Q Which was what -- about ten feet was it ?

A About ten feet.

Q Your hat was near the table you had originally been sitting at ?

A Yes, Sir. He told me to get it. That is what I understood and I went to get my hat and keep going. That is when the boys stopped me and said I had a beer to drink.

Q Did you hear the Sergeant-Major tell you to get out of the Canteen ?

A Yes, Sir.

Q What did you do then ?

A I went to get my hat. I mentioned about my hat. I had to get my hat. I just turned around and buzzed off.

Q To where ?

A To get my hat.

Q Did the Sergeant-Major tell you to go and get your hat ?

A It was understood, Sir, by me to get my hat. I don't know whether it was the Sergeant-Major or the Orderly Sergeant told me. I think it was the Sergeant-Major.

Q You left the Sergeant-Major and went to get your hat ?

A Yes, Sir.

Q What did you do on your way to the window to get your hat ?

A I had to go by the table where I was originally sitting and the boys stopped me and said "There is a beer here for you".

Q Was Penner up there with you ?

A He wasn't at that table.

Q Was he with you when you were talking to the Sergeant-Major ?

A Yes, I remember he came up.

Q Did you both walk back together ?

A I don't know, Sir. I didn't wait for anybody. I didn't notice anything.

Q You understood the Sergeant-Major's command did you ?

A Yes, more or less. I understood I was supposed to get out.

Q And you were going to go ?

A Yes, Sir.

Cross-examined by the Prosecuter :

Q Now why were you going back to get your hat ? -- You said you were going back to get your hat after you had been at the door of the Canteen. Why were you going back to get your hat ?

A I was going out.

Q Why were you going out ?

A The Sergeant-Major told me to go out.

Q He had definitely given you a command to leave the Canteen had he ?

A Yes, Sir.

Q And you knew the Sergeant-Major all right didn't you ?

A Yes, Sir.

Q You knew what his rank was ?

A Yes, Sir.

Q You even knew him by name ?

A Yes, Sir. -- I didn't know him by name but I knew what he was and what he stood for.

Q And it was about 2100 hours or 9.00 p.m. when he told you to leave the Canteen ?

A I don't know what time it was, Sir.

Q Do you know what time the Canteen usually closes ?

A Nine o'clock, Sir.

Q It was about that time was it not ?

A I don't know, Sir.

Q It was on the 31st of March, 1945 ?

A I know that, Sir, but I thought it was before nine o'clock.

Q And it was at A15 Wet Canteen, Shilo Camp, was it ?

A Yes, Sir.

Q You were sitting at the same table with Private Penner just before you went up to see if you could get more beer ?

A Yes, Sir.

Q And was that table about the second table away from the bar ?

A It was in the first row.

Q What do you mean the first row ?

A The row nearest the bar.

Q And it was about the second table from the bar ?

A About ten feet away.

Q How far was the table where you had been sitting earlier in the evening ?

A About twenty feet.

Q You had left your hat near the table where you had been sitting earlier ?

A Yes, Sir.

Q But when you left the Sergeant-Major and you say you were going to get your hat you stopped at the table closer to the bar where you had been sitting with Private Penner didn't you ?

A I don't think I did, Sir.

Q Where did you stop ?

A I may have stopped a second. Just hovered for a minute and then I got going to the other one.

Q Where was it you drank some beer ?

A That was at the table where my hat was, twenty feet from the bar. That is where he stopped me.

Q Who stopped you ?

A A friend of mine sitting down there.

Q It wasn't Private Penner ?

A No, Sir.

Q You know that Private Penner said at that time you stopped at the table where he had been sitting ?

A I may have stopped and hovered for a second.

Q He said you sat down there and drank a beer ?

A No, Sir. He meant the other one.

Q It is not what he meant. That is what he said. That he didn't drank at that time, that he had no more beer but that you had ?

A You remember, Sir, he also said he didn't see whether I sat down or stood up.

Q But he said you drank beer at his table ?

A That was before I went to the bar, Sir.

Q Perhaps you don't remember whether you stopped at Penner's table or not ?

A I know for sure I didn't.

Q So if he testifies you did you don't believe his testimony ?

A If he says I did I don't believe his testimony.

Q But you had been sitting at his table before you went up to the bar to see if you could get some more beer ?

A Yes, Sir. That was after I had been sitting at my original table.

Q You suggested you noticed the bar was closing ?

A No, Sir. I never actually suggested that. There was a rumour it was going to close.

Q You saw the RSM up there at the bar did you ?

A Yes, Sir.

Q So you thought he was there for the purpose of closing the bar didn't you ?

A Not at that time, Sir. I went up to ask the bartender for more beer.

Q Your beer was not all done. You still had some more on the table didn't you ?

A There was about three-quarters of a bottle of beer, Sir.

Q Were you getting it by the bottle or by the glass ?

A By the bottle.

Q The only reason you wanted to get more beer was because you thought they were going to close and wouldn't be selling any more ?

A Yes, Sir, you could put it that way.

Q So when Sergeant-Major Campbell told you no more beer was being sold you were not surprised ?

A I was in a way, Sir, because it seemed to be around twenty to nine or twenty-five to nine or eight thirty by Penner's watch.

Q How did you know what his watch said ?

A Because there was no watch on the bar.

Q How did you know what his watch said ?

A He had a watch on him. He was the one that gave me the money to get the beer.

Q Where was your watch ?

A I haven't got one, Sir.

Q So after you had been at the bar and found you couldn't get any beer you went back to the table where Penner was ?

A Yes, Sir.

Q And after that you saw RSM Campbell at the outside door of the Canteen did you ?

A Yes, Sir, towards the entrance there.

Q So then you went over there to speak to him ?

A After the bar closed, Sir.

Q What did you say to him then ?

A I asked him why it shut down.

Q And you said "You needn't be a prick about it" ?

A No, Sir.

Q "Don't be a prick about it" ?

A No, Sir.

Q What did you say ?

A I didn't say anything of the sort, Sir.

Q When did you make the remark to him that the sergeants could get all the beer they wanted in their mess and you thought you should ?

A I said that at the bar.

Q You had been thinking about that remark when you went and sat down at the table ?

A Not exactly. It was when the bar closed down. I thought it was only closed down for a while. They usually do that sometimes.

Q You went up to ask Mr. Campbell about the beer situation ?

A I asked why it was shut down.

Q The only reason he asked you to leave was because you had used some words he didn't like, isn't that right ?

A No, Sir.

Q Why did he tell you to leave the Canteen ?

A Probably, Sir, because I started to argue with him.

Q Because you had used some words he didn't like, is that true ?

A I didn't use any words.

Q You heard the Sergeant-Major and Sergeant Price say you used some words about "Don't be a prick" ?

A Yes, Sir, I heard that.

Q You don't believe their evidence either ?

A I deny that, Sir.

Q And then when Sergeant-Major Campbell told you to leave the Canteen you told him you didn't want to leave the Canteen didn't you ?

A Not definitely, Sir. I put it in the way that I would like to go back and talk to my friends.

Q So after he ordered you to leave the Canteen you started back to talk to your friends ?

A I started back to get my hat, Sir.

Q After he had first given you the order to leave the Canteen you walked away from him a little towards this table ?

A Not that I remember. When I started walking I kept on walking.

Q Why did he order you the second time ?

A It was during the argument.. He seemed to be doing all the talking. I was trying to get a few words in edgewise. I did try to get some and finally I got something about the hat in. I don't know whether it was him or the sergeant who told me to get the hat.

Q After the second time he told you if you didn't leave he would have to place you in close arrest did he ?

A I didn't hear that. I was going by them. I was going back.

Q Why did you tell him he could get a couple of guys to put you in the digger but there would be somebody hurt if he did ?

A I don't remember that.

Q You don't remember saying that ?

A I don't remember I did, Sir.

Q You remember you said words to that effect ?

A No, Sir.

Q You are bigger than the average man around camp ?

A Yes, Sir.

Q You feel you are good and strong ?

A Yes, Sir.

Q You feel if anybody is going to interfere with your liberty you are able to resist ?

A It all depends on the situation. If I feel I am in the right and being imposed upon.

Q That evening you felt you were within your rights ?

A As far as feeling that way I did feel inclined that way.

Q You felt if anybody was going to put you out you were going to resist being put out ?

A No, Sir.

Q You said something to that effect to the Sergeant-Major ?

A I didn't say it. I didn't resist being put out.

Q But you did say to the Sergeant-Major that you would resist or that some people would be hurt in trying to put you out ?

A No, Sir, I never said any words like that.

Q Had you said anything to Sergeant Price, who was the Orderly Sergeant ?

A I don't think I had, Sir.

Q Maybe you mentioned something about getting your hat to him ?

A I mentioned getting my hat in front of quite a few people.

Q In front of Sergeant Price particularly ?

A In front of the Sergeant-Major.

Q The Sergeant-Major's order to you was to leave the Canteen was it not ?

A To get my hat, Sir.

Q The Sergeant-Major didn't say to get your hat ?

A He said "Get your hat".

Q I suggest that the Sergeant-Major told you to leave the Canteen and that you said something about getting your hat ?

A Yes, Sir. I said something about getting my hat and he said to get it.

Q The Sergeant-Major had just ordered you to leave the Canteen ?

A And to get my hat too, Sir.

Q And so you say you went not to the table where Private Penner and you had been sitting but you went to a table that was further off ?

A Yes, Sir. Where I was originally sitting in the first place where my hat was.

Q Instead of getting your hat immediately you stayed there and drank what was left of the bottle of beer ?

A I just sat down and got right up.

Q While you were sitting down you drank the beer ?

A No, Sir.

Q What did you sit down for ?

A A kid said to sit down. I remembered I had to get out.

Q You were ready to obey the kid whoever he was. When he said sit down you sat down ?

A I got right back up again, Sir.

Q Although the Sergeant-Major had told you to leave you were not obeying him so readily as this fellow who told you to sit down ?

A I didn't exactly sit down at all, Sir. I just sat down to grab the bottle. The R.P. came in and I asked if I could drink it. If he had said no I would have gone right out. He gave me permission to drink it which I did as fast as I could.

The Defending Officer declines to re-examine.

Questioned by the Court:

Q When the RSM told you to leave the Canteen the second time what did you say to him ?

A He told me to get my hat, Sir. I just turned around and went.

Q Did you suggest to him you should get your hat ?

A That is what I was suggesting to him all along more or less but I couldn't seem to get it in.

Q Did he tell you to get your hat and get out or he would put you under arrest ?

A Yes, Sir.

Q Now you are quite certain that you didn't make a reply to that ?

A I am certain, Sir.

Q How long were you at the table before Lance-Corporal Smith came and told you to come with him ?

A I guess maybe it may have been a half a minute or a quarter of a minute. We were out of there in three-quarters of a minute.

Q From the time you left the Sergeant-Major at the door ?

A He told me to get out or something like that. You can judge for yourself. By the time I was at my table he was in the door. The R.P. was coming in the door when I got to the table. When I got to the table I sat down. He must have been coming in the door then for all I know. He came over to where I was and he said "You will have to go out. You are under close arrest".

The witness resumes his seat.

By the Defending Officer:

That is the case for the Defence, Sir.

The Court in accordance with Rule of Procedure 86(d) recalls No. H.19873, Regimental Sergeant-Major Arthur Leonard CAMPBELL, who on his former oath states in reply to the President as follows:

Q When you first told the accused to leave the Canteen where was he standing in relation to the door ?

A In front of the door, Sir, facing south. The door is on the south and he was facing the door.

Q What did he do when you first ordered him to leave the Canteen ?

A He made no attempt to go, Sir.

Q You told him a second time ?

A Yes, Sir.

Q What did he do then ?

A I explained to him, Sir, the reason why he couldn't get any more beer and he said "You don't have to be a prick about it". I opened the door and ordered him to leave the Canteen immediately.

Q What did he do ?

A He walked away and said "I am going to see my chums", sat down at the table and drank a bottle of beer.

Q Was anything said about a cap ?

A No, Sir, not when I opened the door. Definitely not.

Q Did you tell him to go and get his cap and get out of the Canteen ?

A No, Sir.

Q Did the Orderly Sergeant tell him to get his cap and get out of the Canteen ?

A Not to my knowledge, Sir.

Q When you summonsed the Regimental Police how did you do that ?

A I despatched the Orderly Sergeant out for them.

Q You yourself didn't go out the door and down a couple of steps and call him ?

A I did not, Sir. I did not see the Regimental Police until they entered the Canteen from the duty they were performing outside, Sir.

Q Which table did the accused go to -- the table he was sitting at when he came up to the bar in the first instance ?

A To the best of my knowledge, Sir, he went to the table he had been sitting at, which was about three tables from the bar.

Q When you sent for the Regimental Police had the accused reached the table or did you send for the Regimental Police before he got there ?

A As soon as he started to walk back to the table I ordered the Orderly Sergeant to get the Regimental Police, Sir. The accused had no knowledge of my calling the Regimental Police. Had he left the Canteen I should not have had to call them. When he walked back to the table in a defiant manner --

Q While the accused was on the way from the door to the table was the time you called the Regimental Police ?

A Yes, Sir.

Q And you are quite positive you didn't tell the accused, "Get your hat and leave the Canteen immediately" ?

A If I did do so, Sir --

Q The Court want to know. The Court want you to be positive whether you gave him that order or not ?

A In the last instance I definitely did not, Sir.

Q Did you see the accused get his hat and if so how far was it from the table ?

A I saw him get his hat after the Regimental Police went to the table where he had been drinking beer. It was approximately the third window.

Q Did you think the man was going to get his hat at the time you called the police ?

A No, Sir.

Q What did he do ?

A He went to the table, sat down and drank a bottle of beer.

Q Were the Regimental Police there while he was drinking the beer ?

A I think so, Sir. I am practically certain that he may have been drinking beer when they went up to him. But he definitely went back to the table and sat down after I had ordered him to leave the Canteen, picked up a bottle of beer and started to drink it.

The witness withdraws.

The Defending Officer makes a Closing Address.

The Prosecutor makes a Closing Address.

CHARGE: WHEN ON ACTIVE SERVICE DISOBEYING A COMMAND GIVEN BY HIS SUPERIOR OFFICER.

TO PROVE THE CHARGE, verbal evidence is available, as follows:

FIRST WITNESS: H.19873 R.S.M. A.L. CAMPBELL, A-15 Canadian Infantry Training Centre, C.A., who will testify that in pursuance of his duty he inspected the wet canteen at 2050 hours on 31 March 1945 and finding that the men had plenty of beer on tables then ordered that no more beer be sold there that day; whereupon the accused came up to him and stated that he wanted to buy more beer and said: "Oh don't be a prick", so that R.S.M. Campbell deemed it advisable to order the accused to leave the canteen, and at 2105 hours did give him a command to that effect; which the accused disobeyed; and that the accused then said to R.S.M. Campbell: "You can get a couple of guys to put me in the digger but there will be some people hurt if you do", or words to that effect. R.S.M. Campbell then had the accused placed in close arrest.

A.110782 - Pte. MAXEY, Arthur Montgomery
No. 1 D.D.

1. The m/n Soldier was tried by [illegible] on 2 APR 45 on a charge of A.W.L.

2. During the trial, the defence brought out certain evidence in respect to instructions issued by the Canadian Army Representative, Detroit.

3. It appears that Pte. Maxey enlisted in the Canadian Army on 1 JUL 44, after being turned down by the American Army. While on enlistment leave, parental pressure was brought to bear on him, and he did not return. About the end of Feb 45, the Soldier received a letter from the Canadian Military Representative in Detroit, Major N.L. LeSueur (Exhibit "J" att to S.C.M. proceedings), which advised him that if he would pay a small kit deficiency charged to him, his discharge would be given to him when he called at the office to pay same.

4. He visited Major LeSueur's office and was interviewed by A.99227, S/Sgt. C.J. Bobier, to whom he stated that he was willing to pay the deficiency, but that he wanted to be reinstated in the Canadian Army without punishment, if that could be done. S/Sgt Bobier told the Soldier that he would have to consult Major LeSueur and would 'phone the Soldier. He did this, and, from the evidence brought out, it would appear that S/Sgt Bobier led the Soldier to believe that if he returned he would not be punished but would be placed in a Unit for training at once. The 'Phone call was confirmed by a letter from S/Sgt Bobier to Pte. Maxey (Exhibit "K" att to S.C.M. proceedings).

5. It is considered that the Canadian Army Representative, Detroit, Mich, should not have made any promises to this Soldier regarding punishment, or otherwise. May this be brought to the attention of Military Attache, Washington.

Motion – No Case

It is open to the accused, his Counsel or Defending Officer at the close of the case for the prosecution to submit that the evidence given for the prosecution has not established a prima facie case against him, and that he should not therefore be called upon for his defence. If such Motion is made, the proceedings will be recorded on separate pages which will be inserted immediately before the present page D. If the Court is satisfied that the Motion is well founded, it must acquit the accused and register its Finding on Page A.

Defence

The President will now address the acused as follows:—

"It is my duty at this stage to advise you as to your rights in the general conduct of your defence. The procedure to be followed depends entirely on the answers given to the formal questions which are about to be put to you. It is therefore important that you should understand and appreciate the effect of your answers to these questions. You do not need to give evidence on oath unless you wish to do so, but if you do give sworn evidence you are liable to be cross-examined by the Prosecutor and questioned by the Court."

"If you do not give evidence on oath you are entitled to make a statement giving your account of the subject of the charge against you. You will not be sworn and no question may be put to you by the Court or any person with respect to such statement. I must warn you, however, that evidence given on oath will carry more weight with the Court than a mere statement not on oath."

If there is no Defending Officer the President should then explain to the accused the effect which his answer to the formal questions on Page D of the proceedings will have on the order of the Closing Addresses as provided in R.P. 40 and 41.

1st witness for Defence

The Accused, A.110782 Pte Arthur Montgomery MAXEY, No. 1 District Depot, CA, being duly sworn is examined by the Defending Officer:

Q Will you go ahead with your statement?

A I will go ahead, Sir. Before I came into the Canadian Army I tried to enlist in the American Army, but I was placed in 4-F. I wanted to do something, so I took the Canadian Army as the second best. Before leaving for Canada I asked my mother for permission to join the Canadian Army, and she told me that she didn't want me to join the army, for the fact that I had never left home - I had never been without her, and she hadn't been without me; but if that is what I wanted for me to go ahead and take it. She said she didn't want me to go; I might run into something that I wouldn't be able to take care of. I told her I thought I was man enough to take care of myself. So I came and joined the Canadian Army. I had been in for five or six days, and I had my enlistment leave; and when I got back home my Dad told me that he needed an operation, and that it was up to me to go and work, and take care of the family. I told him that I was in the army, and I had to go back. He said "When you are on your own American soil, you would not have to go back over there." He said, "Besides, your mother has been heart-broken because you have left." So I agreed with him, that I would go to work. I got my job, and started bringing the money home. It seemed he was going to have an operation...I asked my parents, could I go back, but every time I asked them could I leave, they objected for the very fact that when my uniform was sent for by the Military Police they told me "Never go on

A (cont'd) " Canadian shores again, because if you do they will give you plenty - they will do plenty to you." My father and mother and brothers were afraid for me to go back here. Every time I tried to leave they objected to it, and their friends objected to it. So I stayed. I had a letter from the Canadian Representative in Detroit, from the Military Attache in Washington, offering me a discharge if I paid the deficiencies of kit, which was $14.83. I told him that I would like to go back in service in Canada; I would like to get in the fight with the boys overseas, but if I went back I wouldn't want to be punished for something that I had no control over. I said I would like to meet some people in Canada, probably a young girl, or something like that, and go to my own choice of church in Canada, and get acquainted with the kind of people that live there, as well as go and fight with the Canadians. I told him I would like to continue where I left off. He advised me that he wouldn't tell me to go back now; he would try and find out from headquarters. It wasn't the Major that talked to me, it was the S/Sgt; and he said he would find out from the Major, "Major LeSueur"; he would get in touch with headquarters, and he would call me up the next day and let me know. The next day he called me up and said it was perfectly all right for me to return to Canada, they would take me back. I came down a week or so after he had talked with me, and he brought me over to the Canadian Military Police in Windsor, and from there here, Sir.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY PROSECUTOR

Q When you went away from the Depot in July on your enlistment leave, was your leave up on the 10th day of July?

A Yes, Sir.

A Yes, Sir.

Q After that time you remained in Detroit ?

A That is right.

A I was visited by - not the military, but the detectives, and later on by the Shore Patrol.

Q When was it that there was somebody took your uniform away from you?

A The first time the detectives came to my house they brought me down to the police....I wasn't home at the time, but they asked my father if he would bring me down to headquarters, and he did.

Q Which headquarters, the police headquarters?

A The police headquarters. And from there I was taken to the Military Police Headquarters.

Q The American Military Police?

A The American Military Police Headquarters, and they took my uniform, and I had my civilian clothes there, and they sent me back home.

Q What did he tell you there?

A He told me there, never to come back on the Canadian shores, or I would be given plenty for that.

Q When was that?

A That was in August.

Q When did you first contact the Canadian Authorities in Detroit?

A I didn't contact them until I received a letter from the Military Representative. I didn't know that there was a Representative in Detroit; I thought it was in Windsor.

Q About what time was it you received this letter from Washington, from the Military Attache?

A The 1st of March or the last part of February.

Q Of this year?

A Yes, Sir.

Q Have you that letter?

A No, Sir; it is at home now.

Q What did the letter say?

A It said I had a deficiency in kit which netted $14.83, and for me to bring the money down and fill out the necessary papers, which was at the Canadian Representative's office in Detroit, for my discharge.

Q It stated your discharge was at headquarters?

A My necessary papers for discharge was.

Q As a result of that letter did you go down to headquarters?

A Yes, Sir; I made an appointment with the Major.

Q What happened there?

A When I got in there the Major wasn't there, but the S/Sgt was there, and he was the one that talked to me.

Q Did you remain at the headquarters?

A At the Represenative's office?

Q Yes?

A No, sir.

A (cont'd) I asked him to be taken back, and he said he would let me know the next day.

Q They didn't tell you you would be under arrest?

A No,Sir, they didn't at all.

Q And the following day did they get in touch with you?

A Yes, Sir.

Q What did they tell you at that time?

A It was the Sergeant, he told me it would be perfectly all right for me to return to Canada. I would be taken back and put into a unit here.

Q Then you were handed over to...?

A The Military Police.

Q In Windsor?

A At Windsor.

Q During the time you were in Detroit were you working?

A I had a choir of 20 boys and girls like myself, and most of the time I was singing at different churches, troupes, over the radio programmes, and so forth; and the other part of my time I was working at Hudsons.

Q Were you helping your people at home?

A Yes, Sir; I was bringing in money.

Q Was your father working during this time?

A Yes, Sir; he was.

Q He didn't undergo this operation you mentioned?

A No, Sir.

Q You are an American citizen?

A Yes, Sir.

Q You have never been naturalized as a Canadian?

A No, Sir.

RE-EXAMINATION BY DEFENDING OFFICER

Q The four or five days you were in this Depot did you receive any sort of training?

A No, Sir.

Q Did you have any lectures on Military Law?

A No, I did not, Sir.

Q While you were home, was it the influence of your parents alone that kept you there?

A Yes, Sir.

Q What exactly was your Dad threatened with, the operation?

A The operation was all, and the fact my mother was heart-broken, and didn't want me to be in the army. That kind of hit me hard.

Q This '4-f' you mentioned in your category. Do you know what that was on?

A When I had my examination they said I had a bad heart; but I didn't believe that, because I had been to several doctors in the City, and they examined me, and said I was perfectly all right. I thought the fact they said I had a bad heart was because I tried to get into the Marine Corps in the States, and the negroes were not being allowed in the Marine Corps at that time.

QUESTIONED BY PRESIDENT

Q You were turned down as 4-f?

A Yes, Sir.

Q On your application to the Marine Corps did you receive a medical examination then?

A Yes, Sir.

Q Were you turned down t that time?

A Yes, Sir, I was.

Q This letter that you say you received sometime at the end of February or first of March of this year, was that from the

Q (cont'd) Military Representative in Detroit?

A It was from the Military Attache in Washington, through the Military Representative in Detroit.

Q Was it addressed to you personally?

A Yes, it was.

Q You say that letter is at home?

A Yes, it is.

Q The gist of that letter is, as I understand it, if you paid the amount of deficiencies that you would receive your discharge, is that right?

A That is right.

Q And when you went to see the Military Representative in Detroit were you willing at that time to pay the deficiencies?

A I was, Sir.

Q But as I understand it you also wanted to get back into the Canadian Army, is that right?

A That is right.

Q Was anything said about being punished for being absent, at the time you were talking to the Representative or to the S-Sgt?

A I don't know if there was exactly of being punished, but they said I would probably serve three months...I didn't know whether that was three months in gaol. I told them I wouldn't like to be punished for something like that, because of my parents. I said I would like to meet some folks in Canada and go to a proper church.

Q What I want to know is, what did they explain to you as to what would happen to you when you came across to this country?

A I would be put in a unit.

Q And they said something that you might have to serve

Q (cont'd) three months?

A That was before I told them I wouldn't want to... They said it would be perfectly all right for me to come back.

Q What did you take from that statement, it would be perfectly all right for you to return to Canada? What did you take from it?

A That I wouldn't serve any time; that I would be put at a basic training centre, and get the training over, and be transferred overseas.

Q You said you had a letter at home that offered you a discharge if you would pay for the deficiencies, is that right?

A That is right.

Q Would that letter be available? Would it be possible to get that letter from your people?

A I believe so, Sir.

THE WITNESS RESUMES HIS SEAT.

Dear Sir:

We have been instructed by the Military Attache, in Washington, to contact you concerning your discharge from the Canadian Army.

It appears that you have a slight deficiency of kit amounting to $26.50 and a credit balance on your last Pay Certificate of $11.70. This would net $14.80 owing by you. Upon the payment of this amount, and the completion of the necessary forms which we are holding in this office until we hear from you, your discharge papers will be completed.

It would be appreciated if you would call into this office for an interview at your earliest convenience. If you wish to call for an appointment, our telephone number is CAdillac 8481.

Very truly yours,

A.110782 Pte. Arthur Montgomery MAXEY

I have today read a statement of the evidence in connection with the Court Martial of Maxey for absence without leave.

I told Maxey that he would be punished, but I did not emphasize it and I feel that he could have very easily understood from the conversation that there would be no punishment and that the story as outlined in his evidence could very easily have been the complete story in his mind.

I am enclosing herewith a copy of letter sent out from this office under the signature of Major N.L. LeSueur suggesting discharge, and in view of the fact that Maxey had been in the Army only for a period of about 15 days I felt that this was virtually a reenlistment rather than the return of a deserter and I treated him in that manner.

Evidence in the case of

G32862 Pte MacDonald C.A. 1 CBR BN 1 CBRD

(Sixth Charge)

First Witness for the Pros. G17815 Sgt Richard J.A. 1 CBR BN 1 CBRD

having been duly sworn states

On 15 Aug 44 at 0800 hrs I called the roll of number 2 Coy and found Pte MacDonald C.A. whom I now recognize as the accused now in court, absent. I marked him absent as of 0800 hrs 15th Aug 44. The next time I saw the accused was in the company-orderly-room but I cannot remember the date I saw him there. I take all parade roll calls of number 2 Coy. That is I take reveille and tattoo-roll-calls. The accused has not been present for any roll-call since 15 Aug 44. When a soldier is found to be absent his kit is turned in Q.M. stores on the following day to be inventoried. This was done with the accused kit.

Cross-exam

In the CYR quarters there is a guard system. The responsibility of the hut-orderly is to guard the men's kits and he is held responsible for any kit that is found to be missing. When a man is evacuated to hospital his kit is immediately turned into Q.M. stores. When a man is A.W.L. we give him one day to get back. If he does not come back then, we put his kit in Q.M. stores.

By the Court

The accused's kit was inspected on the 16 Aug 44. I know the kit was inspected because I saw the C.Q.M.S. start the inspection. I reported to the C.Q.M.S. that the accused was absent then on 15 Aug . I turned in his kit.

D-3 (2) AMR

(R.P. 83 B has been complied with)

Second Witness for the Proc G19037 C.Q.M.S. ~~Hamilton~~ HAMBLIN A.W.R. 1 CBR Bn 1 CBRD

having been duly sworn states:

I am C.Q.M.S. of number 2 Coy 1 CBRBn. Number 2 Coy is the C.Y. company. On the 16 Aug 44 the company orderly sergeant reported to me and as a result of his report he and I picked up the kit of Pte MacDonald whom I now identify as the accused in the court. We picked the kit up on 16 Aug 44. When I inspected the kit I found the articles listed on this sheet of paper. Prosecution submits list of clothing and equipment marked Exhibit "J".

When I inspect soldier's kit I make up a list of articles actually missing at that time and when he returns I rule out the articles he brings back with him. This was done in the case of the accused. On 30 Aug 44 I made a check of the arteiles brought back by the accused. On that date I took the accused to the Q.M. stores and exchanged the clothing he was wearing. Prior to 15 Aug 44 the accused was to the best of my knowledge and according to my records fully equipped.

D-3. (3) AMR

Cross-Exam

When a soldier comes to 1 CBR Bn he is put through Q.M. Stores and equipped. The accused came to 1 CBR Bn before I.

morning; I have no record of Saturday Kit inspection

There was no report to me of any kit deficiency in the case of the accused. The company holds a kit inspection every Saturday. I only keep a record of kit-shortages handed in to me by the N.C.O. carrying out the kit inspections. I have a book showing the scale of issue for each soldier and this book was used when I checked the accused's kit. This book showed the Summer scale of issue. The accused was A.W.L. when I made the first inspection. The second inspection is made when a soldier returns. This was done in the case of the accused.

By the Court

I have the soldier's kit signature on M.F.M. 513.
(R.P. 83 was complied with)

R.P. 86(d) C.Q.M.S. ~~Hamilton~~ HAMBLIN recalled by court and questioned
Exhibit "J" is a list of articles found deficient on 30 Aug 44 which is the same list as made on 16 Aug less articles returned by the accused.
(R.P. 83 was complied with)

Def. address to the court

D.b. The accused is charged with losing by neglect his clothing and equipment. With the evidence already heard I firmly believe that he is unjustly charged. From the witness' statements I gather that less care is taken of the kit of a man who is A.W.L. in comparison with a man who is evacuated as sick. I don't see why this should be. Both men have the same kit and all articles are Goverment Property which should be looked after in the same manner whether a man is evacuated sick, wounded or is A.W.L.

If the accused had not been previously inspected up until 16 Aug I ask myself, "How did the C.Q.M.S. know the accused was missing or was over in kit, and therefore how could he issue a just kit to this man."
When the kit inspection was done on the 16 Aug it could be very probable that the accused had washing outside barracks.
Another thing that amazes me is that the kit-inspection was done by the C.Q.M.S. where there were no witnesses and the accused was not present. To sum up, I believe that the kit-inspection was unjustly done and that the accused did not lose by neglect his clothing and equipment.

" J H Pelletier Lieut"

Pro address to the court

The company knows that when a man goes to hospital his kit will not be needed immediately. Soldiers in reinforcement bns are reported A.W.L. often when they are engaged elsewhere, also short absences are common. The C.QMS is a busy enough man in a reinforcement company and there must be a time lapse to establish the fact that a man is definitely absent. A lapse of one day is not too long. I submit that the prosecution has established a case of losing by neglect. The accused went A.W.L. on 15 Aug leaving his kit laid out on his bed. That in itself establishes a case of losing by neglect without reference to Military Law.

PLEA IN MITIGATION

G32262 Pte MacDonald C.A. joined the Canadian Army on Sept 5th 1939. He came overseas Dec 19 1939 and the came to Italy to join his regiment in Nov 1943, at Campobasso.
the Carleton & York Regiment

F-3

With his regiment he was through the heavy fighting for Ortona and on that front proved himself to be a brave soldier in the attacks-patrols-or when holding the line.

Pte MacDonald married in England where his wife still lives. He has a step-son who is now serving the Merchant Navy.

Alcohol has always been the causeof all his troubles - as whenever he would overstay a leave and stay A.W.L. This does not date from just yesterday. He had the misfortune of being born of alcoholic parents and today he suffers from this -

I recommend him to the clemency of the Court and ask that you do anything in your power so that this man has a reboard so as to readjust him to a sphere where he can better do his duty.

G20003 Cpl. Fleming, R. of H.Q. Company Carleton & York Regiment, having been duly sworn states as follows:-

I am and was at all times pertinent hereto G20003 Cpl. Fleming, R. of H.Q. company Carleton & York Regiment.

I relieved the Regimental Police at approximately 1800 hrs on 15 Sep 42. I checked the prisoners soon after taking over and found that they were all present according to the list furnished me by the Regimental Police. The prisoner's name was on the list and he was in the Guard Room. I checked the prisoners again at approximately 0610 hrs on 16 Sep 42 and found that Pte. McDonald was absent. I found that two bars had been removed from the window and a blanket had been tied to the other bar, ~~which no doubt McDonald had used as a means of escape~~.

Q Were the bars sawed off?

A No, the bars were forced so that they split the 2 X 4 and they could easily be pulled out.

Q Where were the sentries stationed?

A There was only one sentry on duty at the top of the stairs on the landing outside the door. The other two reliefs were downstairs asleep.

Q Were there more prisoners than McDonald in that room?

A Yes, at least four more.

BRIEF SUMMARY OF STATEMENT IN MITIGATION OF PUNISHMENT AND EVIDENCE AS TO CHARACTER.

Lt. J. L. McKenna having been duly sworn states:

The accused, Sir, I wish to state served 7½ years with the NPAM before the war. At the outbreak of war he was serving with the RCASC, he transferred from that Unit to the St John Fusileers with which he served until he found out that the Fusileers were not going overseas with the first draft. He then transferred to the Carlton York Regt. so he could come to the scene of what we thought was action. Over here he went A.W.L. and was Court Martialed and sent to the Cdn. Det. Bks. While undergoing detention at the Cdn. Det. Bks., he escaped and while he was away at that time - and this refers to the present charge - the accused was married. At the time of his marriage his wife did not know that he was an absentee. When she learnt of this she tried to make the accused give himself up and take his punishment and become a good soldier. However the accused was still going with the man that he had escaped with and this man persuaded him not to give himself up, so they went away again. How ever the accused again returned to his wife and under her persuasion did go to the Norbury Police Station on the 16th of July and surrender himself. There is one point I would like to bring on concerning the accused's MFM 6 and that is the only entries on that sheet are for AWL. The accused has been a good soldier when in camp. His wife has shown herself as having a good influence on him, and the accused has said he is more than willing to soldier because his wife is at present not receiving any Dependent's Allowance, and he is very anxious that she should. I would like particularily to stress that Major G.W. Ball of the C.D.B., has voluntarily given this statement of character regarding the accused Major G. W. Ball has been in direct contact with the accused and says that this man will soldier, and in this case that the strong influence of his wife, and his desire to look after her, that a light sentence would be equally as good, if not better, than a heavy one.

Reg.No.G.32262
S.U.S. Macdonald C.A.

1. The a/m S.U.S has been in the Canadian Detention Barracks under sentence of ten months detention dated 11th March 1941.

2. Since his reception here he has been charged in Orderly Room once for infractions of Regulations and forfeited three days remission. This offence took place during the early part of his sentence.

3. From that date until his release, due on the 8th Nov. 1941, his conduct has been excellent and I have every reason to believe that this S.U.S would endeavour to become a good soldier if given the opportunity.

4. I would point out that evidence of character offered on behalf of this S.U.S is not the result of an application from him, I feel that he should be given some opportunity to prove that he can carry out his responsibilities as a soldier and to that end I offered to testify for him at his Court Martial.

Under HQS 8536-6 Vol 2 Adm 3(b)2 dated 27 Apr 45 and HQS 8536-6 Vol 2 Adm 3(b)SC(A) dated 1 June 45 National Defence Headquarters authorized the despatch of certain soldiers under sentence from Italy and the United Kingdom to 89 Military Detention Barracks, Fort Henry, Barriefield, Ontario.

2. Under HQC 9039-1-1Adm 3 dated 15 June 45 National Defence Headquarters lays down the policy to be followed in the remission and suspension of sentence of soldiers under sentence in order that the situation in regard to accommodation at 89 Military Detention Barracks at Fort Henry may be alleviated.

3. Consequently it is considered the undermentioned soldiers under sentence who have served one-half their sentence should now be sent to their home District Depots for discharge and granted a remission of the unexpired portion of their sentence.

4. The above soldiers will be despatched from 89 Military Detention Barracks to their home District Depots for discharge under suitable escort to be arranged by the DAPM, MD 3, such escort being provided from 89 Military Detention Barracks or 33 Coy, C Pro C.

5. It is requested that after arrival at the various home District Depots the GOC-in-C, Pacific Command, or District Officer Commanding concerned, will arrange the soldier's discharge. In this connection this Headquarters has shown opposite the name of the soldier to be discharged the recommendation as to how the discharge is to be carried out by CMHQ and directly opposite this the District Officer Commanding, MD 3, has made his own recommendation as to how such personnel should be discharged which in some cases does not agree with the recommendation of CMHQ.

6. The recommendation of the District Officer Commanding, MD 3, has been made after careful review of Army Form A3104, the Review Sheet, the conduct of the soldier under sentence while in detention, the seriousness of the offence committed while on Active Services and whether or not the soldier has been wounded in the Front Line or rendered effective service in the Front Line and that his offence while serious before the cessation of hostilities, the reason for exemplary punishment does not exist to the same extent now and it is felt that an injustice would be done by having such personnel discharged under RO 1029(8) and forfeit gratuities they have earned. However, according to instructions from National Defence Headquarters the exact paragraph of RO 1029 under which the soldier under sentence is to be discharged is at the discretion of the GOC-in-C, Pacific Command, or the District Officer Commanding where the discharge of the soldier under sentence is to be carried out.

7. In cases where the District Officer Commanding, MD 3, has recommended the discharge and remission of sentence where less than one-half of the sentence has been served it is considered after review of all the relevant circumstances that in the interests of justice such soldier should be discharged and sentence remitted. The suggestion from National Defence Headquarters which states that a soldier's sentence/has been taken as a guiding principle and not as a hard and fast rule, it being considered that the suggestion of National Defence Headquarters in these cases may be varied when circumstances so warrant.

8. In the case of soldiers who have been sentenced to discharge with ignominy this is considered a material part of the sentence of a judicial tribunal and therefore the District Officer Commanding, MD 3, while recommending a reduction in the length of sentence to be served concurs in the other part of the sentence under which such soldier is discharged with ignominy under RO 1029 para 9.

9. It is requested that after arrival at the various home District Depots for discharge the GOC-in-C, Pacific Command, and the District Officers Commanding concerned will arrange for the remission of sentence of these soldiers as set out under HQC 9039-1-1 Adm 3 dated 15 June 45 which allows remission of one-half the sentence and that such remission be made effective the date of discharge.

10. The AJAG, MD 3, will prepare the necessary Order of Release and forward it to the Commandant, 89 Military Detention Barracks.

11. The DS & TO, MD 3, will issue the necessary transportation.

* may be remitted after he has served one-half of his sentence

12. The above mentioned soldiers will cease attachment to 89 Military Detention Barracks and be struck off strength 3 District Depot to the various District Depots for discharge effective the date they are despatched to their home Distric Depots in accordance with instructions received from Nationa Defence Headquarters.

13. The Commandant, 89 Military Detention Barracks, will adivse this Headquarters when the above personnel are ready for despatch in order that the GOC-in-C, Pacific Command, and the various District Officers Commanding concerned may be advised of the arrival of this personnel at least forty-eight hours in advance.

14. The Officer in charge, 2nd Echelon (Central), Brockville, will be requested by wire to forward the documents of the above mentioned soldiers immediately to the various home District Depots.

15. In cases where Army Form A3104's and Review Sheets are not available at this Headquarters, National Defence Headquarters will be requested by wire to forward the same by Special Delivery to the GOC-in-C, Pacific Command, or the various District Officers Commanding concerned.

16. After sentence has been remitted and the soldier discharged the GOC-in-C, Pacific Command, and the various District Officers Commanding are requested to make the necessary entry in Army Form A3104 and forward direct to National Defence Headquarters, in care of Major Parlee, Administration Branch, National Defence Headquarters.

Evidence in the case of

D. 3.

G 32262 Pte McDonald, E.A. 1 C.B.R.Bn 1 C.B.R.D.
(Both Charge)

First Witness for the Prosecution

G 17515 Sgt. Richard, J.A. 1 C.B.R.Bn. 1 C.B.R.D.
having been duly sworn states:

On 15th Aug 44 at 0800 hrs I called the roll of number 2 Coy. and found Pte McDonald, E.A. absent. I now recognise to the accused now in court, absent I marked him absent as of 0800 hrs 15th Aug. 44.

The next time I saw the accused was in the company orderly room but I cannot remember the date I saw him there. I take all parade roll calls of number 2 Coy. That is I take reveille and tattoo roll-calls. The accused has not been present for any roll-call since 15th Aug. 44.

When a soldier is found to be absent his kit is turned into Q.M. stores on the following day, & be inventoried. This was done with the accused's kit.

Cross-exam.

In the C.B.R. quarters there is a guard system. The responsibility of the kit-orderly is to guard the men's kit, and he is held responsible for any kit that is found to be missing. When a man is evacuated to hospital his kit is immediately turned into Q.M. stores. When a man is AWOL we give him one day to get back. If he does not come back then, we put his kit in Q.M. stores.

By the Court

The accused's kit was inspected on the 16th Aug 44. I know the kit was inspected because Pte Jones

D. 3. the C.Q.M.S. that the inspection (W.P.) [illegible] (2)
& the C.Q.M.S. that the accused was absent then on 16th Aug. I turned in his kit.
(R.P. 83 B. has been confirmed with)

Second Witness for the Prosecution. } (1903) S.Q.M.S. Hamblin, A.W.R. 1 C.B.R.Bn.
1 C.B.R.B.
having been duly sworn states:

I am C.Q.M.S. of number 2 Coy 1 CBRBn.
Number 2 company is the C.Q. company. ~~Pte McDonald when I was recognising as the accused was in court was reported & he was not as a result of his report~~

On 16th Aug we the company orderly sergeant reported to me and as a result of his report he and I picked up the kit of Pte McDonald whom I now identify as the accused ~~in~~ in court. We picked the kit up on 16 Aug we. When I inspected the kit I found the articles listed on this sheet of paper. ~~[illegible]~~
Prosecution submits list of clothing and equipment marked Exhibit ~~A~~ J

(~~[illegible]~~ When I inspect a soldier's kit I make of a list of articles actually missing at that time and when he returns I mark off the articles he brings back with him. This was done in the case of the accused. On 30 Aug we I made a check of the articles brought back by the accused. On that date I took the accused & the Q.M. store and exchanged the clothing he was wearing. ~~I took the articles~~

~~[illegible] the accused signed the list~~ NR

~~Another witness list marked exhibit~~ *

5.

Prior to 15 Aug 40 the accused was the best of my knowledge and according to my records, fully equipped. ~~The price of the list of shortages~~ NR

Cross-exam.

When a soldier comes to 1 GBRB he is put through B.M. stores and equipped. The accused came to 1 G.B.R.B. before I. There was no report as to any kit deficiency in the case of the accused. The company holds a kit inspection every Saturday morning. I have no record of Saturday kit inspection. I only keep a record of kit shortages handed in to me by the N.C.O. carrying out the kit inspection. I have a book showing the scale of issue for each soldier and this book was used when I checked the accused's kit. This book showed the summer scale of issue. The accused was A.W.L ~~on account~~ when I made the first inspection. The second inspection is made when a soldier returns. This was done in the case of the accused.

By the court

~~The kit notes exhibit "X"~~ I have the soldier's kit signature on M.& M. 503.

R.P. 93 was complied with.

R.P. 86 (a) G.B.M. of Hamilton recalled by court and questioned. Exhibit T is a list of articles found deficient on 30 Aug 40 which is the same list as made on 16 Aug less articles returned by the accused.

(R.P. 93 was complied with)

Ref. accused v. the Court

D. C.

The accused is charged with having by neglect lost clothing and equipment. With the evidence already heard I firmly believe that he is unjustly charged. ~~First, witness Sgt Richard who called of the parade was when a man is AWL~~ From the witness statement I gather that loss was taken of the kit of a man who is AWL in companion with a man who is expected to civil. I don't see why this should be. Both men have the same kit and all articles are Government Property, which should be looked after in the same manner whether a man is evacuated civil, ~~[illegible]~~ or is AWL.

If the accused had not previously ~~inspected~~ inspected it up until 15th Aug. I and myself, "How did the L.G.M.S. know the accused was missing or was over in kit, and therefore how could he issue a just kit to this man."

When the kit inspection was done on the 15th Aug. it could be very probable that the accused had washing outside barracks.

Another thing that amazes me is that the kit inspection was done by the L.G.M.S. where there were no witnesses and the accused was not present.

To sum up, I believe that the kit inspection was unjustly done and that the accused did not lose by neglect his clothing and equipment.

Prosecution v. the Court.

D. C.

The company knows that when a man goes to hospital his kit will not be needed immediately, therefore it is picked up at the first opportunity. Soldiers in reinforcement bns. are reported A.W.L. often when they are engaged elsewhere, also short absences are common. The A.P.M. is a busy enough man in a reinforcement company and there must be a time lapse to establish the fact that a man is definitely absent. A lapse of one day is not too long. I submit that the prosecution has established a case of losing by neglect. — The accused left A.W.L. on 15th leaving his kit laid out on his bed. This in itself establishes a case of losing by neglect without reference to Military law.

PLEA IN MITIGATION

C-32262 Pte MacDonald C. G. joined the Canadian Army on Sept 5th 1939. He came overseas Dec 19th 1939 and came to Italy to join his regiment the Carleton & York Regiment in Nov. 1943, at Campobasso.

With his regiment he was through the heavy fighting for Ortona and on that front proved himself to be a brave soldier in the attacks - patrols - or when holding the line.

Pte MacDonald married in England where his wife still lives. He has a step-son who is now serving the Merchant Navy.

Alcool has always been the cause of all his troubles - as whenever he would be under the influence of liquor he would overstay a leave and stay A.W.L. - This does not date from just yesterday. He had the misfortune of being born of alcoolic parents and today he suffers from this.

I recommend him to the clemency of the Court and ask that you do anything in your power so that this man has a heboard so as to readjust him to a sphere where he "should" can better do his duty.

D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither? Ans. No. Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf? Ans. No. ~~Are they witnesses as to character only? Ans. .....~~

(1. RP 43, 117(A). See Notes in Part I of Schedule. 2. RP 44(A).)

Ref telegram AG 0267 dated 18 Oct 45 review.

2. The CM Board of Review has in the case of the m/n soldier made the following recommendation: -

"Release on 20 December 1945."

3. You will note that the recommendation of the Board deals with the remission at a future date. In considering this case your attention is directed to paras 3 and 4 of the telegram above referred to. It is pointed out that the action to be taken by you as a Superior Military Authority is not immediate and therefore this soldier's conduct and other circumstances up to the date of the recommended remission should be taken into consideration by you prior to your acting upon the recommendation of the Board. It is therefore suggested that you should not sign the appropriate entry until the recommended date approaches.

4. If in your opinion recent misconduct exists it is requested that this HQ be advised at once in accordance with paras 3 and 4 of the AG telegram above mentioned.

5. May this HQ be informed of action taken.

1. The m/n soldier is now serving a sentence of 4 years penal servitude awarded by FGCM 27 Dec 43 for 2 offences under AA Sec 41. He has so far earned full remissions for good conduct while serving his sentence, and the earliest date on which he should be released if he continues so to do is 4 Sep 46.

