THE FRANCHISE ACT.

The Qualifications of Voters—The Process of Registration Explained.

The time having arrived for the preparation of the voters' lists under the new Dominion Franchise Act, an appeal is made to the Liberals of Wellington to have their names enrolled as voters without delay. To assist in so doing a short summary of the qualification of voters and of the process for securing registration is given.

QUALIFICATION.

To entitle a person to be put on the list he must be—

(1) 21 years of age.

(2) A British subject by birth or naturalization.

(3) Owner of real property of value:
In a city, $300.
In a town, $200.
In a county, $150.

(4) Or tenant of real property under ease at a rental of
$2 per month.
$6 per quarter.
$12 per half year.
$20 per year.

Provided that the tenant has been in possession for one year before 1st January 1886, and shall have paid one year's rent before final revision.

If the rent is yearly it will be sufficient if $20 of last year's rent shall have been paid before final revision.

Change of tenancy without intermission will not destroy the vote if aggregate of tenancies would give vote.

The assessor should be instructed to state in the assessment roll the rent payable by each person assessed as tenant. If, however, this is not done, each tenant is prima facie entitled to be registered as a voter if the property is assessed at the following values:—
In cities at $300.
In towns at $200.
In counties at $150.
In counties outside of villages the rent may be payable either in money or in money's worth.

(5) Or a bona fide occupant for one year before 1st January, 1886, and enjoying the revenues and profits for his own or his wife's use of real property of the following values:
In cities, $300.
In towns, $200.
In counties, $150.
The occupancy may be under license of occupation from the crown or from any person or corporation.

(6) Or by income without any other qualification.
A person may be registered as an income voter, if he derives an income from his earnings, trade or profession, or from some investment in Canada of $300 a year, for one year before 1st January, 1886.
In counties the earnings may be either in money or money's worth.

(7) Sons of owners of real property are qualified—

(b) When the father is dead, and would, if living, be qualified, residence with the mother will suffice, and as many sons as the property will qualify may be registered, with preference to the eldest and elder sons, as in the last case.

Occasional absence from home of a son—not more than six months in the year—will not disqualify, and all time spent at school or college in Canada will be counted as if spent at home.

Son of an owner includes grandson, step-son and son-in-law, and all these may be registered as voters on the property if of sufficient value. The provision as to sons of owners applies to the counties as well as towns and cities in cases other than those of farmers' sons.

(8) Farmers' sons—The same provisions substantially apply to farmers' sons, as stated in the last paragraph in respect of sons of owners in cities and towns.

A farm is to be not less than 20 acres of land.

(9) Fishermen and owners of real property and boats, nets, fishing gear and tackle of aggregate value of $150.

Income voters register where they reside at time of registration—all others where property is situate. If in more than one polling division in the same electoral district the voter may register in either.

All names entered in the last revised voters' lists under the old law, will be entered in the new lists by the revising barrister.

Every person not on the assessment roll desiring to have his name on the list must at once send to the revising barrister an application in writing to be put on the list, giving his name, residence and the property or other qualification in respect of which he applies to be put on.

This application must be accompanied by a declaration which is to be made and signed before a commissioner for taking affidavits, a notary or justice of the peace, showing the grounds of the applicants claim to be put on the list.

Substantially the voters are those who can qualify as owners, tenants, occupants, income voters, sons of owners and farmers' sons.

See that the application shows as correctly and fully as possible the qualification.

Make the declaration before a commissioner, notary or justice of the peace. It is convenient to have it attached to the application on the same sheet.

In case of an absent person, let some one else having a knowledge of the qualification make the application and declaration.

When one cannot find a justice or other person before whom the declaration can be taken let the application alone be sent in, with an explanation of the reason, and it would be well in such case to have the truth of the facts in the application certified on the back of it by one, or if possible, two other persons.

The application and declaration must be sent at once to the Revising barrister of the district.

URGENCY OF THE MATTER.

No name not on the last voters' list or assessment roll will be placed on the preliminary voters' list, unless on application and declaration as above.

In case of any difficulty or doubt, application should be made at once for advice to some of the Liberal friends in the neighborhood.

Dominion Live Stock Association.

The Dominion Live Stock association held their annual meeting in Toronto last week. The following were elected officers: President, Jno. Dunn; 1st vice, A. J. Thompson. 2nd vice, S. Price; treasurer, E. Blong; secretary, R. Bickerdik; Executive committee, J. C. Coughlin, E. B. Morgan, W. W. Craig, W. H. Reid, T. O. Robson, A Rawlings, J. Featherston, W. S. Williamson, W. McLean, E. Lemon, Thomas Crawford, and J. Aikins.

Some time was taken up in a discussion of the brokerage system in space on ocean steamships. The meeting was unanimously of opinion that space should be purchased direct, and not through intervening parties. It is proposed to start an insurance company in connection with the association. The subscription list amounted to $34,900 on Saturday.

CHARGED WITH STEALING A HORSE AND CUTTER.—It will be remembered that two weeks ago to-day Wm. Lawrence, Minto, had a horse and cutter stolen from the shed of a hotel in Palmerston. This morning Mr. J. D. Caswell, County Constable, brought to the County jail a man by the name of Richard Nesbitt, Wallace, charged with the offence, to await his trial before the County Judge. After a hot pursuit Mr. Caswell found Nesbitt in the County of Huron, near Wroxeter. On making further inquiries he found that a horse and buggy, answering the description of the ones stolen, had been sold to Elisha Hanberry, a hotel keeper near Owen Sound, and that they had been again resold to a farmer in the neighbourhood. Mr. Caswell states that the hotel keeper denied to him that he had any knowledge whatever that the horse and rig were stolen, or regarding the party to whom he sold them. The case will come up for trial shortly.

CITY Council meets to-night.

MR. W. S. JOHNSTON, Reeve of Port Elgin, was presented with an address of congratulation, accompanied with a gold-headed cane bearing a suitable inscription, upon attaining to the position of Warden for the County of Bruce.

THE choir of the Norfolk Street Methodist Church will give a concert in Duff's Church, Puslinch, on Friday, the 26th of February, under the auspices of the young people of the church. An excellent and varied programme has been prepared.

HUGH HAMILTON, Elora, has been appointed by the Provincial Government Clerk of the Sixth Division Court of Wellington, and Peter Gillies, Galt, Bailiff of the Third Division Court of Waterloo.

ON Monday week a company of inexperienced burglars entered the post office, Georgetown, and succeeded in making away with a small sum of money and some valuable papers belonging to the Mechanics' Institute.

THE Palmerston Telegraph says:—At a committee meeting on the county town question here it was agreed to take steps to procure a map, showing the rival schemes of Palmerston, Listowel and Mount Forest. Other matters of importance were discussed which it would not, at present, be prudent to make public.

A SCOUNDREL.—The Galt Reporter says: About a week ago Mr. and Mrs. James Steel, of Killean, had occasion to visit Mr. James Campbell, leaving in charge of their house, while they were away, two of their children. While the children were attending to the cattle a tramp came along and entered the house and finding no one to interfere with him, ransacked it from end to end, taking such things as he could conveniently carry, a small sum of money, etc. There are a good many of such characters roaming about and it will be well for farmers to be careful.

LIQUOR LICENSES IN GALT.—The Reporter says: Galt Council at its meeting on Monday evening last passed a by-law through its various stages limiting the number of hotel licenses to be issued in town to five, and fixing the license fee at $400. In the morning, however, it was found that such a high rate could not legally be imposed for licenses, and a special meeting of Council was called for Tuesday afternoon to rectify the error. A new by-law was accordingly introduced and passed in which the number of licenses to be issued was limited to six, with a license fee of $260 in all, or $150 over and above the Provincial duty. It was also shown that the by-law would only remain in force for one year, the contention that it would hold good for three years being erroneous. The three year clause refers to shop licenses only.

GUELPH BOARD OF TRADE.—We understand thatan energetic effort is being made by the merchants in town to get a large accession to the membership of the Guelph Board of Trade. We are glad to learn that this is being done, as it shows that our merchants are getting alive to their own interests and those of the city generally. A strong and influential Board of Trade can do a great deal in the direction indicated. For instance, the Grand Trunk has lately granted cheap fares on Saturday's from various points to the city. This is felt to be a great boon to our merchants and business men, and we have little doubt that if representations were made to the Railway Company by a Board of Trade composed of all our merchants and business men that this privilege might be extended to those living in places still further off. We say, therefore, let all interested in the welfare of the city become members of our Board of Trade.

SALES MADE BY JAMES HUNTER, ALMA.—James Hunter has recently made the following sales of Shorthorns to Bliss Anderson, Sackville, N. B.: The two year old bull "Clinker," winner of 2nd prize at the Industrial Exhibition, Toronto, 1885. "Clinker" is by Knight of Warlaby—472—(29014) dam "Lady Mary" by "Lord Aberdeen" 89. "Clinker" is full brother to "Lady Ann" the winner of the silver medal for best female of any age at the Provincial show, Kingston, 1882; also the sweepstakes cow of any age or breed at Minnesota State fair two years in succession, and full brother to the grand show bull "Prince Arthur," now heading the fine herd of Shorthorns owned by the English Northwest Land Co., Manitoba. He won the first prize in his class and diploma for best bull of any age, and the Hudson Bay Co.'s gold medal, valued at $100 for the best bull of any breed. "Also two "Queen of the May" heifers got by "Socrates" 97 (45640) "Lady Mirth 3rd," from "Lady Mirth" by the grand show bull "The Baron" grand dam "Lady Florence," the first prize cow at Industrial Exhibition, Toronto 1881. Also to Bliss Anderson, the pure bred stallion, "Lord Clyde," Lord Clyde is a bright bay with good temper, great substance and good action. In his breeding he combines a very large percentage of the best blood of the Clydesdale breed. He is by Hunter's imported horse "Gambetta" 1437 whose colts are attracting the attention of horsemen, a large percentage of them being kept entire. Dam (imp) "Queen" by "Danty Davie" (214), a prize winner, 3 different times at Highland Societies' Show, Scotland. "Lord Clyde" is full brother to "Douglass" sold when 8 months old to George A. Jackson, Minneapolis, Minn., U. S., for $1,000.

Don't fail to hear Prof. Vallance, F. S. Sc., the eminent Scotch Elocutionist, Tuesday evening, 16th, in Chalmers' Church. Tickets 25 cents. d1

Two hard cases received their walking ticket this morning from the Chief of Police to seek a more congenial clime.

MR. JOHN MCCORKINDALE, Paisley Block, sold the other day a 13month old Durham bull, to John Barbour, Wawanosh, Huron, for a good figure.

MR. THOMAS PALLISTER, gardener, last week had several pinks blooming in his garden. This is a rare thing for this time of the year.

THE Guelph Catholic Union, by special request, will reproduce the entertainment which met with so much success last Wednesday evening, on the 17th instant. Admission, ten cents.

MR. MCINTYRE, who had his leg amputated at the General Hospital on Saturday is in a critical condition. Many friends and sympathizers in the city and township will regret to learn this, and hope he may yet pull through.

MR. JOHN OGG returned on Saturday night from Chicago. He has been absent for nearly three weeks with four car loads of turnips, potatoes, cabbage and other perishable goods, and was detained on account of the inclement weather.

ONE YEAR IN THE CENTRAL.—Jas. Brown, Minto, remanded from this day week, was again before his Honor Judge Drew today for sentence. It will be remembered that the accused pleaded guilty on a charge of stealing goods from a car in Palmerston some time ago. His Honor sentenced him to one year in the Central Prison, with hard labor.

SKATING.—To-morrow night a band concert will be held on the Speed Skating Rink, by the City Band. In connection with other attractions will be an egg race, and medal race between Bunyan and others. The contestants must make the two miles in less than eight minutes or no race will be counted. The last children's carnival of the season will be held on Friday night.

ORGAN RECITAL.—The sacred concert and organ recital in St. Andrew's Church this evening promises to be a most enjoyable entertainment. The names of several leading vocalists appear on the programme, which is a guarantee that it will be first class. The organists of other city churches have also kindly consented to assist, and in all probability St. Andrew's Church will be well filled.

VALENTINE STOLEN.—Some people seem to be mean enough to do anything. On Saturday night, Mr. T. J. Day laid on his counter a box containing a number of rare specimens of imported valentines. About an hour afterwards he found one of the largest and best of the collection, valued at $2, had been stolen. It is a pity that the thief could not be found out and brought to justice.

ANCIENT ORDER OF UNITED WORKMEN.—The Grand Lodge of the Ancient Order of United Workmen meet in St. Catharines, on Wednesday, the 17th instant. The delegate from Guelph Lodge is A. C. Snider, and from the Royal Lodge W. W. Bilton, together with the following Grand Officers—J. C. Walker, Grand Watchman; H. Macdonald, D.D.G.M.; Dr. E. W. McGuire, of the Executive Board, F. G. Laurence and W. A. Suddaby, are to be sent down by the Royal Lodge to take the Grand Lodge degrees.

SPRING ASSIZES.—The Spring Assizes will be held as follows:—Guelph, Monday, 10th May; Berlin, Wednesday, 21st April; Stratford, Wednesday, 28th April; Milton, Wednesday, 10th of March; Brampton, Monday, 15th April; Orangeville, Monday, 12th April; Goderich, Monday, 22nd March; Walkerton, Monday, 19th April; Owen Sound, Tuesday, 9th March. Mr. Justice O'Connor will preside at the Wellington Assizes.

Y. M. C. A. CONVENTION.—The 16th annual Provincial Convention of the Young Men's Christian Association of Ontario and Quebec will open at the Court House, Hamilton, at 3 p. m., on Thursday, 18th February, and will close the following Sunday evening. Over 100 delegates are expected, and great preparations for their entertainment are being made by the local Association, who have entered heartily into the work. The delegates from the Guelph Association are Messrs. W. H. Wardrope, Vice-President, and the General Secretary, Geo. T. Webber, with Messrs. Ed. Dixon, A. Russell, R. Graham, H. Wilson, and W. R. Bartlett.

POLICE COURT.—The charge against W. J. McCrea, of selling turnips under false pretences, was again before the Police Magistrate this morning, when Mr. Ogg, on account of whose absence the case has been repeatedly adjourned, was put in the box. He said he had McCrea employed for some time, but had given him no authority to buy turnips. On cross examination he admitted McCrea had been buying turnips for Gales last year, and when he made a bargain with him he might have thought he was engaging in the same terms with him. He also said Dawson said to him that he didn't think he would have let McCrae have the turnips unless he thought he was buying for Ogg, thus contradicting Dawson's evidence, who swore positively he would not have let the turnips go unless he thought Ogg was buying them. It also appeared that although Dawson knew Ogg repudiated the bargain he allowed McCrea to go on and ship the turnips. The Magistrate said on the evidence he thought there could be no conviction, but he would read the depositions again and make known his decision to-morrow. Mr. Field for prisoner.

THE KNIGHTS OF LABOR.—The horny-handed Knights are Christians rather than anything else. They believe in God and a hereafter, and that He helps those who help themselves. They have no quarrel with the Church, and as a temperance organization the Knights of Labor have no equal in the world. Its leaders preach temperance, its journals urge it and its rules forbid the admission to the Order of any man who in any way makes money out of rum.—N. Y. Sun.

Another Roller Rink Burned Down.

LINDSAY, Feb. 13.—A fire broke out about 1 o'clock this morning in the roller skating rink on William street, which was entirely consumed along with the contents. The Victoria Hotel and a small frame dwelling house adjoining were also completely destroyed. Total loss about $5,000.

A Huge Embezzlement.

Heavy Seizure of Jewellery.

HALIFAX, N. S., Feb. 12.—The customs officials have struck another bonanza. They have seized three trunks belonging to Wm. Dearden containing a general assortment of jewellery, valued at between $10,000 and $15,000. These Trunks Dearden brought with him from Montreal, but when he found that the cases sent by express had been seized he did not take the trunks to his hotel, but got them secreted. After ten day's search the customs officers finally discovered and seized them.

In 1855 he became principal of St. Mary's College, University of St. Andrew's and received the degree of D. D. He attained to considerable note as a literary man through articles in the British Quarterly Review and The North British Review. In 1855 he received the second of the great Burnett prizes on the "Being and Attributes of God," amounting to £600, and his essay was published under the title of "Theism." Big Colliery Strike.

HALIFAX, N.S., Feb. 13.—One thousand hands at the Springhill mines are out on a strike. This is the largest colliery in Canada, with an output of 1000 tons of coal per day and a daily pay roll of $1200. The trouble arose with the cutters working in the north slope complaining about the unsafe condition of the working places and demanding higher pay therefor. The demand not being conceded these men struck, and were supported by the whole of the employees. The company's customers are all well supplied ahead with the Intercolonial railway, which will need to obtain fuel from the Pictou. The output of the Springhill mines last year was over 300,000 tons, and the men were better paid and better off than at any other colliery in the Dominion.

She refuses to give up the money, even though she has been confronted by her husband's lawyer and threatened with having the case settled in the courts. The wife claims that previous to this he had been dissipating her money by gambling.

Pembina Co. Dakota Correspondence

Many readers of the MERCURY in Puslinch will be sorry to hear of the death of Mary McMaster. She was ailing for over a year, and her complaint seemed of such a complicated nature as to entirely baffle the skill of her physician, and in spite of all that brothers, sisters and friends could do, she passed quietly and peacefully to rest at 2:30 in the morning of the 6th inst. Her father, Mr. James McMaster, lived for many years on the first concession, near Killean. Having sold his farm, he with two sons and eight daughters moved in the spring of 1881 to Penbina Co. where they are now very comfortably settled. Having undergone the privations incident to pioneer days, it seems sad that she who bore them so cheerfully, and who was as a mother to the younger members of the family and a source of comfort and consolation to her aged father, should be called from this stage of uncertainties to that bourne from whence no traveller returns. The deceased and family were always highly respected in Puslinch, and the large procession which followed her remains to the Cavilier burying ground showed they are equally respected here.

MONDAY EVE'G, FEB. 15, 1886.

Assisted Immigration.

In spite of all the warnings and protests sent by labour associations, by the press, and otherwise, our Government seems determined to continue to pursue their policy of sending out emigrants to this country and paying a portion of their passage. On the 26th of January a meeting of the British and Colonial Emigration Society, was held in London, at which Sir Charles Tupper and the Commissioners from other British Colonies were present. Mr. J. A. Froude, the distinguished historian, moved the following resolution:—"That in view of the great and increasing distress in various parts of the country, it is desirable that an Emigration Board be formed, and that an appeal be made to the public and to the Imperial and Colonial Governments for assistance to enable the committee to endeavour to relieve such distress by promoting, in connection with the High Commissioner for Canada and the Agents-General for the colonies, the emigration of suitable and deserving families." The encouraging of suitable and deserving families to emigrate, if these families are able to pay their own way, and especially if their object is to take up land, is good enough, but Mr. Froude's resolution means more than that, for in the remarks that he made in support of it he suggested that provision might be made for those poor people who are unable to obtain a livelihood in Britain to avail themselves of these means. Anyone would gather from this, of course, that such people should be assisted in the first place to get to this country and then that they should get more assistance when they arrived here.

Now, in the present state of the labor market in Canada we protest against the employment of any such means to bring people to this country. Every one knows that labour is scarce in this country at present, that there is little prospect of an improvement, that there are thousands of people idle throughout the country, and that hundreds are pinched for the means of subsistence, if not in actual distress. Yet in the face of all this our High Commissioner, Sir Charles Tupper, not only supported Mr. Froude's resolution, but emphasized it by saying: "As far as Canada is concerned, almost a boundless field for servant girls, who are ready and willing to work, and for persons of good character, exists in the Dominion. There is also an almost unlimited field there for agricultural labourers. In the old Provinces from end to end, as well as in the new portions of the country, the demand for agricultural labourers is not yet filled, and there is abundant employment for suitable persons unable to find work here, and employment that will render them perfectly comfortable, and will enable them to be the means of increasing the great agricultural industry of Canada. There are also emigration agencies not only in different parts of the country, but throughout Canada, for the purpose of taking the emigrant by the hand, finding him suitable employment, and aiding him in obtaining every advantage. The Canadian Government also assists emigrants thither by providing a very low rate of passage by a contribution for that purpose." In the above Sir Charles Tupper is clearly guilty of exaggeration. With the exception of servant girls, we have a superabundance of all classes of labour, even of farm labourers. It is a gross outrage and injustice therefore for him to make such statements, and it is equally unjust and prejudicial to the interests of the working classes in this country for our Government to allow their Commissioner to talk in this fashion and to persist in assisting people to come to Canada where they are not wanted and where there is no employment for them. If this is the way that the Government protects the interests of the working classes the sooner they know it the better, for it is simply continuing to pursue a policy which tends to cheapen labour and flood the market with a class of men for whom there is no room and who are not wanted.

THE Times' Vienna report says the official information from Belgrade is that King Milan has resolved to sign a treaty of peace with Bulgaria.

THE first New Brunswick Legislature was opened in January 3rd, 1786—a hundred years ago. Parliamentary honours were then so little coveted that the Legislature had to pass an order compelling some of the legislators, who had been returned apparently contrary to their wishes, to attend.

JOHN A. BARRETT, of Lindsay, was nominated at a Reform convention at Fenelon Falls, Saturday to oppose Hector Cameron for the House of Commons.

AT the St. Thomas meeting the Hon. Thomas White in effect denied the truth of Mr. M. C. Cameron's statements with respect to the timber limits grant authorized by the present Government. At Mr. Cameron's meeting in the same city last week he produced the offical returns as laid before the House of Commons by the Government last session and thus gave the people an opportunity of examining the documents for themselves. These fully bore out Mr. Cameron's statements and proved Mr. White to be—well, exercising his old trick of "political exigency," in other words telling what was not true.

THE late riots in London show that society in that city, if not throughout the Kingdom, is face to face with a dangerous Socialistic element. Yet it is remarkable that in a gathering of the kind that took place when so much mischief was done to property that no lives were lost. Had such a riot taken place in Paris there would have been barricades and an attempt at a revolution, with possibly the loss of some lives. At such a riot in the United States, as the Pittsburgh riots show, there would without doubt have been a serious loss of life. This shows the essential difference in the character of the people. Englishmen are not cruel, treacherous or bloodthirsty, and seldom or ever do they wantonly destroy life even when their blood is up.

SPEAKING of the present condition of the cotton trade in Canada the Monetary Times says: Two other cotton mills, both of them in Ontario, have begun, we understand, to sell their product direct to the retail shopkeepers. This is surely a dernier ressort; for the margin of profit they can obtain by selling direct will not leave them much after paying the extra staff in office or on the road which this implies, and allowing for bad debts which they cannot avoid. The course indicated is probably taken as a sort of protest against the relaxed terms which have been given by the mills generally to the wholesale trade, for we learn that the two mentioned are resolved on adhering to short dating.

AN Ottawa despatch says: There is a suspicious delay in the awarding of contracts for the Welland Canal improvement. The complete list of tenders was submitted to the Government by the engineers of the Canals Department over a week ago, but so far no contracts have been given out. Some say that the Government hesitate about going on with such a large work at present, owing to the unsatisfactory state of the Dominion finances, while others are of opinion that the contractors to whom the Government are anxious to give the jobs want time to buy out the lowest tenderers. The impression prevails that the man who will subscribe the most to the Tory Corruption Fund will get the largest slice of the Welland Canal contracts. Tenderers who have submitted offers to do the work are complaining about the manner in which they are being treated.

JUDGING from information received so far it appears that very few Indians are inclined to take advantage of the provisions of the Franchise Act. The following in reference to this is from the Globe:—"Judge Davis, Revising Officer for South Middlesex, recently visited the Indians on the Caradoc Reserve, with a view to their enrollment on the Dominion voters' list. The Judge interviewed all the eligible males in the three tribes, the Oneidas, the Chippewas, and the Munceys, but very few of them manifested any desire for the privilege proposed to be conferred upon them. There are about 250 males of mature years on the reserves, and two-thirds of these under the Indian clauses of the Dominion Franchise Act are entitled to vote. But of the Muncey tribe, numbering 123 souls, not one consented to register. Of the Oneidas, numbering in all nearly 800, only three registered. Of the Chippewas, who number over 450, about twenty were enrolled. The general feeling is stated to have been one of utter indifference, or of open disinclination, to assume the new obligation proffered by the Revising Officer."

FIRE IN ST. GEORGE.

Two People Burned to Death and Others Injured.

PARIS, Ont., Feb. 14.—The little village of St. George, seven miles east of here, has been visited by a destructive fire, entailing a loss of property to the value of $40,000 and two human lives, and serious injuries (probably fatal in two cases) to several persons. The fire occurred in the lower storey of the Cummings Block, occupied as an hotel by A. Beamer, and as a general store by Chrysler Bros., at 3.30 yesterday morning. How it broke out is a mystery. The landlord had occasion to rise a short time before and found nothing wrong. His wife was awakened shortly afterwards by a crash below, and found the whole building enveloped in smoke. The family, which included Mrs. Beamer's aged father, found no means of escape but by the windows. They were enabled to descend on a ladder held up to the window on the shoulders of a stalwart villager. They had to leave everything behind. Among the other inmates were Joseph Armstrong, a travelling agent for a Brantford book publisher; N. Caise, a mill employer from Uxbridge; S. W. Morrison, a sewing machine agent of Hamilton; Wm. Baxter, of Brantford, a bartender; John Bush, barber, and his wife. Bush, in trying to reach a ladder, fell from the window to the ground beneath, receiving several internal injuries. Morrison dropped from his window to a balcony, and from thence reached the cross arms of a telegraph pole down which he slid. He was badly burned and lacerated, besides losing $159 in notes. Baxter chose the same means of escape, and was also hurt in sliding down the pole. He loses $280 in cash. Armstrong and Caise were burned to death. No one remembers having seen the former after the fire broke out, but Wm. Smith, the hostler, noticed Caise at one of the rear windows, and heard him cry: "My God, can nobody save me?" The next instant a cloud of smoke hid him from view. He was just recovering from an attack of illness, and apparently had not the strength to make an effort to get out. Armstrong had been up late the previous night, having remained over in the village to attend an Orange meeting. He must have been suffocated in his bed. The charred remains were found a few hours later lying on the partially consumed bedclothing. The remains of Caise have not yet been discovered.

The other casualties occurred while a crowd were in the building adjoining the hotel, on which the wall fell, crushing in the roof and cutting off escape for the time being. D. Sturgis was partially paralyzed by a box falling on him. James Kitchen was seriously cut about the head. Charles Badnock was bruised by a piece of timber. Harry Howell in jumping through a window was cut in several places. J. Osborne followed him and had a narrow escape with his life. The fall of this wall checked the progress of the flames, which there was no means of battling with before. The three-storey hotel block with the adjoining brick building was entirely consumed, while Chas. Colter's tailor shop was wrecked by falling debris.

The total loss is estimated at $30,000; insurance, $10,000.

BE WISE,

There is hardly another disease which so undermines the health and happiness of hundreds of thousands of families as Hernia or Rupture. It creeps into almost every household as a worm; it causes nervous debility, impairs memory, extinguishes the spark which invigorates the relation of life in domestic circles, and inspires destruction to the most sacred institution of marriage, morality, etc.

In addition to the above it especially affects men, both physically and socially, of all ages and positions. It destroys energy and wears out the human machine tenfold quicker than age or labor. Sufferer, BE WISE. Rupture, as well as deformity, can only be treated by mechanical treatment. After all have failed to hold your Rupture, rupture always increasing instead of decreasing, I say come to or write to me, and I will do for you all I can.

CHAPTER X.

THE MASK THROWN OFF—THE BITTERNESS OF DEFEAT.

Percival had found Mr. Lafone, not in the dining-room, but in the library, busy with some correspondence relating to one of his farms. It was very seldom he wrote letters after dinner, and Percival apologised for interrupting him, but said he would be grateful if Mr. Lafone would spare him a few minutes.

The elder man pushed his writing materials away, as though rather glad of an excuse to give up writing, and immediately placed his time at the disposal of his young friend.

Percival stated his business very clearly and distinctly without any hesitation, rather as if he felt sure of success—as indeed he did—for he had Helen's consent.

Mr. Lafone listened in silence, fingering a little ornament—a ruler—which lay upon the writing table. It was made of bits of differently coloured marble, and he seemed to be studying the differences very intently.

"I am very much surprised to hear this, very much, indeed," he said at length.

"Is it so very strange that I should love your daughter?" asked Percival, slightly raising his eyebrows.

"Certainly not, but I have more daughters than one, and I must say I thought—we all thought—you preferred Alice, my second daughter."

Percival frowned and bit his lip. He knew his attentions to Alice had been rather forced upon him by circumstances, as he put it to himself, and if Mr. Lafone had mistaken them for genuine and voluntary, other people might have done the the same. He hastened to speak again and put things in a clearer light.

"I should be very sorry if any attentions I have paid your second daughter have been misunderstood. As your daughter and Miss Lafone's sister she had certain claims upon me, but it is Miss Lafone whom I wish to marry."

"I can't well put it stronger than that," reflected the young man. "He must see the truth now."

It appeared so, for after a moment's conversation, he said—

"That being so, I am very sorry I mentioned Alice's name."

"What did he ever mention her name for?" again reflected the younger man. "Does he suppose when I ask for one of his daughters that in reality I mean the other?" But aloud he said,

"You don't object to the marriage, I hope."

"Have you spoken to Helen?"

"Yes, she sent me to you."

"I would have preferred you to come to me first, but I believe it is not the fashion with the present day."

Percival having no practical experience in the way such things were done in Mr. Lafone's youth, did not feel called upon to make any remark, and both the men sat silent for some little time. At last Mr. Lafone roused himself.

"Well," looking at his finger nails as he spoke, in accordance with the habit he had, which Percival had often noticed, but which had never irritated him until this evening, "I suppose I must say yes."

The grudging, yet indifferent, way in which he spoke, stirred Percival's wrath, and he said quickly,

"If you have any objections to make, sir, please state them. You have asked no questions about settlements or anything. I shall be glad to tell you whatever you like."

Mr. Lafone indulged in a gesture of remonstrance.

"I am quite satisfied as to your position and fortune, otherwise I should not have allowed your attentions to Alice."

Percival was more annoyed than he cared to show at this second allusion to the mythical attentions, but the implied slight to Helen was not to be borne.

"We had better come to an understanding about this, Mr. Lafone. You will oblige me by telling me what I have ever said or done which should make you suppose I wished to marry your daughter Alice."

Thus brought to bay Mr. Lafone found it difficult to bring forward any proofs, so he took refuge in suppositions, saying—

"You were constantly here; you seemed to prefer her society to that of anyone else, and people notice these things you know."

"Mr. Lafone," said Percival, when the elder gentlemen had finished his statement, "do you wish to force upon me a wife I do not want? It would be a very sorry service to either of us, and one which you would repent having rendered all your life. Had you chosen to take notice of my manner to Miss Lafone you could not have mistaken any attentions I paid her sister. You have never appreciated Helen, and you will lose her before you know her worth. It has pained me over and over again to see the persistent way in which she is depreciated and set aside in her own home, and one of my desires in winning her was that I might place her in more congenial surroundings."

"Really," said Mr. Lafone, "you speak as though Helen had met with ill-treatment at the hands of her best friends. Might I not suggest that it is you who have rather exaggerated ideas of her merits."

"It may be so," replied Percival rather ironically; "nay, no doubt it is so. It is highly probable that her charm and beauty exist only in my imagination."

"Helen's beauty? You are the first person I have ever heard remark on Helen's beauty."

"Possibly; the greatest beauty often remains longest unrecognized."

Mr. Lafone made no reply, and Percival after a moment's silence went on,

"Am I to understand that I have your consent, Mr. Lafone?"

"Yes, yes, certainly. I only wanted you to be sure of your own mind. I don't know whether you are aware," he went on, "that Helen has no fortune, and in my present circumstances I do not think I am justified in lessening my income."

"I want nothing but herself," said the young man almost gruffly. "If she is to be dependent she shall at anyrate be dependent on some one who grudges her nothing."

After this both men felt that the sooner the interview came to an end the better; so Percival rose, and in a few minutes was back again in the drawing-room where Helen was still alone.

The Last Year, 1885.

After the above year is ended there need be no person suffering from rheumatism, neuralgia, toothache, headache lumbago, or any acute pain, if they only purchase a bottle of Fluid Lightning, as it cures instantly. Pain cannot stay where it is used. The name is Fluid Lightning. Sold by Thomas S. Petrie, Druggist.

WONDERFUL LONDON.—There are more churches and chapels in London than in the whole of Italy. It has 618 railway stations. Nearly 1,500 passenger trains pass Clapham Junction every day, while the underground railways run more than 1,200 trains a day, and carry more than 12,000,000 passengers a year. The omnibus companies run 1,000 stages and carry 56,000,000 passengers a year. About 130 persons are killed and 2,000 injured every year by vehicles in the streets. There are in London 14,000 policemen, 14,000 cabmen, and 15,000 persons connected with the post-office. The cost of lighting London by gas annually is $3,000,000. London has over 400 daily and weekly newspapers. Last year there were 2,314 fires.

Of the twenty thousand pounds subscribed at London during the past three days for the unemployed workingmen nearly all has been contributed by metropolitan merchants and bankers. The general public has scarcely contributed anything.

The Home Rule Question.

LONDON, Feb. 14.—The Tory attack upon the Home Rule flank has been quite effective. Their appeal to the Orangemen to resist Home Rule by every possible means has shown its strength in Wales, and is most apparent in the opposition evinced to the speeches of Mr. Michael Davitt on behalf of the Welsh farmers.

Proposed Banquet to John Morley.

The Lord Mayor of Dublin has invited a deputation of tradesmen to attend a banquet to be given on Tuesday to Mr John Morley, the new Chief Secretary for Ireland. Since the invitation was issued anoymous placards have been posted in the streets urging tradesmen to boycott the banquet on the ground that the Lord Mayor is a traitor to the national cause in having joined the attempt at Galway to hamper Mr. Parnell. At a meeting of tradesmen, held for the purpose of appointing a delegation to attend the banquet, many of those nominated refused to serve.

LONDON, Feb. 14.—Their first memorial to Mr. Gladstone not having been answered, the Solialist leaders, Burns, Champion, Hyndmann, Watts and Williams, have again written to the Premier, enclosing proposals for the amelioration of the distress among the working classes, and expressing the hope that they will be enabled to announce at the meeting of the Federation called for next Sunday that the Government has resolved to begin work on public improvements in order to give employment to the workingmen now idle. The Socialists have decided to abandon the proposed meeting at Cumberland market on Tuesday, as they believe that their objects have obtained sufficient publicity.

NEW YORK, Feb. 13.—British citizenship is possessed by quite a number of New York's largest capitalists. That they value their standing as citizens of the great empire above purely business considerations is made evident by the experience of the two enthusiastic gentlemen who have done so much to transform Staten Island from a barren waste to a populous and busy mart. The First National bank of Staten Island began business to-day. This institution was promoted by Sir Roderick Cameron and Erastus Wiman. It was presumed that Messrs. Cameron and Wiman would hold a prominent place in the directorate, but they were rather unpleasantly surprised to learn that under the laws of the United States their British citizenship precluded them from assuming any direct control of the property which was so largely owned by them. Mr. Wiman selected as his representative on the Board of Directors Hon. H. W. Cannon, late Comptroller of the Currency of the United States. Messrs. Cameron and Wiman are also greatly inconvenienced by a State law of New York which prevents any but citizens of the United States from owning real estate.

THE FRANCHISE ACT.

The Qualifications of Voters—The Process of Registration Explained.

The time having arrived for the preparation of the voters' lists under the new Dominion Franchise Act, an appeal is made to the Liberals of Wellington to have their names enrolled as voters without delay. To assist in so doing a short summary of the qualification of voters and of the process for securing registration is given.

QUALIFICATION.

To entitle a person to be put on the list he must be—

(1) 21 years of age.

(2) A British subject by birth or naturalization.

(3) Owner of real property of value:
In a city, $300.
In a town, $200.
In a county, $150.

(4) Or tenant of real property under ease at a rental of
$2 per month.
$6 per quarter.
$12 per half year.
$20 per year.

Provided that the tenant has been in possession for one year before 1st January 1886, and shall have paid one year's rent before final revision.

If the rent is yearly it will be sufficient if $20 of last year's rent shall have been paid before final revision.

Change of tenancy without intermission will not destroy the vote if aggregate of tenancies would give vote.

The assessor should be instructed to state in the assessment roll the rent payable by each person assessed as tenant. If, however, this is not done, each tenant is prima facie entitled to be registered as a voter if the property is assessed at the following values:—
In cities at $300.
In towns at $200.
In counties at $150.

In counties outside of villages the rent may be payable either in money or in money's worth.

(5) Or a bona fide occupant for one year before 1st January, 1886, and enjoying the revenues and profits for his own or his wife's use of real property of the following values:
In cities, $300.
In towns, $200.
In counties, $150.

The occupancy may be under license of occupation from the crown or from any person or corporation.

(6) Or by income without any other qualification.

A person may be registered as an income voter, if he derives an income from his earnings, trade or profession, or from some investment in Canada of $300 a year, for one year before 1st January, 1886.

In counties the earnings may be either in money or money's worth.

(7) Sons of owners of real property are qualified—

(b) When the father is dead, and would, if living, be qualified, residence with the mother will suffice, and as many sons as the property will qualify may be registered, with preference to the eldest and elder sons, as in the last case.

Occasional absence from home of a son—not more than six months in the year—will not disqualify, and all time spent at school or college in Canada will be counted as if spent at home.

Son of an owner includes grandson, step-son and son-in-law, and all these may be registered as voters on the property if of sufficient value. The provision as to sons of owners applies to the counties as well as towns and cities in cases other than those of farmers' sons.

(8) Farmers' sons—The same provisions substantially apply to farmers' sons, as stated in the last paragraph in respect of sons of owners in cities and towns.

A farm is to be not less than 20 acres of land.

(9) Fishermen and owners of real property and boats, nets, fishing gear and tackle of aggregate value of $150.

Income voters register where they reside at time of registration—all others where property is situate. If in more than one polling division in the same electoral district the voter may register in either.

All names entered in the last revised voters' lists under the old law, will be entered in the new lists by the revising barrister.

Every person not on the assessment roll desiring to have his name on the list must at once send to the revising barrister an application in writing to be put on the list, giving his name, residence and the property or other qualification in respect of which he applies to be put on.

This application must be accompanied by a declaration which is to be made and signed before a commissioner for taking affidavits, a notary or justice of the peace, showing the grounds of the applicants claim to be put on the list.

Substantially the voters are those who can qualify as owners, tenants, occupants, income voters, sons of owners and farmers' sons.

See that the application shows as correctly and fully as possible the qualification.

Make the declaration before a commissioner, notary or justice of the peace. It is convenient to have it attached to the application on the same sheet.

In case of an absent person, let some one else having a knowledge of the qualification make the application and declaration.

When one cannot find a justice or other person before whom the declaration can be taken let the application alone be sent in, with an explanation of the reason, and it would be well in such case to have the truth of the facts in the application certified on the back of it by one, or if possible, two other persons.

The application and declaration must be sent at once to the Revising barrister of the district.

URGENCY OF THE MATTER.

No name not on the last voters' list or assessment roll will be placed on the preliminary voters' list, unless on application and declaration as above.

In case of any difficulty or doubt, application should be made at once for advice to some of the Liberal friends in the neighborhood.

Floods in the States.

BOSTON, Feb. 13.—The rainfall here is almost unprecedented. Mayor O'Brien has instructed the overseers of the poor to devote all the money they possibly can to relieve the sufferers by flood. Over 500 people are confined in upper stories, and have to be supplied with provisions by boats. So badly is ordinary traffic interrupted that every conceivable kind of water craft was forced into service to enable the imprisoned ones to pass to and from their houses. The Boston Belting company's factory is almost afloat. Their loss is over $750,000. The Roxbury Carpet company's loss is $60,000. Six hundred houses have been damaged to the extent of over $100,000.

At other places in Massachussetts a similar state of affairs is reported, and telegraphic, telephonic and railway communication has been greatly interrupted.

The same story is told throughout the Eastern and Northern States.

Foreign.

Nine dynamiters were arrested at Madrid on Sunday.

The Papal consistory, which was to have been held in March, has been postponed till June.

Mr. Morley received 1,010 more votes at Newcastle on Friday than he did at his former election.

A daughter of the late Charles Dickens was an occupant of one of the carriages stopped by the London rioters.

The Queen has written a letter expressing her sympathy with the sufferers by the riots of last Monday and Tuesday.

Ivanhoff, who was recently arrested, turns out to be one of the Nihilists concerned in the assassination of Alexander II.

The rumour that the Home Rule question was to be postponed till next session proves to have been wholly foundationless.

The London Post says that the majority of German manufacturers have decided not to participate in the Paris exhibition of 1889.

China does not intend to send a special envoy to the Vatican, but to accredit the Minister Plenepotentiary at Vienna, Berlin and Paris.

Police summonses have been issued against the Socialistic leaders in the recent riots in London. The summonses are returnable on Wednesday.

The editors of a Polish journal, printed in Posen, have been sentenced to six months' imprisonment for publishing an article libelling Prince Bismarck.

The Pope's advisors consider the concessions to the Vatican, contained in the scheme submitted on behalf of Germany by Prince Bismarck, insufficient.

The Progresse of Madrid, a Socialist newspaper, says that when the Cortes meets it will be to receive the announcement of the abdication of the Queen.

Placards have been mysteriously posted throughout Athens menacing the members of the Greek Government with vengeance if they obey the order of the Powers to disarm.

Mr. Healey ridicules the idea of an Irish Parliament without control of the Police. Without such control, he says, the Parliament itself would need police protection.

The great firm of enineers, John Penn & Sons, of Greenwich and Deptford, on Saturday sent their check for $10,000 to the Mansion House relief fund for unemployed workingmen.

It is understood that Sir Charles Dilke is going abroad for six months. Most of the London newspapers criticize the position he occupied in the Crawford divorce suit in scathing terms.

Since the recent riots in London the Russian Government has renewed negotiations with England with the object of inducing that country to join the international league for the extradition of political criminals.

Of the twenty thousand pounds subscribed at London during the past three days for the unemployed workingmen nearly all has been contributed by metropolitan merchants and bankers. The general public has scarcely contributed anything.

The Home Rule Question.

LONDON, Feb. 14.—The Tory attack upon the Home Rule flank has been quite effective. Their appeal to the Orangemen to resist Home Rule by every possible means has shown its strength in Wales, and is most apparent in the opposition evinced to the speeches of Mr. Michael Davitt on behalf of the Welsh farmers.

A Massacre in Zanzibar.

LONDON, Feb. 14.—The London missionary society has received advices from Zanzibar to the effet that two men who have returned to that place from Usegna report that they saw Bishop Hannington with fifty men of his expedition taken out for execution.

More Rioting at Leicester.

LONDON, Feb. 13.—The striking hosiery operatives at Leicester resumed their rioting at midnight. The mob was very desperate and stubbornly refused to obey the police. However, after considerable of a fight, the police were successful and dispersed the mob.

Proposed Banquet to John Morley.

The Lord Mayor of Dublin has invited a deputation of tradesmen to attend a banquet to be given on Tuesday to Mr John Morley, the new Chief Secretary for Ireland. Since the invitation was issued anoymous placards have been posted in the streets urging tradesmen to boycott the banquet on the ground that the Lord Mayor is a traitor to the national cause in having joined the attempt at Galway to hamper Mr. Parnell. At a meeting of tradesmen, held for the purpose of appointing a delegation to attend the banquet, many of those nominated refused to serve.

Socialistic Demands.

LONDON, Feb. 14.—Their first memorial to Mr. Gladstone not having been answered, the Solialist leaders, Burns, Champion, Hyndmann, Watts and Williams, have again written to the Premier, enclosing proposals for the amelioration of the distress among the working classes, and expressing the hope that they will be enabled to announce at the meeting of the Federation called for next Sunday that the Government has resolved to begin work on public improvements in order to give employment to the workingmen now idle. The Socialists have decided to abandon the proposed meeting at Cumberland market on Tuesday, as they believe that their objects have obtained sufficient publicity.

Mineral Poison.

Nothing but pure extracts from plants and roots are used in preparing McGregor's Lung Compound, the modern and now popular remedy for colds, coughs, bronchitis, croup, asthma, and all affections of the throat, lungs and chest. NEW YORK, Feb. 13.—British citizenship is possessed by quite a number of New York's largest capitalists. That they value their standing as citizens of the great empire above purely business considerations is made evident by the experience of the two enthusiastic gentlemen who have done so much to transform Staten Island from a barren waste to a populous and busy mart. The First National bank of Staten Island began business to-day. This institution was promoted by Sir Roderick Cameron and Erastus Wiman. It was presumed that Messrs. Cameron and Wiman would hold a prominent place in the directorate, but they were rather unpleasantly surprised to learn that under the laws of the United States their British citizenship precluded them from assuming any direct control of the property which was so largely owned by them. Mr. Wiman selected as his representative on the Board of Directors Hon. H. W. Cannon, late Comptroller of the Currency of the United States. Messrs. Cameron and Wiman are also greatly inconvenienced by a State law of New York which prevents any but citizens of the United States from owning real estate.

Eighty-seven different families have received assistance from the Belleville flood committee.

The balance sheet of the Province of British Columbia shows a surplus of assets over liabilities of $49,763.76.

The Christian Brothers contemplate erecting, on Sherbrooke street, Montreal, a scholastic institution which will cost $300,000.

THE FRANCHISE ACT.

The Qualifications of Voters—The Process of Registration Explained.

The time having arrived for the preparation of the voters' lists under the new Dominion Franchise Act, an appeal is made to the Liberals of Wellington to have their names enrolled as voters without delay. To assist in so doing a short summary of the qualification of voters and of the process for securing registration is given.

QUALIFICATION.

To entitle a person to be put on the list he must be—

(1) 21 years of age.

(2) A British subject by birth or naturalization.

(3) Owner of real property of value:
In a city, $300.
In a town, $200.
In a county, $150.

(4) Or tenant of real property under ease at a rental of
$2 per month.
$6 per quarter.
$12 per half year.
$20 per year.

Provided that the tenant has been in possession for one year before 1st January 1886, and shall have paid one year's rent before final revision.

If the rent is yearly it will be sufficient if $20 of last year's rent shall have been paid before final revision.

Change of tenancy without intermission will not destroy the vote if aggregate of tenancies would give vote.

In cities at $300.
In towns at $200.
In counties at $150.

In counties outside of villages the rent may be payable either in money or in money's worth.

(5) Or a bona fide occupant for one year before 1st January, 1886, and enjoying the revenues and profits for his own or his wife's use of real property of the following values:
In cities, $300.
In towns, $200.
In counties, $150.

The occupancy may be under license of occupation from the crown or from any person or corporation.

(6) Or by income without any other qualification.

A person may be registered as an income voter, if he derives an income from his earnings, trade or profession, or from some investment in Canada of $300 a year, for one year before 1st January, 1886.

In counties the earnings may be either in money or money's worth.

(7) Sons of owners of real property are qualified—

(b) When the father is dead, and would, if living, be qualified, residence with the mother will suffice, and as many sons as the property will qualify may be registered, with preference to the eldest and elder sons, as in the last case.

Occasional absence from home of a son—not more than six months in the year—will not disqualify, and all time spent at school or college in Canada will be counted as if spent at home.

Son of an owner includes grandson, step-son and son-in-law, and all these may be registered as voters on the property if of sufficient value. The provision as to sons of owners applies to the counties as well as towns and cities in cases other than those of farmers' sons.

(8) Farmers' sons—The same provisions substantially apply to farmers' sons, as stated in the last paragraph in respect of sons of owners in cities and towns.

A farm is to be not less than 20 acres of land.

(9) Fishermen and owners of real property and boats, nets, fishing gear and tackle of aggregate value of $150.

Income voters register where they reside at time of registration—all others where property is situate. If in more than one polling division in the same electoral district the voter may register in either.

All names entered in the last revised voters' lists under the old law, will be entered in the new lists by the revising barrister.

Every person not on the assessment roll desiring to have his name on the list must at once send to the revising barrister an application in writing to be put on the list, giving his name, residence and the property or other qualification in respect of which he applies to be put on.

This application must be accompanied by a declaration which is to be made and signed before a commissioner for taking affidavits, a notary or justice of the peace, showing the grounds of the applicants claim to be put on the list.

Substantially the voters are those who can qualify as owners, tenants, occupants, income voters, sons of owners and farmers' sons.

See that the application shows as correctly and fully as possible the qualification.

Make the declaration before a commissioner, notary or justice of the peace. It is convenient to have it attached to the application on the same sheet.

In case of an absent person, let some one else having a knowledge of the qualification make the application and declaration.

When one cannot find a justice or other person before whom the declaration can be taken let the application alone be sent in, with an explanation of the reason, and it would be well in such case to have the truth of the facts in the application certified on the back of it by one, or if possible, two other persons.

The application and declaration must be sent at once to the Revising barrister of the district.

URGENCY OF THE MATTER.

No name not on the last voters' list or assessment roll will be placed on the preliminary voters' list, unless on application and declaration as above.

In case of any difficulty or doubt, application should be made at once for advice to some of the Liberal friends in the neighborhood.

Floods in the States.

BOSTON, Feb. 13.—The rainfall here is almost unprecedented. Mayor O'Brien has instructed the overseers of the poor to devote all the money they possibly can to relieve the sufferers by flood. Over 500 people are confined in upper stories, and have to be supplied with provisions by boats. So badly is ordinary traffic interrupted that every conceivable kind of water craft was forced into service to enable the imprisoned ones to pass to and from their houses. The Boston Belting company's factory is almost afloat. Their loss is over $750,000. The Roxbury Carpet company's loss is $60,000. Six hundred houses have been damaged to the extent of over $100,000.

At other places in Massachussetts a similar state of affairs is reported, and telegraphic, telephonic and railway communication has been greatly interrupted.

The same story is told throughout the Eastern and Northern States.

MEMBERS of the Guelph Snowshoe and Toboggan Club will please take notice that a general meeting will be held on Wednesday, the 17th inst., in the office of the President, Mr. John Davidson. Important business will be discussed. dl

THE Sunday School room of St. Andrew's church is being beautifully renovated. The ladies intend giving an entertainment of Scotch song and recitations, and an old fashioned Scotch tea, particulars of which will be advertised later.

A FINE BIRD.—Mr. Robt. Howard has received from the yards of Mr. William Barber, Toronto, a firs class red breasted game pullett. The bird scored heavily at the late Poultry Exhibition. Bird fanciers who have examined the bird pronounce it first class in every respect, and it reflects great credit on the breeder.

ORGAN RECITAL.—A large audience assembled in St. Andrew's Church last evening, every available seat being occupied. The choir gallery was tastefully decorated with foliage plants and flowers, which added greatly to its attractiveness. The programme commenced by Mrs. Hill rendering an organ solo from "Batisie," in which she showed herself well worthy of the position she now occupies as organist of the church. The anthem by the choir, "Praise the Lord," was well sustained in all its parts, Mr. C. R. Strachan taking the bass solo in splendid voice. Mr. Thomas then sang "Thy way not mine," in a clear rich voice. "Angels ever bright and fair," by Mrs. Whitehead and choir, was beautifully given, the clear powerful voice of the soloist filling every corner of the building, while her sweet appeals to the angelic hosts were grand. Mrs. Moore decidedly eclipsed herself in her singing of "Refuge," which was much admired. Mrs. Harvey next rendered an organ solo in her usual excellent style, bringing out the full tone of the instrument. "Weary of Sin," by Miss Patterson, who has a very promising soprano voice, was well received. A duet and chorus, "Oh be joyful," was next sung in splendid style, followed by a solo "Not ashamed of Christ," by Mrs. Whitehead, which was decidedly the gem of the evening. In this piece she entirely captivated the hearts of her audience. Miss Stevenson then played a wedding march, which was much admired. Mr. F. Spragge's singing of a solo, from "Rossini's Stabat Mater," was much appreciated, and showed him to be a master of that classical piece. "Daughter of Error," solo and five parts, was well given, the soloists (Mrs. Moore and Whitehead) voices being greatly admired in this piece. "Only Thee," by Miss Purvis, was given in a rich alto voice, which this lady certainly possesses, and which will bring her into a prominent place among our vocalists. The singing of "Sweet By and Bye," by the choir brought to a close a musical treat not often the fortune of our citizens to hear, the whole programme being excellently performed throughout. St. Andrew's Church is to be congratulated upon the success its choir has attained during the last few months, as they now hold a position in the musical circle second to none in our city.

GUELPH GAS COMPANY.—The annual meeting of this Company took place on Monday in the old City Hall. Mr. D. Guthrie, Q.C., President, occupied the chair, and Mr. John Yule, the Manager of the Works, acted as Secretary. Mr. Guthrie read the annual report, which was on the whole satisfactory, showing the Works to be in good order, and a slight increase in the consumption of gas for the year. A dividend equal to 7 per cent. was declared. The report, on motion of Mr. Guthrie, seconded by Mr. F. J. Chadwick, was adopted. Messrs. Oxnard and E. Harvey were appointed scrutineers to count the ballots for the election of directors. They reported the following gentlemen elected: D. Guthrie, F. J. Chadwick, J. B. Armstrong, John A. Wood, Robt. Forbes, Jas. Innes and Richard Mitchell. Votes of thanks were passed to the retiring directors and to the Manager for the efficient manner in which they had managed the business of the Company during the year. The meeting then adjourned. At a subsequent meeting of the Directors, Mr. Guthrie was re-elected President of the Company, and Mr. F. J. Chadwick, Vice-President.

THE lights for the "Tableaux Vivants," Thursday, 18th February, will be good. None need stay away, fearing unpleasant fumes. Everything seems to promise a most enjoyable evening of song, music, readings and tableaux. dl

WHAT WE MAY EXPECT.—A large decrease in Rupture after next Saturday and a permanent benefit to those who pay a visit to Mr. Cluthe, the celebrated Surgical Machinist, of Toronto, who will be at the Wellington Hotel, Guelph, Saturday, Feb. 20. d1w1

Probabilities.

Fresh to strong winds from the southwest and west; mostly fair, colder weather, with local snow flurries.

Two rinks of the Guelph curlers go to Toronto to-morrow to engage with the winning clubs in other groups in the final competition for the Ontario Tankard.

THE annual meeting of the Ontario Agricultural and Experimental Union is to be held at the Agricultural College on on the 11th and 12th prox.

MR. GEO. HAMILTON wants the party who sent him the anonymous letter last night to send in his name and his case will be attended to at once, and if not for ever after to hold his peace.

THE Salvation Army band which was absent attending a Jubilee and Council of War at the opening of a new barracks in Hamilton yesterday returned this morning. The officers will remain until Thursday.

THE annual general meeting of the shareholders of the Guelph and Ontario Investment and Savings Society will be held in the office of the Society, corner of Wyndham street and Market Square tomorrow afternoon at two o'clock.

SPEED SKATING RINK.—The ice is now in good condition and the band concert and races will no doubt draw a big crowd at the rink to-night. The medal race between Brandon and Bunyan will be hotly contested, as the winner must make less than eight minutes to win the race. The egg race will be a novel feature of the entertainment. On Friday night the children have a fancy dress carnival, and fancy skating by members in costume will be a great feature.

POULTRY.—Mr. Fred. Sturdy is a great poultry fancier. On Friday he received from a friend in Yorkshire, England, a pair of young golden spangled Hamburg hens and a cock. They arrived all right, but a day or two after both the hens died. The birds were simply beauties, and the loss, when their value for breeding is taken into consideration, is considerable. The hens, the previous owner in his letter to Mr. Sturdy, states had already gained him over £30 in prizes at the various exhibitions where they had been shown.

ST. GEORGE'S CHURCH Y. P. L. A.—To-day those having the management of the arrangements in connection with the forthcoming entertainment to be given under the auspices of the Young People's Literary Association of St. George's Church, in the City Hall, on Thursday evening, are fitting up the stage for the occasion. The entertainment promises to be a very interesting one, judging from the programme. Among the attractions will be several tableaux given by the Snow Shoe Club, with appropriate scenery, consisting of the meet, the tramp, and the slide. An extra side platform has been temporarily erected for the piano, and all arrangements will be so complete that there will be no delay.

POLICE COURT.—The Magistrate this morning acquitted W. McCrea on the charge of selling turnips under false pretences. John Bianoffski, charged with stealing a fiddle from Josh. Wayper, was dismissed, the prosecutor offering no evidence. James Dolan was charged with vagrancy. He stated to the Magistrate that he preferred the hospitality of Galt to that of Guelph, and if His Worship would allow him to depart to that town he would do so gladly. He was allowed to go on the understanding that if he made his appearance again before the Police Court he would be liable to get a term in the Central Prison.

FORMATION OF A SCIENTIFIC SOCIETY.—Last evening the Young People's Association of the Congregational Church listened to Prof. Panton, who in his usual fascinating manner talked about fossils, their formation, and what we learn from them. At the conclusion of his address the audience not only tendered him a hearty vote of thanks, but passed the following resolution unanimously: "Resolved, that this Association invite Sister Societies to meet and confer upon the formation of a Scientific Society, which shall have for its objects the inauguration of a systematic course of lectures on scientific subjects; and that the Secretary be instructed to issue the necessary notices for Tuesday evening, March 2nd. The evening's programme was opened by a piano solo from Miss McLaren, a song by Miss Dean, and concluded with a chorus rendered by the Misses Curtis and Howel and Messrs. R. G. Howel, C. Pringrim and R. McRoberts.

C. P. R. JUNCTION.

To the Editor of the MERCURY:

SIR,—It was hoped that when the Council for the current year was organized, that an active Railway Committee would be constituted, and immediate efforts made to secure the construction of the junction with the Canada Pacific Railway. It may be that the Committee are making some exertions, though one never hears anything of their movements.

Guelph might profit by the example of London (in the west). That city possesses an active Board of Trade, working on a business basis. This Board is divided into committees, one of which is a Railway Committee, now doing good work in the railway interests of London.

The Board of Trade here, if not dead, is surely sleeping. Its movements are as inaudible as those of the Council. The Press, too, another power in the land, is sadly remiss in this railway matter. A good editorial on the subject from time to time would be some encouragement.

Yours truly,
H. H.

CITY COUNCIL.

St. Joseph's Hospital Asks for A Grant.

THE CHAIR FACTORY.

Reports from Several Standing Committees.

The regular meeting of the City Council was held Monday evening. Present — Mayor Stevenson, in the chair, Ald. Lamprey, Chadwick, Keough, Bruce, Maddock, Cutter, Hewer, Smith, Hearn, Jos. Carter, Read, Hamilton, Husband, Wells, Coffee, Wm. Carter.

COMMUNICATIONS.

The following communications were read:—

From A. C. Steele, on behalf of the Royal Templars of Temperance, enclosing a note of thanks passed by that body to the City Council for the use of the City Hall for the public reception.

From William Morrison, Toronto, asking the favourable consideration of improved fire protection in the shape of his chemical engine.

From the City Solicitor, informing the Council that he had completed his investigations into the property qualifications of the Aldermen at a cost of $25.70 in addition to his own fees. All the Aldermen are properly qualified but Mr. Joseph Carter, who, owing to a slight incumbrance, which could readily be removed, and in fact would be removed this week, was not up to the provisions of the law. It was through a mere oversight or Mr. Carter could have easily qualified at first.

From James Gibson, asking to be refunded dog tax, as he did not own a dog since 1884.

From James Innes, and others, asking for a lamp on the corner of Arthur and Palmer streets.

These communications were referred.

ST. JOSEPH'S HOSPITAL.

The petition of the Board of Directors of St. Joseph's Hospital and House of Providence humbly sheweth:

That they had in St. Joseph's Hospital for medical treatment during the year ending 30th September last, 179 patients, 77 of whom were from the City of Guelph, an increase over the previous year from the city of twenty, and the number of patients at that date was 19. In St. Joseph's House of Providence there were 119, of whom 53 were from the City of Guelph, an increase over the previous year of eleven. The receipts of the above institution for the year ending 30th September, 1885, including a balance on hand of the previous year of $928.20, were $7,348.29. The total expenditure for the same time was $7,077.23, leaving a balance of $271.06. Knowing of the terrible scourge of smallpox which was raging in our sister Province, the Board deemed it their duty to erect a smallpox hospital or pest house at a proper distance from the other buildings. This they have done at a cost of $340, which has absorbed their late surplus and left them in debt. The smallpox hospital is not yet furnished, but trust it will soon be. At the present time there are in St. Joseph's Hospital 24 patients, 12 of whom are from the City of Guelph, two of them pay. It will be seen that ten beds are occupied by non-paying patients from the city. There are in the House of Providence 42 patients, 19 of them from the city, occupying 19 beds. This is the twenty-fifth year of the existence of the above institution, and during that time their doors were always open to the sick, the afflicted, the aged, the infirm, the lame and the blind, without reference to creed, our country having received during that time several thousand persons, and fully two thousand of these were from the town and City of Guelph. We, your petitioners, have several times petitioned the late honorable Council, asking aid for the maintenance of the above Institution, but they, for reasons best known to themselves, did not do so. But knowing that your Honorable Body can legally make a grant, and believing that the honorable gentlemen now occupying seats at the Council Board are imbued with charity and benevolence, we approach you and pray you to make a liberal grant for the maintenance of the above Institution. Gentlemen, we cordially invite you to visit the Hospital and House of Providence. Kindly say when it will suit your convenience and conveyances will be in readiness. Referred to Finance.

FINANCE.

In the absence of Ald. Hall, chairman, Ald. Coffee reported as follows: Your Committee have received from Messrs. Burr Bros. two letters with reference to the establishment of their proposed chair factory, in which they state they are desirous of immediately commencing building operations in case the city will give them the site which they consider suitable. Your Committee would recommend that land be given to Messrs. Burr Bros. on which to erect their factory at a cost not exceeding $1,000, in a locality which they will accept, also to exempt them from taxation on the improvements which they may make in the erection of a chair factory and to give them free water for a period of ten years, provided they enter into an obligation with the City to continue the manufacturing of chairs in such factory for a term of ten years in a factory substantially according to a plan in the hands of your Committee, which they are to erect within six months from the completion of the agreement, at a cost of not less than $15,000, and to employ not less than 25 men in the exclusive work of manufacturing chairs, the manner of carrying on their arrangement, and the form of the obligation to be entered into, to be according to the directions of the City Solicitor. That $500 be placed to the credit of the Guelph Public Library. That the report of the Directors of the Guelph General Hospital be left over until the bringing in of the estimates for the current year. That a donation of $10 be granted to W. D. Otter for the benefit of the Ontario Rifle Association.

WATER WORKS.

Ald. Bruce, Chairman, reported, recommending the payment of the following accounts: Feek & Kirkwood, $14.58; W. H. Miller, $5.52; Ed. Stovel, $2.75; J. Miller, 20c.; S. B. Montgomery, $20.30; George Howard, $2.25; Chas. Reynolds, $4.50; Allan Simpson, $1.60; Robt. Mitchell, grocer, $2.35; amount of money paid out in January, $195.64; amount to credit, $500; yet to credit, $304.36. By Treasurer's books there have been collected water rates in January amounting to $1,585.90. Adopted.

RELIEF.

Ald. Smith, chairman, presented the first report of the Committee. They recommend the payment of the following accounts:—W. S. G. Knowles, $6.75; A. O. Bucham, $4; G. Murton, $14; H. Walker & Son, $63.35; D. Scroggie, $8.06; R. Mitchell, $5.25; G. Patterson, $5; J. Smith, $7; P. Anderson, $3.25; John Smith, 50c.; J. A. Wood, $5; J. Cordery, $6.75; N. Tovel, $17; J. Ewing, $1; J. E. McElderry, $11; M. J. Doran, $3.41; E. Ryde, $5.10; Dr. McPhatter, $2.50; Wm. Marriott, $14; W. Standish, $3; Dr. McGuire, $10. Total $135.92. The balance to the credit of Committee with the bills recommended to be paid is $239.35. Adopted.

COLONIAL EXHIBITION.

Ald. Hewer, chairman of the Special Committee on the Colonial Exhibition, reported as follows:—Since last meeting your committee have spent considerable time and attention on this matter and find that it will be impossible to get up a suitable exhibit that would be a credit to the city for the small amount already placed to their credit. We beg to submit to you this evening for your consideration the plan of a case and hope it will meet your views. To get up the frame as represented it will cost about $250 and we ask that a further grant of $150 be placed to our credit in addition to the $100 already granted. Your Committee have great pleasure in stating that our City will be represented by our manufacturers and other industries. Adopted.

AUDITORS.

The Clerk read a communication from Mr. W. S. G. Knowles and Mr. Joseph Heffernan, city auditors, stating that they had audited the books of the Treasurer, examined the accounts, vouchers, etc., and found them correct. Received.

THE CHAIR FACTORY.

Ald. Chadwick, seconded by Ald. Hearn, moved in amendment to the adoption of the report of the Finance Committee that the report be referred back to the Committee, to amend the clause in reference to the grant of land made to Burr Bros., the price of which should not exceed $500.

Ald. Chadwick remarked as the clause stood if they voted on it they would be voting blindly. He would like to know how much land the Burr Bros. required, where it was situated, who it was to be bought from, and the price to be paid. The Council had no power to vote away money to buy land unless the people voted on a by-law for that purpose. It would be illegal to grant the money. Moreover he considered the land could be bought for half the price mentioned in the report. If the Council were to grant the land he thought they should have the right to say where they were to give it. He had no objection to the industry, but he looked upon the grant as a bonus.

Ald. Coffee said that the Burr Bros. had examined several properties and concluded that the lot adjoining their present property would be most suitable. It contained about an acre. Of course they might not decide on having this lot, which they considered would cost about, $2,000. The committee considered this too much and was in favor of giving $1,000 to buy a lot. Land further up could be obtained cheaper, but it had to be taken into consideration that if land was purchased near the station it would cost more than the land was worth to bring the water works to it. As regarded the legality of the question it had been left in the hands of the City Solicitor.

Ald. Bruce remarked that this was a question which should not be slightly thrown aside. The Burr Bros. were to employ 25 men at the start, and although they did not promise employment for more, he knew that it was the intention within nine months probably after the start to employ 50 or even more. Then there would be the erection of a stone building 55 by 110 three storeys high, and plant, amounting to $15,000. This was no trifling matter to the city in the dull state that things were at present. The Burr Bros. were men of business and meant what they said. They desired this thing settled at once so that they could go on with their arrangements. It was only a question of time whether they should move to Parkdale or not and the Council should give earnest heed to the matter before them.

Ald. Keough thought that a lot could be procured equally convenient for the purpose of the Burr Bros. at half the cost and where they could get a switch run into their yard.

Ald. Smith failed to see that the objections raised against the request of the Burr Bros. had any weight. The amount they asked was trifling and the city would in a short time be reimbursed a hundred fold. If the Council kept this thing dallying on the probabilities were that the city would not only lose the projected factory but the present one. He would sustain the report.

Ald. Hearn was opposed to cash bonuses, and he looked on this grant simply as a cash bonus. He was not opposed to free water or free taxes, $1000 for the land was too dear. Lots could be got near the Edinburgh-road at a far less price.

Ald. Lamprey considered that this Council had no right to choose where the the Burr Bros. were to locate their factory. The bringing of this industry here was a thing which should not be let slip. As had been remarked we might lose the present factory altogether, not taking into account the projected one. This in itself would be a serious loss and one which the city would soon feel. The grant was a small one compared with the benefits which the city would derive.

Ald. Chadwick again disapproved of the bonus system. He remarked that he was a poor man, but he would give the Burr Bros. a free deed of an acre of land within a few rods of the Water Works and convenient to the railway.

Ald. Hewer said that Ald. Chadwick's generosity proved that it was the Council's duty to give the grant asked for. When a private individual was willing to give a free deed of land for an industry of this kind, it would be ill becoming of the Council to refuse it.

Ald. Chadwick's amendment was then put and the vote stood 13 to 2.

Ald. Chadwick called for the yeas and nays. They are as follows:

Against—The Mayor, Lamprey, Bruce,

THIS ORIGINAL DOCUMENT IS IN VERY POOR CONDITION

Maddock, Cutten, Hewer, Smith, J. Carter, Rea'l, Hamilton, Husband, Wells, Coffee, Wm. Carter—14.

Mr. Chadwick called the yeas and nays on the main motion. The vote was identically the same. Alds. Hall and Skinner were absent both being sick.

The report was then adopted.

MARKET.

Ald. Hearn reported for the Market House Committee recommending the payment of McCandless & McQueen's account of $102.21. which they found correct. Adopted.

ASSISTED IMMIGRATION.

The Mayor stated that some action should be taken in reference to the memorial in relation to assisted immigration.

Moved by Ald. Hewer, seconded by Ald. Maddock, that a special committee be appointed to memorialize the Dominion and Ontario Governments against pauper emigration to this country, as per resolution received from the Hamilton City Council some time ago, and referred to the Finance Committee of the old Council, said special committee to consist of Ald. Cutten, Smith, Coffee, the Mayor and the mover. Carried.

MORE POLLING PLACE.

His Worship suggested the necessity of appointing a Committee to see and secure more polling places as in several of the polling sub-divisions there were far more voters than allowed by law.

Moved by Ald. Chadwick, seconded by Ald. W. Carter, that the following be appointed a committee to consider a fresh arrangement of the polling sub-divisions in the city, in view of the fact that several of said sub-divisions have on the roll a number of voters in excess of the number contemplated by the Municipal Act: Ald. Coffee, Husband, J. Carter, Smith, Bruce and Keough. Carried.

The Council adjourned at 9 o'clock.

Guelph Daily Mercury

TUESDAY EVE'G, FEB. 16, 1886.

SOME time ago the Walkerton Herald stated that a few years since Mr. O'Connor, M. P. P. for South Bruce made a speech at Dunkeld in which he referred to Mr. Cameron, M. P. for West Huron, as the "Champion liar" of Canada. This of course was such a good specimen of inconsistency on the part of two staunch Reformers of today that nearly every Tory paper in the Province either copied or commented upon the paragraph. The statement might have proved a very good hit, but that it was lacking in a most essential point—it was a lie without a shadow of a basis, and Mr. O'Connor in a letter to the editor of the Walkerton Herald tells him so in these words: "I never at Dunkeld, or any other place, used the language given, or said anything which could possibly be tortured into meaning what you say I said; nor did I ever in any speech use Mr. Cameron's name, or refer to him in any way. Mr. Cameron and I are now, and had been for years before I came to Bruce, both personal and political friends. I think very highly of Mr. Cameron, but I have an unlimited admiration (of a certain kind) for the fertile and inventive genius of "the champion liar" who wrote the article I complain of.

THE proposition of the German Government to buy out the whole liquor trade and go into the business itself is meeting with very strong opposition in the "Faderland" and it is doubtful whether the measure will pass. The result will be watched with interest by those interested in the temperance movement, and especially by those who contend that the Government ought to be the national liquor dealer.

U. S. TARIFF REDUCTION.

Morrison's Bill to Admit Lumber, Coal, Iron Ore and Salt Free.

NEW YORK, Feb. 15.—A Post's Washington espatch says: Morrison's tariff bill will reduce the revenue about $20,000,000 a year. Of this amount probably one-half is taken off of sugar, a little more than one-fourth is taken off by additions to the free list, and a little less than a fourth comes from various items scattered through the list. All wood and lumber not dressed is put on the free list, with this provision that the abolition of the duty is not to apply to any wood or lumber imported from a country which imposes an export duty on these articles.

The other additions to the free list are hemp, jute, jute butts, sissal and other fibre grasses, coal, salt, iron, lead, copper, and other ores, unmanufactured stone, chicory and other substitutes for coffee, corn, oats, hay, potatoes, extract of hemlock and other barks, crude glycerine, indigo extracts, sulphate of barytes, unmanufactured crude borax, saltpetre, logwood and other dye woods, ochre, earths and unwrought clays.

On the various grades of sugars there is a general reduction of 20 per cent., but the reduction does not apply to any sugars on which an export duty is levied as is now the case in Cuba.

On the finer grades of cotton goods, the duties on which are ad valorem, no changes are made. The rates of duty are highest on the cheapest grades of goods, and on cotton yarns, and on the coarse cotton cloths, some small reductions are made. Where existing duties are under 40 per cent. ad valorem they are not touched, but the duty on coarse cottons is reduced from 40 to 35 per cent.

The duty on pig iron is reduced from $6.72 to $5.60 per ton. The rate on steel and iron rails is reduced from about $17 to $12.50. There is a slight reduction on bar iron and on some varieties of boiler and hook iron, while others are not touched. The rate on structural iron and steel is reduced from 1½c. to 1c. a pound.

The three highest classes of crockery now pay duties of 60, 55 and 50 per cent. The new bill reduces them to 50, 45 and 40 per cent. These grades cover all ordinary table crockery.

The Canadian Customs Tariff Act of 1879 provides:

6. Any or all of the following articles that is to say animals of all kinds, green fruit, hay, straw, bran, seeds, potatoes, coal, salt, oats, wheat, peas and beans, barley, rye, oats, Indian corn, flour of wheat, flour of rye, Indian meal, butter, cheese, fish, lard, tallow, meats and lumber may be imported into Canada free of duty, or at a less rate of duty than is provided by this act, upon proclamation of the Governor in Council which may be issued whenever it appears to his satisfaction that similar articles from Canada may be imported into the United States free of duty.

As will be seen from the above despatch the Washington ways and means committee propose to accept the articles italicized in the foregoing clause. And that is about as far as our neighbors are disposed to go in the direction of reciprocity. There will be no reciprocity in wheat, flour or barley.

In order to decrease the expense, and secure larger dividends to patrons, the cream will be drawn from the farms every second day.

IMPORTANCE OF USING ICE FOR MILK SETTING.

Farmers should use plenty of ice in connection with milk setting in deep cans. During the summer months the method of setting milk in well water (without ice) leaves nearly one-third of the butter fat in the skim milk. This is shown by the result of the following experiments:

A judicious use of ice will not only give more butter, but save the labour of pumping and changing the water, and keep the cream and skim milk in far better condition for the creamery and the farm. It will also allow the drawing of the cream every second day without any trouble.

HOW TO KEEP ICE.

The essentials of an ice house are:—

1st. A dry, well drained, and air-tight foundation.

2nd. A double wall 12 to 24 inches thick, filled in with saw dust or other isolating material.

3rd. A tight roof over all, to prevent water from entering.

4th. A ceiling over head, covered with at least a foot thick of saw dust.

5th. Ample ventilation over the ice.

If you do not wish to go to the expense of an ice house, provide a well drained and air-tight foundation in a corner of your shed and barn. Fill in with ice or solidly packed snow, and cover with 18 to 24 inches of saw dust, or surround with 3 or 4 feet of closely packed straw.

Hoping that the farmers of Guelph and vicinity will find it in their interests to patronize the Creamery,

THE OLDEST MAN LIVING.

A Color d Resident of Detroit 127 Years Old.

There is now living in Detroit a colored man aged 127 years. His name is Andrew Lucas. He was born a slave under the father of General Jackson, he of "eternal" fame, and was a grown man when the General succeeded to the paternal estate. He remembers the revolutionary war distinctly, and recalls many very interesting incidents of the second war between this country and Great Britain. He was whipped and ran away. He worked his way slowly north and crossed into Canada at Black Rock, on the Niagara River. Andrew Kirby, then Customs Collector at Fort Erie, sheltered him and helped him to cross into the King's domain. Lucas found employment in the family of General Brock, who was killed in the war of 1812 at Queenston Heights. Next he ran on the Niagara River under Captain John Clinch, for whom he worked nine years, and was then discharged by his employer because the latter considered him too old to be useful. Lucas was then 62 years old. Lucas soon found employment again, this time at Kingston, Ont., where he married his second wife. His slave wife had borne him seven children. His second and free wife bore him seventeen. One daughter by this union is still living at East Saginaw, Mich. Her name is Mrs Williams, and she is 71 years old. Fifty years ago Lucas removed to Brantford, Ontario. There he got work from the father of Judge Stevenson, of Cayuga. The Judge, though now an old man himself, remembers Lucas as a man about 70 years old when he as a boy was going to school. For 29 years Lucas was a driver for the Express Company at Brantford, and resigned the place ten years ago for the reason that he was getting along in years and felt the need of rest. He has the frame of a once powerful man, and stands six feet three inches in his stockings. A year ago this month he sawed and split twenty-five cords of wood for William E. Walling, of Brantford. Up to three years ago he never wore spectacles, and during the summer of 1883, when visiting his son in Detroit, Mr. Lucas read the City Hall clock from in front of the Kirkwood House, across the Campus Martius. He then walked without the assistance of a cane, being 124 years old! This man is probably the oldest person living.

GENTLEMEN.

FEBRUARY 10th, 1886.

Tempted by very low prices, and faultless designs, my purchases in several special lines of Tweeds are more than double what they would have been under ordinary circumstances. Result: moderate profit, but immense sales; money saved to my customers; but increased business for me. So the advantage is mutual. In addition to these, I have just received my full Spring purchases of Scotch Suitings, English Trowserings, French Worsteds, etc., making the exhibition in the Ordered Clothing the most interesting I have ever made. CHAPTER X.

THE MASK THROWN OFF—THE BITTERNESS OF DEFEAT.

"What a long time you have been," she said, looking up as he came in. "Papa did not make any objection, did he?"

"None at all, my dear. I wish he had done."

"These are riddles, indeed," she said gally. "Explain yourself."

"If he had been more unwilling to let you go he would have shown more appreciation of you. I never was so disgusted in my life."

"Is that all? I thought I had prepared you for that. If you remember, I said I should have more congratulations than you."

"Don't speak in that way, as if you were so used to it. I hate to think of it."

"Then don't think of it. Tell me, instead, what you talked about and why you stayed so long."

He told her part only of the conversation; he could not bring himself to mention Alice's name, and he concluded by saying—

"I want you to fix the time of our wedding now, Helen. I shall never rest till I get you away from here all to myself."

Helen appeared to consider. Her conversation with Alice, as well as her own feelings, moved her in favor of a short engagement, so she said, with some hesitation—

"I should like it to be soon, too, Percival. Should you think three months a very short engagement."

"Three!,' he cried, "I had thought of one."

"That is absurd," with a smile, "I could not have only a month's engagement."

"Yes; but you forget we are not beginning now."

"Everybody thinks we are. No, let it be three months."

So three months were settled, and Helen heaved a sigh of relief as she thought that in three months her life at The Thwaite would be endod.

After that they sat and talked of many things; they were not disturbed. Mrs. Lafone was in her own room suffering from bad headache, and neither Mr. Lafone nor Alice came near them.

Helen found the next week or two rather trying. She had to bear criticisms as well as congratulations. People were surprised, and did not seem to think it necessary to conceal their surprise. There was a general feeling that Percival ought to have chosen Alice. Mr. Lafone had been right in saying that people had noticed how much they were together. No one had expected Helen to be married first, at anyrate. Altogether the engagement created some little sensation in the neighborhood.

Mrs. Lafone was glad. True, when it came to the point it was a little annoying that all the pomp and circumstance inseparable from a first wedding in the family should be for Helen, but her marriage would leave Mrs. Lafone and Alice so much freedom and remove such an obstacle from their path that she forgave her stepdaughter the one crumpled leaf on her couch of roses, and, then, as she continually told her friends, it was such a comfort to feel she had done her duty.

Alice stood completely aloof, she seemed to consider that she had neither part nor lot in the engagement. All her passion had blazed itself out on the evening when she and Helen had had their explanation. She was as cold and distant as if she had been a stranger; never spoke to Helen, and scarcely ever addressed Percival. Probably people would have been very much surprised had they been told that she did not speak of the engagement because she dared not, fearing to betray herself by saying too much if she spoke at all. She looked a little paler than usual for a day or two, and then regained her natural colour.

If she said nothing, however, none the less did she watch Moore and Helen, not a word, or gesture, or look passed unnoticed and uncriticised. Every day only confirmed what Helen had said.

"One does not guard against a danger which does not exist."

She was obliged to confess that the sympathy between these two was complete. She had never seen such perfect understanding and affection between a man and a woman—they seemed made for one another. She watched them as if fascinated, with a growing feeling of envy and bitterness at her heart, saying always to herself that all this love might and ought to have been hers.

Percival and Helen were in favour of a quiet wedding, but they presently found they were not to have any voice in the matter. A large and gay company was to be invited to witness the wedding, and to partake of the breakfast afterwards; and among the guests who were asked and accepted was Sir Cuthbert Maitland.

Helen was glad he was coming. She cherished a secret wish that he might again ask Alice to marry him, and that this time she would consent. She felt as if in indulging such a desire she were wishing for the moon, but she did wish it; for, though she did not attach any great importance to what Alice had said in a moment of uncontrollable passion and excitement, she held the opinion that the sooner Alice got married the better.

The time flew by until it was the night before the wedding. There were several people staying in the house, Sir Cuthbert amongst them, and they had been dancing the greater part of the evening. Sir Cuthbert's admiration of Alice had been very marked, but not the most slanderous tongue could have asserted that he met with any encouragement. Alice was rather colder than usual, she scarcely danced at all, and seemed rather unwilling to talk to him.

Helen felt very tired as she went upstairs to her room, yet when she got there all desire to go to bed left her. The quiet and solitude seemed to rest her sufficiently, and she subsided to the thick bearskin rug in front of the fire and let her thoughts wander where they would. The person who came persistently into her mind was Dr. Hazlitt, and she had almost forgotten everything else in recollections of her old friend, when she was surprised to hear a knock at the door, and her astonishment was in nowise lessened when Alice came in in answer to her permission to enter.

Though it was so late, and Helen knew that Alice had gone upstairs before herself, she was still in her white evening dress, even the bracelets she had worn in the evening flashed on her bare white arms. Helen herself was in her dressing-gown, with her feet in small furred bedroom slippers, and her hair hanging in a long loose plait down her back.

"What is it, Alice?" she asked as her sister came slowly and noiselessly forward.

"I wanted to speak to you. I did not suppose you would be in bed yet. I have been all this time making up my mind to come, but I thought that after all it would be only fair to give you due warning."

Helen frowned. Alice's words seemed to point to some communication the reverse of tranquillising, but she only said—

"I was just going to bed. I can't afford to lose my beauty sleep, and I may as well look my best to-morrow."

She did her best to speak cordially, because she was so vexed with Alice for coming.

"Your best will be very good. You are much better looking than you were a year ago. Sometimes when you are with Mr. Moore you look quite beautiful. I suppose it is because you are in love. I can imagine that if all goes well with you and you are happy and prosperous, everyone will see you are beautiful by the time you are five-and-twenty. I do not like you any the better for it, but, thank heaven, I never needed to run down another woman's beauty in order to bring my own into notice."

"Sit down if you have come to talk," said Helen, pushing a chair towards her.

"We have not the least thing in common, either physically or mentally," she went on, not taking the chair, "and for that very reason I have a better chance of success."

"Success in what?" asked Helen, unwillingly.

Alice did not speak for a moment. She hardly seemed to hear Helen's words, then she went on—

"I have come to tell you that I have not forgotten all we said that evening. You were right. Mr. Moore does love you. I have watched you very carefully, and should be a fool to deny it; and I want to know what right you have to so much love when I am left out in the cold?"

"Alice, do be reasonable! Percival and I were engaged a month before you came home. He had not seen you. How can you talk in that way? There is plenty of love for you if you will only take it. Sir Cuthbert wants to marry you as much as Percival wants to marry you."

"Sir Cuthbert? Yes, he is faithful, is he not? He has asked me once to be his wife, and he would have asked me again to-night if I would have let him. He will find an opportunity before he leaves."

"Why will you not marry him? Surely he loves you enough?"

"Because I do not love him. I am perhaps the one woman in society who does believe in love, and I do not see why I should not have my share. You say there was no thought of me when you and Mr. Moore were engaged. Just so. If he had known us both from the beginning I do not think things would have been as they are now."

"You shall not say such things to me," said Helen, rising. "For your own sake say no more. If that is all you came for, please go away. I wish to think of other things to-night."

Alice smiled agair.

"You can afford to despise them now. How long you will continue to do so after your marriage time will show. Brantwood is not a thousand miles from here."

Foreign.

It has been decided to hold a National Exhibition in Berlin in 1888.

It is rumoured in Berlin that Prince Bismarck intends revoking the May laws, which have been an offence to the Catholics of Prussia for the past fifteen years.

The meeting of unemployed workingmen at Birmingham proved to be a riotous assemblage, but the police were on the alert, and, nipping the rioting in the bud, prevented any acts of pillage.

The committee appointed by the Right Hon. Hugh Chilters to enquire into the causes of the recent London riots held its first meeting on Monday morning with closed doors.

A widow named Susan Graves, proprietress of a junk shop in Chelsea, has been detected in selling her two young daughters for twenty-five shillings, giving herself no concern as to what the children were purchased for.

Burmah to be Garrisoned.

LONDON, Feb. 15.—Lord Dufferin has decided to garrison Burmah with 16,000 troops, under command of Gen. Prendergast. The military occupation and martial law will be continued until November, as Dufferin does not think that the country is ripe yet for the establishment of civil law. Dufferin has also decided to send a strong military expedition to the Shan Hills.

BEAMSVILLE TRAGEDY.

John Stone the Guilty Criminal Escapes from His Sick Room

ST. CATHARINES, Feb. 15.—Mr. John Stone of Beamsville, who some weeks ago shot his neice and then himself, escaped from Beamsville Saturday night in company with his wife. Stone was placed under arrest immediately after the shooting, but was considered too ill to be taken to jail. For the first few days of his confinement Constables Rogers and Ruth were with him constantly, but latterly they have been watching him alternately. Constable Ruth was at Stone's house Saturday night and left at 5 o'cloc'k Sunday morning. He says Stone was there when he left. Dr. McLean, who was attending Stone, advised Mr McKeown, County Crown Attorney, early this month that his patient was sufficiently recovered to be removed to jail, but Mr. McKeown replied, advising that the removal should not take place until he had received instructions from the Attorney-General.

One of the fugitive's sons, Norman Stone, made the following statement yesterday before Chief of Police Stewart and Detective Mackenzie of Hamilton, who are in Beamsville making enquiries about the escape: "I am son of John and Mary Stone. My father has been for the last few weeks a prisoner in charge of Constables Rogers and Ruth for attempted murder. He has been too ill to remove. Saturday, the 13th, was Ruth's night. On Saturday afternoon my mother told me she and my father were going away, and that she expected a rig for him about midnight. My brother Walter and I took turns in watching for the rig to come. I had been lying down about an hour and a half when the rig came. A man whose name I do not know came into the room and said, "All is ready," and then my father, who was ready dressed, was helped into the rig and driven away. Walter and I helped him in the rig, which was an ordinary covered hack. Ruth, the constable, was not in the house. He had left before the rig came, instead of remaining to watch. If Ruth says he saw my father in bed this morning at 5 o'clock, he is telling an untruth, for my father was not there but away, as I state. The rig was driven away eastward and I believe came from the east. Ruth saw me to-night at my house. He told me if any persons asked questions not to answer them. When my mother told me yesterday that she was going to take my father away at midnight, I wondered how she could do that when Ruth was present. I asked her about this and she said it was all right, and that she would fix that and send him away.

RIOTING FISHERMEN

Help Themselves to the Contents of Provision Stores.

PASPEBIAC, Que., Feb. 15.—The stores of the firms of S. Robin & Co., and LeBoutillier were this morning raided by a terrible crowd of French Canadians and the doors of the provision stores broken open and about two hundred and sixty barrels of flour taken. Every effort was made by the agents of the rooms, Messrs. Romeril and Hue, the clergy, Revs. T. Blaylock and C. Larivee, and by the Mayor, J. P. Legrand, to bring the crowd to reason, but without avail, as the spirit of madness possessed them. One half barrel of flour and potatoes was offered them, which was more than the small grants of the Governments permitted throughout the country. This was, however, indignantly rejected and the ringleaders led on the two hundred rioters who helped themselves to all they could take. This crowd belong to Paspebiac alone, that is the French portion of it. It is feared that this is but the beginning of the evil. To-morrow or next day at the farthest the number of rioters will be augmented by hundreds from other parts of the country, when worse rioting may be expected. Troops have been telegraphed for by the Mayor, but cannot arrive in time to prevent some serious further trouble. Personal violence has not yet been attempted but other stores outside these firms are threatened. The general relief committee met this afternoon to see what steps can be taken in this emergency.

The Lumber Trade to Boom.

NEW YORK, Feb. 15.—It is stated that the outlook for the lumber trade this spring is decidedly bright. The stock of all kinds of lumber and timber on the market is smaller than it has been for some years, and in view of good demand and brisk building outlook there is every prospect of an active season ahead.

Credit Valley Affairs.

TORONTO, Feb. 16.—The Board of Municipal Directors of the Credit Valley Railway met at the Rossin House yesterday afternoon, Thomas Cowan, of Galt, presided and F. Ball, of Woodstock, acted as Secretary. Messrs. Cowan, Ball, Ald. Shaw, of Toronto, and Featherstone, of Peel, were elected members of the Amalgamated Board. After the transaction of considerable business the meeting adjourned. The members elected to the Amalgamated Board afterwards interviewed Mr. VanHorne relative to the transport of milk to Toronto, rates on live stock, etc. Mr. Cowan also discussed with Mr. VanHorne certain agreements between his municipality and the C. V. R., and urged the extension from east and west to Galt of Saturday excursion rates. The members of the deputation were well pleased with their reception.

The Last Year, 1885.

After the above year is ended there need be no person suffering from rheumatism, neuralgia, toothache, headache lumbago, or any acute pain, if they only purchase a bottle of Fluid Lightning, as it cures instantly. Pain cannot stay where it is used. The name is Fluid Lightning. Sold by Thomas S. Petrie, Druggist.

Beverly Correspondence.

Our old esteemed friend, Mr. Smith, of Rockton, died on Thursday, Feb. 11th, 1886, at his residence. He will be laid in the silent grave, on Monday, Feb. 15th, at Rockton. He was secretary of the Union Sabbath School for many years, and took a great interest in the welfare of the young in this place. He is an uncle to Dr. McGuire, of Guelph. His end was peace, and he waited for Christ to come and take him away. His suffering was great with a diseased foot and leg for nearly four months. He was fully reconciled to the Divine will. He will be much missed in the family, Sabbath School, and Church, and in the neighborhood.

On Saturday, January 9th, at his residence, Lenagh, Robert Bell, Presbyterian Elder in the old Presbyterian Church, Randalstown, Co. Antrim, Ireland, aged 53 years. He died resting on the Rock of Ages.

MANHOOD.

How Lost, How Restored!

We have recently published a new edition of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay on the radical and permanent cure (without medicine) of Nervous Debility, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, etc., resulting from excesses.

Price, in a sealed envelope, only 6 cents, or two postage stamps.

The celebrated author, in this admirable Essay, clearly demonstrates, from thirty years' successful practise, that alarming consequences may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicines or the use of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.

This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land

(4) Or tenant of real property under ease at a rental of
$2 per month.
$6 per quarter.
$12 per half year.
$20 per year.

Provided that the tenant has been in possession for one year before 1st January 1886, and shall have paid one year's rent before final revision.

If the rent is yearly it will be sufficient if $20 of last year's rent shall have been paid before final revision.

Change of tenancy without intermission will not destroy the vote if aggregate of tenancies would give vote.

The assessor should be instructed to state in the assessment roll the rent payable by each person assessed as tenant. If, however, this is not done, each tenant is prima facie entitled to be registered as a voter if the property is assessed at the following values:—

In cities at $300.
In towns at $200.
In counties at $150.

In counties outside of villages the rent may be payable either in money or in money's worth.

