORT

March 10th, 1945.

Re: D-129109, Pte MICHAUD, Paul-Emile

So as to comply with Headquarters' request for a special enquiry, we hereby provide you with the following information:

Mrs. Michaud has been suffering from kidney trouble for twelve years and she also suffers from heart trouble; she is under the care of Dr. Albert Gélinas. She has not called at the doctor's office for a month and a half, but she usually sees him every month regularly and she must take medicine constantly. Mrs. Michaud still occupies her 4-room lodging which is rather modestly furnished, but comfortable and clean.

The particulars regarding the children which have been obtained, are as follows: Maurice, aged 22, whose regimental number is R-259070, is serving with the R.C.A.F.; he is serving in Holland at the present time and has assigned $23. out of his pay to his mother; Marcel, aged 17, who is employed by Rubinstein Bros., works in chromium and earns $16. a week; he pays $7. a week to his mother for his board; Guy, aged 15, is employed by the firm, Denis Liqueurs and his salary is $14. a week; he gives his entire salary to his mother who provides him with his needs; Jean-Claude, aged 12, who attends the Christophe-Colomb school, is in the 4th year; Arthur, aged 10, who attends the same school, is in the 3rd year; a daughter, Rolande, (Mrs. Gagné), is married and her husband who is employed in a munitions plant earns $30. a week; Mrs. Michaud does not draw any financial assistance from this family; a daughter, Armande, aged 19, who is single, is employed by the New Method Laundry and her salary is $12. a week; she gives $5. a week to her mother for her board.

Mrs. Arthur Ferland is still living at the home of Mrs. Michaud and giving $10. a month for his room; he takes his meals outside. He shares a room with Marcel. Following her husband's death, Mrs. Michaud lived with this man as husband and wife and he is the father of Arthur, the last son mentioned above and he pays $3. a week to Mrs. Michaud for the board of this child.

Following the sudden death of her husband in 1933, Mrs. Michaud found herself alone with young children and penniless. Arthur Ferland brought her assistance when she was in such distress, but, following the birth of Arthur in 1934, Mrs. Michaud stopped living as husband and wife with him and when the Pension for Needy Mothers was granted, he went to live somewhere else in 1940. Mrs. Michaud was then able to be granted an allowance by the Provincial Government. Since Mrs. Arthur Ferland was still paying for the board of his son, Arthur, he called at Mrs. Michaud's home every evening and that is the reason why she is supposed to have lost her Pension for Needy Mothers. He then returned to live at Mrs. Michaud's home because the rent he paid for his room helped to balance the budget. Besides, Mrs. Michaud claims that he was very kind to her and that he has greatly helped her bring up her children who have much respect for him. She is a good mother and she brings up her children very well.

The elder children are aware of the illegal relations which have already existed between Mr. Ferland and their mother. However, Paul-Emile, in a recent letter, recommended to his mother that this man should not leave their home as he and his brother, being in the Army, are less worried if a devoted person is staying with the family in order to bring assistance in case of need. Besides, Mr. Ferland does not wish to leave without bringing his son, Arthur, with him and for no consideration would Mrs. Michaud part with her child.

Mrs. Michaud complains that the physical condition of three of her children is poor; Jean-Claude is supposed to constantly suffer from headaches; Armande is supposed to have a liver complaint and Marcel is supposed to suffer from heart trouble.

Her son, Paul-Emile, is kept under detention at the present time and she has informed us that it is difficult for her to balance her budget due to the fact that she does not draw her $20. monthly assigned pay. If, because of the facts mentioned above and the fact that Maurice has also assigned part of his pay to her, a dependents' allowance cannot be granted her, we beg your Department to consider the possibility of granting Paul-Emile his pardon so that his mother may draw his assigned pay again. We do not believe that this young man's return to Canada would change family circumstances which seem to be irremediable at the present time. Yours truly,

For the investigator,