2. This soldier was serving with the Cdn Forces in Italy at the time of his FGCM and his sentence has been served so far in that theatre.

3. Att hereto is a copy of the relevant portions of the Review Sheet used at CMHQ showing the date of this soldier's enlistment and his record of any previous army or civil offences.

4. A Neuropsychiatrist and S.P.O. have examined this soldier, and in making the direction and recommendations herein their findings and reports have been given full consideration. He is reported as being fit to undergo his sentence, but unsuitable for further combatant service.

5. In view of the serious nature of the offences of which this soldier has been convicted, and the necessity for exemplary punishment in such cases, it is considered that he should serve his present sentence in full and thereafter be discharged for misconduct under the provisions of para.8 of Appx to C.A.R.O. 1029, and it is so recommended. It is probable that this soldier has misconducted himself for the purpose of obtaining his discharge.

6. It has accordingly been directed, pursuant to P.C.1304/44, that this soldier be returned to Canada in custody under sentence. Herewith original proceedings of the FGCM held 27 Dec 43, original A.F. A3104 in respect thereof on which this direction has been endorsed, and committal order. 1 CANADIAN SURVEY REGIMENT, R.C.A.

Transcript of the notes of B-24293 S/Sgt H.R.Adams, CMSC., H.Q. 1 Cdn Corps, shorthand writer at trial.

The prosecutor makes no opening address.

FIRST WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION. H-6399 Sgt W.J. Inge, No 3 Company, Canadian Provost Corps, being duly sworn is examined by the prosecutor:

Q-1 Sgt Inge, please identify yourself to the Court
A-1 H-6399 Sgt W.J.Inge, No 3 Coy, Cdn Provost Corps

Q-2 Do you identify the accused
A-2 Yes sir, I recognize the accused as Gnr Maitland

Q-3 Will you tell us in your own words what has happened in this case?
A-3 On the morning of the 13 DEC 43 at about 0230 hrs I received a call in Ionia that there was some trouble with a Canadian soldier shooting at people in Santa Venerina. I called my corporal and three other ranks and also my interpreter, we proceeded to Santa Venerina and arrived there about 0300 hrs, we were taken to the house by the guide who was awaiting us there and were met by a small Italian (identified as Salvatore di Bella) and he pointed out to us the house in which the accused was. The place where the accused was was situated behind another house about seven to ten feet. They did not know which room the accused was in. I posted my men around the place, and using a gas flare we got into a room of the house. There was nothing in that room so we went in through a door into the next room and found the accused asleep on a bed, we woke him and took him outside. He had a Tommy Gun with him loaded, with a magazine on it and ready for action.

(Tommy Gun in question is produced, handed to the Court and marked Exhibit "A".)

There was blood on the nozzle of the gun approximately around the foresight, on his overcoat we noticed blood, there were two spots in the front and one in the centre of the back. This blood when we noticed it was turning black. He had his overcoat on at the time. The first room was in complete disorder. In the room in which the accused was sleeping there were bullet holes in the ceiling, and in the small table cabinet there were some bullet holes in the top, and some in a small table lamp. After we hunted around and found the woman I turned her over to my interpreter to question and took the prisoner back to Ionia. There we questioned the accused and I gave the accused a warning: "Anything you say may be taken down in evidence against you, you need not say anything unless you wish to, if you do it will be used in evidence against you." Those were my words. He afterwards wrote down this statement which I produce.

The Defending Officer objects to the admission of this statement on the grounds that it was not made voluntarily.

J.A. (To witness) When the statement by the accused was taken down, who wrote it?
Witness. He wrote it himself

836

J.A. What were the circumstances previous to the occasion, was there any influence used on him?
Witness. No sir, no influence

J.A. Any threats, any promises?
Witness. None whatsoever

J.A. Was he touched in any way
Witness. No sir

THE COURT is closed to consider the objection of the defending officer to the statement.

THE COURT re-assemble. The Court decide to hear the evidence of the defence in support of the objection.

The first witness for the prosection withdraws, subject to recall.

THE ACCUSED No A-55806 Gnr Kenneth Christopher Maitland, 1 Cdn Survey Regt, R.C.A., being duly sworn is examined by the defending officer:

Q-4 Would you tell the Court in your own words exactly what happened from the time the Provost picked you up until you were put in the jail in Ionia.

A-4 Well, the first thing I can remember I was on a truck and some one was throwing water on me. Then they took me up to the police barracks and changed my clothes. I got some dry clothes and then they made me stand to attention by the desk and kept asking me to make out a statement. I wrote down twice what I did know about it and they said that would not do and I stood there I do not know how long, possibly two hours. I asked for a drink of water and they said when I had written something I could have a drink. They kept impressing on me what I did or what they said I did and I finally made a statement.

Q-5 What happened after that?

A-5 I was there in the jail at Ionia for about four or five days and wrote a letter to the Town Major and told him that I was in the jail there, and the next day I was brought up here to the regimental guard room

Q-6 Would you explain how you were treated physically

A-6 I was standing there and they kept asking me questions, I was still pretty drunk and could not understand and if I made a mistake they would slap me up

Court Did they actually lay a hand on you
Witness Yes sir

Court Give us the details, can you remember actually what happened?
Witness No sir, when I said I did not know anything they kept trying to make me write out a statement

Court How did they keep trying
Witness They kept talking about breakfast and said I could have breakfast when I wrote something out. I asked to go to the lavatory. They said I could go to the lavatory after I wrote out a statement.

Q-7 What result did these slappings have on you, did they leave any marks?

A-7 My ear was all cut up, I had one black eye, my head was all covered with bumps

Court Who was in the office or wherever you were at the time

Witness I believe it was the provost corporal and the clerk I believe and a couple of others

Court All provost personnel

Witness Yes sir

Court Exactly when in the proceedings at the Provost H.Q. was the statement before us written. Can you remember the time it was written, was it daylight?

Witness Yes sir, it was quite a time after breakfast. I asked to go to the toilet, they would not allow me to go before I had written something

J.A. When these slaps were administered was Sgt Inge in the place?

Witness I do not know for sure sir

J.A. Did it happen in the guard room

Witness No, in the office

J.A. Who was there

Witness I know there was one full corporal, Canadian, and the clerk

J.A. You cannot remember if the sergeant was there or not

Witness I know he was in and out of the place but I can't remember if he was there at those times

J.A. Who administered these slaps

Witness By all of them sir

J.A. Tell us exactly what happened

Witness I can't remember very much sir I was still pretty foggy, pretty drunk that is about as far as I can make out

J.A. When you wrote the statement did you take the words out of your own head, how did you write it?

Witness They kept asking me what I did but I did not know and they kept impressing me with what they thought I did so I wrote it down

J.A. Did you write at their dictation

Witness No sir not exactly but I had to write something

J.A. What time was it you asked for water, what time of the night?

Witness After daylight sir

J.A. You had not had any breakfast then

Witness No sir

J.A. What time did you get breakfast?

Witness I am not certain

J.A. How long after you had written the statement

Witness Right after that sir

Court You heard the sergeant say a warning was given to you. Was it given to you?

Witness Not that I can remember sir

The witness withdraws

THE COURT is closed to consider the question of the admissibility of the alleged voluntary statement produced by the first witness for the prosecution.

THE COURT is re-opened. The ruling of the Court on the objection of the defence to the statement produced by the first witness for the prosecution is that the statement will not be admitted, the opinion of the Court being based on para 79, Chap VI, p.93, M.M.L. which states: "Though a confession obtained by fraud or deception, or under a promise of secrecy or from a drunken man or by other questioning may be legally admissible, yet the person obtaining it will expose himself to judicial censure, and the judge may even consider himself justified in excluding the statement if the confession was an unguarded answer made in circumstances that made it unreliable. pr for some other reason unfair to be allowed in evidence against the prisoner." The law is further stated in Stone's Justices' Manual, p.283, which states: "It has long been established as a positive rule of English criminal law that no statement by an accused person is admissible in evidence against him unless it is shown by the prosecution to have been a voluntary statement, in the sense that it has not been obtained from him either by fear or prejudice or hope of advantage exercised or held out by a person in authority. The prosecution must satisfy the judge that it was free and voluntary."

For these reasons THE COURT decide to maintain the objection of the defence to the statement and the statement is not admitted in evidence.

At 12.15 p.m. the Court adjourn for lunch and re-assemble at 1.30 p.m, at which time the accused is again brought before the Court and the trial proceeds.

He drank the wine and then struck me with the weapon and threatened my fifteen year old boy who was present. He chased my son out of the house. He then shot off a number of rounds. He kept saying over and over again "Signora, vino". I was left alone with him in the house and I was very worried, I kept saying "There is no wine left". Thinking I could get him out of the house I said "Let us go and get some more wine" and made him understand by gestures that we were to go together.
A few yards from my house we passed a well, I could not speak his language, but I tried to make him understand that a drink of water would do him good. He was carrying the bottle which we were going to fill with wine in the village. He smashed the bottle on the well and tried to take me by the waist and throw me in. I shook myself loose and kept saying to him "Come, come, let us get wine in the village".
A few steps from there he took off his greatcoat put it on the ground and motioned me to lie down on it. I kept saying to him "Come, come, let us buy wine in the village". I picked up his greatcoat and a few steps from there he struck me with the weapon he was carrying. The force of the blow made me fall to the ground and there was a struggle; he pointed the weapon at me, I got to my feet, I do not know how, and made for the house of my neighbour Salvatore di Bella.
He followed me to this house. I knocked on the door saying "Open, I need help" or something of the kind. They opened the door, he asked for wine and cigarettes. They told him they

A-143 (cont) no wine and he then threatened them with the gun. I tried to calm him. Salvatore di Bella found a finger of wine which he gave him, and he gave him some Sicilian fruit which he did not touch probably because he did not know what it was. Somebody came to lend a hand but they were not able to come as far as the house because he was threatening them. We were inside the house of Salvatore di Bella. A few minutes later he threatened Salvatore di Bella and told him to get out. As Salvatore di Bella went out of the house this soldier fired several rounds in the direction in which he had gone. There then remained in the house two women and the children. He motioned the wife of Salvatore di Bella towards the bed in the house. He tried to take the clothes off the wife of Salvatore di Bella. This poor woman pointed to her children and pleaded with him saying "You are making a scandal", then I took him by the arm; he turned and struck me splitting my lip. I cried out and then he placed his hand over my mouth. While this was going on the wife of Salvatore di Bella made off with two of her children. I could not escape myself. He kept pointing the weapon at me and made me understand that I was to lie down. Then he carried me, using force, to the bed in the other room. That individual then tore off my clothes and did to me those brutal things he wanted to do.

Q-144 Explain exactly what he did

Q-146 What do you mean by his organ
A-146 I know no other word for it, I mean his male organ. I do not know the learned words for these things

Q-147 Continue, please
A-147 When he had satisfied his desires on me he carried me into the other room, he made me sit on the other bed, I do not know what he wanted me to do. Something happened in the other room, he went to see what it was, something happened, I do not know what, but I escaped. He remained behind in the house of Salvatore di Bella with an eight year old girl. I do not know more because I went away. I was carried back to the house after this soldier had been put under arrest.

Q-278 In what way did you become acquainted with him
A-278 The accused is under treatment at present

Q-279 For what
A-279 For V.D.S.

Q-280 His treatment is not completed
A-280 No, not completed

Q-281 Has Gnr Maitland spoken to you about his disease
A-281 From time to time he has

Q-282 Could you tell the Court what his attitude was in regard to it
A-282 He seemed to take the matter seriously and reported regularly for treatment, otherwise his attitude was quite normal

Q-283 When you say he took the matter seriously would you say he was worried about it, about his condition
A-283 Yes, I think he was worried about it

Q-284 When did he take his last treatment
A-284 His last actual treatment was about six weeks ago

Q-285 How often are they given
A-285 Normally they are given every week, but he has been having rest periods

Q-286 When was his next treatment due
A-286 It is due now

Q-287 Is it overdue
A-287 A week or so overdue

Q-288 These treatments, was it important to miss no treatments in order to effect a cure
A-288 Yes it is important a patient should not miss any treatments

Q-289 He has missed one now. Had he missed it on the date of 12 DEC 43, was it past due then?
A-289 I cannot be sure about that

Q-290 When was the last time he came to see you
A-290 I cannot give you the exact date of that, ever since we came to Zafferani I do not think I have seen him since we came here, for treatments that is

Q-291 Could this disease affect a man mentally, that is cause him excessive mental worry and thereby affect his actions or normal behaviour, is that possible?
A-291 Yes, it is

Q-292 Do you think it might have done in Maitland's case, did you get the impression that he was worrying enough to cause anything like that
A-292 I do not think I understand your question

Q-293 Did you notice the extent to which Maitland was worried more than other patients you may have had
A-293 No I do not think he was unduly preoccupied

Q-294 Is mental worry associated with this disease in some stages more than others
A-294 Yes

Q-295 Is Maitland's stage at present one of those where mental worry is more noticeable

A-295 People who suffer from this disease may worry at any stage of it, some people worry even before they have it; there is a definite pysche-neurosis peculiar to such people, but I do not think he was suffering from that

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR

Q-296 Was it explained to Gnr Maitland that there would be rest periods in his treatment

A-296 Yes he was aware that he was having a rest period at the time

Q-297 How long are these rest periods

A-297 Usually a month, sometimes longer

QUESTIONED BY THE COURT

Q-298 In what stage of V.D.S. is the accused at present

A-298 I do not think I can answer that question , I can tell you he was in the primary stage when the treatment was taken

Q-299 Can you say whether it has progressed or been arrested

A-299 It has been arrested, definitely

Q-300 In its present stage is there any likelihood of their being an aggravation of sex desire

A-300 I cannot answer that question

Q-301 At the stage of the disease at which the accused is now would alcohol have a greater than normal effect upon him

A-301 I have never heard of that being the case

Q-302 Is the present stage of the disease communicable

A-302 No, I do not think it is in this case

Q-303 Do you think the fact these treatments were overdue would lead to more mental anxiety than usual

A-303 I think it is possible. I know he came several times during the rest period asking when treatment would be given. During this time we were on the move and did not have the material. Normally they do not come for treatment and you have to get them paraded

Q-304 The accused took a conscientious interest in becoming cured

A-304 Yes

Q-305 What effect would the disease have, apart from the psycho-neurological effect would it have any?

A-305 There is no evidence of syphilis affecting his brain or nerves, at the same time all patients with syphilis tend to worry

In the opinion of the Court and the J.A. it is not necessary to comply with R.P.83(B)

The witness withdraws

THE DEFENCE IS CLOSED

DEFENDING OFFICER'S CLOSING ADDRESS

I have not a great deal to say in summing up, sir, except that from the evidence that has been brought I think it is plain that the accused was quite drunk and not altogether responsible for what he was doing at the time combined with this worry from the disease that he had.

I think that also from the evidence in regard to the first charge no real proof has been brought that he did commit that offence. I think the amount of resistance that the woman put up, well I do not think it was adequate, that it shows entire unwillingness on her part.

Other than that I do not think there is a great deal I can say other than the other charges he pleaded guilty to, but at this time there is nothing more.

THE PROSECUTOR ADDRESSES THE COURT.

I think the evidence of the victim in this case of rape, Cavallaro Grazia, is quite clear as to the defence statement that there were signs of co-operation.

I fail to see that as she suffered a wound on the scalp as well as one on the face for resisting, she was threatened by a loaded Tommy Gun and had there been any co-operation she would not have gone to a neighbour's house where she would be under observation.

The question of the accused being under the influence of liquor does not hold a great deal of weight as drunkenness is no excuse for any offence, this has been laid down and I think is understood by all members of the Canadian Army.

THE JUDGE-ADVOCATE MAKES THE FOLLOWING SUMMING UP.

1. The accused before the Court is charged under Section 41 of the Army Act, with:

"When in a place not within His Majesty's Dominions, committing a civil offence, that is to say, rape, in that he, in the Field, at Santa Venerina La Nera, in Sicily, on or about 12 DEC 43, did rape Cavallaro Grazia di Mario, fu Anna d'Urso."

2. Section 41 of the Army Act introduces the jurisdiction of this Court over a purely civil offence.

3. Now what is the offence as charged. The definition of "rape" as we find it in, Ch.VII, para 37, p.113 of M.M.L. is:

"Rape is the act of a man having carnal knowledge without her consent of a female who is not his wife. Penetration is considered to constitute carnal knowledge; it must therefore be proved that there was actual penetration of the female organ by some part of the male organ. The slightest penetration will be sufficient."

It will be up to the Court to decide whether there was evidence of penetration. The woman, Cavallaro Grazia, states that the organ of the accused penetrated into her body.

4. Now the other essential element which has to be proved, and which it is up to the prosecution to prove, is lack of consent. It will be up to the Court to decide from the evidence whether there was consent or lack of it. On this question of consent or lack of consent quoting from the same section and paragraph of M.M.L. we find:

"Consent, to be an excuse, must be actual consent, and not mere submission, and it must be voluntary, and not extorted by force or duress or fear of immediate bodily harm."

It is again up to the Court to decide whether Cavallaro Grazia was actuated by fear in submitting, if she did submit, to the assault. There is evidence that the accused had a Tommy Gun, and if the Court comes to the conclusion that this was sufficient to put fear into the victim you have evidence there was lack of consent.

5. If on the other hand the Court consider the victim should not have feared and her consent might have been given, then again it will be for the Court to decide according to the evidence.

6. Now as far as drunkenness is concerned. The accused has brought in defence the fact that he was drunk to such an extent he does not remember what happened. Again I quote from M.M.L. Chap.III. para 48, p.25 which states:

"Drunkenness often has to be considered by Courts-Martial not as an offence itself, but in relation to greater offences, which it accompanies. It is a principle of English law that drunkenness is no excuse for crime. But where intention is of the essence of the offence drunkenness may justify a Court-Martial in awarding a less punishment than the offence would otherwise have deserved, or reduce the offence to one of a less serious character."

Now also I wish to quote Stone's Justices' Manual, Part V, page 686, on the question of criminal responsibility:

"Insanity whether produced by drink or otherwise is a defence to a criminal charge even though it is only temporary as a result of drunkenness. Where a specific intent is a necessary ingredient of the offence charged, evidence of a state of drunkenness rendering the accused incapable of forming such intent should be taken into consideration with the other facts proved in determining whether he had that intent. Evidence of drunkenness falling short of that incapacity though it may establish a more ready tendency to some violent passion does not rebut the presumption that a man intends the natural consequences of his acts."

Again it will be a matter for the Court to decide whether the accused was in such a state of drunkenness that he could not form any kind of intent, and could not form an intent as to any act he might have done.

On the same point Chap.VII, para 8, p.105 of M.M.L. reads:

"A person cannot be convicted on a criminal charge in respect of an act done or omission made by him if it is proved that at the time when he did the act or made the omission he was labouring under such defect of reason through disease of the mind as made him incapable of knowing the nature and quality of the act he was doing, or, if he did know it, that such an act was wrong.-----Every person is however presumed to be sane and to be responsible for his acts until the contrary is proved, and it must, therefore, be clearly established by the defence that the accused is brought within the terms of the exception as above laid down before he can have the benefit of it."

so again it will be up to the Court to decide if the accused was sane or if evidence was brought to establish that the accused was in a state of temporary insanity on account of his drunkenness

In closing may I add that the duty of the J.A. is to advise the Court on points of law, it is for the Court and the Court alone to decide on any question of fact raised in the trial.and in coming to any decision I must point out to the Court that should there be any reasonable doubt in their minds that the accused did not commit the offence as alleged then such reasonable doubt must be rendered in favour of the accused.

PLEA IN MITIGATION OF PUNISHMENT.

I would like to say in mitigation of punishment that the accused is an American citizen and was not called upon to join the Canadian Army but did so presumably because he thought the cause was one of which he was in favour.

During his time in the Army he has had several offences, nothing serious, nothing in any way like the charges against him now, an A.W.L. and a charge of drunkenness. In no case has he been violent, his whole behavious in this case is entirely at variance with anything known about him previously.

I would like to point out that he has only been a short time in this country and was entirely unfamiliar with the effect of this wine. A person who could drink a certain amount in England finds he cannot drink the same amount here. There have been cases of a number of persons becoming violent after drinking wine.

He also was suffering from a disease causing him a great deal of mental worry. I think a combination of the two could quite easily make him behave in quite an unusual manner.

I have seen myself a man in the last ten days who fortunately for himself was near barracks and who had to be held down by about ten men, it was entirely due to the wine.

As far as the rape charge is concerned, I think it is so foreign to the man in every way. There must be some explanation other than sexual desire. I do not think he was responsible in any way for what he did, and I think his record in the Army proves that.

THE ACCUSED STATES IN MITIGATION.

I have not much to add to that, sir, ever since I have been in the Army I have been in hospital most of the time, but it does not seem possible that I could rape a woman when I was drunk because I never felt that way about them when I was drunk. I do not think I could even have an erection. I was drunk and I guess that is about all, sir.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE in the case of A-55806 Gnr Kenneth Christopher MAITLAND, "Q" Battery, 1 Cdn Svy Regt, R.C.A.

By direction of the Commanding Officer the evidence is taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS. Cavallaro Grazia di Mario, daughter of the latem D'Urso Anna, 69 Via Alessandro Volta, Santa Venerina, Sicily, being duly sworn, stees:

I recognize the accused as theseoldier who came to my house on the night of the 12 DEC 43. I last previously saw the accused on that night.

I was in bed on the night in question and had been sleeping fer some time when I was awakened by a loud knocking at the door - the time would be somewhere between 10.30 and 11.00 o'clock.

I went to the door and the accused said to me "Signora, vino. I told him I had none. He then thrust the Tommy gun which he was carrying into my stomach md came into the house.

Thinking I could calm him by giving him a glass of wine I got a half filled bottle which I had and a glass and poured him out a drink.

My 15 year old son was in the room and the accused pointd his gun at the boy, swore at him, thratened him and chased him out.

When he had finished the wine he demanded more - I had no more. By gestures I made him understand that the two of us should go out together and get some wine hoping to get him out of the house in this fashion.

We set out to get some more wine and as we were passing the well near my house I asked him whethe or not hewanted a drink of water. I finally made him understand and he became vey angry and took and teck the bottle which I was carrying to get the wine and threw itinto the well. He then seized me by thewaist and attempted to throw me into the well. I shook myself loose and took him by the arm saying "Come, come, let us go along and get the wine."

About 20 yards further on he took off his coat and threw it on theground and by gestures told me to lie down on it. I refused. He then struck me with the gun and wounded me on the left side of the head. I fell to theground. While I was lying there he pointd the gun at me. I rolled ove quickly and got to my fet, and wet along to the house of my neighbour Salvatoreedi Bella who was at home with his wife and three children.

The accused came in and sat down and pointing his gun he demanded wine. ~~He was gifen I mean when I was coming out in the [illegible] Salvatore di Bella. He drank Either the wine was gone~~ He tried to remove a ring, a wedding ring from the third finger of my left hand.

~~[illegible]~~

He then motioned me and the wife of Salvatore di Bella towards the bed and this woman begged ith me to take the man away.

For no apparent reason he decided to shot off a few shots from his gun firing in the gneral direction in which Salvatore di Bella had disappeared.

I trie to coax him to come away quietly and he turned on me and struck me full in the mouth with his fist splitting my lower lip. I cried out and he covered my mouth with his hand. While this was going on the wife of Salvztore di Bella and the two younger children left the house, a nine year old girl was left behind.

The nine year old girl remained in another room. The accused picked me up carried me to the adjoining room placd me on the bed and raped me. He threw me on the bed, he tore off my underclothes he laid himself on my body and raped me. His penis entered my body.

Afterwards he carried me back to the other room and was walking about the rom with his penis hanging out of his clothes and carrying the gun, some civilians passed and he pointed the gun in thir direction and while his attention was directed towards them I escaped.

(The witness identified the Tommy Gun, exhibit "A" as being similar to the one used by the accused)

Plea of Mitigation of sentence in the case of
F.44842 Pte. Vernon MacNaughton -

Pte MacNaughton joined the Canadian Army in 1938. He was called up with the Picton Highlanders on the day that war was declared, and came overseas early in 1940 with the W.N.S.R. He was with that Reg't until he came to Italy and joined the 48 Highrs in Dec. 1943.

While in England Pte MacNaughton was married and has had many domestic worries.

Realizing that he has committed an offense against the A.A. he has thrown himself on the mercy of the court.

I feel that he would be of much greater use fighting with his unit then in a detention camp, and I would like to recommend to the court that he receive the minimum sentenc e and be returned to his unit as soon as possible.

Plea of Mitigation of sentence in the case of
F. 44842 Pte. Lemon Mac Naughton —

Pte Mac Naughton joined the Canadian Army in 1938. He was called up with the Picton Highlanders on the day that war was declared, and came overseas early in 1940 with the W.N.S.R. He was with that Regt. until he came to Italy and joined the 48 Highrs in Dec. 1943.

While in England Pte Mac Naughton was married and has had many domestic worries.

Realizing that he has committed an offense against the A.A. he has thrown himself on the mercy of the court.

I feel that he would be of much greater use fighting with his unit than in a detention camp, and I would like to recommend to the court that he receive the minimum sentence and be returned to his unit as soon as possible.

M.B. Bell Saint.
Defending Officer.

STATEMENT BY ACCUSED:

When he left to go on the loose..

---PRESIDENT: Just say when I left.

When I left to go on the loose, I only left to go for three days. When I was going to come back my mother was sick in bed and she was scared they were going to send me overseas; and my mother is a mother that could die any minute; and my sister told me if I left it was really the end of my mother.

I tried to come back after, but it was always the same thing; they were always saying the same story.

In the end of four months I decided to come back anyway.

That's all.

---PRESIDENT: Ask him if there is anything further ~~now~~ he would like to say.

---ACCUSED: That is the only reason, sir.

---PRESIDENT: That's all he wishes to say.

---INTERPRETER: That is all he wishes to say.

E

Proceedings on Conviction before Sentence

After the Court has arrived at a Finding on all the charges against the accused and such Finding has been announced to the accused, the Prosecutor will tender to the President M.F.B. 355, together ,when it is possible, with an M.F.M. 6.

These documents are read to the Court by the President, are marked "Y" and "Z", signed by the President and annexed to the proceedings.

Question to the accused. Have you any statement to make concerning the documents which have just been read to you?

Answer. No, sir.

Question to the accused. Do you wish to address the Court?

Answer. He wishes his officer to speak for him.

The Sentence is then recorded on Page "A' of the proceedings and same is announced to the accused in open Court.

The President then completes and signs the "Warrant of Commitment", if any, which shall be transmitted forthwith to the Commanding Officer of the accused. He will also complete and sign in every case, the "Certificate of trial by Standing Court-Martial", and address same as directed by the regulations. The proceedings, with all documents, will be transmitted to the Judge Advocate General.

STATEMENT BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER IN MITIGATION OF PUNISHMENT:

Sir, in view of the statement made, and conversation with the accused, it seems to me that he has a very sympathetic nature; also the reason for him being absent without leave is on account of his own people, his mother being sick and liable to pass out at any time. His father is not in the best of health. Through the love of his mother and father the boy could not break away.

He is willing, as he told me, to do a good job at soldiering, but under the circumstances, he was unable to do it, on account of his family.

I would ask the Court to be as lenient as possible in the sentence to be imposed on the accused; also to take into consideration he has also been eight days while waiting trial.

That's all, sir.

---PRESIDENT: Major Judd, may I ask you several questions. Can you tell me if the accused is married or single ?

---DEFENDING OFFICER: Single.

---PRESIDENT: Would you tell me where his mother and father live ?

---DEFENDING OFFICER: I don't know.

---PROSECUTOR: Look in his documents.

---DEFENDING OFFICER: Mr. Louis Mosca, address of next-of-kin, 7059 Drolet Street, Montreal Quebec.

---PRESIDENT: Will you give his PULHEMS profile.

---DEFENDING OFFICER: Two under the "M"; the others all one. I have no record of his training at all.

Dear Mr. Gillis:

Re: F-55206, Pte. Gerald Murphy

I have your letter of the 14th of November, with reference to the above named soldier.

I am sure I need not explain that it is not the desire of the Department to keep any soldier in detention for any longer than the interests of justice and discipline require, and for that reason periodic reviews are made.

I am however bringing your letter to the attention of the appropriate officers of the Department and Mrs. Murphy can be assured that when her son's case is again reviewed, no extenuating circumstances in connection with it will be overlooked.

Yours very truly,

This soldier was sentenced 27 Nov 44 to 2 years imprisonment without hard labour. RO 5913 states that,

"in cases where the SUS, upon arrival in Cda, has not served one-half of his sentence,.... review may be postponed to coincide with the review which (in the case of soldiers sentenced in Cda) will take place prior to the date when one-half of the sentence will have been served."

2. In the present case, this means that sentence need not be reviewed until shortly before 27 Nov 45.

3. As this soldier was only returned from O/S recently, there has not yet been sufficient time for the DOC to judge his conduct. It is therefore, not considered that a review should be ordered at the present time.

Dear Mr. Gillis,

Re: F.55206, Private Murphy

General McNaughton has asked me to acknowledge receipt of your letter of 7 July, 1945, in connection with the above mentioned soldier, and he has directed me to secure full information on the offence, sentence and any review which has taken place in this case.

In your letter you ask whether the Department has worked out a policy as to the future of the large number of soldiers returned to Canada in custody. I am not quite sure whether I have caught your exact meaning. These men, however, are not in any different position from men who have remained overseas in custody or the ones who were sentenced here in the first place. Their sentences are reviewed from time to time with the object of releasing any soldier from detention just as soon as the interests of justice and military discipline are considered to warrant such action being taken.

If I have not entirely covered the point here, perhaps you would like to write me again on this subject.

Yours very truly,

Private Secretary to

Dear Sir:

I am writing you on behalf of Mrs Michael Murphy, Reserve Mines, Nova Scotia, Her son #F-55206 with five years service was wounded, went absent without leave and was sentenced to two years detention. He is presently back in Canada in detention in Kingston.

This boy was eighteen years of age when he enlisted. In consideration of his service I feel after serving approximately a year in detention something could be done regarding his release and returning him to civil life as he is serving no useful purpose where he is, and the parents are in need of his help.

I wonder if you might drop me a line and advise me if the department has worked out a policy as to the future of the large number of boys returned to Canada presently undergoing detention. Your co-operation in this matter will be appreciated, I am

Very truly yours,

1. The m/n soldier is now serving a sentence of 2 years imprisonment awarded by FGCM 27 Nov 44 for an offence under AA Sec 12(1)(a) and an offence under AA Sec 15(1). He has so far earned full remissions for good conduct while serving his sentence, and the earliest date on which he should be released, if he continues so to-do, is 29 Mar 46.

2. This soldier was serving with the Cdn Forces in Italy at the time of his FGCM and his sentence has been served so far in that theatre.

3. Att hereto is a copy of the relevant portions of the Review Sheet used at CMHQ showing the date of this soldier's enlistment and his record of any previous army or civil offences.

4. A Neuropsychiatrist and S.P.O. have examined this soldier, and in making the direction and recommendations herein their findings and reports have been given full consideration. He is reported as being fit to undergo his sentence, but unsuitable for further combatant service.

5. In view of the serious nature of the offence of which this soldier has been convicted, his previous record and all available reports, it is considered that he should serve his present sentence in full and thereafter be discharged for misconduct under the provisions of para 8 of Appx to C.A.R.O. 1029, and it is so recommended. It is probable that this soldier has misconducted himself for the purpose of obtaining his discharge.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)

(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans.....(5)

(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 5 para 3, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)

(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex....., initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)

(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

NB: If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

Proceedings on Plea of Not Guilty.

Question. *Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity for preparing your defence?

Answer. No sir.

~~The prosecutor makes an opening address (hands in a written address which is read, marked signed by the President, and attached to the proceedings.)~~

The prosecutor proceeds to call witnesses.

First witness for prosecution. 7L7X2773 Marine James Howarth, 30 Assault Unit, Royal Marine Commando, British Army being duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor.

Q.1 Will you repeat your regtl number, rank, name and unit to the court pls?
A.1 I am 7L7X2773 Marine James Howarth of the 30th Assault Unit, British Army.
Q.2 On the evening 15 Jan where were you?
A.2 In the Stoke Hotel at Guildford.
Q.3 For what purpose were you in the Stoke Hotel?
A.3 Entertainment.
Q.4 Which consisted of what?
A.4 Dancing.
Q.5 While in the Stoke Hotel dancing did anything happen?
A.5 Yes sir, I went to the bar room of the Stoke Hotel and I saw a Cdn Offr throw a glass on the floor. I went over to the Cdn Offr and said that that was no way for an offr to act in a public place and I said to the offr that if it was a fellow like myself I would be put under escort and a charge would be made against me. A second Cdn Offr then came to me and said, "What has it got to do with you?" He then said that the Cdns in this room should be back in Canada... I said..... .

DEFENDING OFFR: I object to this line of testimony. It has nothing to do with the profanity alleged in this charge. I don't care whether he discussed national politics or not. It is not the duty of the court to enquire into a political argument at a bar. The question is, was there any profane language used in the hotel in such a loud voice as to create a disturbance.

PRESIDENT: I think his evidence is all part of the circumstances of the case.

Witness continues:- A second Cdn Offr then told me to "Piss off", and I was taking him up at his word and was going away when a Cdn Sgt came up and began talking to the second Cdn Offr.
Q.6 Have you seen this second Cdn Offr since?

A.6 Yes sir, sitting in the court room now.
Q.7 Which one is it?
A.7 That one (witness indicates accused)
Q.8 At the time of this incident were there any people in the bar?
A.8 Yes sir.
Q.9 It was quite crowded?
A.9 Yes sir.
Q.10 What would you say as to the condition of the offr?
A.10 Well sir the offr that I spoke to first was under the influence of drink and so also was the second offr.

DEFENDING OFFR: I object to that. He is not competent to judge whether the offr was under the influence of drink or not?

PRESIDENT TO WITNESS: You musn't express opinions.

Q.11 Would you say then that the offr was aware of what he was saying when he made the remark to you?
A.11 Yes sir.
Q.12 Did you have any further conversation with this offr at any other time?
A.12 No sir.
Q.13 Was anything said with ref to the breaking of the glass?
A.13 As I walked away from the offr I heard him say to the Cdn Sgt that he would have the "God damn" glass replaced.
Q.14 Did you then remain in the hall?
A.14 I went up to the bar after that and about 5 mins after the Cdn Sgt came up to me and asked would I give a statement to his Commanding Officer.
Q.15 Did you have further conversation with the offr?
A.15 No sir.

CROSS EXAMINED BY THE DEFENCE

Q.16 How long have you been in the Army?
A.16 6½ years sir.
Q.17 Is it the custom in the British Army for other ranks to catechise offrs publicly for their conduct?
A.17 No sir.
Q.18 By what right did you go up and speak to him - were you on duty?
A.18 No sir.
Q.19 Was it your duty to go up and discuss his conduct?
A.19 We were discussing the glass sir.
Q.20 Are you a regular soldier?
A.20 Yes sir.
Q.21 Surely if this was one of your own offrs you wouldn't dare to presume to go up to a bar, under any circumstances, and question his conduct, or any other offr's conduct in your unit would you?
A.21 If he was creating a disturbance, yes sir.
Q.22 Are you definitely sure that you saw this offr deliberately break the glass?
A.22 Yes sir.
Q.23 Saw him just pick it up and throw it on the floor?
A.23 He dropped it on the floor.
Q.24 This was not the offr sitting beside me?
A.24 No sir.
Q.25 Are you testifying that this offr said to you, "Piss off"?
A.25 Yes sir.
Q.26 You are sure he didn't say, "Push off"?
A.26 Yes sir.

DEFENDING OFFR TO COURT: I would like the court to take note that this phrase is peculiar to the British Army - it is NOT a Cdn expression. If the same thought needed to be conveyed by a Cdn he would use an equally vulgar but an entirely different expression. I have never heard a Cdn use that expression.

JGB

Q.27 Was there anyone else who heard this conversation?
A.27 Quite possible - but not that I am aware of.
Q.28 You do not know whether anyone overheard this conversation except yourself?
A.28 No sir.
Q.29 In other words it is a conversation between you and the accused and this other unknown offr?
A.29 Yes sir.
Q.30 You know of the names of anyone who could have possibly overheard this conversation?
A.30 Yes sir.
Q.31 Who?
A.31 My two mates who were with me.
Q.32 Are they here today?
A.32 In Guildford sir.
Q.33 Did they come up to the offr?
A.33 No sir; but they were about 15 yards away.
Q.34 They could hear it all?
A.34 I wouldn't aware that they did. I said it was possible that they could have.
Q.35 Well as far as you know there was no one else who heard this conversation other than the three of you?
A.35 Yes sir.

BY THE COURT:

Q.36 I would like to know what is the word he was saying. What did they say at the bar? The only word that I can understand was "Piss off" and the other one was "I will replace the "God-damn" glass" - are those the only two words?
A.36 Yes sir, the only word that was said to me was "Piss off".

BY THE JA:

Q.37 Who said "Piss Off" and "I will replace the "God damn" glass"?
A.37 Lieut McKibbon.
Q.38 And in what tone of voice was it said?
A.38 The one that he said to me, "Piss off", was in an agressive tone.

DEFENDING OFFR: I object. He isn't well enough acquainted with the accused to state that it was in an agressive tone of voice. He isn't qualified or competent enough to testify to that.

(In the opinion of the court and of the JA it is not necessary to comply with RP 53(B))

2nd Witness Prosecution } 2997637 Sgt Malcolm Clement DEGROW, C Prov C, 9 Prov Coy, duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor:-

Q.39 Will you repeat your regtl number, rank & name to the court?
A.39 I am 2997637 Sgt Malcolm Clement Degrow of 9 Prov Coy.
Q.40 On the evening of 15th Jan where were you?
A.40 In the Stoke Dance Hall and Bar in Guildford.
Q.41 And for what purpose?
A.41 I was NCO in charge of entertainment committee supertising the dance.
Q.42 Were there many people at the dance?
A.42 Yes sir, quite a number of people.
Q.43 The hall was fairly well packed?
A.43 Yes sir.
Q.44 During the course of the evening did anything happen?
A.44 Yes sir, an incident happened at about 2210 hrs. There was an offr drinking and as he finished his drink he had the glass in his right hand and deliberately threw it in the air and it fell to the floor. Right after it was broken, Mr Kerry of the dance hall approached me and told me that a glass had been deliberately broken by this offr and to see that this didn't happen again.

Q.45 As a result of this what did you do?
A.45 I approached the nearest offr to me, which was Mr McKibbon, of 9 Prov Coy, and explained the situation to him that Mr Kerry had complained to me about it and to see that it didn't occur again. Mr McKibbon replied to me "Is it the "God-damn" glass they're worrying about or the price?" I explained to Mr McKibbon it was not the price it was the trouble to obtain the glass, and he replied "It is the "God-damn" glass they're worrying about - I will replace the glass". I informed Mr McKibbon that this was not the time or the place for such language and he told me he would use this language when and where he pleased. I informed Mr McKibbon I would have to ask him to leave the hall, to which he replied he would not have to leave the dance hall now or any other time. I immediately contacted Capt Quirk.of 9 Prov Coy and explained the situation and asked for his assistance.
Q.46 Did you know who broke this glass?
A.46 Yes sir.
Q.47 Who was it?
A.47 Lieut Worsell of 9 Prov Coy.
Q.48 When Mr McKibbon spoke to you about replacement for the glass what tone of voice did he use?
A.48 Very loud.
Q.49 Were there other people present at the time?
A.49 Yes sir.
Q.50 Did you notice anyone else talking to Mr McKibbon at that time?
A.50 Not at that time.
Q.51 Did you have further conversation with Lt McKibbon?
A.51 No sir.
Q.52 You reported the matter to Capt Quirk your C.O.?
A.52 Yes sir.
Q.53 So far as you were concerned you had no further part in the proceedings?
A.53 Yes sir.

CROSS EXAMINED BY THE DEFENCE

Q.54 Where were you when this glass breaking incident took place?
A.54 I was standing approx 10 ft behind Mr Worsell.
Q.55 What is the lay-out of this place any way?
A.55 There are two rooms, one is used as a dance hall and there is an entrance to the dance hall from the bar through a doorway. Both are two different rooms about the same size.
Q.56 You were inside the bar about 8-10 ft away?
A.56 Yes sir.
Q.57 In the bar?
A.57 Not exactly sir.
Q.58 Where were both of you approx in relation to the centre of the room, that is, the dancehall?
A.58 Mr Worsell was just inside the entrance to the bar and I was standing near the doorway at the entrance to the dance hall.
Q.59 Your capacity at that dance was what?
A.59 NCO in charge.
Q.60 And you saw this offr deliberately pick up a glass and smash it on the floor?
A.60 No sir, I saw the offr deliberately throw the glass in the air and it dropped to the floor.
Q.61 What did you do then?
A.61 Mr Kerry contacted me and made a complaint and then I spoke to Mr McKibbon.
Q.62 As NCO in charge of the dance did you wait for the manager to make a complaint?
A.62 No sir I didn't have time. Mr Kerry just jumped on me straight away before I could do anything.
Q.63 And he was right along side you?
A.63 He was very close to me.
Q.64 If Mr Kerry hadn't spoken to you would you have done anything about it?
A.64 Yes sir.

J.A.B.

Q.65 Now, inasmuch as Mr Worsel is the one who did this act how do you account for the fact that you came up and charged Mr McKibbon with some responsibility ref this thing?
A.65 I did not charge Mr McKibbon with anything.
Q.66 But you went up and spoke to him?
A.66 Yes.
Q.67 Why?
A.67 Because he was the soberist man of the two offrs.
Q.68 Well, is that any reason why he should be responsible for the act?
A.68 No sir.
Q.69 Why then did you address him?
A.69 He was the first offr I came to.
Q.70 Did you have any conversation with Mr McKibbon ref that glass that night after the incident?
A.70 No sir.
Q.71 During the incident?
A.71 Yes.
Q.72 Didn't you tell Mr McKibbon you didn't see the glass broken?
A.72 No sir.
Q.73 You said that Mr McKibbon spoke, ref this conversation, in a loud voice?
A.73 Yes.
Q.74 You would say other people heard the conversation - who were they?
A.74 Well quite a number of people were around there.
Q.75 Can you name one?
A.75 No, not right off-hand. Mr Worsel was close enough to hear it; but whether he did or not I don't know.
Q.76 He was standing close to Mr McKibbon?
A.76 Yes sir.
Q.77 Did Mr Kerry hear this conversation?
A.77 No sir.
Q.78 Where was Mr Kerry?
A.78 Where I left him about 10 ft away.
Q.79 Well if it was in such a loud voice at 10 ft away couldn't he hear the conversation?
A.79 Not necessarily.
Q.80 How long have you been in the Army?
A.80 4 years 22 Oct last.
Q.81 Have you been in the habit ordinarily of giving offrs orders?
A.81 No sir.
Q.82 Didn't you testify that you order Mr McKibbon to leave the dance hall?
A.82 I said, "I shall have to ask you to leave the dance hall".
Q.83 Why didn't you go to your senior offr, Capt Quirk?
A.83 Capt Quirk knew that I was in charge and handling the discipline of this dance and therefore I didn't think it necessary to contact Mr Quirk as I was in charge.
Q.84 Now I want to establish this point clearly: The reason you spoke to Mr McKibbon is because you didn't think Lt Worsell was sober enough to be amenable to suggestions?
A.84 I didn't speak to Mr Worsell for the reason that I figured Mr McKibbon was the soberist offr of the two.
Q.85 Had you been drinking that evening?
A.85 Yes sir.
Q.86 How much did you have to drink?
A.86 I believe I had about 4½ pints.
Q.87 When did the dance start?
A.87 7.30

PROSECUTOR: I object sir. The fact that this man was drinking has nothing whatsoever to do with the case...

PRESIDENT: In your examination you were given a certain amount of latitude. I propose to allow a certain amount of latitude both ways.

for B.

Q.88 So until the time of the incident all you had was 4½ pints of beer?
A.88 Yes.
Q.89 You were cold sober?
A.89 Well not exactly cold sober sir.

BY THE COURT:

Q.90 This dance I presume was a special Provost Party was it not?
A.90 Yes sir, it was run for our own Coy and we were allowing a few outsiders to come in.
Q.91 And you in charge of the entertainment and discipline and Capt Quirk appointed you to that position?
A.91 Yes sir.
Q.92 In that capacity you should be able to tell us the number of people who were in the Hall?
A.92 Yes sir, approx 155.
Q.93 Now, in between dances, am I right in assuming that this bar, which was off the dance hall, is rather a small room in comparison with the main dance hall - what would be the size of it?
A.93 Well approx half as big again as this room sir. Part of it is used for checking clothes. There is a large billard table in the room.
Q.94 And during the drinking in the bar people would be pretty well shoulder to shoulder?
A.94 Well yes, fairly well.

BY THE PRESIDENT:

Q.95 Was it an all ranks dance?
A.95 Yes sir.

BY THE J.A.:

Q.96 You said that you reported the matter to Capt Quirk, were you there when Capt Quirk talked to the accused?
A.96 Yes sir.
Q.97 What was said then?
A.97 I didn't hear what was said. I stood far enough away so that I wouldn't interfere.
Q.98 How many people were in the bar approx at that time?
A.98 Approx 25.

(In the opinion of the court and of the JA it is NOT Necessary to comply with RP 53(B))

3rd Witness) Capt T.J. Quirk, C Prov C, 9 Prov Coy, duly sworn, is examined by Prosecution) the Prosecutor:-

Q.99 Will you repeat your rank, name, unit etc to the court pls?
A.99 I am Capt T.Jamieson Quirk, OC 9 Prov Coy.
Q.100 Now, on 18 Jan where were you?
A.100 I was attending a dance of the 9th Prov Coy at the Stoke Hotel, Guildford.
Q.101 While at the dance did anything happen?
A.101 Yes sir.
Q.102 Would you explain it to the court?
A.102 Approx 2215 hrs on the night of 18 Jan I was in the dance hall of the Stoke Hotel. As a result of infn received I went to the bar adjourning the Stoke Hotel and spoke to one of the offrs of this Coy, Lieut McKibbon. It had been reported to me that Lt McKibbon had been using loud and profane language in the crowded bar. I asked Lieut McKibbon about this. This offr replied that they were worrying about their glass. I suggested that the chief reason for the complaint which had been made to me was because of the use of the bad language. Lieut McKibbon replied, "Jesus Christ, if they are worrying about their "God-damn" glass I will buy them another one". I then suggested to Lieut McKibbon and Lieut Worsell that it would be best if they left the hall. Mr Worsell agreed to leave the hall. Lieut McKibbon didn't wish to do so. I then ordered Lieut McKibbon to leave the hall. Lieut McKibbon replied, "No, no, no". I then said, "Do you refuse to leave?". Mr McKibbon hesitated a moment and then left. Lieut Worsell also left.

Q.103 Was there any other conv rsation re the breaking of a glass?

A.103 It had also been reported to me that Lt Worsell had deliberately broken a glass.

Q.104 But the reason that you approached Lt McKibbon was because of a complaint concerning his language?

A.104 Yes, and I was told by the NCO in charge of the dance that he had requested Lt McKibbon to leave.

Q.105 This Sgt DeGrew, was he in charge of the dance committed that evening?

A.105 Yes.

Q.106 And he had your authority as OC of the Coy to look after the discipline and general management of the dance?

A.106 He was responsible for good conduct and running of the dance.

Q.107 Now, at the time of this incident, were there many people in the bar?