(5) Or a bona fide occupant for one year before 1st January, 1886, and enjoying the revenues and profits for his own or his wife's use of real property of the following values:

In cities, $300.
In towns, $200.
In counties, $150.

The occupancy may be under license of occupation from the crown or from any person or corporation.

(6) Or by income without any other qualification.

A person may be registered as an income voter, if he derives an income from his earnings, trade or profession, or from some investment in Canada of $300 a year, for one year before 1st January, 1886.

In counties the earnings may be either in money or money's worth.

(7) Sons of owners of real property are qualified—

(b) When the father is dead, and would, if living, be qualified, residence with the mother will suffice, and as many sons as the property will qualify may be registered, with preference to the eldest and elder sons, as in the last case.

Occasional absence from home of a son—not more than six months in the year—will not disqualify, and all time spent at school or college in Canada will be counted as if spent at home.

Son of an owner includes grandson, step-son and son-in-law, and all these may be registered as voters on the property if of sufficient value. The provision as to sons of owners applies to the counties as well as towns and cities in cases other than those of farmers' sons.

(8) Farmers' sons—The same provisions substantially apply to farmers' sons, as stated in the last paragraph in respect of sons of owners in cities and towns.

A farm is to be not less than 20 acres of land.

(9) Fishermen and owners of real property and boats, nets, fishing gear and tackle of aggregate value of $150.

Income voters register where they reside at time of registration—all others where property is situate. If in more than one polling division in the same electoral district the voter may register in either.

All names entered in the last revised voters' lists under the old law, will be entered in the new lists by the revising barrister.

Every person not on the assessment roll desiring to have his name on the list must at once send to the revising barrister an application in writing to be put on the list, giving his name, residence and the property or other qualification in respect of which he applies to be put on.

This application must be accompanied by a declaration which is to be made and signed before a commissioner for taking affidavits, a notary or justice of the peace, showing the grounds of the applicants claim to be put on the list.

Substantially the voters are those who can qualify as owners, tenants, occupants, income voters, sons of owners and farmers' sons.

See that the application shows as correctly and fully as possible the qualification.

Make the declaration before a commissioner, notary or justice of the peace. It is convenient to have it attached to the application on the same sheet.

In case of an absent person, let some one else having a knowledge of the qualification make the application and declaration.

When one cannot find a justice or other person before whom the declaration can be taken let the application alone be sent in, with an explanation of the reason, and it would be well in such case to have the truth of the facts in the application certified on the back of it by one, or if possible, two other persons.

The application and declaration must be sent at once to the Revising barrister of the district.

URGENCY OF THE MATTER.

No name not on the last voters' list or assessment roll will be placed on the preliminary voters' list, unless on application and declaration as above.

In case of any difficulty or doubt, application should be made at once for advice to some of the Liberal friends in the neighborhood.

CUSTOMS REGULATIONS.—Mr. C. S. Mr. David Kennedy, skip of one of the rinks being sick, some alterations had to be made in the players, but no doubt they will give a good account of themselves. The following are the rinks:

THE "STOLEN" COW.—A few days ago A. Bekoffski, alias Smith, who rents a piece of ground from Sheriff Gow, stated to a reporter that he had a cow and calf stolen from his stable. Nothing more transpired about the matter until this morning, when the animals were offered for sale on the market by the bailiff, for non-payment of rent. Bekoffski and his son John followed the animals to the market, where they were to be sold. The son, it is said, took a hold of the cow by the horns, while the old man severed the rope in the hands of the man in charge with a slash of a razor which he carried in his pocket, at the same time remarking "you stheal mine cow by night, I stheal mine cow by day, and I'se been looking for it for a long time." The two then drove the cow away. The father and son will likely have to appear before the Police Magistrate. The scene was witnessed with amusement on the market.

CLYDESDALE HORSES.—Mr. John Duff, Everton, has won for himself in this section a name for bringing first-class Clydesdale horses from Scotland, and improving the breeds of heavy draughts. To-morrow he leaves for New York to take passage by a Cunard steamer for Scotland, on Saturday, to purchase "fresh blood." It is Mr. Duff's intention to be back in time for the season, when he will no doubt bring some first-class horses with him.

Races at the Rink.

To the Editor of the MERCURY:

SIR,—Allow me space in your valuable paper to state a few facts regarding the reason I did not skate in the race last night, which was between Joe and Mat Bunyan, supposed to be for the Stirton medal, which was not the case. In the first place I received a challange from Joseph Bunyan to skate for the said medal on the 16th, which challenge I did not accept on account of his accusing me of unfairness, and do not intend to until he withdraws the accusation. Now the reason I did not compete for the medal was this: In the first place I did not receive notice until Monday, the 15th, and as there is nothing gained from racing for it, I refused to do so with such short notice, but as Mr. Maddock advertised a race I promised him to skate 2 miles with Joe Bunyan without the medal, which he was perfectly well satisfied with until a few minutes before the race when he came to me and stated that he must have a medal race. I refused him and he got the two Bunyans to go around 34 laps representing the medal race.

Yours truly,
JOSEPH BRANDON.

An Excellent Entertainment.

Prof. Vallance, F. S. Sc., Master of Elocution, Glasgow University, gave an evening of readings and recitations in the basement of Chalmers' Church last (Wednesday) evening. The entertainment was held under the auspices of the Young People's Literary Associations of Knox and Chalmers' Churches, and the large audience which the occasion brought together must have proved highly gratifying to these organizations. The distinguished elocutionist was introduced by Prof. Brown, who acted as chairman.

For upwards of two hours thereafter Prof. Vallance held the undivided attention of his hearers. As the reader ascended the platform the audience were at once struck with his commanding appearance, and the first words which fell from his lips proved him to be the possessor of a powerful voice, which the recital of Macaulay's well known poem, "Horatius defending the bridge," gave him ample scope for displaying. Without referring to each selection separately, it may be said that the programme afforded a good opportunity for an exhibition of versatile eloquutionary powers, and it would be difficult indeed to judge whether the reader excelled in rendering the pathetic, the humorous or the tragic. In all respects he showed an extraordinary dramatic power, facial expression, gesture, voice, accent and dialect being varied to perfection. So pleasing did the entertainment prove that at the close of the programme Prof. Vallance found so many requests had been made for additions that it would have taken him all night to respond to them, but he very good naturedly gave an extra four, much to the delight of all present. Before the audience dispersed Dr. Wardrope moved a vote of thanks to the Reader who in turn moved one to the Chairman. Prof. Vallance has been one week out from Scotland, is making a few weeks tour through the country, and if he can be induced to return to Guelph will undoubtedly be greeted with another large and appreciative audience.

Mr. Wm. Saunders, of London, President of the Fruit Growers' Association of Ontario, has been appointed to accompany the collection of fruit which will represent Canada at the Colonial and Indian Exhibition.

On Wednesday last nine of the mounted police mutineers at Edmonton were sentenced to terms of imprisonment, ranging from three months to one year, with a fine of a month's pay in each case. Ten more are yet to be tried.

A Riel meeting was held at Coteau station on the Grand Trunk Railway on Tuesday, over 1,000 persons being present. Speeches were delivered by Hon. Mr. Mercier, Hon. Mr. Beaulieu, Hon. Mr. Laflamme, Mr. Bergeron, M. P., and others.

Mr. D. J. Beaton, who acted as agent for the Hudson Bay Railway company on board the Alert during its expedition last summer, gives it as his opinion that with powerful and strongly built steamers the navigation of Hudson strait is possible all the year round.

Counterfeiters Nabbed.

ST. CATHARINES, Feb. 15.—This afternoon information was brought to Chief of Police Cummings that a counterfeiting den was in successful operation in an upper room in the Riordon Block, East St. Paul street, in this city. A raid on the place was made, and a quantity of American fifty and twenty-five cent pieces secured, besides dies and other implements used in the manufacture of the "queer." They are said to be cleverly made, and almost defy identification. A young man named John Hilton, whose father runs a farm near this city, was found in possession of the premises, and was arrested. Half an hour after, another member of the gang, Wm. Carroll, a bookkeeper, well educated, who resides in Thorold, was arrested at the mint, and locked up. There are supposed to be other members of the gang, and the police are very reticent. David R. Thomas, a mechanical engineer and inventor, formerly partner with Hilton in a mechanical shop here, is said to have "skipped out" on learning of the arrest of Hilton. Considerable spurious money is in circulation here lately, but the scheme has evidently been nipped in the bud.

ONTARIO LEGISLATURE.

Toronto, Feb. 15.

Bills were read a first time as follows: Mr. Monk, to extend the Land Title act, 1885; Mr. Clancy, to amend the act to impose a tax on dogs for the protection of sheep; Mr. Balfour, to amend the franchise and representation act, 1885. In answer to Mr. Drury, the Attorney-General said it was not the Government's intention to appoint a commission to enquire into the question of amending the municipal act so as to reduce the membership of County Councils. He was in favor of diminishing the number and recommended the member for East Simcoe to move for the re-appointment of his committee which dealt with the matter two sessions ago.

Mr. McIntyre got an order for a return showing the original expenditure made in the purchase of the grounds and erection of the buildings known as Government House; all expenditure since made in repairs and maintenance, or otherwise on account of the same, and of any estimate made, or to be made before such return is made, of the value of the said property; also the extent or area of said property, and of all correspondence between the Governments of Ontario and Canada, or any member of the same respectively, relating to the necessity for or maintenance of Government House. In speaking on the matter, both Mr. Fraser and Mr. Meredith disapproved of any movement to abolish the office of Lieutenant-Governor. The Opposition would, however, like to see the fence round Government House removed.

The estimates will be brought down Wednesday, and the budget may be expected Thursday.

TORONTO, Feb. 16.

The House went into committee on the Government bill to amend the law respecting compensation to persons killed by accident and in duels. The amendment provides that in the case where the executor or administrator of deceased fails to bring action within six months, or if no executor or administrator has been named, action may be brought to recover compensation by and in the name of deceased's wife, children or other persons who have suffered by his loss.

Mr. Gibson (Hamilton) moved the second reading of his bill to amend the act respecting master and servant. The eighth clause of this act legalizes contracts made by Ontario employers of labour with parties living outside the Province. Mr. Gibson's amendment was to repeal this clause, on the ground that it encouraged the importation of foreign and pauper labour, and was against the best interests of home workmen. While other interests were protected, labour was left unprotected—in fact its importation was rather encouraged.

The discussion that ensued was of a non-partizan character.

Mr. Mowat had no objection to a second reading.

In closing the debate, Mr. Gibson said his only object in repealing the clause was to put a stop to importation of contract labour. It was not a scheme of his own, but the wish of the many workmen whom he had the honour to represent. The bill was read a second time and referred to a special committee.

Mr. Harcourt obtained an order for a return showing how many persons have, up to the end of 1885, applied under the Land Titles Act of 1885 to the Master of Titles to be registered under the said act, or to have any nominee registered in his stead, and showing also the cost of each such application.

Mr. Laidlaw has given notice of a bill to amend the Consolidated Municipal Act of 1883

UNITED WORKMEN.

Annual Meeting of the Grand Executive Committee.

ST. CATHARINES, Feb. 16.—The Executive Committee of the Grand Lodge of Ancient Order of the United Workmen met at the Welland House here at 2 p. m. yesterday. Among those present were J. C. Walker, Grand Watchman, Hugh Macdonald, District Master, and E. W. McGuire, M. D.

The following extracts from the Grand Officer's reports will be of general interest:—

GRAND MASTER WORKMAN'S REPORT.—Although the year has been one of intense depression, our growth has been simply marvellous. The number of the last Lodge organized in this year is 256, an increase of 25. The total number of beneficiary certificates issued at the 31st of December, 1884, was 10,684. On the 31st of December, 1885, the total issued was 12,507, making an increase of membership of 1,823, or double that of the previous year. This is cause for exultation. The assessments for deaths during the past year being only 13 is also gratifying, and an indication of the great care and caution observed by the Medical Department of our Order all along the line.

GRAND RECORDER'S REPORT.—The total cash received on Beneficiary Fund is $121,028; this, with balance on hand Jan. 1st, 1885, $1,240.68, makes a total of $122,268.68, out of which we have paid $116,181.81, leaving a balance of $6,068.87 in the Imperial Bank to the credit of the Grand Receiver.

The total cash received on General Fund is $13,097.97; this, with balance on hand Jan. 1st, 1885, $6,585.49, makes a total of $19,683.46, out of which there has been paid (as per List of Warrants Exhibit F.), $10,783.18, leaving a balance of $8,900.28 in the Imperial Bank to the credit of the Grand Receiver.

The total cash collected during the year on Relief Call No. 5 and remitted to the Supreme Lodge is $3,945.50.

During the year we have had 58 deaths, and the losses have been paid promptly, except in cases where beneficiary was payable to wife and children, or as directed by will where letters of guardianship and probate of will were required, there was some little delay.

Since we became a separate jurisdiction, June 30, 1880, we have had 223 deaths, an average of 41½ per annum, which have been provided for with 73 assessments, costing each member $13.28 per annum to carry the two thousand dollars beneficiary.

WEDNESDAY EVE'G, FEB. 17, 1886.

South Wellington Voters' List.

The Revising Officer's preliminary list of voters in South Wellington under the provisions of the Dominion Franchise Act has been printed and is now in the hands of Judge Drew, the Revising Officer. This list is also in the hands of the different Committees, and every man eligible to vote should satisfy himself whether or not his name is on this list. If it is not, and if he is a qualified voter under the provisions of the Act, then he should at once take the necessary steps to see that he is put on the list of names to be added to the Revising Officer's list, just printed. We understand that Judge Drew has appointed his first court to be held in Guelph, on Thursday, the 25th March, at which court all applications for additions to the voters' list should be made. These applications, according to the Act, have to be handed into the Revising Officer a full week before the 25th, the day on which he holds his court. The 17th of March, therefore, is the last day on which applications for names to be added to the voters' list can be made to the Revising Officer. The Reformers in Guelph and throughout the Riding should bear this in mind and see that all the necessary forms of application and affidavit are made out, signed and sent in to the Revising Officer by that date. If they fail to do so new names cannot be added to the list at the sitting of the court on the 25th, and it may cause some trouble if they have to be added at a later period. Our friends should, therefore, see that all the necessary work for the adding of these new names is attended to immediately, because it will simplify and expedite the whole business if this is done at the first court held by the Revising Officer on the 25th of next month.

THE liquor men in Toronto are much excited over the proposition to reduce the number of licenses in that city, and committees have been appointed to look after the interests of the trade at a future Council meeting.

THE Buffalo Courier declares that the report of the Foreign Relations Committee of the United States Senate against a fishery commission settles the matter as far as the present session of Congress is concerned. If this is really so the best Americans will be sorry.

IT has been ascertained that the Welland Canal contracts have been awarded as follows:—C. F. Dunbar, Buffalo, four sections; James Isbester, Ottawa, three sections; F. B. McNamee, Montreal, and John Conlan, Thorold, one section; and R. T. Sutton, Toronto, one section. Aggregate prices for the whole eleven sections, about $400,000.

MR. BALFOUR has introduced a Bill to amend the Franchise Act, which will no doubt receive the hearty assent of the House. He proposes to enact that the time spent by the sons of landholders attending college, or otherwise pursuing their studies, and the time spent by the sons of sailors and fishermen while absent from home in the pursuit of their several callings, shall be counted to them as time spent at home.

THE Government clearly hopes to head off an adverse vote in Parliament in the coming session, by extending clemency in advance to the imprisoned Metis. Six Metis have already been set at liberty, and it is understood that the work of pardoning others sentenced for participation in the late Northwest rebellion, will be continued, until the doors of the penitentiary at Stony Mountain have been opened to the whole of those convicted. It is further rumored that pardons for Poundmaker and the other Indian chiefs are being considered in the Cabinet.

LIEUTENANT-GERERAL LUARD, lately commanding the Canadian militia, has been awarded a distinguished service pension of $ 500 a year. General Luard served in the Crimea, and participated in the siege of Sebastapol. He was the first man on the walls of Canton during the last war between Britain and China. This is the same officer who was at the head of the volunteers for some time in Canada, and because he was too earnest in the discharge of his duty was forced to resign because the Government gave him the cold shoulder.

A CONVENTION of the Liberals of New Brunswick is to be held at St. John on Thursday first. New Brunswick has suffered great grievances under Tory rule in the Dominion, and in addition to having had its rights infringed upon by the autocrats at Ottawa has been obliged to submit to wrongs not shared in by the other Provinces. After hoping against hope they are now compelled to face the fact that the Federal authorities have failed to negotiate a Fishery Treaty, and this has proved a bitter disappointment to the whole people of the Province by the sea. The feeling is widespread and general that the continuation of Tory rule at Ottawa means ruin. Hitherto the Liberals of the Province have been without organization, and thus, though forming a majority of the population, have not exerted so great a power as they might have done by combined action. Now that this step is about to be taken, undoubtedly the most beneficial results will follow.

THE Government intend to superannuate Dr. Tache, Deputy Minister of Agriculture, and then appoint him a Senator. A well known Tory wirepuller left for Winnipeg on Monday night, probably to ascertain if this is acceptable to his brother Archbishop Tache. It is also hinted that legislation will be introduced at the coming session creating a new office of Lieut.-Governor of Saskatchewan, in order to provide a place for Mr. Royal, M. P.

SIR JOHN MACDONALD is endeavoring to persuade his French supporters that his Toronto organ is acting contrary to instructions in raising a "No Popery" cry, and that it is Dalton McCarthy who is to blame. It has been known for some time that McCarthy and his backers have been anxious to depose Sir John from the leadership and now they think their opportunity has come. They propose to undertake an anti-Catholic crusade, and if Sir John does not join in he will be deposed.

THE Hon. A. M. Ross, Provincial Treasurer, has introduced a bill in the Legislature to provide for the better auditing of the Public Accounts of the Province. This bill proposes the appointment of a Treasury Board composed of three members of the Executive Council and an Auditor-General. It shall be the duty of the latter and that of the Assistant Treasurer to examine and cancel debentures, or other Provincial securities representing any debt of the Province and which have been redeemed. The Auditor-General shall examine, check, and audit all accounts of receipts and expenditure of public moneys, whether appertaining to the Province, or received and expended by the Province on account of or in trust for any other party or parties. He shall see that no cheque issues for the payment of any public money, for which there is no direct legislative appropriation, or in excess of any portion of such appropriation the expenditure of which has been authorized by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, and he shall report to the Lieutenant-Governor in Council through the Treasurer any case in which a department or sub-accountant has expended money out of the proceeds of any accountable warrant for any purpose for which there is no sufficient authority, or beyond the amount for which there is such authority. Besides the appropriation accounts of the grants of the Legislature, the Auditor-General shall examine and audit, if required to do so by the Treasurer, and in accordance with any regulations that may be prescribed for his guidance in that behalf by the Treasury Board, the following accounts, viz.: The accounts of all receipts of revenues forming the Consolidated Revenue Fund of the Province; the accounts current with the several banks and financial agents of the Province; the accounts relating to the issue or redemption of loans, and any other public accounts which, though not relating directly to the receipts or expenditure of the Province, the Treasury Board may direct. He shall have full power and authority to examine any person on oath or affirmation on any matter pertinent to any account submitted to him for audit and such oath or affirmation may be administered by him to any person whom he may desire to examine.

The Foes of a Household

CHAPTER XI.

CLEARING THE FIELD FOR ACTION.

The day after the wedding, life felt very flat at The Thwaite. Though Helen was not a favourite daughter, whose withdrawal from the family would leave a blank which could could never be filled up, she was missed. She had always made her presence felt in the house, and latterly she had been the person of most importance in the family. When all the weeks of excitement and preparation had found their crowning point in the wedding day, that over, it was impossible not to feel rather lost. Fortunately, some of the wedding guests were prolonging their stay a few days beyond the event for which they had come to The Thwaite, and occupation was found in entertaining them. One person at anyrate was glad of this occupation. Alice had borne herself all through the trying hours of the wedding day with marvelous composure and self-control. She had been a little paler and her eyes a little brighter than usual, perhaps, but she had filled her post of chief bridesmaid with perfect grace and dignity. She had stood in her white dress beside Helen, and had held her gloves and bouquet without in the least betraying that her feelings on the subject of the wedding were in any way different from those with which it was supposed to inspire every one else. She had played her part very well. Helen, with the recollection of the previous night still in her mind, had been rather surprised to see how well.

But when it was over, after the bride and bridegroom had gone away, and shortly before dinner, those who were left behind had been allowed to go to their room and enjoy a little rest, the reaction came, and her breakdown was all the more complete in proportion to the perfect self-control she had displayed all day.

She had dismissed her maid. With her own hands she had taken off her white silk gown, and but for the fact that she had to wear it again in the evening, when it must appear free from crease or crumple would have trampled it under foot in her rage and disappointment. Her bouquet—Percival's gift—had been visited with the fate which fear of comment had prevented from falling on her dress. She had pulled it in two, torn and rubbed the flowers to pieces and ended by tossing the whole into the fire. She was one of those who, when they are angry, must have an object upon which to vent their wrath. Had the flowers not been at hand, she would probably have torn her lace pocket handkerchief to shreds, and have felt better for it. The expression on her face as she despatched the unoffending flowers was not pleasant.

But in time her rage exhausted itself, and was followed by a long and bitter fit of weeping. Tears of disappointment, humiliation, loneliness, weariness and weakness were all united as they chased one another down her cheeks, and for the time being she felt the most miserable and abandoned of women. But this mood also passed. She remembered that it was not yet night, when she could indulge her feelings for an unlimited time. She would soon have to go down stairs to dinner, and play her part. She dried her eyes, spent some time in removing all traces of tears from her cheeks, and rang for her maid. By the time she was ready to go down stairs she was quite herself again, the only sign of her trouble being a slight heaviness of her eyes which was easily explained away as the result of a little headache.

Among the guests who stayed on was Sir Cuthbert Maitland—that is, he stayed on with his friend, who lived at a little distance from The Thwaite. He spent the whole of the wedding day at the Lafone's, and on the following day called in the morning. Alice smiled as she saw him come into the room where she sat. She knew quite well why he had come. It was not a pleasant smile. In total ignorance of her feelings, he had chosen his time badly. She was not one of those women whose hearts are to be caught in the rebound. She had no idea of revenging herself by marriage; that would be no revenge at all. Percival would care nothing for it, and it would no doubt set Helen's mind at ease, which was not at all what she desired. No, she was not going to marry Sir Cuthbert; and as she had suffered and was suffering, so he might suffer too. It would do him no harm, rather be a useful lesson to him, from which he might draw profit for the future. So when Sir Cuthbert came into the drawing-room, where she sat with the entertainment of half a dozen commonplace people upon her hands, she smiled.

Harriston Correspondence.

DOING WELL.—J. F. Wilson's many friends are glad to know, that notwithstanding the very serious injuries he received some weeks since, he is improving as rapidly as could be expected. It will, however, be some weeks yet before he will be able to leave his bed.

SLEIGHING.—Sufficient snow fell on Sunday last to make fair sleighing again, which was much needed as the thaw last week had made the roads very bad.

THE SENTENCE.—Considerable speculation is being indulged in by our citizens as to the nature and extent of the punishment that will be inflicted upon James Brown, now awaiting sentence for his wholesale thieving exploits in Palmerston. It is rumoured that efforts are being made by some parties to have the punishment as light as possible. This may not be correct as it is difficult to conceive on what grounds such an appeal could be made.

FARMERS' INSTITUTE.—A meeting is to be held in the Town Hall here this afternoon and evening, the object being, we believe, to form a Farmers' Institute. Prof. Brown, of the Experimental Farm, J. McMullen, M.P., and others will deliver addresses on matters particularly interesting to farmers. Papers of importance will be read and discussed. It is to be hoped the farmers may turn out in large numbers as such meetings are of great value, especially to the farming community.

CHURCH ANNIVERSARY.—The annual services and social in connection with Guthrie Church congregation here took place on Sunday and Monday last. Rev. J. A. R. Dickson, of Galt, preached on Sabbath morning and evening to large congregations. After tea was served on Monday evening a pleasant hour or two was spent, the addresses being good and the singing excellent. Rev. Mr. McMullen, of Fergus, was present on Monday evening. The proceeds in all amounted to about $200.

NEW COUNTIES.—The craze for the formation of new counties appears to be spreading in this section. For the past thirty or forty years the people of Mount Forest have been persistently trying to make the different Governments, as well as the residents in the townships surrounding them, believe that the prosperity of Western Ontario would be largely increased if a new county was formed with Mount Forest as the county town. And now Palmerston and Listowel are on the war path struggling hard to convince the Government and people that their towns are located just in the exact spot where county towns are required, and that farmers will save an immense amount of county taxation if they help them to carry their schemes to a successful termination. That the Counties of Perth, Huron, Bruce, Wellington and Grey, are too large, and that considerable inconvenience is caused in consequence, will not be very strongly denied by many living in the counties mentioned. But it is just as strongly felt that the re-arrangement and formation of new counties is a matter of too much importance, is too large a question, to be settled piece-meal by private legislation to suit aspiring towns. When the Government understand that the people in the counties are prepared for, and desire a re-arrangement, they will then doubtless take the matter in hand and legislate in the interest of the people immediately concerned and the Province as well. In the meantime the Government will, in all probability, be continually annoyed by a few Mount Forest and Listowel worthies.

FUN AHEAD.—There is a prospect of an interesting lawsuit taking place here soon. From the positions held by the parties concerned, as well as the peculiarities of the case, fun is expected.

Harriston, Feb. 16, 1886.

Elora Correspondence.

CHANGED.—It is understood that Mr. W. P. McMicking has resigned his position as Clerk of the sixth Division Court, County Wellington, and that it has been offered to Mr. Hugh Hamilton, an old resident here, who will make a very efficient officer.

RECOVERING.—Mr. Florence Smith, of this village, was dangerously ill during the past week, but is now somewhat better, and there are prospects of his early recovery.

LEAVING FOR HOME.—Rev. Father Lillies, pastor of St. Mary's Church here, who has been in poor health for a long time, has been advised by his physicians to try the effect of a change of air, and starts for New York, on his way to Ireland, to-day. It is to be hoped that the Rev. gentleman may derive benefit from the voyage and the breathing of his native air.

CONCERT.—The Committee of the Mechanics' Institute, who gave an excellent concert a short time ago, which in consequence of the inclemency of the weather was not so largely attended as it deserved to be, will repeat their performance on the 25th inst. with additions and variations, substituting music and readings for the addresses delivered on the previous occasions.

LECTURE AND SOIREE.—The lecture and soiree in Chalmers' Church, on Friday evening next, previously announced in these columns, is attracting considerable attention, and will doubtless prove a great success.

DEATH OF A. L. ARGO.—The late Adam Lind Argo was almost as well known in Elora as in Fergus, and the somewhat unexpected announcement of his death called for many expressions of deep regret from his numerous friends here. He was in every sense of the word a man of public spirit and a true friend, and will be long missed by those with whom he was associated in the various enterprises in which he took an active interest. The surviving members of his family have the sympathy of the entire community.

LECTURE.—The Rev. Hugh Rose, pastor of Knox Church, Elora, delivered a lecture in the basement of the church last Thursday evening, the subject being, "The Rise and Development of Conservatism and Liberalism in England." The lecturer took his audience back to the early Saxon times, and tracing the history of the people down to our own times graphically described the gradual growth and development of intelligence in the masses, of their slow but sure emancipation from serfdom, until, after many a hard fought battle, the people's rights were recognized and respected, and Britain's sons were freemen, enjoying the priceless privilege of a Representative Government and its attendant blessings. Hearty applause greeted Mr. Rose at the close of the eloquent address, and votes of thanks were tendered the speaker, and His Honor Judge Drew, for the able and efficient manner in which he filled the position of chairman of the meeting. I might add that the attendance was large, the various churches in our village being well represented.

Next Sunday evening, Rev. Mr. Rose will deliver another lecture on the Historic Proofs of Bible History.

FIRE.—Shortly after four o'clock yesterday morning our villagers were rudely awakened from their slumbers by the snorting of the C. P. R. engine and the ringing of the fire bell. The whole village was illuminated and it was soon discovered that the C. P. R. passenger coach and baggage car standing near the station were on fire. With praiseworthy presence of mind, the train hands lost no time in coupling the engine to the blazing cars and hauled them some distance up the track thus placing the adjacent buildings out of danger. Then, after repeated attempts, they succeeded in detaching the coach from the baggage car and with a plentiful supply of water from the tender saved the latter car from further damage. By this time the flames had consumed the greater part of the wood work of the coach, and it was considered safe to run it back near enough for water to be thrown upon it from the Company's tank. Our little fire engine was on hand, and manned by willing hands, the fire was soon extinguished. Fortunately the night was calm and the roofs of buildings damp with the recent rain, otherwise there might have been a much heavier loss.

JAMES KENNEDY, Clerk.

The Rockwood Carnival.

To the Editor of the MERCURY.

SIR,—I was much pleased with, and a little perplexed by, the correspondence in your last week's issue anent our late carnival here, much pleased because the writer thereof was kind enough to be himself pleased with, and to compliment anybody connected with the carnival. I was much pleased also, or amused, which is much the same in this case, with the writer's grammar; and perplexed, I may add. Perhaps the clever "Cor." can relieve my perplexity. I am sure he can, unless he is one of the "frantics" frantically urged on by the hundreds of voices who were not there, "owing no doubt to the severity of the weather." Possibly the "frantics," like the immortal orator Puff, had each "two" (or more) "tones to his voice." The one went up, and the other down, in which case each shouter counted two or many, making "hundreds of voices" all as easy and certain as in a political mass meeting. I agree with your cor. (mind—Mr. Editor don't let your P. D. set that cor. up cur or he will be justly offended.) I say I agree with him, that "Madam" (Query—is she married)? Britannia and the Czar were successes, brilliant successes; and would do credit to any city rink. Everybody admired them, the "dishonest" judges admired them, and therefore awarded them the first prize. I can understand how the Czar could behave fraternally, or in plain Anglo-Saxon, brotherly towards Miss Brittannia. But how without some transposition of sexes she could fraternize with, or in other words, do the brotherly, towards the Czar perplexes me. Perhaps it was a bit of Chinese jugglery that I missed seeing. Yes, the Stars and Stripes were there, and behaved not "saucily," nor defiantly, nor triumphantly, but in a becoming manner "floated" friendly, familiar and free, as they should, to signify that annexation was not necessary to national amity, and did not suggest the likelihood of annexation ever becoming a "fixed fact." I am curious enough to inquire how a historical fact can be a fixture, say like a door post, so to speak. I can understand how the symbol of a historical fact or series of facts can be nailed to the mast, or even to the wall, and so, for the occasion, be a fixture. I concur, I must concur there is no help for me, the thing is so clear that, frankly, "Lee was the gem of the evening." But some gems are the natural products of the mountain or mine, are solid rare and high priced, but that was the old way of getting gems, the new way is by manufacture. The one in question was obtained in the new way, made mostly of tin, and the best the tinshop could produce its chef d'œuvre. Besides, Mr. Editor, there is much in this matter of gems as to "position." Position is an important, very important, thing to a gem, to everything. There is the wind or the storm or shady side, also, the sheltered, the summer, or the Lee side. This distinction may apply to an interested critic or envious, censorious correspondent. A true "gem" will shine almost anywhere, but such as are made of paste or tin, only on the sunny or Lee side. Your Rockwood cor. says he 'respectfully submits to the managers," &c. This statement gladdens my heart. I rejoice to see a man respectful and even submissive to his betters. It shows proper training, or good instincts, or both. It shows, too, appreciation, and appreciation is a talent. This appreciation is Rockwood talent. It shines on all Rockwood, and am not I a Rockwooder and walk, all the more proudly for my share of the glory. Your correspondent wants "honest" judges. So do I; so do all; nem. con. judges who will not change, or corrupt, the competition into something else, into a "farce." I am glad he did not say into a "tragedy," for now I know that "dishonest" as were the judges they were not wicked enough to bring about a tragedy. If they were that wicked cor. would have said so. He is too honest to keep back such an important truth. But we must have honest judges in future, at all hazards. One incorruptible judge, at least, who will see to it that not only Frankie but all the family will be "gems."

Note.—There were but four prizes offered for costumes—children were not included. Frankie Lee is a child. Among the competitors, it is just to say, were the good, the better, the excellent, and the best.

Yours, etc.,
SPECTATOR.

MANHOOD.

How Lost, How Restored!

We have recently published a new edition of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay on the radical and permanent cure (without medicine) of Nervous Debility, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, etc., resulting from excesses.

Price, in a sealed envelope, only 6 cents, or two postage stamps.

The celebrated author, in this admirable Essay, clearly demonstrates, from thirty years' successful practice, that alarming consequences may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicines or the use of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.

This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land

THE FRANCHISE ACT.

The Qualifications of Voters—The Process of Registration Explained.

The time having arrived for the preparation of the voters' lists under the new Dominion Franchise Act, an appeal is made to the Liberals of Wellington to have their names enrolled as voters without delay. To assist in so doing a short summary of the qualification of voters and of the process for securing registration is given.

QUALIFICATION.

To entitle a person to be put on the list he must be—

(1) 21 years of age.

(2) A British subject by birth or naturalization.

(3) Owner of real property of value:
In a city, $300.
In a town, $200.
In a county, $150.

(4) Or tenant of real property under ease at a rental of
$2 per month.
$6 per quarter.
$12 per half year.
$20 per year.

Provided that the tenant has been in possession for one year before 1st January 1886, and shall have paid one year's rent before final revision.

If the rent is yearly it will be sufficient if $20 of last year's rent shall have been paid before final revision.

Change of tenancy without intermission will not destroy the vote if aggregate of tenancies would give vote.

The assessor should be instructed to state in the assessment roll the rent payable by each person assessed as tenant. If, however, this is not done, each tenant is prima facie entitled to be registered as a voter if the property is assessed at the following values:—
In cities at $300.
In towns at $200.
In counties at $150.
In counties outside of villages the rent may be payable either in money or in money's worth.

(5) Or a bona fide occupant for one year before 1st January, 1886, and enjoying the revenues and profits for his own or his wife's use of real property of the following values:
In cities, $300.
In towns, $200.
In counties, $150.

The occupancy may be under license of occupation from the crown or from any person or corporation.

(6) Or by income without any other qualification.

A person may be registered as an income voter, if he derives an income from his earnings, trade or profession, or from some investment in Canada of $300 a year, for one year before 1st January, 1886.

In counties the earnings may be either in money or money's worth.

(7) Sons of owners of real property are qualified—

(b) When the father is dead, and would, if living, be qualified, residence with the mother will suffice, and as many sons as the property will qualify may be registered, with preference to the eldest and elder sons, as in the last case.

Occasional absence from home of a son—not more than six months in the year—will not disqualify, and all time spent at school or college in Canada will be counted as if spent at home.

Son of an owner includes grandson, step-son and son-in-law, and all these may be registered as voters on the property if of sufficient value. The provision as to sons of owners applies to the counties as well as towns and cities in cases other than those of farmers' sons.

(8) Farmers' sons—The same provisions substantially apply to farmers' sons, as stated in the last paragraph in respect of sons of owners in cities and towns.

A farm is to be not less than 20 acres of land.

(9) Fishermen and owners of real property and boats, nets, fishing gear and tackle of aggregate value of $150.

Income voters register where they reside at time of registration—all others where property is situate. If in more than one polling division in the same electoral district the voter may register in either.

All names entered in the last revised voters' lists under the old law, will be entered in the new lists by the revising barrister.

Every person not on the assessment roll desiring to have his name on the list must at once send to the revising barrister an application in writing to be put on the list, giving his name, residence and the property or other qualification in respect of which he applies to be put on.

This application must be accompanied by a declaration which is to be made and signed before a commissioner for taking affidavits, a notary or justice of the peace, showing the grounds of the applicants claim to be put on the list.

Substantially the voters are those who can qualify as owners, tenants, occupants, income voters, sons of owners and farmers' sons.

See that the application shows as correctly and fully as possible the qualification.

Make the declaration before a commissioner, notary or justice of the peace. It is convenient to have it attached to the application on the same sheet.

In case of an absent person, let some one else having a knowledge of the qualification make the application and declaration.

When one cannot find a justice or other person before whom the declaration can be taken let the application alone be sent in, with an explanation of the reason, and it would be well in such case to have the truth of the facts in the application certified on the back of it by one, or if possible, two other persons.

The application and declaration must be sent at once to the Revising barrister of the district.

URGENCY OF THE MATTER.

No name not on the last voters' list or assessment roll will be placed on the preliminary voters' list, unless on application and declaration as above.

In case of any difficulty or doubt, application should be made at once for advice to some of the Liberal friends in the neighborhood.

THE MARCH CENTURY.—Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Pennell, whose clever little book, "A Canterbury Pilgrimage," has been such a success, have written an illustrated new work, entitled "Italy, from a Tricycle." It is a description of a pilgrimage on three wheels, recently made by them from Florence to Rome, and it will appear in two numbers of The Century, beginning with March.

THE JUMBO STEER.—The monster steer, Jumbo, formerly owned by Groff Bros., Elmira, which created so much interest at the different exhibitions last fall, and realized his owners in the neighborhood of $1,000 in fees for admission to see him, has been very sick for the last few weeks and is still in a dangerous condition, though attended by three veterinary surgeons. Mr. Klase, the present owner, will lose severely if the monster should kick the bucket.

CARNIVAL AT THE RINK.—To-morrow night's carnival promises to be a success at the Speed Skating Rink. A first-class prize list has been prepared, and the children will no doubt evince a great interest and look forward with intense pleasure to the night's sport. Good and impartial judges are to be appointed. Robt. Field will give an exhibition of fancy skating, and he is pronounced by citizens to be superior to anything in Ontario for his age. He will appear in costume and will, no doubt, give great satisfaction. The ice is in good condition. Those not in costume can enjoy a good skate after 9 o'clock.

COTTON BATTING FOR WATER PIPES.—At the suggestion of Professor J. M. Ordway, a gentleman connected with the Boston Herald, during the last cold spell, took two pieces of water pipe, which he filled with water and exposed to the weather, with the thermometer at 22°. One of these he covered with cotton batting, the glazed kind being the best, and the other he did not protect. At the end of two hours, the water in the unprotected pipe was frozen, while after an exposure of six hours the water in the protected pipe was still liquid. He says batting is easily applied, and should be put on to the thickness of from one to three inches, according to exposure. It can be held to the pipe by being wound loosely with twine, but should not be wound tightly.

TABLEAUX AND CONCERT TO-NIGHT.—The rehearsal last evening — preparatory to the entertainment to be given to-night by the Young People's Literary Association of St. George's Church, in the city hall to-night—gave unbounded satisfaction. Gen. Tom Thumb and wife elicited shouts of laughter, and had to strut up and down before the footlights and bow again and again before those present would be satisfied. The snow scenes are very good, and form beautiful pictures. Hiawatha and the statuary are also as near perfect as can be. Every detail seems now arranged, and as the piano is on a raised platform at the side the musical portion can be going on while the curtain is down, and there should be no delays. The low price of admission, with such a fine programme, should draw a very full house.

GUELPH AND ONTARIO INVESTMENT AND SAVINGS SOCIETY.—The annual meeting of this Society was held on Wednesday afternoon in the board room of the Society. There was a fair attendance of shareholders. Mr. D. Stirton, the President, occupied the chair, and Mr. G. A. Somerville, Manager, acted as secretary. The annual report was of a very satisfactory character. After its adoption, Messrs. James Cormack and H. Murton, were appointed scrutineers to count the ballots for the election of the directors. The old board were re-elected as follows:—D. Stirton, A. B. Petrie, R. Melvin, R. Forbes, T. A. Keating, M.D. James P. Phin, John Phin, Charles McMillan, H. Howitt, M.D., J. E. McElderry, J. Innes, M.P., Messrs. A. J. Brewster and J. W. Kilgour were re-appointed auditors. A vote of thanks was passed to the directors, the manager, and other officers for the close attention they had given to the business of the Society during the year. At a subsequent meeting of the directors, Mr. Stirton was re-elected President and Mr. Petrie, Vice-President.

WEDDING BELLS.—A very pleasant event took place last evening at the residence of Mr. Geo. Dryden, Eramosa, being the marriage of his daughter Agnes to Mr. Jas. Kennedy, of Eramosa. Both the contracting parties have been born and brought up in this neighborhood, and are well known and very popular, and a large number of invited guests were gathered to celebrate the festive occasion. Under the officiating hands of Rev. Mr. McKay, of Eramosa, assisted by Rev. Mr. Porteous, of Galt, the nuptial knot was soon tied and after the happy couple had received congratulations and well wishes from all present the company were treated to a repast of rare excellence. Afterwards music, recitations and short speeches from several present passed very quickly a pleasant evening, and at an early hour the party broke up, expressing the wish that such gatherings would frequently and closely follow each other. The bride was attended by her cousin Miss Maggie Wood, both being very becomingly attired, and Mr. Zimmermen, of Hamilton, supported Mr. Kennedy. Many handsome and useful presents from friends were much admired by all present.

LARGE SCROTAL HERNIA.—It is really surprising the change of late years in the treatment of Rupture. Only a few years ago large Serotal Hernia or Rupture could not be held by Trusses. Now Mr. Chas. Cluthe, the celebrated Truss inventor, offers to all these people a success or no money. He goes even further than this. He offers a 300 mile return ticket on any railway, to any one whose rupture he cannot hold. Mr. Cluthe is a responsible man and above the approach of taking advantage of people for the sake of a price of a Truss. Mr. Cluthe will be at the Wellington Hotel, Guelph, next Saturday, Feb. 20. d1w1

POLICE COURT.—At the police court this morning Albert Rekoffski and his son John were arraigned on a charge of assaulting John A. Gow yesterday. Mr. Gow swore he was proceeding to the market to sell the cow which had been destrained for rent, when he was assaulted by defendants, and the cow released. Two other witnesses corroborated his statements. Prisoners swore they had lost the cow, which they believed to be stolen, and were only taking possession of their property, and used no more violence than was necessary in so doing. The elder prisoner was fined $1 and costs, the other was acquitted. Daniel O'Connell, charged with rape, was again remanded until Saturday. John Cantwell, for being drunk, was fined $1 and costs, $3.50.

SUCCESSFUL ENTERTAINMENT.—When all the seating accommodation was exhausted in the Guelph Catholic Union Hall, Wednesday evening, the sale of tickets was stopped and several were refused admittance. This obviated confusion, and good order prevailed throughout the entertainment. Promptly at 8 o'clock the curtain rose for the overture. The orchestra occupied an elevated position in rear of the circle. Messrs. Harris, Flaherty, Lynch and Scan on were on the end. The latter took the place of Mr. John Sheahan, who was unavoidably absent. The humble and jokes by these artists were much appreciated. Mr. John Gallaher's ballad was beautifully rendered and warmly received. Mr. Thomas Duignan also sang remarkably well. The overture over, several specialities were put on. The Society's orchestra did a pantomime, "The Dumb Serenaders," and created much mirth. Mr. C. Flaherty in his "heavy" darkey feats, Mr. John Lynch in his rich German witticisms, Jake Neslin on the banjo, and very fine orchestrial music kept the performance going till nearly ten o'clock. God Save the Queen terminated.

Liberal Temperance Union.

TORONTO, Feb. 18.—The Liberal Temperance Convention yesterday morning discussed the best means to prevent the adulteration of liquors and secure amendments to the Scott Act. At one o'clock a large deputation waited on Attorney-General Mowat. President Goldwin Smith read a lengthy document, expressing the views of the Union on the license question. They chalk off prohibition as a failure, and approve of the Crooks Act with certain amendments. Commissioners should be paid out of the license fees and their powers so enlarged that they might abolish unlicensed places. They think the ordinary rules of evidence should apply, and that appeal should be allowed from the magistrate's decision. Commissioners should have the power to examine liquors at any time, and to prevent adulteration. They favor two licenses, one a general license, the other for the sale of beer and light wines. The latter to be encouraged. A heavier license should be placed on saloons than on hotels. They deprecated sweeping reductions of licenses as proposed in Toronto, believing that such would tend to make the trade less respectable and less responsible. Partizan magistrates should not be appointed. As the Scott Act is a purely local measure, it should receive no assistance out of our Provincial funds.

ONTARIO LEGISLATURE.

Toronto, Feb. 17.

A number of bills were read a first time: By Mr. Pardee, respecting free grants and homesteads; by Mr. Pardee, (private), respecting the Sarnia and Florence Road company; by Hon. Mr. Ross, (education), respecting Mechanics' Institutes and Art Schools; by Mr. Conmee, respecting the municipality of Neebing; by Mr. Balfour, to amend the Municipal Act.

There was half an hour's discussion on a second reading of Mr. Ermatinger's bill to amend the Consolidated Municipal Act. This bill, has for its object, which is compulsory, an annual statement of the actual financial standing of every municipality in Ontario up to Dec. 31 in each year. The treasurer is to make the statement as correct under oath, and the same is to be inserted in one or more newspapers or printed on slips and hung up in different places. The bill was referred to the Municipal Committee to report on for a second reading.

WAS HE BURIED ALIVE!

Groans Heard in a Grave—The Body to be Exhumed.

It will be remembered that on the morning of the 16th January, an hostler, in the employment of Mr. Thomas Ward, died suddenly in his bedroom. So as to bring the particulars more fully before the public, an extract from the DAILY MERCURY of that date may be given:

"David McCuen, a young man about 25 years of age, hostler for Thomas Ward, of the Victoria hotel, died suddenly on Saturday. Thos. Emory, employed at Naismith's pork store, who roomed with the deceased, states that McCuen got out of bed about four o'clock, and almost immediately returned. Scarcely had he got into bed than he began to act strangely. Emory asked him if he was sick several times, and getting no reply became alarmed, and woke up some of the other boarders, while he went for a physician. By the time the doctor arrived, which was only a few minutes afterwards, the unfortunate young man was in the throes of death. Heart disease is pronounced the cause."

The deceased was taken to his parents residence on Elizabeth street on the afternoon of the same day. The funeral took place on Monday at 3 o'clock. On the evening of the same night, it is said, Mrs. Gokey, wife of Mr. Gokey, caretaker of the cemetery, heard groans issuing from the newly made grave, and informed her husband of the fact. On Mr. Gokey going to make an examination he found everything still. The matter became mooted abroad, and representations were made to the County Crown Attorney by friends of the deceased that it would be well to have the body exhumed to see if the deceased had been buried alive.

The body will be exhumed at 2 o'clock this afternoon, by the instruction of Dr. Herod, coroner. If there are any indications that the deceased was buried while in a trance an inquest will be held. If not the body will be re-interred.

Brandon and "His" Medal.

To the Editor of the MERCURY.

SIR,—I notice in your last night's edition, under the caption, "Races at the Rink," that Jos. Brandon airs his grievances, and would have you and the public believe that he is a very much abused individual. Let us dissect his remarks and see how much sense there is in them. In the first place he says that he received a challenge for the 16th, which challenge he would not accept because Bunyan accused him of unfairness, and that he did not intend to skate for the medal until he withdraws the accusation. Now what in the name of common sense have we got to do with Bunyan's accusation? Can he imagine that we are compelled to wait his convenience to settle a date to skate, or till some one who has spoken disrespectfully of him shall have made an humble apology? Then in the next breath he goes on to state, and very untruthfully, that he did not receive a challenge till the 15th, because he knows that he received one over a week previously which also appeared in the Herald Feb. 6th. He also says that I promised him to skate two miles without the medal till within a few minutes of the race. What I did say was this: After trying in vain to overcome his obstinacy, that if the other contestants were willing to skate at two mile race without the medal, and I could explain the situation to the audience without compromising the management, I would do so. I spoke to them, but they refused to skate anything but a medal race, so that I had no other course to pursue but to state to the audience that having sufficient notice, and coming there prepared to race, Brandon had at the last moment shown his cowardice, and the two Bunyans would fill the bill advertised for the evening. On the 2nd, Brandon came to me and asked if they could not have the medal race on the 11th, the night of the races. I told him that would be impossible, because our programme was full, but that I would announce it for the first attraction next week, and he was perfectly satisfied. If he did not intend to contest the medal, why did he not notify me, so that I could have contradicted it in the daily papers. He was at the rink every night, and it would have been no trouble to him to have simply stated that he did not intend to skate.

Yours, &c., C. MADDOCK.

The Ontario Tankard.

The Globe of to-day says: From the Canadian curlers' point of view yesterday's games were the most important of the season, with the exception of the final competition for the coveted Ontario Tankard, which takes place to-day. The victorious clubs from each of the nine groups of curling districts assembled in the city yesterday two rinks strong, half playing at the Granite Rink and the remainder at the Caledonian Club's Rink. The game commenced at each rink at 1.30 and closed shortly before six o'clock. The playing yesterday constituted the first draw in the final competition. The four defeated clubs yesterday dropped out of the competition, and the victors, representing Guelph, Thamesville, Bright and the Granites, will play this morning, commencing at 9 o'clock. The two clubs who prove victorious will enter for the grand final match this afternoon to decide who is to be the winner of the Ontario Tankard for 1886. The following are the scores:

Thamesville	47	vs Brockville	40
Bright	58	vs St Catharines	13
Listowel	45	vs Collingwood	25

Listowel lost in the match against the Granites by a score of 57 to 19.

In the second draw, to be played off this morning, Thamesville will oppose the Granites, and Bright curlers will try their chances with Guelph.

In addition to the Tankard, a silk banner will be presented to the winners of the final game this afternoon, as a permanent trophy for this season's victories. It will be presented by the Ontario Branch of the Royal Caledonian Society. After the closing match this afternoon the curlers from the city and outside will assemble in the Caledonian Club Rooms, where the ceremony of presenting the laurels to the victorious clubs will be gone through.

Guelph Daily Mercury

WEDNESDAY EVE'G, FEB. 17, 1886.

Treachery in Everything.

The citizen who is endowed with morals of so loose a character that they will allow him to prove traitor to his country in order that his own personal ends may be served to good advantage, can have no scruples whatever about betraying friends who have stuck to him through good and evil report when the same base motive of self-interest demands it. Hence it is not to be wondered at that Sir John Macdonald, who, while prating about patriotism has all along prostituted his power to further his own personal objects at the expense of the country, should now appear in the role of a traitor to his own political friends and supporters.

That he does appear in this light to many of his followers, is revealed in a transaction to which he was a party immediately prior to the last general election, the particulars of which have just been made public. It will be remembered that before the elections of 1882 a report was circulated throughout the Province that Mr. John O'Donohoe was to be given a Cabinet portfolio, an announcement which was intended to have its effect in favor of the Conservative party as the sequel will show, but one which has never been verified up to the present, and which seems very unlikely to be in the future. Sometime before the elections of 1882 a growing sense of dissatisfaction was manifested among the Irish Catholics in respect to their representation in the Dominion Government, and this having impressed itself upon Sir John became to Toronto, with a view of ascertaining the extent of this feeling. He purposed soon after the adjournment of Parliament to bring on the general elections and it would not do to have dissatisfaction cropping up at such a time if a little astute diplomacy could settle the cause of contention. A meeting was held at the house of the Hon. David McPherson, those present at which, besides himself and Sir David, were John O'Donohoe Q. C., Patrick Boyle, editor of the Irish Canadian, John Shields, of frozen whiskey fame, and the Hon. Frank Smith. The Irishmen present, at Sir John's request explained their grievance, about there being only one active Irish Catholic in the Cabinet, and Messrs. Boyle and O'Donohoe both urged the appointment of an additional one who would have the confidence of their co religionists. Sir John resisted stubbornly for a time, but at length consented to make Mr. O'Donohoe a Cabinet Minister. But these men knew too much of the promises of old "To-morrow" to put implicit confidence in them. They must have the thing in black and white, and again the wily Chieftain yielded with a grace which should have aroused their suspicion. But first of all Mr. O'Donohoe must be appointed to the Senate, and so another private meeting was arranged.

The day following it was publicly announced that Mr. O'Donohoe had been made a Senator and a hint was thrown out that he might be taken into the Cabinet. This was enough to raise a howl among the Orangemen, who held meetings all over the Dominion and everywhere condemned the proposal. The Irish Catholic approval was lost amid the roar of the Orangemen, and so the time for the second consultation between Sir John and his Irish friends arrived.

The second meeting was held at the same place as the previous one. At this Sir John produced a telegram from the Marquis of Lorne, then Governor-General, to the effect that John O'Donohoe, Q. C., had been appointed to the Senate, and that he (the Marquis) had that day signed the new Senator's appointment to the Cabinet as well. Sir John next wrote letters to the four Catholic Bishops of Ontario, informing them of what he had done for Mr. O'Donohoe and those four letters were posted from the meeting.

Thus the Irishmen appeared to have triumphed. But all was not over yet. Sir John had still one or two small details to arrange. He pointed out that what he had done must be kept secret. It would never do to have it made public until after the elections, in view of the clamour which the Orangemen were raising. The Orangemen should be deceived on that point. But to satisfy the Catholics Mr. Frank Smith would be appointed in the meantime, just to warm the seat as it were, until the storm blew over, for Frank Smith being only an Irishman in name would be acceptable to the Orangemen. Messrs. Boyle and O'Donohoe agreed that the situation demanded some such concession, and they were quite willing to consent, for had they not won a certain victory? Of course they had. The promise was in black and white, they had in addition the Marquis of Lorne's telegram for it, and besides Sir John dare not deceive the Bishops of Ontario, to whom he had written! So it came about that Mr. Smith was made a Cabinet Minister and the meeting separated—as it has turned out—the betrayed and the betrayer. The Irish Canadian, some Irish Catholic papers, Hon. John O'Donohoe, many of his private friends and a large number of the Irish Catholic people all supported Sir John at the elections and he was returned to power. Then the Ontario elections took place the following September and although Mr. O'Donohoe had not yet taken his seat as a Cabinet Minister he and many of his friends threw their influence into the contest in favour of the Conservatives. A well known journalist prepared a long appeal to the Irish Catholic electors, showing why they should support the Conservatives in Ontario, and the proofs of that document were forwarded to Ottawa, where they were corrected by Sir John Macdonald and then spread broadcast throughout the Province. Now that this is known that document would prove most interesting reading for the Orangemen.

Now comes the sequel. Mr. O'Donohoe and his friends had done all they could in the Conservative cause and looked for the fulfilment of the promise which Sir John had made to them, and which he was in a position to fulfil since both the Dominion and Ontario elections were over. Mr. O'Donohoe went to Ottawa twice, allowing an interval of some months between his visits, but Sir John asked his "dear O'Donohoe" to wait a little longer. The announcement of the appointment would embarrass the Government just then. Again the Senator went home and the second Parliamentary session began. There was another interview with the same result. "Just as soon as the session was over the appointment would be announced whether the Orangemen liked it or not, and no appointment was made, and Hon. John O'Donohoe began to think that he, and the people he believed he was to represent, were sold. As for Hon. Frank Smith, his appointment was merely one in name. He had no portfolio; he drew no salary; he never attended a meeting of the Cabinet except when he was to attend to his senatorial duties; he took no interest in the Irish Catholics; he was not offensive to the Orangemen, and so far as representing the Irish Catholics was concerned, his position as a Cabinet Minister was the most transparent fraud that had ever taken place in Canada. And so the sessions of 1883, 1884 and 1885 all passed, and still the compact made in 1882 was not carried out, and Hon. John O'Donohoe and his friends were forced to come to the conclusion that they had been deceived. A printing contract, however, sufficed to keep the Irish Canadian silent on the subject.

Hon John O'Donohoe has not yet been made a Cabinet Minister, the Irish Catholics are still without the representation they were promised in 1882. Now that the whole thing has been made public a Parliamentary investigation will likely be instituted during the coming session, and the Marquis of Lorne's telegram will be called for. If it is not a forgery an interesting constitutional question may be raised as to whether that appointment, once made by the Governor-General, can be rescinded by the Premier without giving notice to Mr. O'Donohoe, which he never did. At any rate such an investigation will give prominence to a fresh piece of treachery on the part of Sir John Macdonald, who is treacherous in everything, and who, while securing the Orangemen by promising to pass the Orange bill of incorporation deceived them on the one hand, on the other deceived the Catholics in not giving them the Cabinet representation which he promised.

Public Charities.

The report of Mr. R. Christie, Inspector of Prisons and Public Charities for the Province of Ontario, has been laid before the Legislature.

HOUSE OF PROVIDENCE.

The figures regarding the House of Providence, Guelph, have been already published in the report of the County Council. Copies of the reports made to the Government upon this Refuge by Dr. O'Reilly state:—"The House of Providence, Guelph, was inspected by me on the 15th May. There were 19 females and 1 child in residence, all of whom were seen. The House was thoroughly inspected and found to be satisfactory in all respects."

"I again inspected the House of Providence, Guelph, on the 8th October. The inmates numbered 19 men, 11 women and 1 child." "The premises were found to be in a satisfactory state."

GUELPH GAOL.

The report of the Guelph gaol shows a gradual decrease in the number of prisoners committed during the past three years. These are the figures:

	1883.	1884.	1885.
Prisoners committed	187	147	118
Greatest No. confined at one time	28	16	18
No. of re-committals	34	23	11
Cost of maintaining goal	$2,592.27	$2,077.03	$1,900.36

Dr. O'Reilly says:—"The Guelph gaol was inspected by me on the 16th May. There were in custody on that day five male and two female prisoners. The second inspection of this gaol was made on the 8th October. There were only three prisoners in custody on that date. The gaol premises were found to be in satisfactory order, and the books in good shape."

As regards crime generally throughout the Province Mr. Christie says:—"As compared with 1884, there is a large decrease in the number of commitments for murder and manslaughter, but an increase in the commitments for rape. The most noticeable feature in the second division is the reduction of the commitments for larceny. It will be noticed with general satisfaction that the commitments for drunkenness show a decrease of 954, or 20.51 per cent. In the three past years the ratio which the commitments for drunkenness bear to the total commitments has been as follows:—1883, 39.42 per cent.; 1884, 38.49 per cent.; 1885, 32.34 per cent."

The Ontario Estimates.

Just before the Legislature adjourned on Wednesday, Mr. Mowat announced that he had received a message from the Lieutenant-Governor enclosing the financial requirement of the Province for 1886. The total amount of the estimates are $2,962,514, divided as follows: Current expenditure $2,474,037, on capital account $460,304, other purposes $28,172. The estimates for 1885 were $345,871 less than this sum, and in 1884 $315,441 less. These figures are of course exclusive of the supplementary estimates which are usually brought down near the close of the session.

CHAPTER XI.

CLEARING THE FIELD FOR ACTION.

"You are thrice welcome," she said, extending her hand with an almost regal graciousness peculiar to herself. No one knew how she managed that gesture, like a queen extending her hand to a subject, and at the same time like a greeting from friend to friend. "Here we are," she went on, "prostrate with our endeavours to pass the time and amuse one another. I think we must have exhausted all our wit last night, for there is not a spark in the whole party this morning."

"He must be dull indeed who does not find his wit in your presence."

"What a pretty speech! I declare it is quite a pleasure to hear you. If you stay with us half an hour, you will have roused us all. Stay with us, and you shall say whatever you like, if only it is something worth listening to, and I know you never waste your breath in idle words."

There was a tone of mockery in her voice. The proceedings of the day before were not to be thought of without bitterness, and so long as nothing happened to divert her thoughts she must think of them. Her last words, too, had a special meaning. She knew what he had come to ask, and she knew what her answer would be; therefore his words would be idle. She took a kind of cynicle pleasure in the thought.

"And if I do what you ask, what shall be my reward?" he asked, jestingly.

"You are overbold, I think. What further reward could you desire than the thought that you had entertained us for an hour? But to-day I am in a generous mood; I delight to give. You shall have a reward, and as my rewards are always substantial you shall stay to lunch."

"What could I ask more than to be allowed to spend more time with you than I had ventured to hope?"

In spite of himself he was influenced by her words, "I am in a generous mood, I delight to give." He did not reflect that there are people who say things at one moment for the mere pleasure of taking them back the next, and he did not know that Alice guessed why he had come, and to ease her own pain was playing with him as a cat plays with a mouse.

"Tell us," went on Alice, "how you think the bride looked yesterday?"

"I fear I cannot tell you. I scarcely looked at the bride."

"Oh, fie! you did not do your duty. At a wedding everyone looks at the bride, and the bride alone."

He bowed, saying—

"I will try to remember next time."

"Next time! You say that significantly. When do you suppose 'next time' will be?"

"My own wedding, I hope."

"Good gracious! you are on the eve of marriage, and you never told us. Pray repair your fault at once, and tell us all about her—her name and everything. Is it anyone I know? I cannot imagine," after a moment spent apparently in deep reflection, "who it can possibly be."

"I cannot tell you the lady's name, because I have not yet obtained her consent."

"You amaze me—upon my word, you amaze me. You are the boldest man I ever knew, to make sure of the lady's consent in advance."

"I do not presume to make sure, but no man is forbidden to hope."

"Oh, no, to be sure—hope is cheap enough. It is to be had for the asking. Perhaps that is the reason," with another little laugh, "why it is so seldom of any use."

"I hope my hope is of some use."

"Otherwise it would not be hope at all. Take my advice," she went on, not looking at him, but bending all her attention upon one of the feathers of her screen, which had become loose, "do not hope. It is a waste of time, and generally turns out disappointment. Make up your mind at once, without hopes and fears, and go straight to the point. If you are successful, well and good; if not, resign yourself, and hope for better luck next time."

"Can you give me no better advice than that?"

"No better! Is it not very good? It is what I should do if I were a man."

"And your 'next time?' Would it be with the same woman or another?"

"How can I tell," shrugging her shoulders. "It would depend so much upon the woman. On the whole I think I would prefer it to be with another."

He was going to reply, when some one joined in the conversation, and soon afterwards the gong sounded for luncheon.

After luncheon, Sir Cuthbert came to Alice as she stood in one of the drawing-room windows, and said,

"Do you feel inclined for a walk this fine afternoon, Miss Lafone?"

"You have seriously taken upon yourself the task of entertaining us, I see," she said, smiling. "Yes, a walk would be a good thing; it would brace us up and give us an appetite for dinner. That is why people take walks, is it not? I never, for my part, could see any other advantage to be gained from plodding along dull country roads. Who is for a walk?" she went on, turning to the interior of the room.

Several people declared themselves for a walk, and though this was not exactly what Sir Cuthbert had intended when he suggested that way of spending the afternoon, he consoled himself with the thought that, perhaps, after all, he would find it as easy to be alone with Alice in that way as any other. The rest of the party would probably pair off among themselves, leaving them undisturbed. He would trust to fortune.

In a little while those who were going were ready, and left the house together.

"Where shall we go?" asked Alice, when they reached the high road. "Sir Cuthbert, this is your expedition, you must decide."

Sir Cuthbert reflected. There was rather a bewildering choice of beautiful walks at Osmotherly. Suddenly a thought struck him.

"You promise to abide by my decision?" he asked, speaking pointedly to Alice.

"Oh, yes," she replied lightly, "since I know it will be both wise and good.

"Well, then, I choose the shore road."

"The shore road," as it was called, was in some ways the least attractive in the neighbourhood. It led out of the village in an easterly direction, and for some distance ran parallel with the bay. On that side there was no lack of beauty; the water came lapping up almost to one's feet at high tide, and at low water it was easy to overtep the low stone wall and to continue one's walk along the sands. On the other side the country was flat. The hills seemed to sink down, leaving a wide, open space of some extent, divided into uninteresting potato and turnip fields. In addition to this, the road was a badly kept one, stony and rough; highly unfitted for ladies who were more accustomed to driving than walking.

"The shore road!" echoed those who knew it, in dismay. "What a horrid road to choose; we shall all come home lame."

"You are under no necessity to come," he replied, laconically. "So far as I remember it was only Miss Lafone who promised to abide by my choice."

"And she has no intention of breaking her promise," said Alice, laughing. She had seen Sir Cuthbert's intention from the first, and had done her best to defeat it. The little fraud which he had practised upon her to gain his own ends tickled her fancy, and she laughed merrily at it. She felt inclined to reward him for his skill.

"Go your ways, good people," she said, laughing and waving her hand to them as she moved away. "Bound by no oaths, you can wander where you will. I am forced to follow a tyrant."

They walked away, leaving the others to their own devices, and for a little time they did not speak. They went along the road leading from The Thwaite to the village, and through the village itself, in silence. It was only when they had left the last house some distance behind them, and had exchanged the high for the shore road, which stretched before them in all its monotony, that their tongues were loosened.

By this this time Alice had begun rather to repent her temerity in thus giving Sir Cuthbert the opportunity he had been seeking. Her readiness to be alone with him might give him erroneous ideas as to the nature of her answer. However, it was done now; the only thing was to be firm, and not allow herself to be moved from her original decision by any prayers and entreaties.

"What is McGregor's Speedy Cure for"? It is for dyspepsia, liver complaint, indigestion, billiousness, and it is the finest blood purifier in the known world to-day.

"Does it give satisfaction?" We cannot point to one instance where it did not.

"Where does it have the largest sale?" Right in the city of Hamilton, where it is manufactured, there has been over one thousand dollars' worth sold in the last year retail, and the great majority of the sales are by one recommending it to another. For sale at 50c and $1.00 per bottle by Thos. S. Petrie, Druggist.

Socialism in London.

LONDON, Feb. 17.—The Social Democratic federation has issued a manifesto conveninfi a meeting for Sunday to demand that the Government begin work on public improvements in order to give employment to workingmen now idle. The manifesto concludes as follows: "Let the governing classes face the inevitable downfall of decaying civilization without hypocrisy or panic upon the merest responsibility for the peaceful or forcible issue of the last great class struggle of our times."

Europe Intimidating Greece.

LONDON, Feb. 17.—Mr. Chamberlain has quarrelled with Mr. Gladstone on the Greek policy of the Government. If the British fleet coerces the Greek fleet Mr. Chamberlain will resign his seat in the Cabinet. Two German men of war, one French, one Italian, and one Austrian have joined the British squadron in Suda bay.

The Daily News says that the British Government's Greek policy is founded on the belief that war between Turkey and Greece would postpone rather than accelerate the settlement of the Greek claims. Greece, the News declares, must trust Mr. Gladstone and yield.

Col. Burleigh's Presents.

LONDON, Feb. 17.—Col. Burleigh, who accompanied the Soudan expedition as correspondent of the Daily Telegraph, was presented at Glasgow to-day with a clock and statuettes, and a purse containing $1,500. While the committee charged with the presentation were calling upon Col. Burleigh a sheriff's officer appeared with a warrant, claiming all the presents from the chairman on behalf of Mr. Tagg, against whom Col. Burleigh had brought an action for slander, the suit being an outcome of the late electoral campaign. Mr. Tagg brought a counter action, and both cases are now pending. Mr. Tagg's intention to secure posession of the presents had become known in some way and the presents had been given privately to Col. Burleigh. When the sheriff's officer appeared on the scene the Colonel, holding the purse aloft, declared that he had a good grip on it and intended to keep it. The committee thereupon cheered the Colonel.

Dilke in Disgrace.

LONDON, Feb. 17.—Mr. Jos. Chamberlain, President of the Local Government Board, has quarrelled with his Radical colleague, Sir Charles Dilke, and abandoned him utterly. The reasons given by Mr. Chamberlain's friends are that Sir Charles refused to adopt Mr. Chamberlain's advice to testify under oath that he was not guilty of the offences charged against him as co-respondent in the Crawford divorce suit.

It is stated on excellent authority that the Queen has consulted with the Proctor relative to the decision of Justice Butts in the Crawford-Dilke scandal, which he considers an outrageous miscarriage of justice. The member for Chelsea has been killed as far as his chances of ever again, during the lifetime of her Majesty, holding a portfolio. It is said Mr. Joseph Chamberlain offered Crawford $20,000 not to bring the suit into court, but that he met with a firm refusal.

Death of Lord Cardwell.

LONDON, Feb. 17.—The death is announced of Lord Cardwell at the age of 73. He held at various times the portfolios of Secretary to the Treasury, President of the Board of Trade, Chief Secretary for Ireland, and Secretary of State for the Colonies. In December, 1868, on the formation of Mr. Gladstone's Cabinet, he became Secretary of War, and when the Liberal party went out of office he was raised to the peerage by the title of Viscount Cardwell. While in the War Office he entirely reorganized the British army, abolished purchase and introduced the short service system of enlistment. His lordship leaves no successor to his title, which dies with him.

The Rioting Fishermen.

PASPEBIAC, Que., Feb. 17.—The mob gathered again yesterday afternoon, demanding provisions, and again to-day they are assembling and more trouble is expected. The ringleaders are not those in want. It is said the rioters are Metis, a cross between the early Acadians and the Micmac Indians and can be easily recognized. The French and English poor are not likely to give trouble.

Killed by Chloroform.

OTTAWA, Feb. 17.—Miss Catherine Moore, eldest daughter of Mr. Isaac Moore, Rochester street, last evening was up and around the house in the best of spirits, but on retiring for the night an attack of neuralgia in the head caused her excruciating pain and all mild remedies having been applied and failed, an injection of chloroform into one of her ears was made. The lady seemed to be much easier and after a while her attendants left her bedside and retired. This morning Miss Moore was found dead.

Counterfeiters Arraigned.

ST. CATHARINES, Ont., Feb. 17.—The two men, John Hilton and Wm. Carroll, who were arrested yesterday on a charge of issuing spurious coin, were this morning remanded for trial at the next court. Bail was refused. Counterfeit coin was found on both prisoners when arrested. The police burst in the door of their room immediately after making the arrest and found dies for the manufacture of 50 cents United States currency, 25 cents United States currency and 25 cents Canadian currency, together with a complete battery for plating, some metal for the manufacture of counterfeit coins, and liquids, acids, etc., for the same purpose.

A New Railway.

The Railway Committee of the Legislature yesterday considered the bill to incorporate the Georgian Bay and Lake Huron railway. Starting at Southampton or Port Elgin it is intended to run a line to Owen Sound and thence to Meaford. The clause fixing the capital stock of the company at half a million dollars was passed. The committee fixed upon $50,000 as the sum necessary to be subscribed before a meeting for the election of directors can be called.

Hon. Adam Crooks' Will.

The will of the late Hon. Adam Crooks provides that the trustees shall convert his estate into money and invest the proceeds in mortgages, the annual income to be paid as follows:—To his son, Lawrence Ogden Crooks, three-sixths; his niece, Louisa Jane Crooks, one-sixth; his sister, Frances Crooks, one-sixth; his sister-in-law, Ellen Crooks and her daughter Jane one-sixth. Any residue of the estate not disposed of as bequeathed, to Lawrence and Louisa Crooks in equal shares. The personal estate is sworn at $16,467, including household goods.

The House Committee on Agriculture at Washington have agreed to report favourably on a Bill to establish experimental stations in connection with agricultural colleges.

Socialists in Court.

LONDON, Feb. 17.—The hearing in the case of the Socialist leaders Hyndman, Burns, Champion and Williams, who are charged with inciting to riot, contempt of the law, etc., in connection with the recent demonstrations in London, began in Bow street Police Court this morning. The court room was well filled with spectators but not crowded. Mr. Poland, Solicitor for the Treasury, in presenting the case for the Government quoted from speeches made by the defendant at the time of the riots. Several newspaper reporters were called as witnesses and gave testimony regarding the actions of the prisoners previous to and during the disorders. Mr. Poland asked that all the prisoners be committed for trial. He said the prosecution had nothing of a political nature in it, and urged that the men be prosecuted for misdemeanor. This, he continued, consisted of utterance by the different defendants of expressions and sentiments with intent to provoke a breach of peace.

The case was adjourned for a week. The prisoners were allowed to give bail.

Fergus Correspondence.

SKATING.—The races in Guelph on Thursday last were quite a surprise to our people. No person thought of Black being defeated, but he was, and did not even take second. People will talk, and almost all Fergus people persist in saying something was wrong. We think Black is the fastest man in this part of Ontario, and his defeat last week does not alter this opinion. Black might have won, he did not, and quite a few of our boys know it by losing in the betting. Of course Black fell two or three times, and this may account for his losing the race. It is strange so good a skater would fall so often. Phelan, of Fergus, won easily in the second race, and we believe McCutcheon has accepted Phelan's challenge and will skate him for $50 a side, in Guelph, Thursday next.

ROLLERS.—This rink keeps up the excitement and again had races on Saturday night. Prizes not very large.

CHORAL.—This musical society is flourishing. The leader, Mr. Hunt, is more than pleased, and says he has good material and a lot of it. A concert may be expected.

CHARITY.—The thanks of the poor of Fergus are due the Fergus lodge of A. O. U. W. for the $15 they have donated from their lodge for the benefit of the Fergus poor. This amount will be most welcome to the Poor Committee who will assist the A. O. U. W. in distributing.

ENTERTAINMENT.—Prof. Vallance, of Glasgow University, gave an evening of readings and recitations in the Drill Shed last night. The audience was a small one as the notice was too short. Those present were much pleased with the Professor and will be glad to see him back.

Rev. D. J. McDonnell will occupy Melville Church pulpit next Sunday, Mr. Smellie not being able to attend to his duties.

WEATHER.—The thaw of last week nearly destroyed the sleighing, and wheels were in use again. Sunday's snow followed by yesterday's storm and to-day's cold has made good sleighing again.

CHURCH DIFFICULTY.—Dr. Torrance, Rev. Mr. Rose and others had a meeting in Belwood to-day to try and settle the church difficulties existing there among Presbyterians.

VOTERS' LISTS.—We believe the Conservatives have finished their part of the voters' lists for this section of the riding. Where are the Reformers? Are they as well advanced. We fear not. Now is the time. Get every man on the list.

THE FUTURE OF CANADA.—Mr. Camerson of Lucknow, had a fair audience to hear him deliver his address on the "Future of Canada." The proceeds were to help the Cumnock Presbyterian Church and must have been $40 or over. The lecture itself was mainly a summary of the Evening News, and its principle since its birth. There was nothing new advanced. Of the different destinies of Canada Independence was favored. Annexation, Imperial Federation, the present status were mentioned, to be put aside, and we came home feeling the future was about as indistinct as ever. Mr. Cameron is a wordy speaker and a man of ability. Mr. Mullen spoke to the point in moving a vote of thanks, and wondered why he should be asked to move a vote of thanks to a man that really spoke against his party. The lecture was too partisan for a mixed audience. Rev. Mr. Dawson, of Alma, occupied the chair.

POOR FELLOWS.—Fever matrimonial is raging on the 2nd of Eramosa. Three victims are to be placed hors de combat by it to morrow. Go it old and young.

Fergus, Feb. 16th, 1886.

A deputation of anti-vaccinationists waited on the Quebec Government on Wednesday and urged the repeal of the compulsory vaccination laws. It will be considered.

In Toronto, on Wednesday, Mr. Kappelle applied to Master Dalton at Osgoode hall for a writ of quo warranto calling upon W. H. Howland to show why he should not be unseated as mayor of Toronto for want of proper qualification. Mr. Dalton issued the writ, which was subsequently served on Mr. Howland.

Paspebiac, the Quebec village which has just been raided by starving men and women in search of food, is situated in Bonaventure county, on the Baie des Chaleurs. It has an extensive trade in the fisheries and a population of 1,000, of whom about 600 are English and 400 French-speaking. The rioters passed by the jewellery and fancy good stores, and confined their attention mainly to the shops in which food was sold.

THE FRANCHISE ACT.

The Qualifications of Voters—The Process of Registration Explained.

The time having arrived for the preparation of the voters' lists under the new Dominion Franchise Act, an appeal is made to the Liberals of Wellington to have their names enrolled as voters without delay. To assist in so doing a short summary of the qualification of voters and of the process for securing registration is given.

QUALIFICATION.

To entitle a person to be put on the list he must be—

(1) 21 years of age.

(2) A British subject by birth or naturalization.

(3) Owner of real property of value:
In a city, $300.
In a town, $200.
In a county, $150.

(4) Or tenant of real property under ease at a rental of
$2 per month.
$6 per quarter.
$12 per half year.
$20 per year.

Provided that the tenant has been in possession for one year before 1st January 1886, and shall have paid one year's rent before final revision.

If the rent is yearly it will be sufficient if $20 of last year's rent shall have been paid before final revision.

Change of tenancy without intermission will not destroy the vote if aggregate of tenancies would give vote.

In cities at $300.
In towns at $200.
In counties at $150.

In counties outside of villages the rent may be payable either in money or in money's worth.

(5) Or a bona fide occupant for one year before 1st January, 1886, and enjoying the revenues and profits for his own or his wife's use of real property of the following values:
In cities, $300.
In towns, $200.
In counties, $150.

The occupancy may be under license of occupation from the crown or from any person or corporation.

(6) Or by income without any other qualification.

A person may be registered as an income voter, if he derives an income from his earnings, trade or profession, or from some investment in Canada of $300 a year, for one year before 1st January, 1886.

In counties the earnings may be either in money or money's worth.

(7) Sons of owners of real property are qualified—

(b) When the father is dead, and would, if living, be qualified, residence with the mother will suffice, and as many sons as the property will qualify may be registered, with preference to the eldest and elder sons, as in the last case.

Occasional absence from home of a son—not more than six months in the year—will not disqualify, and all time spent at school or college in Canada will be counted as if spent at home.

Son of an owner includes grandson, step-son and son-in-law, and all these may be registered as voters on the property if of sufficient value. The provision as to sons of owners applies to the counties as well as towns and cities in cases other than those of farmers' sons.

(8) Farmers' sons—The same provisions substantially apply to farmers' sons, as stated in the last paragraph in respect of sons of owners in cities and towns.

A farm is to be not less than 20 acres of land.

(9) Fishermen and owners of real property and boats, nets, fishing gear and tackle of aggregate value of $150.

Income voters register where they reside at time of registration—all others where property is situate. If in more than one polling division in the same electoral district the voter may register in either.

All names entered in the last revised voters' lists under the old law, will be entered in the new lists by the revising barrister.

Every person not on the assessment roll desiring to have his name on the list must at once send to the revising barrister an application in writing to be put on the list, giving his name, residence and the property or other qualification in respect of which he applies to be put on.

This application must be accompanied by a declaration which is to be made and signed before a commissioner for taking affidavits, a notary or justice of the peace, showing the grounds of the applicants claim to be put on the list.

Substantially the voters are those who can qualify as owners, tenants, occupants, income voters, sons of owners and farmers' sons.

See that the application shows as correctly and fully as possible the qualification.

Make the declaration before a commissioner, notary or justice of the peace. It is convenient to have it attached to the application on the same sheet.

In case of an absent person, let some one else having a knowledge of the qualification make the application and declaration.

When one cannot find a justice or other person before whom the declaration can be taken let the application alone be sent in, with an explanation of the reason, and it would be well in such case to have the truth of the facts in the application certified on the back of it by one, or if possible, two other persons.

The application and declaration must be sent at once to the Revising barrister of the district.

URGENCY OF THE MATTER.

No name not on the last voters' list or assessment roll will be placed on the preliminary voters' list, unless on application and declaration as above.

In case of any difficulty or doubt, application should be made at once for advice to some of the Liberal friends in the neighborhood.

MR. W. R. TIFFEN, district superintendent G. T. R., is in the city to-day arranging local matters in connection with the road.

A LETTER from Joseph Brandon, in reply to Chas. Maddock's letter of yesterday in reference to skating, is crowded out to-day. This is the last letter which will appear on the subject.

AT the Fergus cattle fair on Thursday there was a good representation of Guelph buyers. Mr. John Roberts purchased 10 head of fine cattle at $38.50 per head. Between 45 and 50 fat cattle were purchased by the city buyers.

PORK still remains firm on the market, $6.25 being paid for prime lots. Other produce keeps at regular prices. The vegetable market is at a standstill. Oats are eagerly sought after.

CONCERT AT EDEN MILLS.—The Presbyterian church, Eden Mills, held their annual tea social last evening, and it was undoubtedly one of the best they had ever had. The moonlight, and good sleighing brought out a large crowd of people. The speakers of the evening were the Rev. J. C. Smith, B. D., F. Swan, Sievewright and others. The choir of St. Andrew's church, Guelph, were present, and contributed largely towards the evening's enjoyment, by their rendering of several solos, quartettes, choruses, etc. Mrs. Hill, the organist, also played several pieces with good taste.

SPEED SKATING RINK.—The carnival tonight promises to be well represented by costumers, and the children are anticipating a good time. This being the last children's carnival of the season there should be a large turnout. Good prizes will be given and competent judges appointed. Robert Fields will give an exhibition of fancy skating, appearing in costume. He is considered by critics to be the best skater of his age in Ontario. Jos. Adams will give a short exhibition of acrobatic and gymnastic skating, his acts being entirely original, and never before attempted in public. Skating at nine o'clock for those not in costume.

GUELPH MUSICIANS ABROAD.—The annual concert under the auspices of the Fergus brass band is regarded as one of the events of the season by the music-loving citizens of Fergus. The committee secured the services of Mr. and Mrs. Crowe, the Misses Borthwick and F. G. Spragge, who aside from solo work, are becoming favourites as part vocalists. Also Mrs. Moore, who is always appreciated, and Mr. Will Spragge, who made his debut as a comic singer with great success on this occasion. The pieces contributed included vocal solos, duetts, trios, and quarettes from both classic and popular authors, a piano duet, a guitar solo, and the programme concluded with a comic operetta. There is not space for details of the merits of each piece, but it is sufficient to say every number showed careful study, and was received with delight by the large audience. There seems to be quite a demand for the services of the above company both at home and abroad.

The case was remanded until Monday to allow of the conductor of the train being present. The case of E. Hartnett, charged by License Inspector Cowan for selling liquor in prohibited hours, was enlarged until to-morrow.

EXHUMED.—Yesterday afternoon the body of David McCuen, late hostler at the Victoria Hotel, was exhumed in the presence of Dr. Herod, coroner, and Chief of Police Randall. On the coffin being opened the body was found to be in the same position as when it was placed in there and no evidence was apparent that the deceased had been buried alive. The theory now is that the sounds which Mrs. Gokey heard were caused by the loose earth settling down on the coffin.

The Ontario Tankard.

The Guelph curlers who competed for the Ontario Tankard arrived home by the mid-night train. They did not succeed in carrying off this much coveted trophy, but they have no reason to feel ashamed of their record, and deserve congratulation for winning their way to the last contest, which was between them and the Granites, of Toronto. They had the luck—or it may be taken as a misfortune—to draw against some of what is considered the best clubs in Ontario, namely, Bowmanville, which they defeated by six shots; Bright, which they defeated by seven shots; and the Granites. The home players state that all the games in the final competition were most keenly contested, and it is not to be wondered at seeing that the best clubs out of some eighty competitors were represented. The ice yesterday was "drug," and some of the home players had to change their stones to the "keen" side. The condition of the ice was as fair to one club as the other, but with this difference, that the home club are not in the habit of playing on dull ice, which placed them at a certain disadvantage, and did not give an opportunity of making their fine play which would be looked for in a competition of this kind. The Guelph club being the second best won the vice president of the Ontario Branch's silver medal. The following is the score of yesterday's matches:

THE TABLEAUX.—The city hall was filled to the doors last night by a fashionable and appreciative audience to see and hear the entertainment prepared by the Young Peoples' Literary Association of St. George's Church of this city. This entertainment was the outcome of similar exhibitions which have been given in the school room of the church for a long time back, and so popular have they become through the excellent talent brought out that it was found impossible to accomodate all its patrons, hence the removal of the programme to the city hall stage. About 8 o'clock Mr. James Clark, president of the association, called upon Misses Perry and Saunders for an instrumental duet, which was given very creditably. Prof. Edwards then gave a reading from "Hiawatha's wooing," which was followed by tableaux of the same. The Rev. Professor's elocution was much enjoyed. At the fall of the curtain between the scenes, Mr. Thomas and Miss Cope sang a couple of solos, which were well received. The tableaux of "Gen. Tom Thumb and wife" were generally remarked to be very lifelike, and so energetic was the applause that the little people had to reappear before the curtain. A quartette, "Dancing o'er the Waves," completed the first part. In the second part Prof. Philp and Mrs. James Clark gave a violin and piano duet, "Swiss Airs," which was most heartily enjoyed. Mrs. Wilcox sang "Janet's choice," and Miss Cope sang "When 'tis moonlight." These two songs were nicely sung and much admired. Miss Perry and the Misses Holliday gave piano selections. The statuary tableaux "Returning from the vintage" and "Zenobia" were warmly applauded. Mr. F. Bond gave a couple of concertina solos very nicely. The three tableaux of the snow shoe club were well put on and the fire lights were better than in the other tableaux. Mr. T. W. Saunders introduced and explained the different tableaux, and Mr. James Clark conducted the programme. A chorus "Drops of Rain" and the National Anthem made up a most enjoyable evening's pleasure.

The building containing machinery and stuff in course of manufacture, which was totally destroyed. Too Many Wives.

BELLEVILLE, Feb. 18.—Horatio Hoskin, formerly a well-to-do farmer at Fredericksburg, has been arrested in Welland county for bigamy. He married Miss Ella Belch, of Belleville in 1879. In three months she left him on account of his brutality. He then sold out, moved to the Niagara district and for a second time entered into the married state. His second wife tired of him after three weeks, but hearing that he for a third time intended to enter for the matrimonial stakes, had him arrested on a charge of bigamy.

Death of J. B. Gough.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 18.—John B. Gough died here to-day. He was an Englishman, and was in his 69th year. He landed in New York 1829. As a boy he sang in concert halls in that city and gained much applause for his mimicry. In 1845, when he was 28, he concluded that intemperance, to which he was much addicted, was a bad thing, and from that time adopted temperance as a profession. He accummulated wealth and died worth $300,000. He has lectured both in the old world and the new thousands of times, and was one of the most distinguished and eloquent advocates of total abstinence that has ever appeared on any platform.

An Innocent Convict.

HAMILTON, Feb. 18.—In last July John McLaughlin and Thomas Sheridan were arrested, charged by a young negro named R. C. O. Benjamin with robbing him of a gold watch and chain. McLaughlin was found guilty and sentenced to three years' imprisonment on Benjamin's evidence, although he strongly protested that he was innocent. The watch the negro claimed was presented to him by a colored Masonic lodge in Brinkley, Arkansas, but G. S. Lynch-Staunton, who defended the prisoner at his trial, has received a letter from the secretary of the colored Masonic lodge in Brinkley, stating that they know nothing of Benjamin, and that they never presented anyone with a gold watch. It was believed at the time of the trial that McLaughlin was committed unjustly, and his innocence is now established. An endeavor to obtain his release will be made at once.

ONTARIO LEGISLATURE.

Toronto, Feb. 18.

Mr. Monk introduced a bill to amend the Consolidated Municipal Act. Mr. Mowat introduced three bills which were all read a first time. An act for improving the practice of conveyancing and amending the law of property; respecting returns of convictions by stipendiary and police magistrates; respecting criminal justice accounts payable by the province.

THE FINANCIAL STATEMENT.

The Hon. Mr. Ross made his financial statement, and spoke for nearly two hours. The last statement he presented showed that the expenditure was expected to exceed the revenue by 148,000, but he was happy to say that the position of the province at the close of the fiscal year was much better than he anticipated. The total estimated receipts from all sources for the year had been $2,585,148, while the actual expenditures were $2,697,420, or $112,271 more than was expected. Referring to the items of expenditure the Treasurer said under the head of civil government there was a slight increase. The estimated expenditure had been $181,444, while $184,254 was expended. For legislation $125,762 was spent, while the estimated figures were $120,850. This excess he attributed to the increased cost of sessional writers and printing. For the administration of justice, $20,671 more was spent than had been estimated ($334,252.) The main item in this increase was on account of criminal justice in the different counties over which the government had no control. This, the Treasurer contended, was a fair barometer of the commercial depression which now prevailed in the country. When times were hard there was more crime. For education $7,735 in excess of the estimate ($525,829) had been expended. For public institutions $6,114 less than the estimate ($619,685) was expended. The average cost of maintenance of inmates of all the public institutions had been reduced from $188,22 per head per annum in 1884 to $174.40 in 1885, and in the insane asylums from $133 to $123. The immigration expenses had been $912 less than the estimates, $19,900, and $24,281 less than in 1884. For agriculture and arts the expenditure was $668 less than the estimate—$160,445. The principal item in this expenditure is in connection with the Agricultural College and Experimental Farm at Guelph. For repairs and maintenance of public building $13,786 more was spent than estimated, $48,815. It cost $7,669 to keep the rickety old parliament buildings in repair. For new public buildings the estimated cost had been $201,138, while only $155,720 were expended, and for public works $19,383 less than the estimate ($58,073) were expended. For colonization roads the estimate was $102,900, while $121,435 were expended. There was an excess of $3,173 on the estimated expenditure ($102,900, on account of charges on crown lands. For refunds $1,779 less than the estimate ($32,802) was spent, and under the head of miscellaneous the excesses of expenditure were $12,848. The estimate was $87,472. It would thus be seen that the total expenditure under the supply bill was $2,693,525 and the receipts $2,697,420, leaving a surplus of $3,894.

The Treasurer next undertook to prove that the province was not living on capital, as had been charged by an honorable member, who had also held that the proceeds of the crown lands should not be touched, but should be set aside for permanent investments for the benefit of posterity. From 1872 to 1885 the total receipts from the sale of crown lands had been $2,809,186, less interest included thereon ($1,028,054), from woods and forests $7,630,902, (less $514,051 for ground rents), or a total of $8,897,983. Allowing for refunds and crown land department expenses there had been a net income from this source of $6,878,240. The province had invested in public buildings (asylums, prisons, jails, normal schools, agricultural and scientific colleges) $2,958,354; in public works and colonization roads $2,096,273; in railways $3,662,595, a total of $8,717,220, or $1,839,980 more than the total receipts from crown lands and woods and forests. The treasurer referred to the charges that the expense of collecting the crown land timber fees was excessive. He said that it cost Ontario but $17 per $100 to collect these dues, while it cost the Dominion $123 to collect every $100. The new expenditures that the Government had to shoulder since 1872 were next referred to. During these years there had been an expenditure of $458,800 in new public buildings and maintaining new civil service officers and servants, such as division court inspector, bureau of industries, revising voters' lists, shorthand writers for the courts, etc. The provincial board of health was also a new expense, costing the province $8,000 annually. With regard to this the treasurer compared this sum with what it had cost Montreal for its smallpox outbreak. That city had spent no less than $150 000 for a single outbreak. The deaths in Quebec during that epidemic had been:—Montreal 3,500, suburbs 1,500, other parts of the province 3,000, total 8,000; while in Ontario for the year there had been only 138 cases and 18 deaths.

The treasurer next presented to the house the sources from which he proposed to derive his revenue to carry on the business of the province as follows:

The treasurer spoke of the item of revenue from license at some length. They expected $200,000 from this source, notwithstanding that the Scott Act had been passed in several counties. They proposed to accomplish this by raising the price of licenses. To these tariffs the municipalities could add any amount they saw fit. Since the government had taken charge of the licenses it was its intention to pocket the increases. The government now takes one-third of the license. The new tariff would be:

The treasurer then announced that there would be a total deficit of some $401,000 for the incoming year. This could not possibly be avoided, as there were several new charges on the revenue. For new asylum accommodation, which was a strict necessity, $195,000 was required; for consolidating the statutes (which only occurred every ten years), $40,000 was needed; for expenses at Colonial and Indian exhibition, $13,000; for additional charges on the administration of justice account, $40,000; for the land improvement fund, $93,000, and for new buildings at the Model Farm, say $20,000. For meeting this deficit, in face of a stationary revenue, there were several courses open. 1. They could seek new sources of income by new modes of taxation. 2. Reduce the charges on revenue by withholding grants or transferring to municipalities a portion of the charge of maintaining lunatics. The latter had been suggested by Mr. Meredith. Ontario dealt more liberally than any other country in the world with this class of unfortunates. The government intended to meet the deficit by drawing directly on the surplus. He was happy to say that the province possessed such a surplus.

The treasurer submitted a detailed statement of the assets and liabilities of the province, which showed that after all liabilities presently payable were liquidated there was a clear surplus of $6,766,090.

Reference was then made to the economy that had been exercised by the government in public expenditure. During last year only $40,000 had been paid out of the surplus, and that sum went to Quebec. "The treasurer of that province," said Mr. Ross, "intimated in his last financial statement that Sir John Macdonald had admitted that it was nothing but right that the Dominion should pay the costs of maintaining provincial rights in the courts. If this were carried out, Ontario would have a claim of about $100,000 against the Dominion for expenses incurred in connection with the boundary award, the rivers and streams bill, the license dispute, etc." The treasurer hoped that the difference between Quebec, the Dominion and Ontario would be speedily settled, but he feared that would have to be in the courts. He hoped the Opposition would lend their valuable assistance in seeing that Ontario secured her rights in this respect. He had done everything possible to have the claims of this province adjusted. The treasurer then moved the house into committee of supply.

Mr. Creighton was the next speaker. He was sorrowful that so much delay had been exhibited in obtaining a settlement between the Dominion, Quebec and Ontario. He considered that the delay was largely due to the inertness of the Ontario Government. Mr. Creighton rejoiced that the Province was now to have an independent audit of its accounts, and he criticised the policy of the Government in disposing of its annuities to meet its railway requirements. He agreed with the principle of the increase in the license fees, but thought the municipalities should have the benefit of the increase. Mr. Creighton laughed at the so-called surplus of $6,766,090. The Provincial railway and other assets were not available. The cash surplus only amounted to $700,000, and out of this $400,000 was now to be taken. Direct taxation was staring us in the face.

The house went into committee of supply, passed the item of $1,750 for Government House and adjourned at 10.05.

Guelph Daily Mercury

FRIDAY EVE'G, FEB. 19, 1886

It is reported that Mr. Page, Chief Engineer of Canada, has reported that the tenders received for the masonry work of the Welland Canal are so low that it would be inadvisable to let the work, as it can't be done for the sums named in the tenders. It is probable that new tenders will be called for.

Forty-one notices have already appeared in the Canada Gazette for charters for railways, or for amendments to existing charters, to be asked from Parliament at the coming session. Four of these relate to railways in the Maritime Provinces, two to Quebec, seventeen to Ontario, sixteen to Manitoba and the Northwest Territories, and three to British Columbia. About half of the number are for new ventures, the others being requisitions for extension of time or powers.

The Imperial Privy Council decided on Thursday that the claims of the Dominion and Quebec Governments against the defunct Exchange Bank have no preference before the claims of other creditors. This means that the Dominion will lose at one swoop the whole $300,000 which Sir Leonard Tilley, as Minister of Finance, loaned to that concern just when it was tottering to its fall. Had he not given the money to gratify a partizan, Senator Ogilvie, the bank would have stopped payments months before it did, and hundreds of unfortunate depositors' funds might have been saved to them to a larger extent than is now possible.

The French-Canadian dissatisfaction with the Dominion Government will not down, but continues to manifest itself in the most emphatic manner. Sir A. P. Caron, Minister of Militia, held a meeting in his own constituency, Quebec County, on Thursday night, and attempted to pack the hall by giving the employees at the citadel, the new drill shed and other Government works a half holiday, and providing conveyances to take them to Sillery, where the gathering was to take place. After Sir Aldolfe had got started on his speech he was greeted with interruptions of "Riel" and "Hangman." Then he gave his janasaries orders to clear the hall and a terrible fight ensued, during which pistol shots were fired, windows smashed with lumps of ice and billets of wood, and one man was so badly injured that medical assistance had to be procured. By and bye the hired rowdies discovered that they were not able to clear the hall, and then the speaking was resumed, but it was no use. Minister of Justice Thompson, Hon. Mr. Costigan, Mr. Tarte, of Le Canadien, and Mr. Casgrain, who acted as a Crown Counsel against Riel, met with the same reception as the gay Sir Caron, and thus the meeting terminated, a miserable fiasco.

IMPERIAL PARLIAMENT.

The New House Reassembles and Mr. Gladstone Speaks.

London, Feb. 18.—Parliament reassembled to-day. Mr. Gladstone stated in the Commons that after the Government had concluded the financial business they would be able to state a part, if not the whole, of the Irish measures they intended to introduce. He expected to be through the financial business about March 22nd. The Government had no intention of introducing coercion in Ireland. Mr. Gladstone said he would follow the Eastern policy inaugurated by Lord Salisbury.

Lord Hartington took a seat behind the treasury bench. He was loudly cheered by the Conservatives. The crowd outside of the Parliament buildings, which usually gives an enthusiastic reception to the Prime Minister, only faintly cheered Mr. Gladstone upon his arrival. There is a general feeling of discontent over the meagreness of the Government's statements regarding its proposed Irish measures. The fact that the Government made no announcement of its programme for the introduction of bills affecting Ireland is taken as an indication that the Cabinet is still undecided as to what course it shall pursue.

Lord Randolph Churchill and the rank and file of the Tories abused and worried Mr. Gladstone and provoked from the Prime Minister a dignified speech in which he said that the Government had a severe and difficult task, which it would endeavour to perform as resolutely and as speedily as possible.

In the House of Lords Earl Granville announced that the Government would not introduce any Irish measures before the first of March. Lord Salisbury said he would wait to see what changes six weeks would make in the policy of the Government. His remark was greeted with cheers. In the House of Commons Mr. Gladstone said the desire of the Government was to propose to the House measures of a positive and substantive character dealing with Ireland, respecting social order and the questions of land and the future Government of Ireland, including a method for such Government.

The House resumed the debate on the Address in reply to the Queen's Speech.

Lord Salisbury, commenting on the announcements by Mr. Gladstone and Lord Granville, complained that the Government is "treating Parliament and a powerful interest with sigular levity."

The Tories vainly tried to goad Lord Rosebery, the Foreign Secretary, to speak on the situation in the East, which is very critical.

A feeling of agitation prevailed on the stock exchange to-day, owing to a lack of confidence among business men in the stability of the Gladstone Government. The wildest rumours have been in circulation. These reports were denied, and towards the close a recovery took place in the market.

CHAPTER XI.

CLEARING THE FIELD FOR ACTION.

She began to talk, therefore, about such things as first came into her head. The tide was out, and she suggested they should exchange the rough road they were treading for the sands, which just here, at anyrate, were sufficiently hard and dry for walking with comfort, though a little further on they resumed their old character of treacherous quickness. Sir Cuthbert did not approve of the suggestion.

"I should be imperilling your safety," he said, "and how could I satisfy my conscience and your parents for such foolhardiness?"

She shrugged hershoulders and laughed, saying,

"If there is danger it is all the more romantic; come let us go. You might be able to rescue me from some fearful peril, and then you would be a hero in my eyes for ever afterwards. Would not that be worth something?"

He smiled and said—

"Just now I am poor-spirited enough to prefer conversation to heroic deeds. Do you remember what we were speaking of before lunch?"

She knitted her delicately-marked eyebrows in apparent perplexity.

"Was it not of this walk? Ah, no, that was after lunch. No, you tax my memory too heavily. I have not an idea."

"Is your memory so bad?"

"Oh, dreadfully. I remember nothing, especially nothing disagreeable."

"I hope I am not going to recall anything very disagreeable. Do you remember last summer my asking you to be my wife?"

She would have given a great deal could she have answered easily—

"No, did you really? How odd! I had forgotten all about it."

But she was rather easily influenced by the humours of others, and as Sir Cuthbert spoke with perfect seriousness, she answered involuntarily in the same tone.

"Certainly, I remember that perfectly well."

"Do you also remember why you refused me?"

"That too. It was because I did not care for you enough."

"Yes, but you said nothing of preferring any one else. So I concluded, reasonably or not, that your heart was free, and I determined if it was to be done, to win a different answer from you some time. From then till now I have never seen you. I have purposely avoided places where I thought I might meet you. I was resolved, while waiting, to put my love to the test, to make surer than sure of it. It was not to be overthrown; I find I cannot live without you. With you for my wife, I should be the happiest of men; without you, the most miserable. When I came here I had made up my mind what to do, and I ask you again, Will you be my wife?"

"Then," she said with the air of one who has made a discovery, "it was of me you were speaking before lunch, when you said you hoped your own wedding would be the next to which you would go, and said all those other things. I should hardly have expected that from you, Sir Cuthbert."

Her manner showed plainly that she was annoyed. Sir Cuthbert made haste to answer.

"You are not angry, Miss Lafone. I implore you not to be angry. I did not, I could not say anything to wound you. I reverence you too much ever to dream of saying one word with which you could find fault. I beg of you not to be annoyed."

"I think I have every reason to be," she said, seizing this pretext for finding fault with him. "You spoke before a whole roomful of people in such a way that they were amused. I suppose you do not imagine I allow myself to be ridiculed in that way."

"Miss Lafone, I beg of you to consider what you say. How could you suppose I should speak of you in such a way as you describe. I am convinced that no one but yourself heard what I said, and even had they done no one could have found fault with it. I feel it. I know it. It is impossible that I should ever speak of you save with respect, and in such a way as to command respect."

She was silent, and after a short pause he went on.

"All this time you have not answered my question. I have hoped for a long time, and——"

"If I remember rightly," she interrupted, "when we were talking before lunch I told you that hope was a very foolish feeling in which to indulge."

He bit his lip, and his face went a shade paler.

"What am I to conclude from that?" he asked at length.

"I should think you might draw your own conclusions."

"You force me to pronounce my own condemnation," he said, with some constraint. "Do you mean that you refuse me again?"

"Yes. I will not marry you."

The words were hard and spoken in a hard tone. She seemed, indeed, unconscious of the pain she was inflicting. She shed no tears; she made no pretty feminine speeches about the pain it gave her to refuse so true a love; and while she spoke she was twirling her muff in her hands.

Sir Cuthbert said nothing. He had hoped. Hope had stolen in at first almost in spite of himself, but latterly he had taken pleasure in making room for it in his heart. Alice was young, he knew she liked him, and she loved no one else. Surely he could prevail. It was a very hard blow when she answered in that short, decided way—

"I will not marry you."

"May I ask why?" he said at last.

"Certainly. Questions, like hope, are cheap. I do not love you."

"At least tell me that you prefer no one else."

"Would that be any consolation to you?"

"I think it would."

"I am sorry I must rob you of even that consolation, which at the same time, allow me to tell you, is generally very unfounded. When a woman refuses a man because she does not care for him enough to marry him, it argues nothing, absolutely nothing, in his favour that she cares for no one else. I could tell you, of course, that I care for no one else, but it would not be true, and you would probably find me out. I do prefer some one else."

"And—and—" he said.

"At present there does not seem much prospect of our marriage. But strange things happen. The world goes round, and everything in its turn comes to the top."

"You cannot tell me who he is."

"Well, hardly," with a smile. "And even if I did, I do not see what you would have gained. You would not call him out, would you?"

"Do not jest; I implore you not to jest," he said. "You cannot possibly tell what this means to me. You would not understand if I tried to tell you, and I pray heaven that you never may understand."

"Understand what?" she asked in a lower tone, impressed almost in spite of herself by the bitterness and despair in his face and voice.

"Understand what it is to love in vain, and to see no means of having your love satisfied. It is not likely," forcing a smile, "that such a thing will ever happen to you. But if ever you were so unfortunate, I should ask you to remember to-day."

She was silent. He was describing to her what seemed exceedingly likely to be her own position, and for a moment an extraordinary idea occurred to her that she would tell him so. But she repressed it, and said—

"I am sorry you are so disappointed had no idea my refusal would wound you so deeply."

"Oh, you are young yet, scarcely a woman; you do not yet know what men and women feel when their dearest hopes are dashed to the ground. Are you sure," he went on passionately, "are you sure you could not love me? You answered without much thought. Reflect, think it over. Remember, my love is no boy's fancy, to last until something else comes to take its place. I am a man, and my love is a man's love, lasting and changeless. It will never fail you, be the years never so long. Do not throw it away in a hurry. I make no boast when I say that you will not meet such love as mine a second time in a human life. I know myself, and may I suggest that you do not yet know yourself? Give me some hope."

To say that Alice remained untouched by this passionate outburst on the part of a man so silent and reserved as Sir Cuthbert would be, if not wholly untrue, at least greatly exaggerated. The first time he had asked her to marry him she had refused, and he had taken his answer and gone away leaving her at peace with herself, and not very deeply moved by the occurrence. Now it was different. His love seemed to have increased since that time, and she too was changed. She could partly, at any rate, understand his feelings. He appeared to her in quite a new light. She had never supposed that this grave, dignified English gentleman could plead with passion and earnestness such as he had just shown. She felt uncomfortable, for all his pleading did not in the least shake her determination, and a little frightened, for the road along which they had come was very lonely; so far as she could see, they were the only people upon it. She began to recall all she had read in novels of what took place on such occasions. They had long passed the post planted in the sand to show where it ceased to be safe walking, and now on one side of their path spread wide, level tracts of sand upon which it was not safe even to set foot. She began to regret her admission that there was some one she preferred to her present suitor. Suppose Sir Cuthbert in his rage should say that since she would not marry him she should marry no one, and should drag her with him into the sands. She herself had put the idea into his head a short time before, and she was utterly at his mercy. There was neither house nor human being within reach of the sound of her voice. An unreasoning terror crept into her heart, which yet she did her best to hide. The tide was coming up, the long monotonous roll of the waves out in the open sea came distinctly to her ears. The sun had gone behind a cloud; everything, earth, sea, and sky, seemed to be in shadow, and she was alone, a couple of miles from home, with a man who seemed to her in her excitement both to look and speak like a madman. She felt more frightened than she had ever felt before, but she made a desperate attempt to appear calm, and in answer to his last words she said in a voice which was all the colder from suppressed emotion—

"I cannot give you any hope; I know my own mind perfectly well. Let us go home; I am tired, and it is getting cold."

She turned abruptly as she spoke and began to walk back to the village.

"For some time Sir Cuthbert said nothing. At last he spoke—

"I would leave you at once, but this road is too lonely for you, and before going back to London to-night I should like to say good-bye to your father.

"Where are you going?"

"From London I shall go to India. I had made up my mind to that in case I was unsuccessful."

"I am sorry," she said a little impatiently, "but you could not expect me to marry you for no other reason than that you asked me."

"I daresay you are right."

They scarcely spoke again before reaching The Thwaite, and later in the evening it became known that Sir Cuthbert had left for London.

ENGLISH CONSERVATIVES

Decide in Caucus to Strenuously Oppose Home Rule.

LONDON, Feb. 18.—The leading members of the Conservative party met at the Carlton club to-day to confer upon the course the party shall pursue in regard to Irish affairs on the reassembling of Parliament. Lord Salisbury presided, and Lord Randolph Churchill and 150 other prominent Tories were present. The speeches made indicate the intention on the part of the Conservatives to offer the most strenuous opposition to any measure presented by the Liberals conceding home rule in Ireland.

Lord Salisbury predicted a union with the Conservatives of that section of the Liberals which follows Lord Hartington and Mr. Goschen. He urged Conservatives to do all that was possible to bring such a union into effect. Some of the speakers commented severely on Lord Randolph Churchill's attack upon the Catholics and his intimacy with members of the Parnellite party. The meeting resolved to make Home Rule a test question in the House of Commons, and for this purpose will support the Parnellites in their demands to have it precede land reform.

Guelph Township Council.

This council met in the council room, county building, city of Guelph, on Monday, 15th February, pursuant to adjournment. M. Sweetnam, reeve, in the chair. Present—All the members. The minutes of last meeting were read and sustained.

An application was presented from Mr. G. D. Porter for re-appoint to the office of collector.

Mr. John R. Thompson applied for re-appointment as assessor.

Mr. Matthew Barber made application to be refunded $1 for dog tax as he did not own the dog he was assessed for. Ordered to be refunded.

In accordance with notice given at last meeting a by-law was introduced by Mr. Hood, seconded by Mr. Porter for appointing certain township officers. The by-law passed through the required readings, appointing Geo. D. Porter collector and John R. Thompson, assessor for the current year.

On motion by Mr. Porter, seconded by Mr. Hood, a by-law was introduced for the purpose of remunerating certain township officers. Said by-law passed the required readings. The collector to be allowed two per cent. on all moneys collected on behalf of the council. Auditors to have $8 each, assessor $130, clerk $130, treasurer $100. The assessment to be made in the months of May and June.

On motion made by Mr. Hobson, seconded by Mr. Hood, a by-law was introduced and passed appointing public health officers. The blanks of the by-law were filled by appointing Henry Watson, Geo. A. Darby, William Whitelaw, with M. Sweetnam, reeve, and A. McCorkindale, clerk, as board of health for the current year.

The reeve read a petition from F. J. Chadwick stating that the Waterloo road is in many places in a very bad state of repair, and requesting the council to grant a certain amount for grading and gravelling that portion from Glennie's gate to the city limits in the coming season. Referred to road and bridge committee (East).

The reeve read a letter from Peter McNaughton stating that the southern portion of the Waterloo road was greatly in need of repair, requiring culverts and grading. Referred to road and bridge committee (East).

John McKilegott was present requesting aid. Allowed $4 for present necessities.

On motion by Mr. Hood, seconded by Mr. Porter, a by-law was introduced to authorize the reeve to sign a lease and affix the corporate seal to the same, for the use of the room now occupied by the council, for meetings of council and other township business—said by-law went through the required readings and passed.

Mr. Kirby in accordance with notice given at last meeting introduced a by-law for appointing fence-viewers, pound keepers and overseers of highways. Said by-law passed through the required readings, making the following appointments, viz:

The Reeve read a petition from Chas. W. Heffernan and 28 others, praying that the council would pass a by-law under the authority of an act passed in the year 1878, and cited as the Ontario Tile Drainage Act, for the purpose of enabling the petitioners to borrow money for tile draining their farms.

Moved by Mr. Hobson, seconded by Mr. Hood, that the petition of Chas. W. Heffernan and 28 others be laid over for further consideration, as more information is required before the council considers it advisable to put the township to the expense of advertising, &c. And in the meantime the Clerk be instructed to write to Mr. Heffernan (and others if necessary) for information as to the amount of money which will likely be required, and also drawing their attention to the requirements of the Act. Carried.

"Does it give satisfaction?"

We cannot point to one instance where it did not.

"Where does it have the largest sale?"

Right in the city of Hamilton, where it is manufactured, there has been over one thousand dollars' worth sold in the last year retail, and the great majority of the sales are by one recommending it to another. For sale at 50c and $1.00 per bottle by Thos Fetrie, Druggist,

THE FRANCHISE ACT.

The Qualifications of Voters—The Process of Registration Explained.

The time having arrived for the preparation of the voters' lists under the new Dominion Franchise Act, an appeal is made to the Liberals of Wellington to have their names enrolled as voters without delay. To assist in so doing a short summary of the qualification of voters and of the process for securing registration is given.

QUALIFICATION.

To entitle a person to be put on the list he must be—

(1) 21 years of age.

(2) A British subject by birth or naturalization.

(3) Owner of real property of value:
In a city, $300.
In a town, $200.
In a county, $150.

(4) Or tenant of real property under ease at a rental of
$2 per month.
$6 per quarter.
$12 per half year.
$20 per year.

Provided that the tenant has been in possession for one year before 1st January 1886, and shall have paid one year's rent before final revision.

If the rent is yearly it will be sufficient if $20 of last year's rent shall have been paid before final revision.

Change of tenancy without intermission will not destroy the vote if aggregate of tenancies would give vote.

In cities at $300.
In towns at $200.
In counties at $150.

In counties outside of villages the rent may be payable either in money or in money's worth.

(5) Or a bona fide occupant for one year before 1st January, 1886, and enjoying the revenues and profits for his own or his wife's use of real property of the following values:

In cities, $300.
In towns, $200.
In counties, $150.

The occupancy may be under license of occupation from the crown or from any person or corporation.

(6) Or by income without any other qualification.

A person may be registered as an income voter, if he derives an income from his earnings, trade or profession, or from some investment in Canada of $300 a year, for one year before 1st January, 1886.

In counties the earnings may be either in money or money's worth.

(7) Sons of owners of real property are qualified—

(b) When the father is dead, and would, if living, be qualified, residence with the mother will suffice, and as many sons as the property will qualify may be registered, with preference to the eldest and elder sons, as in the last case.

Occasional absence from home of a son—not more than six months in the year—will not disqualify, and all time spent at school or college in Canada will be counted as if spent at home.

Son of an owner includes grandson, step-son and son-in-law, and all these may be registered as voters on the property if of sufficient value. The provision as to sons of owners applies to the counties as well as towns and cities in cases other than those of farmers' sons.

(8) Farmers' sons—The same provisions substantially apply to farmers' sons, as stated in the last paragraph in respect of sons of owners in cities and towns.

A farm is to be not less than 20 acres of land.

(9) Fishermen and owners of real property and boats, nets, fishing gear and tackle of aggregate value of $150.

Income voters register where they reside at time of registration—all others where property is situate. If in more than one polling division in the same electoral district the voter may register in either.

All names entered in the last revised voters' lists under the old law, will be entered in the new lists by the revising barrister.

Every person not on the assessment roll desiring to have his name on the list must at once send to the revising barrister an application in writing to be put on the list, giving his name, residence and the property or other qualification in respect of which he applies to be put on.

This application must be accompanied by a declaration which is to be made and signed before a commissioner for taking affidavits, a notary or justice of the peace, showing the grounds of the applicants claim to be put on the list.

Substantially the voters are those who can qualify as owners, tenants, occupants, income voters, sons of owners and farmers' sons.

See that the application shows as correctly and fully as possible the qualification.

Make the declaration before a commissioner, notary or justice of the peace. It is convenient to have it attached to the application on the same sheet.

In case of an absent person, let some one else having a knowledge of the qualification make the application and declaration.

When one cannot find a justice or other person before whom the declaration can be taken let the application alone be sent in, with an explanation of the reason, and it would be well in such case to have the truth of the facts in the application certified on the back of it by one, or if possible, two other persons.

The application and declaration must be sent at once to the Revising barrister of the district.

URGENCY OF THE MATTER.

No name not on the last voters' list or assessment roll will be placed on the preliminary voters' list, unless on application and declaration as above.

In case of any difficulty or doubt, application should be made at once for advice to some of the Liberal friends in the neighborhood.

MR. W. R. TIFFEN, district superintendent G. T. R., is in the city to-day arranging local matters in connection with the road.

A LETTER from Joseph Brandon, in reply to Chas. Maddock's letter of yesterday in reference to skating, is crowded out to-day. This is the last letter which will appear on the subject.

AT the Fergus cattle fair on Thursday there was a good representation of Guelph buyers. Mr. John Roberts purchased 10 head of fine cattle at $38.50 per head. Between 45 and 50 fat cattle were purchased by the city buyers.

PORK still remains firm on the market, $6.25 being paid for prime lots. Other produce keeps at regular prices. The vegetable market is at a standstill. Oats are eagerly sought after.

CONCERT AT EDEN MILLS.—The Presbyterian church, Eden Mills, held their annual tea social last evening, and it was undoubtedly one of the best they had ever had. The moonlight, and good sleighing brought out a large crowd of people. The speakers of the evening were the Rev. J. C. Smith, B. D., F. Swan, Sievewright and others. The choir of St. Andrew's church, Guelph, were present, and contributed largely towards the evening's enjoyment, by their rendering of several solos, quartettes, choruses, etc. Mrs. Hill, the organist, also played several pieces with good taste.

SPEED SKATING RINK.—The carnival tonight promises to be well represented by costumers, and the children are anticipating a good time. This being the last children's carnival of the season there should be a large turnout. Good prizes will be given and competent judges appointed. Robert Fields will give an exhibition of fancy skating, appearing in costume. He is considered by critics to be the best skater of his age in Ontario. Jos. Adams will give a short exhibition of acrobatic and gymnastic skating, his acts being entirely original, and never before attempted in public. Skating at nine o'clock for those not in costume.

GUELPH MUSICIANS ABROAD.—The annual concert under the auspices of the Fergus brass band is regarded as one of the events of the season by the music-loving citizens of Fergus. The committee secured the services of Mr. and Mrs. Crowe, the Misses Borthwick and F. G. Spragge, who aside from solo work, are becoming favourites as part vocalists. Also Mrs. Moore, who is always appreciated, and Mr. Will Spragge, who made his debut as a comic singer with great success on this occasion. The pieces contributed included vocal solos, duetts, trios, and quarettes from both classic and popular authors, a piano duet, a guitar solo, and the programme concluded with a comic operetta. There is not space for details of the merits of each piece, but it is sufficient to say every number showed careful study, and was received with delight by the large audience. There seems to be quite a demand for the services of the above company both at home and abroad.

POLICE COURT.—Patrick Sullivan and Robt. Armstrong were charged before the Police Magistrate this morning with breaking into a sealed car on the Grand Trunk between here and Stratford while stealing a ride. The case was remanded until Monday to allow of the conductor of the train being present. The case of E. Hartnett, charged by License Inspector Cowan for selling liquor in prohibited hours, was enlarged until to-morrow.

EXHUMED.—Yesterday afternoon the body of David McCuen, late hostler at the Victoria Hotel, was exhumed in the presence of Dr. Herod, coroner, and Chief of Police Randall. On the coffin being opened the body was found to be in the same position as when it was placed in there and no evidence was apparent that the deceased had been buried alive. The theory now is that the sounds which Mrs. Gokey heard were caused by the loose earth settling down on the coffin.

The Ontario Tankard.

The Guelph curlers who competed for the Ontario Tankard arrived home by the mid-night train. They did not succeed in carrying off this much coveted trophy, but they have no reason to feel ashamed of their record, and deserve congratulation for winning their way to the last contest, which was between them and the Granites, of Toronto. They had the luck—or it may be taken as a misfortune—to draw against some of what is considered the best clubs in Ontario, namely, Bowmanville, which they defeated by six shots; Bright, which they defeated by seven shots; and the Granites. The home players state that all the games in the final competition were most keenly contested, and it is not to be wondered at seeing that the best clubs out of some eighty competitors were represented. The ice yesterday was "drug," and some of the home players had to change their stones to the "keen" side. The condition of the ice was as fair to one club as the other, but with this difference, that the home club are not in the habit of playing on dull ice, which placed them at a certain disadvantage, and did not give an opportunity of making the fine play which would be looked for in a competition of this kind. The Guelph club being the second best won the vice president of the Ontario Branch's silver medal. The following is the score of yesterday's matches:

THE TABLEAUX.—The city hall was filled to the doors last night by a fashionable and appreciative audience to see and hear the entertainment prepared by the Young Peoples' Literary Association of St. George's Church of this city. This entertainment was the outcome of similar exhibitions which have been given in the school room of the church for a long time back, and so popular have they become through the excellent talent brought out that it was found impossible to accomodate all its patrons, hence the removal of the programme to the city hall stage. About 8 o'clock Mr. James Clark, president of the association, called upon Misses Perry and Saunders for an instrumental duet, which was given very creditably. Prof. Edwards then gave a reading from "Hiawatha's wooing," which was followed by tableaux of the same. The Rev. Professor's elocution was much enjoyed. At the fall of the curtain between the scenes, Mr. Thomas and Miss Cope sang a couple of solos, which were well received. The tableaux of "Gen. Tom Thumb and wife" were generally remarked to be very lifelike, and so energetic was the applause that the little people had to reappear before the curtain. A quartette, "Dancing o'er the Waves," completed the first part. In the second part Prof. Philp and Mrs. James Clark gave a violin and piano duet, "Swiss Airs," which was most heartily enjoyed. Mrs. Wilcox sang "Janet's choice," and Miss Cope sang "When 'tis moonlight." These two songs were nicely sung and much admired. Miss Perry and the Misses Holliday gave piano selections. The statuary tableaux "Returning from the vintage" and "Zenobia" were warmly applauded. Mr. F. Bond gave a couple of concertina solos very nicely. The three tableaux of the snow shoe club were well put on and the fire lights were better than in the other tableaux. Mr. T. W. Saunders introduced and explained the different tableaux, and Mr. James Clark conducted the programme. A chorus "Drops of Rain" and the National Anthem made up a most enjoyable evening's pleasure.

A Factory Burned.

STRATHROY, Ont., Feb. 18.—This morning about 5:30 a fire broke out in H. E. Ketchum's table, snath and cradle factory, a wooden structure with brick warehouse. The building containing machinery and stuff in course of manufacture, which was totally destroyed. Loss about $20,000, insured for $6,600, on factory and machinery, $5,600, in Western; on warehouse and contents, $500 each, in Waterloo Mutual.

Too Many Wives.

BELLEVILLE, Feb. 18.—Horatio Hoskin, formerly a well-to-do farmer at Fredericksburg, has been arrested in Welland county for bigamy. He married Miss Ella Belch, of Belleville in 1879. In three months she left him on account of his brutality. He then sold out, moved to the Niagara district and for a second time entered into the married state. His second wife tired of him after three weeks, but hearing that he for a third time intended to enter for the matrimonial stakes, had him arrested on a charge of bigamy.

Death of J. B. Gough.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 18.—John B. Gough died here to-day. He was an Englishman, and was in his 69th year. He landed in New York 1829. As a boy he sang in concert halls in that city and gained much applause for his mimicry. In 1845, when he was 28, he concluded that intemperance, to which he was much addicted, was a bad thing, and from that time adopted temperance as a profession. He accumulated wealth and died worth $300,000. He has lectured both in the old world and the new thousands of times, and was one of the most distinguished and eloquent advocates of total abstinence that has ever appeared on any platform.

An Innocent Convict.

HAMILTON, Feb. 18.—In last July John McLaughlin and Thomas Sheridan were arrested, charged by a young negro named R. C. O. Benjamin with robbing him of a gold watch and chain. McLaughlin was found guilty and sentenced to three years' imprisonment on Benjamin's evidence, although he strongly protested that he was innocent. The watch the negro claimed was presented to him by a colored Masonic lodge in Brinkley, Arkansas, but G. S. Lynch-Staunton, who defended the prisoner at his trial, has received a letter from the secretary of the colored Masonic lodge in Brinkley, stating that they know nothing of Benjamin, and that they never presented anyone with a gold watch. It was believed at the time of the trial that McLaughlin was committed unjustly, and his innocence is now established. An endeavor to obtain his release will be made at once.

ONTARIO LEGISLATURE.

Toronto, Feb. 18.

Mr. Monk introduced a bill to amend the Consolidated Municipal Act. Mr. Mowat introduced three bills which were all read a first time. An act for improving the practice of conveyancing and amending the law of property; respecting returns of convictions by stipendiary and police magistrates; respecting criminal justice accounts payable by the province.

THE FINANCIAL STATEMENT.

The Hon. Mr. Ross made his financial statement, and spoke for nearly two hours. The last statement he presented showed that the expenditure was expected to exceed the revenue by 148,000, but he was happy to say that the position of the province at the close of the fiscal year was much better than he anticipated. The total estimated receipts from all sources for the year had been $2,585,148, while the actual expenditures were $2,697,420, or $112,271 more than was expected. Referring to the items of expenditure the Treasurer said under the head of civil government there was a slight increase. The estimated expenditure had been $181,444, while $184,254 was expended. For legislation $125,762 was spent, while the estimated figures were $120,850. This excess he attributed to the increased cost of sessional writers and printing. For the administration of justice, $20,671 more was spent than had been estimated ($334,252.) The main item in this increase was on account of criminal justice in the different counties over which the government had no control. This, the Treasurer contended, was a fair barometer of the commercial depression which now prevailed in the country. When times were hard there was more crime. For education $7,735 in excess of the estimate ($525,829) had been expended. For public institutions $6,114 less than the estimate ($619,685) was expended. The average cost of maintenance of inmates of all the public institutions had been reduced from $188,22 per head per annum in 1884 to $174.40 in 1885, and in the insane asylums from $133 to $123. The immigration expenses had been $912 less than the estimates, $19,900, and $24,281 less than in 1884. For agriculture and arts the expenditure was $668 less than the estimate—$160,445. The principal item in this expenditure is in connection with the Agricultural College and Experimental Farm at Guelph. For repairs and maintenance of public building $13,786 more was spent than estimated, $48,815. It cost $7,669 to keep the rickety old parliament buildings in repair. For new public buildings the estimated cost had been $201,138, while only $155,720 were expended, and for public works $19,383 less than the estimate ($58,073) were expended. For colonization roads the estimate was $102,500, while $121,435 were expended. There was an excess of $3,173 on the estimated expenditure ($102,900, on account of charges on crown lands. For refunds $1,779 less than the estimate ($32,802) was spent, and under the head of miscellaneous the excesses of expenditure were $12,848,. The estimate was $87,472. It would thus be seen that the total expenditure under the supply bill was $2,693,525 and the receipts $2,697,420, leaving a surplus of $3,894.

The Treasurer next undertook to prove that the province was not living on capital, as had been charged by an honorable member, who had also held that the proceeds of the crown lands should not be touched, but should be set aside for permanent investments for the benefit of posterity. From 1872 to 1885 the total receipts from the sale of crown lands had been $2,809,186, less interest included thereon ($1,028,054), from woods and forests $7,630,902, (less $514,051 for ground rents), or a total of $8,897,983. Allowing for refunds and crown land department expenses there had been a net income from this source of $6,878,240. The province had invested in public buildings (asylums, prisons, jails, normal schools, agricultural and scientific college) $2,958,354; in public works and colonization roads $2,096,273; in railways $3,662,595, a total of $8,717,220, or $1,839,980 more than the total receipts from crown lands and woods and forests. The treasurer referred to the charges that the expense of collecting the crown land timber fees was excessive. He said that it cost Ontario but $17 per $100 to collect these dues, while it cost the Dominion $112 to collect every $100. The new expenditures that the Government had to shoulder since 1872 were next referred to. During these years there had been an expenditure of $458,800 in new public buildings and maintaining new civil service officers and servants, such as division court inspector, bureau of industries, revising voters' lists, shorthand writers for the courts, etc. The provincial board of health was also a new expense, costing the province $8,000 annually. With regard to this the treasurer compared this sum with what it had cost Montreal for its smallpox outbreak. That city had spent no less than $150 000 for a single outbreak. The deaths in Quebec during that epidemic had been:—Montreal 3,500, suburbs 1,500, other parts of the province 3,000, total 8,000; while in Ontario for the year there had been only 138 cases and 18 deaths.

The treasurer next presented to the house the sources from which he proposed to derive his revenue to carry on the business of the province as follows:

The treasurer spoke of the item of revenue from license at some length. They expected $200,000 from this source, notwithstanding that the Scott Act had been passed in several counties. They proposed to accomplish this by raising the price of licenses. To these tariffs the municipalities could add any amount they saw fit. Since the government had taken charge of the licenses it was its intention to pocket the increases. The government now takes one-third of the license. The new tariff would be:

The treasurer then announced that there would be a total deficit of some $401,000 for the incoming year. This could not possibly be avoided, as there were several new charges on the revenue. For new asylum accommodation, which was a strict necessity, $195,000 was required; for consolidating the statutes (which only occurred every ten years), $40,000 was needed; for expenses at Colonial and Indian exhibition, $13,000; for additional charges on the administration of justice account, $40,000; for the land improvement fund, $93,000, and for new buildings at the Model Farm, say $20,000. For meeting this deficit, in face of a stationary revenue, there were several courses open. 1. They could seek new sources of income by new modes of taxation. 2. Reduce the charges on revenue by withholding grants or transferring to municipalities a portion of the charge of maintaining lunatics. The latter had been suggested by Mr. Meredith. Ontario dealt more liberally than any other country in the world with this class of unfortunates. The government intended to meet the deficit by drawing directly on the surplus. He was happy to say that the province possessed such a surplus.

The treasurer submitted a detailed statement of the assets and liabilities of the province, which showed that after all liabilities presently payable were liquidated there was a clear surplus of $6,766,090.

Reference was then made to the economy that had been exercised by the government in public expenditure. During last year only $40,000 had been paid out of the surplus, and that sum went to Quebec. "The treasurer of that province," said Mr. Ross, "intimated in his last financial statement that Sir John Macdonald had admitted that it was nothing but right that the Dominion should pay the costs of maintaining provincial rights in the courts. If this were carried out, Ontario would have a claim of about $100,000 against the Dominion for expenses incurred in connection with the boundary award, the rivers and streams bill, the license dispute, etc." The treasurer hoped that the difference between Quebec, the Dominion and Ontario would be speedily settled, but he feared that would have to be in the courts. He hoped the Opposition would lend their valuable assistance in seeing that Ontario secured her rights in this respect. He had done everything possible to have the claims of this province adjusted. The treasurer then moved the house into committee of supply.

Mr. Creighton was the next speaker. He was sorrowful that so much delay had been exhibited in obtaining a settlement between the Dominion, Quebec and Ontario. He considered that the delay was largely due to the inertness of the Ontario Government. Mr. Creighton rejoiced that the Province was now to have an independent audit of its accounts, and he criticised the policy of the Government in disposing of its annuties to meet its railway requirements. He agreed with the principle of the increase in the license fees, but thought the municipalities should have the benefit of the increase. Mr. Creighton laughed at the so-called surplus of $6,766,090. The Provincial railway and other assets were not available. The cash surplus only amounted to $700,000, and out of this $400,000 was now to be taken. Direct taxation was staring us in the face.

The house went into committee of supply, passed the item of $1,750 for Government House and adjourned at 10.05.

Guelph Daily Mercury

FRIDAY EVE'G, FEB. 19, 1886

It is reported that Mr. Page, Chief Engineer of Canada, has reported that the tenders received for the masonry work of the Welland Canal are so low that it would be inadvisable to let the work, as it can't be done for the sums named in the tenders. It is probable that new tenders will be called for.

Forty-one notices have already appeared in the Canada Gazette for charters for railways, or for amendments to existing charters, to be asked from Parliament at the coming session. Four of these relate to railways in the Maritime Provinces, two to Quebec, seventeen to Ontario, sixteen to Manitoba and the Northwest Territories, and three to British Columbia. About half of the number are for new ventures, the others being requisitions for extension of time or powers.

The Imperial Privy Council decided on Thursday that the claims of the Dominion and Quebec Governments against the defunct Exchange Bank have no preference before the claims of other creditors. This means that the Dominion will lose at one swoop the whole $300,000 which Sir Leonard Tilley, as Minister of Finance, loaned to that concern just when it was tottering to its fall. Had he not given the money to gratify a partizan, Senator Ogilvie, the bank would have stopped payments months before it did, and hundreds of unfortunate depositors' funds might have been saved to them to a larger extent than is now possible.

The French-Canadian dissatisfaction with the Dominion Government will not down, but continues to manifest itself in the most emphatic manner. Sir A. P. Caron, Minister of Militia, held a meeting in his own constituency, Quebec County, on Thursday night, and attempted to pack the hall by giving the employees at the citadel, the new drill shed and other Government works a half holiday, and providing conveyances to take them to Sillery, where the gathering was to take place. After Sir Aldolfe had got started on his speech he was greeted with interruptions of "Riel" and "Hangman." Then he gave his janasaries orders to clear the hall and a terrible fight ensued, during which pistol shots were fired, windows smashed with lumps of ice and billets of wood, and one man was so badly injured that medical assistance had to be procured. By and bye the hired rowdies discovered that they were not able to clear the hall, and then the speaking was resumed, but it was no use. Minister of Justice Thompson, Hon. Mr. Costigan, Mr. Tarte, of Le Canadien, and Mr. Casgrain, who acted as a Crown Counsel against Riel, met with the same reception as the gay Sir Caron, and thus the meeting terminated, a miserable fiasco.

IMPERIAL PARLIAMENT.

The New House Reassembles and Mr. Gladstone Speaks.

London, Feb. 18.—Parliament reassembled to-day. Mr. Gladstone stated in the Commons that after the Government had concluded the financial business they would be able to state a part, if not the whole, of the Irish measures they intended to introduce. He expected to be through the financial business about March 22nd. The Government had no intention of introducing coercion in Ireland. Mr. Gladstone said he would follow the Eastern policy inaugurated by Lord Salisbury.

Lord Hartington took a seat behind the treasury bench. He was loudly cheered by the Conservatives. The crowd outside of the Parliament buildings, which usually gives an enthusiastic reception to the Prime Minister, only faintly cheered Mr. Gladstone upon his arrival. There is a general feeling of discontent over the meagreness of the Government's statements regarding its proposed Irish measures. The fact that the Government made no announcement of its programme for the introduction of bil s affecting Ireland is taken as an indication that the Cabinet is still undecided as to what course it shall pursue.

Lord Randolph Churchill and the rank and file of the Tories abused and worried Mr. Gladstone and provoked from the Prime Minister a dignified speech in which he said that the Government had a severe and difficult task, which it would endeavour to perform as resolutely and as speedily as possible.

In the House of Lords Earl Granville announced that the Government would not introduce any Irish measures before the first of March. Lord Salisbury said he would wait to see what changes six weeks would make in the policy of the Government. His remark was greeted with cheers. In the House of Commons Mr. Gladstone said the desire of the Government was to propose to the House measures of a positive and substantive character dealing with Ireland, respecting social order and the questions of land and the future Government of Ireland, including a method for such Government.

The House resumed the debate on the Address in reply to the Queen's Speech.

Lord Salisbury, commenting on the announcements by Mr. Glads one and Lord Granville, complained that the Government is "treating Parliament and a powerful interest with sigular levity."

The Tories vainly tried to goad Lord Rossbery, the Foreign Secretary, to speak on the situation in the East, which is very critical.

A feeling of agitation prevailed on the stock exchange to-day, owing to a lack of confidence among business men in the stability of the Gladstone Government. The wildest rumours have been in circulation. These reports were denied, and towards the close a recovery took place in the market.

CLEARING THE FIELD FOR ACTION.

She began to talk, therefore, about such things as first came into her head. The tide was out, and she suggested they should exchange the rough road they were treading for the sands, which just here, at anyrate, were sufficiently hard and dry for walking with comfort, though a little further on they resumed their old character of treacherous quickness. Sir Cuthbert did not approve of the suggestion.

"I should be imperilling your safety," he said, "and how could I satisfy my conscience and your parents for such foolhardiness?"

She shrugged hershoulders and laughed, saying,

"If there is danger it is all the more romantic; come let us go. You might be able to rescue me from some fearful peril, and then you would be a hero in my eyes for ever afterwards. Would not that be worth something?"

He smiled and said—

"Just now I am poor-spirited enough to prefer conversation to heroic deeds. Do you remember what we were speaking of before lunch?"

She knitted her delicately-marked eyebrows in apparent perplexity.

"Was it not of this walk? Ah, no, that was after lunch. No, you tax my memory too heavily. I have not an idea."

"Is your memory so bad?"

"Oh, dreadfully. I remember nothing, especially nothing disagreeable."

"I hope I am not going to recall anything very disagreeable. Do you remember last summer my asking you to be my wife?"

She would have given a great deal could she have answered easily—

"No, did you really? How odd! I had forgotten all about it."

But she was rather easily influenced by the humours of others, and as Sir Cuthbert spoke with perfect seriousness, she answered involuntarily in the same tone.

"Certainly, I remember that perfectly well."

"Do you also remember why you refused me?"

"That too. It was because I did not care for you enough."

"Yes, but you said nothing of preferring any one else. So I concluded, reasonably or not, that your heart was free, and I determined if it was to be done, to win a different answer from you some time. From then till now I have never seen you. I have purposely avoided places where I thought I might meet you. I was resolved, while waiting, to put my love to the test, to make surer than sure of it. It was not to be overthrown; I find I cannot live without you. With you for my wife, I should be the happiest of men; without you, the most miserable. When I came here I had made up my mind what to do, and I ask you again, Will you be my wife?"

"Then," she said with the air of one who has made a discovery, "it was of me you were speaking before lunch, when you said you hoped your own wedding would be the next to which you would go, and said all those other things. I should hardly have expected that from you, Sir Cuthbert."

Her manner showed plainly that she was annoyed. Sir Cuthbert made haste to answer.

"You are not angry, Miss Lafone. I implore you not to be angry. I did not, I could not say anything to wound you. I reverence you too much ever to dream of saying one word with which you could find fault, I beg of you not to be annoyed."

"I think I have every reason to be," she said, seizing this pretext for finding fault with him. "You spoke before a whole roomful of people in such a way that they were amused. I suppose you do not imagine I allow myself to be ridiculed in that way."

"Miss Lafone, I beg of you to consider what you say. How could you suppose I should speak of you in such a way as you describe. I am convinced that no one but yourself heard what I said, and even had they done no one could have found fault with it. I feel it. I know it. It is impossible that I should ever speak of you save with respect, and in such a way as to command respect."

She was silent, and after a short pause he went on.

"All this time you have not answered my question. I have hoped for a long time, and——"

"If I remember rightly," she interrupted, "when we were talking before lunch I told you that hope was a very foolish feeling in which to indulge."

He bit his lip, and his face went a shade paler.

"What am I to conclude from that?" he asked at length.

"I should think you might draw your own conclusions."

"You force me to pronounce my own condemnation," he said, with some constraint. "Do you mean that you refuse me again?"

"Yes. I will not marry you."

The words were hard and spoken in a hard tone. She seemed, indeed, unconscious of the pain she was inflicting. She shed no tears; she made no pretty feminine speeches about the pain it gave her to refuse so true a love; and while she spoke she was twirling her muff in her hands.

Sir Cuthbert said nothing. He had hoped. Hope had stolen in at first almost in spite of himself, but latterly he had taken pleasure in making room for it in his heart. Alice was young, he knew she liked him, and she loved no one else. Surely he could prevail. It was a very hard blow when she answered in that short, decided way—

"I will not marry you."

"May I ask why?" he said at last.

"Certainly. Questions, like hope, are cheap. I do not love you."

"At least tell me that you prefer no one else."

"Would that be any consolation to you?"

"I think it would."

"I am sorry I must rob you of even that consolation, which at the same time, allow me to tell you, is generally very unfounded. When a woman refuses a man because she does not care for him enough to marry him, it argues nothing, absolutely nothing, in his favour that she cares for no one else. I could tell you, of course, that I care for no one else, but it would not be true, and you would probably find me out. I do prefer some one else."

"And—and—" he said.

"At present there does not seem much prospect of our marriage. But strange things happen. The world goes round, and everything in its turn comes to the top."

"You cannot tell me who he is."

"Well, hardly," with a smile. "And even if I did, I do not see what you would have gained. You would not call him out, would you?"

"Do not jest; I implore you not to jest," he said. "You cannot possibly tell what this means to me. You would not understand if I tried to tell you, and I pray heaven that you never may understand."

"Understand what?" she asked in a lower tone, impressed almost in spite of herself by the bitterness and despair in his face and voice.

"Understand what it is to love in vain, and to see no means of having your love satisfied. It is not likely," forcing a smile, "that such a thing will ever happen to you. But if ever you were so unfortunate, I should ask you to remember to-day."

She was silent. He was describing to her what seemed exceedingly likely to be her own position, and for a moment an extraordinary idea occurred to her that she would tell him so. But she repressed it, and said—

"I am sorry you are so disappointed had no idea my refusal would wound you so deeply."

"Oh, you are young yet, scarcely a woman; you do not yet know what men and women feel when their dearest hopes are dashed to the ground. Are you sure," he went on passionately, "are you sure you could not love me? You answered without much thought. Reflect, think it over. Remember, my love is no boy's fancy, to last until something else comes to take its place. I am a man, and my love is a man's love, lasting and changeless. It will never fail you, be the years never so long. Do not throw it away in a hurry. I make no boast when I say that you will not meet such love as mine a second time in a human life. I know myself, and may I suggest that you do not yet know yourself? Give me some hope."

To say that Alice remained untouched by this passionate outburst on the part of a man so silent and reserved as Sir Cuthbert would be, if not wholly untrue, at least greatly exaggerated. The first time he had asked her to marry him she had refused, and he had taken his answer and gone away leaving her at peace with herself, and not very deeply moved by the occurrence. Now it was different. His love seemed to have increased since that time, and she too was changed. She could partly, at any rate, understand his feelings. He appeared to her in quite a new light. She had never supposed that this grave, dignified English gentleman could plead with passion and earnestness such as he had just shown. She felt uncomfortable, for all his pleading did not in the least shake her determination, and a little frightened, for the road along which they had come was very lonely; so far as she could see, they were the only people upon it. She began to recall all she had read in novels of what took place on such occasions. They had long passed the post planted in the sand to show where it ceased to be safe walking, and now on one side of their path spread wide, level tracts of sand upon which it was not safe even to set foot. She began to regret her admission that there was some one she preferred to her present suitor. Suppose Sir Cuthbert in his rage should say that since she would not marry him she should marry no one, and should drag her with him into the sands. She herself had put the idea into his head a short time before, and she was utterly at his mercy. There was neither house nor human being within reach of the sound of her voice. An unreasoning terror crept into her heart, which yet she did her best to hide. The tide was coming up, the long monotonous roll of the waves out in the open sea came distinctly to her ears. The sun had gone behind a cloud; everything, earth, sea, and sky, seemed to be in shadow, and she was alone, a couple of miles from home, with a man who seemed to her in her excitement both to look and speak like a madman. She felt more frightened than she had ever felt before, but she made a desperate attempt to appear calm, and in answer to his last words she said in a voice which was all the colder from suppressed emotion—

"I cannot give you any hope; I know my own mind perfectly well. Let us go home; I am tired, and it is getting cold."

She turned abruptly as she spoke and began to walk back to the village.

"For some time Sir Cuthbert said nothing. At last he spoke—

"I would leave you at once, but this road is too lonely for you, and before going back to London to-night I should like to say good-bye to your father.

"Where are you going?"

"From London I shall go to India. I had made up my mind to that in case I was unsuccessful."

"I am sorry," she said a little impatiently, "but you could not expect me to marry you for no other reason than that you asked me."

"I daresay you are right."

They scarcely spoke again before reaching The Thwaite, and later in the evening it became known that Sir Cuthbert had left for London.

ENGLISH CONSERVATIVES

LONDON, Feb. 18.—The leading members of the Conservative party met at the Carlton club to-day to confer upon the course the party shall pursue in regard to Irish affairs on the reassembling of Parliament. Lord Salisbury presided, and Lord Randolph Churchill and 150 other prominent Tories were present. The speeches made indicate the intention on the part of the Conservatives to offer the most strenuous opposition to any measure presented by the Liberals conceding home rule in Ireland.

Lord Salisbury predicted a union with the Conservatives of that section of the Liberals which follows Lord Hartington and Mr. Goschen. He urged Conservatives to do all that was possible to bring such a union into effect. Some of the speakers commented severely on Lord Randolph Churchill's attack upon the Catholics and his intimacy with members of the Parnellite party. The meeting resolved to make Home Rule a test question in the House of Commons, and for this purpose will support the Parnellites in their demands to have it precede land reform.

Guelph Township Council.

This council met in the council room, county building, city of Guelph, on Monday, 15th February, pursuant to adjournment. M. Sweetnam, reeve, in the chair. Present—All the members. The minutes of last meeting were read and sustained.

An application was presented from Mr. G. D. Porter for re-appoint to the office of collector.

Mr. John R. Thompson applied for re-appointment as assessor.

Mr. Matthew Barber made application to be refunded $1 for dog tax as he did not own the dog he was assessed for. Ordered to be refunded.

In accordance with notice given at last meeting a by-law was introduced by Mr. Hood, seconded by Mr. Porter for appointing certain township officers. The by-law passed through the required readings, appointing Geo. D. Porter collector and John R. Thompson, assessor for the current year.

On motion by Mr. Porter, seconded by Mr. Hood, a by-law was introduced for the purpose of remunerating certain township officers. Said by-law passed the required readings. The collector to be allowed two per cent. on all moneys collected on behalf of the council. Auditors to have $8 each, assessor $130, clerk $130, treasurer $100. The assessment to be made in the months of May and June.

On motion made by Mr. Hobson, seconded by Mr. Hood, a by-law was introduced and passed appointing public health officers. The blanks of the by-law were filled by appointing Henry Watson, Geo. A. Darby, William Whitelaw, with M. Sweetnam, reeve, and A. McCorkindale, clerk, as board of health for the current year.

The reeve read a petition from F. J. Chadwick stating that the Waterloo road is in many places in a very bad state of repair, and requesting the council to grant a certain amount for grading and gravelling that portion from Glennie's gate to the city limits in the coming season. Referred to road and bridge committee (East).

The reeve read a letter from Peter McNaughton stating that the southern portion of the Waterloo road was greatly in need of repair, requiring culverts and grading. Referred to road and bridge committee (East).

John McKilegott was present requesting aid. Allowed $4 for present necessities.

On motion by Mr. Hood, seconded by Mr. Porter, a by-law was introduced to authorize the reeve to sign a lease and affix the corporate seal to the same, for the use of the room now occupied by the council, for meetings of council and other township business—said by-law went through the required readings and passed.

Mr. Kirby in accordance with notice given at last meeting introduced a by-law for appointing fence-viewers, pound keepers and overseers of highways. Said by-law passed through the required readings, making the following appointments, viz:

For fence viewers—Robert Blythe, John Newstead. Division C—John Laidlaw, J. Laird, Wm. Hadden, Geo. Elliott, and John Bolton.

The Reeve read a petition from Chas. W. Heffernan and 28 others, praying that the council would pass a by-law under the authority of an act passed in the year 1878, and cited as the Ontario Tile Drainage Act, for the purpose of enabling the petitioners to borrow money for tile draining their farms.

Moved by Mr. Hobson, seconded by Mr. Hood, that the petition of Chas. W. Heffernan and 28 others be laid over for further consideration, as more information is required before the council considers it advisable to put the township to the expense of advertising, &c. And in the meantime the Clerk be instructed to write to Mr. Heffernan (and others if necessary) for information as to the amount of money which will likely be required, and also drawing their attention to the requirements of the Act. Carried.

Accounts presented and ordered to be paid: From G. Reynolds, for door plates, $2.50; from Hart & Co., for assessment stationery, $11.87.

On the auditors' annual financial statement being taken into consideration it was Moved by Mr. Porter, seconded by Mr. Hood, that the auditors' report be received and engrossed on the minutes of Council and published in accordance with the requirements of the statute, and that two hundred copies be printed for distribution to the ratepayers. Carried.

On motion made by Mr. Hobson, seconded by Mr. Porter, the council then adjourned to meet subject to a call from the reeve.

THE FRANCHISE ACT.

The Qualifications of Voters—The Process of Registration Explained.

The time having arrived for the preparation of the voters' lists under the new Dominion Franchise Act, an appeal is made to the Liberals of Wellington to have their names enrolled as voters without delay. To assist in so doing a short summary of the qualification of voters and of the process for securing registration is given.

QUALIFICATION.

To entitle a person to be put on the list he must be—

(1) 21 years of age.

(2) A British subject by birth or naturalization.

(3) Owner of real property of value:
In a city, $300.
In a town, $200.
In a county, $150.

(4) Or tenant of real property under ease at a rental of
$2 per month.
$6 per quarter.
$12 per half year.
$20 per year.

Provided that the tenant has been in possession for one year before 1st January 1886, and shall have paid one year's rent before final revision.

If the rent is yearly it will be sufficient if $20 of last year's rent shall have been paid before final revision.

Change of tenancy without intermission will not destroy the vote if aggregate of tenancies would give vote.

In cities at $300.
In towns at $200.
In counties at $150.

In counties outside of villages the rent may be payable either in money or in money's worth.

(5) Or a bona fide occupant for one year before 1st January, 1886, and enjoying the revenues and profits for his own or his wife's use of real property of the following values:

In cities, $300.
In towns, $200.
In counties, $150.

The occupancy may be under license of occupation from the crown or from any person or corporation.

(6) Or by income without any other qualification.

A person may be registered as an income voter, if he derives an income from his earnings, trade or profession, or from some investment in Canada of $300 a year, for one year before 1st January, 1886.

In counties the earnings may be either in money or money's worth.

(7) Sons of owners of real property are qualified—

(b) When the father is dead, and would, if living, be qualified, residence with the mother will suffice, and as many sons as the property will qualify may be registered, with preference to the eldest and elder sons, as in the last case.

Occasional absence from home of a son—not more than six months in the year—will not disqualify, and all time spent at school or college in Canada will be counted as if spent at home.

Son of an owner includes grandson, step-son and son-in-law, and all these may be registered as voters on the property if of sufficient value. The provision as to sons of owners applies to the counties as well as towns and cities in cases other than those of farmers' sons.

(8) Farmers' sons—The same provisions substantially apply to farmers' sons, as stated in the last paragraph in respect of sons of owners in cities and towns.

A farm is to be not less than 20 acres of land.

(9) Fishermen and owners of real property and boats, nets, fishing gear and tackle of aggregate value of $150.

Income voters register where they reside at time of registration—all others where property is situate. If in more than one polling division in the same electoral district the voter may register in either.

All names entered in the last revised voters' lists under the old law, will be entered in the new lists by the revising barrister.

Every person not on the assessment roll desiring to have his name on the list must at once send to the revising barrister an application in writing to be put on the list, giving his name, residence and the property or other qualification in respect of which he applies to be put on.

This application must be accompanied by a declaration which is to be made and signed before a commissioner for taking affidavits, a notary or justice of the peace, showing the grounds of the applicants claim to be put on the list.

Substantially the voters are those who can qualify as owners, tenants, occupants, income voters, sons of owners and farmers' sons.

See that the application shows as correctly and fully as possible the qualification.

Make the declaration before a commissioner, notary or justice of the peace. It is convenient to have it attached to the application on the same sheet.

In case of an absent person, let some one else having a knowledge of the qualification make the application and declaration.

When one cannot find a justice or other person before whom the declaration can be taken let the application alone be sent in, with an explanation of the reason, and it would be well in such case to have the truth of the facts in the application certified on the back of it by one, or if possible, two other persons.

The application and declaration must be sent at once to the Revising barrister of the district.

URGENCY OF THE MATTER.

No name not on the last voters' list or assessment roll will be placed on the preliminary voters' list, unless on application and declaration as above.

In case of any difficulty or doubt, application should be made at once for advice to some of the Liberal friends in the neighborhood.

PUBLIC LIBRARY BOARD.—The first meeting of the Board for the present year was held on Thursday, 18th February. The membership of the Board is the same as last year except that Mr. John Hazelton has been appointed by the Separate School Trustees in place of Mr. John C. Coffee, who resigned. Mr. D. McCrae was unanimously re-elected chairman, and Mr. W. Tytler secretary. A Finance Committee, consisting of Mr. Wood and the secretary, was appointed. Several accounts were passed, and the purchase of about thirty volumes by the Literary Committee was approved. It was decided to have glass swing doors placed at the entrance to the reading room. After some other unimportant business the Board adjourned.

SPEED SKATING RINK.—The carnival last night was fairly attended, considering the bad state of the weather. Some of the costumes were very good and the ice was in fair condition. Joseph Adams acquitted himself admirably, his acrobatic and Grecian statuary acts being very much admired. He may be recommended to rink managers as a great drawing card. THE MAIL AND MR. MASSIE.—The report of the commission appointed to investigate the charges of mismanagement and cruelty made against the Warden of the Central Prison has been laid before the Legislature. The conclusion arrived at by the Commission exonerates Mr. Massie. The evidence taken by them has been submitted to us, and we feel bound to say that his accusers have, in our opinion, failed to make good their charges, which charges probably originated in some prisoner's comparisons of his experience of life in the average county gaol with the rigorous prison life to be experienced in the Central. The Warden realizes very properly that his institution is a place for punishment and reformation, a place where the transgressors may be made to learn that his way is hard and has taken advantage of this opportunity afforded by the official enquiry to establish his efficiency as a public officer filling a responsible position. Being a public officer, he has to be prepared at all times to answer strictly for his conduct, and in this case we think he has fully justified himself.—The Mail.

TEA MEETING IN ABERFOYLE.—Last evening a tea-meeting was held in the town hall. The stormy night prevented many from being present. The ladies, as usual, made every preparation for satisfying the most fastidious taste of their guests. Mr. R. Galbraith, of Morriston, was called to the chair. After making some happy remarks he introduced the Rev. Wm. Savage, who selected for the topic of his address "the opportunities of the age we live in." The Rev. Dr. McKay, of Morriston, next spoke on "the model young man." The Rev. Dr. Griffin in the most humorous manner followed on the same line of thought, prognosticating what the next generation will be if the boys continue to let the girls take their places in the offices, manufactures, stores, etc. The Norfolk street Methodist Church choir, under the able leadership or Mr. B. Savage, did most excellent service. Mr. Thomas, although an Englishman, sang two Scotch songs in such Caledonian style as persuaded every one (not initiated into the mystery) that he was a true born Highlander. Each song was encored, as was also one, the "Mistletoe Bough," sang in a most magnificent style—each word being distinctly accented—by Mrs. B. Savage. After the accustomed formalities the audience dispersed to face one of the most unpleasant blizzards of the season.

TRAINS DELAYED.—The high north wind prevailing last night was the cause of the railway track being considerably drifted this morning. COMING EVENTS, &c.—The halls of our local parliament for some years back has been devoid of first-class oratorical exhibitions. GUELPH SCIENTIFIC SOCIETY.—An enthusiastic and representative meeting of those interested in the formation of a Scientific Society for the city, was held last evening in the Free Library Rooms. Mr. James Goldie was elected President, and R. L. B. Williamson, and seconded by Mr. Gausby, that this meeting proceed to arrange for the formation of a scientific society. Moved in amendment by Mr. D. McCrae, and seconded by Mr. Garnham, that the Society combine the study of literature with that of science, and be called "The Scientific and Literary Society." On a vote being taken the original motion was carried. It was next moved by Mr. W. R. Brasbie, and seconded by Mr. Geo. Griffin, that the following gentlemen constitute a committee to draft a constitution and by-laws, prepare a list of proposed officers and make the necessary arrangements for a public meeting to organize the proposed scientific society:—Messrs. James Goldie, E. Morris, D. McCrae, R. Gausby, Prof. Panton, Rev. D. MacGregor, together with the Presidents (or their substitutes) of the city literary associations.—Carried. The Secretary, Mr. G. A. Somerville, read the following

REPORT.

The Directors beg to submit their financial statement for the year ending 31st December, 1885, and to report that the result of the year's operations is exceeding y satisfactory.

Although money has been plentiful, investments scarce, and interest low, the Directors have been fortunate in being able to keep the Society's funds fully employed at fair interest, and the amount now invested in mortgages is greater than at any former period. The amount advanced on real estate during the year was $205,318.37, which is $63,165.25 in excess of the sum loaned in 1884.

The steady growth of the business is clearly indicated by the increase from year to year in the cash value of mortgages, and the reserve fund, as shown in the following table:—

At 31st Dec. 1879, the mortgages and reserve fund were:—

	Mortgages.	Reserve Fund
1879	$220,835 91	$ 6,789 17
1880	307,785 33	8,465 16
1881	502,691 61	12,983 48
1882	620,068 92	18,926 25
1883	722,297 35	25,353 57
1884	794,821 16	33,500 00
1885	936,224 59	42,000 00

The profits for the year, including balance brought forward, are $29,089.60, after deducting all costs of management, interest on deposits and debentures, etc., etc. This sum has been appropriated as follows:

Dividend No. 18, paid 2nd July, 1885	$9,648 68
" " 19, payable Jan. 2nd, 1886	9,735 30
Carried to Reserve Fund	8,500 00
Balance carried forward	1,205 62
	$29,089 60

Instalments of principal and interest falling due on our loans during the year have been paid with a very fair degree of promptness, and only one small property is held for sale.

As an evidence of the confidence the provident classes of the community have in the stability of the Society, it may be mentioned that the amount invested in our debentures and Savings Bank Department has increased in the short space of six years from $38,401.14 to the large sum of $578,104.53.

The officers of the Society continue to discharge their duties to the satisfaction of the Board.

Attention is directed to the Auditors Report, which is presented herewith.

All of which is respectfully submitted.
D. STIRTON, President.

GEO. A. SOMERVILLE,
Secretary

We have audited the books and vouchers of the Guelph & Ontario Investment and Savings Society monthly and found them correct. We have also examined the mortgages and calculated the value and earnings of each one separately, and certify that the above balance sheet is a correct statement of the Company's affairs to 31st December, 1885.

A. J. BREWSTER, J. W. KILGOUR, } Audi ors.

The President, in moving the adoption of the report, stated that it was not necessary for him to make any lengthened remarks; the statement was so clear and full that all could easily understand it. However, he thought he might honestly congratulate the shareholders on the very favourable statement that the Board were able to give of the past year's business, especially when we take into consideration the low rate of interest, the large amount of capital seeking investment, and the very keen competition existing in this branch of business. As in the past, the investments had been closely scrutinized and a very large number of loans declined. No losses had been sustained, and the rent of one small property we have on hand was sufficient to pay interest on the amount at which it stood on our books. The Secretary and office staff had discharged their duties in the most efficient and painstaking manner, and to this he attributed much of the success which had attended the year's operations. Should any shareholder desire additional information on any point he would be very glad to give it.

Mr. A. B. Petrie, Vice-President, in seconding the motion, called attention to the strict economy with which the business of the Society had been carried on. In 1881 the expenses were 86.100 and in 1885 56.100 of one per cent of the working capital a reduction of about ⅓. By comparing the annual reports it would be seen that the expenses of the oldest and largest companies in Ontario were from 10 to 30 per cent more than ours, yet our financial statement showed conclusively that the management had been as thoroughly efficient as economical. He thought public attention should be directed to the Torrens Lands Act under which real estate can be transferred as readily as personal property and with trifling expense. Some such reform had long been needed.

The report was unanimously adopted.

Mr. James Innes, M. P., thought the silent acquiesence of the shareholders in the motion to adopt the report was proof that all were fully satisfied with the result of the year's operations. The business had now assumed large proportions, in fact ours had become one of the principal loan companies in the Province; and it would be conceded on all hands that this was due to prudent and careful management. Many of the Directors had an intimate knowledge of every locality in which our money was invested. No loan was made until on the most full and searching examination it was found satisfactory, and the fact that there was only one small property on hand was evidence of the anxious care bestowed upon the affairs of the Society. The very large increase in the savings bank department in the past six years was a gratifying proof of the confidence the business men, wage-earners and farmers of Wellington and the adjoining counties had in the Institution. Our debentures being so largely utilized by executors, administrators, and municipal councils showed that the confidence of these securities as a legal investment for trust funds, was fully appreciated. He concluded by testifying to the zeal and ability with which the Secretary and other officers conducted the business of the Society.

Mr. Melvin referred to the small outlay for commission and valuation. He explained that this was due to the fact that a great many borrowers come direct to the office for loans and that we seldom lost a customer who had once dealt with us.

Messrs. W. Hunter and S. Myers commented favorably on the report.

Mr. Geo. Elliott congratulated the Board on the gratifying result of the business of the past year. The security our depositors have is so thoroughly sound and good that as the institution becomes more widely known he was certain the Savings Bank branch would still more largely increase.

Messrs James Cormack and H. Murton, were appointed scrutineers and reported the re-election of the retiring directors.

Thanks were voted the President, Directors, Manager and other officers of the Society.

Y. M. C. A. Convention.

HAMILTON, Feb. 19—The sixteenth annual convention of the Y. M. C. A. of Ontario and Quebec opened here yesterday afternoon. Among those present were Mr. Webb, Guelph, Mr. Gartshore, of Toronto, Secretary-Treasurer, presented the report of the Executive Committee. This report proposes to raise $5,000 in Canada, outside of Quebec to pay the debt on the Y. M. C. A. building in that city. Quebec is to raise $7,000 to aid to it for the same purpose. Six new associations have been formed since last convention. Guelph has received considerable attention and causes much anxiety. At one time it was found necessary to dispense with the General Secretary's services. However, after a few months' care and judicious help, the brethren there were encouraged to secure an efficient young man in his place, and are now, we believe, prospering. Galt association has ceased to exist. Good reports of spiritual life as well as material progress have reached us from almost every quarter, and we have every reason to be encouraged. We have once more to appeal to the friends of this important work for means to enable the committee to meet the necessary expenses. Up to the present date only $908.31 has been received for last year's work, while our outlay, including a debit balance brought forward from last year, amounts to $1,155.71.

At the evening session and at that which followed this morning papers were read and addresses delivered.

The Evening Mercury

An Unfortunate Accident.

There was considerable trouble around the MERCURY office this afternoon. Just as the second or editorial page was being lowered to the press room something gave way about the elevator, allowing the form to fall into the job room and cellar and mixing the type into an interminable pi. This will account for the absence of such advertisements as E. R. Bollert's, James Wells', Mrs. Hunter's, Clark & Thompson's, Waters Bros.', Stewart & Co.'s, Jas. Hewer's, Cormack & Keleher's, J. S. Roger son's, Campbell's shoe store, The Red Flag store, J. C. McLean, Shaw & Grundy, etc. A quantity of reading matter was also lost in the wreck. We ask the indulgence of our readers and advertising patrons for once, and assure them that things will be in proper shape again by Monday.

Provincial Finances.

The statement of Provincial finances made by the Hon. A. M. Ross in the Legislature on Thursday, will be read with a great deal of satisfaction by all who take an interest in the welfare of the Province. Not only is Col. Ross to be complimented on the conciseness and clearness with which he delivered his statement, but the Province is to be congratulated as well in possessing for its Treasurer a gentleman exhibiting so much financial ability as his speech evinced.

The position of our finances was dealt with in every phase which could possibly help the people to arrive at an intelligent understanding of them. There was no attempt at, and no necessity for, apologizing because of expenditures in excess of the estimates, but on the contrary the statement afforded proof of the most accurate calculations in providing the supplies a year ago.

Of course whatever little cause there was to raise objection to the statement, no matter what care and economy had been exercised in the expenditures, it was natural that the Opposition should find fault. In anticipation of this the Hon. Treasurer made some telling replies in advance to the arguments which he supposed would be used against the Government. In answer to the Tory proposition which is always set up in favour of retaining the Crown lands intact in order that they may increase in value as time goes on, he pointed out that the Government had expended much more in permanent institutions, and in other ways which would confer a lasting benefit to the Province than they had derived from the Crown lands, and that these were as truly capital as were the Crown lands. He showed that if the Crown lands were to remain in disuse grants would have to cease which were now made annually in relieving municipalities of taxation. For objects such as these also, more money was paid out than the Crown lands realized. Thus, in so far as the subject of Crown lands are concerned he proved conclusively that the Government is pursuing the policy which proves most beneficial to the country, and that if the Opposition could only gain the reigns of power that they would put fresh burdens on the people by depriving them of the assistance which is now distributed with such evenhandedness.

The proposition to increase the liquor license fees is one which will meet with very general approval. This will have a tendency to reduce the number of drinking places and shops. It is an arrangement, however, which will not affect this city or county, except in so far as it relates to those persons who are granted licenses to sell for sacramental, medical and manufacturing purposes under the Scott Act, which takes effect here on the 1st of May.

The good work done by the Provincial Board of Health has been very apparent during the past year and the one preceding in suppressing and restraining the spread of smallpox, and the statements with reference to this subject possess much public interest. The perfection to which the system has been brought under Dr. Bryce's management, reflects the greatest credit upon that gentleman.

There are many other noteworthy points in the speech, which, in fact, is one of the best Mr. Ross has ever delivered, and which will have a powerful influence in the country. He has proved himself a worthy successor to previous Treasurers in the Mowat Administration, whose foresight and economy have placed Ontario upon its present satisfactory financial footing.

MR. CHAPLEAU, Secretary of State, seems to have made a good thing out of the Chinese Commission trip to British Columbia. It is presumed that the $7,000 a year salary as Minister and $1,000 indemnity as M.P., received by Mr. Chapleau, is sufficient remuneration for all the services he may render in a given year, but not so. A return brought down to Parliament last session shows that Mr. Chapleau, as Chairman of the Chinese Commission, paid himself a higher salary than was paid to Judge Gray, the other Commissioner. Judge Gray received for his services and expenses $2,535. Mr. Chapleau received $2,680, making the entire sum received by him last year from the Government $10,680, in addition to travelling expenses. But that $2,680 was not all that the Minister made out of the Chinese Commission. He gave the job of printing the report of the Commission to La Minerve, a newspaper in which he is alleged to be a large shareholder, and for the job that paper received $1,700 or about double what the work would have cost if performed by the regular contractors. Then Mr. Chapleau gave the work of translating the report to his brother, Mr. Pierre Chapleau, who drew $450 for his services. The Puffer Laureate of the Government, Mr. N. F. Davin, as Secretary, drew a round three thousand. Sir Alexander Campbell went on a mission to British Columbia in 1882, but he received no extra pay. Other Ministers have gone abroad on public business without charging more than their actual expenses, but Mr. Chapleau seems to think that he draws his regular salary as a matter of right, and that he is entitled to extra remuneration for any services he may perform.

THE Government think of sending three Commissioners to the Northwest to investigate claims for rebellion losses. It is proposed to appoint Nicholas Flood Davin secretary to this Commission, which is expected to receive an all summer job. If Nicholas Flood only waits long enough in the Northwest he may become a millionaire one of these days.

ONTARIO LEGISLATURE.

Toronto, Feb. 20.

The Local Legislature sat from 3.15 till 6.10 yesterday afternoon and spent over two hours in committee of supply. The committee reached the thirteenth item of the estimates. There were increases in the estimates of all the departments caused by several advances in the salaries of civil servants. The increase in each case ranged from $50 to $100, while a permanent engrossing clerk was appointed in the State Department, and two temporary clerks in the Crown Lands Department were placed on the permanent list.

The Opposition severely criticized the increase. Mr. Creighton criticized them as arbitrary.

Mr. Meredith objected to the item of $3,000 in the Attorney-General's Department to pay his deputy. Mr. Meredith said the late deputy, Mr. Scott, had worked his way up from $1,800 per annum to $3,000, while Mr. Johnston stepped right into the $3,000 position. He did not think this was a fair principle. Mr. Mowat said he had done the very best he could for the Province. He had to pay a good salary to a competent man. The increase of the salary to Dr. Bryce, Secretary of the Board of Health, from $1,500 to $1,750 was also severely criticized. Mr. Mowat said that all the increases were carefully considered in council, and none but those legally entitled to it were allowed.

The different items passed, together with the increases, were: Attorney-General's department $15,630, increase $396; Department of Education $21,000, increase $71; Crown lands department $48,660, increase $3,350; public works department $18,180, increase $450; treasury department $17,975, increase $900; department of agriculture, decrease $1,300, having been absorbed by the Crown lands department; secretary of state's department $13,650, increase $1,450; department of immigration $1,600; public institutions $9,274, increase $40 67; provincial board of health $8,400, increase $17.50; miscellaneous $10,350, increase $200. There was a hot discussion on the item of miscellaneous, and the House adjourned in the middle of the discussion. The total amount of the estimate under the head of civil government is $187,499.

Mr. Carnegie's bill to amend Cap. 157, R. S. O., respecting the borrowing powers of joint stock companies for supplying cities, towns and villages with gas and water was read a second time and referred. The bill provides that the above chapter be repealed and this substituted:

"The sum so borrowed shall not exceed the sum of $40,000, to be expended in gas works, and a like sum for water works, for any incorporated village, or the sum of $100,000 for any town or city for either gas or water works."

SELLING LIQUOR.—Mr. T. Hartnett appeared at the Police Court this morning on a charge of selling liquor by the glass. Several interesting legal points came up in the course of investigation. Mr. Hartnett has a shop license but cannot sell less than 3 pints. The ruling of the the magistrate is that where there is proof required as to persons consuming liquor in such cases being lodgers the onus of proving they are lodgers rests in the defendant, a matter of some consequence in these cases. The case was fought out with considerable vim on both sides. The prosecution proved that when the Inspector entered defendant's shop there were empty glasses standing on the counter and men were just leaving who had apparently been drinking. The defendant swore that his wife was ill, that while he was attending her upstairs the men came in and got the liquor if liquor was got, and he knew nothing about it as they helped themselves. The defendant's counsel urged that this certainly did not come under the act making it an offence to "allow or permit the consumption of liquor on the premises. His Worship took this view of the matter and dismissed the case with a warning to defendant. Mr. H. W. Peterson, for the Crown, and Mr. T.P. Coffee conducted the defence.

A COSTLY BRIDGE.—The Gait Reporter says:—Parties who have given the question some consideration estimate that to erect an iron bridge at Breslau, as Waterloo township council now has under consideration, will entail a total cost of somewhere between $12,000 and $18,000. A considerable sum would have to be expended on the approaches, the necessary stone piers and abutments would be costly, and the iron superstructure itself would cost pretty badly into $8000 or $9000. Of the amount to be thus expended, the town of Ber in offers to contribute $4000.

The Evening Mercury

An Unfortunate Accident.

There was considerable trouble around the MERCURY office this afternoon. Just as the second or editorial page was being lowered to the press room something gave way about the elevator, allowing the form to fall into the job room and cellar and mixing the type into an interminable pi. This will account for the absence of such advertisements as E. R. Bollert's, James Wells', Mrs. Hunter's, Clark & Thompson's, Waters Bros.', Stewart & Co.'s, Jas. Hewer's, Cormack & Keleher's, J. S. Rogerson's, Campbell's shoe store, The Red Flag store, J. C. McLean, Shaw & Grundy, etc. A quantity of reading matter was also lost in the wreck. We ask the indulgence of our readers and advertising patrons for once, and assure them that things will be in proper shape again by Monday.

Provincial Finances.

The statement of Provincial finances made by the Hon. A. M. Ross in the Legislature on Thursday, will be read with a great deal of satisfaction by all who take an interest in the welfare of the Province. Not only is Col. Ross to be complimented on the conciseness and clearness with which he delivered his statement, but the Province is to be congratulated as well in possessing for its Treasurer a gentleman exhibiting so much financial ability as his speech evinced.

The position of our finances was dealt with in every phase which could possibly help the people to arrive at an intelligent understanding of them. There was no attempt at, and no necessity for, apologizing because of expenditures in excess of the estimates, but on the contrary the statement afforded proof of the most accurate calculations in providing the supplies a year ago.

Of course whatever little cause there was to raise objection to the statement, no matter what care and economy had been exercised in the expenditures, it was natural that the Opposition should find fault. In anticipation of this the Hon. Treasurer made some telling replies in advance to the arguments which he supposed would be used against the Government. In answer to the Tory proposition which is always set up in favour of retaining the Crown lands intact in order that they may increase in value as time goes on, he pointed out that the Government had expended much more in permanent institutions, and in other ways which would confer a lasting benefit to the Province than they had derived from the Crown lands, and that these were as truly capital as were the Crown lands. He showed that if the Crown lands were to remain in disuse grants would have to cease which were now made annually in relieving municipalities of taxation. For objects such as these also, more money was paid out than the Crown lands realized. Thus, in so far as the subject of Crown lands are concerned he proved conclusively that the Government is pursuing the policy which proves most beneficial to the country, and that if the Opposition could only gain the reigns of power that they would put fresh burdens on the people by depriving them of the assistance which is now distributed with such evenhandedness.

The proposition to increase the liquor license fees is one which will meet with very general approval. This will have a tendency to reduce the number of drinking places and shops. It is an arrangement, however, which will not affect this city or county, except in so far as it relates to those persons who are granted licenses to sell for sacramental, medical and manufacturing purposes under the Scott Act, which takes effect here on the 1st of May.

The good work done by the Provincial Board of Health has been very apparent during the past year and the one preceding in suppressing and restraining the spread of smallpox, and the statements with reference to this subject possess much public interest. The perfection to which the system has been brought under Dr. Bryce's management, reflects the greatest credit upon that gentleman.

There are many other noteworthy points in the speech, which, in fact, is one of the best Mr. Ross has ever delivered, and which will have a powerful influence in the country. He has proved himself a worthy successor to previous Treasurers in the Mowat Administration, whose foresight and economy have placed Ontario upon its present satisfactory financial footing.

MR. CHAPLEAU, Secretary of State, seems to have made a good thing out of the Chinese Commission trip to British Columbia. It is presumed that the $7,000 a year salary as Minister and $1,000 indemnity as M.P., received by Mr. Chapleau, is sufficient remuneration for all the services he may render in a given year, but not so. A return brought down to Parliament last session shows that Mr. Chapleau, as Chairman of the Chinese Commission, paid himself a higher salary than was paid to Judge Gray, the other Commissioner. Judge Gray received for his services and expenses $2,585. Mr. Chapleau received $2,680, making the entire sum received by him last year from the Government $10,680, in addition to travelling expenses. But that $2,680 was not all that the Minister made out of the Chinese Commission. He gave the job of printing the report of the Commission to La Minerve, a newspaper in which he is alleged to be a large shareholder, and for the job that paper received $1,700 or about double what the work would have cost if performed by the regular contractors. Then Mr. Chapleau gave the work of translating the report to his brother, Mr. Pierre Chapleau, who drew $450 for his services. The Puffer Laureate of the Government, Mr. N. F. Davin, as Secretary, drew a round three thousand. Sir Alexander Campbell went on a mission to British Columbia in 1882, but he received no extra pay. Other Ministers have gone abroad on public business without charging more than their actual expenses, but Mr. Chapleau seems to think that he draws his regular salary as a matter of right, and that he is entitled to extra remuneration for any services he may perform.

THE Government think of sending three Commissioners to the Northwest to investigate claims for rebellion losses. It is proposed to appoint Nicholas Flood Davin secretary to this Commission, which is expected to receive an all summer job. If Nicholas Flood only waits long enough in the Northwest he may become a millionaire one of these days.

ONTARIO LEGISLATURE.

Toronto, Feb. 20.

The Local Legislature sat from 3.15 till 6.10 yesterday afternoon and spent over two hours in committee of supply. The committee reached the thirteenth item of the estimates. There were increases in the estimates of a 1 the departments caused by several advances in the salaries of civil servants. The increase in each case ranged from $50 to $100, while a permanent engrossing clerk was appointed in the State Department, and two temporary clerks in the Crown Lands Department were placed on the permanent list.

Mr. Meredith objected to the item of $3,000 in the Attorney-General's Department to pay his deputy. Mr. Meredith said the late deputy, Mr. Scott, had worked his way up from $1,800 per annum to $3,000, while Mr. Johnston stepped right into the $3,000 position. He did not think this was a fair principle. Mr. Mowat said he had done the very best he could for the Province. He had to pay a good salary to a competent man. The increase of the salary to Dr. Bryce, Secretary of the Board of Health, from $1,500 to $1,750 was also severely criticized. Mr. Mowat said that all the increases were carefully considered in council, and none but those legally entitled to it were allowed.

The different items passed, together with the increases, were: Attorney-General's department $15,630, increase $396; Department of Education $21,000, increase $71; Crown lands department $48,660, increase $3,350; public works department $18,180, increase $450; treasury department $17,975, increase $900; department of agriculture, decrease $1,300, having been absorbed by the Crown lands department; secretary of state's department $13,650, increase $1,450; department of immigration $1,600; public institutions $9,274, increase $40.67; provincial board of health $8,400, increase $17.50; miscellaneous $10,350, increase $200. There was a hot discussion on the item of miscellaneous, and the House adjourned in the middle of the discussion. The total amount of the estimate under the head of civil government is $187,499.

Mr. Carnegie's bill to amend Cap. 157, R. S. O., respecting the borrowing powers of joint stock companies for supplying cities, towns and villages with gas and water was read a second time and referred. The bill provides that the above chapter be repealed and this substituted:

"The sum so borrowed shall not exceed the sum of $40,000, to be expended in gas works, and a like sum for water works, for any incorporated village, or the sum of $100,000 for any town or city for either gas or water works."

SELLING LIQUOR.—Mr. T. Hartnett appeared at the Police Court, this morning on a charge of selling liquor by the glass. Several interesting legal points came up in the course of investigation. Mr. Hartnett has a shop license but cannot sell less than 3 pints. The ruling of the the magistrate is that where there is proof required as to persons consuming liquor in such cases being lodgers the onus of proving they are lodgers rests in the defendant, a matter of some consequence in these cases. The case was fought out with considerable vim on both sides. The prosecution proved that when the Inspector entered defendant's shop there were empty glasses standing on the counter and men were just leaving who had apparently been drinking. The defendant swore that his wife was ill, that while he was attending her upstairs the men came in and got the liquor if liquor was got, and he knew nothing about it as they helped themselves. The defendant's counsel urged that this certainly did not come under the act making it an offence to "allow or permit the consumption of liquor on the premises. His Worship took this view of the matter and dismissed the case with a warning to defendant. Mr. H. W. Peterson, for the Crown, and Mr. T.P. Coffee conducted the defence.

A COSTLY BRIDGE.—The Gazette Reporter says:—Parties who have given the question some consideration estimate that to erect an iron bridge at Breslau, as Waterloo township council now has under consideration, will entail a total cost of somewhere between $12,000 and $18,000. A considerable sum would have to be expended on the approaches, the necessary stone piers and abutments would be costly, and the iron superstructure itself would cost pretty badly into $8000 or $9000. Of the amount to be thus expended, the town of Ber in offers to contribute $4000.

CHAPTER XII.

STRIKING THE FIRST BLOW.

Eighteen months passed before Percival and Helen came home to Brantwood, and all that time they spent in travelling about the Continent. This length of time spent abroad was the fulfilment of a long cherished wish of Helen's, and, contrary to the usual experience, the reality surpassed her expectations. She had read and seen pictures of Switzerland and Italy, she had talked to people who had studied in Germany, and she had wondered if she would ever travel. She came to the conclusion that it was not probable, and she had passed many an hour of idleness in imagining what she never hoped to see. But all the chaos of snow-capped peaks in which she had revelled in imagination was flat and tame compared to her first sight of the Engadine on a remarkably cold June morning, when the snow had not melted from the mountains, and some of the passed were still unopened.

There were certain scenes in her travels which she felt she would never forget. One was the first sight of those mighty snow-covered peaks towering up into the clear, blue sky—the sensation they gave her, the sudden feeling of utter loneliness and desolation, the sense of the depth, and breadth, and height of nature. Another was the day when Percival and she visited one of the glaciers, and after climbing for some distance found themselves in a region of the most complete and death-like stillness, which was suddenly broken by the fall of a rock somewhere—it might be close at hand, it might be far away—time and distance seemed nothing in the presence of those eternal snows and fathomless heights and depths. Other scenes and feelings might vanish and be forgotten; those two would remain with her to her life's end. She admired and enjoyed Italy, Germany gave her a sense of home, but Switzerland went to her heart. She did not often speak of it. She never urged her friends to go there, but she herself loved it as she had never imagined she could care for any country, and it was only the thought of Osmotherley in in its autumn beauty which reconciled her to going home.

As soon as she was settled at Brantwood she became overwhelmed with callers. People had not been able to shake off the idea that it was Alice whom Percival ought to have married, and many came to see how the husband and wife got on. Such went away disappointed. No one could help seeing the perfect love and sympathy between them, they were so dependent on one another. It was evident there had been no mistake. Another thing came upon them like a revelation; it was suddenly discovered that Helen was beautiful. She was very little changed; her slender figure was as graceful as ever; neither hair nor eyes had changed colour, her complexion was neither paler nor more brilliant than before; but, whereas before her marriage she had been considered merely a well-looking girl, she was now seen to be absolutely beautiful. Alice's prophecy had been fulfilled, though sooner than she had anticipated. At two-and-twenty Helen was considered as beautiful as her sister, though in a different way. Percival heard it, and while secretly exulting and triumphant, pretended to be disgusted that the beauty which he had been accustomed to consider his own private property now belonged to every one.

Mrs. Lafone and Alice were among the earliest callers. Alice had just come home. She had spent the season in London and at fashionable watering-places, and she was still unmarried. Chances had not been wanting. What was the reason of her remaining unmarried none knew and few even cared to ask. Others bore away the prizes which she disdained, and so there was compensation. She looked little changed since Helen's marriage, rather older perhaps, and with the fold between her eyes a little deepened, otherwise the same as ever. She said very little on this occasion; the conversation was left to her mother and Helen, but her eyes were restless; they rested on every object in the room, including its mistress, but she said nothing. She sat there sipping her tea, and looking first at one picture or bit of china, then at another. At last she rose and crossed the room to one of the windows, and Helen saw that her walk, too, was the same as before—slow, measured, perhaps a little languid. Alice met Helen's eyes fixed upon her, and said, as though in explanation—

"You have a beautiful view from this window."

"Yes, we see right across the bay; we get all the sunsets without having to go out of doors. Percival and I could not make up our minds for some time whether to have that window put in, but we finally decided we would."

"When was that?" asked Mrs. Lafone.

"I do not remember it."

"It was soon after he came to live here."

"When we were each beginning to feel a certain incapacity in action unless aided by advice from the other," said Percival, who came in at that moment and guessed the subject of conversation.

Mrs. Lafone and her daughter sat a long time. They were the only callers that afternoon, and had the field to themselves. Helen, too, had lost the slight constraint which had formerly marked her manner with her stepmother and sister; almost unconsciously her visitors prolonged their stay till a clock striking recalled Mrs. Lafone to a sense of the flight of time.

"He is really very fond of her, that is evident," she said as she and her daughter drove home.

"A blind man might see that," returned Alice, and if ever she were guilty of giving a snappish answer it was then.

"I am really glad she has married so well," pursued the elder lady. "She was a great responsibility with her queer ways, and if you and Gertrude had married first, or she not at all, there would have been some talk; people are so uncharitable."

"So far there has been no opening for reflections upon your character as a stepmother," said Alice still caustic.

"She is very much improved in every way. I expect she found Percival would not put up with her tempers. Yes, she has been very fortunate; it is such a comfort to reflect that one has done one's duty."

Alice made no reply. She scarcely spoke throughout the remainder of the drive, and on reaching home went straight to her room, saying she was tired.

THE Arthur cattle fair this month was well provided with both buyers and sellers. The cattle, of which their were large numbers, were of the finest description. There were good offers made for everything on the ground, and the really prime cattle were sold like hot cakes for good prices.

John Darroch, Reeve of Minto, sold on Monday last two short horn bulls, aged 9 and 13 months, for good round figures. One of the bulls goes to St. Marys and the other to Manitoba. This is considered something new in the stock line, as heretofore Minto has been buying, but of late the tide has begun to change, and in a very short time the farmers of Minto will be drawing a good revenue from the sale of good stock.

Palmerston Telegraph: The proprietor of the Drayton Times says he offered to do the work of village clerk, finding his own stationery, and to make no charge for postage, for the sum of $25 a year. The Council appear to have treated his offer with scorn; at any rate they did not accept it. They knew doubtless that the clerk they have is worth all he gets, and probably thought that the services of a man who made such a ridiculous offer would be dear at any price.

PUBLIC LIBRARY BOARD.—The first meeting of the Board for the present year was held on Thursday, 18th February. The membership of the Board is the same as last year except that Mr. John Hazelton has been appointed by the Separate School Trustees in place of Mr. John C. Coffee, who resigned. Mr. D. McCrae was unanimously re-elected chairman, and Mr. W. Tytler secretary. A Finance Committee, consisting of Mr. Wood and the secretary, was appointed. Several accounts were passed, and the purchase of about thirty volumes by the Literary Committee was approved. It was decided to have glass swing doors placed at the entrance to the reading room. After some other unimportant business the Board adjourned.