A.107 Yes, the bar was crowded throughout the evening.

Q.108 Approx how many people would you say?

A.108 Well I think that a conservative estimate there would be 25 people in the bar - probably more.

Q.109 Would you say that the people could hear the conversation that was carried on?

A.109 It is possible that some of them heard it.

Q.110 In what manner did he answer you?

A.110 Very abruptly and impatiently.

CROSS EXAMINED BY THE DEFENCE

Q.111 You wouldn't term the tone of Lt McKibbon's voice as insolent or insubordinate would you?

A.111 No.

Q.112 He didn't actually refuse to obey this order of yours to leave the dance hall?

A.112 He said in so many words that he would not.

Q.113 But actually he did leave within a minute or so?

A.113 I suggested he should leave and then he eventually he left.

Q.114 Then he obeyed when you put it in the form of an order?

A.114 Yes, he obeyed.

Q.115 You think there was a possibility he may have thought you were jesting or joking about it?

A.115 No.

Q.116 How big was the bar?

A.116 It would be a room about — part of the room was divided by tables and chairs — the actual bar part would be about 15 by 15 feet.

Q.117 Was the whole room the size of this room would you say?

A.117 Possibly, yes, but the after room was divided off by tables and chairs.

Q.118 Now in the conversation you had with Lieut McKibbon, was he loud?

A.118 He spoke quite clearly and distinctly but I wouldn't say he was shouting.

Q.119 He wasn't speaking in a tone of voice that it would make people stop and listen?

A.119 Well anyone in the near vicinity would notice it. But he wasn't shouting.

Q.120 It could be a normal tone of voice for some people?

A.120 It could be.

Q.121 Any louder than I am speaking to you just now?

A.121 No.

Q.122 Had you been drinking this night Capt Quirk?

A.122 Yes I had a few beers. I arrived at the dance about 8 O'clock and I had a Scotch which one of my Sgts bought for me. During the rest of the evening I had a few small beers -no more spirits.

Q.123 You didn't have any in the Mess before starting out?
A.123 None whatever.
Q.124 Did you make an investigation before you ordered Lt McKibbon to leave the hall. Had you gone into the subject fully and satisfied yourself that these facts were substantially true?
A.124 I was quite satisfied that they were.
Q.125 Did you question Lt McKibbon and Mr Worsell whether they were true or not, or did you tell them just to go out?
A.125 I questioned Mr McKibbon, but not Mr Worsell.
Q.126 It was after you questioned them that you made up your mind to get them out of the place, or did you make up your mind before?
A.126 I had reasons for believing that these offrs were not in good order - that they had been drinking considerably. I questioned Mr McKibbon. I did not question Mr Worsell because no specific complaint had been made against Mr Worsell except the breaking of the glass.
Q.127 You certainly wouldn't say Mr McKibbon was under the influence of liquor would you?
A.127 I certainly wouldn't say he was cold sober.
Q.128 Would you say he was as sober as you were?
A.128 No, definitely not.
Q.129 But he still was not in such a condition that you would lay a charge against him for drinking?
A.129 No. He had obviously been doing plenty of drinking because he was loud and quite noisy, both he and Mr Worsell, but they were not in a position to be charged.
Q.130 Well, actually, everyone had been drinking that night hadn't they?
A.130 Well I suppose so.
Q.131 How many beers did you say you had?
A.131 I didn't count them.
Q.132 You were in the dance hall most of the evening?
A.132 In and out of the dance hall.
Q.133 Didn't they have a waiter in the bar?
A.133 There was a waiter behind the bar, yes.
Q.134 Did you ask Mr McKibbon whether or not he had been swearing and using profane language in a loud voice to Sgt Degrow?
A.134 I told Mr McKibbon that it had been reported to me by Sgt Degrow that he had been using bad language in the bar.
Q.135 What did he say?
A.135 He didn't reply to that. He said they were worrying about their glass.

BY THE COURT:

Q.136 You had appointed Sgt Degrow as OC entertainment and to be responsible for the discipline of the dance that night?
A.136 I had.
Q.137 Did other people realize that?
A.137 I think they must have because he was appointed at a full meeting of the Coy, but I don't know whether Mr McKibbon was present or not.
Q.138 It was an all ranks dance?
A.138 Yes.
Q.139 You didn't have any offrs in charge?
A.139 No sir.

BY THE JA:

Q.140 What were the exact words the accused offr used?
A.140 He said, "They are worrying about their glass". Then I suggested that it was the use of bad language which was the chief cause of complaint, not the glass. Lt McKibbon raised his voice and said, "Jesus Christ - if they are worrying about their "God-damn" glass we will buy them another one".
Q.141 When he used this language was it in a normal tone of voice?
A.141 No, he raised his voice.

(In the opinion of the court and of the JA it is NOT necessary to comply with RP 83(B))

CLOSE OF PROSECUTION

At this point the Prosecution informed the court and the Defending Offr that Lieut Worsell, whose evidence was taken in the Summary of Evidence, would not be called by the prosecution but that he was available for the Defence if required.

MOTION BY DEFENDING OFFR:

I move that this charge be dismissed at this time because of the failure of the prosecution to establish a prima facie case. I have heard today, and the court has heard, evidence indicating that this man, the accused Lt McKibbon, has said "God-damn" on two occasions. There is some question as to whether or not his voice was normal. He is also alleged to have said "Piss off" to an other rank in the British Army who came up to catechize him. Now, if these are two phrases or words for which offrs, in conversation one with another, may be charged, why I think that the entire Army that are wearing the British uniform today, would probably have to stand charge at one time or another during its career. I think this is a "tempest in the tea-pot". I don't see how any disturbance has arisen from these incidents. There has been some conversation between 2 or 3 people at the bar - there was no disturbance as a result of the actions of the accused. I am prepared to go further and offer a defence if necessary; but I don't think that the Crown has established a case and I don't see that there is any useful purpose in taking up the time of the court by bringing before them more evidence.

BY THE JA:

At this stage it is the duty of the JA to advise the court on a motion brought forward by the Def Offr. The accused offr has been charged with conduct to the prejudice of good order and Mil discipline in that he used in a public place profane language in a loud voice. At this stage of this motion it belongs to the court to decide whether the prosecution has proven a prima facie case, whether the particulars of the case have been covered by witnesses for the prosecution, and whether, if those witnesses are believed, the accused could be found guilty. I have further to add that at this stage on this Motion all [redacted] is against the accused - that is, if there is any doubt in the mind of the court the motion should be disallowed and the accused should be asked to be put on his defence.

COURT CLOSED TO CONSIDER THE MOTION

COURT RE-OPENS

JA:

The Motion made by the Defence is disallowed. The accused now has three alternatives. He may wish to give evidence under Oath or he may wish to remain silent. Of course a statement under Oath will carry more weight with the court; but if a statement is made not under Oath the prosecuting offr cannot cross-examine the accused.

COURT ADJOURNED FROM 1200 hrs to 1300 hrs.

1st Witness) The accused, Lieut J.A. McKibbon, C Prov C, Defence) 9 Prov Coy, duly sworn, examined by the Defence:-

Q.145 Will you tell the court your version of the events of evening 18 Jan 45?

A.145 Mr Worsell and I had a couple of gins in our Mess prior to going to the Coy Dance which was being held in the Stoke Hotel, Guildford. We arrived there about 9.30 and went over towards the bar where we met Lieut McDonald of the same Coy, and he bought us a small beer each. We might have said a few words to him - nothing in particular at the time though. I went over and spoke to Cpl Hertzog and Lt Worsell, who was with me at the time. We engaged in ordinary conversation for 20 to 25 mins while we drank this small glass of beer. Then a Sgt whom I knew very well from the Coy entered the Hall and we went over to the door to talk to him. As I was crossing the dance hall floor with Lt Worsell he dropped his empty glass on the floor.

Q.146 He dropped it or threw it?

A.146 My impression was that he reached out to shake hands with this man who had entered the dance hall and probably in the confusion - and I was close to him - probably he either knocked his hand against me or forgot about the glass altogether - and it dropped out of his hand accidentally. I engaged in conversation and a few mins after I was approached by Sgt Degrow of our own Coy and he stated to me that the Manager had complained that one of our offrs had deliberately broken a beer glass.

Q.147 Before Sgt Degrow spoke to you did you have conversation with someone else?

A.147 Yes, there was a conversation with a Marine Commando of the British Army. He was first talking to Lt Wrosell and pointing out the ungentlemanly manner in which he had acted by dropping the glass and then not picking it up. I was rather annoyed myself at the Marine Commando and I asked him what business it was of his. I do not know what his answer was, exactly, but he stated that at least he could have picked the glass up and I told him that the glass was in a thousand pieces or at least a great number of small pieces.

Q.148 Did you use any profanity to him?

A.148 None whatever.

Q.149 Did you use an expression called "Piss off"?

A.149 I told him to "push off" for I was fed up with this frielous harangue.

Q.150 Do you ever use that expression, is that in your vocabulary?

A.150 It isn't.

Q.151 What happened then?

A.151 I moved over a few feet across the floor and Sgt Degrow came along and, as I stated, told me that this complaint had been made to him by the manager that one of our offrs had deliberately broken a glass.

Q.152 How long after the glass was broken did this incident occur?

A.152 May be 5 to 10 mins. ... I told him that I was sure that Lt Worsell hadn't broken the glass deliberately and if it would help any I would pay for the glass. I referred to the glass as the "God-damn glass". I didn't count the number of times I used that term.

Q.153 By the way, your entire conversation during the evening, did you use any other expression of profanity to anyone in that place?

A.153 None whatever. I did refer to the glass as a "damn" glass - I may have said a "God-damn" glass as well. At that time I didn't know the Sgt was in charge of the dance.

Q.154 What did Sgt Degrow have to say?

A.154 Well before I finished with Sgt Degrow I said I would replace the glass and then he said he would have to ask me to leave the Hall. I said "You are asking me to leave the dance hall?" and he said, "Yes sir". I made no move at all. He left and in a very short time came back with Capt Quirk. Capt Quirk came up to Lieut Worsell and I and said that there had been a complaint against us and we would have to leave the dance hall. I asked him what was the nature of the complaint and he was unable to give me a satisfactory explanation. He again said that I would have to leave the dance hall. I did hesitate for a moment or two and when he said, "Do I have to make it an order" I understood that he was in earnest; but up to that time I did not think that he was in earnest. I took my empty glass, put it on the bar and left the dance hall.

Q.155 By the way, did you say anything with ref to the glass to Capt Quirk?

A.155 I did in my conversation say that they were worrying about their "God-damn" glass.

Q.156 Did you say it in a loud and insolent tone?

A.156 Not at all.

Q.157 But in the tone you ordinarily use?

A.157 I used the tone I always do in a dance hall. Everybody was happy - we were at a dance - it wasn't a funeral.

Q.158 Quite noisy was it?

A.158 Yes, there was dancing going on a few feet away.

CROSS EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTION

Q.159 You say that when this Commando approached Lt Worsell concerning the breaking of the glass you were "annoyed" at him? For what reason were you annoyed? He didn't approach you did he?

A.159 Lieut Worsell and I were standing together at the time.

Q.160 The Marine spoke to Lt Worsell concerning the breaking of the glass, you in turn said you were "annoyed", for what reason?

A.160 I became annoyed after I had conversation with the Marine Commando.

Q.161 Why?

A.161 Because I considered he did not have a justifiable complaint.

Q.162 But that surely gave you no reason to be annoyed?

A.162 Didn't it?

Q.163 Then later you said that Sgt Degrow came forward and said he had a complaint from the Manager and you became annoyed at the Sgt. Do you think that as an offr attending the Coy Dance that if any complaints were received it would be your duty to rectify the situation and to see that things were conducted in a proper manner?

A.163 As previously stated, I said to Sgt Degrow that I would pay for the glass, and he said they didn't want payment because glasses were difficult to obtain, and then I said I would replace the glass. I could do nothing further.

Q.164 Why did you become annoyed when he came to you as an offr with a complaint and you immediately became annoyed at him?

A.164 I wasn't annoyed at the complaint, what annoyed me that I said I would straighten out the situation and he asked me to leave the dance hall without reverting the incident to my O.C., which I thought was the proper procedure when I hadn't committed any serious breach of discipline or caused any unnecessary disorder.

Q.165 Were you at the Coy Meeting which was held prior to the Dance where Sgt Degrow was appointed to be in charge of the dance?

A.165 I was not. As far as I was concerned he was just one of our Sgts.

Q.166 Even so, if one of your Sgts came forward with a complaint you felt that he should have gone to the OC and not to you and you became annoyed with him for that?

A.166 I became annoyed because the Sgt asked me to leave the dance hall without a justifiable reason, not because he came to me with a complaint - and I tried to settle the complaint.

(In the opinion of the Court and the JA it is not necessary to comply with R 83(B))

JAB

2nd Witness) Lieut J.F. Worsell, 14 Coy C Prov C, duly sworn, is examined Defence) by the Defence:-

Q.167 What is your name, rank and unit pls?
A.167 I am Lieut Jack Faylie Worsell of No 14 Coy, Provost Corps.
Q.168 On the evening of 18 Jan 45 where were you?
A.168 After 2130 hrs at the Stoke Hotel, Guildford.
Q.169 In whose Coy?
A.169 Lieut McKibbon's.
Q.170 For what purpose were you there?
A.170 Attending a Coy Dance.
Q.171 You arrived 2130 hrs?
A.171 Approximately.
Q.172 Did any particular incident happen?
A.172 Yes, after we had been there about 15 mins, we had been in conversation with a Cpl, we terminated the conversation and left him and moved towards the door. I had an empty pint beer glass in my hand. I inadvertently dropped it and it broke on the floor. At this point a Royal Marine Commando appeared and told me that that was no way to act in a public place. I asked him what he meant, and he said that I had deliberately smashed the glass on the floor. I explained to him that it had been an accident, that I was willing to pay for it or replace the glass. He continued to offer his criticism, and as he had no official connection with either the Dance or the Stoke Hotel Management I attempted to ignore him. Mr McKibbon entered the conversation at that point and asked him what business it was of his. Some further conversation took place between him and Mr McKibbon of which I had no part; but as I remember there was no loud language or profanity on the part of Mr McKibbon. There was also a civilian employee of the Stoke Hotel who took part in the conversation. I don't know his official capacity; but I also made a statement to him that I would pay for the glass. While this was going on Sgt Degrow, 9 Prov Coy, appeared and requested Mr McKibbon to leave the Hall.
Q.173 How long after the incident happened did Sgt Degrow appear on the scene?
A.173 I should say it was between 5 and 10 mins... He asked Mr McKibbon to leave the Hall and Mr McKibbon refused. Sgt Degrow disappeared. With that we made our way towards the door engaged in conversation with another Sgt and a Pte of 9 Prov Coy. After a short time Capt Quirk, OC, 9 Prov Coy appeared and requested Mr McKibbon and myself to leave the hall. At that point, Sgt Degrow (who was just behind Capt Quirk) stated that he had no complaint against Lieut Worsell. Some further discussion took place at that point. I was at no time questioned by Capt Quirk as to my part in the complaint of a disturbance, nor, as far as I know, were any disinterested parties questioned. Discussion terminated by Capt Quirk ordering Lieut McKibbon to leave the hall. We had some conversation outside the door, Mr McKibbon and myself. Shortly after Mr McKibbon left and I re-entered the dance hall. I remained there until the end of the dance.
Q.174 Had Capt Quirk been drinking?
A.174 Obviously.
Q.175 There has been some evidence given in this court-martial up to now as to relative sobriety of Capt Quirk and Mr McKibbon, were you capable of summing up or forming an opinion?
A.175 I think so. In my opinion there was very little to chose between both of them. Both had been drinking, as I think everyone at the dance had been to some extent.
Q.176 How about this Royal Marine Commando ref sobriety?
A.176 I presumed thathe had been drinking inasmuch as I didn't think he would have accousted me and offered criticism had he been entirely sober.

JRB

Q.177 Did you ever hear Lt McKibbon tell this Royal Marine Commando to "piss off"?
A.177 I did not.
Q.178 What was the tone of Lt McKibbon's voice in his conversation with this RM Commando and Capt Quirk and Sgt Degrow?
A.178 Lt McKinnon was quite naturally annoyed; but his conversation at no time was unduly loud and not liable to carry to the ears of those present other than the one he was directly addressing.
Q.179 If he had used profane language would it have reached the ears of anyone except those he was addressing?
A.179 No sir.

CROSS EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTION:

Q.180 When you arrived at this dance you had had some drinks?
A.180 Yes.
Q.181 What amount?
A.181 A couple of glasses of gin.
Q.182 You were drinking before you went to the dance?
A.182 Yes.
Q.183 When you arrived at the dance you had something further?
A.183 Yes, half-a-pint of beer.
Q.184 But you had the drinks of gin before going to the dance?
A.184 Yes.
Q.185 While the conversation was going on with the RM Commando you said you did not enter into the conversation?
A.185 I had some conversation. He accousted me first, but after some conversation with him I decided to ignore him and have nothing further to do with him; but Mr McKinnon took a hand at that time.
Q.186 Well, in view of the fact that you were the person who dropped the glass don't you think that it was your responsibility to straighten this out?
A.186 I had attempted to, both with the Marine and with the employee of the Hall. To both of them I made the statement that I would replace or pay for the glass.
Q.187 You say you did not hear Mr McKinnon use any profane language during the course of the conversation with the Marine?
A.187 I could not quote his exact words, there may have been some mild profanity.
Q.188 There could have been?
A.188 Yes.
Q.189 I submit that possibly you were not in a condition to realize what he was saying?
A.189 No, I would not say that. I was not paying a great deal of attention to the matter at all because I was not interested, and I thought it a very trivial matter and ignored it.
Q.190 When Capt Quirk arrived did you take part in the conversation?
A.190 No.
Q.191 Did you hear what was said?
A.191 Yes.
Q.192 What was said?
A.192 Briefly summed up in this wise: Capt Quirk requested Mr McKinnon to leave the hall. Mr McKinnon wanted to know what for and requested that some investigation be made of the matter before he cared to leave the hall. Capt Quirk made the investigation and ended up by ordering Mr McKinnon to leave the Hall.

J.O.B.

Q.193 What ref was made to the breaking of the glass at this time?
A.193 None at all.
Q.194 Did Mr McKinnon say that he would replace the glass?
A.194 He may have made that statement. I know I made that statement to the Marine as well as to this civilian employee; and it is quite possible he repeated it to Capt Quirk.
Q.195 Do you know?
A.195 I couldn't say.
Q.196 I submit that if you were there, engaged in conversation, and part of it, that you must have heard what was said?
A.196 There was a general conversation going on, which included Mr McKinnon, Capt Quirk, Sgt Degrow, the Marine and me, and many things may have been said but I couldn't quote just what was said.

RE-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFR THRO THE COURT:

Q.197 When Capt Quirk came up did you think he was joking when he asked you to leave the hall?
A.197 Yes, I did.

Q.198 You said you belonged to No 14 Coy; but you belonged to No 9 then?

Q.199 How many people were in the bar at that time?
A.199 The bar was quite crowded. It is a small place: possibly 25 - 30 people.

A.200 There were a number of civilians - ladies, and I think a very few civilian gentlemen.
Q.201 You mentioned that the accused offr may have used "mild profanity". What words were they?
A.201 I would say nothing of a filthy nature or a particularly bad nature. Such words as "Damn".
Q.202 What was the tone of voice used by the accused when speaking to his CO and to Sgt Degrow.

DEFENDING OFFR: I object to the JA examining the witnesses. He is not a proper member of the court. He is here for the purpose of advising the court only.

CLOSE OF THE DEFENCE

DEFENDING OFFR: May it please the court: I would like to call the court's attn to the different position I now stand in making a request for the dismissal of this charge. Since I last addressed the court we have put in our defence. I made an application for dismissal of the charge on the ground that a prima facie case had not been established. Now, if you gentlemen of the court find, by a preponderance of all the evidence that there is reasonable doubt that the accused is guilty of the charge, you are then required to find him Not Guilty. It is my contention now that the Crown has failed, first, to establish beyond a reasonable doubt on their evidence that the accused was guilty and, further, that whatever evidence has been adduced by the Crown has been adequately neutralized and disaffected by the evidence which we have offered to counteract it. Let us review the remarks of the first three witnesses. First witness was the Marine Commando, a fellow who, from his own testimony you must admit, obviously had bad manners and acted in a way that certainly is not becoming a private soldier who, under any circumstances, has not a right to catechise an offr unless that offr is behaving in such a manner as to cause a breach of the peace so as to cause him to be placed under custody. The evidence of this private has been contradicted by three of our Defence witnesses. The only evidence at any rate which he states could possibly have anything to do with this charge, is that he said "God damn glass" and "piss off". My client definitely did not use that expression and his contention is reiterated by Mr Worsell. Mr McDonald was within hearing distance and did not hear him. The next witness is Sgt Degrow. He testified that he saw the glass break. He jumped immediately, but before he had time to say anything to Mr Worsell, why the proprietor talked to him and made a complaint. If that is so, my three witnesses are lying, because they each said it was 5 to 10 mins afterwards that he came over to Mr McKinnon and started into this argument which lead to the charge which you are hearing today. Now, although Sgt Degrow undoubtedly testified to the best of his knowledge, I maintain he was mistaken in his facts. His testimony has been entirely discredited by what he said happened and how he acted. What are the actions of a normal man if he sees a position of discipline being needed by some person? Is he going to go to that person or to someone else. Here Mr Worsell broke the glass, why should he go to Mr McKinnon? Mr Worsell has testified today, and other people have reiterated that story - he told the same story as everybody else. There is something more behind it than the fact that he didn't consider Mr Worsell in a condition to speak. He apparently was in a cantankerous mood. He apparently didn't see the thing happen and went over to Mr McKinnon to learn the facts. I claim that his testimony is uncorroborated - the same as the testimony of Pte Howarth, is uncorroborated. Then we have Capt Quirk who did not see the incident at all except that he learned about it in due course. Capt Quirk may have acted in good faith; but he had been at the party and had been drinking. As all of you know, at a party after they havehad three or four drinks, it is probably not the same standard of conduct than if they were completely sober. Certainly all of us, if we take a drink at all - and most of us do - we have done things which perhaps we would not have done had we hadn't had any. Therefore, I think Capt Quirk, in ordering the accused out of the hall, took a more serious view of a really trivial and insignificant incident; and if he had given the incident more investigation and more thought in a completely sober frame of mind he might have settled the matter in a more satisfactorgk way to everyone concerned. At any rate we have got two witnesses who were alleged to have seen this thing happen and a third witness who did not see anything at all. In the Defence I offered Mr Worsell who told us the clearest and most lucid picture of the incident. I myself was more enlightened than I had ever been up to the time I heard Mr Worsell's testimony. He has been an offr for a considerable period of time and all his words were clear and carefully chosen. He told us exactly what happened and his story stood up under cross-examination. He has nothing to gain or profit by telling what he did; on the other hand he possibly might have something to lose. Having that in mind I think his testimony is terribly important because he is telling the truth. His story is completely corroborated by Mr McDonald in that Mr McDonald was in a position to hear any profane language and did not do so. The conduct of the accused was, immediately prior to this happening, was not of a nature to conform to the charge, as testified to by the Cpl. In addition to all this testimony, the accused bears out the story (a) that he did have private conversation with three people, first the Marine, second Sgt Degrow and thirdly Capt Quirk. They all maintained individually that "God-damn" may or may not have been used. We admit all that. But now we come down to the real crux of the charge. Fortunately this is a Mil Court. It is one case where I think it is a benefit of being in a Mil rather than a civilian court because all of us know what the position in the Army is with regard to profanity. I think that the Army, both Cdn and British, are about as profane a cross-section of humanity as any that I have ever been in. I know that the nearer you get to the front the more profane it gets. I think that the Cdn Army in England is more profane than the Cdn Army in Canada; but after all we are fighting a war. After all, if an offr usesss the words "God-damn blas" to another offr is he creating a breach of the peace; is he acting in a manner unbecoming the character of a gentleman? If he is, how many offrs are there in any Army that wouldn't have a black mark on their MFM-6. Place yourself in the same position as the accused. How many of us have been in a bar or mess or offrs' club and had a slight "tiff", after a couple of drinks and used this kind of language. And when you are judging this case place yourself in the position of this offr and think how you might act in such a position. I say this, that if this offr is guilty of a crime, that every other offr and NCO are equally guilty of the same crime. Here is a case in which this offr's whole career and his reputation is in jeopardy and at stake - isn't it a "tempest in a tea pot"? If he is in some way blameworth he should be censored by his CO, but the case does not seem to me to reach the dimensions of a Gen Court Martial. Capt Quirk himself admits that he was not shouting. You have to decide whether or not he was speaking loudly enough to make the people around him stop and listen. If a person four feet away, as Sgt Degrow, didn't hear, and another 10 feet away couldn't hear him, then he was not acting in such a way as to cause a disturbance. And the second question you have to ask yourself is this, whether, if I say "God damn" or a similar phrase, whether that is profanity to warrant punishment by a GCM and blacken an otherwise honourable career in the Army. There are too many serious crimes committed during the five yrs we have been at war, without breaking a man for what is a perfectly natural reaction to an ordinary conversation, in which in 9 cases out of 10 we would have acted in the same way. I think this man should be dismissed. I think this is a "much ado about nothing". At no point has this case been proven beyond the shadow of a doubt and when you come to make your decision he must be convicted by the evidence produced beyond all reasonable doubt.

J. de B.

PROSECUTOR: May it please the court. I wish to point out that it is the duty of the personnel within the Provost Corps first and foremost to maintain discipline within the Cdn Army and to see that all ranks conduct themselves in a manner becoming a soldier or an offr and a gentleman. In this case evidence has been brought forth where the accused states he did use profanity in a dance hall in a public place, at a dance held by the Coy and in the presence of all other ranks in the Coy. I wish to point out also that the Marine Commando (the 1st witness) saw the incident and felt that it was his duty to come forward and make some remark concerning the behaviour of this offr, the accused. The accused himself admits that he became annoyed at being spoken to concerning the matter. Furthermore when the Sgt, who had been placed in charge of the dance and the discipline of the dance, approached him on the matter he again became annoyed. I feel that it was his duty, as an offr and an offr of that Coy, to set a high example to the people present there and that he should have taken some action to quietly straighten out this small argument. We are not deciding at this court whether the glass was thrown or dropped down or that it should be paid for. We are merely concerned with the language used and the behaviour of the accused. Insofar as the witnesses for the defence are concerned, Cpl Hertzog and Lt McDonald both admit in their evidence that they were not present at the time of the incident; but that they had been talking to the accused prior to that. Therefore, I do not see where their evidence has any bearing on the charge that this man used offensive language. We have his own admission and, furthermore, I think the evidence has been produced that the bar room was crowded - there were people all around when these remarks were made; and I do feel it is not the conduct of an offr and a gentleman at any time in a crowded bar room to make such remarks.

SUMMING-UP BY THE JA:

Mr President & Gentlemen:

The Def Offr and the prosecution have been heard. At this stage it is my duty to sum up the evidence as to the facts of the case and to advise the court on questions of law. The accused offr before this court is charged with "Conduct to the prej of good order and Mil discipline in that he at Guildford Surrey at 2210 hrs on 18 Jan 45 acted in a manner unbecoming an offr by using profane language in a loud voice in the bar of the Stoke Hotel Dance Hall."

The court must ask themselves if the particulars of the charge have been proved. The essential elements of the charge are that the accused offr would have acted in a manner unbecoming an offr by using profane language in a loud voice. The essential elements must be proved if the accused is to be found guilty. The other particulars of the charge respecting the time, place and date of the offence are not essential elements and the court could make a special finding if such non-essential elements as proved differed from the particulars of the charge.

The three witnesses for the prosecution, Marine Howarth, Sgt Degrow and Capt Quirk testified about three different instances where the accused would have used profane language in a loud voice. Marine Howarth testifies that the accused told him to "Piss off" and that he heard him say "God damned glass." Sgt Degrow stated that the accused in a loud voice twice used the words "God damned glass" and Capt Quirk testifies that the accused replied to him "Jesus Christ if they are worrying about their God Damned glasses I shall get them another".

The accused then testified and admitted to have used twice the words "God Damned" but denied that it was in a loud voice. Another witness for the defence, Lt Worsell states that the accused might have used mildly profane language but not in a loud voice. The other two witnesses for the defence Mr McDonald and Cpl Hertzog did not see the incident but it is not clear whether or not they were in the bar at the time.

From the evidence heard this court has now to decide if the accused used profane language in a loud voice in a manner unbecoming an offr. That is what has to be proved by the prosecution before the accused can be found guilty. The onus of proving the guilt of the accused is on the prosecution. If there is any doubt in your mind as to the guilt of the accused the accused is entitled to the benefit of such reasonable doubt and should then be acquitted.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE in the case of Lieut. JOHN AMBROSE McKIBBON, on strength of No. 9 Company, Canadian Provost Corps.

By direction of the Commanding Officer, the Summary of Evidence is taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS
For the prosecution

No. 7LYX2773, Marine, JAMES HOWARTH, of the 30 Assault Unit, Royal Marine Commando, British Army, having been duly sworn states as follows:-

"On the evening of 18 Jan 45 I was in the dance hall of the 'Stoke Hotel' at Guildford. I was in the bar-room having a drink when I saw a Canadian Officer throw a glass to the floor. He made no effort to pick it up and I went over to him and said, 'That is not the correct way for an officer to act'. A second Canadian officer asked what it had to do with me, and I replied that if it was a fellow like myself, I would have been put between escort. He, the second Canadian officer, then said, that he, and all the other Canadians sould be back in Canada. I then replied, he was over here on his own accord. A Canadian sergeant then came on the scene and began talking to the Canadian officer. I walked away and left it to the sergeant and as I walked away I heard the officer say to the sergeant that he would replace the 'God damn' glass. I then left the scene".

The accused declined to cross examine the witness.

"I wish to add. After the Canadian officer told me about the Canadians, should be in Canada, he told me to, 'Piss off'.

QUESTION "Have you seen this officer since?"

ANSWER "Yes, it is the officer sitting here?"

Witness identifies the accused.

The accused further declines to cross examine witness.

SECOND WITNESS For the prosecution

B 97637 Sgt. MALCOLM CLEMENT DEGROW of No. 9 Company, Canadian Provost Corps, Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn states as follows:-

"At about 2210 hrs 18 Jan 45, I was in the Stoke Hotel Dance Hall and Bar at Guildford, Surrey. I was NCO i/c of the Entertainments Committee No. 9 Provost Company, which was holding a dance in this hall. As I was supervising the dance, a Mr. Kerry, proprietor of this Hall, informed me that a beer glass had been deliberately broken. Mr. Kerry also said, 'This kind of thing is not tolerated in this Hall', he also said to see that it doesn't happen again.

I approached Lieut. McKibbon, No. 9 Provost Company, as he was the nearest officer and informed him that this beer glass which was broken had been brought to my attention by Mr. Kerry. I had observed this beer glass deliberately broken.

I was speaking to Mr. McKibbon about it and he asked me if it was the 'God damn' glass they were worrying about or the price. I replied, it wasn't the price of the glass, it was that glasses were hard to obtain. Mr. McKibbon said, 'If it's the 'God damn' glass they are worrying about, I shall get them a 'God Damn' glass. This remark was passed in a very loud voice. I said to Mr. McKibbon, 'This is not the time, or the place for such language', to which he replied, 'I shall use this language when and where I please'. I informed Mr. McKibbon that I should have to ask him to leave the dance hall. Mr. McKibbon replied, 'I do not have to leave the hall now or any other time'. I immediately contacted Capt. Quirk, No. 9 Provost Company, who was dancing in the other room. I reported to him the incident and asked for his assistance. Captain Quirk accompanied me back to the bar.

Captain Quirk spoke to Mr. McKibbon and asked him to leave the hall, to which Mr. McKibbon replied, 'No, No, No'. Captain Quirk said, 'Do I have to make it an order?' Mr. McKibbon hesitated a moment and left the hall".

Cross examined by the accused.

QUESTION "Did you know who had broken the glass?".

ANSWER "Yes".

QUESTION "Who had broken it".

ANSWER "Mr. Worsell".

QUESTION "Where was Lieutenant Worsell when you approached me, sergeant?"

JCB

Summary of evidence in the case of Lieut. J.A. McKibbon, continued.

SECOND WITNESS
For the Presecution (Continued)

ANSWER "Mr. Worsell was standing close to you, but three of four feet further from me".

QUESTION "Was I talking to anyone when you first spoke to me?"

ANSWER "No".

QUESTION "Why did you speak to me and not to Mr. Worsell since he was the one who had let the glass fall on the floor?"

ANSWER "I spoke to you first as you were the nearest officer to me".

QUESTION "Did I not tell you that I was sure that the glass had been dropped accidentally?"

ANSWER "No".

QUESTION "When you approached me, was I talking to a Marine Commando?"

ANSWER "No".

QUESTION "When I was ordered to leave the dance hall, by Capt. Quirk, didn't I take my empty beer glass to the bar, then leave the dance?"

ANSWER "No".

QUESTION "Did I again enter the dance hall?"

ANSWER "Not that I know of".

QUESTION "Why did you not have Capt. Quirk approach either Lieut. Worsell or myself concerning this incident rather than speak to me first?"

ANSWER "As I was in charge of this dance it was my place to speak to you".

QUESTION "Do you not think the matter could have been cleared up more satisfactorily if it had been taken up with Captain Quirk first, and then he had spoken to Lieut. Worsel or myself?"

ANSWER "No".

QUESTION "Did you at any time ask me to leave the dance hall?"

ANSWER "Yes".

Summary of evidence in the case of Lieut. J.A. McKibbon, continued.

THIRD WITNESS
For the prosecution

Lieutenant JACK FOWLIE WORSELL of No. 14 Coy., Canadian Provost Corps, Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, states as follows:-

"On the night of 18 Jan 45 at about 2000 hrs. Lieut. McKibbon and myself left the Officers' Quarters at No. 9 Company to proceed to the company dance at the Stoke Hotel, Guildford. We arrived at about 2130 hrs and upon entering the hall met Lieut. MacDonald, No. 9 Company, who bought us two half pints of beer, one each.

We then stepped back from the bar engaged in conversation with Cpl. Hertzog whilst consuming the beer. This conversation lasted about ten or fifteen minutes. My glass now was empty and I proceeded to cross the room with it toward the door. Whilst crossing the floor I accidentally dripped the glass which broke on the floor. At this point a Royal Marine accosted me with words to the effect that that was no way to act in a public place. I told him it was an accident whereupon he intimated that I had deliberately thrown the glass to the floor. As the man had obviously been drinking, the Royal Marine, and had no official connection with either the dance or the management of the Stoke Hotel, I ignored him. He continued however to offer his critisism and Lieut. McKibbon asked him what business it was of his.

Some further conversation ensued between the marine and Mr. McKibbon to which I payed little attention.

I do not recall that Lieut. McKibbon used offensive language, nor was his manner in any way offensive.

A civilian, apparently an employee of the Hotel appeared and I offered to pay for or replace the broken glass.

Some discussion took place between the civilian employee, the Royal Marine and Mr. McKibbon in the course of which Mr. McKibbon made the same offer.

The civilian and the Marine then left the scene. Shortly after Sgt. Degrow came up to us and requested Lieut. McKibbon to leave the hall. Some argument followed and Sgt. Degrow left us and disappeared into the crowd on the dance floor. Mr. McKibbon and I now made our way toward the door where we engaged in conversation with Sgt. Cranmer and Pte. Colbran of Crookham Detachment. After a few minutes Captain Quirk came up to us and requested that we leave the dance. With him was Sgt. Degrow who broke in at that point saying, 'I have no complaint against Lieut. Worsell'. Some argument followed in which I took no part. I did not take the matter seriously at that time, I was under the impression that Captain Quirk had been drinking and I thought that his request had been made in a jocular vein.

THIRD WITNESS For the prosecution

Lieutenant J.F. Worsell continues to give evidence.'

"No effort was made by Captain Quirk as to the cause of the disturbance nor did he then, or at any later time question me as to my part in it.

The argument went on and Captain Quirk ordered Lieut. McKibbon to leave the hall and ordered me to see that he did so. I now realized that he was in earnest so I accompanied Lieut. McKibbon outside. After some conversation outside, Lieut. McKibbon left me and I re-entered the dance hall. I remained at the dance until it broke up and did not again see Lieut. McKibbon that night.

Cross examined by accused.

QUESTION "At the end of my conversation with the Royal Marine, did I tell him to "Piss off"?

ANSWER "I do not recall in what manner the conversation with the marine terminated".

QUESTION "Do you not think that the whole incident could have been cleared up very satisfactorily and without any unnecessary disturbance if Captain Quirk had come to us in the first place and enquired into the details of the breaking of the glass"?

ANSWER "Yes I think it could have amicably been settled had the original cause of the trouble been investigated by Captain Quirk. No effort was made to hear the side of the interested parties, nor was the evidence of disinterested witnesses sought. No one apparently was given a hearing by Captain Quirk except Sgt. Degrow, the Royal Marine and the civilian employee".

QUESTION "Under the circumstances do you not consider Captain Quirk's decision to have me leave the hall, irrational and too hasty?"

ANSWER "Yes, I considered that Captain Quirk's action was unwarrented and ill advised in view of the inadequate investigation made".

FOURTH WITNESS For the Prosecution

Captain THOMAS JAMIESON QUIRK, Officer Commanding No. 9 Company, Canadian Provost Corps, Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, states as follows:-

"On the night of Thursday 18 Jan 45 I was attending a dance held by No. 9 Provost Company at the Stoke Hotel, Guildford, Surrey. At approximately 2215 hrs, Sgt. Degrow approached me on the dance floor and told me that he had been having some trouble in the bar with two officers of this company and had asked one of these officers, Lieut. McKibbon, to leave the hall as this officer had been using loud and profane language in the crowded bar.

I accompanied Sgt. Degrow to the bar where I spoke to Lieut. McKibbon. I informed him that it had been reported to me that he had been using profane language. Sgt. Degrow had also reported to me that a glass had been thrown on the floor and had been broken by one of these officers, and that the manager, Mr. Kerry, had complained about it.

Mr. McKibbon replied to me, to the effect that they were worrying about their glasses one of which had been broken. I suggested that the chief reason for Sgt. Degrow's complaint was the use of bad language. Mr. McKibbon replied, 'Jesus Christ if they are worrying about their 'God damn' glasses, we'll buy them another one".

I then suggested to Lieut. McKibbon and Lieut. Worsell that they leave the hall as I did not wish to see any more trouble in the bar. Mr. Worsell agreed to leave but Mr. McKibbon declined to leave. I then ordered Lieut. McKibbon to leave the hall, he replied,'No, No, No'.

I then said, 'Do you refuse to leave?' Mr. McKibbon hesitated a moment and then left, followed by Lieut. Worsell.

A few minutes later I spoke to Sgt. Degrow and asked him if he had any witnesses as to the use of profane language by Lieut. McKibbon, other than himself. Shortly after, Sgt. Degrow returned with a member of the Royal Marines who stated that he had witnessed the incident of the glass breaking and had spoken to the officers. I ascertained that his name was 7LYX2773 Marine Howarth, J. I then took a statement from him in my note book concerning the incident of the two officers.

Before taking down the statement from Howarth, I spoke to the Hotel proprietor, Mr. Kerry Snr., who informed me that he had seen the glass breaking but had been too far away to hear anything that was said.

As I had retired for the night before Lieut. McKibbon returned to his quarters I did not see him until the following morning.

Accused declines to cross examine witness.

The accused was cautioned as follows:-

Do you wish to made any statement or give evidence on oath. You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence.

Accused elects to give evidence on oath.

The accused, Lieut. JOHN AMBROSE McKIBBON of No. 9 Company, Canadian Provost Corps, Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn states as follows:-

"On the night of 18 Jan 45 accompanied by Lieut. J.F. Worsell I attended our company dance at the Stoke Hotel, Guildford, Surrey. We entered the hall about 2130 hrs and met Lieut. MacDonald who bought us two half pints of beer.

While we were consuming the beer we engaged in conversation with Cpl. Hertzog. After about ten minutes we went over to the door to talk to L/Cpl. Calbran, Sgt. Cranmer and S.M. Whitworth. As we were crossing the floor Lieut. Worsell's beer glass dropped out of his hand and broke on the floor. As I was talking to L/Cpl. Colbran, Sgt. Degrow came jp to me and told me that the manager of the hotel had complained to him that one of our officers had deliberately broken a beer glass on the floor. I told him that I thought that the glass had been accidentally dropped and that we would pay for it.

He said that glasses were very difficult to obtain and that they didn't want payment for the glass. I told him if they didn't want payment for the glass we would replace it. He continued to discuss the matter and he became quite excited. He told me to leave the dance hall which astonished me very much and I remained where I was standing, thereupon he left me and I moved over to speak to Lieut. Worsell who was engaged in conversation with a Marine Commando. I tried to explain to the Marine Commando that the glass had been accidently dropped. He said at least the glass should have been picked up. I told him that it was impossible to pick up the glass since there were so many pieces. I got tired of his frivolous harangue and told him to 'Push off'. I a few minutes Captain Quirk accompanied by Sgt. Degrow approached Lieut. Worsell and I and told us we would have to leave the hall.

I was rather amazed at this statement and did not think that he was in earnest. I tried to find out from him "Why we had to leave", but since he did not seem to be aware of the facts of the previous incidents he could not give me a logical reason for leaving the hall. He finally gave me a direct order to leave, whereupon I returned my empty glass to the bar and left the hall.

At no time while I was in conversation in the hall did I use offensive language.

P. T. O. (signed) J.A. McKibbon

I certify that the foregoing Summary of Evidence consisting of eight pages was taken down by me in the presence and hearing of the accused and that the Rules of Procedure 4 (c), (d), (e), (f) and (g) have been complied with.

FIELD GENERAL COURT-MARTIAL

L-102252 - Ex-Cpl MARSH F.R.

RECEIVED A.G. CONTROL

1. This submission forwards a petition submitted by this soldier, pursuant to the provisions of KR (Can) 574, against the sentence of a FGCM by which he was tried, and recommends that the said petition be disallowed.

2. The soldier was tried by FGCM in the Field in Holland on 7 Dec 44 on one charge under AA Sec 15 - absence without leave, in that he in the Field at Lierre, Belgium on 9 Nov 44 absented himself without leave from his Unit from 2230 hrs, 9 Nov 44 until he was apprehended at 0255 hrs, 24 Nov 44 at Ghent, Belgium. He pleaded Guilty and was found Guilty of the charge and was sentenced to be reduced to the ranks and to be imprisoned with hard labour for 18 months and to be discharged with ignominy from His Majesty's Service. The Finding and Sentence were confirmed by Comd, 5 Cdn Inf Bde.

H.G.
Concur
W. H. S. MACKLIN
BRIGADIER
V.A.G.
APR 3 1946

3. On 12 Sep 45, the DOC, MD 2 directed that the balance of imprisonment with hard labour be remitted, effective the date of discharge, namely, 18 Sep 45 at which time the soldier was discharged under CARO 1029(9).

4. The following is an excerpt from the report forwarded by MGA, CMHQ on 21 Mar 45:

> "This soldier was holding the rank of L/Sgt in an infantry battalion and at a conference with his Company Commander he was warned for an early move in contact with the enemy. Immediately following this conference he absented himself without leave. At his trial he pleaded guilty to the charge and made no statement in explanation of his conduct. It is considered that despite his good record and the fact he was twice wounded in action, his very serious offence when he had the responsibilities of a senior non-commissioned officer and the obligation to be an example to his men justifies exemplary punishment. It is accordingly recommended that the sentence of imprisonment be served in full and thereafter this soldier be discharged with ignominy from His Majesty's Service in accordance with paragraph 9 of Appendix to CARO 1029. This soldier probably realized that his offence would lead to imprisonment and possible discharge."

5. At the trial the plea in mitigation of sentence was that the accused had twice been wounded and hospitalized on each occasion. While in the hospital he had an opportunity of observing less fortunate comrades and came to realize how fortunate he had been and to fully appreciate the possibility of a more serious wound.

6. In his petition, at folios 27 and 28 hereunder, the petitioner recites his record of service and states that his reason for leaving his Unit was that his nerves were very bad due to the fact that he had been wounded twice in actual combat. He requests that the sentence of discharge with ignominy be commuted to an honourable discharge.

7. The JAG has certified that the proceedings are legally regular, the finding properly made and the sentence according to law and that the petition does not disclose any new grounds either in fact or in law nor any legal ground which would justify interference with the finding or sentence.

8. As the petition is not addressed as provided for in KR (Can) 574(s) it may be dealt with by you as a competent military authority. Although the petition has not been submitted within the six month period after date of promulgation as required by KR (Can) 574(c) it is nevertheless suggested that it be given consideration as it is the first petition submitted by this soldier.

9. In view of the recommendation of MGA, CMHQ and of the opinion of the JAG it is considered that the sentence is just and proper and it is recommended that the sentence be not disturbed and that the petition be disallowed.

10. This case was referred to the War Service Gratuity Board of Review who on 14 Nov 45 decided that the soldier was not entitled to WSG by virtue of Sec 12(a) of the War Service Grants Act in its present form. The Board was of the opinion, however, that the circumstances warrant further consideration in the event of enabling authority being granted by Parliament. If it is directed that this petition be disallowed the file will be referred to the WSG Board of Review for further consideration.

11. The petitioner will be informed as to your direction.

Dear Sir:

CORPORAL F.R. MARSH NO. 102252

Our conversation December 18th, 1945, I am enclosing the reference data with regards to his Court Marchal. I have contacted Colonel Ellis and Major Clark of Calgary. Either one of them will do all in their power to have the Court Marchal reconsidered and the sentance revised.

We are of the opinion that this is an unfair turn of justice considering the N.R.M.A. situation as it existed in Canada at that time.

Any further information that you require in submitting this, please contact me personally by phone or otherwise.

Dear Sir.-

Cpl F.R. Marsh
No.102252

I am writing in regards to having my Court Martial reviewed.

I submit the following information.-

Date of my enlistment - Sept,1st,1942

Date of going Overseas - Sept,13,1943

Date of joining Regiment Oct,1943 - Calgary Highlanders.

Date of going into action, July 15,1944

Date of first wound, - July 25,1944

Date of second wound, - Aug,26,1944

Date of return to Regiment after first wound - Aug,9,1944
after second wound - Nov,9,1944

I left the Regiment on November 10,1944. My reason for going was that my nerves were very bad, due to the fact I had been wounded twice in actual combat.

Date of apprehension was approximately Nov,25,1944.

I served in "D" Company of the Calgary Highlanders under Major McKenzie and Captain Harrison was second in command.

Date of Court Martial, Dec,7,1944.

Sentence of Court Martial 18 months imprisonment with hard labor, reduced to the ranks, and discharged with ignominy.

I was returned to Canada April 27,1945 to serve the rest of my sentence, but was released after serving nine months.

Date of Discharge - Sept,18,1945.

While serving in Hedley Detention in England I volunteered to go back into any branch of the services, but the Infantry, which was not considered. Being wounded twice I knew my nerves were too bad for that type of combat.

cont. Cpl F.R. Marsh, No.102252

I would appreciate it very much if you could arrange to have my Court Martial sentence reweiwed and grant me an Honorable Discharge from the Services, not only for myself but for my Brother's sake - Gunner J.E.Marsh No.L-66567 -, who has just returned from Overseas. My Brother served through France, Belguim, Holland and Germany and my having a dishonorable discharge also reflects upon him. We wish to go through the world together and if possible at all join the Canadian Legion. I had no previous crimes and I hope you will consider this, and all the aspects of my case. I hope you can see fit to allow me the right to be able to apply for a job, and earn a living. My Brother and I had hoped to work together. My sentence seemsvery severe. It concerns my brother very much. I leave the matter in your hands, and will await your decision.