SPEED SKATING RINK.—The carnival last night was fairly attended, considering the bad state of the weather. Some of the costumes were very good and the ice was in fair condition. The fancy skating of Robert Fields was a very neat and artistic effort, he executing all the different figures and movements with great ease and ability. Joseph Adams acquitted himself admirably, his acrobatic and Grecian statuary acts being very much admired. He may be recommended to rink managers as a great drawing card. The names of the successful costume competitors are as follows:—Miss Aggie Bunyan, Fairy Girl; second, Mabel Sutton, Red, White and Blue. Boys' costume—Robt. Fields, "Acrobat;" second, Fred Petrie, "Tobogganer;" third, Willie Selwood, "Myrtle Navy." Best comic, Harry Tolton, "Clown."

THE MAIL AND MR. MASSIE.—The report of the commission appointed to investigate the charges of mismanagement and cruelty made against the Warden of the Central Prison has been laid before the Legislature. The conclusion arrived at by the Commission exonerates Mr. Massie. The evidence taken by them has been submitted to us, and we feel bound to say that his accusers have, in our opinion, failed to make good their charges, which charges probably originated in some prisoner's comparisons of his experience of life in the average county gaol with the rigorous prison life to be experienced in the Central. The Warden realizes very properly that his institution is a place for punishment and reformation, a place where the transgressors may be made to learn that his way is hard and has taken advantage of this opportunity afforded by the official enquiry to establish his efficiency as a public officer filling a responsible position. Being a public officer, he has to be prepared at all times to answer strictly for his conduct, and in this case we think he has fully justified himself.—The Mail.

TEA MEETING IN ABERFOYLE.—Last evening a tea-meeting was held in the town hall. The stormy night prevented many from being present. The ladies, as usual, made every preparation for satisfying the most fastidious taste of their guests. Mr. R. Galbraith, of Morriston, was called to the chair. After making some happy remarks he introduced the Rev. Wm. Savage, who selected for the topic of his address "the opportunities of the age we live in." The Rev. Dr. McKay, of Morriston, next spoke on "the model young man." The Rev. Dr. Griffin in the most humorous manner followed on the same line of thought, prognosticating what the next generation will be if the boys continue to let the girls take their places in the offices, manufactures, stores, etc. The Norfolk street Methodist Church choir, under the able leadership or Mr. B. Savage, did most excellent service. Mr. Thomas, although an Englishman, sang two Scotch songs in such Caledonian style as persuaded every one (not initiated into the mystery) that he was a true born Highlander. Each song was encored, as was also one, the "Mistletoe Bough," sang in a most magnificent style—each word being distinctly accented—by Mrs. B. Savage. After the accustomed formalities the audience dispersed to face one of the most unpleasant blizzards of the season.

ANDREW MCCRAE, employed at Burr Bros. factory, had the misfortune this morning to lose the only remaining finger of the right hand while working a buzz plainer. He lost the three front fingers a short time ago by a similar accident.

THE St. Andrew's Church Sunday School and class rooms have been beautifully renovated. The ladies intend giving an entertainment of Scotch song and recitations and an old fashioned Scotch tea on Friday evening, the 26th of Feb. All "who love their ain countrie" should not fail to be present. Advertisement will appear later. d1.

TRAINS DELAYED.—The high north wind prevailing last night was the cause of the railway track being considerably drifted this morning. The 8.55 a.m. mail train was two hours late, having stuck in a drift near Brampton, and the 6.40 and 10.30 trains were delayed by a through freight train sticking in a drift near Petersburg. The roads in the country are very good, with the exception of those running north east, which are blocked in many places.

COMING EVENTS, &c.—The halls of our local parliament for some years back has been devoid of first-class oratorical exhibitions. This want appears as if it were to be remedied soon, as several of the city fathers are taking lessons in elocution, and will no doubt one of these nights give such an exhibition of their winged words of eloquence that will electrify their brother civic legislators and cause them to blush with envy.

A NIGHT WITH POPULAR AUTHORS.—On Tuesday the 2nd March an elocution entertainment entitled an evening with popular authors will be given in the Congregational Church by those attending Prof. F. C. Edward's class of elocution. The chief attraction of the evening will be readings by the Professor who will give some valuable information in regard to reading. Members of the class will also take part, and a short musical programme as a relief to the other proceedings, will be given. This entertainment should prove a treat and will no doubt be largely attended.

GOING INTO BUSINESS AGAIN.—Mr. A. McBean, well and favorably known in this section in connection with hardware business of A. McBean & Co., Guelph, which was recently sold to Harvey & Co., Harriston, has purchased the stock in trade and good will of the hardware business of John G. Short & Co., Dundas st., Woodstock. He will take possession in a short time, and will at once replenish the stock with new and leading lines. Mr. McBean will carry with him to Woodstock the well wishes for his success of numerous friends in Guelph and vicinity. From his general manner and business talent he will not be long in Woodstock before he will win for himself many warm friends and supporters.

GUELPH SCIENTIFIC SOCIETY.—An enthusiastic and representative meeting of those interested in the formation of a Scientific Society for the city, was held last evening in the Free Library Rooms. Mr. James Goldie was elected President, and R. L. Torrance, Secretary pro tem., and after remarks from many present in which all agreed on the importance and great advantage of a systematic study of natural history and science, it was moved by Mr. J. B. Williamson, and seconded by Mr. Gausby, that this meeting proceed to arrange for the formation of a scientific society. Moved in amendment by Mr. D. McCrae, and seconded by Mr. Garnham, that the Society combine the study of literature with that of science, and be called "The Scientific and Literary Society." On a vote being taken the original motion was carried. It was next moved by Mr. W. R. Brasbie, and seconded by Mr. Geo. Griffin, that the following gentlemen constitute a committee to draft a constitution and by-laws, prepare a list of proposed officers and make the necessary arrangements for a public meeting to organize the proposed scientific society:—Messrs. James Goldie, E. Morris, D. McCrae, R. Gausby, Prof. Panton, Rev. D. MacGregor, together with the Presidents (or their substitutes) of the city literary associations.—Carried. The committee meet next Thursday evening in the Free Library rooms, at eight o'clock, and a public meeting will soon afterwards be called.

Annual Meeting.

The tenth annual meeting of the stockholders of this society was held at their office, corner Market Square and Wyndham streets, Guelph, on Wednesday, the 17th instant, at 2 o'clock p.m. The President, Mr. D. Stirton, in the chair.

Among those present were Messrs. J. M. Bond, Geo. Elliott, Geo. Bruce, James Cormack, J. A. Davidson, T. J. Day, Thomas Day, A. B. Petrie, James Kilgour, John W. Kilgour, James Forrest, Wm. Hunter, Dr. Howitt, S. Myers, James Innes, M. C. Schofield, H. Murton, Dr. Keating, Robert Melvin, J. E. McElderry, G. A. Somerville and Robert Forbes, of Guelph; James Phin, John Phin and Jas. P. Phin, of the Township of Waterloo; A. J. Brewster, of Hespeler; John Kitching, jr., of the Township of Nassagaweya; Geo. Parkinson, John Kean and Lazarus Parkinson, of the Township of Eramosa, &c.

The Secretary, Mr. G. A. Somerville, read the following

REPORT.

The Directors beg to submit their financial statement for the year ending 31st December, 1885, and to report that the results of the year's operations is exceeding satisfactory.

Although money has been plentiful, investments scarce, and interest low, the Directors have been fortunate in being able to keep the Society's funds fully employed at fair interest, and the amount now invested in mortgages is greater than at any former period. The amount advanced on real estate during the year was $205,318.37, which is $63,165.25 in excess of the sum loaned in 1884.

The steady growth of the business is clearly indicated by the increase from year to year in the cash value of mortgages, and the reserve fund, as shown in the following table:—

At 31st Dec. 1879, the mortgages and reserve fund were:—

	Mortgages.	Reserve Fund
1879	$223,835 91	$ 6,789 17
1880	307,785 33	8,465 16
1881	502,691 01	12,983 48
1882	620,066 92	18,220 25
1883	722,297 35	25,353 57
1884	794,821 16	33,500 00
1885	998,224 59	42,000 00

The profits for the year, including balance brought forward, are $29,089.60, after deducting all costs of management, interest on deposits and debentures, etc., etc. This sum has been appropriated as follows:

Dividend No. 18, paid 2nd July, 1885	$9,648 63
" " 19, payable Jan. 2nd, 1886	9,735 30
Carried to Reserve Fund	8,500 00
Balance carried forward	1,205 62
	$29,089 60

Instalments of principal and interest falling due on our loans during the year have been paid with a very fair degree of promptness, and only one small property is held for sale.

As an evidence of the confidence the provident classes of the community have in the stability of the Society, it may be mentioned that the amount invested in our debentures and Savings Bank Department has increased in the short space of six years from $38,401.14 to the large sum of $578,104.53.

The officers of the Society continue to discharge their duties to the satisfaction of the Board.

Attention is directed to the Auditors' Report, which is presented herewith.

All of which is respectfully submitted.
D. STIRTON, President.

GEO. A. SOMERVILLE,
Secretary

We have audited the books and vouchers of the Guelph & Ontario Investment and Savings Society monthly and found them correct. We have also examined the mortgages and calculated the value and earnings of each one separately, and certify that the above balance sheet is a correct statement of the Company's affairs to 31st December, 1885.

A. J. BREWSTER, J. W. KILGOUR, } Auditors.

The President, in moving the adoption of the report, stated that it was not necessary for him to make any lengthened remarks; the statement was so clear and full that all could easily understand it. However, he thought he might honestly congratulate the shareholders on the very favourable statement that the Board were able to give of the past year's business, especially when we take into consideration the low rate of interest, the large amount of capital seeking investment, and the very keen competition existing in this branch of business. As in the past, the investments had been closely scrutinized and a very large number of loans declined. No losses had been sustained, and the rent of one small property we have on hand was sufficient to pay interest on the amount at which it stood on our books. The Secretary and office staff had discharged their duties in the most efficient and painstaking manner, and to this he attributed much of the success which had attended the year's operations. Should any shareholder desire additional information on any point he would be very glad to give it.

Mr. A. B. Petrie, Vice-President, in seconding the motion, called attention to the strict economy with which the business of the Society had been carried on. In 1881 the expenses were 86-100 and in 1885 56-100 of one per cent of the working capital a reduction of about ⅓. By comparing the annual reports it would be seen that the expenses of the oldest and largest companies in Ontario were from 10 to 30 per cent more than ours, yet our financial statement showed conclusively that the management had been as thoroughly efficient as economical. He thought public attention should be directed to the Torrens Lands Act under which real estate can be transferred as readily as personal property and with trifling expense. Some such reform had long been needed.

The report was unanimously adopted.

Mr. James Innes, M. P., thought the silent acquiescence of the shareholders in the motion to adopt the report was proof that all were fully satisfied with the results of the year's operations. The business had now assumed large proportions, in fact ours had become one of the principal loan companies in the Province; and it would be conceded on all hands that this was due to prudent and careful management. Many of the Directors had an intimate knowledge of every locality in which our money was invested. No loan was made until on the most full and searching examination it was found satisfactory, and the fact that there was only one small property on hand was evidence of the anxious care bestowed upon the affairs of the Society. The very large increase in the savings bank department in the past six years was a gratifying proof of the confidence the business men, wage-earners and farmers of Wellington and the adjoining counties had in the Institution. Our debentures being so largely utilized by executors, administrators, and municipal councils showed that the confidence of these securities as a legal investment for trust funds, was fully appreciated. He concluded by testifying to the zeal and ability with which the Secretary and other officers conducted the business of the Society.

Mr. Melvin referred to the small outlay for commission and valuation. He explained that this was due to the fact that a great many borrowers come direct to the office for loans and that we seldom lost a customer who had once dealt with us.

Messrs. W. Hunter and S. Myers commented favorably on the report.

Mr. Geo. Elliott congratulated the Board on the gratifying result of the business of the past year. The security our depositors have is so thoroughly sound and good that as the institution becomes more widely known he was certain the Savings Bank branch would still more largely increase.

Messrs James Cormack and H. Murton, were appointed scrutineers and reported the re-election of the retiring directors.

Thanks were voted the President, Directors, Manager and other officers of the Society.

Y. M. C. A. Convention.

HAMILTON, Feb. 19—The sixteenth annual convention of the Y. M. C. A. of Ontario and Quebec opened here yesterday afternoon. Among those present were Mr. Webb, Guelph, Mr. Gartshore, of Toronto, Secretary-Treasurer, presented the report of the Executive Committee. This report proposes to raise $5,000 in Canada, outside of Quebec to pay the debt on the Y. M. C. A. building in that city. Quebec is to raise $7,000 to aid to it for the same purpose. Six new associations have been formed since last convention. Guelph has received considerable attention and causes much anxiety. At one time it was found necessary to dispense with the General Secretary's services. However, after a few months' care and judicious help, the brethren there were encouraged to secure an efficient young man in his place, and are now, we believe, prospering. Galt association has ceased to exist. Good reports of spiritual life as well as material progress have reached us from almost every quarter, and we have every reason to be encouraged. We have once more to appeal to the friends of this important work for means to enable the committee to meet the necessary expenses. Up to the present date only $908.31 has been received for last year's work, while our outlay, including a debit balance brought forward from last year, amounts to $1,155.71.

At the evening session and at that which followed this morning papers were read and addresses delivered.

THE Arthur cattle fair this month was well provided with both buyers and sellers. The cattle, of which their were large numbers, were of the finest description. There were good offers made for everything on the ground, and the really prime cattle were sold like hot cakes for good prices.

John Darroch, Reeve of Minto, sold on Monday last two short horn bulls, aged 9 and 13 months, for good round figures. One of the bulls goes to St. Marys and the other to Manitoba. This is considered something new in the stock line, as heretofore Minto has been buying, but of late the tide has begun to change, and in a very short time the farmers of Minto will be drawing a good revenue from the sale of good stock.

Palmerston Telegraph: The proprietor of the Drayton Times says he offered to do the work of village clerk, finding his own stationery, and to make no charge for postage, for the sum of $25 a year. The Council appear to have treated his offer with scorn; at any rate they did not accept it. They know doubtless that the clerk they have is worth all he gets, and probably thought that the services of a man who made such a ridiculous offer would be dear at any price.

PUBLIC LIBRARY BOARD.—The first meeting of the Board for the present year was held on Thursday, 18th February. The membership of the Board is the same as last year except that Mr. John Hazelton has been appointed by the Separate School Trustees in place of Mr. John C. Coffee, who resigned. Mr. D. McCrae was unanimously re-elected chairman, and Mr. W. Tytler secretary. A Finance Committee, consisting of Mr. Wood and the secretary, was appointed. Several accounts were passed, and the purchase of about thirty volumes by the Literary Committee was approved. It was decided to have glass swing doors placed at the entrance to the reading room. After some other unimportant business the Board adjourned.

SPEED SKATING RINK.—The carnival last night was fairly attended, considering the bad state of the weather. Some of the costumes were very good and the ice was in fair condition. The fancy skating of Robert Fields was a very neat and artistic effort, he executing all the different figures and movements with great ease and ability. Joseph Adams acquitted himself admirably, his acrobatic and Grecian statuary acts being very much admired. He may be recommended to rink managers as a great drawing card. The names of the successful costume competitors are as follows:—Miss Aggie Bunyan, Fairy Girl; second, Mabel Sutton, Red, White and Blue. Boys' costume—Robt. Fields, "Acrobat;" second, Fred Petrie, "Tobogganer;" third, Willie Selwood, "Myrtle Navy." Best comic, Harry Tolton, "Clown."

THE MAIL AND MR. MASSIE.—The report of the commission appointed to investigate the charges of mismanagement and cruelty made against the Warden of the Central Prison has been laid before the Legislature. The conclusion arrived at by the Commission exonerates Mr. Massie. The evidence taken by them has been submitted to us, and we feel bound to say that his accusers have, in our opinion, failed to make good their charges, which charges probably originated in some prisoner's comparisons of his experience of life in the average county gaol with the rigorous prison life to be experienced in the Central. The Warden realizes very properly that his institution is a place for punishment and reformation, a place where the transgressors may be made to learn that his way is hard and has taken advantage of this opportunity afforded by the official enquiry to establish his efficiency as a public officer filling a responsible position. Being a public officer, he has to be prepared at all times to answer strictly for his conduct, and in this case we think he has fully justified himself.—The Mail.

TEA MEETING IN ABERFOYLE.—Last evening a tea-meeting was held in the town hall. The stormy night prevented many from being present. The ladies, as usual, made every preparation for satisfying the most fastidious taste of their guests. Mr. R. Galbraith, of Morriston, was called to the chair. After making some happy remarks he introduced the Rev. Wm. Savage, who selected for the topic of his address "the opportunities of the age we live in." The Rev. Dr. McKay, of Morriston, next spoke on "the model young man." The Rev. Dr. Griffin in the most humorous manner followed on the same line of thought, prognosticating what the next generation will be if the boys continue to let the girls take their places in the offices, manufactures, stores, etc. The Norfolk street Methodist Church choir, under the able leadership or Mr. B. Savage, did most excellent service. Mr. Thomas, although an Englishman, sang two Scotch songs in such Caledonian style as persuaded every one (not initiated into the mystery) that he was a true born Highlander. Each song was encored, as was also one, the "Mistletoe Bough," sang in a most magnificent style—each word being distinctly accented—by Mrs. B. Savage. After the accustomed formalities the audience dispersed to face one of the most unpleasant blizzards of the season.

THE St. Andrew's Church Sunday School and class rooms have been beautifully renovated. The ladies intend giving an entertainment of Scotch song and recitations and an old fashioned Scotch tea on Friday evening, the 26th of Feb. All "who love their ain countrie" should not fail to be present. Advertisement will appear later. d1.

TRAINS DELAYED.—The high north wind prevailing last night was the cause of the railway track being considerably drifted this morning. The 8.55 a. m. mail train was two hours late, having stuck in a drift near Brampton, and the 6.40 and 10.30 trains were delayed by a through freight train sticking in a drift near Petersburg. The roads in the country are very good, with the exception of those running north east, which are blocked in many places.

COMING EVENTS, &c.—The halls of our local parliament for some years back has been devoid of first-class oratorical exhibitions. This want appears as if it were to be remedied soon, as several of the city fathers are taking lessons in elocution, and will no doubt one of these nights give such a grand exhibition of their winged words of eloquence that will electrify their brother civic legislators and cause them to blush with envy.

A NIGHT WITH POPULAR AUTHORS.—On Tuesday the 2nd March an elocution entertainment entitled an evening with popular authors will be given in the Congregational Church by those attending Prof. F. C. Edward's class of elocution. The chief attraction of the evening will be readings by the Professor who will give some valuable information in regard to reading. Members of the class will also take part, and a short musical programme as a relief to the other proceedings, will be given. This entertainment should prove a treat and will no doubt be largely attended.

GOING INTO BUSINESS AGAIN.—Mr. A. McBean, well and favorably known in this section in connection with hardware business of A. McBean & Co., Guelph, which was recently sold to Harvey & Co., Harriston, has purchased the stock in trade and good will of the hardware business of John G. Short & Co., Dundas st., Woodstock. He will take possession in a short time, and will at once replenish the stock with new and leading lines. Mr. McBean will carry with him to Woodstock the well wishes for his success of numerous friends in Guelph and vicinity. From his general manner and business talent he will not be long in Woodstock before he will win for himself many warm friends and supporters.

GUELPH SCIENTIFIC SOCIETY.—An enthusiastic and representative meeting of those interested in the formation of a Scientific Society for the city, was held last evening in the Free Library Rooms. Mr. James Goldie was elected President, and R. L. Torrance, Secretary pro tem., and after remarks from many present in which all agreed on the importance and great advantage of a systematic study of natural history and science, it was moved by Mr. J. B. Williamson, and seconded by Mr. Gausby, that this meeting proceed to arrange for the formation of a scientific society. Moved in amendment by Mr. D. McCrae, and seconded by Mr. Garnham, that the Society combine the study of literature with that of science, and be called "The Scientific and Literary Society." On a vote being taken the original motion was carried. It was next moved by Mr. W. R. Brasbie, and seconded by Mr. Geo. Griffin, that the following gentlemen constitute a committee to draft a constitution and by-laws, prepare a list of proposed officers and make the necessary arrangements for a public meeting to organize the proposed scientific society:—Messrs. James Goldie, E. Morris, D. McCrae, R. Gausby, Prof. Panton, Rev. D. MacGregor, together with the Presidents (or their substitutes) of the city literary associations.—Carried. The committee meet next Thursday evening in the Free Library rooms, at eight o'clock, and a public meeting will soon afterwards be called.

Among those present were Messrs. J. M. Bond, Geo. Elliott, Geo. Bruce, James Cormack, J. A. Davidson, T. J. Day, Thomas Day, A. B. Petrie, James Kilgour, John W. Kilgour, James Forrest, Wm. Hunter, Dr. Howitt, S. Myers, James Innes, M. C. Schofield, H. Murton, Dr. Keating, Robert Melvin, J. E. McElderry, G. A. Somerville and Robert Forbes, of Guelph; James Phin, John Phin and Jas. P. Phin, of the Township of Waterloo; A. J. Brewster, of Hespeler; John Kitching, jr., of the Township of Nassagaweya; Geo. Parkinson, John Kean and Lazarus Parkinson, of the Township of Eramosa, &c.

The Secretary, Mr. G. A. Somerville, read the following

REPORT.

The Directors beg to submit their financial statement for the year ending 31st December, 1885, and to report that the result of the year's operations is exceedingly satisfactory.

Although money has been plentiful, investments scarce, and interest low, the Directors have been fortunate in being able to keep the Society's funds fully employed at fair interest, and the amount now invested in mortgages is greater than at any former period. The amount advanced on real estate during the year was $205,313.37, which is $63,165.25 in excess of the sum loaned in 1884.

The steady growth of the business is clearly indicated by the increase from year to year in the cash value of mortgages, and the reserve fund, as shown in the following table:—

At 31st Dec. 1879, the mortgages and reserve fund were:—

	Mortgages.	Reserve Fund
1879	$220,835 91	$ 6,789 17
1880	307,785 33	8,465 16
1881	502 691 61	12,983 48
1882	620,068 92	18,293 25
1883	722,297 35	25,353 57
1884	794,821 16	33,500 00
1885	998,224 59	42,000 00

The profits for the year, including balance brought forward, are $29,089.60, after deducting all costs of management, interest on deposits and debentures, etc., etc. This sum has been appropriated as follows:

Dividend No. 18, paid 2nd July, 1885	$9,648 68
" " 19, payable Jan. 2nd, 1886	9,735 30
Carried to Reserve Fund	8,500 00
Balance carried forward	1,205 62
	$29,089 60

Instalments of principal and interest falling due on our loans during the year have been paid with a very fair degree of promptness, and only one small property is held for sale.

As an evidence of the confidence the provident classes of the community have in the stability of the Society, it may be mentioned that the amount invested in our debentures and Savings Bank Department has increased in the short space of six years from $38,401.14 to the large sum of $578,104.53.

The officers of the Society continue to discharge their duties to the satisfaction of the Board.

Attention is directed to the Auditors' Report, which is presented herewith.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

D. STIRTON, President.

GEO. A. SOMERVILLE,
Secretary

We have audited the books and vouchers of the Guelph & Ontario Investment and Savings Society monthly and found them correct. We have also examined the mortgages and calculated the value and earnings of each one separately, and certify that the above balance sheet is a correct statement of the Company's affairs to 31st December, 1885.

A. J. BREWSTER, J. W. KILGOUR, } Audi ors.

The President, in moving the adoption of the report, stated that it was not necessary for him to make any lengthened remarks; the statement was so clear and full that all could easily understand it. However, he thought he might honestly congratulate the shareholders on the very favourable statement that the Board were able to give of the past year's business, especially when we take into consideration the low rate of interest, the large amount of capital seeking investment, and the very keen competition existing in this branch of business. As in the past, the investments had been closely scrutinized and a very large number of loans declined. No losses had been sustained, and the rent of one small property we have on hand was sufficient to pay interest on the amount at which it stood on our books. The Secretary and office staff had discharged their duties in the most efficient and painstaking manner, and to this he attributed much of the success which had attended the year's operations. Should any shareholder desire additional information on any point he would be very glad to give it.

Mr. A. B. Petrie, Vice-President, in seconding the motion, called attention to the strict economy with which the business of the Society had been carried on. In 1881 the expenses were 86-100 and in 1885 56-100 of one per cent of the working capital a reduction of about ⅓. By comparing the annual reports it would be seen that the expenses of the oldest and largest companies in Ontario were from 10 to 30 per cent more than ours, yet our financial statement showed conclusively that the management had been as thoroughly efficient as economical. He thought public attention should be directed to the Torrens Lands Act under which real estate can be transferred as readily as personal property and with trifling expense. Some such reform had long been needed.

The report was unanimously adopted.

Mr. James Innes, M. P., thought the silent acquiescence of the shareholders in the motion to adopt the report was proof that all were fully satisfied with the result of the year's operations. The business had now assumed large proportions, in fact ours had become one of the principal loan companies in the Province; and it would be conceded on all hands that this was due to prudent and careful management. Many of the Directors had an intimate knowledge of every locality in which our money was invested. No loan was made until on the most full and searching examination it was found satisfactory, and the fact that there was only one small property on hand was evidence of the anxious care bestowed upon the affairs of the Society. The very large increase in the savings bank department in the past six years was a gratifying proof of the confidence the business men, wage-earners and farmers of Wellington and the adjoining counties had in the Institution. Our debentures being so largely utilized by executors, administrators, and municipal councils showed that the confidence of these securities as a legal investment for trust funds, was fully appreciated. He concluded by testifying to the zeal and ability with which the Secretary and other officers conducted the business of the Society.

Mr. Melvin referred to the small outlay for commission and valuation. He explained that this was due to the fact that a great many borrowers come direct to the office for loans and that we seldom lost a customer who had once dealt with us.

Messrs. W. Hunter and S. Myers commented favorably on the report.

Mr. Geo. Elliott congratulated the Board on the gratifying result of the business of the past year. The security our depositors have is so thoroughly sound and good that as the institution becomes more widely known he was certain the Savings Bank branch would still more largely increase.

Messrs James Cormack and H. Murton, were appointed scrutineers and reported the re-election of the retiring directors.

Thanks were voted the President, Directors, Manager and other officers of the Society.

Y. M. C. A. Convention.

HAMILTON, Feb. 19—The sixteenth annual convention of the Y. M. C. A. of Ontario and Quebec opened here yesterday afternoon. Among those present were Mr. Webb, Guelph, Mr. Gartshore, of Toronto, Secretary-Treasurer, presented the report of the Executive Committee. This report proposes to raise $5,000 in Canada, outside of Quebec to pay the debt on the Y. M. C. A. building in that city. Quebec is to raise $7,000 to aid to it for the same purpose. Six new associations have been formed since last convention. Guelph has received considerable attention and causes much anxiety. At one time it was found necessary to dispense with the General Secretary's services. However, after a few months' care and judicious help, the brethren there were encouraged to secure an efficient young man in his place, and are now, we believe, prospering. Galt association has ceased to exist. Good reports of spiritual life as well as material progress have reached us from almost every quarter, and we have every reason to be encouraged. We have once more to appeal to the friends of this important work for means to enable the committee to meet the necessary expenses. Up to the present date only $908.31 has been received for last year's work, while our outlay, including a debit balance brought forward from last year, amounts to $1,155.71.

At the evening session and at that which followed this morning papers were read and addresses delivered.

The Evening Mercury

An Unfortunate Accident.

There was considerable trouble around the MERCURY office this afternoon. Just as the second or editorial page was being lowered to the press room something gave way about the elevator, allowing the form to fall into the job room and cellar and mixing the type into an interminable pi. This will account for the absence of such advertisements as E. R. Bollert's, James Wells', Mrs. Hunter's, Clark & Thompson's, Waters Bros.', Stewart & Co.'s, Jas. Hewer's, Cormack & Keleher's, J. S. Roger son's, Campbell's shoe store, The Red Flag store, J. C. McLean, Shaw & Grundy, etc. A quantity of reading matter was also lost in the wreck. We ask the indulgence of our readers and advertising patrons for once, and assure them that things will be in proper shape again by Monday.

Provincial Finances.

The statement of Provincial finances made by the Hon. A. M. Ross in the Legislature on Thursday, will be read with a great deal of satisfaction by all who take an interest in the welfare of the Province. Not only is Col. Ross to be complimented on the conciseness and clearness with which he delivered his statement, but the Province is to be congratulated as well in possessing for its Treasurer a gentleman exhibiting so much financial ability as his speech evinced.

The position of our finances was dealt with in every phase which could possibly help the people to arrive at an intelligent understanding of them. There was no attempt at, and no necessity for, apologizing because of expenditures in excess of the estimates, but on the contrary the statement afforded proof of the most accurate calculations in providing the supplies a year ago.

Of course whatever little cause there was to raise objection to the statement, no matter what care and economy had been exercised in the expenditures, it was natural that the Opposition should find fault. In anticipation of this the Hon. Treasurer made some telling replies in advance to the arguments which he supposed would be used against the Government. In answer to the Tory proposition which is always set up in favour of retaining the Crown lands intact in order that they may increase in value as time goes on, he pointed out that the Government had expended much more in permanent institutions, and in other ways which would confer a lasting benefit to the Province than they had derived from the Crown lands, and that these were as truly capital as were the Crown lands. He showed that if the Crown lands were to remain in disuse grants would have to cease which were now made annually in relieving municipalities of taxation. For objects such as these also, more money was paid out than the Crown lands realized. Thus, in so far as the subject of Crown lands are concerned he proved conclusively that the Government is pursuing the policy which proves most beneficial to the country, and that if the Opposition could only gain the reigns of power that they would put fresh burdens on the people by depriving them of the assistance which is now distributed with such evenhandedness.

The proposition to increase the liquor license fees is one which will meet with very general approval. This will have a tendency to reduce the number of drinking places and shops. It is an arrangement, however, which will not affect this city or county, except in so far as it relates to those persons who are granted licenses to sell for sacramental, medical and manufacturing purposes under the Scott Act, which takes effect here on the 1st of May.

The good work done by the Provincial Board of Health has been very apparent during the past year and the one preceding in suppressing and restraining the spread of smallpox, and the statements with reference to this subject possess much public interest. The perfection to which the system has been brought under Dr. Bryce's management, reflects the greatest credit upon that gentleman.

There are many other noteworthy points in the speech, which, in fact, is one of the best Mr. Ross has ever delivered, and which will have a powerful influence in the country. He has proved himself a worthy successor to previous Treasurers in the Mowat Administration, whose foresight and economy have placed Ontario upon its present satisfactory financial footing.

MR. CHAPLEAU, Secretary of State, seems to have made a good thing out of the Chinese Commission trip to British Columbia. It is presumed that the $7,000 a year salary as Minister and $1,000 indemnity as M.P., received by Mr. Chapleau, is sufficient remuneration for all the services he may render in a given year, but not so. A return brought down to Parliament last session shows that Mr. Chapleau, as Chairman of the Chinese Commission, paid himself a higher salary than was paid to Judge Gray, the other Commissioner. Judge Gray received for his services and expenses $2,535. Mr. Chapleau received $2,680, making the entire sum received by him last year from the Government $10,680, in addition to travelling expenses. But that $2,680 was not all that the Minister made out of the Chinese Commission. He gave the job of printing the report of the Commission to La Minerve, a newspaper in which he is alleged to be a large shareholder, and for the job that paper received $1,700 or about double what the work would have cost if performed by the regular contractors. Then Mr. Chapleau gave the work of translating the report to his brother, Mr. Pierre Chapleau, who drew $450 for his services. The Puffer Laureate of the Government, Mr. N. F. Davin, as Secretary, drew a round three thousand. Sir Alexander Campbell went on a mission to British Columbia in 1882, but he received no extra pay. Other Ministers have gone abroad on public business without charging more than their actual expenses, but Mr. Chapleau seems to think that he draws his regular salary as a matter of right, and that he is entitled to extra remuneration for any services he may perform.

THE Government think of sending three Commissioners to the Northwest to investigate claims for rebellion losses. It is proposed to appoint Nicholas Flood Davin secretary to this Commission, which is expected to receive an all summer job. If Nicholas Flood only waits long enough in the Northwest he may become a millionaire one of these days.

ONTARIO LEGISLATURE.

Toronto, Feb. 20.

The Local Legislature sat from 3.15 till 6.10 yesterday afternoon and spent over two hours in committee of supply. The committee reached the thirteenth item of the estimates. There were increases in the estimates of all the departments caused by several advances in the salaries of civil servants. The increase in each case ranged from $50 to $100, while a permanent engrossing clerk was appointed in the State Department, and two temporary clerks in the Crown Lands Department were placed on the permanent list.

Mr. Meredith objected to the item of $3,000 in the Attorney-General's Department to pay his deputy. Mr. Meredith said the late deputy, Mr. Scott, had worked his way up from $1,800 per annum to $3,000, while Mr. Johnston stepped right into the $3,000 position. He did not think this was a fair principle. Mr. Mowat said he had done the very best he could for the Province. He had to pay a good salary to a competent man. The increase of the salary to Dr. Bryce, Secretary of the Board of Health, from $1,500 to $1,750 was also severely criticized. Mr. Mowat said that all the increases were carefully considered in council, and none but those legally entitled to it were allowed.

The different items passed, together with the increases, were: Attorney-General's department $15,630, increase $396; Department of Education $21,000, increase $71; Crown lands department $48,660, increase $3,350; public works department $18 180, increase $450; treasury department $17,975, increase $900; department of agriculture, decrease $1,300, having been absorbed by the Crown lands department; secretary of state's department $13,650, increase $1,450; department of immigration $1,600; public institutions $9,274, increase $40.67; provincial board of health $8,400, increase $17.50; miscellaneous $10,350, increase $200. There was a hot discussion on the item of miscellaneous, and the House adjourned in the middle of the discussion. The total amount of the estimate under the head of civil government is $187,499.

Mr. Carnegie's bill to amend Cap. 157, R. S. O., respecting the borrowing powers of joint stock companies for supplying cities, towns and villages with gas and water was read a second time and referred. The bill provides that the above chapter be repealed and this substituted:

"The sum so borrowed shall not exceed the sum of $40,000, to be expended in gas works, and a like sum for water works, for any incorporated village, or the sum of $100,000 for any town or city for either gas or water works."

SELLING LIQUOR.—Mr. T. Hartnett appeared at the Police Court this morning on a charge of selling liquor by the glass. Several interesting legal points came up in the course of investigation. Mr. Hartnett has a shop license but cannot sell less than 3 pints. The ruling of the magistrate is that where there is proof required as to persons consuming liquor in such cases being lodgers the onus of proving they are lodgers rests in the defendant, a matter of some consequence in these cases. The case was fought out with considerable vim on both sides. The prosecution proved that when the Inspector entered defendant's shop there were empty glasses standing on the counter and men were just leaving who had apparently been drinking. The defendant swore that his wife was ill, that while he was attending her upstairs the men came in and got the liquor if liquor was got, and he knew nothing about it as they helped themselves. The defendant's counsel urged that this certainly did not come under the act making it an offence to "allow or permit the consumption of liquor on the premises. His Worship took this view of the matter and dismissed the case with a warning to defendant. Mr. H. W. Peterson, for the Crown, and Mr. T.P. Coffee conducted the defence.

A COSTLY BRIDGE.—The Gait Reporter says:—Parties who have given the question some consideration estimate that to erect an iron bridge at Breslau, as Waterloo township council now has under consideration, will entail a total cost of somewhere between $12,000 and $18,000. A considerable sum would have to be expended on the approaches, the necessary stone piers and abutments would be costly, and the iron superstructure itself would cost pretty badly into $8000 or $9000. Of the amount to be thus expended, the town of Ber in offers to contribute $4000.

CHAPTER XII.

STRIKING THE FIRST BLOW.

Eighteen months passed before Percival and Helen came home to Brantwood, and all that time they spent in travelling about the Continent. This length of time spent abroad was the fulfilment of a long cherished wish of Helen's, and, contrary to the usual experience, the reality surpassed her expectations. She had read and seen pictures of Switzerland and Italy, she had talked to people who had studied in Germany, and she had wondered if she would ever travel. She came to the conclusion that it was not probable, and she had passed many an hour of idleness in imagining what she never hoped to see. But all the chaos of snow-capped peaks in which she had revelled in imagination was flat and tame compared to her first sight of the Engadine on a remarkably cold June morning, when the snow had not melted from the mountains, and some of the passed were still unopened.

There were certain scenes in her travels which she felt she would never forget. One was the first sight of those mighty snow-covered peaks towering up into the clear, blue sky—the sensation they gave her, the sudden feeling of utter loneliness and desolation, the sense of the depth, and breadth, and height of nature. Another was the day when Percival and she visited one of the glaciers, and after climbing for some distance found themselves in a region of the most complete and death-like stillness, which was suddenly broken by the fall of a rock somewhere—it might be close at hand, it might be far away—time and distance seemed nothing in the presence of those eternal snows and fathomless heights and depths. Other scenes and feelings might vanish and be forgotten; those two would remain with her to her life's end. She admired and enjoyed Italy, Germany gave her a sense of home, but Switzerland went to her heart. She did not often speak of it. She never urged her friends to go there, but she herself loved it as she had never imagined she could care for any country, and it was only the thought of Osmotherley in its autumn beauty which reconciled her to going home.

As soon as she was settled at Brantwood she became overwhelmed with callers. People had not been able to shake off the idea that it was Alice whom Percival ought to have married, and many came to see how the husband and wife got on. Such went away disappointed. No one could help seeing the perfect love and sympathy between them, they were so dependent on one another. It was evident there had been no mistake. Another thing came upon them like a revelation; it was suddenly discovered that Helen was beautiful. She was very little changed; her slender figure was as graceful as ever; neither hair nor eyes had changed colour, her complexion was neither paler nor more brilliant than before; but, whereas before her marriage she had been considered merely a well-looking girl, she was now seen to be absolutely beautiful. Alice's prophecy had been fulfilled, though sooner than she had anticipated. At two-and-twenty Helen was considered as beautiful as her sister, though in a different way. Percival heard it, and while secretly exulting and triumphant, pretended to be disgusted that the beauty which he had been accustomed to consider his own private property now belonged to every one.

Mrs. Lafone and Alice were among the earliest callers. Alice had just come home. She had spent the season in London and at fashionable watering-places, and she was still unmarried. Chances had not been wanting. What was the reason of her remaining unmarried none knew and few even cared to ask. Others bore away the prizes which she disdained, and so there was compensation. She looked little changed since Helen's marriage, rather older perhaps, and with the fold between her eyes a little deepened, otherwise the same as ever. She said very little on this occasion; the conversation was left to her mother and Helen, but her eyes were restless; they rested on every object in the room, including its mistress, but she said nothing. She sat there sipping her tea, and looking first at one picture or bit of china, then at another. At last she rose and crossed the room to one of the windows, and Helen saw that her walk, too, was the same as before—slow, measured, perhaps a little languid. Alice met Helen's eyes fixed upon her, and said, as though in explanation—

"You have a beautiful view from this window."

"Yes, we see right across the bay; we get all the sunsets without having to go out of doors. Percival and I could not make up our minds for some time whether to have that window put in, but we finally decided we would."

"When was that?" asked Mrs. Lafone. "I do not remember it."

"It was soon after he came to live here."

"When we were each beginning to feel a certain incapacity in action unless aided by advice from the other," said Percival, who came in at that moment and guessed the subject of conversation.

Mrs. Lafone and her daughter sat a long time. They were the only callers that afternoon, and had the field to themselves. Helen, too, had lost the slight constraint which had formerly marked her manner with her stepmother and sister; almost unconsciously her visitors prolonged their stay till a clock striking recalled Mrs. Lafone to a sense of the flight of time.

"He is really very fond of her, that is evident," she said as she and her daughter drove home.

"A blind man might see that," returned Alice, and if ever she were guilty of giving a snappish answer it was then.

"I am really glad she has married so well," pursued the elder lady. "She was a great responsibility with her queer ways, and if you and Gertrude had married first, or she not at all, there would have been some talk; people are so uncharitable."

"So far there has been no opening for reflections upon your character as a stepmother," said Alice still caustic.

"She is very much improved in every way. I expect she found Percival would not put up with her tempers. Yes, she has been very fortunate; it is such a comfort to reflect that one has done one's duty."

Alice made no reply. She scarcely spoke throughout the remainder of the drive, and on reaching home went straight to her room, saying she was tired.

THE FRANCHISE ACT.

The Qualifications of Voters—The Process of Registration Explained.

The time having arrived for the preparation of the voters' lists under the new Dominion Franchise Act, an appeal is made to the Liberals of Wellington to have their names enrolled as voters without delay. To assist in so doing a short summary of the qualification of voters and of the process for securing registration is given.

QUALIFICATION.

To entitle a person to be put on the list he must be—

(1) 21 years of age.

(2) A British subject by birth or naturalization.

(3) Owner of real property of value:
In a city, $300.
In a town, $200.
In a county, $150.

(4) Or tenant of real property under ease at a rental of
$2 per month.
$6 per quarter.
$12 per half year.
$20 per year.

Provided that the tenant has been in possession for one year before 1st January 1886, and shall have paid one year's rent before final revision.

If the rent is yearly it will be sufficient if $20 of last year's rent shall have been paid before final revision.

Change of tenancy without intermission will not destroy the vote if aggregate of tenancies would give vote.

In cities at $300.
In towns at $200.
In counties at $150.

In counties outside of villages the rent may be payable either in money or in money's worth.

(5) Or a bona fide occupant for one year before 1st January, 1886, and enjoying the revenues and profits for his own or his wife's use of real property of the following values:
In cities, $300.
In towns, $200.
In counties, $150.

The occupancy may be under license of occupation from the crown or from any person or corporation.

(6) Or by income without any other qualification.

A person may be registered as an income voter, if he derives an income from his earnings, trade or profession, or from some investment in Canada of $300 a year, for one year before 1st January, 1886.

In counties the earnings may be either in money or money's worth.

(7) Sons of owners of real property are qualified—

(b) When the father is dead, and would, if living, be qualified, residence with the mother will suffice, and as many sons as the property will qualify may be registered, with preference to the eldest and elder sons, as in the last case.

Occasional absence from home of a son—not more than six months in the year—will not disqualify, and all time spent at school or college in Canada will be counted as if spent at home.

Son of an owner includes grandson, step-son and son-in-law, and all these may be registered as voters on the property if of sufficient value. The provision as to sons of owners applies to the counties as well as towns and cities in cases other than those of farmers' sons.

(8) Farmers' sons—The same provisions substantially apply to farmers' sons, as stated in the last paragraph in respect of sons of owners in cities and towns.

A farm is to be not less than 20 acres of land.

(9) Fishermen and owners of real property and boats, nets, fishing gear and tackle of aggregate value of $150.

Income voters register where they reside at time of registration—all others where property is situate. If in more than one polling division in the same electoral district the voter may register in either.

All names entered in the last revised voters' lists under the old law, will be entered in the new lists by the revising barrister.

Every person not on the assessment roll desiring to have his name on the list must at once send to the revising barrister, an application in writing to be put on the list, giving his name, residence and the property or other qualification in respect of which he applies to be put on.

This application must be accompanied by a declaration which is to be made and signed before a commissioner for taking affidavits, a notary or justice of the peace, showing the grounds of the applicants claim to be put on the list.

Substantially the voters are those who can qualify as owners, tenants, occupants, income voters, sons of owners and farmers' sons.

See that the application shows as correctly and fully as possible the qualification.

Make the declaration before a commissioner, notary or justice of the peace. It is convenient to have it attached to the application on the same sheet.

In case of an absent person, let some one else having a knowledge of the qualification make the application and declaration.

When one cannot find a justice or other person before whom the declaration can be taken let the application alone be sent in, with an explanation of the reason, and it would be well in such case to have the truth of the facts in the application certified on the back of it by one, or if possible, two other persons.

The application and declaration must be sent at once to the Revising barrister of the district.

URGENCY OF THE MATTER.

No name not on the last voters' list or assessment roll will be placed on the preliminary voters' list, unless on application and declaration as above.

In case of any difficulty or doubt, application should be made at once for advice to some of the Liberal friends in the neighborhood.

Mr. Maddock and "His" Letter.

To the Editor of the MERCURY:

SIR,—I notice in last evening's edition what I term a reply to my letter, which appeared in Tuesday's papers, a reply which is full of unjust statements and not suitable to come from a man in a position such as Mr. Maddock has at present. Besides the insinuations, his letter is full of contradictory statements. He says I refuse to skate for the medal. It is a false statement. What I refused is this:—Not to accept Bunyan's challenge, with its false accusations, which a child would notice at a glance. He next states in what he calls next breath that I received no challenge until the 15th, every word of which is untrue. The truth of the matter is this: Through his (Maddock's) carelessness I was not notified that there was going to be a medal race until Monday's papers were issued. I went to the rink that night intending to see Mr Maddock, but as he was not up till 9:30 p m, which was the time I left it, I could not tell him that I was not going to skate. To bring everything to its true light. I promised to skate a two mile race without the medal if the others consented. For the interest of the Rink Company and himself it was his place to go and find out whether the other contestants would skate that way or not. Instead of doing that he never said any more about it, and would have let me skate, with the understanding that it was not for the trophy. As he was in the act of ringing the bell to call off the race, I said they understand it is not for the medal. He said, "No, I never mentioned it to them." He then in the last moment, asked them to race without the medal, which they refused and, therefore, I did not contest. In regard to what he says about the 9th instant has nothing to do with it, and it only waste of time and space to dwell upon it; but I do not think he said to me that he would announce it as the next attraction; in any case the race which we were wanting to have on the 11th was to be between McCutcheon and myself, which would be entirely different than Tuesday's. Hoping that I will not need to write any more letters to justify myself,

I remain, yours truly,
JOSEPH BRANDON.

N B—Parties interested in this matter, please compare the letters.

The Foes of a Household

CHAPTER XII.

STRIKING THE FIRST BLOW.

Eighteen months passed before Percival and Helen came home to Brantwood, and all that time they spent in travelling about the Continent. This length of time spent abroad was the fulfilment of a long cherished wish of Helen's, and, contrary to the usual experience, the reality surpassed her expectations. She had read and seen pictures of Switzerland and Italy, she had talked to people who had studied in Germany, and she had wondered if she would ever travel. She came to the conclusion that it was not probable, and she had passed many an hour of idleness in imagining what she never hoped to see. But all the chaos of snow-capped peaks in which she had revelled in imagination was flat and tame compared to her first sight of the Engadine on a remarkably cold June morning, when the snow had not melted from the mountains, and some of the passed were still unopened.

There were certain scenes in her travels which she felt she would never forget. One was the first sight of those mighty snow-covered peaks towering up into the clear, blue sky—the sensation they gave her, the sudden feeling of utter loneliness and desolation, the sense of the depth, and breadth, and height of nature. Another was the day when Percival and she visited one of the glaciers, and after climbing for some distance found themselves in a region of the most complete and death-like stillness, which was suddenly broken by the fall of a rock somewhere—it might be close at hand, it might be far away—time and distance seemed nothing in the presence of those eternal snows and fathomless heights and depths. Other scenes and feelings might vanish and be forgotten; those two would remain with her to her life's end. She admired and enjoyed Italy, Germany gave her a sense of home, but Switzerland went to her heart. She did not often speak of it. She never urged her friends to go there, but she herself loved it as she had never imagined she could care for any country, and it was only the thought of Osmotherley in in its autumn beauty which reconciled her to going home.

As soon as she was settled at Brantwood she became overwhelmed with callers. People had not been able to shake off the idea that it was Alice whom Percival ought to have married, and many came to see how the husband and wife got on. Such went away disappointed. No one could help seeing the perfect love and sympathy between them, they were so dependent on one another. It was evident there had been no mistake. Another thing came upon them like a revelation; it was suddenly discovered that Helen was beautiful. She was very little changed; her slender figure was as graceful as ever; neither hair nor eyes had changed colour, her complexion was neither paler nor more brilliant than before; but, whereas before her marriage she had been considered merely a well-looking girl, she was now seen to be absolutely beautiful. Alice's prophecy had been fulfilled, though sooner than she had anticipated. At two-and-twenty Helen was considered as beautiful as her sister, though in a different way. Percival heard it, and while secretly exulting and triumphant, pretended to be disgusted that the beauty which he had been accustomed to consider his own private property now belonged to every one.

Mrs. Lafone and Alice were among the earliest callers. Alice had just come home. She had spent the season in London and at fashionable watering-places, and she was still unmarried. Chances had not been wanting. What was the reason of her remaining unmarried none knew and few even cared to ask. Others bore away the prizes which she disdained, and so there was compensation. She looked little changed since Helen's marriage, rather older perhaps, and with the fold between her eyes a little deepened, otherwise the same as ever. She said very little on this occasion; the conversation was left to her mother and Helen, but her eyes were restless; they rested on every object in the room, including its mistress, but she said nothing. She sat there sipping her tea, and looking first at one picture or bit of china, then at another. At last she rose and crossed the room to one of the windows, and Helen saw that her walk, too, was the same as before—slow, measured, perhaps a little languid. Alice met Helen's eyes fixed upon her, and said, as though in explanation—

"You have a beautiful view from this window."

"Yes, we see right across the bay; we get all the sunsets without having to go out of doors. Percival and I could not make up our minds for some time whether to have that window put in, but we finally decided we would."

"When was that?" asked Mrs. Lafone.

"I do not remember it."

"It was soon after he came to live here."

"When we were each beginning to feel a certain incapacity in action unless aided by advice from the other," said Percival, who came in at that moment and guessed the subject of conversation.

Mrs. Lafone and her daughter sat a long time. They were the only callers that afternoon, and had the field to themselves. Helen, too, had lost the slight constraint which had formerly marked her manner with her stepmother and sister; almost unconsciously her visitors prolonged their stay till a clock striking recalled Mrs. Lafone to a sense of the flight of time.

"He is really very fond of her, that is evident," she said as she and her daughter drove home.

"A blind man might see that," returned Alice, and if ever she were guilty of giving a snappish answer it was then.

"I am really glad she has married so well," pursued the elder lady. "She was a great responsibility with her queer ways, and if you and Gertrude had married first, or she not at all, there would have been some talk; people are so uncharitable."

"So far there has been no opening for reflections upon your character as a stepmother," said Alice still caustic.

"She is very much improved in every way. I expect she found Percival would not put up with her tempers. Yes, she has been very fortunate; it is such a comfort to reflect that one has done one's duty."

Alice made no reply. She scarcely spoke throughout the remainder of the drive, and on reaching home went straight to her room, saying she was tired.

THE FRANCHISE ACT.

The Qualifications of Voters—The Process of Registration Explained.

The time having arrived for the preparation of the voters' lists under the new Dominion Franchise Act, an appeal is made to the Liberals of Wellington to have their names enrolled as voters without delay. To assist in so doing a short summary of the qualification of voters and of the process for securing registration is given.

QUALIFICATION.

To entitle a person to be put on the list he must be—

(1) 21 years of age.

(2) A British subject by birth or naturalization.

(3) Owner of real property of value:

In a city, $300.
In a town, $200.
In a county, $150.

(4) Or tenant of real property under ease at a rental of

$2 per month.
$6 per quarter.
$12 per half year.
$20 per year.

Provided that the tenant has been in possession for one year before 1st January 1886, and shall have paid one year's rent before final revision.

If the rent is yearly it will be sufficient if $20 of last year's rent shall have been paid before final revision.

Change of tenancy without intermission will not destroy the vote if aggregate of tenancies would give vote.

In cities at $300.
In towns at $200.
In counties at $150.

In counties outside of villages the rent may be payable either in money or in money's worth.

(5) Or a bona fide occupant for one year before 1st January, 1886, and enjoying the revenues and profits for his own or his wife's use of real property of the following values:

In cities, $300.
In towns, $200.
In counties, $150.

The occupancy may be under license of occupation from the crown or from any person or corporation.

(6) Or by income without any other qualification.

A person may be registered as an income voter, if he derives an income from his earnings, trade or profession, or from some investment in Canada of $300 a year, for one year before 1st January, 1886.

In counties the earnings may be either in money or money's worth.

(7) Sons of owners of real property are qualified—

(b) When the father is dead, and would, if living, be qualified, residence with the mother will suffice, and as many sons as the property will qualify may be registered, with preference to the eldest and elder sons, as in the last case.

Occasional absence from home of a son—not more than six months in the year—will not disqualify, and all time spent at school or college in Canada will be counted as if spent at home.

Son of an owner includes grandson, step-son and son-in-law, and all these may be registered as voters on the property if of sufficient value. The provision as to sons of owners applies to the counties as well as towns and cities in cases other than those of farmers' sons.

(8) Farmers' sons—The same provisions substantially apply to farmers' sons, as stated in the last paragraph in respect of sons of owners in cities and towns.

A farm is to be not less than 20 acres of land.

(9) Fishermen and owners of real property and boats, nets, fishing gear and tackle of aggregate value of $150.

Income voters register where they reside at time of registration—all others where property is situate. If in more than one polling division in the same electoral district the voter may register in either.

All names entered in the last revised voters' lists under the old law, will be entered in the new lists by the revising barrister.

Every person not on the assessment roll desiring to have his name on the list must at once send to the revising barrister an application in writing to be put on the list, giving his name, residence and the property or other qualification in respect of which he applies to be put on.

This application must be accompanied by a declaration which is to be made and signed before a commissioner for taking affidavits, a notary or justice of the peace, showing the grounds of the applicants claim to be put on the list.

Substantially the voters are those who can qualify as owners, tenants, occupants, income voters, sons of owners and farmers' sons.

See that the application shows as correctly and fully as possible the qualification.

Make the declaration before a commissioner, notary or justice of the peace. It is convenient to have it attached to the application on the same sheet.

In case of an absent person, let some one else having a knowledge of the qualification make the application and declaration.

When one cannot find a justice or other person before whom the declaration can be taken let the application alone be sent in, with an explanation of the reason, and it would be well in such case to have the truth of the facts in the application certified on the back of it by one, or if possible, two other persons.

The application and declaration must be sent at once to the Revising barrister of the district.

URGENCY OF THE MATTER.

No name not on the last voters' list or assessment roll will be placed on the preliminary voters' list, unless on application and declaration as above.

In case of any difficulty or doubt, application should be made at once for advice to some of the Liberal friends in the neighborhood.

Mr. Maddock and "His" Letter.

To the Editor of the MERCURY:

SIR,—I notice in last evening's edition what I term a reply to my letter, which appeared in Tuesday's papers, a reply which is full of unjust statements and not suitable to come from a man in a position such as Mr. Maddock has at present. Besides the insinuations, his letter is full of contradictory statements. He says I refuse to skate for the medal. It is a false statement. What I refused is this:—Not to accept Bunyan's challenge, with its false accusations, which a child would notice at a glance. He next states in what he calls next breath that I received no challenge until the 15th, every word of which is untrue. The truth of the matter is this: Through his (Maddock's) carelessness I was not notified that there was going to be a medal race until Monday's papers were issued. I went to the rink that night intending to see Mr Maddock, but as he was not up till 9:30 p m, which was the time I left it, I could not tell him that I was not going to skate. To bring everything to its true light, I promised to skate a two mile race without the medal if the others consented. For the interest of the Rink Company and himself it was his place to go and find out whether the other contestants would skate that way or not. Instead of doing that he never said any more about it, and would have let me skate, with the understanding that it was not for the trophy. As he was in the act of ringing the bell to call off the race, I said they understand it is not for the medal. He said, "No, I never mentioned it to them." He then in the last moment, asked them to race without the medal, which they refused and, therefore, I did not contest. In regard to what he says about the 9th instant has nothing to do with it, and it only waste of time and space to dwell upon it; but do not think he said to me that he would announce it as the next attraction; in any case the race which we were wanting to have on the 11th was to be between McCutcheon and myself, which would be entirely different than Tuesday's. Hoping that I will not need to write any more letters to justify myself,

I remain, yours truly,
JOSEPH BRANDON.

NB—Parties interested in this matter, please compare the letters.

THE Council of the Board of Trade meet in the City Hall to-night.

REV. R. J. BEATTIE and D. McGregor, M.A., exchanged pulpits yesterday evening.

Rev. J. B. CLARK, of Emerson, N. Y., occupied the pulpit of Norfolk St. Methodist Church Sunday evening.

PROF. PHILP has resigned the Conductorship of the Choral Union, owing to the lack of interest evinced by the members.

ON Tuesday last a man by the name of Samuel Orr, charged before Judge Miller, Milton, for stealing a mare from Mr. Cole, Trafalgar, was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary.

IF wax candles are placed in a refrigerator for a few hours before they are needed, it is said that they will burn perfectly, without the disagreeable features of "winding sheets" and dripping wax.

FARMERS in this vicinity, says the Mount Forest Index, tell us that such a depth of frost in the ground, as is at the present time, has not been known for years, many pits of potatoes and turnips being frozen through and through.

THE Galt Reformer in speaking of the re-opening of the Methodist church there says:—In the evening Rev. Dr. Griffin, of Guelph, Superintendent of the District, conducted the services. The Doctor is possessed of considerable native wit and puts his points in a quaint and original, but none the less, convincing manner.

LAST week C. O'Neil's horse, Arthur, ran away and threw him from the cutter. The animal, a very fine stallion "Joe," three years old, kept striking the back tendons of his hind legs against the runner, until they became completely severed to the bones, when the poor animal fell for want of power and was unable to rise again. It had to be shot.

A FOREIGN PREACHER.—Signor Cherubini, a licentiate of the Protestant Evangelical Church of Italy, of which Gavazzi is the most distinguished minister, gave an address in Chalmers' Church at the evening service, Sunday. This church is now amalgimated with the Waldensian one in Italy, which has for so many centuries survived among the valleys of Vaudois Alps in spite of all the persecutions of Popes and Italian Princes. He gave a very interesting account of the rapid spread of the church in Italy, especially from the time that Rome became the capital of the country and the residence of the King. The address was listened to with great attention, and the speaker had a remarkably good command of English considering the few months that he has been studying it.

RUNAWAY.—There was an exciting runaway on the Market Square on Saturday afternoon. A horse attached to a cutter, belonging to Mr. A. McIntosh, Paisley Block, has been left in front of Mr. R. Pigott's store while the owner was transacting some business with Mr. Pigott. Scarcely had the animal been left alone when it started off. The horse belonging to the Gas Company was tied near by, and the animal ran between the horse and the post breaking the shaft. It then jumped over the corner of a gas pipe drain being dug, running against two barrels, knocking them over and drawing them along for quite a distance. On rushing along the sidewalk at Sunley's store, an old lady had a narrow escape from being knocked down, and only saved herself by suddenly jumping to the side of the building. The animal then turned to the right, jumped over the tie post in front of Sunley's, breaking it, and ran against Ald. Carter's stone house, where it left the cutter, minus the shafts. The horse ran into McAteer's yard, where it was caught.

THE Mount Forest Confederate believes it would be a source of much mental improvement and benefit to the students at the High School if a reading room were established in connection with the library. If the students and teachers would arrange the matter, the necessary funds could be provided by a good concert or two at an early date.

GUELPH DEBENTURES.—The tenders for the City of Guelph 20 years 6 per cent debentures, were opened on Saturday, and the highest offer was found to be 19 2 5 premium. This is the largest figure ever realized for Guelph debentures. The fact of this high rate goes to prove the standing of our Royal City in the commercial world, and the confidence placed in its future prosperity. The competition was very keen there being three tenders over 19 premium and four over 18 premium.

TEMPERANCE CONVENTION IN FERGUS.—A meeting of the friends of temperance in the County of Wellington, will be held in the Town Hall, Fergus, on Monday, March 1st, at 2 p.m., for the purpose of considering the present position and advising in regard to the future, especially regarding the enforcement of the Scott Act when it comes in force on the 1st of May next. All the members of local temperance societies are invited. Billets will be provided for all sending their their names to Mr. W. Castell.

BASEBALL.—A despatch from Hamilton states that Mr. George Sterling, the representative of Hamilton at the New York League, has returned and reports that the formation of an International League is now assured. The details are not yet perfected and will not be given to the public until everything is arranged. The Buffalo despatch in the morning papers to-day is misleading and incorrect. There was no weakening by the Canadians, and whatever has been done by Hamilton has been concurred in by Toronto.

HORSE FELL INTO THE RIVER.—On Saturday morning, one of a span of horses, belonging to Mr. John Burns, and employed in drawing ice for Mr. John Harris, baker and confectioner, fell through a previously cut hole on Goldie's dam. Great difficulty was experienced in getting the animal out. A rope was passed around it and a span of horses, which were, fortunately, near by, were hitched to he rope. It was some ten minutes before the poor animal was rescued, in a half drowned condition.

A PENDING STRIKE.—The Palmerston Vindicator says:—One year ago the Grand Trunk Railway Company reduced the salaries of all officials and workingmen ten per cent notwithstanding the strenuous objections of the employees. Further reductions have since taken place and the men are, by joining the Knights of Labor, getting ready to strike in the spring, unless Manager Hickson meets them in a fair spirit and restores the scale of wages to something like the old figures. The strength of the Company will be tested in this struggle.

NARROW ESCAPE.—A farmer crossing the main street crossing in Palmerston the other day had a narrow escape from being killed. A mixed train was being made up in the yard, and the watchman notified the driver to wait a few minutes. A portion of the train had scarcely halted, preparatory to backing up, when the farmer started his team and the train coming back struck the sleigh, carrying horses, sleigh and driver along the track over a culvert. Fortunately the culvert was covered, otherwise almost instant death to man and horses would certainly have been the result of the drivers' rash act. This should be a warning to others to be cautious while crossing railways.

A GUELPH DRUGGIST ABROAD.—The Arthur Enterprise has the following complimentary notice in reference to Mr. John Hugill, who was for many years in Herod's drug store, and was well known and universally liked: Mr. J. H. Hugill, who is successor to Mr. W. J. Walsh, has made some very neat internal improvements on his shop. Drug stores are usually very tastefully arranged, and that of Mr. Hugill is no exception to the rule. The painting and paper-hanging, is in beauty and style, superior to anything in that line to be seen in Arthur. Mr. Hugill has also added largely to his stock of drugs; which together with the improvements mentioned, give his place a very nice appearance.

THE QUEEN VS. O'CONNELL.—Daniel O'Connell, lately hotel keeper, of New Hamburg, was, on Saturday, brought before Police Magistrate Saunders, to answer a charge of rape, preferred against him by Susanah Hebner. The investigation occupied the greater part of Saturday, and was resumed this morning. The prosecution in her examination-in-chief made out a tolerably strong case, but on cross-examination admissions were elicited which rendered the charge utterly groundless. Dr. Howitt and Mr. David McCrae were examined as witnesses for the Crown. The Magistrate, upon hearing counsel on both sides, dismissed the charge. County Crown Attorney prosecuted and pressed very strongly for a committal. Mr. O'Connor defended the prisoner.

SCIENTIFIC SOCIETY.—From the paragraph in Saturday's paper it is pleasing to note that an effort is being made for the formation of a Scientific Society in Guelph. The object is a most laudable one and deserves every encouragement, and no doubt will be fully supported by the lovers of botany and other cognate subjects. When the Society is organized it is designed that soon as the fine weather commences the members shall take a stroll into the country and become conversant with many specimens of vegetable life. The class will be under the instruction of Prof. Panton, of the Agricultural College, who is a thorough Scientist. The object is a most commendable one, and should be taken hold of by the young folks of the City, as it will afford them study of a most pleasing and profitable character.

MR. PHILIP SPRAGGE, on Wednesday, conducted the sale of farm stock and implements of Alex. White, Guelph Township. The sale was very successful and realized over $500 above Mr. White's expectation. This speaks well for Mr. Spragge as an auctioneer.

SHEEP RAISING.—The Canadian Journal of Fabrics says: Our Canadian farmers may well turn their attention to introducing new breeds of sheep and improving upon old ones. Some Merinos are raised near Galt, the wool of which a skilful manufacturer of knit goods pronounces equal to any imported. They average 7 or 8 lbs. to a fleece of wool, which always commands a high price, and for the purposes of the Canadian manufacturer, is better than the imported Merino wool in that it is of a purer white and freer from burrs and dirt. A cross between the Merinos and the Leicester sheep is recommended to farmers, as they all average 8 lbs. to the fleece, and bring 3 or 4 cents a pound over other grades, while there will be less shrinkage in washing.

A BIG PROPOSAL.—The people of Guelph are always alive to the great advantages of judicious advertising, and now the more enterprising of them have fallen on a plan which they think the very best for advertising the exhibit from the Royal City at the Indian and Colonial Exhibition. The proposal is no less a one than to send the City Band, which is admittedly one of the best musical organizations of the kind in the Dominion, over to London, and the promoters of the scheme think the visitors to the Exhibition could only come to one conclusion, viz: that it must be a go-ahead and prosperous place which sent them to attract attention to its exhibits. There are two or three things to be done before the proposal could be carried out. First it must be ascertained whether the outlay for expenses of the Band would meet with a sufficient reward, then it must be determined how the funds for the expenses could be raised, and finally whether the bandsmen could arrange to leave their vocations for so long a time, which most of them probably could. There is no doubt it would be an excellent advertisement for Guelph, but it would require pretty liberal contributions to defray the expenses.

Destroyed by Fire.

TEESWATER, Feb. 20.—This morning about two o'clock a building at the north-end, owned by A. H. Thacker, and occupied by Grabill & Rivers as a blacksmith shop and carriage factory, was burned to the ground. The fire is said to have been started by an incendiary. This is the second attempt to burn the building within two weeks. Thacker's loss on the building is $1,000; insured in Wellington Mutual for $800. Grabill & Rivers' loss is $800; insured in Huron & Middlesex for $450.

GODERICH, Feb. 20.—At ten o'clock last night a fire was discovered in the upper flat of J. Imries' book and stationery store. The firemen succeeded in confining the flames to that part of the building, the interior of which was destroyed with a large stock of goods. The loss will be heavy. The cause of the fire is unknown. Insured in British America, London, Phœnix and Hartford.

Death of Ald. John Hall.

The announcement in the obituary column of the death of Ald. John Hall will be read with feelings of sorrow by a great many citizens of Guelph. His demise was sudden and unexpected by the majority of his acquaintance, it being only two or three days ago that a reference was made in these columns to his illness. Though suffering from a bad cold for some time previously it was only on Saturday, the 13th inst., that he was compelled to take to bed, inflammation of the lungs having set in by that time. The attack was a severe one, and from the first he sank gradually, with the exception of yesterday, when he rallied somewhat, but again relapsed and passed away near noon to-day. The deceased gentleman was born in the city of Hamilton in 1839, and came with his family to Guelph about 1862, working at his trade of carpenter and builder. During the oil fever at Petrolia and Oil Springs he went thither and engaged in contracting, being much sought after on account of the energy and ability he displayed in pushing through his contracts. Returning to Guelph he commenced business as an architect, which profession he was engaged in till stricken down by the illness which has resulted in his death. Among many buildings which give evidence of his ability and taste in designing the most prominent are the factory of Messrs. W. Bell & Co., the splendid block of the Guelph Banking Co. the Tovell block, the new county building and the beautiful residence of Messrs. T. Gowdy and J. W. Lyon. He married in 1865 the second daughter of the late Geo. Sunly. The deceased has filled various important positions both in the Council and the School Board and was Chairman of Finance for the Council and Chairman of the Committee on Sites and Buildings for the School Board at the time of his decease His death will cause a vacancy in the representation of St. John's Ward, and a new election will have to be held there. He was a member of Royal Lodge of United Workmen, and the members of that Order in the city, as well as the members of the City Council and Board of Education will probably attend the funeral in a body. At the time of his death Mr. Hall was forty-five years of age, and he leaves a wife and four children to mourn his death.

Good to Their Friends.

It was a telling speech which Mr. M. C. Cameron, M. P. for West Huron, made at St. Thomas the other day, and one which will rankle for some time in the breasts of every member of the Dominion Government. As an indictment of the Government on the charge of corruption it was pointed and forcible. Mr. Cameron showed at considerable length to what extent they had wasted the public resources and parcelled out the public domain among their party hacks and themselves. And then he proceeded to speak of a subject of singular interest to the country as showing the extent to which Tory Ministers indulge in the exercise of nepotism. It was not a mere unsubstantiated charge which he brought under this head, but was backed up in each instance by the names of those so provided for, the relationships they bear to the respective ministers, and the salaries which they draw. Sir John Macdonald has four relatives, including a son, who as Solicitor of the C. P. R. receives $10,000 a year, drawing $13,750 annually. Hon. Mr. Bowell has a son receiving $1,800 as Customs Appraiser at Winnipeg, and has six other relatives of one degree or another pensioned on the public. Hon. Mr. Chapleau, who secured for a railway, of which he is the owner, a bonus of $272,000, has three brothers in the civil service, two of whom receive $1,600 each per annum, the salary of the third being unknown. Sir Hector Langevin has provided for four relatives at the public expense to the tune of $7,500 a year. Hon. Thomas White's patriotism is summed up in $8,000 a year for self as Minister, $19,000 for his paper, the Montreal Gazette, and $2,600 a year in salaries for three relatives, not to speak of timber limits, etc., for himself and other connections. Hon. Mr. McLelan has five relatives in the civil service, two of whom draw $2,800 a year. Hon. John Costigan is not satisfied with permits to strip fifty square miles of Ontario timber lands, 59,000 acres of grazing lands in the Northwest and a bonus of $490,000 for his railway, but has three relatives paid fat salaries by the Government annually. Two receive $2,300 and one, Crown prosecutor at Calgary, has an income which is unlimited. Hon. J. C. Pope has had six relatives provided for to the extent of $7,900 per annum. And last but by no means least, comes Tilley, who has not only secured thing in getting the appointment Lieutenant-Governor of New Brunswick for himself, but has foisted no less than fifteen connections of one kind or another on the country to be paid over $18,000 yearly out of the public purse. "And so on," says Mr. Cameron "to the end of the chapter; like the auctioneer's schedule, the articles are too numerous to mention."

Mechanics and laborers may starve; they may be compelled to pay ces for all the necessaries at the sametime the money which they contribute in duties is used to bring immigrants from the old world to compete against them. But what does that matter? This policy cannot affect the relatives of Ministers. They are well taken care of at the expense of the country and competition cannot reduce their salaries one iota or deprive them of their positions. Therefore whatever hardships the working men may have to put up with, everything is all right and great statsmanship continues to be displayed, so long as the families of Ministers are well looked after. Verily we are ruled by a magnanimous Government are we not?

A STRIKING feature about the various loan and savings societies of the Province is the substantial basis on which their transactions rest. This fact is brought out by the reports submitted at the annual meetings of such companies, which have just taken place. For years their earning power has been remarkable, while their assets are of a substantial character, consisting in the main of farm and real estate loans. So far all these companies have maintained their dividends, and by their last annual reports give no indication of a reduction. But mortgage notes have been falling of late years, and under these circumstances the societies should not be expected to divide so much as they did before, unless they are warranted in so doing by increase of business. A growing business has justified the Guelph and Ontario Investment and Saving's Society in adhering to their former dividends, and the figures of their last report express all that can be said in the shape of eulogizing the care and wisdom with which its affairs are conducted.

TORYISM does not prosper in Scotland. Even its subsidized newspapers have begun to go, the latest to collapse being the Edinburgh Daily Courant, established in 1705. For many years the organ was subsidized by the late Duke of Buccleuch, whose patience, like his purse, was long. But there is a limit even to a Tory landlord's generosity, and the present Duke of Buccleuch has refused to satisfy the insatiable demands of the Courant. The Glasgow News and the Aberdeen Journal are now the only daily Tory papers in Scotland.

SOME idea of the enormous trading power of Great Britain over other nations is to be found in the returns of the tonnage of vessels which passed through the Suez Canal during last year. Of the total tonnage of all nationalities—6,338,115 tons—British vessels represented 4,870,416 tons. The French figure next in order, with the beggarly tonnage of 570,801, the Dutch with 250,364, the Germans with 198,955, and the Italians with 159,616.

GUELPH FAT STOCK CLUB.

The Business Transacted at the Annual Meeting.

The annual meeting of the Guelph Fat Stock Club was held in the old Town Hall on Saturday afternoon. Present, Mr. Robert Kirby, President in the chair, Messrs. James Millar, James Anderson, James Taylor, John Tuck, Thos. Talbot, Isaac Dyson, Walter West, Jas. Myers, Walter Laing, Thomas Manderson, David Messenger.

The President, in calling the meeting to order, regretted that the attendance was so small for an annual meeting, after which he called on the Secretary to read the annual report, which is as follows:—

ANNUAL REPORT.

GENTLEMEN,—Your directors have much pleasure in presenting to you the fifth annual report of the Guelph Fat Stock Club, and can again congratulate its members on its success during the last year, having now a membership of 169, and improved its financial position, having now to its cre it $88.42, as per statement attached.

The Easter show, held on the 25th of March, was the greatest mistake ever made by the Club. The farmers of to-day are not so flush with cash that they will take their cattle to a show merely for the sake of a red, white or blue ribbon. Ribbons only were given as prizes, as the financial standing of the club would not warrant monetary awards. But, alas, what was our condition after awarding ribbons? Our financial standing was worse than ever; for we were in debt to the tune of $45.88.

The Christmas show held December 15th and 16th, was a most gratifying success, both in quality of stock exhibited and financially.

The cattle were an exceptionally fine lot, especially those under two years old, and your directors would suggest that more liberal prizes be given to this class in future, and that they have a regular [illegible] having a class for 4 years [illegible] was fully up to for- [illegible] animals were [illegible] h dullness of [illegible] reat many of the [illegible] As much as $26 was offered [illegible] sprat lambs, but it was refused

Hogs were few in number, but the quality was never better.

Poultry also was conspicuous by its absence, many of the large exhibitors of past years not exhibiting at all. We fear Mr. Ellis' $20 prize was too large.

Your directors think that the farmers are beginning to see the benefit they derive from the Fat Stock Club, many of them taking a deeper interest than in the past, and yet a great many do not give it the support they ought to, for every farmer derives a benefit directly or indirectly.

Your directors would suggest that the City Council be asked for a grant, instead of going from door to door asking subscriptions, for every one who has tried it knows that it is a very thankless business. The Woodstock Council gave a grant of $200 and fitted up the leading building for the Fat Stock Club of that town, and as Guelph is the Smithfield of Canada, surely the Council will give a gran if asked.

In conclusion, we beg to return our most hearty thanks to Messrs. Chris. Reinhardt, W. D. Shattuck and Thos. Ellis for their great liberality in donating such handsome prizes, and also to the citizens and merchants of Guelph in general who so liberally assisted our shows in the past, and to those also who have promised special prizes for the above shows in the future.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

A. A. ARMSTRONG, Secretary.

WALTER LAING, JOHN TUCK, } Auditors.

Mr. John Hope, Bow Park, gave $20 in 1884, which was used in 1885 to pay expenses, and in Justice to Mr. Hope the present Board decided to give $20 in his name, and in reality the Club, in the beginning of the past year, was in debt $10.18.

On motion of Messrs. Millar and Taylor, the Secretary's report and financial statement were adopted.

Moved bp Messrs. Manderson and Messenger, that Mr. James Millar be President. Mr. Millar declined.

Moved by Mr. Millar, seconded by Mr. Taylor, that Mr. John Phin be President. Carried.

1st Vice-President, James Anderson; 2nd Vice President, James Taylor.

Directors—Prof. Brown, Jas. Laidlaw, jr., Jas. Millar, John Tuck, Wm. Hearin, Thos. Manderson, Walter Laing, Allan McIntyre, Robt. Kirby, Walter West, Isaac Dyson, Thos. Talbot, Thos. Waters, D. Messenger, John Iles.

On motion of Messrs. Millar and Taylor, the Vice-President, Mr. James Anderson, took the chair, in the absence of Mr. John Phin, the President-elect, from whom a card was read intimating his inability to be present.

Mr. Manderson moved a hearty vote of thanks to Mr. Robt. A. Kirby, the retiring President, for the able manner in which he had filled that office during the year. He remarked that no vote of thanks was adequate to express what Mr. Kirby had done for the Club. He had worked most faithfully, and kept down the expenses wonderfully.

Mr. Millar, in seconding the motion, agreeing with Mr. Manderson, said that no President had ever done more for the Club than Mr. Kirby, and he hoped that he would be long spared to render it the benefit of his valuable assistance. He considered that Mr. Kirby had saved the club over $50 during the year.

Mr. Kirby said that he was no speaker and did not intend to make a speech only to thank the Club for the flattering vote of thanks which the Club had tendered him. He only considered that he had simply done his duty, and had held it as a maxim that when a person took in hand to perform anything he should do it. He thanked the Club for the courteosy they had shown him while presiding over them.

On motion of Messrs. Millar and Kirby, a hearty vote of thanks was passed to the Secretary, and granting him $25 for his services. Both gentlemen regretted that the funds of the club would not allow of the grant being large, and complimented Mr. Armstrong on the efficient manner in which he had filled the post of Secretary-Treasurer.

On motion of Messrs. Taylor and West, a hearty vote of thanks was passed to the City Council for granting the drill shed and gas for the Christmas show.

Moved by Messrs. Manderson and Laing, that the following be a committee to arrange for the Easter Fair:—The President and Vice-Presidents, Messrs. Millar, West, Taylor, and Ald. Hearn.

On motion of Messrs. Kirby and Millar, Mr. Adam A. Armstrong was reappointed Secretary-Treasurer.

The Board then adjourned.

The Foes of a Household

CHAPTER XII.

STRIKING THE FIRST BLOW.

She shut the door and threw herself into a chair. She felt angry and bitter. However she treated other people, she was generally frank with herself, and she did not attempt to deny that she had taken some pains with her dress for this particular call. Twice she had inspected the arrangement of her hair, and after each inspection had told her maid to do it again; only the third time had she been satisfied with it. She had put on that one of all her dresses in which she most admired herself, and she had set out with the intention of fascinating Percival. He had hardly looked at or spoken to her after the first greetings, and when he had handed her her second cup of tea, which she had accepted merely that she might take it from his hand, he had hardly let his eyes fall upon her. He had stood in that attitude sacred to manhood, leaning against the chimney-piece, his hands loosely clasped behind him and his eyes bent upon his wife, following every movement of her small white hands, hearing every word which fell from her lips, and—Alice felt it instinctively—admiring every turn of her head, every motion of her figure. She bit her lips till the blood came as she remembered it all and realized what it meant. She clenched her hands till the glove split as she thought of them and pictured what they would be doing at this moment, for the rest of the evening. They would talk over their visitors, they would separate to dress for dinner, they would dine and spend the evening together, just they two, always they two. They would have so much to talk about, past experiences to recall, plans for the future to make, and always together, with no one to come in between them; always together all their lives long.

"Oh, I cannot bear it, I cannot," she cried, springing from her chair and pushing the window open as high as it would go, while she tore open her dress at the throat.

"It is not fair," she whispered as she leaned out almost panting for breath. "What right has she to so much love, while I am left here starving—I? If we two had stood here a couple of years ago, would anyone have said Helen was going to be happier than I? No one took any notice of Helen, no one spoke to her when I was present. If she had spoken, cried aloud for help in pain, her voice would have been drowned in the noise of the people sounding my praise. It is not fair, it is not."

The last words were almost wailed out, and her head sank upon her breast. Then she raised it again higher than before.

"An eye for an eye," she said. "She cheated and brought shame upon me, and if I can do the same for her I will."

She had unconsciously spoken the last words aloud, and she was startled to hear her maid say close to her—

"I beg your pardon, Miss."

"What?" she asked, turning round abruptly.

"I thought you spoke, Miss," said the girl, a little intimidated by the young lady's manner.

"Why should I speak when I imagined myself to be alone? What have you come for?"

"It is time for you to dress for dinner, Miss."

"Take my dress of, and another time do not fasten it so ridicuously tight at the throat that I am nearly choked."

. . . . . .

"Helen," said Percival one evening about a fortnight after Mrs. Lafone and Alice had called, "I have done a thing for which I am sure you will not thank me."

They were at the dinner table, dessert was before them, and the servants had left the room. Helen sat opposite to her husband, looking wonderfully beautiful in her rich dress, with late, creamy roses in her chestnut hair, and a string of pearls round her slender, white throat.

There was a great deal of admiration in Percival's eyes as he looked at her across the small, round dining table, but there was also much amusement that his wife's lips parted in a smile as she replied—

"Is it something very bad? Do let me hear the worst at once?"

"Think of the most disagreeable thing you can then add another a thousand more times disagreeable to it, and you will begin to approach the truth."

Helen laughed outright as she said—

"Think of a number, double it, add four to it, take away——"

"Ah, but you must not take away anything. You must go on adding till you can add no more."

"And then double it," her eyes dancing, as she helped herself to some grapes. "But seriously, Percival, what is it?"

"You may well say seriously; we shall be serious enough before long. Laugh and be gay while you can. 'Gather your roses while you may,' so to speak."

"Percival, what is it? How can you go on talking such nonsense before telling me? Afterwards say what you like.

"You hear the naked truth. I have asked Alice here on a visit, to stay."

"Percival! she said almost in a whisper."

"Didn't I tell you it was as bad as it could be?" he began in a tone of earnest, self-justification. "I preapared you; you can't say that I did not give you full warning."

"I said, 'first imagine the worst, and then pile another on top of it.' You know I did, Helen; you are trying to get out of it."

"Well, with a sigh of resignation, "tell me all about it; let me hear the very worst. When did you see her? What put it into your head?"

"It was when I was out this afternoon. I was riding to the Lower Fold Farm, and I met Alice, also riding. I asked her where she was going to, and she said she did not know."

He paused a moment, but as his wife said nothing he went on.

"I said 'Oh,' but as she made no move to go on I could only suggest we should ride together."

"Of course."

"You see I could not do less, and as we could not ride in silence we began to talk. We kept first to general subjects, and she asked no end of questions about the places we went to when we were away. She seemed to have been to most of them, but she did not seem to remember much about anything except the hotels. She always asked me at which hotel we stayed, and if it did not happen to be the same one at which she had been I could see she thought we had put up with very inferior accommodation. She also wanted to know if you had really enjoyed it all, and I said I flattered myself you had. Then she sighed and said she seemed to have seen everything; nothing gave her any real pleasure."

"Dear me! Now what answer did you make to these interesting communications?"

"Not a sincere one I am afraid. I put on a gentle and sympathetic manner, and said it was indeed sad to see one so young surfeited with pleasure. I then threw in, just as a finish off, that one reason why you and I got on so well was because we were both innocent enough to get a good deal of enjoyment and instruction out of our travels."

"I am sure she would hate you after that. I know exactly how you would say it."

"I don't know; if she did she concealed it very well, for after a little more conversation of the same kind she said that it was very dull at The Thwaite just now, and would she be intruding if she c to pay us a visit."

"Well?"

"Well, you see she had me again. I could only say what happiness a visit from her would give us, and ask her to come. You must owe I could not do less."

"No; I do not see what else you could have done; but it is annoying. You know we had agreed to have no one here this autumn; we want a little quiet after eighteen months of hotel life. Did you name a day?"

"No; I thought you had better arrange that. But only have her at your own convenience."

"I must write and do my duty, I suppose."

"Yes; do your duty in the same spirit of self-sacrifice in which I have done mine."

"Did she give no reason for wanting to come?"

"She said something about it would be so quaint to see Helen in her own house, but I was so annoyed at the whole affair and the way she had let me in that I hardly noticed what she said afterwards. You know had you been with me this would not have happened, I am sure, and I asked you to come."

"I know," said his wife, looking rather conscience-stricken, "but I could not."

"You never will go between lunch and afternoon tea, and this is the result," he said in such severe tones that the look in his eyes was necessary to belie them.

"I will go and write now," said his wife, rising. "It is too late for to-night s post, but it will be so much done."

The note was written, and brought a very amiable reply from Alice, which annoyed Helen almost more than all the rest of she business, but she prepared to receive her sister with all outward signs of hospitality and goodwill.

ANOTHER DEMONSTRATION

Fifty Thousand Socialists Assemble in Hyde Park.

LONDON, Feb. 20.—To-day the Socialists marched from all parts of London and massed 50,000 strong in Hyde Park. The leaders arrived at the reformer's tree at 3 p. m. in wagonettes. Mounted police patrolled the entrance to the Park and strong reserves were held in readiness for any emergency. During the meeting 2,000 roughs of threatening appearance gathered on Great Stanhope, but they were vigorously charged and dispersed by the police. Speeches were made from three platforms. Resolutions were adopted expressing indignation at the delay of the Government in commencing public works for the relief of men out of work. Burns in his address deprecated any attempt at looting or rioting. He attributed the previous rioting to the mockeries of the club men, and appealing to the audience not to take their ransoms prematurely, nor to give the police spies a chance to traduce them. Hyndman, Williams and Champion spoke in their usual strain but without using violent language, although earnestly demanding a social revolution in the positions of capital and labour.

When the meeting was ended the crowd moved in an orderly manner to the exit at Hyde Park corner. Then without warning, bodies of mounted police made a furious rush into the crowd, especially in the vicinity of the leaders' wagonettes. Many blows were dealt and the police were hooted. The temper of the crowd was rising, but in response to the appeals of the speakers they behaved admirably. A large section of the crowd escorted the wagonettes to Victoria street. The police continued their attempt to disperse the Socialists and by the time that Westminster was reached the crowd had been scattered and quiet prevailed in the streets.

In the melee with the police several people were knocked down and slightly injured. Some stones were thrown by men in the crowd and several shop windows were broken in Westminister bridge road.

A Tidal Wave.

ST. JOHN, N. B., Feb. 20.—This city was visited to-day by a tidal wave which submerged all the wharves to a depth of from one to four feet. The rising waters covered the floors of many stores and dwelling houses on the lower level of the city, and did an immense amount of damage. The gale is blowing from the southwest, and to-night's tide will be still higher.

Unusually high tides on Saturday flooded a large portion of Digby, Annapolis and King's Counties, N. S., in many places carrying away the dykes and causing much damage.

Important News Item.

COOKSTOWN.—Mrs Campbell had for a number of years been troubled with indigestion and constipation, and was induced to try McGregor's Speedy Cure and found it all that was needed, and would recommend its use to any person similarly troubled. This invaluable remedy is sold in every part of Canada at 50c. and $1.00 per bottle. Sold at Thos. S Petrie's Drug Store.

THE FRANCHISE ACT.

The Qualifications of Voters—The Process of Registration Explained.

The time having arrived for the preparation of the voters' lists under the new Dominion Franchise Act, an appeal is made to the Liberals of Wellington to have their names enrolled as voters without delay. To assist in so doing a short summary of the qualification of voters and of the process for securing registration is given.

QUALIFICATION.

To entitle a person to be put on the list he must be—

(1) 21 years of age.

(2) A British subject by birth or naturalization.

(3) Owner of real property of value:
In a city, $300.
In a town, $200.
In a county, $150.

(4) Or tenant of real property under ease at a rental of
$2 per month.
$6 per quarter.
$12 per half year.
$20 per year.
Provided that the tenant has been in possession for one year before 1st January 1886, and shall have paid one year's rent before final revision.

If the rent is yearly it will be sufficient if $20 of last year's rent shall have been paid before final revision.

Change of tenancy without intermission will not destroy the vote if aggregate of tenancies would give vote.

In cities at $300.
In towns at $200.
In counties at $150.

In counties outside of villages the rent may be payable either in money or in money's worth.

(5) Or a bona fide occupant for one year before 1st January, 1886, and enjoying the revenues and profits for his own or his wife's use of real property of the following values:
In cities, $300.
In towns, $200.
In counties, $150.

The occupancy may be under license of occupation from the crown or from any person or corporation.

(6) Or by income without any other qualification.

A person may be registered as an income voter, if he derives an income from his earnings, trade or profession, or from some investment in Canada of $300 a year, for one year before 1st January, 1886.

In counties the earnings may be either in money or money's worth.

(7) Sons of owners of real property are qualified—

(b) When the father is dead, and would, if living, be qualified, residence with the mother will suffice, and as many sons as the property will qualify may be registered, with preference to the eldest and elder sons, as in the last case.

Occasional absence from home of a son—not more than six months in the year—will not disqualify, and all time spent at school or college in Canada will be counted as if spent at home.

Son of an owner includes grandson, step son and son-in-law, and all these may be registered as voters on the property if of sufficient value. The provision as to sons of owners applies to the counties as well as towns and cities in cases other than those of farmers' sons.

(8) Farmers' sons—The same provisions substantially apply to farmers' sons, as stated in the last paragraph in respect of sons of owners in cities and towns.

A farm is to be not less than 20 acres of land.

(9) Fishermen and owners of real property and boats, nets, fishing gear and tackle of aggregate value of $150.

Income voters register where they reside at time of registration—all others where property is situate. If in more than one polling division in the same electoral district the voter may register in either.

All names entered in the last revised voters' lists under the old law, will be entered in the new lists by the revising barrister.

Every person not on the assessment roll desiring to have his name on the list must at once send to the revising barrister an application in writing to be put on the list, giving his name, residence and the property or other qualification in respect of which he applies to be put on.

This application must be accompanied by a declaration which is to be made and signed before a commissioner for taking affidavits, a notary or justice of the peace, showing the grounds of the applicants claim to be put on the list.

Substantially the voters are those who can qualify as owners, tenants, occupants, income voters, sons of owners and farmers' sons.

See that the application shows as correctly and fully as possible the qualification.

Make the declaration before a commissioner, notary or justice of the peace. It is convenient to have it attached to the application on the same sheet.

In case of an absent person, let some one else having a knowledge of the qualification make the application and declaration.

When one cannot find a justice or other person before whom the declaration can be taken let the application alone be sent in, with an explanation of the reason, and it would be well in such case to have the truth of the facts in the application certified on the back of it by one, or if possible, two other persons.

The application and declaration must be sent at once to the Revising barrister of the district.

URGENCY OF THE MATTER.

No name not on the last voters' list or assessment roll will be placed on the preliminary voters' list, unless on application and declaration as above.

In case of any difficulty or doubt, application should be made at once for advice to some of the Liberal friends in the neighborhood.

MANHOOD.

How Lost, How Restored!

We have recently published a new edition of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay on the radical and permanent cure (without medicine) of Nervous Debility, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, etc., resulting from excesses.

Price, in a sealed envelope, only 6 cents, or two postage stamps.

The celebrated author, in this admirable Essay, clearly demonstrates, from thirty years' successful practise, that alarming consequences may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicines or the use of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.

This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land

AS

CONSCIENTIOUS DRUGGISTS

We would recommend for

DYSPEPSIA, INDIGESTION,

And kindred diseases, the use of

MALTOPEPSYN.

FOR

Consumption and all Wasting Diseases

The use of

Morse's Carbolated Norwegian Cod Liver Oil.

Glycerole of Celery Compound, containing no Opium.

You probably ask why we recommend these remedies. It is because we know them to be reliable remedies, endorsed by leading physicians throughout the Dominion, for the cure of specific diseases, and not claiming to cure everything. Also because they have the exact formula printed on each bottle label, thereby enabling the purchaser to know just what he is taking. The time is rapidly approaching when intelligent people will refuse to take quack cure-alls, the ingredients of which are kept secret, but will insist upon knowing just what they are taking.

MR. GLADSTONG'S HEALTH.

LONDON, Feb. 20.—The difference between Messrs. Chamberlain and Gladstone, which threatened the former's withdrawal from the Government and his establishment of an independent Radical party, has been settled to the temporary satisfaction of both sides. The Cabinet has consented to introduce Mr. Chamberlain's County Government Bill, including the laborers' allottment clauses and the concurrent Irish proposals.

While all public interest centres upon Mr. Gladstone, alarming rumors as to his health are again circulated. It is only learned positively that his physicians have prohibited him from remaining in the night sessions of the House of Commons later than 11 o'clock, except in the event of a pending division upon some critical question, when his presence would be indispensable. The Premier's labors are made more arduous than during his former Prime ministry by the retirement of Lord Hartington.

It is reported that the Queen has sent Mr. Gladstone a very strong impression of her opinion adverse to Sir Charles Dilke, asking the Premier whether it is advisable to permit him to continue on the roll of the Privy Council, despite the vote of confidence accorded him by the Chelsea Liberals. Sir Charles is also menaced with action by the independent Liberals, who intend to direct their efforts towards compelling him to resign his seat in the Commons. Not only the Pall Mall Gazette, but the entire press of Great Britain, of every shade of political and religious faith, denounce him as unfit for public life, and demand that the Queen's proctor shall intervene to bring about a new trial and to subpœna witnesses and force a full revelation of the disgraceful details of Sir Charles Dilke's life, so that it will be impossible for Mr. Gladstone to ignore them and retain him in the Government.

Lord Salisbury is very ill from overwork. He has been ordered by his physicians to take absolute rest and will go at once to Riviera.

There is no definite scheme of Home Rule yet before the Cabinet and no one seems to be able to formulate one. This condition of things is already irritating the public. Mr. Gladstone receives but few responses to his letters, asking the Irish people to communicate to him their views with regard to a Dublin Parliament and kindred subjects. The accusation that the object of this request was merely to gain time and not an honest desire to obtain information has had its effect in keeping the people silent. The Conservatives in the north of Ireland treat Mr. Gladstone's letter with silent contempt, while the Whig press denounce it as a humbug unworthy of any response, Mr. Gladstone having already, the newspapers allege, ample information concerning the condition of Ireland and needing no new facts of any description to enable him to form and present a clear policy with regard to reforms in that country. The corporations of Dublin, Cork, Limerick and other centres of political and commercial activity take a serious and practical view of the letter and propose to respond to it by formal demonstrations in favor of legislative independence as the only possible or acceptable solution of the difficulties of the Irish problem.

In addition to this, there is on foot and already in operation a combined movement of the great Irish landlords to close their residences and retire from their estates until the final settlement of the land dispute. They see no other course open to them for their personal safety or the prevention of serious loss from the existing chaotic condition of their relations with the tenantry. The Marquis of Waterford, who sits in the House of Lords as Baron Tyrone, the Earl of Bessborough, who sits as Baron Kenmare, and other peers who own large estates in Ireland are leaving them in pursuance of this policy. Lord Bessborough has dismissed all his workmen on his estates and has refused to grant the 30 per cent reduction in rents which his tenants demand, declaring this to be impossible, owing to the heavy charges of collecting the rentals in the present confused state of affairs. He will withdraw permanently to England, leaving his Irish lands to take care of themselves, unless his tenants will accept a reasonable reduction. The trustees of Lord Kenmare have offered his tenants a reduction of 20 per cent in their rents, but this they have refused, insisting on the 30 per cent. schedule.

The Marquis of Hartington and Mr. Goschen are heading a movement of the National Liberals to obtain a declaration of their party and the English people against Home Rule. It is expected that 120 Liberal members of the House of Commons will adhere to these leaders and their policy of the unity of the Empire, and will thus overbalance any assistance that Mr. Gladstone can expect from the eighty-six Irish members to pass a Home Rule Bill against Tory opposition.

The Queen is much distressed at the implacable hostility which the Whig peeresses continue to show Mr. Gladstone, refusing the posts of ladies of the bed chamber, which are in the gift of the Prime Minister and which still remain vacant, so far as any official position is concerned.

STARVING FISHERMEN

Driven to Desperation Propose Wholesale Pillage.

MONTREAL, Feb. 20.—M. H. Gault, M. P., received a despatch this afternoon from James Lowndes, a prominent merchant of Paspebiac, below Quebec, stating that further violence was imminent from the starving fishermen on the St. Lawrence, and urging him to ask the Government to send a sufficient force to protect the law-abiding inhabitants, as terrible lawlessness prevails. The local authorities are stated to be powerless to prevent the thousands who are in dire need committing wholesale pillage. The Federal and Provincial Governments only subscribed $2,000 each to the relief fund to feed over 2,000 people, who can earn nothing until the ice goes away. It is clear they will not succumb to starvation without storming the stores where food is to be found. Montreal merchants are subscribing liberally for their relief.

The fishermen at Paspebiac have held a mass meeting and resolved that, unless food is furnished them in sufficient quantities by their employers, Robin & Co., at once, or the Government come to their aid, they will undertake to help themselves on Monday to stores now there, which are valued at $150,000. Special police are being sworn in to preserve order.

Over $8,000 was sent as a contribution from Quebec yesterday to the starving families. There are said to be about 800 families suffering.

The Mutual Life of New York.

The accumulated assets of the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York, as appears from the annual statement in another column, under the management of President Richard A. McCurdy, have reached the enormous aggregate of $108,908,967.51. The Company last year paid policy holders, for dividends, death claims, matured endowments, etc., the sum of $14,402,049.90, and was in receipt of an income of over $20,000,000, leaving a large surplus, from which a dividend will be apportioned as usual. These brilliant facts hardly need any comment, and the prosperous and always growing business of the great Mutual afford the best proof that they are well understood by all those looking for safety, above all, in providing for their families.

ACCIDENTALLY SHOT.—On Saturday afternoon a sister-in-law of Mr. Robert Field, hack driver, arrived in the city to pay a short visit to her sister. On Sunday a young lad, better known as "Curly Fields," was playing with a revolver, and presented it to his aunt. He stated that the revolver was not loaded and pulled the trigger. The result was that the revolver was discharged and a pellet of some kind, whether a ball or not, entered his aunt's right cheek near the jaw bone. No serious results so far are anticipated. It is stated that on the revolver being examined afterwards all the chambers were found empty. Be this as it may there is no excuse for the young lad firing off the revolver.

ACCIDENT ON THE O. & Q.—A despatch dated yesterday says:—"The express train on the Ontario & Quebec Railway, from Montreal for Toronto met with an accident on Monday evening. Fitzsimmons, the express messenger on the train, is the only person reported injured." The Fitzsimmons mentioned is Sam. His father, Thomas Fitzsimmons, telegraphed this morning to the Superintendent to find out the extent of the injuries, when a reply was received that they were very slight.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Resolution of Condolence with the Family of the Late Mr. Hall.

Miss Mary Grant Appointed Music Teacher —About Diphtheria.

A special meeting of the Board of Education was held, on Monday evening. Present, Mr. Newton in the chair, Messrs. Myers, Fairbank, Bruce, Bollert, Kilgour, Murton, Stewart, Mackenzie, Burgess, Peterson, Knowles, Bell, Cottis, Mitchell.

The chairman stated that the object of the meeting was to appoint a music teacher for the Central School in the place of Mrs. Workman, who had resigned.

The secretary then read Mrs. Workman's letter of resignation, which on motion of Messrs. Stewart and Fairbank, was accepted.

The secretary stated that he had received three applications for the position, viz.: From Miss Carrie Stevenson, Miss Ridgeway and Miss Mary Grant. Testimonials from each of the applicants were read.

Moved by Mr. Fairbank, seconded by Mr. Bollert, that Miss Stevenson be appointed to the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mrs. Workman.

Moved in amendment by Rev. Mr. Kilgour, seconded by Mr. Bruce, that Miss Grant be appointed music teacher for the public schools of the city.

The amendment was put first and it having a majority of the Board was declared carried.

RESOLUTION OF CONDOLENCE.

Moved by Mr. Peterson, seconded by Mr. McKenzie, that this Council would express its deepest regret at the sudden death of their late fellow-member, Mr. John Hall. The Board sustains, as does the educational interests of this City, a lasting loss in his untimely and lamented death. During the period of his connection with the Board he was most active, intelligent and efficient in the discharge of his duties of Trustee, and ever ready to assist with his experience and talent the best interests of education, in which he always took a most lively interest, and also that a copy of this resolution be sent to his widow.

Mr. Peterson, in moving the resolution, referred to the loss that the Board peculiarly would sustain through the death of Ald. Hall. He spoke at some length on the zeal and interest which the deceased had always manifested in the matters of education, giving his time and talents ungrudgingly to forward the educational interests of the city. The deceased was earnest and honest in all his undertakings.

The resolution was carried unanimously.

TO ATTEND THE FUNERAL.

Moved by Mr. Myers, seconded by Mr. Fairbank, that all the schools be closed for half a day, during the afternoon of the funeral of our late respected member, Mr. John Hall, and this Board attend the funeral in a body. Carried.

Messrs. Murton and Myers were appointed a committee to carry out the spirit of the above resolution.

DIPTHERIA.

Mr. Bollert drew the attention of the Board to the fact that a case of diphtheria had come under his notice in the school. A sister of a child who was at home lying ill with diphtheria had attended school during the week. The house had not been placarded, and he thought the Board should take some steps to provide against the recurrence of such cases. If some means were not taken to do so we were liable to have diphtheria spread over the whole school.

Mr. Tytler said that we had the most complete machinery for detecting cases of this kind. The doctor informed the Sanitary Inspector, he placarded the house, and informed the teacher in the school, and the other members of the family were not allowed to attend school.

Mr. Bollert remarked that the house had not been placarded up to Saturday, and diphtheria had been in during the week.

Mr. Fairbank thought that an investigation should be made. Some one was culpable of negligence.

Mr. Murton was of the same opinion.

Mr. Tytler said it must be one of two things, the parents did not call a physician until the end of the week, or if they did before, that gentleman was remiss in doing his duty.

The Board then adjourned.

Hon. Ed. Blake, Dalton McCarthy, J. K. Kerr and Mr. Moss formed a deputation from the Ontario Law Society that had a conference with the legal members of the House on Monday. It is understood that there is some difficulty about the way in which convocation performs its duties as regards the admission of candidates to practice as barristers and solicitors and the subject will likely be discussed in the Legislature.

ONTARIO LEGISLATURE.

MONDAY, Feb. 22.

Mr. Ermatinger moved the second reading of his bill to extend the hours of polling in municipal and legislative elections. The bill proposes to repeal sec. 58, cap. 10, R. S. O., and provides that in cities, towns and incorporated villages the polls shall remain open from 6 a. m. till 7.30 p.m., and in all other polling places (rural districts) the polls shall be open from 9 a. m., till 5 p. m. These are the present hours.

All of the members who spoke on the bill who represented cities or constituencies in which large towns were situated, favoured the principle of the bill, while the "rural members" strongly opposed it. There was one exception however. Notwithstanding that the city of Brantford is in Hon. Mr. Hardy's riding he flung out an unqualified opposition to the bill.

Mr. Ermatinger spoke at length in favor of his bill. He claimed that it would be a boon to workingmen, many of whom often found it a hardship to find time to vote during the existing hours. Such an act, applicable to Parliamentary elections, had been passed in England.

Hon. Mr. Hardy followed with a violent opposition to the bill. He said there had been no petition or public demand for such an act. It would only open the door to fraud. Dire deeds could be done with the ballot box under the cloak of night. He had never heard of any workingmen who were not allowed time by their employers ty cast their ballots on election day.

After some further discussion the bill was referred to a special committee.

Several private bills received their second reading.

Mr. Mackenzie (East Middlesex) asked this question: "In the event of the Scott Act being repealed or becoming void in any county where a police magistrate has been appointed, if it is intended that the appointment will be cancelled should the county desire it."

Mr. Hardy said the same question had been asked by two or three counties. If the counties desired such a cancellation the Government had no objection.

In answer to Mr. Ermatinger, Mr. Mowat said the Government would not introduce legislation during the present session having for its object the removal or partial removal of the restrictions imposed upon coroners in respect to the ordering of inquests to be held.

Treasurer Ross, in replying to a return asked for by Mr. Wood, said there was a fund in the hands of the Government which would be distributed among outlying agricultural societies who needed assistance, and who were willing to help themselves. There was no departmental regulation regarding the fund, but the Government would be willing to assist all such societies as were deserving of help.

Some twenty new bills were introduced.

The House adjourned at six o'clock.

Manitoba and the C. P. R. Loan.

Mr. Robt. Watson, M.P. for Marquette, Manitoba, was entertained by his constituents at a dinner the other night, prior to his departure for Ottawa. Mr. Watson, it will be remembered, was the only Manitoba member who stood true to his colours and voted with the Liberals against the C. P. R. loan of $30,000,000 in the session of 1884. How fully he was justified in his action then is now made apparent by the results of the Government's policy. Mr. Watson in the course of the speech which he made at the banquet given in his honour, pointed out some of the evils of that policy in the following language:

"I have been censured by a number on account of my action in regard to the C. P. R. loan, but many who have so blamed me are now of opinion that my course was the correct one. I am still of opinion that had our C. P. R. been built gradually, and the people settled in the country given an opportunity to take contracts and reap the benefit of the money expended, it would have been of incalcuable benefit to the country. As it has been built, American contractors have reaped the whole benefit resulting from the construction, and the greater part of the money derived from the building of the road has gone to the States. This, however, is not all, as the system of employing people from the States is still kept up, and the building of the road is not only carried on to a great extent upon American principles, but American employees are chosen in preference to Canadians. Had the road been constructed gradually, our settlers could not only have taken part in the work, but the surplus supplies of the country could have been disposed of to advantage instead of exporting at reduced prices. The aid given by the Government was given to ensure speedy completion, and this was not actually required for any purpose. Another great reason to me for opposing the loan to the C. P. R. was that branch lines were more necessary to the country and more especially to the Province than the speedy completion of the main line through an unsettled country, and the conditions of the loan were such that absolutely nothing could be expended for branches. Thus the country to the north and south of the main line was left with no assistance to be relied upon for the construction of roads to supply their immediate and pressing wants. The result of this outcry on the part of the Government is that all the money expended out of the loan, has been spent in British Columbia and Ontario, without any benefit to this Province, as the portion of the road directly benefitting the Province had been constructed before the loan was granted."

Mr. Watson had the right end of the stick when he voted against this loan, and the other members grasped the wrong end in supporting it, although they no doubt thought Mr. Watson had doomed himself to defeat when he should come before his constituents again. How much better it would have been for the country had the Liberal policy been followed of building the road westward just as settlement advanced and of constructing branch lines which would have aided in populating the country. Now settlers will seek a more congenial clime in the far west and the probability is that the country on both sides of the Rockies will be thickly settled long before the Province of Manitoba. There was another great advantage in connection with Mr. Mackenzie's and Mr. Blake,s policy which affected the whole of Canada. While it would have been by all odds the best way of developing Manitoba and the Northwest, the expenditure for gradual construction of the road would scarcely have been felt. In contrast to this the Conservative Government have severely crippled the finances of the Dominion and after all have accomplished a work which the people of Manitoba are beginning to conclude would have been much better unfinished for some years yet.

THE Mail announces that "Fifty Indians on the Maniwaki reserve have been placed on the voter's list under the provisions of the Dominon Franchise Act." And we suppose they are all good Tories.

THE Dominion Cabinet sat on Monday for seven hours preparing for the approaching session, which opens on Thursday first. The Northwest deputation also presented their new "bill of rights," and were assured that it should receive careful consideration.

MR. AMYOT, who has for some time acted as Crown counsel in his district, has been dismissed by the Local Government, and his place filled by Mr. Bosse, M. P. This affords a pretty good indication that the Quebec authorities are willing to fulfil all Sir John Macdonald desires.

MR. GLADSTONE is more scrupulous about appointing his relatives to position than are the members of the Canadian Government. The Daily News says Mr. Herbert Gladstone would stand a better chance of promotion were he not the Premier's son. Mr. Gladstone has been urged by letter and deputation to give his able son a place in the Cabinet. For some months in 1881 Mr. Herbert Gladstone was a lord of the Treasury. Being his father's private secretary, his holding the position was almost a necessity, but, except for the last few weeks, he refused the salary attaching to the position, getting only his experience for his pains.

THE total emigration from the United Kingdom last year was 264,986, or 39,000 less than in 1884. The decrease was principally of English emigrants from 147,660, to 126,815; Scotch emigration was about the same, 21,000 odd each year, and Irish emigration fell off 12,500, to 60,082. Canada has most seriously felt this reduced movement of population, only 22,938 persons making the Dominion known as their destinations, as compared with an emigration to this country of 37,043 in the preceding year, a decrease to be attributed to the unfortunate insurrection in the Northwest. The Australian colonies obtained within 4,700 as many of the emigrants from the United Kingdom as in 1884, or 41,212 in all, while in the number destined to the United States there was a falling off of 19,000, to 184,540.

The Week says:—The London riots, by revealing the existence of an idle and dangerous class, have naturally given birth to proposals of emigration on a large scale. Now, let Canada beware. The flummery talked in England by Canadian politicians, especially when they are in quest of titles, has created among the English very false impressions, both of our capacity for absorbing their pauperism and of our willingness to receive it. They have been made to believe that we shall be thankful for anything that they may be so good as to dump upon us, and that whoever is sent here is sure at once to find employment. The offscourings of the city population discharged upon our shores would be a most intolerable pest and nuisance; and against this infliction we have now to be on our guard. Female emigration is also a subject on which special vigilance is required. It appears to be largely in the hands of the philanthropic societies, whose agents have gained control over it, and, though nominally engaged in attending to the spiritual wants of the women, are alleged to be in fact regular emigration agents. Some of the emigrants, as a correspondent, writing from practical experience, assures us, have been women of bad character, and such as could only taint this colony by their presence, while others have been diseased or inebriate. Five women from the Church of England penitentiary in Kent were sent, we are told, to Halifax last summer. This matter requires the attention of the Government, if the Government means to hold itself responsible for emigration.

The Wage-Earners' and Land-Holders' Sons' Franchise.

(From the Toronto Globe.)

As assessors in the rural parts are about entering upon their duties for the year, it is well again to draw their attention to section five of the Assessment Act passed last session by the Ontario Legislature. The Franchise Act provides that:—

"Every male person upon the last revised assessment roll as a wage-earner who resides at the time of the election in the local municipality in which he tenders his vote and has resided there continuously since the completion of the last revised assessment roll of the municipality, and who has, during the twelve months next prior to being so entered, derived or earned wages or income from some trade, occupation, calling, office, or profession of not less than two hundred and fifty dollars, shall be entitled to vote."

And it further provides that:—

"The fair value of the board or lodging received by such person in townships as part of his wages shall be considered or included as part of the $250."

The amount for which the wage-earner is assessed is not taxable. His name is placed upon the assessment roll for the sole purpose of giving him a vote. The wage-earner is, however, required to sign a certificate or declaration in the form hereinafter mentioned.

We wish to direct the attention of clerks of municipalities and assessors to the duty imposed upon a municipality of providing the assessors with these certificates. The clause is as follows (section 5, SS. 3):—

"The local municipality shall provide the assessor with a sufficient number of printed forms of the affirmation aforesaid, and if the same be not so provided by the municipality the assessor shall procure and provide himself with a sufficient number thereof, and shall be entitled to have and recover the costs thereof from the municipality."

Both the assessor and clerk may render themselves liable to penalties in the event of their disregarding this provision. The certificate is as follows, and may be found on page 177 of the Acts of the Ontario Legislature for 1885:—

I, A. B., being a wage-earner within the meaning of the Assessment Act and any Act amending the same, do sincerely and truly affirm and declare, that I am of the full age of twenty-one years; that I am a subject of Her Majesty by birth or naturalization; that I am actually resident and domiciled in this city of (or town, village, or township, as the case may be) at (giving the locality of his residence or the name of the street and the number [if any] of such residence, or such other reasonable description as will easily permit of its being verified and ascertained); that my postoffice address is and that during the twelve months next preceding this day of in the year (the date to be filled in here is that of the day, month, and year upon which this affirmation is made and signed) I have derived and earned wages and income from my trade, occupation, calling, office or profession, of not less than two hundred and fifty dollars. A. B.
Witness, X. Y., of (add residence and occupation)."

In this connection we may point out a significant change made last session in the vote of farmers' sons, now called landholders' sons, in the Ontario Act. Formerly the right of farmers' sons to vote was governed by the amount for which the father was assessed, and it still is so in the Dominion Franchise. By the Ontario Act of last session, however, where the father is assessed either as owner or tenant in cities and towns for $400, and in villages and townships for $200, all the sons who are twenty-one years of age, and who have resided with their father for the past twelve months, are entitled to be placed upon the assessment roll as landholder's sons. The expression "landholder's son" also includes in its meaning a stepson, grandson, or son-in-law who may have so resided with the assessed landholder.

Sin months' temporary absence during the year does not prevent the name from being entered.

Let Reformers see to it everywhere that certificates are duly furnished, and that the eligible names are furnished to the assessors.

Willie Buchanan.

The following poem is from the pen of Mr. Thomas Laidlaw, whose poetic productions have often graced our columns. Sometime ago he read in the Montreal Witness an article copied from the Glasgow Herald on the incident referred to in the introduction to the poem. Deeming it a fit theme for his muse he wrote the poem and sent it to the Herald, and it appeared in the columns of that paper on the 16th of last month. The reader on perusing it will no doubt come to the same conclusion as we did, that it fully sustains Mr. Laidlaw's fame as a poet of no mean order:

General Middleton, in his report to the Governor-General on the Northwest Rebellion in Canada, says:—He cannot refrain from mentioning a little bugler of the 90th Regiment, named William Buchanan, who made himself particularly useful in carrying ammunition to the front "when the fire was very hot," with peculiar nonchalence, walking calmly about, crying "Now, boys, who's for cartridges?"

'Tis at Batoche's ferry,
In wrath the bullets fly,
And fierce the battle rages,
And men like heroes die;
The virgin prairie's crimsoned
With blood that's freely shed,
The crack of gun and rifle
Is telling of the dead.

Yet, in the thick of danger,
The battle fierce and hot,
Where bearded men are falling
Beneath the rebel shot;
Amid the bullets whizzing,
And hissing, to destroy,
What form is that, with agile limb
And dauntless eye? Who knows of him?
A little bugler boy.

The dew of youth is on him,
A hero? is he not?
His bugle notes are silent,
He bravely carries shot.
He carries to the rifles,
And aye we hear him say—
"Now, boys, who's for cartridges?"
And this throughout the day.

Death strikes, with shaft unerring,
Its victims in his sight.
Yet self-possessed and calmly
He mixes in the fight;
He treads the reddened prairie,
Unconscious in his heart
That in his way, amid the fray,
He acts a hero's part.

But fame, though oft capricious,
In wooing, shy and coy,
From off her heights is watching
Her little bugler boy.

She looks on Willie kindly—
She smiles with truest joy,
As on her roll of honour
She writes "the gallant boy,"
Around the letters weaving,
In wavy, graceful fold,
The old Buchanan tartan
That oft a tale hath told.

Extol the youthful hero!
Weave garlands fresh and gay!
Go write his deeds in story!
And sing the stirring lay!
And when we tell of bravery
And gallant deeds with joy,
Then proudly think of Willie,
Our little bugler boy.

The Foes of a Household

CHAPTER XII.

STRIKING THE FIRST BLOW.

"I cannot imagine," said Percival, as he twirled the note between his fingers, "why she wants to come at all. It is absurd to suppose that there is anything attractive here; she does not like you, and is no friend of mine. If it were not too monstrous an idea to entertain I should say she had done it out of spite," and as he spoke he crushed the sheet of writing paper into a ball and flung it into the fire.

Helen said nothing. Ever since Percival had told her of Alice's projected visit she had been trying to find a reason for it, and had finally found one, so little satisfactory that she could not suggest it to her husband. Presently she said—

"I am giving her the largest bedroom in the house, and I have fitted up that little place opening out of it as a sitting room. She may take the hint or she may not."

"Most decidedly not, in my opinion. She is not the kind of woman to make use of a private sitting-room when she is away from home."

"Still, it will be there if she does care to use it."

"Do not buoy yourself up with false hopes. Remember that little saying which you once came across and found so true, 'Things are what they are, and the consequence of them will be what they will be.' Alice is coming, and we shall have the full benefit of her society as long as she is here. We can only hope that she will soon get tired of a dull, old married couple like ourselves and leave us to our own devices again."

Helen did not reply, and after a pause Percival went on—

"Each time I have seen Alice since we came home she has called me 'Mr Moore.' Surely that is unnecessary. I always call her 'Alice.' Why does she do it, do you suppose?"

"She has odd ideas at times. I suppose as she and I are not sisters she does not look upon you as her brother-in-law." said his wife with an effort.

Percival raised his eyebrows.

"Isn't that a little far-fetched? If she continues I shall have to change to Miss Lafone."

"No, don't," said Helen impulsively. "Whatever she does do not you change; it would be absurd. I should not like people to hear it, they would think we had gone mad."

Percival attached too little importance to the matter to say any more about it, and the subject dropped.

The following day Alice came. Her boxes were brought in the morning, and their size and number filled Helen with dismay, causing her to groan inwardly, though she made no remark upon them. Alice herself rode over just before dinner, and as she was alone, her horse had to be put up. It was rather like an installation, Helen thought; but she made Alice welcome, sent her tea to her bed room, and behaved, as Percival told her later on, like an arch hypocrite.

"I cannot help it," she said, "the less I feel that Alice is welcome, the more pomp and circumstance I must put into my reception and treatment of her. If she were really my friend I should behave with much less ceremony."

When Helen had gone away and Alice was alone in her room, she sat down and drew her breath. This was the beginning of the campaign which she had planned with much care and thought, and she was anxious that all should go well. First she examined the room in which she sat; it was large and lofty, and well lighted; she could not complain that Helen had taken advantage of her being a relative to give her inferior accommodation. The room was exquisitely furnished in the most modern style; everything that could possibly be imagined as adding to the comfort and convenience of the occupant was there. There were two doors in the room in addition to the one by which she had come in; one led into an almost extravagantly large and luxurious dressing room, the other into a tastefully furnished little sitting-room with a lovely view from the oriel window. Alice had repressed a smile when Helen called her attention to the room. As before said, she was very quick at reading people's thoughts when they concerned herself, and she had instantly guessed Helen's object in showing her the room.

Having satisfied herself that her surroundings indoors were all that could be desired, she went to the window and looked out. Brantwood stood on high ground and commanded a magnificent view. Even she was for a moment lost in admiration of the beauty of the scene. The tide was out, and the sun was setting; the sands glittered almost like gold in the brilliant evening light. Here and there a little pool left by the retreating waters caught and threw back the radiance above, and had the appearance of a patch of molten gold or silver. A flock of seagulls wheeled over the sands, and settled down with harsh, melancholy cries. With awkward gait they stepped along, dipping their heads from time to time. Then with one accord they rose and flew off to a more hospitable part of the shore. Below her window the trees rustled and sighed in the breeze; the flower beds were a blaze of colour, and fragrant with the scent of many sweet, old-fashioned flowers; the lawns were like stretches of emerald moss. A climbing Dijon rose nodded in at the open window; just below a purple clematis spread its broad rich blossoms. She looked at it all, and then turned away with a dark look upon her beautiful face. Her eyes glittered and she set her teeth as she muttered,

"All this ought to have been mine, and might have been mine but for her double-dealing, and if I bide my time it may be mine yet. She made a false calculation when she hid her engagement until I had grown to be her rival. She is my first rival, and she shall be my last. The day when she comes to me and begs me to spare her husband to her, will be the sweetest of my life."

The London Police.

LONDON, Feb. 22.—Col. Sir Edmund Henderson, head of the Metropolitan force, who has been severely censured for the inefficiency of the police during the recent riots, has resigned.

In the House of Commons to-day Mr. Childers, Home Secretary, announced that the riot committee advised a thorough and immediate overhauling and reorganization of the police department of London.

Bound to Fight.

LONDON, Feb. 22.—The Greek Ministers of War and Marine threaten to resign unless war against Turkey is declared. The people of Greece who are anxious for hostilities are much excited.

The international fleet will leave Suda Bay for Salamis immediately upon the arrival of the Duke of Edinburgh, who is to command the fleet. Two English cruisers will watch the coast of Crete in order to prevent the landing of Greek volunteers bent on inciting an insurrection.

Evictions Suppressed.

LONDON, Feb. 22.—It is stated that Mr. Morley, Chief Secretary for Ireland, has so instructed the police and military authorities as to render it virtually impossible to effect evictions.

Archbishop Walsh of Dublin has written to Mr. Gladstone that the Irish bishops considered that the result of the elections answered Mr. Gladstone's appeal to the Irish people to "speak out." He says the bishops believe that Home Rule would not effect the union or the supremacy of the Crown, and that they urge the suspension of evictions until the land question has been settled.

Burned to Death.

FRANKFORD, Ont., Feb. 22.—A lady about 70 years of age, named Gallavan, has been burned to death. She is supposed to have been kindling a fire, as matches were found near the stove, and her dress caught fire. Her body was burned to a crisp. The house was saved.

Fire in Galt.

GALT, Feb. 22.—About five o'clock this morning a fire originated in the bakery attached to the premises on Main street occupied by T. Eagan, as baker, confectioner, and grocer. The fire was extinguished before much damage was done. The loss on the building, owned by Mrs. G. T. Strickland, is about $300, fully covered in the British America. Eagan's loss from damaged stock is covered by insurance in the Phœnix, of England.

Serious Fire at Ottawa.

OTTAWA, Feb. 22.—At half-past eleven this evening a serious fire broke out in the Western block, Government buildings, occupied by the Marine and Fisheries and Agricultural Departments. Firemen were promptly on the spot, and soon had the fire under control. It seems the fire had been burning some time before it was discovered, and had gained considerable headway, and is supposed to have started in a small room where coal and waste newspapers are kept. The extent of the damage by the fire, smoke and water will probably reach several thousand dollars, and it is feared some valuable records in the Marine and Patent office have been destroyed, but the full extent of the loss cannot be ascertained to-night.

The Lumber Trade.

The Ottawa Free Press says:—The outlook of the lumber trade has not been as good for years as at present. Reports from Lake Nipissing, Upper Ottawa, Gatineau, Parry Sound, Victoria and Peterboro lumber districts all unite in stating that the prospects are bright. On the Gatineau Messrs. Gilmour & Co. will drive 200,000 logs this spring, and Hamilton Bros. expect to send down 90,000 of the finest quality. In the Ottawa district one American firm alone have purchased one hundred million feet at a cost of about $1,600,000, and other sales now made in that district will bring the season's cut now sold up to $4,500,000. The cut for 1886, from Arnprior to Hawkesbury, will be about 600,000,000 feet, valued at $8,000,000. Lumbering is also active in the Algoma district. Better prices have been obtained this year than in any previous one in the history of the lumber industry. A still further impetus will be given to the trade should Congress throw off the $2 duty on lumber, as there is some probability of its doing.

Important News Item.

COOKSTOWN.—Mrs Campbell had for a number of years been troubled with indigestion and constipation, and was induced to try McGregor's Speedy Cure and found it all that was needed, and would recommend its use to any person similarly troubled. This invaluable remedy is sold in every part of Canada at 50c. and $1.00 per bottle. Sold at Thos. S Petrie's Drug Store.

Minneapolis flour mills produced, in one February week this year, 89,454 barrels of flour, equal to 14,900 barrels per day, as compared with 13,900 at same period in 1885. Some mills are shut down because there is not water power enough for all.

THE FRANCHISE ACT.

The Qualifications of Voters—The Process of Registration Explained.

The time having arrived for the preparation of the voters' lists under the new Dominion Franchise Act, an appeal is made to the Liberals of Wellington to have their names enrolled as voters without delay. To assist in so doing a short summary of the qualification of voters and of the process for securing registration is given.

QUALIFICATION.

To entitle a person to be put on the list he must be—

(1) 21 years of age.

(2) A British subject by birth or naturalization.

(3) Owner of real property of value:
In a city, $300.
In a town, $200.
In a county, $150.

(4) Or tenant of real property under ease at a rental of
$2 per month.
$6 per quarter.
$12 per half year.
$20 per year.
Provided that the tenant has been in possession for one year before 1st January 1886, and shall have paid one year's rent before final revision.

If the rent is yearly it will be sufficient if $20 of last year's rent shall have been paid before final revision.

Change of tenancy without intermission will not destroy the vote if aggregate of tenancies would give vote.

In cities at $300.
In towns at $200.
In counties at $150.
In counties outside of villages the rent may be payable either in money or in money's worth.

(5) Or a bona fide occupant for one year before 1st January, 1886, and enjoying the revenues and profits for his own or his wife's use of real property of the following values:
In cities, $300.
In towns, $200.
In counties, $150.
The occupancy may be under license of occupation from the crown or from any person or corporation.

(6) Or by income without any other qualification.

A person may be registered as an income voter, if he derives an income from his earnings, trade or profession, or from some investment in Canada of $300 a year, for one year before 1st January, 1886.

In counties the earnings may be either in money or money's worth.

(7) Sons of owners of real property are qualified—

(b) When the father is dead, and would, if living, be qualified, residence with the mother will suffice, and as many sons as the property will qualify may be registered, with preference to the eldest and elder sons, as in the last case.

Occasional absence from home of a son—not more than six months in the year—will not disqualify, and all time spent at school or college in Canada will be counted as if spent at home.

Son of an owner includes grandson, step-son and son-in-law, and all these may be registered as voters on the property if of sufficient value. The provision as to sons of owners applies to the counties as well as towns and cities in cases other than those of farmers' sons.

(8) Farmers' sons—The same provisions substantially apply to farmers' sons, as stated in the last paragraph in respect of sons of owners in cities and towns.

A farm is to be not less than 20 acres of land.

(9) Fishermen and owners of real property and boats, nets, fishing gear and tackle of aggregate value of $150.

Income voters register where they reside at time of registration—all others where property is situate. If in more than one polling division in the same electoral district the voter may register in either.

All names entered in the last revised voters' lists under the old law, will be entered in the new lists by the revising barrister.

Every person not on the assessment roll desiring to have his name on the list must at once send to the revising barrister an application in writing to be put on the list, giving his name, residence and the property or other qualification in respect of which he applies to be put on.

This application must be accompanied by a declaration which is to be made and signed before a commissioner for taking affidavits, a notary or justice of the peace, showing the grounds of the applicants claim to be put on the list.

Substantially the voters are those who can qualify as owners, tenants, occupants, income voters, sons of owners and farmers' sons.

See that the application shows as correctly and fully as possible the qualification.

Make the declaration before a commissioner, notary or justice of the peace. It is convenient to have it attached to the application on the same sheet.

In case of an absent person, let some one else having a knowledge of the qualification make the application and declaration.

When one cannot find a justice or other person before whom the declaration can be taken let the application alone be sent in, with an explanation of the reason, and it would be well in such case to have the truth of the facts in the application certified on the back of it by one, or if possible, two other persons.

The application and declaration must be sent at once to the Revising barrister of the district.

URGENCY OF THE MATTER.

No name not on the last voters' list or assessment roll will be placed on the preliminary voters' list, unless on application and declaration as above.

In case of any difficulty or doubt, application should be made at once for advice to some of the Liberal friends in the neighborhood.

SPEECH FROM THE THRONE

A Sparse Programme—Congratulations Without Cause.

(Special to the Mercury.)

OTTAWA, Feb. 25.—At three o'clock this afternoon His Excellency, the Governor-General proceeded to the Senate Chamber and opened the fourth session of the present Parliament with the following Speech from the Throne:

Hon. Gentlemen of the Senate:
Gentlemen of the House of Commons:

On meeting you again I have the pleasing duty to perform of congratulating you on the sufficient harvest of last year, and on the prosperity and substantial progress of the country. Since the suppression of the insurrection in the North-West territories peace and order have been restored and now prevail.

After so serious an outbreak some disquiet and apprehension of the recurrence of those disorders may naturally be expected to linger, and it will be the duty of my Government to make such precautionary arrangements as will assure the present inhabitants, as well as intending settlers, of efficient protection against all disturbance.

I warmly congratulate you on the practical completion of the Canadian Pacific Railway, and on the announcement that it will be open for the daily carriage of passengers and freight from ocean to ocean in the month of June next. This great work, so important alike to the Empire and Dominion, cannot fail to cause the trade between British Columbia and the other Provinces to ensure the early development and settlement of Manitoba and the Northwest, and greatly to add to the commercial prosperity of the whole country.

Should the negotiations between Her Majesty's Government and that of the United States for the appointment of a joint commission to adjust what is known as "The fishery question," and to consider the best means of developing our international commerce, fail to secure any satisfactory result you will be asked to make provision for the protection of our inshore fisheries by the extension of our present system of Marine Police.

The measure submitted to you last session for the consolidation of the Statutes and for the introduction into the Northwest Territories of a more simple and economical system for the transfer of land will be again laid before you for consideration and legislative action. The Acts of the last session will be found to be included in the first of these measures.

You will also be asked to consider the expediency of improving the judiciary system of the Northwest Territories.

Your attention will be invited to the propriety of amending the law relating to the business of the of Queen's printer and of providing for the more satisfactory working of the present system of Government and Parliamentary printing.

A numerical census of the Northwest Territories has been taken and a measure based thereon for the representation of the people in Parliament, will be laid before you.

Other measures will be laic before you, and among them will be found bills for providing for a better mode of trial of claims against the Crown for regulating Post Office Savings Banks in British Columbia and the North West Territories, for expediting the issue of patents for Indian lands, for the Administration of the rights of the Crown in the foreshores of the Dominion, for the establishment of an Experimental Farm and for the amendment of the Chinese Immigration Act.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons:

The accounts for the past year will be laid before you.

You will find that the estimate of receipts has been fully realized, but I regret to say that the outbreak in the Northwest has added largely to the expenditure of the country.

The estimates of the ensuing year will be submitted to you. They have been prepared with due regard to economy and the requirements of the public service.

Hon. Gentlemen of the Senate; Gentlemen of the House of Commons:

I commend these several subjects, and the others which may engage your attention to your best consideration, and I earnestly trust that the result of your deliberations, may under the Divine blessing, conduce to the advancement and prosperity of Canada.

LECTURE ON THE WALDENSIAN CHURCH.—There was a fair attendance last night in St. Andrew's Church lecture room to hear Signor Cherubini, Italy, who gave a glowing account of the persecutions through which the Waldensian Church has passed, and how it has stood as a witness for the truth in the midst of Roman superstition and idolatry. Whenever he speaks of Italy he gets very excited and depicts in glowing colours the March of Protestantism throughout the country. He made an eloquent appeal for help to spread the Gospel. He says they have plenty of men to preach, all they want is the wherewithal to pay the expenses, and trusts that the people of Guelph will give liberally towards this object.

A RISING BARRISTER.—A rising barrister in a town not thirty miles distant from Elora a few days ago visited the surgery of a well-known physician. The doctor had mixed some fatally poisonous drugs, and as one bottle would not hold all, he put the remainder in a bottle labelled, "best brandy," but put a private mark on it that he would know himself. Having occasion to leave his legal caller alone for a few minutes he excused himself, but did not remove the bottle mentioned, little dreaming of the ignominious fate its contents were to meet with. Well, as soon as our legal friend was left alone he thought here was a good chance to have a taste of real brandy and (tell it not in gath), seizing the bottle, quickly devoured its contents. This remarkable feat was no sooner accomplished than he realized that all was not well. The doctor returned at this stage of the proceedings and by the twitching and contortions of his caller, suspected that something was wrong. Seeing the empty bottle he grasped the state of the case, and also something to relieve the state of mind and body of his friend, who left the surgery feeling that he had gained in wisdom if not in "spirits."

HANDSOME VEHICLES.—The firm of Messrs. J. B. Armstrong & Co., who have gained for themselves a world wide reputation in the manufacture of buggy and carriage gears, have decided to send to the Colonial and Indian Exhibition, to be held in London next year, cutters and buggies fitted up with their gears. A phæton fitted up with the Eurkea gear is a very handsome article, and appears to combine lightness together with strength and durability. A buggy with the "Defiance gear" is equally handsome. This is a new gear which has been recently introduced and gives promise of becoming very popular, being a tempered steel side-bar gear, easy of motion and adjusted so as not to overstrain. Another buggy is attached to the Eclipse gear, which is guaranteed to carry safely 700 or 800 pounds weight, riding equally easy with two or four passengers. There are also two sleighs. One is a two-seated pleasure sleigh, fitted with the adjustable two seats, and a footman's stand behind. This sleigh is highly finished and should recommend itself in any country where sleighing is general for a portion of the year. The other is a single cutter with a footman's or driver's stool behind. The gears on all these vehicles, no wood being used, are all of tempered steel, under the Armstrong patent process, and have stood an actual test and strain of 60 per cent. over raw steel and 100 per cent. over iron, thus it will be seen that they can hardly be broken under any circumstances. Mr. Armstrong deserves credit for his inventions, and no doubt they will be fully appreciated at the great exhibition at which they will be shown.

HOUSE WARMING.—On Tuesday last Mr. Richard Carter, of Eramosa, who has lately erected a fine new brick house, gave a house warming to his numerous friends in country and city, which was responded to by the presence of about one hundred and twenty guests, who all heartily took part in the different games and amusements provided. About midnight the party repaired to the house lately occupied by Mr. C. where the Misses Carter had prepared a sumptuous repast. Music was furnished in abundance for those who delighted in tripping the light fantastic. The party was kept up until an early hour next morning the majority arriving home in good time to enjoy a hearty breakfast. Mr. Carter and sisters deserve credit for the kind manner in which they received and entertained their many friends.

SOCIAL PARTY.—A large number from the City attended a social party and dance at the residence of Mr. Charles Duffield, Eramosa, last Friday evening. The drive out was much enjoyed, and as the later ones arrived they found assembled a large number of their friends and a repast waiting that would satisfy the most fastidious. Mr. and Mrs. Duffield were untiring in their efforts to make the evening an enjoyable one. It is almost unnecessary to say that they succeeded. Dancing was kept up till the "wee sma' hours" by the 75 or eighty couple present, music being furnished by Mr. B. McQuillan. When the time arrived for the party to disperse to their respective homes all appeared reluctant to quit the roof of their generous and kind hearted host and hostess. It was one of the most successful parties that has taken place in that neighborhood for a long time.

FUNERAL OF THE LATE ALD. HALL.—The funeral of the late Ald. Hall took place at half-past two yesterday afternoon, from his residence on Woolwich street. The City Council assembled at the City Hall at two o'clock, and drove to the house. The firemen, under Chief Armstrong, assembled at the same time and marched, so also did the United Order of Workmen, under command of Captain Clarke. Shortly after half-past two the coffin was borne from the house to the hearse by the following pall-bearers:—From the City Council—Mayor Stevenson, Ald Lamprey, Ald. Chadwick, and ex-Mayor Chase. From the Workmen—Ald. Husband. From the School Board—A. Bruce. The procession was formed in the following order:—The Firemen, United Order of Workmen, City Council and School Board on foot, numbering in all over a hundred. Then followed the hearse and the chief mourners, comprising Messrs Wm. and George Sunley, six nephews, and Mr. Jas. E. Sheridan, Fulton, Oswego, Co., New York, a brother-in-law. Then followed a large number of conveyances, containing prominent citizens and friends of the deceased. The cortege proceeded to St. George's Church, where part of the funeral service of the English Church was read by the Ven. Archdeacon Dixon. The large church was comfortably filled. On leaving the church the cortege proceeded along Douglas and Wyndham streets to the Elora Road and the cemetery. During the time of the funeral, which was the largest held in Guelph for a long time, the streets along the route taken were lined with spectators. On arriving at the cemetery the Rev. Mr. Irving conducted the English Church services at the grave, and Master Workman Cunningham, assisted by Past Master Bilton, read the form of burial prescribed by the United Workmen.

DEATH OF SHERIFF GOW.

Sudden Termination to a Useful Life.

Death, the dreaded consummation of all things earthly, has been stalking about in our midst with unusual prevalence during the past few days, manifesting on every hand the great lesson of the uncertainty of life. It is with feelings of heartfelt sorrow that we are called upon to-day to add to the list of his victims the name of the Hon. Peter Gow, Sheriff of the County of Wellington, who passed away at his home on the Brock Road, and surrounded by his family, at five o'clock on Wednesday afternoon. The feelings of sympathy with the bereaved family will be all the more deep on account of the sudden termination to a useful life. It was only on Tuesday last that Mr. Gow was seized with his last illness and a little more than thirty hours afterwards the spark of life had fled. The previous day, however, his stomach was in such a disordered state that he was unable to eat anything, but this was nothing unusual, as for years he had been subject to similar spells. On getting up Tuesday morning he was able to eat a light breakfast and left rather earlier than usual to attend to some business at his office in the Court House. It was about eleven o'clock, while he was quietly reading the morning paper there, that he was suddenly seized with violent internal pains, which were no doubt aggravated by the action of the diet in the stomach. Dr. Herod, the family physician, being away on a visit to another patient, Dr. Brock was called and did what was possible to relieve him until Dr. Herod arrived. They found the patient so completely prostrated by his sufferings that he was reluctant to be moved home and after being conveyed there he found no relief whatever until early the following morning. Then he fell into a quiet slumber and when he wakened the excruciating pain had gone—a symptom which cheered the anxious family. But it was a fatal indication; the struggle was over, and he gradually sank until five o'clock p.m. when his spirit passed peacefully away.

Although Mr. Gow died so suddenly he had long been in poor health. For years he was a sufferer from asthma, and was frequently compelled to desist from active work in consequence of severe attacks of this trouble, and was obliged to spend two winters in a milder climate than ours. The first winter he spent in Virginia, and two years ago went to Bermuda, returning each time apparently much benefitted in health. He was also subject to inflammation of the bowels, and in fact was the victim of a complication of diseases. For some years he had been in the habit of spending the summer with his family and Mr. Robert Melvin, his brother-in-law's family, at Strawberry Island, a delightful summer resort in Lake Huron, where the invigorating air did much to resuscitate his failing health. For a year past Mr. Gow was to all appearances in better health than formerly. He had been freer from asthma than for years, and in all that time did not require the attendance of a doctor. But contrary to being a good sign the disappearance of his old trouble was the very opposite. Unknown to himself and family he had been failing all the time and the attack on Tuesday was but the culmination of his troubles. His old physician found that he was greatly reduced in flesh and that the heart had ceased to do its proper work. The whole system had collapsed and left no ground for hope of recovery.

Sheriff Gow was born in the town of Johnston, Renfrewshire, Scotland, on the 20th November, 1818, and had consequently reached the sixty-seventh year of his age. He emigrated to this country in 1842, and lived two years at Brockville and came to Guelph in 1844. After a time Mr. Gow entered into partnership with Mr. John Ormie, now of Eramosa, and started a boot and shoe business on Wyandham street—which has since been renewed—near the point where Miss Simpson's millinery establishment is at present. This was about the year 1848. A few years later, on the arrival of Mr. Gow's cousin, Mr. James Gow, now Inland Revenue Collector at Windsor, from Scotland, the partnership of Gow & Ormie was dissolved and the cousins went into partnership, adding the manufacture of leather to that of shoemaking. He was connected with this business for about 24 years and subsequently built the woollen mill at Gow's bridge. In the earlier days of his business experience Mr. Gow carried on a lime and quarrying trade near the tannery, the building of the Grand Trunk Railway having given a great impetus to that branch of industry. As showing the value of this quarry at that time it may be mentioned that Mr. Whitehead, a bridge contractor on the G. T. R., offered £500 for the quarry alone, and the offer was declined. Before the firm dissolved in 1868, Mr. Peter Gow had been elected to represent South Wellington in the Ontario Legislature, and the other partner, Mr. James Gow, had received an appointment to the Guelph division of the Inland Revenue department.

Mr. Gow began his public career in 1856, when he became a member of the Municipal Council of Guelph. Ten years later he was elected Mayor, and it was while occupying this position that he was called upon to fill a more distinguished one. As an evidence of the highly satisfactory manner in which he discharged the duties of Chief Magistrate and presiding officer of the Council he was presented with a complimentary address and a valuable service of plate by his Brother Councillors. A presentation was not such a common thing in those days as it is now, and, therefore, this mark of esteem was all the more striking. It may be of interest to the older residents to give the names of Mr. Gow's colleagues at that time, who all signed the address. They are as follows: H. W. Peterson, Robert Melvin, Richard Mitchell, John Hogg, Wm. Day, Alex. Thompson, P. McCurry, F. W. Galbraith, T. A. Heffernan, Thos. Sayers, James Massie, F. J. Chadwick, Thos. Holliday, and George Herod, M. D.

Mr. Gow was elected to the Local Legislature in 1867. He was re-elected by acclamation in 1871 and became Provincial Secretary in Mr. Blake's Administration in that year. He retired from that Ministry with his Chief at the end of the following year, but remained in Parliament and was re-elected by acclamation in 1875. In November 1876, Mr. Gow retired from the Local Legislature and accepted the position of Sheriff of this County which he held until the time of his demise.

Death therefore has closed the career of one who rose with the place he lived in and who will be missed as a landmark in the history of his adopted home.

The deceased gentleman was twice married. By his first wife, who only survived her marriage a short time, he had one son, and by the second, who survives him he had twelve, nine boys and three girls. All the sons and one daughter are still living. He also leaves a sister in the person of Mrs. Robert Melvin of Guelph, and one brother, Mr. George Gow, of Muskoka, besides several relatives in the Old Country. The sorrowing relatives have the heartfelt sympathy of the community in their sudden and irreparable loss,

Death of Sheriff Gow.

The relentless hand of death has just removed from our midst, in the person of Sheriff Gow, one who for many years was a prominent figure in local history. The business push and public enterprise which characterized the younger days of Mr. Gow, led not only to his choice for ten successive years as a representative of the people of Guelph at the Council Board, and his election twice as Mayor, but in 1867 induced the electors of South Wellington to call upon him to fill a higher sphere as their member in the Ontario Legislature. While occupying this position in 1871 he was honoured by Mr. Blake with a seat in the Cabinet as Provincial Secretary, but retired from the Government with his leader the following year. A pretty good indication of the people's belief that Mr. Gow was the right man in the right place is found in the fact that during his Parliamentary experience the only election at which he was ever opposed was his first one in 1867. On that occasion he was returned by a very large majority, and in all subsequent elections went in by acclamation. His appointment to the Shrievalty of Wellington in 1876 was regarded by both parties a well deserved reward for long and faithful services to the County of which he was a representative, Since that time, of course he has been removed from active public life, but notwithstanding failing health he never ceased to take a deep interest in all that was going on around him. The sketch of his life, which appears in another column, will recall to many persons different occasions of striking interest in our past history, and all will regret the death of one who was so prominently identified with these, and will extend their feelings of heartfelt sympathy to the mourning widow and family in the loss of a kind and affectionate husband and father.

DOMINION FRANCHISE ACT.

South Wellington Voters' List.

We stated last week that the Revising Officer's List for this riding had been printed and was in the hands of the different Reform Committees in the various municipalities. As we stated then the Revising Officer has appointed his first Court to be held on Thursday, the 25th day of March, at which all applications from new voters' to be added to the list should be made. The necessary blanks for such applications are now in the hands of the conveners in the different townships and of some of the leading members of the polling sub-division committees. These applications can be made and the necessary blanks filled up by the applicants themselves and a declaration made before a magistrate, a commissioner for taking affidavits, or a notary public. Or the applications can be made and filled up by any person having full knowledge and information with respect to the qualifications of those persons for whom he is applying. It will be left to the discretion of the parties in whose charge the blanks are, to get either a personal application or to make it out for others. It is very important, however, that these applications should be carefully and correctly filled up so as to prevent mistakes or the applications being thrown out by the Revising Officer on account of some informality or error.

Our friends should bear in mind that all these applications must be in the hands of the Revising Officer a clear week before the 25th of March when the Court is to be held. It is therefore most important that those making out such applications, or who have charge of those made out by the parties themselves, should make it a point of duty to deliver them to Mr. Hugh McMillan, the General Secretary in Guelph, not later than the 15th of March, and even earlier if possible, so that if there are any mistakes or any omissions these can be rectified before being handed in to the Revising Officer.

The necessary blanks have been sent to nearly all the following parties, from whom they can be obtained and who will give all information respecting filling them up.

ERAMOSA Lazarus Parkinson, Convener; John Ramsay, Henry Strange, Thomas Waters, D. McCaig, John McKinnon, Archibald Johnson, John Mutrie, Hugh Black.

ERIN—J. W. Burt, Convener; Henry Dunbar (who has undertaken to look after the work over the whole township), George Beswick, A. Swindlehurst, Thos. Young, Dr. McKinnon, Donald McMurchy, Wm. Kirkwood, George Martin, Lachlan Currie, Dougald Robertson.

GUELPH TOWNSHIP—Wm. Whitelaw, Convener; John McCorkindale, George B. Hood, George A. Darby, Jas. McCuen, George Whitelaw.

ERIN VILLAGE—Adam Justice, Wellington Hull.

If any of the above parties require blanks for their particular section they can get them through the Convener or from Mr. Hugh McMillan in Guelph.

Toronto Correspondence.

So far as anything of importance is concerned from a legislative point of view, there is scarcely anything to write. The Ministry and its supporters pursue the even tenor of their way wholly unawed by the blatherskiteisms of Carnegie, Creighton, Merrick and White. It is true that Mere ith does sometimes say good things and make good suggestions, but there is always such an air of suspicion as to his motives that his "happy thoughts" are not at all appreciated. For instance the other day he pitched into the payment of three thousand dollars per annum to your old townsman, Mr. Johnston, now Deputy-Attorney General. As was shown by the Hon. A. S. Hardy and the Hon. G. W. Ross, it is utterly impossible to secure the services of a real good man for any less—a lawyer in fair practice can make as much easily. Now, if Mr. Meredith had really wished to benefit his country there was another point of attack open for him to make in the deputy line, but he failed to profit by the opportunity, simply, no doubt, because the gentleman who holds the position is a good Conservative.

About the only stir that has been caused in the House of Assembly this session has arisen on the terms of a motion introduced by Mr. McIntyre to do away with the mansion of the Lieutenant-Governor. How it strikes you, I don't know, but to me it seems a piece of nonsense to support this quasi vice-vice-regal sham.

A miserable attempt is about to be made to unseat Mayor Howland for the want of proper qualification. At the first blush this looks like a contemptible act in the rum-sellers dram-a(h), and so no doubt it is, but after all it is perhaps no great wonder when it is said, (according to the World) that in court a few days ago the Mayor would not take his oath that he was worth five cents! Anyhow, he is a good Mayor, and, if unseated, will carry with him the sympathies of the "best people" in the city.

The excitement that existed here for a time over the appearance of Dent's first volume of his History of the Rebellion has almost passed away, but will probably break out again when the second volume issues from the press. It may then turn out that the ardent admirers of W. L. Mackenzie have been too rashly headlong in their denunciations of our historian who has, it must be supposed, the very best of evidence on which to base every statement he puts in print. It is understood that the second volume is almost completed, an i may be expected in a few weeks.

Hereafter bobtailed street cars are to be supplied with con uctors, so that we may expect to hear of fewer accidents to very young and very old people; at least the Council declare that conductors must accompany every car, but it is feared this is only a "spurt," and that as hitherto, the Company will do pretty much as it pleases.

On Saturday last the Rev. Principal Grant dellivered a lecture at Trinity College on Burns. Those who had the pleasure of hearing Mr. Grant declare that it was one of the best things they ever had the pleasure of listening to.

Fresh opportunities are in preparation for repetitions of jobs like that of the notorious Garrison Creek Sewer. A big trunk sewer is projected to empty into Ashbridge's Bay, away down by the Don, with several large branch sewers as feeders. There is also spoken of a new street along the bay to supersede the present Esplanade. What a splendid opportunity these will afford for the use of "pinkey" bricks and sich!

Year by year Toronto is becoming to the "pale faces," what it is said to have been to the ancient—"Lo," a meeting place. Next summer we expect to have crowds of Salvationists, Knights of Pythias, Orangemen, etc., etc., the first and last named in connection with the opening of their respective halls, and the societies generally, for the celebration of their annual pow-wows.

Sleighing is goo1, and the continuous descent of the "beautiful" is likely to keep it so for some time.

Curling is the rage among the chiels that "scoop her up." Matches are of daily and nightly occnrrence, and strange as it may and does appear to recent arrivals from Old Scotia, not a drop of "whuskey" passes down the craigs of those who "fling" daily from snowy morn to frosty eve.

This reminds me that the increased license fee is causing some mutterings here. The chief argument used is it will cause the "horn" to be ten cents instead of five as it is now. That is to say, it will cost a fellow twice as much to get drunk as it does at present. People who make this complaint no doubt sigh for the good old days when it is said signboards in low localities bore the inscription "Drunk for a penny, dead drunk for twopence, and straw for nothing."

We are going to make a big show at the C. and I. Ex. in London. Country places like Guelph, Hamilton, London the little, and such places may attempt in vain to vie with us. They may make a ripple, but we, we will make the grand splurge.

If the new Parliament Buildings and the new Court House go up this year, times will be lively in this city. Already contracts are let I am informed, for considerably over two million dollars just in dwelling houses, stores an factories. How is this for high?

Diphtheria at the Schools.

To the Editor of the MERCURY:

DEAR SIR,—Having been informed by a member of the School Board and also by the Health Inspector that I was the party referred to at their meeting on Monday evening, as having allowed a chil to attend school during the week while her sister was at home lying ill with diphtheria, I ask space in your columns to state the facts of the case, which are these: On going home to dinner last Friday I found my little daughter, who does not yet attend school, ill. Knowing that there was a case of diphtheria across the street I became alarmed, and immediately after dinner called on the doctor who was attending my neighbor's child. He said he would be over to see my neighbor's child about two o'clock and would call and see mine at the same time. He did so, but it was nearly three o'clock before I knew for a certainty that my child had diphtheria. The other little girl who was at school, and who I believe sat near a child of Mr. Bollert's, came home at the usual hour when school closed. This was Friday afternoon and she has not been at school since. She has had a slight attack of sore throat which the doctor says can hardly be called diphtheria. The Health Inspector placarded my house on Saturday morning, so that there can be no ground for complaint against him.

While I strongly approve of the School Board adopting every precaution to prevent the spread of contagious diseases among the pupils attending the schools, yet I think the gentlemen of the Board should take the trouble to enquire into the facts of a case before blaming any one unjustly, and at the same time causing needless alarm.

Thanking you for your valuable space,

I am, yours respectfully,

JAMES A. SMITH.

THE LONDON RIOTS.

Trial of the Leading Socialists at Bow Street Station.

LONDON, Feb. 24.—The hearing in the case of Burns, Hyndman, Champion and Williams, the Socialist leaders who are accused of having incited the riots at Trafalgar Square and Hyde Park, was resumed to-day. Hyndman, before the proceedings were formally opened, entered a complaint against the editor and proprietors of Punch and asked for their arrest. The Magistrate declined Hyndman's request, saying he had no power to interfere on the ground specified.

Joseph Chamberlain and Jesse Collings were present. The Magistrate announced that he intended to commit all the prisoners for trial. Williams' counsel contended that the words used by his client were not so strong as the language in almost daily use in the press. Pointing to Mr. Chamberlain, counsel said: "When the member for Birmingham has employed in the House of Commons even stronger language than that imputed to my client he has been applauded." This panic and prosecution, counsel declared, are intended to shield Mr. Childers, the Home Secretary, and the police, who are answerable for the whole trouble.

Hyndman, who defended himself, denied that there was any case against either himself or his companions. He said: "If I am to be condemned on my speeches then Mr. Camberlain should stand in the dock alongside of me." Hyndman also contended that the whole blame rested on the police who could and should have prevented rioting.

Mr. Chamberlain consented to be sworn as a witness. When he had taken the oath Champion asked him what were the Government's intentions with regard to relieving the distress among the unemployed and whether he himself favoured revolution in the land laws in England.

The Magistrate refused to allow the questions as put to be answered by the witness.

Mr. Champion explained that he desired merely to examine Mr. Chamberlain as an expert.

The Magistrate asked, "What, in revolution?"

Champion replied, "No; in political agitation."

The Magistrate again refused to permit such an examination of the witness, and as the defendant desired to subject him to no other he was allowed to retire.

Mr. Gladstone's Private Secretary was the next witness, but nothing of interest or importance was elicited from him.

The Socialist leaders were remanded until Saturday when they will be probably committed for trial at the central criminal court for misdemeanor.

CHAPTER XIII.

OPEN WARFARE.

When Alice had been at Brantwood a week Helen's peace of mind was gone; and indeed the situation was one which might have perplexed and troubled many an older and more experienced woman. During Helen's absence from England she had forgotten Alice and her anger and jealousy; but now that she and her sister were again in the same house something happened nearly every day to remind her that they had once been rivals. Nor was this the worst. As day after day passed by and she was convinced that Alice, too, remembered what had led to her declaration of her engagement, and again what had taken place on the night before ner wedding, the unwilling conviction was slowly forced upon her that in Alice's eyes they were rivals still. The day on which this first dawned upon her she remembered well. Alice and she were alone, Percival had gone out after breakfast, and would only return to lunch. It had been wet in the early part of the morning, and Alice, always glad of an excuse for staying indoors, had settled herself to an enormous piece of fancy work, upon which she had already been engaged for nearly a year, and which seemed to promise constant employment for an indefinite time. Helen, who had occupation for an hour or two in her household affairs, came at last into the room where Alice was sitting and threw herself into a chair with a little sigh of relief.

Alice had been amiability itself since her arrival at Brantwood. She had indulged in no fits of temper because everything was not ordered with a view to her pleasure, and she had ceased to sit in silent disdain, while Percival and Helen talked in the light easy way in which they were accustomed to settle even the most serious questions. She would even sometimes join in, in the same spirit, but Alice's humour was of rather a ponderous description, and generally had the effect of crushing the lighter article indulged in by her host and hostess. Words cannot describe her soft sweetness in the evening, when they sat in the drawing-room, or she challenged Percival to a game of billiards. All her hardness and indifference seemed to have melted away, she exerted all her powers to please; and became once more the woman who had earned a reputation for the gracious sweetness of her manner. But it was a regal sweetness; when she smiled or spoke, it was with the air of a queen distinguishing her favourite subjects. Percival laughed at it, and Helen joined in his amusement, until it flashed across her mind what it meant, and then she was too angry to be amused, she knew that Alice was clever in her way, that when she strove to exert herself to study people she was generally successful. She had studied her world, the little world of two people with whom she was at present concerned, and she had not been long in finding out that part of what Percival loved in Helen was her brightness, her spontaneous graciousness and gladness of heart. If she wished to exercise any fascination over him she must forge her chains in smiles; but she felt that though she must fight Helen with her own weapons she could never imitate her. What would she look like, she wondered, as she sat pondering over her ways and means in her bedroom, if she were to push open a French window and run across the lawn, spring in pure gladness of heart and youthful exuberance of spirits, over every little obstacle in her path: Or, what would be the effect on even her grace and beauty if she were to suddenly sink down upon the rug and lean her elbow on Percival's knee, as Helen had done only the evening before. Helen, with her small, slight figure, had looked very graceful; she would look like a mere heap of flesh and clothing. She could never do such things, they would be fatal to the cause she had in hand; and yet she must be as gay as Helen. Hence her queenly graciousness, her slow, rather weary smiles, which were to extinguish the quick brilliant ones that came lighting up Helen's face all in a moment with marvellous beauty. All these plans had been arranged long before the wet morning on which Alice sat bending over her fancy work, and Helen came in to her, heaving a sigh and saying—

"That is done with for to-day, at any-rate."

"What is done with?" asked Alice reflectively, and putting her head on one side to see the effect of a new shade she had introduced into her work.

"My domestic cares. Mrs. Price insists upon consulting me about everything, and inflicting a long conversation upon me every morning. She would lose all respect for me if I did not indulge her weakness, but it is a great bore."

"You surprise me. I should have enjoyed that kind of thing."

"That is not true," thought Helen. Aloud she said—

"I have no taste for it at all. Sometimes it almost spoils the pleasure of having one's own house. The great attraction of hotel life is its perfect freedom from anything of the kind."

"Really you surprise me more and more. What would Percival say, I wonder, if he knew."

"Oh, he does know, and quite understands and deeply sympathizes with me, of course."

Alice raised her eyebrows and held her needle suspended over her work, apparently lost in astonishment.

"You don't mean to say that you talk to him about such things. I thought there was always a kind of tacit understanding in a house that the husband should never be bothered about anything of that kind."

There was something in her tone which sent the hot blood up to Helen's cheeks, as she replied—

"So far as I know, Percival is never bothered about anything that is under my care."

"No, bothered was rather too strong a word, I confess; though after all, if you go on talking to him about it long enough he will end by being bothered. You can't expect men to take an interest in such things. May I give you my opinion on the matter?"

"Please do. I have no doubt it will be of immense value to me," said Helen gravely.

"If you want to keep Percival's affection," she began, and then paused to contemplate her work.

"Yes," said Helen, "if I want to keep Percival's affection——?"

"Do not get into a temper about it. In that respect you are really not much improved. Last night you got quite infuriated when we were talking about the possibility of rowing to the island in half an hour. When you had gone out of the room I said something about it to Percival, and what do you suppose his answer was?"

"I cannot say. It would probably depend upon the exact nature of the remark you made to him."

"He said he knew you were not perfect, but that people who were always right could afford to be generous to their less fortunate friends. He said it so nicely, too, I did not feel as if I ought to disclaim being in the right, and you know I generally am."

"Yes, I know, of course; but what did you say? or did you feel that silence was more eloquent than words?"

"I said that of course you had always been noted at home for having a very hasty temper, but we hoped you would conquer it in time."

"This is something quite new to me. I had no idea you cherished such a hope. What did he say?"

"He said he ped you would. He relied greatly upon time and increasing age and responsibility to help you. But I thought, you know, it was so nice of him to take it in that way. So many people would have thought at once that I wanted to pick holes in your character; but he always understood me and did me justice."

"Who has misunderstood you?"

"Most people misunderstand me. There are very few people with whom I feel in sympathy."

"But you do with Percival?

"Yes; we sympathised at once."

"I don't remember it. Of course he feels equally in sympathy with you?"

"I think so," was her answer, spoken rather slowly and without raising her eyes.

"I am very glad to hear it," said Helen cheerfully as she rose from her seat. "Since you feel quite sure, I do not mind telling you that I have sometimes doubted it, and it made me rather uncomfortable, for I hate to think people under one's roof do not agree."

"There was a pause; then she crossed the room, and Alice asked—

"Where are you going?"

"Only to practise this song a little. Percival wanted me to sing it last night and I could not. I will not disappoint him again."

Alice smiled without speaking, and Helen sang the song through once or twice; then, on her sister's suggestion that her voice was a little husky, she left the room, ostensibly to get some lozenges, in reality to be alone.

It had ceased raining, so she put on her hat and slipped out into the garden, in a sheltered part of which she walked up and down, lost in thought.

Fergus Correspondence.

RAFFLE.—The old running horse "Grasshopper," belonging to Hayden & Keenan, of Fergus, was raffled here last week, a good price being obtained. Mr Hayden, not of Fergus, was the lucky winner.

SHOOTING.—The Garafraxa shooters, mostly hailing from near Metz, were to have tried the mettle of our Fergus shots on Saturday last, but the storm and cold prevented the sport. They were to shoot at glass balls, 10 shots each, and five men on each side. We are a little afraid our home team would come out second best. The other side being good shots and having more practice. We have not heard, but we presume the contest will come off Saturday 1st. It is to be in Fergus.

LECTURE.—Rev. Mr Sieveright delivered a very good lecture in Melville church, Wednesday night last. Owing to the storm the audience was small. The collection was very good from the small number present, $12 being realized for the Church and Manse Fund of Huntsville, Muskoka. The reverend speaker's experiences in that part of the Northwest, where the heart of the rebellion was, made his words most interesting.

CHURCH.—Rev. D. J. McDonnell, of Toronto, preached in Melville church on Sunday last. The church was crowded both morning and evening, many attending in the evening from other churches and those from no church. The sermons were both practical and powerful. Rev R. J. Black did not get in on Sunday, owing to the storm and bad roads.

WEDDINGS.—There was truly a shaking of the dry bones in Eramosa on Wednesday last. Some eight couples are reported dead to single life and alive to the more biblical and blessed life of matrimony. Hurrah for Eramosa! It was a big day. So great was the excitement that the elements themselves joined in the festivities, whether as invited guests or as members of the charivaring band we cannot say, but as they came in the day time we presume they were invited. They certainly clothed themselves in appropriate colors, coming down decked in the purest of white and with such a redundancy of clothing that we naturally concluded the old women had been picking their geese for some time and had a supply of feathers on hand. Several of our Fergusites took part in the rejoicings, and some were afraid and turned back. But as none from here were the chief actors the great play was not stopped by their absence. Well, keep it up Eramosa. It is reported you can stand another such racket.

ROADS.—We understand the roads are now, since Saturday's storm, something very bad. Off the road altogether in many places, over tops of fences, stones, etc. It would certainly be better to keep off the proper place of the road, and keep on the drifts, and the roads would in all places soon be as high as the fence, and then they would cease from being blocked. We do not see why pathmasters and overseers do not attend to the roads in winter as well as summer. Travel is just as necessary, and there is generally more of it. Why not do some statute labor and keep the roads passable during winter and do less in summer?

VOTERS' LISTS.—Mr. Preston was in Elora Saturday last giving instructions re voters lists. There were a few Reformers over from here, but the meeting was not large. The rough day will account for this.

TEMPERANCE.—A convention in the interests of temperance will be held in the drill shed here Monday afternoon next. Addresses will be given and some decision probably arrived at as to the working of the Scott Act in the county. All interested in temperance will be welcome. Wm. Castells will endeavor to find accommodation for those desiring it.

RACES.—Two match skating races come off here in the rink Thursday night first, between McCutcheon, of Guelph, vs. Phelan, of Fergus, for $50, and Wayper, of Elora, vs. Graham, of Fergus, for $20 a side. There will likely be lots of excitement.

CURLING.—Mr Michie's rink has again won the Fergus rink medal, much to the delight of the skip, Mr Michie. Last night the curlers belonging to the lacrosse club, played those belonging to the cricket club, two rinks each. One lacrosse rink won by 11 shots, and the other lost by 8. So the lacrosse team came out 2 or 3 to the good. To-day three rinks from our home club drove to Elora to play the curlers of that village a friendly game. The game resulted in favor of Fergus by some 40 shots over Elora. The latter village has bad luck. We believe the Guelph men are expected here soon to play a friendly game. Curlers must play while they have ice.

CONCERT.—The entertainment given by the band last week was well patronized, as it deserved to be. The performers were mostly from Guelph. Mrs. Moore, The Misses Borthwick, and Messrs. Spragge, Crowe, made up most of the evening. Messrs. Bragge, of Fergus, and the Misses Pattison also assisted. We have not heard of the amount realized, but it must have been about $50.

The usual monthly fair on Thursday last was peculiar in being a fine day. The price of beef was not good. The number of people in was very large.

How Cattle are Treated in Shipment.

After the annual meeting of the Guelph Fat Stock Club was concluded on Saturday afternoon, Mr. David Messenger brought before the gathering a question in regard to the treatment of cattle on board the cars. Mr. Messenger at some length showed the cruelty that cattle were subjected to through neglect of the railway authorities—such as allowing them to lie over at stations to await and give other freight the preference of the way. It was decided to petition the Government in the matter, and the following is a copy of the memorial drawn up, signed by the members of the Fat Stock Club and a number of leading farmers and buyers:

To the Hon. the Minister of Agriculture Ottawa.

We, the undersigned members of the Fat Stock Club of Guelph, along with the breeders and shippers of fat stock in this part of the Province, do hereby memorialize the Hon. Minister of Agriculture to use his influence in getting enacted such legislation as shall tend to the amelioration of the sufferings of cattle shipped on the Grand Trunk and other railways of this Province, which lately through detention, overcrowding and other preventible causes has been a very serious loss to the shippers and consequently to the feeders.

The petition has been left at this office for signature.

Rockwood Correspondence.

DR. CARMAN'S LECTURE.—The lecture delivered by the Rev. Dr. Carman, Chief Superintendent of the Methodist Church in Canada, in the Methodist Church here on Tuesday evening, on the subject of "Trade and Grow Rich," was a grand exposition of intelligent thought and principle. Regret very much that time forbids us giving even a synopsis of it. Whilst being highly entertaining it was wonderfully edifying.

The Royal Templars of Temperance, of Rockwood, Pinnacle Council No. 64, held a public meeting in their hall on Tuesday evening, the 23rd inst. There was a good audience. Rev. Mr. Strachan was called to occupy the chair, which he did in an able and happy style. A. C. Steele, of Guelph, was then introduced to the audience, and he gave us an eloquent address, which was an intellectual treat. The Methodist choir gave us some noble pieces of music. At the close a vote of thanks to the chairman, choir, and Mr. Steele, was moved by Dr. Curry, and seconded by Mr. Thomas Harris. The audience went away elated with the evening's entertainment, and with the impression that the little they had done for the Council and Temperance was but a trifle to what they would do subsequently for the cause and our noble Order.

THE FRANCHISE ACT.

The Qualifications of Voters—The Process of Registration Explained.

The time having arrived for the preparation of the voters' lists under the new Dominion Franchise Act, an appeal is made to the Liberals of Wellington to have their names enrolled as voters without delay. To assist in so doing a short summary of the qualification of voters and of the process for securing registration is given.

QUALIFICATION.

To entitle a person to be put on the he must be—

(1) 21 years of age.

(2) A British subject by birth or naturalization.

(3) Owner of real property of value:
In a city, $300.
In a town, $200.
In a county, $150.

(4) Or tenant of real property under ease at a rental of
$2 per month.
$6 per quarter.
$12 per half year.
$20 per year.

Provided that the tenant has been in possession for one year before 1st January 1886, and shall have paid one year's rent before final revision.

If the rent is yearly it will be sufficient if $20 of last year's rent shall have been paid before final revision.

Change of tenancy without intermission will not destroy the vote if aggregate of tenancies would give vote.

In cities at $300.
In towns at $200.
In counties at $150.

In counties outside of villages the rent may be payable either in money or in money's worth.

(5) Or a bona fide occupant for one year before 1st January, 1886, and enjoying the revenues and profits for his own or his wife's use of real property of the following values:
In cities, $300.
In towns, $200.
In counties, $150.

The occupancy may be under license of occupation from the crown or from any person or corporation.

(6) Or by income without any other qualification.

A person may be registered as an income voter, if he derives an income from his earnings, trade or profession, or from some investment in Canada of $300 a year, for one year before 1st January, 1886.

In counties the earnings may be either in money or money's worth.

(7) Sons of owners of real property are qualified—

(b) When the father is dead, and would, if living, be qualified, residence with the mother will suffice, and as many sons as the property will qualify may be registered, with preference to the eldest and elder sons, as in the last case.

Occasional absence from home of a son—not more than six months in the year—will not disqualify, and all time spent at school or college in Canada will be counted as if spent at home.

Son of an owner includes grandson, step-son and son-in-law, and all these may be registered as voters on the property if of sufficient value. The provision as to sons of owners applies to the counties as well as towns and cities in cases other than those of farmers' sons.

(8) Farmers' sons—The same provisions substantially apply to farmers' sons, as stated in the last paragraph in respect of sons of owners in cities and towns.

A farm is to be not less than 20 acres of land.

(9) Fishermen and owners of real property and boats, nets, fishing gear and tackle of aggregate value of $150.

Income voters register where they reside at time of registration—all others where property is situate. If in more than one polling division in the same electoral district the voter may register in either.

All names entered in the last revised voters' lists under the old law, will be entered in the new lists by the revising barrister.

Every person not on the assessment roll desiring to have his name on the list must at once send to the revising barrister an application in writing to be put on the list, giving his name, residence and the property or other qualification in respect of which he applies to be put on.

This application must be accompanied by a declaration which is to be made and signed before a commissioner for taking affidavits, a notary or justice of the peace, showing the grounds of the applicants claim to be put on the list.

Substantially the voters are those who can qualify as owners, tenants, occupants, income voters, sons of owners and farmers' sons.

See that the application shows as correctly and fully as possible the qualification.

Make the declaration before a commissioner, notary or justice of the peace. It is convenient to have it attached to the application on the same sheet.

In case of an absent person, let some one else having a knowledge of the qualification make the application and declaration.

When one cannot find a justice or other person before whom the declaration can be taken let the application alone be sent in, with an explanation of the reason, and it would be well in such case to have the truth of the facts in the application certified on the back of it by one, or if possible, two other persons.

The application and declaration must be sent at once to the Revising barrister of the district.

URGENCY OF THE MATTER.

No name not on the last voters' list or assessment roll will be placed on the preliminary voters' list, unless on application and declaration as above.

In case of any difficulty or doubt, application should be made at once for advice to some of the Liberal friends in the neighborhood.

THE Popular Science News asserts that the average length of life is constantly increasing, and the time may yet come when persons 100 years old will excite no more cursiosity than one of 80 years at the present time.

THE thirteenth annual convention of the County of Halton Teachers' Association held in the school house, Milton, last Thursday and Friday, was one of the most practical and generally successful meetings that the Association has ever held.

RICHARD WINEHALL, of South Egremont, Mass., recently sold his wife for $3. There appears to be a very gratifying boom in the wife market. Only a few weeks ago a man sold his wife for 5 cents, and this sudden advance in price to $3 shows that there is at least one industry that is not languishing under a democratic administration.

QUITE RIGHT.—The Acton Free Press says: The Milton Champion will do the printing for the County Agricultural Society this year for $37, and lose money. The work required is worth $57.50 at the very lowest computation, allowing reasonable prices for each order, and the Free Press will never do it for less. The other offices may "cut each others' throats" if they please, but we've discontinued working for county and township organizations for nothing, and board ourselves.

TRAIN OFF THE TRACK.—The passenger train going south on the Northern Division of the G. T. R., due here at 10:12 a. m., was over an hour behind time. The cause of the delay arose from a freight train going north being thrown off the rails at Kinnettles by a lump of ice on the track. The train was made up of some 14 or 15 cars, all of which, with the exception of two, were precipitated down the embankment to the river bed, a distance of over 70 feet. None of the hands on the train were hurt, which is a miracle. The loss to the company will be heavy.

A CURIOUS LEGAL QUESTION.—The Erin Advocate says: A curious legal question has arisen between a farmer in this neighborhood and a machine company. The company sold the farmer an implement taking his note in payment, and said note has a 'condition' attached which declares the machine is the property of the company until the note is paid. The farm buildings are burned, and the machine is among the contents destroyed. Who stands the loss of the machine, the farmer or company? And is the note still good?

THE UNDERWRITERS' ASSOCIATION.—The Executive Committee of "The Purely Mutual Underwriters' Association of Ontario," consisting of Mr. C. Davidson, of Guelph, representing the Wellington Mutual; Mr. R. J. Doyle, of Owen Sound, representing the Dominion Grange; Mr. John Millar, of Glenmorris, representing the Brant Mutual; Mr. John Beattie, of Fergus, representing the Nichol Mutual, and Mr. L. Drake, Secretary, representing the Saugeen Mutual, met yesterday at the Walker House, Toronto, to get the business of the Association in order for the annual meeting, which takes place today.

GUELPH SCIENTIFIC SOCIETY.—A meeting of the committee appointed to prepare a constitution and make arrangements for the successful initiation of the above proposed Society was held last evening in the Free Library rooms, Mr. James Goldie in the chair. The matter was thoroughly gone into, and a concise and complete constitution prepared for submission to a public mass meeting which will be held in the Business College rooms on the evening of Thursday, 4th March, beginning at eight o'clock. A list of proposed members of a Council for conducting the affairs of the Society will also be submitted at this meeting, to be balloted for, and the officers will afterwards be elected by and from this Council. It is hoped that there will be a very large attendance on Thursday evening next, as the scheme is one of the greatest importance to our young people, and, in fact, to all those interested in Science in any of its branches. The city is very fortunate in having such men as Professor Panton, so long and well known in connection with the Agricultural College here, as well as with the Scientific Association of Winnipeg, in which he took a prominent part, James Goldie, and R. Gausby, who has had considerable experience with Scientific Societies in England. The membership fee proposed is merely nominal, and the immense benefit to our city can hardly yet be conceived. At the meeting on Thursday short addresses, explaining the aims of the Society, will be given by Prof. Panton, Mr. James Goldie, Rev. D. McGregor and others. All are cordially invited to be present.

REV. W. F. CLARKE, of Speedside, ex-president of the N. A. B. K. A., will read a paper on "Hybernation," its relation to practical apiculture," at the convention of bee-keepers to be held shortly at Brantford.

THE PREDICTIONS OF A WEATHER PROPHET.—Walter H. Smith, on whom the mantle of Vennor has fallen, says: "Stormy March will vindicate its character thisyear by displaying the lion in its nature, but will be interspersed with lamb-like terms of summer-like warmth—so much so that some parts will suffer from drought, while other places will be visited with floods" Mr. Smith prophesies for the whole world, and is probably right.

A CAPITAL IDEA.—Says the Berlin News: "Mr. Pearce, the popular and efficient inspector of the schools of this county, has commenced to examine the scholars in the different schools on their knowledge of the current events of the day. He keeps a strict account of the answers received and in his reports takes this in as one of the considerations in making out the status for each school. Teachers can very materially aid in bringing up their scholars to having both a desire for and knowledge of those subjects. A few minutes spent each day by the teacher in explaining any circumstance or event of note will go very far in adding to the general intelligence of the pupil. It will also cultivate in them a taste and desire for such information as is found in the newspapers, thus enabling the scholars by reading to increase their knowledge on such subjects."

THE NEW BUILDINGS AT THE O. A. C.—Pursuant to an invitation of the Hon. A. M. Ross to inspect the proposed plans for the buildings to replace those destroyed by fire at the Provincial Farm, a large number of members and others interested in farming attended the main committee room, Parliament Buildings, on Thursday. Among those present were the Provincial Treasurer, Mr. J. I. Hobson, Mosboro', near Guelph; Mr. Laurence, Collingwood; Mr. James Smith, ex-M.PP., McGillivray; Mr. Nichol, Cataraqui; and the following members of the House:—Messrs. Ballantyne, McKenzie, Laidlaw, Hagar, Carnegie, Graham, Sills, Hawley, Snider, McKim. The plans have been prepared by Mr. T. H. Goff, architect, after suggestions from Prof. Brown, and are designed on the idea of isolation, the central barn being reserved for the food and bedding of the stock, with all the operations incident to their preparation and distribution. The cattle and horses will be accommodated each quite separately, no feed or bedding being placed above them. Prof. Brown explained the plans to the meeting, after which an informal conversation took place. Mr. Ballantyne suggested that instead of one central system there ought to be three or four distinct farms for the purpose of illustrating the various forms of husbandry, such as dairying and stock-raising, etc. The plans were criticized from the standpoint that they are not on the lines of those of the best farmers in the country with one or two exceptions. It was clear that the idea of having little roof area, and the cattle in the lower part of the barn was predominant in the minds of most of those present. It was decided to have another meeting.

I. O. O. F. CONCERT IN BERLIN.—At the invitation of Grand Union Lodge of Berlin the members of the Fraser Degree of this city paid a visit to that town last night and gave the play of "Initiation of a Candidate," in the town hall, before a large audience. A concert of vocal and instrumental music was gone through with, which was first-class in every respect. The programme opened with a selection "Polyphonic," by the Berlin Musical Society's Band, under the leadership of Mr. Hulme, who appears to have brought the Band up to a high standard of musical excellence. Their performances were very much enjoyed and they were most heartily applauded, which is saying a great deal in its favour as Berlinites are lovers of good music and consequently superior critics. Mrs. Whitehead, of this city, and Prof. Reub Fax, of Brantford, filled the programme in vocal selections. In "Doon the Burn, Davie Love," and "Let Me Dream Again," Mrs. Whitehead captivated her audience, and both songs were most heartily encored and cheerfully responded to. Prof. Fax, in "Far, Far Away" and "Up Went the Price of Girls," was very successful, the applause being most hearty. Prof Shaw, of Berlin, accompanied the vocalists on the piano, and Mr. Jaffray, jr., conducted the programme. Both gentlemen filled their positions well. At the conclusion of the programme "The Initiation of a Candidate," was performed by the Guelph brethren, and most hearty laughter was indulged in all through the play, Berlirites generally enjoying the local hits. After the entertainment the Guelph brethren were most hospitably entertained for an hour previous to train time, the Grand Trunk officials having very kindly had a passenger car put on the 11:30 special freight, which brought the Guelph people home early this morning.

THE curlers are happy to-day. There is good ice.

THE death is announced at St. Andrews, Scotland, the other day, of Miss Mary Maxwell Campbell, the author of the popular song, "The March o' the Cameron Men."

THREE THOUSAND strikers at Llanberis, Wales, have resumed work on the employers' terms. They have been idle nineteen weeks and are in terrible distress.

THE full Christian name of each volunteer entitled to receive land scrip for serving during the Northwest campaign is required by the department, and the omission of this necessary precaution by commanding officers has been the cause of a number of volunteers not yet receiving their scrip.

ON Wednesday the neighbours of Mr. A. Campbell, Guelph Township, turned out in force, and re-roofed his barn, about seventy feet long. The roof was blown off during the night of the heavy wind storm last week.

CALLS have been extended to the following Methodis ministers:—Rev. J. Goodman, of Albion West, to remain on that circuit a third year; Rev. Dr. Aylesworth, of Mount Forest, to remain another year; Rev. James McAllister, to remain a third year at Kincardine; Rev. James Brayley, to remain a third year at Seaforth.

THE funeral of Wesley McIntyre, son of Mr. Allan McIntyre, Aberfoyle, was very largely attended yesterday, there being over 100 conveyances in the cortege. Many were present from Galt, Preston, Guelph and other neighboring places.

POLICE COURT.—P. Sullivan and Robert Armstrong, Toronto, were up on remand to-day on a charge of breaking into a sealed car between Rockwood and this city and were discharged, railway authorities not appearing to prosecute. The magistrate took the opportunity of giving them a severe lecture, and trusted that they would take warning from all appearance of evil doing in future.

THERE was a very pleasant entertainment held in the Baptist Church last night in aid of the Sabbath School funds. There was a good attendance present and a very interesting programme of music, readings, etc., was most successfully carried out. The chair was occupied by Mr. Geo. Webb, Secretary of the Y. M. C. A.

THE NEW COUNTY.—Some people in the nor hern part of the county have got an idea into their heads that the County of Wellington is too large, and are desirous of having it split up into two. Palmerston, Mount Forest and Harriston are vieing with each other as to which should be the county town of the proposed new county. Each of these places has a different theory as to how the county shall be divided, and of course each is convinced that its idea is the best. This morning a large deputation from Mount Forest went through here to Toronto to press upon the Hon. Oliver Mowat the claims of Mount Forest. In the eyes of the people in the southern portion of the county, and perhaps a majority in the northern portion, there seems to be no necessity for a new county for several years yet to come.

ONTARIO LEGISLATURE.

More Stringent Provisions Against Liquor Selling.

Toronto, Feb. 24.

After Mr. Meredith had been answered to the effect that there would be no appeal against the decision of Mr. Justice Proudfoot in the case of the petition of right fyled by Peter Alexander McArthur, as to the legal right of applicants for timber limits.

Mr. Awrey proceeded to urge the popular arguments against a continuance of the grant to the Provincial Exhibition. Though he represented a rural constituency, Mr. Awrey had no sympathy with the jealousy of Toronto displayed in some quarters. He believed that the Industrial and other kindred exhibitions were doing the work once done by the Provincial, upon which it seemed no longer desirable to expend public funds.

Mr. Drury argued that the Industrial and Central Exhibitions are mere "passing shows," the attractions of whose "circus business" will soon pall upon the public, whereupon the legitimate business of the Provincial will again draw big gate money.

Mr. Gray, of West York, said there were grave doubts of the present usefulness of the Provincial Exhibition.

Mr. Gibson (Huron) regarded such attractions as the Toronto Exhibition with disfavor. They distracted public atten ion from more serious and instructive contemplations of live stock and vegetables, and sent the people away with unimproved minds.

Messrs. Wilmot, Waters and Fraser regarded the Provincial Exhibition as the only distinctive farmers' show in the Province. The Commissioner of Public Works protested as an eastern representative against its abolition. The west had most of the public institutions, and the east valued this exhibition if the west did not. Mr. Hawley said ditto to Mr. Fraser.

Mr. Merrick agreed with Mr. Fraser in this instance, and hoped he would continue to exert his influence in that direction.

Though a farmer and a representative of the east, Mr. Dryden differed from the other wise men from that section.

Mr. Preston opined that the member for South Wentworth attacked the A. & A. because he had been an unsuccessful candidate for a place on the Board. Mr. Preston also claimed the exhibition for the east. Messrs. Hagar and Ferris said ditto.

Mr. Awrey explained that this nomination to the Board of A. and A. Association had been unsought, and that with a full knowledge of his views on this question.

Mr. Carnegie spoke as an ex-farmer and representative of the A. and A. Association, and he favored a continuance of the grant. He considered Mr. Awrey's defeat the best evidence of the unpopularity of his views in his own county. But Mr. Awrey received the unkindest cut of all from his colleague, Dr. McMahon, who said that the farmers of North Wentworth were not in favor of abolishing the Provincial Exhibition. The motion carried.

Mr. Bishop, in moving for a return concerning the affairs of Upper Canada College, said that the pupils of the college are nearly all the sons of Toronto nabobs, who would not go to school with the common herd. Some counties sent no pupils to the college, while others sent only one pupil and a half.

An hon. member—Which half? [Great laughter.]

After recess, Mr. Drury moved for a committee to consider the desirability of reducing the number of members in county councils.

Mr. Meredith moved for a return of the decisions in the High Court of Justice as to the liability of railway companies for accidents to workmen, where the company has failed to comply with the provisions of the railway accident act of 1881. Both motions carried.

Mr. Snider moved the second reading of his bill to regulate the width of wagon tires. Mr. Lees moved the three months' hoist. Mr. Drury proposed to make the law optional, each county to legislate upon the subject for itself. It was finally agreed to let the bill go to the municipal committee.

Mr. Waters moved his bill to enable private individuals to drain their lands into the existing watercourses on or under railway property. Carried and referred.

Mr. Balfour's bill to amend the Franchise Act, so as to enable the sons of landholders who may be away from home more than six months to qualify, called up Mr. Meredith, who said that artizans and other classes of voters laboured under similar disabilities. All classes ought to be included in the relief proposed. The bill was read a second time.

Mr. Ermatinger's bill to amend the Municipal Act was read a second time.

Mr. O'Connor opposed Mr. Drury's bill respecting the village of Beeton, on the strength of a decision of the courts charging irregularity and fraud in the taking of the census of the village, which ought to be a bar to its incorporation. Mr. Fraser and Meredith said that the bill should not be killed by a technicality if the people interested wished it to pass. It was read a second time.

The House rose.

TORONTO, Feb. 25.

In the Ontario Legislature the first business after routine was in the shape of a bill introduced by the Provincial Secretary to still further restrict the sale of intoxicating liquors. Mr. Hardy said it was proposed to make the penalties for breach of the statutes much more stringent. The Government had decided to make the first offence against the law punishable by a fine of not less than $50 or more than $100 at the discretion of the Magistrate; for the second offence four months' imprisonment and for the third six months' imprisonment without the option of a fine in either case. The Act given the inspectors still further powers of search for liquor, and the provisions of the gambling act are adopted with some modifications. With regard to grocery licenses, the holders will be allowed to continue the business under the same roof, the separate portions of the store being partitioned off, but no means of communication are to be allowed, even so much as a hand hole, under penalty of a fine of $20 a day during the continuance of such communication. Toronto is to have an inspector in chief with two subordinates, one for each division. The practice of Sunday selling is to be restricted, so that if any person other than a member of the household be admitted to the bar on that day, both the proprietor and the person who obtains admission will be prosecuted for a misdemeanor. The bill also provides for the same scale of fees for license as spoken of by the Provincial Treasurer in his Budget speech.