Yours respectfully

F.R. Marsh

CONFIDENTIAL

L.102252 Pte Marsh, F.R.

1. The marginally named soldier is now serving a sentence of 18 months imprisonment with hard labour and discharge with ignominy from His Majesty's Service awarded 7 Dec 44 by FGCM for an offence under AA Sec 15(1) of absenting himself without leave when his unit was about to move to a forward area in contact with the enemy. As part of this award he was reduced to the ranks from the rank of corporal. He has so far earned full remissions for good conduct while serving his sentence and if he continues so to do his sentence of imprisonment will expire 6 Dec 45.

2. This soldier enlisted 1 Sep 42 at Regina, Saskatchewan, and he is now 23 years of age. Since enlistment he has had no recorded military or civil offence except the one set forth in paragraph 1 above.

3. This soldier has been medically examined and it is certified that he is fit to undergo detention.

4. It is stated in a report from the Comd., 1 Canadian Detention Barracks, that this soldier no longer feels capable of service in action.

5. This soldier was holding the rank of L/Sergeant in an infantry battalion and at a conference with his Company Commander he was warned for an early move in contact with the enemy. Immediately following this conference he absented himself without leave. At his trial he pleaded guilty to the charge and made no statement in explanation of his conduct. It is considered that despite his good record and the fact he was twice wounded in action, his very serious offence when he had the responsibilities of a senior non-commissioned officer and the obligation to be an example to his men justifies exemplary punishment. It is accordingly recommended that the sentence of imprisonment be served in full and thereafter this soldier be discharged with ignominy from His Majesty's Service in accordance with paragraph 9 of Appendix to C.A.R.O. 1029. This soldier probably realised that his offence would lead to imprisonment and possible discharge.

6. It has been directed, pursuant to P.C.1304/44, that this soldier be returned to Canada in custody under sentence. Herewith original proceedings of the FGCM held 7 Dec 44 and original A.F. A104 in respect thereof on which this direction has been endorsed.

Dear Mr. Marsh,

Re: L.102252, Pte. F. R. Marsh

With reference to my letter of the 8th June, 1945, I have received a report respecting your son, the above mentioned soldier.

I am informed that on conviction by Field General Court Martial on a charge of absenting himself without leave your son was sentenced to eighteen months imprisonment with hard labour, and to be discharged from His Majesty's Service.

You will be interested to learn that there exists a system of good conduct marks whereby a soldier undergoing detention is able to earn a remission of up to one-third of his total sentence. In view, however, of the fact that he had the responsibilities of a senior non-commissioned officer at the time of his offence, the responsible officers of the Department do not feel that they would be justified in recommending any further remission at the present time.

The ultimate date of your son's release is dependent in large part on his attitude and conduct while serving his sentence.

Yours very truly,

(H.L. Cameron) Colonel,
Military Secretary.

1. This SUS was tried by FGCM in Holland 7 Dec 44 on a charge of absenting himself without leave from 9 Nov 44 until apprehended 24 Nov 44. He was found guilty and was sentenced to 18 months imprisonment with hard labour and discharge with ignominy from His Majesty's Service. As part of the award he was reduced to the ranks from the rank of Cpl.

2. This SUS has recently been returned from O/S in custody under the provisions of GO 131/44 with the recommendation that he be required to serve the sentence in full and thereafter be discharged with ignominy in accordance with the sentence of the Court. He is presently serving sentence at No 62 MDB (Camp Borden).

3. On review of sentence, the MGA, CMHQ made the following observation in regard to the disposal of this SUS:

"This soldier was holding the rank of L/Sergeant in an infantry battalion and at a conference with his Company Commander he was warned for an early move in contact with the enemy. Dear Mr. Marsh,

Re: L-102252 - Private F. R. Marsh

In the absence of General McNaughton, I have your letter of 2 June, 1945, in which you request that your son, the above mentioned soldier who is presently serving a term of detention, be released in order that he may be returned to support you.

The Minister does not feel that he would be justified in granting the release of an individual soldier from the Canadian Army who is undergoing detention unless he has been so advised by the responsible officers of the Department.

I will, however, bring your representations to the attention of the responsible officers and I shall be pleased to write you again as soon as I have received a report.

L-102252 Pte Marsh, FR

1. The m/n soldier is now serving a sentence of 18 months imprisonment with hard labour and discharge with ignominy from His Majesty's Service awarded 7 Dec 44 by FGCM for an offence under AA Sec 15(1) of absenting himself without leave when his unit was about to move to a forward area in contact with the enemy. As part of this awarde he was reduced to the ranks from the rank of Corporal. He has so far earned full remissions for good conduct while serving his sentence and if he continues so to do his sentence of imprisonment will expire 6 Dec 45.

2. This soldier enlisted 1 Sep 42 at Regina, Saskatchewan, and he is now 23 years of age. Since enlistment he has had no recorded military or civil offence except the one set forth in paragraph 1 above.

3. This soldier has been medically examined and it is certified that he is fit to undergo detention.

4. It is stated in a report from the Comd 1 Cdn Detention Barracks, that this soldier no longer feels capable of service in action.

5. This soldier was holding the rank of L/Sergeant in an infantry battalion and at a conference with his Company Commander he was warned for an early move in contact with the enemy. Immediately following this conference he absented himself without leave. At his trial he pleaded guilty to the charge and made no statement in explanation of his conduct. It is considered that despite his good record and the fact that he was twice wounded in action, his very serious offence when he had the responsibilities of a senior non-commissioned officer and the obligation to be an example to his men justifies exemplary punishment. It is accordingly recommended that the sentence of imprisonment be served in full and thereafter this soldier be discharged with ignominy from His Majesty's Service in accordance with paragraph 9 of Appendix to CARO 1029. This soldier probably realised that his offence would lead to imprisonment and possible discharge.

6. It has been directed, pursuant to PC 1304/44, that this soldier be returned to Canada in custody under sentence. Herewith original proceedings of the FGCM held 7 Dec 44 and original AF A3104 in respect thereof on which this direction has been endorsed.

E3 RE IN MITIGATION OF SENTENCE E3
CASE OF L 102252 CPL MARSH F.R.

I feel that there are certain facts in connection with the service of Corporal Marsh, which have a bearing on this case and which must be brought forth.

Corporal Marsh enlisted in September 1942 and from then until now, his record is that of a good soldier. He joined the Calgary Highlanders in time to come to France with them and from the time that the battalion first saw action, his services were sufficiently satisfactory and outstanding to bring to him the rank of Corporal.

In the battle of May-Sur-Orne in July 44, Corporal Marsh received his first wound, a piece of shrapnel in the back. This wound left its impression on him but on returning to the battalion Corporal Marsh managed to carry on sufficiently well to be promoted to Lance Sergeant. Then he received his second wound, a bullet through the arm on the Seine Lines on 16 August. This time Corporal Marsh was out of action until rejoining the battalion on 7 Nov.

The significant fact that comes out of this, is that, on two occasions, Cpl Marsh was wounded. On two occasions, he was evacuated to hospital where, by observing less fortunate comrades, he came to realize how very fortunate he had been. He also, came to fully appreciate the terrible possibilities of another such wound. These impressions are not easily shaken off. A final blow struck

Cpl Marsh, when, on his return to the unit in November, he learned that nearly every other N.C.O. he had known in his platoon, had been killed in action."

These facts will serve to give some idea of Cpl Marsh's frame of mind when, warned that the unit was again going in to action, he chose to absent himself May they be considered when the court is arriving at a sentence

Summary of Evidence in the case of L102252 Cpl Marsh, F.R., "D" Coy., The Calgary Highlanders, The Canadian Army Overseas.

By the direction of the Commanding Officer the evidence is taken under oath.

FIRST WITNESS

G27127 C.S.M. MacDonald, J.C., "D" Coy., The Calgary Highlanders, CA(O) sworn states:

I am C.S.M. of "D" Coy., The Calgary Highlanders, CA(O). On the afternoon of the 9th Nov 1944, the officer commanding "D" Coy held an "O" group which included Pl Cmdrs and Pl. Sgts, Cpl Marsh being acting Pl Sgt of No. 16 platoon. During the "O" Group, the O.C. ordered the Pl Cmdrs & Pl Sgts to have their men in barracks by 2230 hrs, and to take a Tattoo roll-call of their platoons. This report was to be handed in to me at Coy H.Q. at 2230 hrs, 9th Nov 1944 by platoon Sgts. At 2230 hrs there was no report from Cpl Marsh's platoon, so I went to investigate the matter and found Cpl Marsh to be absent. I reported him as an absentee to Bn H.Q. I did not see him again until approximately 1600 hrs, 28 Nov 1944, at Bn H.Q.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

At that time, Cpl Marsh, was acting as my platoon Sgt, and was present at the "O" group. While at this "O" group we were all warned by the Coy Cmdr that "D" Coy would be moving to a forward area that following morning at approximately 0100 hrs, 10th Nov 44.

O.23546 Pte Maillet, G.J.

1. The marginally named soldier is now serving a sentence of 2 years imprisonment with hard labour and discharge with ignominy from His Majesty's Service awarded 22 Sep 44 by FGCM for an offence under AA Sec 18(2), wilfully injuring himself with intent to render himself unfit for service. He has so far earned full remissions for good conduct while serving his sentence and accordingly, if he continues so to do, his sentence of imprisonment will expire 25 Jan 46.

2. This soldier enlisted 20 Sep 41 at Moncton, New Brunswick, and he is now 22 years of age. Since enlistment he has been found guilty of 1 offence under AA Sec 15(1), and the above-mentioned offence under AA Sec 18(2).

3. This soldier was reboarded 2 Jan 45 and placed in Pulhems Grades M2 S3 on a diagnosis of psycnopathic personality, inadequate. The Medical Board states that he is fit to undergo detention.

4. The Neuropsychiatrist and Selection of Personnel Officer who have examined this soldier state that he was only under fire for one day when this offence occurred, that he expresses a willingness to return to action for the sake of his dependents only, that he is a basically timid, unaggressive individual of low average intelligence, that he is easily frightened and is not of operational calibre.

5. Taking into consideration these reports and the serious nature of this soldier's deliberate offence, to which he pleaded guilty, it is considered that the punishment awarded is appropriate, that he should serve the term of imprisonment in full and thereafter be discharged with ignominy from His Majesty's Service in accordance with paragraph 9 of Appendix to C.A.R.O. 1029, and it is so recommended. It is probable that this soldier has misconducted himself for the purpose of obtaining his discharge.

6. It has accordingly been directed, pursuant to P.C.1304/44, that this soldier be returned to Canada in custody under sentence. Herewith original proceedings of the FGCM held 22 Sep 44 and original A.F. A3104 in respect thereof on which this direction has been endorsed.

Plea in mitigation by defending officer

"This accused is, on the evidence, - and from the analysis made by Capt Johnson, - M.O. 53 - he is described as a "psychopathic personality and inadequate" - I can do no better than to ask the Court to treat this case as such - I would suggest that a further report by a psychiatrist should be recommended by the Court.

G 13073 L/Cpl F Britney, 2 Cdn Pro Coy, Cdn Pro Corps, sworn states :-

I am G 13073 L/Cpl Britney, F, 2 Cdn Pro Coy, Cdn Pro Corps. I interviewed the accused, whom I recognize as G23546 Pte MAILLET GJ, at No 7 Cdn Gen Hosp on the 10 Sep 44. L/Cpl Kydd GE was present at the time. I identified myself to the accused telling him I was a member of the Cdn Pro Corps and was investigating the circumstances surrounding an injury sustained by him. I cautioned him in the following words :- "You are not obliged to say anything unless you wish to do so but whatever you do say will be taken down in writing and may be used in evidence". The accused understood this caution. He then volunteered to make a statement. This statement was reduced to writing and after it was taken the accused was given the statement to read over and he read it and then it was read over to him and he understood it and he signed it. I produce the statement I refer to in my evidence and I recognize the signature on the statement as that belonging to the accused. There were no threats, promises of reward or inducements held out to the accused to obtain this statement. The accused was not under arrest at this time.

I am Capt WE Armour, medical officer in charge of ward 6 of No 7 Cdn Gen Hosp. Pte MAILLET was admitted to my ward on the 25 Aug 44 suffering from a wound of the left foot incurred on the 23 Aug 44. According to medical records accompanying him the wound passed vertically through 1st metacarpo-phalangeal joint fracturing the base of the proximal phalanx and the head of the first metatarsal He progress has been fair. At present there seems to be some infection which will require further treatment. He is still in a plaster cast and I am not prepared to state what prognosis is until this has been removed, which should be in about ten days time. In my opinion the wound could have been caused by a small arms projectile fired from a weapon held by the man himself. I am not prepared to state at what distance from the wound the weapon was fired.

Statement of G-23546 Pte. Maillet G.J. Sept. 10-44
Black Watch, 2 Inf. Div.

I, Maillet G.J. after being warned that I need not say anything but what I do say will be taken down in writing & may be used as evidence do hereby give the following voluntary statement:

I enlisted on the 20th. of Sept. 41 in the North Shore Regt. & some after was sent to the admin staff of the R.C.A. from ~~May~~ Apr. 6-42 until May-44 Then I was reallocated to the B.W. I landed in Eng. 27 July 44 & in France about Aug. 12-44. going to C.B.R.D. & from there I was sent to the B.W. Regt.

About Aug. 20th. we contacted the enemy near Quesnay & exchanged some fire, then dug in. The action lasted for approx. 2½ hr. & then we moved up & dug in again. Next day we moved again in the direction of Falaise, free of any heavy fire. That afternoon we were under heavy mortar fire & I saw one man killed & two others wounded, & the right upset me pretty badly.

A fellow whom I only know as Mac was in the trench with me & when he saw how bad I was he went for the sgt. & brought him to me. The sgt. name is Dekeyle. He thought me unfit to remain under fire & had a stretcher bearer take me to the M.O. who sent me back again. We got orders to move up again to engage the enemy & I knew I could not stand it so decided to get out of it. My rifle had a bayonet on it & I stuck in in the ground with the muzzle of the rifle pointing at my left foot & pulled the trigger, & the bullet entered & pierced the base of my big toe. A stretcher bearer was called & he took me in a jeep to the M.O. He just took my boot off & sent me to a C.C.S. where a shell dressing was applied to the wound. Next morning I was taken to some Can. Hosp. & the following day to No 7 Can. Gen. Hosp. This happened on Aug. 23rd. at approx. 2130 hrs. & I was admitted to No 1 C.G.H. on Aug. 25-44.

There is no use in my going back to the front lines as I know I couldn't stand it.

I have read the above statement, have no more to add, & it is true.

Statement of G-23546 Pte Maillet G.J.
Black Watch Regt. 2Inf. Div.

Suspected Self-inflicted Wound

I, Maillet G.J. after being warned that I need not say anything but what I do say will be taken down in writing and may be used as evidence do hereby give the following voluntary statment:
I enlisted on the 20th Sept.41 in the N orth Shore Regt. and soon after was sent to the administration staff of the R .C.A. from April6-42 until May 44. Then I was re-allocated to the B.W. I landed in Eng. 27 July 44,and in France about Aug 12-44, going to C.B.R .G. and from there I was sent to the B.W.R sgt.

About Aug 20th. we contacted the enemy rear-guard and exchanged some fire,then dug in. The action lasted for approx.an hour and then we moved up and dug in again. Next day we moved again in the direction of Falaise, free of any Jerry fire. That afternoon we were under heavy mortar fire and I saw one man killed and two others wounded , and the sight upset me pretty badly. A fellow whom I know as Mac was in the trench with me and when he saw how bad I was he went for the Sgt. and brought him to me. The Sgt's name is Dehayes. He thought me unfit to remain under fire and had a stretcher bearer take me to the M.O. who sent me back again. We got orders to move up again to engage the enemy and I knew I could not stand it and so decided to get out of it. My rifle had a bayonet on it and I stuck it in the ground with the muzzle of the rifle pointing at my left foot and pulled the trigger,and the bullet entered and pierced the base of my big toe. A stretcher bearer was called and he took me in a jeep to the M.O. He just took my boot off and sent me to a C.C.S. where a shell-dressing was applied to the wound. Next morning I was taken to some Can. Hosp. and the following morning to No 7 Can. Gen. Hosp. This happened on Aug.23rd at approx.2130 hrs. and I was admitted to No 7 C.G.H. on Aug.25-44.

There is no use in my going back to the front lines as I know I couldn't stand it.
I have read the above statement,have no more to add, and it is true.

Proceedings on Plea of Not Guilty

Question to the accused.

Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity for preparing your defence?

Answer.

(If the accused applies for an adjournment see instructions at page 747 M.M.L.)

The Prosecutor declines to make an opening address.

~~The Prosecutor proceeds to call witnesses.~~

First Witness for prosecution.

~~being duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor.~~

Question

THE PROSECUTOR: I produce M.F.B. 375; M.F.M. 216; M.F.B. 1481 in the total sum of $9.94; and M.F.B. 1482 in the total sum of $35.85.

The Defending Officer has no objection to any of the documents.

The documents are read and marked Exhibits "I" to "L" respectively, signed by the President and attached to the proceedings.

D

The Prosecutor has no further witness to call.
The Prosecution is closed.

Motion – No Case

It is open to the accused, his Counsel or Defending Officer at the close of the case for the prosecution to submit that the evidence given for the prosecution has not established a prima facie case against him, and that he should not therefore be called upon for his defence. If such Motion is made, the proceedings will be recorded on separate pages which will be inserted immediately before the present page D. If the Court is satisfied that the Motion is well founded, it must acquit the accused and register its Finding on Page A.

Defence

The President will now address the acused as follows:—

"It is my duty at this stage to advise you as to your rights in the general conduct of your defence. The procedure to be followed depends entirely on the answers given to the formal questions which are about to be put to you. It is therefore important that you should understand and appreciate the effect of your answers to these questions. You do not need to give evidence on oath unless you wish to do so, but if you do give sworn evidence you are liable to be cross-examined by the Prosecutor and questioned by the Court."

"If you do not give evidence on oath you are entitled to make a statement giving your account of the subject of the charge against you. You will not be sworn and no question may be put to you by the Court or any person with respect to such statement. I must warn you, however, that evidence given on oath will carry more weight with the Court than a mere statement not on oath."

If there is no Defending Officer the President should then explain to the accused the effect which his answer to the formal questions on Page D of the proceedings will have on the order of the Closing Addresses as provided in R.P. 40 and 41.

Question to the accused. Do you apply to give evidence yourself as a witness, or do you wish to make an unsworn statement?

Answer. I would sooner make a statement under oath, sir.

Question to the accused. Do you intend to call any witness in your defence?

Answer. No, sir.

Question to the accused. ~~Is the witness to be called a witness as to character only?~~

Answer.

FIRST WITNESS FOR THE DEFENCE:

The accused, L.101362 Pte. Clarence William MYERS, No. 12 District Depot, C.A., being duly sworn, is examined by the Defending Officer.

Q. Will you tell the Court, Myers, what date you enlisted in the Canadian Army?
A. On the 16th day of July, 1942.

Q. And did you get any leave after you joined the Army?
A. Yes, sir.

Q. And when did you get this leave?
A. I just can't remember the date, sir, but it was.....

Q. Approximately how long after you joined the Army did you get leave?
A. It was about, approximately one week after I joined the Army on the 16th day of July, 1942.

Q. And what was the purpose of the leave?
A. Pardon.

Q. What was the reason for your leave?
A. Enlistment leave.

Q. And where did you go on your leave?
A. To my home town, Meadow Lake, Saskatchewan.

Q. When you were on your leave what were the circumstances at home?
A. Well, when I was at home my father was there too at the present time, and he never did very much at home when I was there. He was a man that drank a considerable lot of liquor; and he abused my mother quite a bit for another thing. And he got into some trouble at some home down at Meadow Lake, Saskatchewan, and he had a fine to pay and they also warned him that he wasn't to show up in the town again. So after this happened he was home for a couple of months--well, it was about four months after, I guess--and he left home without no reason as far as family affairs was concerned.

Q. What did you do next, Myers?
A. After my father left, well, I figured that there was just my mother at home and I have a brother what was overseas, and I stayed at home. I wrote one letter to Capt. Davies and it was sent in by a neighbour of ours; and I did not get no reply on it.

Q. What was the letter about?
A. Asking for an extension of leave.

Q. Who was Capt. Davies?
A. Pardon.

Q. Who was Capt. Davies--this Capt. Davies you sent the letter to?
A. He was in the 12th District Depot here in Regina. He was in our platoon. I addressed it to Capt. Davies at Regina, Saskatchewan, 12th District Depot.

Q. And you say you didn't have any reply?
A. No, sir.

Q. So, what were your intentions then after that?
A. I figured that I didn't get any reply so I stayed at home.

Q. You say your father left about four months after you went home on leave?
A. Yes, sir; it was approximately somewhere around there.

Q. What would your intentions have been if he had come back?
A. I would have returned to my unit, sir.

Q. Is your father at home now?
A. No, sir.

Q. Has he been home since he left in 1942?
A. No.

Q. What were the circumstances with regards to your being apprehended by the Mounted Police?
A. I beg your pardon.

Q. What were the circumstances, or--let's see, how shall I put it now--where were you at the time when the Mounted Police apprehended you?
A. I was at home, sir.

Q. And what were you doing at home at the time the Mounted Police picked you up?
A. I was in bed, sir, when they came.

The Court draws the attention of the Defending Officer to Exhibit "J".

Q. Who were you apprehended by, Myers?
A. By four Provosts that was there and two R.C.M.P's.

Q. Is there anything else then you wish to add to your statement you have already made in regards to your absence?
A. There's one thing, sir: My mother is left at home and I have 8 head of cattle, 4 head of horses, 8 pigs and approximately around about 65 or 70 chickens; and she is all alone at the present time.

Q. Is there anything else then, Myers?
A. No, sir.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR

Q. Pte. Myers, you admit then that you were absent from 0815 hours on the 25th of August, 1942, from your Unit, 12th District Depot, without leave?
A. Yes, sir, I admit that. I believe I misunderstood that; I believe I said "No, sir" didn't it?

Q. Well, you were absent without a pass then?
A. Yes, sir.

Q. And you remained so absent without a pass.....
A. Yes, sir.

Q. .....until you were apprehended at 0600 hours on the 22nd March 1945 by the Military Power, as you told the Court?
A. Yes, sir.

Q. Now, I am going to try and assist you to refresh your memory on the dates of your enlistment. Actually you came in on the 16th but you were attested in the Army from as of the 20th of July, 1942; that's right, isn't it?
A. Yes, it was the 16th; yes, sir.

Q. When you first came in?
A. Yes, sir.

Q. And you were actually attested into the Army on the 20th of July; that is, by the time you got through with your medical examination and one thing and another?
A. I presume it was around there; yes, sir.

Q. And you were granted your enlistment leave from the 24th of July to the 31st of July, you recall?
A. Yes, I know it was the 31st July when I came back--the last day of the Fair--that's right.

Q. Now, when you went home on this enlistment leave, was this brother who is now serving overseas at home?
A. No, sir. He was at Rosetown, Saskatchewan, at the present time.

Q. He was working there?
A. Yes, sir.

Q. He wasn't in the Army?
A. No, not at that period of time.

Q. And your father, he was at home.....
A. Yes, sir, he was at home.

Q. .....at that time?
A. Yes, sir.

Q. And the trouble hadn't started then?
A. Pardon.

Q. The trouble hadn't started with your father in the town, other than his trouble of drinking?
A. Well, it went for a number of years, sir--his drinking--but it happened just after I got back, this trouble in Meadow Lake.

Q. Well, I mean, the first week you were home on your enlistment leave, it didn't happen then?
A. No, sir.

Q. And then you returned to your Unit, 12th District Depot, after your enlistment leave was up?
A. Yes, sir.

Q. Now, the trouble that occurred with your father then happened after you left the Unit again and were home?
A. Yes, sir.

Q. At the time of the trouble your other brother wasn't in the Army?
A. No, sir.

Q. But he was working some place?
A. Yes, he was working at Rosetown, Saskatchewan.

Q. Rosetown. The only other children are yourself and a sister who is married?
A. Yes, sir.

Q. Now, this letter that you wrote to Capt. Davies; you say you asked for an extension of your leave?
A. Yes, sir.

Q. Since the month of August, 1942, Myers, until you were apprehended did you do anything else to ascertain whether or not you had a leave--whether you were permitted to stay at home?
A. I beg your pardon.

Q. Since the 25th--since you wrote that letter to Capt. Davies.....
A. Yes, sir.

Q. .....which you said was almost right after you got home.....
A. Yes, sir.

Q. .....did you take any other steps to find out if you were doing the right thing by staying at home?
A. No, sir.

Q. You did nothing?
A. No, sir.

Q. In spite of the fact that you received no reply?
A. No, I didn't receive no reply, sir.

Q. You knew you should have received a reply?
A. Yes, sir.

Q. When did your father leave the home; the approximate month?
A. Oh, it was somewhere around in December sometime. I just forget the date. It was around the latter part of December when my father left.

Q. You told the Court that had your father returned it was your intention to come back to the Army?
A. Yes, sir.

Q. Had your father not returned, I presume you had no intention to come back?
A. Yes, I had intentions of coming back after my father had returned home to look after things at home.

Q. But while he failed to return you intended to stay at home?
A. Yes, sir.

Q. Have you heard from your father since December, 1942?
A. Yes, we had one letter from him two months ago. That is the first word of where he was; and that was received from my sister.

The Defending Officer declines to re-examine.

QUESTIONED BY THE COURT

Q. Where is your home located in reference to Meadow Lake?

A. Ten miles' west of Meadow Lake. It aint a place we are renting; it's a place we bought. It is six acres of land which we bought.

Q. Do I understand that you were at that place, at home, all the time from August 1942 until apprehended?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Are there Mounted Police stationed at Meadow Lake?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. You say you were in bed at the time you were apprehended?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Of course, you couldn't have your Army uniform on then?

A. No, sir.

The witness resumes his seat.

The Prosecutor declines to make a closing address.

The Defending Officer makes a closing address. See document marked "M" attached.

CLOSING ADDRESS BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

I wish to submit this to the Court, sir, in summarization: That the accused volunteered his services in the Canadian Army in July of 1942. Shortly after he had enlisted his father was evidently in a little trouble at home and appears, according to the accused's statements to be--shall I say--irresponsible and not capable of looking after his farm and land. So, according to the accused's statement, he throught that he should look after his mother on the farm. And he did, according to his statement, make application for leave, to which he had no reply. And shortly after he went home his father left and the accused decided to stay and look after his mother and the farm.

That is all I have, sir.

Proceedings on Plea of Not Guilty

Question to the accused.

Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity for preparing your defence?

Answer. No, sir.

(If the accused applies for an adjournment see instructions at page 747 M.M.L.)

The Prosecutor declines to make an opening address.

The Prosecutor proceeds to call witnesses.

First Witness for prosecution.

being duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor.

Question

THE PROSECUTOR: I produce Daily Part II Order No. 19, 1st Bn. Oxford Rifles; M.F.M. 215; M.F.B. 1481; and M.F.B. 1482.

THE COURT: Have you any objection to the Part II Order?

THE DEFENDING OFFICER: No objection, sir.

THE COURT: I presume this Daily Orders Part II of the Oxford Rifles is being submitted under C.A.R.O. 5126?

THE PROSECUTOR: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: That Order states in paragraph 1: "For the purposes of Section 163 of the Army Act the following books, orders and documents, or certified copies thereof, or certified extracts therefrom, filed with and kept by any unit..." etc. "...shall be deemed to be regimental books...", and I think under that Order this document is properly admissible, despite the previous ruling on page 109 of the Digest of Opinions and Rulings which states: "They (Part I and Part II Orders) should be put in through copies certified by the officer having charge of the books of the Unit, who should offer his true signature, not a mimeographed one." It would seem that the purpose of C.A.R.O. 5126 is to simplify the production of documents for the purpose of evidence as constituting prima facie evidence of the facts thereby stated, and that such facts refer to the person charged. As this document clearly purports to be Part II Order No. 12 of the 1st Bn. Oxford Rifles, dated 28th December, 1944, the same is admitted as an exhibit.

Part II Order No. 19 is read and marked Exhibit "I" signed by the President and attached to the proceedings.

THE COURT: Have you any objection to M.F.M. 215?

THE DEFENDING OFFICER: No objection, sir.

M.F.M. 215 is read and marked Exhibit "J", signed by the President and attached to the proceedings.

THE COURT: Have you any objection to M.F.B. 1481?

THE DEFENDING OFFICER: Yes, sir. Although it is signed by this Stephenson, it doesn't show his appointment, except for the fact that he is a member of No. 12 District Company, R.C.A.S.C., but not every officer in 12th District Company has the authority, or is entitled to sign 1481; only those who happen to be D.S. & T.O., A.D.S. & T.O., C.S. & T.O., or A.C.S. & T.O.

THE COURT: You will notice in the Handbook on District Courts-Martial, under "Evidence" on page 63(c)--page 23 of the amendment--dealing with M.F.B. 1481, paragraph (4) states: "The officer signing M.F.B. 1481 must be the same as the one referred to in line one of said form"--that part is all right--"and should set out his rank"--his rank is set out--"his unit"--his unit is set out--"attachment (if any) and appointment." And it is in respect to that part the Defence is objecting. The document does not set out the appointment of the officer signing the transport warrants. Have you anything to say on that, Capt. McMeans?

THE PROSECUTOR: Sir, in paragraph (2) on the same page, the mandatory portion of the regulation states: "The form must be signed by the officer who actually issued or authorized the issuance of the transport warrants..... It may not be signed by another officer "for" such officer." It is particularly submitted that the word "must" is used in paragraph (2) and that in paragraph (4) it should be noted the word "should" is used. It says again, "...must be the same as the one referred to in line one" as has already been read, " and should set out his rank, unit, attachment (if any) and appointment."

It is respectfully submitted, sir, that on the face of the document this is a substantial compliance with the regulations, particularly since an officer of No. 12 R.C.A.S.C. Company of M.D. 12 can reasonably be inferred to be an officer having authority to issue such transportation. It is open to the Defence, once the document has been accepted as prima facie evidence, to dispute the fact that this officer was not an officer authorized to issue the warrant.

Again, if any sensible broadening of the powers that permitted production of documentary evidence is to be taken from C.A.R.O. 5126, surely under paragraph (2), sub-paragraph (iv): "Documentary evidence of the expenses incurred in apprehension and return of an absentee or deserter as made admissible by law shall, on production thereof, in any proceedings.....be admissible in evidence in proof of the facts thereby stated, without further verification of such facts, or the necessity of their production through a witness" etc.

It is not the intention of the Prosecution to produce, on the strength of this Routine Order, loosely and carelessly drawn documents. It would certainly not be in the interests of justice to do so. Nevertheless, the Prosecution does not desire, for the sake of a formality, to have an accused languish for a further period of time awaiting his trial, if the document in the first instance is prima facie and admissible. Sir.

THE COURT: We are dealing here actually with something in the nature of a statutory requirement. That is what we are debating on the form, and you will note in the authority the Prosecutor quoted, sub-paragraph (iv) of (2), C.A.R.O. 5126: "Documentary evidence of the expenses incurred in apprehension.....as made admissible by law." That is a prior requirement before you can go on to "shall, on production thereof" etc. That is, the requirement is that the document submitted must be made admissible by law before you can discuss the question of producing it at all and having it accepted. So, it hinges on the point as to whether the omission to state the signing officer's appointment makes this document inadmissible. That is what it boils down to.

In the governing instructions in the Handbook on District Courts-Martial, page 23 of the amendments, on this type of document paragraph (4) does state the officer signing must be the same as the one in line one, and as stated before that is complied with here. And it goes on, "...and should set out his rank, unit, attachment (if any) and appointment." It goes on further in the next sentence, "He should also strike out and initial the inapplicable words underneath his signature." I think the interpretation of the word "should" there is that that should be done to comply with the requirement on the form.

THE PROSECUTOR: May the Prosecution suggest, sir: Why the change from "must" to "should" in the same paragraph?

THE COURT: I am just trying to put the Court's interpretation on it. I must take note of this because, supposing the rank and unit had been left out, it would not be complying with the requirements of the form. And then, the Defence has properly raised the question as to whether the omission to put the appointmentin, which is one of those requirements, is fatal or not. However, there is a footnote on the form itself and it only states: "Certificate to be completed by officer who issued or authorized the transport warrants or transportation for the return.....etc.", and as the Court does not feel like ruling that the omission to state the appointment is fatal, the document will be admitted subject to the objection of the Defending Officer.

M.F.B. 1481 is read and marked Exhibit "K", signed by the President and attached to the proceedings.

THE COURT: Any objection to the M.F.B. 1482?

THE DEFENDING OFFICER: No objection, sir.

M.F.B. 1482 is read and marked Exhibit "L", signed by the President and attached to the proceedings.

D

The Prosecutor has no further witness to call.
The Prosecution is closed.

Motion – No Case

It is open to the accused, his Counsel or Defending Officer at the close of the case for the prosecution to submit that the evidence given for the prosecution has not established a prima facie case against him, and that he should not therefore be called upon for his defence. If such Motion is made, the proceedings will be recorded on separate pages which will be inserted immediately before the present page D. If the Court is satisfied that the Motion is well founded, it must acquit the accused and register its Finding on Page A.

Defence

The President will now address the acused as follows:—

"It is my duty at this stage to advise you as to your rights in the general conduct of your defence. The procedure to be followed depends entirely on the answers given to the formal questions which are about to be put to you. It is therefore important that you should understand and appreciate the effect of your answers to these questions. You do not need to give evidence on oath unless you wish to do so, but if you do give sworn evidence you are liable to be cross-examined by the Prosecutor and questioned by the Court."

"If you do not give evidence on oath you are entitled to make a statement giving your account of the subject of the charge against you. You will not be sworn and no question may be put to you by the Court or any person with respect to such statement. I must warn you, however, that evidence given on oath will carry more weight with the Court than a mere statement not on oath."

If there is no Defending Officer the President should then explain to the accused the effect which his answer to the formal questions on Page D of the proceedings will have on the order of the Closing Addresses as provided in R.P. 40 and 41.

Question to the accused. Do you apply to give evidence yourself as a witness, or do you wish to make an unsworn statement?

Answer. I will take the evidence, sir.

Question to the accused. Do you intend to call any witness in your defence?

Answer. No, sir.

Question to the accused. ~~Is the witness to be called a witness as to character only?~~

Answer.

A. Yes, sir. I was there.

Q. You were there?
A. Right.

Q. You were paraded that day with the rest of the troops?
A. Yes, sir.

Q. What is the heading on this document?
A. Warning Order.

Q. Warning Order?
A. Right.

Q. You didn't know what you were signing?
A. No, I didn't.

Q. Were you told on parade what you were signing?

Proceedings on Conviction before Sentence

After the Court has arrived at a Finding on all the charges against the accused and such Finding has been announced to the accused, the Prosecutor will tender to the President M.F.B. 355, together ,when it is possible, with an M.F.M. 6.

These documents are read to the Court by the President, are marked "Y" and "Z", signed by the President and annexed to the proceedings.

Question to the accused. Have you any statement to make concerning the documents which have just been read to you?

Answer. No, sir.

Question to the accused. Do you wish to address the Court?

Answer. Yes, through my Defending Officer.

THE DEFENDING OFFICER: Sir: In my plea for mitigation of sentence I would like to bring to the attention of the Court the exceptionally good military record of the accused since enrolment in the H.D. Army. Not only is his Conduct Sheet clear of any entries, but this soldier was for sometime a Lance Bombardier in his original unit, the Artillery, then was reverted in order to transfer to the Infantry. And shortly after being taken on strength of an Infantry unit his superior officers there thought that he had enough on the ball to warrant being promoted to the rank of Corporal; which means that Miller was a Lance Bombardier in the Artillery and a Corporal in the Infantry. That is all, sir..

The Sentence is then recorded on Page "A' of the proceedings and same is announced to the accused in open Court.

CLOSING ADDRESS BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

Sir: In this charge of desertion against Pte. Miller the onus is upon the Prosecution to establish without a doubt that the accused had intended to desert.

It is the contention of the Defence that from the sworn statement by the accused; also from the evidence which he gave that he did have some Army clothing on when apprehended, namely a melton cap on which the badge would appear, that he had or he did intend to come back. Therefore, it is the contention of the Defence that the Court consider changing this charge of desertion to one of absence without leave.

Sir.

D

Le procureur n'a plus de témoins à appeler.
La poursuite est close.

Motion de non-lieu

Il est loisible à l'accusé, à son avocat ou à l'officier défenseur, après l'audition de la preuve de la poursuite, d'alléguer que celle-ci n'a pas réussi à établir une présomption légale contre l'accusé et que ce dernier ne devrait pas, par conséquent, être contraint de présenter sa défense. Dans le cas d'une telle motion, le procès verbal sera consigné sur des feuilles séparées qui seront insérées immédiatement avant la présente page D. Si la cour estime que cette allégation est bien fondée, elle doit acquitter l'accusé et consigner son verdict à la page A.

Défense

Le président s'adresse à l'accusé en ces termes:

"Il est de mon devoir en cette circonstance de vous aviser de vos droits touchant la conduite générale de votre défense. La procédure à suivre dépend entièrement des réponses que vous ferez aux questions de forme que nous allons vous poser. Il importe donc que vous compreniez et saisissiez l'effet de vos réponses. Vous n'aurez pas à témoigner sous serment à moins que vous ne le vouliez. Mais, si vous faites des dépositions assermentées, vous serez sujet à l'interrogatoire contradictoire par les soins du procureur et à l'interrogatoire par les soins de la cour."

"Si vous ne faites pas de déposition sous serment, vous avez le droit de faire une déclaration où vous donnerez votre version de l'affaire. Vous ne serez pas assermenté et vous ne serez pas interrogé sur ce que vous dites, par la cour ou par quelque autre personne. Je dois cependant vous prévenir qu'une déposition faite sous serment aura plus de poids aux yeux de la cour qu'une simple déclaration non assermentée."

S'il n'y a pas d'officier défenseur, le président explique alors à l'accusé l'effet que ses réponses aux questions de forme de la page D du procès verbal auront sur l'ordre des dernières plaidoiries, prévu dans les Règles de procédure 40 et 41.

Question à l'accusé. Désirez-vous comparaître, vous-même, comme témoin, ou bien désirez-vous faire une déclaration non assermentée.

Réponse: L'accusé désire rendre témoignage sous serment, Monsieur. (Voir page D-3 et suiv.)

Question à l'accusé. Avez-vous l'intention de citer des témoins pour votre défense?

Réponse: Non Monsieur.

~~Question~~ ~~Avez-vous quelque~~ ~~témoin à l'appui de votre défense?~~

~~Réponse~~

TEMOIN DE LA DEFENSE: L'accusé, H-23455, Soldat Benoit MATHIEU, Liste Générale, A.C., att. A-13 CITC., A.C., étant dûment assermenté, est interrogé par l'Officier Défenseur:

Q. Vous êtes dans l'Armée depuis combien de temps?

R. J'ai été dans l'Armée 8 mois.

Q. Est-ce que vous avez été appelé?

R. Oui Monsieur.

Q. Vous avez signé actif?

R. Oui Monsieur.

Q. Avez-vous une raison?

R. Oui Monsieur. J'ai deux raisons: Quand on m'a appelé j'étais à Port Arthur, a fallu que je me rende au dépôt à Winnipeg. Après le dépôt on m'a demandé si je voulais signer actif. Je voulais pas. Je leur ai demandé des conditions, que si one me donnait l'avantage et si je signais actif que j'étais tout prêt à signer actif si je faisais un cours. Le capitaine m'a dit on te promet pas un cours, si ta conduite est bonne on peut te donner un cours. On a donné des cours à des recrues; la majorité a été donnée aux actifs. Avant de partie pour Winnipeg, j'ai été chez l'Army Examiner. J'ai dit que j'ai toujours désiré de suivre un cours. Au civil j'ai jamais gagné assez cher pour suivre un cours. J'ai été transféré à Sorel. J'ai été à l'Army Examiner. Je voulais un cours dans le Corps des Signaux. Il m'a dit la même chose. Il a dit si ta conduite est bonne, si tout va bien on peut te donner un cours. On peut pas refuser ça. Quand le camp a fermé à Sorel j'ai été à Sherbrooke. J'ai complété mon Basic à Sherbrooke. En partant j'ai été chez l'Army Examiner. Il m'a dit qu'il pouvait pas me donner mon cours, fallait que je fasse mon Advanced. Il m'a dit qu'il fallait faire le Basic et l'Advanced. J'ai insisté pour avoir mon cours. Il a pas pu me le donner. On m'a transféré à Valcartier. J'ai paradé deux fois à l'Army Examiner. La première fois il m'a dit que j'avais une chance vu que mon Conduct Sheet était blanc. Ma conduite était assez bonne dans le passé. Quand mon Advanced a été passé ici j'ai paradé à l'Army Examiner. Je pouvais pas avoir mon cours. J'ai dit que la majorité des actifs avaient des cours, que je voyais pas pour quelle raison je pouvais pas suivre un cours. Il m'a dit qu'il pouvait pas me le donner. La deuxième raison, j'avais des maladies quand je suis rentré dans l'Armée qui ont jamais été dévoilées. Le docteur s'en est aperçu ce matin. Il m'a demandé est-ce que tu as déclaré ça. J'ai dit non.

Q. Quelle maladie?

R. La haute pression de sang. J'ai été appelé en 1940 ou 1941. J'avais été refusé par rapport à ça. On m'avait classé C-2. Durant le temps de mon entraînement j'ai évité d'aller chez le docteur. J'avais la certitude d'avoir mon cours. J'ai pensé que c'était mieux de pas aller le voir.

Q. Avez-vous une assurance?

R. Non parce que quand j'ai été chez un docteur il m'a toujours refusé. J'ai même le certificat du docteur qui me refuse dans la compagnie d'assurance. L'accusé remet à la Cour un certificat médical, signé par le docteur J.H. LaRue, en date du 5 avril 1945.

"Ce document est lu par la Cour, marqué "K", signé par le Président et versé au dossier."

L'accusé remet à la Cour un autre certificat médical, signé par le docteur Chs. Côté, en date du 5 avril 1945.

"Ce document est lu par la Cour, marqué "L", signé par le Président et versé au dossier."

Q. Souffrez-vous d'autres maladies que la haute pression?

R. Il y a deux ans j'ai été opéré pour les deux côtés du nez. Il y a une narine qui est pas guérie encore. Le docteur qui m'a soigné pour le nez m'a fait une opération pour le nez, ce qui occasionne du saignement de nez. La semaine passée j'ai saigné 2 ou 3 fois.

Q. Etes-vous déjà allé chez le M.O. pour d'autres choses?

R. Oui pour les hémorroïdes. On m'a donné 2 pilules blanches. On m'a fait aucune inspection.

Q. Est-ce que ça vous fait souffrir?

R. On peut être une semaine. Des fois on les a assez fortes, ça nous empêche de marcher.

Q. Après votre embarkation leave qu'est-ce que vous avez fait?

R. Après avoir eu mon congé, je me suis rapporté ici le 20, je crois, au matin. J'ai parti le 20 au soir.

INTERROGE CONTRADICTOIREMENT PAR LE PROCUREUR.

Q. Mathieu, est-ce que c'est bien votre signature qui apparaît ici. (le Procureur montre à l'accusé l'avis d'embarquement)

R. Oui Monsieur.

Q. Vous vous souvenez qu'on disait la dessus que vous étiez susceptible d'être appelé en devoir spécial n'importe quel temps à partir du 20?

R. Oui.

Q. Et que si vous ne vous rapportiez pas vous étiez passible d'être accusé de désertion?

R. Oui Monsieur.

Q. Est-ce que vous avez compris ce que vous signiez là?

R. Oui.

Q. Je comprends que vous êtes revenu le 20 au matin?

R. Oui.

Q. Etes-vous allé à la parade?

R. Oui. Le matin et le midi on a pris le roll call, après on a été au Quartier-Maître dans l'après-midi. On a été chez le docteur le matin. Dans l'après-midi on a été au Quartier-Maître. Le matin j'ai dit au docteur quelle maladie j'avais. Il m'a demandé quel remède je prenais. J'ai dit "des suppositoires". On m'a donné une petite feuille pour donner à l'assistant. Son assistant m'a donné deux pilules blanches avec un verre d'eau.

Q. Qui était l'assistant?

R. Je peux pas dire son nom.

Q. Le soir vous êtes parti à quelle heure?

R. Vers 6 heures.

Q. La draft n'était pas partie?

R. Non Monsieur.

Q. Vous avez été absent depuis ce soir-là jusqu'au 2 avril 1945, est-ce exact?

R. Oui Monsieur.

Q. On dit, Mathieu, à votre retour ici, le 3 avril cette année, il vous manquait des articles d'équipement dont vous avez entendu la lecture tout à l'heure. Est-ce vrai que ça vous manquait?

R. Oui c'est vrai, presque les trois quarts sont revenus ici. Chez nous sont venus me voir dimanche. Il y avait du linge qu'ils ont pas pu trouver chez nous. C'est chez nous encore.

Q. Qu'est-ce qu'on vous a rapporté:

1 greatcoat
1 pr. de bottines
1 battledress, pantalon et blouse
2 sous-vêtements d'hiver
1 sous-vêtement d'été
1 pr. bas de laine
1 pr. bas de coton
1 pr. d'anklets
1 gilet sweater jacket
1 chemise en flannelle
1 brosse pour le linge
1 brass button
1 pr. de bretelles
1 kit bag

le reste des articles c'est chez nous.

L'OFFICIER DEFENSEUR NE DESIRE PAS INTERROGER DE NOUVEAU.

DE L'AVIS DE LA COUR, IL N'EST PAS NECESSAIRE DE SE CONFORMER A LA R.P. 83(B).

L'ACCUSE REPREND SON SIEGE

LE PROCUREUR SOUMET LA CAUSE TELLE QUE PROUVEE.

L'OFFICIER DEFENSEUR PRONONCE UNE PLAIDOIRIE.

Procédure sur déclaration de culpabilité précédant la sentence

Quand la cour en est arrivée à une décision relativement à tous les chefs d'accusation contre l'accusé et que ladite décision a été annoncée à ce dernier, le procureur remet au président le modèle M.F.B. 355 et, si possible, un modèle M.F.M. 6.

Ces documents sont lus à la cour par le président, marqués "Y" et "Z", signés par le président et versés au dossier.

Question à l'accusé. Avez-vous quelque déclaration à faire relativement aux documents dont on vient de vous donner lecture ?

Réponse: Non Monsieur.

Question à l'accusé. Désirez-vous adresser la parole à la cour ?

Réponse: Non Monsieur.

La sentence est alors consignée à la page "A" du procès verbal et elle est annoncée à l'accusé en plein tribunal.

Le président établit alors et signe le mandat d'incarcération, le cas échéant, et celui-ci est immédiatement transmis au commandant de l'accusé. Dans chaque cas, il établit aussi et signe le certificat de procès devant une cour martiale permanente et le transmet en conformité des règlements. Le procès verbal ainsi que tous les documents seront transmis au juge-avocat général.