After this bill had passed its first reading the House went into committe on the bill to amend the Act respecting the Agricultural College, which, after some discussion, was reported with amendments. The House went into Committee of Supply shortly before recess, the item of $127,850 for legislation being the first under consideration. Included in this was the sum of $15,000 for sessional clerks, writers, messengers and pages, which brought the Opposition to its feet in great force. The amount is $2,500 more than was asked for last year.

Mr. Mowat defended the Administration, and the item was passed.

The items of $56,504 for the Supreme Court of Judicature, $17,675 for Surrogate Judges and local masters, and $296,153 for miscellaneous, criminal and civil justice, a total of $270,332 for the administration of justice, were passed, and the committee rose and reported.

The House adjourned at 9:35 p. m.

Two Jealous Cities.

Guelph proposes to send her brass band to the Colonial exhibition. If the members of the band are wise they will not permit themselves to be led into this scrape. London is just now in a state of excitement, and the police are on the alert, looking for riots. The chances are that the first strain of Nancy Lee, from out of the brazen throats of the Guelph band instruments would bring the police in full charge upon them, and somebody would suffer. Besides, Hamilton expects to make a big show at that exhibition, and we do not see why Guelph should send her tooters over there to drive people away from the place.—Hamilton Spectator.

Guelph proposes to send its city band to the Indian and Colonial Exhibition. This ought to ensure the success of the affair. London Advertiser

At London, on Thursday, the Associated Chambers of Commerce unanimously passed a resolution declaring that the granting of Home Rule to Ire and would prove disastrous to the trade of both Ireland and Great Britain.

The Evening Mercury

FRIDAY EVE'G FEB. 26. 1886.

The Speech From the Throne.

The first sentence put into the mouth of the Governor-General by Sir John Macdonald at the opening of the Ottawa Parliament was a flagrant insult to the intelligence of the people of this country. That they were twice deceived by the fair promises of Tory Ministers into the belief that the introduction of a specious tariff would ensure the continuance of good times was bad enough in all conscience, but to be congratulated now on the prosperity of the past year must be doubly galling to the hundreds of people in all parts of Canada who have felt the severe depression of trade, a depression which is intensified more than ever by the pernicious taxation which has been put upon nearly all the necessaries of life. The statement is simply an audacious instance of adding insult to injury.

Precautionary arrangements are promised to prevent the recurrence of another outbreak in the North-west. This refers, we suppose, to the flying column it is proposed to send out there. It is very necessary to see that such a calamity is averted again, but it would be better policy to use the expenditure which this undertaking will involve in providing the Indians with proper supplies and dispensing with Dewdney and such other sharks as prey upon the public domain and deprive the Indians of what belongs to them. With a system of this kind inaugurated local volunteer corps would probably be found all that was required to prevent a further rising and to ensure safety and confidence in the country.

The practical completion of the Canadian Pacific Railway was sure to be a subject of congratulation, but there are a good many people in this Dominion yet who question the expediency of the Government's policy in that matter. The objections have often been pointed out. There are those, we believe, who think that if for no other reason, the hasty completion of the C. P. R. s a marvel of good statesmanship, because it will call the attention of the civilized world to Canadian enterprise. This is bosh. With unlimited means at his disposal any single individual could have done the same thing. But it would have been an excellent stroke on the part of the said individual if he could have got other people to pay for the work, while after all he would own it, just as the C. P. R. Syndicate have done with our great Government.

The next paragraph in the Address refers to the "Fishery Award," and if a satisfactory result between the United States and Canada is not reached on this question, then the Dominion authorities propose to establish a system of marine police to protect our inshore fisheries. Sir John Macdonald has been an opponent of reciprocity. He had more faith in that political nostrum, the National Policy, and he has been too successful in defeating the first and more desirable system of international trade. The question of the fisheries will now cause a heavy expenditure and may involve no end of trouble.

Several measures are promised with reference to the Northwest. Among them is one providing for a more simple and economical system for the transfer of land. It is about time that a method was introduced which will enable settlers to obtain titles for their lands cheaply and easily, and which will stop the harrassing of settlers by Government agents and land sharks. We shall see if some such measure is adopted.

The enactment of laws looking to the improvement of the judiciary in the Northwest and to provide for the representation of that territory in Parliament are much needed and if they are fair and proper will receive the support of the Opposition. This is the meagre programme of important Government measures laid down at the outset, but Sir John Macdonald generally manages to bring in others in some shape or form, which might arouse suspicion if they were mentioned in the opening Speech.

The concluding paragraphs acknowledge a deficit, which is attributed to the rebellion. In this connection the Government are responsible both for the waste of money and life. But there is a deficit independent of the rebellion, which is not mentioned.

The closing sentence is striking because it hopes that the deliberations of Parliament, "may under the Divine blessing, conduce to the advancement and prosperity of Canada." When it was necessary to claim a superhuman power for the National Policy, which would cause every branch of industry to flourish, it was not customary to refer to Providence at all, but now that their pet nostrum has failed they return to the hand that feeds them and acknowledge "The Giver of every good and perfect gift."

MR. HENRY BROADHURST, the working man member of Mr. Gladstone's new Cabinet, explains why he is a Liberal in these words: "I am a Liberal because the true, full, and free application of Liberal principles is best calculated to promote the highest order of mankind. It teaches self-reliance, and gives the best opportunities to the people to promote their individual, as well as their united and best permanent interests. Liberalism does not seek to make all men equal. Nothing can do not. But its object is to remove all obstacles erected by men, which prevent all having equal opportunities. This in its turn promotes industry, and makes the realization of reasonably ambitious hopes possible to the poorest man amongst us."

Now that Pasteur has proven that by inoculation hydrophobia may be warded off, the experiments of those who look upon the microbe as the chief foe of man is being turned to other forms of disease. Dr. Holt, a prominent medical man of New Orleans, wants some scheme devised by which yellow fever may be warded off, and a bill is now before Congress providing for a commission of inquiry into the subject.

IN 1878 Sir Charles Tupper speaking at Halifax said: "The day is close at hand when they will come back—when the man who protected the workshops at Richmond while he was in the Government will be back in the Government, and restore them to the city of Halifax. So much for the workshops." In the face of this it is interesting now to read that hundreds of workingmen who have been ten and fifteen years in the public service have just been discharged by the Dominion Government from the Intercolonial Railway workshops. It shows that Sir Charles Tupper's promise in this instance was like many others he has made in his time.

Municipal Representatives Qualifications.

To the Editor of the Mercury:

SIR,—The Municipal Act requires that both the electors and the elected representatives should possess a property or assessed qualification. Now, for a ratepayer to claim the right to vote without the requisite qualification would be considered very discreditable, and, falsely to make affidavit that he possessed the qualification would be perjury, rendering the party liable to see the inside of the Kingston Penitentiary. For an Alderman to declare that he is qualified, when such is not the fact, seems to be a very trifling offence, although just as criminal, and so frequently was the law supposed to be violated in Guelph in the past, that I am informed last year's Council passed a by-law which required the City Solicitor to look into the qualification of each elected Alderman, to notify all who were not qualified, and report to the Council. And notwithstanding all the reported delinquencies of former years I am pleased to learn that no such stigma, or degrading rumor, can attach to our present representatives.

But whilst we escape, not so Toronto, our Provincial Metropolis. A question, fortunately a debatable and legal one, has there arisen as to the property qualification of the Mayor, which the courts will be called on to decide. Being fairly debatable, and the Mayor having acted on legal advice in presenting himself as a candidate for the office, in his case no criminality exists, and it is quite evident no violation of the law was contemplated. Under such circumstances it was at least ungenerous on the part of your Toronto correspondent in yesterday's sheet to say that "in court a few days ago the Mayor (of Toronto) would not take his oath that he was worth five cents." True, the writer gives the "Toronto World" as his authority for the assertion; but a man who does newspaper correspondence, and quotes his authority should be careful to know the value of it, and also keep posted as to statements and contradiction thereof. Had he done so he would have known that the "World" had in its columns an authoritative contradiction of its statements, not made on heresay, but by the lawyer who was in court at the time referred to.

This may seem a small matter to write about, but we have so few men who can command a public interest and sympathy by reason of the high moral stand they may take in public affairs, that I feel jealous of such a man's reputation as that of Mayor Howland, and trust you will thus allow me to contradict the mean insinuation contained in the World's paragraph. I trust also that his qualification may not fail him, for none can deny that he promises to be the best Mayor Toronto has had for many years, and that his moral influence will be felt in other cities and towns, including our own.

Yours,
RATEPAYER.

The Queen's Attendants.

Soon after the Queen's accession she made an attempt to control the selection of her own ladies and bedchamber-women, but she had to give way when the statesmen of the day declared that the principal attendants on the constitutional monarch must be in sympathy with the Ministry. Now that we have the great Whig ladies refusing places in the Queen's household, it may be a fit opportunity to reconsider whether this great constitution principle is to continue to hold. Manifestly the character of the Queen's Ministry is changing; is the character of the Queen's household always to change with it? The Ministry now includes a working stonemason; there are a dozen or so other workmen, besides the Parnellites, in the House, any of whom may become Ministers; and if this sort of thing is to go further, the attendants on Her Majesty that will be most in sympathy with such a Ministry may, perhaps, come to be washerwomen. Mr. Parnell has refused to enter the Queen's Government; but, perhaps, Ireland may yet be represented in it by attaching to Her Majesty's person some distinguished charwoman of the daughters of Erin.—The Week.

THE ALLANBURG TRAGEDY

ST. CATHARINES, Feb. 24.—This evening a man named John Ellis was arrested in the town of Niagara for the Aallangburg tragedy. The arrest was made by a farmer named Patrick Hennigan, who was acting under instructions from Detective Wynne, of the Niagara Falls police force. The prisoner is now in the Niagara lockup, but denies any knowledge of the affair, although many regard this as being an important arrest in connection with the tragedy.

ST. CATHARINES, Feb. 25.—Your correspondent interviewed the several parties who took an active part in the arrest of John Ellis on suspicion of his connection with the late murder at Allanburg, which elicited the following facts: The prisoner was at one time an employee of Bates, the murdered man, and was well acquainted with the old man's money matters. He was discharged from his position on the farm on account of his dissolute character, and shortly afterwards left the country. Prior to his leaving he married a Miss O'Brien, but she refused to accompany him on account of his harsh treatment of her. Ellis reappeared at his old haunts a few days prior to the murder, and afterwards approached his wife, who now lives at Niagara, and attempted to induce her to live with him again showing a large roll of paper money. Suspicion was aroused against Ellis, and he again disappeared. Detective Wynn, of Niagara Falls, and his men were looking for him, with the intention of arresting him on sight. Yesterday, J. E. Uaylor, a tree pedlar, on his way to Niagara, met the prisoner walking, and asked him to ride. On the way up Ellis' actions were so peculiar as to arouse the suspicions of Uaylor who on his arrival at Niagara went in search of an officer to secure his arrest. In the meantime, Patrick Hennegan Division Court Bailiff, nabbed Ellis and locked him up.

The combined rewards for the arrest and conviction of the murderer amount to $1,600.

John Ellis, was conveyed to Niagara Falls by Detective Wynn this morning, and had a preliminary hearing, held before Police Magistrate Hall. The Magistrate considered the evidence submitted sufficient to remand the prisoner for trial at the Spring Assizes. Bail was refused.

CHAPTER XIII.

OPEN WARFARE.

Alice's remarks filled her with amusement and dismay. Alice had to this day done her best to hide her feelings, and to make Helen forget all she had once promised and threatened. She was graceful and smiling and amiable; and she stabbed her adversary in the dark. She was trying to lower Helen in her husband's eyes. This made Mrs. Moore angry; amusement came in when she imagined Alice picturing to herself that she would succeed, repeating her little conversation with Percival in all good faith, unable to look be ow the surface and see the spirit which had prompted his replies. Helen laughed quietly as she thought of the tone in which Percival would speak, of the veiled light there would be in his eyes, of how preternaturally grave he would become as he realised the absurdity of the whole thing. She wondered he had not mentioned it to her. She hoped, as a sudden thought flashed into her mind, that he had not read Alice's purpose in her words. The colour rushed into her face as she thought of his guessing the truth. With the instinctive wish of one woman to hide the failings of another she hoped he would not read Alice's motive aright. If Alice would not keep her own secret, how was Helen to keep it for her her? What should she do? How act in such an emergency? The very nature of the difficulty forbade her to consult her husband, and to whom else could she speak?

A sudden longing filled her heart for Dr. Hazlitt, a man who had always helped her in her troubles. She could have told him of even such a difficulty as this, and his clear common sense would have suggested something to be done. She felt singularly helpless. Her only distinct feeling was that she wished Alice would go home, and that she might as well wish for the moon. Alice had come intending to stay as long as it suited her convenience, and she would not leave Brantwood until she felt inclined. What her intention was in coming Helen shrank from acknowledging even to herself, though she knew the question would have to be faced sometime, and probably before long. She could only feel glad that so far Percival did not appear to suspect anything. He as well as she was growing tired of Alice; the increasing deference of his manner was, she knew, only a cloak for the increasing weariness he felt. If Alice would only be an exception to the world at large, and not let her wishes blind her to the truth.

The rain began to fall again, and she had to go into the house, where she found Percival, who had returned sooner than she had expected him.

But it was not the first time she had to consider the question, nor was she able always to bring the same clear sight and sense to bear upon it. The longer Alice stayed, the more did Helen feel the want of sympathy between them. They had not a taste in common. Alice loved to spend whole mornings over her fancy work, talking all the time of herself and the life she had led. Helen's occupations, on the contrary, lay more in reading and writing for Percival. occupations for which silence and solitude were almost necessary; yet Alice always complained in a sweet, resigned way, and in Percival's presence, if she were left to spend an hour alone. Helen had once a private fit of laughter at the thought of the sitting-room which had been fitted up for her visitor's private use, and which she did not believe Alice had ever entered since she opened the door and stepped inside in Helen's presence on the day of her arrival. Besides, the constraint and irritation caused by Alice's constant presence was a feeling of being out of sorts, brought on by the damp, close weather. So she worried herself more than she need have done, partly from these causes, partly because there was no one to whom to speak of her difficulty. Things were growing worse. Alice seemed to be slipping into a position towards Percival which was not warranted by their relationship, and Helen suffered more than she would have believed she could suffer from the conduct of anyone else. Yet she and Percival never mentioned the matter. Helen was kept silent by an instinctive feeling of loyalty to Alice's womanhood, and Percival was silent she knew not why. She forgot that he did not, like herself, know Alice's motive in coming to the house, that he had never heard a word of those two conversations which were seldom absent from her thoughts. Sometimes she grew bitter and doubting. Perhaps after all she had been wrong in treating Alice's words, spoken two years before, as lightly as she had done. She had never stayed to ask if she had anything to go upon in her assumption that she could have won Percival's love if she had had a fair chance. She had as usual acted upon impulse in sending Percival to her father. Had she acted wisely, rightly? He was very kind and attentive to Alice. How did she know that his kindness and attentions were assumed to hide his weariness? She had his word for it, but once admit one doubt, and all the rest followed as a matter of course. But she told herself that she did not doubt; she would not so far insult her husband. She was not well, and things assumed exaggerated proportions, that was all; everything would come right if only Alice would go away. Then it was borne forcibly in upon her that not only did she wish Alice to go—she ought to go for her own sake. How to keep her secret and yet get rid of her unwelcome guest she could not tell. At last an idea occurred to her.

"I will speak to her," she thought. "She is at least straightforward. There will be no need to beat about the bush."

She arranged a plan, therefore, and determined to speak what was in her mind.

"She will probably believe it is a first step to the confession that I have failed to keep Percival's affection, but I cannot help that."

An opportunity presented itself that same evening. Percival left them after dinner to attend a meeting in the village. Helen told him to come home early if the proceedings threatened to be dull or to stretch over an inordinate space of time, and after saying "Good evening" he went out, and the two women were left alone.

A Young Woman Killed.

TORONTO, Feb. 23.—Lavinia Lakey was out selling tickets for a church concert this afternoon. She was walking between the double tracks of the Grand Trunk Railway, three miles east of the Don, when two trains approached, one from either direction. Before she had the presence of mind to get out of the way she was struck by one of the trains and instantly killed. The remains were taken to her late home at 196 Bolton avenue. Miss Lakey was 23 years of age.

Rumored Tariff Changes.

The Toronto World says:—Commercial circles were excited over rumors of impending tariff changes. Tea and coffee, it is said, will be placed on the dutiable list and a further increase is expected on tobacco and cigars. Large stocks of tea are held in this city in anticipation of the duty being put on. Wines are also reported as being likely to be increased in duty, but nothing definite will be known until the Dominion budget is brought down.

M. de Lesseps arrived at Panama on Monday, and was enthusiastically received.

THE GOLDEN

-LION-

STOCK TAKING COMPLETED.

We find we have a little lot of remnants amounting in all to the sum of $2,263.41.

These must be cleared out within two weeks to make room for New Goods arriving daily.

NOW

In the lull which usually follows Stock taking before the heaviest of the Spring work begins when we will have less time for such a review, we would like to place before our patrons and the public generally the state of our business, and explain why we claim to sell so much cheaper than others.

Our business for the past year has been eminently satisfactory, we having done the largest Cash business which has been done in the Lion for the last six years. Now this in ordinary times would be very encouraging, but in hard times like the present, we consider it most satisfactory and indicative of a reign of prosperity for the Lion much beyond what it has had in the past. Of course we have not had as much opposition, our friend, Mr. Hogg not having applied himself so closely to business as in former years, but this would not explain entirely the great increase in our trade. The reasons are many. We will state a few:

Our Goods are all fresh and new.

Our Prices are Low.

Our Goods are all marked in plain figures.

We have only one price for all.

We handle the Goods the public want, and at prices to suit them.

NO WONDER WE SELL CHEAP.

It is no wonder we sell cheap, as we are almost under no expense. Our Discounts more than pay our salaries, and as we pay no rent, the two principal items of expense are taken out.

NOW LADIES

We astonished you with the variety and cheapness of our stock last Spring, but we expect to surprise you even more this Spring. We have now a resident buyer in Glasgow, who is always on hand to secure any novelties or cheap lines that are thrown on the British Market, so that we will always be a little ahead of others, both in style and value.

Oxford Gleanings.

SUICIDE.—A young and highly respected farmer named Conway, whose people reside near Harrington, sold his farm in North Easthope and removed with his family early in October last to a farm which he purchased in the neighborhood of Mount Forest. About a month afterwards he walked to his father's home and complained to his father that he had left his family in destitute circumstances and that on his return some one had robbed him of all his money. Mr. Conway, sr., accompanied his son to Mount Forest and was impressed with the painful fact that his son was insane. About Xmas he again returned to Harrington where he remained until he put an end to his life. The morning upon which the deed was perpetrated, he assisted his father who was going to Stratford, to hitch his team. After a little time he was missed and some of the family went in search and were horrified to find the dead body suspended from a beam in the barn. The sad event has cast a gloom over the neighborhood. The friends have the sympathy of the entire community.

SPECIAL MEETINGS.—Special religious services have been in progress in the Methodist Church, Harmony, during the past four weeks. As a result the church has been quickened and a number have professed conversion.

MISSIONARY MEETINGS.—Successful Missionary meetings were held recently on the Harmony circuit (Methodist). Excellent missionary addresses were delivered by the Rev. H. E. Hill, Kintore, and Rev. D. Sharpe, Sebringville. The fund will be in advance of last year.

BRIEFS.—Mrs. J. Hunt, Fergus, and Miss Mary Church of the same place, spent a short time recently visiting friends in Harmony.

SNOW.—The roads are rapidly filling up with snow. For more than a month the sleighing has been excellent.

THE FRANCHISE ACT.

The Qualifications of Voters—The Process of Registration Explained.

The time having arrived for the preparation of the voters' lists under the new Dominion Franchise Act, an appeal is made to the Liberals of Wellington to have their names enrolled as voters without delay. To assist in so doing a short summary of the qualification of voters and of the process for securing registration s given.

QUALIFICATION.

To entitle a person to be put on the he must be—

(1) 21 years of age.

(2) A British subject by birth or naturalization.

(3) Owner of real property of value:
In a city, $300.
In a town, $200.
In a county, $150.

(4) Or tenant of real property under ease at a rental of
$2 per month.
$6 per quarter.
$12 per half year.
$20 per year.

Provided that the tenant has been in possession for one year before 1st January 1886, and shall have paid one year's rent before final revision.

If the rent is yearly it will be sufficient if $20 of last year's rent shall have been paid before final revision.

Change of tenancy without intermission will not destroy the vote if aggregate of tenancies would give vote.

In cities at $300.
In towns at $200.
In counties at $150.
In counties outside of villages the rent may be payable either in money or in money's worth.

(5) Or a bona fide occupant for one year before 1st January, 1886, and enjoying the revenues and profits for his own or his wife's use of real property of the following values:
In cities, $300.
In towns, $200.
In counties, $150.
The occupancy may be under license of occupation from the crown or from any person or corporation.

(6) Or by income without any other qualification.

A person may be registered as an income voter, if he derives an income from his earnings, trade or profession, or from some investment in Canada of $300 a year, for one year before 1st January, 1886.

In counties the earnings may be either in money or money's worth.

(7) Sons of owners of real property are qualified—

(b) When the father is dead, and would, if living, be qualified, residence with the mother will suffice, and as many sons as the property will qualify may be registered, with preference to the eldest and elder sons, as in the last case.

Occasional absence from home of a son—not more than six months in the year—will not disqualify, and all time spent at school or college in Canada will be counted as if spent at home.

Son of an owner includes grandson, step-son and son-in-law, and all these may be registered as voters on the property if of sufficient value. The provision as to sons of owners applies to the counties as well as towns and cities in cases other than those of farmers' sons.

(8) Farmers' sons—The same provisions substantially apply to farmers' sons, as stated in the last paragraph in respect of sons of owners in cities and towns.

A farm is to be not less than 20 acres of land.

(9) Fishermen and owners of real property and boats, nets, fishing gear and tackle of aggregate value of $150.

Income voters register where they reside at time of registration—all others where property is situate. If in more than one polling division in the same electoral district the voter may register in either.

All names entered in the last revised voters' lists under the old law, will be entered in the new lists by the revising barrister.

Every person not on the assessment roll desiring to have his name on the list must at once send to the revising barrister an application in writing to be put on the list, giving his name, residence and the property or other qualification in respect of which he applies to be put on.

This application must be accompanied by a declaration which is to be made and signed before a commissioner for taking affidavits, a notary or justice of the peace, showing the grounds of the applicants claim to be put on the list.

Substantially the voters are those who can qualify as owners, tenants, occupants, income voters, sons of owners and farmers' sons.

See that the application shows as correctly and fully as possible the qualification.

Make the declaration before a commissioner, notary or justice of the peace. It is convenient to have it attached to the application on the same sheet.

In case of an absent person, let some one else having a knowledge of the qualification make the application and declaration.

When one cannot find a justice or other person before whom the declaration can be taken let the application alone be sent in, with an explanation of the reason, and it would be well in such case to have the truth of the facts in the application certified on the back of it by one, or if possible, two other persons.

The application and declaration must be sent at once to the Revising Barrister of the district.

URGENCY OF THE MATTER.

No name not on the last voters' list or assessment roll will be placed on the preliminary voters' list, unless on application and declaration as above.

In case of any difficulty or doubt, application should be made at once for advice to some of the Liberal friends in the neighborhood.

Local News.

MR. A. O. BUCHAM, of Guelph, has accepted a position with Messrs Reid & Bayne, of Toronto.

A MATCH factory is starting in the village of Elmwood, and a grist mill will be erected there early in the spring.

PHILIP BROCKEL has sold his house and nine acres of land on Napoleon'd Road, near Sleeman's, to N. Bauer, butcher, for $1500.

NEIL CONNOLLY an old resident of the 1st concession, Peel, died last week at the age of 84. He was a resident of the township for about 40 years.

A FASHION paper says that women are going to wear their hair the same as they did three centuries ago. That was, if we recollect right, on their heads.

THE Rev. C. G. Snepp, formerly curate of St. Paul's Church, Mount Forest, preached his farewell sermon last Sunday. He goes to Woodstock for the present to assist Rev. O. P. Ford.

THE Mount Forest cattle fair on Wednesday was well attended. Prices ranged very low. Quite a number of horses changed hands at reasonable figures, several buyers from a distance being present.

OUR DEBENTURES.—The Galt Reporter has the following complimentary remarks anent Guelph:—The city of Guelph has completed the sale of some 20 years six per cent debentures, for which the city realized over 19 per cent premium. This is the largest figure, as far as we can recall, ever realized for six per cent debentures in Canada.

PULLING DOWN A RAILING.—The attention of the chairman of the Board of Works is called to the dilapidated condition of the railing on Northumberland street bridge. A portion of the railing and some of the boards have been pulled off and no doubt used for kindling wood. A few nails and boards, with a little labor combined, if attended to in time, may save the city from a bill of costs.

ACCIDENT.—Last evening Wm. Wisswell, bass drummer of the City Band, met with a severe accident at the skating rink, which will no doubt incapacitate him from working for a time. While skating around, accompanied by another member of the Band, he tripped and fell on the ice and in throwing his hands out to save himself had one of them badly cut by a skater skating over it, lacerating the fingers and back of the hand very badly.

VERY ILL.—The Arthur Enterprise says: Mr. Thomas Daley, who is personally known to many of our readers, is lying very ill at Mrs. McPherson's hotel in this village. The old gentleman is far advanced in years, and while returning from West Luther where he had been inspecting some wild lands for Col. Higinbotham, of Guelph, he contracted a cold which terminated in inflammation of the lungs, and although the landlady has attended him with her usual kindness in such cases, he is still very low, and doubts are entertained as to his recovery.

A BIG LOAD OF CORDWOOD.—This is what the Berlin News thinks of the veracity of the London Free Press:—The London Free Press should be careful. If it were a Grit paper like the Tizer it couldn't contain a whopper that would surprise us. But when it tells us it saw a load of wood containing three and a half cords, we must conclude that the F. P. is falling from grace or that cords up in that city are very much smaller than we get them here, and some Berlinites even grumble occasionally at the great rapidity in which a cord of word goes into smoke—which is perhaps what the F. P. story will end in.

DEATH OF AN OLD RESIDENT.—Mr. Thos. Collins, who lived for many years near Puslinch Lake, died Friday morning from old age. Deceased was born in the county of Louth, Ireland, in 1805. He came to Canada in 1835, but it was not till five years later that he settled in Puslinch, then a wild and unsettled district, especially in the vicinity of the lake. Since then he has lived there a quiet and industrious life. He was an inoffensive man, and gained the respect of all who knew him. A widow and large family survive him. There are five sons and five daughters still living. Among the sons are Mr. C. C. Collins, principal of the Separate school here; Mr. J. T. Collins, formerly of Eramosa, but now principal of the Brockville school, and Mr. Geo. Collins, formerly teacher of the Brock road school, Puslinch.

THE RUN OFF AT KINNETTLES.—The following further particulars have been gleaned concerning the train which jumped the track on Friday morning at Kinnettles, between Fergus and Elora:—The engine and twelve cars of freight ran down the embankment, and the freight cars are piled one on top of another. The damage to rolling stock and freight in transit is very great. Singular to relate the engine, although it went to the foot of the embankment, is not hurt at all nor were any of the trainmen injured. The engineer, fireman, and one brakeman went down with the engine and were found after the accident held tight with the coal from the tender. When they were released, however, it was found that they had hardly been bruised and were able to at once resume their duties. The damages are estimated at $30,000.

THE RINK.—The entertainment given at the rink by the City Band last evening was only fairly attended by spectators, owing no doubt to the coldness of the weather. The ice was in excellent condition and was well patronized by the skatorial public. The programme rendered by the Band was first-class. The polo match between the Band and a picked team was well contested, and after fifteen minutes hard play was won by the latter team by one goal to nothing. The following were the fortunate prize winners:—George Nichols, with ticket 187, taking the first prize; Miss Collett, ticket 693, second; Wm. Spragge, ticket 24, third; James Keough, ticket 694, fourth; Wm. Walker, ticket 34, fifth; Thos. Fulljames, ticket 12, sixth. The rink will be opened as a roller rink as soon as the season permits.

The Poll closes to-night—the coins to be given away on Monday. Mr. John Davidson and Mr. A. McBean will count the coins, and the party who has made the nearest guess will then have the privilege of taking the coins as they are, or receiving the firm's cheque for the amount.

FINE weather to-day, and a good market.

THE Grand Trunk authorities here have received instructions from headquarters that passengers who miss the regular trains will not in future be allowed tickets to ride on freight trains.

ON Monday evening the members of Galt Temple I. O. G. T. will pay a fraternal visit to Beaver Temple of this city. A first-class reception will be given the visitors.

EDWIN DAY, of the 7th, concession, Eramosa, seems to be acquainted with the secret of feeding cattle. Some time ago he bought four head up north, and after feeding them for ten weeks sold them the other day for exactly double what he paid.

A VERY large deputation from the counties of Peel, Grey, Wellington, and Huron waited upon Attorney-General Mowat on Friday night and asked for the formation of a new county out of the four named. Mr. Mowat, in reply, stated that nothing could be done this session.

THE elocution entertainment to be held on Tuesday evening next promises to be a success. Such names as Miss Cope, Mrs. James Clarke, Mr. and Mrs. John Crowe, besides Prof. Edwards, the distinguished elocutionist, are on the programme and it is perfectly safe to say the concert will be one of real merit.

PROVINCIAL FARM PLANS.—On Friday again the Hon. A. M. Ross, Prof. Brown, Mr. John I. Hobson, Mosboro'; Mr. Lawrence, Collingwood, and Mr. Nichol, Catraraqui, with Mr. Goff, the architect, spent a couple of hours discussing the details of the plans for the new farm buildings at Guelph. Several points were agreed on for the architect's instruction.

ROYAL TEMPLARS OF TEMPERANCE.—This Society appears to be experiencing a very decided boom since the Grand Council session was held in Guelph. Applications for membership are rapidly coming in, and no less than eight new members were received last Thursday evening, four ladies and four gentlemen. The people are beginning to see the advantages of a society that includes to its membership whole families and provides for such families in case of sickness or death, whilst at the same time doing vigorous and permanent temperance work.

RACES AT FERGUS.—On Wednesday night a five mile skating race for a purse of $50, between McCutcheon, of Guelph, and Phelan, of Fergus, took place in the Fergus rink, and was witnessed by a large crowd of sports. The race was well contested. For the first mile Phelan led but was passed on the first half of the second mile by McCutchen who kept the lead till the third mile when Phelan pushed to the front. On the first lap of the fourth mile McCutcheon again took the lead and won the race with one lap to spare. On Tuesday evening next the deciding race between these two—to settle who is the best man—will take place on the Guelph rink for $50 a side.

CONCERT IN MORRISTON.—A concert was given in Duff's Church, Morriston, on Friday evening by the Norfolk street Methodist choir, under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of the church. There was rather a small attendance on account of the inclement weather. After the concert the choir were given a supper in the school room, which was much appreciated. The solos, duets and choruses gave entire satisfaction. The chair was occupied by Mr. Galbraith, and the meeting opened with prayer by the Rev. Dr. McKay. The solos given by Miss Crowe, Mr. Savage and Mr. Thomas, were well received. The recitation "Drunkard's scene" and "The gambler's wife," by Mr. Thompson, were excellent. So also was a duet by Mrs. Savage and Miss Schofield. The entertainment altogether was a very pleasant one.

CLERK AND TREASURER FOR PARKDALE.—The many friends of Mr. A McMillan, Rockwood, in this section will be glad to learn that he has been appointed Town Clerk and Treasurer of Parkdale. Every one who knows Mr. McMillan will at once agree that it would be hard to find a better man to fill a trust of this kind, and the Council of Parkdale will not have him long in their employment before they will become aware of the wisdom of their choice. The World in referring to Mr. McMillan's election says:—"After twenty-five names had been successively moved and voted upon, A. McMillan, principal of Rockwood academy, near Guelph, was given the position by a vote of 8 to 6. Mr. McMillan's application was last received and was read for the first time last night. He is said to be a first-class man." Mr. McMillan has reason to feel proud of the appointment over so many applicants.

W. C. T. UNION.—The W. C. T. Union held the first meeting in their new rooms on Wednesday last. The rooms have been nicely carpeted and furnished, and much gratification was expressed by the ladies present at having a place of their own in which to meet, while at the same time they feel under a deep obligation to the managers of the Y. M. C. A. for kindly allowing them the use of their room for so long. A number of young ladies having expressed a desire to assist in the work of the Union, it is proposed at the meeting next Wednesday to take steps towards organizing a Y. W. C. T. U., and also to arrange for holding Gospel temperance meetings. Any ladies who feel an interest in either of these causes are cordially invited to be present.

PAISLEY STREET METHODIST CHURCH.—At the late regular quarterly conference of the above church, the proceedings were of a most pleasing character. There was a full attendance of members, and the financial returns for the past nine months were reported to be very gratifying. During the evening a most hearty and unanimous invitation was extended to the pastor, Rev. Wm. Savage, to remain the third year in charge of the congregation. There have been many additions to the congregation, and the conference could not fail to recognize that the present prosperity was due to the energy and untiring devotion of their pastor. It is understood the reverend gentleman has decided to remain another year, providing the General Conference ratifies the arrangement. The Paisley street congregation have a large number of friends in the city, who will be glad to hear of its prosperity.

MR. D. A. McIntyre is getting on nicely at the General Hospital.

REV. J. C. SMITH, B.D., and Dr. Herod are on the list to attend the General Hospital next week.

MR. JAMES Gow and Alex. Gow, of Windsor, are in the city to-day attending the funeral of Sheriff Gow.

THE ministers of the city, who have attended a number of lectures on elocution by Prof. Y. C. Edwards, express their entire satisfaction with his method of instruction. They consider his teaching specially valuable on account of its thoroughly practical nature.

ON account of those who had the management of the concert in St. Andrew's last night not sending tickets to this office, and failing to furnish a report in time, no mention is made of the proceedings in this issue. The next time such a thing occurs in connection with any entertainment under any auspices, it will not be mentioned at all.

FOR THE COLONIAL.—To-day John McConnell, carriage builder, shipped for the Colonial and Indian Exhibition a two seated ladies' phaeton. The vehicle is of new design and very stylish, and Mr. McConnell intends making a specialty of this line of goods. This style of phaeton, which is handsomely got up, highly finished, easy riding and made of the best material, seems to meet with general approval, as it carried off the first prize at the Guelph Central and exhibitions in the surrounding neighborhood last year.

MUTUAL UNDERWRITERS.—The annual meeting of the Mutual Underwriters' Association of Ontario, has been in session at the Walker House, Toronto, for two days. There were thirty delegates, representing eighteen companies, John Beattie, of Fergus, being chairman, and Henry L. Drake, of Mount Forest, Secretary. The object of the association is "to secure proper legislation, to guard the interests of the companies, and to consider and urge changes or amendments looking to the better working of mutual insurance." It was decided to recommend to the legislature the advisability of appointing fire inspectors, whose duty it will be to inquire into the origin of every fire. The question of only paying two-thirds of actual cost to as to prevent incendiarism, was brought up; also the question of securing uniformity in practice in insurance. The convention will conclude to-day.

Shooting Affray.

LONDON, Feb. 25.—Last night Bill Shrimpton and several other roughs along with a couple of women became acquainted with a farmer named Neil Munro, and induced him to drive them about the city. They drove from one tavern to another and succeeded in getting well filled with liquor. About 11 o'clock they drove east on the Hamilton road to the house of William Monks, a member of the Salvation Army. Here a couple of the roughs alighted and knocked at the door, and in reply to the demand "Whose there?" answered, "We've got some Salvation lasses here." Monks refused to open the door, and Shrimpton kicked in a panel. The old man placed the muzzle of a gun through the aperture made in the door and fired, the charge entering Shrimpton's boy. He dropped with a howl of pain. Dr. Gardner was sent for and pronounced the wound a serious one. Shrimpton was conveyed to the hospital. Monks came up before the police magistrate this morning and was bailed to appear March 4.

LONDON, Feb. 26.—Shrimpton is in a very low condition to-night, and is not expected to recover.

LITERARY NOTES FROM THE CENTURY.—General Don Carlos Buell, who commanded the Army of the Tennessee at the battle of Shiloh, has always been at variance with Generals Grant and Sherman (of the army of the Ohio) as to the relative importance of the service of his army on that desperate field. Not long after the appearance of General Grant's "Shiloh" (in The Century for February, 1885), General Buell, who was living at his country place, "Airdrie," in Muhlenburg County, Kentucky, began to prepare a reply, including an account of the battle based on the official records. That reply will appear in the forthcoming March Century, under the title "Shiloh Reviewed." General Buell assails the positions taken historically by Generals Grant and Sherman; and in rebuttal of the official map and General Sherman's revision thereof, he offers a map of his own. An interesting feature of the numerous illustrations is a fac-simile of a camp map which General Sherman handed to General Buell on the evening of the first day of the battle.

General Buell's "Shiloh Reviewed," in the March Century, will be accompanied by two lively communications in "Memoranda on the Civil War," dealing with some of the numerous controversies in regard to that contest. Colonel S. H. Lockett, who was on General Bragg's staff, describes what he saw to prove that the Union Army was taken by surprise, and also sustains the theory that General Beauregard was responsible for the incomplete victory on the first day. On the other hand, Colonel Alex. R. Chisholm, of General Beauregard's staff, maintains that the responsibility in the latter respect should be shifted to General Bragg.

Accident on the Northern.

A Train Derailed—One Person Killed and Several Injured.

TORONTO, Feb. 27.—An accident occurred on the Northern railway one mile north of Thornhill (a station 14 miles from Toronto) at 7.15 last night, by which Wallace, the newsman, lost his life, twenty persons or more sustained serious or minor injuries, three cars were wrecked, a horse killed, and other property destroyed.

The cause of the accident was peculiar. John Watson, a farmer, was driving home from Toronto. With him was Duncan Maclean. They had left Yonge street and were driving westerly toward the railway track, down which the regular evening mail train was coming at a good speed. The farmer's team shied, and ran right into the train, one horse jumping in between the tender and baggage car. The horse was killed; the two men were picked up unhurt beyond a shaking.

The rest of the horse getting in between the trucks was to throw the baggage car off the rails, and a few feet further on it was pitched to the east side, rolled over twice and broken into splinters. The trucks were more or less smashed. The baggage man and express messenger escaped with bruises.

The second car was a combined mail and smoker. It followed the baggage car, left the track and turned over twice. It was in this car that most damage was done. Wallace, the newsman, was in the smoking end. His box fell on his head; an artery in the ear was cut; the nose was cut; and when taken out he was insensible. W. H. Cooper, of this city (late of the Chicago and G. T. R., was near Wallace and was badly injured. In the mail end were Patrick Hynes, chief mail clerk; Wm. Leadley, and James O'Connor, assistant mail clerks. All of these were hurt.

Next came the first passenger car. It also left the rails and rolled over on the west side and lay on its roof, with the trucks in the air. In it were a number who were injured.

The fifth car kept to the track and ran on and joined the engine. No one in that car was hurt or shocked. Fortunately most of the passengers were in this coach. The engineer ran down to Thornhill and told what had happened, and telegraphed to Toronto for assistance.

With difficulty the injured newsman and Cooper and carried to the car where they were laid down. Dr. Nellis and Langstaff soon arrived from Thornhill and dressed their wounds, but Wallace never recovered and died shortly after 8 o'clock. The relief next went to the mail end. They got out Hynes, who was covered with bags and very badly injured. O'Connor and Leadley were also got out. But they all refused to leave until every piece of mail matter was rescued from the flames of the car, which all this time had been burning. The passengers speak in the highest terms of their conduct.

Among others injuried were George Henry, of Oshawa (shaken up badly), and E. B. Smith, commercial traveller, Hamilton (back hurt); both were removed to the Walker house. Mr. O'Neill of Barrie, and G. C. VanNorman, traveller for Cooper & Smith, escaped with slight bruises.

The train was in charge of Conductor John Wallace, the engineer being Thos. E. Black. Neither of them were hurt. Mr. Wallace felt no shock, and his first apprisal of the accident was seeing the front cars rolling over.

A staff of Northern railway men, headed by Supt. Webster, went up to the scene on a special train and afforded every assistance and relief.

The Evening Mercury

SATURDAY EVE'G FEB. 27. 1886.

It is expected that the Ontario Legislature will close about the third week in March.

It is said that Hon. John Carling will be the next Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario.

The census shows the population of Saskatchewan, Alberta, and Assiniboia to be eight, five and fifteen thousand respectively. The Northwest Territories expect to have five representatives in the Commons and two in the Senate.

The people of Canada are likely to hear a good deal about politics for some time to come. The Dominion and Ontario Parliaments are not the only ones in session at present. Those of New Brunswick and Nova Scotia assembled on Thursday.

Mr. Jackson, a prominent member of the Northwest Council, says in his Qu'Appelle speech: "If he (Lieutenant-Governor) Dewdney had followed the example set by Mr. Laird, Indian Commissioner and Lieut.-Governor during the Mackenzie Administration, he might have saved this country millions of money and hundreds of valuable lives." The contrast between Reform and Tory appointees is sufficiently well marked in this statement to render comment unnecessary.

It is announced that the payments for the rebellion, supplies, transport, forage, and pay of volunteers, will amount to over five million dollars. This is exclusive of the claims for losses during the rebellion by settlers and others. The claim of the Hudson Bay Company for losses will amount to nearly a million dollars. Then there are pensions to disabled volunteers, so that the aggregate cost to the country of the Macdonald-Macpherson-Dewdney insurrection will not fall short of ten millions. The land granted to the volunteers who served in the Northwest rebellion totals about 340,000 acres.

The London Advertiser says:—We have good authority for stating that the Hon. Wm. Macdougall will at an early day return to public life. Mr. Macdougall is an able debater, and is in thorough accord with Mr. Blake on all questions of public policy. Mr. Macdougall has, as an old colleague and as a personal and political friend of the late John S. Macdonald, a great deal of influence with the Reformers of Eastern Ontario, and we are pleased to learn that he is ready once more to enter the political arena, and to work heartily with his old political friends, from whom it was the misfortune of the country that he was ever sundered.

The Ottawa Free Press sees good reason for extending the polling hours, so as to permit working men to register their votes in their own time. At present, men in the larger cities can only go to the polls in working hours, at the will of their employers, who may cause them to lose half a day. In Ottawa, at last Dominion election, our contemporary asserts, there were Conservative employers "who deliberately retained their Liberal employees at steady work until the poll closed." If these men could have voted on their way to work in the morning they would have been entirely free from the influence of those unscrupulous men. There is at present a bill before the Legislature containing such a provision to be applied to cities.

Lord Randolph Churchill is an English politician who aspires to a great deal higher position than his abilities qualify him to fill. Without being honored by the Conservatives as their chosen leader, he esteems his own judgment too highly to submit to the leadership of any other. Hence he has taken upon himself at different times to lead his party, and the result has been a pretty muddle. Lord Randolph is one of those men who does not pretend to have any political scruples. Before the elections we found him conniving with the Parnellites, while the rest of the Conservatives winked at his intrigues. But after the House met the Parnellites found it expedient to abandon the Conservatives, and then the latter censured Churchill for his overtures with the Irish party. Now he has turned a complete sommersault, and whereas before the elections he was prepared to grant Home Rule or anything else that might ensure the return of a Tory Government, he now talks against the Parnellites and endeavors to stir up bitter animosity towards them among the Orangemen of Ireland. But however many demonstrations the loyalists may make in his honour they cannot have much faith in the man himself.

It was mentioned the other day that Mr. McCormick, biscuit manufacturer, London, had distributed $2,000 among his workmen. In reporting the occurrence the London Free Press, like the ultra Tory paper that it is, stated that Mr. McCormick attributed his ability to make this handsome presentation all to the Tilley tariff:—"That had it not been for the National Policy the probabilities were that the Company would not have been able to employ labour at all." This statement was a complete fabrication, for Mr. McCormick has since written saying that in his speech he made no allusion whatever to the National Policy. Though a Conservative, Mr. McCormick recognizes that all the N. P. did for him was to increase the cost of production, because this class of business was established before the Tilley tariff was thought of and had secured a virtual monopoly of the Canadian market.

FROM THE CAPITAL.

(Special Correspondence of the Mercury.)

Ottawa, Feb. 25, 1886.

The usual ceremonies attending the opening of Parliament have been so often described that it is not worth while now going over them in detail. Suffice it to say that there was the usual large crowd both outside and inside the Parliament building this afternoon. The opening of the House is the great event of the year to the people of Ottawa, and those who cannot procure tickets of admission to the Senate Chamber are content to gather outside and view the members as they come trooping up to the House, the sleighs as they unload the more favored citizens, who have procured tickets of admission, the military, who form the guard of honor to his Excellency, and last of all the Governor-General himself who is driven up to the door of the House in dashing style. Meanwhile the Senate Chamber is rapidly filled up, and by three o'clock it is crowded in every part, except the space reserved for the members of the Commons. On the floor of the Chamber the Senators' desks have been removed and their places are filled with long lines of chairs, the front row of which on each side is filled with Senators, and all the other rows behind with scores of ladies in full dress. On the mimic throne at one end of the Chamber sits His Excellency, while officers in their uniforms, Sir John Macdonald in his Windsor uniform, the Governor's Military Secretary, his aide-de-camp, and others stand on either side. In the open space in the centre, some distance in front of the throne, on a dais, sit the Judges of the Supreme Court, clad in their scarlet robes lined with ermine, and with long bands on similar to a clergyman's. Below them at the table are seated the Chaplain of the Senate, the Clerk and his assistants. The Commons, on being summoned to the Senate, come trooping in in their usual disorderly fashion, headed by their Sergeant at Arms and their Speaker. After the Governor has read the Speech, the Secretary receives it at his hands and after making a profound bow, he proceeds a little to the left and gives one copy of the Speech to the Speaker of the Senate; he then turns to the Governor, makes a profound bow, and walks towards the Speaker of the Commons, who stands at the bar. But midway on his journey, he turns and bows again to the Governor, then again turning he walks on till he comes near to the Commons Speaker and turning once more to the Governor he makes his third bow. Then wheeling round with a fourth one, he delivers the document to the Speaker and marches back to his place after repeating the same bowing ceremony. Such is the style of doing things at the opening of Parliament. As a bit of show, it no doubt pleases those who go to see it, but it is but a poor imitation of the ceremony of opening Parliament in Britain, and as such, a good part of it might be sensibly dispensed with.

In the House of Commons Chamber, there was much life and bustle; members moved about and greeted each other after their seven months' absence from Ottawa, and much good feeling seemed to prevail as Whig and Tory grasped each other by the hand and exchanged friendly greetings. On the return of the members from the Senate, the new Ministers, Messrs. White, Thompson and Foster, were introduced; also Dr. Barker, recently elected for St. John city; Mr. Everett, for St. John county, and Mr. Ward for East Durham. In consequence of so many changes in the Government there has been a rearrangement of Ministers' seats. Mr. McLellan takes Sir Leonard Tilley's, beside Sir John Macdonald; Mr. Foster takes seat his beside Mr. Chapleau, Mr. Thompson takes Mr. McLellan's old place beside Mr. Pope, and Mr. White takes the seat of the late Col. Williams, the old Tory whip, immediately behind Sir John Macdonald. The French discontents have not changed their seats so far, and on the surface things look just as they were last session.

For some years past it has been customary to let the debate on the Address go through in one day, but from present appearances it is not likely it will be the case this session. In fact, it is just possible that it may be prolonged for two or three more days. The Northwest troubles, the execution of Riel, the condition of our finances, the changes in the Government, the Fisheries question, the charges against the Government in reference to the timber limits and coal land grants, &c.; their extravagance, corruption and general mismanagement of affairs, are too good subjects of attack to be passed over this session by a mere cursory reference to them in one speech by the Leader of the Opposition. With respect to Riel's execution it is thought that Sir John Macdonald's tactics will be to put up one of his French supporters, who, however, has been forced by his constituents to condemn the Government in this matter, to bring up a motion, dealing only with this point. This is to be done in order to give the French members a chance to vote on the question in a way that will please their constituents while they know it will not be carried. The design also will be to embarrass the Government by proposing such a motion. It is not difficult to forecast the nature of any motion or amendment that Mr. Blake may make on this matter, when we recollect the tenor of his speech at London, which was that we are at present unable to arrive at a definite conclusion on the subject until all the papers are brought down. This I think will be the line followed in the debate, but we shall soon see. Whether or not there is one thing clear—there will be hot work soon.

This is to certify that I have used McGregor's Speedy Cure for Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint, and do honestly say that if at cost me one hundred dollars ($100.00) a bottle I would not be without it, as it has done me more good than all the medicines I ever used, and I feel like a new man.—Yours truly, Alex Steel, Carleton Place, Ont. This medicine is for sale at 50c. and $1.00 per bottle at Thos. B. Petrie's Drug Store.

Emilio Castelar is probably the most brilliant orator now living. A full-page portrait of him will form the frontispiece of the March Century, with articles by William Jackson Armstrong and Alvey A. Adee, of the State Department, Washington. The latter was a member of the American Legation in Spain at the time of Castelar's political ascendancy. The present situation in Spain makes these papers especially timely.

To the Editor of the Mercury

Dear Sir,—There will no doubt in a few days be an election to fill vacancy in the Council caused by the death of Alderman Hall. Would it not be well to get up a requisition asking Mr. Charles Raymond to consent to become a candidate? Mr. Raymond has large interests in the city, is public spirited, has fine business abilities and would no doubt be elected by acclammation if he could be persuaded to run for alderman. Yours, &c.,

Retrospective.

February 27th, 1886.

It is just one year since the opening of my new business at 27 Lower Wyndham Street was announced. The retrospectis a pleasant one. The motto was and has been "Never fear to do right." The policy of the business was to sell good, reliable goods at a fair moderate profit, to sell strictly for cash to always pay and demand one hundred cents for every dollar, to offer customers our best efforts without boring them to buy, to make it a pleasure to call at our store, to eschew all bombast and exaggeration, to keep a sharp look out for advantages to our customers, to unite their interests with our own, to strictly mind our own business, to win the confidence of all our Patrons. Under the blessings of a kind Providence, the year just closed has been a most prosperous and satisfactory one. Our name and reputation have been established, our sales were 50 per cent more than our highest anticipations, and the result of the year's business very encouraging and satisfactory. Our hearty thanks are tendered to our many patrons.

PROSPECTIVE.

The same principles, riper experience, wider facilities, stronger efforts, increased confidence in the intelligence and discrimination of the public, determination and ability to meet the keenest legitimate competition, goods that will bear inspection and comparison and steady persevering effort, will be at the command of our patrons, and we have no fear that though the most strenuous efforts, legitimate and otherwise, will in the future as they have in the past be buzzing on every hand, the business at No. 27 will not only maintain but greatly strengthen the leading position which it has taken.

CHAPTER XII.

STRIKING THE FIRST BLOW.

They were both reading. Alice turned over the pages of a new novel with a feeling that love stories were the most wearisome things in the world; and Helen was trying to concentrate her attention upon a pamphlet which Perceival had asked her to read. But she could not do it; she kept thinking of what she wanted to say to Alice, and wondering what would be the result of their conversation. So she presently laid down her book saying—

"Are you very much interested in that novel, Alice? Because if you are not I should like to talk a little."

"As much as you like. I believe all novels are dull, and this is the dullest of all. It is by a woman, you know—that "A Looker On," who writes so much now. I wish she would look on a little longer and to a little more purpose before inflicting her experiences on other people."

"I never read her books," said Helen. "She is one of the writers I most dislike. She is vulgar."

"For once we are agreed. What do you want to talk about?"

"About ourselves."

Alice turned her head rather more quickly than usual in the direction of the speaker. Helen was seated on a low chair near a table on which stood a reading lamp, the light of which was necessary to read with comfort the small print of her pamphlet; her face was therefore fully visible. Alice lay upon a couch which stood a little in the shadow; so far she had the advantage.

"Why," said Alice, after a pause, "are we such very interesting people?"

"I think we are interesting to one another just now, and there is a good deal to say."

"Is there? Really, I was not aware of it. I don't think I have any hing to say at all; so you had better begin."

"I wanted to say for one thing that I should think you must be getting tired of us. Do not stay here longer than you feel inclined."

"There is only one way of interpreting your words—namely, that you want me to go. Is not that it?"

"I think, for your own sake, it would be better if you did."

"For my sake? Why for my sake? It is very kind of you to concern yourself about me. But if it is not displaying too much curiosity, may I not know to what I am indebted for it?"

"You seem hardly able to take care of yourself, so, since you are in my house, I feel it my duty as your elder sister to take care of you."

Nothing annoyed Alice more than any assertion of authority on Helen's part, and she answered rather sharply,

"For the matter of that we are not sisters at all, as I should think you could hardly fail to remember."

"Certainly I have had many reminders all my life. However, that fact only bears out what I said before. For your own sake I think you ought to go home."

"And why for my own sake, as I asked you before?"

"You are putting yourself in a false position with Percival."

"Really, would you mind explaining a little?" Her face as she spoke assumed an expression of amusement which Helen felt to be rather unnatural.

"It is nearly two years," she said, "since I was married, but I do not suppose you have forgotten what you said the night before my wedding, nor on the day I told you of my engagement."

She looked at Alice as she spoke, but Alice's eyes did not meet hers. They were fixed upon the design on the cover of her book, which she examined very closely, raising the volume close to her face and tracing the outline with the tip of her finger with great apparent interest, and her head slightly on one side. She smiled to herself as Helen spoke, and, when she had finished, said—

"No, I had not forgotten; neither, I see, had you."

"Until you came here I had quite forgotten it, and even now I have some difficulty in believing that you can seriously cherish any such intention."

"Indeed," with another smile.

"Even had you any such idea when you came, you must see now how preposterous, it is. By this time you must be convinced of Percival's love for me, and for that very reason he could not love you. No man could love us both. You are only making yourself ridiculous."

If Helen's temper was hot, Alice's was not slow to be kindled. The blood rushed in a torrent to her face as Helen spoke, and she asked—

"In whose eyes am I making myself ridiculous?" laying scornful emphasis on the last word.

"So far, in mine only. Percival, fortunately, has no idea of what is going on."

"And in your eyes I am ridiculous," with a little laugh. "You will forgive my saying that the idea has not great terrors for me."

"Possibly not, but before long you would be worse than ridiculous, and that would be if Percival saw it."

"Indeed. May I ask what I should be then?"

"There is no need to say, because it will never come to pass. You are under a great mistake if you suppose that you will stay here until Percival sees it. Before then you will be good enough to leave us."

She rose as she spoke, and stood looking down upon Alice's prostrate figure. Her eyes flashed, and her voice quivered with indignation, but it was no louder than usual.

Alice looked up at her in astonishment.

"Upon my word, you adopt a very strange tone. So you threaten to turn me out of the house if I don't go as soon as you are tired of me. Unfortunately, the feeling is not mutual. I am not tired of you, and I do not intend to go until I am."

"Do not go too far," said Helen. Then after a pause she went on in a different tone—

"Granted that you succeed, what would you have gained? Let me hear that."

"I should have gained my turn. I should have made you feel as I did two years ago."

"You are wicked," said Helen, in the same low, passionate voice. "You can bear to give up nothing which you have once chosen to wish for. Nothing is sacred in your eyes; you have no consideration either for your own reputation or that of any one else. But do not for a moment suppose you will have your way in this matter, or that I am going to tolerate a plan to overthrow my happiness. Since you have declared your intentions I will do the same, and I shall make you leave this house, as I said before, for your own sake."

"Oh, yes," said Alice, affecting to stifle a yawn; "I know very well that you are in no danger at all. And now, do you not think we have talked about it long enough? I for one, am quite tired."

Helen made no answer. She turned and left the room. She had intended to go upstairs, but as she crossed the hall a breath of the cool wind of an autumn night blew in upon her from the open door, and she turned aside and went into the garden.

"I have failed," she thought, as she walked up and down. "I felt sure I should, but I owed it to her to try. Now, I suppose, it is open warfare. What shall I do to get her away."

Her forehead contracted in reflection. Suddenly she paused in her walk, saying—

"That is an idea, if I can only carry it out."

THE GOLDEN -LION-

STOCK TAKING COMPLETED.

We find we have a little lot of remnants amounting in all to the sum of $2,263.41.

These must be cleared out within two weeks to make room for New Goods arriving daily.

NOW

In the lull which usually follows Stock taking before the heaviest of the Spring work begins when we will have less time for such a review, we would like to place before our patrons and the public generally the state of our business, and explain why we claim to sell so much cheaper than others.

Our business for the past year has been eminently satisfactory, we having done the largest Cash business which has been done in the Lion for the last six years. Now this in ordinary times would be very encouraging, but in hard times like the present, we consider it most satisfactory and indicative of a reign of prosperity for the Lion much beyond what it has had in the past. Of course we have not had as much opposition, our friend, Mr. Hogg not having applied himself so closely to business as in former years, but this would not explain entirely the great increase in our trade. The reasons are many. We will state a few:

Our Goods are all fresh and new.

Our Prices are Low.

Our Goods are all marked in plain figures.

We have only one price for all.

We handle the Goods the public want, and at prices to suit them.

NO WONDER WE SELL CHEAP.

It is no wonder we sell cheap, as we are almost under no expense. Our Discounts more than pay our salaries, and as we pay no rent, the two principal items of expense are taken out.

NOW LADIES

We astonished you with the variety and cheapness of our stock last Spring, but we expect to surprise you even more this Spring. We have now a resident buyer in Glasgow, who is always on hand to secure any novelties or cheap lines that are thrown on the British Market, so that we will always be a little ahead of others, both in style and value.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

Adoption of the Address Without Amendment.

A LIVELY TIME IN THE SENATE.

OTTAWA, Feb. 25.

Upon the return of the Commons to the Chamber it was seen that the attendance of members was very large. Sir John and Sir Hector Langevin introduced Mr. White, the New minister of the Interior; Sir John and Mr. McLelan introduced Mr Thompson, the new Minister of Justice; Sir John and Mr. Costigan introduced Mr. Foster, the new Minister of Marine and Fisheries, and the same two introduced Mr. Everett, the new member for the city and county of St. John, N. B. Mr. Bowell and Mr. Wood, of Westmoreland, escorted Dr. Baker (successor to Sir Leonard Tilley), as member for the city of St. John, N. B., and Sir John again and Mr. Mackintosh held up Mr. Ward, who succeeds the late Col. Williams as member for East Durham. The Premier moved that the Address be taken into consideration tomorrow and the House then adjourned.

OTTAWA, Feb. 26.

Two notable speeches were made by the Leader of the Opposition and by Sir John Macdonald. Mr. Blake, it was admitted on all han s, was never seen in a happier mood. He fairly burned over with good humour, made jokes, told funny stories, recited a poem about Hans Breitmann joining the turners a la Baker and Farron, and surprised the members and the occupants of the galleries by his new mode of oratory.

Mr. Charles A. Everett, the new member for the city and county of St. John, N.B., moved the adoption of the Address. He referred to the fact that there was at the present time a great commercial depression throughout the world. This depression exten ed alike to free trade England and the protected United States. Canada had also been seriously affected. The trouble which encircled manufacturers in this country was owing almost entirely to the fact that many persons had rushed into business without sufficient capital or a knowledge of the business in which they had engaged. This utterance drew forth sarcastic laughter from the Liberal members. Mr. Everett replying to the interruptions asserted that he knew from personal experience in winding up estates that his statement was correct. He said there was no doubt whatever, and taking a view of the country at large the people had been fairly well employed at good wages. To prove this to be true he pointed to the fact that there was $2,000,000 more money in Government banks than a year ago. He believed that the business of the country was reviving. Mr. Everett congratulated the country on the completion of the C. P. R. five years before the stipulated time, and closed by hoping that the Government would protect our fishery interests, which were of the utmost importance to the people down by the sea.

Mr. H. A. Ward (East Durham) seconded the Address in a half hour speech. Mr. Ward went over pretty much the same ground as the mover. Before closing he paid a warm tribute to the memory of the late Col. Williams, whose constituency he represented.

Mr. Blake began to speak at 4:20, and kept the floor, with the exception of two hours at recess, until 8:30. He expressed regret at the lateness of the date at which the House had been called together, and said the pledge of a January session had been repeatedly broken. Mr. Blake had to do considerable groping in the dark on the first two subjects he spoke of—the fisheries dispute and the Northwest rebellion—on account of the absence of public papers and documents concerning them. The first part of the speech which had been put into the mouth of His Excellency said the country was in a prosperous condition. This was not the case. Instead of prosperity, a severe and continued depression had settled over the country. He referred to the large losses in working the Intercolonial railway, and looked with alarm upon the large expenditures that we were annually making on capital account. Mr. Blake congratulated the Government upon its proposal to give the Northwest Territories representation in Parliament and the establishment of a judiciary within its borders. He was in favor of pushing a militia organization of the citizens of the Territories, so that in case of trouble they would not be dependent upon the eastern soldiers for protection. He would not at present enter into the question of responsibility for the outbreak in the Northwest, but the Government had been repeatedly warned of the impending trouble. Mr. Blake then entered into a satirical analysis of the reconstructed Cabinet. He congratulated the member for London upon his promotion to the Agricultural Department. The honorable gentleman had been a farmer once, but he had sold half his farm in a roundabout way to the Militia Department, and now he was negotiating to sell the other half to the C. P. R. He could not see how he could be a successful Minister of Agriculture without a farm. These remarks made Mr. Carling blush up to the ears. Mr. Blake next proceeded to pay his respects to the shuffle in the Railways and Marine Departments, after which he congratulated the House upon having the Minister of Justice once more among them. What amused him was that the Government had to go outside the House to find a bright light to fill the position. The new Minister of Justice as the French said entered politics by the great gate. The speaker referred to the manner in which he had been hounded in the press and in Parliament for three years for recomending that Mr. Mowat forsake the Bench to become Attorney-General of Ontario. He had been charged with degrading the Bench and with smurching its spotless ermine by the very men who now bribed a member of the House (Mr. McIsaacs) to vacate his seat to make room for the new Minister of Justice. As a Judge fresh from the Bench Mr. Thompson winced at these remarks. Mr. Blake asked what had become of Mr. John O'Donohoe. He understood that that gentlemen had been taken into the Cabinet, but he had never seen the appointment gazetted. He supposed that Mr. O'Donohoe was neither in nor out of the Cabinet. Mr. Blake then paid particular attention in a very sarcastic manner to Sir John's speeches at the St. George's club dinner during his late visit to London. He laughed at the Premier's audations of Jingoism at the feast and at his boast that in the event of England's going to war with a foreign nation the Canadian's would give up every drop of their blood and every shilling they owned to save the mother country. Mr. Blake read column after column from old newspapers and raked up all the old feuds and dissensions with his followers that Sir John had ever been engaged in. When Mr. Blake sat down he was heartily applauded by his friends.

Sir John Macdonald amid cheers began his reply to the Leader of the Opposition. He said the hon. gentleman ha , during his remarks, done everything in his power to set man against man, neighbor against neighbor, friend against friend. His speech was full of unchristian like sentiments and he had attempted to rake up all the old feuds of bygone days. The hon. gentleman had returned from his recent trip to England with good health but a bad temper. Sir John explained at some length the progress that his Government had made in an attempt to settle the fisheries question. It was to see whether the American Congress would take any action on the proposal to appoint a joint commission that the meeting of the present Parliament was delayed so late in the year. The Canadian Government, as soon as the late treaty had been abrogated by the United States, had one everything in its power to have it renewed. They were not going to degrade themselves any further as a free people in going down on their knees to the Government of the United States to enter into a treaty. When Mr. Blaine was Secretary of State he spurned every overture made by the Canadian Government. Mr. Blaine had pinned his faith on securing the Presidency on his anti-British policy. When the new administration came into power the Government went to them in the most neighborly manner and asked for the appointmint of a joint commission, President Cleveland and Secretary of State Bayard received the proposal in the most friendly spirit and recommended to both Houses of Congress the appointment of such a commission, not only to enquire into the fisheries question, but the more broad question of the development of international trade. No one regretted more than Mr. Cleveland himself that these recommenda ions met the fate they had. The Senate Committee on Foreign Relations, however, had yet to make a report. Sir John said he had still some hope that the Morrison Bill would become law. Referring to Mr. O'Donohoe entering the Cabinet, Sir John said it was decided that that gentleman should be taken into Government, but when it was found that such an appointment would weaken the Administration Mr. O'Donohoe admitted the fact and stepped aside and was content to enter the Senate.

Sir Richard Cartwright loomed up as the next orator. Speaking of the descent of Mr. Mowat from the Ben h to enter politics, he remarke i that there was no comparison between that act and that of Judge Thompson. Mr. Mowat entered a Legislature that had no say in appointment of judiciary, while Mr. Thompson would have control over his former brethren and could appoint himself to the highest judicial position in the land if certain circumstances warranted it. The Minister of Justice had only succeeded in securing a seat in the House by bribing a member to vacate his constituency for a County Judgeship. Sir Richard characterized this deal as the worst act of corruption ever committed by any government. He concluded with these words, "The corruption that now exists in this country is a disgrace to civilization and has never been equalled in English history since the time of Walpole. If it is not speedily checked the dream of a permanent confe eration will never be realized, but on the contrary a speedy dissolution can be looked for."

Hon. Thos. White, Mr. Davies (Kings, P. E. I.) and Peter Mitchell concluded the debate.

The resolution adopting the Address was passed without amendment. The Address was then referred to a select committee, who reported it back and it was ordered to be engrossed and forwarded to the Governor-General.

Sir Hector Langevin laid on the table the report of the public works department and the house adjourned at 10:45 p.m.

THE SENATE.

OTTAWA, Feb. 26.

In the Senate the Address was moved and seconded by the Hon. Mr. Bolduc and Hon. Mr. Clemow.

Mr. Clemow had not taken his seat before Senator Alexander sprang to his feet and before the astonished House recovered itself said that he had purposely risen before the leader of the Senate Opposition (Hon. R. W. Scott) because that gentleman had shown himself unworthy of his position during the last five sessions. The increase in taxation, the Northwest rebellion which he attribu ed to the wanton neglect of the Department of the Interior, the C. P. R. expenditure, the attempt of Sir John to break up confederation, all added fuel to the fire and finally he exploded in a perfect torrent of fury over the Exchange Bank. "We see," continued Senator Alexander, "every day men wearing the mantle of religion, even holding the position of President of Bible Societies and other kindred institutions, guilty of the worst criminal acts, who had ruined the families of widows and orphans without feeling or heart."

The Senator from Woodstock later on used language much stronger than this when Senator Ogilvie, who was a director of the Exchange Bank, springing excitedly to his fest raised a question of order. He said "I don't know whether the hon. gentleman's language is parliamentary or not, but every word of it is as false as hell. The directors of the bank are as honest as any of the gentlemen in this House. We are all nearly ruined by the bank's collapse."

To this Senator Alexander replied that his remarks did not apply to the Exchange Bank. He sympathized with Senator Ogilvie in his losses, but the irate Montreal Senator shouted back, white with rage, "I don't require any of your sympathy."

Senator Scott, who in previous years had denounced the contract with the C. P. R., now congratulated the House and the counntry upon the completion and successful working of the great highway. He prophesied for the railway a prosperous future.

The debate in the Senate was adjourned until Monday.

The extent of the distress among the workingmen of London may be judged from the fact that 30,000 unemployed been registered at the Mansion House as applicants for relief, and they are only a portion o, those out of work. The Lord Mayor recently stated that the daily applications for work at the docks was 20,000, half of which could not be supplied. Last year the great labor organizations paid out $200,000 to the skilled workmen alone who were out of employment.

POLICE COURT.—David King was before P. M. Saunders this morning charged with selling beef on the outside market in a quantity less than a quarter. Decision reserved until to-morrow. Daniel O'Connor, sometime a hotel-keeper in New Hamburg, was again up on a charge of insanity. He was remanded for medical examination.

PRESENTATION.—At the close of the Sabbath School at the Berlin street Mission in connection with the Baptist Church, Mr. James E. Buchan, who has for some time been Superintendent of the school, who leaves this week for Toronto, was presented with a copy of "Josephus" and a new album. Accompanying the presentation was a suitable address expressive of the esteem in which he is held by teachers and workers there.

PURLOINING GOODS.—Owing to the serious losses sustained of late from "kleptomaniacs" purloining goods while making a pretense of purchasing, all the clerks in the leading dry goods stores in St. Thomas have been instructed by their employers to keep a strict watch on customers, and have adopted a pass word and the result is that several cases of peculating have been detected in a certain dry goods store in that city during the last few days. Several plans might be inaugurated by the store-keepers here to great advantage.

STERN NECESSITY.—The St. Thomas Times says that the necessity of employment in that city has induced many deserving families to set their sons and daughters in a way of assisting to replenish the larder by making a few cents per day peddling from house to house every conceivable article—lamp glasses, scissors, lead pencils, oranges and lemons. Every hour in the day the housewife is called to the door to be confronted by a pleading boy with a basket of lamp chimneys, or a fagged-looking and despondent girl with two or three pairs of scissors." Times are dull enough in Guelph, but they have not come to this pitch yet.

NINETEEN HUNDRED MILES UNDER CANVAS.—Says the Port Hope Guide: Last Tuesday a man and his wife with four children arrived at the Turner House in a canvas covered, combined sleigh and waggon, six feet by ten, drawn by a pair of large strong horses. The small domicile was fitted up as comfortably as possible and had the warming influences of a coal stove. They had started from Wolfe Island, opposite Kingston, and were on their way to Southern Kansas, where the man has a farm on which he has been living for some years and from which he returned home to Canada last fall for his wife and family. The adventurous travellers proceeded on their journey and expect to reach their new home in time to put in their spring crops.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT AT AYTON.—The Hanover Post tells of a serious accident which took place recently at Ayton, about ten miles south of Hanover. It says:—"A lottery was in progress for the benefit of the Roman Catholic Church. The drawing was held in the township hall, where several hundred people had congregated, all anxious to know the luck of their number, and when in the midst of the entertainment a portion of the floor gave way, precipitating a number to the floor below, a distance of twelve feet, immediately following which intense excitement prevailed. Those who were at the other end of the hall made their way hastily downstairs to rescue from the bruised and mangled mass, sufferers who were piled one upon the other in one end of the building. No time was lost in securing the rescue of those most in danger, and as they were brought out presented a ghastly appearance, many of whom were bleeding profusely, being badly cut about the face by being trampled upon. We understand action is to be taken against the township, as it was a well known fact for years past that the hall was unsafe, and had been condemned. Such being the case the township should have seen to it that life was not endangered by allowing it be used." A few from Guelph were present, but fortunately escaped uninjured.

FUNERAL OF SHERIFF GOW.—The funeral of the late Sheriff Gow was held on Saturday afternoon at half-past two o'clock, and was largely attended. Dr. Wardrope, pastor of Chalmers' Church, of which the deceased was a member and constant attendant while health permitted, read a portion of Scripture and delivered a short, earnest and appropriate address, the Rev. Dr. Torrance offering an appropriate and consoling prayer. Dr. Torrance also offered a prayer at the grave. The pall-bearers were County Crown Attorney Peterson, Postmaster Stirton, D. Guthrie, Q.C., ex-M. P.; G. M. Williams, ex-M. P., Registrar of Hamilton; Evan MacDonald and Robert Forbes. There were a number of the friends of the deceased from a distance among whom were James Laidlaw, M. P. P.; Robert McKim, M. P. P.; James Gow, Windsor; Alex. Gow, Windsor; John Jacob, Elora; Geo. Gow, Fergus, and leading men in the immediate vicinity. The funeral procession, as it proceeded along the Dundas road, Gordon street, Market square, Wyndham street and Elora road to the cemetery, was witnessed by a large number of people along this route.

Twa Hours at Hame.

On Friday evening last a very successful entertainment took place in the school room of St. Andrew's Church. It was altogether Scotch in its character. There was a large and appreciative audience present. The tea was served from 6 to 8 p. m., and brought back to many, pleasant recollections of Old Scotland and their childhood days. During the serving of the tea Mrs. Hill presided at the piano and rendered several familiar Scotch airs in her usual good style. She also played the accompaniments during the evening. The programme was then proceeded with. Dr. McPhatter discharged the office of chairman efficiently and well. The song "O, why left I my hame" was beautifully rendered by Miss Purvis in her rich alto voice. Mrs. David McCrea's singing was very much admired for its sweetness and tone. The singing of Mrs. Whitehead visibly affected the audience, as a number were moved to tears during her singing of the "Land o' the Leal." "Annie Laurie" another of her pieces—well you should have been there to hear it. The quartette "Ye banks and braes" by Mrs. Whitehead, Miss Purvis, and Messrs. Brydon and Goar was heartily received by the audience. Mr. Goar's solo, also that by Mr. Brydon, were deservedly appreciated. Col. Higinbotham read a very satisfactory report of the committee. The instrumental solo by Miss McLaren showed great delicacy of touch and conception. Scotch readings were given by Messrs. Davidson, Higinbotham and McDonald. The piece of the evening was the duet, "Hunting Tower," by Mrs. Whitehead and Mr. Brydon. The writer thinks it cannot be given better. It was magnificent. Every one expressed regret at the unavoidable absence of Mrs. Moore. "Auld Lang Syne" brought to a close one of the best entertainments ever held in the school room. Great praise is due to the Misses Webster and Davidson, who made all the arrangements for the affair. These ladies worked with a will and they certainly have to be congratulated on the successful results.

Mr. Lees moved a resolution to the effect that the Government should take some action for the abolition of toll gates, The mover presented the obvious arguments in favor of such a policy.

The Attorney General pointed out that the mover of the resolution had suggested no way to carry out his idea. The province would not consent to purchase all the toll roads, and the Government were not prepared to compel the municipalities to assume the burden.

The Leader of the Opposition's motion to refer the matter to the municipal committee was ruled out and Mr. Fraser's motion for the six months hoist was carried. Mr. French moved to amend section 26 of the consolidated Municipal Act of 1883 affecting the reunion of towns with counties from which they may have been separated. The Evening Mercury

MONDAY EVE'G MARCH 1, 1886.

THE East Huron Reformers will hold a convention at Brussels on Saturday, March 13th, for the purpose of selecting a candidate for the Commons.

MR. Norquay, the Tory Premier of Manitoba, feels it in his bones that his Government is not popular. On a recent occasion he was presented with an address, and in replying he said it was like finding an oasis in a desert to have the actions and the efforts of the Government appreciated, especially at the present time, when the country was rife with the denunciations made against the Government, etc.

THE Stratford Beacon hits Mr. Thos. Cowan, of Galt, very hard. It says: The Tories are trotting out Mr. Tom Cown, of Galt, to their meetings, as an oratorical star of the first magnitude. Tom was a "howling Grit" a few years ago. He discovered that the N. P. took money out of the pockets of the public and put it into his, and he deserted to the Tory camp. Tom is now in congenial company, among the Tory land grabbers and timber-stealers. Let him stay there.

THE Reformers of Maryboro', Peel and Drayton met at the latter place on the 19th ult. and formed a Liberal Association for the three municipalities. Mr. John Powley was elected President; Messrs. Thomas Harcourt and John Brandon, Vice Presidents; Mr. W. H. Gordon, Secretary, and Mr. S. W. Fawcett, Assistant Secretary. A public meeting was held in the evening, which was addressed by Mr. McKim, M. P. P. for the Riding, and Mr. Preston, Secretary of the Provincial Reform Association. There was a large and enthusiastic meeting of the electors.

THE Montreal Witness says:—Two admirable propositions are now made with regard to the Provinuial College of Ontario. One is to attach to the school an advisory board of farmers, who may before long become its managers, and the other is to give a free scholarship to every county council. It would be hard to devise simpler methods for bringing the farmers of the Province into sympathy with the intention, especially if some competitive means be devised by which to make the county appointments. With a wider constituency any deficit in the moral management will be more publicly known and more sharply looked into.

THE farmers of Ontario should be opposed to the proposed expenditure by the Government at Ottawa for the establishment of an Agricultural College for the Dominion. They have paid through their Provincial Legislature for the College and Farm at Guelph, and it secures to them all the advantages they might have received from a Dominion institution of the same kind had the Ontario one not been started. All a similar institution established by the Dominion authorities can do will be to injure the one already established and doing good work, which is peculiarly their own. The farmers of Ontario have all they require in this respect, and it is not fair that they should be compelled to contribute to another, inaugurated for the benefit of the other Provinces. Ontario has borne her own responsibilities in this matter. Let the other Provinces do the same if they want agricultural colleges.

MR. GLADSTONE is the only man—excluding the late Lord Derby—who has thrice been Prime Minister of Great Britain during the last century. He cannot hope to head the list for length of service, and it is extremely unlikely that he will even come second; but with a new term of office just commencing he may, if lucky, add considerably to his present total. Counting the whole of his Governments, Pitt guided the destinies of the country for 18 years and 256 days, while Lord Melbourne follows with fourteen years and 319 days. Then comes Mr. Gladstone, with his unfinished record of 10 years 131 days. Next on the list is Lord Palmerston with a service of 9 years 136 days, and succeeding him in the order named are Mr. Disraeli, Lord Melbourne and Lord John Russell, with something over six years each. Sir Robert Peel was Premier 5 years 51 days, and Lord Derby 3 years 280 days. Taken together, these nine statesmen have directed the affairs of the nation for nearly 83 years out of 100. For the remaining eighteen years of the century there were ten Premiers. Of these Henry Addington and Earl Grey held the reins of power for a little over three years each, while a year less was the limit for the Duke of Portland, Spencer Percival, the Duke of Wellington, and the Earl of Aberdeen. The Ministries of Canning and Viscount Goderich, like that of Lord Salisbury, came to grief after a trial of only a few months.

THE Week:—Most of us have learned pretty well to acquiesce in the fact that the Dominion Government is a government of corruption. Men, places, provinces, interests, churches, organizations of every kind, are brought in different ways, some more coarsely, some more subtly, in order to form the basis of a system which is administered, after its kind, with great ability, and is closely bound up with the personal ambition of its veteran chief. Corruption is not wholesome; it does not become more wholesome as it becomes more inveterate; to say nothing of the debt which it is rolling up, it must deprave the political character of the people, as, in fact, it is visibly doing, and in the end prove fatal to the spirit, if not to the form, of representative institution.

Halfbreeds and the Government.

WINNIPEG, Feb. 27.—The Halfbreeds held a public meeting to day at St. Lawrence, the head quarters of the late rebellion. Leading men from all the French parishes were present. Resolutions were adopted thanking the Government in warm terms for the humane manner in which the Halfbreeds had been treated since last spring. It was decided that the Half breeds should ask the Government for a free grant of their lands, basing the claim on being the original possessors. They will also ask that an industrial school for Halfbreed children be established in the district; that amnesty be extended to Halfbreeds in prison across the border; that naturalization be made more accessible and that electoral districts be erected in French settlements. The name of Riel was not mentioned.

Retrospective.

FEBRUARY 27th, 1886.

It is just one year since the opening of my new business at 27 Lower Wyndham Street was announced. The retrospect is a pleasant one. The motto was and has been "Never fear to do right." The policy of the business was to sell good, reliable goods at a fair moderate profit, to sell strictly for cash to always pay and demand one hundred cents for every dollar, to offer customers our best efforts without boring them to buy, to make it a pleasure to call at our store, to eschew all bombast and exaggeration, to keep a sharp look out for advantages to our customers, to unite their interests with our own, to strictly mind our own business, to win the confidence of all our Patrons. Under the blessings of a kind Providence, the year just closed has been a most prosperous and satisfactory one. Our name and reputation have been established, our sales were 50 per cent more than our highest anticipations, and the result of the year's business very encouraging and satisfactory. Our hearty thanks are tendered to our many patrons.

PROSPECTIVE.

The same principles, riper experience, wider facilities, stronger efforts, increased confidence in the intelligence and discrimination of the public, determination and ability to meet the keenest legitimate competition, goods that will bear inspection and comparison and steady persevering effort, will be at the command of our patrons, and we have no fear that though the most strenuous efforts, legitimate and otherwise, will in the future as they have in the past be buzzing on every hand, the business at No. 27 will not only maintain but greatly strengthen the leading position which it has taken.

CHAPTER XIV.

AN INTERRUPTED JOURNEY.

Perfect silence reigned over Brantwood. Alice was in bed with a slight sore throat, Percival was away—he had gone the day before to attend a horse fair in another county—and Helen was in Percival's study writing letters. That was what she had told Alice she was going to do when she went up to her room after breakfast to inquire after her and beg her not to get up an instan before she felt inclined. In reality she had one letter to write, but it seemed very difficult to compose; for half a-dozen sheets of paper with as many beginnings lay around her, and the seventh over which she was now bending bore as yet no more than the words,

"Dear Percival."

At last she seemed to find an idea, for she dipped her pen into the ink, and began to write, and this is what followed the first words:

"I do not know whether you are as tired of Alice as I am; you don't say much, but I think I can read your face. She appears to have established herself here for a season, and I have been racking my brains for a polite way of getting rid of her. I think I have found one at last. I will go away myself and stay for a week or two. When I am no longer here she must go home, and I do not think she will return when I come back. I shall go to London—business connected with Dr. Hazlitt's money will serve for an excuse to those who make inquiries—and will either write or telegraph my address. I shall expect you to follow me as soon as you can. I do not think I am acting without reflection; you know I spend the whole day with Alice—you seldom see her except in the evening—and I confess I can endure it no longer. I gave her broad hints a day or two ago, but she did not take them. You will not mind doing without me for a day or two.—HELEN."

She read it over with tolerable satisfaction, thinking,

"I do not think that will tell him anything I do not want him to know, and he will never guess what these 'broad hints' were. I think it will do.

She folded the letter, put it into an envelope and addresse it to her husband, after which she went upstairs again to Alice's room.

"Are you any better?" she asked coming forward.

"Yes, it has almost gone off now. I think I shall get up soon.'

"I came to tell you," said Helen compose ly, "that I am going to London today. I shall take an early train this afternoon."

"Is not that a rather sudden resolution?" asked Alace, after a pause.

"I thought of it this morning."

"And are you going in that way without rhyme or reason?"

"The reason is, business about some money for those who are curious enough to ask for one."

"You don't think it necessary to supply one for my benefit."

"If you can assure me sincerely that you don't know why I am going, I can give you a reason also."

"No; you are right; I do not want a reason." Then after a short pause she went on, "Since we are so sincere, I may as well tell you that I did not think you would act so promptly or so successfully. For the present you have gained your end, but I think for the present only."

"There is no need to discuss that question; it can wai ."

"What will Percival do?"

"I expect he will join me in a day or two."

"How will he like your going away like this without consulting him?"

"He does not require me to ask his permission for everything I do, as if I were a child."

"Well, you had better send word to them at home that I am going back today."

"Do not hurry away," said Helen, carelessly, moving towards the door as she spoke. "You have the whole day before you, though with that sore throat I should not advise you to be late. Of course you will have any carriage you like to take you home."

She went away, leaving Alice very angry, and going to her own room rang the bell.

"I have to go to London on business, Mason," she said, when the maid came in. "I shall want you to pack a box for me. I will tell you what I want putting in."

"Shall you want only one box, ma'am?"

"That is all. I sha l only be away for a few days, and shall not want many things."

"I suppose you will want me, ma'am?"

"No, I think not; for a few days I can manage alone."

"Very good, ma'am," replied Mason, who saw nothing strange in this; she had never served a mistress so independent of her help as Mrs. Moore."

Meanwhile she got out her mistress's dresses that a selection might be made.

"You need not put in that one, Mason," as the woman took down a black lace dinner dress. "I do not think I shall want any evening dresses."

Mason demurred, and Helen at last apparently persuaded to the contrary, allowed the dress to be put in.

The packing took some time. Helen prolonged it as much as possible in order to fill up the time. Mason interrupted her occupation with various remarks and questions, to which her mistress replied.

"I suppose Miss Lafone will be going home to day, ma'am, since you are going away?"

"Yes, she will choose her own time, of course. See that she is properly wrapped up, Mason. I do not want her to make her throat worse."

"Certainly, ma'am," replied Mason, to whom these words were very far from conveying the true state of the case.

The afternoon came, and with it he time for Helen to go. She had given all her directions; the butler ha been instructed to tell Mr. Moore as soon as he came home that there was a note for him in his study, she had said good-bye to Alice, and at last had driven off with her single trunk and her traveling bag to catch the 2.50 train. She reached the station in plenty of time, the footman took her ticket, put her baggage into the van, and saw the train start before returning to the carriage.

This is to certify that I have used McGregor's Speedy Cure for Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint, and do honestly say that if it cost me one hundred dollars ($100.00) a bottle I would not be without it, as it has done me more good than all the medicines I ever used, and I feel like a new man.—Yours truly, Alex Steel, Carleton Place, Ont. This medicine is for sale at 50c. and $1.00 per bottle at Thos. S. Petrie's Drug Store.

THE GOLDEN

-LION-

STOCK TAKING COMPLETED.

We find we have a little lot of remnants amounting in all to the sum of $2,263.41.

These must be cleared out within two weeks to make room for New Goods arriving daily.

NOW

In the lull which usually follows Stock taking before the heaviest of the Spring work begins when we will have less time for such a review, we would like to place before our patrons and the public generally the state of our business, and explain why we claim to sell so much cheaper than others.

Our business for the past year has been eminently satisfactory, we having done the largest Cash business which has been done in the Lion for the last six years. Now this in ordinary times would be very encouraging, but in hard times like the present, we consider it most satisfactory and indicative of a reign of prosperity for the Lion position, our friend, Mr. Hogg not having applied himself so closely to business as in former years, but this would not explain entirely the great increase in our trade. The reasons are many. We will state a few:

Our Goods are all fresh and new.

Our Prices are Low.

Our Goods are all marked in plain figures.

We have only one price for all.

We handle the Goods the public want, and at prices to suit them.

NO WONDER WE SELL CHEAP.

It is no wonder we sell cheap, as we are almost under no expense. Our Discounts more than pay our salaries, and as we pay no rent, the two principal items of expense are taken out.

NOW LADIES

We astonished you with the variety and cheapness of our stock last Spring, but we expect to surprise you even more this Spring. We have now a resident buyer in Glasgow, who is always on hand to secure any novelties or cheap lines that are thrown on the British Market, so that we will always be a little ahead of others, both in style and value.

THE QUEEN'S SECLUSION.

Making the People Impatient.

CONFLICTING MANIFESTATIONS.

LONDON, Feb. 28.—The Queen is rapidly becoming a common topic of discussion here. An extraordinary editorial in the Standard yesterday has made a sensation. It said: "It is time to say publicly what everybody has been saying privately for many years—that the Queen and country over which she rules have been too long separated; that separation cannot be continued, much longer without serious and lasting injury both to the throne and the community. There is no room in the English constitution for a sovereign who lives in almost complete seclusion." The Standard is the organ of all that is most conservative and loyal. The evening papers follow suit.

In Parliament great feeling has been displayed about the hissing of the toast to the Queen on Wednesday. The reason for this is the perfectly well known one—that the working classes throughout the country consider that the Queen has treated Mr. Gladstone on several occasions recently with a distinct personal slight. It is this they resent.

This is not the only evidence that the Queen is growing unpopular. A similar demonstration occurred at the Liberal dinner at Belper. The company refused to permit the National Anthem to be included in the musical programme, owing no doubt, to resentment for the Queen's treatment of Mr. Gladstone. When the Queen was on her way to Albert hall on Friday hisses were heard from the crowd at several points along the route.

It is reported that the Prince of Wales, Lord Salisbury and others, in whom she reposes confidence, have advised the Queen to abandon her seclusion, and as far as possible to again mingle in official and social affairs. It is thought probable that the Queen will assent to this appeal.

Queen Victoria, Princess Beatrice and Prince Henry of Battenberg, witnessed a performance of Gounod's oratorio, "Mors et Vita," at the Albert hall yesterday. The hall was crowded, and there were thousands of people outside who lustily cheered the Royal party. When the Queen entered the hall the audience, numbering 7,000, rose and stood during the playing of the National Anthem. After the playing of the Anthem, he Duke of Ormbridge presented the Queen with a splendid bouquet. The audience cheered heartily. Her Majesty appeared to be in capital health and spirits.

Unnecessary Advice.

RANGOON, Feb. 27.—Lord Dufferin, Governor-General of India, received a number of Chinese merchants. In addressing them he recalled the cordial welcome he received from Chinese residents when he visited British Columbia. He said although the United States restricted Chinese immigration the Chinese were free to enter Canade. They were thrifty, industrious citizens who increased the wealth and welfare of the people among whom they dwell. He hoped large numbers of Chinese would settle in Burmah.

Died From His Injuries.

LONDON, Ont., Feb. 28.—Wm. Shrimton, who was shot by the Salvationist Monks while breaking into the house of the latter at London, died yesterday afternoon at the hospital.

Fire at Orillia.

ORILLIA, Ont., Feb. 28.—At an early hour this morning a fire broke out in Kennedy's block, in the store occupied by Messrs. Warner & Co. Considerable damage was done to the building and the music hall, which is over the store and at present used as a roller skating rink. Warner & Co's stock was complete y destroyed. Loss on building fully covered by insurance.

A Body Found.

MORRISBURG, Ont., Feb. 27.—The body of a man aged 23 named Jacob Henophy, was found this morning frozen stiff lying on the road about eight miles from here. From the appearance of the clothing foul play is suspected. He left home in company with another young man. When found his hat and overcoat were missing. An inquest is being held.

Daring Highway Robbery.

NEW HAMBURG, Ont., Feb. 28.—Thomas Shannon, a young farmer, was the victim of a daring highway robbery last night while driving home near Zurbucken's corners, a mile from here. He was approached by three men in a cutter. After passing, two of them jumped out and pulled Shannon out of his cutter, gagged him and rifled his pockets of over $400. No arrests.

Arrested for Murder.

CHATHAM, Ont., Feb. 27.—Advices from British Columbia, received this morning, state that G. H. Miller and his two sons have been arrested for the murder of Mr. Colman and Mr. Wilbur Patten, near Seattle, in Washington territory. Colman had accused Miller, who is known as the "Pirate," of having murdered a settler. This charge was about being investigated, and Colman and Patten were on their way to Seattle in answer to the summons to give evidence, when they were murdered in their boat.

A Terrible Fall.

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., Feb. 28.—This afternoon a tall, heavy man of respectable appearance arrived in the 1.15 train, wearing a long brown overcoat, a high silk hat, side whiskers and moustache. He paid his way to the man at the wheel of the Prospect Park incline railway. He was shortly afterwards noticed by some tourists climbing with much difficulty the highest peak of the largest ice mound, a point on account of its dangerous position that is not frequented by visitors. Gaining the top he either fell or threw himself into the fearful canyon made in the solid ice by the motion of the waters coming over the falls.

Two Blocks Burned.

PORT PERRY, Feb. 28.—At 9.30 this morning a fire broke out in the Parrish block, occupied by W. T. Parrish, hardware merchant, and Jas. Boxall, stoves and tinware. The block was completely gutted. Currie's block met with the same fate. Among its occupants were John H. Brown and the members of an I. O. O. F. lodge. The Willard block, opposite, comprising an unoccupied store, the new post office, Robertson's barber shop, and Wm. Hiscox's confectionery, together with Allison's drug store, was shaken and damaged by an explosion of powder in Parrish's block. Mr. Hiscox had his left hand so badly cut by broken glass that several stitches had to be inserted. The sufferers are mostly covered by insurance, the heaviest loser being Mr. Parrish.

SHILOH'S VITALIZER is what you need for Constipation, Loss of Appetite, Dizziness, and all symptoms of dyspepsia. Price 10 and 75 cents per bottle. Sold by A. B. Petrie.

THE FRANCHISE ACT.

The Qualifications of Voters—The Process of Registration Explained.

The time having arrived for the preparation of the voters' lists under the new Dominion Franchise Act, an appeal is made to the Liberals of Wellington to have their names enrolled as voters w h out delay. To assist in so doing a shor summary of the qualification of voters and of the process for securing registration s given.

QUALIFICATION.

To entitle a person to be put on the he must be—

(1) 21 years of age.

(2) A British subject by birth or naturalization.

(3) Owner of real property of value:
In a city, $300.
In a town, $200.
In a county, $150.

(4) Or tenant of real property under ease at a rental of
$2 per month.
$6 per quarter.
$12 per half year.
$20 per year.

Provided that the tenant has been in possession for one year before 1st January 1886, and shall have paid one year's rent before final revision.

If the rent is yearly it will be sufficient if $20 of last year's rent shall have been paid before final revision.

Change of tenancy without intermission will not destroy the vote if aggregate of tenancies would give vote.

The assessor should be instructed state in the assessment roll the rent payable by each person assessed as tenant. If, however, this is not done, each tenant is prima facie entitled to be registered as a voter if the property is assessed at the following values:—
In cities at $300.
In towns at $200.
In counties at $150.

In counties outside of villages the rent may be payable either in money or in money's worth.

(5) Or a bona fide occupant for one year before 1st January, 1886, and enjoying the revenues and profits for his own or his wife's use of real property of the following values:
In cities, $300.
In towns, $200.
In counties, $150.

The occupancy may be under license of occupation from the crown or from any person or corporation.

(6) Or by income without any other qualification.

A person may be registered as an income voter, if he derives an income from his earnings, trade or profession, or from some investment in Canada of $300 a year, for one year before 1st January, 1886.

In counties the earnings may be either in money or money's worth.

(7) Sons of owners of real property are qualified—

(b) When the father is dead, and would, if living, be qualified, residence with the mother will suffice, and as many sons as the property will qualify may be registered, with preference to the eldest and elder sons, as in the last case.

Occasional absence from home of a son—not more than six months in the year—will not disqualify, and all time spent at school or college in Canada will be counted as if spent at home.

Son of an owner includes grandson, step-son and son-in-law, and all these may be registered as voters on the property if of sufficient value. The provision as to sons of owners applies to the counties as well as towns and cities in cases other than those of farmers' sons.

(8) Farmers' sons—The same provisions substantially apply to farmers' sons, as stated in the last paragraph in respect of sons of owners in cities and towns.

A farm is to be not less than 20 acres of land.

(9) Fishermen and owners of real property and boats, nets, fishing gear and tackle of aggregate value of $150.

Income voters register where they reside at time of registration—all others where property is situate. If in more than one polling division in the same electoral district the voter may register in either.

All names entered in the last revised voters' lists under the old law, will be entered in the new lists by the revising barrister.

Every person not on the assessment roll desiring to have his name on the list must at once send to the revising barrister an application in writing to be put on the list, giving his name, residence and the property or other qualification in respect of which he applies to be put on.

This application must be accompanied by a declaration which is to be made and signed before a commissioner for taking affidavits, a notary or justice of the peace, showing the grounds of the applicants claim to be put on the list.

Substantially the voters are those who can qualify as owners, tenants, occupants, income voters, sons of owners and farmers' sons.

See that the application shows as correctly and fully as possible the qualification.

Make the declaration before a commissioner, notary or justice of the peace. It is convenient to have it attached to the application on the same sheet.

In case of an absent person, let some one else having a knowledge of the qualification make the application and declaration.

When one cannot find a justice or other person before whom the declaration can be taken let the application alone be sent in, with an explanation of the reason, and it would be well in such case to have the truth of the facts in the application certified on the back of it by one, or if possible, two other persons.

The application and declaration must be sent at once to the Revising barrister of the district.

URGENCY OF THE MATTER.

No name not on the last voters' list or assessment roll will be placed on the preliminary voters' list, unless on application and declaration as above.

In case of any difficulty or doubt, application should be made at once for advice to some of the Liberal friends in the neighborhood.

SEPARATE SCHOOL BOARD meets to-night.

THE new Council of the Board of Trade meet in the City Hall building to-night.

THE Canadian Baseball League meet at the Rossin House, Toronto, on Friday evening, when interesting matters in regard to baseball will likely be discussed.

THE Electric Light Company commenced operations in the City yesterday by digging post holes for their lamps. The men employed state that the frost extends in the earth to a depth varying from fourteen inches to two feet.

SEVERAL carvings executed by Mr. E. J. O'Brien's class, together with some of Mr. O'Brien's own work, are to be shipped to the Ontario School of Art, Toronto, to-morrow, and thence to the Colonial Exhibition. They may be seen at the Free Library Rooms to-night, and are really worth going to see.

ENTERTAINMENT TO-NIGHT.—The entertainment to be held in the Congregational Church this evening will be very interesting. Promotion the names of the ladies and gentlemen who take part will be quite sufficient to ensure a large turn-out: Miss Cope, Mrs. James Clarke, Mr. and Mrs. John Crowe, Prof. T. C. Edwards, and members of his elocution class.

MESSRS. J. & R. MILLAR to-day received through Mr. Charles Satchell, Ottawa, purveyor of butcher's meat for the Governor-General's table, an order for a quantity of the best roast beef and lamb for His Excellency's use. Thus Wellington beef and mutton are once more recognized in a prominent manner, as the choicest the Dominion can supply.

FOR THE PACIFIC COAST.—Last night Alex. Cordiner, formerly of Guelph, and who has been here for over a year, was entertained by a number of his friends to a supper in the City Hotel, previous to his departure for the Pacific coast to-day. A very pleasant time was spent, and on the party breaking up all wished Mr. Cordiner a safe and pleasant journey. He was accompanied by Mr. George Haigh.

NEARLY A RUNAWAY.—This morning a span of young horses tied to a post in front of the Guelph Banking Company building, on Macdonnell street, became frightened through wast paper flying on the street. The animals suddenly sprang back, tearing the tie post from its fastening. Mr. Fairbank who was passing at the time caught the lines, and with the assistance of two other gentlemen the horses were stopped before they got a fair start. It seems that the paper, and there was any quantity of it, was blown from the lane in rear of Wyndham street. Nothing will frighten a horse more easily than a paper flying on the street, and the police should look after the matter.

UNITED STATES CUSTOMS REGULATIONS.—The Grand Trunk authorities have issued a circular recently, stating that in accordance with the instructions of the Treasury Department at Washington, United States Customs officers stationed at different points in Canada after the first of March are authorized to examine baggage destined for places beyond the frontier and place it in sealed or locked cars. The places where the baggage will be examined are Montreal, Prescott, Toronto, London and Stratford. After being examined at one of these places the baggage will go through to the other side without further examination. This movement will be a great convenience to the travelling public, as it will do away with the confusion of having baggage examined on the frontier, which was always a source of delay and annoyance.

Temperance Convention.

At a meeting of the Wellington Scott Act Association, in response to the call of the Executive of the Association, a large number of Temperance workers met in the Town Hall, Fergus, on Monday, 1st inst., at 2 p. m. The Secretary and Treasurer's report showed the work and finances to be in a very satisfactory state.

Considerable discussion arose as to the advisability and mode of forming Scott Act enforcement and electoral unions.

The attention of the meeting was called to clauses 144 to 153, inclusive, of the Crooks Act for the enforcement of the Canada Temperance Act. A few of those present strongly objected to desert their party if need be for the sake of prohibition, but at least four-fifths of those present were in favor of standing together, independent of party, for temperance and prohibition. The following together with other rules were adopted: We promise to make temperance and prohibition paramount in all electoral contests, and to use every legitimate means for the enforcement of the Scott Act.

After some discussion it was decided to ask the old conveners in each municipality to organize their friends in each municipality on this basis.

Considerable dissatisfaction was expressed with the present License Inspectors in the North and Centre Ridings, and it was decided to ask the Government through the present members, Messrs. Clarke and McKim, to appoint Mr. McGiven, of Mount Forest, for the North Riding, and Mr. John White, of Fergus, for the Centre.

Mr. Maddock thought Mr. W. S. Cowan would discharge his duty faithfully, and he did not think the temperance friends would wish any change in the South Riding.

After some other business the meeting adjourned to meet again at the call of the executive.

A public meeting was held in the evening. The attendance was good, considering the weather. Rev. Mr. Burgess, of Listowel, gave an able and eloquent address, of about two hours' duration, and was listened to with marked attention and the speaker was frequently applauded. He strongly urged united electorial action—temperance first, and party after.

Mr. E. H. Maddock, of Guelph, being called upon, said as it was so late he would only say he endorsed all that had been said, especially with regard to the importance of forming electoral associations. He concluded by moving a vote of thanks to Mr. Burgess, which was seconded by Rev. Black and carried unanimously.

Rev. J. R. Black tendered his resignation as Secretary, but at the earnest request of all present he consented to remain in office for some time longer.

MESSRS. W. J. FAIRBANK, John Murphy and David Kennedy, the three old License Commissioners for South Wellington, have been re-appointed, and have received their commissions from the Government.

MR. PETER C. WATT, formerly of Puslinch, now of Buffalo, Wyoming Territory, who has been in this section for a short time visiting his friends, returned to Wyoming to-day, taking with him a blooming and blushing bride. The couple carry with them the well wishes of many friends.

POLICE COURT.—To-day the Police Magistrate delivered judgment in the case of David King, charged with selling meat on the market in less than a quarter. The case was dismissed without costs, the Magistrate holding that the by-law did not cover a case of meat being given in exchange for other goods. Mr. R. Mitchell appeared for the defendant.

REV. MR. IRVING.—The Rev. Mr. Irving, curate of St. George's Church, has accepted the call extended to him from the congregation of Dundas. He expects to enter on his duties at Easter. During the time that the Rev. Mr. Irving has been in Guelph he has won for himself many friends, not only in the congregation with which he was more immediately connected, but also in other Christian bodies in the city. Mr. Irving is a worker and the people of Dundas have to be congratulated on securing such an able and willing clergyman.

THE BAIRD COMPANY.—Last evening the R. H. Baird dramatic company opened their season in the City Hall with the great temperance drama "Ten Nights in a Bar-room" before a crowded house. The different characters were so well sustained that it would be out of place to particularize any one character. The company will play for two weeks with a different change of programme nightly. This evening "Cast adrift, or the father's curse," a companion play to "Hazel Kirke" will be given, to be followed by the laughable farce of "Betsy Baker." As will be seen by advertisement the prices are popular and within the reach of all the pleasure loving public.

CHALMERS' CHURCH.—Last night a fair attendance greeted Prof. Panton's lecture, entitled "Along the banks of the Red River and cruising among the Islands of Lake Winnipeg." The entertainment opened with an instrumental solo from Miss Grant, followed by a song from Miss Wardrope, and a reading by Miss Girdwood. So much has appeared in print during the last year concerning the Northwest, that a great deal of the speaker's lecture appeared familiar to the hearers, but the Prof. spoke with authority, as he had seen and travelled over the country which formed the title of his lecture. For an hour and a half he engaged the attention of those present, and in a pleasant manner imparted much valuable information about that part of the Dominion of which most Canadians know so little. About ten o'clock the entertainment was closed by singing the doxology and pronouncing the benediction.

CURLING.—Yesterday afternoon the printers and the butchers played their long talked-of match. The game lasted for two hours and was a very enjoyable one. Although the score was a close one the printers had the best of the game from the start to the finish. The printers came out one ahead on each rink. The following is the score:—

INLAND REVENUE RETURNS.—The following are the Inland Revenue returns for the month of February, 1886, which show an increase of $18,819.92 over the corresponding month of last year:

Spirits	$ 9,627 87
Malt	6,579 00
Tobacco and cigars	1,615 30
Licenses	50 00
Other Revenues	38 64
Total	$17,810 81

THE RINK TO-NIGHT.—The races at the Speed Skating Rink to-night will be of unusual interest on account of the well known capabilities of the respective contestants. The ice is in good condition. The five mile race between Phelan and McCutcheon will decide which is the best man. Phelan feels confident of success, and is determined to redeem his lost laurels. The three mile race promises to be the most exciting ever held on the rink. The competitors are the local champions in their respective districts, and this contest will decide the three mile championship for Ontario. Such names as Lee, Gale, Walker and Bunyan, well known in the skatorial line, are expected to compete. This race in itself will be well worth the price of admission.

FRATERNAL VISIT.—On Monday night a very pleasant and enjoyable meeting was held in Beaver Temple, on the occasion of a fraternal visit from evening Star Lodge, Galt. Notwithstanding the cold night about forty of the sisters and brethern of the latter lodge arrived about 8.30, and were extended a very fraternal welcome. The business of the Lodge was conducted in a first-class manner by the new officers. One candidate was initiated and other routine business in connection with temperance work was transacted. At the close of the lodge work a first-class programme of music, recitations, etc., was given by the members of Beaver Temple. The brothers and sisters from Galt a so rendered a very choice programme. Short addresses on the temperance cause were delivered by D. D. C. T. Mahoney, P. W. C. T. Macdonald, of Guelph, and W. C. T. Baird and County Secretary Montgomery, of Galt. At the close of the programme an adjournment was made to the large ante-room, where the sisters had a number of tables bountifully supplied with hot tea, coffee and other refreshments, which were eagerly disposed off. The Galt contingent started for home about midnight, well pleased with the manner in which they were received by their temperance friends of the Royal City. The Galt Temperance Society are making great preparations for the meeting of the County Lodge, which takes place in that town on the first Monday in April. At this meeting a large number of alterations are expected to be made in the secret work of the Order.

ALDERMAN WELLS RESIGNS

A Fight Over Appointing a New Member to the Finance Committee.

THE PROVINCIAL EXHIBITION.

The regular meeting of the City Council was held on Monday evening. Present, Mayor Stevenson in the chair, Ald. Carter, Coffee, Hamilton, Hearn, Read, Cutten, Maddock, Keough, Lamprey, Hewer, Skinner, Smith, Chadwick.

NEW CHAIR FACTORY.

Two communications were read from Burr Bros. in reference to their proposed chair factory. The first communication stated that they had prepared plans for their proposed new factory and have advertised for tenders on the understanding that the city grant the land to build it on. In addition to the grant of $1,000, free water and taxes for ten years granted at last meeting of Council, they found that the land they required would cost $2,000 or $2,100. The communication goes on to say "we ask this on the ground of poorer railway facilities, higher rate of freight, etc., than other manufactories located in Woodstock, &c., have to pay to most points east of Toronto, placing us in an unequal position to compete with other manufacturers of the same goods. Also that other towns are offering all we ask, and some better inducements." The other communication stated that the lots they would require for their factory if they should build would cost—one $650, another $700 and the third $800. It was thought the lots could be got for $2,000. They desired the matter settled at once as they were receiving tenders now.

Moved by Ald. Maddock, seconded by Ald. Lamprey, that the petition received from Burr Bros. be granted, increasing the grant from $1,000 to $2,000, subject to the terms of the last finance report.

Ald. Hearn objected to this additional grant. He thought that if the Council purchased them a quarter of an acre it would be all that was required for their buildings. The additional lots mentioned in the petition, he supposed, would be for storing lumber. He did not wish to be an obstructionist to anything that was calculated to be a benefit to the city, yet he thought the additional grant was too much and the Council should stick to the original one.

Ald. Maddock did not think that the Council should split straws over this matter, for it would undoubtedly be a benefit to the city. With regard to the remark made by Ald. Hearn that a quarter of an acre was sufficient for the main building, it had to be taken into consideration that drying kilns and other buildings would have to be erected. The Burr Brothers he was convinced would not ask for more ground than they really required.

Ald. Keough, if he read the Act aright, was sure that the Council had no right to vote away this money without a by-law being submitted to the ratepayers. To do so would be illegal. In the first place it appeared as if the Burr Brothers desired land wherever they could get it, and now they wanted a certain property. Another thing was that they had guaranteed to employ a certain number of hands. The majority of those employed might be boys for all the Council knew, and the business might not profit the city to the amount paid for the grounds.

Ald. Hewer had hoprd that this matter would have passed without any discussion. As was seen by the communication of the Messrs. Burr, they had received more advantageous offers from other places. Parkdale had offered free land, free water, and the exemptation of taxation for 15 years. With reference to employing boys, he understood that such was not the case, and further, he had heard that so soon as the works were started a certain gentleman was to build eight houses in that quarter.

Ald. Smith hoped that the Council would settle this matter at once, as it was a vital matter to the Burr Brothers, whose intention it was to commence work at once, and it was also a matter of vital importance to the city to have an industry of this kind employing over 50 hands for a start. The Ald. showed that the reason the Burr Bros. were anxious to get the chair factory in connection with the other branch of their business was that they would be better able to sell to jobbers and supply them with whatever they required. The firm desired to put themselves on such a footing that they would be able to compete successfully with other manufacturers, and to gain this end, if they did not get what they desired the probabilities were they would go to Parkdale. The Messrs. Burr spent now something like $30,000 a year in wages, a greater part of which was spent in the city, and if they removed their factory elsewhere it would be a great loss. The wages of the additional men employed would amount to some $30,000 more. By passing the vote now—and as he was sure the majority of the ratepayers were in favor of having the new industry—it would save the Council some $200 costs in putting the by-law before the people.

Ald. Coffee said that he had spoken to the City Solicitor about the legality of the vote, and he had expressed himself that there was no doubt but that it was illegal.

The Mayor had spoken to a number of heavy ratepayers on the matter, and they were all in favor of the chair factory being established. He had not the slightest doubt that if it went to a vote of the people the by-law would be carried by a large majority.

Ald. Skinner was in favor of giving the additional $1,000. Burr Bros. were not to employ a lot of boys as had been thrown out as a probability by one of the Aldermen. The employees would be skilled mechanics.

Ald. Chadwick was opposed to any bonus to any industry whatever. He did not think it fair or right that one factory should be bonused. The men who spent ten, twenty or a hundred thousand dollars in the city had just as good a right to ask a bonus as the Burr Bros. He considered the whole system rotten, and was decidedly opposed to it.

The vote was then taken.

Ald. Chadwick called for the yeas and nays. The yeas and nays were as follows:—

For the motion—Ald. Carter, Hamilton, Skinner, Read, Hewer, Smith, Cutten, Maddock, Lamprey—9.

Against—Ald. Coffee, Hearn, Chadwick, Keough—4.

FINANCE REPORT.

Ald. Coffee presented the report of the Finance Committee as follows:—Your Committee have received tenders for the debentures authorized to be sold, ranging from par to $119.60 and would recommend that the tender of the Guelph Banking Company of $119.60 for the $10,000 of debentures be accepted. Adopted.

BOARD OF WORKS.

Ald. Maddock, chairman, reported requesting that tenders be advertised for the following kinds of lumber: 2 inch pine plank, 8 x 10 and 12 inches wide, 12 and 16 feet long; hemlock plank, same width, 12, 14 and 16 feet long; 4 x 4, 3 x 7, 3 x 10, 8 x 12 cedar; 12 and 16 3-inch elm, and tamarack 12 to 18 feet long for crossing. Separate tenders to be taken for the above if required and handed in on or before the 12th day of March. As the snow and frost may break up before our next report, your Committee would ask leave to purchase about 12 cords of cedar blocks for crossings and paying for the same as soon as we can procure them, also to take tenders for nails. We recommend the payment of R. Stewart's account for lumber, $3.47, and John M. Bond & Co's. 20 cents. Adopted.

PARKS AND SHADES.

Ald. Lamprey, chairman, reported recommending that the account of G. H. Carter for cordwood, amounting to $19, be paid. Adopted.

POLICE.

Ald. Read, chairman, reported recommending the payment of these accounts: J. A. Nelles, $1; post office box, $2; P. Dobereiner, $1; Mr. Guy, $4.50. Your Committee are of opinion that the account of Kloepfer & Richardson of $5.08 for coal for the Police Magistrate's office should be paid for by the Market and Public Buildings Committee. The petition of Robert Morrison, with regard to snow, we recommend be discharged. Your Committee believe the office and residence of the Chief of Police should have telephone service. Adopted.

BY-LAWS.

Ald. Coffee, chairman, reported:—Your committee having heard the cabmen of the city in support of their petition recommend that the present tariff respecting cabmen be changed in accordance with by-law No. 262, lately repealed. That the petition of the liverymen of the city be granted. That with respect to the petition of he carters' your committee would recommend that item "M" in the present tariff be changed from 15c to 25c., that items "O," "P" and "Q" be struck out of the tariff, that item "Ct." be changed from 25c to 35c, and that a by-law be introduced making these changes. With respect to the City Solicitor's report your committee would recommend that no action be taken, being well satisfied that Ald. Carter is substantially well qualified to sit at your Council, and that the City Solicitor's disbursements, $25.70, be referred to the Finance Committee. Your committee recommend that the by-law passed last year respecting the qualifications of aldermen be repealed. Adopted.

RESOLUTION OF CONDOLENCE.

Moved by Ald. Chadwick, seconded by Ald. Keough, that this Council desire at its first regular meeting to give expression to its sense of the loss this Board and the community generally has sustained in the death of John Hall, Esq., late alderman for St. John's Ward, they wish to take this opportunity of expressing their sympathy with the family of the deceased, and that a copy of this resolution be forwarded to Mrs. Hall, and also that the same be engrossed on the minutes of this Council. Carried unanimously.

A MEMBER FOR THE FINANCE COMMITTEE.

Moved by Ald. Maddock, seconded by Ald. Hearn, that Ald. Cutten be a member of the Finance Committee in place of the late Ald. Hall.

Ald. Hewer objected to this motion as it would be unfair to St. John's Ward.

Moved in amendment by Ald. Smith, seconded by Ald. Hewer, that Ald. Husband be placed on the Finance Committee in room of the late Ald. Hall.

The Mayor remarked that in an instance of this kind it had been customary to elect the new member for the Ward before appointing a member and the newly elected member took the place on the Committee of the member who had vacated.

Ald. Chadwick thought the proceeding was irregular, and that the Council should be in no hurry over the matter.

Ald. Smith also thought it would be advisable to wait until after the election of the new member.

Ald. Coffee said that there was a lot of work now lying on the hands of the Committee and the sooner a chairman was appointed, and the work proceeded with, it would be better for the interests of the city.

Moved in amendment to the amendment that the appointment of a member to the Finance Committee be left over till next meeting of the Council

Ald. Skinner was in favor of the resolution.

The amendment to the amendment was put first five voting for it, and two for the amendment on its being put.

Ald. Hewer called for the yeas and nays on the main motion:—For the motion Ald. Coffee, Wells, Skinner, Hearn, Cutten, Maddock, Keough, Lamprey—8

Against—Ald. Carter, the Mayor, Hamilton, Hewer, Read, Smith, Chadwick—7.

The motion was declared carried.

Ald. Wells was late in taking his seat. This accounts for an extra vote on the division.

ELECTION FOR ST. JOHN'S

Moved by Ald. Read, seconded by Ald. Hamilton, that the Mayor be requested to issue a writ for a new election in St. John's Ward in place of Ald. Hall. Carried.

SCHOOL TRUSTEES.

Moved by Ald. Hamilton, seconded by Ald. Read, that Dr. McGuire be appointed High School Trustee to fill the place of the late Ald. Hall.

Moved in amendment by Ald. Cutten, seconded by Ald. Skinner, that Peter Anderson be appointed High School Trustee.

The vote resulted in a tie. The Mayor gave his casting vote in favor of Dr. McGuire on the ground that he was an old School Trustee, and was acquainted with the work.

RE-NAMING STREETS.

Moved by Ald. Read, seconded by Ald. Maddock, that the By-law Committee be instructed to bring in a by-law for altering and re naming streets as recommended by the late Council.

Ald. Chadwick said that he was quite in accord with the spirit of the resolution, but the Council would have to proceed very carefully in the matter. It would be necessary to get the consent of parties living on the streets to change the names. All these properties were registered in the Registry office, and it might cause no end of trouble if the matter was not rightly proceeded with.

The motion was carried.

RAILWAY MATTERS.

Ald. Chadwick made a verbal report for the Railway Committee. Although they had not brought in a report they had been working silently. They had applied for certain alterations in the charter of the Guelph Junction Railway, and had also made arrangements for turning the first sod. The Council had little to do with the Guelph Junction Railway beyond giving their countenance to it. It was the Board of Directors who had to do all the work.

THE PROVINCIAL.

Ald. Hewer called attention to the fact that the Agricultural and Arts Association meet in Toronto soon, and if Guelph desired to have the Provincial Exhibition it would be well to send a deputation to wait on them. The probabilities were that we would get it.

Moved by Ald. Cutten, seconded by Ald. Lamprey, that the Mayor, Ald. Hewer and Chadwick be a deputation to wait on the Ontario Agricultural and Arts Association with a view of procuring the next exhibition for Guelph.

Moved in amendment by Ald. Keough, seconded by Ald. Maddock, that His Worship the Mayor be a deputation.

After considerable talk the motion was carried.

TENDERS FOR PRINTING.

The Clerk read tenders for printing by-laws from the MERCURY, Herald, and J. J. Kelso.

Moved by Ald Coffee, seconded by Ald. Carter, that the tender of the Herald, being the lowest, for 500 copies of by-laws, be accepted, and that said by-laws be not printed until approved by the Committee. Carried.

RESIGNATION OF ALD. WELLS.

Moved by Ald. Carter, seconded by Ald. Coffee, that the resignation of Ald. Wells be accepted and that a writ be issued for a new election in St. Patrick's Ward for a member to fill Ald. Wells' place. Carried.

Before the motion was carried, Ald. Maddock, Carter and Coffee paid a flattering tribute to Ald. Wells, who although a young member of the Council gave promise of being a very able and efficient one, judging from the work that he had already done in committees. Mr. Wells was about to remove to Elora, and all wished him success and were only sorry that he considered it necessary for business considerations to leave Guelph.

Ald. Wells stated that when he was elected he had no intention of leaving Guelph, or else he would not have suffered himself to be proposed as a candidate. It was not his intention to resign so soon, but seeing that an election was to take place for another ward, he thought it would save the city considerable expense by having both elections at the same time. He was in favor of keeping down expenses even in small matters. When these small matters were totaled up at the end of the year they amounted to quite a sum. He thanked the members of the Council for the kind expression they had made regarding him.

The Council adjourned at a quarter to ten, and have to be congratulated on the amount of work performed within the space.

KNOX CHURCH.

Presentation and Young People's Meeting.

A joint meeting of the S. S. Association and the Young People's Association was held in Knox church basement last evening. Mr. J. B. Williamson occupied the chair. The first part of the evening was given up to an excellent programme which had been prepared by a committee of the young people. Mrs. Frew gave a piano solo, Miss Mary Murray gave a reading; Miss Knowles, Miss. Borthwick and Miss Mowat solos at various intervals in the programme. Miss Sarah Hadden gave an instrumental solo, and the pastor, Mr. Beattie, gave a reading. After intermission the President invited Mr. J. A. McCrea, Superintendent of the S. S., to the chair. Mr. McCrea, in a few well chosen words, expressed the regret that all present and many others felt in the removal to Woodstock of Mr. A. McBean, who had been the faithful Secretary of the S. S. during the past twelve years. Mr. McCrea read the following address:

To Mr. Arthur McBean:

DEAR SIR,—Your friends and fellow-workers in Knox Church Sabbath School have learned with regret that they are about to lose your presence and kindly co-operation by your removal from our city to a distant locality.

We recall with pleasure the cordial relations which have long subsisted between yourself and most of our number, and your efficient and cheerfully rendered services as Secretary of our school.

We do not forget that your and our mutual bonds of union as church members and as co-workers in the Christian instruction of the young suggest deeper sympathies than those of mere ordinary social relations, and we have therefore asked this interview that we may, called as we unavoidably are to separate for the present, remind each other of our common faith and hope, and avowed life purpose; and that we who remain may express to you who go our abiding Christian friendship, our kindly remembrances, and our earnest wishes for your further prosperity and usefulness.

We have also thought that it would be pleasant to you and to ourselves that you should carry away with you something by way of a memento of our friendship and of your connection with the Sabbath School. We therefore request you to receive from us this Bible, which, bringing to us as it does the knowledge of all that is precious and hopeful both in this life and the life to come, and having been the inspiration of our joint labours, may well remind you of our association together and its purpose.

We feel sure, dear sir, that one of your first anxieties in your new location will be about a church relationship which shall enable you both to get good and to do good, and our wish and prayer is that in this and every other respect a Divine blessing may rest upon you.

Signed on behalf of the Sabbath School Association,

J. A. MCCREA, Superintendent. ROBT. JOHNSTON, Assist.-Superintendent.

KNOX CHURCH, Guelph, March 1st, 1886.

Mr. McBean replied to the address and acknowledged the gift in a feeling manner. He spoke of the many changes during the twelve years he was connected with the school, and said that at present only two remained of those who taught in the school when he came to it, and that at no time since he knew the school had it been as prosperous as it is as present. The address, which was written by Mr. Samuel Hodgskin, was beautifully illuminated by R. Williams, of Toronto. The Bible was what is known as the Teacher's Bible, and was beautifully bound in limp morocco. It was handed to Mr. McBean by Miss P. Z. Stewart, and had a dedication page painted and illuminated by Prof. J. M. Albert.

The Evening Mercury

TUESDAY EVE'G MARCH 2, 1886.

The Debate on the Address.

Contrary to expectation, the debate on the Address was short, and no amendments were moved. It was generally expected that a motion would be brought up, at the instigation of Sir John Macdonald, by one of the French members, on the Riel execution, for the purpose of embarrassing the Opposition, It would also have given the French members, who are still friendly to the Government, and wish to continue so, an opportunity of voting on the question so as to please their constituents, and then, having done so, they could fall into line again as its supporters. But Mr. Blake, by reference to the subject in his speech, must have altered the design of the Government, if it was ever entertained, for no one, French or otherwise, rose to move any amendment or make any reference whatever to the subject. And all the reference Mr. Blake made to it in the course of his speech was, that he did not at the present moment wish to express an opinion on the insurrection or the causes that led to it, or, on the execution of Riel; but would wait for such information and such returns as the House had a right to get from Government on the whole question. For the present, therefore, the discussion on this matter, which the country is so eagerly looking for, has been indefinitely put off, and it is impossible to say at the present moment in what particular shape it will come up. But that it will come, and that it will be one of the most exciting that has ever taken place on the floor of Parliament is generally conceded by both parties.

Although there has been no overt act of opposition on the part of the Bleus, yet they are sulky, sullen, and show signs of incipient rebellion. Only three of them cheered Sir John when he rose to speak on the Address, and they appeared to be more than satisfied when Mr. Blake expressed his intention of bringing up the whole subject as soon as the Government produced the necessary papers. The impression is gaining in strength amongst the Opposition that the defection among the Government whilom French supporters is more serious than was thought of. Some of the Quebec papers put down the number of recalcitrants at eighteen or twenty. The estimate is, however, very vague, and uncertain; and no one can at this moment predicate what will be its extent or how, or in what way, the rupture will take place.

Speaking generally, of the debate on the Address, we may say that Mr. Everett, the newly elected member for St. John, who spoke first, is a windy orator reminding one of a well lunged auctioneer or a third rate lawyer pleading a case in a police court. He brought forward, of course, the usual stereotyped apologies and explanations for the general depression prevailing, and gave as a most profound reason for the closing up of so many manufactories, that the companies, or proprietors, had to do so because they had no more money! In speaking on the fishery question, he boldly stated, that Canada was under no obligation to the States as affording a market to its fish, for we, in the West, could consume a good share of the catch, and they could readily find foreign markets for the rest. He said this too, in face of the fact that all the fish sent from the Maritime Provinces West is but the merest fraction of the quantities caught in these Provinces.

Mr. Ward, who succeeds the late Colonel Williams, for East Durham, and who seconded the Address is a dudeish young man, who for a beginner did well enough, but whose speech on the whole, was weak and ineffective. It is usual for a Frenchman either to move, or second the Address, but Sir John dare not trust any of them on this occasion. The omission was significant and ominous.

Mr. Blake, in his two hours' speech, sharply criticised the Government's utterances as put into the mouth of the Governor General. In a vein of caustic humor, and with much sarcasm he referred to Sir John Macdonald's journey to England and doing there the work of our Commissioner. He also ridiculed some of his remarks made in speeches in London on Federotion and other questions, showing their inconsistency with remarks made, on the same subject, in other places. The lavish praise he bestowed on Mr. Donald A. Smith in London, contrasted with his denunciations of him as a coward and a liar at the time of the Pacific scandal were greatly relished, as were also, his keen and caustic criticism of the changes made in the Government and of the new men who have entered it.

Sir John Macdonald in his reply, indulged as usual, in his favorite clap trap, and posed, as he always does, as an extra loyal Loyalist. Beyond this, there was nothing remarkable in his speech, except a studied evasion of any reference to the burning question which was uppermost in all minds, namely the Northwest troubles and the execution of Riel. A sigh of relief seemed to have escaped him, when the Address was passed, but the evil day has only been put off for his Nemesis is surely awaiting him.

Retrospective.

FEBRUARY 27th, 1886.

It is just one year since the opening of my new business at 27 Lower Wyndham Street was announced. The retrospect is a pleasant one. The motto was and has been "Never fear to do right." The policy of the business was to sell good, reliable goods at a fair moderate profit, to sell strictly for cash to always pay and demand one hundred cents for every dollar, to offer customers our best efforts without boring them to buy, to make it a pleasure to call at our store, to eschew all bombast and exaggeration, to keep a sharp look out for advantages to our customers, to unite their interests with our own, to strictly mind our own business, to win the confidence of all our Patrons. Under the blessings of a kind Providence, the year just closed has been a most prosperous and satisfactory one. Our name and reputation have been established, our sales were 50 per cent more than our highest anticipations, and the result of the year's business very encouraging and satisfactory. Our hearty thanks are tendered to our many patrons.

PROSPECTIVE.

The same principles, riper experience, wider facilities, stronger efforts, increased confidence in the intelligence and discrimination of the public, determination and ability to meet the keenest legitimate competition, goods that will bear inspection and comparison and steady persevering effort, will be at the command of our patrons, and we have no fear that though the most strenuous efforts, legitimate and otherwise, will in the future as they have in the past be buzzing on every hand, the business at No. 27 will not only maintain but greatly strengthen the leading position which it has taken.

RAISE THE STANDARD HIGH.

The Dry Goods Trade is never elevated by one firm trying to hurt the reputation of another, neither will it raise the firm who tries it in the estimation of the public.

We do not propose to lower the standard of a

Respectable and Highly Thought of Business by any such Nonsense,

But on the other hand if there is anything we can do that will tend to elevate the Dry Goods Trade and those connected with us it will be done.

If other merchants in the city have found their trade in advance of last year (and with less salesmen required), we are glad to hear of it, and it speaks well for Guelph and we only hope they will still continue to prosper. As for us

WE ARE SATISFIED.

We are pleased with our business, our city and the people we have met with since coming to Guelph.

It is just a little over one month since we bought the

Very Respectable and Highly Thought of Business of Messrs. John Hogg & Son.,

and we have been told by those who know, that our sales for the month of February are in advance of the same month last year and we propose by attending

Strictly to our own Business

and by placing before the public

Good Honest Reliable Goods,

and at prices that will cause the people to know (without us having to tell them) that we are

Men of Experience in the Dry Goods Trade knowing Where to buy, How to Buy and Having the Bullion to Buy with.

Large quantities of goods are coming to hand every week from England, Ireland, Scotland and the United States; also from the different parts of Canada, which we are marking at a very low price and passing into stock.

We expect a large Spring Trade and are preparing for same.

We have retained all the old hands and they will be leased to see their old friends,

CHAPTER XIV.

AN INTERRUPTED JOURNEY.

It was an express train, and the swift, even motion was soothing to Helen, after the anxiety in which she had been during the past few days. Ever since she had had the idea that the only way to rid herself of Alice was to go away herself, she had been "racking her brains," as she told Percival, for a good and plausible excuse for leaving home, and it was only on this same morning that one had suggested itself to her. She had once been to London in connection with her legacy from Dr. Hazlitt, and it had occurred to her to allege a second business call as a reason for going away so suddenly.

She felt at ease for the first time for many days, and as she leaned back in the railway carriage and looked out upon the beautiful country through which the train was speeding she began to think of the immediate future, and to ask herself why she should go to London. She had certainly given reasons for going to London, but, after all, what did it matter? She did not want to go; the country looked so beautiful sleeping in the mild autumn sunshine that she felt it was beyond her strength to voluntarily exile herself in London. It would make no difference to Percival where she went, and she could as easily send him her address from one place as another. She took her Bradshaw from her bag and began to study the railway map, to find some place to which she could get without much difficulty from the next junction, Dewhurst.

She studied the map for some time, and at last her eye fell upon a name which seemed familiar to her—Miller's Gate. Where had she heard of Miller's Gate? At last she recollected. Some years before—long before Percival had come to Osmotherley—Dr. Hazlitt had been to Miller's Gate, and had told her when he came home what a strange little place it was, completely separated from the world in spite of the railway which ran through it. He had said it looked like a village which had sprung up of itself, the houses having been dotted about the hill-side as if by chance. It was on the main line. She could get there from Dewhurst without changing; neither was it a long journey—not more than an hour and a half. Her mind was made up. She would go to Miller's Gate, and, as she saw the train would reach Dewhurst in a few minutes, she put back her Bradshaw and prepared to leave the train.

At Dewhurst she changed and made inquiry about the next train to Miller's Gate. There was one in half an hour, and she got her ticket and sat down to wait for it, feeling happy in the thought that when she next saw Percival she would have him to herself. The train was late, and she did not leave Dewhurst until half an hour later than she expected. Perhaps that accounted for the unusual speed at which they went; but she wished in a vague, easy way that the carriage would not rock so—she was being tossed from side to side in a most ridiculous way. Faster and faster they went, the carriage jolted more and more, and as she began to feel the discomfort of such a movement continued for any length of time, her amusement gave way to annoyance, and she began to think—

"It surely cannot be safe to go at such a speed," when the carriage lurched even more violently. She was thrown from her seat, she involuntarily put out her hand to save herself, she heard a woman scream in the next compartment, she felt herself falling, and had a sensation of receiving a heavy blow from something; all grew dark around her, and she knew no more.

* * * * *

Alice was more angry with Helen than she could say; she had acted with a decision and promptitude for which her sister had not given her credit, and at the same time so quietly that no one could possibly have any suspicion of the truth. She felt too much annoyed to join Helen at luncheon, preferring to have something brought up to her room. But soon after Helen had driven away to the station she came down stairs, ordered the carriage, and drove home.

Percival sat breakfasting in his hotel on the morning of his return home. He had transacted his business satisfactorily, and felt in very good spirits at the thought of seeing Helen again so soon—good spirits which were not much lowered even by what he read in the newspaper lying on the table beside him. There was a paragraph headed in large type, "Frightful Accident to a London Train. All Passengers Lost." As he ate his breakfast he read the paragraph, uttering from time to time a smothered exclamation of horror. The train from the north due at London at half-past seven had, in the course of its journey, shortly after leaving Dewhurst, to cross a river of some size, and much swollen by the recent heavy rains. Whether the rain had undermined the banks, or whether the accident might not have happened in any weather, was not yet known, but when the train was about halfway across, the bridge gave way, the train wrenched itself from the engine and was precipitated into the river, and every passenger had been drowned, the driver and stoker alone escaping. That, in short, was what Percival read as he sat at breakfast, and felt glad that none of his friends were, so far as he knew, concerned in the accident.

When he had finished breakfast he went out of doors. It was a lovely autumn morning, and he had to buy something for Helen. He walked about the streets until he came to the principal fruiterer's shop in the town. There he chose some very fine grapes, and had them packed up, and went out again.

"I suppose I must get something for Alice, too," he thought, and he looked carelessly in at the shop windows. He paused before long in front of a jeweller's shop, and looking into the window saw a small gold brooch which he thought would do, so without hesitation he walked straight in and bought it, giving for it about three times what he had given for the grapes, which had been chosen with the greatest care, half a dozen bunches being rejected before he saw one fine enough in every way to please him.

"I do not think Alice has a very fine instinct in these matters," he thought. "A bit of jewellery is sure to please her, whereas she would consider a basket of fruit a very shabby present."

He went straight to the station and started on his journey home. On arriving at Brantwood he was struck by the expression on the face of the butler, but, as usual, his first thought was for Helen, and asked quickly

"Where is your mistress? Is she in?"

"No, sir," said the servant, visibly troubled. "She had to go away on business, sir. She left a note for you in the study, sir."

Percival went to his study, and as the butler followed him, he said—

"What an awful thing this railway accident is."

"Yes, sir," said the man, scarcely above a whisper.

Percival found the note, opened it, and read with a half smile until he came to the passage in which Helen stated that she was going to London. Then his face grew grave, and he said abruptly—

"Your mistress has gone to London Atkinson—what in Heaven's name do you look like that for?"

"Oh, sir, it was that train."

"Which train? What do you mean? The train that went over into the river?"

"Yes, sir."

The man stood before him trembling

-LION-

STOCK TAKING COMPLETED.

We find we have a little lot of remnants amounting in all to the sum of $2,263.41.

These must be cleared out within two weeks to make room for New Goods arriving daily.

NOW

In the lull which usually follows Stock taking before the heaviest of the Spring work begins when we will have less time for such a review, we would like to place before our patrons and the public generally the state of our business, and explain why we claim to sell so much cheaper than others.

Our business for the past year has been eminently satisfactory, we having done the largest Cash business which has been done in the Lion for the last six years. Now this in ordinary times would be very encouraging, but in hard times like the present, we consider it more satisfactory and indicative of a reign of prosperity for the Lion much beyond what it has had in the past. Of course we have not had as much opposition, our friend, Mr. Hogg not having applied himself so closely to business as in former years, but this would not explain entirely the great increase in our trade. The reasons are many. We will state a few:

Our Goods are all fresh and new.

Our Prices are Low.

Our Goods are all marked in plain figures.

We have only one price for all.

We handle the Goods the public want, and at prices to suit them.

NO WONDER WE SELL CHEAP.

It is no wonder we sell cheap, as we are almost under no expense. Our Discounts more than pay our salaries, and as we pay no rent, the two principal items of expense are taken out.

NOW LADIES

We astonished you with the variety and cheapness of our stock last Spring, but we expect to surprise you even more this Spring. We have now a resident buyer in Glasgow, who is always on hand to secure any novelties or cheap lines that are thrown on the British Market, so that we will always be a little ahead of others, both in style and value.

FIRE IN GARAFRAXA.

Barn Burned with Nineteen Cattle and Seven Sheep.

As Adam Stewart, (who lives on the west half of lot ten, on the ninth concession, East Garafraxa,) on Monday, March 1st, went to the woodshed about five o'clock, a. m., to get some kindling he noticed a great light, and found that his barn was on fire. He rushed down to the horse stable in his stocking feet, and managed to get out two horses and two colts. The first horse he got out was all right, but the last three were badly burned. He then tried to get to the cattle stable, but could not see the door for smoke. Nineteen cattle, seven sheep, all his waggons, buggies, implements, and most of last year's crop were consumed. Cause of the fire unknown; insurance on building $900, and on contents $800; in all $1,700, in the Nichol company.

SHOCKING TRAGEDY.

An Insane Man Clubs His Sister-in-law To Death.

ST. CATHARINES, Ont., March 1.—A terrible murder was committed at 6 o'clock this evening at the residence of Lewis Tyrrell (colored), near the new canal. About a week ago Walter Tyrell, 50 years of age, displayed unmistakable signs of insanity, brought on, it is supposed, by an over-study of the Bible, and as he lives alone his brother Lewis took him to his place in order that he might care for him. This afternoon Lewis left home to attend to some stock he had at another brother's across the canal, leaving his wife in the house with Walter. On his return he was horrified at seeing Walter standing in the yard over the prostrate body of his wife, beating away at her head with a huge club. A great portion of the furniture had been thrown from the house into the yard, and it is supposed that Mrs. Tyrrell ran from the house hoping to escape from her insane brother-in-law, but that he had overtaken her and clubbed her to death. There is nothing left of the woman's head but a portion of one of the cheek bones with a little flesh clinging to it. The murderer has been arrested.

BIG FIRE AT WINNIPEG.

The C. P. R. Station in Ruins—Losses Very Heavy.

WINNIPEG, Man., March 1.—A few minutes after two o'clock this morning a fire broke out in the baggage room of the Canadian Pacific Railway depot, and half an hour la er the flames passed beyond the control of the firemen an completely destroyed the handsome structure. The origin of the fire is a complete mystery. The building was value at $150,000, and the furnishings at $20,000, nearly all of which were totally destroyed. The insurance is $40,0 0. In he traffic manager's office, which was the first to go, there were many important papers, but none were saved. Across the hall was the land department. Next the traffic department was the solicitor's office. Everything therein was lost. Then came Assistant Superinten ent Murray's department, in which were located all the documents concerning the operation of the Winnipeg, Broadview division and the branch lines. The contents of the trainmaster's office were a total loss, as were also those of the local treasurer's. It is believed the contents of the vaults will be all right. The despatcher's office is a sad wreck. All the instruments were destroyed as well as the batteries. The stores department, audit office and general superintendent's office were the last to go. Down stairs the baggage-room and the ticket office were completely gutted. The Dominion express Company are heavy losers. The office was completely filled with goods for shipment this morning. All was destroyed. The two men sleeping there were able to escape with their clothes only. Two safes in the office contained a large amount of money, and there is some doubt as to whether they will come through all right. The goods are valued at $10,000 alone besides money, the amount of which could not be definitely learned.

Woman's Foreign Missionary Society.

The first meeting of the Guelph Presbyterial Society was held in the lecture room of Chalmers' Church, on Thursday, 25th February. The day was very unfavorable as heavy rain was falling. Notwithstanding this, there was a large attendance of delegates from Societies in the Presbytery and friends belonging to the City. The ladies of the Guelph auxiliary had kindly provided luncheon for the delega es on their arrival.

At the afternoon meeting Mrs. Smellie, of Fergus, President of the Society, occupied the chair and conducted the devotional exercises; portions of scripture were read responsively. Mrs. Wardrope, of Guelph, welcomed the delegates and friends, Mrs. Muir, of Fergus, replied in place of Mrs. Mullan who was unable to be present. The President reviewed the work accomplished by the Society since its foundation nine months ago, and gave a general outlook over the missionary horizon, many new fields open requiring increased effort. The Secretary reported that the following auxiliary societies had been organized, viz: Erin, Belwood, Fergus, (St. Andrew's church), Berlin and Eramosa, and two Mission Bands, Belwood, 2nd Congregation, "Willing Workers" Melville church, Fergus. The Presbyterial Society now includes eight auxi iaries and two mission bands, with a total membership of 363.

The Treasurer, Miss Helen Cant, of Galt, presented the financial statement. The whole year's contribution's, as shown by societies' reports, amount to $522.99. Of this sum a part had been sent to the General Treasurer by auxiliaries existing before the Presbyterial Society was formed.

Reports from auxiliaries were read by the respective secretaries, and all show progress and interest.

Miss Ebbert, of Galt, read a very interesting paper on India, and added interest was felt, because Miss Ebbert has the prospect of going out to India to engage in the work there.

Mrs. Tait, of Berlin, contributed a useful and suggestive paper on "The benefits we derive from the work" as individuals and congregations."

The office bearers having only served a portion of the last year were, on motion, re-elected to hold office till the next annual meeting, to be held in Knox Church, Galt, next February. The officers are—

President, Mrs. Smellie.

Vice-Presidents, Mesdames Wardrope, J. K. Smith, Drainie.

Secretary, Mrs. McCrae.

Treasurer, Miss Helen Cant.

After prayer by Mrs. J. K. Smith, of Galt, the doxology was sung an a short time was spent in social intercourse before the guests left for their homes.

THE FRANCHISE ACT.

The Qualifications of Voters—The Process of Registration Explained.

The time having arrived for the preparation of the voters' lists under the new Dominion Franchise Act, an appeal is made to the Liberals of Wellington have their names enrolled as voters without delay. To assist in so doing a short summary of the qualification of voters and of the process for securing registration is given.

QUALIFICATION.

To entitle a person to be put on the he must be—

(1) 21 years of age.

(2) A British subject by birth or naturalization.

(3) Owner of real property of value:

In a city, $300.

In a town, $200.

In a county, $150.

(4) Or tenant of real property under ease at a rental of

$2 per month.

$6 per quarter.

$12 per half year.

$20 per year.

Provided that the tenant has been in possession for one year before 1st January 1886, and shall have paid one year's rent before final revision.

If the rent is yearly it will be sufficient if $20 of last year's rent shall have been paid before final revision.

Change of tenancy without intermission will not destroy the vote if aggregate of tenancies would give vote.

The assessor should be instructed state in the assessment roll the rent payable by each person assessed as tenant. If, however, this is not done, each tenant is prima facie entitled to be registered as a voter if the property is assessed at the following values:—

In cities at $300.

In towns at $200.

In counties at $150.

In counties outside of villages the rent may be payable either in money or in money's worth.

(5) Or a bona fide occupant for one year before 1st January, 1886, and enjoying the revenues and profits for his own or his wife's use of real property of the following values:

In cities, $300.

In towns, $200.

In counties, $150.

The occupancy may be under license of occupation from the crown or from any person or corporation.

(6) Or by income without any other qualification.

A person may be registered as an income voter, if he derives an income from his earnings, trade or profession, or from some investment in Canada of $300 a year, for one year before 1st January, 1886.

In counties the earnings may be either in money or money's worth.

(7) Sons of owners of real property are qualified—

(b) When the father is dead, and would, if living, be qualified, residence with the mother will suffice, and as many sons as the property will qualify may be registered, with preference to the eldest and elder sons, as in the last case.

Occasional absence from home of a son—not more than six months in the year—will not disqualify, and all time spent at school or college in Canada will be counted as if spent at home.

Son of an owner includes grandson, step-son and son-in-law, and all these may be registered as voters on the property if of sufficient value. The provision as to sons of owners applies to the counties as well as towns and cities in cases other than those of farmers' sons.

(8) Farmers' sons—The same provisions substantially apply to farmers' sons, as stated in the last paragraph in respect of sons of owners in cities and towns.

A farm is to be not less than 20 acres of land.

(9) Fishermen and owners of real property and boats, nets, fishing gear and tackle of aggregate value of $150.

Income voters register where they reside at time of registration—all others where property is situate. If in more than one polling division in the same electoral district the voter may register in either.

All names entered in the last revised voters' lists under the old law, will be entered in the new lists by the revising barrister.

Every person not on the assessment roll desiring to have his name on the list must at once send to the revising barrister an application in writing to be put on the list, giving his name, residence and the property or other qualification in respect of which he applies to be put on.

This application must be accompanied by a declaration which is to be made and signed before a commissioner for taking affidavits, a notary or justice of the peace, showing the grounds of the applicants claim to be put on the list.

Substantially the voters are those who can qualify as owners, tenants, occupants, income voters, sons of owners and farmers' sons.

See that the application shows as correctly and fully as possible the qualification.

Make the declaration before a commissioner, notary or justice of the peace. It is convenient to have it attached to the application on the same sheet.

In case of an absent person, let some one else having a knowledge of the qualification make the application and declaration.

When one cannot find a justice or other person before whom the declaration can be taken let the application alone be sent in, with an explanation of the reason, and it would be well in such case to have the truth of the facts in the application certified on the back of it by one, or if possible, two other persons.

The application and declaration must be sent at once to the Revising barrister of the district.

URGENCY OF THE MATTER.

No name not on the last voters' list or assessment roll will be placed on the preliminary voters' list, unless on application and declaration as above.

In case of any difficulty or doubt, application should be made at once for advice to some of the Liberal friends in the neighborhood.

Horsford's Acid Phosphate

For Alcoholism.

Dr. C. S Ellis, Wabash, Ind., says "I prescribed it to a man who had used intoxicants to excess, for fifteen years, but during the last two years has entirely abstained. He thinks the Acid Phosphate is of much benefit to him."

Two cigar manufacturers have been nabbed by the customs authorities at Windsor in the act of smuggling cigar labels. One Bristol was compelled to pay over $986.60, and the other, Stover, $861.40, to the Government.

There is no remedy in existence containing any one of the active ingredients composing McGregor's Lung Compound, so do not say you have taken everything until you have tried this for your cold or cough, and your opinion will be the same as all who have used it, viz., that it is the best. Farms Wanted.

FARMS WANTED—ALL KINDS, SIZES and prices, for over 500 applicants who wish to buy and have written to us for particulars of farms. We also want farms for our Farm Advertiser, which will be published shortly, and be placed in the hands of intending purchasers in all parts of Canada and the United States, and Europe. We give full particulars, including size of buildings, quality of soil and price, but never give owner's name, number of lot nor concession.

We positively make no charge unless the property be sold. This is sufficient proof that our business is conducted on honest and straightforward principles. Remember we want no agreements to register against your property. We advertise farms in all the leading Newspapers in Canada, and we advertise in almost every state in America, and throughout the whole of Europe. Many of our present applications for farms are from the United States, Europe and other countries. We have now arranged with 32 agents in Canada and Europe to have our advertiser placed in the hands of intending buyers.

Though only 11 months ago we started business in Guelph, and then had no applications for property, since May last we have sold 41 farms at an aggregate price of $262,150.00. Those having farms for sale are requested to come to Guelph, and give us full particulars of their farms, or send us their name and address, and if we cannot prove all we here state to be true and correct in every particular, we agree and shall be pleased to pay every man's expenses coming to Guelph and returning, who has property to sell. Come to the office and see for yourselves, the letters from our applicants for farms, the testimonials from farmers whose places we have sold, and also press notices, etc. If you cannot come, send us your names and address. AS
We would recommend for
DYSPEPSIA, INDIGESTION,
And kindred diseases, the use of
MALTOPEPSYN.
FOR Consumption and all Wasting Diseases
The use of
Morse's Carbolated Norwegian Cod Liver Oil.
Glycerole of Celery Compound, containing no Opium.
You probably ask why we recommend these remedies. It is because we know them to be reliable remedies, endorsed by leading physicians throughout the Dominion, for the cure of specific diseases, and not claiming to cure everything. Also because they have the exact formula printed on each bottle label, thereby enabling the purchaser to know just what he is taking. The time is rapidly approaching when intelligent people will refuse to take quack cure-alls, the ingredients of which are kept secret, but will insist upon knowing just what they are taking.

Rockton Sabbath School anniversary and tea meeting was held on Sabbath and Monday, February 14th and 15th. On Sabbath divine worship was held in the Methodist church at 2.30 o'clock by the Rev. A. M. Phillips, B. D., of Galt. He took for his text the words "By their fruits ye shall know them." At 7 o'clock the Rev. Samuel Carruthers, of Kirkwall, chose for his text "Forbid them not, for of such is the Kingdom of Heaven." Large congregations attended both services and were apparently much impressed with them. On Monday evening, February 15th, a grand tea meeting was held. Refreshments were provided in the town hall. Addresses were delivered by the Revs. J. G. Foote, of Troy; Samuel Carruthers, of Kirkwall; Thomas Vanden, of Sheffield; S. W. Fisher, of West Flamboro', and J. H. Smith, Inspector of Public Schools of Ancaster. Excellent music was furnished by the celebrated Baker family, of Ancaster. Dr. Smith, of Sheffield, occupied the chair. The collection taken up on Sabbath and the proceeds of the tea meeting amounted to $36, which will be applied for the benefit of the Sabbath School. The proceedings closed with the benediction, all being well satisfied.

RUNAWAY.—There was an exciting runaway at Linwood one day last week. A span of horses attached to a cutter and driven by Mr. Fish, merchant of that place, took fright at the blowing of the mill whistle. Mr. Fish thought it would be as well for him to get out as to try to stop them, so he threw himself out of the cutter and let the horses look out for themselves. He received a bad shaking up by falling on the hard road. The horses ran about seven miles before they were stopped, and on examination it was found that neither horses nor cutter had sustained any damage.

SPECIAL SERVICES.—The special meetings that have been held in the Methodist church, Hawkesville, during the last eight weeks were brought to a close on Friday evening last. They were not as successful as it was hoped that they would have been. Messrs. Caldwell and Cranston, the evangelists who were conducting the meetings, have gone to Crosshill to start meetings in connection with the Presbyterian church there.

PERSONALS.—Rev. Mr. Lesky, of Linwood, has gone to Guelph to aid Rev. Mr. Savage in special work for a week. Rev. Mr. Boyd, of Crosshill, preached a special sermon for Rev. Mr. Ray in North Mornington last Monday. Messrs. T. Campbell and W. Mundell have been chosen as elders in the Presbyterian church at Crosshill, in place of Geo. Mauser, deceased.

Harriston Correspondence.

PROF. VALLANCE. The entertainment given in connection with the Mechanics' Institute, in the Town Hall, on Thursday evening last, was very well patronized, considering the unpleasant condition of the roads and weather. The recitations given by Prof. Vallance were highly appreciated. Those claiming to be judges of elocution pronounce Mr. Vallance the best that has ever visited our town.

REMOVED.—R. Portlock, who has for the past few years been engaged in the fancy goods' business here, has removed to Woodstock. Mr Portlock had some peculiarities which will cause him to be missed from the town. He will without doubt soon make his mark among the Woodstock people.

QUIET.—The extreme cold of the past three or four days has had the effect of making trade generally quiet. In fact the business of the town is not booming very much this winter. The N. P. appears to have lost the wonderful power claimed for it by our Conservative friends.

CATTLE FAIR.—The cattle fair held here on Friday last was well attended. Prices were too small to be satisfactory to the farmers. A number of horse buyers from a distance were here and bought quite a number of horses, at good figures.

CONCERT.—A concert will be held in the Methodist Church here on Monday evening next. A troupe composed of a coloured family named Ballard, we believe, to give the entertainment.

THE ROLLER RINK.—The proprietors of the Roller Rink are so indignant at the action of our town fathers in imposing a license on such places of amusement that they have closed the rink and say they will not re-open unless the Council repeals the obnoxious by-law.

THE NEW COUNTIES.—The large (paid) deputations from Listowel and Mount Forest, together with a few from Palmerston, Harriston, and the Township of Minto had, on Saturday morning last, a hearing before the Government with reference to the formation of new counties. After giving them what some are inclined to think a large amount of taffy, Mr Mowat very properly informed them that the question was of too much importance to be settled by private legislation; that it, when done, would be made a Government measure. As some of these parties have been repeatedly informed of the Government's intentions with regard to this matter it can hardly be expected they will even yet take the hint and cease pestering the Government. Doubtless Shepherd & Co. will remain around the House until the session closes and then come home and prepare to renew the attack next winter. Would it not be advisable for our Mount Forest friends to appoint a good man, say Mr Shepherd, to take up his abode at Toronto to look after this matter? A kind o' High Commissioner."

Local News.

MR. G. B. FRASER and Dr. Bryce, formerly of Guelph, were elected members of the Toronto Caledonian Society on Tuesday night.

IT has been decided to change the name of the Clipper baseball club of Hamilton to the Hamilton baseball club. A more appropriate name would be the Traitors.

AN entertainment will be given by the Guelph Catholic Union, in their hall over Hazelton's block, to-night, consisting of music and the laughable farce entitled "Virginian Mummy." These entertainments are becoming popular.

MR. ROBERT A. KIRBY writes stating that his expenses to Toronto, in connection with the Guelph Fat Stock Club, were only $3, not $4, as appeared in our report. The other dollar should have been charged for expenses of judges on the 25th March last.

EASTER FAIR.—A meeting of the Committee of the Guelph Fat Stock Club appointed to make arrangements for the Easter Fair was held to-day, when it was decided that the annual Easter Fair be held on Thursday the 15th of April.

MONTHLY FAIR.—There was a large number of people in town to-day attending the monthly cattle fair. There were over two hundred head of cattle offered, principally good butchers'. The prices paid for these ranged from 3c to 4c. per pound, a few extra animals being disposed of at 4½c. L. O. Barber bought four steers weighing about 1300 each, from Joseph Hardy, Puslinch, at 4½c per pound.

THE fathers of Parkdale on Monday night confirmed the appointment of A. McMillan to the vacant clerkship of the town. A strong effort was made by some of the councillors to have him rejected and one of the rival candidates put in, but this was frustrated.

ENTERTAINMENT AT NASSAGAWEYA.—A grand entertainment will be given in the School House, Section No. 5, Nassagaweya, on Friday, the 5th March, when an excellent programme of vocal and instrumental music, readings, recitations, &c., will be given. There will also be a magic lantern entertainment by Mr. D. Milne, and a comedy entitled "One too many for him."

ACCIDENT.—Dr. McPhatter met with an accident yesterday afternoon. When entering his cutter in front of his surgery, the horse made a spring forward and gave a sudden turn, throwing the doctor out. He held on to the lines and prevented the animal from running away. The result of the accident is that the Doctor is walking around street to-day with the aid of a walking cane and is thankful that the injuries were not of a more serious nature.

CAST ADRIFT.—The Baird Comedy Company presented last night to a fair audience the well known emotional drama, "Cast Adrift." Robert H. Baird as Norton Heath, sustained the character to the evident satisfaction of the audience, and was frequently applauded. Mamie Harvey personified Mabel Heath to equal advantage. Messrs. C. E. Thompson and Edwin Houghton, and Miss Lizzie Baird and other performers took their parts well. Last night, as on the previous night, the company delighted their audience, and to-night, when the play of "The Ticket of Leave Man" is put on the boards, they will no doubt be greeted with a large house.

SKATING RACES.—The races at the rink last night was only fairly attended, owing to so many other attractions and the cold weather. The five mile race between Phelan and McCutcheon was decidedly tame and uninteresting, McCutcheon gaining nearly a lap on the first mile, then allowing Phelan to get ahead, which appeared suspicious to many. The Fergus man held first place till entering on the last mile, when McCutcheon again lead and held the position till the last lap, when Phelan passed him, winning the race. In this connection Mr. Maddock, manager of the rink, wishes it to be stated that he has ruled McCutcheon out from ever participating in another race while the rink is under his management, the manner of his skating this race being sufficient in his opinion without advancing other reasons, for doing so. If proof is brought out that Phelan was in collusion with him, he also will be debarred. The three mile race between Lee, of Georgetown; Walker, of Fergus, and Bunyan, of Guelph, was close and exciting, and was well worth seeing, the competitors apparently exhibiting an earnest desire to win. The three contestants kept close together till after the second mile, when Lee and Walker gradually drew away from Bunyan, and finished a close race, with Lee two feet in advance of Walker and Bunyan a lap behind.

Board of Trade.

Last night a meeting of the Council of the Board of Trade was held in Captain Clarke's office in the City Hall Buildings. There were present Messrs. Hortop, J. E. McElderry, D. McCrae, Henry Hatch, John McCrea, A. J. Little, and J. S. Jones.

Mr. John McCrea in the absence of the President and Vice-President was appointed chairman.

Mr. H. Hatch spoke on R. R. matters and said that the Guelph Junction R. R. Directors had not given any information about what they were doing and how they were pushing forward the interests of the road. They were responsible to the people that their duties were properly performed, and that the interests of the public were not suffering, as they were acting for the whole of the ratepayers in this matter.

Mr. Jones brought up the question of making Wednesday an open market day.

Moved by Mr. McElderry, seconded by Mr. Hatch, that the secretary communicate with the Mayor in respect of appointing a special Wednesday market day in addition to Saturday as at present, and that the Secretary, Messrs. McEldery, and Little, wait on the City Council and urge the case.

Moved by D. McCrae, seconded by A. J. Little, that the Secretary communicate with the General Passenger Agent of the G.T.R. asking for the special priveleges now accorded the members of the Toronto Board of Trade. Carried.

Four new members were added to the list viz:—Messrs. H. Gummer, John Crowe, John Hamilton, Wm. Watson and A. Murchy.

The meeting then adjourned.

Seventy thousand dollars have been subscribed by New Yorkers to the Parnellite fund.

Probabilities.

MATHIAS KIRBY, Guelph Township, sold a fine young stallion coming three years old, got by Gladstone, dam Fly by Argile, to Robert Brown, Acton, for a good figure.

JAMES TAYLOR, auctioneer, yesterday sold the farm stock and implements of A. Brydon, Nichol. There was a large number present, and the sale was most successful.

THE rinks skipped by Messrs. Mackenzie and Congalton will play to-morrow afternoon for the Gow cup. The other rinks will need to hurry up before the ice disappears.

A SOCIAL was held last night at the residence of Mr. Wm. Burrows, Nassagaweya, in aid of the Methodist church, Eden Mills. There was a large attendance, and a nice little sum was realized for the object in view.

FIRE IN ERAMOSA.—On Tuesday forenoon the log barn and stable on Mr. James Talbot's farm, con. 7, lot 30, Eramosa, were destroyed by fire. The flames were communicated to some straw in the stable by a stove in the root house, and had made considerable headway before discovered by Mr. Talbot, who was with his brother in the barn at the time. The two men at once rescued four horses and all the cattle but two fat beasts, which could not be got out and which perished in the flames. All the contents of the barn, including some 300 bushels of grain and a large supply of hay and straw, were consumed. Several of the neighbors congregated about the burning buildings, but were powerless to do anything. Mr. Talbot's loss will probably reach the neighborhood of $1200; insurance, $800, in a London company. Some of his friends have very generously proposed to take steps towards making good this loss, which Mr. Talbot will feel severely.

ONTARIO LEGISLATURE.

TORONTO, March 1.

A number of bills were read a first and second time. Among them was one by Mr. Freeman respecting Gas and Water Companies.

Mr. Meredith asked what was the Government's policy respecting the bill?

Hon. O. Mowat said that he understood the general purpose of the Bill was to prevent companies from evading the provisions of the law restricting the amount of dividends. The general principle being a good one, the House without assenting to all the details might read it a second time and refer it to the Municipal Committe.

The Bill was read a second time and referred to the Municipal Committee.

The House adjourned at 3.40.

March 2.

Bills were introduced by Mr. O'Connor to incorporate the Ontario Creamery Association; by Mr. Freeman (with the consent of the House) to separate certain municipalities in Perth, Huron, and Wellington, and to erect the same into the County of Maitland.

Mr. Ross brought up his resolution to appoint a Provincial Auditor at a salary of $2,400. It was advanced a stage.

The House went into committee of the whole on Mr. Ross' (Huron) liquor license resolution. Alterations were made in the schedule previously published to this extent, $60 for tavern and shop licenses in towns and incorporated villages; $30 in townships; under the Canada Temperance Act, druggists' licenses are fixed at $70 in cities, $40 in towns and $30 in other municipalities. The motion was adopted.

Mr. Hardy introduced his bill for the regulation of wine and beer licenses, which has already been described. It was read a second time.

Mr. Pardee explained the object of his bill respecting free grants and homesteads in the Rainy River district. It provides that every locatee who is the head of a family shall be granted 160 acres and allows him to purchase eighty more at $1 per acre. It is proposed to give single men over 18 years of age eighty acres, with the privilege of buying eighty more. The district is now difficult of access, but a charter had been granted for a line in connection with the C. P. R. system, and there was also a colonization road in course of construction to enable the settlers to reach Rat Portage. The Government desired that they might be placed in a position shortly to give unquestionable patents to locatees. There is a question before the Courts, the decision of which will remove all doubts on that subject.

The Commissioner of Public Works' bill to secure compensation to workmen in certain cases, has for its main object such amendments of the existing law as will compensate workmen for injuries sustained through defective machinery or the negligence of a fellow-workman possessing any power of superintendence or control. Mr. Fraser explained the bill at considerable length in its various ramifications, including a proposition to enable a number of injured workmen, or their friends, to join in a common action under the bill.

The House went into Committee of Supply upon Treasurer Ross' bill for the better auditing of the public accounts.

A few unimportant verbal alterations were made, and the committee passed to the consideration of the items for school purposes, including an additional $2,000 for the assistance of schools in unorganized townships in the new districts. The items were passed.

The next order in supply was that of public institutions maintenance. The Toronto asylum for the insane was voted $93,860; London, $199,480; Kingston, $89,421; Hamilton, $80,887; asylum for idiots, Orillia, $23,860; Central Prison, Toronto, $79,490; Mercer Reformatory, Toronto, $30,076. The increase of nearly $3,000 in the Central Prison was explained by Mr. Hardy as being necessitated by taking clerical work out of the hands of prisoners, who made an improper use of their opportunities.

It was after eleven when the House adjourned.

Prof. Edwards' Readings.

The programme of music and readings given in the Congregational Church last evening under the auspices of Prof. T. C. Edwards and his elocution classes formed a thoroughly enjoyable entertainment and was well attended, the church being comfortably filled. President Mills, O. A. C., occupied the chair and at eight o'clock, in a few brief remarks, introduced the programme of the evening. Mrs. John Crowe gave evidence of her thorough control of the instrument, the transitions in tone being carefully done. Prof. Edwards followed with a short description of true vocal expression, giving examples to bring out his meaning. The recital of Mr. C. R. Brown, O. A. C., "Our Folks" was capitally done, while Miss Maddock in her reading "The Ship on Fire" entered fully into the pathetic nature of her selection, and gave her audience a clear conception of the incidents of the piece. Mr. John Crowe's solo "The King of Love my Shepherd is," was fully appreciated, and Mr. Walter, O. A. C., and Miss Griffiths in their recitals were attentively listened to and the spirit of the poems plainly understood. The closing number of the first part was Macaulay's inspiring "Battle of Ivry," and Mr. Hugh Guthrie did it full justice, giving promise as a speaker of more than local repute. The second part opened with a nicely selected organ solo by Mrs. Jas. Clark, and in her solo "The Chorister," Miss Cope displayed her sweet toned voice to advantage. Prof. Edwards ably sustained the balance of the programme and in all his selections, whether grave or gay, pathetic or mirthful, the characters introduced to his audience lost none of their distinctive peculiarities at his hand. His pourtrayal of "Conor," the faithful Irishman, the bluff Henry V. and the wayward Queen Catharine, the Van Ripers, father, frau, and son, inquisitive Clarence and his patient instructor, was instructive and entertaining.

A very pleasant break in the programme was occasioned by the presentation to the Professor of a valuable gold headed cane, on behalf of the city class. The address, read by Ald. W. G. Smith, bore testimony to the valuable service rendered by Prof. Edwards, both by precept and example, and their appreciation of his talents. At the proper time Miss Williamson handed over the cane which is a very handsome one, purchased from Mr. B. Savage. The recipient replied in suitable terms, thanking the Guelph friends for the kindness he had received in their midst. "God Save the Queen," brought the evening's proceedings to a close.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

OTTAWA, March 1st.

Mr. Robertson, of Hamilton, reintroduced his famous "Ice-hole Bill." This bill is to punish persons who leave unprotected holes in the ice on navigable and frequented waters.

Mr. Robertson also introduced an act to further amend the law of evidence in criminal cases. He explained that the act would make provision for persons who would not take an oath to give evidence by affirmation.

Mr. Mulock reintroduced his bill to further amend the Consolidated Railway Act of 1879. One clause would give effect to the amended act of 1882, which compelled railway companies to redeem unused tickets.

Sir Richard Cartwright submitted his question to the Finance Minister—"What was the gross debt of the Dominion on March 1, 1886?"

Mr. McLelan—"Without deducting assets of $72,791,857, the gross debt of the Dominion on that date was $281,314,532."

Sir Richard—"What portion of the gross debt of the Dominion was represented by temporary loans from other parties in Canada or elsewhere?"

Mr. McLelan—"$14,862,807."

In answer to Mr. Hackett, the Minister of Fisheries said it was not the intention of the Government to prohibit fishing for lobsters for canning purposes around the coast of Prince Edward Island for three years, as rumoured in the newspapers of the Maritime Provinces.

Mr. Coursol asked this question: "Whether the Government, after the conviction of Louis Riel, appointed a medical commission to enquire into the mental condition of the prisoner; if so, did said commission forward a report to the Government and is it the intention of the Government to lay the said report before the house and when?"

Sir John Macdonald said that in consequence of representations made to the Government two medical practitioners were appointed to enquire into the mental accountability of Louis Riel since his conviction. The reports, as well one from the surgeon of the prison, will be laid before the House immediately.

Mr. Casgrain had a notice on the paper calling for a return showing the extent of land grants to Mr. Valin, M. P.

The Minister of the Interior said Mr. Valin had procured the lands in the regular way, the same as any other member of Parliament could do. He had paid over $13,000 on them.

The Trade and Navigation Returns, the Public Accounts and the Auditor General's and Inland Revenue Reports were laid on the table.

Sir John moved the adjournment, when Sir Richard Cartwright arose and said he wanted to correct a statement made by the Minister of the Interior on Friday night. He (Sir Richard) had remarked that the speeches made by Sir John at the St. George's Club in London on Imperial Federation were not consistent with those delivered in Canada on the same subject. The Minister of the Interior quoted from a speech of Sir John delivered at the Conservative conven ion in Toronto in December, 1884, to show that they were. Sir Richard said he did not have reference to the convention speech at all. On November 20th, 1881, at a dinner to the Premier in the Horticultural Gardens, Toronto, Sir John used these words, as reported in the Mail newspaper:

"Well then, gentlemen, we are told that we want an Imperial Federation. I will not trouble you with a disquisition on that subject just now, but I tell you Imperial Federation is utterly impracticable. (Applause.) We will govern our own country. (Hear, hear.) We will put on the taxes ourselves. If we propose to misgovern ourselves we will do so. (Laughter.) And we do not desire England, Ireland or Scotland to tell us we are fools."

Sir John looked across the floor at Sir Richard and remarked:—"Oh, I forgot all about my having made a speech in '81."

This announcement was followed by a clatter on the Opposition benches, but no further explanation was offered by the Premier or any of his Ministers.

Mr. Cameron (Huron) asked the Government if they intended to lay before Parliament a complete report of the Riel trial. The cross-examination of Chas. Nolin relating to Riel's insanity, the discussion between the counsel for the crown and the counsel for the defence and the prisoner with regard to the postponement of the trial for a month from July 21, and the judge's charge were all missing in the pamphlet.

Hon. Mr. Chapleau said the evidence in its entirety was printed in the book. It was not thought that the speeches referred to were necessary to make the pamphlet complete.

"Mr. Blake—"The judge's charge is very important."

Mr. Chapleau said he had no objection to printing it.

Notices of motion asking for information and papers covering every conceivable phase of the Northwest rebellion and the execution of Riel were sent to the clerk's table.

In the Senate Mr. Girard, the French Canadian Senator from Manitoba, in a half-hearted way supported the Government in the execution of Riel. Senator Power, of Halifax, demanded ample protection for the Canadian fisheries. Senators Kaulback and Haythorne closed the debate for the day. [Ottawa, March 2.

Hon. Mr. Chapleau presented a return giving the names of the Grand Trunk Railway shareholders.

Mr. Landry gave notice of the following motion which he will move on Friday.

"That this House feels it its duty to express its deep regret that the sentence of death passed upon Louis Riel, convicted of high treason, was allowed to be carried into execution."

In the Senate Hon. Mr. Bellrose charged the Government with causing the late rebellion. Who are the real traitors?" he asked, "not the poor, persecuted Half-breeds. Oh, no! It is the Government itself, and the men who administer their affairs. What was the rebellion? It was nothing more nor less than a dramatic tragedy begun in England in 1867 and ending in Regina on the scaffold on Nov. 21st, 1885.

Senator McInnes, of British Columbia, attacked the paragraph of the Address which said that the country was prosperous. "I deny this emphatically," exclaimed the Senator. "The Province of British Columbia has never been in a worse condition for twelve years than at present.

Senator Macdonald, also of the Pacific Province, told the House that Senator McInnes could not possibly be a good judge of the present state of affairs in his own Province, because he (Mr. McInnes) had not been there for two years.

The debate closed and the Address passed.

The Evening Mercury

WEDNESDAY EVE'G MARCH 3, 1886.

The Power of Patronage.

A pamphlet has just been issued by Dawson Brothers, of Montreal, which bears the significant title, "Patronage is Power." The Montreal Gazette, the personal organ of the Minister of the Interior, devotes a rather curious article to this subject. As might be expected, however, it skips slightly over the strictures of the author of this pamphlet, in which he shows how patronage is exercised by the present Government, and especially by the Premier, for the purpose of retaining and strengthening their power. The abuse of the power of patronage by this Government has been exposed time and again, in numberless speeches by the Opposition, and in numberless articles by the Opposition press. It is only a week or so ago that we summarized the speech lately made by Mr. M. C. Cameron, of Huron, in which he pointed out the shameful system of nepotism which has been practiced by former and present members of this Government, It was shown that in some cases from six to a dozen relations, near or remote, had been put into places in the public service by some of the ministers, and in not a few cases over the heads of more competent, more deserving, and older employees.

It is well known that we have a Civil Service Act, which regulates the qualifications and appointments to office, but it is equally well known, that this Act is practically a dead letter, that its provisions are studiously and systematically ignored, and that scarcely a week occurs but some favourite of some member of the Government is thrust into office without any question being asked whether he is qualified or not for his duties. This practice has now come to be notorious, and no competent person need expect to succeed in getting a position without some extraordinary or back-stairs influence.

But the prenicious system is not confined to the Civil Service, for Sir John Macdonald has reduced the whole system of patronage in the Dominion to a science; his sole object being to strengthen his Government by rewarding or bribing supporters both in and out of Parliament. "To the victors belong the spoils" is a maxim which he practises to the fullest extent, and not only this, but he scatters the property of the Dominion among his followers with a lavish hand as a reward for past services, or as a bribe to them to be faithful and true in the future. In proof of this we have only to point to the shameless manner in which timber limits, coal lands, and grazing lands in the Northwest have been given away or leased to his supporters in Parliament or to their immediate friends who are interested with them in obtaining this plunder from the public domain. Witness also the reckless manner in which millions of the public money have been thrown away in the shape of bonuses for local railways or branch lines, located in constituencies whose representatives always voted straight with the Government for such considerations. Witness too the large sums of money that have been paid to Conservative papers for printing immigration and other pamphlets, and for which extortionate prices were charged, but which in every case was paid. These in nine cases out of ten, were little short of bribes to retain the support and allegiance of a press which in turn defends every act and movement of the Government no matter how corrupt. Need we say that the same system prevails in every department of public business? The one supreme object is to buttress a Government which is held together by the ruling principles of lust of power and selfishness, which latter again is the chief motive of those who have been the objects of the Government's patronage, or who are anxiously looking for office or emolument on the first opportunity. In this way political virtue and morality have been all but destroyed and public life in its every avenue degraded to a lower level than ever it was before in the history of our country.

Mr. Dent's History and William Lyon Mackenzie.

To the Editor of the MERCURY:—

SIR,—I notice the following in a recent issue of the MERCURY, from your Toronto correspondent:—

"The excitement that existed here for a time over the appearance of Dent's first volume of his History of the Rebellion has almost passed away, but will probably break out again when the second volume issues from the press. It may then turn out that the ardent admirers of W. L. Mackenzie have been too rashly heading in their denunciations of our historian who has, it must be supposed, the very best of evidence on which to base every statement he puts in print."

Since Mr. Dent got such a wigging in the press for the absurd and ridiculous position which he has taken in his book with respect to William Lyon Mackenzie and John Rolph, it has been reported that, in his second volume, he intends to "hedge," and trim his sails to catch the popular breeze. This has been rumoured in Toronto where the author himself has no doubt set the report afloat to discourage further criticism, and, if possible, whitewash his partisan authorship, as he has been whitewashing Rolph. Your correspondent has got hold of this report, in a sort of way, but, whatever form it takes, the dodge won't work. Intelligent readers of Mr. Dent's first volume have long since made up their minds as to the accuracy and truthfulness of the work as a whole. The author has plainly shown his hand already, and that he is steeped in prejudice against Mackenzie and in favor of Rolph. That is quite sufficient to discount the reliability of his story at the outset, and whatever Mr. Dent may say hereafter is of little consequence. If, after the well deserved drubbing he has received in the newspapers of all parties, he diplomatically changes his tune, his sincerity and honesty, to say nothing of his inconsistency, will be once the less open to question. It will require a good deal of literary manœuvring on the part of the author to convince intelligent persons that he has not been most unfair and unjust to Mackenzie and absurdly laudatory of the man who sold Mackenzie, Baldwin, and all the friends who trusted him at a critical moment in this struggle. Every person, who is at all familiar with the events of that time, knows that Rolph was a double-dyed traitor. The evidence is on record, and has never been gainsaid, and, although Rolph lived for years after the charge of treachery was made and proved against him, he never refuted or disproved it. It is too late in the day to attempt it now, and Mr. Dent is certainly not the man to do it. The "evidence" which your correspondent refers to is, I am quite satisfied, not worth a rap. It will consist of Rolph's review of the movement, which he never dare publish in his lifetime, and probably a few statements procured by him from persons who were more or less dependent on his official bounty when he afterwards became a member of the Government. These too, he never had the courage to publish while he lived, and when every one of them could have been overwhelmed with a cloud of adverse witnesses. Mr. Dent may write long, flowery stories of the rebellion from now till the day of judgment, but he will never be able to convince readers of any discernment or intelligence that Mackenzie was not the real hero of the struggle, and justly entitled to a warm place in the hearts of the Reformers of Canada, and that Rolph was not the man which the Globe described him the wily, cunning "oily gammon" whose "lips were cut for the passage of insincerities." MacKenzie's lifelong honesty, integrity and fearless and powerful advocacy of popular rights, are not to be spoken of in the same breath with such a base counterfeit of political heroism."

Yours &c.,
AN OLD REFORMER.

In Memory of Sheriff Gow.

The following lines on the late Sheriff Gow have been sent to the MERCURY for insertion by Mr. David Wylie, of Brockville, the father of the Canadian press. Sheriff Gow's father and Mr. Wylie's were known to each other, and the Sheriff and the writer were born in the same town, and when boys enjoyed the same sports and the same surroundings. The following is Mr. Wylie's lines in memoriam for his old friend:

Dead! No, oh no! he's only gone before,
To join his fathers on the other shore,
His span was short, but not unhonoured, no,
His memory—revered—for years will flow,
And Sheriff Gow will long remembered be
By friends in sorrow and by friends in glee.

When our young feet first prattled to and fro
In nooks and crannies where the wild flowers grow,
Where Cart and Gryffe roll slowly to the Clyde,
We ran in boyish gambols side by side.
Then years passed on, from boys we grew to men,
Since then long years apart from others ken,
Each striving upwards for a firmer hold
Of something even pleasanter than gold—
Fame, and the good of others, for our creed—
In earth or sea there is no nobler seed.
Now thou art called to glean thy harvest ripe—
Of all that's noble, a most worthy type.
Thy dear ones, left behind, can look on high
And scan his vision in the beauteous sky.
I, too, when life's last throes are o'er,
Will meet him when I reach the heavenly shore.

Why should we mourn when good men pass away?
We feel they're happy, for we know they stay.

The Rockwood Carnival.

To the Editor of the MERCURY:

DEAR SIR,—I decline the honour of a correspondence with your Rockwood correspondent. I shall treat him with silent contempt. However I think it my duty to say that neither my "brilliant young relative" nor I had anything to do with the authorship of that letter that annoyed him so, neither did I claim it as the production of my pen.

Yours respectfully,
W. WILLOUGHBY.

Retrospective.

FEBRUARY 27th, 1886.

It is just one year since the opening of my new business at 27 Lower Wyndham Street was announced. The retrospect is a pleasant one. The motto was and has been "Never fear to do right." The policy of the business was to sell good, reliable goods at a fair moderate profit, to sell strictly for cash to always pay and demand one hundred cents for every dollar, to offer customers our best efforts without boring them to buy, to make it a pleasure to call at our store, to eschew all bombast and exaggeration, to keep a sharp look out for advantages to our customers, to unite their interests with our own, to strictly mind our own business, to win the confidence of all our Patrons. Under the blessings of a kind Providence, the year just closed has been a most prosperous and satisfactory one. Our name and reputation have been established, our sales were 50 per cent more than our highest anticipations, and the result of the year's business very encouraging and satisfactory. Our hearty thanks are tendered to our many patrons.

PROSPECTIVE.

The same principles, riper experience, wider facilities, stronger efforts, increased confidence in the intelligence and discrimination of the public, determination and ability to meet the keenest legitimate competition, goods that will bear inspection and comparison and steady persevering effort, will be at the command of our patrons, and we have no fear that though the most strenuous efforts, legitimate and otherwise, will in the future as they have in the past be buzzing on every hand, the business at No. 27 will not only maintain but greatly strengthen the leading position which it has taken.

RAISE THE STANDARD HIGH.

The Dry Goods Trade is never elevated by one firm trying to hurt the reputation of another, neither will it raise the firm who tries it in the estimation of the public.

We do not propose to lower the standard of a

Respectable and Highly Thought of Business by any such Nonsense,

But on the other hand if there is anything we can do that will tend to elevate the Dry Goods Trade and those connected with us it will be done.

If other merchants in the city have found their trade in advance of last year (and with less salesmen required), we are glad to hear of it, and it speaks well for Guelph and we only hope they will still continue to prosper. As for us

WE ARE SATISFIED.

We are pleased with our business, our city and the people we have met with since coming to Guelph.

It is just a little over one month since we bought the

Very Respectable and Highly Thought of Business of Messrs. John Hogg & Son.,

and we have been told by those who know, that our sales for the month of February are in advance of the same month last year and we propose by attending

Strictly to our own Business

and by placing before the public

Good Honest Reliable Goods,

and at prices that will cause the people to know (without us having to tell them) that we are

Men of Experience in the Dry Goods Trade knowing Where to buy, How to buy and having the Bullion to Buy with.

Large quantities of goods are coming to hand every week from England, Ireland, Scotland and the United States; also from the different parts of Canada, which we are marking at a very low price and passing into stock.

We expect a large Spring Trade and are preparing for same.

We have retained all the old hands and they will be pleased to see their old friends.

Elora Correspondence.

THE RAILWAY ACCIDENT.—The scene of the railway accident on the G. T. R., on Friday morning last, of which particulars have already appeared in the MERCURY, was visited by hundreds on Friday and Saturday, and probably by two or three thousand on Sunday. On Saturday and yesterday preparations were made by laying a timber track for the removal of the locomotive from the spot to which it had fallen to the rails above, but two or three more days will expire before the whole work of clearing away the debris is completed. On Sunday two cars and the tender were replaced on the track, and the splintered cars will be burnt at the place where they fell. On Thursday last a continual rain and thaw prevailed, followed at night by intense frost. Water accumulated upon the track, and was rapidly congealed into solid ice at a point at the foot of the incline on either side of the bridge crossing the Grand River, between Elora and Fergus. The train was running at the usual rate of speed from Elora to Fergus, and when about opposite the house of the section man, on the south side of the bridge, the locomotive left the rails, ran across the small wooden bridge over the Fergus road, and plunged down the embankment within a few feet of the Grand River bridge, followed by the tender and nine cars, the caboose remaining on the track. The escape of the men on the engine was one of the most remarkable on record, for although buried under the coals and wreckage, and hurled many feet down the embankment, they received no greater injury than a few comparatively unimportant bruises. The engine received but little damage.

RUNAWAY.—On Saturday last the fast and spie did team owned by Judge Drew started in front of a blacksmith shop in Elora, where they had been left standing but a few moments, and rushed down Geddes street, heading for home at a terrific pace, and reached their stable with a somewhat damaged cutter and harness, after making the best time ever recorded in Elora. Fortunately there was no one in the sleigh, and the half-maddened animals did not come in contact with any person during their wild career.

PARTING SOCIAL.—On Friday evening last, the ladies of the Methodist Church in Elora gave a parting social to Mr and Mrs J. G. Somers, who leave in a few days to take up their residence in Toronto. This lady and gentleman have been amongst the most efficient members of the Methodist Church during their long residence in this neighborhood, and well deserved the unostentatious but heartfelt mark of esteem thus shown to them. Mr. Somers has followed his occupation in Elora for more than a quarter of a century, and has always ranked as one of our most thrifty, honest and industrious tradesmen. His presence will be missed, but he will carry with him the esteem and good wishes of all who have known him.

SUDDEN DEATH.—On Thursday last, in Pilkington, at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Jos. Stickney, died Mrs. Bye, relict of the late Mr. George Bye, whose death was recorded in these columns three weeks ago She and Mr. Bye had lived together many years, and had both reached far beyond the threescore years and ten when death called them home. She mourned his death with unaffected sorrow, and has survived him but a few short days.

MECHANICS' INSTITUTE.—The entertainment advertised by the committee of the Mechanics' Institute came off on Thursday evening last, and despite heavy rain was fairly attended. The singing, recitations, readings and addresses were of a highly attractive character, and deserved the large patronage which they would have received if the weather had been more propitious.

OPEN MEETING.—The Literary Society in connection with the High School will give one of its popular open meetings on the evening of Friday, 5th inst, in the school room. The programme is a varied one and will consist of recitations, readings, songs instrumental music and a debate upon the question: "That a Republican is preferable to a Monarchical form of Government," when Messrs. Faskin and Petrie will maintain the affirmative, and Messrs. Mitchell and Black will battle for the negative.

FAST TIME.—On Monday evening last, the final contest for the silver medal came off in the rink here between Chas. Gale and George Krausman. The start was a good one, and the time was creditable to the two contestants, the five miles having been covered in 20 min 15 sec. At the close Krausman pressed Gale so closely that he was not more than three feet in his rear when the line was crossed, and never exhibited staying qualities more markedly and creditably. Mr. Gale is to be congratulated upon his honest and well won victories this season, and well deserves the medal which will henceforth adorn his breast.

CHANGE OF PROPERTY.—Mr. Alex. Harris having sold his park lot and brick residence on lot 18, has purchased the brick house on Princess street, formerly owned by George Barron, Esq. He will shortly move into it.

VOTERS' LISTS.—The Dominion Voters' Lists for Elora, as prepared by Judge Chadwick, may now be seen in the office of E Burns, Esq., barrister, and at the post office, and ought to be consulted by all interested, to ascertain whether "he's got them on the List." If they're not there, "They surely will be missed," unless they send in their claims before the 22nd inst. The first court for hearing claims will be held at Fergus on the 29th inst. A meeting of the Elora Liberal Association will be held on Friday evening next, in the town hall, when arrangements will be made for looking after the interests of Reform voters.

NEW BRIDGE.—The contractors completed the painting of the new iron bridge on Saturday last, and the structure is now open for traffic, and has been duly christened the "Elora Foote Bridge," although calculated to carry from forty to sixty tons weight, if necessary. It is light in appearance, but thoroughly safe and substantial, and the good people of Pilkington and Nichol may now bring over their heaviest loads without fear or trembling.

PROGRESS.—The Messrs Taylor, of Aboyne, have purchased from Mr John McGowan, the flax mills there, of which for some time they have been the pushing and enterprising lessees. They intend to largely extend their business, and to put in stones for chopping purposes.

PROLIFIC.—Mr James Harcourt, of Pilkington, is the lucky owner of a cow, which in twelve months has given birth to four fine calves, all alive and kicking.