1st Witness, G27701 Sgt Thompson, R J H, C B Highrs, duly sworn states:

"Pl Sgt 14 Pl - at approx 0500 hrs 25 May we moved from area near sqn of tanks to coy HQ where had breakfast. Mr McKeen got story for day and gave it out to Sec leaders to give to secs. Accd's sec ldr was Cpl MacDonald, D.R, who was killed the following day. To go thru Irish on north side of Melfa that day. Pushed off 0900 hrs, under shell fire, stopped at different intervals and dug in 3 times. On last stop were to have supper, which had at 1600 hrs. Before supper noticed MacNeil in sec area. After supper Mr McKeen gave out dope and Cpl MacDonald later reported. We then checked pl area and kitchen area looking for accd. I went to 15 pl to check buddies. Could not find accd or trace him. After ret'd from 15 Pl I reported accd "missing". We moved over river that night and went thru Irish but accd not with us. Not with us again, next saw on 16 June when as acting CQMS he asked for set of mess tins. Had been lot of shelling so classified him as "missing". At time were south of Melfa river a mile or so, close enough that he could shell us from bank of river. Had been fully prepared since the day before and Pl was told by Mr McKeen then. Accd in 5 sec - had been in close arrest but released from escort the day before this. Accd was rfm and carrying a case of PIAT bombs that afternoon. Had been under heavy shell fire before HITLER line broken and lost several men then. Definitely understood and well known that going into action that night."

Cross Examination

"Accd not present when Mr McKeen had "O" gp in morning. Accd was around until 4 o'clock.

Re-Examination - Nil.

Court

"Was definitely understood that we were going. Before Gustav line GOC told regt that we were going in as Armd Div and fighting as a Corps."

R.P. 83(B) complied with.

2nd Witness, F55125 Sgt Erickson, C F, C B Highrs, duly sworn states:

"On 16 June was gd comd - at 1910 hrs accd reported to gd room. Told me had been AWL. I turned him over to Ord Sgt. Accd is Pte MacNeil."

Cross Examination - Nil

Court - Nil.

R.P. 83(B) complied with.

3rd Witness, F54869 CSM MacIntyre, JG, C B Highrs, duly sworn states:

"On 25 May about to cross Melfa River about 1630 hrs - started to cross and got on objective. Next morning Sgt Thompson reported to me. I checked pl and coy area but did not find him. Pushed on and he was posted as missing. Our orders if man not seen to be hit was to be posted as missing. Contacted enemy on 25. Had been shelled previously. On 23 and 24 May were in concentration area getting ready to make crossing. Col had bn parade and told them the role the Armd and Inf Div would be playing - a bn muster parade on 16 May - coy all present. GOC and Bde Comd talked to bn also as to ops. Had been shelled in concentration and forming up areas also. Had casualties all way thru. Cpl MacDonald killed 26 May.

Cross Examination - Nil.

Court

"Can't say found accd's arms. Accd is Pte MacNeil."

R.P. 83(B) complied with.

Pros in closing: Evidence shows time and place when accd went absent; role of coy; knowledge of ops; return also shown. Accd member of fighting sec armed and ready and evidence conclusive that all knew what impending - shell fire several days. Obvious what was coming up.

Def Offr in closing: Possible that while under close arrest was not on parades of GOC and Bde Comd. Possible that accd would not know going to make actual contact with the enemy.

JA sums up: function of court; duty of prosecution, reasonable doubt, desertion, AA 56.

V.55412 Ex-Pte MACNEIL, H J

This ex-soldier was tried by FGCM in Italy on 4 Jul 44 on 2 charges:

(i) absenting himself without leave from 14 Apr 44 until he surrendered himself 5 May 44 (an absence of approx 21 days).

(ii) desertion - absenting himself without leave with intent to avoid battle from 25 May 44 until he reported 16 Jun 44 (an absence of Approx 22 days).

2. He was found guilty of both offences and was sentenced to suffer penal servitude for a period of 3 years.

3. There is nothing in the CM Proceedings to indicate that this ex-soldier's " nerves had cracked up". He gave no evidence on CM, called no witnesses and made no statement. The statement in mitigation of sentence was confined to a statement of this ex-soldier's service. A certificate was filed the date of the trial by the Medical Offr stating that he was fit to undergo trial. Previous convictions indicate 9 summary convictions including 3 absences without leave.

4. He was medically boarded at the time of his discharge and was pulhemized 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 and he had no complaints.

5. This ex-soldier was returned to Cda in custody under sentence in May 45 with the recommendation of CMHQ that, in view of the serious nature of the offence upon which he had been convicted, it was considered that he should serve the sentence in full and be discharged for misconduct under CARO 1029(8).

6. He was so discharged 11 Jul 45 and committed to Dorchester Penitentiary.

7. Circumstances have recently been reviewed by the Board of Review under the WSGA and it was determined that he was not intitled to gratuity.

Private Secretary,

Dear Sir:

The father of H J McNeil, F-55412, presently undergoing detention in Canada, requests that I write you to determine what particular charge the boy was sentenced on. He is anxious to know if there is anything he can do to help.

He has not heard from the boy and is considerably worried. We understand that he is now at military district No 6, awaiting discharge to be sent to Dorchester Penitentiary.

In writing you previously on this matter I made the observation that I did not think that a soldier could be discharged from the services and sent to a Civil Prison for an infraction of military law, as would appear to be this boy's case.

I have written the Minister of Justice and others concerned in the matter. I would appreciate what information you could give me on this particular for the benefit of the father.

Thanking you for your co-operation in the past,

I am,

Yours truly,

LONDON 4 Apr 45.

The Secretary,
Department of National Defence,
OTTAWA, Canada.

C.55-M-1663

F-55412 Pte MacNeil, H.J.

1. The m/n soldier is now serving a sentence of 3 years penal servitude awarded by FGCM 4 Jul 44 for an offence under AA Sec 12(1)(a) and an absence without leave of 20 days. He has so far earned full remissions for good conduct while serving his sentence, and the earliest date on which he should be released if he continues so to do is 3 Jul 46.

2. This soldier was serving with the Cdn Forces in Italy at the time of his FGCM and his sentence has been served so far in that theatre.

3. Att hereto is a copy of the relevant portions of the Review Sheet used at CMHQ showing the date of this soldier's enlistment and his record of any previous army or civil offences.

4. A Neuropsychiatrist and S.P.O. have examined this soldier, and in making the direction and recommendations herein, their findings and reports have been given full consideration. He is reported as being fit to undergo his sentence, but unsuitable for further combatant service.

5. In view of the serious nature of one of the offences of which this soldier has been convicted, and the necessity for exemplary punishment in such cases, it is considered that he should serve his present sentence in full and thereafter be discharged for misconduct under the provisions of para 8 of Appx to C.A.R.O. 1029, and it is so recommended. It is probable that this soldier has misconducted himself for the purpose of obtaining his discharge.

6. It has accordingly been directed, pursuant to P.C. 1304/44, that this soldier be returned to Canada in custody under sentence. Herewith original proceedings of the FGCM held 4 Jul 44, original A.F. A3104 in respect thereof on which this direction has been endorsed, and committal order. This soldier will be despatched to Canada direct from Italy.

Additional Summary of Evidence in the case of F 55412 Pte. MacNeil, Hugh Joseph, charged with ~~[illegible]~~ two (2) charges under Army Act Sec 15 (1) and one char ge under Army Act Sec 12 (1)a.

The Commanding Officer directs that the evidence be taken upon oath.

THIRD WITNESS :- G 27701 Sgt. Thompson, R.J.H., Cape Breton Highlanders, having been duly sworn states:-

I am G 27701 Sgt. Thompson, R.J.H., Pln Sgt, No. 14 Pln, "C" Coy, Cape Breton Highlanders. On the afternoon of 25th or 26th May 44, I am not sure of the exact date, before we crossed the River Melfa, just before supper parade, I noticed the accused, F 55412 Pte. MacNeil , H.J. with his section in the Pln. After supper parade, at approximately 1630 hrs. the Coy. formed up to move to make a bridgehead across and on the north bank of the River Melfa, when F 60129 Cpl. MacDonald, G.R., No. 5 Section Leader r eported to me that he could no t find F 55412 Pte. MacNeil , H.J. Both Cpl. MacDonald, G.R. and myself chec ked the platoon area and kitchen area. F 55412 Pte. MacNeil, H.J. was not to be found.

I then went to No. 15 Pln to check with his buddy, Pte. Morrison, J. and F 78520 Pte. Morrison stated that he had not seen him.

I then r eported to my Pln. Commander, Lieut. D.B. MacKean that F 55412 Pte. MacNei l, H.J. was missing.

There had been shellin land around the area and I thought he might have been hit which is why I classified F 55412 Pte. MacNeil, H.J. as missing and the Compan y subsequently moved off without F 55412 Pte. MacNeil, H.J.

The next time I saw, F 55412 Pte. MacNeil, H.J. was approximately on or about 1900 hrs. 16 June 44 in the Company lines at which time I was acting C.Q.M.S.

.....R.J.H. Thompson.....

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

Fourth Witness: F55125 Sgt Erickson,C.F.,Cape Breton Highlanders, duly sworn states:

I am F55125 Sgt Erickson,C.F., Cape Breton Highlanders. On the evening of 16 Jun 44, I was in charge of Bn Guard at BCN. At approx 1910 hrs 16 Jun 44, F55412 Pte MacNeil,H.J.,whom I know well and recognize here as the accused, reported in to me as returning from absent without leave from "C" Coy, Cape Breton Highlanders. I then turned Pte MacNeil H.J. over to the "C" Coy orderly sgt.

At approx 1630 hrs 25 May 44, "C" Coy started to advance from the Southern bank of the River MELFA to take up a defensive position on the North bank of the same river. At approx 1900 hrs 25 May 44, G27701 Sgt Thompson, R.J.H. reported to me that F55412 Pte MacNeil,H.J., whom I know well and recognize here as the accused, had not moved across the River MELFA with his platoon. I then checked to see if Sgt Thompson,R.J.H. and his section leader F60129 Cpl MacDonald,G.R.(since KIA 26 May 44), had checked the area to see if Pte MacNeil had been in the area where had been shelling. Sgt Thompson replied that they had made the check before the coy had moved across from the South bank of the River MELFA and that Pte MacNeil was still missing. I then listed Pte MacNeil as missing. I did not see F55412 Pte MacNeil,H.J. from that time until he returned to coy lines on 16 Jun 44.

Signed. J.G. MacIntyre

The accused declines to cross examine the witness.

The accused was warned as follows:

1st Wit Pros. H45452 A/Sgt Stricher, G.F., 5 CAD Spo Coy RCASC duly sworn states:-

Pl Sgt of Comp Pl.

On 31 Dec 44 at 1630 entered kitchen & overheard conversation between cook & Pte Mordaro asking Mordaro to leave kitchen. I had warned him previously that they would leave kitchen when they got their meals. He did not leave & I gave him an order to leave - I sd "Pte M you will leave the kitchen, you know you are not supposed to be here". He replied "Fuck you I will leave when I am ready & you won't tell me when to leave". I repeated order & he did not leave. L/Cpl Grassy just came in so I ordered him to get two men to put M under arrest. When L/Cpl left Pte M sd "Fuck off or else I'll beat you" or words to that effect. I sd would be enough & Pte M started for the door as L/Cpl arrived with the 2 men. I told L/Cpl would not need the men & warned Pte M that under open arrest.

Order required compliance at once.

S/Sgt Sproule with me at the time. Pte Mardio is the accsd.

XX m:- I told Pl verbally about leaving the kitchen - I told men just then I told sec Cpls to make sure no men ate in kitchen. They had been told previously that no one to eat in kitchen. Men had been outside under shelter to eat. Way he spoke & acted he might have been drinking. Think he was fit for duty. Could not smell. He always obeyed orders before. Figured drinking or in cantankerous mood.

Re-exam:- He was in kitchen behind counter. 2 days previous I had asked him to leave kitchen.

Court:- 5 mins after gave order that he started to leave. Speak plain & not staggering. He seemed in fighting mood - he was in serious mood when sd would hop me. 2 days previous he left immediately. Mood was ugly. Have had words with him before but nothing serious. He understood perfectly well what I told him to do. 3 or 4 days previously several had always eaten in kitchen.

RP 83(6) complied with.

2nd Wit Pros. H51748 S/Sgt Sproule, E.W., 5 CAD Spo Coy RCASC duly sworn. states:-

In Comp Pl. - Recognize accsd, Pte Mordaro, he was attd comp Pl.

On 31 Dec 44 approx 1630 hrs I entered Pl kitchen - was at end of serving table when heard Sgt Stricher order accsd to leave kitchen. Accsd sitting behind serving table. ~~He~~ Accsd replied Fuck you you are not going to order me around I'll leave when I'm ready.

Sgt S repeated order + accd continued to use abusive language - don't remember words. Sgt S order Cpl Sassy to get two men. Accd sd "Don't fuck around with me 2 wont hesitate to kick you out." Accd then left kitchen + Sgt S told him under arrest. 4 to 5 mins elapsed after order before he left. Accd in a pugnacious mood.

XX m:- Men had been eating at a trellis under a shed. ~~Cons~~ Instns that no eating in kitchen had been given several days previously. Accd was ~~eating~~ sitting with mess tins on knees, had food in tins, didn't see him eating. After getting food would have to return to front of line to get around the table where he was sitting.

Had been in Pl approx 3 weeks. Have not had occasion to give him orders before.

Special point had been made to issue eating instns to men.

No visible appearance of drinking - believe he might have been drinking but only because of attitude. Certainly wasn't staggering. Was a party New year's Eve + was quite a bit of drinking.

Re-exam:- 5 yrs a S/Sgt.

Court:- Sgt Stretcher is a Sgt butcher + is i/c personnel + discip of camp. Pl. - Were a no. of men who had been drinking but none were drunk. Supper at 1620 hrs. Accd was on duty in afternoon.

RP 83(8) complied with.

Pros closed.

1st Wit Def] The accused, duly sworn, states:-

On 31 Jan last year were working afm + morning + pm was off. Some boys going back to Sack Lt so had a party + quite a bit of drinking. Then went over to supper about 4 o'clock. Went in line-up. Remember cook saying something about leaving kitchen - was quite a big line up - did see Sgt Stretcher, got my supper + went to my billets + ate. Then went back to where boys were having party + carried on with them. Next remember walking up past Forli in a truck. Dats all I remember happening. I went into Florence.

Every 3 days get an afternoon off - this was my 3rd pm off. Believe took my meal to billets - don't know if ate it.

XX m:- Have vague idea of what went on - don't know who sd to clean kitchen, presume it was ~~cook~~ cook. Don't remember saying anything

To Sgt Stricker. Don't know what happened after supper until I woke up.
Remember getting meal but don't remember eating it.
Didn't realize under open arrest.

Re-exam:- nil

Court:- Was not at Al party. I was at Bll party.
Could remember where party was.
Was not warned officially that kitchen out of bounds. Heard boys say were not supposed to eat in kitchen.

RP 83(B) complied with.

Def. closed.

Pros in closing:- Evidence proves charges.
Comd was legal - was given by sup offr - did not comply. Def claims drunk + did not understand order - Accd knows actions up to + after the occurrence
Language used is shown + not challenged by def.
Ask conviction on both.

Def offr in closing:- Seems that insts re eating in kitchen were slack - not given in orders, on parade or posted on notices ∴ nothing definite + accd could innocently be in kitchen + not know was not supposed to be there. Accd had pm off + did lot of drinking. In such state of drunkenness he should have been charged under AA 19 + not under 9(a) or 8(a). Since Sgt put him under open arrest it shows considered man drunk + charges might have been dropped.

JA sums up:- Functions of court, credibility of witnesses, presumption of innocence, burden of proof, reasonable doubt, disobeying lawful lawful command, threatening language, drunkenness + effect on crime.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE
In the case of

B-39536, Private Norwood John MANDARO, 5 Cdn Armd Div Troops Coy, RCASC, a soldier of the Cdn Army Overseas, charged with:

1. Disobeying a lawful command given by his superior officer.
2. Using threatening ~~xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx~~ language to his superior officer.
~~xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx~~
3. Absenting himself without leave.

The Commanding Officer directs that the evidence be taken upon oath.

First Witness H-65452, A/Sgt. Strecker, G.F. of 5 Cdn Armd Div Troops Coy, R.C.A.S.C., having been duly sworn states:

I was on the 31st Dec 1944 and still am an Acting Sgt. in Composite Platoon of 5 Cdn Armd Div Tps Coy, R.C.A.S.C. On 31st Dec 1944 at approx. 1630 hrs I heard a conversation in our platoon kitchen between Pte. Mandaro, whom I now recognize, and Pte Nedeljak, F., platoon cook, in which Pte Nedeljak asked Pte Mandaro to leave the kitchen as he was not supposed to be eating his evening meal there. As instructions had been issued previously that all men would leave the kitchen as soon as they had been served, I interrupted the conversation and ordered Pte Mandaro to leave the kitchen. Pte. Mandaro's reply was "I will leave the kitchen when I feel like it and you will not tell me when to leave". He also told me to "fuck off". On Pte Mandaro refusing to obey my order, I instructed L/Cpl. Grassie, who was the first junior NCO I saw in the kitchen, to fall in two men for the purpose of removing Pte Mandaro from the kitchen. While L/Cpl. Grassie was getting the two men Pte Mandaro threatened me with the remark "If you are not careful I will bop you". Before L/Cpl Grassie had arrived back with the two men Pte Mandaro left the kitchen and I then warned him that he was under open arrest.

At approx. 0745 hrs. 2 Jan 45 L/Cpl. Grassie reported to me ~~that Pte Mandaro was not in his quarters when he had checked his section for an ammunition detail.~~ We then made a check of the platoon area and Pte Mandaro was not to be found. Pte Mandaro's absence was reported immediately to Company HQ.

Q.1 What was the condition of Pte Mandaro when you ordered him out of the kitchen.

A.1 I had not seen Pte Mandaro drinking at any time during the day, but I assumed he may have been due to the remarks he made.

Second Witness

H-51748, S/Sgt. Sproule, E.W., 5 Cdn Armd Div Troops Coy, R.C.A.S.C. having been duly sworn, states:

I was on the 31st Dec. 1944 and still am S/Sgt of the Composite Platoon, 5 Cdn Armd Div Tps Coy, R.C.A.S.C. On 31st Dec 1944 at approx. 1630 hrs I was in the kitchen of Composite platoon to procure my evening meal. I was aware of and saw Pte Mandaro, whom I now recognize, seated behind the serving table, eating. ~~(I had on the previous day instructed Sgt. Strecker who was in charge of personnel of the Composite Platoon to warn all personnel of said platoon that there would be no eating anyone within the kitchen)~~ At the time in question Sgt. Strecker had just preceded me into the kitchen and on entering the room I heard Sgt. Strecker order Pte Mandaro to leave the kitchen. Pte Mandaro's reply was "Fuck off" and other words which I can't now recall. Sgt Strecker repeated his order and Pte Mandaro refused to leave and made the statement "That he would leave when he felt like it". Sgt. Strecker then ordered L/Cpl Grassie to fall in two men to remove Pte Mandaro from the kitchen. While L/Cpl Grassie was procuring the men Pte Mandaro became abusive and in my hearing uttered threatening statements to Sgt Strecker; one phrase I recall was "Don't fuck around with me or I won't hesitate to bop you one". Pte Mandaro then left the kitchen of his own accord and Sgt. Strecker warned him that he was under open arrest.

Third Witness

H-51910, L/Cpl. Grassie, D.C. of 5 Cdn Armd Div Troops Coy, R.C.A.S.C. having been duly sworn states:

I was on the 31st Dec. 1944 and still am L/Cpl in Composite Platoon of 5 Cdn Armd Div Tps Coy, R.C.A.S.C. On the evening of 31st Dec 1944 at approx. 1630 hrs I entered the Composite platoon kitchen for the evening meal, and proceeded to section set aside for washing mess tins. On returning to line up for meal Sgt. Strecker who was in the kitchen when I entered, instructed me to fall in two men to remove Pte Mandaro from the kitchen. I had not previously heard any part of his conversation with Pte Mandaro. I left the kitchen to get two men from my section, but when I returned with same, Pte Mandaro had already left the kitchen. ~~On talking with Sgt Strecker he informed me that Pte Mandaro had been ordered out of the mess.~~

The Secretary,
Department of National Defence,
OTTAWA, Canada.

C-55-M-164

B-39536 Pte Mandaro, N.J.

1. The m/n soldier is now serving a sentence of 1 year imprisonment awarded by FGCM 29 Jan 45 for offences under AA Sec 9(2), AA Sec 8(2) and absenting himself without leave when under open arrest. The earliest date on which he should be released if he earns full remissions for good conduct while serving his sentence is 28 Sep 45.

2. This soldier was serving with the Cdn Forces in Italy at the time of his FGCM and his sentence has been served so far in that theatre.

3. Att hereto is a copy of the relevant portions of the Review Sheet used at CMHQ showing the date of this soldier's enlistment and his record of any previous army or civil offences.

4. A Neuropsychiatrist and S.P.O. have examined this soldier, and in making the direction and recommendations herein their findings and reports have been given full consideration. He is reported as being fit to undergo his sentence, but unsuitable for further combatant service.

5. In view of the serious nature of the 3 offences of which this soldier has been convicted, his previous record and all available reports, it is considered that he should serve his present sentence in full and thereafter be discharged for misconduct under the provisions of para 8 of Appx to C.A.R.O. 1029, and it is so recommended. It is probable that this soldier has not misconducted himself for the purpose of obtaining his discharge.

6. It has accordingly been directed, pursuant to P.C. 1304/44, that this soldier be returned to Canada in custody under sentence. Herewith original proceedings of the FGCM held 29 Jan 45, original A.F. A3104 in respect thereof on which this direction has been endorsed, and committal order. This soldier will be despatched to Canada direct from Italy.

H.65452 A/Sgt Strecker G.F. 5 CAD Tps Coy RCASC duly sworn states:-

Pl Sgt of Comp Pl. On 31 Dec 44 at 1630 entered kitchen & overheard conversation between cook & Pte Mandaro asking Mandaro to leave kitchen. I had warned him previously that they would leave kitchen when they got their meals. He did not leave & I gave him an order to leave - I sd "Pte M you will leave the kitchen, you know you are not supposed to be here". he replied " Fuck you I will leave when I am ready, you wont tell me when to leave". I repeated order & he did not leave. L/Cpl Grassy just came in so I ordered him to get two men to put M under arrest. When L/Cpl left Pte M sd "Fuck off or else I'll bop you " or words to that effect. I sd would be enough & Pte M started for the door as L/Cpl arrived with the 2 men. I told L/Cpl would not need the men & warned Pte M that under open arrest.

Order required compliance at once.

S/Sgt Sproule with me at the time. Pte Mandaro is the accsd.

XXX : I told Pl verbally about leaving the kitchen. I told men first then I told see Cpls to make sure no men ate in kitchen. They had been told previously that no one to eat in kitchen. Men had bench outside under shelter to eat. Way he spoke & acted he might have been drinking. Think he was fit for duty. Could not smell. He always obeyed orders before. Figured drinking or in cantankerous mood.

Re Exam:- He was in kitchen behind counter. 2 days previous I had asked him to leave kitchen.

Court:- 5 mins after gave order tha he started to leave. speech plain & not staggering. He seemed in fighting mood - he was in serious mood when sd would bop me. 2 days previous he left immediately. Mood was ugly. Have had words with him before but nothing serious. He understood perfectly well what I told him to do. 3 or 4 days previously several had always eaten in kitchen.

R P 83 (b) complied with.

H.51748 S/Sgt Sproule, E.W. 5 CAD Tps Coy RCASC duly sworn states:

In comp Pl. Recognize accsd, Pte Mandaro, he was attd Comp Pl.

On 31 Dec 44 approx 1630 hrs I entered Pl Kitchen - was at end of serving table when heard Sgt Strecker order accsd to leave kitchen. Accsd sitting behind serving table. Accsd replied Fuck you you are not going to order me around Ill leave when I'm ready.

Sgt S repeated order & accsd continued to use abusive language dont't remember words. Sgt S order L/Cpl Grassy to get two men. Accsd sd " Dont fuck around with me I won't hesitate to bop you one" Accsd then left kitchen & Sgt S told him under arrest. 4 to 5 mins elapsed after order before he left. Accsd in a pugnacious mood.

XXm:- Men had been eating at a trellis under a shed. Insts that no eating in kitchen had been given several days previously. Accsd was sitting with mess tins on knees, had food in tins, didn't see him eating. After getting food would have to return to foot of line to get around the table where he was sitting. Had been in Pl approx 3 weeks. Have not had occasion to give him orders before.

Special point had been made to issue eating insts to men.

No visible appearance of drinking - believe he might have been drinking but only because of attitude. Certainly wasn't staggering. Was a party New Year's Eve & was quite a bit of drinking.

Re-Exam:- 5 yrs a S/Sgt.

Court:- Sgt Strecker is a Sgt butcher & is i/c personnel & discip of Comp Pl - were a no. of men who had been drinking but none were drunk. Supper at 1630 hrs. Accsd was on duty in afternoon.

R.P. 83 (B) complied with.

1st Wit Def

The accused, duly sworn, states:-

On 31 Jan last year were working 8am in morning. & p.m. was off. Some boys going back to Sask LI so had a party & quite a bit of drinking. Then went over to supper about 4 o'clock. Went in line-up. Remember cook saying something about leaving kitchen - was quite a big line up - Did see Sgt Strecker get my supper & went to my billets & ate. Then went back to where boys were have party & carried on with them. Next remember waking up past Forli in a truck. Thats all I remember happening I went into Florence.

Every 3 days got an afternoon off - this was my seco pm off. Believe took my meal to billets - don't know if ate it.

XXm: Have vague idea of what went on - Don't know who sd to leave kitchen, presume it was cook. Don't remember saying anything to Sgt Strecker. Don't know what happened after supper until I woke up. Remember getting meal but don't remember eating it.

Didn't realize under open arrest.

Re-Exam:- Nil
Court:- Was not at Pl party. I was at B Pl party.
Could remember where party was. Was not warned officially that kitchen out of bounds. Heard boys say were not supposed to eat in kitchen.

R.P. 83 (B) complied with.

Def Closed

Pros in closing:- Evidence proves charges. Comd was legal - was given by sup offr - did not comply. Def claims drunk & did not understand order - Accsd knows actions up to & after the occurrence. Language used is shrewn & not challenged by def - ask conviction on both.

Def Offr in closing:- Seem that intrs re eating in kitchen were slack - not given in orders, on parade or posted on noticies, nothing definite

A acsd could innocently be in kitchen & not know was not supposed to be there. Acsd had pm off & did lot of drinking. In such state of drunkenness he should have been charged under AA19 & not under 9(2) or 8(2). Since Sgt put him under open arrest it shows considered man drunk & charges might have been dropped.

J.A. sums up:- Functions of court, credibility of witnesses, presumption of innocence, burden on prosn, reasonable doubt, disobeying lawful comd, threatening language, drunkenness & effect on crime.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

in the case of

B-39536, Private Norwood John MANDARO, 5 Cdn Armd Div Troops Coy, RCASC, a soldier of the Cdn Army Overseas, charged with:

1. Disobeying a lawful command given by his superior Officer.
2. Using threatening language to his superior Officer.
3. Absenting himself without leave.

The Commanding Officer directs that the evidence be taken upon oath?

First Witness

H.65452, A/Sgt. Strecker, G.F. of 5 Cdn Armd Div Troops Coy. RCASC., having been duly sworn states:.

I was on the 31st Dec 1944 and still am an Acting Sgt. in Composite Platoon of 5 Cdn Armd Div Tps Coy. RCASC. On 31st Dec 1944 at approx 1630 hrs I heard a conversation in our platoon kitchen between Pte Mandaro, whom I saw recognize, and Pte Nedeljak P., platoonsock, in which Pte Nedeljak asked Pte Mandaro to leave the kitchen as he was not supposed to be eating his evening meal there. As instructions had been issued previously that all men would leave the kitchen as soon as they had been served, I interrupted the conversation and ordered Pte Mandaro to leave the kitchen. Pte. Madaro's reply was "I will leave the kitchen when I feel like it and you will not tell me when to leave". He also told me to "Fuck Off". On Pte Mandaro refusing to obey my order, I instructed L/Cpl Grassie, who was the first junior NCO I saw in the kitchen, to fall in two men for the purpose of removing Pte Mandaro from the kitchen. While L/Cpl Grassie was getting the two men Pte Mandaro threatened me with the remark "If you are not careful I will bop you". Before L/Cpl Grassie had arrived back with the two men Pte Mandaro left the kitchen and I then warned him that he was under open arrest.

At approx. 0745 hrs 2 Jan45 L/Cpl Grassie reported to me. We then made a check of the platoon area and Pte Mandaro was not to be found Pte Mandaro's absence was reported immediately to Company H.Q.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

H.65452 A/Sgt. Strecker, G.F.

Q. 1. What was the condition of Pte Mandaro when your ordered him out of the kitchen?

A. 1. I had not seen Pte Mandaro drinking at any time during the day, but I assumed he may have been due to the remarks he made.

Second Witness

H.51748, S/Sgt Sproule, E.W., 5 Cdn Armd Div Troops Coy, RCASC. having been duly sworn, states:

I was on the 31st Dec. 1944 and still am S/Sgt of the Composite Platoon 5 Cdn Armd Div Tps Coy, RCASC. On 31st Dec 1944 at approx. 1630 hrs I was in the kitchen of Composite Platoon to procure my evening meal. I was aware of and saw Pte Mandaro, whom I now recognize, seated behind the serving table, eating. At the time in question Sgt Strecker had just preceded me into the kitchen and on entering the room I heard Sgt. Strecker order Pte Mandaro to leave the kitchen. Pte Mandaro's reply was "Fuck off" and other words which I can't now recall. Sgt Strecker repeated his order and Pte Mandaro refused to leave and made the statement "That he would leave when he felt like it". Sgt. Strecker then ordered L/Cpl Grassie to fall in two men to remove Pte Mandaro from the kitchen. While L/Cpl Grassie was procuring the men Pte Mandaro became abusive and in my hearing uttered threatening statement to Sgt Strecker; one phrase I recall was "Don't fuck around with me or I won't hesitate to bop you one". Pte Mandaro then left the kitchen of his own accord and Sgt Strecker warned him that he was under open arrest".

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

RCASC On the evening of 31st Dec 1944 at approx 1630 hrs I entered the Composite Platoon kitchen for the evening meal, and proceeded to section set aside for washing mess tins. On returning to line up for meal Sgt. Strecker who was in the kitchen when I entered instructed me to fall in two men to remove Pte Mandaro from the kitchen. I had not previously heard any part of his conversation with Pte Mandaro. I left the kitchen to get two men from my section, but when I returned with same, Pte Mandaro had already left the kitchen.

Dear Madam:

This will acknowledge receipt of your letter dated 21st February, 1946 concerning your son, B.132905 Pte. Mara, H.W.

I have been informed by the appropriate officers of this Department that your son was tried by Field General Court-Martial on 6th January, 1945 for absence without leave. He was found guilty and sentenced to penal servitude for three and one half years.

It is not the intention of the military authorities that a soldier should be held in custody any longer than is necessary in the interests of military discipline. Accordingly, sentences are subject to periodical reviews with a view to affecting remission when the circumstances warrant.

Subsequent to his return to Canada his case was reviewed by the appropriate authorities with the result that, subject to his continued good conduct, a substantial reduction will be made in the length of his sentence.

Provided his conduct remains good and he earns full remission his release can be anticipated during April of this year.

Yours truly,

Deputy Minister,

Ref telegram AG 0267 dated 18 Oct 45 review.

2. The CM Board of Review has in the case of the m/n soldier made the following recommendation: -

"Release on 6 Apr 1946".

3. You will note that the recommendation of the Board deals with the remission at a future date. In considering this case your attention is directed to paras 3 and 4 of the telegram above referred to. It is pointed out that the action to be taken by you as a Superior Military Authority is not immediate and therefore this soldier's conduct and other circumstances up to the date of the recommended remission should be taken into consideration by you prior to your acting upon the recommendation of the Board. It is therefore suggested that you should not sign the appropriate entry until the recommended date approaches.

4. If in your opinion recent misconduct exists it is requested that this HQ be advised at once in accordance with paras 3 and 4 of the AG telegram above mentioned.

5. May this HQ be informed of action taken.

1. This soldier is serving a sentence of 3 years and 6 months penal servitude awarded by FGCM 6 Jan 45, for an offence under -

AA Sec 12 (1) (a) - NOAS - Deserting His Majesty's Service - while in a forward area under enemy shell-fire with intent to avoid service in such area - surrendered after 16 hours.

2. The earliest date upon which he should be released if he earns full remission for good conduct and remains in military custody is 5 May 47.

3. This SUS is being returned direct from Italy at an early date. The MGA, CMHQ has recommended that in view of the serious nature of the offence upon which this soldier has been convicted and the necessity for exemplary punishment that he should serve his present sentence in full and thereafter be discharged for misconduct under CARO 1029 (8). It is stated that it is probable that he has misconducted himself for the purpose of obtaining his discharge.

4. The sentence awarded will be reviewed from time to time but it is probable that in view of the above recommendation that this SUS will be required to serve a very substantial portion of the sentence awarded. It is probable that he will be discharged for misconduct in accordance with the above recommendation accordingly under existing regulations he will on release receive clothing allowance and transportation to his place of residence immediately prior to his enlistment or to any other place in Cda providing the cost is not greater. He will not qualify for the gratuities provided for in The War Services Grants Act, 1944.

1. The m/n soldier is now serving a sentence of 3 years 6 months penal servitude awarded by FGCM 6 Jan 45 for an offence under AA Sec 12(1)(a). The earliest date on which he should be released if he earns full remissions is 5 May 47.

2. This soldier was serving with the Cdn Forces in Italy at the time of his FGCM and his sentence has been served so far in that theatre.

3. Att hereto is a copy of the relevant portions of the Review Sheet used at CMHQ showing the date of this soldier's enlistment and his record of any previous army or civil offences.

4. A Neuropsychiatrist and S.P.O. have examined this soldier, and in making the direction and recommendations herein their findings and reports have been given full consideration. He is reported as being fit to undergo his sentence, but unsuitable for further combatant service.

It is probable that this soldier has misconducted himself for the purpose of obtaining his discharge.

2. The CM Board of Review has in the case of the m/n soldier made the following recommendation: -

"Release on 11 Jan 1946".

3. You will note that the recommendation of the Board deals with the remission at a future date. In considering this case your attention is directed to paras 3 and 4 of the telegram above referred to. It is pointed out that the action to be taken by you as a Superior Military Authority is not immediate and therefore this soldier's conduct and other circumstances up to the date of the recommended remission should be taken into consideration by you prior to your acting upon the recommendation of the Board. It is therefore suggested that you should not sign the appropriate entry until the recommended date approaches.

Mr Gour M P Russel County,
Casselman, Ontario.

Dear Sir:

Youbeing our representative in Parliament for the COUNTY of Russel, I turn to you for to help me in my trouble.

I lived for 13 years on the farm, near Limoges (Robert Orr's farm my Father) and my boys, Andrew, and Bill, enlisted in the Service of their country there, they have been overseas four years ago last March, now for the reason of this letter.

Bill, for his misdeeds in Italy, (a lot of foolishness as far as I can make out) was brought back to Canada sometime last May, and was taken to the Fort Henry, at Kingston, Ont, Detention Camp and is still there, I need my boys at home, I have had to get along alone for so long without them and have been working for over three years (Mr Mason is living, but a chronic alcholic) and now with summer going, and preparation needed for the approaching winter (I live in a cottage that has to be made warm) if you would look into this matter for me, and use your power and influence, so Bill will be home with me soon, I will always be grateful, Imight add that Bill put in a year in the front line in Italy, besides his service in England.

Sincerely yours,

(Mrs) Gladys Mason

C-055-M-1666

C.957 Gnr. Mason, W.H.

1. The m/n soldier is now serving a sentence of 2 years imprisonment with hard labour awarded by FGCM 12 Jan 45, for the following offences - absence without leave of 37 days, improper possession of a Canadian Military Vehicle, improper possession of property of a fellow soldier, and improperly burning a quantity of mail. The earliest date on which he should be released if he earns full remissions for good conduct while serving his sentence is 11 May 46

2. This soldier was serving with the Cdn Forces in Italy at the time of his FGCM and his sentence has been served so far in that theatre.

3. Att hereto is a copy of the relevant portions of the Review Sheet used at CMHQ showing the date of this soldier's enlistment and his record of any previous army or civil offences.

4. A Neuropsychiatrist and S.P.O. have examined this soldier, and in making the direction and recommendations herein their findings and reports have been given full consideration. He is reported as being fit to undergo his sentence, but unsuitable for further combatant service.

5. In view of the offences of which this soldier has been convicted, his bad previous record and all available reports, it is considered that he should serve his present sentence in full and thereafter be discharged for misconduct under the provisions of para 8 of Appx. to C.A.R.O. 1029, and it is so recommended. It is probable that this soldier has not misconducted himself for the purpose of obtaining his discharge.

6. It has accordingly been directed, pursuant to P.C.1304/44, that this soldier be returned to Canada in custody under sentence. Herewith original proceedings of the FGCM held 12 Jan 45, original A.F. A3104 in respect thereof on which this direction has been endorsed, and committal order. This soldier will be despatched to Canada direct from Italy.

D2 OPENING ADDRESS BY PROSECUTOR

Gentlemen --- with respect to the first, second and third charges, the evidence of the prosecution will prove that on the night of 15 Oct 44, outside a Signal billet in Pescara, an ELS vehicle of the British Army was improperly taken. In the vehicle were 18 sacks of British Army official mail. On, or about, that night the accused was improperly in possession of the vehicle. Between the 15th of October 1944 and the 31st of October 1944, the accused burned a quantity of the mail that was in the vehicle. On 31 Oct 44 the accused was apprehended in Pescara and at the time of his apprehension he was wearing a pair of breeches which were the property of Sgmn Glover who was the driver of the ELS vehicle that had been taken. The breeches had been in the vehicle at the time it was taken.

D3 First Witness for Prosecution: 2601250 Sgmn Glover F C, 163 DR Sec, 3 Coy, 15 L of C Signals, having been duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor:

Q1 Will you give your particulars to the Court, please?

A1 2601250 Sgmn Glover F C, 163 DR Sec, 3 Coy, 15 L of C Signals.

Q2 What was your position in the army on 15 Oct 44?

A2 I was a despatch driver at that time in charge of an ELS truck WD Z5319159 on the run from Ancona to Pescara.

Q3 Describe the structure of the vehicle in question?

A3 It was an ordinary 15 cwt Dodge with the back enclosed in a wire caging of fine net, under the canopy. This caging was welded to the body and completely enclosed the back of the vehicle from the front, sides, top and back. There was a door in the rear which was secured by a chain and lock.

Q4 In the course of your duty that you have described what did you carry in the vehicle?

A4 On 15 Oct 44 there was 18 bags of registered official WD mail locked in the vehicle.

Q5 Generally, in the course of your duties, what did you carry on your runs?

A5 Only the bags of official WD mail and my own kit. We are not allowed to carry anything else without the written consent of the signal-master.

Q6 Did you carry any other type of mail than what you have described as official WD mail?

A6 Only my personal kit.

Q7 On whose charge is the vehicle you have mentioned?

A7 163 DR Sec, 3 Coy, L of C Signals, and it was on my signature.

Q8 And in what army is the unit you have described?

A8 The British Army.

Q9 Was anyone else with you on the night of 15 Oct 44?

A9 I was accompanied by Pte Carter, who was acting as my armed escort.

First Witness for Prosecution (Cont'd)

Q10 Describe the way in which the mail was packed?

A10 It was in mail bags of different types - some canvas and cloth, and the bags were of different colours, some red, some blue and some grey. The bags were secured with string and each had the tag with the registered number of the bag on it, the office from which it was despatched and the office to which it was going.

Q11 Does that hold true of the bags you were carrying on the night in question?

A11 Yes.

Q12 Of the 18 bags that you carried that night to what place were they to be delivered?

A12 When I left Ancona I had 16 bags for the ELS office at San Vito and 2 bags for the RAF office at Pescara.

Q13 Describe what happened on that run?

A13 We arrived at Pescara approximately 2215 hours and I parked the vehicle in the station square outside the Signals billets. We were followed into the square by a vehicle of the RAF Centre. Pte Carter unlocked the cage and gave me the 2 bags for the Air Mail Centre. I handed them to the Cpl IC there and received 2 bags in return, one addressed to Bari and one to Foggia. Those 2 bags were placed in the cage of the vehicle, still making 18 bags of mail. Whilst I was exchanging the bags Pte Carter was taking his bedding into the billet, first having given me the key of the cage. When he came back I sent him to see if the tea was ready and I began to throw the bags into the back of the truck ready to make my bed.

Q14 In the normal run of events where do you sleep?

A14 Carter sleeps in the billet and me in the rear of the truck with the mail.

Q15 Go on - - -

A15 Carter returned and gave me my mug and indicated that the tea was ready. I finished moving the bags, locked the cage of the vehicle and went to the latrine and then to the cookhouse to get my tea, thinking that Carter had already got his tea and was stopping at the vehicle, which was the normal procedure. As I was getting my tea in the cookhouse I noticed Carter was there. As a result of what I mentioned to him he left immediately to go to the truck. He returned and as a result of what he said to me I went with him to where the truck had been parked and found the vehicle missing.

Q16 Approximately how long was it from the time you left the vehicle until you returned?

A16 Approximately 4 to 6 minutes.

Q17 Did you make any attempt to find the vehicle?

A17 Yes. We reported the matter immediately by telephone to the CMP and I accompanied Sgmn Headley in another vehicle to the CMP's office in Pescara to give the necessary description of the vehicle.

..../3

First Witness for Prosecution (Cont'd)

Q18 At the time you left the vehicle was the cage locked or unlocked?

A18 It was locked.

Q19 Did you give anybody permission to take the truck?

A19 No.

Q20 On the night in question, in addition to the mail you have described, what else, if anything, was in the vehicle?

A20 My complete army and personal kit and items of Carter's kit.

Q21 Will you name any particular items of your kit that may refer to this case?

A21 A pair of motorcycle boots and riding breeches shown to me later by CSM MacCallum of the SIB.

Q22 Apart from the personal letters you had in your kit and the official ELS mail were there any other documents in the truck?

A22 An AB 412 and two work tickets.

Q23 When did you next see the vehicle after 15 Oct 44?

A23 Approximately the 10th of November at the RASC workshop at Pescara.

Q24 How do you know it was the same vehicle?

A24 By the unit signs that had been painted out but were still showing, the WD number of the vehicle was on the tailboard, the section signs were still showing on the door and our section serial number was underneath the door between the door and the running board.

Q25 Describe the condition of the vehicle on 10 Nov 44?

A25 It was fairly badly damaged and the cage had been cut off, apparently with a hacksaw.

Q26 What about the canopy?

A26 The canopy and irons that support the canopy and caging were all missing.

Q27 You have already mentioned CSM MacCallum showing you a pair of motorcycle boots and riding breeches. What date was that?

A27 17 Nov 44.

Q28 Where?

A28 At our Coy office at Vasta.

Q29 Could you identify the boots?

A29 The boots were my size - I couldn't identify them as my boots.

Q30 How about the breeches?

A30 I identified them. They were my size; alterations had been made inside the leg to make them fit me.

Q31 What were the alterations?

A31 Pieces of battle dress had been let in by the tailor to make the breeches bigger so that they would fit me.

Q32 Would you say whether or not they were the same breeches that you left on the night of 15 Oct 44 in the vehicle in question?

A32 Yes. They were the same pair.

Q33 What happened to those breeches?

A33 They were handed to our Coy QM as I had already been issued with new ones.

Q34 Are they available now?

A34 I don't know where they are now.

Q35 In what country did the various incidents you have described take place?

A35 In Italy.

Cross-Examined by Defending Officer

Q36 In that immediate vicinity there are several roads?

A36 Yes.

Q37 Was it a very dark night?

A37 Yes.

Q38 Did your vehicle have lights?

A38 When the vehicle was left there was a light burning in the back of the cage.

Q39 Was it possible to switch on headlights?

A39 Yes.

Q40 When you came out of the Signal's billet did you look up and down the road?

A40 Yes.

Q41 Did you see any light - headlight, tail-light?

A41 No.

Q42 Did you see the lights of any vehicle?

A42 I can't remember now.

Q43 Would it be possible for a vehicle, assumingit was started in the four to six minute interval that you have mentioned in which you were having tea, to get over the range of view if you looked up and down the roads?

A43 Yes.

Q44 Were you asked at any time previous to the assembling of this court to make an effort to procure the breeches you speak about to present to the court for identification?

A44 No.

In the opinion of the Court ~~xxxxxxxx~~ it is unnecessary to comply with RP 83(B).

The witness withdraws.

64

Second Witness for Prosecution: 6022196 Pte Carter R, 1/4 Bn Essex Regt att 3 Coy L of C Sigs, having been duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor:

Q45 Give your particulars to the court, please.

A45 No 6022196 Pte Carter R, 1/4 Bn Essex Regt att 3 Coy L of C Sigs.

Q46 What were your duties on 15 Oct 44?

A46 I was acting as escort on an ELS truck, 15 cwt Dodge, on 15 Oct 44, from Ancona to Pescara.

Q47 Who was in charge of the vehicle?

A47 Sgmn Glover.

Q48 What were your duties?

A48 To guard the mail in the back of the truck - to travel in the rear of the truck.

Q49 What were you carrying on the truck that night?

A49 18 bags of mail from Ancona to Pescara.

Q50 What type of mail was it?

A50 Registered and non-registered WD mail.

Q51 Give a brief description of the way in which the mail was packed?

A51 They were all in different coloured sacks - some red, some just ordinary sacks, and some ordinary white sacks.

Q52 Were there any marks on the bags?

A52 Just the labels on the bags.

Q53 What was the back of the vehicle like?

A53 There was a door to the back of the vehicle which, when travelling, we always kept locked and to which I carried the key.

Q54 Is it possible to get into the truck if you haven't the key?

A54 It is not possible.

Q55 Why?

A55 You have to come through the door and the whole back is caged in.

Q56 When did you arrive at Pescara that night?

A56 Approximately 2215 hours.

Q57 Tell the court what happened when you arrived at Pescara?

A57 The first thing I done was to unlock the cage of the truck, handing Sgmn Glover 2 bags of mail for the Airmail Port Centre. He returned 2 bags of mail to me from the Airmail Port Centre, thus making still 18 bags of mail on the truck.

Q58 Where were you at this time in Pescara?

A58 I was in the rear of the truck.

Q59 What part of Pescara?

A59 Near the carrier billets.

In the vehicle were 18 sacks of British Army official mail. On, or about, that night the accused was improperly in possession of the vehicle. Between the 15th of October 1944 and the 31st of October 1944, the accused burned a quantity of the mail that was in the vehicle. On 31 Oct 44 the accused was apprehended in Pescara and at the time of his apprehension he was wearing a pair of breeches which were the property of Sgmn Glover who was the driver of the ELS vehicle that had been taken. The breeches had been in the vehicle at the time it was taken.

D3 First Witness for Prosecution: 2601250 Sgmn Glover F C, 163 DR Sec, 3 Coy, 15 L of C Signals, having been duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor:

Q1 Will you give your particulars to the Court, please?

A1 2601250 Sgmn Glover F C, 163 DR Sec, 3 Coy, 15 L of C Signals.

Q2 What was your position in the army on 15 Oct 44?

A2 I was a despatch driver at that time in charge of an ELS truck WD Z5319159 on the run from Ancona to Pescara.

Q3 Describe the structure of the vehicle in question?

A3 It was an ordinary 15 cwt Dodge with the back enclosed in a wire caging of fine net, under the canopy. This caging was welded to the body and completely enclosed the back of the vehicle from the front, sides, top and back. There was a door in the rear which was secured by a chain and lock.

Q4 In the course of your duty that you have described what did you carry in the vehicle?

A4 On 15 Oct 44 there was 18 bags of registered official WD mail locked in the vehicle.

Q5 Generally, in the course of your duties, what did you carry on your runs?

A5 Only the bags of official WD mail and my own kit. We are not allowed to carry anything else without the written consent of the signal-master.

Q6 Did you carry any other type of mail than what you have described as official WD mail?

A6 Only my personal kit.

Q7 On whose charge is the vehicle you have mentioned?

A7 163 DR Sec, 3 Coy, L of C Signals, and it was on my signature.

Q8 And in what army is the unit you have described?

A8 The British Army.

Q9 Was anyone else with you on the night of 15 Oct 44?

A9 I was accompanied by Pte Carter, who was acting as my armed escort.

First Witness for Prosecution (Cont'd)

Q10 Describe the way in which the mail was packed?

A10 It was in mail bags of different types - some canvas and cloth, and the bags were of different colours, some red, some blue and some grey. The bags were secured with string and each had the tag with the registered number of the bag on it, the office from which it was despatched and the office to which it was going.

Q11 Does that hold true of the bags you were carrying on the night in question?

A11 Yes.

Q12 Of the 18 bags that you carried that night to what place were they to be delivered?

A12 When I left Ancona I had 16 bags for the ELS office at San Vito and 2 bags for the RAF office at Pescara.

Q13 Describe what happened on that run?

A13 We arrived at Pescara approximately 2215 hours and I parked the vehicle in the station square outside the Signals billets. We were followed into the square by a vehicle of the RAF Centre. Pte Carter unlocked the cage and gave me the 2 bags for the Air Mail Centre. I handed them to the Cpl IC there and received 2 bags in return, one addressed to Bari and one to Foggia. Those 2 bags were placed in the cage of the vehicle, still making 18 bags of mail. Whilst I was exchanging the bags Pte Carter was taking his bedding into the billet, first having given me the key of the cage. When he came back I sent him to see if the tea was ready and I began to throw the bags into the back of the truck ready to make my bed.

Q14 In the normal run of events where do you sleep?

A14 Carter sleeps in the billet and me in the rear of the truck with the mail.

Q15 Go on - - -

A15 Carter returned and gave me my mug and indicated that the tea was ready. I finished moving the bags, locked the cage of the vehicle and went to the latrine and then to the cookhouse to get my tea, thinking that Carter had already got his tea and was stopping at the vehicle, which was the normal procedure. As I was getting my tea in the cookhouse I noticed Carter was there. As a result of what I mentioned to him he left immediately to go to the truck. He returned and as a result of what he said to me I went with him to where the truck had been parked and found the vehicle missing.

Q16 Approximately how long was it from the time you left the vehicle until you returned?

A16 Approximately 4 to 6 minutes.

Q17 Did you make any attempt to find the vehicle?

A17 Yes. We reported the matter immediately by telephone to the CMP and I accompanied Sgmn Headley in another vehicle to the CMP's office in Pescara to give the necessary description of the vehicle.

First Witness for Prosecution (Cont'd)

Q18 At the time you left the vehicle was the cage locked or unlocked?

A21 A pair of motorcycle boots and riding breeches shown to me later by CSM MacCallum of the SIB.

Q22 Apart from the personal letters you had in your kit and the official ELS mail were there any other documents in the truck?

A22 An AB 412 and two work tickets.

Q23 When did you next see the vehicle after 15 Oct 44?

A23 Approximately the 10th of November at the RASC workshop at Pescara.

Q24 How do you know it was the same vehicle?

A24 By the unit signs that had been painted out but were still showing, the WD number of the vehicle was on the tailboard, the section signs were still showing on the door and our section serial number was underneath the door between the door and the running board.

Q25 Describe the condition of the vehicle on 10 Nov 44?

A25 It was fairly badly damaged and the cage had been cut off, apparently with a hacksaw.

Q26 What about the canopy?

A26 The canopy and irons that support the canopy and caging were all missing.

Q27 You have already mentioned CSM MacCallum showing you a pair of motorcycle boots and riding breeches. What date was that?

A27 17 Nov 44.

Q28 Where?

A28 At our Coy office at Vasta.

Q29 Could you identify the boots?

A29 The boots were my size - I couldn't identify them as my boots.

Q30 How about the breeches?

A30 I identified them. They were my size; alterations had been made inside the leg to make them fit me.

Q31 What were the alterations?

A31 Pieces of battle dress had been let in by the tailor to make the breeches bigger so that they would fit me.

Q32 Would you say whether or not they were the same breeches that you left on the night of 15 Oct 44 in the vehicle in question?

A32 Yes. They were the same pair.

Q33 What happened to those breeches?

A35 In Italy.

A40 Yes.

Q41 Did you see any light - headlight, tail-light?

A41 No.

Q42 Did you see the lights of any vehicle?

A42 I can't remember now.

Q43 Would it be possible for a vehicle, assumingit was started in the four to six minute interval that you have mentioned in which you were having tea, to get over the range of view if you looked up and down the roads?

A43 Yes.

Q44 Were you asked at any time previous to the assembling of this court to make an effort to procure the breeches you speak about to present to the court for identification?

Q55 Why?

A55 You have to come through the door and the whole back is caged in.

Q56 When did you arrive at Pescara that night?

A56 Approximately 2215 hours.

Q57 Tell the court what happened when you arrived at Pescara?

A57 The first thing I done was to unlock the cage of the truck, handing Sgmn Glover 2 bags of mail for the Airmail Port Centre. He returned 2 bags of mail to me from the Airmail Port Centre, thus making still 18 bags of mail on the truck.

Q58 Where were you at this time in Pescara?

A58 I was in the rear of the truck.

Q59 What part of Pescara?

A59 Near the carrier billets.

Q60 Give the court a brief description of what happened next?

63

A60 After that I got my bedding off the truck and handed Sgmn Glover the key of the truck and took my bedding into the billet. Having done that I came straight back to the truck. I then went back into the cookhouse to see if the tea was ready. Finding out it was I came back to the truck getting out drinking utensils, handing Sgmn Glover his mug in the rear of the truck. I then went for my tea.

Q61 Did anyone else go with you?

A61 No.

Q62 Did you see where Sgmn Glover was at that time?

A62 Yes - near the rear of the truck.

A63 Then what happened?

62

The Defending Officer declines to cross-examine the witness.

Questioned by Court

Q74 When Sgmn Glover came back into the billet you said you had a conversation. What was that conversation about?

A74 Sgmn Glover told me to go back to the truck.

Q75 Had you been escort on this particular truck before?

A75 Yes.

Q76 For how long a period?

A76 A couple of months, I would say.

Q77 Was it the same driver with you each time?

A77 No, sir, there was a different driver each day.

Q78 Every time you got on that truck Sgmn Glover was the driver?

A78 Yes.

Q79 You mentioned that you went away from the truck to get your tea and that you left Sgmn Glover in the truck. Who had the key while Sgmn Glover was in the truck and you were in the cookhouse?

A79 Sgmn Glover.

A82 It is just an ordinary switch.

The Defending Officer declines to cross-examine the witness.

The witness withdraws.

Q83 What happened on 31 Oct 44?

A83 On 31 Oct 44, about 2045 hours, I was on duty in Pescara with L/Cpl Parker of the CM Police. I was engaged on checking out of bounds cafes. I entered a cafe which was clearly marked out of bounds. There I saw an Italian patriot and Gnr Mason sitting at a table.

Q84 You mentioned Gnr Mason - who is that?

A84 The man sitting there (indicated accused to court).

Q85 Then what happened?

A85 I checked the identity of the Italian patriot and then questioned Gnr Mason. He answered me in the Italian language. He said "Io Italiano". I asked him to produce documents of identification and he answered "Niente document".

Q86 How was the accused dressed on that occasion?

A86 He was wearing battle dress tunic, motorcycle breeches and motorcycle boots.

Q87 Then what did you do?

A87 I ordered the Italian patriot and Gnr Mason to accompany me to police HQ in Pescara. I placed them both under arrest. This would be about 2050 hours. On the way to the police HQ Gnr Mason appeared unwilling to accompany me. He stopped once or twice and said "Aspette, aspette".

Q88 Did he give you any particulars?

A88 Before we got to the police HQ he admitted that he was - - - he spoke in English with a Cdn accent. When we arrived at police HQ he admitted he was a Cdn. He gave me some particulars which documents proved false.

Cross-Examined by Defending Officer

A97 I arrested him in the out of bounds cafe.

Q98 Tell us what you did or said when you placed him under arrest?

A98 I, in company with L/Cpl Parker, ordered him to accompany me to police HQ and as he had no means of identification he was under close arrest.

Q99 You told him he was under close arrest?

A99 Yes.

Q100 You are sure of that?

A100 Yes. I told him he was under arrest. I was speaking to him in Italian because he was speaking to me in Italian.

Q101 Do you know for sure whether you told him he was under arrest?

A101 No, sir.

Q102 Was he eventually placed under arrest?

A102 Yes.

Q103 Who eventually placed him under arrest?

A105 There were two glasses on the table.

Q106 Did you smell alcohol at all?

A106 No.

Questioned by Court

Q107 It is now the 11th of January 1945 - you mentioned seeing the accused on the morning of 1 Nov 44 at 0900 hours. You seem to have a specially good memory to be able to give the court the actual number, his name, his initials and the unit to which he is supposed to be attached. Can the court presume that you have refreshed your memory in some manner before coming into court?

A107 Gnr Mason was the subject of a 252 which I made out. Eventually, there were five charges before I left the HQ. I studied this to make sure of the facts.

Q108 Your answer is you are able to give that information because you had access to the necessary documents before entering the court?

A108 Yes.

..../10

59

Third Witness for Prosecution (Cont'd)

Q109 Were the documents that refreshed your memory the documents which you prepared yourself previously?

A109 Yes, MFB 252.

In the opinion of the court it is unnecessary to comply with RP 83(B).

The witness withdraws.

Fourth Witness for Prosecution: 2693729 CSM MacCallum P W, 67 Sec Special Investigation Branch, Military Police, having been duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor:

Q110 Give your particulars to the court, please.

A110 No 2693729 CSM MacCallum P W, 67 Sec Special Investigation Branch, Military Police.

Q111 What do you know about this case?

A111 On 6 Nov 44 I saw Gnr Mason at 98 Gen Hosp, Bari.

Q112 Who is Gnr Mason?

A112 He is here now in the court (indicates accused to court).

Q113 Yes - - - ?

A113 I explained fully to him who I was and the nature of the inquiries I was on. I said to him " I am a WO of the SIB, MP, and I am making inquiries into the loss of an FLS truck No Z5319159 together with 18 sacks of official mail and regimental necessities of two British soldiers stolen from Pescara on 15 Oct 44. I said to him as a result of these inquiries "I have reason to believe you know something about this matter". I cautioned him by saying "You are not obliged to say anything unless you wish to do so but whatever you say will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence".

Q114 Before he said anything - at that time did you make any threats or any promises or hold out to him any hope of reward or promise of immunity?

A114 None whatever.

Q115 What did he say?

Defending Officer to Court

I object. I have reason to believe there are some other factors that can be brought out to show that the statement that was then obtained was not given freely, voluntarily and without compulsion. I submit the statement should not be allowed to be given in evidence until proven that the statement was properly solicited.

Prosecutor to Court

I do not admit the allegations the Defending Officer has made but the answer alleged to have been given is not of sufficient importance to warrant me making a stand on it. I will not ask that the question be answered.

Examined by Prosecutor

Q116 After your interview did you have occasion to see the accused again?

A116 Yes, on 15 Nov 44 at the Ortona guard room.

Q117 What happened on that occasion?

A117 I was then known to him and I again cautioned him in the manner previously stated and told him further inquiries had been made into the loss of this truck and that I had reason to believe that he knew something about the disappearance of the mail.

Q118 The words of warning used - were they the same, exactly, as previously mentioned?

A118 Quite exactly, yes.

Q119 At that time did you make any threats or promises or hold out any inducements or hope of reward if the accused made a statement?

A119 Absolutely none whatever.

Q120 Would you say that statement was made voluntarily or under compulsion?

A120 Absolutely voluntarily.

Q121 Was there anything you did or said or any circumstances surrounding the incident which would put the accused under fear or a sense of compulsion?

A121 None whatever.

Q122 Did he make any reply?

A122 He made a reply.

Q123 What reply did he make?

Defending Officer to Court

I object at this point on the same grounds; if what the CSM is telling the court is in the nature of a confession. We can produce evidence to show it was not entirely voluntary. The court must first find whether the statement was voluntary.

Prosecutor to Court

I agree that the procedure outlined by my friend is correct.

Examined by Prosecutor

Q123 (Cont'd) Was anyone else with you during this last conversation you have mentioned?

A123 Sgt Burt of my detachment.

A147 Ten minutes, or less.

Q148 You kept him in this room fifteen minutes?

A148 I estimate about fifteen minutes.

Witness stands down.

Fifth Witness for Prosecution: 2695053 Sgt Burt J, 67 Section, Special Investigation Branch, having been duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor:

A149 I do, sir.

Q150 Where is he?

A150 Sitting there (indicates accused to court).

Q157 Would you say that the statement was made voluntarily or under compulsion?

A157 I would say the statement was made voluntarily.

Q158 You have stated he gave an answer - was there any hesitation before he gave it?

A158 Not a great deal. He seemed to think for a minute or two and then he made an answer.

Q159 During the period he was thinking was anything being said to him?

Q163 Have you a working knowledge of the legal requirements of obtaining a statement from a witness?

A163 Yes, I have learned the Judge's Rules at one time. We have a knowledge of law which helps to guide us and take evidence from accused people and ordinary witnesses.

A171 As the result of certain information and in the course of my normal duty.

In the opinion of the Court it is unnecessary to comply with RP 83(B).

The witness stands down.

Defending Officer to Court

I propose to call the accused on statements that were alleged to have been taken from him.

The accused C957 Gnr Mason WH, RCA, att fap Cdn Sec GHQ 1 Ech AFHQ, having been duly sworn, is examined by the Defending Officer:

Q172 I want you to tell the court just what happened at the interview that you had with SM MacCallum at the 98 Gen Hosp, Bari, on that day in November?

A172 On 15 Nov 44, SM MacCallum came to 98 Gen Hosp to see me. He said he had got information from the Carabinieri that I had driven a truck into the ditch at Pratola and that it was a mail truck carrying ELS mail and had reason to believe that I knew more about it and told me that I would have to make a statement.

Q173 Did you volunteer a statement?

A173 No, I refused to make a statement.

Q174 Did the SM say anything else to you?

A174 The SM threatened that he would beat me all around the building if I didn't give him a statement.

Q175 Did he, at that time, use any violence?

A175 No.

Q176 Did you make a statement at that time?

A176 A small statement.

Q177 You are not very sure of the date, Gnr Mason, are you? You have given the date as 15 Nov 44 - is that correct?

A177 Not exactly. I wouldn't say exactly that was the date.

A178 Was that the approximate date? Do you remember when you were arrested?

A178 Yes.

Q179 Was it shortly after that or quite a while?

A179 About a week after that.

53

Q180 Do you remember at a time after this interview you had with the SM at Bari having another interview with him?

A180 Yes.

Q181 Where did that take place?

A181 At Ortona.

Q182 Who was present.

A182 SM MacCallum and Sgt Burt.

Q183 What happened at that interview?

A183 SM MacCallum and Sgt Burt took me out of the barrack room and took me down into a small room. The SM threatened to beat me up - in fact he hit me twice - if I didn't give him a full statement.

Q184 Where did he strike you?

A184 In the face. He also said that he had written the GOC and that he had pemmission to do anything with me. He also said he would notify my family at home and if I didn't give a statement I would probably be shot. Several different threats he used besides that I can't remember.

Q185 How long do you thinkyou were in this little room with the two NCOs?

A185 About fifteen to twenty minutes.

Q186 In all that time did any other person come into the room?

A186 No.

Q187 Did you make a statement at that time?

A187 Yes.

Q188 Did you make it because you were afraid or ~~xxxx~~ do you honestly think it was a statement you made voluntarily?

A188 It was not voluntary.

Q189 Do you understand what a caution is?

A189 Yes.

Q190 Was a caution administered to you during that interview?

A190 No.

Q191 Are you sure of that?

A191 Yes.

Q192 Was a caution administered to you at Bari?

A192 Never.

Q193 Is it possible that the caution might have been administered and you don't remember?

A193 No. No caution was administered.

Q194 Did you have a later interview with CSM MacCallum?

A194 Yes.

Q195 Where?

A195 At Sulmona.

..../17

Cross-Examined by Prosecutor

Q196 On the first occasion you said that CSM MacCallum told you you had to make a statement?

A196 Yes.

Q197 What were his exact words?

A197 He said that he had information from the Carabinieri that I had driven a truck into the ditch at Pratola and that he knew I knew something about the mail and stolen vehicle and that I had to make a statement and that if I didn't make a statement he would beat me all around the room.

Q198 Was that the first statement?

A198 Yes.

Q199 You say you refused to make a statement on the first occasion?

A199 After him telling me all about this Carabinieri I made a small statement.

Q200 Is it not true you made a statement because you felt that he knew about it already?

A200 No.

Q201 Why do you say that after he told you about the Carabinieri you made a statement?

A201 After being threatened with being beaten up I made a statement.

Q202 Did he make any motions at you?

A202 Previous to his visit another Sgt came in and I told him nothing then he came back with this SM. He threatened to beat me up. I made a statement. I wasn't going to take a chance - there was two against one.

Q203 Who was the other person present?

A203 Another Sgt.

Q204 He used no violence to you at that time or no gestures to frighten you?

A204 No, he just threatened me.

Q205 On the second occasion at Ortona when CSM MacCallum and Sgt Burt were there, you say that somebody hit you. Who was that?

A205 SM MacCallum.

Q206 How many times?

A206 Twice.

Q207 What hand did he use?

A207 His left. He slapped me across the face with the back of his hand.

Q208 What was Sgt Burt doing at that time?

A208 Sitting on the bed.

Q209 What did you say?

A209 I said nothing.

Q210 You just stood there and let him do it?

A210 Yes.

Q211 Didn't you make any protest?

A211 No.

Q212 Why not?

A212 Because I knew it was no use.

Q213 What made you think it wasno use?

A213 Well - - - If I got up and hit him what would I have got?

Q214 Why didn't you ask Sgt Burt for his protection?

A214 He was probably just as bad.

Q215 That is the reason you didn't say anything?

A215 Yes.

Q216 What made you think Sgt Burt was as bad - you just assumed that he was a policeman, he must be bad?

A216 I never got up to do anything about it.

Q217 You have said that they threatened to notify your family?

A217 Yes.

Q218 Were you concerned about that?

A218 Yes.

Q219 You didn't think your family would find out anyway?

A219 I didn't think me family would find out about anything I did.

Q220 You said that someone told you you would probably be shot if you didn't make a statement?

A220 Yes.

Q221 Who?

A221 SM MacCallum.

Q222 Was Sgt Burt there?

A222 Yes.

Q223 Did you believe him?

A223 No, I didn't believe him.

Q224 In other words you thought he was putting up a big bluff if he said that?

A224 To a certain amount, yes.

Q225 Did either SM MacCallum or Sgt Burt say anything to cause you to make an untrue statement?

A225 Well - I wouldn't say yes or no. The questions were coming so fast.

..../19

Q226 I am talking about the occasion of 15 Nov 44 at Ortona. Did either of them say or do anything that would make you make a false statement?

A226 No.

Q227 And you say there was no caution administered on either of the two occasions?

A227 No.

Q228 Were the words used similar to these "You are not obliged to say anything unless you wish to do so but whatever you say will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence"? Were words similar to that used?

A228 No.

Q229 Nothing similar?

A229 There were no words used, nothing.

Q230 As a matter of fact what made you give the statement was the fact that they already had information about you, was it not?

A230 No.

Q231 What do you think the reason you gave the statement was?

A231 Because they threatened to beat me up.

Q232 That is the only reason?

A232 Yes.

Q233 Did you think of calling for help?

A233 I was in an English jail and I wouldn't get much help from them.

Q234 Don't you know that what we call the third degree is not allowed?

A234 I don't know whether it is allowed but it is being done every day.

Q235 Don't you know it is not allowed officially and if you complain strongly to us and expose people who are doing it they will be dealt with?

A235 Yes.

Q236 Then why didn't you make some attempt to complain?

A236 I know it now but I didn't know it before.

Re-Examined by Defending Officer

Q237 Tell us if you know whether there was any guard outside that room where you were with SM MacCallum and Sgt Burt at the Ortona jail?

A237 I was escorted down as far as the door and handed over to them.

Q238 This knowledge that you say you how have about the third degree being used - where did you acquire that?

A238 Just since this case.

Q239 Do you know or have you heard of other cases where the third degree is said to have been used?

A239 Yes.

50

Questioned by Court

Q240 When you were in the hospital at Bari were you a bed patient there?

A240 No. I was in a cell at Bari.

Q241 How did you come to be confined in Pescara and end up in the Bari guard house?

A241 They sent me to a hospital in Bari.

Q242 Were you sick?

A242 Yes. I went sick in the Central Guard Room in Ortona.

Q243 When SM MacCallum saw you in the hospital in Bari you were in a cell by yourself?

A243 Yes.

Q244 When the SM hit you how hard did he hit you?

A244 Quite hard.

Q245 Did it leave any mark?

A245 No.

Q246 When you came out of the small room where was your escort?

A246 I didn't see any escort. The SM took me back to the guard room.

Q247 You said you went sick at Ortona?

A247 Yes.

Q248 Your reasons for reporting in the normal manner on sick parade is that you, with your knowledge of the army, know that when you use the proper channels you are taken care of. Is that correct?

A248 Yes.

In the opinion of the Court it is unnecessary to comply with RP 83(B).

At 12:30 o'clock, 11 Jan 45, the Court adjourns to re-assemble at 2:00 o'clock.

At 2:00 o'clock, 11 Jan 45, the Court re-assembles. The accused is brought before the Court.

Prosecutor to Court

I would like to state to the court the grounds on which I submit the stat ment which the accused is alleged tohave made is admissible in evidence. I refer the court to MML, p 90, at the foot of the page, para 74. I am quoting - "The rule as to confessions is that before a confession can be received in evidence, it must be proved affirmatively by the prosecution that it was free and voluntary"; that is, it is up to the witnesses for the prosecution to give evidence that the statement was voluntary. It is not for the accused to prove that it was not voluntary. Continuing, at para 75, "For this purpose a confession is deemed not to be free and voluntary if it appears to have been caused by any inducement, threat, or promise proceedingx from a magistrate or other person in authority or concerned in the charge, and having reference to the charge against the accused person, whether addressed to him directly or brought to his knowledge indirectly; and if, in the opinion of the court, the inducement, threat, or promise gave the accused person reasona ble grounds for supposing that by making a confession he would gain some advantage, or avoid some evil in reference to the proceedings against him". It is for the court to say, to find as a matter of fact, whether the confession alleged to have been made in this case was, in fact, made voluntarily. In order to assist the court in what the criminal courts in England have done in circumstances in which they found themselves, in cases of this type, I refer the court to Archbold's Criminal Pleading Evidence & Practice 31st Edition, p 367, which reads, in part, as follows - "After the prisoner had answered a few questions, the superintendent stopped the officer from asking more, and arrested the prisoner. Wills J held that the answers were admissible, as the officer had held out no threat or inducement, and there was no compulsion, and nothing to force the prisoner into a position in which he would be likely to make an untruthful answer". Again, in the middle of p 369, "where one of the prisoner's employers, having called him up into his private room, said, 'I think it right that I should tell you that, besides being in the presence of my brother and myself, you are in the presence of two police officers; and I should advise you that, to any questions that may be put to you, you will answer truthfully, so that if you have committed a fault you may not add to it by stating what is untrue'; and having shown a letter to him, which he denied having written, added, 'Take care; we know more than you think we know', and the prisoner thereupon made a confession; it was held that such confession was admissible". I put that in in connection with your consideration of the fact that the CSM explained that he had certain knowledge which may have made the accused apprehensive. It is not a disqualifying factor. The mere fact that you point out that you have certain knowledge and the accused might think that you have more than you have does not make a statement inadmissible, for that reason only. A further quotation on p 373 states "Where a constable in the course of a conversation between himself and the prisoner respecting the subject-matter of the charge and immediately before apprehending the prisoner said to the prisoner, 'I must know more about it', it was held that the use of this expression by the constable did not render a statement thereupon made by theprisoner inadmissible". But, in summing up, Gentlemen, I point out that the references I have mentioned are only guides as to what was done in those particular cases. It is for the court to say, in this particular case, whether the accused did make a statement voluntarily or whether he was induced by any threats which would made the statement untrue for that reason. It is for the court to say, on the evidence as they have heard it, what is the particular fact in this case. I point out, in fairness to the accused, that if you have any reasonable doubt, that doubt should be given to the accused. On the other hand, the court may believe, or disbelieve, any, or all, of the evidence of any of the witnesses they have heard, and in considering the circumstances as a whole make a finding on what they think actually happened.

.../21

Defending Officer to Court

I am going to be very brief. I think the prosecutor has been very fair in his summation of the law, the decision of which rests with you. I would like to say a few words on that point. He has called your attention to the authorityy on English law on which our courts are based. I can do no better but hope that you will have recourse to Archbold in basing your decision. The broad principle as Archbold has recited it at p 366 is simply that a confession to be admissible must be free and voluntary and unless it be shown affirmatively on the part of the prosecution that it was made by a person not being induced to make it by any undue measures it shall not be received in evidence against him.

The two NCOs concerned in the point in question were both individuals in authority because of their jobs. We are not arguing about a fine point as to where the information came from when the CSM prompted the accused that he had further facts. It goes deeper than that. We believe that you believe a show of violence was used which placed the accused in a sort of fear. The book uses the word 'terror' and also the words 'menace' and 'threat'. I believe our case comes within at least one of those three words - 'threat'. I firmly believe the statement of the accused. He has given it honestly and has withstood the prosecution's attempt to shake him. It is for the court to decide whether he has told the truth, in refusing to admit the confession in evidence. One or two examples of that are cited in Archbold at p 366, but they are definitely clear-cut decisions. The mere words "It will be better for you if you confess, it will be better for you if you tell the truth", have been held in a great many cases to have brought about confessions involuntarily. They are, therefore, inadmissible. In the last analysis, I think the case in question shows a special, a flagrant, use of violence and shows that no reasonable man can say that statement, and confession that followed it, was voluntary. You have noted the two NCOs who have given evidence before the court. It is a dangerous thing to say that a man has perjured himself but in view of my client's evidence on the point I can not fail to think that that is so in this case. I call your attention to the evidence given by these two NCOs with reference to the period when these individuals had the accused in the Ortona guard room. They both said a very brief statement was elicited at that time. When asked how long the interview lasted one used the words "ten to fifteen minutes" and another "one-half hour". No reasonable man would believe, in view of all circumstances, when there were two NCOs with a certain job to do, in a guard room alone with this man, whom in their own minds was guilty of committing some offence, that they would take all that time in getting a voluntary statement which took only a few minutes to record. Both of these gentlemen are well proportioned, able-bodied, big men, outwardly quite capable of carrying out any threat that they had used against the accused. Whether or not they did, the accused has said he was struck twice, the threats would be sufficient to make him be in reasonable fear believing in his own mind that they would carry out the threats. Be that as it may, I would again call the attention of the court on the question of a threat being used by a person in authority in the taking of a statement.

Court closed to consider admissibility of statement.

The Court is re-opened. The accused is brought before the Court.

President to Defending Officer

The Court dis-allows the objection of the Defending Officer.

Fourth Witness for Prosecution: 2693729 CSM MacCallum, 67 Sec Special Investigation Branch, Military Police, having been recalled, is examined by the Prosecutor:

Q249 On 15 Nov 44 what was the reply of the accused to the invitation you gave him to make a statement?

A249 He said "Yes, I burned the mail. I can show you where I burned it. I didn't steal the truck".

Q250 As a result of that did anything happen?

A250 He accompanied us that afternoon and endeavoured to show us the spot where he had burned the mail in the Sulmona district.

Q251 With what result?

A251 He took us to the road which he believed was the road on which he burned the mail but he could not point out the exact spot where this burning took place.

Q252 Then what happened?

A252 We had to detain him for one night at the Carabinieri jail in Sulmona. He was brought to the office of the Field Security in Sulmona. I cautioned him and said to him that I was of the opinion that he could tell us a good deal more about the matter.

Q253 What did he say in reply to your question?

A253 He said "Yes, I will tell the truth to the best of my knowledge. I can not remember too clearly". I asked if he wished to make an explanation in writing and he said he did.

Q254 On this occasion, on the 16th of November, was any threat, promise or inducement made to the accused in order to have him make a statement on that day?

A254 None whatever.

Q255 Did he make a statement?

A255 Yes. He made a statement in writing to Sgt Burt in my presence.

Q256 Was there anyone else present?

A256 Sgt McKee.

Q257 Was anything done before the accused made the statement?

A257 He was cautioned again by Sgt Burt.

Q258 Verbally or in writing?

A258 It was written down by Sgt Burt who then read it over to Gnr Mason who appeared to understand it and signed it.

Q259 The form of caution will later speak for itself. In order to assist the court as to whether or not this statement is admissible will you give a general idea of what it contained?

A259 He was told he need not say anything unless he wished to do so but anything he did say would be taken down in writing and used in evidence.

Q260 After the accused had signed the caution then what happened?

46

A260 He proceeded to make a story at his own dictation which was taken down in writing by Sgt Burt.

Q261 Were you present during the whole statement?

A261 I was.

Q262 During the taking of the statement were any questions put to the accused by anybody present at that time?

A263 No questions other than possibly to remove any doubt as to times and places which he mentioned in the statement.

Q264 After the statement was completed what took place?

A264 It was read over to him by Sgt Burt then handed to Gnr Mason who perused it and agreed to it and signed it.

Q265 At the time of the signing by the accused who were present?

A265 Myself and Sgt McKee and Sgt Burt.

Q266 Did anyone else have occasion to sign the statement?

A266 Only the accused and Sgt Burt, myself and Sgt McKee

Prosecutor to Court

I am formally tendering this statement - - - - -

Defending Officer to Court

I object on the ground that this statement was also obtained involuntarily and that until it has been decided by the court whether it was obtained voluntarily or involuntarily it should not be admitted at this time. In fairness to the accused the procedure that we have followed before, in the large part, will have to be done over again.

Cross-Examined by Defending Officer

Q267 You say that the statement was dictated by the accused?

A267 Yes.

Q268 Sgt Burt wrote it down ?

A268 Yes.

Q269 What do you understand by dictation?

A269 An entirely voluntary statement given quite voluntarily.

Q270 How long was the statement - roughly?

A270 About four pages.

Q271 And every word of that, except perhaps one or two clarifications, came from the lips of the accused with no prompting on your part or on the part of Sgt Burt or Sgt McKee?

A271 Yes.

Q272 You are positive of that?

A272 Yes.

Q273 Is it not true that you in fact prepared a good part if not most of that statement basing your information on the two previous statements you had obtained from the accused and also rounding it out with information you had received from the Carabinieri and perhaps some Italians you might have interviewed?

A273 Quite definitely not.

Q274 How long did you say this statement took in its presentation?

A274 About three-quarters of an hour.

Q275 And all that time the accused was talking freely, everything coming forth from his lips voluntarily?

A275 Yes.

Q276 You didn't threaten him in words or acts?

A276 No.

Q277 Where did this take place?

A277 In the Field Security office in Sulmona.

Q278 Sgt McKee - what is his position?

A278 IC of the detachment at Sulmona.

Q279 Were any others present besides those you mentioned?

A279 No.

Q280 You have mentioned possible points of ambiguity. What would be a possible point of ambiguity?

A280 We may have asked whether it was Sulmona or Pratola where the kit was missing.

Q281 You did not at any time suggest to the accused pertinent facts surrounding the alleged facts against him? You did not at any time put words in his mouth?

A281 No.

Q282 When you cautioned the accused what did he say?

A282 "Yes, I will tell the truth to the best of my knowledge but I can not remember too clearly".

Q283 Are you quite sure you heard the caution?

A283 I am quite positive.

Q284 Who administered it?

A284 I did.

Q285 Who did the writing?

A285 I point out that he was twice cautioned. I cautioned him myself. He was again cautioned by Sgt Burt who took down his written statement.

Q286 After this statement had been written down were you present at the time?

A286 Yes.

Q287 And who supplied the pencil for the signature?

A287 It is quite possible one of the others may have.

Q288 Was the accused told to sign it?

A288 It was put to him in the usual procedure.

44

Q289 Was he told to sign it?

A289 He was invited to sign it.

Q290 Who said that to him?

A290 I did.

Q291 What did you say?

A291 Do you care to sign it.

Q292 What did he say?

A292 He agreed to sign.

Q293 And what did he do?

A293 He signed it.

Q294 Where?

A294 Twice on the first page, signed the next page and the next page and the final one.

Q295 In other words what you are trying to inform is, SM MacCallum, is that this man entirely voluntarily having given the statement, after having been invited to sign it, an ordinary man of the ranks, proceeded to put his signature on the first page, the second page, etc.?

A295 We advised him to read it over carefully and if he was satisfied with it to initial each page.

Q296 What do you mean by advising to initial or sign the first page etc. What did you say to him?

A296 We were quite fair with him.

Q297 Did you or did you not tell him where he was to sign the statement?

A297 We told him where to put his signature and he was quite happy about it.

Q298 Do you think an ordinary man, whether he be in the army or out, without any knowledge of military procedure would sign a statement on every page - would sign after an opening caution, would sign at the foot of the first page, the second page, etc, without being told? Do you think he would?

A298 I should think so.

In the opinion of the court ~~xxxxxx~~ it is unnecessary to comply with RP 83(B).

The witness withdraws.

Fifth Witness for Prosecution: 2695053 Sgt Burt J, 67 Section, Special Investigation Branch, having been re-called, is examined by the Prosecutor:

Q299 On 15 Nov 44 when you and CSM MacCallum ~~xxxxxxx~~ visited the accused you have stated that the accused made a verbal statement?

A299 That is right.

..../27

43

Q300 Tell the court what that statement was?

A300 He said, "Yes, I burned the mail. I can show you where I burned it, but I didn't steal the truck".

Q301 Following upon that did you do anything?

A301 We went up to Sulmona, SM MacCallum, Gnr Mason and myself, where we went around in a truck and Gnr Mason showed us a side road and he said that this looked like the road where he burned the mail. We searched but couldn't find any trace of what grass would be like after burning mail. He was pretty certain that was the road.

Q302 Did you have occasion to speak to the accused after 15 Nov 44?

A302 On 16 Nov 44 the accused was brought from the Carabinieri guard room at Sulmona to the Field Security office there and SM MacCallun again spoke to him. He said "I still think you can tell us more about this Mason". Gnr Mason replied "Yes, I will tell the truth to the best of my knowledge. I can't remember everything too clearly". SM MacCallum asked him if he would like to put it down in writing. He said "Yes" and was then cautioned by SM MacCallum in the first place. I was instructed by SM MacCallum to get ready to take the statement down in writing. The statement was started off with an opening caution "I am not obliged to say anything unless I wish to do so but anything I do say may be taken down in writing and used in evidence". When I wrote that down I read it over to Gnr Mason and he signed it.

Q303 Did you ask him to sign it?

A303 Yes. I asked him if he understood the caution and if he did to sign. I took the statement down at Gnr Mason's dictation.

Q304 Entirely in your own handwriting?

A304 All except the signature.

Q305 During the taking of the statement were any questions asked?

A305 Only to clear up questions of ambiguity, such as times, places and dates.

Q306 At any time on 16 Nov 44 was any threat, promise or inducement or hope of reward made or held out to the accused?

A306 The statement was made voluntarily. He was not forced. He was told the statement was voluntary.

Q307 After the statement had been taken down then what happened?

A307 I read it over to Gnr Mason and asked him to read it and if he was satisfied to sign it. He signed the statement and seemed to be quite satisfied with it.

Q308 Did he look at it first?

A308 Yes. I took it that he was reading the statement.

Q309 How long a period had elapsed from the time he was handed the statement until signing it?

A309 Approximately three or four minutes.

..../28

42

Q310 Was there anything said during that period?

A310 No. He was allowed to read it and he never asked any questions about it. I asked him if he was satisfied and he said "Yes". I asked him to sign it and he signed it.

Q311 How many times did he sign the statement?

A311 At the bottom of each page and at the end of the statement after the caution.

Q312 Anyone else sign on the statement?

A312 CSM MacCallum, Sgt McKee and myself.

Cross-Examined by Defending Officer

Q313 Sgt Burt - you remember quite clearly the words that Gnr Mason made on each of the occasions when you were present and a statement was gained from him?

A313 Yes.

Q314 Have you at one or more times since November, which is considerably a period in the past, rehearsed the evidence that you were to give at any pending investigation investigation, court-martial or court of inquiry pertaining to the statements that you have said Gnr Mason made?

A314 Prior to my leaving HQ at Taranto I read over my statement to refresh my memory.

Q315 When was that?

A315 Last Friday.

Q316 Can you as of your own knowledge now tell the court that you remember, apart from having access to any document at all, what the accused said on those dates? Can you without having refreshed your memory?

A316 Perhaps not word for word. I had a good idea.

Q317 When was the last time prior to coming here that you have been on an investigation of any kind?

A317 Right up to coming here.

Q318 In other words you were on inquiries early in January and throughout December, as usual?

A318 Yes.

Q319 Would you be able to tell the court now that you had a statement that a man in a similar position to this man had made, say on 31 Dec 44?

A319 Yes.

Q320 Would you be able to tell the court about a statement from a similar accused made on 15 Dec 44, which is about a month ago?

A320 There are only certain cases upon which you have to make a certain report because you know that something is going to happen about that case. It is not every day we are dealing with a soldier.

..../29

Q321 If it is an important case do you immediately go over the statement in your mind and fix it firmly in your mind?

A321 If it is an important case, yes.

Q322 If the case comes up a month or two months later you are able to recall it?

A322 Yes.

Q323 Have you not since this case first came up gone over with CSM MacCallum and Sgt McKee both, or either one of them alone, and rehearsed your evidence making sure that it jibed?

A323 No, I didn't meet them until I came to Foggia. He said do you remember your evidence and I said yes.

Q324 How does it happen that your evidence is absolutely identical?

A324 We were both there together.

Q325 You have not, at some time, rehearsed the evidence?

A325 No.

Q326 I believe you said the caution was read over to the accused and signed by the accused before the statement was taken down?

A326 Yes.

Q327 Are you positive of that?

A327 Yes.

Q328 Was the caution signed after the statement itself was signed?

A328 The caution was xxxx written down and signed by the accused before the statement was taken down.

Q329 Did you, in fact, read the statement to the accused yourself?

A329 Yes, I read it over to him and handed the statement to him to read if he wanted to.

In the opinion of the court it is unnecessary to comply with RP 83(B).

The witness withdraws.

Sixth Witness for Prosecution: 3249133 Sgt McKee D, 419 Field Security Section, Intelligence Corps, having been duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor:

Q330 Tell the court what happened on 16 Nov 44?

A330 SM MacCallum sent me and Sgt Burt to the Carabinieri jail to bring Gnr Mason back to my office and billet.

Q331 Who is Gnr Mason?

A331 (Indicates accused to court.

Q332 What happened in your billet?

A332 When we got back SM MacCallum was responsible for him, he took him over. There was some conversation went on and I believe at this point SM MacCallum warned Gnr Mason that he was not obliged to say anything but that if he did it would be used in evidence against him. In other words, he was given a caution.

40

Q333 Then what happened?

A333 SM MacCallum and Sgt Burt proceeded to take the statement from Gnr Mason.

Q334 How was that statement taken?

A334 It was written down.

Q335 By whom?

A335 It was written down by Sgt Burt at Gnr Mason's dictation.

Q336 On that morning were any threats or promises made or any inducements or hopes of reward held out to the accused to have him make the statement?

A336 I didn'thear any.

Q337 What happened after the statement was written down?

A337 It was duly signed by myself, Gnr Mason, SM MacCallum and Sgt Burt

Q338 After it was written and before it was signed was anything done?

A338 Yes. I remember Sgt Burt asking Gnr Mason if he wanted to read it over.

Q339 Did he?

A339 I think I can remember him taking the statement and perusing it.

Q340 Did anyone else read it over or sign it?

A340 I can't remember whether any one else read it or not.

Q341 You are not in the Provost Corps?

A341 No.

Q342 Has Field Security work anything to do with taking statements from soldiers?

A342 In very, very isolated instances.

Cross-Examined by Defending Officer

Q343 Have you ever taken a statement from a soldier yourself or from anybody?

A343 Yes, I have. Not from a soldier but I have from a civilian.

Q344 If you were taking a statement from a soldier would the procedure resemble that in the case of a civilian?

A344 Well - - I have only dealt with Italian civilians.

Q345 How do you get a statement from an Italian civilian?

A345 I ask them if they are willing to make a statement to me and if they are I proceed.

Q346 Do you know whether or not that is proper in taking statements from our own soldiers?

A346 I should think the proper procedure is to issue a warning first of all.

32

Q347 Where were you standing in this room that you were in when the statement from Gnr Mason was gained in relation to theothers in the room?

A347 The room was an ordinary sitting room with a little wine table. We were more or less sitting around it.

Q348 You are quite aware of everything that went on?

A348 I was wide awake.

Q349 Do you know as a matter of fact that a caution was administered to Gnr Mason that morning?

A349 Yes.

Q350 You are positive?

A350 Yes. I signed my name to that effect.

Q351 How long would you estimate you were in that room together?

A351 As I recall now,it is almost two months ago, I should say one and one-half hours possibly.

Q352 And the statement that was gained from the accused - about how long would it be?

A352 I should say possibly within the time limit of one and one-quarter hours.

Q353 How long in pages of words?

A353 I can scarcely remember. There were several pages if I remember correctly.

Q354 Are you sure who wrote it down?

A354 Yes.

Q355 Do you know as a matter of fact now if that statement was read over to the accused?

A355 I would not say definitely. I am pretty sure that it was. I can not remember definitely.

Q356 Do you remember the moment in that room when the statement was complete and all that remained to do was to sign it?

A356 Yes,

Q357 Did the accused volunteer himself to pick up the pen or pencil and sign that statement?

A357 No one forced him to do it.

Q358 Did any one show him where he was to sign?

A358 I can not remember that actually.

Q359 Do you know now where he did sign?

A359 Yes, at the endof the statement and various other places.

..../32

38

Q360 Do you know whether he signed in those various other places on his own initiative?

A360 Nobody forced him to.

Q361 If anyone was to say to sign here would you call that force?

A361 No. I am afraid there would have to be a menace behind it.

Q362 In your knowledge it is possible that somebody told him in that room where he was to sign that statement?

A362 I suppose it is possible that someone pointed out theplaces to sign.

Q363 Do you know if someone did?

A363 I can not recall it.

Q364 Do you know, Sgt McKee, if in the course of this interview and the writing down of the statement whether or not the CSM wrote down considerable of that statement ?

A364 The CSM? I don't think so.

Q365 Do you know?

A365 No, he certainly did not.

Q366 So that every word of that statement to all intents and purposes was a reproduction of what the accused let fall from his own lips?

A366 Yes.

Q367 You are sure of that?

A367 Yes.

Questioned by Court

Q368 Do you know CSM MacCallum and Sgt Burt?

A368 In the course of my duty I have met them on several occasions.

Q369 When did you last see them before you arrived here for this case?

A369 At the time of this incident.

In the opinion of the court it is unnecessary to comply with RP 83(B).

The witness withdraws.

The accused C957 Gnr Mason WH, RCA, att fap Cdn Sec GHQ 1 Ech AFHQ, having been re-called, is examined by the Defending Officer:

Q370 I am confining myself to the issue of the objection pertaining to the admissibility of this statement.
Do you recall quite clearly the events that took place in the Field Security room at Sulmona on or about 17 Nov 44?

A370 Yes.

Q371 Tell the court in your own words just what happened on that day in that room?

A371 The night before that they put me in the Carabinieri jail and told me they were going to leave me there until I signed the statement.

Q372 Who told you that?

A372 The CSM.

37

Q373 Yes - - -?

A373 The next morning they took me to this room. They had two statements already taken under force. With those statements and with information from other places around there he made out this other statement.

Q374 It is very important, Gnr Mason, that you be quite explicit, quite clear. Do not assume that we know things. The court knows nothing about this.
You say he made out this statement - what do you mean, exactly?

A374 Sgt Burt wrote the statement down with the other two statements. I helped with some but I was forced to say it.

Q375 Howwere you forced to say it?

A375 He said he would keep me there under close arrest until the statement was made.

Q376 Do you recall him saying that?

A376 Yes, I do.

Q377 Where?

A377 In The Field Security office at Sulmona.

Q378 Was any violence shown on that day?

A378 No.

Q379 Were any threats made?

A379 He threatened that he would beat me up; that I'd get the shit kicked out of me.

Q380 Do you remember exactly what he said?

A380 No.

Q381 Are you positive that at Sulmona he made threats?

A381 Yes.

Q382 And the threats were roughly what?

A382 He threatened he would beat me.

Q383 Were the other two Sgts present at that time?

A383 Yes.

Q384 You say from the other two statements, in part, this statement was made up?

A384 Yes.

Q385 How do you know that?

A385 They had them there.

Q386 Did you see them?

A386 Yes.

Q387 In what were they contained?

A387 In a small note book. He also said he wouldmake up one statement and that he would tear the other two statements up if I signed the one statement.

36

Q388 He definitely told you that?

A388 Yes.

Q389 Did he in fact tear up the other two statements?

A389 Yes.

Q390 In your presence?

A390 Yes.

Q391 And did you see him actually write down in a new statement what he had in a note book and actually copy from the note book to the statement?

A391 I wouldn't say from the note book to the statement.

Q392 Did you see him looking at the hote book?

A392 Yes.

Q393 Who was doing the writing?

A393 Sgt Burt.

Q394 Who had the note book?

A394 The CSM.

Q395 How did Sgt Burt embody what was in the note book?

A395 They were both talking together and he was taking out things that were in the note book questioning me.

Q396 Up to this time had any caution been given to you?

A396 No.

Q397 Was anything ever said to you in that room, such as "You don't have to say anything unless you care to do so", or words to that effect?

A397 I was never cautioned.

Q398 Do you remember seeing a document after your interview drawn up by Sgt Burt?

A398 The statement? Yes, sir.

Q399 Did you read it?

A399 No, sir.

Q400 You are sure of that?

A400 I am sure.

Q401 Did any one of those three NCOs read it to you?

A401 No.

Q402 Are you positive of that?

A402 Yes.

Q403 How long would you say this statement was?

A403 I would say about two pages.

Q404 Did you read it through?

A404 I never read it at all.

Q405 Did you as a matter of fact make a statement or utter the words that came in that statement?

A405 No, I did not.

Q406 Did you make any statements to them on that day?

A406 I said a few words to them but I never dictated a statement. I just answered questions I was asked.

Q407 About how many questions would there be?

A407 He asked me quite a number of questions.

Q408 What do you understand by the word dictation? Did you dictate that statement on that day?

A408 No. I answered a few questions that he asked me.

Q409 Were you afraid of these Sgts - physically afraid?

A409 Yes.

Q410 At Sulmona?

A410 Yes.

Q411 The Sulmona interview was after Ortona?

A411 The next day he had me interviewed.