Sad.—Two worthies, engaged in cutting ice on the dam here a few days ago, for a well known Boniface, were furnished with a bottle of whiskey, and were so moderate in the use of the "cratur" that, when night came, about half the contents of Black Bess were still unused. For safety the bottle was hidden in a stump. On return to work next morning, the flask was dragged from its hiding place, when, Mella murther! the contents were found to be frozen as the ardent which did Yeoman service in the Tory cause in the contest in Muskoka. Next day the icemen sought a new employer in another Boniface, who heard their sad complainings and gave them a bottle of real standing which wouldn't freeze at fifty below zero. A portion of this was left when eve arrived, and was deposited, like the first bottle in a hiding place. Next morning revealed, alas! a dose of treble X Muskoka! The feelings of the worthy pair may be more easily imagined than described. Moral:—Don't hide your whiskey where Jim can find it, and replace the abstracted fluid with pure spring water.

ELORA FAIR.—Despite the severe character of the weather to-day, an unusually large number of people came in to attend the fair. Owing, however, to the low prices offered for cattle very few sales were effected, and beyond making considerable stir in the village the fair resulted in very little.

Elora, March 2, 1885.

This is to certify that I have used McGregor's Speedy Cure for Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint, and do honestly say that if it cost me one hundred dollars ($100.00) a bottle I would not be without it, as it has done me more good than all the medicines I ever used, and I feel like a new man.—Yours truly, Alex Steel, Carleton Place, Ont. This medicine is for sale at 50c. and $1.00 per bottle at Thos. S. Petrie's Drug Store.

Rockwood Correspondence.

Rev. W. J Piggott, B. A., has resigned the incumbency of St. John's church.

Mr. Alexander Maude has gone to Toronto to join "C" School of Infantry. He is anxious to accompany the flying column to the Northwest.

The Grand Trunk Railway Company has increased the fare between here and Guelph from thirty to forty cents for the round trip. This will have the effect of cutting off considerable traffic between this village and the city.

Rev. James Sieveright, B. A, delivered a lecture on the North West, in the Presbyterian church, on Wednesday evening last, in which he gave his hearers some new ideas regarding the Great Lone Land. Rev. Mr. Strachan occupied the chair, and the fine choir of the church furnished some appropriate music.

A Rockwood correspondent has been humbugging the MERCURY in regard to a lecture said to have been delivered in the Methodist church here by the Rev. Dr. Carman. No such lecture was delivered here, and if Dr. Carman ever visited Rockwood, it must have been many years ago.

The carnival on Friday evening was well patronized and some very handsome costumes were noticeable among the masqueraders. The two-mile race was won by Thomas Garstow, and the barrel race by James Black. The following are the names of the prize winners:—Ladies' senior class, Miss Minnie Brooks, "Queen of Jewels;" Junior class, Miss Frances Lee, "Fairy Queen." Gent's senior class, John Strachan, full dress;" Juniore, Frank Lee, "Knight in Armour." Best comic costume, George Dolton, "Stars and Stripes." Judges, Captain Schultz and Messrs. Knowles and Wright.

THE GOLDEN -LION-

STOCK TAKING COMPLETED.

We find we have a little lot of remnants amounting in all to the sum of $2,263.41.

These must be cleared out within two weeks to make room for New Goods arriving daily.

NOW

In the lull which usually follows Stock taking before the heaviest of the Spring work begins when we will have less time for such a review, we would like to place before our patrons and the public generally the state of our business, and explain why we claim to sell so much cheaper than others.

Our business for the past year has been eminently satisfactory, we having done the largest Cash business which has been done in the Lion for the last six years. Now this in ordinary times would be very encouraging, but in hard times like the present, we consider it most satisfactory and indicative of a reign of prosperity for the Lion much beyond what it has had in the past. Of course we have not had as much opposition, our friend, Mr. Hogg not having applied himself so closely to business as in former years, but this would not explain entirely the great increase in our trade. The reasons are many. We will state a few:

Our Goods are all fresh and new.

Our Prices are Low.

Our Goods are all marked in plain figures.

We have only one price for all.

We handle the Goods the public want, and at prices to suit them.

NO WONDER WE SELL CHEAP.

It is no wonder we sell cheap, as we are almost under no expense. Our Discounts more than pay our salaries, and as we pay no rent, the two principal items of expense are taken out.

NOW LADIES

We astonished you with the variety and cheapness of our stock last Spring, but we expect to surprise you even more this Spring. We have now a resident buyer in Glasgow, who is always on hand to secure any novelties or cheap lines that are thrown on the British Market, so that we will always be a little ahead of others, both in style and value.

Shines Bright on the Dominion.

For the past four months in Guelph the Sun has shone so bright on the merits of the that their superior qualities are now thoroughly established in the minds of the people, and although through pressure of business in other sections, we have deemed it advisable to close our warerooms in Guelph, still the business will go on, and our agents will be seen fitting around among the people, and supplying those who wish to purchase the best Organ or Piano in the market, at the lowest price and on the most favorable terms. What every body says must be so, "the Dominion instruments are the best." For catalogues or other information address

F. G. GARDINER, Berlin.

THE FRANCHISE ACT.

The Qualifications of Voters—The Process of Registration Explained.

The time having arrived for the preparation of the voters' lists under the new Dominion Franchise Act, an appeal is made to the Liberals of Wellington to have their names enrolled as voters without delay. To assist in so doing a short summary of the qualification of voters and of the process for securing registration is given.

QUALIFICATION.

To entitle a person to be put on the list he must be—

(1) 21 years of age.

(2) A British subject by birth or naturalization.

(3) Owner of real property of value:
In a city, $300.
In a town, $200.
In a county, $150.

(4) Or tenant of real property under lease at a rental of
$2 per month.
$6 per quarter.
$12 per half year.
$20 per year.

Provided that the tenant has been in possession for one year before 1st January 1886, and shall have paid one year's rent before final revision.

If the rent is yearly it will be sufficient if $20 of last year's rent shall have been paid before final revision.

Change of tenancy without intermission will not destroy the vote if aggregate of tenancies would give vote.

The assessor should be instructed state in the assessment roll the rent payable by each person assessed as tenant. If, however, this is not done, each tenant is prima facie entitled to be registered as a voter if the property is assessed at the following values:—
In cities at $300.
In towns at $200.
In counties at $150.

In counties outside of villages the rent may be payable either in money or in money's worth.

(5) Or a bona fide occupant for one year before 1st January, 1886, and enjoying the revenues and profits for his own or his wife's use of real property of the following values:
In cities, $300.
In towns, $200.
In counties, $150.

The occupancy may be under license of occupation from the crown or from any person or corporation.

(6) Or by income without any other qualification.

A person may be registered as an income voter, if he derives an income from his earnings, trade or profession, or from some investment in Canada of $300 a year, for one year before 1st January, 1886.

In counties the earnings may be either in money or money's worth.

(7) Sons of owners of real property are qualified—

(a) Where the father is living and a son or sons living with him continuously for one year before 1st January, 1886, and the property is sufficient in value according to the above figures, if divided between them to give them all votes. If not sufficient to qualify all the sons and the father, then the father and only so many sons as the property will qualify can be enrolled, and in such case the eldest son will be preferred, and then the next elder, and so on.

(b) When the father is dead, and would, if living, be qualified, residence with the mother will suffice, and as many sons as the property will qualify may be registered, with preference to the eldest and elder sons, as in the last case.

Occasional absence from home of a son—not more than six months in the year—will not disqualify, and all time spent at school or college in Canada will be counted as if spent at home.

Son of an owner includes grandson, step-son and son-in-law, and all these may be registered as voters on the property if of sufficient value. The provision as to sons of owners applies to the counties as well as towns and cities in cases other than those of farmers' sons.

(8) Farmers' sons—The same provisions substantially apply to farmers' sons, as stated in the last paragraph in respect of sons of owners in cities and towns.

A farm is to be not less than 20 acres of land.

(9) Fishermen and owners of real property and boats, nets, fishing gear and tackle of aggregate value of $150.

Income voters register where they reside at time of registration—all others where property is situate. If in more than one polling division in the same electoral district the voter may register in either.

All names entered in the last revised voters' lists under the old law, will be entered in the new lists by the revising barrister.

Every person not on the assessment roll desiring to have his name on the list must at once send to the revising barrister an application in writing to be put on the list, giving his name, residence and the property or other qualification in respect of which he applies to be put on.

This application must be accompanied by a declaration which is to be made and signed before a commissioner for taking affidavits, a notary or justice of the peace, showing the grounds of the applicants claim to be put on the list.

Substantially the voters are those who can qualify as owners, tenants, occupants, income voters, sons of owners and farmers' sons.

See that the application shows as correctly and fully as possible the qualification.

Make the declaration before a commissioner, notary or justice of the peace. It is convenient to have it attached to the application on the same sheet.

In case of an absent person, let some one else having a knowledge of the qualification make the application and declaration.

When one cannot find a justice or other person before whom the declaration can be taken let the application alone be sent in, with an explanation of the reason, and it would be well in such case to have the truth of the facts in the application certified on the back of it by one, or if possible, two other persons.

The application and declaration must be sent at once to the Revising barrister of the district.

URGENCY OF THE MATTER.

No name not on the last voters' list or assessment roll will be placed on the preliminary voters' list, unless on application and declaration as above.

In case of any difficulty or doubt, application should be made at once for advice to some of the Liberal friends in the neighborhood.

LACHLAN MCDONALD SENTENCED.—The Galt Reformer says:—Lachlan McDonald, who assaulted his wife with an axe in Galt some six weeks ago, was brought before Judge Miller at Berlin on Friday last. The evidence against him was very strong and he was sentenced to two years and a half in the penitentiary. Alex. Smith was acquitted of the charge of assault. Mrs. McDonald has entirely recovered from the effects of the wounds which she received at the hands of her husband.

CHALLENGE.—The butchers do not seem to be satisfied with the "skelping" they got from the printers at curling on Monday, and send a challenge for another contest worded somewhat as follows:—We, the butchers of the city of Guelph, to wit, do hereby challenge the printers of said city to a return match of curling, on Monday, the 8th March, each side to pay for their own ice, and the losers to pay for a barrel of flour for the General Hospital. The petition has been filed, and will receive consideration in its turn with other such like documents.

HARPER'S MONTHLY.—Harper's Magazine for March opens with a graphic description of Krupp's gun-making establishment at Essen, by Moncure D. Conway, effectively and amply illustrated. The subject is one of exceptional interest because this is one of the largest manufacturing establishment under private management in the world, employing over 20,000 men and owning 574 mines. The article takes its place naturally in the series begun by M'Clellan's article on "The Militia and the Army," continued in Sir Edward Reed's on "The British Navy," and to be still further extended in future contributions. Miss Woolson's novel, "East Angels," now approaches its conclusion, and the reader's interest is wholly absorbed in the heoric character of Margaret. A portrait of the author, printed separately on plate paper, is one of the features of this number. Edmund Kirke contributes an interesting article on the city of Cleveland, which is sumptuously illustrated. C. H. Farnham continues his Canadian articles with an entertaining paper on "Cape Breton Folk," beautifully illustrated by A. B. Frost—one of the engravings, "The Open-air Sacrament," having the place of honor as the frontispiece to the number. "With the Afghan Boundary Commission," is the title of an interesting Central-Asian sketch by Wm. Simpson, with illustrations by the author. "She Stoops to Conquer" is continued, including the first half of Act IV., with more of Mr. Abbey's charming illustrations. David Ker, as the result of his recent visit to Africa, contributes a very instructive and valuable description of the resources and opportunities of the three great river valleys of Africa—those of the Nile, the Niger and the Congo. A good map accompanies the paper. Brander Matthews contributes a clever and pathetic short story entitled "Brief—as Woman's Love." Mr. Hugh Dalziel's paper on "Dogs and their Management" is as useful as it is timely. The author is a recognized authority on this subject. Mr. George William Curtis, in the Editor's Easy Chair, discusses Amerion Opera, and other subjects of social interest. Mr. Howell's Study for this month is devoted to poetry. An excellent Drawer is introduced by Mr. Warner, with some comments on "The INew England Farmer." On the whole the number is one of unusual strength and attractiveness.

MESSRS. HUGH GUTHRIE, E. Morris, B. H. McConkey and D. W. Saunders, Guelph, have been elected members of the Canadian I Zingari Cricket Club.

GIDEON HOOD has delivered to J. & R. Millar, butchers, twenty choice Southdown lambs, the average weight of which is 120 pounds each. They are fine sheep and will be used for the Messrs. Millars' trade.

ALDERMANIC NOMINATIONS.—The nominations for the vacancies in St. Patrick's and St. John's Wards will take place on Saturday. So far the name of ex-Ald. Stull is only mentioned for St. Patrick's Ward, but if Dame Rumor is correct their is likely to be a lively time in St. John's. Among the names mentioned are Chas. Raymond, John A. Wood, John Crowe, Wm. Mann and Chas. Walker. Several of these gentlemen will likely decline.

THE TICKET OF LEAVE MAN.—Last evening the R. H. Baird Company played the Ticket of Leave Man to a large house. The piece throughout ran smoothly. Mr. Baird, as "Melter Moss," sustained the character in an exceptionally good manner. He was frequently applauded and deservedly so, for he personified the character with ability and evident satisfaction to the large audience. Mamie Harvey well sustained the character of May Edwards, and she, too, with Barry Harvey, "Bob Brierley," who were two of the most prominent characters in the play, received hearty commendation in the shape of well merited applause. Edwin Houghton as "Hawkshaw" the detective, Wm. Simmons as "Sam Willoughby," J. Beath as "Jem Dalton," and Fred Stanfield as "Maltley" also performed their parts well. Lewis Barnes had a difficult part to perform, namely, that of "Mrs. Willoughby," and he did it to perfection, frequently provoking the house to roars of laughter. Harry Livingston, in his trick violin solos, was a marval and was recalled. Simmons and Burns in their Irish specialties were also well received. The troupe as a whole are evenly balanced, and give a most creditable entertainment. The play to-night is "Col. Sellers, or there's millions in it."

HANDSOME CARVING.—Mr. E. J. O'Brien is not only noted in Guelph as a carver of rare skill and ability, but his name has become well known in his profession throughout the Dominion. Some time ago Mr. O'Brien was appointed by the Free Library Board to instruct a class in carving in connection with that Board. For the short time since the class has been organized it has made wonderful progress, which reflects credit on Mr. O'Brien and those under his tuition. The work performed by the pupils was such that it was deemed advisable to forward specimens of it to the Colonial and Indian Exhibition. Among the specimens to be forwarded may be mentioned a handsomely carved piano leg, the work of Mr. O'Brien. The border is in the shape of a shield, inside of which is carved in relief, in the centre a bouquet of roses, in bloom and in bud, surrounded by other flowers. The toe is also richly carved. This piece of carving is probably the richest and most accurately executed that has ever been produced in the Dominion. Ano her attractive piece of work, although not so rich is a lyre with ornamental carved leaf. These two pieces of workmanship reflect credit on Mr. O'Brien, and when they are exhibited at the Colonial will no doubt give the above gentleman more than a local name in carving. The work of the pupils is also most creditable, and shows better results than could be expected for the short time since the formation of the class. Among the specimens on exhibition are seen productions from Miss M. A. Doran, Messrs. C. R. Howell, Ed. Neagle, H. Waldman, D. Allan, jr., E. Harris, and E. O'Brien, jr.

NEARLY DROWNED.

A Nassagaweya Man's Adventure at Presant's Mill Race.

John Patterson, of Nassagaweya, drove into the city yesterday to attend the fair. He had a good horse, but considered that it would be advisable to trade for a more stylish animal. This he did, securing a mare valued at about $125. Late in the evening he was seen driving the horse along Wyndham street at a pace which seemed rather reckless, and such as to draw the attention of pedestrians to the driver. About half-past seven o'clock, while Mr. John Colson was leaving his home to attend a meeting up town he heard a crash in the neighborhood of Presant's mill, but gave little thought to the matter until he was crossing the foot bridge at the mill, when he observed a man trying to get a horse attached to a cutter out of the race. He went over to investigate, and found the mare lying on her side in the race, and Mr. Patterson vainly attempting to get her out. The race is covered for a considerable distance from the mill, and it was at the beginning of the covering where the accident occurred. Apparently the course taken by the animal was along the race and when at the end of the covering she plunged down about three feet from the covering into the water, breaking the ice and probably hurting herself. The cutter was standing on the covering. Mr. Coulson assisted in unhitching the horse, and after this was done Mr. Patterson again attempted to get the animal out. In so doing the ice gave way, the mare turned over on her back, and commenced to kick violently. Mr. Patterson, who was then in the water up to the elbows, was caught by Mr. Coulson, who endeavoured to pull him out without success. Mr. Coulson shouted at the top of his voice for assistance, but it was nearly ten minutes before his cries were heard by a woman at Mr. Presant's house, who at once ran and got one of the men working in the mill. His arrival was most opportune. Mr. Patterson was becoming unconscious, and Mr. Coulson had to tax his strength to the utmost to keep him from sinking into the race. Long before assistance came the poor horse was swept away with the current under the covered portion of the race. After the unfortunate man was rescued he rallied sufficiently to be able to walk up town, and was taken to the Western Hotel. Mr. Patterson, on being interviewed this morning, stated that the horse became unmanageable while descending the hill towards the mill and ran into to the river. However, had it not been for the opportune arrival of Mr. Coulson, Patterson would not be alive to-day.

The animal was taken from the race, in which there is about four feet of water, this morning. She was found some thirty feet below where the accident occurred.

The St. Catharines Tragedy.

ST. CATHARINES, Ont., March 2.—An inquest was held this afternoon on the body of Mrs. Lewis Tyrrell who was murdered yesterday evening by her insane brother-in-law, Nelson Tyrrell. The jury returned a verdict to the effect that Tyrrell was insane.

Grand Orange Lodge.

BRANTFORD, Ont., March 2.—The Grand Orange Lodge of Ontario assembled here to-day, Grand Master White presiding. There are about 500 representative members present. The Grand Master delivered his address. The Grand Secretary's report shows that last year the increase of membership was 1,473, and the expulsions and deaths numbered 98. Fire at Niagara.

NIAGARA, Ont., March 3.—About 4.30 o'clock this morning a fire burnt to the ground Mrs. Burton's cottage on Johnson street. The building occupied by P. Lynch, saddler, R. Fuller, fancy goods, and W. D. Webster, general jobber, was completely destroyed. Ross' barber shop add dwelling, Robt. Rogers' and Fred. Best's shops were destroyed also. The latter were owned by the estate of the late Adam Crooks. The shop and dwelling of Mrs. Sherlock next caught, and were pretty well used up. Total loss about $3,000.

A Suspicious Death.

MORRISBURG, Ont., March 3.—The inquest on the body of John Hanifee, found frozen on Saturday morning, closed last night. Evidence was conclusive that the deceased was last in the company of Michael Beckstead, who has not been seen since Saturday. An effusion was found behind the ear, supposed to have been caused by a blow from the whip found beside the body, and which belongs to Beckstead. Dr. Smith, who held the post mortem, testified that the effect of such a blow would be to stun. The jury brought in a verdict that the deceased came to his death by suffocation and exposure, first having received a blow from a blunt instrument in the hands of a party unknown and ordering that Michael Beckstead be apprehended, and dealt with as the law directs.

Over a Bridge.

BELLEVILLE, Ont., March 3.—A serious accident happened on the Grand Junction division of the Grand Trunk yesterday morning. The morning express from Peterboro jumped the track whilst crossing the bridge over the Ouse river, owing to the loosening of a wheel on a freight car, and the five cars fell to the ice below, a distance of about 8 feet. The engine remained on the track. The passengers were all severely shaken up, and four of them were injured. One car, the first-class coach, took fire, but the flames were extinguished by Conductor Morris and others. The names of the wounded and the extent of their injuries are as follows: Mrs. Campbell, Peterboro, severe scalp wounds, her condition is critical; Mrs. Campbell's clothing was burned by the fire in the car; Mrs. Walker, Campbellford, injuries slight; Mrs. Clancy, Peterboro, slightly hurt; A. C. Fleming, commercial traveller, Montreal, severe scalp wounds. The passengers were taken to a farm house in the vicinity and the wounded were cared for by Supt. J. M. Riddell, who was promptly on the scene. A wrecking train was despatched to the spot and the track was in running order by 7 p. m. The derailed cars were lifted to the track to-day.

Department of Public Works.

The first report laid on the table of the House this session was that of the Minister of Public Works. The sum of $3,476,304 was appropriated for expenditure on public works during the fiscal year ending 30th June, 1885, and a further sum of $287,950 was granted. In addition to these amounts, the sum of $386,509, unexpended balance of appropriations for 1883 84, was carried forward, and the sum of $86,923.52 was contributed by provincial governments, municipalities and other corporations, towards the construction of works partly of a provincial character. The total amount, therefore, available from all sources was $4,237,688.77, of which the sum of $2,682,624.35 was expended during the fiscal year, $162,845.90 lapsed on the 30th September, 1884, and the balance remained unexpended on 30th June, 1885, but was carried over by special warrant for the unfinished works then in progress. In addition to this expenditure, the following amounts have been paid under the authority of special acts of Parliament:—Ship channel between Quebec and Montreal $300,000, Quebec harbor improvement $282,934, Levis graving dock $110,000, making a total of $692,931.

From the date of Confederation, 1st July, 1867, to the 30th June, 1885, the Government of Canada spent in the construction and improvement of public works—

On railways and canals	$121,118,976 89

The Treatment of Indians.

The Fort Macleod Gazette does not favour the proposal of the Dominion Government to send a flying column to the Northwest. It says:

"We would advise the Government to keep the flying column at home. If they want to send troops to the Northwest let them keep them as far as possible from this part of the country. If these Indians want to break out, the flying visit of 1,200 men is not going to prevent them, or overawe them to any very great extent. Let the Government have some portion of the militia at the East well and fully equipped and prepared to move at a moment's notice. In the meantime we fancy we can take care of ourselves. If the Government intended to leave the men here, the number of them alone would have a very quieting effect, but the flying column's visit would be worse than no visit at all, and we advise them not to try the experiment."

The Gazette is published in the heart of the Indian country and knows whereof it speaks. Instead of incurring all the expense necessary for the transportation and maintenance of a flying column it would be a far better plan to recall the incapables who with the Government are responsible for all the trouble with the Indians. The Rev. Mr. Robertson, who is Superintendent of the Presbyterian Missions in the Northwest, and who has no political ends to serve, speaking at Ottawa the other Sunday said: "The Indians refused to accept the religion of those who robbed them, lied to them, and corrupted their morals, and when a missionary asked an Indian to become a Christian, he was told to go and try to make white men honest." With such a condition of things it is useless to expect the Indians to be satisfied, and the people cannot be hood-winked and made to believe that it is necessary to declare open warfare against them until the simplier and more humane treatment of seeing that they get what honestly belongs to them is tried. Of course to recall Dewdney and his incapable subordinates would be a confession of mismanagement on the part of Sir John, who appointed them, and who therefore is responsible for all the expenditure and bloodshed on account of their misdeeds. But the people of Canada ought to be more anxious to see good government established in the Northwest than to shield Sir John Macdonald from the effects of his guilt.

THE Professors at the Agricultural College assisted at twelve Farmers' Institutes during the winter vacation of 1885, and at twenty-five during the vacation of 1886. They lectured 185 times at these Institutes, and visited thirty-two counties.

THE Port Arthur Herald some time ago pointed out the difference between the Dominion and Ontario Governments' policies with respect to timber limits. During 1884-5 Sir John Macdonald granted away 7,500 miles for $37,500, while the Mowat Government sold 6,700 miles for $1,616,000. Sir John sold his timber limits cheaply in consideration of public support in return.

MR. CARNEGIE, M. P. P. for West Peterboro', is the gentleman who is always put up by the Opposition to attack the Agricultural College. He explains that he poses as a friend of the farmer because he represents an agricultural constituency. But the Peterboro' Examiner points out that he cannot be regarded as a friend of the farming classes so long as he strives to destroy the Agricultural College, the only institution maintained at Government expense in the interests of the agricultural community. Mr. Carnegie was returned by a majority of 287, but of this total 149 was secured in the town of Peterboro'. Thus the rural community showed pretty distinctly that they did not desire a champion of the Carnegie stamp.

"CANADA for the Canadians" used to be the cry of the Dominion Government, but it was a precept which they never practised to any very great extent. I. G. Baker & Co., an American firm who have received contracts for Northwest Mounted Police supplies with suspicious frequency, last year drew $32,617 on this account. Besides this several branches of the same firm received thousands of dollars for Mounted Police supplies. Last winter during the election in Northumberland it was charged that Dr. Coleman and Roddy Pringle had been sent into the riding by the Government to buy horses for the Mounted Police, and to work in the interest of the Tory candidate. This was indignantly denied, but the public accounts now show that Dr. Coleman purchased forty horses, charging the Government $6,400, and $800 for professional services and expenses. Mr. Pringle sold to the Government 51 horses purchased by him, receiving therefor $8,160, or an average of $160 for each horse. The average price of horses exported from Canada last year, according to the Customs returns, was $129. The farmers can guess where the difference between the $160 and $129 went. Horses were also bought from other parties, including some in the Northwest, but the prices never ran higher $150 and in some cases were as low as $125. Adding expenses, freight, etc., the horses bought in West Northumberland cost about twice as much as those bought in the Territories. But the Conservative candidate was elected.

THE total statutory fees for liquor licenses as proposed to be increased by the Bill now before the Legislature, is as follows:—

	Tavern or Shop.	Wine and Beer.
Cities over 20,000	$250 00	$ 87 50
Other cities	200 00	75 00
Towns	150 00	57 50
Villages	120 00	47 50
Townships	90 00	40 00
SALOONS.
Cities	300 00	$100 00
Towns	250 00	82 50
WHOLESALE.
Cities over 20,000		$300 00
Other cities and municipalities		250 00
UNDER SCOTT ACT.
	Druggists and Shops	Wholesale
Cities	$75 00	$150 00
Towns	50 00	100 00
Other municipalities	30 00	60 00

In view of the increased license to be charged for the sale of the harder beverages it is likely a large number of wine and beer licenses will be taken out. There need not be much fear that the harder beverages will be sold indiscriminately under the wine and beer license, for the law now provides that a single offence of this kind will forfeit the license, while at the same time the machinery for enforcing the Act has been greatly strengthened.

Railway Mileage of Canada.

Underneath this will be found a statement of the mileage of the various railways in Canada in operation on the first of January this year, as nearly as can be ascertained. With few, if any, exceptions these roads are all standard gauges. As will be seen, the mileage will compare favorably with that of any other country in the world, considering the difference in population. The names of the roads are arranged in alphabetical order and are as follows:

	Miles.
Albert Railway, N. B.	45
Bay of Quinte Railway Navigation Company	15
Canada Atlantic Railway	135
Canada Pacific	3,678
Carillon & Grenville	13
Central Ontario	104
Chatham Railway, N. B.
Cobourg, Peterboro' & Marmora Railway	15
Cumberland Railway, N. S.	32
Eastern Extension Railway	80
Elgin, Petitcodiac & Havelock Railway, N. B.	14
Erie & Huron Railway	36
Grand Southern Railway, N. B.	82
Grand Trunk Railway	2,694
Intercolonial Railway	839
International Railway, Quebec	69
Kingston & Pembroke Railway	61
Manitoba & Northwestern Railway	1
Michigan Central, Canada Southern Division	376
Napanee, Tamworth & Quebec	28
New Brunswick Railway	397
Northern & Northwestern Railway	382
Prince Edward Island Railway	196
Quebec & Lake St. John Railway	46
Quebec Central Railway	143
St. Martins & Upham, N. B.	30
Southeastern	85
Western Counties Railway, N. B.	67
Windsor & Annapolis Railway	130
Total	10,027

In addition to these roads in operation there is a considerable mileage on which track has been laid, and which will be open for traffic in the course of a few months, and there will undoubtedly be at least 21,000 miles of railway in operation in Canada by the first of July next.—Toronto Railway Life.

Department of Marine.

The report for this department has been laid before the House of Commons. The amount expended on the various branches of the public service, administered by this Department, including the salaries of the establishment staff, during the fiscal year ended June 30 last, was $1,038,892 96 while the total amount voted was $1,041,232.50, which last named amount includes the departmental salaries. The whole number of persons engaged in the outside service of the Department at the close of the calendar year was 1,414. The total number of lighthouses in the Dominion, on the 31st December last, was 526, and of lights shown 617; the number of steam fog whistles and automatic fog horns was 35, and the number of light keepers, engineers of fog whistles and other assistants, with crews of light-ships, was 673.

The total number of casualties to British, Canadian and Foreign sea-going vessels reported to the department as having occurred in Canadian waters, and to Canadian sea-going vessels in waters other than those of Canada during the year ended 31st December, 1885, was 174, representing a tonnage of 79,552 tons register, and the amount of loss, both partial and total, to vessels and cargoes, so far as ascertained, was $1,210,000. The number of lives lost in connection with these casualties was twenty-one, viz., ten in Canadian waters, and eleven in waters other than those of Canada.

The total number of vessels remaining on the register books of the Dominion on the 31st of December, 1885, including old and new vessels, sailing vessels, steamers and barges, was 7,315, measuring 1,231,856 tons register tonnage, being an increase of 61 vessels and a decrease of tonnage of 21,891 tons register, as compared with 1884. The number of steamers on the registry books on the same date was 1 131, with a gross tonnage of 212,570 tons. Assuming the average value to be $30 per ton, the value of the registered tonnage of Canada, on the 31st December last, would be $36,955,680.

Hugh Sutherland, President of the proposed Hudson Bay Railway, is on his way to Europe. He says the road, which is to be 240 miles long, connecting Lake Winnipeg and the Hudson Bay, will be built at once, and will remain open the year around. The new route will be 400 miles shorter to Liverpool than from New York or Montreal.

Retrospective.

FEBRUARY 27th, 1886.

It is just one year since the opening of my new business at 27 Lower Wyndham Street was announced. The retrospect is a pleasant one. The motto was and has been "Never fear to do right." The policy of the business was to sell good, reliable goods at a fair moderate profit, to sell strictly for cash to always pay and demand one hundred cents for every dollar, to offer customers our best efforts without boring them to buy, to make it a pleasure to call at our store, to eschew all bombast and exaggeration, to keep a sharp look out for advantages to our customers, to unite their interests with our own, to strictly mind our own business, to win the confidence of all our Patrons. Under the blessings of a kind Providence, the year just closed has been a most prosperous and satisfactory one. Our name and reputation have been established, our sales were 50 per cent more than our highest anticipations, and the result of the year's business very encouraging and satisfactory. Our hearty thanks are tendered to our many patrons.

PROSPECTIVE.

The same principles, riper experience, wider facilities, stronger efforts, increased confidence in the intelligence and discrimination of the public, determination and ability to meet the keenest legitimate competition, goods that will bear inspection and comparison and steady persevering effort, will be at the command of our patrons, and we have no fear that though the most strenuous efforts, legitimate and otherwise, will in the future as they have in the past be buzzing on every hand, the business at No. 27 will not only maintain but greatly strengthen the leading position which it has taken.

CHAPTER XIV.

AN INTERRUPTED JOURNEY.

"Go and send them here," said his master.

When Percival was left alone he went to the shelf where Bradshaw was always kept, and began to look out the trains running to Dewhurst. There was one in half hour, and he was conscious of a feeling of relief as he saw it; he felt that he must do something; he must have some occupation to smother the fear which would creep into his heart, and which he kept telling himself was groundless—must be groundless. There was some mistake. Camplin and Stevenson would tell him that their mistress had not travelled by that train at all. By this time the three men had come into the room, and he turned sharply to Camplin, saying—

"For which train did you drive Mrs. Moore to the station yesterday?"

"For the 2.50, sir."

"How do you know she went by it?"

"We waited, sir, and Stevenson here," turning to the footman, "saw her off."

"Yes, sir," said Stevenson in a low voice. They all spoke with bated breath; master and men seemed under the awful consciousness which they could not escape. Till now Percival had cherished a desperate hope, but there was no longer any doubt that Helen had gone up to London by the ill-fated train.

"Bring the dog cart round," said Percival, speaking sternly from excess of restrained excitement and emotion. "There is a train in half an hour. Stevenson, you will come with me."

All knew instinctively to where there was a train, though it was equally clear why Stevenson was to go.

In five minutes the dog-cart was at the door, and Percival was driving at full speed along the lanes leading to the station. The servants at Brantwood were left feeling as if in a nightmare. The unexpected departure first of their mistress and then of Miss Lafone, the fearful intelligence in the morning paper, their master's return and hasty starting off again, filled them with confusion and dismay. Yet in the midst of all their excitement and anxiety it had not escaped their notice that Mr. Moore had neither asked after nor even mentioned Miss Lafone; he seemed to have completely forgotten her, and whether she were in the house or not.

Percival just caught his train. People at the station looked at him curiously, for by the time it was generally known that Mrs. Moore had gone to London by the train about which everyone was talking. There was no other topic of conversation, and in the general excitement no one noticed a short paragraph in which it was stated that an accident had happened to a passenger train just before it reached Miller's Gate. The engine or two or three carriages had run off the line; many of the passengers had been bruised and shaken, but no one had been killed.

Percival thought this journey would never come to an end. He could not join in the conversation. Suspense and agonising fear, which resisted all his efforts to shake it off, caused his tongue to cleave to the roof of his mouth, and made it impossible for him to speak. As in a dream he saw the country through which the train sped, he kept repeating to himself what he could remember of the newspaper account which he read only a few hours before, if not with indifference, with a very easy pity, merely muttering "poor devils" from time to time.

At last he found himself standing on the bank of the river in company with Stevenson and a railway official. It was an awful scene; there was the gap in the middle of the bridge, the ragged broken ends, and beneath them the river flowing grey and sullen on its way, pitilessly mute, refusing to give any sign whereby he might be comforted.

There was little to hear. Every one had perished; no one was left to tell the tale of the tragedy; and their friends could only conjecture what had been the direct cause of their death. There was nothing to be done. Percival stood by in silence with a face which looked almost grey as he heard it all. At last the man left them, and Percival turned away from the group of people who had collected on the spot, and stood leaning against a gate which led him into a field. He was perfectly motionless, his arms were folded on top of the gate, and he stood there trying to realize what had happened to him. He felt dizzy and stunned, as if he could not have stood without support, and he kept repeating—

Helen has been drowned! Helen has been drowned!"

He said it over and over again till the words had no meaning, no sense, and still he kept saying—

"Helen has been drowned!"

He looked straight in front of him without seeing anything. The rich country lay basking in the soft, autumnal sunshine; the sky was a pale blue, flecked with white clouds; the trees stood proudly in their many-tinted autumn foliage; the birds sang and chirped; and a little breeze went whispering past, rustling in the hedge, and bearing away his words. Above all was the sound of the river, as it flowed slowly by to deliver up its secret to the sea.

He did not know how long he stood there. He knew that he was not alone. He had a dim consciousness that Stevenson was dealing out details to the knot of men in the midst of whom he stood; he even caught a few words, but they had no meaning for them.

The first thing of which he was fully conscious was that they were back again in the station at Dewhurst, though how they got there he did not know, and presently Stevenson came us and said the train for Osmotherly was in, would he take his seat.

The man had contrived that the carriage into which his master stepped was empty, and he ventured to follow him. He dared not leave him alone with that cold, grey face and such a strange look in his eyes; but Mr. Moore did not seem to notice it. He sat with his eyes fixed upon the ground and his arms resting upon his knees.

The journey was taken almost in silence. Only once did Percival speak, and then he looked up suddenly saying,

"Did you know, Stevenson, that Mrs. Moore is dead?"

Stevenson felt a thrill of horror run through him; he feared his master was mad, and he half regretted that they were alone. But Mr. Moore did not speak again; he resumed his old position, and did not change it again until he left the train at Osmotherley.

It was getting late when they reached Brantwood. Percival had walked from the station, and he did not move quickly that day. Atkinson had been watching for him, and he hurried to open the door and hear the result of the journey. He look inquiringly at his master; in spite of his face and his silence he would not give up hope. Percival went past him into the library. Atkinson followed, and the old man clasped his hands, crying

"Master! Master!"

For Percival went up to the window, and pulled down the blind.

THE GOLDEN

-LION-

STOCK TAKING COMPLETED.

We find we have a little lot of remnants amounting in all to the sum of $2,263.41.

These must be cleared out within two weeks to make room for New Goods arriving daily.

NOW

In the lull which usually follows Stock taking before the heaviest of the Spring work begins when we will have less time for such a review, we would like to place before our patrons and the public generally the state of our business, and explain why we claim to sell so much cheaper than others.

Our business for the past year has been eminently satisfactory, we having done the largest Cash business which has been done in the Lion for the last six years. Now this in ordinary times would be very encouraging, but in hard times like the present, we consider it most satisfactory and indicative of a reign of prosperity for the Lion much beyond what it has had in the past. Of course we have not had as much opposition, our friend, Mr. Hogg not having applied himself so closely to business as in former years, but this would not explain entirely the great increase in our trade. The reasons are many. We will state a few:

Our Goods are all fresh and new.

Our Prices are Low.

Our Goods are all marked in plain figures.

We have only one price for all.

We handle the Goods the public want, and at prices to suit them.

NO WONDER WE SELL CHEAP.

It is no wonder we sell cheap, as we are almost under no expense. Our Discounts more than pay our salaries, and as we pay no rent, the two principal items of expense are taken out.

NOW LADIES

We astonished you with the variety and cheapness of our stock last Spring, but we expect to surprise you even more this Spring. We have now a resident buyer in Glasgow, who is always on hand to secure any novelties or cheap lines that are thrown on the British Market, so that we will always be a little ahead of others, both in style and value.

RAISE THE STANDARD HIGH.

The Dry Goods Trade is never elevated by one firm trying to hurt the reputation of another, neither will it raise the firm who tries it in the estimation of the public.

We do not propose to lower the standard of a

Respectable and Highly Thought of Business by any such Nonsense,

But on the other hand if there is anything we can do that will tend to elevate the Dry Goods Trade and those connected with us it will be done.

If other merchants in the city have found their trade in advance of last year (and with less salesmen required), we are glad to hear of it, and it speaks well for Guelph and we only hope they will still continue to prosper. As for us

WE ARE SATISFIED.

We are pleased with our business, our city and the people we have met with since coming to Guelph.

It is just a little over one month since we bought the

Very Respectable and Highly Thought of Business of Messrs. John Hogg & Son.,

and we have been told by those who know, that our sales for the month of February are in advance of the same month last year and we propose by attending

Strictly to our own Business

and by placing before the public

Good Honest Reliable Goods,

and at prices that will cause the people to know (without us having to tell them) that we are

Men of Experience in the Dry Goods Trade knowing Where to buy, How to buy and having the Bullion to Buy with.

Large quantities of goods are coming to hand every week from England, Ireland, Scotland and the United States; also from the different parts of Canada, which we are marking at a very low price and passing into stock.

We expect a large Spring Trade and are preparing for same.

We have retained all the old hands and they will be pleased to see their old friends.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

OTTAWA, March 3.

In the select committee to strike standing committees, yesterday, Sir John Macdonald erased the name of Bergeron, Amyot and Desjardins, so to-day when the House met and Sir John moved concurrence in the report, Mr. Coursol moved an amendment that these names be added, specifying the committees. Sir Hector Langevin's remark that he saw no objection to this was greeted with a warm "hear, hear," from many parts of the House. Sir John's action is unpopular, and the House unanimously restored these names.

Mr. McCarthy introduced a bill to constitute a court of Railway Commissioners for Canada to amend the Consolidated Railway Act of 1879.

Mr. McCarthy also introduced a bill respecting carriers by land.

Mr. McCarthy introduced still another bill to amend the Consolidated Railway Act of 1879. It makes provision regarding compensation for property injuriously affected by the construction of railway works.

Mr. Thompson, Minister of Justice, introduced a bill to bring into effect the revised consolidated statutes which he had just a few minutes before laid on the table. The work, he said, would be issued soon, including the statutes of the present session, and would be supplemented by a third volume containing those statutes of the British Parliament having reference to Canada, orders in-council having the force of law and certain other statutes.

Mr. Blake hopod they would omit such acts as had been declared illegal, such as the McCarthy Liquor License Act.

Mr. Thompson said that at the end of the bill it would be seen that the McCarthy Act was obliterated from the statutes of Canada.

Mr. Thompson also introduced a bill to regulate the transfer of land in the Northwest Territory. It provides for four registry offices, one each in Assiniboia and Alberta and two in the Saskatchewan. In respect to the titles already existing the operation of the bill is to be optional with the owners of existing titles whether to bring their land upon the registry or not, but as regards future operations, all titles emanating from the crown hereafter, the operatian of the bill shall be compulsory. All patents in future will be registered. Both as regards existing titles and future, a certificate of title shall be issued by the registrar and this certificate shall, while outstanding, give to its holder an indefeasible title, so that even a rightful owner in point of equity, shall have no right of ejectment. The bill will facilitate the easy, prompt and cheap transfer of land. An important provision abolishes the distinction between real and personal property. It is proposed that land in the Northwest shall be in the position of chattels, thereby sweeping away the doctrine relating to real property which encumbers transfers, and has created great difficulty. The transmission of land by will or intestacy there shall go upon registry as real property. The representative producing his letters of administration shall be absolute owner of the property. The Minister promised to further explain on the second reading.

Mr. Mills recognized that this was an important subject and the bill would be an improvement on the existing law. As long ago as 1878 he, when a member of the Government, introduced a measure on this same subject and the provisions respecting Northwest homesteads became law, but from that time till now they had heard nothing from the gentleman as regards registration titles. At the time he introduced the measure referred to the organs of gentlemen opposite took exception to it, but now they would no doubt accord the subject different treatment. Mnless the bill provided for the registration of partition estates it would be defective.

The bill was read a first time.

Mr. Charlton's bill imposing penalties for ill-treatment of animals and making provision as regards the transportation of live stock on railways was read a first time.

Mr. McMullen's bill to amend the act relating to interest on moneys secured by mortgage of real estate was also read the first time.

In reply to Mr. Wallace (York) Minister White said that 308 applications for licenses to cut timber in the disputed territory since 1872 had been received. Of these 108 were granted in 1883, 126 in 1884, and 3 in 1885. No licenses had been issued for 1886. In 1883, 48 orders-in-council were issued authorizing the issue of licenses and 60 in 1884. For the ground rent of timber $18,000 was received. Three persons are now entitled to cut timber in this territory by license from the Dominion. Sixty-three permits had been issued since 1872 to cut timber, including 14 in 1882, 28 in 1883 and 16 in 1884. None had been issued since May, 1884. Under these permits $37,000 had been collected. No refunds were made to persons who did not cut under their licenses.

In reply to Sir Richard Cartwright, Mr. McLellan said the public debt was $208,605,248.

Sir Adolphe Caron in reply to Mr. Casey said the report of the Commission on Northwest claims would be laid on the table in a few days.

Mr. Carling in reply to Mr. Charlton said 7,240 settlers had settled in Manitoba and the Northwest territories during 1885. The census of the Assiniboia, Alberta and Saskatchewan districts was taken in August, 1885, with this result: Whites, 23,344, Indians, 20,170, half-breeds, 4,848; total, 48,363.

In reply to Sir Richard Cartwright it appeared that since July 1, 1885, till March 1886, the rebellion expenditure was $2,286,960. The amount expended up to July 1, 1885, was $1,700,000. So that outside of compensation for losses in the rebellion, the expenditure in the field, so to speak, and for transport has been nearly four millions.

Mr. Amyot moved for papers and documents referring to the Riel trial and the execution. He made no remarks.

The Minister of Justice said all the papers embraced in the motion which are accessible will be brought down.

Mr. Blake suggested the voluntary bringing down of certain Riel documents already public, and Sir John Macdonald bowed assent.

The Minister of Justice told Mr. Amyot who moved for them that there were no orders-in-council respecting the respites to Riel.

Mr. Casey, in moving for copies of the instructions to revising officers, gave a number of instances in which Judge Hughes, upon technicalities and flimsy pretexts, found excuse for rejecting declarations, and gave a few samples of the absurd reasons for these rejections.

Mr. Chapleau defended the officers, claiming that the Act was impartially administered.

Mr. Cameron (Huron) was on his feet giving further instances of gross partizanship, when the House adjourned at six o'clock.

The discussion will be resumed to-morrow.

ONTARIO LEGISLATURE.

TORONTO, March 3.

Among the bills introduced was one by Hon. Mr. Ross (Middlesex) to consolidate the Separate School Act.

The first order after routine was the third reading of Mr. Awrey's Hamilton & Dundas Street Railway Bill.

Mr. Clancey next brought up in an amended form his motion for drainage returns.

Mr. Meredith called attention to the considerable amounts owed by a number of municipalities to the drainage fund.

Mr. Harcourt asked for a return of the number of persons committed to jail by county judges during the last two years for default of payment under orders of the courts.

Mr. Balfour moved for a return of correspondence touching the swine plague.

Mr. Morris moved for an order for correspondents relating to simultaneous co-examination of teachers and matriculants, together with any regulations of the Department of Education or by-law of the University of Toronto concerning the same matter.

Mr. Ermatinger asked for a return of the number of prisoners in the Central Prison and the kind of work which engaged them.

Mr. Meredith wanted to find out the details of expenditures on the colonization road in the township of Gladstone.

The foregoing motions were all passed.

Mr. Lyon asked for the opinion of the House to the effect that legislation was necessary to provide for the better administration of justice in Algoma, and also to facilitate the collection of school and other taxes in that district. The Attorney General assured the member for East Algoma that the Government would do everything possible to comply with his wishes.

After an hour's debate this motion was withdrawn, both leaders holding it to be out of order.

Mr. Gibson (Hamilton) moved the second reading of his bill to relieve from taxation incomes up to $1000. After a long discussion the question was put, and the yeas and nays being called for, the vote was a tie. The Speaker, though opposed to the bill, voted for it in order to give it a chance for consideration.

After recess several private bills of no general interest were advanced a stage.

Mr. Waters moved the second reading of his bill respecting female suffrage, which, after an animated debate, was withdrawn.

Fergus Correspondence.

ACCIDENT.—Mr Thos. Buckland, sen., Garafraxa, drove to Aboyne to see the smash-up on Saturday, and one of his horses, a colt, became frightened. He took it by the head, when it reared and plunged, taking Mr Buckland up with it, and striking him as it came down. Mr Buckland knew he was hurt at the time, and on going to his doctor was told his shoulder was out of joint. The doctor soon reduced it, and Mr Buckland went home feeling pretty well. Strange that an outsider should be the first injured by the railway accident.

RUNAWAYS.—Whilst two of our young ladies were examining the wreck on Saturday a special train came along, frightened their horse and made it run, upsetting the ladies, but doing no great damage. Dr Johnston's horse ran down the street on Saturday night and to its stable. Nobody hurt and all safe, notwithstanding the street was full of sleighs.

FIRE.—The barn, stables and most of their contents of Mr Wm Stewart, near Belwood, were burned yesterday morning. The fire was noticed about four o'clock. Before anything could be done it was too late, and cattle, horses, etc., were all burned, only two horses and two colts being saved. The loss is very heavy. The cause of the fire is not known.

SHOOTING.—The Metz sports came in on Saturday last, and, as we predicted, succeeded in defeating our Fergus shots by a majority of 9 balls. We would like to see Fergus try them again. We surely have the material to "down" Metz every time. Below is the the score, each man firing ten shots. We give how many balls each man broke out of the possible ten:

METZ.		FERGUS.
John Collingridge	8	J Thomas	4
John R Carey	6	P Grieves	6
R Bell	3	W McCulloch	1
Alb. Smith	4	G Allan	1
— Smellie	4	W Patteson 3 out of 4, and Fleming finished for him, scoring 1	4
Total	25	Total	16

CURLING.—Yesterday four rinks of unmarried men played four rinks of married men. The lone men won by 30 shots. Mr Jas Anderson's rink defeated Mr Michie's by 5 shots; J Anderson's, Mr Reid's by 14; S Anderson's, M Anderson's by 15 and Tom Hughes' defeated Donaldson's by 2 shots, leaving single life 30 points ahead of double. The young old men are now confirmed in the advantages of single blessedness. * * * Four rinks from here intend playing in Berlin to-morrow a friendly match. They drive out, leaving here between 7 and 8 in the morning

CHURCH NEWS.—Mr Ferrier conducted service in Melville Church Sunday morning last; no preaching in the evening. Mr D. McHardy is now leading the singing in Mr Mullin's church in place of Mr Wood, resigned.

CONCERT.—Next Monday night Jennie Watson and Mr Hardy give a selection of Scotch music in the drill shed. These are old favourites here.

SKATING.—McCutcheon, of Guelph, beat our boy Phelan pretty easily on the rink here on Thursday evening last. The race caused very little excitement. McCutcheon went to the front when he tried. They were afraid of each other, and skated a slow race. Walker, of Ferges, won first in Mount Forest on Wednesday night last, beating Phelan.

VOTERS' LISTS.—The preliminary voters' lists have been received here. Our Councillors have received a copy for each of the different municipalities in the riding. This is one part of the expense of John A's Franchise Act. These lists when revised must all be printed again, thus making a fine printing bill and nice pay for some poor unhealthy ill-conditioned, cross-grained Conservative paper. This expense is all in addition to what formerly was, and saves nothing. It gives little satisfaction, to the Conservatives, unless the broken down, and passably-rich-already, revising barrister, clerk, &c. When will we have honest government? When will men do for their country what they would for self? How many farms, offices, or businesses of any kind would stand more than a year or two if their affairs were conducted in the same way as is the government of our country? There would be few indeed. Give us individual, honest independence at the head of affairs and not office at any cost—men who will run the country as their own estates.

COUNCIL MEETING.—Last night we are told was one of the most interesting meetings this Council has had. Mr. A. Perry's tender being the lowest for lumber for the corporation, was accepted. The report of the auditors was referred to the Finance Committee. Dr. Johnson brought on a lively discussion on the question of fire protection in the village, speaking strongly in favour of getting protection of some kind, and favouring the chemical engine as it would be much cheaper. He moved that the question be referred to the Fire Committee, instructing them to bring in some decided report by the next Council meeting, and to use every effort to gain all the information in the matter required. Messrs Forbes and Steele moved that the Fire Committee go to Mount Forest and see their chemical engine. Mr. Perry agreed with Dr. Johnson and the Reeve voted with Messrs. Forbes and Steele and so far nothing will be done. The question was afterwards asked by Dr. Johnson could we do anything for the interests of the village. Over this there was some very personal discussion, most appreciated by onlookers. It was afterwards moved by Messrs. Forbes and Steele that the Reeve, Dr. Johnson and Mr. Steele confer with Elora and Drayton, and see if the G. T. R. will not give single fares on Saturday to their towns as well as to Guelph. It is felt here that the action of the G. T. R. in giving low fares to Guelph is a decided injustice to other places as the railway is a public servant. We here are inclined to think if the G. T. R. will do this that our merchants and shippers and passengers should withdraw their patronage and use the C. P. R.

Fergus, March 2nd, 1886.

[Our Fergus correspondent sends a very full report of the railway accident at Aboyne; also accounts of the County Temperance Convention at Fergus, and of the burning of Mr. James Talbot's barn and stables in Eramosa; but as we had previously obtained these and had them in type it is not necessary to give them again.—ED].

Hespeler Correspondence.

ANOTHER OLD RESIDENT GONE.—We refer to the decease of Mr. Thomas Collins, which has already been noted in the MERCURY. This venerable gentleman was in his 81st year, and had lived 48 years on his farm near Puslinch Lake, and had of course to face all the privations and hardships common to pioneer life; he did so however with a strong hand and a brave heart, and was of course ably assisted by his faithful companion in life who now survives him. He was known far and near throughout the township and was as much respected as he was widely known. We have known him for 20 years, and feel positive that he well merited all the respect that was shown him. "Do unto others as you would they should do unto you" is a motto which seems to have been strictly observed by Mr. Collins. A faithful wife, five sons and five daughters, all comfortably settled, survive him. Amidst the difficulties which pioneer life never fails to involve, he did not lose sight of the importance of giving his family a good education. Three of his sons are at present teachers, Mr. T. J. Collins being Principal of the Brockville Separrte School, Mr. C.C. Collins Principal of the S. S. at Guelph, and Mr. G. Collins was a few years ago teacher of the Brock road P. S., and until recently was engaged in that capacity in the North-West. Mr. M. Collins is farming near Carberry, N. W., and is also, we understand, holding an important public position there. The funeral procession that accompanied the remains of their father to their last resting place on Sabbath last was amongst the largest that has been in Puslinch.

VISIT OF THE ROYAL TEMPLARS TO AYR.—On Friday night last about 35 of the members of New Hope Council of Royal Templars of Temperance from here visited the Council at Ayr. Three sleighs were occupied with living freight consisting of men and ladies. Going and returning would make a trip of about 30 miles, and although the weather was exceedingly inclement they had no stimulants along to keep the cold out. They speak of having had a splendid time, and are not yet done applauding the right royal style in which they were treated by the members of the Ayr Council.

CAME TO GRIEF.—Within the last three weeks two unfortunate vendors of tea from neighboring places, having violated the by-law relating to the peddling and sale of certain commodities, have been before our J. P's. The price of their release from difficulty was some $50.

ST. GEORGE'S CHURCH, Y. P. L. A.—The above Association gave an enjoyable entertainment in the school room last evening, which was very well attended. The programme was an excellent one, and the appreciation of the audience was manifested by frequent applause. Miss Cope, of St. George, was present and added greatly to the pleasure of the evening. Her first number, "Dare I tell," was without doubt the gem of the evening, and an encore was demanded and responded to. In the second part of the programme she sang "Waiting," by Millard, and was deservedly applauded. Gen. Tom Thumb and wife caused much pleasure. Songs were given by the Misses Garnham and Vidal. Mr. and Mrs. G. Harvey gave a duet, "Sweet Violets." Instrumental duets were given by Misses F. Dixon and Rose Holliday, and also by Mrs. J. S. Jones and Miss Furnival. Mr. Harcourt Vernon gave a piano solo. Archdeacon Dixon and Mrs. A. Hogge each gave readings, and Miss Griffiths a recitation. The audience dispersed well pleased with the entertainment.

As will be seen by advertisement in another column, Mr. C. J. Soule, architect, will open an office in Guelph. It will be remembered that Mr. Soule resided in this city a few years, and upon returning hopes to meet with success.

CAPT. G. WYATT, of the Georgetown Cricket club, of Demerara, has organized a West India cricket team, which will make a tour of the United States and Canada this summer. He will have five men from Jamaica, four from Demerara, and seven from Barbadoes and Trinidad.

THE Galt Fire and Water Committee has completed the purchase of 500 feet of new cotton hose from a Toronto firm, for the use of the fire brigade. The question of the purchase of another steamer or a chemical engine will likely come before the Council soon.

SALE OF STOCK.—The sale of Mr. James Cowan, conducted by Mr. James Taylor, auctioneer, on Thursday, was largely attended, and the bidding spirited. Nearly all the cattle were sold as well as the mares, but there was no demand for the stallions, consequently they were not disposed of. The prices of the cattle ranged from $65 to $105 each. The mares brought from $200 to $225 each.

THE directors of the Guelph General Hospital acknowledge with thanks the receipt of the following donations in aid of the Hospital:—From Mr. Jacomb, 14 volumes of the Graphic; Miss Leonora Foster, 1 screen; M. Cunningham, $10; Mrs. Moffatt, 1 rocking chair; Mrs. Harvey, papers; Miss Loghrin, old linen, and from the ladies of St. Andrew's Church, cakes. Edwin Newton, Secretary.

KILLED IN MISSOURI.—Mrs. M. Speight, matron at the Deaf and Dumb Institute, Belleville, received news recently that her brother Arthur Gray Miller, had been killed at Scott's Station, Missouri, on the 23rd ult., in a railroad accident. Deceased was twenty-eight years of age. He was a journalist, and was at one time on the Ottawa Free Press. At the time of his death he was connected with a paper at Omaha. Mrs. Speight was formerly matron at the Agricultural College.

HORSE RECOVERED.—The Acton Free Press says:—Mr W. E. Smith, liveryman, has recovered his horse and rig. The young man Somerville went as far as Niagara, and there run out of funds. He left the horse and cutter and returned home, walking most of the way back. His friends at Limehouse interceded in his behalf and agreed to go for the horse and cutter and pay all expenses if Mr. Smith declined prosecuting him. They were returned in good order on Monday. The expenses incurred in the recovery amounted to $42.00.

THE GOW CUP.—Yesterday afternoon the rinks skipped by Messrs. A. Congalton and John McKenzie played the second game in the first draw for the Gow cup. On account of Mr. George Murton being unable to play third for Mr. McKenzie, Mr. Congalton allowed Mr. A. Bruce to take his place. Sixteen ends were played. After the first three ends McKenzie's rink took the lead and kept it until the end of the game. The ice was in good condition consequently permitting nice play. The following is the score:

Davidson,	Hewer,
Jones,	Patterson,
Bruce,	J. Mitchell,
Mackenzie, skip 20	Congalton, skip....7

CORDWOOD.—We copied an item the other day from the Berlin News in which the worthy editor of that journal took the London Free Press to task for its want of regard for the truth in stating that it saw a load of wood there containing three cords and a half. A gentleman in the MERCURY office this morning, whose word we can vouch for, and who has lived in the neighborhood of London for years, corroborates the Free Press' statement, and says in that flat country it is no uncommon thing to team three and a half cords of beech and maple at one load. The only difference, he thinks, is that up in Berlin they understand beer, while in the St. Clair district they understand cordwood. It all depends from what place the story comes.

SABBATH SCHOOL WORK IN HALTON.—At the annual convention of the Halton County Sabbath School Association, held in Burlington in the latter part of February, considerable interest was manifested in the general report of the schools throughout the county, presented by Mr. H. P. Moore, Statistical Secretary. It was very comprehensive and gave full particulars concerning 42 of the schools, and from its columns we glean the following information:—Out of 65 Sabbath Schools in the county, 42 answered the questions requested by the Secretary. The denominations of these are: 1 Disciple, 1 Church of England, 1 Congregational, 3 Union, 3 Baptist, 11 Presbyterian, and 22 Methodist. Several new schools were instituted during the year, but unfortunately as many have been allowed to become dormant. There are 394 teachers and 1,832 scholars, with an average attendance of 1,684. Number of pupils who are members of the Church, 524, of whom 125 were added during the year; $1,248.16 was raised for Sunday School purposes, $279.75 for missions, and $12.45 for benevolent purposes. The following officers were elected for the current year:—President, Wm. S. Hall, Hornby; Vice-President, Jas. Raich, Burlington; Statistical Secretary, H. P. Moore, Acton; Sec.-Treas., R. D. Warren, Georgetown.

ATTENTION is directed to the announcement of Clark & Thompson on the fourth page.

THE sleighing is going fast to-day. The Hamilton stage came in on wheels this morning.

MR. O. HENRY, Market Square, put up his awning to-day. This is evidently a sign of the approach of spring.

THREE rinks of the Toronto Granite curling club arrived by the half-past eleven o'clock train and are playing a friendly game with the Guelph club this afternoon.

A valuable sample of brick clay has been discovered in Matthews' hop yard, Acton, and investigations have proven that it is to be found in sufficient quantity to warrant the establishment of a brick yard there.

SOME dissatisfaction was expressed on the streets this morning with the proposal to erect a 60-feet pole for the electric light beside St. George's Square fountain. Those who complain say it is not right that the place should be disfigured in this way after so much has been done to beautify it.

THE SATURDAY EXCURSIONS.—Acton seems to be a little jealous over the Saturday excursions to Guelph. This is what the Free Press says:—Acton merchants don't look with favor on the G. T. R.'s Saturday excursion to Guelph. Considering the amount of money that institution gets out of Acton, we consider it unfair to give the larger town such undue advantage.

NOMINATIONS.—Through the resignation of Ald. Wells, in St. Patrick's Ward, and the death of Ald. Hall, representing St. John's Ward, nominations for the office of Aldermen for these wards will be held tomorrow from twelve to one o'clock. The nominations in St. Patrick's Ward will be held in the City Hall and those for St. John's in Hearn's store.

ACCIDENT AT ELORA.—Yesterday Charles Anderson, while working in C. E. Cane's saw mill, was lifting a heavy plank when his hand came in contact with the saw, nearly severing it at the wrist, and in endeavouring to free himself his other arm was also caught and badly mutilated. The doctor is unable to say whether amputation will be necessary or not.

FOURTH OF MARCH.—The fourth of March is usually looked forward to with anxiety on the part of bankers, owing to the fact that notes due on that date are large and numerous. Yesterday these notes were remarkably well met, the delinquents aggregating not more than 25 per cent., or about the usual proportion, notwithstanding that trade generally has been reported quiet.

HORSE STEALING.—The case of Thomas McAvoy, Palmerston, charged with having in company with two others, named Nesbitt, and Kemp, stolen a horse and cutter belonging to W. G. Lawrence, of Minto, on the 1st Feb., were before His Honor Judge Drew to-day. The case was adjourned until Tuesday next, to allow of the appearance of some absent Crown witnesses. Mr. H. W. Peterson, for the Crown; and Mr. Allister Clarke, for the prisoner.

THE INGLIS' PROPERTY.—It is understood that Mr. John Inglis, of Toronto, has sold his residence in this City to Mr. John Moore, who has been its occupant for some time, and that the same gentleman has also bought four acres near the race course, belonging to the Inglis' estate. It is also stated on pretty good authority that the old Wellington Foundry property has been sold to a firm who purpose removing here and starting the manufacture of oil cake and other articles from flax. In the absence of further particulars it is impossible to give the names of the firm or the figures paid for any of the property.

A MILITARY CONCERT.—On invitation of the Dufferin Rifles, Brantford, Lieut. Col. Macdonald, Dr. McPhatter, Lieuts. Davidson, Higinbotham and Hall, of the 1st Prov. Brigade, attended a concert given at Brantford last night under the auspices of the Dufferin Rifles. Among those who took part in the proceedings was Mrs. Whitehead, of this city, who fairly charmed the audience with her singing. The visiting artillery officers from Guelph were entertained in right royal style by their comrades of the telephone city, and speak in glowing terms of the welcome they received. They will return the compliment when the opportunity occurs.

POLICE COURT.—Wright Cartledge was charged by J. Hudson, teamster, at the Police Court this morning, for assault on the 27th ult. The case was dismissed. It is understood that the Chief of Police will have both parties up in a day or two for disorderly conduct on the occasion mentioned. Albert Mayer, who it will be remembered was sent to the Central Prison, on being convicted of stealing a watch, from a farmer on the 2nd September last, during the band tournament at Waterloo, was arrested on his release on a charge of stealing $19 from George Kingeman in a boarding house on Woolwich street. The case was remanded for a week.

A CHANCE TO SECURE A FACTORY.—Ald. Skinner was in Preston yesterday on private business, but at the same time had an eye to the business interests of the city. He found that the firm of W. Stahlschmidt & Co., manufacturers of exclusively fine office furniture, desire a bonus from Preston to retain them. The Ald. represented that he thought certain property at present in Guelph could be purchased for their requirements at a price equal to a bonus. They will employ from 40 to 50 skilled workmen in the manufacture of their goods. This is a chance which the city authorities should not lose sight of.

COL. SELLERS.—The R. H. Baird troupe had another good house last evening and gave a very satisfactory entertainment, the play being "Col. Sellers, or there's millions in it." Mr. Baird as "Col. Sellers" kept the audience in good humor as he announced the different schemes that originated in his "massive intellect" to make fortunes. In the trial scene he was immense. Mrs. Harvey as "Laura Hawkins" was well received, and although suffering from illness gave the part assigned her in an exceptional manner, the strain on her nerves being so severe that she fainted on the stage before the finish of the last act of the play. The other characters were all well given. As the season continues the attendance at popular prices continues. The performance concluded with a laughable farce entitled "Dr. Blue Glass," which created considerable laughter among the audience at the local hits. This evening "Uncle Josh" will be given, besides a variety entertainment in which club swinging, violin and guitar solos, songs, etc., will be on the programme.

Council Proceedings.

To the Editor of the MERCURY:

SIR,—On looking over the proceedings of the last meeting of the City Council, as published in your paper of the 2nd inst., I noticed what I considered unnecessary haste in the appointment to the Finance Committee of a successor to the late chairman. I cannot learn why the custom hitherto pursued, of waiting until the vacancy in the Council was filled before the vacant seat in the Finance Committee was made up, should have been departed from in this instance, and the close division on the motion for the appointment of Alderman Cutten to the vacancy on the Committee, leads one to suppose that the urgency pleaded had no solid basis to rest on. Certainly, Ald. Coffee said, "that there was a lot of work now lying on the hands of the Committee and the sooner a chairman was appointed, and the work proceeded with, it would be better for the interests of the city," but that did not much impress the seven members who voted for delay. And if the appointment of a chairman was pressing, one could as easily have been appointed with an incomplete Committee, as to make up the Committee by an incomplete Council.

But, if we concur with the majority (of one) of the Council, that the vacancy in the Committee should be at once filled up, I am inclined to think the appointment of Ald. Cutten thereto will not meet public approval. The management of the City finances is the most important duty of the Council and the various wards are always jealous of the representation awarded them in the Finance Committee; yet the Council vote on the 1st inst. gives St. Andrew's Ward two of the five members thereon, and excludes St. George's Ward from any representation, although the latter I am told pays at least one-third of the City taxes.

It may be said that a proper representation on the Committee is of far greater importance than the mere appointment of ward representatives, which I grant, but how the Council could appoint on the Finance Committee the proprietor of the Guelph Banking Company, when he was making himself a contractor with the Corporation through the same committee for the city debentures, I cannot understand, except, as Ald. Coffee's words might lead one to suppose, that the Committee was waiting to appoint Ald. Cutten chairman that he might arrange with himself the transfer of the sureties from the City to himself.

I consider the appointment under the circumstances could not have been prompted in the interests of the City, and it may be a matter of doubt whether any member of the Council can legally be a purchaser from the Corporation without the forfeiture of his seat therein. Certainly no man with a due regard to his position as an Alderman would court or accept the dual position of Ald. Cutten in this matter.

I am, yours,
AN ELECTOR OF ST. GEORGE'S WARD.

WASTE OF WATER.—The Waterworks Committee of the Toronto City Council is struggling with the question of how to deal with people who waste city water by leaving their taps open. A tenant in a house, the owner of which neglects or refuses to provide a cut-off tap by which freezing of pipes is prevented, must either allow the water to run during severe weather or be deprived of water by freezing of the pipes. To fine people in this position or to compel them to put water pipes in a condition to resist the frost would be unfair. The owner should be dealt with.

DOMINION ALLIANCE.

The Progress of Temperance as Shown by Reports.

OTTAWA, March 4.—The annual meeting of the Dominion Alliance began this morning at ten o'clock, in the Council Chamber of the City Hall. Senator Vidal, President, occupied the chair.

The Executive Committee's report spoke in terms of thankfulness to Providence for the large measure of success bestowed upon the temperance cause during the past year, and it referred to the rapid growth of the temperance sentiment throughout the country, as seen in the number of Scott Act victories achieved during the year. Since the victory in Carleton County, the Act was submitted to the popular vote in 23 counties and cities, in 16 of which it was adopted, and generally by overwhelming majorities. The total plurality in these amounted to 17,151, while in the other nine contests in which the verdict was adverse, the plurality was 3,019. The reported majority in favour of the Act throughout the Dominion was now 50,000, the proportion of the rate cast being about 60 per cent. for, and 40 against. The defeats were chiefly met with in the counties of eastern Ontario and Quebec. The report expressed the hope that the action of the Archbishop of Quebec and many of his clergy on the question of prohibition would shortly lead to a very different result. In no single instance had the Act been repealed, the unanimous verdict from all Scott Act counties being that drunkenness, rowdyism and treating were greatly diminished. The recent decision of the Privy Council and Supreme Court in regard to the validity of the McCarthy Act had now cleared the way for further and more vigorous efforts in the direction of prohibition. The Ontario Legislature had announced their intention of enforcing the Act and the appointment of public magistrates, it was hoped, would soon follow. The election of a temperance candidate as Chief Magistrate of Toronto was another significant sign of advancement. The abuse of the permit system in the Northwest would, it was hoped, be stopped, attention having been called to it. The Quebec branch was complimented upon its prompt financial response to enforce the law. We might now look for a renewal of the attack upon the Scott Act in the Senate and perhaps in the Commons. It should be the duty of the Committee on Legislation to set forth the actual state of the law at the present time, for the information of both friends and foes. Among the encouraging signs of the times was noted the action of the committee which had been appointed a year ago to wait upon the Government and request certain amendments to the Scott Act reported through Senator Vidal. The Committee had obtained from the Premier the acknowledgement that they were entitled to the amendments asked, but after waiting a fortnight they had been told that the Government would not bring in such a measure and had recourse to a Private Bill.

Dr. Lucas, the Secretary of the Quebec branch, submitted his report which stated that the work in that Province had been advanced sufficiently to give encouragement. The Scott Act was carried in three counties with a total majority of 2,133, and lost in two counties by only 90, in Missiquoi and Argenteuil, where the Act was defeated. The report suggested the increase distribution of literature among the French Canadians, and a more liberal amount of funds was needed. In the Scott Act counties in the Province much good was experienced.

Reference was made to the valuable assistance rendered by the Women's Christian Temperance Union.

At the evening session Mr. J. R. Dougall presented the report of the Committee on Legislation, which recommended the adoption of a resolution testing the attitude of the members in regard to immediate total prohibition. The motion was adopted.

Methodist Church Burnt.

PALMERSTON, Ont., March 4.—A fire broke out in the vestry of the Methodist Church here at 2.40 to-day. A fire was kindled in the furnace in the vestry in order to have the church warm for the revival services to be held during the evening. By an unknown cause the flames broke out in the vestry, soon working into the church. An effort was made to save the building but without avail. The furniture was safely carried out but the sacred edifice is now in ashes. There is a small insurance on building and contents. The loss is estimated at $3,500.

FRIDAY EVE'G MARCH 5, 1886.

The Public Accounts.

The Public Accounts of the Dominion for the fiscal year 1884-85, were laid on the table in the House of Commons, on Monday, by the Minister of Finance. The following is a comparative statement of the receipts and expenditures of the Dominion on account of Consolidated Fund since the first year of Confederation, cents being omitted:

Fiscal Year.	Receipts.	Expenditures.
1867-68.....	$13,687,928	$13,486,092
1868-69.....	14,379,174	14,038,084
1869-70.....	15,512,225	14,345,509
1870-71.....	19,335,560	15,623,081
1871-72.....	20,714 813	17,589,468

1874-75.....	24,648,715	23,713,071
1875-76.....	22,587.587	24,488,372
1876-77.....	22.059,274	23,519,301
1877-78.....	22,375,011	23,503.158
1878-79.....	22,517,382	24,445,381
1879-80.....	23,807,406	24.850,634
1880-81.....	29,635,297	25,502.544
1881-82.....	33,383,455	27,067.103
1882-83.....	35,794,649	28,730,157
1883-84.....	31,861,961	31,107,706
1884-85.....	32,797,001	35,037,060

It will be seen from the above that we have now to face a deficit of over two million dollars. The Government, in the Speech from the Throne, attributes the deficit to the increased expenditure for military service, chargeable to the rebellion in the Northwest, which is put down at something over a million and a half. Another cause given is the falling off in the revenue through the depression of trade. But if we examine into the accounts we will find that this plea cannot be sustained. The collections from customs and excise in 1883-4 were $25,483,199 while in 1884-85 they were $25,384,529, a decrease of only $100,000. But the other receipts of the Government increased in the same period from $6,378,762 to $7,412,471, an increase of over one million dollars. The total revenue on account of consolidated fund in 1883-84 was $31,861,961, but in 1884-85 it amounted to $32,797,001—an increase of $935,040. From this statement it will be readily recognized that the deficit of half a million dollars outside the Northwest rebellion expenditure, is counterbalanced by an increased revenue of $935,040. The deficit, therefore, cannot be attributed to a decrease in our receipts, but to an increased expenditure over and above what we had to pay for putting down the rebellion. In proof of this we have only to point to the total expenditure for 1884-85, which was $35,037,060 on account of consolidated fund, as against $31,107,706 the previous year. This shows an increased expenditure of $3,929,354 for the year, of which only $1,718,259 is chargeable in the North-west troubles, leaving an increased expenditure for the year outside of that special expenditure of $1,211,095. From the above it will be seen that the deficit is due as much to the reckless and extravagant expenditure of the Government as it is to the expenses connected with the rebellion.

There is one redeeming feature in this dreary array of figures, and that is, our rate of interest on our debt has somewhat decreased. This refers, of course, to the loans made last year at a lower rate of interest than previous loans. But this, again, is more than counter-balanced by the great increase in the proportion of revenue which is annually swallowed up in the shape of interests and other charges on the money that we have borrowed. The charges for debt and subsidies increased during the year from $12,937,663 to $15,248,356, an increase of $2,300,000. The increase in the amount annually absorbed for the payment of interest alone is from $7,700,180 to $9,419,482, an increase of $1,700,000. The extravagance of the present Government has increased the national debt to such an extent that despite the low rates of interest prevailing now, compared with even six years ago, the amount of taxes absorbed in the payment of interest alone is $2,400,000 more now than under the Liberal regime. Then, again, our burdens in the shape of taxation are being increased instead of lightened, and it is generally expected that fresh taxes will be imposed this year, in order to meet the deficit. Though the annual taxation is $10,400,000 higher than it was in 1877-78 under the Mackenzie regime, yet with a population little increased, the annual expenditure is $11,500,000 more. Such extensive taxation and such lavish expenditure are being more and more seriously felt every year by the people. Wages, instead of being increased, are being further reduced; work is not any more plentiful than it was, and general depression yet prevails over all branches of industry. And yet, in the face of all this, our taxes keep mounting up, and our expenditure is ever on the increase. Such is the present position of the country, and so long as our affairs are under the direction of the Government now in power, they are sure to get worse instead of better.

THE United States Pensions Appropriation Bill was before the House of Representatives a few days ago. It provides a sum for pensions of $75,740,200, or $15,000,000 more than was appropriated last year. A "red hot" discussion took place on the provisions of the bill. In the course of his speech on the occasion, Representative Henderson said he would rather spend an eternity in hell with a Confederate than an eternity in heaven with a northern Copperhead. The "bloody shirt" still waves.

IN answer to Sir Richard Cartwright, Mr. McLelan said that the gross debt of the Dominion on the 1st day of March was $281,314,532. The portion of the gross debt of the Dominion represented by loans was $14,862,309.

SINCE the commencement of the Parliament Buildings, Ottawa, in 1859, there has been spent for construction a total sum of $4,360,878.76, of which amount $4,244,133.37 was charged to Capital Account and $116,740.30 to Consolidated Fund.

THE Government has at last appointed a commission, to take evidence upon the rebellion losses of loyalists in the territories during the rebellion. This is a step which ought to have been taken long ago, if the Government really intended to act in the matter. But like everything else in connection with the territories, the policy of procrastination prevailed. The commissioners are Mr. Alphonse Ouimet, of Montreal; Mr. Henry Muma, of Drumbo, and Mr. Thomas McKay, of Prince Albert. Mr. George M. Young, of Winnipeg, will be secretary to the commission.

THE Hon. Peter Mitchell is thoroughly convinced that perseverance is the stepping-stone to success. Some two years ago he conceived the idea that some returns in connection with the list of stockholders of the Grand Trunk Railway would be of use to the general public; and made a motion to that effect. An order of the House was issued calling upon the Grand Trunk to forward the required information, but it was not forthcoming until Tuesday last, when Mr. Mitchell asked for the hundred and fiftieth time for the list. It was promptly tabled by Mr. Chapleau and thus one of the Hon. Peter's stock grievances is removed.

The Government are very spiteful towards some of the French "bolters" who have gone against them on the Riel execution. They manifested this in a very petty fashion when the report of the Standing Committees was brought down on Tuesday, by leaving off Messrs. Amyot, Desjardins, Bergeron and Cuthbert, from the different committees of which they were members in previous sessions. It is stated that when the names came up before the committee appointed to strike the Standing Committees Sir John Macdonald said these gentlemen were no friends of his and refused to have them put on. On Wednesday, however, the Government found that the other French members were determined not to accept quietly this malicious insult, and Mr. Coursol when the motion for the adoption of the report came up, moved an amendment that the names as given above be added to the different committees from which they were struck off by the Premier. The Government seeing that Sir John had gone too far, through Sir Hector Langevin accepted the amendment on the condition that the names of other three be placed along with the three first on each of the committees referred to. This was agreed to and so the Government had to swallow humble pie.

Caricature History of Canadian Politics.

[From the Globe, Jan. 23rd.]

In the early part of the present winter the publishers of Grip decided to carry out the numerous suggestions for the republication of their principal cartoons. One of the chief arguments in favor of such a publication is the fact that the earlier files of Grip are almost out of print. The fire which occurred in their Adelaide street building two years ago consumed the stocks on hand, while outside of the office, files are so scarce that nearly $100 was recently paid for a complete copy from the beginning. And even those who have the full issue find them so cumbrous or so expensive in binding that they would much prefer such a digest of the principal feature of the paper as the reproduction of the best cartoons would supply.

While the preparatory arrangements were in progress, however, it was thought desirable materially to enlarge the scope of the work. The cartoons of Grip extend back to the date of 1873, some thirteen years. Prior to that, however, the art of caricature had made considerable progress in Canada, and had been exercised upon the various political questions which had come before the country. The publishers were fortunate in securing possession of several of the periodicals, similar to their own, some of which bear date as early as 1849. Among these are the formerly well-known, but almost forgotten comic journals Punch in Canada, Diogenes, and Grin Chuckle, from the pages of which, as well as from some of those of The Canadian Illustrated News, the publishers are able to select cartoons bearing the portraits of most of the early politicians of this country. It is intended to include in the forthcoming work a number of these cartoons, duly credited to the journals from which they are taken, and thus to carry back "The Caricature History of Canadian Politics" to the times of the Union.

It is also intended further to enlarge the work by a concise political history, prepared from an independent standpoint, by one of our most accomplished writers. This history will be finely illustrated by the cartoons, and will prove not only a connecting link between them, but a very readable description of the times and scenes which called them forth.

The work is dedicated by special permission to Earl Dufferin, recently Governor-General of Canada, and at present Viceroy of India. This eminent statesman and diplomatist writes a very kindly expressed letter to the publishers, which will be given in the first volume. The introduction to the work is written by that distinguished Canadian scholar and author, Rev. Dr. Grant, Principal of Queen's University, Kingston, who dwells favourably upon the merits of Grip as a sprightly and inoffensive caricaturist, and an able and impartial delineator of the salient political points of the times.

The work, in two volumes, will contain 400 cartoons, from the sources mentioned—200 in each volume, and each cartoon will be fully explained on its opposite page. These cartoons, most of which are necessarily from Grip, are being specially reproduced for this work; and, as far as the latter journal is concerned, will be selections of the best which it ever published. A work of this kind will serve, to old and young, as a trenchant reminder of the times and scenes pourtrayed; and the progress of the interested peruser, as he scans the pages before him, will be a charming study of consecutive political subjects, as, each in its turn, excited the attention of the people of this country. It will thus comprise a complete political history of our times—a history the study of which will prove a recreation to all instead of a labour to any. A picture, if cleverly drawn, will often describe a "situation" much more effectively than the most stinging editorial; and this is especially a notable feature of the caricatures of Grip. All who take an interest in Canadian politics, whether they have been subscribers to Grip, and have kept their files or not, will desire to secure this work, as it will furnish to all the best features of the whole publication, in a compendious form, and at an exceedingly low price.

The volumes will be very presentable; half bound, leather back and corners, cloth sides, embellished with a beautiful gilt title, bevelled edges, burnished leaves, fine, highly-calendered toned paper. Each volume will contain 200 well executed cartoons, full size, with explanations and historical synopsis in letter press. The price of the two volumes, best binding, two beautiful works of 400 cartoons, will be only $9.50. The same work in cloth binding, gilt title, will be furnished for $9. This is but a little over two cents for each cartoon, with its legend and explanation, and the binding thrown in. We are satisfied that no such cheap, entertaining and satisfactory work has ever been placed on the Canadian market. The publishers are The Grip Printing and Publishing Company, and Messrs. J. S. Robertson & Brothers are the general agents of the work for the Dominion.

Retrospective.

FEBRUARY 27th, 1886.

It is just one year since the opening of my new business at 27 Lower Wyndham Street was announced. The retrospect is a pleasant one. The motto was and has been "Never fear to do right." The policy of the business was to sell good, reliable goods at a fair moderate profit, to sell strictly for cash to always pay and demand one hundred cents for every dollar, to offer customers our best efforts without boring them to buy, to make it a pleasure to call at our store, to eschew all bombast and exaggeration, to keep a sharp look out for advantages to our customers, to unite their interests with our own, to strictly mind our own business, to win the confidence of all our Patrons. Under the blessings of a kind Providence, the year just closed has been a most prosperous and satisfactory one. Our name and reputation have been established, our sales were 50 per cent more than our highest anticipations, and the result of the year's business very encouraging and satisfactory. Our hearty thanks are tendered to our many patrons.

PROSPECTIVE.

The same principles, riper experience, wider facilities, stronger efforts, increased confidence in the intelligence and discrimination of the public, determination and ability to meet the keenest legitimate competition, goods that will bear inspection and comparison and steady persevering effort, will be at the command of our patrons, and we have no fear that though the most strenuous efforts, legitimate and otherwise, will in the future as they have in the past be buzzing on every hand, the business at No. 27 will not only maintain but greatly strengthen the leading position which it has taken.

CHAPTER XV.

NEARING THE BRINK.

Percival never forgot that first week following the railway accident. Often when he was busy with some indifferent employment, that time with every detail of horror and anguish came back to him, making him for the moment feel cold and faint. He knew that after Atkinson had left him to do in the other rooms what his master had done in the library, he sat down in his usual seat, and remained as if he had been stunned. Hour after hour passed by, and still he sat there doing nothing, taking in and realising what had happened to him. He remembered the stillness of the house. Far away in their own quarters the servants were listening to a l Stevenson had to te l, and lamenting after their own fa hion, for Helen had been popular with her servants, and not one but grieved for her sincerely.

The ticking of the c'ock was the only sound that broke the silence in the library, and that disturbed Percival. He felt as if each beat of that incessant, monotonous sound was the stroke of a tiny hammer upon his brain, as though he would go mad if it continued, and he rose and stopped the clock, after which the stillness became almost death-like. When it grew dusk Atkinson brought in the lamp, and glanced at his master. He had intended to speak to him, but at the sight of his face the words stuck in his throat, and he went out again without speaking.

At last he rose and went into the drawing room. It was only lit by the blaze of the large fire, and looked exceedingly comfortable, just as it used to look before dinner when Helen was dressing and no one was in. He stood in the mi dle of the room and looked round. Some work of Helen's lay on a little table, together with an open book she had been reading before she left home. As his eyes fell upon these things the reality came home to him; he turned away with a feeling of deadly sickness growing at his heart, and went back to the library. Atkinson came in to try to persuade him to eat something, but in vain. He remained seated in his old position, his arms folded on his knees, his eyes bent upon the ground, and so passed the first evening.

After that people began to call. First came the vicar, a man with whom Percival had never had much to do, but who was full of kindly feeling, and anxious to give what consolation he could. He gently suggested that perhaps Mr. Moore would like to put a monument or a stained glass window in the church to the memory of his wife; but the bare idea seemed to fill Percival with such horror that he did not mention it again. He murmured conventional phrases of consola ion, and Percival heard him patiently, if in silence, and when he went away he accompanied him to the door and thanked him courteously for his coming.

A few days later came Mrs. Lafone and Alice. They were dressed in deep mourning, and the coachman and footman wore badges an trappings of woe. They asked for Mr. Moore, and were taken into the drawing-room. In a few minutes the door opened to admit a tall and rather bent man, with a set stern face and streaks of grey in his brown hair, and wearing the same careless morning dress in which he had come home on the day of the accident. Both ladies bit their lips to restrain the exclamations which were on the tip of their tongues; they could not realise that that was the same man who had sat talking to them but a week before, and whose whole manner and appearance had told of content and freedom from care.

He shook hands without expressing any surprise at seeing Alice. Though he had read his wife's note a hundred times during the last few days, and knew why she had gone away from home, he never thought of Alice or made any inquiry after her.

Mrs. Lafone spoke most. Alice hardly opened her lips; and Percival listened in silence, as he had listened to the vicar. He let his visitor talk on, and sat near her with the same abstracted look upon his face which it had worn ever since he knew his wife's fate. Mrs. Lafone had carefully prepared all she had to say, and was in full flow of a very eloquent speech when she was startled by seeing Percival suddenly rise from his chair and cross the room to the fireplace, saying as he went—

"Drowned, drowned, drowned!"

Then he laid his arms upon the mantelpiece and bent his head upon them muttering something which they could not hear.

Mrs. Lafone's eloquence came to a dead stop. It was so plain that Percival had not been listening, had not perhaps heard what she was saying, that she fell half inclined to be offended. But his tone as he spoke was so full of despair, so expressive of mental torture, that she was moved almost against her will. She looked at Alice with a vague idea of taking flight. Percival's behaviour was so very unconventional, the abandonment of his attitude expressed such complete and hopeless anguish, she di not feel comfortable in his presence. But Alice sat still; she was very much interested, she wanted to see the end. Percival remained in that attitude for about five minutes, then he roused himself, and turning round, confronted his visitors again. His face was even whiter and more set than before, his figure more expressive of both mental and bodily weariness. He had apparently forgotten that he was not alone; he looked both surprised and annoyed as his eyes fell upon the two women, and he said—

"Pardon me, I forgot myself at times. You were saying, Mrs. Lafone——?"

But Mrs. Lafone could not resume her discourse. She spoke a few rather hurried words, and then rose to go so decidedly that Alice was obliged to follow her example.

THE undersigned having gone into partnership under the name and style as above, for the purpose of manufacturing the following articles, beg to solicit a share of public patronage.

The Royal Combination Family and Laundry Mangle is the most perfect, simple and easy running machine ever introduced for family and laundry use. It can mangle all kinds of goods from the most delicate to the heaviest, and is the only machine of its kind that can give satisfaction in wringing heavy bed quilts, carpets &c. It occupies very little room, the machine with attachments of clothes horse, clothes basket, (if desired) taking up only 28 inches. The R. B. burglar proof sash lock is a convenient and safe attachment for any window and makes a useful ornament. The new step ladder we are manufacturing is light, easily handled and perfectly safe, and our tack pullers will be found very handy in taking up carpets, and work well. We intend to manufacture other articles when patents are secured. We are also prepared to do all kinds of jobbing, repairing and carpentering, and all kinds of ordered work will be done on the shortest notice. THE GOLDEN -LION-

STOCK TAKING COMPLETED.

We find we have a little lot of remnants amounting in all to the sum of $2,263.41.

These must be cleared out within two weeks to make room for New Goods arriving daily.

NOW

In the lull which usually follows Stock taking before the heaviest of the Spring work begins when we will have less time for such a review, we would like to place before our patrons and the public generally the state of our business, and explain why we claim to sell so much cheaper than others.

Our business for the past year has been eminently satisfactory, we having done the largest Cash business which has been done in the Lion for the last six years. Now this in ordinary times would be very encouraging, but in hard times like the present, we consider it most satisfactory and indicative of a reign of prosperity for the Lion much beyond what it has had in the past. Of course we have not had as much opposition, our friend, Mr. Hogg not having applied himself so closely to business as in former years, but this would not explain entirely the great increase in our trade. The reasons are many. We will state a few:

Our Goods are all fresh and new.

Our Prices are Low.

Our Goods are all marked in plain figures.

We have only one price for all.

We handle the Goods the public want, and at prices to suit them.

NO WONDER WE SELL CHEAP.

It is no wonder we sell cheap, as we are almost under no expense. Our Discounts more than pay our salaries, and as we pay no rent, the two principal items of expense are taken out.

NOW LADIES

We astonished you with the variety and cheapness of our stock last Spring, but we expect to surprise you even more this Spring. We have now a resident buyer in Glasgow, who is always on hand to secure any novelties or cheap lines that are thrown on the British Market, so that we will always be a little ahead of others, both in style and value.

RAISE THE STANDARD HIGH.

The Dry Goods Trade is never elevated by one firm trying to hurt the reputation of another, neither will it raise the firm who tries it in the estimation of the public.

We do not propose to lower the standard of a

Respectable and Highly Thought of Business by any such Nonsense,

But on the other hand if there is anything we can do that will tend to elevate the Dry Goods Trade and those connected with us it will be done.

If other merchants in the city have found their trade in advance of last year (and with less salesmen required), we are glad to hear of it, and it speaks well for Guelph and we only hope they will still continue to prosper. As for us

WE ARE SATISFIED.

We are pleased with our business, our city and the people we have met with since coming to Guelph.

It is just a little over one month since we bought the

Very Respectable and Highly Thought of Business of Messrs. John Hogg & Son.,

and we have been told by those who know, that our sales for the month of February are in advance of the same month last year and we propose by attending

Strictly to our own Business

and by placing before the public

Good Honest Reliable Goods,

and at prices that will cause the people to know (without us having to tell them) that we are

Men of Experience in the Dry Goods Trade knowing Where to buy, How to buy and having the Bullion to Buy with.

Large quantities of goods are coming to hand every week from England, Ireland, Scotland and the United States; also from the different parts of Canada, which we are marking at a very low price and passing into stock.

We expect a large Spring Trade and are preparing for same.

We have retained all the old hands and they will be pleased to see their old friends.

Queen Victoria has no maiden name. Neither she nor her husband had a surname. They belonged to the family (were descendants) of Guelph, Duke of Bavaria, and are called "the House of Guelph"; but Guelph is not her name, as many suppose. A great many people are still without surnames, and Queen Victoria is one of them. DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

OTTAWA, March 4.

Mr. Edgar introduced a bill further to amend an act respecting insolvent banks, insurance companies, loan companies, building societies and land trading corporations. He explained that it was intended to give the employes of banks and other incorporated bodies a preferential claim for unpaid wages similar to that possessed by employees of private firms. The bill was read a first time.

The debate on Mr. Casey's motion for papers concerning the revising barristers, adjourned from yesterday, was then resumed.

Mr. Cameron, of Huron, continuing his speech, produced affidavits of persons whose votes were rejected by a certain revising officer on alleged inadequate grounds. He said that as soon as the attention of Government was drawn to the proceedings of this revising barrister he should have been instructed to be more fair in his interpretation of the law. He claimed that the revising officer in question had placed two or three hundred Indians on the voters' list without receiving application from them. The debate was continued by Messrs. Cook, Cameron (Inverness), Lister, Landerkin, Orton, and Paterson (Brant) after which Mr. Casey's motion was carried.

Mr. Somerville (Brant) obtained an order of the House for a return showing the expenses in detail, with dates, incurred by the several members of the Government, and any other person in the service of the Government, sent to England or elsewhere, on behalf of the Government, from 16th February, 1885, to date.

Sir Richard Cartwright moved for a return showing in detail the sums borrowed by way of temporary loan by the Government on 1st March, 1886, from banks or other parties in Canada or elsewhere. The motion was granted.

Mr. Mulock moved for a return giving copies of all reports, &c., to any member of the Government, or to any department of the Government, since April 1st, 1882, referring to the insufficiency of food, either as to quality or quantity, supplied by the Government to any Indians in the Northwest Territories. The motion was carried.

Mr. Weldon moved for several returns regarding the Intercolonial Railway business in 1885, all of which were promised.

Mr. Laurier moved for copies of all petitions, &c., in favor of the commutation of the sentence of Louis Riel, and for copies of all papers found in the Council room of the insurgents or elsewhere at Batoche. The motion passed.

Mr. Cameron (Huron) obtained an order for copies of all orders-in-council or departmental orders respecting the putting in operation of the act respecting the electoral franchise.

The House adjourned at 6 o'clock.