Q412 Did you honestly believe in your own mind in that Sulmona room that if you did not sign that statement that they would carry out their threats?

A412 Yes.

Q413 When it came to signing the statement what did you do?

A413 I didn't want to sign it. He said if I didn't sign it he would keep me there until I did sign it.

Q414 Are you positive of that?

A414 I am positive.

Q415 Then what happened?

A415 I signed the statement.

Q416 Where did you sign it?

A416 I signed first after the caution and at the bottom of each page.

Q417 Was the caution read to you when you signed it?

A417 No, it was not read to me.

Q418 Did you read it?

A418 I never read it.

Q419 Were you told where to sign?

A419 Yes, SM MacCallum gave me a pencil and told me where to sign. He said " You sign here and here and here".

34

..../36

Q420 He gave you the pencil?

A420 Yes.

Q421 You said you don't remember exactly how long a statement that was but you mentioned something about two pages?

A421 I signed three or four different places. I don't remember exactly how many pages there were.

Q422 Despite the threats why did you sign without making some protest?

A422 I didn't want to stay in that jail under close arrest, for one reason.

Q423 But what was on your mind, were you depressed at that time?

A423 Yes. I was fed up with them keeping me for so long. I got fed up and just signed it.

Q424 Did you believe that the threats they had made against you and the previous violence they had shown plus the episode of that particular day was enough to make you tell a lie?

A424 There were so many questions and coming so fast that I do not remember exactly what is in the statement.

Q425 You don't know right now whether or not you answered all the questions put to you truthfully or not?

A425 I could not say.

Cross-Examined by Prosecutor

Q426 You said that SM MacCallum threatened you, that he said he would keep you in close arrest until you made a statement. Is that correct?

A426 Yes.

Q427 Did you think he could do that?
A427 He probably could.
Q428 ~~xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx~~. What did you think the Cdn authorities would think after they heard you had been apprehended and did not hear from you for some considerable time?

A428 They probably never notified the Cdn authorities at all. I was in a British guard room.

Q429 You knew that you would be staying in custody for some time on account of your AWL, so it did not make a great deal of difference did it?

A429 Yes, it was a wop jail, lousy and everything else.

Q430 You have said that - two or three different things you said - you gave a lot of this statement and the rest was filled in by SM MacCallum, and later you said that all you said was in answer to questions?

A430 The other two statements he forced me to sign. With them two statements, and other information he picked up, he forced me to sign this statement.

Q431 Did you sign a statement previous to this?

A431 Yes, two statements.

33

Q432 What did they look like?

A432 Just ordinary statements wrote down in a small note book.

Q433 Who wrote them?

A433 I believe the SM.

Q434 You don't remember?

A434 Yes, the SM took one in Ortona and one in Bari.

Q435 Did you sign them?

A435 Yes.

Q436 What date was that?

A436 Whatever the date was at the hospital - - I don't know what date it was.

Q437 You have said that SM MacCallum threatened to beat you up. Was Sgt McKee and Sgt Burt there at the time?

A437 Yes.

Q438 Do you know that Sgt McKee is not a member of the military police?

A438 Yes, I know he is a member of the Field Security.

Q439 Is there any reason why he should not tell the truth on this case in the court today?

A439 I don't know. They seem to be pretty good friends.

Q440 You say they are entirely wrong?

A440 Yes, everything I signed was by force.

Q441 And you never filled in another word except in andwer to a question?

A441 That is right, it was all question and answer.

Q442 And some of it was transcribed from SM MacCallum's note book to this statement?

A442 From the note book and what they knew that is how they made this other statement. I know it was in the note book, one at Ortona and one at Bari.

Q443 Is it not possible that SM MacCallum might have been checking dates and times with those you were giving him from his note book?

A443 He said "I will tear these statements up if you will sign this one". It was a loose leaf note book and he took them out of it.

Q444 Were the two statements he tore up the same words as had been mentioned before that you had said?

A444 I never read them over again - I don't know.

Q445 You don't know what was in the statements?

A445 No, - I know my signature was on the bottom.

Q446 You say you were never cautioned at any time on 16 Nov 44? 32

A446 Never at any time. I was cautioned by one Sgt in the hospital in Vasto.

Q447 But not on the 16th of November, 1944?

A447 No.

Q448 You put your name at the end of a formal caution, did you not?

A448 After the whole statement was completed, yes.

Q449 You never read the caution?

A449 No.

Q450 They told you it was the caution?

A450 No. After the statement was over, he said sign here and here and here and that was all there was to it.

Q451 Why did you say you would get the shit kicked out of you?

A451 I knew what was coming.

Q452 Why did you use those words if they were not said on that occasion?

A452 They were not said.

Q453 Why did you not read over what was said in the caution?

A453 I was fed up with the questioning and everything - I just signed it.

Q454 So the reason you signed the statement is because you were fed up?

A454 Yes.

Q455 Which was it, because you were fed up, or because you were forced to sign it?

A455 Both.

Q456 In what way were you forced?

A456 He said I would be locked up until I did sign it.

Q457 You can not, as a result of all these alleged threats, and the other circumstances, say whether or not it was enough to tell a lie?

A457 I can't say that. There were so many questions asked me that I can't remember.

Q458 You usually tell the truth?

A458 Yes.

Q459 Can you think of any reason why Sgt McKee, not being a police officer, would come into this court and swear that you were, in fact, cautioned?

A459 I can't see where it has anything to do with it at all.

Q460 Has he any grudge against you?

A460 I don't know him.

Q461 Can you think of any reason why he would perjure himself?

A461 No.

Re-Examined by Defending Officer

Q462 On the question, Gnr Mason, asked by the prosecutor, whether you, in fact, thought the SM could carry out his threat of keeping you under arrest, you say it was a British jail. But, apart from that, when he hit you on the other occasion, in Ortona, did he hurt you?

A462 Yes, some.

Q463 You didn't say anything to him?

A463 No.

Q464 And whenyou have told this court that you felt that if you didn't sign that he would kick the shit out of you, you felt at that time - what?

A464 I felt that he would.

Q465 What do you mean by "kick the shit out of you"?

A465 Beat me.

Q466 Had he threatened at any other time that he would hit you?

A466 Yes.

Questioned by Court

Q467 You made the statement under oath that you first signed under the caution. How did you know it was the caution if you didn't read it?

A467 I didn't know it was the caution.

Q468 Why did you make the statement in court then?

A468 I signed where I was told to sign.

Q469 You made a statement under oath that you signed under the caution and yet you also make the statement that you were never cautioned.

A469 I didn't know it was a caution, I was told where to sign.

Q470 You made a statement that 'I signed under the caution'. I am asking a direct question, how did you know it was the caution if you didn't read it?

A470 There are so many questions coming here I don't know what to say.

Q471 You made the statement yourself.

A471 I knew nothing about the caution before.

Defending Officer to Court

May, with the permission of the court, ask a question to the court that might clarify this point. On the matter of caution, I think the prosecutor will agree with me on this, the mere signing of the caution would not be sufficient without the caution being properly administered. Apart from that since I have come to be acquainted with this case as defending officer I have had access to the summary of evidence and the purported confession. I told the accused that I saw the original confession. I told him where I had seen his signatures. I think that, in view of the fact that the word caution has been used so ~~naturally~~ largely, he naturally says he signs it here. He also said that a caution was never read to him at any time and that none was given at Sulmona.

Questioned by Court

Q472 Did you have any opportunity at all to read the statement or the caution before you signed it?

A472 Yes, I had an opportunity to read the statement.

Q473 Did you read it?

A473 No.

20

Q474 Did anyone read the statement to you?

A474 No.

In the opinion of the court it is not necessary to comply with RP 83(B).

Prosecutor to Court

The only additional reference I would give the court in connection with the admissibility of this statement in particular are the provisions of the Judge's Rules which appear in MML, p 91, at the bottom of the page. The court may glance at them and it will be noted that at the bottom of p 92 it provides that "Provided that such rules are observed there can be no question as to the admissibility of the statement. Whether non-observance of them renders a statement inadmissible is perhaps doubtful; but the better view appears to be that a statement is in law admissible notwithstanding non observance of the rules, if the prosecution satisfy the court that it was not in fact induced by any fear of prejudice or hope of advantage as explained in the preceding paragraphs." I submit the argument I previously made applies with that modification to this particular point.

Defending Officer to Court

The only thing I would like to point out is in dealing with an argument which the prosecutor as brought forth in cross-examination with the accused. It had come up at least twice before that. It is as to his knowledge of Cdn soldier's rights when placed under arrest. A question was asked by the prosecutor, in so many words, "Did you not know that you could not be kept here without Cdn officials being notified?". This man had already suffered actual violence by a WO, having been struck twice. Any assistance would have come too late. Gnr Mason was dealing with a matter of fact and he thought in his own mind that he would be hit again. I submit that he was labouring under fear of being submitted to violence if he did not answer the questions. I think his evidence has been straight forward and honest on this point. It is not a very happy situation when you have three people give evidence entirely different from the evidence of one man, for with respect to prima facie it is likely that one man's evidence would be discounted where three gave evidence against one. In this case, due to the entirely honest, straight-forward way the accused has given his evidence, I submit that his evidence is honest and reliable. If the court accepts that I can not see how any other conclusion can be drawn but that he suffered violence from NCOs and, at the time of his confession, was in danger and under threats.

At 4:30 o'clock, 11 Jan 45, the Court adjourns to 9:30 o'clock, 12 Jan 45, to consider the admissibility of the statement.

At 9:30 o'clock, 12 Jan 45, the Court re-assembles. The accused is brought before the Court.

President to Accused

The Court wishes to advise you that having considered the law in MML and Archbold and the Opinion & Ruling of the JAG Branch, CMHQ, No 26, on 29/Observations/1 d/1 Jan 44, it has decided to admit the written statement made by you in the Field Security office, Sulmona, on 16 Nov 44.

29

Cross-Examined by Defending Officer

Q494 In the statement just read is the sentence "When I was returning to Pratola with the civilians I stopped at Pescara and drew some petrol from Americans". Is that the statement of the accused?

A494 Yes.

Q495 Do you know for sure that was the way the accused said it exactly?

A495 Exactly as he said it.

Q496 Exactly as he said it?

A496 Yes.

Q497 Did he use the word petrol?

A497 I should say he did.

Q498 In other words you are saying heused the word petrol?

A498 Yes.

Q499 And the word petrol appears in at least another place in this statement and where it does appear is that the word the accused used at the time?

A499 He said petrol in the statement.

Q500 Do you know for sure?

A500 I should say that is the word.

Q501 In the sentence I read to you before "When I was returning to Pratola with the civilians I stopped at Pescara and drew some petrol from Americans". Did the accused volunteer that statment himself?

A501 Yes.

Q502 Did you not tell the accused himself where he had got the petrol and the quantity on information you had obtained from Americans ?

A502 No, he gave the statement voluntarily.

Q503 Also in the statement are the names of several Italian villages - Aschuli is one and Pratola is another. Did the accused volunteer those names himself?

A503 Yes.

Q504 You didn't tell him the names of the villages he was in?

A504 No.

22

Q505 Never once?

A505 No.

Q506 Did the accused tell you himself he was in Rome?

Q509 Did the accused volunteer that word himself?

A509 He said bullock.

Q510 He mentioned bullock?

A510 Yes.

In the opinion of the court it is unnecessary to comply with RP 83(B).

The witness withdraws.

Fifth Witness for Prosecution: 2695053 Sgt Burt J, 67 Section, Special Investigation Branch, having been re-called, is examined by the Prosecutor:

Q511 In your former testimony you gave evidence as to a statement taken in Sulmona on 16 Nov 44. I produce to you a document. Can you tell me what that is?

A511 The statement made by the accused, Gnr Mason, on 16 Nov 44, at Sulmona.

Q512 There are two signatures on the first page, one on the second, one on the third and one on the fourth page, all purporting to be made by 'W Mason'. Who signed that?

A512 Gnr Mason, the accused.

Q513 The three signatures on the bottom of the statement, who are they by?

A513 CSM MacCallum, Sgt McKee and myself.

Q514 Were you present when all those signatures you have mentioned were signed?

A514 I was.

Q515 In whose writing is this statement?

A515 That is my handwriting.

Q516 What was the day you first saw the accused?

A516 15 Nov 44.

Q517 What was he wearing on that day?

A517 A pair of motorcycle boots and riding breeches and a battle dress blouse.

Q518 You have already said you saw him on the 16th of November?

A516 Yes.

....../44

Q517 How was he dressed on that day?

A517 He was dressed in the same clothes.

Q518 Did you see him at any time later than that?

A518 On 17 Nov 44 I went to the Ortona Guard Room. The NCO of the guard went up to Gnr Mason. I told him I wanted the riding breeches and boots. He brought me back a pair of motorcycle boots and riding breeches and told me he took them from Gnr Mason.

Q519 Did you see him take them from Gnr Mason?

A519 No.

Q520 Did you see Gnr Mason after the breeches had been taken from him?

A520 Not until the summary of evidence held at Rome.

Q521 Where were you when the NCO went to see Gnr Mason?

A521 In the office of the guard room at Ortona. Gnr Mason was detained upstairs. I didn't go with the NCO when he took these riding breeches and boots from him.

Q522 How long was the NCO gone from the time he left until he came back with the breeches and boots?

A522 Five to ten minutes.

Q523 Did you make any arrangements with respect to other boots and breeches?

A523 I saw a Lt of the MP. He arranged to have a pair of boots and trousers sent up.

Q524 The breeches and boots that were handed to you on 17 Nov 44 were of what type?

A524 The boots were WD boots. We know them as motorcycling boots - the long, black leather knee boots. The riding breeches were khaki colour and WD issue.

Q525 Had you ever seen those breeches before?

A525 Only when I first saw Gnr Mason - he was wearing boots and breeches similar to the ones I took possession of.

Q526 What did you do with the boots and breeches handed to you by the NCO?

A526 I took them to Vasto where, in the presence of CSM MacCallum, I showed them to Sgmn Glover of 15 L of C Sigs. Sgmn Glover examined the breeches and the boots.

Q527 What was finally done with the breeches and boots?

A527 They were handed over to an officer of 15 L of C Sigs.

Q528 Was anyone else present when they were handed over to the officer?

A528 Sgmn Glover and CSM MacCallum.

Q529 You can not say for certain that the breeches that were handed to you by the NCO IC guard room were those which the accused had been wearing the day before?

A529 They were similar.

25

Cross-Examined by Defending Officer

Q530 You stated that you did not take the breeches and motorcycle boots from the accused. Did you, at any other time, make a statement that you had so taken them?

A530 Not that I had. I made a statement that I had taken possession of them.

Q531 Did you not on 9 Jan '45 in the presence of Capt Bourne, the prosecuting officer, state that"on 17 Nov 44 I took these breeches and boots from the accused". Did you make that statement?

A531 Yes.

Q532 The sentence after the next "The breeches and boots I took from the accused were shown to Sgmn Glover in thepresence of CSM MacCallum". Did you or did you not make that statement?

A532 Yes.

Q533 I call that to the attention of court, at p 5. When the breeches were shown to Sgmn Glover who actually had them in his hand when they were shown to Sgmn Glover?

A533 As far as I recall they were on a table.

Q534 Who had placed them on the table?

A534 Sgmn Glover after he looked at them.

Q535 Who gave them to Sgmn Glover originally?

A535 They were put on the table and Sgmn Glover sent for; he was told to examine the breeches.

Q536 Who put them on the table originally?

A536 I wouldn't like to say that, sir.

Q537 Your evidence so far has been that you got them from the guard room. Who brought them down to Sgmn Glover?

A537 They were put in a truck at the guard room.

Q538 What happened to them after that?

A538 The truck came from Ortona to Vasto. They were took out of the truck and carried to the table.

Q539 Did you hand them to CSM MacCallum first?

A539 I am almost certain I put them on the table.

Q540 As far as this statement written by you and signed by the name of Mason - was every word in the statement written by you?

A540 All except the signatures.

Q541 Did every word of the statement come from Gnr Mason?

A541 He dictated the statement, I wrote it down.

Q542 In this statement are names of small Italian villages, one of which is Aschuli. Did the accused volunteer the name of that town?

A542 I can not recall that name at all. If it is there he must have said it.

Q543 Do you know if he did or not?

A543 I say he did say it.

Q544 There is another town by the name of Pratola Peligna. Did the accused volunteer that name himself?

A544 Yes. He lived there for a few days.

Q545 Did you ever see him in that town?

A545 No.

Q546 You suggested that certain things to clear up ambiguity were suggested to the accused. Will you give the court a specific example?

A546 I would like to see the statement.

Q547 If a man writes a statement he should be able to remember. Other things you remember very clearly. This is one little thing I am asking you. You had a man give a statement. You say certain points of ambiguity arose on which the accused was corrected. I want to know one example.

A547 I didn't say there were any qyestions asked him at all.

Q548 You said apart from the signatures and ambiguities the rest of the statement came entirely from the accused. You wrote the statement, give us an example of one of the amgibuities?

A548 There were more than one - something about clothing being sold at Sulmona. He was asked was it Sulmona. He said "Yes".

Q549 In the same instance of the clothing. Did he volunteer that he had sold clothing himself? Didn't you suggest to the accused that he had sold clothing?

A549 No. I am positive of that.

Q550 There is a statement here also stating that when he left Pratola he stopped in Pescara and drew 8 gallons of petrol from Americans. Is that the accused statement, word for word?

A550 I can not recall whether it was in his statement or not. If I could see the statement - - - -

Q551 It says "When I was returning to Pratola with the civilians I stopped at Pescara and drew some petrol from Americans". "I think it was 8 gallons". Is that the accused, word for word, and is that your writing?

A551 That is my writing and that is what he said word for word.

Q552 Did the accused use the word petrol?

A552 Yes.

Q553 You are sure he didn't use the word gas, or gasoline?

A553 The man used the word petrol.

Q554 There is a statement here as well, pertaining to the truck having been in the river "The Marechiallo suggested getting a man with some bullocks to pull the truck out of the river". Can you remember that statement being made?

A554 Not exactly - -

Q555 In other words, you do not remember the whole statement?

A555 I do not remember the whole statement.

Q556 You don't remember most of the sentences. Without looking at the statement you could not say right off the bat the accused said that could you?

A556 I could not, no.

Q557 Why did you in answer to a question of the prosecuting officer say that you had never made a statement that you had never taken those breeches or boots from the accused?

A557 There is some ambiguity in that.

Q558 Do you think it is reasonable to read the other portions in this statement "When I saw the accused on the 15th of November 1944 he was wearing motorcycle breeches and motorcycle boots. On the 17th November I took these breeches and boots from the accused". Is it reasonable to read the other portions to do that? This man is on trial, you are not. Why, when I asked you if you had ever taken breeches from the accused did you say no?

A558 It is quite reasonable to say that, - after all a NCO IC of a guard room is a responsible person. If he gets a direction from a senior NCO that he wants breeches and boots from a certain person in the guard room it is reasonable for that NCO to believe that he is not going to get it from a store.

Q559 If it is true that the NCO had got them and given them to you, why did you you not say that? You denied having made that statement of taking them?

A559 That is all I remember.

In the opinion of the court it is unnecessary to comply with RP 83(B).

The witness withdraws.

Second Witness for Prosecution: 6022196 Pte Carter R, 1/4 Bn Essex Regt att L of C Sigs, having been re-called, is examined by the Prosecutor:

Q560 Did you have a pair of breeches on the night of 15 Oct 44 in the rear of the EIS truck on the night that the said vehicle was stolen?

A560 No, the only clothes I had were those that I was wearing.

Q561 Were there any other pants in the vehicle that you know of?

A561 I only know that Sgmn Glover had his full kit. I don't know what was in it.

In the opinion of the court it is unnecessary to comply with RP 83(B).

The witness withdraws.

Defending Officer to Court

At this point I move that the prosecution has failed to establish a prima facie case on the second charge against the accused. The second charge in the charge-sheet, laid under AA 40, reads "When on active service, conduct to the prejudice of good order andmilitary discipline, in that he, in the Field, in Italy, on or about 31 Oct 44, was improperly in possession of 1 pair of breeches, the property of 2601250 Signalman Glover F C". The defence feels that the evidence that the prosecution has adduced on the second charge has been circumstantial evidence only as far as a finding of guilty connecting the accused with this charge is concerned. I admit that it/fairly strong circumstantial evidence. On 31 Oct 44 the accused was arrested by L/Cpl Simmons and at that time he was wearing a pair of breeches, but the accused was not seen by any witness for the prosecution that appeared before this court until CSM MacCallum say him on 6 Nov 44. There has been incomplete evidence showing that the breeches shown by CSM MacCallum to Sgmn Glover were the breeches which L/Cpl Simmons saw the accused wearing at the time of his arrest. It a well known maxim of English law that in English law circumstantial evidence may be sufficient. I submit in this connection looking at other circumstances that have come before the court that a finding of guilty against the accused on the second charge would be improper. The prosecution has not made out a prima facie case, which I feel might have been done. No primary evidence or an attempt to identify the breeches in court by producing the breeches was made. One witness for the prosecution said no attempt was made to bring those breeches into court. The exhibit should be produced. I would like to stress one other thing, that is, particularly on the second charge, the evidence brought forward by at least two witnesses for the prosecution has been unsatisfactory, namely, CSM MacCallum and Sgt Burt. During the greater part of three sessions they have stood by their guns and stated that everything was done in accordance with English law, with respect to this case. For the greater parts of three warnings they have withstood my verbal attempts to show that they perjured themselves. Sgt Burt said that he had never made a statement saying he had taken breeches from the accused. Evidence taken down by Capt Bourne, in his presence and in the presence of the accused, on 9 Jan 45, definitely states that he did make that statement and further emphasized it by stating the breeches he took from the accused were shown to CSM MacCallum. In that connection I am not fully aware of the reasons and actually it is the job of the court and not mine as to why it is not felt that the confession was admissible. Be that as it may, I do feel that the statement in Archbold has a great effect in the minds of the court where Archbold states that a confession, unless it was calculated to make an accused tell a lie then it should be admitted. What the JAG has had to say in these cases has influenced the minds of the court in order to determine whether it is admissible or not. I would like to point out that Archbold is not entirely without confliction. On p 370 he states "The only questions in these cases really are (1) was any promise of favour, or any menace or undue terror made use of, to induce the prisoner to confess? (2) if so, was the prisoner induced by such promise or menace, etc, to make the confession sought to be given in evidence?". Archbold is not without confliction on ambiguity. I would like to point out to the court that whether or not the court believes that CSM MacCallum did make some improper statements or not, personally I feel there are good grounds to suggest that he did. Before you is an accused man, a Cdn, who has served with the Cdns since enlistment. True some Cdns have spent some time in England and have acquired English characteristics in referring to certain objects, but I submit it is entirely unlikely that the accused would not have used such a word as petrol. A Cdn invariably says gas, or gasoline. For CSM MacCallum to say, backed up by Sgt Burt, that where the words occur in the statement they are the exact words of the accused I submit it is entirely unlikely. In connection with the names of Italian villages. Some are rather difficult to say and very, very unlikely known by their proper name to the accused. In this connection I am not suggesting that words were forced down the throat of the accused. I am suggesting they were gained from further information from CSM MacCallum and placed in the statement. I would like to suggest there was no reason to deny the fact that they had from time to time written various into that statement. I suggest from the length of the statement and from the grammar used, and other extenuating circumstances, the court should readily xxy see that the statement is not a voluntary, free statement of the accused. I think it is too much to admit such were so. On this motion that there is no prima facie case on the second charge, therefore, the accused need not stand on his defence for the second charge. I would point out that, firstly, the evidence is circumstantial and, secondly, that it is unreliable, and if there is reasonable doubt as I feel there is, and on the law, that the accused should be given the benefit of it.

22

Prosecutor to Court

Gentlemen - I agree with the defendingofficer when he says the evidence on the second charge is circumstantial. It came as a surprise to me when the evidence was not as I thought it was. There is a slight gap in the evidence. It has not been proven by direct evidence of an eye witness that the pants taken from the guard room and which were shown to Sgmn Glover were in fact taken from the accused. However, I submit that I have proved other facts which are sufficient to support the charge. First, it has beenproven that on 15 Oct 44 a pair of trousers in a vehicle belonging to Sgmn Glover were taken by somebody. They were the only pair of trousers in the vehicle - if there were more than one pair of trousers in the vehicle both belonged to Sgmn Glover. That is one point. Secondly, a point which has been proven by the confession of the accused, which is evidence against him; in his confession he states "As far as the clothing I am wearing now is concerned, the breeches and the leggings are part of the clothing which was in the truck". What I must do is, by circumstantial evidence, to prove that the truck to which the accused refers is the same truck that Sgmn Glover refers to. If I do that there is no question but that the accused was in improper possession of a pair of breeches belonging to Sgmn Glover. Circumstantial evidence on that point is that the vehicle was taken on 15 Oct 44, in Pescara. The accused admits being in Pescara that night and admits driving off in a vehicle but he can not remember exactly where it was obtained. In that vehicle which was taken from Sgmn Glover was a quantity of official mail, which is described. In the confession the accused describes sacks of mail, I submit, in similar terms. On that vehicle was a cage - the accused admits that the vehicle he took had a cage on it. The accused admits ~~xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx~~ in his confession that the cage was taken off by a blacksmith. The vehicle lost by Sgmn Glover, when found, had the cage removed by a hacksaw, as it is thought. The accused left the vehicle near Pratola Peligna and subsequently the vehicle was found in the village of Pratola Peligna. The vehicle that was found had had the tactical signs and numbers painted out to some extent - the accused admitted having the identity marks painted off the vehicle that he had taken. I submit, Gentlemen, that these circumstances are so strong that there can be no doubt but what the vehicle to which Sgmn Glover refers is the same vehicle to which the accused refers. Therefore, the pants that were in the vehicle are the same and, therefore, must be the pants of the witness, Sgmn Glover. I submit that there has been a prima facie case made out on the charge in question.

Court is closed to consider submission of Defending Officer.

Court is re-opened. The accused is brought before the Court.

President to Defending Officer

The Prosecutor declines to cross-examine the witness.

In the opinion of the Court it is unnecessary to comply with RP 83(B).

Prosecutor to Court

Gentlemen - in view of the fact that there is no JA, and in fairness to the accused, I would like to point out three general principles: The first is that the accused is innocent until proved guilty. Secondly, the burden of proof is on the prosecution, and thirdly, the accused is entitled to any reasonable doubt the court may have in their minds. By reasonable doubt is meant what an ordinary man deems as such.
With respect to the first charge, I submit that the evidence there is also circumstantial. Similarly, as I have already pointed out, the evidence with respect to the second charge is circumstantial and similarly the evidence is circumstantial with respect to the third charge. I have already pointed out what this circumstantial evidence is, and I submit that the same circumstances apply to the first, second and third charges. It must be shown that the vehicle to which Sgmn Glover refers is the same vehicle the accused had and that the breeches and mail referred to in the charges are the same as those referred to by the accused in his statement. With respect to circumstantial evidence I refer the court to the top of p 82, MML, which shows that the circumstances must not only be consistent with the guilt of the accused but also inconsistent with any ~~[illegible]~~ other rational conclusion than that the accused is guilty. I do not propose to repeat the list of these circumstances. If the court is satisfied that the prosecution has proven all allegations of fact contained in the particulars of the first, second and third charges, and it is up to the court to make that finding as a matter of fact, then it is for the court to say whether or not the doing of these things in each charge was improper. The mere fact that he did them is not enough - it must be improper, and that is a matter for the court to say. Having done them, and the court having found they are improper, then the court must say whether or not such things being done improperly amount to conduct to the prejudice of both of good order and of military discipline, and the court, as officers, have a right to look to their military knowledge in determining whether or not these things do amount to conduct both to the prejudice of good order and military discipline.

Defending Officer to Court

With the full agreement of the accused I am not, at this time, going to make an address before the finding. I would like to say that the prosecutor has been very fair in his summation of the evidence that he has produced, both now and on a former motion, and the accused and myself feel that the finding you will make will not be influenced by anything I am going to say at this time but that the small address I give will be observed after the finding.

At 12:00 o'clock, 12 Jan 45, the Court adjourns to re-assemble at 2:00 o'clock, 12 Jan 45.

At 2:00 o'clock, 12 Jan 45, the Court re-assembles. The accused is brought before the Court.

E1 Defending Officer: Capt G C Piercey, 8 Bn, 2 CBRD, CAC, having been duly sworn, gives evidence as follows:

"I am Capt G C Piercey, 8 Bn, 2 CBRD, CAC. On the 9th day of January, 1945, I was asked by the AJAG of Cdn Sec GHQ 1 Ech AFHQ to see W/Cmdr Bournemouth of HQ MAAF, CMF. In accordance with this request I saw W/Cmdr Bournemouth and he told me that he was a security officer and a member of the RAF att to HQ MAAF. It was his business, he said in words to that effect, to ascertain how great was the destruction of certain mail that he had reason to believe the accused, Gnr Mason, could tell him about. He said he was interested in the case solely from the point of view of security and that it would help him in his work a great deal if I would see the accused, explain to him W/Cmdr Bournemouth's mission and ask him if he would be willing to s him and answer his questions. He told me to tell the accused that if he did so anything the accused told him would be strictly considered confidential as between the accused and himself and his lawful superiors and that nothing he said to W/Cmdr Bournemouth would be communicated in any way to army officials at Cdn Sec GHQ 1 Ech AFHQ of any member of this court-martial or that it would in any way influence his trial. I then saw Gnr Mason, the accused, and on explaining to him the mission of W/Cmdr Bournemouth he said immediately he was willing to see him and would tell him all he could about the matter. Immediately after that W/Cmdr Bournemouth had an interview with Gnr Mason in my presence. There were no others present. The W/Cmdr asked Gnr Mason several questions pertaining t mail alleged to have been in a British army ELS vehicle on, or about the night of 15 Oct 44. I should qualify that by saying the mail contained in particular certain air force mail. The accused answere all the questions of W/Cmdr Bournemouth quite honestly, in my opini and without hesitation and at the end of the interview the W/Cmdr explained to me his opinion that he had obtained all the information that the accused was able to give him.

E3 Defending Officer in Mitigation of Punishment

The few words I have to make are in mitigation of punishment. It will be more or less going over what the court has heard before. I would like to point out that on evidence the prosecution has adduce largely based around the confession alleged to have been obtained the accused, the court has seen fit to accept it. I think I am no going beyond my rights when I say that the court believes like I believe. In fact, it is my opinion the court believes most of wha the accused said himself on the stand that he had been subjected to some violence at the hands of witnesses who are present here. Therefore if the court believes that and in their own rights they have seen fit to admit the confession on a ground of law as it has been made known to them, I suggest that the accused has already suffered some punishment for theoffences the court has found him guilty of in that he as a Cdn soldier, a Cdn citizen and a British subject, has not had British fair play in that an accused man in giving a confession should not be threatened and should not suffer violence. He should give a confession in a purely voluntary manner. I feel the court do feel in their hearts that the accused is telling the truth - that he suffered a great deal of persecution and probable violence. Therefore, I say again that he has suffered some punishment. He has not had all the rights of a British subject in the proceedings that arose after his arrest. The accused feels very fully that since this court-martial began he has had a very, very fair trial. Be that as it may, I suggest that in the proceedings that arose prior to this trial everything was not as it might have been. The NCOs in whose custody he was when the confession was elicited, I feel quite surely, used considerable force and offered several threats when they obtained some of the statements gained from him. Secondly, I would ask the court in determining the punishment this soldier should receive to consider the length of time the accused has been in custody to date, namely, since 31 Oct 44, making two full calendar months and some ten days up to his trial. Thirdly, I ask the court to consider that since his arrest, or rather since he has been brought to trial, that he has done what he possibly could to mitigate the seriousness of his offence, which he admits is serious, in responding quickly to our air force brothers when they were seeking information. He was not coerced by myself or by any one representing the army and he gave the information quite voluntarily when asked. He told, to the best of my knowledge, the facts as he knew them when asked. Fourthly, I ask the court to consider the youth of the accused. His army age is 23 years, but, on the evidence of the accused, apparently he gave false information when he enlisted. He was 17 when he enlisted and is now 21 years of age. I ask the court to consider that as true. He was employed at the time of his enlistment - his enlistment was voluntary. Although his conduct sheet is not what one would wish, in view of years of length of service and the fact that he has been with an artillery unit in action should have some weight with the court in assessing sentence. The accused is fully aware of the seriousness of the offences he has committed. I can assure you of that. Since I was asked to take his defence for this court-martial he has been reluctant to ask any advice at all on his part. He, in his heart, is most grateful that he was not charged with much more serious offences, which, if a conviction was obtained on them, would possibly carry a longer term of sentence. I explained to the accused that if he had been charged with theft and possibly under some more serious act relating to mail that he would have received long sentences and certainly some that would have very serious consequences on his future. He is fully aware of that and appreciates the fact that he is fortunate to be charged under AA 40. In view of all these facts I have no hesitation, personally, to ask the court in considering the sentence that should be given this man that they take into consideration his youth, the suffering, perhaps even persecution, that he has received already, and the fact that he volunteered information to the best of his ability to help out, and award to him the sentence he rightfully deserves, not one as a sort of warning to others. Thank you very much.

Ex "A" Affidavit Gunner Mason

EXHIBIT "A"

Sulmona.

Statement of: No. 6.957. Gunner. MASON. William,
R.H.A.
3. Field Regiment.
Canadian Royal Artillery.

Who states:-

I have been cautioned that I am not obliged to say anything unless I wish to do so but that anything I do say will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence. W Mason

About the 24th of September 1944, I went absent from my Unit. I was alone. I was not happy in my Unit. Unfortunately I am a heavy drinker and this gets me into trouble. I was absent about fifteen days when I met an American soldier named "Tim" in the street at Pescara. This would be about seven o'clock on the evening of the 15th October, 1944. He told me he was an absentee. We drank a bottle of gin, which he had with him. We must have got pretty drunk because I can remember going off in a truck with "Jim" but I cant remember where we got it. We drove on the Rome road I think, but I dont remember how far we drove but we slept a part of the night in the cab. I woke up about six o'clock the following morning and found that "Tim" had gone. I was at the side of the road and I think I was near Popoli. I drove the truck to a little village on the hill and had 2 litres of wine. During the time I was drinking this wine, I had a blacksmith take the cover of the back of the truck also, a cage. I then left this village and came to Sulmona, and then went to Pratola Peligna where I spent the afternoon at Di Simone Iolanda's house. Then went back to ASCHOLI where I stayed in the truck all night with a girl I had picked up on the road. I do not know her name. When I visited Sulmona I went to a side road where I found mail which was in the truck. The mail was in small sacks, some a little larger than others, and as nobody had touched it I should say that the full number of sacks were there. Some people passing by noticing the empty sacks asked me for them and I gave them away. I do not know any of these people. As far as I can remember there were no billags in the truck which contained clothing and some equipment. I remember selling some of the clothing to people whom I dont know in the street at Sulmona. There were still some articles of clothing and equipment in the truck when I left Sulmona and went to Pratola to Di Simone Iolanda's house. Some boys took the articles from the truck. I returned to Sulmona and it is possible that a few boys may have been in truck at a side door. Then as already stated I went to ASCHOLI. About this date I went off to Rome, I got petrol from different camps on the road. I was drinking most of the time and I remember going into Rome about eight o'clock one morning. During the day I picked a girl up and stayed one night in a hotel with her. I dont know the name of this hotel or the street it is in. I set off again and after a few days I arrived back in Pratola where I stayed one night at Rocco and the other nights at Di Simone's. During this time I was going to Porto Recanati and some civilians asked if they could come along as they wanted to buy some grain. They collected a little bit of money and gave it to me. I was at Porto Recanati two or three times but the civilians only went with me once. When I was returning to Pratola with the civilians I stopped at Pescara and drew some petrol from Americans. I think it was eight gallons. As far as the shooting is concerned, I remember firing a shot or two in the air to frighten some boys who were climbing all over the truck. There was a rifle and a pistol in the truck when I landed at Rome. The pistol was in the dashboard compartment, where I had put it for safety. In the morning I found that the pistol had been stolen but the rifle was still on the truck. About the 28th October 1944 sometime during the evening I left Pratola and at the bad bridge over the river I took the corner too sharp and one of the back wheels missed the bridge and the truck slipped sideways into the river. I was accompanied by an Italian patriot named Di Simone and another patriot whom I don't know. The rifle was in the truck at the time the truck went into the river. I got wet and went back to Di Simone's house, got a change of clothing and stayed the night. The following morning I went back to the truck and the Marechiallo of the Carabinieri spoke to me and

W. Mason

W. Mason

I gave him my particulars. The marechiallo suggested getting a crane with some bullocks to pull the truck out of the river. I was prepared to pay a thousand lire to have this done. I was not present when the car was pulled out. The truck was pulled up to a local garage where a bicycle repairer tried to get it in running order. The battery was out of order and I stayed the night at Di Simone. Next morning at eight o'clock I set off with the truck, and after going about two miles I ran out of petrol. I left it at the side of the road and hitch hiked into Pescara. That night I was arrested by the military police in a cafe. I was accompanied by Di Simone the soldier.

As far as the clothing I am wearing now is concerned, the breeches and the leggings are part of the clothing which was in the truck. I dont know what has become of the canvas canopy of the truck, all I can say is that it was lying in the rear of the vehicle and some one must have stolen it. I had the numbers of the vehicle painted out by the blacksmith who removed the cage. I have thought very hard to try and recall the places where I turned the mail and had the cage removed but I simply cant remember. I was in a stupor most of the time through drink. I have read over the above statement, made quite voluntarily, and it is true.

Summary of Evidence

In the case of C957 Gunner William Hilliard MASON, RCA, att fap Cdn Sec GHQ 1 Echelon AFHQ

The Commanding Officer directs the evidence be taken on Oath.

First Witness for Prosecution

2601250 Sgmn GLOVER, F.C., 163 DR Sec, 3 Coy, 15 L of C Signals having been duly sworn states:-

"On 15 Oct 44 I was the DR and driver in charge of ELS truck WD Z- 5319159 from Ancona to Pescara. The truck was a Dodge 15 cwt. On the back of the body of the vehicle there was welded a cage which was underneath the canopy of the vehicle and completely enclosed the back part of the vehicle from the front, sides, top and rear. There was a door opening from the back of the vehicle. This door was secured by a lock and chain. The cage was of iron mesh. In the course of my duty as DR in charge of the vehicle I carried essential official WD mail. I am not permitted to carry anything in addition to this mail except my kit, without the written authority of the signalmaster. ELS stands for Express Letter Service. Pte Carter, who is attached to our Unit, was acting as my armed escort on the night of 15 Oct 44. When we left Ancona that day we had 18 registered bags of essential WD mail. Each bag had attached to it a tag which showed the registered number of the bag, the office from which it had been despatched and the office to which it was addressed. 16 of the bags were to be delivered to the ELS Office at San Vito and 2 bags were to be delivered to AMC 13M at Pescara. We arrived at Pescara about 2215 hours and parked the truck in the station square outside the Signals billet. We were followed into the square by the truck from the AM Centre. Carter unlocked the back of the truck and gave me the 2 bags for the AM Centre, which I gave to the Corporal in charge of the vehicle. He gave me 2 bags in exchange, 1 addressed to Foggia and the other to Bari. These 2 bags were placed in the cage of my vehicle, still leaving 16 bags in the vehicle. While I was exchanging the bags Private Carter took his bedding into the billet. It was usual for him to sleep in the billet and for me to sleep in the back of the truck. Before he took his bedding in he gave me the key to the cage of the truck. When he returned I sent him to see if tea was ready and I began to arrange the bags in the back of the truck ready to make my bed. Carter returned later, giving me my mug and indicated that the tea was ready. I finished moving the bags, got out of the truck, locking the cage and went to the latrine and then to the cookhouse to get my tea. I thought Carter had got his tea and was by the front of the vehicle. This was our usual practice. Whilst I was getting my tea I noticed Pte Carter was in the cookhouse and as the result of what I said Pte Carter returned to the truck immediately. He came back and as a result of what he told me we both went out and I saw that the truck was missing. I was away from the truck from about 4 to 6 minutes. I had somebody report the matter to the CMPs by telephone and I proceeded with Signalman Headley in another truck to the CMP Office in Pescara and reported the loss and gave the necessary descriptions. The cage was locked when I left it. I gave no one permission to move or to take the truck. In the truck, in addition to the mail, was my complete army kit. Included in the kit was a pair of riding breeches and a pair of motorcycle boots. Also in the truck were items of Carter's kit. On the 15 Oct 44 there was no other mail in the truck other than official mail carried by ELS Service. There were one or two of my personal letters in my kit. I next saw the vehicle about 10 Nov 44 in RASC Workshops in Pescara. The tactical signs had been painted out but were still visible. The WD number on the tailboard was visible and corresponded to the number of my vehicle. I recognized the tactical signs as being the same as those on my vehicle. The vehicle had been damaged and the cage appeared to have been sawn through with a hacksaw. The canopy and the pipes supporting the canopy were also missing. All the tools were missing. On the 17 Nov 44 CSM MacCallum showed me a pair of riding breeches and motorcycle boots. Although the boots were my size I could not definitely identify them. I recognize the breeches as mine because they were the same size and because there had been alterations to the inside of the inside of the legs. Pieces of battledress material had been inserted so as to make the breeches fit my legs. I could tell that they were mine by the colour of the cloth that had been put in and the shape of the alterations. I am certain they were my breeches. The breeches were handed to my Company Quartermaster as I had already been issued with new ones. I do not know where these breeches are now. My vehicle was on charge to 163 DR Section 3 Company 15 L of C Signals, which is a Unit of the British Army. I had signed for the vehicle.

.....2

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

6022196 Pte Carter R, 1/4 Bn Essex Regt att L of C Sigs, 3 Coy, having been duly sworn states:

"On 15 Oct 44 I was acting as escort on a 15 cwt ELS truck travelling from Ancona to Pescara. I do not know the number of the vehicle but it was a Dodge 15 cwt. Sgmn Glover was the driver and in charge of the vehicle. My duty is to guard the mail and I ride in the back of the vehicleOn that night we took 18 bags of mail from Anconato Pescara. It was registered and unregistered official WD mail. The bags were all different types and all different colours. Each bag had a label attached to it. We arrived at Pescara about 2215 hours on 15 Oct 44. The first thing I did was to unlock the cage handing out 2 bags for the Airmail Port Center. I handed Sgmn Glover 2 bags and he handed me 2 from the Airmail Port Center, still leaving 16 bags of mail. At this time we were parked close to the billet of the Carrier Pl of Sigs in Pescara. After this I took my bedding out of the truck and took it into the billet because it was our stopping place for the night. Sgmn Glover sleeps in the truck. There was a cage which enclosed the whole back of the truck from all directions. There was a door at the rear which was kept locked. Before going into the billet I handed the key to Sgmn Glover. After putting my bedding in the billet I came back to the truck. I then went back to see if the tea was ready. Finding that it was I got the drinking mugs of Glover and myself and handed Glover's mug to him. I then went for my tea. Glover did not follow behind me. Whilst I was in the cookhouse Sgmn Glover also came. As a result of what he said to me I went back alone to where I had left the truck and found it missing. I reported the matter to Sgmn Glover and we both came out and investigated but were unable to find the truck. From the time I left the truck until I saw Sgmn Glover in the cookhouse was 2 or 3 minutes. After Glover went to report the matter to the police I looked in the area for the vehicle but was not able to find it. The time the vehicle was taken would be about 2230 hours. I gave no one permission to take the vehicle. Besides, the official mail, Sgmn Glover's kit and a small part of my kit were in the cage of the vehicle. The only papers or documents that were in the vehicle that night were contained in mail bags which it was the duty of the ELS to carry. There was no private mail carried on the truck.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

Third Witness for Prosecution

5778291 L/Cpl Simmons W, 231 Provost Coy, CM Police, having been duly sworn states:

"On 31 Oct 44 I was on duty at Pescara. About 2045 hours I was on town patrol duty accompanied by L/Cpl Parker of the CM Police and I was engaged in the checking of out of bounds cafes. I entered a cafe which was clearly marked out of bounds and there I saw an Italian patriot and a soldier sitting at a table. I checked the Italian patriot's identity. I then questioned the soldier, who is Gnr Mason, the accused. He replied in the Italian language and said "Io Italiano". I asked him to produce documents of identification and he answered "Niente documents". I was suspicious of him because he was dressed in motorcycle breeches and motorcycle boots. I ordered the Italian patriot and the soldier, Gnr Mason, to accompany me to my Company Detachment, Pescara. I placed the accused under arrest around 2050 hours. On the way to Detachment HQ the soldier appeared unwilling to accompany me and kept stopping and saying "Aspette, aspette". Before we got to Detachment HQ he spoke in English with a Canadian accent. When he got to Detachment HQ he admitted that he was a Canadian. He stated that he had a motorcycle in the town but would not disclose where it was parked. When he got to Detachment HQ he gave me some particulars which later proved to be false. He was then conducted to the Carabiniere jail at Pescara and detained. The next morning, 1 Nov 44, at about 0900 hours, I again saw Gnr Mason and queried the particulars he had given me. He then gave me his particulars as No C957 Gnr Mason W, 92nd Bty, 3rd Fd Regt, RCA, 1 Cdn Div. When I last saw the accused on 1 Nov 44 he was wearing motorcycle breeches and motorcycle boots.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

5778291 L/Cpl Simmons W.

Fourth Witness for Prosecution

2693729 CSM MacCallum, P.W., 67 Sec Special Investigation Branch, Military Police, having been duly sworn states:

On information I had received on 6 Nov 44 I saw No C957 Gnr W Mason the accused (whom I recognize) detained at the 98th General Hospital in BARI. I said to him, "I am a Warrant Officer of the Special Investigation Branch, Military Police. I am making inquiries into the loss of an ELS truck No Z5319159 and 18 sacks of mail, together with the regimental necessities of 2 British soldiers, stolen from Pescara on 15 Oct 44". As a result of these inquiries I had reason to believe he could tell me something about this matter. I cautioned him by saying, "You are not obliged to say anything unless you wish to do so but whatever you say will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence". I made no threat, promise or immunity or held out no hope of reward to the accused at this time and I used no compulsion to cause him to make a statement. Mason replied, "I drove a lorry into the ditch at Pratola. I gave the Maresciallo there my particulars. That is all I know." I then carried out further inquiries in the Pratola, Pescara and Sulmona areas resulting in my again seeing Gnr Mason accompanied by Sgt Burt of my detachment on 15 Nov 44 at the Ortona Guard Room. Being then known to Mason I again cautioned him in the manner previously stated and said to him as a result of further inquiries I had made into the matter of the lost truck at Pescara I had good reason to believe he knew something about the disappearance of the mail. At the time I did not hold out any hope of reward or make any threats, promises or inducements to have him make a statement. It was entirely voluntary. He replied "Yes, I burned the mail. I can show you where I burned it, but I did not steal the truck". Gnr Mason then, accompanied by Sgt Burt and myself, went to Sulmona where he took us to a road near the town and pointed it out as the road on which he had burned the mail, although he could not point out the actual spot. By this time it was getting late in the day and he was detained for one night in the Carabiniere jail at Sulmona. Next morning he was brought to the office of the Field Security at Sulmona by Sgt Burt and Sgt McKee. I again administered a caution to Mason in the same manner as before and told him that I was of the opinion he could tell a good deal more about the matter of the missing truck and the mail. Gnr Mason replied "Yes, I'll tell the truth to the best of my knowledge because I can't remember clearly". I asked him if he would care to make his explanation in writing and he replied "Yes". At this time there was no threat or compulsion used nor was any hope of reward or promise of immunity held out to the accused. In my opinion, the statement was given voluntarily. In the presence of Sgt McKee and I a statement was taken down in writing from Gnr Mason at his dictation by Sgt Burt. The caution was administered by Sgt Burt to Gnr Mason - which Gnr Mason signed. At the conclusion of this statement Sgt Burt read it over to the accused. I also handed this statement to the accused who perused, read and signed it. I witnessed the signature to the statement. He was given the opportunity to make any alteration that he cared to. I counter-signed the statement. I produce a document which is the statement I have referred to above (document marked Exhibit "A"). I witnessed the signatures of the accused as follows: Two on the first page, one on the bottom of the second page, one on the bottom of the third page and one at the end of the statement on the 4th page. The three signatures at the bottom of the statement are those of myself, Sgt McKee and Sgt Burt. I saw Sgt McKee and Sgt Burt sign their signatures. No questions were asked the accused during the dictation of the statement other than those necessary to clear up any ambiguity with respect to times and places. After making the statement the accused volunteered to assist us in finding the cage which had been taken from this particular type of vehicle. We carried out searches in the villages surrounding the Sulmona district but were unable to find the missing cage which had been removed from that type of vehicle. After this Gnr Mason was conveyed back to the Ortona Guard Room where he was handed over to the NCO IC. When I first saw the accused on 6 Nov 44 and at all times subsequently he was wearing motorcycle breeches and motorcycle boots. On 17 Nov 44 Sgt Burt gave me a pair of motorcycle breeches and motorcycle boots which were similar to the ones worn by the accused. I showed them to Sgmn Glover the same day. After Glover had looked at them they were handed to his OC in Glover's presence.

Fourth Witness (Contd)

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

Fifth Witness for Prosecution

2695053 Sgt Burt, J., 67 Section, Special Investigation Branch, having been duly sworn states:

I recognize the accused as C957 Gnr Mason W.H. On 15 Nov 44 I saw the accused in the Town Guard Room at Ortona. I was with CSM MacCallum. CSM MacCallum explained to the accused that he had been making further inquiries about the case and thought that the accused could give further information. He was cautioned by CSM MacCallum in words approximately as follows: "You have been cautioned. You are not obliged to say anything unless you wish to do so and anything you do say will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence". Mason replied, "Yes, I burned the mail. I can show you where I burned it, but I did not steal the truck." The above statement was made voluntarily by the accused. Mason then accompanied us to Sulmona and showed us the side road where he alleged he had burned the mail, but there were no marks or trace of the mail having been burned. He was then taken back to Sulmona and placed in the Carabiniere Guard Room overnight. On the 16 Nov 44, in company with Sgt McKee, I went to the Carabiniere Guard Room to collect Mason and take him down to the Field Security Office in Sulmona. When we were in the office CSM MacCallum said to Mason "I still think you could tell us more about this." Mason replied, "Yes, I'll tell the truth to the best of my knowledge. I can't remember everything too clearly." CSM MacCallum then asked him if he would care to make a statement in writing. He replied "Yes". Then I wrote a caution and read it over to him and he signed it. Then he made a statement. The statement was taken down in writing by me at Mason's dictation. I read over the statement to him. Mason was then allowed to read it over and after being asked if he wished to make any alterations he signed it. This statement (Exhibit "A") is the statement of the accused above referred to. The signature after the words "I have been cautioned that I am not obliged to say anything unless I wish to do so but that anything I do say will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence." is that of the accused. The above words are the words that I wrote down and read to the accused before he made the statement. The signatures at the bottom of pages 1, 2, 3 and at the end of the statement are those of the accused. The signatures at the foot of the whole statement are those of CSM MacCallum, Sgt McKee and myself. I saw all the signatures made. There were no threats, promises or inducements made in connection with the obtaining of the statement and it was given voluntarily. Sgt McKee and CSM MacCallum were present when the statement was made. The writing apart from the signatures is mine.

When I saw the accused on the 15th of November 1944 he was wearing motorcycle breeches and motorcycle boots. On the 17th November I took these breeches and boots from the accused. He was given a blanket and I made arrangements to have new trousers and boots sent to him. The breeches and boots I took from the accused were shown Sgmn Glover in the presence of CSM MacCallum. Sgmn Glover looked at the boots and breeches. The boots and breeches were later handed to an officer of the 15 L of C Signals in the presence of Sgmn Glover. The breeches and boots which the accused was wearing when I first saw him appeared to be the same ones that I showed to Sgmn Glover.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

Sixth Witness for Prosecution

3249133 Sgt McKee D., 419 Field Security Section, Intelligence Corps, having been duly sworn states:

On the 4th of November 1944, from information I received I proceeded to Pratola Peligna. In the morning I found a 15 cwt Dodge vehicle, No.Z5319189, outside a blacksmith's shop in Pratola Village. I took the vehicle back to my billet at Sulmona where it was claimed by Sgt Rushman. When I found the vehicle it had no canopy and no supporting pipes and there was no cage fitted onto the back of the vehicle. It was possible to read the number of the vehicle where it was painted on the back. I recognize the accused as Gnr Mason. On 16 Nov 44 Sgt Burt and myself brought Mason back to my billet and office in Sulmona from the Carabiniere Jail where we handed him over again to CSM MacCallum. On the 16 Nov 44 Mason volunteered a statement of the whole incident. I think it was CSM MacCallum who first cautioned him. I saw the accused sign on two places on the first page of the statement (Exhibit "A") and at the foot of the second, third and fourth pages. The other signatures at the foot of the fourth page are those of CSM MacCallum, Sgt Burt and myself. Sgt Burt took the statement down in writing at the dictation of the accused. There was no threat, promise or inducement made by any that were present in connection with obtaining the statement.
I produce the following documents relating to the accused: (a) Record of Declaration of a Court of Inquiry assembled on the 20 Oct 44 showing the accused to have absented himself from 0800 hours 28 Sep 44, (b) Certificate in accordance with Army Act Section 163(1)(jj) showing the accused to have been arrested at 2045 hours 31 Oct 44.

4th Witness for the prosecution:

L-12043 Sgt. Huggett, J (Lome Scots), having been duly sworn states:

On the 4th of Jan. 1945 I was acting as Comp C.S.M. in the morning I had the wiring of Bde. H.Q. to do. The the electrician Pte Hazelthen asked if I would let Pte McGrath help him with the wiring. I had been given permission by Capt. Gorman to use Pte. McGrath under escort on any jobs. So I sent him, with the electrician as the escort. At approx. 1100 hrs. I went up to Cpl. Post's room which was also occupied by civilians and found Pte. McGrath without his escort with a glass of Vino in his hand. I ordered him to put the glass of Vino down and told him to report to his quarters. He did not make any sign to move and started to argue with me. I immediately summoned two escorts and ordered them to take Pte. McGrath to his quarters. They did with slight struggle. He was drunk.

Ans: Later on in the afternoon at approx. 1330 hrs. I found Pte McGrath in the hallway with his escort causing an argument about wanting to get his hat which was left at the Officers mess where he had been working. I told the accused and escort to go back to the room; that I would get his hat; he caused much argument and would not go back on his own. I summoned another escort and told them to take him back to his quarters. They appeared to be afraid of him so I put an arm-lock on him and forced him back to his room.

Que: ~~Would you tell~~ Was he still drunk at this time:

Ans: Yes.

Certified R.P. 83 (b) has been complied with.

~~No closing address by Defending Officer.~~ Ex submission by the defending officer that the prosecution does not establish a prima facie case against the accused on the third charge :-

"It has been proven, I think, that the safe keeping of a soldiers kit is his own responsibility." "Cpl. Earle failed to take his surplus kit with him when he was employed and billeted some twenty miles away from where he left it." "Capt. Woods estimates the value of his kit to be £60/-/- but is unable to give an itemized report of its contents to the Court." "I submit that no evidence has been produced to prove the charge laid against the accused.

This was disallowed for the following reasons:-

① The 8 cwt referred to was a baggage vehicle as proved in evidence

② The accused was batman driver to Capt. Wood and it therefore was his responsibility to look after his officers kit.

③ Kit must have been on the vehicle with a move coming only an hour or so after the accused went absent with the vehicle.

Trial accordingly proceeded.

H.

Prosecutor's address to the Court on the conclusion of the evidence

Mr. President and members. In speaking to the charge of losing by neglect. It has been clearly established that the accused was the Batman Driver of Capt. Wood. In this capacity it is obvious that he is responsible for the kit of this officer. It has been clearly stated also that the kit of this officer was at all times material to this case stored on the vehicle in question.

It is also obvious that a driver is responsible, not only for his vehicle but for it's legal load. Witnesses have proven that the vehicle was the carrying and storage place of various peoples kits and I submit to the court that in the light of evidence submitted they have no alternative but to find the accused guilty.

On the charge of drunkenness tho it is simply a matter of accepting or not accepting the evidence of Sgt. Huggett. As no evidence was submitted to the contrary I submit that the court must find the accused guilty of the charge.

(8)

Defending Officer declines to make any closing address.

F-3 9

Mitigation Plea of Defending O.

Although the accused has had a clean record for some time previous to this, he has not been granted a furlough for over two years.

Prior to his going absent without leave, he was doing the jobs of three men. Batman - driver, cook and running of an I.C.W.T. and also acting as Coy. D.R.

During this time a D.R. was sent to the Coy. from the Reinforcement Center and on arriving he was immediately granted seven days leave while the accused carried on his many duties.

These facts are submitted, not as excuses for the accused's misconduct, but to show that his actions were not premeditated, but rather the impetuous actions of one who feels he has been wronged.

I would like to remind the Court that he gave himself up to the C. M. P. and admitted his guilt to the charges in which he knows himself to be guilty

Answer Yes, I recognized it as BRASCO's vehicle on strength HQ 1 Cdn Inf Bde. Previously I had driven it quite a bit myself.

(2) Did you know that it had been away from HQ 1 Cdn Inf Bde?

Yes Capt T R Wood had reported the absence of B84116 Pte McGrath James and the vehicle in question to the T.O.

I had been informed subsequently and knew that that was the vehicle I was looking for when I was sent to 44 Coy CMP.

(3) Did the CMP tell you how they had come into possession of the vehicle?
Yes they told me they picked it up at a location which I have forgotten some distance from the camp from which it had been taken.

(4) Was any person with the vehicle at the time it was found?
No as far as I can remember the CMP said they had found it alone. Pte McGrath was not with it or at ~~CMP~~ 44 Coy CMP HQ when I picked it up.

The accused was asked if he wished to cross-examine the witness. He said that he did not wish to do so.

Sixth Witness for the Prosecution

L12043 Sgt Huggatt J., Lorne Scots, HQ 1 Cdn Inf Bde having been duly sworn states: I was acting camp sergeant-major on 4 Jan 45. The accused B84116 Pte James McGrath was under close arrest in my custody 4 Jan 45. I released him under escort of L13015 Pte Hazelham J J (Lorne Scots) to help with the electric wiring of the camp. At approximately 1100 hrs I visited my corporal's room which was also used by civilians. I found the accused without escort with a glass of "vino" in his hand. I ordered him to put down the vino and return to his quarters under my escort. He drank the vino and commenced an argument with me. I summoned two privates as escorts and ordered them to take the accused to his quarters, which they did with a slight struggle. The accused was drunk at this time. He was slightly unsteady on his feet and his speech was incoherent.

J Huggett. Sgt.

The accused was asked if he wished to cross examine the witness. He said that he did not wish to do so.

The accused was asked." Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence upon oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence." The accused declined to make any statement or to give evidence on oath.

On the 4th of Jan. 1945 I was acting as Comp. CSM in the morning I had the wiring of Bde H.Q. to do. The the electrician Pte Hazelhan asked if I would let Pte McGrath help him with the wiring. At approx. 1100 hrs I went up to Cpl Post's room which was also occupied by civilians and found Pte McGrath without his escort with a glass of Vino in his hand. I ordered him to put the glass of Vino down and tell him to report to his quarters. He did not make any sign to move and started to argue with me. Submission by the defending officer that the prosecution does not establish a prima facie case against the accused on the Third Charge:-

" It has been proven, I think, that the safe keeping of a soldiers kit is his own responsibility." "Cpl Earle failed to take his surplus kit with him when he was employed and billeted some twenty xxxxx miles away from where he left it." "Capt Woods estimates the value of his kit to be £60/-/- but is unable to give an itemized report of its contents to the Court". " I submit that no evidence has been produced to prove the charge laid against the accused.

This was disallowed for the following reasons:-

1 - The 8 cwt referred to was a baggage vehicle as proved in evidence.
2- The accused was Batman driver to Capt Wood and it therefore was his responsibility to look after his officers kit.
3 - Kit must have been on the vehicle with a move coming only an hour or so after the accused went absent with the vehicle.

Trial according by proceeded.

Prosecutor's address to the Court on the conclusion of the evidence

Mr President and members. In speaking to the charge of Losing by Neglect. It has been clearly established that the accused was the Batman Driver of Capt Wood. In this capacity it is obvious that he is responsible forthe kit of this officer. It has been clearly stated also that the kit of this officer was at ~~xxx~~ times material to this case. ~~xxxxxx~~ stored on the vehicle in question.

It is also obvious that a driver is responsible, not only for his vehicle but for its legal load. Witnesses have proven that this vehicle was the carrying and storage place of various peoples kits and I submit to the court that in the light of evidence submitted they have no alternative but to find the accused guilty.

On thecharge of drunkeness that it is simply a matter of accept ing or not accepting the evidence of Sgt Huggatt. As no evidence was submitted to the contrary. I submit that the court must find the accused guilty of the charge.

Defending officer declines to make any closing address "FGCD".

Mitigation Plea of Defending O.

Although the accused has had a clean record for some time previous to this, he has not been granted a furlough for over two years.

Prior to his going absent without leave, he was doing the job of three man. Batman - driver, care and running of an 8 c.w.t. and also acting as Coy. D.R.

During this time a D.R. was sent to the Coy. from the reinforcement center, and onarriving he was immediately granted seven days leave while the accused carried on his many duties.

These facts are submitted not as excuses for the accused's misconduct, but to show that his actions were not premeditated, but rather the impetuous actions of one who feels he has been wronged.

"FGCD"

I would like to reminde the Court that he gave himself up to the OMP and admitted his guilt to the charges in which he knows himself to be guilty.

Summary of evidence in the case of B 84116 Pte James McGRATH (RCASC) H.Q. 1 Cdn Inf Bde, Canadian Army Overseas (CMF)

By order of the Commander 1 Cdn Inf Bde all evidence will be taken on oath.

First witness for the prosecution Captain T.R. Wood (RCASC) Staff Captain "Q" 1 Cdn Corps having been duly sworn states: At all times material to this case, I was BRASCO 1 Cdn Inf Bde. At 0630 hrs 9 Jun 44 my batman driver B 84116 Pte James McGrath failed to report to wake me. At approximately 1045 hrs 9 Jun 44 I saw B 84116 Pte James McGrath leave the bivouac area in WD vehicle No. 4518258. I had made it a practice to carry all my kit in this 8 cwt. Bde HQ was moving this day and at noon I searched the camp area for B 84116 Pte McGrath and my baggage vehicle. I failed to find either and up until the time that the Headquarters moved, he did not return. On 23 Jun 44 WD Vehicle No. 4518258 was recovered by the transport corporal of HQ 1 Cdn Inf Bde, Cpl Bennett, F.T. I checked the vehicle to see if my kit was there but found it missing. I had personal kit to the value of sixty pounds (£60-0-0) when I last saw it.

Questions by officer taking summary.

(i) When B 84116 Pte James McGrath left the bivouac area at 1045 hrs 9 Jun 44 did he have your permission or the permission of anyone else to leave?

Answer- No.

(ii) Was anyone besides yourself qualified to give such permission?

Answer- No.

(iii) Did Pte McGrath see you as he was leaving or did you make any effort to stop him?

Answer- No. I don't think Pte McGrath saw me and I made no effort to stop him. He was some distance from me and as he was responsible for the maintenance of the vehicle I thought he might be making a road test.

(iv) When did you next see B 84116 Pte James McGrath after 1045 hrs 9 Jun 44?

Answer- This date, 11 Jan 45 at the taking of this summary of evidence I have not seen him at any time from 9 Jun 44 until this date.

(v) Was B 84116 Pte McGrath with the vehicle when Cpl Bennett recovered it?

Answer- No, he was not according to the report given me by Cpl Bennett.

(vi) Do you recognize the accused as B 84116 Pte James McGrath?

Answer- Yes, I do.

Signed: Captain T.R. Wood

The accused was asked if he wished to cross examine the witness and replied that he did not wish to do so.

In the vehicle was one TMC and two rifles, a barrack room box, an empty kit bag and a letter addressed to Pte Davidson, W.R. I started the vehicle up. It seemed to be in good shape except for faulty brakes. The tactical number 81 had been cut away so as to look like 31. The maple leaf had been erased. I took the vehicle back to Bde HQ arriving back 23 Jun 44. I turned it over to Captain T.R. Wood.

(iii) Did the CMP tell you how they had come into possession of the vehicle?

Answer- Yes, they told me they picked it up at a location which I have forgotten some distance from the camp from which it had been taken.

(iv) Was any person with the vehicle at the time it was found?

Answer- No, as far as I can remember the CMP said they had found it alone. Pte McGrath was not with it or at 49 Coy CMP HQ when I picked it up.

I ordered him to put down the vino and return to his quarters under my escort. He drank the vino and commenced an arguement with me. I summoned two privates as escorts and ordered them to take the accused to his quarters, which they did with a slight struggle. The accused was drunk at this time. He was slightly unsteady on his feet and his speech was incoherent.

SIR:

I have been 5 years away from my wife and 3 children, the youngest I have not got seen. These years constitute service abroad.

The main reason for this appeal is, my wife is causing me great anxiety regarding the welfare of my children.
My wife's affections are elsewhere, and I attribute this to my long absence away from home, I am convinced that if I was reunited with my wife there would be no more friction.

I am a cook by trade in the army, but Captain Woods, who was my directing officer, refused to let me cook, but would have me as batman-driver to himself. Whenever I asked to be returned as cook he would throw my past record up, saying that I would absent myself again.

I was in charge of 3 vehicles, besides doing batman, and doing my best did not seem enough for my officer. This, with my trouble at home worrying me, together with service in the line, strained my nerves, and I went absent.

Owing to this appeal I sincerely hope that consideration will be made on my behalf, and part of my sentence be remitted. I will respect all consideration given me, and pledge that I will be a good soldier. I take this opportunity to volunteer for any theatre of war.

I would be very grateful if you would give this appeal your closest and kind consideration.

I remain,
your obedient Servant, J. McGrath

1. The m/n soldier is now serving a sentence of 2 years imprisonment with hard labour awarded by FGCM 19 Jan 45 for the following offences:- an absence without leave of some 116 days, making improper use of a military vehicle and losing by neglect personal belongings of other soldiers. The earliest date on which he should be released if he earns full remissions for good conduct while serving his sentence is 18 May 46.

2. This soldier was serving with the Cdn Forces in Italy at the time of his FGCM and his sentence has been served so far in that theatre.

3. Att hereto is a copy of the relevant portions of the Review Sheet used at CMHQ showing the date of this soldier's enlistment and his record of any previous army or civil offences.

4. A neuropsychiatrist and S.P.O. have examined this soldier, and in making the direction and recommendations herein their findings and reports have been given full consideration. He is reported as fit to undergo his sentence.

5. In view of the offences of which this soldier has been convicted, the length of his absence without leave, his previous record and all available reports, it is considered that he should serve his present sentence in full and thereafter be discharged for misconduct under the provisions of para 8 of Appx to C.A.R.O. 1029, and it is so recommended. It is probable that this soldier has not misconducted himself for the purpose of obtaining his discharge.

6. It has accordingly been directed, pursuant to P.C. 1304/44, that this soldier be returned to Canada in custody under sentence. Herewith original proceedings of the FGCM held 19 Jan 45, original A.F. A3104 in respect thereof on which this direction has been endorsed, and committal order. This soldier will be despatched to Canada direct from Italy.

Statement By the Defence Officer
LIEUT. R.A. McDONALD

The accused's story is one that has arisen before a court-martial, before this time.
Difficulties placed in the way of a soldier wishing to have a wife's allowance cut off are well known to all of us, and although these difficulties are really no excuse for a soldier taking upon himself to go absent, the court, I think, should consider the man's ~~statement~~ state of mind when he knows his wife is running around with somebody else, and he knows from experience of other soldiers that he will be unable to stop either the allowance or the assignment without a long period of absence

K

Statement by the Accused.

Sir. Why I went away was over the wife.
When I first came over, she wrote and told me that she was going with a fellow in Canada.
She said she didn't need me anymore because she had enough shape to get somebody else, so why I went away was to cut off her pay
I had a letter, but I lost it, which I had in my kit bag before I left. I think the Orderly Room should have some letters from my wife. I think they should have.
That is all I have to say Sir.

12. Remarks: (Here note any Petition or Representation other than in Item 10, but if Item 10 has been omitted so state, and show here any mitigating circumstances.)
Prosecution proved case adequately.
Accused claims he was not present when the platoon was warned for duty. Accused was not actually a member of the platoon but was a supernumerary member of the Anti-Tank Platoon as an assistant to the storeman. His platoon actually did not do any fighting on this particular occassion although briefed for it and if they had, the accused in his capacity would not have taken part in it. Defending officer states accused had no crimes until he went to Italy but has constantly been on the loose since then.

13. Recommendations: (State by whom made, e.g., CMHQ, DOC, Reviewing Officer, etc.)

Reviewing Officer: States this case would be a 3 year case since other similar cases to it have been standardized more or less into 3 years P.S. I therefore recommend immediate release.

Sgt Pirie told me accd to ride on my veh. Accd was in slit trench about middle of afternoon, 2 gave him shovel to deepen his slit trench - we were being shelled periodically.
Unit moved 23 may. 2 remained.
At approx 1000 hrs 24 may 2 received orders to get ready to move. Loaded truck - noticed accd not around. 2 called name & searched for him. 2 searched whole area & found none of his equip except his rifle. Enemy shelling. 2 shouted name & looked all around B Ech. Had to leave without him. Only Ech vehs were in area. Placed found rifle in truck, on checking stores 2 found that rifle was accd's. Moved out about ~~1100 hrs~~ 1300 hrs. RP 83 (B) complied with Pros in closing:- Constructive desertion charged. Have shown spec. duty in action & that failed to carry out & awk. lund arrested. Accd learned of action & expected to involve Pl. & given special job. On 23 May moved to stores truck. But at 1000 hrs 24 may accd missing. Truck did not leave for 3 hrs - search disclosed rifle of accd. Accd arrested approx 1 month later in distant part of country.

Def offr in closing:-
Pros must show accd intended to escape some impt service of which had knowledge. Re knowledge evidence of Sgt Pirie addressed a sec but will not swear accd was there. Deduced he was because no report of absence. Contend that accd had no official warning too riding along on stores truck accd duty merely to assist storeman. In no way was accds absence to impt that the AT Pl suffered. No fighting in area from which went absent & no fighting which accd would have taken a part.

JA sums up:- Functions of court, credibility of witnesses, burden on pros, reasonable doubt, desertion, AA56 & RP 44(P)

Def offr in mitigation:-
2½ yrs service & outside of first offence remainder very minor - CB or FOP only. No real trouble before. Great deal on loose in Italy - but fair record prior.

By direction of the Commanding Officer the evidence is taken on oath.

First Witness) B78704 Sgt Pirrie K.C., Spt Coy, The Irish Regiment of Canada, duly sworn, states.

(First Offence) I am B78704 Sgt Pirrie K.C., of Spt Coy, The Irish Regiment of Canada. I see and ~~xxxx~~ recognize Pte McLellan, H.W. On and prior to 11 Feb 44 McLellan was on strength Spt Coy., The Irish Regiment of Canada and his name was on the nominal rolls of this Coy. On the morning of 11 Feb 44 the Coy. had moved out of the line into an Echelon Area. I had alloted pl and sec bivouac areas. On information received from the sec leader of No. 3 Sec, of which McLellan was a member, I searched No. 3 Sec Area calling the name of Pte McLellan H.W., and inquiring as to his whereabouts. I was unable to locate him or to obtain any information as to his whereabouts. He was not in his section, platoon or company area. I thereupon reported him as absent without leave from 1100 hrs 11 Feb 44, which was the time, approximately, that I made the above mentioned searches of the area. I did not see Pte McLellan in the pl. or coy. area or elsewhere from the 11 Feb 44 until about 18 Mar 44 at which time he was under close arrest. If he had been in the coy. area during this period I would have seen him. Whenever possible during this period, and until his name was struck from the pl roll about 22 days after 11 Feb 44. I called the pl. roll including the name of Pte McLellan. This roll was called at irregular intervals, but frequently. He did not answer his name on any occasion.

(Fifth & Sixth Offence) On 23 May 44 at about 1100 hrs my unit (including my pl) was in a consentration area to the right of Pontecorvo. At about this hour I informed the pl., including Pte McLellan (who I am sure was there) that the unit including the pl. had been ordered to move up sometime that day to put in an attack against the enemy. I told the pl. that heavy opposition was expected, including opposition by tanks. I gave orders as to the attachment of sections to the rifle coys. While in this area and this day and for the past four days we had been under heavy shell fire at intervals and there had been casualties, but none in my pl. At telling the pl., as I have stated, and giving further information and orders, I had Pte McLellan, who is no needed on his gun, brought to me for orders. I ordered him to report to Pte Hambrooke immediately, to assist him during the action on the pl. stores truck. This truck carries spare parts for the guns, ammunition tools. I ordered McLellan to put his equipment on the store truck and saw his do it. At about 1800 hrs 23 May we moved out of the area. The stores truck and Ptes Hambrooke and McLellan were left in "A" Ech., in this area, under the command of the RQM Capt Shaw. The unit and pl. subsequently put in the attack. I did not again see Pte McLellan until 5 July 44

As he had been reported A W L I confined him in the guard room and informed the adjt.

(Second Offence) - At approx 1445 hrs 22 Mar 44, acting on information received, I ordered out a search party for the purpose of locating and arresting the accused. I accompanied the search party. I searched the tent lines of Spt Coy and the entire unit area. I made frequent inquires as to the whereabouts of the accused but was unable to locate him or to obtain any information concerning him. I also made a search of the neighbouring town of Casalnuova.

Third Witness - B79088 Cpl Thompson E., The Irish Regiment of Canada duly sworn states :

(Second & Third Offence) I am B79088 Cpl Thompson E., The Irish Regiment of Canada Spt. Company. I see and recognize the accused as Pte McLellan. At about 0630 hrs 22 Mar 44 the accused was placed in my custody by Sgt Crawford, Regt'l Provost, and I was ordered to escort the accused to a new area during the battalion move. I was also ordered to obtain a assistant and detailed Pte O'Connor G. as such assistant. On arrival at the new area the accused was left in my charge and I placed him in a tent in 5 pl. area, this being the only available place. I ordered Pte O'Connor to obtain his and my equipment which had been off loaded about 200 yds away, and to bring it in out of the rain. I remained on duty in the tent with the accused. A soldier came to the tent and asked to see the accused. I went to the door of the tent and told him he could not see or speak to the accused as he was under arrest. He hesitated and I ordered him to leave the tent. He left. I stepped out of the tent and stood talking to some 5 pl personnel. My back was to the tent and I was about 9 ft awa y. I stood there talking and less than 15 mins. I didn't at any time look back into the tent. Pte O'Connor was still away On going back into the tent after talking as above stated I found no one in the tent. The tent was the inner part of a desert tent. It was open at the end I left and entered by. The other end was closed and laced. It was not securely pegged. On finding the tent empty, except for the accused equipment I looked around the tent and could not find the accused. I inquired of Pte O'Connor whether he had seen the accused. I then reported that the accused had escaped and could not be located. On orders received from Sgt Pirrie I, accompanied by Pte O'Connor, took a carrier and searched for the accused along the road leading to Casalnuova and as far as the other side of the town. I returned along the same road and searched for 2-3 miles on the other side of the unit area. I was unable to fine the accused or to learn anything as to his whereabouts. I did not again see the accused until he was returned to the A/Tk pl. under open arrest. The accused escaped about 1430 hrs 22 Mar 44.

Fourth Witness - B78691 Pte Hambrooke L., The Irish Regiment of Canada, duly sworn, states -

(Fifth & Sixth Offence) - I am B78691 Pte Hambrooke L., Spt Coy., The Irish Regiment of Canada. I am and was on 23 and 24 May 44 Storeman for No 5 pl. Spt Coy., The Irish Regiment of Canada. At about noon 23 May Sgt Pirrie told me that the accused was to ride on my truck when I moved up to the front following the unit. I saw the accused that afternoon. His slit trench was about 50 yds from my truck. I lent him a shovel to deepen his slit as we were being shelled. I saw him working on his slit trench. We had been shelled ever since coming into the area about five days before. The unit moved out on the night of 23 May. On the morning 24 May I received orders to move forward. We had been shelled that morning. We were shelled while getting ready to move. I looked for the accused and shouted his name. I looked in his slit trench. I inquired of my driver and others as to his whereabouts. I was unable to find him. He did not answer when I shouted his name. His equipment was not on my truck. Before I left I searched the entire area for equipment which had been lost or abandoned. The only thing I found was a rifle. (I kept the rifle along with others I had in my truck) (About two weeks later I checked with my books and found that one of these rifles had been issued by me to the accused) We had been told to move at 1000 hrs 24 May and it was at this time that I attempted to locate the accused and was unable to do so. The convoy, including my truck, finally left the area to go forward about noon 24 May. The accused had not appeared and did not go forward with me. I reported the accused as absent to the RSM Capt Shaw, about 1100 hrs 25 May, this being the first opportunity I had to do so. I did not again see the accused until he was up for Coy. Office on 5 July 44.

Q- What are your duties there?

A- I am assistant adjutant, sir.

Q- Do you remember the 12th of February, 1945?

A- Yes.

Q- Would you tell the Court what happened that day?

A- On the 12th February, 1945, at approximately 8:30 in the morning there was a group of NRMA personnel called, a draft warning was read to them, both Schedule A and Schedule B....

Q- Just a moment. Who read the draft warning?

A- I did, sir.

Q- You refer to Schedule A. What are the contents of that?

A- That is a nominal roll with the man's number, rank and name, his destination, the way he wishes to travel, and that is headed, firstly, by the draft warning.

Q. Did you read that to the group?

A. I read the draft warning.

Q. Carry on, please.

A. When asked if there were any questions everybody seemed to understand both the Schedules and they signed as having understood the draft warning. We got them their travelling warrants, and away they went on embarkation.

Q. How large a group was there?

A. Thirteen all told.

Q. Who was included in that group?

A. Tpr. Mielitz was one.

Q. You refer to Tpr. Mielitz. Who is he? Is he present to-day?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Would you point him out to the Court?

A. Right here (indicating the accused).

Q. I show you Schedule B, Warning Order. Whose signature appears in the lower right-hand corner?

A. Tpr. Mielitz's.

Q. Did you see that signature affixed?

A. Right, sir, I was present when it was signed.

Q. The signature in the lower left-hand corner. When was that affixed?

A. The same time.

PROSECUTOR :- I offer this as evidence, sir.

COURT :- Have you seen this?

DEFENDING OFFR :- Yes, I have, sir.

COURT :- No objection to it?

DEFENDING OFFR :- No, sir.

------Schedule "B" is read by the Court, marked Exhibit "F", signed by President, and att. to proceedings.

PROSECUTOR :- (resuming)

Q- Capt. Halleran, the Schedule "B" that was just produced, was the accused given an opportunity to read that over or was it read to him before he signed it?

A- It was read to him.

Q- By whom?

A- By myself.

Q- Did he ask any questions as to the meaning of it?

A- There were no questions asked.

Q- He was given an opportunity to ask questions?

A- Right.

Q- Prior to that, was the meaning of the warning order itself explained to them?

A- Yes, sir.

Q- By whom?

A- By myself, sir.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFR :-

Q- Are you aware of this man's state of training?

A- He is not fully trained in C.A.C. He has had basic training.

Q- Has he had basic training complete?

A- His basic training as far as his 105 is concerned, I imagine it is complete.

Q- You wouldn't consider this man fully trained to be sent overseas?

A- That depends. It isn't for me to say.

Q- There is a state of training laid down in Armoured Corps for men to be sent overseas. Has this man reached that state of training?

A- The particular draft that Tpr. Mielitz was warned for was a H.W.E. withdrawal. It was clearly stated on the warning order that personnel did not have to be fully trained.

Q- Did the draft he was warned for proceed overseas?

A- The draft he was warned for left No.1 C.A.C.T.R. and T.S.R. and went to Niagara-on-the-Lake. From there I don't know where they went.

Q- It went to Camp Niagara?

A- That's right.

Q- This Schedule B, the warning order for special duty, is what left the accused open to the charge of desertion. Why was it necessary to sign this when the proper authorities knew beforehand that that draft wasn't going overseas?

COURT :- Just a moment. You say the proper authorities knew the draft wasn't going overseas. That isn't within his knowledge -- I don't think. If you wish to ask the witness why the man signed it he may or may not be able to answer it. You cannot delve into the proper authorities through this witness.

DEFENDING OFFR :- (resuming)

Q- Capt. Halleran, do you know why it was necessary for this man to sign Schedule "B"?

A- Because there was a warning order. In that certain personnel were to be ready to proceed on draft. The time was given as to the dates and time of departure of the train. As to the destination we weren't told.

Q- Wouldn't the type of draft in this case tell you it wasn't for overseas duty?

A- It was an H.W.E. withdrawal. As far as we are concerned, any person that does leave our unit and is warned for special duty, signed both Schedule A and Schedule B.

Q- Would that apply to our men going to convert to Infantry?

A- If they are moving out of Camp Borden, moving to another district, yes.

RE-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR :-

Q- Capt. Halleran, at the time that you warned the accused for special duty, did you have knowledge as to where the draft was proceeding?

A- Not at that time. We had just received the warning order, not the movement order.

Q- What warning, in fact, did you give then, the ordinary warning for special duty or the restricted warning?

A The warning as to special duty.

Q- Where in fact did the draft subsequently proceed?

A- It proceeded to Niagara-on-the-Lake, Niagara Camp.

Q- To another District, a new unit, or what?

A- That, I don't know for....

Q- Are you able to answer that or not?

A- No, I cannot.

----- The witness withdraws.

PROSECUTOR :- I offer as evidence Daily Orders Part II, No. 41, of No.1 C.A.C.T.R., dated 27th February, 1945; MFM 215; MFB 1482, dated 15th March, 1945; MFB 1481, dated 15th March, 1945; and MFB 1481, dated 20th March, 1945.

COURT :- Have you seen these?

DEFENDING OFFR :- Yes, I have, sir.

----- The above-mentioned documents are read by the Court, marked Exhibits "G", "H", "I", "J" and "K", respectively, signed by the President, and att. to the proceedings.

The Prosecutor has no further witness to call.
The Prosecution is closed.

Motion – No Case

It is open to the accused, his Counsel or Defending Officer at the close of the case for the prosecution to submit that the evidence given for the prosecution has not established a prima facie case against him, and that he should not therefore be called upon for his defence. If such Motion is made, the proceedings will be recorded on separate pages which will be inserted immediately before the present page D. If the Court is satisfied that the Motion is well founded, it must acquit the accused and register its Finding on Page A.

Defence

The President will now address the acused as follows:—

"It is my duty at this stage to advise you as to your rights in the general conduct of your defence. The procedure to be followed depends entirely on the answers given to the formal questions which are about to be put to you. It is therefore important that you should understand and appreciate the effect of your answers to these questions. You do not need to give evidence on oath unless you wish to do so, but if you do give sworn evidence you are liable to be cross-examined by the Prosecutor and questioned by the Court."

"If you do not give evidence on oath you are entitled to make a statement giving your account of the subject of the charge against you. You will not be sworn and no question may be put to you by the Court or any person with respect to such statement. I must warn you, however, that evidence given on oath will carry more weight with the Court than a mere statement not on oath."

If there is no Defending Officer the President should then explain to the accused the effect which his answer to the formal questions on Page D of the proceedings will have on the order of the Closing Addresses as provided in R.P. 40 and 41.

Question to the accused. Do you apply to give evidence yourself as a witness, or do you wish to make an unsworn statement?

Answer. I apply to give evidence as a witness, sir.(See overleaf)

Question to the accused. Do you intend to call any witness in your defence?

Answer. Yes, sir.

Question to the accused. Is the witness to be called a witness as to character only?

Answer. No, sir.

The Accused, No.L-46882 Trooper Charlie Arthur MIELITZ, No.1 C.A.C.T.R., C.A., being duly sworn, is examined by the Defending Offr :-

Q. Will you tell the Court the facts that led up to this absence?

A. The reason why I was absent was that I had grain out in the ground, 3800 bushels of oats. I had a harvest leave last Fall which I asked for an extension long enough to get rid of this oats. I asked for an investigation by the R.C.M.P. which I did not get. I was told to report back to No.12, which I did. I came back to Camp Borden around the 10th of November and I put in for a furlough starting with my Christmas Leave due to the fact that I could get rid of the grain in that time while the roads were still frozen, and it was turned down. I went home on Christmas Leave. I was home around a week at which time I made arrangments with the truck driver, Russ Semple, to haul the grain in as soon as the permit came from the elevator. I came back thinking it would be all fixed up. I came back around the 10th of January and put in for another furlough, and it was turned down. So when I went home on embarkation leave I seen that there hadn't been nothing done, so I had to pretty well see to it that it got done. The truck I had spoken for at Christmas time was laid up and I had difficulty getting another truck, and I didn't get one until around the 1st of March. It was around the 9th or 10th March when I got the grain in. I was picked up on the 13th while I was making arrangements for to have my stock looked after. I tried to get somebody to rent my farm. I was sent back to Regina. I was there about a week and I was put on draft for back to Camp Borden. When I was on the train I got to thinking about what was there to be done yet and I knew I wouldn't have any chance of getting any kind of leave when I got back, so at Winnipg I went back home again. I got home around the 26th or the 25th. By the time I got home the roads were all broke up. I had no way of getting around at all, so I took the train right to Regina and gave myself up to the military authorities.

Q. Early in January you were called in with about a dozen others to see Capt. Halleran with regard to a draft. Did he ask you any questions at that time?

A. No, sir.

Q. Now think. Did he ask you anything about going active?

A. Yes, he asked me the reason I wasn't going active. I told him I wanted to put in for a compassionate leave. I felt I needed that to help me with the farm. A little while after that I was called in for a draft that I was taken off. All the rest of them went on draft. Then around the 12th or 13th of February I was called in and signed the draft warning and got embarkation leave.

Q. Supposing this January, you had gone in January, what would have happened to the grain?

A. I would have lost it, sir.

Q. What was it selling for?

A. 51½¢ a bushel.

Q. When you signed the draft warning order, did you know your state of training?

A. Yes.

Q. What did you believe from that?

COURT :- That doesn't matter. His belief has no bearing on the subject. Don't answer that question.

CROSS/EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR :-

Q. On the 12th of February, this year, you were, in fact, called in and warned for draft, were you?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. You were read the warning order for special duty?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And you answered the nominal roll as being present?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. I show you Exhibit "F", Schedule #, warning order; did you sign this order?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Is that your signature (indicating) in the lower-right-hand corner?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was that warning order read over to you before you signed it?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you understand the meaning of it when you did sign it?

A. Yes, sir, I understood the meaning. I didn't know the reason why it should be the way my training was. It had been over a year since I had done any training at all

Q- You knew you were being warned for movement anywhere?

A- Yes, sir.

Q- And you were given your embarkation leave?

A- Yes, sir.

Q- And you proceeded on your embarkation leave?

A- Yes, sir.

Q- Is there anything that wasn't clear to you at all? You knew that if you became absent you would be liable to be charged with desertion, didn't you?

A- Yes, sir.

Q- Then why didn't you return at the time you were supposed to return as shown in the warning order, at 0600 hours on the 20th of February?

A- Well, I didn't think I was in a position to lose a thousand bushels of grain.

Q- In fact, you became absent at 0600 hours on the 20th of February, 1945, is that right?

A- Yes, sir.

Q- And was that the sole reason for your failure to return -- the fact that your grain might be lost?

A- Well, it would have been sir, if it had come thaw.

Q- You have talked of your training not being complete. Might it not be true that you were afraid to go overseas because your training wasn't complete?

A- Yes, sir.

Q- That was what was in your mind?

A- Yes, sir.

Q- In other words, you didn't want to go on that draft because your training wasn't complete?

A- Yes, sir.

Q- It wasn't the fact that your grain was there? You could have arranged to have that picked up?

A- Not very well.

Q- If you hadn't been warned for draft, you wouldn't have gone absent without leave to look after that grain? Is that right?

A- Yes, I would have had to, sir. I would have to get it out before the thaw.

Q- Why couldn't you arrange with somebody else to get that grain?

A- I did arrange it when I was home at Christmas but it wasn't done.

Q- Was there nobody else who could have done it?

A- No, sir.

Q- Are there any neighbours farming there?

A- There is some around there.

Q- Why couldn't they have done it for you?

A- There is no trucks right around there. The truck I got was from Redvers.

Q- All the other farmers had been able to arrange to get their grain off, is that right? Had they their grain left there standing, too?

A- No, they had most of it in bins. The quota was opened up another five bushels an acre after I had left there.

Q- This was grain above quota, was it?

A- Yes, sir, but I did get a permit. It came the first part of January, to sell it all.

Q. In other words, the time it was left there you weren't able to sell it according to law?

A. No, sir, when I left only five bushels an acre was all, sir.

Q. You were apprehended by the civilian authorities at 1700 hours on the 13th of March, 1945, at Ryerson, Saskatchewan?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you spend all your time at Ryerson?

A. No, sir.

Q. Where is your farm?

A. It is north of Mair.

Q. In Saskatchewan?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. What were you doing in Mair?

A. Well, the truck I had hauling grain for me was from Redvers. It had come down the highway from his place. He had to go right past this Ryerson. From then on I went with him to the grain.

Q. You were stopped when you were going through Ryerson, were you?

A. (no audible answer)

Q. How did you get picked up at Ryerson?

A. By the R.C.M.P.

Q. Were you there for a few days or what?

A. I was staying there making arrangements for the stock. I was staying at a place there when they picked me up.

Q. When you were picked up you became absent without leave, is that right -- you escaped your escort?

A- (no audible answer)

Q- Is that true?

A- Well, I was on draft.

Q- You were coming here under escort, were you?

A- No, I wasn't.

Q- Were you under arrest?

A- There was an officer in charge of the draft.

Q- Were you under arrest when you became absent?

A- I guess I was, sir.

Q- Why did you do that? Was it to avoid being brought back so you couldn't be sent overseas?

A- No, sir, it was the only chance I had to get back because I knew there would be little chance of getting a leave when I got back here.

------The accused resumes his seat.

STATEMENT OF THE ACCUSED IN REFERENCE TO PLEA OF GUILTY:
F-20385 Private Harold Francis McKAY

Sir:

I joined the Canadian Army in August, 1940 in the R.C.A., and was posted to H.A.A. and served with them until August, 1944. I was keen on getting overseas, but it was almost impossible to get a draft out of Anti-Aircraft to get over, as they were not taking them out of Anti-Aircraft at the time.. However, in July, 1943 our battery did move to Labrador, and we returned in July, 1944. We came back to No. 6 District and I received disembarkation leave. While I was on leave I was married, and my wife had had a child before we were married, and we were on a complete understanding about it, and everything was O.K. on that score. So I came back off leave and was re-mustered to infantry, so I chose the paratroops, passed my medical here in No. 6 and had to go to Yarmouth to take basic. I completed basic training and proceeded to Shiloh, arriving there about 1st November. Two weeks before I left the training centre up there I received a letter from my wife asking for a divorce to marry this chap to whom she had the child before. It hit me pretty hard and my training suffered to a certain extent. I had Christmas leave coming up within a week and I wrote to ask my wife to meet me in Montreal to talk the situation over, so I went to Montreal, and my wife failed to meet me there. So by that time I felt pretty despondent, and had to talk it over with somebody, so I came home to Truro, N.S. I came home, and sort of went all to pieces. My nerves gave out, and I was in bed for a month, and while there I tried to get my affairs straightened out, but I have not got them straightened out yet. Anyway, when apprehended at Truro--I don't expect you to believe this--I was on the way back at the time to give myself up into custody. That is about all there is, except that I am fully trained as an infantryman, and I am quite willing to go overseas as a reinforcement. I intended to give myself up to the military authorities at Truro.

Q. Est-ce que vous avez eu l'occasion de faire l'inspection du kit de l'accusé?

R. Le 4 avril, lorsqu'il s'est rapporté à moi, il a rapporté les articles suivants:

1 battledress trouser;
1 boots ankle
2 drawers woolen
1 pr. puttees;

Q. Sur quoi vous êtes-vous basé pour faire ces constatations?

R. M.F.B. 375, Monsieur.

INTERROGE CONTRADICTOIREMENT PAR L'OFFICIER DEFENSEUR.

Q. Vous dites que le total est $2.37?

R. Oui Monsieur.

LE PROCUREUR NE DESIRE PAS INTERROGER DE NOUVEAU.

DE L'AVIS DE LA COUR, IL N'EST PAS NECESSAIRE DE SE CONFORMER A LA R.P. 83(B).

LE TEMOIN SE RETIRE.

D

Le procureur n'a plus de témoins à appeler.
La poursuite est close.

Motion de non-lieu

Il est loisible à l'accusé, à son avocat ou à l'officier défenseur, après l'audition de la preuve de la poursuite, d'alléguer que celle-ci n'a pas réussi à établir une présomption légale contre l'accusé et que ce dernier ne devrait pas, par conséquent, être contraint de présenter sa défense. Dans le cas d'une telle motion, le procès verbal sera consigné sur des feuilles séparées qui seront insérées immédiatement avant la présente page D. Si la cour estime que cette allégation est bien fondée, elle doit acquitter l'accusé et consigner son verdict à la page A.

Défense

Le président s'adresse à l'accusé en ces termes:

"Il est de mon devoir en cette circonstance de vous aviser de vos droits touchant la conduite générale de votre défense. La procédure à suivre dépend entièrement des réponses que vous ferez aux questions de forme que nous allons vous poser. Il importe donc que vous compreniez et saisissiez l'effet de vos réponses. Vous n'aurez pas à témoigner sous serment à moins que vous ne le vouliez. Mais, si vous faites des dépositions assermentées, vous serez sujet à l'interrogatoire contradictoire par les soins du procureur et à l'interrogatoire par les soins de la cour."

"Si vous ne faites pas de déposition sous serment, vous avez le droit de faire une déclaration où vous donnerez votre version de l'affaire. Vous ne serez pas assermenté et vous ne serez pas interrogé sur ce que vous dites, par la cour ou par quelque autre personne. Je dois cependant vous prévenir qu'une déposition faite sous serment aura plus de poids aux yeux de la cour qu'une simple déclaration non assermentée."

S'il n'y a pas d'officier défenseur, le président explique alors à l'accusé l'effet que ses réponses aux questions de forme de la page D du procès verbal auront sur l'ordre des dernières plaidoiries, prévu dans les Règles de procédure 40 et 41.

Question à l'accusé. Désirez-vous comparaître, vous-même, comme témoin, ou bien désirez-vous faire une déclaration non assermentée.

Réponse: L'accusé désire rendre témoignage sous serment, Monsieur.
(Voir page D-3 et suiv.)

Question à l'accusé. Avez-vous l'intention de citer des témoins pour votre défense?

Réponse: Non Monsieur.
